Obedience may be enforced to any rule of king's bench, common pleas, or exchequer, againſt any perſon entitled to privilege of parliament, by diſtreſs infinite. ſ. 5.

12 & 13 Will. 3. and alſo this act, ſhall extend to Scotland. ſ. 6.

By 11 Geo. 3. c. 42. If ſeveral parties, on diſtinct intereſts or grounds of complaint, ſhall preſent ſeparate petitions, complaining of an undue election, or return, the ſame notice and orders ſhall be given to all ſuch parties, or their agents, as are directed to be given to the ſitting members, or the petitioners therein mentioned, or their reſpective agents.

No petition, complaining of an undue election, or return, ſhall be taken into conſideration within fourteen days after the commencement of the ſeſſion in which it is preſented, nor within fourteen days after the return to which which it relates, ſhall be brought into the crown office. ſ. 2.

If at the time of drawing by lot the names of the members in manner preſcribed by the act, the number of forty-nine, not ſet aſide nor excuſed, cannot be completed, the houſe ſhall proceed in the manner directed by the ſaid act, in caſe there be leſs than one hundred members preſent at the time therein preſcribed for counting the houſe; and ſo from day to day, as often as the caſe ſhall happen. ſ. 3.

On the day appointed for taking any petition, complaining of an undue election, or return, into conſideration, the houſe ſhall not proceed to any other buſineſs, except the ſwearing of members, previous to the reading of the order of the day. ſ. 4.

If the ſelect committee ſhall have occaſion to apply or report to the houſe, in relation to adjournment of the ſaid ſelect committee, the abſence of the members thereof, or the non-attendance or miſbehaviour of witneſſes ſummoned to appear, or appearing before them, and the houſe ſhall be then adjourned for more than three days, the ſaid ſelect committee may alſo adjourn to the day appointed for the meeting of the houſe. ſ. 5.

If on a complaint by petition of an undue election or return, there ſhall be more than two parties before the houſe, on diſtinct intereſt, or upon different grounds, whoſe right to be elected or returned may be affected by the determination of the committee, each of the ſaid parties ſhall ſucceſſively ſtrike off a member from the forty-nine to be choſen by lot, until the number be reduced to thirteen; and the liſts of the forty-nine members choſen by lot ſhall, for this purpoſe, be given to all the parties, and the order in which the ſaid parties ſhall ſo ſtrike off the ſaid members ſhall be determined by lot after they are withdrawn from the bar, and in ſuch caſe neither of the ſaid parties (there being more than two) ſhall be permitted to name a member to be added to the members ſo drawn by lot; but as ſoon as the thirteen members ſhall be returned by the parties to the houſe, ſuch thirteen members ſhall immediately withdraw, and ſhall by themſelves chuſe two members then preſent in the houſe, whoſe names ſhall not have been drawn, to be added to the ſaid thirteen members; and ſhall, within one hour from withdrawing, report the names of ſuch two members to the houſe; which two members ſhall be liable to be ſet aſide on the like objections for which nominees may: and in caſe ſuch two members, or either of them, ſhall be ſet aſide, the thirteen members ſhall chuſe one or two other members, until two are choſen againſt whom none of the objections ſhall be allowed; and the names of ſuch two members ſhall be then added to the thirteen; and all the ſaid fifteen members ſhall be ſworn at the table, and they ſhall be the ſelect committee appointed for the purpoſes in this and the former act. ſ. 6.

Where the ſaid nominees are by this act directed to be named by the thirteen members, no member preſent at the time of the ballot ſhall depart from the houſe until the meeting of the ſaid ſelect committee ſhall be fixed. ſ. 7.

By 11 Geo. 3. c. 55. John Burnett, Charles Hannington, Thomas Haſelgrove, Ralph Moor, Thomas Parſons, Thomas Snook junior, Thomas Hannington, John Hannington, John Robinſon, William Cheeſman, George Browne, John Parſons, John Curl, Frederick Dean, William Dean, Samuel Tuppen, John Sawyers, Thomas Crowter, Thomas Pockney, Joſeph Dedman, John Dean, John Whiting, William Stevens, John Bawcomb, Robert Parker, John Hogsfleſh, John Purſe, John Dean, Thomas Jennings, John Snook junior, Richard Tilſtone, William Turner, Walter Sawyers, Charles Mitchell, John Farmand, John Wood, Friend Daniel, William Gratwick, Nathaniel Hillman, Thomas Roberts, John Aſhman, William Cooter, Thomas Froſt, Michael Smith, Richard Carver, Michael Durrant, Emery Churcher, Walter Broad, Richard Stoneham, James Bennett, Clement Freeman, William Jupp, Thomas Crowter, John Barnard, James Mitchell, James Millar, otherwiſe Miller, William Newnham, Jeffery Carver, Randall Button, James Carver, John Martin, John Dedman ſenior, William Jennings, William Hards, Thomas Gear, William Ruſhridge, Henry Robinſon, and Henry Hannington, ſhall be from henceforth incapacitated and diſabled from giving any vote at any election for the chuſing members to ſerve in parliament. ſ. 1.

Every freeholder, above the age of 21, who ſhall have within the Rape of Bramber, in the county of Suſſex, a freehold of the clear yearly value of 40 s. may vote at every election of burgeſſes to ſerve in parliament for the borough of New Shoreham. ſ. 2.

The right of election of members for the ſaid borough ſhall be in ſuch freeholders as aforeſaid, and in the perſons who, by the cuſtom of the ſaid borough, have a right to vote at ſuch election, thoſe who are diſabled by this act only excepted; and the conſtable, or other proper officer, to whom the return of ſuch writ or precept does belong, is required to return the perſons who ſhall have the major number of votes. ſ. 3.

Every ſuch freeholder, before admitted to poll, ſhall, if required by the candidates, or any of them, or any other perſon having a right to vote, firſt take the oath (or being a quaker, the affirmation) following:

You ſhall ſwear, or, being a quaker, ſolemnly affirm, that you are a freeholder in the Rape of Bramber, in the county of Suſſex, and have a freehold eſtate, conſiſting of ——— (ſpecifying the nature thereof, and if it conſiſts in meſſuages, lands, or tithes, in whoſe occupation the ſame are; and if in rent, the names of the owners or poſſeſſors of the tenements out of which ſuch rent is iſſuing, or of ſome of them), lying or being at ——— ——— within the Rape of Bramber, in the county of Suſſex, of the clear yearly value of forty ſhillings, over and above all rents and charges payable out of, or in reſpect of the ſame; and that you have been in the actual poſſeſſion or receipt of the rents and profits thereof for your own uſe above twelve calendar months (or that the ſame came to you within the time aforeſaid by deſcent, marriage, marriage ſettlement, deviſe, or promotion to a benefice in a church, or by promotion to an office); and that ſuch freehold eſtate has not been granted or made to you fraudulently, on purpoſe to qualify you to give your vote; and that the place of your abode is at ——— ——— in ——— and that you are twenty-one years of age, as you believe; and that you have not been polled before at this election.

Which oath or affirmation, the conſtable or other proper officer is to adminiſter: and in caſe any freeholder or other perſon taking the ſame, ſhall commit wilful perjury; or if any perſon ſhall ſuborn any freeholder or other perſon to take the ſaid oath or affirmation, in order to be polled, whereby he ſhall commit ſuch wilful perjury, he ſhall incur ſuch penalties as are inflicted on perſons guilty of perjury, or ſubornation of perjury, by 5 Eliz. and 2 Geo. 2. ſ. 4.

Such conſtable, or other officer, to whom any writ or precept ſhall be directed for making any election for the ſaid borough, ſhall indorſe upon the back thereof the day of his receipt thereof, in the preſence of the party from whom he received ſuch precept; and ſhall forthwith cauſe public public notice to be given within New Shoreham, and at the towns of Bramber and Steyning, in the ſaid county of Suſſex, by fixing up a notice thereof in writing on the market-houſes, or on the doors of the churches of the ſaid towns, of the day of election; and ſhall proceed to election thereupon, within twelve, and not leſs than eight days, next after receipt of the precept. ſ. 5.

This act ſhall be publicly read at every election for New Shoreham, immediately after the acts directed by any act of parliament to be read thereat, and before the perſons preſent ſhall proceed to election. ſ. 6.

By 20 Geo. 3. c. 17. No perſon ſhall vote for electing of any knight of the ſhire to ſerve in parliament within England or Wales, in reſpect of any meſſuages, &c. which have not for ſix months next before ſuch election been charged towards a land tax (in caſe ſuch aid be then granted), in the name of the perſon who ſhall claim to vote at ſuch election, or in the name of his tenant actually occupying the ſame as tenant of the owner thereof. ſ. 1.

This act, with reſpect to ſuch rating and aſſeſſing, ſhall not extend to annuities or feefarm rents (duly regiſtered) iſſuing out of any meſſuages, &c. rated as aforeſaid; nor ſhall the ſame extend to any perſon who became entitled to ſuch meſſuages, &c. by deſcent, marriage, marriage ſettlement, deviſe, or promotion to any benefice in a church, or by promotion to an office, within twelve months next before ſuch election; but ſuch perſon ſhall be entitled to vote at ſuch election, if the meſſuages, &c. have been within two years before rated to the land tax, in the name of the perſon through whom ſuch perſon voting ſhall derive his title, &c. or in the name of ſome predeceſſor, within two years before ſuch election, of ſuch perſon claiming to vote in reſpect of any promotion to any benefice in a church, or promotion to an office, or in the name of the tenant of ſuch perſon, ſuch tenant actually occupying ſuch meſſuages, &c. ſ. 2.

The commiſſioners of the land tax for England or Wales, at their meetings for appointing aſſeſſors, ſhall cauſe to be delivered to each of the aſſeſſors, a printed form of an aſſeſſment, as ſet forth in the ſchedule annexed; and the ſaid aſſeſſors are to make their aſſeſſments according to the ſaid form; and ſhall make three duplicates of ſuch aſſeſſments; and ſhall (fourteen days before ſuch aſſeſſment ſhall be delivered to the commiſſioners) cauſe one of the duplicates, or a fair copy thereof, to be ſtuck up upon one of the doors of the church or chapel of the place for which ſuch aſſeſſment ſhall be made; but in caſe ſuch aſſeſſment ſhall be made for an extra-parochial or other place, where there is no church or chapel, then ſuch aſſeſſment ſhall be ſtuck up upon one of the doors of the church or chapel next adjoining; and if any perſon (occupying any meſſuages) ſhall occupy meſſuages, &c. belonging to different owners, the ſame ſhall be diſtinctly rated in ſuch aſſeſſments, that the proportion of the land tax to be paid by each owner may be aſcertained; and the ſaid duplicates ſhall be delivered to the land tax commiſſioners, at their meeting for the receipt of aſſeſſments; and if the name of any owner entitled to vote, ſhall not appear in ſuch aſſeſſment, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch perſon to appeal to the commiſſioners, to whom ſuch aſſeſſments ſhall be returned; and every perſon intending to appeal ſhall give notice thereof in writing to one of the aſſeſſors of the pariſh wherein he is rated; and the commiſſioners, on cauſe ſhewn, ſhall amend the duplicates, by inſerting therein the names of the actual occupier, and of the owner of ſuch meſſuages, &c. or the perſon entitled to, or in the actual receipt of the rents, or by eraſing the name of any perſon improperly inſerted therein; and the commiſſioners are to cauſe one of the ſaid duplicates ſo amended (after ſigned and ſealed by the ſaid commiſſioners, or three of them) to be returned to the aſſeſſors; and ſuch aſſeſſors are to deliver ſuch duplicate, ſo amended, within ten days after the receipt thereof, to one of the chief conſtables of the hundred within which the pariſh for which ſuch aſſeſſment was made ſhall lie, taking the receipt of ſuch chief conſtable for the ſame, and which receipt ſuch chief conſtable is to give; and ſuch chief conſtable is to deliver ſuch duplicate upon oath (which oath the magiſtrates are to adminiſter), without any alteration, at the next general quarter-ſeſſions, in open court, the firſt day of ſuch ſeſſions, to the clerk of the peace, to be by him filed amongſt the records. ſ. 3.

If any aſſeſſor ſhall neglect to deliver ſuch duplicate ſo amended, to ſuch chief conſtable, or if ſuch chief conſtable neglect to deliver the ſame to ſuch clerk of the peace, at the ſeſſions as aforeſaid, or ſhall wilfully alter or deface any ſuch duplicate; ſuch aſſeſſor and chief conſtable ſhall forfeit 5 l. ſ. 4.

At the Michaelmas ſeſſions in every year, the clerk of the peace, or his deputy, in every county, &c. as aforeſaid, ſhall, before the concluſion of ſuch ſeſſions, examine whether the duplicates of all the aſſeſſments within ſuch county, ſhall have been delivered for that year; and if it ſhall appear that any ſuch duplicates have not been delivered to ſuch clerk of the peace, or his deputy, by the chief conſtables, then ſuch clerk of the peace, &c. ſhall report the ſame to the court, and the court ſhall immediately impoſe the ſaid fine of 5 l. upon ſuch chief conſtables; and the ſaid clerk of the peace, &c. ſhall give to ſuch chief conſtables immediate notice of ſuch fine; and if the ſame is not immediately paid, the juſtices in quarter-ſeſſions ſhall, by order of court, iſſue a warrant of diſtreſs for the recovery thereof, directed to the conſtable of the pariſh where ſuch chief conſtable ſhall live; and ſuch warrant ſhall be delivered by the clerk of the peace, &c. to ſuch conſtables, or one of them, who are to levy ſuch fine by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of ſuch chief conſtables, rendering the overplus to the owners, after deducting the charges of ſuch diſtreſs. ſ. 5.

If ſuch chief conſtable ſhall voluntarily make oath at ſuch ſeſſions, that ſuch duplicate was not delivered to them by ſuch aſſeſſor, then the ſaid fine ſhall be ſet upon ſuch aſſeſſor; and the juſtices in quarter-ſeſſions ſhall, by order of court, iſſue a warrant of diſtreſs for the recovery thereof, directed to the conſtable of ſuch pariſh, or to ſuch other perſon as ſuch juſtices ſhall think proper; and alſo ſhall, by order of court, require the chief conſtables, or one of them, to give notice to ſuch aſſeſſor, that ſuch fines have been ſet; and ſuch chief conſtables are to ſerve ſuch notices upon ſuch aſſeſſors within fourteen days after ſuch ſeſſions; and if ſuch aſſeſſors ſhall not deliver ſuch duplicate, or the chief conſtable's receipt for the ſame, to the clerk of the peace, or his deputy, within ten days after being ſerved with ſuch notice, then the ſaid clerk of the peace, &c. ſhall deliver ſuch warrant of diſtreſs againſt the aſſeſſor, to the perſon to whom the ſame ſhall be directed, who is to levy the ſaid fine ſet upon ſuch aſſeſſor, by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of ſuch aſſeſſor, rendering the overplus to the owner, after deducting the charges of diſtreſs. ſ. 6.

If ſuch aſſeſſors ſhall, within the ten days after ſuch notice, produce to the clerk of the peace, or his deputy, the receipt of ſuch chief conſtables for ſuch duplicate, then ſuch clerk of the peace, &c. ſhall deliver the warrants againſt ſuch chief conſtables, or ſuch of them who ſhall have ſigned ſuch receipt, to the proper conſtable to whom the the ſame ſhall be directed, that the ſame may be executed as aforeſaid, and the warrant for levying the fine upon ſuch aſſeſſor ſhall not be executed. ſ. 7.

The fines impoſed upon ſuch chief conſtables and aſſeſſors ſhall, after recovered, be, by the perſon who ſhall levy the ſame, paid to the treaſurer of the county, to be applied as part of the county ſtock, under the direction of the ſeſſions. ſ. 8.

Whenever any aſſeſſment ſhall not have been made by the aſſeſſor and returned to the chief conſtable, and by the chief conſtable to the clerk of the peace, by the neglect of any perſon concerned therein, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices at quarter-ſeſſions, or two juſtices out of ſeſſions, to order ſuch aſſeſſment forthwith to be made in manner aforeſaid; and ſuch aſſeſſments ſo made, ſhall have the ſame effect as if made at the time before directed. ſ. 9.

Any perſon diſſatisfied, or aggrieved by any determination of the commiſſioners, may appeal to the general quarter-ſeſſions next after the cauſe of complaint ſhall have ariſen, giving ten days notice of ſuch appeal to one of the commiſſioners ſigning the duplicate of the aſſeſſment, and alſo to one of the aſſeſſors of the pariſh where the eſtate ſhall lie; and ſuch ſeſſions are, by examination upon oath, to hear and determine the matter of ſuch appeal, and to amend ſuch aſſeſſments where they think neceſſary; and alſo to award coſts; and by order or warrant to levy the coſts awarded, by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the perſon againſt whom the ſame ſhall be awarded, rendering the overplus to the owner, after deducting the charges of diſtreſs. ſ. 10.

If the commiſſioners upon appeal, and alſo the ſeſſions upon appeal, ſhall find it requiſite to inſert in ſuch aſſeſſments, or the duplicates thereof, the names of any perſon which ſhall appear to have been omitted, ſuch perſon ſhall be deemed to be rated in ſuch aſſeſſment, as effectually as if the name had been originally inſerted in ſuch aſſeſſment by the aſſeſſors. ſ. 11.

Where any woman, the widow of any perſon tenant in fee or in tail, ſhall be entitled to dower, out of the freehold eſtate of which her huſband died ſeiſed, and ſhall intermarry with a ſecond huſband, ſuch ſecond huſband ſhall be entitled to vote in reſpect of ſuch dower, if ſuch dower ſhall be of the clear yearly value of 40 s. although the ſame has not been ſet out by metes or bounds, if ſuch huſband ſhall be in the actual receipt of the profits of ſuch dower, and the eſtate from whence the ſame iſſues is rated to the land tax in the name of the actual owner. ſ. 12.

It ſhall be lawful for all perſons to inſpect the duplicates in the hands of ſuch clerk of the peace, or his deputy, paying for every ſearch 1 s.; and the clerk of the peace, &c. is, upon demand, to deliver a true copy of all ſuch duplicates, or of ſuch part, of which a copy ſhall be demanded, to any perſon who ſhall demand the ſame (ſuch copy to be ſigned by ſuch clerk of the peace, or deputy, purporting the ſame to be a true copy), and for which copy ſuch clerk of the peace ſhall be paid at the rate of ſixpence for every three hundred words or figures; which ſaid duplicates, and alſo a true copy of them, ſigned as aforeſaid, and alſo the duplicate of any aſſeſſment in the poſſeſſion of the commiſſioners of land tax, or the receiver-general, or a copy of the ſaid duplicates, ſigned by ſuch commiſſioners, and purporting the ſame to be a true copy, ſhall be admitted as legal evidence, in all caſes whatſoever; and ſuch copy ſhall be delivered in a reaſonable time after demanded. ſ. 13.

Such clerk of the peace, in whoſe office ſuch duplicates ſhall be filed, or his deputy, ſhall, upon reaſonable notice, attend at every election of a knight of the ſhire, with the original duplicates, at the requeſt of any candidate; the perſon requeſting the ſame making ſuch clerk of the peace, or his deputy, a ſatisfaction for ſuch attendance, at the rate of two guineas per day, together with an allowance of 1 s. 6 d. a mile for the charges he may be at in his journey from the place of his abode to and from the place of election. ſ. 14.

After iſſuing any writ or precept for the election of a knight of the ſhire within England or Wales, the clerk of the peace, or his deputy, ſhall attend gratis, from day to day, from nine in the forenoon to three in the afternoon in each day, at the place where the records of the county are kept, from the time of the delivery of ſuch notice to the day immediately preceding the day of election, for the purpoſe of receiving applications for the inſpection of ſuch duplicates, and for making copies of them. ſ. 15.

If any clerk of the peace, or his deputy, ſhall neglect or refuſe to permit ſuch duplicates to be inſpected, or ſhall neglect or refuſe to deliver any copy of the ſame, or ſhall neglect to attend at the place where the records are kept, or at any county election, with ſuch duplicates, in purſuance of this act; ſuch clerk of the peace, or his deputy, ſhall forfeit 500 l. to the party aggrieved, provided ſuch action is brought within two months; and if no action is brought within the ſaid time, then to any perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame as after-mentioned; and ſhall alſo forfeit his office, the ſame to be abſolutely void on ſuch clerk of the peace, or his deputy, being convicted of ſuch offence; and ſuch clerk of the peace, or his deputy, ſhall be rendered incapable of being again appointed a clerk of the peace, or deputy, or of acting as ſuch in any county, riding, or diviſion whatſoever. ſ. 16.

Final judgment upon any verdict obtained againſt ſuch clerk, or deputy, for the recovery of ſuch forfeiture, ſhall be deemed a ſufficient conviction of ſuch offence, without any other proſecution whatſoever; and immediately after ſuch judgment, the ſaid office ſhall be abſolutely void. ſ. 17.

The forfeitures impoſed againſt ſuch clerk of the peace, or deputy, ſhall be recovered with coſts, by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter. ſ. 18.

No perſon ſhall be liable to any forfeiture, by this act, unleſs proſecution be commenced within twelve months. ſ. 19.

By

By 21 Geo. 3. c. 54. The right of election for the city of Coventry is declared to be in the freemen, having ſerved 7 years apprenticeſhip, not receiving alms, being ſworn and inrolled.

By 22 Geo. 3. c. 41. No commiſſioner, collector, ſupervisor, gauger, or other officer or perſon whatſoever, concerned or employed in the exciſe, or any part thereof; nor any commiſſioner, collector, comptroller, ſearcher, or other officer or perſon whatſoever, concerned or employed in the cuſtoms, or any part thereof; nor any commiſſioner, officer, or other perſon concerned or employed in managing any of the duties on ſtamped vellum, &c. nor any perſon appointed by the commiſſioners for diſtributing of ſtamps; nor any commiſſioner, officer, or other perſon employed in managing any of the duties on ſalt; nor any ſurveyor, collector, comptroller, inſpector, officer, or other perſon employed in collecting, &c. the duties on windows or houſes; nor any poſtmaſter, poſtmaſters general, or their deputies, or any perſon employed under them in the revenue of the poſt office, or any part thereof; nor any captain, maſter, or mate of any ſhip, packet, or other veſſel, employed by the poſtmaſter general in conveying the mail to and from foreign ports, ſhall be capable of giving his vote for the election of any knight of the ſhire, commiſſioner, citizen, burgeſs, or baron, to ſerve in parliament for any county, ſtewartry, city, borough, or cinque port, or for chooſing any delegate in whom the right of electing members to ſerve in parliament for Scotland is veſted: and if any perſon, hereby made incapable of voting, ſhall nevertheleſs preſume to give his vote, during the time he ſhall hold, or within twelve months after he ſhall ceaſe to hold or execute any of the offices aforeſaid, contrary to this act, ſuch votes ſhall be void; and every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit 100 l.; one moiety to the informer, and the other to be immediately paid into the hands of the treaſurer of the county, &c. in England; and into the hands of the clerk of the juſtices of the peace of the counties or ſtewartries in Scotland, to be diſpoſed of to ſuch purpoſes as the next general quarter-ſeſſion ſhall think fit; to be recovered by any perſon that ſhall ſue for the ſame, by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter, or by ſummary complaint before the court of ſeſſion in Scotland; and the perſon convicted on ſuch ſuit ſhall thereby become incapable of ever bearing any office or place of truſt under his majeſty. ſ. 1.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to any commiſſioner of the land tax, or for acting under the appointment of ſuch commiſſioners, for the purpoſe of aſſeſſing, collecting, &c. the land tax. ſ. 2.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to any office held by letters patent for any eſtate of inheritance or freehold. ſ. 3.

No perſon ſhall be liable to any forfeiture, unleſs proſecution be commenced within twelve months. ſ. 5.

By 22 Geo. 3. c. 45. Any perſon who ſhall, directly or indirectly, himſelf, or by any perſon in truſt for him, or for his uſe, or on his account, undertake, execute, hold, or enjoy, in the whole or in part, any contract, agreement, or commiſſion, made or entered into with the commiſſioners of the treaſury, or of the navy or victualling office, or with the maſter general or board of ordnance, or with any of ſuch commiſſioners, or with any other perſon on account of the public ſervice; or ſhall knowingly furniſh, in purſuance of ſuch agreement, &c. any money to be remitted abroad, or any wares to be uſed in the ſervice of the public, ſhall be incapable of being elected, or of ſitting or voting as a member of the houſe of commons, during the time he ſhall enjoy ſuch contract, &c. or any ſhare thereof, or any benefit ariſing from the ſame. ſ. 1.

If any perſon, being a member, ſhall, directly or indirectly, himſelf, or by any other perſon in truſt for him, enter into any ſuch contract, &c. as aforeſaid; and if any member having already entered into any ſuch contract, &c. ſhall, after the commencement of the next ſeſſion of parliament, continue to hold, execute, or enjoy the ſame, or any part thereof, the ſeat of every ſuch perſon ſhall be void. ſ. 2.

Nothing herein ſhall extend to any contract, agreement, or commiſſion, made, entered into, or accepted, by any incorporated trading company in its corporate capacity, nor to any company now eſtabliſhed and conſiſting of more than ten perſons, where ſuch contract, &c. ſhall be made for the general benefit of ſuch company. ſ. 3.

If any perſon hereby diſabled to ſit or vote in parliament, ſhall nevertheleſs be returned as a member for any county, &c. ſuch election and return are void: and if any perſon, diſabled and declared incapable to be elected, ſhall preſume to ſit or vote as a member, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 500 l. for every day in which he ſhall ſit or vote, to any perſon who ſhall ſue in any court at Weſtminſter; and the money forfeited ſhall be recovered by the perſon ſuing, with coſts, by action of debt, &c.; or by ſummary complaint before the court of ſeſſion in Scotland; and every perſon againſt whom ſuch penalty ſhall be recovered, ſhall be from thenceforth incapable of holding any contract, &c. for the public ſervice, or any ſhare thereof, or any benefit from the ſame. ſ. 9.

In every contract, &c. there ſhall be inſerted an expreſs condition, that no member of the houſe of commons be admitted to any ſhare of ſuch contract, or to any benefit therefrom: and in caſe any perſon who ſhall enter into ſuch contract, ſhall admit any member to any ſhare thereof, or to receive any benefit thereby, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 500 l.; to be recovered, with coſts, in any court of record at Weſtminſter, by any perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame, by action of debt, &c.; or by ſummary complaint before the court of ſeſſion in Scotland. ſ. 10.

No perſon ſhall be liable to any forfeiture by this act, unleſs proſecution be commenced within twelve months. ſ. 11.

By 24 Geo. 3. c. 26. It ſhall be lawful for the ſpeaker of the houſe of commons, during any receſs, whether by prorogation or adjournment, to iſſue his warrant to the clerk of the crown, to make out a new writ for electing a member of the houſe of commons in the room of any member who ſhall die, or become a peer, either during the receſs, or previous thereto, as ſoon as he ſhall receive notice, by a certificate, under the hands of two members, of the death of ſuch member, in the firſt caſe; and in the ſecond caſe, that a writ of ſummons hath been iſſued, under the great ſeal, to ſummon ſuch peer to parliament; which certificate may be in the form in the ſchedule annexed. ſ. 2.

The ſpeaker ſhall forthwith, after receiving ſuch certificate, cauſe notice thereof to be inſerted in the London Gazette, and ſhall not iſſue his warrant until fourteen days after the inſertion of ſuch notice in the Gazette. ſ. 3.

Nothing herein ſhall enable the ſpeaker to iſſue his warrant for the purpoſes aforeſaid, unleſs the return of the writ (by virtue of which ſuch member deceaſed, or become a peer, was elected) ſhall have been brought into the office of the clerk of the crown, fifteen days before the end of the laſt ſitting of the houſe, immediately preceding the time when ſuch application ſhall be made to the ſpeaker to iſſue ſuch warrant; nor unleſs ſuch application ſhall be made ſo long before the then next meeting of the houſe for the diſpatch of buſineſs, as that the writ for election may be iſſued before the day of ſuch next meeting, nor in caſe ſuch application ſhall be made with reſpect to any ſeat in that houſe, which ſhall have been vacated by any member, againſt whoſe election and return a petition was depending, at the time of the laſt prorogation or adjournment. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for the ſpeaker, and he is hereby required, within a convenient time, after he ſhall be in that office, at the beginning of any parliament, by any inſtrument in writing under his hand and ſeal, to appoint not more than ſeven, nor leſs than three, members of the houſe, thereby authoriſing them, or one of them, to execute all the powers given to the ſpeaker, for iſſuing ſuch warrants by virtue of this act, ſubject nevertheleſs to ſuch regulations as are herein contained, which appointment ſhall, notwithſtanding the death of the ſpeaker making the ſame, or the vacating his ſeat, continue in full force until the diſſolution of the parliament. ſ. 5.

Whenever the ſaid perſons ſhall, by death, or by their ſeats being vacated, be reduced to leſs than three, it ſhall be lawful for the ſpeaker to make a new appointment as before directed. ſ. 6.

Such appointment ſhall be entered in the journals of the houſe, and be alſo publiſhed once in the London Gazette; and the inſtrument of ſuch appointment ſhall be preſerved by the clerk of the houſe, and a duplicate thereof ſhall be filed in the office of the clerk of the crown in chancery. ſ. 7.

Nothing in this act ſhall give power to any perſon ſo appointed, except in the caſe of there being no ſpeaker, or of his being out of the realm, nor for any longer time than ſuch perſon ſhall continue a member of the houſe. ſ. 8.

The publiſher of the Gazette, when ſuch notice of the iſſuing of any warrant ſhall be brought him, ſigned by any perſon ſo appointed, ſhall give a receipt for the ſame, ſpecifying the day and hour when the ſame was received; and in caſe more than one ſuch notice ſhall be brought to him, relative to the ſame election, ſuch publiſher ſhall inſert in the Gazette, only the notice firſt received. ſ. 9.

SCHEDULE.

WE whoſe names are underwritten, being two members of the houſe of commons, do hereby certify, that M. P. late a member of the ſaid houſe, ſerving as one of the knights of the ſhire for the county of —— [or as the caſe may be] died upon the ——— day of ——— [or is become a peer of Great Britain, and that a writ of ſummons hath been iſſued, under the great ſeal of Great Britain, to ſummon him to parliament], [as the caſe may be]; and we give you this notice, to the intent that you may iſſue your warrant to the clerk of the crown, to make out a new writ for the election of a knight to ſerve in parliament for the ſaid county of ——— [or as the caſe may be] in the room of the ſaid M. P. Given under our hands this ——— day of ———

To the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons.

Note, That in caſe there ſhall be no ſpeaker of the houſe of commons, or of his abſence out of the realm, ſuch certificate may be addreſſed to any one of the perſons appointed according to the directions of this act.

By 25 Geo. 3. c. 84. Every poll, demanded at any election within England, Wales, or for Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall commence on the day upon which the ſame ſhall be demanded, or upon the next day at fartheſt (unleſs it be a Sunday, and then on the day after); and ſhall be proceeded in from day to day (Sundays excepted) until finiſhed, ſo as no poll continue more than 15 days; and if ſuch poll continue until the 15th day, then the ſame ſhall be finally cloſed at or before three in the afternoon of the ſame day; and the returning officer ſhall immediately, or on the day next after the final cloſe of the poll, declare the names of the perſons who have the majority of votes, and ſhall forthwith make a return of ſuch perſons, unleſs the returning officer, upon a ſcrutiny being demanded by any candidate, or two electors, ſhall deem it neceſſary to grant the ſame: in which caſe it ſhall be lawful for him ſo to do, and to proceed thereupon, but ſo as that in all caſes of a general election, every returning officer ſhall cauſe a return of members to be filed in the crown office on or before the day on which ſuch writ is returnable; and every other returning officer acting under a precept ſhall make a return at leaſt ſix days before the return of the writ; and ſo that upon a writ iſſued during a ſeſſion or prorogation, and a ſcrutiny being granted, then that a return ſhall be made within 30 days after the cloſe of the poll, or ſooner, if convenient. ſ. 1.

Whenever a ſcrutiny ſhall be granted, and there ſhall be more parties than one objecting to votes on ſuch ſcrutiny, the returning officer ſhall decide alternately on the votes given for the different candidates. ſ. 2.

Every returning officer, unleſs prevented by accident, ſhall, during the poll, on every day cauſe the ſaid poll to be kept open for ſeven hours at the leaſt, between eight in the morning and eight at night. ſ. 3.

After the receipt of the writ for making an election for knights of the ſhire, and indorſing on the back thereof the day of receiving the ſame, the ſheriff is, within two days after receipt thereof, to cauſe proclamation to be made at the place where the election ought to be holden, of a ſpecial county court to be there holden for ſuch election only, on any day, Sunday excepted, not later from the day of making ſuch proclamation, than the 16th, nor ſooner than the 10th; and he ſhall proceed in ſuch election, at ſuch court, as if the election was to be held at a county court, or at an adjourned county court; provided the uſual county court for all other purpoſes, or any adjournment thereof, ſhall be held and proceeded in by the ſheriff as if the writ for the election of knights of the ſhire had not been received. ſ. 4.

Upon every election within England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, in all caſes where no oath or affirmation of qualification, other than againſt bribery, or of allegiance, ſupremacy, and abjuration, can now be required, every perſon claiming to vote, ſhall (if required by any candidate, or perſon having a right to vote) before admitted to poll, take the oath (or affirmation) following, viz.

I do ſwear (or being a quaker do affirm) that my name is A. B. and that I am ——— (ſpecifying the addition, profeſſion, or trade of ſuch perſon), and that the place of my abode is at ——— in the county of ——— (and if it is a town conſiſting of more ſtreets than one, ſpecifying what ſtreet); and that I have not before polled at this election; and that I verily believe myſelf to be of the full age of 21 years.

Which the returning officer, and his deputies and poll clerks are to adminiſter. ſ. 3.

Upon every election for any county, city, borough, or place, within England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, the return-returning officers, if they ſee cauſe, are, during the continuance of any ſcrutiny, to adminiſter an oath to any perſon conſenting to take the ſame, touching the right of any perſon having voted at ſuch election, or touching any other matter material towards carrying on ſuch ſcrutiny. ſ. 6.

At every election within England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, every perſon whom the returning officer ſhall retain to act as a clerk in taking the poll, ſhall, before beginning to take ſuch poll, be ſworn by ſuch returning officer, truly and indifferently to take the poll, and to ſet down the name of each voter, and his addition, and place of abode, and for whom he ſhall poll; and to poll no perſon who is not ſworn or put to his affirmation, where by ſtatute required, which oath, of ſuch poll clerk, the returning officer is to adminiſter. ſ. 7.

If any perſon taking an oath or affirmation before any returning officer, ſhall commit wilful perjury, or if any perſon ſhall ſuborn any other perſon to take any ſuch oath or affirmation, whereby he ſhall commit perjury, he ſhall incur ſuch pains as are inflicted in 5 Eliz. c. 9. and 2 Geo. 2. c. 25. ſ. 8.

Nothing in this act ſhall affect, alter, or regulate the election for any place where particular regulations, touching the duration of polls and ſcrutinies, are enacted by ſtatute. ſ. 9.

If upon any writ iſſued for election of members, no return ſhall be made to the ſame on or before the day on which ſuch writ is made returnable; or if a writ ſhall have been iſſued during any ſeſſion or prorogation, and no return ſhall be made to the ſame within 52 days after the day on which ſuch writ bears date; or if the return made in either of ſuch caſes ſhall not be a return of members, according to the requiſition thereof, but contain ſpecial matters only concerning ſuch election, it ſhall be lawful for any perſon, having had a right to vote at ſuch election, or claiming to have had a right to be returned, as duly elected thereat, who ſhall think himſelf aggrieved, to petition the houſe of commons concerning the ſame; and upon ſuch petition being preſented, a day and hour ſhall be appointed for taking the ſame into conſideration, and notice thereof in writing ſhall be forthwith given by the ſpeaker to the petitioners, and to the returning officer, accompanied with an order to them to attend the houſe at the time appointed, according to 10 Geo. 3. c. 16. and 11 Geo. 3. c. 42. for regulating the trial of controvered elections; which committee ſhall try whether the perſons named in ſuch petition ought to have been returned, or whether a new writ ought to iſſue; which determination ſhall be final; and the houſe being informed thereof by the chairman of the ſelect committee, ſhall order the ſame to be entered on their journals, and give directions for ordering a return to be made, or for altering the return if made, or for iſſuing a new writ, or for carrying the ſaid determination into execution. ſ. 10.

The rules, &c. preſcribed by the ſaid acts, ſhall be in full force with reſpect to ſelect committees appointed by virtue of this act. ſ. 11.

If the returning officer cannot be found, to be ſerved with the notice or order before mentioned, or being ſerved, ſhall not appear by himſelf, counſel, or agents, at the day appointed for taking ſuch petition into conſideration, the houſe may authoriſe any perſon to appear in the ſtead of him, and in caſe there ſhall be more petitions than one preſented, complaining of ſuch return, or omiſſion of a return, on diſtinct intereſts, or different grounds, the houſe ſhall determine from the nature of the caſe, whether the returning officer, or perſon appearing in the ſtead of him, ſhall, together with ſuch petitioners, be entitled to ſtrike off from the liſt of members drawn by lot, as directed by 11 Geo. 3. in the caſe where there ſhall be more than two parties before the houſe, or whether ſuch liſt ſhall be reduced by the parties ſeverally preſenting the ſaid petitions only. ſ. 12.

If any ſheriff, or other returning officer who ſhall preſide at any election, ſhall wilfully act contrary to this act, ſuch perſon ſhall be liable to be proſecuted by information or indictment in the king's bench, or at any court of oyer and terminer, great ſeſſions, or gaol delivery, in which no nolle proſequi or ceſſet proceſſus ſhall be granted. ſ. 13.

If any ſheriff or returning officer ſhall wilfully delay, neglect, or refuſe duly to return any perſon who ought to be returned, ſuch perſon may, in caſe it ſhall be determined by a ſelect committee, appointed as before directed, that ſuch perſon was entitled to have been returned, ſue the ſheriff, or officer, and ſhall recover double the damages he ſhall ſuſtain, together with coſts. ſ. 14.

Every indictment, information, or action, for any offence againſt this act ſhall be found, &c. within one year after the fact, or ſix months after the concluſion of any proceedings in the houſe of commons. ſ. 15.

Notwithſtanding this act, it ſhall be lawful for the ſheriff of the county of Southampton, and he is required, after any poll for the ſaid county ſhall have cloſed at Winchester, and which ſhall always be cloſed within 15 days at moſt, as above required, to adjourn the poll to Newport in the Iſle of Wight, in caſe the ſame ſhall be required by one of the candidates, ſo that ſuch adjourned poll ſhall commence within four days from the cloſe of the poll at Winchester, and ſhall not continue longer than three days. ſ. 16.

By 26 Geo. 3. c. 100. No perſon ſhall vote for any city or borough of England or Wales, as an inhabitant paying ſcot and lot, or as an inhabitant houſeholder, houſekeeper, and potwaller, legally ſettled, or as an inhabitant houſeholder, houſekeeper, and potwaller, or as an inhabitant houſeholder reſiant, or as an inhabitant of ſuch city or borough, unleſs he ſhall have been actually an inhabitant paying ſcot and lot, &c. within ſuch city or borough ſix months previous to the day of election; and if any perſon ſhall vote contrary to this act, his vote ſhall be void, and he ſhall forfeit to any perſon who ſhall ſue, 20*l.*, to be recovered by action of debt, at Weſtminſter; and in ſuch action the proof of inhabitancy ſhall lie upon the perſon againſt whom the ſame ſhall be brought; provided alſo nothing in this act extend to any perſon acquiring the poſſeſſion of any houſe by deſcent, marriage, or marriage ſettlement, or promotion to any office or benefice. ſ. 1.

This act ſhall relate only to thoſe perſons who claim to exerciſe the franchiſe of voting as inhabitants paying ſcot and lot, or as inhabitants houſeholders, houſekeepers, and potwallers, legally ſettled, or as inhabitants houſeholders, houſekeepers, and potwallers, or as inhabitants houſeholders reſiants, or as inhabitants within ſuch cities or boroughs, and ſhall not extend to any other perſons who claim to vote by any other title. ſ. 2.

By 28 Geo. 3. c. 52. No petition complaining of an undue election or return, or of the omiſſion of a return, or of the inſufficiency of a return, ſhall be proceeded upon unleſs the ſame ſhall be ſubſcribed by ſome perſon claiming therein to have a right to vote at the election, or to have a right to be returned, or alledging himſelf to have been a candidate at ſuch election; provided that where a writ has been iſſued for the election of a member for any diſtrict of burghs in Scotland, ſuch petition may be proceeded upon, if ſubſcribed by any perſon claiming therein to have had a right to vote at the election of any delegate or commiſſioner for chuſing a burgeſs for ſuch diſtrict. ſ. 1.

If at any time before the day appointed for taking ſuch petition into conſideration, the ſpeaker ſhall be informed, by a certificate in writing, ſubſcribed by two members, of the death of the ſitting member, whoſe election or return is complained of in ſuch petition, or of the death of any member returned upon a double return, whoſe election or return is complained of in ſuch petition, or that a writ of ſummons has been iſſued, under the great ſeal, to ſummon ſuch member as a peer; or if the houſe of commons ſhall have reſolved, that the ſeat of ſuch member is by law become vacant; or if the ſaid houſe ſhall be informed, by a declaration in writing, ſubſcribed by ſuch member, and delivered in at the table of the houſe, that it is not the intention of ſuch member to defend his election or return; in every ſuch caſe notice thereof ſhall immediately be ſent by the ſpeaker to the ſheriff, or returning officer, and ſuch officer ſhall cauſe a copy of the ſame to be affixed on the doors of the county or town hall, or of the pariſh church neareſt to the place where ſuch election has been uſually held, and ſuch notice ſhall alſo be inſerted by order of the ſpeaker, in the next London Gazette; and the order for taking ſuch petition into conſideration ſhall, if neceſſary, be adjourned, ſo that 30 days may intervene between the day on which ſuch notice ſhall be inſerted in the Gazette, and the day on which ſuch petition ſhall be taken into conſideration. ſ. 2.

It ſhall be lawful at any time within 30 days after the day on which ſuch notice ſhall have been inſerted in the Gazette, for any perſon claiming to have had a right to vote, to petition the houſe, praying to be admitted a party in the room of ſuch member, and ſuch perſon ſhall thereupon be admitted a party, and conſidered as ſuch. ſ. 3.

Whenever the member whoſe election or return is complained of in ſuch petition, ſhall have given notice of his intention not to defend the ſame, he ſhall not be admitted to appear as a party againſt ſuch petition, in any ſubſequent proceedings thereupon, and he ſhall alſo be reſtrained from ſitting in the houſe, or voting in any queſtion, until ſuch petition ſhall have been decided upon as preſcribed by 10 Geo. 3. c. 16. 11 Geo. 3. c. 42. and 25 Geo. 3. c. 84. ſ. 4.

No proceeding ſhall be had on any petition unleſs the perſons ſubſcribing the ſame, or one of them, ſhall, within 14 days after the ſame ſhall have been preſented to the houſe, or within ſuch further time as ſhall be limited by the houſe, perſonally enter into a recognizance to the king, according to the form annexed, in 200*l.* with two ſureties in 100*l.* each, to appear before the houſe at ſuch times as ſhall be fixed for taking ſuch petition into conſideration, and alſo to appear before any ſelect committee appointed for the trial of the ſame, and to renew the ſame in every ſubſequent ſeſſion until a ſelect committee ſhall have been appointed by the houſe for trial of the ſame, or until the ſame ſhall have been withdrawn by the permiſſion of the houſe; and if, at the expiration of the 14 days, ſuch recognizance ſhall not have been entered into, or ſhall not have been received by the ſpeaker, the ſpeaker ſhall report the ſame to the houſe, and the order for taking ſuch petition into conſideration ſhall thereupon be diſcharged, unleſs, upon matter ſpecially ſtated, and verified to the ſatisfaction of the houſe, the houſe ſhall ſee cauſe to enlarge the time for entering into ſuch recognizance; and whenever ſuch time ſhall be enlarged, the order for taking ſuch petition into conſideration ſhall be poſtponed, ſo that no petition ſhall be taken into conſideration, till after ſuch recognizance ſhall have been entered into and received by the ſpeaker: provided that the time for entering into ſuch recognizance ſhall not be enlarged more than once, nor for any days exceeding 30. ſ. 5.

The ſaid recognizances ſhall be entered into before the ſpeaker, who is to take the ſame; and the ſufficiency of the ſureties ſhall be allowed by the ſpeaker, on the report of two perſons appointed by him to examine the ſame, of which two perſons the clerk or clerk aſſiſtant of the houſe ſhall always be one; and one of the following officers, not being a member of the houſe, ſhall be the other; viz. maſters of chancery, clerks in the court of king's bench, prothonotaries in the common pleas, and clerks in the court of exchequer: and the ſaid perſons are to examine the ſame, and report their judgment thereupon; and are alſo to receive ſuch fees as ſhall be fixed by any reſolution of the houſe of commons. ſ. 6.

Where the parties who are to enter into ſuch recognizance, or their ſureties, ſhall reſide at a greater diſtance from London than 40 miles, ſuch parties or ſureties may enter into ſuch recognizance before any juſtice of the peace, and ſuch recognizance being certified under the hand of ſuch juſtice, and being tranſmitted to the ſpeaker, ſhall have the ſame effect as if entered into before the ſpeaker: provided that it ſhall be lawful for the perſons to whom it is referred by the ſpeaker to examine the ſufficiency of ſuch ſureties, to receive as evidence, in their examination, any affidavits relating thereto, which ſhall be ſworn before any maſter in chancery, or before any juſtice of the peace; and ſuch maſter of chancery, or juſtice, is to adminiſter ſuch oath, and certify ſuch affidavit under his hand. ſ. 7.

The houſe ſhall not permit ſuch petition to be withdrawn, except ſo far as the ſame may relate to the election or return of any member who ſhall, ſince the ſame ſhall have been preſented, have vacated his ſeat by death, or otherwiſe. ſ. 8.

If the petitioners, who ſhall have entered into ſuch recognizance, ſhall not appear before the houſe, by themſelves, their counſel, or agents, within one hour after the time fixed for calling in the parties, for the purpoſe of proceeding to the appointment of a ſelect committee, or if the ſelect committee appointed for the trial of ſuch petition, ſhall inform the houſe that ſuch perſons did not appear before the committee, to proſecute their petition; or if ſuch perſons ſhall neglect to renew their petition within four ſitting days after the commencement of every ſeſſion, ſubſequent to that in which ſuch petition was firſt preſented, and until a ſelect committee ſhall have been appointed, or until the ſame ſhall have been withdrawn by the permiſſion of the houſe; in ſuch caſe ſuch perſons ſhall be held to have made default in their recognizance; and the ſpeaker ſhall certify ſuch recognizance into the court of exchequer, and ſhall alſo certify that ſuch perſons have made default therein, and ſuch certificate ſhall be concluſive evidence of ſuch default, and the recognizance ſo certified ſhall have the ſame effect as if eſtreated from a court of law: provided that ſuch recognizance and certificate ſhall be delivered by the clerk or clerk aſſiſtant of the houſe, into the hands of the lord chief baron, or of one of the barons, or of ſuch officer of the court of exchequer as ſhall be appointed to receive the ſame. ſ. 9.

Sunday and Chriſtmas Day being excepted from the regulations of the acts, Good Friday ſhall alſo be excepted therefrom. ſ. 10.

If, on the day immediately preceding any of the three follow-following days, viz. Chriſtmas Day, Whitſunday, or Good Friday, after reading the order of the day for taking ſuch petition into conſideration, it ſhall be found that there are not 100 members preſent, or that the number of 49 members not ſet aſide or excuſed, cannot be completed, it ſhall be lawful for the houſe, if they think fit, to direct that the ſaid order ſhall be adjourned, and the houſe ſhall then immediately be adjourned to the hour and day to which ſuch order ſhall be adjourned. ſ. 11.

It ſhall be lawful for the houſe, previous to the reading the order of the day for taking ſuch petition into conſideration, to receive any report from any ſelect committee appointed in purſuance of the acts, and to enter the ſame upon their journals, and to give the neceſſary orders thereupon; and previous to reading the ſaid order, the clerk of the crown may be admitted to alter any return, in purſuance of an order made on the preceding day, or on that day; and alſo it ſhall be lawful for the houſe, previous to reading the ſaid order, to poſtpone the ſame, for the purpoſe of attending his majeſty, or his majeſty's commiſſioners, in the houſe of lords, in conſequence of any meſſage ſignified to the houſe in the uſual manner. ſ. 12.

If, within one hour after the time fixed in purſuance of the acts for calling in the parties, their counſel, or agents, for the appointment of a ſelect committee, the petitioners ſhall not appear by themſelves, their counſel, or agents, the order for taking ſuch petition into conſideration ſhall be diſcharged, and ſuch petition ſhall not be any further proceeded upon. ſ. 13.

If, within one hour after the time appointed, the ſitting member or other parties oppoſing the petition, ſhall not appear by themſelves, their counſel, or agents, or if, at the time appointed, there ſhall be no party before the houſe oppoſing the petition, the houſe ſhall proceed to appoint a ſelect committee, to try the merits of ſuch petition in the following manner, viz. the names of 49 members ſhall be drawn as preſcribed in the acts, but in reducing the liſt to 13, the place of a party oppoſing the petition ſhall be ſupplied by the clerk appointed to attend the committee, who ſhall, as often as it ſhall come to his turn, as ſupplying the place of the party oppoſing the petition, to ſtrike out a name, ſtrike out that name which then ſhall be firſt in the liſt; and where the party oppoſing would be empowered, by the acts, to nominate one member to be added to the 13, the ſaid 13 ſhall, from among the perſons preſent in the houſe at the time of drawing the names of the members, chuſe one perſon to ſupply the place of the member to have been nominated, in the ſame manner as is directed by the 11 Geo. 3. where there are more than two parties on diſtinct intereſts. ſ. 14.

The ſame method of reducing the liſt drawn to 13, and of nominating a member to be added to the 13 remaining on the liſt, ſhall be followed, whenever any party ſhall waive his right of ſtriking off names, or nominating a member to be added to the 13. ſ. 15.

If any perſon ſummoned to attend the ſelect committee, by warrant of the ſpeaker, or order of the committee, ſhall diſobey ſuch ſummons, or ſhall give falſe evidence, or ſhall prevaricate, or otherwiſe miſbehave in giving, or in refuſing to give evidence before the committee, the ſaid committee ſhall have power, by warrant, ſigned by the chairman, and directed to the ſerjeant at arms, or his deputy, to commit ſuch perſon (not being a peer or lord of parliament) to the cuſtody of the ſerjeant, without bail, for not exceeding 24 hours if the houſe ſhall then be ſitting, or if not, then for not exceeding 24 hours after the hour to which the houſe ſhall be adjourned. ſ. 16.

Whenever any committee ſhall have ſat for buſineſs 14 days, not including thoſe days on which they ſhall have adjourned on account of the abſence of any member, nor including Sunday, Chriſtmas Day, or Good Friday, it ſhall be lawful for them to proceed to buſineſs, if a number of members not leſs than twelve be preſent; and in ſuch caſe the committee ſhall not be diſſolved by the abſence of the members, unleſs the number able to attend ſhall, by death or otherwiſe, be reduced to leſs than 12, and ſhall ſo continue for three ſitting days; and whenever any committee ſhall in like manner have ſat for buſineſs 25 days, it ſhall be lawful for them to proceed to buſineſs, if a number of members not leſs than 11 be preſent; and in ſuch caſe the committee ſhall not be diſſolved by reaſon of abſence of the members, unleſs the number ſhall, by death or otherwiſe, be reduced to leſs than 11, and ſhall ſo continue for three ſitting days. ſ. 17.

Such committee at the time they report to the houſe their final determination on the petition, ſhall alſo report to the houſe whether ſuch petition did or did not appear to them to be frivolous or vexatious; and they ſhall in like manner report, with reſpect to every party who ſhall have appeared before them in oppoſition to ſuch petition, whether the oppoſition did or did not appear to be frivolous and vexatious; and if no party ſhall have appeared before them in oppoſition to ſuch petition, they ſhall then report to the houſe whether ſuch election or return, or ſuch alledged omiſſion of a return, or ſuch alledged inſufficieney of a return, did or did not appear to be vexatious or corrupt. ſ. 18.

Whenever ſuch committee ſhall report to the houſe, with reſpect to any ſuch petition, that the ſame appeared to be frivolous or vexatious, the parties who ſhall have appeared before the committee in oppoſition to ſuch petition, ſhall be entitled to recover, from the perſons who ſhall have ſigned ſuch petition, the coſts and expences which ſuch parties ſhall have incurred in oppoſing the ſame; ſuch coſts to be aſcertained as after directed. ſ. 19.

Whenever ſuch committee ſhall report to the houſe, with reſpect to the oppoſition made to ſuch petition, that ſuch oppoſition appeared frivolous or vexatious, the perſons who ſhall have ſigned ſuch petition ſhall be entitled to recover from ſuch parties, with reſpect to whom ſuch report ſhall be made, the coſts and expences which ſuch petitioners ſhall have incurred, to be aſcertained as after directed. ſ. 20.

Whenever, in any caſe where no party ſhall have appeared before ſuch committee in oppoſition to ſuch petition, ſuch committee ſhall report to the houſe, with reſpect to the election or return, or to the alledged omiſſion of a return, or to the alledged inſufficiency of a return, complained of in ſuch petition, that the ſame appeared vexatious or corrupt, the perſon who ſhall have ſigned ſuch petition ſhall be entitled to recover from the ſitting member, (if any) whoſe election or return ſhall be complained of, ſuch member not having given notice of his intention not to defend the ſame, or from any other perſon whom the houſe ſhall have admitted to be a party to oppoſe ſuch petition, the coſts which ſuch petitioners ſhall have incurred in proſecuting their petition, to be aſcertained as after directed. ſ. 21.

In the caſes before mentioned, the coſts of proſecuting or oppoſing ſuch petition ſhall be aſcertained, viz. on application made to the ſpeaker, by ſuch petitioner, for aſcertaining ſuch coſts, he ſhall direct the ſame to be taxed by two perſons, of whom the clerk or clerk aſſiſtant of the houſe ſhall always be one, and one of the following officers, not being a member of the houſe, ſhall be the other; viz.

maſters of chancery, clerks in the court of king's bench, prothonotaries in the common pleas, and clerks in the court of exchequer; and the perſons ſo authoriſed to tax ſuch coſts ſhall examine the ſame, and report the amount thereof to the ſpeaker, who ſhall on application made to him, deliver to the party a certificate, ſigned by himſelf, expreſſing the amount of the coſts allowed in ſuch report; and the perſons appointed to tax ſuch coſts, and report the amount thereof, are to receive, for ſuch taxation and report, ſuch fees as ſhall be fixed by any reſolution of the houſe. ſ. 22.

It ſhall be lawful for the party entitled to ſuch coſts, to demand the whole amount certified, from any one of the perſons who are liable to the payment thereof; and in caſe of non-payment thereof, to recover the ſame by action of debt, in any court of record at Weſtminſter; in which action it ſhall be ſufficient for the plaintiff to declare that the defendant is indebted to him (in the ſum to which the coſts aſcertained ſhall amount) by virtue of this act; and the certificate of the ſpeaker, under his ſignature, of the amount of ſuch coſts, together with an examined copy of the entries in the journals of the houſe, of the reſolution of the ſelect committee, ſhall be ſufficient evidence in ſupport of ſuch action: provided that in ſuch action, no wager of law, or more than one imparlance, ſhall be allowed; and the party in whoſe favour judgment ſhall be given, ſhall recover coſts. ſ. 33.

Where the amount of ſuch coſts ſhall have been recovered from any perſon, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch perſon to recover from ſuch other perſons liable to pay the ſaid coſts a proportionable ſhare thereof. ſ. 24.

Whenever ſuch ſelect committee ſhall be of opinion, that the merits of ſuch petition do wholly or in part depend on any queſtion which ſhall be before them, reſpecting the right of election, or reſpecting the right of appointing the returning officer, the ſaid committee ſhall require the counſel or agents for the parties, or if there be none ſuch before them, then the parties themſelves, to deliver to the clerk of the committee, ſtatements in writing of the right of election, or of appointing returning officers, for which they contend; and the committee ſhall come to diſtinct reſolutions on ſuch ſtatements, and ſhall, at the time they report to the houſe their final determination on the merits of ſuch petition, alſo report to the houſe ſuch ſtatement, together with their judgment in reſpect thereto: and ſuch report ſhall thereupon be entered in the journals of the houſe, and notice thereof ſhall be ſent by the ſpeaker to the ſheriff, or returning officer; and a true copy of ſuch notice ſhall, by ſuch ſheriff or returning officer, be affixed to the doors of the county hall or town hall, or of the pariſh church neareſt to the place where ſuch election has uſually been held; and ſuch notice ſhall alſo be inſerted, by order of the ſpeaker, in the next London Gazette. ſ. 25.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon, within 12 months after the day on which ſuch report ſhall be made to the houſe, or within 14 days after the commencement of the next ſeſſion, to petition the houſe to be admitted as a party to oppoſe that right of election, or of appointing the returning officer, which ſhall have been deemed valid in the judgment of ſuch committee. ſ. 26.

If no ſuch petition ſhall be preſented within the time above limited, the judgment of ſuch committee on ſuch queſtion, ſhall be concluſive in all ſubſequent elections for that place to which the ſame ſhall relate. ſ. 27.

Whenever ſuch petition ſhall be preſented, a day and hour ſhall be appointed by the houſe for taking the ſame into conſideration, ſo that 40 days ſhall always intervene between the day of preſenting ſuch petition, and the day for taking the ſame into conſideration; and notice of ſuch day and hour ſhall be inſerted, by order of the ſpeaker, in the next London Gazette, and ſhall alſo be ſent by him to the ſheriff or returning officer, and a true copy of ſuch notice ſhall, by the ſaid ſheriff or returning officer, be affixed to the doors of the county or town hall, or of the pariſh church neareſt. ſ. 28.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon, before the day appointed for taking ſuch petition into conſideration, to petition the houſe to be admitted as a party to defend ſuch right of election, or of appointing the returning officer, and ſuch perſon ſhall thereupon be admitted and conſidered as ſuch. ſ. 29.

At the hour appointed by the houſe for taking ſuch petition into conſideration, the houſe ſhall proceed to appoint a ſelect committee to try the merits thereof, according to the directions of the acts; and ſuch ſelect committee ſhall be ſworn to try and determine the merits of ſuch petition, ſo far as the ſame relate to any queſtion reſpecting the right of election, or reſpecting the right of appointing the returning officer; and the determination of ſuch committee on ſuch queſtion ſhall be entered on the journals of the houſe, and ſhall be concluſive in all ſubſequent elections for that place to which the ſame ſhall relate. ſ. 30.

So much of 2 Geo. 2. c. 24. is repealed, as relates to any determination to be made in the houſe of commons ſubſequent to this act. ſ. 31.

The regulations preſcribed by the recited acts, or this act, to ſelect committees, for the trial of controverted elections or returns, ſhall be in full force with reſpect to ſelect committees appointed by this act for the trial of ſuch queſtion of right: provided that the rules before enacted, by which perſons are required to enter into recognizances, and by which perſons are liable to the payment of coſts, in the caſes before ſpecified, ſhall not apply to the caſe of any petition relating ſolely to any queſtion reſpecting the right of election, or of appointing returning officers. ſ. 32.

Whenever parliament ſhall be prorogued, while any ſelect committee ſhall be ſitting for the trial of ſuch petition as aforeſaid, and before they ſhall have reported to the houſe their final determination thereon, ſuch committee ſhall not be diſſolved by ſuch prorogation; but ſhall be thereby adjourned to 12 o'clock on the day immediately following that on which parliament ſhall meet again for the diſpatch of buſineſs, (Sunday, Good Friday, and Chriſtmas Day excepted), and all former proceedings of the committee ſhall remain of the ſame effect as if parliament had not been prorogued; and ſuch committee ſhall meet on the day and hour to which it ſhall be ſo adjourned, and ſhall thenceforward continue to ſit from day to day, until they have reported to the houſe their determination on the merits of ſuch petition. ſ. 33.

FORM of the RECOGNIZANCE referred to in this ACT.

BE it remembered, that on the ——— day of ——— in the year of our Lord ——— before me A. B. [ſpeaker of the houſe of commons], or [one of his majeſty's juſtices of the peace for the county of ———] came C. D. E. F. and J. G. and ſeverally acknowledged themſelves to owe to our ſovereign lord the king, the following ſums; that is to ſay, the ſaid C. D. the ſum of 200*l. and the ſaid* E. F. and the ſaid J. G. the ſum of 100*l. each, to be levied on their reſpective goods and chattels, lands and tenements, to the uſe of our ſaid ſovereign lord the king, his heirs and ſucceſſors,* ceſſors, in caſe the ſaid C. D. ſhall fail in performing the condition hereunto annexed.

The condition of this recognizance is, that if the ſaid C. D. ſhall duly appear before the houſe of commons, at ſuch time or times as ſhall be fixed by the ſaid houſe for taking into conſideration the petition ſigned by the ſaid C. D. complaining of an undue election or return for the ——— of ——— [Here ſpecify the county, city, borough, or diſtrict of burghs] or, complaining that no return has been made for the ſaid [———] of [———] within the time limited by act of parliament, or, that the return made for the ſaid [———] of [———] is not a return of a member or members according to the requiſition of the writ, and ſhall appear before any ſelect committee which ſhall be appointed by the houſe of commons for the trial of the ſame, and ſhall renew his ſaid petition in every ſubſequent ſeſſion of this preſent parliament, until a ſelect committee ſhall have been appointed by the ſaid houſe for the trial of the ſame, or until the ſame ſhall have been withdrawn by the permiſſion of the ſaid houſe; then this recognizance to be void, otherwiſe to be of full force and effect.

Partition and parceners.

By ſtat. Glouc. 6 Edw. 1. c. 6. If a man die having many heirs, of whom one is a ſon or daughter, brother or ſiſter, nephew or niece, and the other of a further degree, all the heirs ſhall recover by a writ of Mortdaunceſtor.

By 31 Hen. 8. c. 1. All jointenants and tenants in common of any eſtates of inheritance ſhall be compelled to make partition by writ de participatione facienda, to be deviſed in the chancery, in like manner as coparceners. ſ. 2.

Every of the ſaid jointenants, or tenants in common, and their heirs, after partition made, ſhall have aid of the other to dereign the warranty paramount, and to recover for the rate, as is uſed between coparceners. ſ. 3.

By 32 Hen. 8. c. 32. Jointenant and tenants in common for term of life or years, where one of them ſhall have an eſtate for life or years with the other that have eſtates of inheritance or freehold in any hereditaments, ſhall be compellable by writ of partition out of chancery upon their caſe to make partition. ſ. 1.

No ſuch partition to be made by force of this act ſhall be prejudicial to any other than parties to the partition. ſ. 2.

By 8 & 9 Will. 3. c. 31. Made perpetual by 3 & 4 Ann. c. 18. After proceſs of pone or attachment returned upon a writ of partition, affidavit being made of due notice given of the writ to the tenant to the action, and a copy thereof left with the occupier or tenant, or if they cannot be found, to the wife, ſon or daughter (being of the age of 21 years) of the tenant, or to the tenant in poſſeſſion (unleſs the tenant in poſſeſſion be demandant in the action) at leaſt forty days before return of the pone or attachment; if the tenants to ſuch writ, or any of them, or the true tenant to the lands, ſhall not within fifteen days after return of ſuch pone or attachment cauſe an appearance to be entered, the demandant having entered his declaration; the court may proceed to examine the demandant's title and quantity of his purpart, and ſhall for ſo much give judgment by default, and award a writ to make partition, whereby ſuch purpart may be ſet out ſeverally; which being executed after eight days notice given to the occupier or tenants, and returned, and final judgment entered, the ſame ſhall conclude all perſons, although all perſons concerned are not named in the proceedings, nor the title of the tenants truly ſet forth. ſ. 1.

Provided, that if ſuch tenant or perſon concerned, ſhall, within one year after the firſt judgment entered, or in caſe of infancy, coverture, non ſanæ memoriæ, or abſence out of the kingdom, within one year after their return, or the determination of ſuch inability, apply to the court by motion, and ſhew a good and probable matter in bar of ſuch partition, or that the demandant hath not title to ſo much as he hath ſo recovered, the court may ſuſpend or ſet aſide ſuch judgment, and admit the tenant to appear and plead: and if the court upon hearing thereof ſhall adjudge for the firſt demandant, the firſt judgment ſhall ſtand confirmed againſt all perſons, except ſuch other perſons as ſhall be abſent or diſabled; and the perſon ſo appealing ſhall be awarded to pay coſts: or if within ſuch time aforeſaid the tenants or perſons concerned, admitting the demandant's title and purparts, ſhall ſhew to the court any inequality in the partition, the court may award a new partition to be made in preſence of all parties, if they will appear; which ſecond partition returned and filed ſhall be good againſt all perſons, except as before. ſ. 2.

No plea in abatement ſhall be received in any ſuit for partition, nor ſhall the ſame be abated by the death of any tenant. ſ. 3.

When the high ſheriff by reaſon of diſtance, infirmity, or hindrance, cannot conveniently be preſent at the execution of any judgment in partition, the under-ſheriff, in preſence of two juſtices of peace, may proceed to execution by inquiſition; and the high ſheriff thereupon ſhall make the ſame return as if he were perſonally preſent: and the tenants of the lands ſhall be tenants for ſuch part ſet out ſeverally to the reſpective owners, under the ſame rents and reſervations; and the owners of the ſeveral purparts ſhall make good unto their reſpective tenants the ſaid parts ſeverally, as they were bound to do before partition made. ſ. 4.

The ſheriffs, their under-ſheriffs and deputies, and in caſe of diſability in the high ſheriff, all juſtices of peace, ſhall give due attendance to the executing ſuch writ of partition (unleſs reaſonable cauſe be ſhewn to the court upon oath), or otherwiſe be liable to pay unto the demandant ſuch coſts and damages as ſhall be awarded by the court, not exceeding 5*l.* for which the demandant may bring his action in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter. And in caſe the demandant doth not agree to pay unto the ſheriffs or under-ſheriffs, juſtices and jurors, ſuch fees as they ſhall demand, the court ſhall award what each perſon ſhall receive, having reſpect to the diſtance of the place from their habitations, for which they may ſeverally bring their actions. ſ. 5.

Patents.

By ſtat. prærog. reg. 17 Edw. 2. c. 15. When the king granteth a manor or land with the appurtenances, except he make expreſs mention of advowſons of churches, the king reſerveth to himſelf ſuch advowſons; albeit, that among other perſons it hath not been ſo.

By 1 Hen. 4. c. 6. All which demand of the king lands, offices or other profits, ſhall mention in their petitions the value of the thing demanded, and alſo what they had of the king's gift, or of his progenitors before; and in caſe caſe they make not ſuch mention, and that duly proved, the king's patents ſhall be of no force.

Qu. If of force after the death of Hen. 4.? See ſt. 2 Hen. 4. c. 2. which is expired.

By 18 Hen. 6. c. 1. Every warrant ſent by the king or his heirs to the chancellor, the day of the delivery of the ſame to the chancellor ſhall be entered of record in the chancery; and the chancellor ſhall cauſe patents to be made, bearing date the day of the ſaid delivery, and not before; and if any patents be made to the contrary they ſhall be void.

By 6 Hen. 8. c. 15. If any perſon make ſuit to the king for any lands, offices or other things, by his grace granted to any perſon during his pleaſure, the firſt patentee being in life, he ſhall expreſs in his petition or patent, the tenor of the former patent, and that the king then hath determined his pleaſure againſt the firſt patentee, or elſe the ſecond letters patent to be void.

By 27 Hen. 8. c. 11. Every grant made in writing by the king, ſigned with his ſign manual, to be paſſed under his great ſeal of England or Ireland, or of the duchy of Lancaſter, or of any of his counties palatine or principality of Wales, or by proceſs out of the exchequer, and all grants and writings which any officers ſhall make in the king's name, ſhall be, before the ſame be paſſed under any the king's ſeals, or proceſs made of the ſame, brought to the principal ſecretary, or one of the clerks of the ſignet to be paſſed. ſ. 1.

The clerk of the ſignet, to whom the ſaid writings ſhall be delivered, ſhall within eight days, unleſs he have knowledge of the king's pleaſure to the contrary, make letters of warrant ſubſcribed with his hand, and ſealed with the king's ſignet, to the lord privy ſeal; and one of the clerks of the privy ſeal, upon examination had by the lord privy ſeal of the warrant, ſhall within eight days, unleſs the lord privy ſeal give commandment to the contrary, make other letters of like warranty, ſubſcribed with the name of the clerk of the privy ſeal, to the lord chancellor, chancellor of the duchy, &c. for the writing and enſealing of letters patent or cloſed, &c. or other proceſs making, according to the tenor of the warrant from the privy ſeal. ſ. 2.

No perſon ſhall write any warrant upon any grant made by the king, &c. or procure the ſame to be paſſed under any the ſeals aforeſaid, after other ſort than as before ſpecified; upon pain to forfeit 10*l.*; the one half to the king, and the other half to him that ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 3.

The clerks which ſhall paſs any grants by immediate warrant, ſhall receive for the offices of the ſignet and privy ſeal, as well ſuch fees as in this act is taxed for writing of ſuch grant, as alſo the fees for the ſeal, which fees the ſame clerks ſhall deliver unto one of the clerks of the ſignet or privy ſeal within three months, upon pain of 10*l.* to be levied in form aforeſaid. ſ. 4.

This act ſhall not be prejudicial to the lord treaſurer concerning ſuch warrants or precepts, as he by virtue of his office may direct immediately to the lord chancellor or any other, for making out the king's grants of any offices or other thing belonging to his diſpoſition. ſ. 5.

All leaſes of the king's manors, lands, &c. within the county palatine of Lancaſter, which the chancellor of the duchy, &c. ſhall make in the name of the king, may paſs under the ſeals of the duchy or of the ſaid county palatine. ſ. 6.

Every grant of any office or other thing in the county palatine or the duchy of Lancaſter, the yearly fees whereof amount not above the value of 2*d.* by the day, may be paſſed by the chancellor of the duchy, &c. as heretofore. ſ. 7.

Every clerk of the ſignet and privy ſeal ſhall have for writing of a warrant upon a bill for tales or reward, 12*d.* for a warrant for the gift of every office, 20*d.* for a warrant for a penſion, annuity, or wages, 20*d.* for a warrant for a ſpecial livery, or other perpetuity, 6*s.* 8*d.* for a warrant upon every bill for a conge deſlire, royal aſſent, reſtitution of temporalties, donatives, advocations, preſentations, or other eccleſiaſtical matter, 3*s.* 4*d.* for every warrant upon a placard, licence, pardon, or ſheriffs reward, 2*s.* for every warrant upon a denizen, 3*s.* 4*d.* for a warrant for keeping of an ideot, 20*d.* And no clerks of the ſignet or privy ſeal ſhall take more fees, upon pain of 10*l.*; the one half to the king, the other half to him that ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 8.

Provided, that the lord chancellor may uſe his diſcretion in paſſing any thing by the great ſeal, without fees for the great ſeal, ſignet and privy ſeal, as the caſe ſhall require, and as hath been accuſtomed. And the clerks for writing ſuch patents ſhall be diſcharged of all penalties for not receiving and paying fees to the ſignet and privy ſeal. ſ. 9.

This act ſhall not be prejudicial to any perſons whom the king ſhall by expreſs command appoint to procure any thing to be ſealed for his majeſty's private affairs or the affairs of his realm; ſo that the name of every ſuch perſon be entered in the clerk of the hanaper's book after this ſort, per A. ad mandatum domini regis. ſ. 11.

This act ſhall not be prejudicial to any perſon which ſhall have the grant or leaſe of any farm, the yearly rent whereof amounteth not above 6*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* ſ. 12.

By 3 & 4 Edw. 6. c. 4. All perſons which ſhall claim by force of any patents to be made by the king, or all other that ſhall have any eſtate or intereſt in any lands, offices, or other things, by or under ſuch patentees, may convey unto themſelves title, as well againſt the king as againſt any other perſon, by ſhewing forth the exemplification or conſtat of the roll, or of ſo much thereof as ſhall ſerve for the matters in variance, under the great ſeal; and the exemplification or conſtat of the inrolment ſhall be of the ſame force as the firſt letters patent ſhould be of if the ſame were pleaded or ſhewed. ſ. 2.

By 13 Eliz. c. 6. All patentees and other perſons having by or from them any eſtate or intereſt in lands or other thing by the queen to be granted, may convey to themſelves ſuch title, as well againſt the queen as againſt all other perſons, by ſhewing forth any exemplification or conſtat under the great ſeal of the inrolment of the ſame letters patent, or of ſo much thereof as may ſerve for ſuch title, the letters patent then remaining in force, as if the ſame letters patent were pleaded and ſhewed forth. ſ. 2.

Pawnbrokers.

By 30 Geo. 2. c. 24. If any perſon knowingly pawn or exchange, or unlawfully diſpoſe of the goods of any other perſon, not being authoriſed by the owner, and be convicted by the oath of any credible witneſs, or by confeſſion before any juſtice, ſuch offender ſhall forfeit 20*s.*; and in caſe the forfeiture be not forthwith paid, the juſtice ſhall commit the party convicted to the houſe of correction, or ſome other public priſon, to be kept to hard labour for fourteen days, unleſs the forfeiture be ſooner paid; and if within three days before the expiration of the fourteen days the forfeiture be not paid, the juſtice is to order, upon the application of the proſecutor, the perſon ſo convicted to be publicly whipped in the priſon, or in ſome open public place of the city or place wherein the offence is committed; committed; and the ſaid forfeitures ſhall be applied towards making ſatisfaction to the party injured, and defraying the coſts of proſecution, as ſhall be adjudged reaſonable by the juſtice; but if the party injured decline to accept of ſuch ſatisfaction and coſts, or if there be any overplus, ſuch forfeitures or overplus ſhall be applied to the uſe of the poor, and ſhall be paid to the overſeers. ſ. 2.

Every perſon who ſhall take by way of pawn, pledge, or exchange any goods, ſhall cauſe to be entered in a regular manner in a book a deſcription of the goods which he receives in pawn, &c. and the ſum advanced thereon, with the day of the month and year on which, and the name and place of abode of the owner, according to the information of the perſon pawning, &c. the ſame; and ſhall at the ſame time give a copy thereof to the perſon ſo pawning, &c. if required; for which the perſon giving ſuch copy ſhall be paid by the perſon pawning, &c. one halfpenny on goods pawned for leſs than 20 s. and one penny on goods pawned for 20 s. and not exceeding 5 l. and for every ſuch duplicate upon goods pawned for any larger ſum, two-pence; and in default of making ſuch entry and giving ſuch duplicate if required, he or ſhe ſhall for every offence forfeit 5 l.; to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, by warrant of a juſtice; which forfeitures ſhall be applied to the uſe of the poor. ſ. 4.

If in the courſe of any of the aforeſaid proceedings before a juſtice, it appear to the ſatisfaction of the juſtice upon oath or ſolemn affirmation, that any of the goods pawned are become of leſs value than the ſame were at the time of pawning, through the default, neglect, or wilful miſbehaviour of the perſon to whom the ſame were pawned, his executors, adminiſtrators or aſſigns, or ſervants, ſuch juſtice is to award ſatisfaction to the owner in reſpect of ſuch damage; and the ſum ſo awarded ſhall be deducted out of the principal and intereſt, and allowance for warehouſe-room, appearing due to any perſon to whom the ſame were ſo pawned, his executors, &c. and where the goods pawned are damaged, it ſhall be ſufficient for the pawner, his executors, &c. to pay or tender the money upon balance, after deducting out of the principal and intereſt, and money payable for warehouſe-room, ſuch ſatisfaction, in reſpect to ſuch damage, as ſuch juſtice ſhall order; and upon ſo doing, the juſtice ſhall proceed as if the pawner, his executors, &c. had paid or tendered the whole money due for the principal, intereſt, and warehouſe-room. ſ. 5.

If any perſon knowingly buy, or take in as a pledge, any linen or apparel, entruſted to any other perſon to waſh, ſcour, iron, mend, or make up, and be convicted of the ſame, on the oath of one witneſs, or on confeſſion, before a juſtice, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit double the ſum given for or lent on the ſame, to be paid to the poor, to be recovered as other forfeitures by this act; and ſhall reſtore the ſaid goods to the owner in the preſence of the juſtice. ſ. 6.

In caſe any perſon who ſhall offer by way of pawn, pledge, exchange or ſale, any goods, be not able, or refuſe to give a ſatisfactory account of himſelf, or of the means by which he became poſſeſſed of ſuch goods, or if there be reaſon to ſuſpect that ſuch goods are ſtolen or illegally or clandeſtinely obtained; any perſon to whom ſuch goods are ſo offered, or his ſervants, may ſeize and detain ſuch perſon and the goods, and deliver ſuch perſon as ſoon as may be to the conſtable or other peace officer, who ſhall immediately convey ſuch perſon and the goods before ſome juſtice; and if ſuch juſtice, upon examination, ſuſpect that the goods were ſtolen, or illegally or clandeſtinely obtained, ſuch juſtice may commit ſuch perſon into ſafe cuſtody, for not exceeding ſix days, to be further examined; and if upon either of the ſaid examinations it appear to ſuch juſtice that the goods were ſtolen or illegally or clandeſtinely obtained, the juſtice is to commit the party offending to the common gaol or houſe of correction, there to be dealt with according to law. ſ. 7.

In caſe ſuch goods ſo ſeized and detained afterwards appear to be the property of the perſon who offered the ſame to be pawned, pledged, exchanged or ſold, or that he was authoriſed by the owner to pawn, &c. the ſame, then the perſon who ſhall ſo ſeize or detain the party who offered the ſaid goods, ſhall be by this act indemnified for having ſo done. ſ. 8.

If the owner of any goods unlawfully pawned, pledged or exchanged, make out, either on his oath, or by the oath of any witneſs, or (being a quaker) by affirmation, before any juſtice, that ſuch owner has had his goods unlawfully obtained from him, and that there is cauſe to ſuſpect that any perſon within the juriſdiction of ſuch juſtice hath knowingly and unlawfully taken to pawn, or in exchange, any goods of ſuch owner, or without the privity of, or authority from ſuch owner; and make appear to ſuch juſtice probable grounds for ſuch ſuſpicion, then any juſtice may iſſue his warrant for ſearching in the day-time the houſe or other place of ſuch perſon charged as aforeſaid. And if the occupier of any houſe, &c. wherein ſuch goods are charged to be, on requeſt to open the ſame by any peace officer authoriſed to ſearch, refuſe to open the ſame, and permit the ſame to be ſearched, ſuch peace officer may break open ſuch houſe, &c. in the day-time, and ſearch for the goods ſuſpected to be there, doing no wilful damage. And if any perſon oppoſes ſuch ſearch, and be thereof convicted before any juſtice by the oath of one witneſs, every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit 5 l.; and in caſe ſuch forfeiture be not paid within 24 hours, the juſtice ſhall commit the party convicted to the houſe of correction, or ſome other public priſon, to be kept to hard labour, for not exceeding one month nor leſs than five days, unleſs in the mean time ſuch forfeiture be paid; and ſuch forfeiture ſhall be applied to the uſe of the poor. And if upon the ſearch of the houſe, &c. of ſuch ſuſpected perſon, any of the goods ſo knowingly and unlawfully pawned, pledged or exchanged be found, and the property of the owner from whom the ſame were unlawfully obtained be made out to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtice, by the oath of one witneſs, or (if a quaker) by affirmation, or by the confeſſion of the perſon charged with ſuch offence, ſuch juſtice ſhall cauſe the goods found on ſuch ſearch and unlawfully pawned, &c. to be reſtored to the owner. ſ. 9.

If any goods or chattels be pawned for ſecuring any money lent thereon, not exceeding in the whole 10 l. and the intereſt thereof; and if within two years after the pawning, proof having been made on oath by one witneſs, or by producing a duplicate of the entry directed to be given by this act, before any juſtice (or by affirmation if the perſon be a quaker), to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtice, of the pawning ſuch goods within the ſaid two years, any ſuch pawner who was the owner of ſuch goods at the time of pawning, his executors, &c. ſhall tender unto the perſon who lent on the ſecurity of the goods pawned, his executors, &c. the principal money borrowed thereon, and all intereſt due for the ſame, with ſuch charges for warehouſe-room as ſhall be agreed on at the time of pawning; and the perſon who took ſuch goods in pawn, his executors, &c. ſhall neglect to deliver back the goods ſo pawned, to the perſon who borrowed the money thereon, his executors, &c. on oath (or if a quaker on affirmation) by the pawner, his executors, &c. or ſome other perſon, any juſtice, on application of the borrower, his executors, &c. is to cauſe ſuch perſon who took ſuch pawn, his executors, &c. within the juriſdiction of the juſtice, to come before ſuch juſtice; and ſuch juſtice is to examine on oath or affirmation the parties and ſuch other perſons as appear, touching the premiſes. And if tender of the principal money due, and all intereſt thereof, together with charges for warehouſe-room, be proved to have been made (ſuch principal money not exceeding 10*l.*) to the lender, his executors, &c. by the borrower, his executors, &c. within the ſaid two years after the ſaid pawning, then on payment of the borrower, his executors, &c. of ſuch principal money, and the intereſt due thereon, with charges for warehouſe-room, to the lender, his executors, &c. and in caſe the lender, his executors, &c. refuſe to accept thereof on tender before ſuch juſtice; ſuch juſtice ſhall by order under his hand direct the goods ſo pawned forthwith to be delivered to the pawner, his executors, &c. And if the perſon who lent any money, not exceeding in the whole 10*l.* on any goods pawned, his executors, &c. neglect to deliver up or make ſatisfaction for the goods proved to have been ſo pawned, as ſuch juſtice ſhall order, ſuch juſtice ſhall commit the party ſo refuſing to deliver up or make ſatisfaction, to the houſe of correction, or ſome other public priſon of the county or place wherein the offender reſides or is convicted, until he deliver up the goods ſo pawned, and continuing redeemable, according to the order of ſuch juſtice, or make ſatisfaction for the value to the party intitled to the redemption of ſuch goods. ſ. 10.

If any pawn of goods remain unredeemed for two years, every ſuch pawn ſhall be forfeited; and the perſon to whom ſuch goods have been pawned may ſell the ſame; ſubject to account for the overplus of the produce of ſuch goods, as by this act is directed. ſ. 11.

Every perſon to whom any goods are pawned ſhall enter in a book an account of the ſale of all goods pawned for 2*l.* or upwards, ſold by ſuch perſon, expreſſing the day when, the money for which, and the name and place of abode of the perſon to whom, ſuch goods pawned were ſold; and in caſe ſuch goods be ſold for more than the principal money with intereſt and the charge of warehouſe-room due at the time of ſale, the overplus ſhall be paid on demand to the perſon on whoſe account ſuch goods were pawned, his executors, &c. And ſuch perſon who pawned ſuch goods, his executors, &c. ſhall be permitted to inſpect the entry of every ſuch ſale, paying for ſuch inſpection one penny. And in caſe any perſon refuſe to permit ſuch perſon who pawned ſuch goods to inſpect ſuch entry, ſuch perſon if an executor, adminiſtrator or aſſignee, producing his letters teſtamentary, letters of adminiſtration or aſſignment; or in caſe the goods were ſold for more than the ſum entered; or if any ſuch perſon make not ſuch entry, or have not bona fide ſold the goods pawned for the beſt price that he might have had without wilful default; or refuſe to pay ſuch overplus upon demand to the pawner, his executors, &c. every perſon ſo offending ſhall for every offence forfeit treble the value of ſuch goods, to the perſon on whoſe account ſuch goods were pawned, his executors, &c. to be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter. ſ. 12.

No fee or gratuity ſhall be taken for any ſummons or warrant granted by any juſtice in purſuance of this act, ſo far as the ſame relates to goods pawned, pledged, taken in exchange, or unlawfully diſpoſed of. ſ. 14.

By ſect. 18. inhabitants of the pariſh, &c. are allowed to be witneſſes. See the remaining clauſes of this act in "Gaming and Gaming-houſes."

By 25 Geo. 3. c. 48. All perſons uſing the trade of a pawnbroker in Great Britain, ſhall annually take out a licence. ſ. 1.

Where the pawnbroker ſhall reſide within the cities of London and Weſtminſter, the pariſh of Saint Mary le Bone, and Saint Pancras, in Middleſex, or within the diſtance of the bills of mortality, or within the borough of Southwark, in Surrey, there ſhall be charged a ſtamp duty of 10*l.* And where the pawnbroker ſhall reſide in any other part of Great Britain, there ſhall be charged a ſtamp duty of 5*l.* The ſaid duties ſhall be under the management of the commiſſioners for the duties charged on ſtamped vellum, &c. who are to employ officers under them, and allow ſuch ſalaries and incidental charges as may be neceſſary; and to provide ſuch ſtamps to denote the duties as ſhall be requiſite in that behalf; and to do all other things neceſſary for putting this act into execution, with relation to the ſaid duties. ſ. 2.

No perſon required by this act to be licenſed, ſhall, unleſs he be licenſed in manner herein-after preſcribed, receive by way of pawn, pledge, or exchange, any goods for the repayment of money lent thereon, in Great Britain, upon pain to forfeit 50*l.* ſ. 3.

Two commiſſioners for managing the duties ariſing by ſtamps, &c. or ſome perſon authoriſed by them, ſhall grant licences to ſuch perſons who ſhall apply for the ſame, to uſe the trade of a pawnbroker, within Great Britain, for one year, to commence from the day of the date of ſuch licence: and every perſon who ſhall take out ſuch licence, ſhall take out another for another year, ten days before the expiration of that year for which he ſhall be licenſed, if he ſhall continue to uſe the ſaid trade of a pawnbroker; and ſhall in like manner renew ſuch licence from year to year, paying down the ſums due for the ſtamps on ſuch licence, ſo long as he ſhall continue to uſe the trade of a pawnbroker. ſ. 4.

All perſons who ſhall take, by way of pawn, pledge, or exchange, from any perſon whomſoever, any goods for the repayment of money lent thereon, ſhall be deemed pawnbrokers, and ſhall take out a licence. ſ. 5.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to perſons who lend money upon pawn or pledge at 5*l. per cent. per ann.* intereſt, without taking any greater profit for the loan of ſuch money lent. ſ. 6.

No pawnbroker, or other perſon taking by way of pawn, &c. any goods, for the repayment of money lent thereon, licenſed by this act, ſhall, by virtue of one licence, keep more than one houſe, ſhop, or other place, for taking in goods to pawn; but for each houſe, &c. a ſeparate licence ſhall be taken out and paid for by ſuch pawnbroker. ſ. 7.

Perſons in partnerſhip and carrying on the trade of a pawnbroker in one houſe only, ſhall not be obliged to take out more than one licence. ſ. 8.

Such ſtamps as the commiſſioners provide may be altered, as other ſtamps. ſ. 9.

"Penalty on counterfeiting ſtamps, &c. felony without "benefit of clergy." ſ. 10.

All proviſions preſcribed by former acts relating to the ſtamp duties, ſhall be in force with relation to the duties hereby impoſed. ſ. 11.

Pecuniary penalties may be recovered in any court at Weſtminſter, for offences committed in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, and in the court of ſeſſions, court of juſticiary, or court of exchequer in Scotland, for offences committed in Scotland, by action of debt, &c. wherein no eſſoin ſhall be allowed; and wherein the plaintiff, if he recover any penalty, ſhall recover the ſame with double coſts. ſ. 12.

Perſons

Perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. then ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 14.

By 29 Geo. 3. c. 57. It ſhall be lawful for a pawnbroker to take from perſons applying to redeem any goods pawned, a profit after the following rates, over the principal ſum lent upon the pledge, before ſuch pawnbroker ſhall be obliged to re-deliver the ſame, viz.

For every pledge upon which there ſhall have been lent not exceeding two ſhillings and ſixpence, ½, for any time during which the ſaid pledge ſhall remain in pawn, not exceeding one month, and the ſame for every month afterwards, including the current month in which ſuch pledge ſhall be redeemed, although ſuch month ſhall not be expired.

For every pledge upon which there ſhall have been lent five ſhillings, 1*d.*

Seven ſhillings and ſixpence, 1½*d.*

Ten ſhillings, 2*d.*

Twelve ſhillings and ſixpence, 2½*d.*

Fifteen ſhillings, 3*d.*

Seventeen ſhillings and ſixpence, 3½*d.*

One pound, 4*d.*: and ſo on progreſſively and in proportion for any ſum not exceeding forty ſhillings.

And for every pledge upon which there ſhall have been lent any ſum exceeding 40*s.* and not exceeding 10*l.* at the rate of 3*d.* and no more, for the loan of every 20*s.* of ſuch money lent, by the month, including the current month; and ſo in proportion for any fractional ſum.

Which ſums ſhall be taken in lieu of all intereſt due, and charges for warehouſe room. ſ. 1.

Where any intermediate ſum lent upon any pawn ſhall exceed 2*s.* 6*d.* and not 40*s.* the perſon lending the ſame may take after the rate of 4*d.* for the loan of 20*s.* by the month, including the current month. ſ. 2.

Where the party entitled to, and applying for the redemption of goods pawned, within ſeven days after the expiration of the firſt month after pledged, he may redeem the ſame without paying any thing for the ſeven days; and where the party ſo entitled, and applying after the expiration of the firſt ſeven days, and before the expiration of the firſt 14 days of the ſecond month, he may redeem ſuch goods, upon paying the profit payable for one month, and the half of another month; but where the party ſo entitled, and applying after the expiration of the firſt 14 days, and before the expiration of the ſecond month, it ſhall be lawful for the pawnbroker to take the whole ſecond month; and the like regulation ſhall take place in every ſubſequent month wherein application ſhall be made for redeeming goods. ſ. 3.

Perſons who ſhall take by way of pawn, &c. any goods whereon ſhall be lent any money exceeding 5*s.* ſhall before he lend any money upon ſuch pawn, enter in a fair manner, in a book to be kept by him for that purpoſe, a deſcription of the goods which he ſhall receive in pawn, and alſo the ſum lent thereon, with the day of the month and year on which, and the name and abode of the perſon by whom ſuch goods are pawned, &c. alſo the name and abode of the owner thereof, according to the information of the perſon pawning, &c.; and where the money lent on ſuch goods ſhall not exceed 5*s.* ſuch entry ſhall be made in ſuch book by ſuch perſon ſo taking the ſame by way of pawn, &c. within four hours after the ſaid goods ſhall have been pawned; and every perſon ſhall, at the time of the taking of every pawn, &c. give to the perſon pawning, a note fairly written or printed, or in part written and in part printed, containing therein, in like manner, a deſcription of the goods which he has received in pawn, and alſo the money advanced, with the day of the month and year, and the name and abode of the perſon by whom ſuch goods are pawned, and alſo the name and abode of the owner thereof, according to the information aforeſaid, and upon which ſaid note, or on the back whereof, ſhall be moreover fairly written or printed the name and abode of the pawnbroker, which ſaid note the party pawning, ſhall take in all caſes, and the pawnbroker ſhall not receive ſuch pledge, unleſs the party pledging ſhall take ſuch note, and ſuch note, where the ſum lent ſhall be leſs than 5*s.* ſhall be delivered gratis; and where the ſum ſhall be 5*s.* or upwards, and leſs than 10*s.* ſuch pawnbroker may take ½*d.* for the ſame; and where 10*s.* or upwards, and leſs than 20*s.* ſuch pawnbroker may take 1*d.* for the ſame; and where the ſum lent ſhall be 20*s.* or upwards, and leſs than 5*l.* the ſum of 2*d.* for the ſame; and where 5*l.* or upwards, the ſum of 4*d.*; and which note ſhall be produced to the pawnbroker before he be obliged to re-deliver the goods, except as after excepted. ſ. 4.

If any perſon ſhall knowingly pawn, pledge, or exchange, or unlawfully diſpoſe of the goods of any other perſon, not being employed by the owner thereof, and ſhall be thereof convicted by the oath of any witneſs, or by the confeſſion of the perſon charged with ſuch offence, before any juſtice, ſuch offender ſhall forfeit 20*s.* and alſo the value of the goods pawned, &c. to be aſcertained by ſuch juſtice; and in caſe the ſaid forfeiture ſhall not be forthwith paid, the juſtice ſhall commit the party convicted to the houſe of correction, or ſome other public priſon of the county, &c. wherein the offender ſhall reſide or be convicted, there to be kept to hard labour for not more than three months, nor leſs than one month, unleſs the forfeitures ſhall be ſooner paid; and if, within three days before the expiration of the term of commitment, the forfeitures ſhall not be paid, the juſtice ſhall order, upon the application of the proſecutor, the perſon convicted to be publicly whipped in the houſe of correction, or in ſome other public place of the county, &c. where the offence ſhall have been committed, as to ſuch juſtice ſhall ſeem proper; and the ſaid forfeitures, when recovered, ſhall be applied towards making ſatisfaction thereout to the party injured, and defraying the coſts of the proſecution, as ſhall be adjudged by the juſtice; but if the party injured ſhall decline to accept of ſuch ſatisfaction, and coſts, or if there ſhall be any overplus of the forfeitures, after making ſuch ſatisfaction, and paying ſuch coſts, then ſuch forfeitures, or the overplus, ſhall be paid to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh where ſuch offence ſhall have been committed, and ſhall be paid to the overſeers for that purpoſe. ſ. 5.

If any perſon ſhall counterfeit or alter, or procure to be counterfeited or altered any note, or ſhall utter or ſell ſuch note, knowing the ſame to be counterfeited or altered, with intent to defraud any perſon whomſoever, ſuch perſon ſhall be puniſhed as mentioned, and it ſhall be lawful for any perſon, or his ſervants or agents, to whom any note ſhall be offered, which he ſhall have reaſon to ſuſpect to have been counterfeited or altered, to ſeize ſuch perſon offering the ſame, and to deliver him as ſoon as convenient to a conſtable or other peace officer, who ſhall as ſoon as convenient convey ſuch perſon before ſome juſtice; and if upon examination it ſhall appear, to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtice, that the perſon charged with ſuch offence is guilty thereof, then the ſaid juſtice is to commit the party offending to the common gaol or houſe of correction, there to be impriſoned for, not exceeding three months, nor leſs than one, at the diſcretion of ſuch juſtice. ſ. 6.

In caſe any perſon who ſhall offer, by way of pawn, pledge, exchange, or ſale, any goods, ſhall not be able, or ſhall refuſe to give a ſatisfactory account of himſelf, or of the means by which he became poſſeſſed of ſuch goods, or ſhall give any falſe information to the pawnbroker, or to his ſervants, as to whether ſuch goods are his own property or not; or if there ſhall be any other reaſon to ſuſpect that ſuch goods are ſtolen, or otherwiſe illegally obtained; or if any perſon not intitled, nor having any colour of title by law to redeem goods in pledge, ſhall attempt to redeem the ſame, it ſhall be lawful for any perſon, or his ſervants, to whom ſuch goods ſhall be offered, or with whom ſuch goods are in pledge, to ſeize ſuch perſon and the goods, and to deliver ſuch perſon immediately to a conſtable or peace officer, who ſhall, as ſoon as may be, convey ſuch perſon and the ſaid goods before ſome juſtice; and if ſuch juſtice ſhall, upon examination, have cauſe to ſuſpect that the ſaid goods were ſtolen, or illegally obtained, or that the perſon offering to redeem the ſame ſhall not have any pretence or colour of right to redeem the ſame, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice to commit ſuch perſon into ſafe cuſtody for ſuch reaſonable time as ſhall be neceſſary for obtaining proper information on the ſubject, in order to be further examined; and if upon either of the ſaid examinations it ſhall appear, to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtice, that the ſaid goods were ſtolen, or illegally obtained, or that the perſon offering to redeem the ſame hath not any pretence ſo to do, the juſtice is to commit the party offending to the common gaol or houſe of correction, there to be dealt with according to law, where the nature of the offence ſhall authorize ſuch commitment by any other law; and where the nature of the offence ſhall not authoriſe ſuch commitment by any other law, then ſuch commitment ſhall be for not exceeding three months, nor leſs than one month, at the diſcretion of ſuch juſtice. ſ. 7.

If the owner of any goods unlawfully pawned, &c. ſhall make out, either on his oath, or by the oath of any witneſs, or, being quakers, by affirmation before any juſtice, that ſuch owner hath had his goods unlawfully obtained from him, and that there is juſt cauſe to ſuſpect that any perſon within the juriſdiction of ſuch juſtice hath knowingly and unlawfully taken to pawn any goods of ſuch owner, and without the privity of ſuch owner, and ſhall make appear, to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtice, probable grounds for ſuch ſuſpicion, then any juſtice, within his juriſdiction, may iſſue his warrant for ſearching, in the day time, the houſe, warehouſe, or other place, of ſuch perſon charged on oath or affirmation as aforeſaid, as ſuſpected to have taken in pawn any ſuch goods without the privity of the owner thereof; and if the occupier of any houſe, &c. wherein ſuch goods ſhall, on oath or affirmation, be charged to be, ſhall, on requeſt made to him, to open the ſame by any peace-officer, authoriſed to ſearch there by warrant from a juſtice, refuſe to open the ſame, and permit the ſame to be ſearched, it ſhall be lawful for any peace officer to break open ſuch houſe, &c. in the day time, and to ſearch, as he ſhall think fit, therein, for the goods ſuſpected to be there, doing no wilful damage; and no pawnbroker, or other perſon, ſhall oppoſe ſuch ſearch: and if upon ſearch, any of the goods which ſhall have been ſo unlawfully pawned, ſhall be found, and the property of the owner from whom the ſame ſhall have been taken ſhall be made out to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtice, by the oath of one witneſs, or if a quaker, by affirmation, or by the confeſſion of the perſon charged with ſuch offence, ſuch juſtice ſhall cauſe the goods found on ſuch ſearch, to be reſtored to the owner. ſ. 8.

If any goods ſhall be pawned for ſecuring money lent thereon, not exceeding in the whole 10*l.* and the profit thereof, and if within one year after the pawning thereof (proof having been made on oath or affirmation by one witneſs, and by producing the note directed to be given by this act before any juſtice, to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtice, of the pawning of ſuch goods within the ſpace of one year) ſuch pawner, who was the real owner of ſuch goods at the time of pawning thereof, his executors, adminiſtrators, or aſſigns, ſhall tender unto the perſon who lent, on the ſecurity of the goods pawned, his executors, adminiſtrators, or aſſigns, the principal money borrowed thereon, and profit according to the rates by this act eſtabliſhed, and the perſon who took ſuch goods in pawn, his executors, adminiſtrators, or aſſigns, ſhall thereupon, without ſhewing reaſonable cauſe for ſo doing, to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtice, neglect or refuſe to deliver back the goods pawned, to the perſon who borrowed the money thereon, his executors, adminiſtrators or aſſigns, then, on oath or affirmation as aforeſaid thereof made by the pawner, his executors, adminiſtrators, or aſſigns, or ſome other credible perſon, any juſtice, on the application of the borrower, his executors, &c. is to cauſe ſuch perſon who took ſuch pawn, his executors, &c. within the juriſdiction of the juſtice, to come before ſuch juſtice, and ſuch juſtice is to examine on oath or affirmation, the parties themſelves, and ſuch other perſons as ſhall appear before him, touching the premiſes; and if tender of the principal money due, and all profit thereof, ſhall be proved by oath or affirmation to have been made (ſuch principal money not exceeding 10*l.*) to the lender thereof, his executors, &c. by the borrower, his executors, &c. within one year after the ſaid pawning, then, on payment by the borrower, his executors, &c. of ſuch principal money, and the profit due thereon to the lender, his executors, &c. and in caſe the lender, his executors, or aſſigns, ſhall refuſe to accept thereof, on tender thereof to him made by the borrower, his executors, &c. before ſuch juſtice, ſuch juſtice ſhall by order under his hand, direct the goods pawned to be delivered up to the pawner; and if the perſon who ſhall have lent any money, not exceeding 10*l.* on any goods pawned, his executors, &c. ſhall neglect or refuſe to deliver up or make ſatisfaction of the goods which ſhall be ſo proved, to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtice, to have been pawned, as ſuch juſtice ſhall order, then ſuch juſtice ſhall commit the party ſo refuſing to the houſe of correction, or other public priſon, there to remain without bail, until he ſhall deliver up the goods according to the order of ſuch juſtice, or make ſuch ſatisfaction as ſuch juſtice ſhall adjudge reaſonable for the value thereof, to the party entitled to the redemption of ſuch goods pawned and continuing redeemable. ſ. 9.

Perſons who ſhall produce any note to the perſon with whom the goods therein ſpecified were pawned, as the owner thereof, or as authoriſed by the owner thereof to redeem the ſame, and require a delivery of the goods, ſuch perſon ſhall be deemed, ſo far as reſpects the perſon having ſuch goods in pledge, the real owner of ſuch goods, and the pawnbroker ſhall, after receiving ſatisfaction of principal and profit, deliver ſuch goods to the perſon who ſhall produce the ſaid note to him, and ſhall be indemnified for ſo doing, unleſs he ſhall have had previous notice from the real owner thereof, not to deliver the ſame to the perſon producing ſuch note, or unleſs notice ſhall have been given to him that the goods pawned have been, or are ſuſpected to have been fraudulently or feloniouſly taken, and unleſs the real owner thereof proceeds in manner hereinafter provided for the redeeming of goods pledged, where ſuch note hath been loſt, miſlaid, deſtroyed, or fraudulently obtained from the owner. ſ. 10.

In caſe any pawnbroker ſhall have had ſuch previous notice as aforeſaid, or in caſe ſuch note ſhall be loſt, &c. and the goods mentioned therein ſhall remain unredeemed, the

pawnbroker ſhall, at the requeſt of any perſon who ſhall repreſent himſelf as the owner of the goods in pledge, deliver to ſuch perſon a copy of the note ſo loſt, &c. with the form of an affidavit of the particular circumſtances attending the caſe, printed or written, or in part printed and in part written, on the ſaid copy, as the ſame ſhall be ſtated to him by the party applying, for which copy of ſuch note and form of affidavit, in caſe the money lent ſhall not exceed 10*s.* the pawnbroker ſhall receive 1*d.*; and in caſe it ſhall exceed 10*s.* the pawnbroker ſhall receive the like money as he is entitled to receive on giving the original note, ſuch money to be paid by the party applying for the ſame, at the time of making the application; and the perſon having ſo obtained ſuch copy of the note and form of affidavit, ſhall thereupon prove his property in ſuch goods, to the ſatisfaction of ſome juſtice of the place where the goods ſhall have been pledged; and ſhall alſo verify on oath or affirmation before ſome juſtice the truth of the circumſtances attending the caſe mentioned in ſuch affidavit, the caption of ſuch oath or affirmation to be authenticated by the hand writing thereto of the juſtice before whom the ſame ſhall be made, and who ſhall ſo authenticate the ſame; whereupon the pawnbroker ſhall ſuffer the perſon proving ſuch property to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtice, and making ſuch affidavit or affirmation, on leaving ſuch copy of the ſaid note, and the ſaid affidavit or affirmation, with the ſaid pawnbroker, to redeem ſuch goods. ſ. 11.

All goods pawned ſhall be forfeited, and may be ſold at the expiration of one whole year from the time of the pawning the ſame; and all goods ſo forfeited, on which above 10*s.* and not exceeding 10*l.* ſhall have been lent, ſhall be ſold by public auction, but not otherwiſe, by the order of the perſon having the ſame in pawn, at the expiration of the ſaid year; but the perſon employed to ſell ſuch goods by auction ſhall cauſe the ſame to be expoſed to public view, and catalogues thereof to be publiſhed, and an advertiſement, giving notice of ſuch ſale, and containing the name of the pawnbroker with whom the ſaid goods were in pledge, to be inſerted on two ſeveral days in ſome public newſpaper, two days before the firſt day of ſale, upon pain of forfeiting to the owner of the goods 5*l.* ſ. 12.

In caſe any perſon entitled to redeem goods in pledge ſhall, before the expiration of the year, from the time of pawning, give notice in writing to the perſon having the ſame in pledge, or leave the ſame at his abode, not to ſell the ſame at the end of the year, then ſuch goods ſhall not be ſold by the perſon having the ſame in pledge, until after the expiration of three months, from the expiration of the year; during which three months the owner ſhall have liberty to redeem upon the terms provided by this act. ſ. 13.

Perſons to whom goods ſhall have been pawned, ſhall enter in a book to be kept by them for that purpoſe, a true account of the ſale of all goods pawned to him for upwards of 10*s.* which ſhall be ſold, expreſſing the day when, and the money for which ſuch goods pawned were ſold, together with the name and abode of the auctioneer by whom the ſame were ſold, according to the information thereof from the auctioneer; and in caſe any goods ſhall be ſold for more than the principal money and profit due thereon at the time of ſuch ſale, the overplus ſhall, by ſuch pawnbroker, be paid, on demand, to the perſon by whom ſuch goods were pawned, his executors, &c. in caſe ſuch demand ſhall be made within three years after ſuch ſale, the neceſſary coſts of ſuch ſale being firſt deducted; and ſuch perſon who pawned ſuch goods, his executors, &c. ſhall for his ſatisfaction, be permitted to inſpect the entry to be made of ſuch ſale, paying for ſuch inſpection 1*d.*; and in caſe any perſon ſhall refuſe to permit ſuch perſon who pawned ſuch goods, or who is entitled to ſuch overplus, to inſpect ſuch entry in ſuch book, ſuch perſon or perſons, if an executor, adminiſtrator, or aſſignee, at ſuch time producing his letters teſtamentary, letters of adminiſtration, or aſſignment, or in caſe the goods were ſold for more than the ſum entered in ſuch book, or if ſuch perſon ſhall not make ſuch entry, or ſhall not have, bona fide, according to this act, ſold the ſame, or ſhall refuſe to pay ſuch overplus upon demand to the pawner, his executors, &c. they producing ſuch letters teſtamentary, letters of adminiſtration, or aſſignment, ſuch perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit treble the ſum ſuch goods ſhall originally have been pawned for, to the perſon by whom ſuch goods were pawned, his executors, &c. to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods, by warrant under the hands and ſeals of two juſtices. ſ. 14.

No perſon having any goods in pledge ſhall, under any pretence whatſoever, either by himſelf, or other perſon for him, purchaſe ſuch goods ſo in pledge during the time the ſame ſhall remain in his cuſtody, as ſuch pledge, except at ſuch public auction, nor ſhall ſuffer the ſame to be redeemed with a view to purchaſe the ſame; nor ſhall any perſon taking any goods in pledge, make any contract with any perſon offering to pledge, or pledging the ſame, or with the owner of the pledge, for the purchaſe of the ſaid goods before the expiration of one year from the time of pawning the ſame; nor ſhall any pawnbroker purchaſe, or take any goods in pledge from any perſon who ſhall appear to be under the age of twelve years, or to be intoxicated with liquor; or purchaſe, or take in pawn, the note of any other pawnbroker; nor buy any goods in the courſe of his trade before eight in the forenoon, or after ſeven in the evening, throughout the year; nor take in goods by way of pawn before eight clock in the forenoon, or after nine in the evening, between Michaelmas-day and Lady-day, or before ſeven of the clock in the forenoon, or after ten in the evening, during the remainder of the year, excepting only on the evenings of Saturday throughout the whole year, and excepting on the evenings preceding Good Friday and Chriſtmas-day; nor ſhall any perſon exerciſe the trade of a pawnbroker on any Sunday, Good Friday, or Chriſtmas-day. ſ. 15.

Pawnbroker ſhall cauſe to be painted or printed in large legible characters the rate of profit allowed by this act to be taken by him, and alſo the various prices of the notes to be given by him, and an account of what notes are to be delivered gratis, and of the expence of obtaining a ſecond note, where the former has been loſt, &c. and place the ſame in a conſpicuous part of the ſhop wherein he ſhall carry on buſineſs, ſo as to be viſible to the perſons pledging goods, ſtanding in the boxes or places provided for ſuch perſons coming to pawn or redeem goods at ſuch ſhop. ſ. 16.

Every pawnbroker ſhall cauſe to be painted or written, in large legible characters over the door of each ſhop by him uſed for carrying on that trade, the chriſtian and ſurname or names of the perſons carrying on the ſaid trade, and the word pawnbroker or pawnbrokers, following the ſame, upon pain of 10*l.* for every ſhop made uſe of for one week, without ſuch names and word painted or written as aforeſaid, to be recovered by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods, by warrant under the hands and ſeals of two juſtices (which warrant ſuch juſtices are to grant), upon the confeſſion of the party, or upon the information of any witneſs upon oath or affirmation; and the ſaid penalty, when the charges of recovering the ſame ſhall be deducted, ſhall be paid one half to the informer, and the other half to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh in which the offence ſhall be committed; and in caſe ſufficient diſtreſs treſs ſhall not be found, or ſuch penalty ſhall not be forthwith paid, ſuch juſtices are by warrant under their hands and ſeals, to cauſe the offender to be committed to the county gaol or houſe of correction, there to remain without bail, for not exceeding three months, nor leſs than fourteen days, unleſs the penalty and charges be ſooner paid. ſ. 17.

If in the courſe of any proceedings before any juſtice under this act, it ſhall appear to the ſatisfaction of the juſtice upon oath or affirmation, that any of the goods pawned have been ſold before the time allowed by this act, or otherwiſe than according to this act, or have been embezzled, or are become of leſs value than at the time of pawning, through the default or wilful miſbehaviour of the perſon to whom the ſame were pledged, his executors, &c. then ſuch juſtice is to allow or award a reaſonable ſatisfaction to the owner in reſpect thereof, or of ſuch damage; and the money ſo allowed, in caſe the ſame ſhall not amount to the principal and profit due to any perſon to whom the ſame were pledged, ſhall be deducted out of the principal and profit; and where the goods pawned ſhall have been damaged, it ſhall be ſufficient for the pawner, his executors, &c. to pay or tender the money due upon the balance, after deducting out of the principal and profit for the goods pawned, ſuch reaſonable ſatisfaction, in reſpect to ſuch damage, as ſuch juſtice ſhall award, and upon ſo doing, the juſtice ſhall proceed as if the pawner, his executors, &c. had paid or tendered the whole money due for the principal and profit; and if the ſatisfaction to be awarded to the owner ſhall be equal to, or exceed the principal and profit, then the perſon to whom the ſame were pledged, ſhall deliver the goods pledged to the owner, without being paid any thing for principal or profit, and ſhall alſo pay ſuch exceſs, if any, to the perſon entitled thereto, under the penalty of 10*l.* to be recovered as after mentioned. ſ. 18.

It ſhall be lawful for any juſtice upon complaint made to him on the oath or affirmation of one witneſs, where any information ſhall be laid againſt any pawnbroker for having offended againſt this act, or reſpecting any diſpute between any pawnbroker and the perſon having pawned goods, or the owner of goods pawned, or reſpecting any felony or other matter, or on any other occaſion whatſoever, which, in the judgment of any juſtice, ſhall make the production of any book, note, voucher, or other paper neceſſary, which ſhall or ought to be in the cuſtody or power of any pawnbroker, to ſummon ſuch pawnbroker before him, to attend, with every book, note, voucher, or paper, relating to the ſame, which he is required to produce before ſuch juſtice in the ſtate the ſame was made at the time the pawn was received, without any alteration, eraſement, or obliteration whatſoever; and in caſe ſuch pawnbroker ſhall neglect or refuſe to attend, or to produce the ſame in its perfect ſtate, ſuch pawnbroker ſhall, in caſe he doth not ſhew good cauſe for ſuch neglect or refuſal, to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtice, forfeit 10*l.* for the uſe, and to be levied as after mentioned. ſ. 19.

In caſe any pawnbroker ſhall in any-wiſe offend againſt this act, ſuch pawnbroker ſhall, for every ſuch offence, in neglecting to make or cauſe to be made, in a fair manner, in ſuch books as aforeſaid, any ſuch entry as is required to be made by him by this act, forfeit 10*l.*; and for every other offence againſt this act, where no forfeiture is provided on any particular offence againſt any part of this act, 5*l.*; and all forfeitures incurred by any offence committed againſt this act ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the offender, by warrant under the hand and ſeal of any juſtice for the county, &c. where the offence ſhall be committed; and it ſhall be lawful for the juſtice to award to the party complaining, out of the penalty, 2*l.* 10*s.*; and the remainder of the aforeſaid penalty, not otherwiſe diſpoſed of, to be paid to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh where the offence ſhall have been committed, and ſhall be paid to the overſeers for that purpoſe. ſ. 20.

No perſon ſhall be liable to any proſecution before any juſtice, unleſs information be given of his offence within twelve months. ſ. 21.

The churchwardens and overſeers where any offence ſhall be ſuppoſed to have been committed by any pawnbroker, or ſome of ſuch officers, at the diſcretion of any juſtice, on having notice from ſuch juſtice of ſuch offence, ſhall proſecute every offender for every offence ſo to be ſuggeſted by ſuch juſtice to have been committed, at the expence of the pariſh whereof they are officers. ſ. 22.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to perſons who ſhall lend money to any perſon upon pawn at the rate of 5*l. per centum per annum* intereſt, without taking any greater profit for the loan. ſ. 23.

No fee ſhall be taken by any juſtice or his clerk, or by any perſon whomſoever, for any ſummons or warrant, or other proceedings made by any juſtice in purſuance of this act. ſ. 24.

All regulations in this act, ſhall extend to the executors, adminiſtrators, and aſſigns, of every deceaſed pawnbroker, except that no ſuch executor or adminiſtrator ſhall be anſwerable for any penalty perſonally, or to be paid out of his own money, unleſs incurred by his own act. ſ. 25.

Perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue; and if upon the trial a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have double coſts. ſ. 26.

In all actions, ſuits, informations, trials, and other proceedings, any inhabitant of the pariſh in which any offence ſhall be committed, ſhall be admitted to give evidence. ſ. 27.

The juſtice before whom any perſon ſhall be convicted, ſhall cauſe ſuch conviction to be drawn up in the form following, viz.

To wit. BE it remembered, that on this ——— day of ——— in the ——— year of his majeſty's reign, A. B. is convicted before —— of his majeſty's juſtices of the peace for the ſaid county of ——— [or, for the ——— riding or diviſion of the ſaid county of ——— or, for the city, liberty, or town of ——— as the caſe ſhall happen to be] for ——— and the ſaid ——— do adjudge him [or her] to pay and forfeit for the ſame the ſum of ——— Given under ——— the ——— day and year aforeſaid.

And the ſaid juſtice before whom ſuch conviction ſhall be had, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be written upon parchment, and tranſmitted to the next general or quarter ſeſſion, to be filed amongſt the records; and in caſe any perſon ſo convicted ſhall appeal from the judgment of the juſtice to the ſaid general quarter ſeſſion, the juſtices in ſuch ſeſſion are upon receiving the ſaid conviction, drawn up in the form aforeſaid, to proceed to the hearing and determination of the appeal, according to this act, and no certiorari ſhall be granted to remove any conviction or proceedings. ſ. 28.

If any perſon convicted of any offence puniſhable by this act ſhall think himſelf aggrieved by the judgment of the juſtice, ſuch perſon may appeal to the next general or quarter ſeſſion, and the execution of the judgment ſhall in ſuch caſe be ſuſpended, the perſon convicted entering into a recognizance at the time of conviction, with two ſureties, in double the ſum adjudged, upon condition to proſecute ſuch appeal with effect, and to be forthcoming to abide the judgment of the next general or quarter ſeſſion, and to pay ſuch coſts as ſuch ſeſſion ſhall award, which recognizance the juſtice before whom ſuch conviction ſhall be had is to take; and the general or quarter ſeſſion are to hear and finally determine the appeal, and to award ſuch coſts as ſhall appear juſt to be paid by either party; and if, upon the hearing of the ſaid appeal, the judgment of the juſtice ſhall be affirmed, ſuch appellant ſhall immediately pay the ſum adjudged, together with ſuch coſts as the ſeſſion ſhall award, or in default of making ſuch payment ſhall ſuffer the pains and penalties by this act inflicted upon perſons who ſhall neglect to pay the forfeitures by this act impoſed upon perſons convicted by this act. ſ. 29.

This act ſhall be in force for one whole year, and from thence to the end of the then next ſeſſions of parliament. ſ. 31.

Perjury.

By 5 Eliz. c. 9. Made perpetual by 29 Eliz. c. 5. and 21 Jac. 1. c. 28. All perſons which ſhall corruptly procure any witneſs by letters, rewards, promiſes, or other ſiniſter means, to commit wilful and corrupt perjury, in any matter depending in ſuit, by writ, action, bill, complaint, or information, concerning lands and hereditaments, goods, debts, or damages, in any of the queen's courts of record, or in any leet, ancient demean court, hundred court baron, or in the courts of the ſtannary in Devon and Cornwall, or ſhall corruptly procure or ſuborn any witneſs ſworn to teſtify in perpetuam rei memoriam; ſuch offenders ſhall, being convicted, forfeit 40*l.* ſ. 3.

If ſuch offender have not goods or lands to the value of 40*l.* he ſhall ſuffer impriſonment one half year, and ſtand upon the pillory one hour in ſome market town adjoining, in open market there. ſ. 4.

No perſon ſo convicted ſhall be received as a witneſs in any court of record, until the judgment given againſt the ſaid perſon be reverſed. And upon every ſuch reverſal the parties grieved ſhall recover their damages, againſt ſuch as did procure the ſaid judgment to be firſt given againſt them, by action upon the caſe. ſ. 5.

If any perſon, either by ſubornation, unlawful procurement, or means of any other, or by their own act, wilfully and corruptly commit wilful perjury, in any of the courts before mentioned, or being examined, ad perpetuam rei memoriam, every perſon ſo offending, and being convict, ſhall forfeit 20*l.* and have impriſonment ſix months, and the oath of ſuch perſon ſhall not be received in any court of record, until the judgment be reverſed by attaint or otherwiſe. And upon ſuch reverſal the parties grieved to recover their damages, againſt ſuch as did procure the judgment to be given againſt them, by action on the caſe. ſ. 6.

If the offender have not goods to the value of 20*l.* he ſhall be ſet on the pillory in ſome market place, by the ſheriff, if without any city or town corporate, and if within ſuch city, &c. by the head officer, &c. and there have both his ears nailed, and be diſabled forever to be ſworn in any of the courts of record aforeſaid, until the judgment be reverſed, and thereupon to recover his damages. ſ. 7.

The one moiety of which money forfeited to be to the queen, and the other moiety to ſuch perſon grieved by reaſon of the offence, that will ſue for the ſame. ſ. 8.

As well the judges of the ſaid courts where ſuch perjury ſhall be committed, as alſo the juſtices of aſſizes and gaol delivery, and the juſtices of peace at their quarter ſeſſions, ſhall have power to enquire of all offences contrary to this act, by inquiſition, preſentment, bill or information, or otherwiſe lawfully to hear and determine the ſame. ſ. 9.

The juſtices of aſſize ſhall in every county two times in the year, in their ſittings, make proclamation of this ſtatute. ſ. 10.

This act ſhall not extend to any eccleſiaſtical court, but that ſuch offenders may be puniſhed by ſuch laws as heretofore in the eccleſiaſtical courts. ſ. 11.

If any perſon upon whom proceſs out of any court of record ſhall be ſerved, to teſtify concerning any matter depending in the ſame court, and having tendered according to their countenance ſuch coſts as is neceſſary, do not appear according to the proceſs, having not a reaſonable impediment; the party making default ſhall forfeit 10*l.* and yield ſuch further recompence to the party grieved, as by the diſcretion of the judge of the court the party which procured the proceſs ſhall ſuſtain; the ſaid ſums to be recovered by the party grieved by action of debt, &c. ſ. 12.

This act ſhall not reſtrain the power of any judge, having abſolute power to puniſh perjury before, ſo that they ſet not upon the offenders leſs puniſhment than is contained in this act. ſ. 13.

By 2 Geo. 2. c. 25. made perpetual, 9 Geo. 2. c. 18. Beſides the puniſhment already to be inflicted, it ſhall be lawful for the court or judge, before whom any perſon ſhall be convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury, or ſubornation of perjury, to order ſuch perſon to be ſent to ſome houſe of correction within the county for a term not exceeding ſeven years, to be kept to hard labour; or to be tranſported to his majeſty's plantations for a term not exceeding ſeven years; and judgment ſhall be given accordingly: and if any perſon ſo committed or tranſported ſhall voluntarily eſcape or return from tranſportation before the expiration of the term, ſuch perſon being thereof convicted, ſhall ſuffer death without benefit of clergy, and ſhall be tried for ſuch felony in the county where he eſcaped, or where he ſhall be apprehended.

This act ſhall not extend to Scotland. ſ. 4.

No attainder for any offence hereby made felony ſhall work corruption of blood, loſs of dower, or diſheriſon of heirs. ſ. 5.

By 23 Geo. 2. c. 11. In every information or indictment for wilful and corrupt perjury, it ſhall be ſufficient to ſet forth the ſubſtance of the offence charged, and by what court, or before whom the oath was taken (averring ſuch court or perſon to have authority to adminiſter the ſame), together with the proper averment to falſify the matter wherein the perjury is aſſigned, without ſetting forth the bill, anſwer, information, indictment, declaration, or any part of any record or proceeding; and without ſetting forth the commiſſion or authority of the court or perſon before whom the perjury was committed. ſ. 1.

In every information or indictment for ſubornation of perjury, or for corrupt bargaining with others to commit wilful and corrupt perjury, it ſhall be ſufficient to ſet forth the ſubſtance of the offence charged, without ſetting forth the bill, anſwer, information, indictment, declaration, or any part of any record or proceeding, and without ſetting forth the commiſſion or authority of the court or perſon before whom the perjury was committed, or agreed to be committed. ſ. 2.

It ſhall be lawful for any juſtice of aſſize, or niſi prius, or general gaol delivery, or of any of the great ſeſſions of Wales, or of the counties palatine (ſitting the court or within within 24 hours after) to direct any perſon examined as a witneſs before them, to be proſecuted for perjury, in caſe there appear a reaſonable cauſe; and to aſſign the party injured, or other perſon undertaking ſuch proſecution, counſel, who ſhall do their duty without fee. And every proſecution ſo directed ſhall be carried on without payment of any tax, and without payment of any fees in court, or to any officer of the court; and the clerk of aſſize, or his aſſociate or prothonotary, or other officer of the court attending when ſuch proſecution is directed, ſhall, without fee, give the party injured, or other perſon undertaking ſuch proſecution, a certificate of the ſame being directed, with the names of the counſel aſſigned him; which certificate ſhall be deemed ſufficient proof of ſuch proſecution having been directed as aforeſaid. Provided that no ſuch direction or certificate ſhall be given in evidence upon any trial againſt any perſon upon a proſecution ſo directed. ſ. 3.

Petitions.

By 13 Car. 2. ſt. 1. c. 5. No perſon ſhall ſolicit or procure the getting of hands, or other conſent, of any perſons above the number of 20, to any petition, complaint, remonſtrance, declaration, or other addreſs, to the king, or both or either houſes of parliament, for alteration of matters eſtabliſhed by law in church or ſtate; unleſs the matter thereof be firſt conſented to, and ordered by three juſtices of the county, or by the major part of the grand jury, where the ſame ſhall ariſe at their aſſizes or quarter ſeſſions; or if ariſing in London, by the lord mayor, aldermen, and commons, in common council. And no perſon ſhall repair to his majeſty, or both or either houſes of parliament, upon pretence of delivering any petition, &c. accompanied with exceſſive number of people, nor at any one time with above the number of 10 perſons; upon pain of incurring not exceeding 100*l.* and three months impriſonment, to be proſecuted at the king's bench, or the aſſizes or quarter ſeſſions, within ſix months after the offence, and proved by two witneſſes. ſ. 2.

This act ſhall not hinder any perſons, not exceeding ten, to preſent any complaint to any members of parliament after election, and during the parliament, or to the king's majeſty, for any remedy to be then had; nor extend to any addreſs to his majeſty by all or any of the members of both or either houſes of parliament. ſ. 3.

Phyſicians, Apothecaries, and Surgeons.

(See general title "London," Part II. p. 98.)

Pillory.

Ordin. for bakers. 1. 3. Every pillory or ſtretch-neck muſt be of convenient ſtrength, ſo that execution may be done upon offenders without peril of their bodies.

Piracy.

By 27 Hen. 8. c. 4. All offences of piracy, robbery, and murder, done upon the ſea, or in any other haven, river or creek, where the admirals pretend to have juriſdiction, ſhall be enquired, tried, heard, and determined, in ſuch places in this realm, as ſhall be limited by the king's commiſſion, as if ſuch offences had been done upon land; and ſuch commiſſions ſhall be under the great ſeal, directed to the lord admiral, or his lieutenant or deputies, and other perſons named by the lord chancellor, to hear and determine ſuch offences after the common courſe of law uſed for felonies committed within the realm. ſ. 1.

By 28 Hen. 8. c. 15. All treaſons, felonies, robberies, murders, and confederacies, committed upon the ſea, or in any haven, river, creek, or place, where the admirals have or pretend to have power or juriſdiction, ſhall be enquired, heard, and determined, in ſuch ſhires and places in this realm, as ſhall be limited by the king's commiſſion, as if ſuch offences had been committed upon land; and ſuch commiſſions ſhall be under the great ſeal, directed to the admirals, or their lieutenant and deputies, and to three or four ſuch other perſons as ſhall be named by the lord chancellor, after the common courſe of the law uſed for treaſons, felonies, robberies, murders, and confederacies of the ſame, committed upon land within this realm. ſ. 1.

Such perſons to whom ſuch commiſſion ſhall be directed, or four of them, ſhall have power to enquire of ſuch offences by the oaths of 12 lawful inhabitants, in the ſhire limited in their commiſſion, as if ſuch offences had been committed upon land within the ſhire; and every indictment found before ſuch commiſſioners, of any treaſons, felonies, or ſuch other offences, committed upon the ſeas, or any haven, river, or creek, ſhall be good in law. And ſuch proceſs, judgment, and execution, ſhall be had againſt every perſon ſo indicted, as for treaſon, felony, or other ſuch offences done upon land; and the trial of ſuch offences ſhall be by 12 men inhabited in the ſhire limited within ſuch commiſſion, and no challenge to be had for the hundred; and ſuch as ſhall be convict of any ſuch offences, ſhall ſuffer ſuch pains of death, loſſes of lands and goods, as if they had been convicted of the ſaid offences done upon land. ſ. 2.

For treaſons, robberies, felonies, murders, and confederacies, done upon the ſeas or in any place above rehearſed, the offenders ſhall not have benefit of clergy. ſ. 3.

This act ſhall not extend to any perſon for taking victual, cables, ropes, anchors, or ſails, which ſuch perſon, compelled by neceſſity, taketh of any ſhip which may ſpare the ſame; ſo the perſon pay for the ſame money or money-worth, or deliver a bill obligatory to be paid, if the taking be on this ſide the ſtraits of Marroke, to be paid within four months, and if it be within the ſaid ſtraits, to be paid within 12 months; and that the makers of ſuch bills pay the ſame within the time limited. ſ. 4.

When any ſuch commiſſion ſhall be directed to any place within the juriſdiction of the five ports, ſuch commiſſion ſhall be directed to the lord warden of the ports, or his deputy, and three or four ſuch perſons as the lord chancellor ſhall name. ſ. 5.

Whenſoever any commiſſion ſhall be directed unto the five ports for the inquiſition and trials of any the offences expreſſed in this act, ſuch inquiſition and trial ſhall be had by the inhabitants in the five ports, or the members of the ſame. ſ. 6.

By 11 & 12 Will. 3. c. 7. Made perpetual by 6 Geo. 1. c. 19. All piracies, felonies, and robberies, committed upon the ſea, or in any haven, river, creek, or place, where the admirals have power or juriſdiction, may be enquired of, heard, and determined, in any place at ſea, or upon land, in in any of his majeſty's dominions, forts, or factories, to be appointed by the king's commiſſion under the great ſeal, or the ſeal of the admiralty, directed to any of the admirals, vice-admirals, rear-admirals, judges of vice-admiralties, or commanders of any of his majeſty's ſhips of war, and alſo to any ſuch perſons as his majeſty ſhall appoint; which commiſſioners ſhall have power, by warrant under the hand and ſeal of them, or any of them, to commit to cuſtody any perſon againſt whom information of piracy, robbery, or felony, upon the ſea, ſhall be given upon oath; and to call a court of admiralty on ſhipboard, or upon land, as occaſion ſhall require; which court ſhall conſiſt of ſeven perſons at leaſt. ſ. 1.

If ſo many of the perſons cannot conveniently be aſſembled, any three of them (whereof the preſident or chief of ſome Engliſh factory, or the governor, lieutenant-governor, or member of his majeſty's councils, in any of the plantations, or commander of one of his majeſty's ſhips, is to be one), ſhall have power to call any other perſons on ſhipboard, or on the land, to make up the number of ſeven. ſ. 2.

Provided that no perſons but known merchants, factors, or planters, or captains, lieutenants, or warrant officers, in any of his majeſty's ſhips of war, or captains, maſters, or mates, of ſome Engliſh ſhip, ſhall be capable of ſitting and voting in the ſaid court. ſ. 3.

Such perſons called as aforeſaid, ſhall have power, according to the courſe of the admiralty, to iſſue warrants for bringing any perſons accuſed of piracy or robbery before them to be tried; and to ſummon witneſſes and take examinations of witneſſes, and to do all things neceſſary for the final determination of any caſe of piracy, robbery, and felony, and to give ſentence of death, and award execution of the offenders convicted, according to the civil law and the rules of the admiralty. And every perſon ſo convicted and attainted of piracy or robbery, ſhall ſuffer ſuch loſſes of lands and goods, as if they had been attainted and convicted according to the ſtatute 28 Hen. 8. c. 15. ſ. 4.

So ſoon as any court ſhall be aſſembled, the king's commiſſion ſhall be read, and the court ſhall be proclaimed, and then the preſident of the court ſhall take the following oath, viz.

I A. B. do ſwear, in the preſence of Almighty God, that I will truly and impartially try and adjudge the priſoner or priſoners which ſhall be brought upon his or their trials before this court, and honeſtly and duly on my part put his majeſty's commiſſion for trying them in execution, according to the beſt of my ſkill and knowledge; and that I have no intereſt directly or indirectly, in any ſhip or goods, for the piratically taking of which any perſon ſtands accuſed, and is now to be tried.

So help me God.

And he having taken the oath, ſhall adminiſter the ſame to every perſon who ſhall ſit and have a voice in the court; and thereupon the priſoners ſhall be brought before them: and then the regiſter ſhall read the articles againſt ſuch priſoners, wherein ſhall be ſet forth the particular facts of piracy, robbery, and felony, with the time and place, and in what manner it was committed: and each priſoner ſhall be aſked whether he be guilty or not guilty; whereupon ſuch priſoner ſhall immediately plead guilty or not guilty, or elſe it ſhall be taken as confeſſed: and if any priſoner ſhall plead not guilty, witneſſes ſhall be produced by the regiſter, and ſworn and examined in the priſoner's preſence; and after a witneſs hath anſwered all the queſtions propoſed by the preſident, and given his evidence, it ſhall be lawful for the priſoner to have the witneſs croſs-examined, declaring to the court what queſtions he would have aſked, and the preſident or the court ſhall interrogate the witneſs accordingly; and every priſoner ſhall have liberty to bring witneſſes for his defence, who ſhall be ſworn and examined, and afterwards the priſoner ſhall be heard for himſelf; which being done, the priſoner ſhall be taken away, and all other perſons, except the regiſter, ſhall withdraw; and then the court ſhall conſider of the evidence; and then the preſident ſhall collect the votes of the court, beginning at the junior, and ending with himſelf; and according to plurality of voices ſentence ſhall be given, and pronounced publicly in the preſence of the priſoner, being called in again: and according to ſuch ſentence, the perſons attainted ſhall be put to death in ſuch manner, and ſuch place, upon the ſea, or within the ebbing or flowing thereof, as the preſident or the major part of the court, by warrant directed to a provoſt-marſhal, which they ſhall have power to conſtitute, ſhall appoint. ſ. 5.

Some public notary ſhall be regiſter of the court; and in caſe of his abſence, death, or incapacity, or for want of a perſon ſo qualified, the preſident ſhall appoint a regiſter, giving him an oath, duly, faithfully, and impartially, to execute his office; which regiſter ſhall prepare all warrants and articles, and provide all things requiſite for any trial, according to the ſubſtantial and eſſential parts of proceedings in a court of admiralty in the moſt ſummary way; and ſhall take minutes of the proceedings, and enter them in a book, and ſhall tranſmit the ſame, with the copies of all articles and judgments, unto the high court of admiralty in England. ſ. 6.

If any of his majeſty's ſubjects ſhall commit piracy or robbery, or any act of hoſtility, againſt others his majeſty's ſubjects upon the ſea, under colour of any commiſſion from any foreign ſtate or authority from any perſon whatſoever, ſuch offenders, and every of them, ſhall be adjudged pirates, felons, and robbers; and being convicted according to this act, or 28 Hen. 8. c. 15. ſhall ſuffer pains of death, and loſs of lands and goods. ſ. 7.

If any commander of any ſhip, or any mariner, ſhall in any place where the admiral hath juriſdiction, betray his truſt, and turn pirate, enemy, or rebel, and piratically and feloniouſly run away with the ſhip, or any boat, ordnance, ammunition, or goods, or yield them up voluntarily to any pirate, or ſhall bring any ſeducing meſſages from any pirate, enemy, or rebel, or conſult or confederate with, or attempt to corrupt, any commander, officer, or mariner, to yield up or run away with any ſhip or goods, or turn pirate, or go over to pirates, or if any perſon ſhall lay violent hands on his commander, to hinder him from fighting in defence of his ſhip and goods, or confine his maſter, or endeavour to make a revolt in the ſhip, he ſhall be adjudged a pirate, felon, and robber, and being convicted according to this act ſhall ſuffer death, and loſs of lands and goods. ſ. 8.

All perſons who ſhall either on land or upon the ſeas, knowingly ſet forth any pirate, or aſſiſt or maintain, procure, command, counſel, or adviſe, any perſon to commit any piracies or robberies upon the ſeas, and ſuch perſon ſhall thereupon commit any ſuch piracy or robbery, all ſuch perſons ſhall be adjudged acceſſary to ſuch piracy and robbery; and after any piracy or robbery committed, every perſon who, knowing that ſuch pirate or robber has committed ſuch robbery, ſhall, on the land or on the ſea, receive, entertain, or conceal, any ſuch pirate or robber, or receive any ſhip or goods by ſuch pirate or robber, piratically and felonioufly taken, ſhall be adjudged acceſſary to ſuch piracy and robbery. And all ſuch acceſſaries may be enquired of, heard, and determined, after the common courſe of the law, according to the ſtatute 28 Hen. 8. c. 15. as the principals of ſuch piracies and robberies ought to be; and being attainted ſhall ſuffer death, [illegible] of lands and goods. ſ. 9.

When any Engliſh ſhip ſhall have been defended againſt pirates, enemies, or ſea rovers, by fight, and brought to her port, in which fight any of the officers or ſeamen ſhall have been killed or wounded, it ſhall be lawful for the judge of his majeſty's high court of admiralty, or his ſurrogate in the port of London, or the mayor, bailiff, or chief officer, in the ſeveral out-ports of this kingdom, upon petition of the maſter or ſeamen of ſuch ſhip, to call unto him four or more ſubſtantial merchants, and ſuch as are no adventurers or owners of the ſhip or goods, and have no intereſt therein, and by advice with them to raiſe upon the adventurers and owners of the ſhip and goods, by proceſs out of the ſaid court, ſuch ſums of money as himſelf and the ſaid merchants, by plurality of voices, ſhall judge reaſonable, not exceeding two per cent. of the freight, and of the ſhip and goods according to the firſt coſts of the goods; which money ſhall be diſtributed among the captain, maſters, officers, and ſeamen of the ſhip, or widows and children of the ſlain, according to the direction of the judge of the ſaid court, &c. with the approbation of the merchants aforeſaid; who ſhall proportion the ſame to the ſhip's company, having ſpecial regard to the women and children of ſuch as ſhall have been ſlain, and ſuch as have been wounded. ſ. 10.

A reward of 10 l. for every veſſel of 100 tuns or under, and 15 l. for every ſhip of a greater burden, ſhall be paid by the commander of every ſhip, wherein any combination ſhall be ſet on foot, for the running away with or deſtroying ſuch ſhip, or the goods therein, to ſuch perſon as ſhall firſt make a diſcovery thereof; the ſame to be paid at the port where the wages of the ſeamen are to be paid. ſ. 11.

The commiſſioners appointed by 28 Hen. 8. c. 15. or by this act, ſhall have the ſole power of hearing and determining the ſaid crimes, within all the plantations in America, governed by proprietors, or under charters from the crown; and ſhall iſſue their warrants for apprehending of any pirates, felons, or robbers upon the ſea, or their confederates or acceſſaries, within any of the ſaid plantations, in order to their being brought to trial within the ſame, or any other plantation in America, or ſent into England: and all governors and perſons in authority in the plantations, governed by the proprietors, or under charters, ſhall aſſiſt the commiſſioners and their officers, and deliver up any pirates, felons, and robbers upon the ſea, and their confederates and acceſſaries, in order to their being tried or ſent into England. ſ. 13.

If any of the governors in the plantations, or perſons in authority there, ſhall refuſe to yield obedience to this act, ſuch refuſal is declared to be a forfeiture of all charters granted for the government or propriety of ſuch plantation. ſ. 14.

When any commiſſion for the trial and puniſhment of the offences aforeſaid, ſhall be directed to any place within the juriſdiction of the cinque ports, ſuch commiſſion ſhall be directed to the lord warden, or his lieutenant, and ſuch other perſons as the lord high chancellor ſhall name; and every inquiſition and trial to be had by virtue of ſuch commiſſion ſhall be by the inhabitants of the cinque ports, or the members of the ſame. ſ. 15.

All officers or ſailors who ſhall deſert the ſhips wherein they are hired to ſerve for that voyage, ſhall forfeit all wages due to them. ſ. 16.

In caſe any maſter of a merchant ſhip ſhall, during his being abroad, force any man on ſhore, or wilfully leave him behind in any of his majeſty's plantations, or elſewhere, or ſhall refuſe to bring home with him all ſuch of the men which he carried out, as are in a condition to return, ſuch maſter ſhall ſuffer three months impriſonment. ſ. 17.

By 4 Geo. 1. c. 11. All perſons who ſhall commit any offences for which they ought to be adjudged pirates by the act 11 & 12 Will. 3. c. 7. may be tried as by the act 28 Hen. 8. c. 15. and ſhall be debarred from the benefit of clergy. Nothing in this act to extend to Scotland. ſ. 9.

By 8 Geo. 1. c. 24. Made perpetual by 2 Geo. 2. c. 28. If any commander of any ſhip, or other perſon, ſhall trade with any pirate, or ſhall furniſh any pirate, felon, or robber on the ſeas, with ammunition, proviſions or ſtores, or ſhall fit out any ſhip knowingly and with deſign to trade or correſpond with any pirate, &c. or if any perſon ſhall conſult, combine, or correſpond with any pirate, &c. knowing him to be guilty of any piracy, felony, or robbery, ſuch offender ſhall be adjudged guilty of piracy, felony, and robbery, and ſhall be tried according to the ſtatutes 28 Hen. 8. c. 15. and 11 & 12 Will. 3. c. 7. and being convicted, ſhall ſuffer death, and loſs of lands and goods. And if any perſon belonging to any ſhip, upon meeting any merchant ſhip on the high ſeas, or in any port, haven, or creek, ſhall forcibly board and enter ſuch ſhip, and though they do not ſeize and carry her off, ſhall throw over-board or deſtroy any of the goods, they ſhall be puniſhed as pirates. ſ. 1.

Every ſhip fitted out with a deſign to trade or correſpond with any pirate, and all the merchandizes put on board the ſame with an intention to trade with any pirate, ſhall be forfeited; one moiety to the king, the other to the firſt diſcoverer of ſuch deſign, who may ſue for the ſhip, &c. in the high court of admiralty. ſ. 2.

All perſons who by the act 11 & 12 Will. 3. c. 7. are declared acceſſaries to any piracy, are hereby declared principal pirates. ſ. 3.

Every offender convicted of any piracy, felony, or robbery, by virtue of this act, ſhall not have benefit of clergy. ſ. 4.

If any ſeaman on board of any merchant ſhip ſhall be maimed in fight againſt any pirate, he ſhall not only receive the rewards appointed by 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 11. (ſee SHIPS*)*, but ſhall be provided for in Greenwich Hoſpital preferable to any other ſeaman who is diſabled from ſervice by age. ſ. 5.

If any commander or other officer, or ſeaman, of a merchant ſhip, which carries guns and arms, ſhall not, when they are attacked by any pirate, fight and endeavour to defend themſelves, or ſhall utter any words to diſcourage the other mariners, and by reaſon thereof the ſhip ſhall fall into the hands of the pirate, every ſuch commander, &c. ſhall forfeit all the wages due to him, to the owners of the ſhip, and ſhall ſuffer ſix months impriſonment. ſ. 6.

No maſter or owner of any merchant ſhip ſhall pay to any ſeaman beyond the ſeas any money or effects on account of wages, exceeding one moiety of the wages due at the time of ſuch payment, till ſuch ſhip ſhall return to Great Britain, Ireland, or the plantations, or to ſome other of his majeſty's dominions whereto they belong; on forfeiture of double the money ſo paid, to be recovered in the high court of admiralty by any perſon who ſhall firſt inform for the ſame. ſ. 7.

This act ſhall extend to all his majeſty's dominions in Aſia, Africa, and America. ſ. 10.

By 18 Geo. 2. c. 30. All perſons being natural born ſubjects or denizens, who during the preſent or any future wars ſhall commit any hoſtilities upon the ſea, or in any place where the admirals have juriſdiction, againſt his majeſty's ſubjects, under colour of any commiſſion from any of his majeſty's enemies, or ſhall be any other ways adherent to his majeſty's enemies upon the ſea, or where the admirals have juriſdiction, may be tried as pirates, felons, and robbers, in the court of admiralty, on ſhipboard, or upon the land, and being convicted ſhall ſuffer death, loſs of lands and goods, as any other pirates ought by 11 Will. 3. c. 7. or any other act. ſ. 1.

Any perſon tried and acquitted or convicted, according to this act, ſhall not be liable to be proſecuted or tried again in Great Britain or elſewhere for the ſame fact, as high treaſon. ſ. 2.

Provided, that nothing in this act ſhall prevent any perſons guilty of any of the ſaid crimes, who ſhall not be tried according to this act, from being tried for high treaſon within this realm, according to the 28 Hen. 8. c. 15. ſ. 3.

Plague.

By 1 Jac. 1. c. 31. The mayor, bailiffs, head officers and juſtices of peace, of every city, borough, town corporate and places privileged, or any two of them, ſhall have power to tax every inhabitant, and houſes and hereditaments within the city, &c. for the relief of perſons infected or inhabiting in houſes and places infected in the ſame cities, &c. and to levy the ſame by warrant of the mayor, &c. ſ. 2.

If the party to whom ſuch warrant is directed ſhall not find goods, the mayor, &c. ſhall by like warrant cauſe the perſon to be committed to the gaol until he ſatisfy the taxation. ſ. 3.

If the inhabitants of any city, &c. find themſelves unable to relieve their poor infected perſons, &c. upon certificate thereof by the mayor, &c. the juſtices of peace of the county of or near the ſaid city, &c. or two of them, may tax the inhabitants of the county within five miles of the place infected at weekly rates, to be levied by warrant from ſuch two juſtices. ſ. 4.

If any ſuch infection ſhall be in any borough, town corporate or privileged place, where there are no juſtices of peace, or in any village or hamlet, it ſhall be lawful for any two juſtices of the county to tax the inhabitants of the county within five miles of the place infected, at weekly rates, for relief of the places infected, to be levied by warrant from the juſtices by ſale of goods, and in default thereof by impriſonment; the ſame taxes to be diſpoſed as they ſhall think fit. ſ. 5.

All which rates ſhall be certified at the next quarter-ſeſſions; and if the juſtices of peace at ſuch quarter-ſeſſions ſhall think fit the ſaid rate ſhould continue, or be enlarged, or extended to any other parts of the county, the ſame ſhall be ſo enlarged, &c. and every conſtable and other officer that ſhall wilfully make default in levying ſuch money, ſhall forfeit 10*s.* to be employed on the charitable uſes aforeſaid. ſ. 6.

If any perſon infected, or dwelling in any houſe infected, ſhall be by the mayor, bailiffs, conſtable, or other head officer, of any city, borough, town corporate, privileged place or market town, or by any juſtice of peace, conſtable, headborough, or other officer of the county, commanded to keep his houſe, and ſhall wilfully and contemptuouſly diſobey ſuch appointment, attempting to go abroad, or going abroad, and reſiſting ſuch keepers or watchmen as ſhall be appointed to ſee them kept in, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch watchmen, with violence, to enforce them to keep their houſes; and if any hurt come by ſuch enforcement to ſuch diſobedient perſons, the watchmen and their aſſiſtants ſhall not be impeached therefore. And if any infected perſon ſo commanded to keep houſe, ſhall wilfully and contemptuouſly go abroad, and converſe in company, having any infectious ſore upon him uncured, ſuch perſon ſhall be adjudged a felon; but if ſuch perſon ſhall not have any ſuch ſore found about him, he ſhall be puniſhed as a vagabond ought to be by 39 Eliz. c. 2. viz. be whipped, but that ſtatute is repealed; and be bound to his good behaviour for one year. ſ. 7.

No attainder of felony by this act ſhall extend to any corruption of blood, or forfeiture of goods or lands. ſ. 8.

It ſhall be lawful for juſtices of peace, mayors, bailiffs, and other head officers, to appoint ſearchers, watchmen, examiners, keepers and buryers, for the perſons and places infected, and to miniſter unto them oaths for the performance of their offices, and give them other directions as for the preſent neceſſity ſhall ſeem good. ſ. 9.

And this act was continued indefinitely by 3 Car. 1. c. 4. and 16 Car. 1. c. 4.

No mayor, &c. ſhall by force of this act do any thing within either the univerſities, or within any cathedral church, or the precincts thereof, or within the colleges of Eaton or Wincheſter; but the vice chancellor of either of the univerſities, and the biſhop and dean of every cathedral church, and the provoſt or warden of either of the ſaid colleges, ſhall have all ſuch power within their precincts, as any mayor, &c. ſ. 10.

By 26 Geo. 2. c. 6. All ſhips, perſons, and merchandizes, coming into any place within Great Britain or Ireland, or the iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from any place from whence his majeſty, with the advice of his privy council, ſhall judge it probable that the infection may be brought, ſhall be obliged to make their quarentine in ſuch place, for ſuch time, and in ſuch manner, as ſhall be directed by his majeſty, by his order in council, notified by proclamation, or publiſhed in the London Gazette; and until ſuch ſhips, perſons, and merchandizes, ſhall be diſcharged from ſuch quarentine, no ſuch perſon or merchandizes ſhall come or be brought on ſhore, or go or be put on board any other ſhip in any place within his majeſty's dominions, unleſs in ſuch manner, and in ſuch caſes, and by ſuch licence, as ſhall be permitted by ſuch order; and all ſuch ſhips, and the perſons or goods on board, and all veſſels and perſons receiving any goods or perſons out of the ſame, ſhall be ſubject to ſuch orders concerning quarentine, and the prevention of infection, as have been or ſhall be made by his majeſty in council, and notified by proclamation, or publiſhed in the London Gazette as aforeſaid. ſ. 1.

If the plague appear on board any ſhip being to the northward of Cape Finiſterre, the maſter, or perſon having charge thereof, ſhall immediately proceed to the harbour of New Grimſby in the iſlands of Scilly [The place is changed for St. Helen's Pool by 29 Geo. 2. c. 8.], and make known his caſe to the officer of the cuſtoms there, who ſhall immediately acquaint ſome cuſtom-houſe officer of ſome near port of England; and the ſaid cuſtom-houſe officer ſhall with all ſpeed ſend intelligence thereof to one of the principal ſecretaries of ſtate, that meaſures may be taken for the ſupport of the crew of ſuch ſhip, and precautions uſed to prevent the ſpreading of the infection, and the ſhip ſhall remain at the iſlands of Scilly, till his majeſty's pleaſure be known; nor ſhall any of her crew go on ſhore; but in caſe the maſter be not able to make the iſlands of Scilly, or be forced by ſtreſs of weather, or otherwiſe, to go up either of the channels, he ſhall not preſume to enter into any port, but ſhall remain in ſome open road, till he receives orders from his majeſty, or his privy council, and ſhall take care to prevent any of his ſhip's company from going out of his ſhip, and to avoid all intercourſe with other ſhips or perſons; and the maſter, or any other perſon on board, who ſhall be diſobedient herein ſhall be adjudged guilty of felony, and ſhall ſuffer death as in caſes of felony, without benefit of clergy: and every ſuch offence ſo made felony may be enquired of and determined in the county where the offence ſhall be committed, or where he ſhall be apprehended. ſ. 2.

When any place is infected with the plague, or any order is made by his majeſty concerning quarentine, as often as any ſhip ſhall attempt to enter into any place in Great Britain or Ireland, or of the iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, the principal officer of the cuſtoms in ſuch place, or ſuch perſon as ſhall be authorized to ſee quarentine performed, ſhall go off, or cauſe ſome other perſon to go off to ſuch ſhip; and at a convenient diſtance demand of the commander an account of the following particulars, viz. the name of the commander, at what places the cargo was taken on board, what places the ſhip touched at in her voyage, whether ſuch places were infected with the plague, how long ſuch ſhip had been in her paſſage, how many perſons were on board when the ſaid ſhip ſet ſail, whether any and what perſons during that voyage on board had been infected with the plague, how many died in the voyage and of what diſtemper, what ſhips he or any of his company with his privity went on board, or had any of their company come on board his ſhip in the voyage, and to what place ſuch ſhips belonged, and the contents of his lading. And if it appear that any perſon then on board, at the time of ſuch examination, be infected with the plague, or that ſuch ſhip is obliged to perform quarentine, the officers of any ſhips of war, or any forts or garriſons, and other his majeſty's officers whom it may concern, upon notice, and any other perſon whom they may call to their aſſiſtance, ſhall oblige ſuch ſhip to go to the place appointed for quarentine, and uſe all neceſſary means for that purpoſe, be it by firing guns at ſuch ſhip, or any other force or violence. And in caſe any ſhip ſhall come from any place viſited with the plague, or have any perſon on board infected, and the commander ſhall conceal the ſame, he ſhall be adjudged guilty of felony, and ſhall ſuffer death; and in caſe ſuch commander ſhall upon ſuch demand as aforeſaid not make a true diſcovery in any other of the particulars aforeſaid, for every ſuch offence he ſhall forfeit 200 l. one moiety to the king, and the other moiety to him who ſhall ſue, by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter, Edinburgh, Dublin, or in the proper courts of the iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man. ſ. 3.

Every maſter or perſon having charge of any veſſel ordered to perform quarentine, ſhall, after his arrival at the place appointed for quarentine, deliver, on demand, to the chief officer appointed to ſee quarentine performed there, ſuch bill of health and manifeſt as he ſhall have received from any Britiſh conſul during his voyage, together with his log book and journal; under penalty of forfeiting 500 l. one moiety to the king, the other moiety to him who ſhall ſue by action of debt, &c. in any of the courts aforeſaid. ſ. 4.

If any commander liable to perform quarentine, having notice, ſhall himſelf quit, or knowingly permit any ſeaman or paſſenger to quit ſuch ſhip, before ſuch quarentine ſhall be fully performed, unleſs in ſuch caſes, and by ſuch licence, as ſhall be directed by ſuch order concerning quarentine, or in caſe any commander ſhall not within convenient time after notice, cauſe ſuch ſhip and the lading to be conveyed into the place appointed, for every ſuch offence he ſhall forfeit 500 l. one moiety to the king, and the other moiety to him who will ſue for the ſame; and if any perſon ſo quit ſuch ſhip contrary to this act, it ſhall be lawful for all perſons by any kind of force to compel ſuch perſon to return on board; and every perſon ſo quitting ſuch ſhip ſhall, for every ſuch offence, ſuffer impriſonment for ſix months, and forfeit 200 l. one moiety to the king, the other moiety to him that will ſue for the ſame; the ſame penalties to be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any of the courts aforeſaid. ſ. 5.

Whenever his majeſty, with the conſent of parliament, ſhall direct houſes or lazarets to be provided for the receiving perſons, or the depoſiting and airing of goods, liable to perform quarentine, it ſhall be lawful to erect the ſame either in any waſte grounds or commons, or where ſuch grounds are not ſufficient, in the ſeveral grounds of any perſons, not being a houſe, park, garden, orchard, yard, or planted walk, or avenue to a houſe, paying ſuch rent or conſideration as ſhall be agreed on between the perſons intereſted, their guardians or truſtees, and any two perſons appointed by his majeſty under his ſign manual; and in caſe of any difference concerning ſuch conſideration, the ſaid perſons appointed by his majeſty are, 30 clear days before any general or quarter-ſeſſions of the peace for the counties or diviſions where ſuch grounds lie, to give to the occupiers of ſuch ſeveral grounds, or cauſe to be left at their laſt places of abode, a notice in writing, deſcribing the ground, and purporting that the rent or conſideration will be ſettled by a jury at the ſaid ſeſſions; and the juſtices at their ſaid ſeſſions, upon proof that ſuch notices have been given, ſhall charge the jury which ſhall attend at the ſaid ſeſſions, or ſome other jury of 12 men (to be then and there impanelled and returned by the ſheriff without fee), and cauſe them to be ſworn to aſſeſs the value of the ground compriſed in the ſaid notices, and the rent or conſideration to be given for the ſame, to which jury the ſaid perſons appointed by his majeſty, and the parties intereſted in ſuch ground, ſhall have their lawful challenges; and the ſaid jury, after evidence on oath, ſhall by their verdict aſſeſs the rent or conſideration to be given for ſuch ground to the owners, according to their reſpective intereſts; which verdict and judgment of the juſtices thereupon, ſhall finally bind all parties; and after ſuch verdict and judgment, his majeſty ſhall hold ſuch ground for all ſuch time as he ſhall judge neceſſary for the purpoſes aforeſaid, paying for the ſame ſuch rent or other conſideration as ſhall be agreed upon or aſſeſſed as aforeſaid. ſ. 6.

The officers authorized to put in execution ſuch orders as aforeſaid, ſhall compel all perſons obliged to perform quarentine, and all goods compriſed within any ſuch orders, to repair or to be conveyed to ſome of the ſaid houſes or lazarets, or to ſuch other places as ſhall be provided for the reception of ſuch perſons, or for the opening and airing of ſuch goods. ſ. 7.

If any perſon obliged to perform quarentine, ſhall wilfully refuſe or neglect to repair, within convenient time after after notice by the proper officer, to the place appointed; or having been placed, ſhall eſcape or attempt to eſcape out of the ſame before quarentine performed, it ſhall be lawful for the watchmen, and other perſons appointed to ſee quarentine performed, by force to compel ſuch perſon to repair or return into ſuch place; and every perſon ſo refuſing or neglecting to repair to ſuch place appointed, and every perſon eſcaping, ſhall be adjudged guilty of felony, and ſhall ſuffer death. ſ. 8.

All perſons liable to perform quarentine ſhall be ſubject during the ſaid quarentine to orders from the officers authorized to ſee it performed: and the ſaid officers are to enforce obedience to their orders, and may call in others to their aſſiſtance. ſ. 9.

If any perſon not infected nor liable to perform quarentine, enter any lazaret or place appointed as aforeſaid, whilſt any perſon infected or under quarentine ſhall be therein, and ſhall return or attempt to return from thence, unleſs in ſuch caſes, and by ſuch licence, as ſhall be directed by ſuch order as aforeſaid, it ſhall be lawful for the watchmen to compel ſuch perſon to repair into ſuch lazaret, there to continue and perform quarentine: and in caſe ſuch perſon eſcape out of ſuch lazaret, before he ſhall have performed the ſame, he ſhall be adjudged guilty of felony, and ſhall ſuffer death. ſ. 10.

If any officer of the cuſtoms, or other perſon to whom it ſhall appertain to execute any order concerning quarentine, be guilty of any wilful breach or neglect of duty, he ſhall forfeit his office in the cuſtoms, or any other office, and ſhall become incapable to hold the ſame, or to take a new grant thereof, and forfeit 100*l.* one moiety to the king, and the other moiety to him who ſhall ſue, by action of debt, &c. in any of the courts aforeſaid; and if any ſuch perſon embezzle or willingly damage any goods performing quarentine under his direction, he ſhall be liable to pay treble damages and coſts of ſuit. ſ. 11.

Whereas goods liable to retain infection may be brought from places infected into other countries, and from thence imported in ſhips not obliged to perform quarentine, all ſuch goods as ſhall be particularly ſpecified in any order concerning quarentine, which ſhall be imported into his majeſty's dominions from any foreign country in any ſhip, ſhall be ſubject to ſuch order. ſ. 12.

After quarentine performed by any ſhip or perſons, and upon proof by the oaths of the maſter and two of the perſons belonging to ſuch ſhip, or by the oaths of two witneſſes, before the cuſtomer, comptroller, or collector of the port where ſuch quarentine ſhall be performed, or the next port, or before any of their deputies, or any juſtice of peace near ſuch port, or where ſuch quarentine ſhall have been performed within any of the iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, before any two jurats or magiſtrates of any of the ſaid iſles, that ſuch ſhip and perſons have duly performed quarentine, and that the ſhip and all ſuch perſons are free from infection; and after producing a certificate to that purpoſe, ſigned by the chief officer who ſuperintended the quarentine, then ſuch cuſtomer, comptroller, or collector, or any of their deputies, together with the ſaid juſtice of peace, or ſuch jurats, are to give a certificate thereof; and thereupon ſuch ſhip and perſons ſhall be liable to no further reſtraint upon the ſame account. ſ. 13.

The officer before whom ſuch oath ſhall be made, and by whom ſuch certificate ſhall be given, ſhall for ſuch oath and certificate take no fee. ſ. 14.

All goods liable to quarentine ſhall be opened and aired in ſuch place, for ſuch time, and in ſuch manner, as ſhall be directed by his majeſty by ſuch order: and after ſuch orders ſhall have been duly complied with, and a certificate thereof given by the chief officer appointed to ſuperintend the quarentine, and proof made thereof by the oaths of two witneſſes, before the cuſtomer, comptroller, or collector of the port next to ſuch place where ſuch goods ſhall have been opened and aired, or any of their deputies, or any juſtice of peace near the ſame, or before any two jurats of the ſaid iſles, upon certificate and return of ſuch proof by ſuch cuſtomer, &c. to the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms of Great Britain or Ireland, or to the governor or commander in chief upon the place in the iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, reſpectively, ſuch goods ſhall be diſcharged from any reſtraint upon the ſame account, by order of the ſaid commiſſioners, or two of them, or of the ſaid governor: for every of which oath, certificate, and order, no fee ſhall be taken. ſ. 15.

If any officer or other perſon demand or take any fee for any ſuch oath, order, or certificate made in purſuance of this act, he ſhall forfeit 100*l.*; one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety to him who ſhall ſue, by action of debt, &c. in any of the courts aforeſaid reſpectively; in which caſe treble coſts ſhall be allowed to either party as in other caſes. ſ. 16.

If any officer or other perſon appointed to ſee quarentine duly performed, or any watchmen upon any houſe, lazaret, ſhip, or other place, for performance of quarentine, ſhall deſert from their duty when employed on the ſaid buſineſs of quarentine, or ſhall willingly permit any perſon, ſhip, or goods, to depart, or be conveyed out of ſuch houſe, &c. unleſs in ſuch caſes, and by ſuch licence, as ſhall be directed by ſome order; or if any perſon directed to give a certificate of a ſhip's having performed her quarentine or airing, ſhall knowingly give a falſe certificate; every ſuch officer and perſon ſo offending ſhall ſuffer death. ſ. 17.

If any perſon ſhall knowingly or wilfully conceal from the officers of quarentine, or ſhall clandeſtinely convey any letters or goods, from any ſhip under quarentine, or liable to perform quarentine, or from any place where goods ſhall be performing quarentine, every perſon ſo offending ſhall ſuffer death. ſ. 18.

When any part of Great Britain, Ireland, or the iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or France, Spain, Portugal, or the Low Countries, ſhall be infected with the plague, it ſhall be lawful for his majeſty by proclamation to prohibit all ſmall boats and veſſels under the burden of twenty tons, from ſailing or paſſing out of any port of Great Britain or Ireland, or the iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, or any of them, until ſecurity be firſt given by the maſter to the ſatisfaction of the principal officer of the cuſtoms, or the chief magiſtrate of the place, by bond taken to the king with ſufficient ſureties, in the penalty of 300*l.* with condition that if ſuch boat or veſſel ſhall not go to any place mentioned in ſuch proclamation, and if the maſter, mariners and paſſengers in ſuch veſſel, ſhall, during the time aforeſaid, not go on board any other veſſel at ſea, and if ſuch maſter ſhall not permit any perſon to come on board ſuch veſſel at ſea from any other veſſel, and ſhall not during the time aforeſaid receive any goods out of any other veſſel, then ſuch bond ſhall be void: for the making of which bond no fee ſhall be taken. And in caſe any veſſel for which ſuch ſecurity ſhall be required by ſuch proclamation ſhall ſet ſail or paſs out of any port aforeſaid before ſuch ſecurity be given, every ſuch veſſel, together with her tackle and furniture, ſhall be forfeited to the king, and may be ſeized and recovered covered in the court of exchequer at Weſtminſter, Edinburgh, or Dublin, or in the proper courts of the iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man reſpectively, to the uſe of his majeſty: and the maſter and every mariner ſailing in any ſuch veſſel, being convicted upon their appearance or default, upon the oath of one witneſs, by a juſtice of peace where ſuch offender ſhall be found, ſhall forfeit 20*l.* one moiety to the informer, the other moiety to the poor of the pariſh where ſuch offender ſhall be found; to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods, by warrant of ſuch juſtice, and for want of ſufficient diſtreſs, every ſuch offender ſhall by ſuch juſtice be committed to priſon for three months: and in caſe any ſuch offender be found in any of the iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, and be convicted of ſuch offence in the proper court, he ſhall forfeit 20*l.* one moiety to the informer, and the other moiety to the poor of the pariſh, and in default of paying ſuch penalty, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment for three months. ſ. 19.

As often as his majeſty ſhall make any order concerning quarentine, and notify the ſame by proclamation, or cauſe the ſame to be publiſhed in the London Gazette, ſuch proclamation or order in council ſhall be publicly read on the next Sunday on which divine ſervice ſhall be performed after the receipt of the ſame, and the firſt Sunday in every month afterwards (during the time ſuch order ſhall continue in force) immediately after the prayers, in all pariſh churches, and other places ſet apart for divine worſhip, within ſuch places as ſhall be ſpecified in ſuch proclamation or orders. ſ. 20.

If any action be commenced for any thing done in purſuance of this act, the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff be nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 21.

Provided that no attainder of felony by virtue of this act ſhall work any corruption of blood, or forfeiture of any goods, lands or hereditaments. ſ. 22.

By 29 Geo. 2. c. 8. The clauſe in the 26 Geo. 2. c. 6. ſ. 2. whereby the ſtationing of ſhips infected with the plague, to the northward of Cape Finiſterre, is confined to the harbour of New Grimſby, ſhall be repealed. ſ. 1.

If the plague appear on board any ſhip being to the northward of Cape Finiſterre, the maſter or perſon having charge of ſuch ſhip ſhall immediately proceed to the harbour of Saint Helen's Pool, between the uninhabited iſlands of Saint Helen's, Tean, and North Withel, or to ſuch other place as his majeſty, with the advice of his privy council, ſhall appoint; and ſhall there remain in like manner, and ſubject to the like regulations and penalties for diſobedience, as are provided by the ſaid act; and the cuſtom-houſe officers ſhall ſend intelligence to one of the principal ſecretaries of ſtate, of all ſhips infected with the plague coming into the ſaid harbour of Saint Helen's Pool, or ſuch other place as ſhall be appointed, as they are by the ſaid act required to do. ſ. 2.

By 28 Geo. 3. c. 34. In addition to the particulars which the principal officer of cuſtoms, or ſuch perſon as ſhall be authoriſed to ſee quarentine performed, is required by 26 Geo. 2. c. 6. to demand an account of, from the commander of any veſſel, which ſhall attempt to enter into any port in Great Britain or Ireland, or Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, and of which particulars ſo demanded, the ſaid commander is, by the ſaid act, to give account of, under the penalties by the act inflicted; the ſaid principal officer, or perſon authoriſed to ſee quarentine performed, ſhall demand of the ſaid commander, and the ſaid commander ſhall give a true account of the following particulars; viz. whether his veſſel touched at the Iſle of Rhodes, the Morea, or any part of Africa within the Mediterranean or Levant ſeas, or the port of Magadore; or whether any of the ſhip's company, or other perſon on board, had, during the voyage homewards, in any manner whatever, any communication with any veſſel coming from any of thoſe places? what pilots or perſons from the ſhores of Great Britain, the iſlands of Scilly, Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, have been on board, or had any communication with his ſhip's company, in any manner whatever, during the voyage homewards? and whether any of his ſhip's company had been ſick, and of what diſorder, in the courſe of the voyage, or were ſo at the time the particulars are demanded? And in caſe ſuch commander ſhall, upon demand, give an untrue anſwer, ſuch commander ſhall forfeit 200*l.* to be recovered and applied as the penalty inflicted by the ſaid act, for not making a diſcovery of the particulars required thereby. ſ. 1.

It ſhall not be neceſſary to give any actual notice of any order of his majeſty in council, or of any regulations therein contained, which are now in force touching quarentine; and it ſhall be lawful for his majeſty, by order in council, to limit a time, after which the publication of ſuch order in the London Gazette ſhall be deemed ſufficient notice to all perſons concerned, of all orders in council. ſ. 2.

Every commander liable to performance of quarentine, ſhall, in caſe of falling in with any veſſel at ſea, or within four leagues of Great Britain or Ireland, or the iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, hoiſt a particular ſignal, to denote that his veſſel is liable to quarentine; ſuch ſignal, for the day, to be a large yellow flag at the main top-maſt head; and, for the night, to be a light at the ſame maſt head; on failure whereof, ſuch commander ſhall forfeit 200*l.* ſ. 3.

Every offence committed contrary to the ſaid act, or this, or any order in council touching quarentine, and notified by proclamation, or publiſhed in the Gazette, ſhall be tried in any county within Great Britain, or in the proper courts of the iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man. ſ. 4.

Plantations.

DUTIES.

Exportation.

By 25 Car. 2 c. 7. If any ſhip, which by law may trade in his majeſty's plantations, ſhall come to any of them to ſhip any of the commodities, and bond ſhall not be firſt given with ſurety to bring the ſame to England, Wales, or Berwick, and there to unload the ſame (the danger of the ſeas excepted), there ſhall be paid to his majeſty for ſo much of the ſaid commodities as ſhall be put on board ſuch ſhips, theſe duties; viz.

Ginger the cwt. 1 s.
Logwood, — 5 l.
Fuſtick, and all other dying wood, 6 d.
And for every lb. of cocoa nuts, 1 d.

to be collected, as ſhall be appointed, in the plantations before the lading thereof, and under ſuch penalties as for defrauding defrauding his majeſty of his cuſtoms in England. ſ. 2.

The duties hereby impoſed ſhall be cauſed to be levied by the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms in England, by the authority of the treaſury. ſ. 3.

In caſe any perſon liable to pay the duties ſhall not have monies to pay the ſame, the officers ſhall accept ſuch a proportion of the commodities as ſhall amount to the value. ſ. 4.

Importation.

By 6 Geo. 2. c. 13. ſ. 1. There ſhall be paid to his majeſty upon all rum or ſpirits of the produce of any colonies in America not under the dominion of his majeſty, which ſhall be imported into any of the plantations in America under the dominion of his majeſty, 9*d.* for every gallon.

And upon ſugars and paneles of foreign produce, 5*s.* for every cwt.

By 4 Geo. 3. c. 15. For every cwt. of foreign white or clayed ſugars, 1*l.* 2*s.*

For every lb. of foreign indico, 6*d.*

For every cwt. of foreign coffee imported from any place, except Great Britain, 2*l.* 19*s.* 9*d.*

For every ton of wine of the growth of the Madeiras, or any other place from whence ſuch wine may be imported, which ſhall be imported from ſuch iſlands or places, 7*l.*

For every ton of Portugal, Spaniſh, or other wine (except French), imported from Great Britain, 10*s.*

By 6 Geo. 3. c. 52. ſ. 4. There ſhall be paid for every gallon (wine meaſure) of melaſſes and ſyrups imported (except as after mentioned) into any colony or plantation in America, under the dominion of his majeſty, 1*d.*

For every cwt. of coffee of the growth and produce of any Britiſh colony, imported from thence into any other Britiſh colony, 7*s.*

And for every lb. avoirdupois weight of Britiſh pimento, imported into ſuch Britiſh colony, $\frac{1}{2}$, except ſuch Britiſh coffee and pimento as ſhall be warehouſed under the regulations of this act.

For the duties payable in Quebec, ſee 14 Geo. 3. c. 88. and the tonnage duties at Turks iſlands, 28 Geo. 3. c. 6. ſ. 7.

By 12 Car. 2. c. 18. Confirmed by 13 Car. 2. c. 14. No ſugars, tobacco, cotton-wool, indicoes, ginger, fuſtick, or other dying wood, of the production of any Engliſh plantations in America, Aſia, or Africa, ſhall be carried from any the ſaid Engliſh plantations to any place whatſoever, other than to ſuch Engliſh plantations as belong to his majeſty, or to England, Ireland, Wales, or Berwick, there to be laid on ſhore; under the penalty of forfeiture of the goods, or the value thereof, as alſo of the ſhip, with her tackle; the one moiety to the king, and the other moiety to him that ſhall ſeize or ſue for the ſame in any court of record. ſ. 18.

For every ſhip which ſhall ſet out from England, Ireland, Wales, or Berwick, for any Engliſh plantation in America, Aſia, or Africa, bond ſhall be given, with one ſurety, to the chief officers of the cuſtom-houſe of ſuch port from whence the ſhip ſhall ſet ſail, to the value of 1000*l.* if the ſhip be of leſs burden than 100 tons, and of 2000*l.* if the ſhip be of greater burden, that in caſe the ſhip ſhall load any of the ſaid commodities at the Engliſh plantations, that the ſame ſhall be by the ſaid ſhip brought to ſome port of England, Wales, Ireland, or Berwick, and ſhall there unload the ſame, danger of the ſeas excepted; and for all ſhips coming from any other place to any of the plantations, the governor of ſuch plantation ſhall, before the ſhip be permitted to load any of the ſaid commodities, take bond to the value aforeſaid, that ſuch ſhip ſhall carry all the aforeſaid goods to ſome other of his majeſty's Engliſh plantations, or to England, Ireland, Wales, or Berwick: and every ſhip which ſhall take on board any of the aforeſaid goods, until ſuch bond given to the governor, or certificate produced from the officers of any cuſtom-houſe of England, Ireland, Wales, or Berwick, that ſuch bonds have been there given, ſhall be forfeited with all her tackle, to be employed and recovered as aforeſaid. And the ſaid governors ſhall, twice every year, return copies of all ſuch bonds to the chief officers of the cuſtoms in London. ſ. 19.

By 15 Car. 2. c. 7. No commodity of the production of Europe ſhall be imported into any plantation or place which ſhall belong to his majeſty in Aſia, Africa, or America, but what ſhall be ſhipped in England, Wales, or Berwick, and in Engliſh built ſhipping, and whereof the maſter and three-fourths of the mariners are Engliſh, and which ſhall be carried directly thence to the ſaid plantations; under the penalty of the loſs of all ſuch commodities imported from any other place, and if by water, of the ſhip alſo with her tackle; one third to his majeſty, one third to the governor of ſuch plantation, if the ſhip be there ſeized or informed againſt, or otherwiſe, that third part alſo to his majeſty, and the other third part to him who ſhall ſeize or ſue for the ſame in any of his majeſty's courts in ſuch plantations where the offence was committed, or in any court of record in England. ſ. 6.

Provided, that it ſhall be lawful to lade in ſhips, navigated as in the foregoing clauſe, in any part of Europe, ſalt for the fiſheries of New England and Newfoundland; and to ſhip in the Madeiras, wines of the growth thereof; and to ſhip in the weſtern iſlands or Azores, wines of the growth of the ſaid iſlands; and to take in ſervants or horſes in Ireland, and to ſhip in Ireland victual of the production of Ireland; and the ſame to tranſport into any of the ſaid plantations. ſ. 7.

Every perſon importing by land any goods into the ſaid plantations, ſhall deliver to the governor, or to ſuch perſon as ſhall be by him appointed, within 24 hours after ſuch importation, his name, and a particular of all ſuch goods; and no ſhip coming to any ſuch plantation, ſhall lade or unlade any goods, until the maſter ſhall firſt have made known to the governor, or ſuch other officer as ſhall be by him appointed, the arrival of the ſhip, with her name, and the name of her commander, and have ſhewn to him that ſhe is an Engliſh built ſhip, or made good by producing ſuch certificate, that ſhe is a ſhip belonging to England, Wales, or Berwick, and navigated with an Engliſh maſter, and three-fourth parts of the mariners Engliſh, and have delivered to ſuch governor or other officer, an inventory of her lading, with the places in which the goods were laden; under the pain of loſs of the ſhip with her tackle, and of all ſuch goods of the production of Europe as were not laden in England, Wales, or Berwick, to be recovered and divided in manner aforeſaid. And all governors of the plantations ſhall, before their entrance upon ſuch truſt, take oath before ſuch perſons as ſhall be authoriſed by his majeſty, to do their utmoſt to cauſe to be obſerved, what is in this act enacted in relation to the trade of ſuch plantations, under the penalty of being removed. And if any of them be found to have willingly offended contrary to this act, they ſhall be turned out of their governments, and be incapable of the government of any other plantation, and forfeit 1000*l.*; the one moiety to his majeſty, and the other other moiety to him that ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of his majeſty's courts in the ſaid plantations, or in any court of record in England. ſ. 8.

If any officer of the cuſtoms in England, Wales, or Berwick, ſhall give any warrant for, or ſuffer, any ſugar, tobacco, ginger, cotton-wool, indico, ſpeckle-wood, or Jamaica wood, fuſtick, or other dying wood, of the growth of the plantations, to be carried into any other country, until they have been firſt unladen in ſome port in England, Wales, or Berwick, ſuch officer ſhall forfeit his place, and the value of ſuch of the goods as he ſhall give warrant for, or ſuffer to paſs; the one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety to him that ſhall ſue for the ſame in any court of record in England or Wales. ſ. 9.

By 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 26. The word Ireland ſhall be left out of all bonds taken for any ſhip which ſhall ſet ſail from England, Ireland, Wales, or Berwick, for any Engliſh plantation in America, Aſia, or Africa; and in caſe the ſhip ſhall load any of the ſaid commodities at the ſaid Engliſh plantations, the ſaid commodities ſhall be by the ſaid ſhip brought to ſome port of England, Wales, or Berwick, and ſhall there unload the ſame, danger of the ſeas excepted. And in like manner for all ſhips coming from any other port to the ſaid plantations, the governor of ſuch plantations ſhall, before the ſhip be permitted to load any of the ſaid commodities, take bond in manner directed in the act 12 Car. 2. c. 18. for the encouraging of navigation, that ſuch ſhip ſhall carry all the ſaid goods to ſome other of his majeſty's Engliſh plantations, or to England, Wales, or Berwick. And every ſuch ſhip which ſhall load any of the ſaid commodities, until ſuch bond given, or certificate produced from the officers of ſome cuſtom-houſe of England, Wales, or Berwick, that ſuch bond hath been there given; or which, contrary to the tenor of ſuch bond, ſhall carry the ſaid goods to any place other than to other Engliſh plantations, or to England, Wales, or Berwick, and there lay the ſame on ſhore; every ſuch ſhip ſhall be forfeited with her tackle and lading; one moiety to the king, and the other moiety to him that will ſeize and ſue for the ſame in any of the plantations, in the court of the high admiral of England, or of any of his vice-admirals, or in any court of record in England. ſ. 11.

The governors of his majeſty's plantations ſhall, once a year, make a return to his majeſty's officers of his cuſtoms in the port of London, or to ſuch other perſons as his majeſty ſhall appoint, a liſt of all ſuch ſhips as ſhall lade any of the ſaid commodities in ſuch plantations, as alſo a liſt of the bonds taken by them. And in caſe any ſhip belonging to his majeſty's plantations, which ſhall have on board any ſugars, tobacco, cotton-wool, indicoes, ginger, fuſtick, or other dying wood, ſhall be found to have unladed in any place of Europe, other than England, Wales, or Berwick, ſuch ſhip ſhall be forfeited, with her tackle and lading as aforeſaid. ſ. 12.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon to proſecute ſuch ſhip in any court of admiralty in England; the one moiety of the forfeiture to be to his majeſty, and the other moiety to ſuch proſecutor. ſ. 13.

By 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 22. No goods ſhall be imported into, or exported out of, any plantation to his majeſty in Aſia, Africa, or America, belonging, or ſhall be carried from any one port in the plantations to any other port in the ſame, the kingdom of England, Wales, or Berwick, in any ſhip but what ſhall be of the built of England or of Ireland, or the plantations, and wholly owned by the people thereof, and navigated with the maſters and three-fourths of the mariners of the ſaid places (except ſhips taken prize, and condemnation thereof made in the courts of admiralty in England, Ireland, or the plantations, to be navigated by the maſter and three-fourths of the mariners Engliſh, or of the plantations, and whereof the property doth belong to Engliſhmen), under pain of forfeiture of ſhip and goods; one third to his majeſty, one third to the governor of the plantations, and the other third to the perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, or in any court in his majeſty's plantations where ſuch offence ſhall be committed. ſ. 2.

Merchandizes may be exported or imported to and from this kingdom and places aforeſaid in any ſhips taken as prize, and whereof condemnation ſhall be made in one of the courts of admiralty aforeſaid, and ſhall be navigated by the maſter and three-fourths of the mariners Engliſh, and whereof the property ſhall belong to Engliſhmen. ſ. 3.

All governors of the plantations, before their entrance into their government, ſhall take an oath to do their utmoſt, that all the clauſes contained in the acts of parliament in force relating to the plantations, and in this act, be obſerved; which oath ſhall be taken before ſuch perſons as ſhall be appointed by his majeſty: and upon complaint and proof made before his majeſty, or ſuch as ſhall be by him appointed, by the oath of two witneſſes, that any the governors have neglected to take the ſaid oath, or have been willingly negligent in doing their duty, the governor ſo neglecting ſhall be removed from his government, and forfeit 1000 l. ſ. 4.

The naval officers appointed by the governors of the plantations by virtue of 15 Car. 2. c. 7. ſhall within two months, or as ſoon as conveniently may be after their entrance upon the office, give ſecurity to the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms, for his majeſty's uſe, for their true and faithful performance of their duty; and in default thereof, the perſons neglecting ſhall be diſabled to execute the ſaid office; and until ſuch ſecurity given, and the perſon appointed to the ſaid office be approved by the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms, the governor ſhall be anſwerable for any neglects or miſdemeanors of the perſon by him appointed. ſ. 5.

All ſhips coming into, or going out of, any of the plantations, and lading or unlading any goods, whether the ſame be his majeſty's ſhips of war or merchant ſhips, and the commanders thereof, ſhall be liable to the ſame rules, viſitations, and forfeitures, as to the entering, lading, or diſcharging their ſhips, as ſhips are liable to in this kingdom by 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 11. for preventing frauds in his majeſty's cuſtoms; and the officers for collecting his majeſty's revenue, and inſpecting the plantation trade, in the plantations, ſhall have the ſame powers for ſearching of ſhips and taking their entries, and for ſeizing goods prohibited, or for which any duties are payable, as are provided for the officers of the cuſtoms in England by the ſaid act, and alſo to enter houſes or warehouſes, to ſearch for and ſeize ſuch goods; and all the wharfingers, lightermen, or other perſons aſſiſting in the concealment or reſcue of the ſaid goods, or in the hindering the officers in the performance of their duty, and the veſſels employed in the conveyance of ſuch goods, ſhall be ſubject to the like penalties as are provided by the ſame act in relation to prohibited or uncuſtomed goods in this kingdom; and the like aſſiſtance ſhall be given to the officers, as by the act is provided for the officers in England; and the officers ſhall be ſubject to the ſame penalties for any frauds or concealments, as officers of the cuſtoms in England; and in caſe any officer of the plantations ſhall be ſued for any thing done in the execution of their office, he may plead the general general iſſue, and have the like privileges as are allowed by law to the officers of cuſtoms in England. ſ. 6.

The penalties before-mentioned, not in this act particularly diſpoſed of, ſhall be one third to his majeſty, one third to the governor of the plantation where the offence ſhall be committed, and the other third to ſuch perſon as ſhall ſue for the ſame; to be recovered in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, or in Ireland, in the court of admiralty in his majeſty's plantations, or in any other plantation belonging to any ſubject of England. And where any queſtion ſhall ariſe concerning the importation or exportation of any goods into or out of the ſaid plantations, the proof ſhall lie upon the owner; and the claimer ſhall be reputed the importer or owner. ſ. 7.

Notwithſtanding the payment of the duties granted by 25 Car. 2. c. 7. in any of the plantations, none of the goods mentioned in the act ſhall be ſhipt, until ſecurity be given, as is required by the ſaid acts, to carry the ſame to England, Wales, or Berwick, or to ſome other of his majeſty's plantations, and ſo toties quoties as any of the ſaid goods ſhall be brought to be reſhipt, under forfeiture of ſhip and goods, to be divided as aforeſaid. ſ. 8.

All laws, by-laws, uſages or cuſtoms, which ſhall be in practice in the plantations, repugnant to the before-mentioned laws or to this act, or any other law to be made in this kingdom, ſo far as ſuch law ſhall relate to the plantations, are void. ſ. 9.

Where the governor, or officers appointed by the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms, in the plantations, ſhall have ground of ſuſpicion, that the certificate of having given ſecurity in England is falſe, the governor, or officers of the cuſtoms, ſhall take ſecurity there for the diſcharge of the plantation lading in England, Wales, or Berwick; and where there ſhall be cauſe to ſuſpect that the certificate of having diſcharged her lading of plantation goods in this kingdom is falſe, the governor or officers ſhall not cancel the ſecurity given in the plantation, until they be informed from the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms that the certificate is true; and if any perſon ſhall raſe or falſify any cocket, certificate, return or permit, for any veſſel or goods, or ſhall knowingly make uſe thereof, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 500 l. to be recovered and diſpoſed of as aforeſaid. ſ. 10.

The commiſſioners of the treaſury, and the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms, may appoint ſuch officers of the cuſtoms in any city, town, river, port, harbour or creek, of any of the iſlands, tracts of land and properties, as ſhall ſeem needful. Alſo upon any ſuits brought in the plantations, upon any law concerning his majeſty's duties, or ſhips or goods forfeited by reaſon of any unlawful importations or exportations, there ſhall not be any jury but of ſuch only as are natives of England or Ireland, or born in his majeſty's plantations; and upon all ſuch ſuits the offences may be laid in any colony, province, county or diviſion, of any of the plantations at the pleaſure of the informer. ſ. 11.

All places of truſt in the courts of law, or what relates to the treaſury of the iſlands, ſhall be in the hands of the native born ſubjects of England or Ireland, or of the ſaid iſlands. ſ. 12.

In all bonds to be taken in the plantations by 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 26. the ſureties ſhall be perſons of known reſidence and ability in the plantations, and the condition of the bonds ſhall be, within eighteen months after the date (the danger of the ſeas excepted) to produce certificate of having landed the goods in one of his majeſty's plantations, or in England, Wales, or Berwick, otherwiſe ſuch bond, or copies thereof atteſted under the hand and ſeal of the governor to whom ſuch bonds were given, ſhall be in force, and allowed of in any court in England, Ireland, or the plantations, as if the original were produced. ſ. 13.

It ſhall not be lawful to put on ſhore in Ireland any goods of the produce of his majeſty's plantations, unleſs the ſame have been firſt landed in England, Wales, or Berwick, and paid the duties, under penalty of forfeiture of the ſhip and goods, three-fourths without compoſition to his majeſty, and the other fourth to him that ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 14.

Provided that if any ſhip ſhall by ſtreſs of weather be ſtranded, or by reaſon of leakineſs or other diſability ſhall be driven into any port in Ireland, and not able to proceed on her voyage, the ſaid goods may be put on ſhore, but ſhall be delivered into the cuſtody of the collector or chief officer of the cuſtoms, until the ſaid goods ſhall at the charge of the owner thereof be put on board ſome other ſhip, to be carried to ſome port in England, Wales, or Berwick, the officer taking ſecurity for the delivery of the ſame according to this act. ſ. 15.

Perſons claiming property in any iſlands or tracts of land upon the continent of America by charter, ſhall not alien the ſaid iſlands or properties, other than to the natural-born ſubjects, without the licence of his majeſty ſignified by his order in council. And all governors appointed by ſuch proprietors intitled to make ſuch nomination, ſhall be approved of by his majeſty, and ſhall take the oaths injoined to be taken by the governors in other plantations, before their entering upon their governments. ſ. 16.

No ſhip ſhall paſs as a ſhip of the built of England, Ireland, Wales, Berwick, Guernſey, Jerſey, or any of his majeſty's plantations in America, ſo as to trade to the plantations, until the perſons claiming property in ſuch ſhip ſhall regiſter the ſame, viz. if the ſhip belong to any port in England, Ireland, Wales, or Berwick, proof ſhall be made upon oath of one of the owners, before the collector and comptroller of his majeſty's cuſtoms in ſuch port, or if the ſhip belong to any of his majeſty's plantations in America, or to the iſlands of Guernſey or Jerſey, then the like proof to be made before the governor, with the principal officer of revenue in ſuch plantation or iſland, in the tenor following, viz.

Jurat A. B. that the ſhip of ——— of ——— whereof ——— is at preſent maſter, being a ——— of ——— tuns, was built at ——— in the year ——— and that ——— of ——— and ——— of, &c. are at preſent owners thereof, and that no foreigner, directly or indirectly, hath any ſhare, or part or intereſt therein.

Which oath being atteſted by the governor or cuſtom officer, ſhall after having been regiſtered by them, be delivered to the maſter of the ſhip; a duplicate of which regiſter ſhall be tranſmitted to the commiſſioners of cuſtoms in London, to be entered in a general regiſter there; with penalty upon any ſhip trading to any of his majeſty's plantations in America, and not having made proof as here directed, that ſhe ſhall be liable to ſuch forfeiture as any foreign ſhip except prizes condemned in the admiralty. ſ. 17.

Provided that ſhips taken at ſea by letters of mart or repriſal, and condemnation thereof made in the admiralty of England, ſhall be ſpecially regiſtered with proof that the entire property is Engliſh. ſ. 18.

Nothing in this act ſhall require the regiſtering any fiſher-boats, boys, lighters, barges, or any open boats, whoſe navigation is confined to the rivers, or coaſts of the plantation tion where they trade, but only of ſuch as croſs the ſeas. ſ. 19.

No ſhip's name ſhall be changed without regiſtering ſuch ſhip de novo, which is to be done upon any transfer of property to another port, and delivering up the former certificate, under the ſame penalties as before; and in caſe of any alteration of property in the ſame port by ſale of ſhares after regiſtering, ſuch ſale ſhall be acknowledged by indorſement on the certificate before two witneſſes. ſ. 20.

By 11 Will. 3. c. 12. If any governor, deputy governor, or commander in chief, of any plantation within his majeſty's dominions beyond the ſeas, ſhall be guilty of oppreſſing any of his majeſty's ſubjects beyond the ſeas within their governments, or guilty of any other offence contrary to the laws of this realm, or in force within their governments, ſuch oppreſſions and offences ſhall be enquired of, heard and determined, in his majeſty's court of king's bench in England, or before ſuch commiſſioners, and in ſuch county of this realm, as ſhall be aſſigned by his majeſty's commiſſion, and by lawful men of the ſame county, and ſuch puniſhments ſhall be inflicted on ſuch offenders, as are inflicted for offences of like nature committed in England.

By 6 Ann. c. 30. If any perſon in the plantations, as well thoſe under proprietors and charters as under her majeſty's immediate commiſſion, ſhall, for diſcharge of any contracts, receive or pay any of the ſpecies of foreign ſilver coins mentioned in the queen's proclamation, at any higher rate than at which the ſame is thereby regulated, viz.

(No Sevill, Pillar, or Mexico pieces of eight to be received at above the rate of 6*s.* per piece current money; and all other the ſaid pieces in proportion) every perſon receiving or paying the ſame contrary to the directions therein, ſhall ſuffer ſix months impriſonment; and forfeit 10 l. one moiety to her majeſty, the other moiety to ſuch as ſhall ſue for the ſame with coſts of ſuit in any of her majeſty's courts in the plantations, or in any of the courts of juſtice of the proprietary governments, where ſuch offence ſhall be committed. ſ. 2.

Nothing in the proclamation, or in this act, ſhall compel any perſon to receive any of the ſaid pieces of foreign coins at the rates in the proclamation. ſ. 3.

Nothing in this act ſhall reſtrain her majeſty from ſettling the rates of the ſaid foreign coins within any of the plantations, in ſuch other manner as her majeſty by her royal proclamation ſhall judge proper, or from giving her royal aſſent to any law to be made in the plantations, for aſcertaining the current rates of ſuch coins. ſ. 4.

By 8 Ann. c. 13. Plantation bonds, given for bringing the enumerated commodities to Great Britain, (See 12 Car. 2. c. 18.) in caſe there be no proſecution for breach of the conditions within three years after the dates, or if judgment be not obtained for her majeſty within two years after the proſecution commenced, ſuch plantation bonds ſhall be void, and delivered up by the officers on pain of anſwering all damages with treble coſts. ſ. 23.

By 4 Geo. 1. c. 11. Where any perſon of the age of fifteen years, and under twenty-one, ſhall be willing to be tranſported, and enter into any ſervice, in any of his majeſty's plantations in America, it ſhall be lawful for any merchant, or other, to contract with him for ſuch ſervice not exceeding eight years; provided ſuch perſon binding himſelf come before the lord mayor of London, or ſome other juſtice of the city, if ſuch contract be made there, or before two juſtices of peace of the place where ſuch contract ſhall be made, and acknowledge his conſent, and ſign ſuch contract in their preſence, and with their approbation; and ſuch merchant or other may tranſport ſuch perſon, and keep him in any of the plantations, according to ſuch contract: which contract and approbation of ſuch magiſtrates ſhall be certified by ſuch magiſtrates to the next quarter-ſeſſions, to be regiſtered by the clerk of the peace without fee. ſ. 5.

By 8 Geo. 1. c. 15. All beaver-ſkins and other furs of the product of the Britiſh plantations in America, Aſia, or Africa, ſhall be imported directly from thence into Great Britain, and laid on ſhore there, and not elſewhere, under the penalties, &c. in 12 Car. 2. c. 18. in relation to ſugars, tobacco, and other enumerated goods. ſ. 24.

By 13 Geo. 1. c. 5. Any of his majeſty's ſubjects may carry ſalt from any part of Europe to Pennſylvania in Britiſh ſhips navigated according to 12 Car. 2. c. 18. of navigation; and by 3 Geo. 2. c. 12. to New York, in the ſame manner as ſalt may be imported from Europe into New England and Newfoundland, by 15 Car. 2. c. 7.

By 4 Geo. 2. c. 15. It ſhall be lawful to import into Ireland from his majeſty's plantations in America, all goods of the growth or manufacture of his majeſty's plantations (except ſugars, tobacco, cotton wool, Indigo, ginger, ſpeckle wood, or Jamaica wood, fuſtick or other dying wood, rice, molaſſes, beaver ſkins and other furs, copper ore, pitch, tar, turpentine, maſts, yards, and bow-ſprits) the act 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 22. notwithſtanding. ſ. 1.

Provided that the goods be imported in Britiſh ſhipping, whereof the maſter and three-fourths of the mariners are Britiſh. ſ. 2.

By 5 Geo. 2. c. 7. In any ſuit in any court of law or equity in the plantations, for any debt or account wherein any perſon reſiding in Great Britain ſhall be a party, it ſhall be lawful for the plaintiff or defendant, and for any witneſs, to be examined to prove any matter by affidavit or ſolemn affirmation, before any mayor or chief magiſtrate of the city or town in Great Britain, where, or near which, the perſon ſhall reſide, and certified under the common ſeal of ſuch city or town, or the ſeal of the office of ſuch mayor or chief magiſtrate; and every affidavit or affirmation ſo made and certified ſhall be of the ſame force, as if the perſons had appeared and ſworn or affirmed viva voce in open court, or upon a commiſſion. ſ. 1.

In all ſuits in behalf of his majeſty in the plantations for any debt or account, his majeſty may prove his debts and accounts, and examine his witneſſes, by affidavit or affirmation in like manner. ſ. 2.

If any perſon making ſuch affidavit or affirmation ſhall be guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury, ſuch perſon ſhall incur the penalties by the laws of this realm provided againſt wilful and corrupt perjury. ſ. 3.

The houſes, lands, negroes, and other real eſtates, ſituate within any of the ſaid plantations, belonging to any perſon indebted, ſhall be liable to all juſt debts and demands, mands, and ſhall be aſſets, in like manner as real eſtates are by the law of England liable to the ſatisfaction of debts due by bond, and ſhall be ſubject to the like remedies in any court of law or equity in the plantations, in like manner as perſonal eſtates. ſ. 4.

By 5 Geo. 2. c. 22. No hats or felts ſhall be ſhipt in any of the Britiſh plantations, and no hats or felts ſhall be loaden upon any horſe or carriage, to the intent to be exported out of the ſaid plantations. ſ. 1.

All offenders againſt this act ſhall be ſubject to the penalties herein after mentioned, viz. the hats or felts ſhall be forfeited, and the offenders ſhall forfeit 500 l.; and every maſter, mariner, porter, boatman, or other perſon, knowing ſuch offence, and aſſiſting therein, ſhall forfeit 40 l.; which forfeitures may be recovered in any court of record in Great Britain, or in ſuch of the plantations wherein ſuch offence ſhall be committed; and ſhall be applied, one moiety to the uſe of his majeſty, and the other moiety to him that ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 2.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon to ſeize, and convey to his majeſty's next warehouſe, all ſuch hats and felts as he ſhall diſcover to be laid on board any veſſel, or laid on ſhore near the ſea, or in any navigable river, to the intent to be exported contrary to this act, or to be laden upon any horſe or carriage, to the intent to be exported. ſ. 3.

If any commiſſioner or officer of the cuſtoms, or farmer of the cuſtoms, in the plantations, ſhall ſuffer to be taken any entry outward, or ſign any cocket or ſufferance, for the exporting any hats or felts, or ſuffer the ſame to be done contrary to this act, ſuch commiſſioner, farmer, or officer, ſhall forfeit his office and 500 l. ſ. 4.

Every offence againſt this act ſhall be enquired of and determined in the county where ſuch goods ſhall be ſo laden or put on board, or elſe in the county, either in Great Britain or the plantations, where ſuch offender ſhall be apprehended, or where the goods ſhall be ſeized or brought in; and the trial ſhall be in ſuch manner, as if the offence had been wholly done in the county where the ſame ſhall be tried. ſ. 5.

If any action ſhall be proſecuted againſt any perſon for what he ſhall do in purſuance of this act, ſuch perſon may file common bail, and plead the general iſſue, not guilty; and if the plaintiff ſhall become nonſuit, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 6.

No perſon in his majeſty's plantations in America ſhall make any felt or hat with any wool or ſtuff, unleſs he ſhall have firſt ſerved as an apprentice in the trade of felt-making ſeven years; neither ſhall any felt-maker or hat-maker, in any of the ſaid plantations, employ any perſon as a journeyman, other than ſuch as ſhall have ſerved an apprenticeſhip; nor ſhall have above two apprentices at one time, or take an apprentice for leſs than ſeven years; upon pain to forfeit 5 l. for every month that he ſhall continue offending in the premiſes; of whom one moiety ſhall be to the uſe of majeſty, and the other moiety to ſuch as will ſue for the ſame. ſ. 7.

No perſon inhabiting in the plantations ſhall retain in the ſaid art of hat or felt-making, any negro; upon pain to forfeit 5 l. for every month. ſ. 8.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to charge any perſon lawfully exerciſing the ſaid art with any penalty, for ſetting his ſon to the working hats or felts in his own houſe, ſo as ſuch ſon be bound by indenture of apprenticeſhip for ſeven years, which term ſhall not be to expire before he ſhall be of the age of twenty-one years. ſ. 9.

Every felt-maker reſiding in the plantations, who at the beginning of this ſeſſion of parliament was a maker of hats or felts, and an houſholder; and likewiſe all ſuch as were at the beginning of this ſeſſion apprentices, covenant ſervants, or journeymen, in the ſame art of felt-making (ſo as ſuch apprentices ſerve their apprenticeſhips), may exerciſe the trade in the ſaid plantations, although the ſame perſons were not bound apprentices for ſeven years. ſ. 10.

By 6 Geo. 2. c. 13. Made perpetual by 4 Geo. 3. c. 15. ſ. 4. Upon importation of rum, melaſſes, ſyrups, ſugars, and paneles, into any of the plantations of Great Britain, an entry ſhall be made with the proper officer of the cuſtoms, impoſt, or exciſe, and the duties ſhall be paid in ready money by the importers, before the landing. ſ. 2.

In caſe any of the commodities ſhall be landed before entry, and before the duties paid, or without a warrant ſigned by the proper officer, ſuch goods, or the value of the ſame, ſhall be forfeited, and may be ſeized by the governor, or by warrant of any magiſtrate, or by any cuſtom-houſe, impoſt, or exciſe officer; and ſuch offence may be proſecuted in any court of admiralty in his majeſty's plantations, or in any court of record in the plantations where ſuch offence is committed; and ſuch forfeitures ſhall be divided; one third for the uſe of his majeſty for the ſupport of the government of the plantation, one third to the governor, and the other third to the informer. ſ. 3.

No ſugars, paneles, ſyrups, or molaſſes, of the growth of America, nor any rum or ſpirits of America, except of the growth of his majeſty's ſugar colonies, ſhall be imported into Ireland, but ſuch only as ſhall be ſhipped in Great Britain in ſhips navigated according to law; under the penalty of forfeiting all ſuch ſugar, paneles, ſyrups, or molaſſes, rum or ſpirits, or the value thereof, together with the ſhip in which the ſame ſhall be imported: and ſuch commodities, with the ſhip, may be ſeized by the lord lieutenant or lord juſtices, or by warrant of any other magiſtrate, or by any cuſtom-houſe or exciſe officer. And all offences againſt this act may be proſecuted in any of his majeſty's courts of record at Weſtminſter, or in Dublin; and the forfeitures recovered ſhall be divided; viz. one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety to the informer. ſ. 4.

If any perſon ſhall aſſiſt in landing ſuch ſugar, paneles, ſyrups, or molaſſes, rum or ſpirits, in Ireland, or any of his majeſty's plantations in America, or ſhall receive into his houſe or cuſtody any ſuch commodities, knowing the ſame to be imported contrary to this act, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit treble the value of ſuch goods. ſ. 5.

If any perſon ſhall hinder any cuſtom-houſe, impoſt, or exciſe officer, in the execution of their duty in ſeizing the commodities afore mentioned, he ſhall forfeit 50 l. and ſhall alſo be liable to be proſecuted by indictment, or otherwiſe, and ſhall be impriſoned three months. And if any officer, or their aſſiſtants, ſhall be ſued for any thing done in execution of this act, they may plead the general iſſue. And if any officer of the cuſtoms or exciſe in Ireland, or in the plantations, ſhall connive at the importation of the commodities afore mentioned, or ſhall ſeize any of the ſaid commodities, and by fraud delay the proſecution, he ſhall forfeit 50 l. and be incapable of holding office under his majeſty. ſ. 6.

If any maſter of any ſhip ſhall take in any ſugar, &c. to be imported into Ireland, or any of his majeſty's plantations, contrary to this act, ſuch maſter ſhall forfeit 100 l. ſ. 7.

Upon all ſuits for importation of the commodities afore mentioned, the onus probandi ſhall lie on the claimer. ſ. 8.

All ſuits for any offence againſt this act ſhall be brought within two years after ſuch offence committed. ſ. 11.

The expence of proſecuting any offence againſt this act ſhall be paid out of the ſhares of the forfeitures given to his majeſty. ſ. 12.

Nothing herein ſhall reſtrain the importation of ſugars of the produce of the dominions of Spain or Portugal, from any place from whence ſuch ſugars might lawfully have been imported before the making of this act. ſ. 13.

By 12 Geo. 2. c. 30. The acts 12 Car. 2. c. 18. 15 Car. 2. c. 7. & 25 Car. 2. c. 7. ſo far as they extend to ſugar of the produce of his majeſty's plantations in America, are hereby confirmed; except only as to ſuch ſugars as by this act ſhall be permitted to be exported from the ſaid ſugar colonies under ſuch regulations as are herein after appointed. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful, notwithſtanding the acts aforeſaid, or any other act, for any of his majeſty's ſubjects, in any ſhip built in Great Britain, and navigated according to law, and belonging to ſubjects, of which the major part reſide in Great Britain, and the reſidue either in Great Britain or ſome of the ſugar colonies in America, that ſhall clear outwards in any port of Great Britain for any of the ſaid colonies, to load in the ſaid colonies any ſugars of the produce and manufacture of the ſaid colonies, and to carry the ſame to any foreign part of Europe; provided a licence be firſt taken out under the hands of the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms at London or Edinburgh, or three of them, ſubject to the regulations and conditions after mentioned; viz. that notice be firſt given in writing by the maſter, or one of the owners of ſuch ſhip, to the cuſtomer or collector and comptroller of the port in Great Britain where ſuch ſhip ſhall be, of the intention that ſuch ſhip ſhall proceed to the ſaid ſugar colonies, in order to lade ſugars to be carried to ſome other part of Europe than Great Britain; and that ſuch maſter or owner enter into bond to the uſe of his majeſty, with one or more ſecurities, in 1000 l. if the ſhip be of leſs burden than 100 tons, and in the ſum of 2000 l. if ſhe be of that or greater burden, with condition, that in caſe a licence be granted to ſuch ſhip to carry ſugars from the ſaid colonies to foreign parts, that ſuch ſhip ſhall proceed from Great Britain to the ſaid colonies, and ſhall deliver the ſaid licence to the collector, comptroller, and naval officer there, before he takes any goods on board, and that no tobacco, molaſſes, ginger, cotton, wool, indigo, fuſtick, or other dying wood, tar, pitch, turpentine, hemp, maſts-yards, bowſprits, copper ore, beaver ſkins, or other furs, of the production of any Britiſh plantation in America, ſhall be taken on board, unleſs it be for neceſſary proviſions in the voyage, and that ſuch ſhip before ſhe proceeds to any foreign port ſhall touch at ſome port in Great Britain, and that the maſter ſhall deliver to the cuſtomer, or collector, and comptroller of ſuch port, a true manifeſt atteſted upon oath (or if a quaker by affirmation) of the whole lading, mentioning the marks, numbers, package, and contents, and ſhall alſo bring back and produce the licence for ſuch ſhip to carry ſuch ſugars to foreign parts, with a certificate indorſed or affixed thereto, containing an account of the marks, numbers, package, contents, and ſorts of all the ſugars laden on board, and that when ſuch ſhip hath diſcharged her lading in ſome foreign part (the danger of the ſeas and enemies excepted), ſhe ſhall return to Great Britain, within eight months after ſhe ſhall have delivered her lading in any foreign part, and before ſhe returns to any of the ſaid plantations, and that in caſe ſuch ſhip take on board any goods before her return to Great Britain, all ſuch goods remaining on board on her arrival in Great Britain ſhall be entered and landed in Great Britain, as all other ſhips importing goods are obliged to do by the laws of the cuſtoms; or otherwiſe ſuch bond ſhall be forfeited. ſ. 2.

Upon ſuch bond being entered into and other requiſites before mentioned complied with, a licence ſhall be granted giving liberty for that voyage only to carry ſugars of the production of his majeſty's ſugar colonies to any foreign part; provided, that no ſhip have licence to carry ſugar to any foreign parts, unleſs it firſt appear by oath (or affirmation) of the maſter that the property thereof is in his majeſty's ſubjects, of which the major part reſide in Great Britain, and the reſidue either in Great Britain or in ſome of the ſaid colonies, ſuch oath or affirmation to be in the form after mentioned; ſ. 3.

A. B. {make oath / ſolemnly declares and affirms} that the {ſhip / veſſel} called the ——— whereof he this {deponent / affirmant} is maſter, and hath the charge and command for this preſent voyage to ——— being [deſcribe the built] {ſhip / veſſel} of the burthen of ——— tons, was built at ——— in the year ——— and the ſaid {ſhip / veſſel} is wholly owned by the {perſon / perſons} whoſe {name / names} and uſual {place / places} of abode {is / are} undermentioned and ſubſcribed by this deponent [or affirmant] that ſuch {owner / owners} {is / are} his majeſty's Britiſh {ſubject / ſubjects} and that no foreigner, directly or indirectly, hath any ſhare, part, or intereſt in the ſaid {ſhip / veſſel} to the beſt of this {deponent's / affirmant's} knowledge or belief; and that he this {deponent / affirmant} and three-fourths of the mariners navigating the ſaid {ſhip / veſſel} are his majeſty's Britiſh ſubjects.

In caſe any ſhip ſo licenſed take on board any ſugars, or other goods, being the property of foreigners, and laden on their account, to be carried to foreign parts; all ſuch ſugars or other goods ſhall be forfeited. ſ. 4.

Before any ſugar be put on board any ſhip at the ſaid colonies, the maſter ſhall deliver to the collector of the port the ſaid licence ſigned by the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms, and a certificate of ſuch bond having been given in Great Britain; and ſhall declare in writing to the collector, whether he intends to load any ſugar purſuant to ſuch licence, otherwiſe ſuch licence ſhall be of no force; but if it be declared that ſugars are intended to be carried to foreign parts purſuant to ſuch licence, then to aſcertain the quantity and quality of the ſugars to be exported, and to prevent the exportation from the ſaid colonies of any goods before enumerated, the merchant intending to export any ſugars or other goods not enumerated, ſhall, before the ſame are ſhipt, make an entry of ſuch ſugars or other goods with the collector and comptroller of the cuſtoms and the naval officer, expreſſing the name of the ſhip and maſter, and where ſhe lies, and the places where they are to be laden, or firſt water-born, in order to be laden; which ſhall be ſuch only where an officer ſhall attend the lading, or as ſhall be mentioned in a warrant from the collector and comptroller for that purpoſe, whereon ſhall be indorſed by the exporter the marks, numbers, contents, and ſorts of ſuch ſugars; and the warrant ſo indorſed ſhall be delivered to the ſearcher, and ſuch officer ſhall examine the goods before before they are put on board; and if the number of caſks appears to be greater than is indorſed on the warrants, or if there be found any other ſugar but ſuch as ſhall be ſo endorſed, or any of the goods before enumerated, either put on board or brought to be ſhipped on board, before ſuch entry or taking out ſuch warrant, indorſing and delivering of the ſame, all ſuch ſugar and other goods ſo ſhipped or brought to be ſhipped ſhall be forfeited, as alſo the hoy, boat, or other carriage employed in ſhipping or attempting to ſhip any enumerated goods, other than ſugars, together with the ſhip on which ſuch other enumerated goods ſhall be laden; and the owner of ſuch ſugar or other goods ſhall alſo forfeit double the value thereof; to be recovered in the court of vice admiralty, or any other court of record in any of the ſaid plantations; one third to the uſe of his majeſty, one third to the governor of the colony, and the other third to the proſecutor. And before ſuch ſhip ſhall depart with the ſugar laden, the maſter ſhall receive the ſaid licence from the collector and comptroller and naval officer, with a certificate indorſed or affixed thereto under their ſeals of office, containing an account of the marks, numbers, contents, and ſorts of each caſk of ſugar ſo ſhipt; which indorſement ſhall be ſigned by the ſaid collector and comptroller and naval officer. And the collector and other officers aforeſaid, ſhall make two copies of ſuch licence or certificates. For all which entries, cocquets, indorſements, and certificates, or copies, no more ſhall be taken than the legal fees. And the maſter ſhall, before he receives the ſaid licence, atteſt the ſaid copies under his hand, which are to be left with the collector and comptroller and naval officer. And the ſaid collector and comptroller ſhall as ſoon as they conveniently can, tranſmit one of the ſaid copies to the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms in Great Britain, by whom the licence was granted when the ſhip ſet ſail from Great Britain. And the ſaid maſter ſhall proceed to Great Britain without putting into any other port, unleſs forced by ſtreſs of weather, proof whereof ſhall be made on oath, to the ſatisfaction of the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms in Great Britain. And on the return of ſuch ſhip to Great Britain, the maſter ſhall deliver the ſaid licence to the ſaid commiſſioners of the cuſtoms, or to the collector and comptroller of the port at which ſhe ſhall arrive, with the certificate annexed; and ſhall alſo deliver an exact manifeſt, expreſſing the marks and numbers, with the tale and ſorts of caſks of all his lading, atteſted upon oath (or if a quaker, by affirmation), before the collector and comptroller of ſuch port where he ſhall arrive, and ſhall make an entry of the ſugars on board, which entry the cuſtomer, or collector and comptroller of ſuch port are to paſs, without demanding any duties for ſuch ſugar, mentioning in their accounts that ſuch entries were paſſed by virtue of this act; and ſhall alſo declare on oath (or if a quaker, on his affirmation), to what foreign port he is bound: then ſuch maſter ſhall be at liberty to proceed to any foreign port without being obliged to land or pay duty, taking with him the ſaid licence and a certificate under the ſeals of office, from the ſaid cuſtomer, or collector and comptroller, teſtifying that the ſaid ſhip had touched at ſuch port and complied with the directions of this act. But in caſe any ſuch veſſel proceed to any foreign part without having firſt touched at ſome port in Great Britain, and having complied with the directions of this act, and having the ſame certified as aforeſaid; or in caſe any goods of the produce of any of the American colonies, enumerated as aforeſaid, beſides ſugars, be found on board, or carried by any ſuch ſhip to any foreign parts, then the licence ſhall be void; and ſuch ſhip and the maſter, and all others concerned, ſhall be liable to the ſame penalties as if this act had not been made. ſ. 5.

If the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms in Great Britain, or the cuſtomer, or collector, and comptroller of the port where ſuch ſhip ſhall touch, ſhall upon information on oath have cauſe to ſuſpect that ſome enumerated goods other than ſugars are on board ſuch ſhip, it ſhall be lawful for any officer of the cuſtoms, or any perſon employed by them, to enter and remain on board ſuch ſhip, and to unlade the ſame, to examine ſuch ſhip and all the goods on board, and to detain her for that purpoſe; and to open and examine any cabbins, lockers, falſe bulk head, or any concealments, or to open any cheſt or package, and to ſeize all goods not mentioned in the manifeſt delivered by the maſter; and all ſuch goods ſhall be forfeited. Provided that in caſe no goods be found but what are mentioned in the manifeſt, then the officers ſhall reload and repack the goods, and repair any damage done by landing or unpacking, without being liable to any other coſts or damages for demurrage, or on any other account: but if any other goods are found, except the proviſions of the ſhip for the voyage, then the maſter ſhall be at the charge of reloading, and the officers concerned ſhall not be at any expence, or be liable to any coſts or damages. ſ. 6.

If the owners of ſuch ſhip or their factor ſhall, on the arrival of ſuch ſhip in Great Britain, be deſirous to enter and pay the duty, and land the goods, they ſhall have liberty ſo to do; the maſter of the ſhip firſt making a report of his whole lading with the proper officer of the cuſtoms, as required by law. ſ. 7.

If the maſter of ſuch ſhip ſhall on his arrival in any of the ſaid colonies, have delivered to the collector, comptroller, and naval officer, the ſaid licence, with a certificate of bond being given in Great Britain, and ſhall before he lades any goods declare in writing, upon oath (or affirmation) before any two of them, (which oath or affirmation they are to indorſe and atteſt on ſuch licence) that the ſugars he intends to load purſuant to ſuch licence, are to be carried to ſome port to the ſouthward of Cape Finiſterre; then the ſaid maſter may proceed thither directly, taking with him ſuch licence and oath indorſed thereon, with an account of the marks, numbers, packages, contents and ſorts of ſugars laden, likewiſe indorſed or contained in a certificate annexed thereto, and may there land the ſame without firſt touching in Great Britain: but the maſter of ſuch ſhip ſhall, within eight months after landing the ſaid ſugars, and before ſuch ſhip go again to any of the plantations, return to ſome port of Great Britain, and deliver his ſaid licence to the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms, or the cuſtomer, or collector, and comptroller of ſuch port, with a certificate annexed as aforeſaid, together with a certificate from the conſul, or two known Britiſh merchants reſiding at the ports where ſuch ſugars were landed, teſtifying the landing thereof; and the maſter ſhall likewiſe make oath (or affirmation), before the cuſtomer or collector, and comptroller, to the truth of ſuch certificate; and that none of the goods before enumerated, except ſugar, were taken on board in the colonies, or landed at the port mentioned in the certificate; and he ſhall likewiſe make an entry with ſuch cuſtomer, &c. of the quantity and ſorts of all the ſugars landed at any port to the ſouthward of Cape Finiſterre: which entry the cuſtomer, &c. ſhall paſs without demanding any duties, mentioning in their accounts, that ſuch entries were paſſed by virtue of this act. And in caſe the maſter neglect to make ſuch entry, he ſhall forfeit 100*l.* one moiety to the uſe of his majeſty, and the other to ſuch as will ſue for the ſame. ſ. 8.

Upon

Upon the return to Great Britain of any ſhip, which ſhall, purſuant to this act, carry ſugars from his majeſty's ſugar colonies to any foreign parts, the maſter ſhall in either caſe before mentioned, deliver to the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms, or the cuſtomer or collector, and comptroller of the port in Great Britain where ſuch ſhip ſhall arrive, the ſaid licence, together with a certificate ſigned and ſealed by the conſul or two known Britiſh merchants at the port where ſuch ſugar was landed, certifying the landing thereof, with the number of caſks, and the mark, number, and contents of each, with the name of the ſhip and maſter; and that they believe that no tobacco or other goods before enumerated, except ſugar, have been landed: and upon the ſeveral things required by this act being complied with, the bond given before granting ſuch licence ſhall be diſcharged and delivered up, otherwiſe ſuch bond ſhall be forfeited. ſ. 9.

In caſe any ſhip ſhall, after the unloading of ſuch ſugars, take on board any goods before her return to Great Britain, all ſuch goods remaining on board at her arrival in Great Britain ſhall be entered and landed before her departure thence; and ſhall be ſubject to ſuch regulations as the like goods imported in any other ſhip are ſubject unto by this or any other law of the cuſtoms. ſ. 10.

This act ſhall not extend to excuſe any ſhip trading to the ſaid ſugar colonies, being regiſtered purſuant to 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 22. ſ. 11.

No maſter or owner of any ſhip carrying ſugars as aforeſaid, ſhall pay or advance to any ſeaman, during the time he ſhall be beyond the ſeas, above one moiety of the whole wages which ſhall be due from the time of his departure from Great Britain, until ſuch ſhip ſhall return to Great Britain; and if any ſuch maſter or owner ſhall pay or advance any wages to any ſeaman above the ſaid moiety, ſuch maſter or owner ſhall forfeit double the money ſo paid, to be recovered in the high court of admiralty, by any informer. ſ. 12.

All penalties and forfeitures incurred by this act (except where it is otherwiſe hereby provided) ſhall be proſecuted in any court of record at Weſtminſter, or the court of exchequer in Scotland; one moiety for the uſe of his majeſty, and the other to him who will ſue for the ſame, wherein no eſſoign, &c. ſhall be allowed. ſ. 13.

If any perſon be ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſuch perſon may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff be nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 14.

If any perſon grant any falſe certificate, or counterfeit or alter any licence, oath, or certificate, made purſuant to this act, or knowingly publiſh or make uſe thereof, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 500*l.* to be recovered and diſpoſed of in the manner directed by this act; and ſuch licence, oath, or certificate ſo counterfeited or altered ſhall be of no effect. ſ. 15.

Nothing in this act ſhall give liberty to carry any ſugars from any of the ſugar colonies to Ireland. ſ. 16.

This act ſhall, by 26 Geo. 3. c. 53. ſ. 4. be in force until the 29th of September 1792, and to the end of the next ſeſſion of parliament.

By 15 Geo. 2. c. 31. No ſhip required by 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 22. or by the 5th article of the union, [See SCOTLAND,] to be regiſtered, and carrying any goods to or from any of his majeſty's plantations in America, or to or from one plantation to another, ſhall be permitted to trade within the intent of the ſaid acts, until the maſter ſhall upon oath (or if a quaker, upon affirmation), before the governor or collector of the cuſtoms of every of the plantations where the ſame ſhall arrive, give an account of the name and burthen thereof, and of the place from whence ſhe came, according to the form following, viz.

A. B. maketh oath (or if a quaker, ſolemnly affirms), that the ſhip or veſſel called the ———, whereof he this deponent (or affirmant) is maſter, or hath the charge and command during this preſent voyage, being of the burthen of ——— tons, came laſt from ———, and that ſhe is, as he verily believes, the ſame ſhip or veſſel deſcribed, meant, and intended in and by the certificate now produced by him; and that the ſame does now, as he believes, belong wholly to his majeſty's Britiſh ſubjects, and that no foreigner has directly or indirectly any ſhare, property, or intereſt therein, to his knowledge or belief.

In caſe any ſhip ſhall load or unload any goods in any of his majeſty's plantations in America, before ſuch proof be made, every ſuch ſhip ſhall be forfeited, and may be proſecuted, recovered, and divided, as if ſhe had not been regiſtered in purſuance of the ſaid act of 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 22.—ſ. 1.

If any ſhip duly qualified to trade to, from and in the ſaid plantations, be in any of the ſaid plantations, and the certificate of the regiſter thereof be loſt or miſlaid, the maſter may make oath (or being a quaker, affirmation), before the governor or collector of the cuſtoms, in the port where the ſhip ſhall be, in the following form:

A. B. being maſter, or having the charge of the ſhip or veſſel called the ———, does ſwear, (or ſolemnly affirm), that the ſaid ſhip or veſſel has been, as he verily believes, regiſtered according to law, to qualify her to trade to, from and in his majeſty's plantations in America, and that he had a certificate thereof granted at the port of ——— but that the ſame is loſt or miſlaid, and that he cannot find the ſame, and does not know where the ſame is, or what is become thereof, and that the ſame hath not been, nor ſhall be, with his privity or knowledge, ſold or diſpoſed of to any perſon or perſons whatſoever; and that he this deponent (or affirmant), and three-fourths of the mariners navigating the ſaid ſhip or veſſel are his majeſty's Britiſh ſubjects, and the ſaid ſhip or veſſel does now, as he believes, belong wholly to his majeſty's Britiſh ſubjects, and that no foreigner has to his knowledge or belief any ſhare, property, or intereſt therein.

And the ſaid maſter ſhall give ſecurity in the penalty of 500*l.* if the ſhip be of the burthen of 100 tons, or under, and ſo in proportion for every ſhip of a greater burthen, to the collector of the port where the ſaid ſhip ſhall be, in his majeſty's name, and to his majeſty's uſe, with condition that the ſaid ſhip was duly regiſtered, and that the certificate of the ſaid regiſter, if found, ſhall be delivered up to the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms to be cancelled, and no illegal uſe has been or ſhall be made thereof, and that the ſame has not been or ſhall be fraudulently diſpoſed of, and that the ſaid ſhip does wholly belong to his majeſty's Britiſh ſubjects; and upon making ſuch oath, and giving ſuch bond, the governor and collector of his majeſty's cuſtoms, ſhall, without fee, give the maſter a certificate under their hands and ſeals, of his having given ſuch bond, and made ſuch oath, and thereupon the ſhip ſhall have liberty to trade for that voyage only, in the ſame manner as if the original certificate had been produced, and the firſt-mentioned oath or affirmation had been taken: and the officers taking the ſaid oath and bond, ſhall tranſmit an account thereof to the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms. ſ. 2.

If

If the certificate of the regiſter of any ſhip be loſt, and the maſter and one or more of the owners make proof to the ſatisfaction of the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms, in caſe any of the owners reſide in Great Britain or Ireland, Guernſey or Jerſey; or of the governor or collector of the cuſtoms, reſiding in any of the plantations, in caſe ſhe was regiſtered in ſuch plantation, and none of the owners reſide in Great Britain or Ireland, Guernſey or Jerſey, upon oath (or if a quaker upon affirmation), of the loſs of ſuch certificate, and likewiſe of the name, burthen, built, property, and other particulars required by the 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 22. in the ſame manner as upon original regiſters; and ſhall likewiſe give ſecurity, in the penalty of 500 l. if the ſhip be of the burthen of 100 tons, and ſo in proportion for every ſhip of a greater burthen, to the collector of the port to which ſuch ſhip belongs; and that the original certificate hath not been, nor ſhall be fraudulently diſpoſed of or uſed contrary to law, and that the ſame when found ſhall be delivered up to the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms to be cancelled; in ſuch caſe the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms, and the governor and collector of the cuſtoms reſiding at the plantations reſpectively, ſhall permit the ſhip to be regiſtered de novo; and the proper officers ſhall deliver a certificate thereof to the owner regiſtering the ſame, as is directed by the 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 22. and therein mention the name by which the ſhip was formerly regiſtered; and that ſuch certificate of a new regiſter is granted in purſuance of this act, inſtead of a former certificate which appears to be loſt. And ſuch new regiſter and certificate ſhall have the ſame effect as if the ſame were an original regiſter and certificate, and a duplicate thereof ſhall be tranſmitted by the officers who grant the ſame to the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms. ſ. 3.

Plantation bonds taken or entered into in Great Britain, in purſuance of 12 Car. 2. c. 18. and of 22 Car. 2. c. 26. or any other law ſince made, whereby the goods therein enumerated are to be brought to Great Britain, ſhall be with condition that within 18 months after the date (the danger of the ſeas excepted) a certificate ſhall be produced from the collector and comptroller of the port where ſuch goods ſhall be delivered, that they have been there landed and diſcharged; otherwiſe ſuch bonds ſhall be forfeited; and the penalty may be ſued for in the court of exchequer in England, Scotland, or Ireland, reſpectively: provided that this act ſhall not extend to bonds given for ſhips lading ſugars in any of the ſugar colonies by virtue of a licence purſuant to 12 Geo. 2. c. 30. ſ. 4.

By 15 Geo. 2. c. 33. It ſhall be lawful for any ſubjects in any ſhip built in Great Britain, or belonging to any ſubjects reſiding in Great Britain, and navigated according to law, to load in any of his majeſty's ſugar colonies in America, any ſugars of the growth and manufacture of the ſaid colonies, and to carry the ſame to any foreign parts of Europe, ſubject to the regulations of 12 Geo. 2. c. 30. ſ. 5.

By 24 Geo. 2. c. 51. The duties now payable on pott aſhes or pearl aſhes made in and imported from his majeſty's colonies in America into Great Britain ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 1.

A due entry ſhall be made of all pott aſhes and pearl aſhes made in and imported from the ſaid colonies into Great Britain, at the cuſtom houſe at the time of importation in the ſame manner (expreſſing the package, marks, and numbers and quantities) as was uſed before this act; and the ſame ſhall be landed in the preſence of and examined by the proper officer of the cuſtoms; and ſhall be imported in ſhips that may lawfully trade to the plantations, manned as by law is required: and on failure of the ſaid conditions ſuch pott aſhes and pearl aſhes ſhall be liable to the duties as if this act had never been made. ſ. 2.

To entitle the importer of pott aſhes or pearl aſhes to the benefit of this act, every perſon who ſhall load any pott aſhes or pearl aſhes on board any ſhip, in any of the Britiſh colonies in America, ſhall before the clearing out of the ſhip, make proof on oath, before the collector and comptroller of the cuſtoms, and naval officer, at the port where ſuch pott aſhes or pearl aſhes ſhall be put on board, or any two of them, that the pott aſhes or pearl aſhes which he hath ſhipped, is bona fide of the product and manufacture of the Britiſh colonies in America, expreſſing the quantity, and the pariſh or place in ſuch plantation where the ſame was made, and by whom (which oath is to be adminiſtered without fee); and the maſter or perſon taking charge of the ſhip on board which ſuch pott aſhes or pearl aſhes ſhall be loaded, ſhall bring with him a certificate from ſuch collector and comptroller of the cuſtoms, and naval officer, or two of them, under their hands and ſeals of office (which they are to grant without fee) expreſſing the marks and number of caſks or packages, alſo the weight and tale of the pott aſhes and pearl aſhes ſo ſhipped, with the names and places of abode of the exporters from the ſaid colonies, and the name and place of abode of ſuch perſon who ſwore the goods to have been the product of the ſaid colonies; which certificate the maſter, &c. of ſuch ſhip ſhall on his arrival in this kingdom deliver to the collector, comptroller, or other officer of the cuſtoms at the port where he ſhall arrive, at the entry of the ſaid pott aſhes or pearl aſhes; and ſhall make oath before the ſaid collector, comptroller, or chief officer of the cuſtoms (who are to adminiſter the ſame without fee), that the ſaid caſks, and parcels, and goods, contained in ſuch certificate, are the ſame as were taken on board in the ſaid colonies. And if any pott aſhes or pearl aſhes of the product of the Britiſh colonies in America be imported without ſuch certificate and oath by the maſter, &c. of the ſhip, all ſuch pott aſhes and pearl aſhes ſhall be liable to the duties as if this act had never been made. ſ. 3.

If any perſon cauſe to be made an entry of any foreign pott aſhes or pearl aſhes, under the name of pott aſhes or pearl aſhes of the product of the Britiſh colonies in America, or cauſe to be mixed any foreign pott aſhes or pearl aſhes with pott aſhes or pearl aſhes of the product of the Britiſh colonies in America, to evade the duties on foreign pott aſhes and pearl aſhes, he ſhall forfeit 50 l. for every ſuch offence, and all ſuch foreign pott aſhes and pearl aſhes; and in caſe of any mixture, the quantity mixed, both foreign and Britiſh plantation product, or the value, with the packages, ſhall be forfeited; and may be ſeized, or the value ſued for, by any officer of the cuſtoms. ſ. 4.

If any collector or comptroller of the cuſtoms, and naval officer, falſely make any ſuch certificate, he ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 200 l. and alſo forfeit his office, and be incapable of ſerving his majeſty in any office of truſt or profit; or if any perſon falſely make any oath required by this act, every ſuch offender ſhall incur the puniſhment inflicted by law for wilful and corrupt perjury; and if any perſon knowingly counterfeit any ſuch certificate, or publiſh the ſame knowing it to be counterfeit, he ſhall incur the puniſhment inflicted by law for forgery. ſ. 5.

The penalties by this act inflicted ſhall be recovered by bill, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter, or in the court of exchequer in Scotland, or in any of the courts of admiralty in the plantations in America, wherein no eſſoin, &c. ſhall be allowed. ſ. 6.

All

All penalties by this act impoſed, ſhall, if in Great Britain, be applied one moiety to the uſe of his majeſty, and the other moiety to ſuch perſon as ſhall ſeize or ſue for the ſame; and all ſuch penalties incurred in the plantations in America, ſhall be applied, one third to the uſe of his majeſty, one third to the uſe of the governor of the plantation where the forfeiture is incurred, and the remaining third to ſuch perſon who ſhall ſeize or ſue for the ſame. ſ. 7.

If any doubt ariſe whether the ſaid pott aſhes or pearl aſhes, or any part thereof, ſo to be imported, is of the product of the Britiſh colonies in America, or of foreign product, the onus probandi ſhall lie on the owner. ſ. 8.

If any action be commenced for any thing done in purſuance of this act, every ſuch action ſhall be commenced within ſix months after the fact; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff be nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 9.

By 2 Geo. 3. c. 24. It ſhall be lawful for any of his majeſty's ſubjects to import ſalt from any part of Europe into Nova Scotia in America, in Britiſh ſhips and veſſels, manned and navigated according to the act of the 12th of Car. 2. and in the ſame manner as ſalt may be imported from Europe into New England and Newfoundland, by 15 Car. 2.

By 4 Geo. 3. c. 15. The duties hereby charged upon foreign white or clayed ſugars, indico, coffee, or wines, imported into any Britiſh American colony or plantation, ſhall be raiſed and paid by ſuch ways as are mentioned in 6 Geo. 2.; and all clauſes (except where any alteration is made by this act) ſhall be put in execution for raiſing the duties granted by this act. ſ. 6.

If the importer of any wines ſhall refuſe to pay the duties, it ſhall be lawful for the collector or officer of cuſtoms, and he is required to take and ſecure the ſame, with the caſks, and to cauſe the ſame to be publicly ſold, within 20 days after refuſal, and at ſuch time and place as ſuch officer ſhall, by four days public notice, appoint; which wine ſhall be ſold to the beſt bidder, and the money ariſing by the ſale, ſhall be applied, firſt in payment of the duties with charges of ſale, and the overplus, if any, ſhall be paid to ſuch importer. ſ. 7.

If the money offered for the purchaſe of ſuch wine ſhall not be ſufficient to diſcharge the duty and charges, then the officer ſhall cauſe the wine to be ſtaved, and return the caſks to ſuch importer. ſ. 8.

All monies which ſhall ariſe by the duties herein granted, and alſo the duties upon ſugars and paneles, by 6 Geo. 2. (except the charges of raiſing), ſhall be paid into the exchequer, and entered ſeparate from all other monies paid to his majeſty, and ſhall be there reſerved to be diſpoſed of by parliament, towards defraying the expences of defending and ſecuring the Britiſh colonies and plantations in America. ſ. 10.

No rum or ſpirits of the produce or manufacture of any of the colonies or plantations in America, not in the poſſeſſion or under the dominion of his majeſty, ſhall be imported into any of the colonies or plantations in America, which now are, or hereafter may be in the poſſeſſion or under the dominion of his majeſty, upon forfeiture of all ſuch rum or ſpirits, together with the ſhip or veſſel in which the ſame ſhall be imported, with the tackle, apparel, and furniture thereof; to be ſeized by any officer of cuſtoms, and proſecuted as herein after expreſſed. ſ. 18.

Every perſon loading on board any veſſel, in any of the Britiſh colonies or plantations in America, any rum or ſpirits, ſugars or paneles*, as of the growth, product, or manufacture, of any Britiſh colony or plantation, ſhall, before the clearing out of the ſaid ſhip, produce and deliver to the collector or officer of cuſtoms at the loading port, an affidavit ſworn to before ſome juſtice, in the ſaid Britiſh colonies or plantations, either by the grower, maker, or ſhipper of ſuch goods, or his agent, expreſſing, in words at length and not in figures, the quality of the goods ſhipped, with the number and denomination of the packages, and deſcribing the names of the plantations, and the name of the colony where the ſame grew or were produced and manufactured; which affidavit ſhall be atteſted, under the hand of the juſtice, to have been ſworn to in his preſence; who is to do the ſame without fee; and the collector or other officer of cuſtoms, to whom ſuch affidavit ſhall be delivered, ſhall thereupon grant to the maſter, a certificate under his hand and ſeal of office (without fee), of his having received ſuch affidavit purſuant to this act; which certificate ſhall expreſs the quality of the goods ſhipped on board ſuch veſſel, with the number and denomination of the packages: and ſuch collector or officer of cuſtoms ſhall alſo (without fee) within 30 days after the ſailing of the veſſel, tranſmit an exact copy of the ſaid affidavit to the ſecretary's office for the colony or plantation where the goods were ſhipped, on forfeiture of 5*l.* ſ. 20. See 18 Geo. 3. c. 58. poſt.

Upon the arrival of ſuch veſſel into the port of her diſcharge, either in Great Britain, or any other port of his majeſty's dominions, where ſuch goods may be lawfully imported, the maſter ſhall, at the time he makes report of his cargo, deliver the ſaid certificate to the collector or officer of cuſtoms, and make oath before him, that the goods reported are the ſame that are mentioned in the certificate, on forfeiture of 100*l.*; and if any rum or ſpirits, ſugars or paneles, ſhall be imported or found on board any ſuch veſſel, for which no ſuch certificate ſhall be produced, or which ſhall not agree therewith, the ſame ſhall be deemed to be foreign rum, &c. and ſhall be liable to the duties, reſtrictions, and forfeitures, as rum, &c. of any foreign colony would be. ſ. 21.

Bond and ſecurity, in the penalty in 12 Car. 2. c. 18. ſhall alſo be given to the collector or other officer of cuſtoms at any port in any of the Britiſh American colonies or plantations, with one ſurety beſides the maſter of every veſſel that ſhall lade there any goods not particularly enumerated in the acts, being the product or manufacture of any of the ſaid colonies or plantations, with condition, that, in caſe any molaſſes or ſyrups, being the produce of any of the plantations not under the dominion of his majeſty, ſhall be laden on board ſuch veſſel, the ſame ſhall (the danger of the ſeas and enemies excepted) be brought, without fraud or wilful diminution, by the ſaid veſſel, to ſome of his majeſty's colonies or plantations in America, or to ſome port in Great Britain; and that the maſter ſhall, immediately upon his arrival at every port in Great Britain, or the Britiſh American colonies, make report of all the goods laden on board under their true denominations; and if any non-enumerated goods ſhall be laden on board before ſuch bond ſhall be given, the goods laden, together with the veſſel and her furniture, ſhall be forfeited, and may be ſeized by any officer of cuſtoms, and proſecuted as after directed. ſ. 23.

* The like proof was required as to molaſſes or ſyrups, but 6 Geo. 3. c. 52. ſ. 29. repealed this clauſe in reſpect of ſuch articles.

Every

Every maſter ſhall, before he departs from any Britiſh plantation where he receives his lading, take a certificate under the hands and ſeals of the collector or officer of cuſtoms there (which ſuch officers are to grant without fee) that bond hath been given, purſuant to this or any other act; and the maſter ſhall keep ſuch certificate in his cuſtody till the voyage is completed, and ſhall then deliver the ſame up to the collector or officer of cuſtoms at the port where he ſhall diſcharge his lading, either in Great Britain or any Britiſh American plantation, on forfeiture of 100*l.* ſ. 24.

If any Britiſh veſſel laden as aforeſaid, with any goods of the produce or manufacture of any Britiſh plantation in America, or having on board any molaſſes or ſyrups the produce of any foreign plantation, ſhall be diſcovered by any officer of cuſtoms within two leagues of the ſhore of any Britiſh plantation in America, and the maſter ſhall not produce a certificate that bond has been given purſuant to this or any other act, or if he ſhall not produce ſuch certificate to the collector or officer of cuſtoms where he ſhall arrive, either in Great Britain, or any Britiſh American plantation, ſuch veſſel, with her tackle, &c. and all the goods therein laden ſhall be forfeited, and may be ſeized, &c. as after directed. ſ. 25.

The bond directed to be given by this act, with reſpect to ſuch non-enumerated goods, ſhall continue in force for one year after the voyage; and, in caſe no fraud ſhall appear within that time, the commiſſioners of cuſtoms, or four of them, may direct it to be delivered up. ſ. 26.

All coffee, pimento, cocoa nuts, whale fins, raw ſilk, hides and ſkins, pot and pearl aſhes, of the growth, production or manufacture of any Britiſh plantation in America, ſhall be imported directly from thence into this kingdom, or ſome other Britiſh plantation, under the like ſecurities and forfeitures as are mentioned in 12 & 25 Car. 2. with reſpect to the goods in thoſe acts enumerated. ſ. 27.

No iron, nor any lumber, ſpecified in 8 Geo. 1. of the growth, production, or manufacture of any Britiſh colony or plantation in America, ſhall be there loaden on board any veſſel to be carried from thence, until ſufficient bond ſhall be given, with one ſurety beſides the maſter, to the collector or officer of cuſtoms at the loading port, in a penalty of double the value of the goods, with condition, that the ſaid goods ſhall not be landed in any part of Europe except Great Britain; which bonds ſhall be diſcharged in manner after mentioned, viz. for ſuch of the ſaid goods as ſhall be entered for or landed in Great Britain, the condition of the bond ſhall be, to bring a certificate in diſcharge thereof within eighteen months from the date of the bond, and within ſix months for ſuch of the ſaid goods as ſhall be entered for or landed in any of the Britiſh plantations in America; which certificates ſhall be under the hands and ſeals of the collector or officer of cuſtoms reſident at the port where ſuch goods ſhall be landed, teſtifying the landing thereof; and, for ſuch of the goods as ſhall be entered for or landed at any other place in America, Africa, or Aſia, to bring the like certificate within twelve months, under the common ſeal of the chief magiſtrate, or under the hands and ſeals of two known Britiſh merchants reſiding there; or ſuch bond ſhall be diſcharged, by proof upon oath made by credible perſons, that the goods were taken by enemies, or periſhed in the ſeas. ſ. 28.

No goods of any kind whatſoever ſhall be ſhipped on board any veſſel in any of the Britiſh plantations in America, to be carried from thence to any other Britiſh plantation, without a ſufferance or warrant firſt obtained from the collector or officer of cuſtoms at the port where ſuch goods ſhall be put on board; and the maſter ſhall, before the ſame be removed from the port where he takes in his lading, take out a cocket expreſſing the quantity and quality of the goods, and marks of the package laden, with the merchants names by whom ſhipped, and to whom conſigned; and, if they are goods liable to duty, either upon importation or exportation from the plantations, the ſaid cocket ſhall likewiſe ſpecify that the duties have been paid, referring to the entry and payment of ſuch duties, and by whom they were paid; which cocket ſhall be produced by the maſter, to the collector or officer of cuſtoms at the port where ſuch veſſel ſhall arrive in any of the Britiſh plantations, before any part of the goods are unladen: and, if any goods ſhall be ſhipped without ſuch ſufferance, or the veſſel ſhall depart without ſuch cocket, or the goods ſhall be landed before ſuch cocket is produced at the port of diſcharge, or if the goods do not agree in all reſpects therewith, the goods ſhall be forfeited; and any officer of cuſtoms is to ſtop ſuch veſſel, bound as aforeſaid, which ſhall be diſcovered within two leagues of the ſhore of any Britiſh plantations in America, and to ſeize from thence all the goods found on board for which no cocket ſhall be produced. ſ. 29.

No veſſel ſhall, upon any pretence whatſoever, be cleared outwards from any port of this kingdom, for any land, iſland, plantation, colony, territory, or place, to his majeſty belonging, or which ſhall hereafter belong unto or be in the poſſeſſion or under the dominion of his majeſty in America, unleſs the whole cargo of ſuch veſſel ſhall be bona fide laden and ſhipped in this kingdom; and any officer of cuſtoms is impowered to ſtop any Britiſh veſſel arriving from any part of Europe, diſcovered within two leagues of the ſhore of any of the Britiſh plantations in America, and to ſeize from thence, as forfeited, any goods (except as aftermentioned), for which the maſter ſhall not produce a cocket or clearance from the collector or officer of cuſtoms, certifying that the goods were laden on board the ſaid veſſel in ſome port of Great Britain. ſ. 30.

This act ſhall not forfeit, for want of ſuch cocket, any ſalt laden in Europe for the fiſheries in New England, Newfoundland, Pennſylvania, New-York, and Nova Scotia, or any other place to which ſalt is allowed to be carried; wines laden in the Madeiras, of the growth thereof; and wines of the growth of the Weſtern Iſlands, or Azores, and laden there; nor any horſes, victuals, or linen cloth, from Ireland, which may be laden on board ſuch veſſels. ſ. 31.

If any perſon ſhall counterfeit, raſe, alter, or falſify, any affidavit, certificate, cocket, ſufferance, or clearance, required by this act, or ſhall knowingly make uſe of any affidavit, &c. ſo counterfeited, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 500*l.*; and ſuch affidavit, &c. ſhall be of no effect. ſ. 32.

If any foreign veſſel whatſoever ſhall be found at anchor, or hovering within two leagues of the ſhore of any land, &c. which ſhall or may be in the poſſeſſion or under the dominion of his majeſty, in America, and ſhall not depart from the coaſt, and proceed upon her voyage to ſome foreign port, within 48 eight hours after the maſter ſhall be required ſo to do by any officer of cuſtoms, unleſs in caſe of neceſſity and diſtreſs of weather, ſuch veſſel, with all the goods therein laden, ſhall be forfeited, whether bulk ſhall have been broken or not; and ſhall be ſeized and proſecuted by any officer of cuſtoms, as after expreſſed. ſ. 33.

Nothing herein ſhall extend to any veſſel belonging to the ſubjects of the French king found fiſhing, and not carrying on any illicit trade, on that part of the iſland of Newfoundland which ſtretches from Cape Bonaviſta to the northern point of the iſland, and from thence running down to the weſtern ſide as far as Point Riche. ſ. 34.

If any Britiſh veſſel ſhall be found ſtanding into, or coming out from, either St. Pierre or Miquelon, or hovering or at anchor within two leagues of the coaſts thereof, or ſhall be diſcovered to have taken any goods on board at either of them, or to have been there for that purpoſe; ſuch veſſel, and all the goods taken on board there, ſhall be forfeited, and ſhall be ſeized by any officer of cuſtoms; and the maſter, and every perſon concerned in taking ſuch goods on board, ſhall forfeit treble the value thereof. ſ. 35.

All goods found concealed in any place whatſoever on board any veſſel at any time after the maſter ſhall have made his report to the collector or officer of cuſtoms, and which ſhall not be mentioned in the report, ſhall be forfeited, and ſhall be ſeized by any officer of cuſtoms; and the maſter (in caſe it can be made appear that he was privy to ſuch fraud) ſhall forfeit treble the value of the goods found. ſ. 36.

If any goods whatſoever, liable to duties in any Britiſh plantation in America, ſhall be loaden on board any veſſel outward bound, or ſhall be unſhipped from any veſſel inward bound, before the duties are paid; or if any prohibited goods ſhall be imported into, or exported out of, any of the ſaid plantations, contrary to this or any other act; every perſon aſſiſting or concerned, either in loading outwards, or in the unſhipping inwards, ſuch goods, or to whoſe hands the ſame ſhall knowingly come, ſhall, for each offence, forfeit treble the value of ſuch goods, to be eſtimated according to the beſt price at the place where ſuch offence was committed; and all the boats, horſes, cattle, and other carriages whatſoever, made uſe of in loading, landing, removing, carriage, or conveyance of any of the ſaid goods, ſhall alſo be forfeited, and ſhall be ſeized by any officer of cuſtoms. ſ. 37.

If any officer of cuſtoms ſhall directly or indirectly take any bribe, in any kind whatſoever; or connive at any falſe entry, or make any colluſive ſeizure or agreement; or do any other act whatſoever by which his majeſty ſhall be defrauded in his duties, or whereby any goods prohibited ſhall be ſuffered to paſs either inwards or outwards, or whereby the forfeitures inflicted by this or any other act may be evaded; ſuch officer ſhall forfeit 500 l., and be rendered incapable of ſerving his majeſty in any office, civil or military: and if any perſon ſhall give, or offer, or promiſe to give, any bribe to any officer of cuſtoms, to do, conceal, or connive at, any act, whereby the proviſions relating to cuſtoms in America may be evaded or broken, ſuch perſon ſhall, whether the offer be accepted or not, forfeit 50 l. ſ. 38.

All governors or commanders in chief of any Britiſh plantation ſhall, before their entrance into their government, take a ſolemn oath, to do their utmoſt that all the clauſes, matters and things contained in any act of parliament heretofore made, and now in force, relating to the ſaid plantations, and that all the clauſes in this act be punctually obſerved, according to the meaning thereof, ſo far as appertains unto the ſaid governors or commanders in chief, under the like penalties and diſabilities, either for neglecting to take the ſaid oath, or for wittingly neglecting to do their duty, as are mentioned in 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 22.; and the ſaid oath ſhall be adminiſtered by ſuch perſon as ſhall be appointed to adminiſter the oath required by the ſaid act. ſ. 39.

All penalties incurred in Great Britain ſhall be recovered in any court of record at Weſtminſter, or in the court of exchequer in Scotland; and (all charges for the recovery being deducted) ſhall be divided, one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety to the ſeizor. ſ. 40.

All money impoſed by this act, and by 25 Car. 2. c. 7. as duties; and alſo all money impoſed as penalties, by this or any other act relating to the cuſtoms, in any of the Britiſh plantations in America; ſhall be deemed to be ſterling money of Great Britain, and ſhall be paid, to the amount of the value which ſuch nominal ſums bear in Great Britain; and ſuch monies ſhall be taken according to the value of 5 s. 6 d. the ounce in ſilver; and all the forfeitures inflicted by this or any other act relating to the trade and revenues of the Britiſh plantations in America, incurred there, ſhall be recovered in any court of record, or in any court of admiralty, in the plantations where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, or in any court of vice-admiralty which ſhall be appointed over all America (which court of admiralty or vice admiralty are authoriſed to determine the ſame), at the election of the informer. ſ. 41. But ſee 8 Geo. 3. c. 22. poſt. whereby penalties may be recovered in any court of vice-admiralty, having juriſdiction within the plantation.

All penalties ſo recovered there, ſhall be divided, after deducting the charges of proſecution, as follows, viz. one third of the net produce ſhall be paid into the hands of the collector of cuſtoms at the port where ſuch penalties ſhall be recovered for the uſe of his majeſty; one third part to the governor or commander in chief of the plantation; and the other third part to the perſon who ſhall ſeize, &c. excepting ſuch ſeizures as ſhall be made at ſea by the officers of his majeſty's veſſels of war, one moiety of which ſeizures, and of the penalties recovered thereon, firſt deducting the charges of proſecution, ſhall be paid to the collector of cuſtoms, for his majeſty, and the other moiety to him who ſhall ſeize, &c.; ſubject nevertheleſs to ſuch diſtribution of the produce of the ſeizures made at ſea, as well with regard to the moiety before granted to his majeſty, as with regard to the other moiety given to the ſeizor, as his majeſty ſhall think fit to direct by any order of council, or by any proclamation. ſ. 42.

If the produce of any ſeizure made in America ſhall not be ſufficient to anſwer the expences of condemnation and ſale; or if, upon the trial of any ſeizure, a verdict ſhall be given for the claimant; in either of thoſe caſes the charges attending the ſeizing and proſecuting, ſhall, with the conſent of four of the commiſſioners of cuſtoms, be paid out of the cuſtoms ariſing in any of the Britiſh plantations in America. ſ. 43.

No perſon ſhall be admitted to enter a claim to any ſhip or goods ſeized, and proſecuted in any of the Britiſh plantations, until ſufficient ſecurity be given by perſons of known ability in the court where ſuch ſeizure is proſecuted, in the penalty of 60 l. to anſwer the coſts and charges of proſecution; and, in default of giving ſuch ſecurity, ſuch ſhip or goods ſhall be adjudged forfeited, and ſhall be condemned. ſ. 44.

If any ſhip or goods ſhall be ſeized, and any diſpute ſhall ariſe whether the cuſtoms have been paid, or the ſame have been lawfully imported or exported, or concerning the growth, product, or manufacture, of ſuch goods, or the place from whence ſuch goods were brought, in ſuch caſes the proof thereof ſhall lie upon the owner or claimer, and not upon the officer. ſ. 45.

In caſe any information ſhall be commenced and brought to trial in America, on account of any ſeizure of any ſhip or goods, wherein a verdict ſhall be given for the claimer thereof; and it ſhall appear to the court, that there was a probable cauſe of ſeizure, the court ſhall certify on the record, that there was a probable cauſe for ſeizing; and, in ſuch caſe, the defendant ſhall not be intitled to any coſts; nor ſhall the perſons who ſeized be liable to any action, or other proſecution, on account of ſuch ſeizure: and in caſe action or proſecution ſhall be commenced, and brought to trial againſt any perſon, on account of the ſeizing any ſuch ſhip or goods, where no information ſhall be commenced or brought to trial to condemn the ſame, and a verdict ſhall be given upon ſuch action, &c. againſt the defendant, if the court ſhall certify in like manner that there was a probable cauſe for ſeizure, then the plaintiff, beſides his ſhip or goods ſeized, or the value thereof, ſhall not be intitled to above 2 d. damages, nor to any coſts, nor ſhall the defendant befined above 1 s. ſ. 46.

If any action ſhall be commenced, either in Great Britain or America, againſt any perſon for any thing done in purſuance of this or any other act relating to cuſtoms, the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff ſhall be nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 47.

By 4 Geo. 3. c. 34. All future acts of aſſembly in the plantations for creating or iſſuing paper bills of credit, declaring them to be a legal tender in payment of money, are void.—But ſee 13 Geo. 3. c. 57.

By 5 Geo. 3. c. 45. Any iron, the production or manufactures of any Britiſh colony or plantation in America, may be there laden on board any ſhip to be carried from thence to Ireland; and alſo any lumber, ſpecified in 8 Geo. 1. of the growth or production of any Britiſh colony or plantation in America, may, in like manner, be there laden on board any ſhip to be carried from thence to Ireland, the Madeiras, the weſtern iſles called The Azores, or to any part of Europe ſouth of Cape Finiſterre, upon ſufficient bond being given in the penalty and manner directed by 4 Geo. 3. c. 15. with condition, that the goods ſhall be there landed, and not in any other part of Europe, except Great Britain; and certificates under the hands and ſeals of the collector or officer of the cuſtoms reſident at the port where ſuch goods ſhall be landed in Ireland, teſtifying the landing thereof, ſhall be produced to the collector or officer where bond ſhall have been given within eighteen months; and for ſuch of the ſaid goods as ſhall be entered for, and landed at, the Madeiras, The Azores, or ſouth of Cape Finiſterre, the like certificate ſhall be produced within the ſame time to the officers, under the common ſeal of the chief magiſtrate, or under the hand and ſeal of the Britiſh conſul, or hands and ſeals of two known Britiſh merchants reſiding where ſuch goods ſhall be landed; and upon the producing of ſuch certificate, or proof on oath by two perſons, that the goods were taken by enemies, or periſhed in the ſeas, the ſaid bond ſhall be diſcharged. ſ. 22.

The bond, with the condition in 4 Geo. 3. mentioned, ſhall be given for every veſſel that ſhall ſail from any Britiſh colony or plantation in America, whether goods ſhall be there laden or not; and if any ſuch veſſel, not having taken any goods on board, ſhall ſail before ſuch bond ſhall be given, ſuch veſſel, with her furniture, ſhall be forfeited, and may be ſeized. ſ. 24.

The act 4 Geo. 3. c. 15. ſhall not extend to require any perſon to take out any ſufferance or cocket for any goods of the growth, product, or manufacture, of the Britiſh colonies or plantations in America, which are not, by act of parliament made in Great Britain, liable to duty upon importation into, or exportation from, the ſaid colonies, nor are prohibited to be exported, which ſhall be laden in any boat, flat, ſhallop, or other veſſel without a deck, not exceeding twenty tons burthen, and ſhall be carried within any river, lake, or other inland waters, within the colonies, and not out to ſea farther than one league from ſhore. ſ. 25.

To obviate any doubts in 4. Geo. 3. c. 15, concerning the conſtruction of the words ſeizures made at ſea, it is declared, that the ſaid words ſhall extend to all ſeizures made by the commanders or officers of his majeſty's veſſels of war at ſea, or in or upon any river, and which ſhall not be actually made on ſhore within any Britiſh colony or plantation in America. ſ. 26.

It ſhall be lawful for every collector, and other officer of cuſtoms, in any Britiſh colony or plantation in America, appointed by the commiſſioners in England, to receive ſuch fees as they were intitled to before 29th Sept. 1764, provided they are not contrary to act of parliament; and in every port in any Britiſh iſland in the Weſt Indies, where no fees have been received, ſuch officer ſhall be intitled to the ſame fees as received in the neareſt port in the ſaid iſland before 29th Sept. 1764; and, if no fees have been received, ſuch officer ſhall be intitled to ſuch fees as have been received in Barbadoes; and in every port on the continent of America, within his majeſty's dominions, where no fees have been received by any officer of the cuſtoms, ſuch officer ſhall be intitled to the ſame fees as in the neareſt port in the colony or plantation, before 29th Sept. 1764; and if no fees have been received, ſuch officer ſhall be intitled to ſuch fees as have been received in the neareſt port within any Britiſh colony or plantation before 29th Sept. 1764; and if no fees have been received by any comptroller within any colony or plantation, or if the fees have not been equal to one-third of the fees received by the collector within the ſame port, it ſhall, after fifth July 1765, in every ſuch caſe be lawful for ſuch comptroller to receive for his fees, for any entry or other buſineſs done by him in the execution of his employment, a ſum equal to one-third of the fees received for like buſineſs; and every ſuch officer ſhall have the ſame remedy for recovery of ſuch fees, as heretofore allowed; and, if any collector, comptroller, or other officer of cuſtoms in America, appointed as aforeſaid, ſhall exact, require, or receive, any other or greater fees than herein allowed, he ſhall, for the firſt offence, forfeit 50 l.; one moiety to his majeſty, and the other to the perſon aggrieved, who ſhall ſue for the ſame in the proper court in ſuch colony or plantation; and for the ſecond offence, he ſhall forfeit his place, and be for ever after incapable of executing any office in the cuſtoms. ſ. 27.

By 6 Geo. 3. c. 52. The duty by this act ſhall not be charged upon melaſſes or ſyrups imported into any Britiſh plantation on the continent of America from Dominica, for which a certificate ſhall be produced upon the importation thereof, to the collector or officer of cuſtoms at the port of importation, under the hand and ſeal of office of the collector or officer at the port of exportation in Dominica, certifying that the ſaid duty hath been there paid for ſuch melaſſes or ſyrups. ſ. 5.

The duties charged by this act upon melaſſes and ſyrups, coffee and pimento, imported into any Britiſh American plantation, ſhall be deemed to be ſterling money of Great Britain, and be received to the value which ſuch nominal ſums bear in Great Britain; and ſuch monies may be received according to the value of 5 s. 6 d. the ounce in ſilver; and the ſaid duties ſhall be paid and recovered in the ſame manner, and by ſuch means, and under ſuch penalties, as other duties upon goods imported into the plantations: and all monies that ſhall ariſe by the duties (except the charges of raiſing, &c.) ſhall be paid into the exchequer, and ſhall be entered ſeparate from all other monies payable to his majeſty, and ſhall be there reſerved, to be diſpoſed of by parliament, towards defraying the expences of defending and ſecuring the Britiſh plantations in America. ſ. 12.

No duty whatſoever ſhall be paid for any Britiſh coffee or pimento imported into any Britiſh plantation in America, provided the ſame ſhall upon landing thereof be immediately depoſited in warehouſes provided at the ſole expence of the importer or proprietor, with the approbation, and under the care and inſpection, of the collector and comptroller, or officer of cuſtoms, at the port where ſuch goods ſhall be imported, and ſhall be ſecured under the ſeparate locks of ſuch officers, and the proprietor; and ſhall, within twelve months from landing and warehouſing, be ſhipped directly from thence for exportation, either to Great Britain, or to ſome other Britiſh plantation in America, under the ſecurities and reſtrictions required. ſ. 15.

No duty whatſoever ſhall be paid for any foreign ſugars, nor for any foreign coffee or indico, imported into any Britiſh plantation on the continent of America; provided ſuch goods ſhall, upon landing thereof, be immediately depoſited in ſuch warehouſes, and in the manner before mentioned; and ſhall, within twelve months from the landing and warehouſing the ſame, be ſhipped from thence for exportation, as after expreſſed, viz. Upon condition that ſuch ſugars ſhall be exported either directly to Great Britain, or to ſome other part of Europe to the ſouthward of Cape Finiſterre, under the like ſecurities, reſtrictions, and forfeitures, as Britiſh ſugars may be exported from any Britiſh plantation in America; and provided that ſuch foreign indico ſhall be exported to Great Britain only under the like ſecurities, regulations, and forfeitures, as are mentioned in any act now in force with reſpect to indico of the growth or produce of any Britiſh plantation; and provided that, before ſuch foreign coffee ſhall be taken out of ſuch warehouſe for exportation, the exporter ſhall become bound with ſufficient ſecurity in 5 l. for every cwt. of ſuch coffee, that the ſame ſhall be really exported, according to the entry, and not brought back again or relanded in any part of the Britiſh dominions in America; which bond the collector and comptroller, or officers of cuſtoms at the port from whence ſuch foreign coffee ſhall be exported, are authoriſed to take, in the name and to the uſe of his majeſty; and the ſaid bond, with reſpect to ſuch coffee exported to Great Britain, Ireland, or any other place under the dominion of his majeſty where cuſtom-houſe officers are, ſhall be with further condition, to return a certificate within eighteen months from the date of ſuch bond from the collector and comptroller, or other officer of cuſtoms, at ſuch port, that ſuch coffee has been there landed accordingly; and with reſpect to ſuch coffee as ſhall be exported to any place not under the dominion of his majeſty, or where no ſuch officers are, ſuch bond ſhall continue in force for two years from the date; and in caſe no fraud ſhall appear within that time, the commiſſioners of cuſtoms in England, or four of them, may direct the bond to be cancelled, &c. ſ. 16.

If the importer or proprietor of ſuch goods as ſhall be warehouſed, ſhall not pay the duties due for the ſame, nor export ſuch goods within twelve months, the collector and comptroller, or other officer of cuſtoms, at the port where ſuch goods ſhall be ſecured, may cauſe the ſame to be publicly ſold to the beſt advantage; and the money ariſing by ſuch ſale ſhall be firſt applied in diſcharge of the duties and charges of ſale; and the ſurplus (if any) ſhall be paid to the importer or proprietor who landed and warehouſed ſuch goods. ſ. 17.

Any perſon may import any cotton wool or indico, of foreign produce or manufacture, into any Britiſh iſland in the Weſt Indies, in any veſſel that may lawfully trade there, navigated according to law, without payment of any duty whatſoever for ſuch goods. ſ. 18.

No duty whatſoever ſhall be paid, in any Britiſh plantation in America, for any cotton wool exported from thence. ſ. 19.

Provided entry of ſuch cotton wool and indico ſhall be made in the cuſtom-houſe belonging to the port where ſuch goods ſhall be imported in the Weſt Indies, in the ſame manner, and expreſſing the quantities thereof, as was uſed before this act; and the ſaid goods ſhall be landed in the preſence of the officer appointed, otherwiſe ſuch goods ſhall be liable to duties. ſ. 21.

Bond and ſecurity, in the penalty in 12 Car. 2. c. 18. ſhall alſo be given to the collector, or principal officer of cuſtoms, at any port in any of the Britiſh American plantations, with one ſurety beſides the maſter that ſhall take on board there any goods not enumerated in the acts, with condition that ſuch goods ſhall not be landed at any part of Europe to the northward of Cape Finiſterre, except in Great Britain, which bond ſhall be diſcharged, viz. for ſuch of the goods as ſhall be entered for, or landed in Great Britain, the condition of the bond ſhall be, to bring a certificate in diſcharge thereof within 18 months from the date of ſuch bond, and within ſix months for ſuch of the goods as ſhall be entered for, or landed in, any of the Britiſh plantations in America; which certificates ſhall be under the hands and ſeals of the collector and comptroller, or principal officer of cuſtoms, reſident at the port where ſuch goods ſhall be landed, teſtifying the landing thereof; and, for ſuch of the goods as ſhall be entered for, or landed at, any other place where the ſame may be legally landed, to bring the like certificate within twelve months, under the common ſeal of the chief magiſtrate, or under the hands and ſeals of two known Britiſh merchants reſiding there, or ſuch bond ſhall be diſcharged, by proof upon oath made by credible perſons, that the goods were taken by enemies, or periſhed in the ſeas: and if ſuch non-enumerated goods ſhall be laden on board any veſſel in any Britiſh plantation in America before bond given, the goods, together with the ſhip and her furniture, ſhall be forfeited, and may be ſeized by any officer of cuſtoms, and proſecuted. ſ. 30.

Nothing herein ſhall extend to veſſels bona fide bound to ſome of the ports of Spain within the bay of Biſcay. ſ. 31.

If any action ſhall be commenced, either in Great Britain or America, againſt any perſon for any thing done in purſuance of this or any other act relating to cuſtoms, the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and, if the plaintiff ſhall be nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 32.

By 7 Geo. 3. c. 41. The cuſtoms and other duties impoſed upon any goods or merchandizes imported into, or exported from any Britiſh colony or plantation in America, may be put under the management of ſuch commiſſioners, to reſide in the ſaid plantations, as his majeſty, by commiſſion under the great ſeal of Great Britain, ſhall judge for the advantage of trade, and ſecurity of the revenue of the ſaid Britiſh colonies. ſ. 1.

The ſaid commiſſioners, or any three of them, ſhall have the ſame powers and authorities for carrying into execution the laws relating to the revenues and trade of the Britiſh colonies, as were, before this act, exerciſed by the commiſſioners in England, by virtue of any acts now in force: and it ſhall be lawful in ſuch commiſſion to make proviſion for putting in execution the laws relating to the cuſtoms and trade of the Britiſh colonies. ſ. 2.

By 8 Geo. 3. c. 22. All forfeitures and penalties relating to the trade or revenues of the Britiſh colonies or plantations in America, may be ſued for and recovered in any court of vice-admiralty, which ſhall have juriſdiction within the the plantation where the cauſe of proſecution ſhall have ariſen. ſ. 1.

Where any proſecution ſhall be commenced and determined in any court of admiralty, either party aggrieved by ſuch determination, may appeal to any court of vice-admiralty, which ſhall have juriſdiction within the plantation; which court of vice-admiralty is to hear and determine all ſuch appeals. ſ. 2.

By 9 Geo. 3. c. 28. It ſhall be lawful for any perſon, inhabiting in Jerſey or Guernſey, to ſhip and tranſport directly from thence to Newfoundland, or any other Britiſh plantation in America, where the fiſhery is carried on, on board any veſſel which may lawfully trade there, any ſort of craft, food, victuals, clothing, or other goods, fit for the fiſhery, or for the uſe and ſupport of the perſons employed on board the veſſels, or on ſhore, in carrying on the ſaid fiſhery there; ſuch craft, clothing, or other goods, being the growth, produce, or manufacture of Great Britain, or of Jerſey or Guernſey, and ſuch food or victuals being of the growth or produce either of Great Britain, Ireland, or the ſaid iſlands, 15 Car. 2. c. 7. and 4 Geo. 3. notwithſtanding. ſ. 1.

The maſter of ſuch veſſel ſhall produce, to the proper officer of the cuſtoms in the colony or plantation where he ſhall arrive, a certificate, under the hand and ſeal of the governor, deputy governor, or commander in chief, that oath had been made by the ſhipper of ſuch goods before the magiſtrates of the royal courts in Jerſey or Guernſey, or three of them, that the goods and victuals ſhipped are of ſuch growth, product, or manufacture, as aforeſaid; which certificate ſhall alſo be atteſted by the principal officer of the cuſtoms, who ſhall certify that the oath was taken in his preſence; and on failure of producing ſuch certificate, ſuch craft, food, victuals, clothing or other goods, found on board any veſſel, and the veſſel importing the ſame, ſhall be liable to be ſeized and forfeited. ſ. 2.

Any non-enumerated goods, except rum, laden in any Britiſh American colony or plantation, may be landed in Jerſey or Guernſey; and 6. Geo. 3. c. 52. and all the regulations therein as to the bond and ſecurity for landing ſuch non-enumerated goods in Great Britain, ſhall extend to Jerſey and Guernſey alſo, as fully as if excepted and named in the act; and any bond which ſhall be entered into may be cancelled by the certificate under the hands and ſeals of the magiſtrates of the royal courts of Jerſey or Guernſey, and the principal officer of the cuſtoms in ſuch iſland, teſtifying the landing there, as if landed in Great Britain or Ireland. ſ. 3.

By 13 Geo. 3. c. 14. It ſhall be lawful for all perſons, foreigners, or aliens, to lend money at not exceeding 5 l. per cent. per annum, upon the ſecurity of any freehold or leaſehold eſtate, in any of his majeſty's colonies in the Weſt Indies, and to hold the ſame as an effectual ſecurity for the money lent, and to proſecute any ſuit for recovering the ſame, as after mentioned, whether the foreign ſtate of which ſuch alien is a natural-born ſubject be at war with this kingdom or not. ſ. 1.

In caſe of non-payment of the money lent upon ſuch ſecurity at the time agreed upon; it ſhall be lawful for ſuch foreigners to bring and proſecute, by themſelves or attornies, any ſuit at common law on any bond, or other collateral ſecurity, or on any covenant of the borrower, contained in any mortgage or deeds; and alſo bills in the court of chancery of the colony where the eſtate lies, praying a decree of ſale of the mortgaged premiſes, for payment of the debt due thereon; in which ſuit the plaintiff ſhall be intitled to like remedies, for recovery of his debt and coſts, as any Britiſh ſubject can have; except the being intitled to obtain, directly or indirectly, the actual poſſeſſion of ſuch mortgaged premiſes, by any proceſs of execution at common law; or to foreclоſe the equity of redemption by decree or order of any court of equity whatſoever. ſ. 2.

The court of chancery, where ſuch bills ſhall be brought, may order the ſale of ſuch mortgaged premiſes, in the ſame manner as where the mortgager hath conſented to a ſale. ſ. 3.

In ſuch caſes, ſervice of any writ or proceſs of ſuch court, upon the known attorney or agent of ſuch foreigners reſiding within the juriſdicton of the court, ſhall be deemed good ſervice: and in caſe the defendant ſhall be abſent, and have no ſuch attorney or agent reſident within the juriſdiction of the court, upon affidavit thereof made by the perſon ſeeking ſuch relief, or by his attorney, duly conſtituted to the ſatisfaction of the court (in which affidavit ſhall be expreſſed the reſidence of ſuch foreigner, according to the beſt of the deponent's information and belief), it ſhall be lawful for ſuch court to iſſue a commiſſion under ſeal to commiſſioners, authoriſing ſuch commiſſioners to take affidavit of the ſervice of ſuch writ or proceſs on the defendant perſonally, or his uſual place of reſidence, and to certify the ſame; and ſuch affidavit, returned with ſuch commiſſion into the court ſhall be competent evidence of the ſervice of ſuch writ or proceſs: and, if the defendant ſhall not, within ſix months after ſervice, upon the attorney or agent in the colony, or upon the defendant abroad, appear to the ſaid bill, either in perſon, or by attorney appointed under hand and ſeal, or according to the uſage of the country to which the defendant belongs; then the court of chancery in which ſuch ſuit ſhall be brought, is to take the bill pro confeſſo, and to decree an account to be taken, by one of the maſters of the court, of what is due to the defendant for principal and intereſt, and alſo for coſts; in taking of which account, the complainant ſhall be obliged to ſhew before the maſter, vouchers for all credits that he ſhall claim: and the court is, on the coming in of the maſter's report to make a final decree, appointing a time and place for payment of the ſum, which, by ſuch report, ſhall appear to be due to the defendant, together with intereſt, until tendered as after mentioned, and adjudging a redemption of the mortgaged premiſes, upon the payment of the ſaid principal and intereſt, and coſts, either to the defendant, or to his attorney, or into the bank of England as after preſcribed. ſ. 4.

After a time and place for redemption of ſuch mortgage, and the money to be paid for ſuch redemption ſhall be aſcertained by the court, according to the uſual courſe, if the money ſhall be then and there tendered, and if ſuch mortgagee, or his repreſentative, or attorney, refuſe to receive the ſame, or ſhall not attend for that purpoſe; then the mortgager, his repreſentative, or attorney, may pay ſuch money into the bank of England, in the name, and with the privity of the accountant-general of the high court of chancery of England, to be placed to his account there ex parte, the mortgager, or his repreſentative, purſuant to the method preſcribed by 12 Geo. 1. c. 32. (See PART I. page 97.) there to remain for the benefit of the mortgagee, and to be laid out on government or parliamentary ſecurities, as after mentioned, until he ſhall, upon a petition to the high court of chancery, in a ſummary way, at his expence, obtain an order for payment thereof, and of all intereſt ariſing therefrom. ſ. 5.

A certificate of the accountant-general, under his hand (which he is to give without fee, as well to the mortgager as to the mortgagee, upon application) that the mortgager, or his heirs or repreſentatives, or attorney, have paid ſuch ſum into the bank of England, ſhall be a diſcharge to the mortgager, or his heirs; and, after ſuch certificate ſhall be given, the mortgager, his heirs or aſſigns, and all perſons who may be ſurety for the payment of the ſum originally lent, or the intereſt thereof, ſhall be diſcharged of the ſame; and the legal eſtate of the mortgagee ſhall be, after granting ſuch certificate, reveſted in the mortgager, &c. ſ. 6.

In the mean time, and until the mortgagee, or his repreſentatives, ſhall apply by petition to the high court of chancery for an order to receive the ſum, the accountant-general ſhall place out the ſame on government or parliamentary ſecurities; and ſhall pay the intereſt unto the perſon intitled to the ſum paid into the bank. ſ. 7.

The ſaid high court of chancery ſhall make an order for the payment of the ſum that ſhall be paid into the bank, and of all dividends therefrom ariſing, to the perſon intitled thereto, upon an application made to the court by petition, in a ſummary way, by the mortgagee; on hearing of which petition it ſhall be ſufficient for the petitioner to prove, to the ſatisfaction of the court, that he is the perſon for whoſe uſe the money was paid into the bank, or the legal repreſentative of ſuch perſon, without requiring any of the proceedings in the court of chancery of the colony to be tranſmitted hither; and upon producing ſuch order to the accountant-general, the money ſhall be paid to the perſon ſpecified in ſuch order, or to his attorney, without fee. ſ. 8.

By 13 Geo. 3. c. 57. Any certificates, notes, bills, or debentures, voluntarily accepted by the creditors of the public within any of the colonies in America, as a ſecurity for the payment of what is due to the public creditors, may be enacted by the general aſſemblies of the colonies reſpectively to be a legal tender to the public treaſuerers in the colonies, for the diſcharge of any duties, taxes, or other debts whatſoever, due to, and payable at the public treaſuries of the colonies, in virtue of laws paſſed within the ſame, and in no other caſe whatſoever, 4 Geo. 3. notwithſtanding.

By 14 Geo. 3. c. 83. All the territories, iſlands, and countries in North America, belonging to the crown of Great Britain, bounded on the ſouth by a line from the bay of Chaleurs, along the high lands which divide the rivers that empty themſelves into the river St. Lawrence from thoſe which fall into the ſea, to a point in forty-five degrees of northern latitude on the eaſtern bank of the river Connecticut, keeping the ſame latitude directly weſt, through the lake Champlain, until, in the ſame latitude, it meets the river St. Lawrence; from thence up the eaſtern bank of the ſaid river to the lake Ontario; thence through the lake Ontario, and the river commonly called Niagara; and thence along by the eaſtern and ſouth-eaſtern bank of lake Erie, following the ſaid bank, until the ſame ſhall be interſected by the northern boundary, granted by the charter of the province of Pennſylvania, in caſe the ſame ſhall be ſo interſected; and from thence along the ſaid northern and weſtern boundaries of the ſaid province, until the ſaid weſtern boundary ſtrike the Ohio: but in caſe the ſaid bank of the ſaid lake ſhall not be found to be ſo interſected, then following the ſaid bank until it ſhall arrive at that point of the ſaid bank which ſhall be neareſt to the north-weſtern angle of the ſaid province of Pennſylvania, and thence by a right line, to the ſaid north-weſtern angle of the ſaid province; and thence along the weſtern boundary of the ſaid province, until it ſtrike the river Ohio; and along the bank of the ſaid river, weſtward, to the banks of the Miſſiſſippi, and northward to the ſouthern boundary of the territory granted to the merchants adventurers of England trading to Hudſon's Bay; and alſo all ſuch territories, iſlands, and countries, which have, ſince the 10th of February 1763, been made part of the government of Newfoundland, are hereby, during his majeſty's pleaſure, annexed to, and made part of, the province of Quebec, as created by the royal proclamation of the 7th of October 1763.

Nothing herein ſhall affect the boundaries of any other colony. ſ. 2.

Nothing in this act ſhall make void or alter any right, title, or poſſeſſion, derived under any grant, conveyance, or otherwiſe, of any lands within the province, or the provinces adjoining. ſ. 3.

"Former proviſions were made void." ſ. 4.

His majeſty's ſubjects, profeſſing the religion of the church of Rome in Quebec, may enjoy the free exerciſe of the religion, ſubject to the king's ſupremacy, declared by an act made in 1 Eliz.; and the clergy of the ſaid church may enjoy their accuſtomed dues, with reſpect to ſuch perſons only as ſhall profeſs the ſaid religion. ſ. 5.

His majeſty may make proviſion out of the reſt of the accuſtomed dues, for the encouragement of the proteſtant religion, and for the maintenance and ſupport of a proteſtant clergy within the province. ſ. 6.

No perſon, profeſſing the religion of the church of Rome, and reſiding in the province, ſhall be obliged to take the oath required by 1 Eliz., or any other oaths, by any other act, in the place thereof; but ſuch perſon ſhall be obliged to take and ſubſcribe the following oath before the governor, or ſuch other perſon in ſuch court of record as his majeſty ſhall appoint, who are to adminiſter the ſame; viz.

I A. B. do ſincerely promiſe and ſwear, that I will be faithful, and bear true allegiance to his majeſty king George, and him will defend to the utmoſt of my power, againſt all traiterous conſpiracies and attempts whatſoever, which ſhall be made againſt his perſon, crown, and dignity; and I will do my utmoſt endeavour to diſcloſe and make known to his majeſty, his heirs and ſucceſſors, all treaſons, and traiterous conſpiracies and attempts, which I ſhall know to be againſt him, or any of them; and all this I do ſwear without any equivocation, mental evaſion, or ſecret reſervation, and renouncing all pardons and diſpenſations from any power or perſon whomſoever to the contrary.

So help me God.

And ſuch perſon, who ſhall neglect or refuſe to take the ſaid oath, ſhall be liable to the ſame penalties as for neglecting or refuſing to take the oath required by 1 Eliz.. ſ. 7.

All his majeſty's Canadian ſubjects within the province of Quebec, the religious orders and communities only excepted, may alſo enjoy their property and poſſeſſions, together with all cuſtoms relative thereto, and all other their civil rights, as ample as if the proclamation, commiſſions, ordinances, and other acts had not been made, and as may conſiſt with their allegiance to his majeſty, and ſubjection to the crown and parliament of Great Britain; and in all matters of controverſy, relative to property and civil rights, reſort ſhall be had to the laws of Canada, as the rule for the deciſion of the ſame; and all cauſes that ſhall hereafter be inſtituted in any of the courts of juſtice, to be appointed within and for the ſaid province by his majeſty, ſhall, with reſpect to ſuch property and rights, be determined agreeably to the ſaid laws and cuſtoms of Canada, until they ſhall be varied by any ordinances that ſhall be paſſed in the province by the governor, lieutenant-governor, or commander in chief, with the advice and conſent of the legiſlative council of the ſame, to be appointed as after mentioned. ſ. 8.

Nothing

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to any lands granted by his majeſty, to be holden in free and common ſoccage. ſ. 9.

Every owner of lands, goods, or credits, in the province, that has a right to alienate the ſaid lands, &c. in his life-time, by deed of ſale, gift, or otherwiſe, may deviſe or bequeath the ſame at his death by will; ſuch will being executed either according to the laws of Canada, or according to the laws of England. ſ. 10.

The criminal law of England ſhall be adminiſtered and obſerved as law in the province of Quebec, as well in the deſcription of the offence, as in the method of proſecution and trial; and the puniſhments and forfeitures thereby inflicted to the excluſion of every other mode which did prevail in the province before 1764; ſubject to ſuch alterations and amendments as the governor, lieutenant governor, or commander in chief, with the advice and conſent of the legiſlative council, ſhall cauſe to be made therein, as after directed. ſ. 11.

It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty, by warrant under his ſignet or ſign manual, and with the advice of the privy council, to appoint a council for the affairs of the province, to conſiſt of ſuch perſons reſident there, not exceeding twenty-three, nor leſs than ſeventeen; and, upon the death, removal, or abſence of any of the members of the ſaid council, to appoint other perſons to ſupply the vacancy; which council, or the major part thereof, ſhall have power to make ordinances for the peace, welfare, and good government of the province, with the conſent of the governor, or, in his abſence, of the lieutenant-governor, or commander in chief. ſ. 12.

Nothing in this act ſhall authoriſe the council to lay any taxes within the province, ſuch taxes only excepted as the inhabitants of any town or diſtrict within the province may be authoriſed by the council to aſſeſs and apply within the ſaid diſtrict, for making roads, erecting and repairing public buildings, or reſpecting the local convenience and œconomy of ſuch diſtrict. ſ. 13.

Every ordinance ſo made, ſhall, within ſix months, be tranſmitted by the governor, &c. and laid before his majeſty for approbation; and if his majeſty diſallow thereof, the ſame ſhall ceaſe from the time that his majeſty's order in council ſhall be promulgated at Quebec. ſ. 14.

No ordinance touching religion, or by which any puniſhment may be inflicted greater than fine or impriſonment for three months, ſhall be of any force until it have received his majeſty's approbation. ſ. 15.

No ordinance ſhall be paſſed at any meeting where leſs than a majority of the whole council is preſent, or at any time except between the 1ſt of January and 1ſt of May, unleſs upon ſome urgent occaſion; in which caſe every member reſident at Quebec, or within fifty miles thereof, ſhall be perſonally ſummoned by the governor, &c. to attend the ſame. ſ. 16.

Nothing herein ſhall prevent his majeſty by letters patent under the great ſeal of Great Britain from appointing ſuch courts of criminal, civil, and eccleſiaſtical juriſdiction within the province, and appointing the judges and officers thereof, as his majeſty ſhall think neceſſary. ſ. 17.

Nothing in this act ſhall repeal within the province of Quebec, any act heretofore made for prohibiting or regulating the trade or commerce of his majeſty's plantations in America; but the ſaid acts, and alſo all acts of parliament heretofore made concerning the plantations, ſhall be in force within the province of Quebec. ſ. 18.

By 14 Geo. 3. c. 88. There ſhall be paid unto his majeſty for the goods hereinafter mentioned, which ſhall be imported into any part of the province of Quebec, above all other duties now payable in the province by any act of parliament, the duties following; viz.

For every gallon of brandy, or other ſpirits, of the manufacture of Great Britain, 3 d.

For every gallon of rum, or other ſpirits, imported from any of his majeſty's ſugar colonies in the Weſt Indies, 6 d.

For every gallon of rum, or other ſpirits, imported from any other of his majeſty's dominions in America, 9 d.

For every gallon of foreign brandy, or other ſpirits, of foreign manufacture, imported from Great Britain, 1 s.

For every gallon of rum, or ſpirits, of the produce or manufacture of any of the plantations in America, not under the dominion of his majeſty, imported from any other place except Great Britain, 1 s.

For every gallon of molaſſes and ſyrups, imported into the province, in veſſels belonging to his majeſty's ſubjects in Great Britain or Ireland, or to his majeſty's ſubjects in the province, 3 d.

For every gallon of molaſſes and ſyrups, imported in any other veſſels, 6 d.

The ſaid duties ſhall be ſterling money of Great Britain, and ſhall be paid to the value ſuch ſums bear in Great Britain; and ſuch monies may be received according to the value of 5 s. 6 d. the ounce in ſilver; and the duties ſhall be paid and recovered in the ſame manner, and by ſuch rules, and under ſuch penalties, except where any alteration is made by this act, as other duties payable in any Britiſh plantation in America are; and all the monies that ſhall ariſe by the ſaid duties (except the charges of raiſing, &c.) ſhall be paid, by the collector of cuſtoms, into the hands of his majeſty's receiver-general in the ſaid province, and ſhall be applied, firſt, in making a more certain proviſion towards defraying the expences of the adminiſtration of juſtice, and of the ſupport of civil government, in the province; and the commiſſioners of the treaſury, or three of them, ſhall, by warrants under their hands, cauſe ſuch money to be applied out of the produce of the ſaid duties, towards defraying the ſaid expences; and the reſidue of the duties ſhall remain in the hands of the ſaid receiver-general, for the future diſpoſition of parliament. ſ. 2.

If any goods chargeable with the ſaid duties ſhall be brought into the province by land carriage, the ſame ſhall paſs through the port of Saint John's, near the river Sorrel; or if ſuch goods ſhall be brought into the province by any inland navigation, other than upon the river Saint Lawrence, the ſame ſhall paſs upon the river Sorrel, by the ſaid port, and ſhall be there entered with, and the ſaid duties paid for the ſame, to ſuch officer of cuſtoms as ſhall be there appointed; and if ſuch goods coming by land carriage, or inland navigation, ſhall paſs by or beyond the place before named, without entry or payment of the duties, or ſhall be brought into any part of the province, through any other place, the ſaid goods ſhall be forfeited; and every perſon aſſiſting, or concerned, in bringing ſuch goods, or to whoſe hands the ſame ſhall come, knowing that they were brought contrary to this act, ſhall forfeit treble the value of ſuch goods, to be eſtimated according to the beſt price in Quebec; and all horſes, cattle, boats, veſſels, and other carriages uſed in the removal, ſhall alſo be forfeited, and ſhall be ſeized by any officer of cuſtoms. ſ. 3.

The penalties by this act inflicted ſhall be ſued for in any court of admiralty, or vice-admiralty, having juriſdiction within the province, and the ſame ſhall be recovered and divided in the ſame manner, and by the ſame rules, as other penalties for offences againſt the cuſtoms and trade of the colonies in America. ſ. 4.

There

There ſhall be paid unto his majeſty's receiver-general of the province, for the uſe of his majeſty, a duty of 1 l. 16 s. ſterling money of Great Britain for every licence granted by the governor, &c. to any perſon for keeping a houſe or other place of public entertainment, or for retailing wine, brandy, rum, or other ſpirituous liquors, within the province; and any perſon keeping ſuch houſe, &c. or retailing ſuch liquors without ſuch licence, ſhall forfeit 10*l.* for every offence; one moiety to ſuch perſon as ſhall inform, and the other ſhall be paid into the hands of the receiver-general, for the uſe of his majeſty. ſ. 5.

Nothing herein ſhall diſcontinue any part of the territorial or caſual revenues, fines, rents, or profits, which belonged to his moſt chriſtian majeſty before the conqueſt and ſurrender to the king of Great Britain; but the ſame ſhall remain and be paid. ſ. 6.

If any action ſhall be commenced againſt any perſon for any thing done in purſuance of this act, and it ſhall appear to the court that ſuch action is brought for any thing done in purſuance of this act, the defendant ſhall be indemnified and acquitted for the ſame; and, if ſuch defendant ſhall be ſo acquitted, &c. ſuch court ſhall award to the defendant treble coſts. ſ. 7.

By 15 Geo. 3. c. 40. It ſhall be lawful to convey by land carriage or inland navigation, into any parts of the province of Quebec, not heretofore comprehended within the limits thereof by his majeſty's royal proclamation of the 7th October 1763, any quantity of rum, brandy, or other ſpirits; 14 Geo. 3. c. 18. notwithſtanding.

By 18 Geo. 3. c. 12. It was declared that the king and parliament of Great Britain will not impoſe any duty, tax, or aſſeſſment whatever, payable in any of his majeſty's colonies, provinces, and plantations in North America or the Weſt Indies, except only ſuch duties as it may be expedient to impoſe for the regulation of commerce; the net produce of ſuch duties to be always applied to the uſe of the colony, province, or plantation, in which the ſame ſhall be levied, in ſuch manner as other duties collected by the authority of the general courts, or general aſſemblies, of ſuch colonies, &c. are ordinarily paid. ſ. 1.

By 18 Geo. 3. c. 58. The collector, or principal officer of cuſtoms, to whom the affidavit required by 4 Geo. 3. c. 15. ſhall be produced and delivered ſhall (without fee), within thirty days after the ſailing of the veſſel, tranſmit one exact copy of the affidavit, to the ſecretary's office for the plantation where the ſugar or paneles, referred to in the affidavit, were ſhipped; and ſhall alſo, within the like ſpace of thirty days, tranſmit another exact copy of ſuch affidavit to the juſtices and veſtry of the pariſh or precincts where the ſaid ſugar or paneles grew, or were produced and manufactured, on the penalty of forfeiting 50*l.* for every neglect. ſ. 1.

In caſe any juſtice of the peace of the ſaid plantations ſhall ſubſcribe his name to any affidavit for the purpoſe directed by 4 Geo. 3. unleſs the perſon purporting to make ſuch affidavit ſhall actually appear before him, and be ſworn upon the Holy Evangeliſts to the truth of the affidavit, ſuch juſtice ſhall forfeit 50*l.* ſ. 2.

The penalties ſhall be recovered and diſpoſed of in the ſame manner as the penalties in 4 Geo. 3. ſ. 4.

By 22 Geo. 3. c. 75. No office to be exerciſed in any colony or plantation belonging to the crown of Great Britain ſhall be granted by patent for any longer term than during ſuch time as the grantee thereof, or perſon appointed thereto, ſhall diſcharge the duty thereof in perſon, and behave well therein. ſ. 1.

If any perſon holding ſuch office, ſhall be wilfully abſent from the colony or plantation, without a reaſonable cauſe to be allowed by the governor and council of ſuch colony or plantation, or ſhall neglect the duty of ſuch office, do otherwiſe miſbehave, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch governor and council to amove ſuch perſon from ſuch office: and the perſon aggrieved thereby may appeal therefrom, as in other caſes of appeal from ſuch colony or plantation, whereon ſuch amotion ſhall be finally judged of by his majeſty in council. ſ. 2.

It ſhall be lawful for the governor and council of any colony or plantation to give ſuch leave of abſence; and in ſuch caſe, as likewiſe in the caſe of vacancy by death or amotion, to provide for the diſcharge of the duties of ſuch office, until the king's pleaſure be known. ſ. 3.

Nothing to operate to the prejudice of any ſubſiſting grant of ſuch offices, or to prevent any office being granted determinable at pleaſure. ſ. 4.

By 27 Geo. 3. c. 27. Wool, cotton-wool, indigo, cochineal, drugs of all ſorts, cocoa, logwood, fuſtick, and all ſorts of wood for dyers uſe, hides, ſkins, and tallow, beaver, and all ſorts of furs, tortoiſe-ſhell, hardwood, or mill timber, mahogany, and all other woods for cabinet ware, horſes, aſſes, mules, and cattle, being the growth or production of any of the plantations in America, under the dominion of any foreign European ſtate, and all corn and bullion, diamonds, or precious ſtones, may be imported from any of the ſaid plantations into the ports of Kingſton, Savannah la Mar, Montego Bay, and Santa Lucea in Jamaica, the port of Saint George in Grenada, Roſeau in Dominica, and Naſſau in New Providence, one of the Bahama iſlands, in any foreign veſſel, not having more than one deck, and not exceeding the burthen of 70 tons, owned and navigated by the ſubjects of any foreign European ſtate. ſ. 2.

No goods, except ſuch as are before enumerated, ſhall be imported in any ſuch foreign veſſel, from any of the plantations in America, belonging to any foreign European ſtate, into any of the before-mentioned ports, upon any pretence whatever, upon pain of forfeiting the ſame, together with the veſſel, and the guns, tackle, apparel, and furniture; and the ſame ſhall be ſeized by any officer of cuſtoms or navy, who are authoriſed to make ſeizures, and ſhall be proſecuted as after directed. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful to export from any of the ſaid ports to any of the plantations in America belonging to any foreign European ſtate, in any veſſel owned and navigated by the ſubjects of any foreign European ſtate, not having more than one deck, and not exceeding 70 tons, rum, of the produce of any Britiſh iſland, and alſo negroes brought into the ſaid iſlands in Britiſh-built ſhips, owned, navigated, and regiſtered according to law, and all manner of goods which ſhall have been legally imported into the ſaid iſlands, except maſts, yards, or bowſprits, pitch, tar, turpentine, and tobacco, and alſo except ſuch iron as ſhall have been brought from the Britiſh plantations in America. ſ. 4.

If any doubt ſhall ariſe whether ſuch goods intended to be exported, ſhall have been legally imported into Jamaica, Grenada, Dominica, and New Providence, the legality of ſuch importation ſhall be made appear to the ſatisfaction of the collector and comptroller, or other officer of cuſtoms at the port of exportation, before ſuch goods ſhall be ſhipped. ſ. 5.

All wool, cotton-wool, indigo, cochineal, drugs of all ſorts, cocoa, logwood, fuſtick, and all ſorts of wood for dyers uſe, hides, ſkins, and tallow, beaver, and all ſorts of furs, tortoiſe-ſhell, mahogany, and all other woods for cabinet ware, of the growth or production of any of the plantations in America, belonging to any foreign European ſtate, ſhall be allowed to be exported from Jamaica, Grenada, nada, Dominica, and New Providence, to Great Britain or Ireland, under the rules and forfeitures mentioned in 12 Car. 2. c. 18.; 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 26; and 20 Geo. 3. c. 10. with reſpect to the goods therein enumerated. ſ. 6.

No goods whatever, of the growth, production, or manufacture, of Europe, or the Eaſt Indies, or other places beyond the Cape of Good Hope, ſhall, upon any pretence whatever, be exported from Grenada or Dominica, or from the Bahama iſlands, to any other Britiſh plantation in America, or the Weſt Indies, upon pain of forfeiting ſuch goods, together with the veſſel, and the guns, &c.; and the ſame ſhall be ſeized by any officer of cuſtoms or navy; and ſhall be proſecuted as after directed. ſ. 7.

No duty of gunpowder, nor any fee whatever, ſhall be demanded, or received, by any officer in Jamaica, Grenada, Dominica, and New Providence, for any entry, cocquet, clearance, or paſſport, for any foreign veſſel, or for any goods imported into or exported from the ſaid iſlands in ſuch foreign veſſels, under the penalties inflicted upon officers exacting or receiving greater fees than are allowed by 5 Geo. 3. c. 45. ſ. 27. ſ. 8.

All penalties impoſed by this act ſhall be recovered and divided in Great Britain, Guernſey, Jerſey, or the Iſle of Man, or in any of his majeſty's colonies or iſlands in America, in the ſame manner, and by the ſame rules, as other penalties impoſed by any act made for the ſecurity of the cuſtoms, or for the regulation of trade or navigation. ſ. 9.

This act ſhall continue in force to Sept. 1, 1792, and from thence to the end of the then next ſeſſion of parliament. ſ. 10.

By 28 Geo. 3. c. 6. No goods whatever ſhall be imported from any of the territories belonging to the United States of America into any of his majeſty's Weſt India iſlands (the Bahama iſlands, and the Bermuda or Somers iſlands, included), under forfeiture thereof, and alſo of the veſſel, together with all her guns, furniture, ammunition, tackle, and apparel, except tobacco, pitch, tar, turpentine, hemp, flax, maſts, yards, bowſprits, ſtaves, heading-boards, timber, ſhingles, and lumber of any ſort; horſes, neat cattle, ſheep, hogs, poultry, and live ſtock of any ſort; bread, biſcuit, flour, peas, beans, potatoes, wheat, rice, oats, barley, and grain of any ſort; ſuch commodities being the growth or production of any of the territories of the United States. ſ. 1.

None of the goods before excepted ſhall be imported into any of the ſaid iſlands from the territories of the United States, under forfeiture thereof, and alſo of the veſſel, together with all her guns, &c. except by Britiſh ſubjects, and in Britiſh-built ſhips, owned by his majeſty's ſubjects, and navigated according to law. ſ. 2.

It ſhall be lawful to export from any of the Weſt India iſlands to any port within the territories belonging to the United States, any goods whatſoever, not prohibited to be exported from the ſaid iſlands to any foreign country in Europe; and alſo ſugar, melaſſes, coffee, cocoa nuts, ginger, and pimento: and all cocoa nuts or ginger ſo exported ſhall be ſubject to the ſame duties to which the ſame are ſubject if exported to any Britiſh plantation in America; and the ſaid duties ſhall be paid and applied as the duties on cocoa nuts or ginger exported to any Britiſh plantation in America are: provided no ſugar, melaſſes, coffee, cocoa nuts, ginger, or pimento, nor any other articles whatſoever (except ſalt from Turk's Iſlands, part of the Bahama iſlands), ſhall be ſo exported, except by Britiſh ſubjects, and in Britiſh-built ſhips, owned by his majeſty's ſubjects, and navigated according to law, under forfeiture thereof, and alſo of the veſſel, together with her guns, &c. ſ. 3.

Where, on exportation of goods to any Britiſh plantation in America, a bond is required by law for the due landing of ſuch goods in ſuch plantation, and a certificate is required to diſcharge ſuch bond, a ſimilar bond ſhall be required; on exportation of ſuch goods to the territories of the United States, for the due landing the ſame in the ſaid territories; and ſuch bond ſhall be diſcharged, upon a certificate under the hand and ſeal of the Britiſh conſul or vice conſul, provided ſuch conſul ſhall be reſident at the port where ſuch goods ſhall be landed; or, in caſe there ſhall not be any ſuch conſul, then under the hand and ſeal of any officer appointed by the United States for granting ſuch certificate; and, if there ſhall not be any officer appointed, then ſuch bond ſhall be diſcharged upon a certificate under the hand and ſeal of any magiſtrate of the United States, certifying that there is no ſuch officer at the port where ſuch goods ſhall be landed, and that oath hath been made before ſuch magiſtrate, by the maſter, that the goods for which ſuch certificate is required were landed by him at ſuch port. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for any veſſel belonging to the inhabitants of the United States coming in ballaſt, and not otherwiſe, to enter the ports of Turk's Iſlands, for being there laden with ſalt, and for no other purpoſe whatever; under the proviſions after-mentioned. ſ. 5.

The maſter of ſuch veſſel ſhall, immediately after the arrival of ſuch veſſel into any port of the ſaid iſlands, make a true entry, upon oath, before the collector, or officer, of ſuch port, of his veſſel, declaring of what country ſhe is built, how manned, who was the maſter during the voyage, and who are the owners thereof, and the purpoſe for which he enters the ſaid port, that ſuch veſſel may undergo the ſearch and examination of the officers of cuſtoms: and ſuch maſter ſhall truly anſwer upon oath to ſuch queſtions touching the ſame as ſhall be demanded of him by ſuch collector or officer, upon pain that ſuch maſter ſhall forfeit 100*l.*; and the collector, or officer of cuſtoms, is to adminiſter the ſaid oaths. ſ. 6.

There ſhall be paid unto his majeſty, a tonnage duty, at the rate of 2*s.* 6*d.* ſterling, payable in dollars at 5*s.* 6*d.* per ounce for each ton burthen of every veſſel belonging to the inhabitants of the United States coming to Turk's Iſlands; and the tonnage ſhall be aſcertained by admeaſurement, made by ſuch officer as ſhall be appointed by the commiſſioners of cuſtoms in England, or four of them; which officer ſhall admeaſure ſuch veſſel according to the following method; viz. drop a plumb-line over the ſtern of the ſhip, and meaſure the diſtance between ſuch line and the after-part of the ſtern-poſt at the load water mark; then meaſure from the top of the ſaid plumb-line, in a parallel direction with the water, to a perpendicular point immediately over the load water mark at the fore-part of the main ſtem; ſubtracting from ſuch meaſurement the above diſtance, the remainder will be the ſhip's extreme length, from which is to be deducted three inches for every foot of the load draught of water for the rake abaft, and alſo three-fifths of the ſhip's breadth for the rake forward, the remainder ſhall be eſteemed the juſt length of the keel, to find the tonnage; and the breadth ſhall be taken from outſide to outſide of the plank, in the broadeſt part of the ſhip, either above or below the main wales, excluſive of all manner of ſheathing or doubling wrought upon the ſide of the ſhip; then multiply the length of the keel for tonnage by the breadth taken, and that product by half the breadth, and dividing by 94, the quotient ſhall be deemed the true contents of the tonnage. ſ. 7.

The full amount of the tonnage duty ſhall be paid to the collector of cuſtoms in the iſlands, at the port wherein he ſhall be appointed to reſide, before any ſalt ſhall be loaden; and ſuch duty ſhall be under the management of the commiſſioners of cuſtoms, and be collected in ſuch manner as other duties on goods imported into any of the ſaid iſlands, &c. under the dominion of his majeſty in America or the Weſt Indies are; and ſuch duty ſhall, under ſuch management, be ſubject to the payment of the ſalaries of the officers and other charges of the port, and the reſidue be paid to the receiver-general of cuſtoms in England, to be paid by him into the exchequer, under the head of conſolidated cuſtoms. ſ. 8.

No goods whatſoever ſhall be exported from Turk's Iſlands to any of his majeſty's dominions in America or the Weſt Indies, or loaden on board any veſſel in Turk's Iſlands, for that purpoſe, except ſalt; and no goods whatſoever ſhall be exported from Turk's Iſlands to Great Britain or Ireland, or loaden on board any veſſel in the ſaid iſlands for that purpoſe, except ſalt, and alſo except ſuch goods as may now, or hereafter be imported into this kingdom from other countries, free of duties, under the penalty of forfeiture of all ſuch goods ſo exported, or laid on board, and of the veſſel, and of all her guns, &c. ſ. 9.

No tobacco, pitch, tar, turpentine, hemp, flax, maſts, yards, bowſprits, ſtaves, heading-boards, timber, ſhingles, or lumber of any ſort; bread, biſcuit, flour, peas, beans, potatoes, wheat, rice, oats, barley, or grain of any ſort, ſhall be imported into any iſland under the dominion of his majeſty, in the Weſt Indies (the Bahama and the Bermuda or Somers iſlands included), from any iſland in the Weſt Indies under the dominion of any foreign European ſtate, under the penalty of forfeiture thereof, and of the veſſel, together with all her guns, &c. ſ. 10.

In caſe of public emergency or diſtreſs, any of the governors, lieutenant governors, or commanders in chief, of any of the iſlands in the Weſt Indies, under the dominion of his majeſty, with the conſent of their councils, may authoriſe the importation of tobacco, pitch, tar, turpentine, hemp, flax, maſts, yards, bowſprits, ſtaves, heading-boards, timber, ſhingles, or lumber of any ſort; bread, biſcuit, flour, peas, beans, potatoes, wheat, rice, oats, barley, or grain of any ſort, for a limited time, from any iſland in the Weſt Indies, under the dominion of any foreign European ſtate, for the ſupply of the inhabitants of the iſlands: provided, ſuch goods ſhall not be imported, except by Britiſh ſubjects, and in Britiſh-built ſhips, owned by ſubjects, and navigated according to law, under the forfeiture above mentioned. ſ. 11.

No goods whatever ſhall be imported from any of the territories belonging to the United States into the provinces of Nova Scotia, or New Brunſwick, or the iſlands of Cape Breton, Saint John's, or Newfoundland, or into any country or iſland within their governments, under the penalty of forfeiture thereof, together with the veſſel, and all her guns, &c. ſ. 12.

In caſe of public emergency or diſtreſs, any of the governors, lieutenant governors, or commanders in chief, of the provinces of Nova Scotia, or New Brunſwick, or of the iſlands of Cape Breton, or Saint John's, with the advice and conſent of their councils, may authoriſe the importation of ſcantling, planks, ſtaves, heading-boards, ſhingles, hoops, or ſquared timber of any ſort; horſes, neat cattle, ſheep, hogs, poultry, or live ſtock of any ſort; bread, biſcuit, flour, peas, beans, potatoes, wheat, rice, oats, barley, or grain of any ſort, for a limited time, from any of the territories belonging to the United States, for the ſupply of the inhabitants: provided, that ſuch goods ſhall not be imported, except by Britiſh ſubjects, and in Britiſh-built ſhips, owned by ſubjects, and navigated according to law, under the penalty of the forfeiture above mentioned: and it ſhall be lawful for his majeſty in council, by order to be iſſued and publiſhed from time to time, to authoriſe, or by warrant under his ſign manual, to empower the governor of Newfoundland to authoriſe, in caſe of neceſſity, the importation into Newfoundland of bread, flour, Indian corn, and live ſtock, from any of the territories belonging to the United States, for the ſupply of the inhabitants and fiſhermen of Newfoundland, for the then enſuing ſeaſon only: provided, ſuch bread, flour, Indian corn, and live ſtock, ſhall not be imported, except in conformity to ſuch rules as ſhall be ſpecified in ſuch order or warrant, and except by Britiſh ſubjects, and in Britiſh-built ſhips, owned by ſubjects, and navigated according to law, under the forfeiture above. ſ. 13.

No goods whatever ſhall be imported from any of the territories belonging to the United States, by ſea, or coaſtwiſe, into the province of Quebec, or into the countries or iſlands within the government thereof, or up the river Saint Lawrence from the ſea, under the forfeiture thereof, together with the veſſel, and all her guns, &c. ſ. 14.

This act ſhall not repeal 27 Geo. 3. c. 27.; but the ſame ſhall continue in force. ſ. 15.

All the goods, and all veſſels, forfeited by this act, ſhall be ſeized by the commanders of any of his majeſty's veſſels of war, or any commiſſioned, warrant, or petty officer, ſpecially authoriſed by them, or by any officer of cuſtoms; and every forfeiture ſhall be recovered in ſuch courts, and by ſuch ways, and the produce thereof applied in ſuch manner, and to ſuch uſes, as any forfeiture reſpecting the cuſtoms may now be ſued for, &c. either in this kingdom, or in any of his majeſty's dominions in North America, or the Weſt Indies. ſ. 16.

By 28 Geo. 3. c. 39. Where any rum or other ſpirits, the produce or manufacture of any of his majeſty's colonies in the Weſt Indies, ſhall be legally imported into the province of Quebec, from any of the colonies, in any veſſel which, in her laſt preceding voyage, ſhall have carried to, and landed in, any of the ſaid colonies, a cargo of lumber and proviſions, horſes or neat cattle, from the ſaid province, it ſhall be lawful to admit to an entry and land any quantity of ſuch rum or ſpirits, not exceeding in value the cargo of lumber or proviſions, horſes or neat cattle, ſo carried and landed, without payment of the duty of 6 d. per gallon impoſed by 14 Geo. 3. ſ. 1.

Where any rum or other ſpirits, the produce or manufacture of any of the colonies in the Weſt Indies, ſhall be legally imported into the province from any of the ſaid colonies, in any veſſel which, in her next clearing out from the ſaid province after ſuch importation, ſhall load with a cargo of lumber or proviſions, horſes or neat cattle, in the province, and carry to, and land the ſame in ſome of the ſaid colonies, it ſhall be lawful to admit to an entry and land any quantity of ſuch rum or ſpirits, not exceeding in value the cargo of lumber or proviſions, horſes or neat cattle, loaded, without payment of the duty of 6 d. per gallon: provided the owner of ſuch laſt veſſel, which ſhall have imported ſuch rum or ſpirits, or in caſe of ſuch owner not reſiding in the province, the maſter, together with one or more ſureties reſiding within the province, ſhall, before ſuch rum or ſpirits be admitted to an entry without payment of the ſaid duty, give bond to his majeſty, to be taken by two principal officers of cuſtoms there, in the penal ſum of 500 l. with condition that the ſaid veſſel ſhall, in her next clearing out from the province after importation, be laden with a cargo of lumber or proviſions, horſes horſes or neat cattle, equal in value to the rum or ſpirits admitted to an entry, without payment of the duty; and that the ſaid lumber, &c. ſhall be carried to, and landed in, ſome of the colonies in the Weſt Indies. ſ. 2.

The value of the rum or ſpirits admitted to an entry, and the value of the cargo of lumber, &c. ſo loaded in the province, ſhall be eſtimated according to the valuations in the ſchedule. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty, with the advice of his privy council, by order to be iſſued and publiſhed from time to time, to alter the valuations contained in the ſchedule, whenever neceſſary, upon any report made by the governor and council of the province. ſ. 4.

Fines certain are not to be taken away by this act. ſ. 2.

By Stat. Weſt. 1. 3 Edw. 1. c. 29. If any ſerjeant, pleader, or other, do any deceit in the king's court, or conſent unto it, in deceit of the court or the party, and thereof be attainted, he ſhall be impriſoned for a year and a day, and ſhall not be heard to plead in that court. And if he be no pleader, he ſhall be impriſoned in like manner. And if the treſpaſs require greater puniſhment, it ſhall be at the king's pleaſure.

Stat. de conjunctim. feoffatis, 34 Edw. 1. ſt. 1. In aſſizes of novel diſſeiſin, where the tenant doth plead, that he holdeth the lands in demand jointly with his wife not named in the writ, and ſome time with a ſtranger not named in the writ, and ſheweth forth a deed teſtifying the ſame, and demandeth judgment of the writ; if the plaintiff will aver by aſſize, that the day of his writ purchaſed he that alledged the exception was ſole tenant, ſo that neither his wife nor any other had any thing in the lands, the juſtices ſhall retain the deed, until the aſſize be tried thereupon. And they ſhall by writ under their teſte let the party abſent, whom the deed teſtified to have been jointly enfeoffed with the tenant, to underſtand, that he be preſent at a certain day with the other tenant, to anſwer to the plaintiff, as well upon the exception alledged, as of the lands demanded and put in view, if it ſhall ſo ſeem expedient to him; at which day if both the tenants come and juſtify the feoffment, they ſhall maintain the exception alledged by one of them, and further ſhall anſwer unto the aſſize, as though the original had been purchaſed againſt both of them jointly. And if it be proved by aſſize, that the exception was alledged maliciouſly, to delay the plaintiff of his right, ſo that they held not the ſame land jointly the day of the writ purchaſed, then albeit the aſſize paſs for the tenants, yet they that alledge the exception ſhall be puniſhed by one year's impriſonment, from whence they ſhall not be delivered without a grievous ranſom. And let the juſtices not allow ſuch an exception alledged by the bailiffs of any ſuch tenants. And if he that alledgeth the exception abſent himſelf at his day, and the other thatis named joint tenant appear, although he diſavow the deed, and ſay, that he hath nothing in the lands, &c. nevertheleſs the aſſize ſhall be awarded againſt him that is abſent by default; and, if it be found by the aſſize, that they were not jointly ſeiſed, &c. and likewiſe that the tenant or any other named in the writ did diſſeiſe the plaintiff, then, having regard to the exception that was falſely alledged, and to the diſſeiſin, the plaintiff ſhall recover his ſeiſin and double damages; and they that alledged the falſe exception ſhall have the puniſhment aforeſaid:

ſaid: but, if neither of the tenants come at the day, then upon their default, the aſſize ſhall be awarded; and, if it be found that the exception was truly alledged, the aſſize ſhall paſs no further, but the writ ſhall be abated. The ſame order ſhall be obſerved in aſſizes of mortdanceſter and juris utrum. In other writs whereby lands are demanded, ſuch proceſs ſhall be made, that if at the firſt day that the parties appear, if the tenant alledge the exception of a joint feoffment, and the demandant will offer to aver by the country, that the day of the writ purchaſed he that alledged the exception was ſole tenant, the ſame proceſs ſhall be obſerved until a jury have paſſed between them thereupon. And if it be found by the jury, that the exception was truly alledged, the writ ſhall abate; and if it be found, that the exception was falſly alledged, and to the hindrance of the party, the demandant ſhall recover his ſeiſin, and the tenant ſhall be puniſhed by the pain aboveſaid as to the impriſonment, and, as to the damages, according to the diſcretion of the juſtices.

By 2 Edw. 3 c. 17. A writ of deceit ſhall be maintainable as well in caſe of garniſhment touching plea of land, as in caſe of ſummons.

By 25 Edw. 3. ſt. 5. c. 16. By the exception of non-tenure of parcel, no writ ſhall be abated but for quantity of the non-tenure.

By 36 Edw. 3. c. 15. All pleas in courts before any of the king's juſtices or miniſters, or in the courts of any other lords, ſhall be pleaded, debated, and judged, in the Engliſh tongue, and entered and enrolled in Latin; and by the ancient terms and forms of pleaders, no man ſhall be prejudiced, ſo that the matter of the action be fully ſhewed in the declaration and in the writ.

By 6 Ric. 2. c. 2. In writs of debt and account, and all other ſuch actions, if in pleas upon the ſame writs it ſhall be declared, that the contract was made in another county than is contained in the original writ, the ſame writ ſhall be abated.

By 32 Hen. 8. c. 30. Made perpetual by 2 & 3 Edw. 6. c. 32. If any iſſue be tried by 12 or more indifferent men, in any of the king's courts of record, the juſtices ſhall give judgment in the ſame, any miſpleading, lack of colour, inſufficient pleading, or jeofail, any miſcontinuance or diſcontinuance, or miſconveying of proceſs, miſjoining of iſſue, lack of warrant of attorney of the party againſt whom the iſſue ſhall be tried, or any other default or negligence of the parties, their counſellors, or attornies notwithſtanding. ſ. 1.

Every attorney for any demandant or plaintiff, tenant or defendant, in any action in the king's ſaid courts, ſhall deliver his warrant of attorney to be entered of record in the ſame term when the iſſue is entered of record, or before, upon pain of forfeiting to the king 10*l.* and further to ſuffer ſuch impriſonment as by the court ſhall be thought convenient. ſ. 2.

By 18 Eliz. c. 14. If any verdict of 12 men or more ſhall be given in any action in any court of record, the judgment thereupon ſhall not be ſtayed or reverſed, by reaſon of any default in form, or lack of form, touching falſe Latin, or variance from the regiſter, or other defaults in form, in any writ original or judicial, count, declaration, plaint, bill, ſuit, or demand, or for want of any writ original or judicial, or by reaſon of any imperfect or inſufficient return of any officer, or for want of any warrant of attorney, or by reaſon of any default in proceſs, upon or after any aid prier or voucher. ſ. 1.

This act ſhall not extend to any appeal of felony or murder, nor to any indictment or preſentment of felony, murder, treaſon, or other matter, nor to any proceſs upon them, nor to any action upon any popular or penal ſtatute. ſ. 2.

All attornies in any court of record ſhall deliver in the warrant of attorney, to be entered or filed as heretofore, upon pain to forfeit 10*l.*, the one moiety to the queen, and the other to ſuch officer to whom the warrant ſhould be delivered, and to ſuffer impriſonment by the diſcretion of the court. ſ. 3.

By 27 Eliz. c. 5. After demurrer joined and entered in any action in any court of record, the judges ſhall give judgment according as the very right of the cauſe and matter in law ſhall appear, without regarding any imperfection, defect, or want of form, in any writ, return, plaint, declaration, or other pleading, proceſs, or courſe of proceeding; except thoſe only which the party demurring ſhall ſpecially ſet down with his demurrer. ſ. 1.

After demurrers joined and entered, the court may amend all ſuch imperfections, defects, and wants of form, other than thoſe which the party ſhall ſpecially ſet down with his demurrer. ſ. 2.

This act ſhall not extend to any appeal of felony or murder, nor to any indictment or preſentment of felony, murder, treaſon, or other matter, nor to any proceſs upon them, nor to any action upon any popular or penal ſtatute. ſ. 3.

By 7 Jac. 1. c. 5. Made perpetual by 21 Jac. 1. c. 12. If any action upon the caſe, treſpaſs, battery, or falſe impriſonment, ſhall be brought againſt any juſtice of peace, mayor, or bailiff of city or town corporate, headborough, portreeve, conſtable, tythingman, collector of ſubſidy or fifteens, for any thing by them done by reaſon of their offices, it ſhall be lawful for every ſuch juſtice of peace or other officer, and all others which in their aſſiſtance, or by their command, ſhall do any thing touching their offices, to plead the general iſſue, not guilty; and if the verdict paſs with the defendant, or the plaintiff become nonſuit, or ſuffer any diſcontinuance, the judge before whom the matter ſhall be tried ſhall allow the defendant double coſts.

By 21 Jac. 1. c. 12. All church-wardens, and perſons called ſworn-men executing the office of church-wardens, and all overſeers of the poor, and others which in their aſſiſtance, or by their command, ſhall do any thing touching their offices, ſhall have ſuch benefit by the act 7 Jac. 1. c. 5. as if they had been named therein. ſ. 3.

If any action upon the caſe, treſpaſs, battery, or falſe impriſonment, ſhall be brought againſt any juſtice of peace, mayor or bailiff of any city or town corporate, headborough, portreeve, conſtable, tythingman, collector of ſubſidy or fifteens, church-wardens, and perſons called ſworn-men, executing the office of church-warden or overſeer of the poor, and their deputies, or any other, which in their aſſiſtance, or by their command, ſhall do any thing touching their offices, for any thing by them done by virtue of their offices, the action ſhall be laid within the county where the fact ſhall be done; and it ſhall be lawful for every perſon aforeſaid, to plead the general iſſue, not guilty; and if the verdict ſhall paſs with the defendant, or the plaintiff become nonſuit, or ſuffer any diſcontinuance, the defendant ſhall have double coſts. ſ. 5.

By 21 Jac. 1. c. 13. If any verdict of 12 men, or more, ſhall be given for the plaintiff or demandant, or for the defendant or tenant, baily in aſſize, vouchee, pray in aid, or tenant by receipt, in any court of record, the judgment thereupon ſhall not be ſtaid nor reverſed by reaſon of any variance in form only, between the original writ or or bill and the declaration, plaint, or demand, or for lack of an averment of any life of any perſon, ſo as upon examination the perſon be proved to be in life, or by reaſon that the venire facias, habeas corpora, or diſtringas, is awarded to a wrong officer, or by reaſon the viſne is in ſome part miſawarded ſo as ſome one place be right named, or by reaſon that any of the jury is miſnamed, ſo as upon examination it be proved to be the ſame man that was meant, or by reaſon that there is no return upon any of the writs, ſo as a panel of the names of jurors be returned and annexed to the writ; or for that the ſheriff's name is not ſet to the return, ſo as upon examination it be proved, that the writ was returned by the ſheriff, &c. or by reaſon that the plaintiff, in an ejectione firmæ, or in any perſonal action, being an infant, did appear by attorney, and the verdict for him. ſ. 2.

This act ſhall not extend to any appeal of felony or murder, or to any indictment or preſentment of felony, murder or treaſon, nor to any action upon any popular or penal ſtatute. ſ. 3.

By 21 Jac. 1. c. 14. Whenſoever the king ſhall be out of poſſeſſion 20 years, before any information of intruſion brought, the defendants may plead the general iſſue, and ſhall retain the poſſeſſion, until the title be found for the king. ſ. 1.

Where an information of intruſion may be brought on the king's behalf, no ſcire facias ſhall be brought whereunto the ſubject ſhall be enforced to ſpecial pleading. ſ. 2.

By 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 17. All collectors and other perſons who ſhall levy or collect any money by virtue of any act of parliament now in force, and who ſhall be ſued for the ſame by any other than the king's majeſty, may plead the general iſſue. ſ. 1.

By 16 & 17 Car. 2. c. 8. If any verdict be given in any action or demand in his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, or in the counties palatine, or in the great ſeſſions, judgment ſhall not be ſtaid or reverſed, for default in form, or by reaſon that there are not pledges, or but one pledge, to proſecute returned upon the original writ, or becauſe the name of the ſheriff is not returned upon ſuch original writ; or for default of entering pledges upon any bill or declaration; or for default of alledging the bringing into court of any bond, bill, indenture, or other deed, mentioned in the declaration or other pleading; or for default of allegation of bringing into court of letters teſtamentary, or letters of adminiſtration; or by reaſon of the omiſſion of vi et armis, or contra pacem; or the miſtaking of the chriſtian name or ſurname of the plaintiff or defendant, demandant or tenant, ſums of money, day, month, or year, by the clerk, in any bill, declaration, or pleading, where the right name, &c. in any record preceding, or in the ſame record, are once rightly alledged, whereunto the plaintiff might have demurred and ſhewn the ſame for cauſe; nor for want of the averment of hoc paratus eſt verificare, or hoc paratus eſt verificare per recordum; or for not alledging prout patet per recordum; or for that there is no right venue, ſo as the cauſe were tried by a jury of the county or place where the action is laid; nor any judgment after verdict, confeſſion by cognovit actionem, or relicta verificatione, ſhall be reverſed for want of miſericordia or capiatur; or that a capiatur is entered for a miſericordia, or a miſericordia for a capiatur; nor for that ideo conceſſum eſt per curiam is entered for ideo conſideratum eſt per curiam; nor for that the increaſe of coſts after a verdict in an action, or upon a nonſuit in replevin, are not entered to be at the requeſt of the party; nor by reaſon that the coſts in any judgment are not entered to be by conſent of the plaintiff; but all ſuch omiſſions, variances, defects, and all other matters of like nature, not being againſt the right of the matter of the ſuit, nor whereby the iſſue or trial are altered, ſhall be amended by the courts where ſuch judgments are given, or whereunto the record is removed by writ of error. ſ. 1.

This act ſhall not extend to any appeal of felony or murder, nor to any indictment or preſentment of felony, murder, treaſon, or other matter, nor to any proceſs upon them, nor to any action upon any penal ſtatute, other than concerning ſubſidies of tonnage and poundage. ſ. 2. See ERROR.

By 4 & 5 Ann. c. 16. Where demurrer ſhall be joined and entered in any ſuit in any court of record, the judges ſhall give judgment, according as the very right of the cauſe and matter in law ſhall appear, without regarding any imperfection, omiſſion, or defect, in any writ, return, plaint, declaration, or other pleading, proceſs, or courſe of proceeding, except thoſe only which the party demurring ſhall ſpecially ſet down with his demurrer as cauſes of the ſame, notwithſtanding that ſuch imperfection, &c. might have heretofore been taken to be matter of ſubſtance, and not aided by the ſtatute 27 Eliz. c. 5. ſo as ſufficient matter appear in the pleadings, upon which the court may give judgment according to the right of the cauſe; and no advantage ſhall be taken of an immaterial traverſe, or of the default of entering pledges; or of the default of alledging the bringing into court any bond or other deed mentioned in the pleading; or of the default of alledging of the bringing into court letters teſtamentary, or letters of adminiſtration; or of the omiſſion of vi et armis and contra pacem; or of the want of averment of hoc paratus eſt verificare, or hoc paratus eſt verificare per recordum; or of not alledging prout patet per recordum; but the court ſhall give judgment according to the very right of the cauſe, without regarding any ſuch imperfections, or any other matter of like nature, except the ſame ſhall be ſpecially ſhewn for cauſe of demurrer. ſ. 1.

All the ſtatutes of jeofails ſhall be extended to judgments entered upon confeſſion, nihil dicit, or non ſum informatus, in any court of record; and no ſuch judgment ſhall be reverſed, nor any judgment upon any writ of enquiry of damages executed thereon be ſtaid or reverſed, for any thing which would have been aided by the ſtatutes of jeofails, in caſe a verdict had been given in the action, ſo as there be an original writ or bill, and warrants of attorney duly filed. ſ. 2.

The attorney for the plaintiff or demandant ſhall file his warrant of attorney the ſame term he declares; and the attorney for the defendant or tenant ſhall file his warrant of attorney the ſame term he appears; under the penalties inflicted by any former law for default of filing their warrants of attorney. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful for any defendant or tenant in any action, or for any plaintiff in replevin, in any court of record, with the leave of the court, to plead as many matters as he ſhall think neceſſary. ſ. 4.

Provided that if any ſuch matter ſhall, upon a demurrer joined, be judged inſufficient, or if a verdict ſhall be found upon any iſſue for the plaintiff or demandant, coſts ſhall be given, unleſs the judge who tried the iſſue ſhall certify, that the defendant or tenant, or plaintiff in replevin, had a probable cauſe to plead ſuch matter. ſ. 5.

Nothing before contained ſhall extend to any appeal of felony or murder, or to any indictment or preſentment of treaſon, felony, or murder, or other matter, or to any proceſs proceſs upon them, or to any action upon any penal ſtatute. ſ. 7.

No dilatory plea ſhall be received in any court of record, unleſs the party offering ſuch plea do by affidavit prove the truth thereof, or ſhew ſome probable matter to the court, to induce them to believe that the fact is true. ſ. 11.

Where an action of debt ſhall be brought upon any ſingle bill, or where a debt or ſcire facias ſhall be brought upon any judgment, if the defendant hath paid the money, ſuch payment may be pleaded in bar: and where debt is brought upon any bond which hath a condition or defeazance to make void the ſame upon payment of a leſſer ſum, if the obligor, his heirs, executors, or adminiſtrators, have before the action brought, paid the principal and intereſt due, though ſuch payment was not made ſtrictly according to the condition or defeazance, yet it may be pleaded in bar, and ſhall be as effectual as if the money had been paid at the day and place according to the condition, and had been ſo pleaded. ſ. 12.

If at any time, pending an action upon ſuch bond with a penalty, the defendant ſhall bring into court the principal and intereſt due, and all coſts expended in any ſuit in law or equity upon ſuch bond, the money ſhall be taken in ſatisfaction of the bond, and the court ſhall give judgment to diſcharge ſuch defendant. ſ. 13.

This act, and all the ſtatutes of jeofails, ſhall extend to all ſuits in her majeſty's courts of record at Weſtminſter, for recovery of any debt immediately owing, or any revenue belonging to her majeſty; and ſhall alſo extend to all courts of record in the counties palatine, and Wales, and to all other courts of record. ſ. 14. See Account, Attornment, Bail, Chancery, Error, &c.

By 4 Geo. 2. c. 26. All writs, proceſs, pleadings, rules, indictments, records, and all proceedings in any courts of juſtice within England, and in the court of exchequer in Scotland, ſhall be in the Engliſh tongue, and ſhall be written in ſuch common hand as acts of parliament are uſually ingroſſed in, the lines and words to be written at leaſt as cloſe as the ſaid acts uſually are, and not abbreviated; and all perſons offending againſt this act ſhall forfeit 50*l.* to any perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 1.

Miſtranſlation or miſtake in clerkſhip, in proceedings begun before the 25th of March 1733, being part Latin and part Engliſh, ſhall be no error, but may at any time be amended, whether in paper or on record, before or after judgment, upon payment of reaſonable coſts. ſ. 2.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to certifying beyond the ſeas any proceedings in the court of admiralty, but the proceedings may be certified in Latin as formerly. ſ. 3.

Every ſtatute for amending jeofails ſhall extend to all forms and proceedings (except in criminal caſes) when the proceedings are in Engliſh; and this clauſe ſhall be taken in the moſt beneficial manner. ſ. 4.

By 6 Geo. 2. c. 6. The act 4 Geo. 2. c. 26. (that proceedings ſhall be in Engliſh) ſhall not extend to the court of the receipt of his majeſty's exchequer. ſ. 1.

The ſaid court of receipt, and the ſeveral members thereof, ſhall carry on the buſineſs according to uſual courſe. ſ. 2.

By 6 Geo. 2. c. 14. All writs, proceſs, and returns thereof, and proceedings thereon, and all pleadings, rules, orders, indictments, informations, &c. in courts of juſtice within England, Wales, and Berwick upon Tweed, and in the exchequer in Scotland, may be written or printed in a common hand, and with the like manner of expreſſing numbers by figures, as have been commonly uſed in the ſaid courts, and with ſuch abbreviations as are uſed in the Engliſh language: and no penalty ſhall be incurred by the ſaid act for any other offence than for writing or printing in court hand, or in any language except Engliſh; nor ſhall ſuch penalty be extended to the expreſſing the names of writs or technical words, in the ſame language as hath been uſed. And all proſecutions for offences againſt the ſaid act ſhall be commenced within three months. ſ. 5. See Amendment, Arrests, Error.

Pleas of the Crown.

Magna Charta, 9 Hen. 3. c. 17. No ſheriff, conſtable, eſcheator, coroner, nor any other of the king's bailiffs, ſhall hold pleas of the crown.

Pledges.

By 38 Edw. 3. ſtat. 1. c. 3. All fines to be taken before any juſtices, ſhall be in the preſence, and the pledges ſhall know the ſum of their fine before their departing.

Poor.

By 11 Hen. 7. c. 12. Poor perſons, which have cauſe of action againſt any, ſhall have, by the diſcretion of the chancellor, writs original, and writs of ſubpœna, according to the nature of their cauſes, nothing paying for the ſeals, nor for writing of the writs. And the chancellor ſhall aſſign clerks to write the ſame ready to be ſealed, and alſo learned counſel and attornies, without any reward taking. And, after the writs returned, if it be afore the king in his bench, the juſtices ſhall aſſign to the poor perſon counſel learned, which ſhall give their counſels, nothing taking; and likewiſe the juſtices ſhall appoint attornies for the ſame poor perſons, and all other officers requiſite for the ſpeed of the ſaid ſuits, which ſhall do their duties without reward for their counſels. And the ſame order ſhall be of all ſuch ſuits in the common place and exchequer, and all other courts of record.

By 43 Eliz. c. 2. The churchwardens of every pariſh, and four, three, or two houſeholders there, to be nominated yearly in Eaſter week, or within one month after Eaſter, under the hand and ſeal of two juſtices of peace, whereof one of the quorum, dwelling in or near the pariſh, ſhall be called overſeers of the poor of the ſame pariſh. And they, or the greater part of them, ſhall take order, with conſent of two juſtices, for ſetting to work the children of all ſuch whoſe parents ſhall not be thought able to keep their children; and alſo for ſetting to work all ſuch perſons, married or unmarried, having no means to maintain them, and uſe no trade to get their living by; and alſo to raiſe weekly, or otherwiſe (by taxation of every inhabitant, parſon, and other, and every occupier of lands, houſes, tithes impropriate, coal mines, or ſaleable underwoods in the pariſh, in ſuch ſums of money as they ſhall think fit), a convenient ſtock of flax, hemp, wool, thread, iron, and other ſtuff, to ſet the poor on work; and alſo money for the relief of the lame, old, blind, and other, being poor, and not being able to work; and alſo for the putting out of children apprentices out of the pariſh, and to do all other things concerning the premiſes. ſ. 1.

Which churchwardens and overſeers, or ſuch of them as ſhall not be let by ſickneſs, or other juſt excuſe, to be allowed by two juſtices, ſhall meet once every month in the church, upon the Sunday afternoon, to conſider of the premiſes; and ſhall within four days after the end of their year, and after other overſeers nominated, yield to ſuch two juſtices a true account of all money by them received, or rated and not received, and of ſuch ſtock as ſhall be in their hands, and all other things concerning their office; and ſuch money as ſhall be in their hands ſhall pay over to the churchwardens and overſeers newly appointed; upon pain that every one of them abſenting themſelves, or being negligent in their office, to forfeit 20*s*. ſ. 2.

If the juſtices perceive that the inhabitants of any pariſh are not able to levy among themſelves ſufficient money for the purpoſes aforeſaid, the ſaid two juſtices may tax any other of other pariſhes, or out of any pariſh, within the hundred where the ſaid pariſh is, to pay ſuch ſums of money to the church-wardens and overſeers of the poor pariſh, as the juſtices ſhall think fit; and if the hundred ſhall not be thought able to relieve the ſeveral pariſhes not able to provide for themſelves, the juſtices at their quarter-ſeſſions ſhall rate any other of other pariſhes, or out of any pariſh, within the ſaid county, as in their diſcretion ſhall ſeem fit. ſ. 3.

The church-wardens and overſeers, by warrant from two juſtices, may levy as well the ſaid ſums of money, and all arrearages, of every one that ſhall refuſe to contribute as they ſhall be aſſeſſed, by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and in defect of diſtreſs, it ſhall be lawful for any two juſtices to commit them to the common gaol of the county until payment: and the juſtices to ſend to the houſe of correction or common gaol ſuch as ſhall not employ themſelves to work, being appointed as aforeſaid: and any two juſtices to commit to priſon the church-wardens and overſeers which ſhall refuſe to account. ſ. 4.

The church-wardens and overſeers, by the aſſent of two juſtices, may bind ſuch children apprentices till ſuch man-child come to the age of 24 years, and ſuch woman-child to the age of 21 years, or the time of her marriage. And it ſhall be lawful for the church-wardens and overſeers, by leave of the lord of the manor whereof any waſte or common within their pariſh is parcel, to build in ſuch waſte at the charges of the pariſh, or of the hundred or county as aforeſaid, houſes of dwelling for the poor, and alſo to place inmates in cottages; which cottages ſhall not be uſed for any other habitation, but only for impotent and poor of the pariſh. ſ. 5. See 18 Geo. 3. c. 47.

If any perſons find themſelves grieved with any tax, or other act done by the church-wardens, &c. or by the juſtices, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices at their quarter-ſeſſions to take ſuch order as ſhall be thought convenient. ſ. 6.

The father and grandfather, and the mother and grandmother, and the children, of every poor, old, blind, lame, and impotent perſon, or other poor perſon not able to work, being of a ſufficient ability, ſhall, at their own charges, maintain ſuch poor perſon, as by the juſtices of peace at their quarter-ſeſſions ſhall be aſſeſſed; upon pain to forfeit 20*s*. for every month. ſ. 7.

The mayors, bailiffs, or other head officers, of every town corporate and city, being juſtices of peace, ſhall have the ſame authority as juſtices of peace of the county; and no other juſtices to meddle there. And every alderman of London within his ward may do ſo much as is appointed to be done by one or two juſtices. ſ. 8.

If any pariſh extend into more counties than one, or part lie within the liberties of any city or place corporate, and part without, then as well the juſtices of every county as the head officers of ſuch city or place corporate, ſhall deal only in ſo much of the pariſh as lieth within their liberties; and every of them within their limits to execute the ordinances concerning the nomination of overſeers, &c. And yet the church-wardens and overſeers of the pariſhes that extend into ſuch ſeveral limits, ſhall, without dividing themſelves, execute their office; and ſhall make one account before the head officer of the town-corporate, and one other before the juſtices of peace. ſ. 9.

If in any place there happen to be no nomination of overſeers, every juſtice of peace dwelling within the diviſion, and every mayor, alderman, and head officer, of any city or place corporate, where ſuch default ſhall happen, ſhall forfeit 5 l. towards the relief of the poor, to be levied by warrant from the ſeſſions. ſ. 10.

All penalties ſhall be employed to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh, and towards a ſtock and habitation for them, and other neceſſary uſes; and ſhall be levied by the church-wardens and overſeers, or one of them, by warrant from any two juſtices, or mayor, alderman, or head officer, of city or place corporate, by diſtreſs and ſale; or in defect thereof, it ſhall be lawful for any two ſuch juſtices, &c. to commit the offender to priſon till the forfeitures be paid. ſ. 11.

The juſtices of Eſſex ſhall appoint inhabitants within the iſland of Fowlneſs to be overſeers for the poor in the iſland, as if the ſame iſland were a pariſh. In conſideration whereof, neither the ſaid inhabitants ſhall be compelled to contribute towards the relief of the poor of thoſe pariſhes wherein their houſes or lands within the ſaid iſland are ſituated, other than for the relief of the poor within the iſland; neither ſhall the other inhabitants of the pariſhes wherein ſuch houſes or lands are ſituated be compelled tocontribute to the relief of the poor within the iſland. ſ. 19.

If any action be brought for any thing doing by authority of this act, the defendants may either plead not guilty, or make avowry, cognizance, or juſtification, for the taking of the diſtreſſes, making of ſale, or other thing doing, alledging that the thing whereof the plaintiff complained was done by authority of this act, &c. without rehearſal of any other matter; to which the plaintiff ſhall be admitted to reply, that the defendant did take the diſtreſs, &c. without any ſuch cauſe, &c. And after ſuch iſſue tried for the defendant, or nonſuit of the plaintiff after appearance, the defendant to recover treble damages with coſts, to be aſſeſſed by the ſame jury, or writ to enquire of the damages. ſ. 20.

By 3 Car. 1. c. 5. All perſons, to whom the overſeers of the poor ſhall bind any children apprentices, may keep them. And the church-wardens and overſeers may, with the conſent of two juſtices, whereof one of the quorum, and where there are no more than one, with the aſſent of that one juſtice, ſet up any trade, only for the ſetting on work and relief of the poor. ſ. 22.

By 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 12. It ſhall be lawful, upon complaint made by the church-wardens or overſeers of any pariſh to any juſtice of peace, within forty days after any poor perſon's coming to ſettle in any tenement under the yearly value of 10 l. for any two juſtices, one of the quorum, by warrant to remove ſuch perſons to ſuch pariſh where they were laſt legally ſettled, either as a native, houſholder, ſojourner, apprentice, or ſervant, for the ſpace of forty days, unleſs they give ſecurity for the diſcharge of the pariſh. ſ. 1.

Perſons

Perſons aggrieved by ſuch judgment of the juſtices may appeal to the next quarter-ſeſſions. ſ. 2.

Provided, that it ſhall be lawful for any perſons to go into any pariſh to work, ſo that they carry with them a certificate from the miniſter of the pariſh, and one of the church-wardens, and one of the overſeers, that they have a dwelling place in which they inhabit (or otherwiſe as the condition of the perſons ſhall require), and is declared an inhabitant there; and if the perſons ſhall not return when their work is finiſhed, or ſhall fall ſick, it ſhall not be accounted a ſettlement, but it ſhall be lawful for two juſtices to convey the perſon to the place of his habitation; and if ſuch perſon refuſe to go, or ſhall not remain in ſuch pariſh where they ought to be ſettled, but ſhall return to the pariſh from whence he was removed, it ſhall be lawful for any juſtice of the city, county, &c. to ſend ſuch perſon to the houſe of correction, to be puniſhed as a vagabond, or to a public work-houſe to be employed in work; and if the church-wardens and overſeers of the pariſh to which he ſhall be removed refuſe to receive ſuch perſons, and to provide work for them, any juſtice of peace of that diviſion may bind ſuch officers to the aſſizes or ſeſſions. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful for the church-wardens and overſeers of ſuch pariſh where any baſtard child ſhall be born, to ſeize ſo much of the goods, and of the annual rents or profits of the lands, of the putative father or lewd mother, as ſhall be ordered by any two juſtices of peace, towards the diſcharge of the pariſh, to be confirmed at the ſeſſions, for the providing for ſuch baſtard child; and it ſhall be lawful for the ſeſſions to make an order for the church-wardens or overſeers to diſpoſe of the goods, as the court ſhall think fit. ſ. 19.

Any perſon ſued for any thing done in execution of this act, may plead the general iſſue; and if the verdict ſhall paſs for the defendant, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble damages. ſ. 20.

In the counties of Lancaſhire, Cheſhire, Derbyſhire, Yorkſhire, Northumberland, the biſhoprick of Durham, Cumberland, and Weſtmoreland, and many other counties, where by reaſon of the largeneſs of the pariſhes they cannot reap the benefit of the act 43 Eliz. c. 2. the poor within every townſhip or village ſhall be maintained and ſet on work within the reſpective townſhip and village; and there ſhall be yearly choſen, according to 43 Eliz. c. 2. two or more overſeers of the poor within every of the ſaid townſhips or villages, who ſhall execute all the powers for relief of the poor within the ſaid townſhip or village, as by the ſaid act. ſ. 21.

The juſtices of peace within the ſaid counties ſhall have like powers to do every thing within every townſhip or village, as is appointed for them to do within any pariſh, by the ſaid act. ſ. 22.

By 1 Jac. 2. c. 17. The forty days continuance of a poor perſon in a pariſh intended by 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 2. to make a ſettlement, ſhall be accounted from the time of his delivery of notice in writing of the houſe of his abode, and the number of his family, to one of the church-wardens or overſeers of the poor of the pariſh to which they ſhall remove. ſ. 3.

By 3 & 4 Will. & Mar. c. 11. The forty days continuance of a poor perſon, intended by the acts to make a ſettlement, ſhall be accounted from the publication of a notice in writing, which he ſhall deliver, of the houſe of his abode, and the number of his family, to the church-warden or overſeer of the poor; which notice the church-warden or overſeer is required to cauſe to be read publicly immediately after divine ſervice in the church on the next Lord's day; and the church-warden or overſeer is to regiſter the ſaid notice in the book kept for the poor's account. ſ. 3.

No ſoldier, ſeaman, ſhipwright, or other workman, employed in their majeſties ſervice, ſhall have any ſettlement in any pariſh by delivery and publication of notice, unleſs the ſame be after the diſmiſſion of ſuch perſon out of their majeſties ſervice. ſ. 4.

If any church-warden or overſeer ſhall neglect to read ſuch notice (upon proof thereof by two witneſſes before any juſtice of peace), he ſhall forfeit 40 s. to the party grieved, to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, by warrant of any juſtice of peace to the conſtable where ſuch offenders dwell; and for want of diſtreſs, the juſtice ſhall commit them to the common gaol for one month; and, if any church-warden or overſeer ſhall neglect to regiſter ſuch notice, he ſhall forfeit 40 s. to the poor of the pariſh; and, for want of diſtreſs, the juſtice ſhall commit ſuch offender as aforeſaid. ſ. 5.

If any perſon, who ſhall come to inhabit in any town or pariſh, ſhall on his own account execute any public annual office in the town or pariſh during one year, or ſhall be charged with and pay his ſhare towards the public taxes of the town or pariſh, he ſhall be adjudged to have a legal ſettlement in the ſame. ſ. 6.

If any unmarried perſon, not having a child, ſhall be hired into any pariſh or town for one year, ſuch ſervice ſhall be adjudged a ſettlement. ſ. 7. See 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 30. ſ. 4.

If any perſon ſhall be bound an apprentice by indenture, and inhabit in any town or pariſh, ſuch binding and inhabitation ſhall be adjudged a ſettlement. ſ. 8. See 31 Geo. 2. c. 11. ſ. 1.

If any perſon find themſelves aggrieved by any determination which any juſtices of peace ſhall make in the caſes aforeſaid, they ſhall have liberty to appeal to the next quarter-ſeſſions. ſ. 9.

If any perſon be removed by virtue of this act from one county, city, town corporate, or liberty, to another, by warrant of two juſtices, the church-wardens or overſeers of the pariſh or town to which the perſon ſhall be removed, are required to receive the perſon; and if they refuſe, they (upon proof by two witneſſes before any juſtice of peace of the county, city, or town corporate, to which the perſon ſhall be removed) ſhall forfeit 5 l. to the poor of the pariſh, &c. from which the perſon was removed; to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, by warrant of any juſtice of the county, &c. to which ſuch perſon was removed, to the conſtable of the pariſh or town where ſuch offenders dwell; and, for want of diſtreſs, the juſtice ſhall commit the offenders to the common gaol for forty days. ſ. 10.

All perſons aggrieved with any ſuch judgment of two juſtices, may appeal to the next quarter-ſeſſions for the county, &c. from which the perſon was removed. ſ. 11.

There ſhall be kept in every pariſh books, wherein the names of all perſons who do receive collection ſhall be regiſtered, with the day and year when they were admitted, and the occaſion which brought them under that neceſſity; and yearly in Eaſter-week (or as often as ſhall be thought convenient) the pariſhioners ſhall meet in their veſtry, before whom the book ſhall be produced, and all perſons receiving collection called over, and the reaſons of their taking relief examined, and a new liſt made of ſuch as they ſhall think fit to receive collection; and no other perſon ſhall be allowed collection at the charge of the pariſh, but by authority under the hand of one juſtice of peace reſiding within ſuch pariſh, or (if none be there dwelling) in the parts parts near adjoining, or by order of quarter-ſeſſions; except in caſes of peſtilential diſeaſes, plague, or ſmall-pox, for ſuch families only as are infected. ſ. 12.

In all actions brought in the courts at Weſtminſter, or at the aſſizes, for any money miſ-ſpent, or taken by church-wardens or overſeers of the poor, the evidence of the pariſhioners, other than of ſuch as receive alms, or any penſion out of ſuch collections or public monies, ſhall be admitted. ſ. 13.

By 8 & 9 Will. 3. c. 30. If any perſon that ſhall come into any pariſh to inhabit, ſhall deliver to the church-wardens or overſeers a certificate under the hands and ſeals of the church-wardens and overſeers of any other pariſh, or of the overſeers of the poor of any other place where there are no church-wardens, atteſted by two witneſſes, owning the perſon to be an inhabitant ſettled in that pariſh; ſuch certificate, having been ſubſcribed by two juſtices of peace of the county, &c. wherein the pariſh from whence ſuch certificate ſhall come doth lie, ſhall oblige the ſaid pariſh to provide for the perſon together with his family, whenever he ſhall become chargeable to the pariſh where ſuch certificate was given: and then, and not before, it ſhall be lawful for any ſuch perſon and his children, though born in that pariſh, not having otherwiſe acquired a legal ſettlement there, to be removed in the pariſh from whence ſuch certificate was brought. ſ. 1.

Every ſuch perſon as ſhall be upon the collection of any pariſh, and the wife and children of ſuch perſon cohabiting in the ſame houſe (ſuch child only excepted as ſhall be by the church-wardens and overſeers permitted to live at home, in order to attend an impotent parent) ſhall, upon the ſhoulder of the right ſleeve of the uppermoſt garment, wear ſuch badge as is herein mentioned, viz. a large Roman P, with the firſt letter of the name of the pariſh, cut in red or blue cloth; and if any ſuch poor perſon ſhall neglect to wear ſuch badge, it ſhall be lawful for any juſtice of peace to puniſh ſuch offender, either by ordering his allowance to be abridged, ſuſpended, or withdrawn, or by committing ſuch offender to the houſe of correction to be whipt, and kept to hard labour for any number of days not exceeding 21; and if any church-warden or overſeer relieve any ſuch poor perſon, not wearing ſuch badge, being convicted upon the oath of one witneſs, before any juſtice of peace, he ſhall forfeit 20 s. to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods by warrant of any ſuch juſtice, one moiety to the informer, and the other to the poor of the pariſh. ſ. 2.

The juſtices in their quarter-ſeſſions, upon any appeal concerning the ſettlement of any poor perſon, or upon any proof before them made of notice of ſuch appeal, ſhall order to the party for whom ſuch appeal ſhall be determined, or to whom ſuch notice did appear to have been given, ſuch coſts as by the juſtices ſhall be thought juſt, to be paid by the church-wardens, overſeers, or any other perſon againſt whom ſuch appeal ſhall be determined, or by the perſon that did give ſuch notice; and if the perſon ordered to pay ſuch coſts ſhall live out of the juriſdiction of the court, any juſtice of the county, &c. wherein ſuch perſon ſhall inhabit, is required, upon requeſt made, and a copy of the order for coſts produced and proved, by warrant to cauſe the money mentioned in that order to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and if no ſuch diſtreſs can be had, to commit ſuch perſon to the common gaol, there to remain 20 days. ſ. 3.

No perſon hired ſhall be adjudged to have a ſettlement, unleſs ſuch perſon continue in the ſervice during one whole year. ſ. 4.

Part II.

Where poor children ſhall be appointed to be bound apprentices, purſuant to 43 Eliz. c. 2. the perſon to whom they are appointed to be bound, ſhall receive and provide for them, according to the indenture ſigned and confirmed by the two juſtices, and alſo execute the other part of the indentures; and if he refuſe, oath being thereof made by one of the church-wardens or overſeers before any two juſtices for that county, &c. he ſhall forfeit 10 l. to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, by warrant of the ſaid juſtices, to be applied to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh; ſaving to the perſon, to whom any poor child ſhall be appointed to be bound, his appeal to the next quarter-ſeſſions. ſ. 5.

The appeal againſt any order for removal of any poor perſon ſhall be determined at the quarter-ſeſſions for the county, diviſion, or riding, wherein the place from whence ſuch perſon ſhall be removed doth lie. ſ. 6.

This act ſhall not hinder the juſtices of peace within the liberty of St. Albans from hearing and determining any appeals for the ſettlement of the poor in their quarter-ſeſſions. ſ. 8.

By 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 11. No perſon who ſhall come into any pariſh by certificate, ſhall be adjudged to have procured a legal ſettlement in ſuch pariſh, unleſs he ſhall take a leaſe of a tenement of the value of 10 l. or ſhall execute ſome annual office in ſuch pariſh, being legally placed in ſuch office.

By 12 Ann. ſt. 1. c. 18. If any perſon ſhall be an apprentice bound by indenture, or a hired ſervant, to any perſon who did come into any pariſh by certificate, and not afterwards having gained a ſettlement, ſuch apprentice by ſuch apprenticeſhip, and ſuch ſervant by ſerving as aforeſaid, ſhall not gain any ſettlement. ſ. 2.

By 5 Geo. 1. c. 8. It ſhall be lawful for the church-wardens or overſeers, where any wife or children ſhall be left by their huſbands, fathers, or mothers, on the charge of ſuch pariſh, by warrant or order from any two juſtices of peace, to ſeize ſo much of the goods, and receive ſo much of the annual rents and profits of the lands, of ſuch huſband, father, or mother, as ſuch juſtices ſhall direct, for the diſcharge of the pariſh for the providing for ſuch wife, child, or children; which order being confirmed at the next quarter-ſeſſions, the juſtices at ſuch ſeſſions may make an order to diſpoſe of ſuch goods by ſale or otherwiſe, and to receive the rents and profits, &c. for the purpoſes aforeſaid. ſ. 1.

The church-wardens and overſeers ſhall be accountable to the quarter-ſeſſions for ſuch monies as they ſhall receive by virtue of this act. ſ. 2.

By 9 Geo. 1. c. 7. No juſtice of peace ſhall order relief to any poor perſon, till oath be made before ſuch juſtice of ſome matter, which he ſhall judge to be a reaſonable cauſe for ſuch relief, and that the perſon had applied for relief at ſome public meeting of the pariſhioners, or to two of the overſeers of ſuch pariſh, and was by them refuſed; and till ſuch juſtice has ſummoned two of the overſeers to ſhew cauſe why ſuch relief ſhould not be given. ſ. 1.

The perſon, whom ſuch juſtice ſhall order to be relieved, ſhall be entered in the pariſh books as one of thoſe who is to receive collection, as long as the cauſe for ſuch relief continues. And no officer of any pariſh ſhall (except on ſudden occaſions) bring to the account of the pariſh any monies he ſhall give to any poor perſon who is not regiſtered in the pariſh book, on forfeiture of 5 l. to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale, by warrant of two juſtices, who ſhall have found him guilty of ſuch offence; to be applied for the uſe of the poor by direction of the juſtices. ſ. 2.

The church-wardens and overſeers, with the conſent of the pariſhioners or inhabitants in veſtry, may purchaſe or hire houſes in the pariſh, &c. and contract with perſons for the lodging, maintaining, and employing, all ſuch poor in their pariſhes, &c. as ſhall deſire relief; and if any poor perſon ſhall refuſe to be lodged in ſuch houſe, he ſhall be put out of the books, and ſhall not be entitled to relief; and two or more ſuch pariſhes, &c. with like conſent, with the approbation of a juſtice of peace dwelling in or near ſuch pariſh, &c. may unite in purchaſing or hiring ſuch houſe; and the church-wardens and overſeers of any pariſh, &c. with the like conſent, &c. may contract with the church-wardens and overſeers of any other pariſh, &c. for the lodging, maintaining, or employing, of any poor perſons, &c. provided, that no perſon, his apprentice, or children, ſhall acquire a ſettlement in the pariſh, &c. to which they are removed by virtue of this act. ſ. 4.

No perſon ſhall acquire any ſettlement by virtue of any purchaſe of an eſtate whereof the conſideration does not amount to 30 l. for any longer time than ſuch perſon ſhall inhabit in ſuch eſtate. ſ. 5.

No perſon ſhall be deemed to have a ſettlement in any city, pariſh, &c. by reaſon of his paying to the ſcavenger's rate, or repairs of the highway. ſ. 6.

The juſtices within the liberty of the borough of St. Peter, and hundred of Naſſaborough in the county of Northampton, may hear and determine appeals againſt any order for removal of any poor perſon in their quarter-ſeſſions. ſ. 7.

No appeal from any order of removal ſhall be proceeded upon, unleſs notice be given by the church-wardens or overſeers of the pariſh who ſhall make the appeal, to the church-wardens, &c. of the pariſh from which ſuch poor perſon ſhall be removed; the reaſonableneſs of which notice ſhall be determined by the quarter-ſeſſions; and if reaſonable notice was not given, they ſhall adjourn the appeal to the next quarter-ſeſſions. ſ. 8.

If the juſtices ſhall at their quarter-ſeſſions, upon an appeal concerning the ſettlement of any poor perſon, determine in favour of the appellant, they ſhall award the appellant ſo much money as ſhall have been reaſonably paid by the pariſh on whoſe behalf ſuch appeal was made, for the relief of ſuch poor perſon, to be recovered in the ſame manner as coſts on an appeal, by 8 & 9 Will. 3. c. 30. ſ. 9.

By 3 Geo. 2. c. 29. The witneſſes who atteſted the execution of certificates of ſettlements, or one of them, ſhall make oath before the juſtices, who by 8 & 9 Will. 3. c. 30. are directed to allow the ſame, that ſuch witneſs did ſee the church-wardens and overſeers ſign and ſeal the ſaid certificates, &c. and the juſtices ſhall certify that ſuch oath was made before them; and ſuch certificate ſhall be allowed in all courts as fully proved, and be taken as evidence without other proof. ſ. 8.

When any overſeers of the poor, or other perſons, ſhall remove back any perſons and their families, ſent by certificate, they ſhall be re-imburſed ſuch reaſonable charges as they have been put to in maintaining and removing ſuch perſons, by the church-wardens or overſeers of the pariſh to which ſuch perſons are removed; the charges being aſcertained by one juſtice of the county to which ſuch removal ſhall be made; the which charges ſhall, in caſe of refuſal of payment, be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the church-wardens and overſeers goods by warrant of ſuch juſtices. ſ. 9.

By 17 Geo. 2. c. 3. The church-wardens and overſeers, and other perſons authoriſed to take care of the poor in every pariſh or place, ſhall give public notice in the church of every rate for the relief of the poor, allowed by the juſtices of peace, the next Sunday after the ſame is allowed; and no rate ſhall be valid, ſo as to collect the ſame, unleſs ſuch notice be given. ſ. 1.

The church-wardens and overſeers, or other perſons authoriſed in every pariſh, &c. ſhall permit the inhabitants to inſpect ſuch rate, paying 1 s. for the ſame, and ſhall upon demand give copies of the ſame, or any part thereof, to any inhabitant, paying at the rate of 6 d. for every 24 names. ſ. 2.

If any church-warden or overſeer, or other perſon authoriſed, ſhall not permit any inhabitant or pariſhioner to inſpect the ſaid rate, or neglect to give copies thereof, for every ſuch offence he ſhall forfeit to the party aggrieved 20 l. to be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any court of record, wherein no eſſoin, &c. ſhall be allowed. ſ. 3.

By 17 Geo. 2. c. 37. Where there ſhall be any uncertainty in what pariſh or place waſte and barren lands, and lands formerly fen or marſh ground, or covered with water, heretofore improved or drained, or hereafter ſo to be, lie, and ought to be rated, the occupiers of ſuch lands, or houſes built thereon, tenements, tythes ariſing therefrom, mines therein, and ſaleable underwoods therein growing, ſhall be rated to the relief of the poor, and to all other parochial rates within ſuch pariſh, &c. which lies neareſt ſuch lands, in like manner, and ſubject to the ſame regulations as all other lands within ſuch pariſh, &c.; and if any diſpute ariſe touching what pariſh, &c. ſuch lands ought to be in, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices of peace for the county or diviſion where ſuch lands lie, at their next general quarter-ſeſſions, after notice given to the ſeveral pariſhes, &c. adjoining to ſuch lands, and to all other perſons intereſted therein, to determine the ſame on the appeal of any perſon intereſted, and at ſuch ſeſſions to cauſe ſuch lands or hereditaments to be allotted to, and equally aſſeſſed in, ſuch pariſh, &c. as they ſee juſt; and ſuch determination ſhall be final as to the pariſh, &c. in which ſuch lands, &c. ſhall be rated; and the ſaid lands, &c. ſhall be rated to the relief of the poor, and to all other parochial rates within ſuch pariſh, &c. only to which they are ſo allotted. ſ. 1.

Nothing in this act, nor any allotment made by the juſtices at the general quarter-ſeſſions in purſuance thereof, ſhall affect or determine the boundaries of any pariſh, &c. to any purpoſe other than for the rating ſuch lands, &c. to the relief of the poor, and other parochial rates. ſ. 2.

Nothing in this act ſhall make void or alter 16 & 17 Car. 2. c. 11. ſ. 17. for draining Deeping Fen. ſ. 3.

By 17 Geo. 2. c. 38. The church-wardens and overſeers of the poor ſhall yearly within 14 days after other overſeers are nominated to ſucceed them, deliver in to ſuch ſucceeding overſeers an account entered in a book and ſigned, of all money by them received, or rated and not received; and alſo of all goods in their hands, or in the hands of any of the poor, in order to be wrought, and of all monies paid by them, and of all other things concerning their office; and ſhall alſo pay over all money and goods in their hands unto ſuch ſucceeding overſeers of the poor; which account ſhall be verified by oath (or by the affirmation of Quakers) before a juſtice of peace, who ſhall ſign and atteſt the caption of the ſame at the foot of the account without fee: and the ſaid book ſhall be preſerved by the church-wardens and overſeers, or one of them, in every pariſh or place; and they ſhall permit any perſon there aſſeſſed, or liable to be aſſeſſed, to inſpect the ſame, paying 6 d. and ſhall give copies to ſuch perſon, paying at the rate of 6 d. for every 300 words. ſ. 1.

In

In caſe ſuch church-wardens and overſeers, or any of them, neglect to make up ſuch account within the time herein limited, or neglect to pay over ſuch money or goods in their hands, it ſhall be lawful for any two juſtices of peace to commit him or them to the common gaol, until he ſhall have given ſuch account, or yielded up ſuch money and goods. ſ. 2.

If any ſuch overſeer die, or remove from the place for which he was appointed, or become inſolvent, before the expiration of his office, on oath thereof made it ſhall be lawful for two juſtices to appoint another overſeer, who ſhall continue in office until new overſeers are appointed; and if any overſeer remove, he ſhall before removal deliver over to ſome church-warden, or other overſeer of the ſame place, his accounts verified as aforeſaid, with all rates, books, papers, money, and other things, concerning his office, under the like penalties as are inflicted on an overſeer refuſing to do the ſame, after the expiration of his office; and if any overſeer die, his executors or adminiſtrators ſhall within 40 days deliver all things concerning his office to ſome church-warden, or other overſeer of the ſame place; and ſhall pay out of his aſſets all money remaining due, which he received by virtue of his office, before any other debts. ſ. 3.

In caſe any perſon find himſelf aggrieved by any rate for the relief of the poor, or have any objection to any perſon being put on, or left out of ſuch rate, or to the ſum charged on any perſon therein, or to ſuch account as aforeſaid, or find himſelf aggrieved by any neglect or act of the church-wardens and overſeers, or of any juſtice of peace; it ſhall be lawful for ſuch perſon, giving notice to the church-wardens or overſeers, to appeal to the next general or quarter ſeſſions of the peace; and the juſtices there ſhall receive ſuch appeal, and finally determine the ſame; but if it appear to the ſaid juſtices, that reaſonable notice was not given, they ſhall adjourn the appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions; and they may award to the party, for whom ſuch appeal ſhall be determined, reaſonable coſts as in appeals by 8 Will. 3. c. 30. concerning the ſettlement of poor perſons. ſ. 4.

In all corporations or franchiſes who have not four juſtices of peace, it ſhall be lawful for any perſon where an appeal is given by this act, to appeal to the next general or quarter ſeſſions of the peace for the county or diviſion wherein ſuch corporation or franchiſe is ſituate. ſ. 5.

Upon all appeals from rates the juſtices where they ſee cauſe for giving ſuch relief, ſhall amend the ſame, in ſuch manner only as ſhall be neceſſary for giving ſuch relief, without altering ſuch rates with reſpect to other perſons; but if upon an appeal from the whole rate it be neceſſary to ſet aſide the ſame, then the ſaid juſtices ſhall direct the church-wardens and overſeers to make a new equal rate. ſ. 6.

The goods of any perſon aſſeſſed and refuſing to pay, may be levied by warrant of diſtreſs, not only in the place for which ſuch aſſeſſment was made, but in any other place within the ſame county or precinct; and if ſufficient diſtreſs cannot be found within the ſaid county, &c. on oath thereof before ſome juſtice of any other county, &c. (which oath ſhall be certified under the hand of ſuch juſtice on the warrant) ſuch goods may be levied in ſuch other county, &c.; and if any perſon find himſelf aggrieved by ſuch diſtreſs, it ſhall be lawful for him to appeal to the next general or quarter ſeſſions of the peace for the county, &c. where ſuch aſſeſſment was made, and the juſtices there ſhall finally determine the ſame. ſ. 7.

Where any diſtreſs ſhall be made for any money due for the relief of the poor, the diſtreſs itſelf ſhall not be deemed unlawful, nor the party making it a treſpaſſer, on account of any defect in the warrant for the appointment of ſuch overſeers, or in the rate or in the warrant of diſtreſs; nor ſhall the party diſtraining be deemed a treſpaſſer ab initio, on account of any irregularity afterwards done by him; but the party aggrieved by ſuch irregularity ſhall recover ſatisfaction for the ſpecial damage ſuſtained and no more, in an action of treſpaſs or on the caſe. ſ. 8.

Provided that where the plaintiff recover, he ſhall be paid his coſts. ſ. 9.

Provided that no plaintiff ſhall recover for any irregularity as aforeſaid, if tender of amends hath been made by the party diſtraining, before ſuch action brought. ſ. 10.

In caſe any perſon neglect to pay ſuch overſeers any ſum that he ſhall be legally rated to, the ſucceeding overſeers ſhall levy ſuch arrears, and reimburſe their predeceſſors all ſums expended for the uſe of the poor, and allowed to be due to them in their accounts. ſ. 11.

Where any perſon ſhall come into or occupy any houſe, land, or hereditament, out of which any perſon aſſeſſed ſhall be removed, or which at the making ſuch rate was empty, every perſon ſo removing from, and every perſon ſo coming into the ſame, ſhall be liable to pay to ſuch rate in proportion to the time that ſuch perſon occupied the ſame, as if ſuch perſon ſo removing had not removed, or ſuch perſon ſo coming in had been originally rated, which proportion in caſe of diſpute ſhall be aſcertained by any two juſtices. ſ. 12.

Copies of all rates made for the relief of the poor ſhall be entered in a book to be provided by the church-wardens and overſeers, who ſhall take care that ſuch copies ſhall be entered within 14 days after all appeals from ſuch rates are determined, and ſhall atteſt the ſame by putting their names thereto; and all ſuch books ſhall be preſerved by the church-wardens and overſeers or one of them, whereto all perſons aſſeſſed or liable to be aſſeſſed may reſort, and ſhall be delivered over from time to time to the ſucceeding church-wardens and overſeers as ſoon as they enter into their offices, and ſhall be produced by them at the general or quarter ſeſſions, when any appeal is to be heard. ſ. 13.

If any church-warden, overſeer of the poor, or other officer of any pariſh, &c. neglect to obey the directions of this act, where no penalty is before provided by this act, or act contrary thereto, he ſhall for every ſuch offence, on oath thereof made within two calendar months after the offence before any two juſtices, forfeit for the uſe of the poor a ſum not exceeding 5 l. nor leſs than 20 s. to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the offenders goods, by warrant from ſuch juſtices; which ſum ſhall be paid to ſome church-warden or overſeer of ſuch pariſh or place. ſ. 14.

Overſeers of the poor within every townſhip or place where there are no church-wardens, ſhall execute all the acts and powers concerning the relief of and relating to the poor, as church-wardens and overſeers may by this or any former ſtatute, and ſhall ſuffer all ſuch penalties for neglect, as church-wardens and overſeers are liable to by this or any former ſtatute. ſ. 15.

By 31 Geo. 2. c. 11. ſ. 1. No perſon bound an apprentice by any deed, writing or contract, not indented, being firſt legally ſtamped, ſhall be liable to be removed from the town, pariſh, or place, where he or ſhe ſhall be ſo bound an apprentice, and reſident 40 days, by any order of removal granted by two juſtices, or by any order of the general or quarter ſeſſions, on account of ſuch deed, &c. not being indented only. ſ. 1.

By 9 Geo. 3. c. 37. If any churchwarden or overſeer, or other perſon intruſted by them to make payments to the poor, ſhall wilfully make any ſuch payments in any baſe or counterfeit money, or in any other than lawful money of Great Britain; then, upon complaint thereof made to any juſtice, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice, and he is required, to ſummon the churchwarden, overſeer, or other perſon charged with ſuch offence, and in a ſummary way, upon his non-appearance or confeſſion, or upon proof of ſuch offence upon the oath of one witneſs, to adjudge the party offending to forfeit not leſs than ten, nor more than 20*s.* and to levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of ſuch offender; rendering the overplus to the owner, after the charges of diſtreſs and ſale deducted; which ſhall be applied for the uſe of any poor perſon of ſuch pariſh, in ſuch manner as the juſtice ſhall direct.

By 18 Geo. 3. c. 47. Any man-child bound apprentice under 43 Eliz. c. 2. ſhall be bound to be an apprentice for no longer term than till ſuch child ſhall come to the age of 21 years.

By 20 Geo. 3. c. 36. The perſons to whom any poor children ſhall be appointed to be bound apprentices, in purſuance of any act made for the relief of the poor in any particular incorporated hundreds or diſtricts within England, ſhall receive and provide for ſuch children, according to the indentures to be executed by the directors and acting guardians of the poor for ſuch hundreds, for the binding of ſuch poor children, in like manner as perſons are now obliged to receive and provide for poor children appointed to be bound apprentices by churchwardens and overſeers, with the aſſent of two juſtices, and alſo execute the counterpart of ſuch indentures: and if any perſon, to whom any poor child ſhall be appointed to be bound apprentice, ſhall refuſe or neglect to receive and provide for ſuch poor child, or to execute the counterpart of the indenture for binding ſuch child, ſuch perſon, upon proof of ſuch refuſal or neglect, by the oath of one of the directors or acting guardians, or of ſome other credible witneſs, before two juſtices, ſhall forfeit to the directors and guardians, or to their treaſurer or appointee, to be applied to the relief of the poor, 10*l.*; ſuch penalty to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the perſon refuſing or neglecting by warrant under the hands and ſeals of ſuch juſtices; ſaving to the perſon, to whom any poor child ſhall be appointed to be bound apprentice, his appeal to the next general or quarter ſeſſion, whoſe order ſhall be final. ſ. 1.

Nothing in this act ſhall compel any perſon to take any ſuch poor child apprentice, unleſs ſuch perſon ſhall be an inhabitant and occupier of lands, &c. in the pariſh to which ſuch child belongs; and all baſtard children born in the houſe of induſtry within any incorporated hundred, ſhall be deemed to belong to the pariſh where the mother was ſettled. ſ. 2.

By 22 Geo. 3. c. 83. So much of 9 Geo. 1. c. 7. as reſpects the maintaining or hiring out the labour of the poor by contract, within any pariſh which ſhall adopt the proviſions of this act, ſhall be repealed. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for the viſitors and guardians appointed as after mentioned, of any pariſh which ſhall have adopted the proviſions of this act, and ſhall have a viſitor appointed, to make agreements with any perſon for the diet or clothing of poor perſons ſent to the houſe to be provided under this act, and for the work of ſuch perſons, ſo that no agreement be for longer than twelve months, and ſo that the ſame be under the ſtricteſt inſpection and controul of the viſitor, guardian, and governor of ſuch poor houſe, and alſo of the juſtices for the limit where ſuch poor houſe ſhall be; two of which juſtices, upon proof of abuſe, may diſſolve ſuch contract. ſ. 2.

Whenever two thirds in number and value, according to the poor rate, of the owners or occupiers of lands, &c. within the pariſh, qualified as after, ſhall, at a public meeting purſuant to this act, ſignify their approbation of the proviſions herein, and their deſire to adopt them, in the form in the ſchedule, No. I. and ſhall at ſuch meeting recommend to the juſtices of the county, &c. where ſuch meeting ſhall be holden, three perſons qualified for guardians of the poor for ſuch pariſh, and three governors of the poor houſe, and fix the ſalaries to be paid to ſuch guardian and governor reſpectively, and ſhall procure the conſent of two juſtices to ſuch agreement and ſalaries, by writing under their hands, in the forms in the ſchedule, No. II. and ſhall cauſe ſuch agreement to be regiſtered purſuant to this act; ſuch pariſh ſhall be entitled to all the benefits which can ariſe from this act. ſ. 3.

Where two thirds of the owners or occupiers of lands, within two or more pariſhes, think fit, with ſuch approbation, ſignified under the hands of two juſtices, and ſubſcribed at the foot of the agreement, in the form in No. II. at the end of the form of the agreement, to unite for the purpoſes of this act, and ſhall ſignify their inclination ſo to do at a public meeting holden in each of ſuch pariſhes, in manner before directed concerning a ſingle pariſh, in the form in No. III. an agreement ſhall, after ſuch public meetings, be entered into by the guardians of the poor in the form in No. IV. which agreement ſhall be binding upon the parties; and ſuch agreement ſhall ſpecify the place where ſuch houſe ſhall be ſituate, and the terms upon which ſuch agreement is made, and ſhall be entered with the clerk of the peace or town clerk of the county, &c. in which ſuch pariſhes ſhall be ſituate, and a copy thereof left with him within three months after the making ſuch agreement, in the form in No. V. for which entry ſuch clerk ſhall receive one ſhilling; and from that time ſuch pariſh united, ſhall be entitled to all the benefits which can ariſe from this act. ſ. 4.

No pariſh ſituate more than ten miles from any poorhouſe or workhouſe provided under this act, ſhall be united with the pariſhes which ſhall eſtabliſh ſuch poorhouſe, &c. ſ. 5.

The notice for every public meeting ſhall be given in the church or chapel of every pariſh on three ſucceſſive Sundays before the meeting, immediately after divine ſervice, or on ſuch Sundays as ſervice ſhall be performed there, and alſo fixed in writing on ſuch church or chapel door, or if no church or chapel, at ſome public place within ſuch pariſh, where notices of pariſh buſineſs have been uſually given, fifteen days before the meeting, in the form in No. VI.; and no perſon ſhall vote at any public meeting, unleſs he be the owner or occupier of lands, &c. aſſeſſed to the poor's rates, within ſuch pariſh, after the rate of 5*l.* per annum: nor ſhall ſuch perſon vote as occupier, unleſs he be aſſeſſed or pay to ſuch poor's rates: but in all pariſhes wherein there ſhall not be ten perſons poſſeſſed of the qualification, every perſon aſſeſſed, or paying to ſuch poor's rates, may vote. ſ. 6.

Two juſtices where ſuch poor-houſe ſhall be, or be agreed to be ſituated, are, after ſuch agreement ſhall have been made, upon application to them by two perſons who ſigned ſuch agreement, and upon producing the ſame to them, to appoint one of the perſons recommended, to be guardian of the poor for each of ſuch pariſhes, in the form in No. VII. and ſuch guardian ſhall attend the monthly meetings, and execute the powers given to guardians, and ſhall have all powers given to overſeers by other acts, and ſhall to all intents, except as to making and collecting of rates, be an overſeer for the pariſh for which he ſhall be appointed guardian, and ſhall be liable to ſuch forfeitures for neglect of duty as overſeers are by this or any other act; and all notices or applications directed by this or any other act to be given to the overſeers, as to the care or removal of the poor, ſhall be given to the guardian, where ſuch guardian ſhall be appointed under this act; but in caſe any orders of removal or notices ſhall happen by miſtake to be given to the churchwarden or overſeer, the ſame ſhall be as valid as if given to the guardian; and ſuch churchwarden or overſeer ſhall deliver the ſame to the guardian, or forfeit 40 s.: and where ſuch guardian ſhall be appointed, neither the churchwardens or overſeers ſhall interfere in the care of the poor, but ſhall be inveſted with the ſame powers of making and collecting poor's rates as they have at preſent, and ſhall be ſubject to the like penalties for neglect or miſbehaviour in making and collecting ſuch rates. ſ. 7.

After the appointment of ſuch guardian, one or more of the churchwardens or overſeers of every pariſh which ſhall adopt this act, who ſhall be approved at ſome public meeting holden as aforeſaid, ſhall receive ſuch poor's rates, and apply the ſame in manner following, viz. If ſuch pariſh ſhall not be united with any other, ſuch churchwarden, &c. ſhall pay to the guardian ſuch ſums as he ſhall employ for diſcharging the bills, and expences attending ſuch houſe, and the poor belonging to ſuch pariſh, and ſhall take receipts from ſuch guardian for the money paid, expreſſing the purpoſes for which ſuch money is wanted; and if the pariſh ſhall be united with any other pariſh, ſuch churchwarden or overſeer ſhall pay to the treaſurer of ſuch united pariſhes their quota of the expences attending the poor and poor-houſe therein, under this act, and take his receipts for ſuch money; or, if more convenient, he ſhall permit ſuch treaſurer to draw drafts upon him for ſuch money, in the form No. VIII. and pay the ſame when due, ſpecifying in every receipt and draft the purpoſes for which ſuch money is to be applied; all which payments ſhall be allowed to the churchwarden, &c. in his accounts with the pariſh; and the accounts, as well of the churchwarden, &c. as of the guardian, ſhall be examined at every monthly meeting, and ſhall be examined and paſſed quarterly by the viſitor of ſuch poor-houſe, after they ſhall have been verified upon oath before a juſtice. ſ. 8.

Two juſtices are, after ſuch agreement ſhall have been made for adopting this act, either by a ſingle pariſh, or by two pariſhes, upon application made to them by two of the perſons who ſigned ſuch agreement, and upon producing the ſame to them, to appoint one of the perſons recommended, for governor of ſuch poor-houſe (in the form No. VII), who ſhall have the care and employment of the poor, and ſhall be allowed ſuch ſalary as ſhall be ſpecified in the agreement; and the viſitor of ſuch poor-houſe, with the conſent of the guardians, or the major part of them, or two juſtices, where a guardian ſhall be viſitor, may remove the governor upon complaint, and proof of miſbehaviour or incapacity. ſ. 9.

The guardians for the pariſhes united, ſhall meet as ſoon as convenient after ſuch agreement ſhall have been made, to conſider of three perſons, reſpectable in character and fortune, fit to be put in nomination for the office of viſitor of ſuch poor-houſe; and two guardians ſhall, as ſoon as may be after ſuch meeting, apply to two juſtices, and produce to them the agreement, and the names of the perſons whom they recommend; which juſtices ſhall then, or within three days after, appoint one of ſuch perſons recommended to be viſitor, in the form in No. VII; but if he refuſe to accept that office, they ſhall then appoint one other of the perſons named; and if he decline it, they ſhall appoint the third perſon named in ſuch liſt; and if he decline it, the guardians ſhall ſerve that office monthly by rotation, ſubject to the controul of the juſtices: and ſuch viſitor, if not a guardian, is to nominate ſome perſon to be his deputy, if he think fit, in the form in No. IX; and ſuch deputy ſhall, in the abſence of ſuch viſitor, and under his direction, act as inſpector of the matters committed to the care of the viſitor, and ſhall make his report thereof to him, for his better information, and render him all the aſſiſtance in his power: and every viſitor appointed ſhall ſuperintend every houſe, and ſettle the accounts between the guardians and the treaſurer, if any queſtion ariſe, and alſo ſhall ſettle all doubts which may ariſe concerning the perſons which ought to be ſent to ſuch houſe, according to this act, and by every prudent means in his power enforce the rules eſtabliſhed under this act, for the better relief of the poor, and preventing unneceſſary expences and burthens on the pariſhes: and ſuch governor, guardian, and treaſurer is to obſerve the directions from the viſitor: and where any act ſhall be required to be done by a juſtice, ſuch viſitor, if not a juſtice, or his deputy, ſhall apply to ſome neighbouring magiſtrate to do the ſame: and every viſitor or deputy, as an inducement to executing that office, ſhall be freed from ſerving conſtable, and all parochial offices, and alſo from ſerving upon juries at the aſſizes or ſeſſions, ſo long as he continue in that office; and a certifice under the hand of a juſtice, in the form in No. X, ſhall be admitted as evidence of his ſerving the office. ſ. 10.

If two-thirds, in number and value, of the owners or occupiers of lands, &c. within any ſingle pariſh, which ſhall adopt this act, ſhall deſire to have a viſitor, and ſhall recommend to the juſtices three perſons, the juſtices, upon application to them as aforeſaid, ſhall appoint one of the perſons recommended, as before directed concerning pariſhes united. ſ. 11.

The guardians of the pariſhes united, ſhall recommend to the juſtices one of their own body to be treaſurer of the poor-houſe; and two juſtices are to appoint the guardian recommended, or any other whom they think better qualified, to that office, in the form in No. VII. which treaſurer ſhall give ſecurity to the ſatisfaction of the juſtices, to the other guardians, and their ſucceſſors, for accounting for the money which ſhall come to his hands; and ſhall keep the accounts, receive the money to be contributed by each pariſh, and pay the bills and expences allowed and ordered to be paid by the guardians, at their monthly meeting; and ſhall lay his accounts before the guardians, at every ſuch meeting, for their peruſal; and ſhall, once in every year, within 14 days before Michaelmas quarter ſeſſions, make out a fair account of the expences attending the ſame, diſtinguiſhing them under the heads herein ſpecified; and alſo an account of the number of poor, diſtinguiſhing their age and ſex, which ſhall be contained in ſuch houſe at the time of making ſuch account, and how they have been employed, and how much money hath been earned by the labour of the poor in the year preceding; which ſhall be laid before the viſitor, and ſignified under his hand, if he approves the ſame, and ſhall afterwards be tranſmitted to the clerk of the peace, or town clerk, before or at the quarter ſeſſions, and be by him laid before the court for inſpection: and ſuch treaſurer ſhall be allowed, for his trouble in executing that office, ſuch annual ſum, not exceeding 10 l. as the viſitor, if not a guardian, ſhall think fit; and if no ſuch viſitor, as two juſtices ſhall appoint. ſ. 12.

When

When any vacancy ſhall happen in any of the offices by death, reſignation, or removal, meetings ſhall be called, and recommendations offered to the juſtices as aforeſaid; and they ſhall proceed ſo ſoon as convenient, in manner before, to appoint a ſucceſſor to the perſon dying, &c. ſ. 13.

The offices of guardian, governor, viſitor, or treaſurer, to which any perſon ſhall be appointed under this act, ſhall determine in Eaſter week after the perſons ſhall be appointed, on the day upon which the public meeting for ſuch pariſh ſhall be held there; when the perſons, who, according to this act, are qualified and have a right to recommend another perſon to the juſtices, to be appointed to ſuch office, ſhall either agree with the perſons who held the ſame to continue in ſuch office, or ſhall recommend others, in manner before directed. ſ. 14.

If within any limit, wherein any poor-houſe ſhall be ſituate, there ſhall happen to be no acting juſtice, or only one acting juſtice, or if the juſtice in that limit ſhall be abſent, or incapacitated to act, any juſtice of any other limit may act. ſ. 15.

The juſtices within their limits may appoint ſpecial or privy ſeſſions for executing the powers of this act, cauſing notices to be given to the juſtices, peace officers, and guardians within ſuch limits; and alſo adjourn ſuch privy ſeſſions, ſo as to occaſion the leaſt trouble to themſelves, and to afford the greateſt convenience to the public, cauſing like notices to be given of ſuch adjournment. ſ. 16.

The guardians of the poor of the pariſhes which adopt the proviſions of this act, ſhall provide a houſe with proper buildings and accommodations thereto, when wanted, either by erecting new ones on land to be purchaſed or rented by them, altering old ones, or hiring buildings for the purpoſe; and ſhall fit up and diſpoſe the ſame, with the advice of the viſitor, if any, in ſuch manner as ſhall be moſt conducive to the purpoſes of this act, at the expence of ſuch pariſh, in the proportions herein after mentioned; and ſhall provide ſuch utenſils and materials as they think neceſſary for their employment, according to the intent of this act. ſ. 17.

The poorhouſes or workhouſes to be built or provided under this act, ſhall be ſituate within the pariſh for which they ſhall be uſed, if ſingle pariſhes, and if ſeveral pariſhes ſhall be united, they ſhall be built or provided within one of the pariſhes, and not in any other pariſh, without the conſent of three-fourth parts, in number and value, of ſuch owners or occupiers firſt had, qualified as before mentioned, who ſhall be aſſembled at a public meeting holden in the manner and upon the notice before directed. ſ. 18.

All the houſes, buildings, and lands hired under this act, ſhall be hired for ſuch term, and on ſuch conditions, as are ſpecified in the agreement in No. IV; and ſuch houſes, &c. ſhall be free from all parochial and parliamentary taxes, except ſuch taxes, and to ſuch amount, as they were aſſeſſed at the time they were firſt taken for the purpoſes of this act. ſ. 19.

When ſuch buildings ſhall be agreed to be erected, repaired, or fitted up, at the expence of the pariſh, the expences thereof, and of the purchaſe of the land neceſſary to be uſed for that purpoſe, ſhall be paid by the guardians of the poor, in the proportions, and in the manner, directed by the agreement; and it ſhall be lawful for the viſitor and guardian, when ſuch expences, or their proportion thereof, ſhall amount to 100*l.* to borrow the ſame at intereſt, and ſecure ſuch money by a charge upon the poor's rates, in ſums not exceeding fifty pounds each, for the greater eaſe in diſcharging the ſame, in the form in No. XI, which charge ſhall continue upon the ſaid rates until the money borrowed, and all intereſt be paid: and the guardians and their ſucceſſors ſhall pay and keep down the intereſt of ſuch money borrowed, as the ſame ſhall become due; and when the principal ſhall be called for, they may borrow it from ſome other perſon; and the ſame ſhall be ſecured to the perſon advancing the ſame, by an aſſignment of ſuch ſecurity indorſed on the back thereof, in the form in No. XIV: and the poor's aſſeſſments ſhall continue at the ſame rate they were when ſuch poor-houſe was firſt eſtabliſhed under this act, until the debt contracted and the intereſt ſhall be diſcharged: and the ſaid viſitor and guardian ſhall, as ſoon as the ſavings in the poor's accounts ſhall amount to ſufficient to pay off one of the ſums borrowed, pay off ſuch ſum, and in like manner as to ſucceeding ſavings, until the whole debt ſhall be diſcharged. ſ. 20.

The viſitor and guardian, after they have adopted the proviſions of this act, ſhall be one body politic and corporate, and be called viſitor and guardian, or viſitors and guardians, of the poor for the pariſh, townſhip, or place of ——— in the county, &c. of ——— ——— or of the united pariſhes, townſhips, or places of ——— ——— and ——— in the county, &c. of ——— ——— as the caſe ſhall be; and are hereby enabled to ſue and be ſued, and to take by purchaſe or leaſe, any lands, &c. of inheritance, or for lives or years, &c. not exceeding in any city or town one acre, and not exceeding in the open country twenty acres of ſtatute meaſure, for the ſcite of a houſe to be built, and for lands to be occupied, for the purpoſes of this act; and the ſaid corporation is alſo enabled to take all voluntary grants and donations of lands, &c. of inheritance, or for lives or years, &c. or of perſonal property, which ſhall be made to them for the uſe of the poor within ſuch pariſhes. ſ. 21.

It ſhall be lawful for all bodies politic, corporate, or collegiate, corporations aggregate or ſole, huſbands, guardians, truſtees, feoffees in truſt, committees, executors, adminiſtrators, and all other truſtees whatſoever, not only for themſelves but for their ceſtuique truſts, and all femes-covert ſeiſed, poſſeſſed of, or intereſted in their own right, and for every other perſon ſeiſed, poſſeſſed of, or intereſted in any lands, &c. neceſſary to be purchaſed or rented for the purpoſes of this act, to contract for, ſell, and convey, or leaſe the ſame, or any part thereof, in manner aforeſaid, not exceeding the quantity aforeſaid, unto the ſaid viſitor and guardians, their ſucceſſors and aſſigns, or to ſuch perſon as they appoint, for the uſe of ſuch poor-houſe, and the poor perſons within ſuch pariſhes, and for the purpoſes of this act. ſ. 22.

All money paid to any bodies politic, &c. for the purchaſe of any lands or buildings ſhall, in caſe the ſame exceed 20*l.* by ſuch bodies politic, &c. be laid out, as ſoon as conveniently may be, in the purchaſe of lands, &c. in fee-ſimple, and conveyed to the uſe of ſuch bodies politic, &c. for ſuch eſtates, and upon ſuch uſes, as the lands in reſpect whereof ſuch purchaſe money ſhall be paid were limited, &c. at the time ſuch purchaſe was made; ſuch purchaſes and ſettlements to be made at the expence of the pariſh, and charged by the guardians, together with the purchaſe money, in their accounts; and until ſuch purchaſe ſhall be made, the money ſhall be placed out by ſuch bodies politic, &c. in ſome of the public funds, or on government or real ſecurity, in the name of two perſons, the one to be named by the party intereſted therein, and the other by the guardian, if it reſpects a ſingle pariſh only, and by the viſitor, if it reſpects ſeveral pariſhes united; and the intereſt ariſing from ſuch funds, and alſo the annual rent, rent, where the premiſes ſhall be rented, ſhall be paid to ſuch perſon as would be entitled to the rents of ſuch lands, purſuant to this act. ſ. 23.

The poor ſent to ſuch houſe ſhall be maintained therein at the general expence of the pariſhes adopting the proviſions of this act, according to the terms and proportions directed by this act; and the treaſurer, with the aſſiſtance of the governor, ſhall provide proviſions for the maintenance of ſuch poor, and keep an account thereof; and there ſhall be a meeting of the guardians of every pariſh at ſuch houſe, on the firſt Monday in every month, at ten in the forenoon, or on ſuch other day and hour in the firſt week of every month, as the guardians ſhall at their firſt meeting appoint, to ſtate, examine, inſpect, and adjuſt the accounts for the preceding month; and at ſuch meeting, the ſaid treaſurer ſhall produce, fairly written, one account of the debt incurred in the preceding month, for utenſils and materials for manufacture, and for furniture, alterations, or repairs of the buildings, and alſo for the ſalary to the governor or treaſurer, and ſervants (if any), in which account the rent of ſuch houſe, &c. if the ſame ſhall be rented, ſhall be charged in the month next after ſuch rent ſhall become due, according to the terms of the agreement for taking the ſame; which account, when ſettled, ſhall be ſigned by the ſaid guardians attending ſuch meeting: and the ſums to be paid by each of ſuch pariſhes, on that account, ſhall be ſettled at ſuch meeting, in proportion to the ſums paid by each pariſh, on account of their poor, on a medium of three years next preceding the date of ſuch agreement (to be ſettled at ſuch firſt monthly meeting, in the manner to be ſpecified by the agreement to be entered into for uniting as aforeſaid, and according to the mode in No. XV), and in like manner, and in the like proportions, at every ſucceeding monthly meeting; and the money ſhall be then, or within one week after, paid to the treaſurer, to be by him applied in diſcharge of the articles and debts contained in ſuch account: and the ſaid treaſurer ſhall alſo at the ſame time produce, fairly written, one other account of the victuals, beer, firing, and other neceſſaries for the uſe and maintenance of the poor, and of the governor, at ſuch houſe, and all other incidental expences; which ſhall be then accounted for and proportioned by the guardians according to the number of perſons ſent from each of the pariſhes, and for the time they ſhall have reſided in ſuch houſe, within ſuch month, according to the mode in No. XVI; and the ſum due from each pariſh ſhall be ſpecified at the foot of ſuch account, which ſhall, when ſettled, be ſigned by ſuch guardians, and be afterwards inſpected by the viſitor, if not a guardian, and allowed by him if he approve thereof; and in caſe default ſhall be made in payment of the ſums proportioned to be paid in reſpect of ſuch pariſh, for ſeven days after ſettled and proportioned, and the money demanded, it ſhall be lawful for any juſtice, upon complaint made to him upon oath of ſuch default, to levy the ſaid ſums by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of any guardian for ſuch pariſh making default; and at the end of every year the account ſhall be finally cloſed, and the balances paid and received, according to the mode preſcribed by No. XVI. ſ. 24.

The church-warden or overſeer who ſhall have the cuſtody of the poor's rates, aſſeſſments, or accounts, ſhall produce the ſame to the perſons nominated, in the agreement contained in the ſchedule for uniting pariſhes, on every requeſt made by them, after four days notice thereof, to enable them to aſcertain the expences relative to the poor, on a medium of three years, according to the directions of this act, or in default thereof, ſhall forfeit 5 l. for every refuſal or neglect. ſ. 25.

If the guardian ſhall not attend each monthly meeting, or ſend ſome ſubſtantial inhabitant of ſuch pariſh, to attend and anſwer the payments for him, in caſe he be prevented by ſickneſs, or accident, from attending in perſon, the guardian making default ſhall forfeit, not exceeding 5*l.* nor leſs than 40*s.* ſ. 26.

It ſhall be lawful for the guardians, where any poor-houſe ſhall be provided, to encloſe from any waſte or common land or ground lying near thereto, with the conſent of the lord of the manor, and the major part in value of the freeholders, or perſons having right of common thereupon, ſignified under their hands and ſeals, any part of ſuch waſte or common land, not exceeding ten acres, for the purpoſe of building upon, or occupying, cultivating, and improving the ſame, for the uſe of ſuch poor-houſe, and the poor perſons within the pariſhes. ſ. 27.

Every perſon ſent to any houſe provided under this act, ſhall, at the time of entering ſuch houſe, deliver to the governor thereof, or to his aſſiſtant, if any, an order, ſigned by one of the guardians, for the admiſſion of ſuch perſon, in the form in No. XII; which order ſhall be kept by the governor, and entered in a book. ſ. 28.

No perſon ſhall be ſent to ſuch poor-houſe, except ſuch as are become indigent by old age, ſickneſs, or infirmities, and are unable to acquire a maintenance by their labour; and except ſuch orphan children as ſhall be ſent thither by order of the guardian, with the approbation of the viſitor; and except ſuch children as ſhall neceſſarily go with their mothers thither for ſuſtenance. ſ. 29.

All infant children of tender years, and who, from accident or misfortune, ſhall become chargeable, may either be ſent to ſuch poor-houſe, or be placed by the guardian, with the approbation of the viſitor, with ſome reputable perſon in or near the pariſh to which they belong, at ſuch weekly allowance as ſhall be agreed upon between the pariſh officers and ſuch perſon, with the approbation of the viſitor, until ſuch child ſhall be of ſufficient age to be put into ſervice, or bound apprentice to huſbandry, or ſome trade; and a liſt of the names of every child placed out, and by whom and where kept, ſhall be given to the viſitor; who ſhall ſee that they are properly treated, or cauſe them to be removed, and placed under the care of ſome other perſon, if he finds cauſe ſo to do; and when ſuch child ſhall attain ſuch age, he ſhall be placed out at the expence of the pariſh to which he belongs, according to the laws in being: but if the parents or relations of any poor child ſent to ſuch houſe, or ſo placed out, or any other reſponſible perſon, ſhall deſire to receive and provide for ſuch poor child, and ſignify the ſame to the guardians at their monthly meeting, the guardians ſhall diſmiſs ſuch child from the poor-houſe, or from the care of ſuch perſon, and deliver him to the parent, &c. provided, nothing herein ſhall give any power to ſeparate any child, under the age of ſeven years, from his parent, without the conſent of ſuch parent. ſ. 30.

All idle or diſorderly perſons, who are able, but unwilling, to work or maintain themſelves and families, ſhall be proſecuted by the guardians of the pariſhes wherein they reſide, and puniſhed as idle and diſorderly perſons under 17 Geo. 2.; and if any guardian ſhall neglect to make complaint thereof, againſt every ſuch perſon, to ſome neighbouring juſtice, within 10 days after it come to his knowledge, he ſhall forfeit not exceeding 5*l.* nor leſs than 20*s.* one moiety to the informer, and the other to be diſpoſed of as the other forfeitures after directed. ſ. 31.

Where

Where there ſhall be in any pariſh, any poor perſon who ſhall be able and willing to work, but who cannot get employment, it ſhall be lawful for the guardian of the poor, on application made to him by ſuch poor perſon, to agree for the labour of ſuch poor perſon, at any work or employment ſuited to his ſtrength and capacity, in any pariſh near the place of his reſidence, and to maintain, or cauſe ſuch perſon to be maintained, lodged, and provided for, until ſuch employment be procured, and during the time of ſuch work, and to receive the money earned by ſuch work or labour, and apply it in ſuch maintenance, as far as the ſame will go, and make up the deficiency, if any; and if the ſame ſhall happen to exceed the money expended in ſuch maintenance, to account for the ſurplus, which ſhall afterwards, within one month, be given to ſuch poor perſon, if no further expences ſhall be then incurred on his account to exhauſt the ſame. And in caſe ſuch poor perſon ſhall refuſe to work, or run away from ſuch work, complaint ſhall be made thereof by the guardian to ſome juſtice, who ſhall enquire into the ſame upon oath, and on conviction puniſh ſuch offender, by committing him to the houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding three months, nor leſs than one. ſ. 32.

The guardian of the poor ſhall provide, at the expence of ſuch pariſh, cloathing for the perſons ſent by him to ſuch poor-houſe; and in caſe of neglect ſo to do, the governor, or one of the guardians of ſuch houſe, ſhall make complaint thereof to ſome juſtice, who ſhall ſummon the guardian making neglect, to appear before him to anſwer the complaint, and direct him to provide ſuch cloathing as ſhall to ſuch juſtice appear neceſſary; and if ſuch guardian ſhall make default in providing ſuch cloathing, within ten days after ſuch direction, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice to direct the governor, or the guardian making complaint, to provide the ſame, and to demand from ſuch guardian the charges of ſuch cloathing; and in default of payment thereof, upon demand made, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice to levy the ſame, and the coſts attending the recovery thereof, by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of ſuch guardian making default. ſ. 33.

The rules ſpecified in the ſchedule annexed ſhall be obſerved at every poor-houſe or work-houſe provided by virtue of this act, with ſuch additions as ſhall be made by the juſtices at ſome ſpecial ſeſſion, provided ſuch additions ſhall not be contradictory to the rules eſtabliſhed by this act, and the ſame be not repealed by the juſtices at their quarter-ſeſſions; and the governors of every ſuch houſe are to cauſe the ſame to be printed in plain legible characters, and fixed up in ſome conſpicuous part of every ſuch houſe. ſ. 34.

It ſhall be lawful for any juſtice, on complaint made upon oath, by or on the behalf of any poor perſon belonging to any pariſh, that the guardian, upon application made to him, hath refuſed ſuch poor perſon relief, and after enquiring into the condition of ſuch poor perſon upon oath, either to order him, by writing under the hand of ſuch juſtice, ſome weekly or other relief, or direct ſuch guardian to ſend ſuch poor perſon to the poor-houſe, in caſe he appear a fit object to be kept there, according to this act; which order ſhall be complied with, or cauſe ſhewn to the contrary, before ſuch juſtice, by ſuch guardian, within two days after he ſhall receive the ſame; (and every perſon receiving weekly relief ſhall wear the badge directed by 8 & 9 Will. 3. unleſs directed otherwiſe by a juſtice, upon proof of decent and orderly behaviour;) or if it ſhall appear to ſuch juſtice, that the perſon complaining, or on whoſe behalf ſuch complaint is made, is able and willing to work, but wants employment, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice to order the guardian to procure him maintenance and employment as before directed; and if any guardian ſhall, upon notice of ſuch order, refuſe or neglect to obey the ſame, he ſhall forfeit 5 l.; or if it ſhall appear to ſuch juſtice, that the perſon making complaint, or on whoſe behalf complaint is made, is an idle or diſorderly perſon, and has not uſed proper means to get employment, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtice, after examining ſuch perſon, and hearing the circumſtances of the caſe, to commit ſuch perſon to the houſe of correction for not exceeding three months, nor leſs than one; or if it appear to ſuch juſtice, upon enquiry, that the huſband or father of ſuch perſon is an idle or diſorderly perſon, able to work, but by his neglect of work, or for want of ſeeking employment, or by ſpending the money he earns in alehouſes, or places of bad repute, does not maintain his wife or children, and ſuffers them to be reduced to want, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice to commit the huſband or father to the houſe of correction, for not exceeding three months, nor leſs than one. ſ. 35.

When any complaint or application ſhall be made to a juſtice for the relief of any poor perſon, within any pariſh for which a viſitor ſhall be appointed, ſuch juſtice ſhall not ſummon the guardian to appear before him, unleſs application ſhall have been firſt made, by the perſon complaining, to the guardian, and, if he refuſes redreſs, to the viſitor (it being part of his duty to adjuſt matters of that ſort), who ſhall order relief if he thinks it neceſſary, either within or out of the houſe; but if ſufficient relief ſhall not be given or ordered, the poor perſon ſhall be redreſſed by ſuch juſtice as before directed. ſ. 36.

Out of the penalty inflicted upon the guardian for diſobeying the order of a juſtice, ſo much thereof as the juſtice ſhall direct to be paid to ſuch poor perſon ſhall be paid to him accordingly, and the remainder applied as other penalties. ſ. 37.

If any poor perſon ſhall be retarded on his paſſage through any pariſh in which he has no ſettlement, by reaſon of any accident, or being afflicted with ſickneſs or bodily infirmity, without the means of ſubſiſtence, or of proceeding to the place of ſettlement, the guardian living near the place where ſuch diſtreſſed object ſhall be, ſhall, upon notice thereof, provide lodging, and ſuitable nouriſhment and aſſiſtance (and alſo clothing if neceſſary) for ſuch perſon, until he can be removed with ſafety; and when ſuch perſon ſhall be fit to be removed, ſhall take ſuch perſon to ſome neighbouring juſtices, who ſhall examine him upon oath, as to his ſettlement, and make order for his removal thither, if they think fit: and the pariſh officer who ſhall ſo receive and provide for ſuch perſon, ſhall make a charge of the expences, which being allowed and certified by the juſtices, or ſome other neighbouring juſtices where ſuch perſon was found, the ſame ſhall be paid by the guardian of the pariſh where ſuch poor perſon ſhall be ſettled, in caſe the ſame can diſcovered, and ſhall be within that county, on demand made thereof, and on the production of ſuch allowance and certificate, or in default of payment, the ſame ſhall be levied upon the goods of ſuch guardian making default, after ſummons, by warrant from a juſtice having juriſdiction there; and if any poor and ſick perſon ſhall die before he can be examined, or if any poor perſon ſhall be found dead in any pariſh to which he did not belong, the guardian of ſuch pariſh ſhall cauſe ſuch perſon to be buried in the pariſh where he died, or was found dead, and ſhall make a charge of the expences, which ſhall be allowed and certified by a juſtice, after examining into the place of his ſettlement, and ſhall be paid by the guardian of the pariſh where ſuch perſon ſhall have been ſettled, if the ſame ſhall be within that county; but in caſe the ſettlement cannot be diſcovered, or ſhall not be within that county, the ſame ſhall be paid by the treaſurer of ſuch county where ſuch perſon was relieved, on the production of ſuch allowance and certificate, out of the county or public money. ſ. 38.

Nothing herein ſhall alter or affect the ſettlement of any perſon, or give any illegitimate child, born in any poor or workhouſe under this act, a ſettlement in the pariſh in which ſuch workhouſe ſhall be (but ſuch child ſhall be conſidered as ſettled in the pariſh to which the mother belongs) or to alter or affect any of the proviſions eſtabliſhed by any act for the management of any particular houſe of induſtry, or workhouſe, in this kingdom. ſ. 39.

If any poor perſon, ſent to ſuch houſe, ſhall embezzle or wilfully waſte any of the goods committed to his care, or ſhall take, without permiſſion of the governor, any goods provided for the uſe of ſuch houſe, or belonging to any perſon reſiding there, complaint ſhall be made upon oath to ſome neighbouring juſtice, who ſhall hear the ſame, and the party accuſed; and ſuch juſtice is, upon conviction, to commit ſuch offender to the houſe of correction, to hard labour, for not exceeding ſix, nor leſs than two months. ſ. 40.

When any guardian or other perſon ſhall entice or remove, or cauſe to be enticed or removed, any poor perſon from one pariſh to another, which ſhall adopt this act, without an order of removal from two juſtices for that purpoſe, every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit not exceeding 20 nor leſs than 5*l.* ſ. 41.

If any viſitor, guardian, or governor, ſhall ſell or furniſh any materials, goods, clothes, victuals, or proviſions, or do any work in his trade for the uſe of any workhouſe, poor-houſe, or poor perſons, within any pariſh for which he ſhall be appointed to act, or be concerned in trade or intereſt with any perſon who ſhall ſell or furniſh the ſame, he ſhall forfeit not exceeding 20 nor leſs than 5*l.* on being convicted. ſ. 42.

It ſhall be lawful for the guardians of the poor, with the approbation of the perſons within ſuch pariſh, qualified as before mentioned, obtained at a public meeting, to ſell any houſe, cottage, or building, erected or purchaſed for the uſe of any poor perſon, at the expence of ſuch pariſh, and apply the money ariſing therefrom for the purpoſes of this act; and alſo to remove, by order from a juſtice, the perſon who ſhall inhabit the ſame, or any other houſe rented or provided at the expence of ſuch pariſh, if he refuſe to quit, after receiving 14 days notice. ſ. 43.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to any pariſh which ſhall not agree to adopt the proviſions herein, in the manner hereby directed. ſ. 44.

All penalties ſhall be recovered before one juſtice where the offender dwells, who ſhall, upon conviction, in default of payment, after ſummons, and demand made, cauſe the ſame to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods, by warrant under the hand and ſeal of any juſtice where ſuch offender ſhall dwell, rendering to the offender the overplus, after charges ſhall be deducted; and in caſe ſufficient diſtreſs ſhall not be found, then ſuch juſtice may commit ſuch offender to the houſe of correction, for not exceeding ſix months nor leſs than one; and ſuch penalty, if not otherwiſe diſpoſed of, ſhall be paid to the treaſurer of ſuch houſe, to be applied by him towards defraying the monthly expences of victuals, beer, firing, and other neceſſary proviſions for the poor within ſuch houſe. ſ. 45.

PART II.

Any perſon aggrieved by the act of any juſtice, out of ſeſſions, may appeal to the next general quarter ſeſſions, giving eight days notice thereof to the party againſt whom the complaint ſhall be made, and giving ſecurity, by recognizance, acknowledged before a juſtice, with a ſufficient ſurety, to pay the coſts attending ſuch appeal, if the matter be determined againſt the appellant; and the quarter ſeſſions are to hear and determine ſuch appeal, and to award coſts for or againſt the appellant; which determination ſhall be final, and ſhall not be removed by certiorari. ſ. 46.

N° IV.

FORM of AGREEMENT for uniting the Parishes [or Townships, as the Case shall be], of A, B, C, and D, for the Purpose of providing a House or Houses, and the better maintaining and employing their Poor, pursuant to the Statute.

IT is agreed, this ———day of ——— by and between the guardians of the poor of the parishes of ——— and ——— and of the townships of ——— and ——— in the county of ——— (which maintain their own poor separate from the other parts of their respective parishes), whose names are hereunto subscribed, pursuant to the opinion of two third parts, in number and value as aforesaid, of the owners or occupiers of lands, tenements, and hereditaments, assessed to the poor's rates within such respective parishes and townships, at meetings duly held for that purpose, qualified according the directions of the act passed in the 22d year of the reign of his majesty king GEORGE III. and with the approbation of A. B. and C. D. two justices of the peace, according to the directions of the said act; that the said respective parishes and townships shall be united for the better maintaining and employing their poor; and that a convenient house or houses, with proper buildings and accommodations thereto, and with land fit for gardens, orchards, and the keeping of a cow or cows, shall be built [purchased or hired, as shall be found most suitable], at or near ——— for the reception and accommodation of the poor, as soon as conveniently may be, and if hired, the same shall be rented upon such terms as shall be agreed upon between the guardians of the poor of the said parishes and townships, or the major part of them, and the person or persons owning or being authorised to let such buildings, lands and premises; but no such agreement shall be made for a longer term than 21 years, unless the guardian or guardians shall have an option to vacate it at the end of that term, on giving 12 months notice in writing of his or their intentions so to do, nor for a shorter term than three years; and such houses shall be fitted up and made convenient for the purposes aforesaid, at the expence of the landlords [or tenants, as shall be agreed between them]. That the rents of the said houses, the expences of fitting up, making additions or alterations [where they shall be agreed to be paid by the tenants], and of the furniture thereof, and also the utensils and materials to be used for the purpose of employing the poor, and the wages and allowances to be paid to the governor of the house, shall be paid by the several guardians in their due proportions, according to the amount of the money raised by the poor's rates for their several parishes and townships, in respect of their poor, on a medium of three years preceding such agreement; and that such proportion shall be ascertained by ——— and ——— whom we have nominated for that purpose, and shall be paid by the guardians of the poor of the said respective parishes and townships, to the person who shall be authorised to receive the same, within 7 days after the same shall be so ascertained; and that the money earned by the labour of such poor shall be brought to the credit of that account at the end of every year. That the expences of victuals, beer, and firing, for the poor and the governor, [and for the assistants, when any shall be found necessary] in every such house or houses, with all other incidental expences, shall be proportioned at the end of every month, according to the number of poor which shall be sent from each of the said parishes, townships, and places, and for the time they shall have resided there within such month. That the guardians of the poor of any of the said parishes, townships or places, shall be at liberty to withdraw from this agreement at the end of the first three years, or any succeeding three years, on giving 12 months notice of such their intention, if it shall be so determined by three-fourth parts of the owners or occupiers of lands, tenements or hereditaments, assessed to the poor's rates, and qualified as aforesaid, at a public meeting, summoned by due notice as aforesaid, specifying the occasion of such meeting; and in such case, they shall receive one half of their due proportion, to be ascertained by the persons above named, or such other persons as the parties shall agree upon for that purpose, of the value of the furniture, stock, utensils, and implements, then remaining at such poor house, after paying their proportion of the rent, and of the salaries to the governor and other officers, to the end of the then growing year: and that the guardians of the poor of each parish, township, and place, shall provide suitable and convenient cloathing for the poor, to be sent to the said house or houses, from their respective parishes, townships, or places, and charge the expences thereof in their accounts. And we recommend to the justices of the limit where such house is to be situated, A. B., C. D., and E. F., as persons duly qualified for the office of visitor of the said poor-house, and I. K., L. M., and N. O., as persons duly qualified for the office of governor of the said poor-house.

We, A. B. and C. D. the justices of peace mentioned in the within-written agreement, do hereby give our approbation to the parishes and places herein named being united for the purposes of the act within-mentioned.

N° XV.

Mode of adjuſting the firſt Account mentioned in the Act, reſpecting Utenſils, Materials, Furniture, Rent, &c.

LET it be ſuppoſed, that the pariſhes or townſhips of A. B. C. and D. have agreed to be united under the authority of the act; and that E. and F. are the perſons named in the agreement as arbitrators or referees, to ſettle and adjuſt the proportions which each pariſh or place is to pay.

It will be neceſſary for E. and F., at their firſt meeting, to call upon the officers of every ſuch pariſh, townſhip, or place, for their aſſeſſments and accounts, in order to ſee what they have paid to their poor, on a medium of three years preceding the agreement; who are required by the act to produce them, under a penalty for refuſal.

When the arbitrators have got theſe materials, it will be neceſſary to ſeparate and deduct every matter which does not relate to the poor; for inſtance, money paid to the county rates, or for the expences of the conſtable, headborough, or militia, which are all now included in the poor's rates; and, as ſome of theſe pariſhes may have had expences occaſioned by litigations about ſettlements and removals, and others may not, they ſhould exclude all ſuch expences in the account.

When the accounts have been ſo inſpected and examined, and the proper deductions made, they may be ſuppoſed to appear:

That A. has paid for the firſt of the three years	65	7	6
for the ſecond year - -	87	2	0
for the third year - -	105	0	0
Making together	257	9	6
A third part of which ſum (being A*'s medium) will be* — — — — —	85	16	6
Let B*'s payments be calculated in the ſame manner, which may be ſuppoſed to amount, on the medium of three years, to* — —	110	0	0
C*'s ditto, to* — — — —	97	0	0
The total amount of the annual payments will be	432	16	6

Suppoſe the month's expences paid by the ſeveral pariſhes under the above heads, according to the directions of the act, ſhould amount to 300l., the queſtion will be, if 432l. 16s. 6d. (the total medium of all the pariſhes) require 300l., what will 85l. 16s. 6d. require? When that ſhall be worked by the Rule of Three, multiplying the third number by the ſecond, and dividing it when ſo multiplied by the firſt, the anſwer will be,

That A*'s proportion amounts to* — —	59	9	5
B*'s proportion, when worked in the ſame manner, will be* — — —	76	5	0
C*'s ditto,* — — — —	67	4	7
D*'s ditto,* — — — —	97	1	0
Making together the whole ſum expended	300	0	0

When thoſe medium ſums ſhall be ſettled and proportioned at their firſt meeting, there will be no occaſion to repeat that trouble afterwards, as the firſt ſum will be the ſame on all future calculations; and to prevent trouble in adjuſting the proportions at every monthly meeting, at every poor-houſe, ſoon after the firſt medium proportions ſhall be ſo aſcertained, there ſhall be a table fixed, calculating the proportions of each pariſh, townſhip, or place, to any given ſum, from the ſmalleſt to the greateſt, that is likely to be expended in that diſtrict within the month; which will make every account clear and eaſy to the meaneſt underſtanding, and will be liquidated in an inſtant.

N° XVI.

Mode of adjuſting the ſecond Account mentioned in the Act, reſpecting the Victuals, Beer, Firing, and other Neceſſaries.

AS ſoon as the agreement is made for uniting ſeveral pariſhes, &c. the guardians ſhall meet and conſider what will be a proper weekly ſum to be paid into the hands of the treaſurer for every perſon admitted into the poor-houſe, eſtimating it as near as they can to the probable expence of maintaining them; the guardians ſhould pay to the treaſurer, at every monthly meeting, what ſhall be due for every ſuch perſon, upon that calculation, for the time he has been kept there, in the month preceding; and, in order to avoid fractions, if any perſon ſhall have been there four days, or more, in any of the weeks, it ſhould be conſidered as a full week, and if leſs than four days, no charge ſhall be made for it: That, in order to avoid difficulties in adjuſting the account, a table ſhould be provided in like manner as before, and fixed up in the houſe, with proper columns for the number of perſons, the number of weeks, and, the total amount, according to the weekly ſum ſo agreed upon; by which that account will likewiſe be ſettled without the leaſt trouble or difficulty.

The ſeveral monthly ſums paid by each pariſh on this ſecond account, and alſo the groſs ſums, ſhould be entered in the treaſurer's books; and, at the end of the year, it ſhould be computed, whether the payments by the ſeveral pariſhes have amounted to more, or leſs, than the ſum expended; if to more, the guardian of each pariſh ſhould receive, if to leſs, he ſhould pay his proportion thereof to the treaſurer, to be computed according to the firſt account, as directed by the act.

RULES to be obſerved and enforced at every POOR-HOUSE provided under 22 Geo. 3.

Firſt.—THE perſons ſent to ſuch poor houſe, who are capable of work, ſhall be employed by the governor in labour ſuited to their ſtrength and capacity.

Second.—The governor ſhall take care to keep the houſe, and apartments therein, and alſo the perſons who ſhall inhabit the ſame, clean and wholeſome; and for that purpoſe he ſhall employ ſuch of the ſaid poor perſons, who ſhall be ſent thither, whom he ſhall think moſt able and beſt qualified for the offices, to aſſiſt him therein, and alſo in the providing and dreſſing of victuals for the uſe of ſuch poor perſons; and if any ſuch poor perſon ſhall refuſe or neglect to perform the work or labour in which he or ſhe ſhall be ſo employed, or ſhall be directed to do by the governor, every ſuch perſon ſhall be puniſhed by confinement, or alteration of diet, in ſuch manner as the governor ſhall direct; and for a ſecond offence of the like ſort, complaint thereof ſhall be made to ſome juſtice of the peace for the limit, who, on conviction, ſhall commit ſuch perſon to the houſe of correction, for any time not exceeding two calendar months, nor leſs than one.

Third.—That the apartments in the houſe or houſes to be provided as aforeſaid, ſhall be adapted ſo as to accommodate the poor who ſhall be ſent thither, in the beſt manner they are capable.—That the governor ſhall place in the beſt apartments ſuch poor perſons who, having been creditable houſekeepers, are reduced by misfortune, in preference to thoſe who are become poor by vice and idleneſs; and that ſeparate apartments ſhall be provided for the reception of the ſick and diſtempered poor, and an apothecary or ſurgeon to be ſent for to attend them when there ſhall appear neceſſity for it, at the expence of the pariſh or place to which ſuch poor perſons belong.

Fourth.—That ſuch poor perſons who are able to work, ſhall be called up by ring of bell, and ſet to work by ſix in the morning, from Lady-day to Michaelmas, and by eight from Michaelmas to Lady-day; and continue until four in the afternoon, from Michaelmas to Lady-day; and from Lady-day to Michaelmas, till ſix in the afternoon (meal times and times for reaſonable recreation excepted): and, if anyſuch poor perſon ſhall refuſe or neglect to do ſuch work as ſhall be allotted him or her, or wilfully ſpoil the ſame, or depart from ſuch houſe without leave from the governor, or ſhall be guilty of any diſorder or diſobedience to theſe rules and orders, the governor ſhall reprove ſuch perſon for the ſame, and puniſh him or her by confinement and alteration of diet, as the ſaid governor ſhall think fit; and if ſuch perſon ſhall be guilty of the like offence a ſecond time, the governor ſhall complain thereof to the viſitor of ſuch houſe, who is hereby authoriſed to order the puniſhment of confinement to be increaſed to ſuch degree as he ſhall think fit.

Fifth.—That the governor ſhall enter in a book, to be kept by him, an account of the houſehold goods, linen, furniture, and utenſils provided for the ſaid houſe; and alſo an account of the materials bought for manufacture, and of the goods manufactured there; which ſhall be laid before the guardians at their monthly meeting, and before the viſitor whenever he comes to ſuch houſe.

Sixth.—That the governor ſhall viſit the ſeveral perſons maintained in ſuch houſe or houſes, and their apartments, once at leaſt in every day; and ſhall take care that there is no waſte of fire, candles, or proviſions; and ſhall ſee that the fires and candles are put out at the hours fixed for ſuch perſons going to bed, which ſhall be at eight of the clock between Michaelmas and Lady-day, and nine between Lady-day and Michaelmas.

Seventh.—That when any perſon ſhall die in the houſe, the governor ſhall take care that the body of ſuch perſon be immediately removed into ſome ſeparate apartment, and be decently buried, as ſoon as conveniently may be; and alſo take care of the clothes and goods of ſuch perſon, and deliver them to the guardian of the poor of ſuch pariſh or place to which ſuch perſon did belong, who is to pay the charges of the funeral of ſuch poor perſon.

Eighth.—That no poor perſon be permitted to go out of the poor houſe, nor any perſon permitted to come into ſuch houſe or houſes, except the perſons maintained and employed there, without the permiſſion of the governor; and that no ſpirituous liquors be permitted to be drank in ſuch houſe or houſes; and that no other liquors ſhall be brought thither, without the permiſſion of the ſaid governor.

Ninth.—That the rules, orders, and bye-laws, ſhall be publicly read by the governor, to all the poor perſons kept in ſuch houſe or houſes, once at leaſt in every month.

Tenth.—That all the poor perſons able to go to church, ſhall attend divine ſervice every Sunday.

Eleventh.—That the governor ſhall diſmiſs from the poor-houſe or work-houſe, every perſon who ſhall, in the opinion of the guardian or guardians, be thought improper to continue longer there, and upon an order from him or them for that purpoſe.

Poſt Horſes.

By 25 Geo. 3. c. 51. Every poſtmaſter, innkeeper, or other perſon in Great Britain, who ſhall let to hire any horſe for the purpoſe of travelling poſt by the mile, or from ſtage to ſtage, or being a perſon uſually letting horſes to hire, ſhall let to hire for a day, or any leſs period of time, any horſe for drawing any coach or other carriage uſed in travelling poſt, or otherwiſe, in reſpect whereof any rates heretofore under the management of the commiſſioners of exciſe have been payable, ſhall pay annually 5 s. for a licence for that purpoſe:

For every horſe hired by the mile or ſtage, to be uſed in travelling poſt in Great Britain, there ſhall be charged a duty of 1 ½ d. for every mile ſuch horſe ſhall be hired to travel poſt:

And for every horſe hired for a day, or any leſs period of time, for drawing on any public road any coach, or other carriage uſed in travelling poſt, or otherwiſe, in reſpect whereof any duties of exciſe have been payable, there ſhall be charged, if the diſtance ſhall be then aſcertained, 1 ½ d. per mile; and if the diſtance ſhall not be then aſcertained, there ſhall be charged 1 s. 9 d. for each horſe hired; ſuch duty to be paid by the perſons by whom ſuch horſe ſhall be hired:

Every perſon who ſhall keep any coach, berlin, landau, chariot, calaſh, chaiſe-marine, chaiſe, diligence, or oth carriage with four wheels, or any calaſh, chaiſe, chair, or other carriage with two wheels, to be employed as public ſtage coaches or carriages, for conveying paſſengers for hire to and from different places in Great Britain, ſhall pay annually 5 s. for a licence for that purpoſe:

Every coach, or other carriage with four wheels, or any calaſh, or other carriage with two wheels, to be employed as public ſtage coaches or carriages, for conveying paſſengers for hire, to and from different places in Great Britain, ſhall be charged with 1 d. for every mile ſuch carriage ſhall travel, to be paid by the owners thereof. ſ. 4.

The ſaid duties ſhall be under the management of the commiſſioners for the duties charged on ſtamped vellum, &c.;

&c.; who are to appoint officers, and to allow ſalaries, and to provide ſtamps, and to repair or alter the ſame, and to do all other acts neceſſary for putting this act in execution, with relation to the duties, in the like manner as they are authoriſed to put in execution any of the laws concerning ſtamped vellum, &c. ſ. 5.

No perſon required to be licenſed ſhall, unleſs he be authoriſed in manner after preſcribed, let out any horſe for hire, either by the mile or ſtage, or to draw any coach with four wheels, or any calaſh with two wheels, or any other carriage uſed in travelling poſt, or otherwiſe, for a day, or leſs period of time, upon pain to forfeit 10 l. ſ. 6.

Two commiſſioners, or ſome perſon authoriſed by them, ſhall grant licences to ſuch perſons who ſhall apply for the ſame, to let out horſes for hire, in the manner aforeſaid, within Great Britain, for one year, to commence from the day of the date of ſuch licence; and every perſon who ſhall take out ſuch licence for letting out horſes for hire, ſhall take out a freſh licence for another year, ten days before the expiration of that year for which he ſhall be licenſed, if he continue to let out horſes; and ſhall, in like manner, renew ſuch licence from year to year, paying down the ſums due for ſuch licences, as long as he continue to let out horſes for hire. ſ. 7.

No poſtmaſter, innkeeper, or other perſon whatſoever, ſhall, by virtue of one licence, keep more than one inn for letting horſes; but for each inn, a ſeparate licence ſhall be taken out and paid for by ſuch poſtmaſter; upon pain to forfeit for every inn ſo kept by him not licenſed, 20 l. ſ. 8.

Every poſtmaſter licenſed, ſhall cauſe (Licenſed to let Poſt Horſes) to be painted or written in legible characters, either on a ſign hung out, or in ſome viſible place in the front of his houſe, ſtables, or out-offices, at the places at which he lets out horſes to hire, to denote that ſuch poſtmaſter is a letter of horſes, and authoriſed to furniſh travellers with the ſame: and if any poſtmaſter licenſed, ſhall preſume to let out horſes for hire, without fixing or hanging out ſuch token, ſuch poſtmaſter ſhall forfeit 5 l. ſ. 9.

Every perſon ſo licenſed, ſhall, if he furniſh his own chaiſes, or carriages, at the ſame time with ſuch horſes let to hire to travel poſt, mark or paint on the outſide pannel of each door of the chaiſe, or carriage, his chriſtian and ſurname, and the name of the place of his abode, in legible characters, in letters of a colour diſtinct from the colour of the carriage, each letter at leaſt one inch in length, and continue the ſame thereupon as long as ſuch carriage ſhall be ſo uſed; and if any perſon ſhall neglect to mark or paint the ſame, as before directed, or ſhall mark any falſe name, or abode, he ſhall forfeit 5 l. ſ. 10.

Every poſtmaſter licenſed, if he furniſh his own carriages with four wheels, or any carriage with two wheels, at the ſame time with ſuch horſes let to hire for a day, or leſs period of time, for drawing on any public road, where ſuch carriages ſhall have a box, or other outſide ſeat for the driver thereof, ſhall affix upon ſome conſpicuous part of the footboard, or other part of ſuch box, a braſs or tin plate; and where ſuch carriages ſhall not have a box or outſide ſeat, upon the pole, ſhaft, or ſplinter-bar, upon which there ſhall be marked or engraved the chriſtian and ſurname of ſuch owner, together with the name of the place of his abode, in large and legible characters, and continue the ſame thereon, and replace the ſame as often as occaſion ſhall require, during the time ſuch carriage ſhall be ſo uſed: and if any perſon ſhall omit ſo to do, or mark any falſe name or abode, on any ſuch plate, he ſhall forfeit 5 l. ſ. 11.

The commiſſioners ſhall, at the time of iſſuing ſuch licence, deliver to every perſon ſo licenſed, printed or written papers (intituled, Stamp-office Weekly Accounts), in which ſhall be inſerted the day of the week, and blanks left for the number of horſes and miles, and name of the place to which ſuch horſes ſhall be hired to go; and alſo for the day of the month, and the names of the drivers employed, to be filled up as after directed, according to the following form, or ſuch other as the commiſſioners ſhall judge convenient.

And ſhall alſo deliver a number of tickets, on which ſhall be printed or written the words (Stamp Office), and alſo the word (Horſes), and 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, or 6, in figures, as the tickets may be intended to denote the number; and likewiſe the word (Miles), except where the horſes are hired for a day, or any leſs period of time, and then, inſtead of the word (Miles), the words (For a Day) ſhall be inſerted, and alſo the amount of the duty, after the rate of 1 s. 9 d. for each horſe, according to the number of horſes expreſſed by figures on ſuch tickets, and ſhall take eſpecial care that all perſons perſons licenſed ſhall be furniſhed with ſuch accounts and tickets; and in caſe any officer employed in the execution of this act, in relation to the ſaid duties, ſhall wilfully refuſe or neglect to do any matter by this act required, whereby any ſubjects ſhall ſuſtain any damage whatſoever, ſuch officer ſhall be liable, in any action on this ſtatute, to anſwer to the party aggrieved damages, with treble coſts. ſ. 12.

Every perſon ſo licenſed, ſhall, at the time of receiving his firſt licence, give ſecurity, by bond, to his majeſty in 50 l. with a condition that he will, whenever thereunto required, re-deliver the ſtamp-office tickets which he may have received, and that may remain unaccounted for by him, or will pay the money due thereon; and that he will alſo deliver to the perſons authoriſed by the commiſſioners to inſpect the ſame, and to receive the money due thereon, the ſtamp-office accounts delivered to him, faithfully made out, ſigned, and atteſted, as after directed, and make payment of all ſuch money as ſhall be due; and alſo truly perform all the directions herein contained, on his behalf to be obſerved; and in caſe of the nonperformance or breach of ſuch condition, it ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners, or perſons appointed by them, to cauſe ſuch bond to be proſecuted; and in caſe of judgment againſt the defendant, the commiſſioners may refuſe to grant to ſuch perſon any licence in future. ſ. 13.

Tickets ſhall be valued in account, and paid for, in caſe of deficiency, at the rate of 1 s. 9 d. for each horſe, according to the number of horſes expreſſed by figures on ſuch tickets, and in the receipt given by ſuch poſtmaſters for the ſame. ſ. 14.

Every perſon licenſed, who ſhall let horſes to hire by the mile or ſtage, ſhall, by themſelves or ſervants, previous to the uſing ſuch horſes, demand and receive for the uſe of his majeſty, from the perſons hiring, 1 ½ d. per mile for each mile ſuch horſe ſhall be hired to travel, at the rate of miles which he ſhall charge ſuch traveller for the ſtage ſuch horſe may be hired to go; and ſhall, at the time he receives payment of the duty, deliver to the perſons hiring ſuch horſe, the ſtamp-office tickets, and to which ſuch poſtmaſter ſhall add, if an innkeeper, the name of his ſign or houſe; if not an innkeeper, his name; and he ſhall alſo inſert the name of the place where ſuch licenſed perſon reſides, and the name of the place to which ſuch horſes may be hired to go; and if to London, the name of the ſtreet, ſquare, or place in London; and in words or figures the month, and day of the month, and the number of miles for which ſuch horſes are hired: and if any poſtmaſter, under pretence of there not being any turnpike upon the road through which he may be hired to go, or under any other pretence whatſoever, ſhall neglect to demand and receive the duty of 1 ½ d. per mile, or ſhall neglect or refuſe to deliver the ticket, filled up, ſuch poſtmaſter ſhall forfeit 10 l.; and moreover, in caſe of not receiving the duty, be chargeable therewith, in the ſame manner as if he had actually received the ſame. ſ. 15.

Every traveller to whom the tickets, whereon ſhall be expreſſed the miles, ſhall be delivered, if they paſs through any turnpike, ſhall, at the firſt at which any toll ſhall be collected, through which he ſhall paſs, deliver to the toll-gate keeper there, the ticket given to him, which the ſaid toll-gate keeper is to demand, and to receive and file; and if any traveller going poſt, ſhall have neglected to take ſuch ticket, or ſhall not deliver the ſame, properly filled up, he ſhall, before ſuch horſes paſs through ſuch turnpike, pay for every horſe 1 s. 9 d. which the gate-keeper is to demand, and not permit ſuch horſes to paſs till he ſhall have paid the ſame, or produced ſuch ticket. ſ. 16.

No traveller ſhall be compelled to pay for a greater number of miles than ſhall be expreſſed upon the ticket; and if any poſtmaſter ſhall inſert in ſuch ticket the name of any other place than the place to which the horſes ſhall be hired to go, or ſhall fill up a leſs number of miles than the number charged to ſuch traveller, every perſon ſo offending, ſhall forfeit 10 l.; and the ſaid commiſſioners ſhall, if they think fit, after conviction, refuſe to grant ſuch offender any licence in future. ſ. 17.

Where any ticket ſhall be iſſued, with the number of miles expreſſed thereon, and the perſon ſo iſſuing the ſame, ſhall charge the traveller a ſpecific ſum by the ſtage, and not at per mile, in ſuch caſe, ſuch poſtmaſter ſhall be accountable for one-fourth part of the money received by him, as and for the duty by this act directed to be paid; and ſhall, in that caſe, expreſs on the ticket the money charged to ſuch traveller, and enter in the weekly account one-fourth part of the money received, and pay the ſame to the collector appointed by this act to receive the duties; and if any poſtmaſter ſhall act contrary hereto, he ſhall forfeit 10 l. ſ. 18.

Every perſon licenſed, who ſhall let to hire any horſe by the day, or leſs period of time, ſhall, by themſelves or ſervants, previous to ſuch horſe being uſed, demand, and receive, from the perſons hiring the ſame, 1 ½ d. per mile for each mile ſuch horſe ſhall be hired to go, where the diſtance ſhall be aſcertained, and where not, then 1 s. 9 d. for each horſe hired, previous to ſuch horſe's being uſed; and ſhall, at the time, deliver to the perſons hiring ſuch horſes, the ſtamp-office tickets, with the words (For a Day) inſerted therein, as occaſion ſhall require; and to which every poſtmaſter ſhall add, if an innkeeper, the name of his ſign or houſe; if not an innkeeper, his name; and he ſhall alſo inſert the name of the place where ſuch licenſed perſon reſides, and, in words or figures, the month, and day of the month; and if any poſtmaſter ſhall neglect to demand and receive the 1 ½ d. per mile, or 1 s. 9 d. for each horſe, as the caſe ſhall be, from ſuch perſons hiring the ſame, or ſhall neglect or refuſe to deliver the tickets filled up as aforeſaid, ſuch poſtmaſter ſhall forfeit 10 l.; and moreover, in caſe of not receiving the duty, be chargeable therewith as if he had actually received the ſame. ſ. 19.

Every perſon to whom ſuch day-ticket ſhall be delivered, if he, in the day for which ſuch ticket ſhall be given, paſs through any turnpike, ſhall, at the firſt turnpike, deliver to the toll-gatherer there, the day-ticket given to him at the place where he hired ſuch horſes, which the ſaid toll-gatherer is to demand, and to receive and file; and in return for ſuch day-ticket, ſuch perſon ſhall receive from the toll-gatherer a ticket (called An Exchange Ticket), to be ſupplied from the ſtamp-office, which ſhall contain the name of the county in which the turnpike ſhall be, and the words (Received Day-ticket); and alſo the number of horſes according to the figures expreſſed in ſuch day-ticket, together with the name of the place at which ſuch day-ticket was given, and ſome mark, denoting the particular day in which ſuch exchange ticket was iſſued, in printed or written letters or figures; which exchange tickets the toll-gatherer is to deliver to ſuch perſon gratis, in return for ſuch day-ticket left with him; and which ſaid exchange ticket ſo delivered, ſhall be ſhewn by ſuch perſon at every turnpike through which he ſhall afterwards on that day paſs, with ſuch horſes: and if any perſon, to whom ſuch day-ticket ſhall be delivered, ſhall neglect or refuſe to leave the ſame at ſuch firſt turnpike, or ſhall refuſe to ſhew the ticket given to him in exchange, at every turnpike through which he ſhall on that day paſs, he ſhall pay for every horſe uſed by him, 1 s. 9 d. before ſuch horſe ſhall paſs through ſuch turnpike, and the gatekeeper there is to demand, and retain the ſame to his own uſe; and where the name of the owner of the carriage ſhall be marked on the foot-board or ſeat, or pole, ſhaft, or ſplinter-bar, when the carriage is let out with the horſes, then ſuch gatekeeper ſhall not permit ſuch horſes to paſs through until ſuch traveller ſhall have paid the ſame, or leſt ſuch day-ticket, or ſhall have produced ſuch exchange ticket. ſ. 20.

If any perſon ſhall take off the braſs or tin plate, with an intent to evade the duty, or the 1 s. 9 d. to be paid at the turnpike, as before directed, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 10 l. ſ. 21.

In caſe any carriage, upon which any braſs or tin plate is directed to be affixed, ſhall paſs through any turnpike, without having ſuch plate thereon, as before directed, the driver ſhall forfeit 40 s. ſ. 22.

Where any poſtmaſter ſhall let to hire any horſe to return in leſs than two days, and the number of miles, inſtead of the words (For a Day), ſhall be inſerted in ſuch ticket, every licenſed poſtmaſter ſhall fill up the name of the place to which the horſes are hired to go, and the true number of miles, aſcertaining the diſtance both going to, and returning from the place expreſſed in ſuch ticket; and in default of not filling up the ſaid ticket, as before directed, ſuch poſtmaſter ſhall forfeit 10 l. and moreover be chargeable with the duty as if he had actually received the ſame. ſ. 23.

Every poſtmaſter, when he ſhall let to hire for two days, or longer, any horſes for drawing any carriage on any public road, ſhall deliver to the perſon travelling in ſuch carriage, or to the driver thereof, a note, to be ſupplied from the ſtamp-office, on which ſhall be engraved or printed (Hired for two or more Days), and to which ſuch poſtmaſter ſhall add the day of the month, the name of the abode, and the number of days for which the ſaid horſes ſhall be hired, and the abode of the perſon hiring the ſame; and the perſon travelling in ſuch carriage, or the driver thereof, ſhall, at the firſt turnpike, if he paſs through any, deliver to the toll-gate keeper there the note given to him as aforeſaid, which the toll-gate keeper is to demand, and to receive and file; and in return for ſuch note, the toll-gate keeper ſhall deliver a ticket, called (The Check Ticket), to be ſupplied from the ſtamp-office, which ſhall contain the name of the county in which the turnpike ſhall be, and the words (Certificate delivered), and alſo the name of the place whence ſuch note iſſued, together with ſome mark, denoting the day on which ſuch check ticket was iſſued, in printed or written letters or figures; which check ticket the toll-gate keeper is to deliver to ſuch perſon gratis, in return for ſuch note left with him, and which check ticket delivered, ſhall be ſhewn by the driver, or ſome perſon therein, to the toll-gatherer at every turnpike through which the horſes paſs: and if any perſon ſo hiring ſuch horſes, ſhall have neglected to take ſuch note, or ſhall neglect or refuſe to leave the ſame at ſuch firſt turnpike, or ſhall refuſe to ſhew, at the turnpikes through which he paſs, the check ticket given by the toll-gate keeper, ſuch traveller ſhall pay for every horſe uſed 1 s. 9 d. before ſuch horſes paſs ſuch turnpike, which the toll-gate keeper is to demand, and receive to his own uſe, and not permit ſuch horſes to paſs till ſuch travellers ſhall have paid the ſame, or produced ſuch note, or check ticket; and if any poſtmaſter ſhall, in ſuch note, inſert any falſe name or abode, or ſhall wilfully inſert therein any fictitious name, or abode of the perſon hiring ſuch horſes, or ſhall, in letting out ſuch horſes, by any device or colluſion, pretend to let out his horſes for longer time than for which the ſame were actually hired, with intent to evade the duty, ſuch poſtmaſter ſhall forfeit 20 l.; and the commiſſioners ſhall, if they think fit, refuſe any licence in future. ſ. 24.

Every horſe hired for drawing any carriage for leſs than two ſucceſſive complete days, ſhall be deemed to be hired for a day, and ſhall be ſubject to all the regulations as horſes hired for a day or leſs time. ſ. 25.

Every toll-gate keeper who ſhall have received any of the day-tickets or notes for two or more days, and ſhall refuſe to give any traveller, gratis, the tickets directed to be given in exchange, or who ſhall deliver the exchange or check ticket without having received in lieu thereof the day ticket or note for two or more days; or who ſhall make any alteration in any of the tickets hereby directed to be filed by him, after ſuch tickets ſhall have come to his cuſtody, or ſhall deliver any of the tickets directed to be received and filed by him, to any perſon other than the perſon authoriſed as after mentioned to receive the ſame, he ſhall forfeit 40 s. ſ. 26.

Every perſon ſo licenſed to let horſes, ſhall inſert, in the account before ſpecified, ſo delivered to him from the ſtamp-office, the number of horſes uſed in travelling poſt, and the number of miles for which ſuch horſes ſhall have been uſed, and the name of the place to which ſuch horſes were hired to go; alſo the number of horſes let to hire for a day, or leſs time; and alſo the note iſſued by them, and the day of the month on which the day tickets were uſed, or ſuch note iſſued, together with the names of the drivers; which account ſhall be ſigned by ſuch poſtmaſter, and witneſſed by the hoſtler, or ſervant employed in preparing ſuch horſes, and ſhall be open, when required, to the inſpection of any perſon authoriſed under the hands and ſeals of the commiſſioners, to inſpect the ſame; and ſuch poſtmaſter ſo licenſed, reſiding in the city of London, or liberty of Weſtminſter, ſhall, the firſt Tueſday or Wedneſday in every month, and ſuch other perſon licenſed, reſiding within five miles of the head office for ſtamps, or within the bills of mortality, ſhall, the firſt Thurſday or Friday in every month, or at ſuch other times as may be appointed by the commiſſioners, on public notice given in the Gazette, bring in and deliver to the commiſſioners, or to the perſons appointed by them for the purpoſe of receiving the ſame, at the head office, the accounts before directed for the four weeks ending on the Saturday preceding ſuch day of delivery, and ſhall, at the ſame time, pay ſuch money which ſhall be due thereon to the receiver general, or to the officer for collecting the ſaid duties, at the head office, upon pain of 10 l. for every default in not delivering in ſuch account, and double the amount of the money payable from ſuch poſtmaſter, for the duties, for the nonpayment thereof. ſ. 27.

Every perſon ſo licenſed, not reſiding within London or Weſtminſter, or within five miles of the ſame, or within the bills of mortality, ſhall, at ſuch times and places to be appointed as after mentioned, produce and deliver the accounts before directed for the weeks ending on the Saturday preceding ſuch delivery, and then unaccounted for, to the perſon authoriſed under the hands and ſeals of three of the commiſſioners for ſtamped vellum, &c. to receive ſuch accounts, and the money due thereon; and at the ſame time pay to ſuch perſon all money due upon ſuch accounts, under the penalty of 10 l. for every default in not delivering ſuch accounts, and double the amount of the money due for the duties, for nonpayment thereof. ſ. 28.

Every perſon ſo licenſed, ſhall enter in his weekly account, the tickets, notes, or certificates, iſſued by him, on the day day in which iſſued; and if any poſtmaſter ſhall date any of the poſting or day tickets, or any note by him delivered, in any other manner than as the ſame ſhall, at delivery, be entered in his weekly account, he ſhall forfeit forty ſhillings. ſ. 29.

Every poſtmaſter, who ſhall be guilty of any wilful concealment, or making falſe accounts, or any other fraudulent contrivance, with an intent to defraud his majeſty of the duties, ſuch poſtmaſter ſhall forfeit 50 l.; and the commiſſioners may, after judgment, refuſe any licence in future. ſ. 30.

Every poſtmaſter, who ſhall take the hire for ſuch horſes by the mile, or from ſtage to ſtage, ſhall be conſidered as the perſon to whom the duties ſhall be paid, and ſhall be chargeable with the ſame, as if he was the proprietor of ſuch horſes, although the ſame belong to any other poſtmaſter. ſ. 31.

No poſtmaſter, at whoſe inn any traveller ſhall change horſes, ſhall let to hire any horſe to ſuch traveller, in any other manner than by the mile or ſtage; and if any poſtmaſter ſhall act contrary hereto, he ſhall forfeit 10 l. ſ. 32.

Where any poſtmaſter cannot furniſh horſes to convey travellers on their journey, when applied to for that purpoſe, ſuch poſtmaſter ſhall iſſue to any traveller requiring the ſame, a freſh ticket filled up, and receive the duty, and charge himſelf therewith, in the ſame manner as if the horſes had been hired from ſuch poſtmaſter. ſ. 33.

Every toll-gate keeper is authoriſed to demand and receive from the collector appointed to get in the ſame, to whom he ſhall deliver the day and poſting tickets as after directed, three-pence for every pound which the duties upon ſuch tickets amount unto; and ſuch collector is to pay the ſame accordingly; and ſuch allowance ſhall be over the allowance hereby given to ſuch toll-gate keeper, of retaining the money by him collected from ſuch travellers who ſhall not have delivered the tickets to ſuch toll gate keeper. ſ. 34.

Every toll-gate keeper ſhall, for the compenſation aforeſaid, bring the tickets by him received, if within five miles of the head office for ſtamps, then to the ſaid head office, or to ſuch other place, within the bills of mortality, as the commiſſioners ſhall appoint; and if beyond the five miles, then to ſuch places, and at ſuch times, as the collector, appointed to collect ſuch tickets, ſhall require, and deliver up ſuch tickets to the collector. ſ. 35.

Every toll-gate keeper, who ſhall have received ſuch ſtamp-office tickets, who ſhall not bring ſuch tickets, ſhall, upon demand at the gate of ſuch turnpike, deliver ſuch tickets to the collector; and if any toll-gate keeper ſhall refuſe to deliver up all tickets received by him, he ſhall, for each ticket he refuſe to deliver up, forfeit five ſhillings. ſ. 36.

If any toll-gate keeper ſhall wilfully neglect to demand, or ſhall refuſe to receive, from any perſon, any ticket directed to be delivered, or ſhall neglect or refuſe to file the ſame when delivered, ſuch toll-gate keeper ſhall forfeit five pounds. ſ. 37.

In caſe any toll-gate keeper ſhall demand or receive, or agree to take any leſs money than he is authoriſed to receive, and retain to his own uſe, ſuch toll-gate keeper ſhall forfeit twenty ſhillings. ſ. 38.

It ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners on ſtamped vellum, &c. to erect bars acroſs any public road, for the receipt of the tickets, and to place a perſon thereat, who ſhall have the ſame power to collect the tickets iſſued, and to demand the money from travellers not ſhewing the ſame, as the turnpike men, and to be ſubject to the ſame penalties for any thing done contrary to this act, as the turnpike men are. ſ. 39.

Every poſtmaſter, not reſiding within five miles of the head office for ſtamps, nor within the bills of mortality, ſhall, at the times, and at the places to be mentioned at the foot of the firſt licence granted to him, when the ſame ſhall be delivered, and afterwards at the foot of every receipt given by the collector for the money paid in by him on account of the duties, attend and there deliver in and paſs his account, and pay the duty received to the collector: provided no ſuch perſon be compelled to travel for the payment of the duties, or other cauſe whatſoever, touching the ſame, if he live in a market town, out of the ſaid town; or if he live out of a market town, then to no other place than to the market town neareſt to his habitation. ſ. 40.

Nothing herein ſhall extend to any horſes uſed in hackney coaches, where the horſes ſhall be employed to go no greater diſtance than ten miles from the cities of London or Weſtminſter, and the ſuburbs thereof. ſ. 41.

Every horſe hired by the mile, ſhall be deemed to be hired to travel poſt, although the perſon do not go ſeveral ſtages upon a poſt road, or change horſes; and although at the ſtage, at which ſuch horſes be hired, there ſhall not be any poſt-houſe; and although there ſhall not be any poſt ſettled on the road. ſ. 42.

If any poſtmaſter ſhall die, it ſhall be lawful for his executors, adminiſtrators, or other perſons ſucceeding to ſuch inn, to let horſes to hire in manner aforeſaid, until ſuch perſon ſhall procure ſuch licence, and give ſuch ſecurity as before directed, without being liable to the penalty inflicted on the perſons letting horſes to hire without being licenſed, provided ſuch licence be taken out within thirty days after the death of ſuch poſtmaſter; and ſuch perſon ſhall be ſubject to the ſame rules as ſuch poſtmaſter was ſubject. ſ. 43.

Every poſtmaſter ſhall, at delivering their accounts to the commiſſioners, or perſon appointed to receive the ſame, at the head office, or to the collector authoriſed to receive the ſame, and the money due thereon, make oath, or, being a quaker, make and ſubſcribe a ſolemn affirmation before ſuch commiſſioners, or other perſon appointed, or collector, to the truth of the accounts then delivered, in the form following:

I. A. B. do ſwear, (or affirm, as the caſe may require), that the ſeveral weekly accounts, now by me delivered, of the duties ariſing upon horſes, which I have let for the purpoſe of travelling poſt, or otherwiſe, from the ——— day of ——— to the ——— day of ——— as far as the ſame have been entered and kept by me, are fair, juſt, and true accounts; and that I have charged therein the duty for the true number of miles received for the uſe of his majeſty, from the travellers who have hired horſes from me; and that I have inſerted therein an account of all the day tickets, notes, and certificates iſſued by me; and as far as ſuch accounts have been entered and kept by any other perſon or perſons, I verily believe the ſame to be true.

So help me GOD.

And if any perſon, taking the ſaid oath or affirmation, ſhall thereby commit wilful perjury, he ſhall be ſubject to ſuch pains as perſons convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury are; and if any poſtmaſter ſhall refuſe to take the oath or affirmation, the collector may refuſe to receive the money due on ſuch accounts; and ſuch poſtmaſter ſhall be liable to the penalty of twenty pounds, as if they had not delivered in their accounts, and paid the money due thereon. ſ. 44.

If any perſon who ſhall keep any coach, or other carriage with four wheels, or any calaſh, or other carriage with two wheels, to be employed as public ſtage coaches, for conveying paſſengers for hire to and from different places within Great Britain, ſhall let out the ſame without having firſt obtained a licence under the hands of two of the commiſſioners, or ſome perſon authoriſed by them, he ſhall forfeit for every time ſuch carriage ſhall be uſed, 10*l.* ſ. 45.

Two commiſſioners, or ſome perſon authoriſed by them, ſhall grant licences, under their hands and ſeals, to any perſon who ſhall apply for the ſame to let out for hire any ſuch carriage, directed to be licenſed by this act, for one year, to commence from the day of the date of ſuch licences; which licence ſhall be renewed ten days previous to the expiration of the year for which it was granted; and if the perſon licenſed ſhall continue to let out for hire ſuch carriage, he ſhall renew ſuch licence from year to year, paying down the ſums due for ſuch licence, and ſo yearly as long as he ſhall continue to let out ſuch carriage, for the purpoſe aforeſaid. ſ. 46.

No perſon ſo licenſed, ſhall, by virtue of one licence, keep more than one coach, diligence, or other carriage, for the purpoſes aforeſaid. ſ. 47.

Every perſon ſo licenſed to uſe any carriages, to be employed as public ſtage coaches, ſhall pay to his majeſty one penny for every mile every ſuch coach ſhall be uſed to travel. ſ. 48.

Every perſon ſo licenſed to uſe ſuch carriages, to be employed as public ſtage coaches, ſhall, at the time of receiving ſuch licence, declare from, and to what place ſuch coach is intended to be uſed, diſtinguiſhing the number of miles between the two extreme places ſuch coach is intended to go, and the number of journies each coach is to be uſed, either in the day or in the week, as the caſe may happen to be, that the ſame may be inſerted in ſuch licence; and every perſon ſo licenſed, ſhall give ſecurity, by bond, to his majeſty, in twenty pounds, or in treble the ſum to which the duty for the journies inſerted in ſuch licences for one month would amount unto, in the option of the commiſſioners, with a condition for the faithful accounting for and paying ſuch ſums as may be due for the journies expreſſed in ſuch licences. ſ. 49.

All coaches directed to be licenſed, that ſhall go from London or Weſtminſter to any place in the country, or that ſhall come from the country to any place in London or Weſtminſter, ſhall be licenſed at the head office. ſ. 50.

The commiſſioners, or ſuch officers as they appoint, ſhall make ſuch allowances as appear juſt, to any perſon licenſed to uſe any coach as aforeſaid, upon oath made by the owner before the commiſſioners, or ſuch officers, as to the number of journies actually made in a day by ſuch coach, where the ſame ſhall differ from the number expreſſed in ſuch licences; which oath the commiſſioners, or the collector, are to adminiſter, and to examine into all the circumſtances relative to the number of journies made by ſuch coach; and the commiſſioners are hereby to make ſuch regulations, with reſpect to ſuch coaches, where ſuch allowances are applied for, as they find neceſſary, as well for ſecuring the duties, as doing juſtice to the owners thereof. ſ. 51.

Every perſon ſo licenſed to uſe ſuch coach as aforeſaid, ſhall mark or paint, on the outſide of each door, before he uſe the ſame, his chriſtian and ſurname, together with the name of the place from whence they ſet out, and to which they are going, in large characters, in letters of a colour diſtinct from the colour of the carriage, each letter one inch in length, under the penalty of 10*l.*; and every proprietor of ſuch coach, licenſed to go from London to any other place, or from any other place to London, ſhall, on the firſt Monday in every month, between eight in the morning and two in the afternoon, unleſs an holiday, and then on the next day, clear the duties, by paying the ſame to the receiver general, or to the officer for collecting the duties at the head office; and if ſuch proprietor ſhall be licenſed from any town in the country to any other town than London, then ſuch proprietor ſhall clear the ſaid duties, by paying the ſame to the perſon authoriſed, by commiſſion under the hands and ſeals of three commiſſioners, to receive the ſame, under the penalty of five pounds. ſ. 52.

Every licenſed proprietor of any coach, who ſhall diſcontinue the uſe of the ſame, ſhall give notice in writing, ſeven days before he diſcontinue, and ſhall have ſuch notice indorſed upon the back of his licence, or upon the bond given as aforeſaid, and from thenceforth, on payment of all arrears, ſhall be no longer chargeable for the ſame. ſ. 53.

The receiver general, and the other collectors appointed to receive the duties, ſhall make an allowance to the perſons licenſed to let horſes to hire, for all monies by them paid on account of the duties; and they may deduct, for their own uſe, three-pence in the pound, out of the monies by them accounted for and paid to ſuch receiver general, or collector. ſ. 54.

If any perſon ſhall falſely make, forge, or counterfeit, or cauſe to be falſely made, &c. or wilfully aid in the falſe making, &c. any ticket, note, or certificate by this act directed to be uſed; or ſhall utter as true, any falſe ticket, &c. with an intent to defraud his majeſty of the duties, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 50*l.* ſ. 55.

All penalties hereby impoſed ſhall be divided (if proſecution be commenced within ſix months), one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety, with full coſts, to the perſon who ſhall inform and ſue. ſ. 56.

All penalties which ſhall amount to 50*l.* ſhall be ſued for in any court at Weſtminſter, for offences committed in England and Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, and in the court of ſeſſions, court of juſticiary, or court of exchequer in Scotland, for offences committed in Scotland, by action of debt, &c. ſ. 57.

Such diviſion of the penalties ſhall be confined to the proſecuting for the ſame within the time before limited; and in default of ſuch proſecution within the time aforeſaid, no informer ſhall have any part of ſuch penalties, but the whole thereof ſhall belong to his majeſty, and ſhall be recoverable by information, at the inſtance of the attorney general, or lord advocate of Scotland. ſ. 58.

It ſhall be lawful for any juſtice near the place where the offence be committed, to determine any offence againſt this act which ſubjects the offender to any penalty, not amounting to 50*l.*; which ſaid juſtice is, upon information, to ſummon the party accuſed, and alſo the witneſſes on either ſide, and ſhall examine into the matter of fact; and, upon proof thereof, either by confeſſion of the party, or by oath of one witneſs, to give judgment for the penalty, and to iſſue his warrant, under hand and ſeal, for the levying any penalties ſo adjudged on the goods of the offender, and to cauſe ſale to be made thereof, in caſe they be not redeemed within ſix days, rendering to the party the overplus (if any); and where the goods be not ſufficient to anſwer the penalty, to commit ſuch offender to priſon, for ſix months, unleſs ſuch penalty be ſooner paid; and any perſon aggrieved by the judgment of ſuch juſtice, may (upon on giving ſecurity to the amount of the penalty, together with ſuch coſts as ſhall be awarded in caſe judgment ſhall be affirmed) appeal to the next general quarter ſeſſions, who are to ſummon and examine witneſſes upon oath, and finally determine the ſame; and in caſe the judgment ſhall be affirmed, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtices to award the perſon to pay coſts: if the next general quarter ſeſſions ſhall fall within ſix days after conviction, the perſon convicted, if he think fit, giving ſuch ſecurity, may appeal to the next ſubſequent quarter ſeſſions. ſ. 59.

If any perſon ſummoned as a witneſs to give evidence before ſuch juſtice, either on the part of the proſecutor, or perſon accuſed, ſhall neglect or refuſe to appear, without a reaſonable excuſe for ſuch neglect, to be allowed of by ſuch juſtice, or appearing ſhall refuſe to be examined on oath and give evidence, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 40*s.* to be levied by ſuch means as are before directed. ſ. 60.

All ſummonſes, iſſued by any juſtice, againſt the owners of any coaches required to be licenſed, that ſhall be left at the inn where the carriage ſhall put up, with the book-keeper, ſhall be good ſervice on the owners, although ſuch owners ſhall not have a reſidence in ſuch inn. ſ. 61.

"Receiver general of ſtamp duties to pay the duties "granted by this act into the exchequer. Auditor to keep "ſeparate account thereof." ſ. 64.

Perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue, and if the plaintiff become nonſuited, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 67.

By 27 Geo. 3. c. 26. It ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners of the treaſury, or three of them, either by themſelves, or the commiſſioners for managing the duties on ſtamped vellum, &c. duly authoriſed for that purpoſe, under the hands and ſeals of the commiſſioners of the treaſury, or three of them, to let to farm the duties of 1½*d. per* mile, and 1*s.* 9*d. per* horſe, to ſuch perſons as ſhall be willing to farm the ſame, according to the regulations after preſcribed. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners of the treaſury, or three of them, to fix ſuch particular diſtricts as ſhall appear to them moſt proper, for the purpoſes of farming out the duties ſeparately in each diſtrict to the beſt advantage. ſ. 2.

One month's notice at leaſt ſhall be given by the commiſſioners of the treaſury, or commiſſioners on ſtamped vellum, &c. in the London Gazette, of the time and place of letting the duties, ſpecifying the diſtricts, and the ſum at which it is propoſed to put up the ſame, and alſo the place into which propoſals for farming the ſame ſhall be delivered. ſ. 3.

No propoſals ſhall be proceeded on, unleſs the ſame are delivered in at leaſt three days previous to the day appointed in the Gazette, ſigned with the names of the parties, ſtating the places of their abode, who intend to become bidders, and ſpecifying the diſtrict for which they bid. ſ. 4.

The commiſſioners of the treaſury, or three of them, or the commiſſioners on ſtamped vellum, &c. ſhall let the ſaid duties ariſing within any ſuch diſtrict, for not exceeding three years, and the ſame ſhall be put up at a rent not leſs than the groſs amount which they ſhall appear to have produced within the year ending 1ſt Auguſt 1786; and the bidding for the ſame ſhall be conducted under ſuch regulations as ſhall be eſtabliſhed by the commiſſioners of the treaſury, or by the commiſſioners on ſtamped vellum; and the perſon who ſhall be the higheſt bidder ſhall be the farmer of the ſaid duties, for three years, or ſuch other ſhorter term as may be determined on, and as ſhall be inſerted in the Gazette, and ſhall forthwith execute a contract, to be prepared in purſuance of this act, and give ſecurity by bond to his majeſty, with three ſureties, for payment to his majeſty, of the money or yearly rent contracted for; the ſaid rent to be paid into the hands of the receiver general of ſtamp duties, at the head office, in equal portions, by eight payments in the year: viz. on 15th Sept. 1ſt Nov. 16th Dec. 1ſt Feb. 16th March, 1ſt May, 16th June, and 1ſt Auguſt, in every year, unleſs any of the days ſhall be on a Sunday, and then the next day thereafter; the firſt payment to be made on executing the contract, and continue to be made on every ſucceeding day of payment in each year, during the continuance of the contract, and before the expiration of the term for which the duties ſhall have been let to farm. ſ. 5.

In every contract entered into in purſuance of this act, there ſhall be inſerted a clauſe, declaring that the ſame ſhall be made void on any reſolution made by the houſe of commons, upon ſix months notice being given by the commiſſioners of the treaſury, to any perſon entering into ſuch contract. ſ. 6.

In caſe any of the diſtricts fixed on, ſhall not be let to farm at the time fixed by ſuch advertiſement, for want of offers, the commiſſioners of the treaſury, or the commiſſioners of ſtamps, may fix a future day for letting ſuch diſtricts in manner, &c. and upon the notice before provided. ſ. 7.

The commiſſioners of the treaſury, or the commiſſioners on ſtamped vellum, &c. upon any contract being entered into, and bond given, ſhall deliver to the perſon farming ſuch duties, and executing ſuch contract, authority, under the hands and ſeals of three of them, appointing ſuch perſons ſons to be the collectors of the duties let to them, and authoriſing ſuch perſon farming the duties to take ſecurities by bonds from the perſons licenſed, in the name of his majeſty, with ſuch conditions as are required by the recited act, and to excute all powers, touching the collecting, managing, or accounting for the ſaid duties farmed to them, within their diſtrict, as fully as the collectors, appointed by the commiſſioners, under the ſaid act are impowered to do. ſ. 8.

It ſhall be lawful for the perſon farming the duties, with the conſent of the commiſſioners on ſtamped vellum, &c. to vary the mode of keeping the weekly account, directed by the recited act to be kept by the perſons who let out horſes to hire for travelling poſt, or by time, in ſuch manner as they ſhall judge moſt convenient for keeping the accounts; and they may, by any indorſement, or on the face of the tickets or certificates to be delivered by them to the licenſed perſons, add the name or number of the diſtrict which they farm; and any perſon forging the ſaid tickets, or aiding therein, or uttering as true any falſe ticket, note, or certificate, with an intent to defraud the farmers, ſhall forfeit 50*l.* to be recovered and applied as other penalties are by the ſaid act directed to be recovered and applied. ſ. 9.

All powers, forfeitures, and directions, preſcribed by the ſaid act, with relation to the duties, or to the perſons appointed to collect the ſame, and not hereby altered, ſhall be in full force, and carried into execution by the perſons farming the ſame, and appointed collectors thereof by the commiſſioners, as fully as if the ſame had been re-enacted; and the ſaid perſons farming the duties ſhall have all remedies for recovery of the money payable for the ſaid duties within their reſpective diſtricts, as the collectors appointed by the commiſſioners for ſtamped vellum, &c. now are entitled to have. ſ. 10.

All ſecurities, bonds, or obligations, taken by the perſons farming the duties from ſuch licenſed perſons under this or the ſaid act, ſhall be taken in the name of his majeſty, and ſhall be proſecuted in the name of his majeſty, with the conſent of the attorney general in England, or advocate general in Scotland; and all actions, or informations, proſecuted for any penalty forfeited by this or the ſaid act, ſhall be proſecuted in the name of his majeſty, or in the name of the attorney general, or advocate general, or by any perſon who ſhall proſecute in the manner in the ſaid act directed: provided, all actions, &c. proſecuted in the name of any farmer, ſhall be deemed to be popular actions. ſ. 11.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon farming the duties to uſe the like remedies for recovery thereof, againſt the perſons appointed to receive the ſame, by extent or otherwiſe, which may be uſed for any duties payable directly to the king. ſ. 12.

The duties ſhall belong, and the tickets iſſued thereupon ſhall be returned and accounted for to the perſons who ſhall be the farmers of the duties ariſing within the diſtrict where ſuch tickets ſhall have iſſued, and where the licenſed perſons iſſuing the ſame ſhall reſide; and the gatekeepers at whoſe gates ſuch tickets ſhall be delivered, ſhall return the ſame to the farmer from whoſe diſtrict ſuch tickets ſhall have iſſued, at the time, and in the manner the ſame are directed to be returned to the collectors by the ſaid act. ſ. 13.

Every perſon licenſed, reſiding in London or Weſtminſter, or within five miles of the head office for ſtamps, or within the bills of mortality, ſhall bring in and deliver to the farmer ſo appointed collector of the duties, the accounts directed by the ſaid act to be delivered, and ſhall pay at ſuch place in London or Weſtminſter, and at ſuch times, as ſhall be appointed by public notice in the London Gazette, by order of the commiſſioners for the duties on ſtamped vellum, the money due on ſuch accounts; and every licenſed perſon, not reſiding within five miles of the head office, nor within the bills of mortality, ſhall, at the times, and at the places mentioned at the foot of the licence, and afterwards at the foot of every receipt given by the collector, attend, and there deliver in and paſs his accounts, and pay the duty received by him, to the perſon ſo appointed collector thereof, under the penalty in the ſaid act directed: provided, no ſuch licenſed perſon ſhall be compelled to travel, for the payment of the duties, farther than to the market town neareſt to his habitation. ſ. 14.

No perſon farming the duties, and appointed collectors thereof, ſhall, by ſuch appointment, be diſqualified from voting at any election of members to ſerve in parliament. ſ. 15.

No contract for letting the duties to farm ſhall be made with any perſon licenſed to let horſes for travelling poſt, nor to any one for his uſe, or ſo as that he ſhall have any intereſt therein, but the ſame (if made) ſhall be utterly void; and if ſuch contract ſhall be aſſigned to any perſon as aforeſaid, or to any other perſon for his uſe, ſo that he ſhall have any intereſt therein, or benefit therefrom, ſuch aſſignment ſhall alſo be utterly void. ſ. 16.

Perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 17.

By 5 Geo. 3. c. 25. ſ. 2. It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty's poſtmaſter-general, and deputies, to take for the port and conveyance of letters, packets, and other things, carried to or from London, from or to any of the Britiſh dominions in America, and to or from any part of the ſaid dominions, from or to any other part thereof, according to the rates hereafter mentioned; the ſame being rated either by the letter, or by the ounce; viz.

For all letters from London to any port within the Britiſh dominions in America, and from any ſuch port unto London, for every ſingle letter 1 s.; double letter 2 s.; treble letter 3 s.; and for every ounce 4 s.; and ſo in proportion for every packet of deeds, writs, or other things.

For all letters conveyed by ſea from any port in the Britiſh dominions in America, to any other port within the ſaid dominions, for every ſingle letter 4 d.; double letter 8 d.; treble letter 1 s.; and for every ounce 1 s. 4 d.; and ſo in proportion for every packet of deeds, writs, or other things.

For the inland conveyance of all letters and packets to or from any chief or other poſt-office, within the Britiſh dominions in America, not exceeding 60 Britiſh miles diſtant from the office, for every ſingle letter 4 d.; double, 8 d.; treble, 1 s.; and for every ounce 1 s. 4 d.; and being upwards of 60 miles, and not exceeding 100, for every ſingle letter 6 d.; double, 1 s.; treble, 1 s. 6 d.; and for every ounce 2 s.; and being upwards of 100 ſuch miles, and not exceeding 200, for every ſingle letter 8 d.; double, 1 s. 4 d.; treble, 2 s.; and for every ounce 2 s. 8 d.; and for every diſtance not exceeding 100 ſuch miles beyond ſuch 200 miles, and for every ſuch further diſtance, for every ſingle letter 2 d.; double, 4 d.; treble, 6 d.; and for every ounce 8 d.; and ſo in proportion.—— And the deputy may take for every letter delivered from any veſſel, other than packet boats, 1 d. over the rates. ſ. 4.

By 27 Geo. 3. c. 9. The poſtmaſter-general and his deputy, for the uſe of his majeſty, may take, for the conveyance of letters and packets carried by packet boats, to or from the port of Milford Haven, or to or from any other convenient port in Great Britain, from or to Waterford, or from or to any other convenient port in Ireland, above all other rates payable for the conveyance of ſuch letters,

For every ſingle letter 6 d.
For every double letter 1 s.
For every treble letter 1 s. 6 d.
And for every ounce 2 s.

And ſo in proportion for every packet of deeds, &c.

No letter or packet, ſent by the poſt from or to London, to or from Waterford, by way of Milford Haven, ſhall be charged with an higher rate of poſtage than letters and packets ſent from or to London, to or from Dublin, by the way of Holyhead, are now rated. ſ. 2.

By 9 Ann. c. 10. There ſhall be one general poſt-office eſtabliſhed within the city of London, from whence all letters and packets may be ſent into any part of Great Britain and Ireland, or to North-America, the Weſt-Indies, or any other of her majeſty's dominions, or unto any other country beyond the ſeas; and one maſter of the poſt-office ſhall be appointed by the queen by letters patent, by the ſtile of her majeſty's poſtmaſter-general; which maſter and his deputies, and their ſervants and agents, and no other, ſhall have the receiving, carrying, and delivering, of all letters and packets to and from all places of Great Britain and Ireland, North-America, the Weſt-Indies, and other her majeſty's dominions, and alſo to and from all countries where he ſhall ſettle poſts or running meſſengers; except ſuch letters as ſhall concern goods ſent by common carriers of goods by carts, waggons, or pack-horſes, and ſhall be delivered with the goods without hire; and except letters of merchants, and maſters of ſhips or veſſels, of merchandize, or any lading therein, ſent on board ſuch ſhips, ſo as ſuch letters be delivered without hire; and except commiſſions, the return thereof, affidavits, writs, proceſs, or returns, iſſuing out of any court, and alſo letters ſent by private friends in their journey, or by meſſengers ſent on purpoſe. ſ. 2.

Nothing in the ſaid exception ſhall give authority to common carriers of goods, to receive or deliver any letters that do not concern goods in their carts, waggons, or on their pack-horſes, nor to any drivers of ſtage-coaches, nor to any owners of paſſage-boats ſailing between any part of Great Britain or Ireland, and any parts beyond the ſeas, nor to any paſſengers on board ſuch veſſels, nor to the owners of any veſſel paſſing on any river to and from any parts of Great Britain and Ireland, North-America, or the Weſt-Indies, or other her majeſty's dominions, although ſuch drivers, owners, &c. do not receive hire for the ſame. ſ. 3.

Such poſtmaſter-general ſhall be at liberty to keep one chief letter-office in the city of Edinburgh, and one other in the city of Dublin, and other chief offices in each of her majeſty's provinces in America, and in each of the Leeward-Iſlands. ſ. 4.

Such poſtmaſter-general ſhall take, according to the ſame rates, to or from any places beyond the ſeas, where poſts may hereafter be ſettled. ſ. 7.

All letters and packets directed to, or coming from, any of the foreign parts aforeſaid, and collected or delivered at any place between London and any of the ports from whence her majeſty's packet-boats ſhall ſail, or at which they may arrive with the foreign mails, ſhall pay the ſame rates as if they were conveyed in the mails to or from London. ſ. 8.

It ſhall be lawful for the poſtmaſter-general to ſet up croſs ſtages, and take for all letters which he ſhall convey in ſuch croſs ſtages, as alſo for all by or way-letters, the ſame rates, in proportion to the diſtances, as letters conveyed to and from London. ſ. 10.

It

It ſhall be lawful for ſuch perſons as the poſtmaſter-general ſhall appoint, to meaſure by the wheel, all roads, except ſuch roads where ſtages are already ſettled; and ſuch perſons ſhall cauſe ſurveys or books to be made for each of the kingdoms; one of each to be left with her majeſty's poſtmaſter-general in London, another of each to be left at the chief poſt-office in Edinburgh, another of each to be left at the chief poſt-office in Dublin. ſ. 11.

Such perſons authoriſed to meaſure the diſtances, ſhall be ſworn to perform the ſame to the beſt of their ſkill; which oath may be adminiſtered by any juſtice of peace, who ſhall make a certificate thereof, to be entered in the three general poſt-offices. ſ. 12.

Merchants accounts, not exceeding one ſheet, and bills of exchange, invoices, and bills of lading, ſhall be allowed without rate, and likewiſe the covers of letters, not exceeding one-fourth parth of a ſheet, ſent by way of Vienna, Marſeilles, Venice, or Leghorn, to or from Turkey. ſ. 13.

It ſhall be lawful for ſuch poſtmaſter-general and his deputies, to take of every perſon that they ſhall provide with horſes and furniture, or with horſes, furniture, and guide, to ride poſt, 3*d.* for each horſe-hire, for every mile, and 4*d.* for the guide for every ſtage; and the deputies ſhall not charge any perſon, riding poſt, for the carrying of any bundle carried along with them, ſo as any ſuch bundle do not exceed 80 lb. averdupois, to be laid on the horſe rid by the guide and no deputy ſhall be obliged to carry above that weight. ſ. 14.—Qu. as to this clauſe; the excluſive power of poſtmaſters to furniſh horſes to travel poſt, being taken away by 22 Geo. 2. c. 25. ſee page 352. poſt. and alſo by 25 Geo. 3. c. 51.—See the Title Post Horses, ante.

All letters and packets that by any ſhip ſhall be brought to any port within her majeſty's dominions (other than letters before excepted) ſhall be delivered to the deputies only of ſuch poſtmaſter-general, to be ſent poſt to the general poſt-office, upon pain of 5*l.* for every offence againſt this act. ſ. 15.

Every maſter, or other perſon, for every letter or packet he ſhall deliver unto ſuch deputies, ſhall receive 1*d.* he ſigning a certificate of the number of letters delivered, and by what veſſel they came, and of the time when he delivered the ſame, and giving a receipt for ſuch pence; which certificate and receipt ſhall be, by the next poſt, returned to the poſtmaſter-general, together with the letters. ſ. 16.

No perſon, &c. in Great Britain and Ireland, or her majeſty's plantations in the Weſt Indies and America, other than ſuch poſtmaſter-general and his deputies, ſhall receive, carry, or deliver, any letter or packet (other than as before excepted), or employ any foot-poſt, horſe-poſt, boat, or conveyance, for carrying letters or packets; on pain of 5*l.* for every offence, and 100*l.* for every week. ſ. 17.

If any deputy-poſtmaſter ſhall not duly account for all by or way-letters, or ſhall not on his poſt-bills mention all the by or way-letters he ſhall receive, or ſhall embezzle any ſuch by-letters or packets, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit as the perſons herein prohibited ſetting up other poſts. ſ. 18.

The ſaid penalties ſhall be recovered in any of her majeſty's courts of record; the one moiety to her majeſty, and the other to ſuch perſons who ſhall ſue; and ſuch perſon informing ſhall have coſts. ſ. 19.

Nothing herein ſhall prohibit the carrying of letters to or from the next poſt ſtage, above ſix miles from the general poſt-office, or the chief offices of Edinburgh and Dublin. ſ. 22.

Nothing herein ſhall give licence to any perſon to make collection of letters in or near London, under pretence of conveying the ſame to any places in the ſaid city, or to the general office, without the licence of the poſtmaſter-general. ſ. 23.

If the mail ſhall be carried out of Great Britain, beyond the ſeas, in any ſhip which is not a free ſhip, and navigated as by law, the poſtmaſter-general ſhall forfeit 100*l.* one moiety to her majeſty, and the other moiety to him who ſhall ſue for the ſame in any court of record. ſ. 24.

Such poſtmaſter-general, and all officers under him, within England, receiving the ſacrament, and taking the teſt, and the oaths of allegiance and ſupremacy, and abjuration, as appointed by law, ſhall be qualified to execute their employments throughout all her majeſty's dominions; and all deputies acting under ſuch poſtmaſter-general within Scotland, taking the oaths of allegiance and abjuration, and ſubſcribing the ſame, with the aſſurance appointed by any laws of Scotland or of Great Britain, ſhall be qualified to exerciſe their employments throughout the whole united kingdom, and all other her majeſty's dominions. ſ. 25.

A poſt ſhall twice every week come by way of Truro and Penryn to Penzance, in Cornwall; and once a week to Kendall, by way of Lancaſter; and to Penrith in Cumberland, by way of Newcaſtle and Carliſle; and to Lincoln and Grimſby. ſ. 26.

The poſtmaſter-general and his deputies ſhall obſerve ſuch orders for the ſettlement of poſts and ſtages, as her majeſty ſhall make. ſ. 27.

No perſon ſhall have power to take any horſes for the ſervices mentioned in this act, without conſent of the owners. ſ. 28.

No deputy of ſuch poſtmaſter-general, travelling with any mail, ſhall pay for paſſing any ferry in North America, but ſuch ferryman ſhall, within one half hour after demand, convey ſuch deputies, on pain of forfeiting 5*l.*, to be recovered in any court of record in North America; one moiety to her majeſty towards the ſupport of the government of the provinces, and the other to the poſtmaſter-general, who ſhall ſue for the ſame, with coſts. ſ. 29.

All ſums not exceeding 5*l.* that ſhall be due for letters, or which ſhall be received for the port of letters, without paying the monies to the receiver-general of the ſaid revenues for her majeſty's uſe, ſhall be recovered before juſtices of peace, in the ſame manner as ſmall tithes are by the laws of England; and ſuch debt ſhall be preferable in payment before any debt to a private perſon. ſ. 30.

All inland letters, ſent by any packet-poſt, ſhall pay the rates before mentioned, at ſuch ſtages at which they are delivered, unleſs the party that doth put in the letters deſireth to pay elſewhere; and unleſs ſuch letters are directed on board any ſhip, or to any perſon in the army, or are ſent by the penny-poſt, and unleſs they be letters going out of Great Britain, which have uſually paid the rates in England. ſ. 31.

This act ſhall not be prejudicial to the privileges of the univerſities of Oxford and Cambridge. ſ. 32.

It ſhall be lawful for the poſtmaſter-general, &c. to continue by-bags for by-letters, accounting to the receiver-general. ſ. 33.

The weekly ſum of 700*l.* out of the duties ariſing by this act, ſhall be paid by the poſtmaſter-general, the receiver-general, or ſuch perſon who ſhall have the receipt of the

ſaid duties, into the receipt of the exchequer, upon Tueſday, if not a holyday, &c. ſ. 35.

The poſtmaſter-general ſhall cauſe an account to be kept by an accountant-general, of the monies ariſing by this act, and the receiver-general ſhall, out of the monies ſo ariſing, make the ſaid weekly payments into the exchequer; and if the poſtmaſter-general neglect to keep ſuch accountant-general, or if ſuch accountant-general neglect to keep a juſt account, or if ſuch receiver-general neglect to make ſuch weekly payments, or if any of them, or any other officer of the ſaid duties, ſhall miſapply any of the monies which ſhould make good the ſaid weekly payments, contrary to this act, they ſhall forfeit their offices, and be incapable to ſerve the queen in any place of truſt or profit, and ſhall be liable to pay double the value of the money miſapplied, to any perſon who ſhall be grieved. ſ. 36.

There ſhall be kept in the office of the auditor of the receipt, one book, in which all the monies paid weekly out of the ſaid duties ſhall be entered. ſ. 37.

The ſaid weekly ſum of 700 l. ſhall be paid into the exchequer, with perference to all other payments; and the duties ariſing by this act (after deduction of the ſaid weekly payments) ſhall be ſubject to ſuch annuities and other incumbrances, which by any act of parliament were charged upon the revenues of the poſt-office, granted by the former acts hereby repealed. ſ. 38.

No perſon ſhall willingly open, detain, or delay, any letter or packet, after the ſame is delivered into the poſt-office, or into the hands of any perſon employed for receiving or carrying poſt-letters, and before delivery to the perſons to whom they are directed, or for their uſe, except by warrant from one of the principal ſecretaries of ſtate, for every ſuch opening, detaining, or delaying; or except where the party to whom ſuch letter, &c. ſhall be directed, ſhall refuſe to pay the ſame; and except letters returned for want of true directions, and where the party cannot be found; and every perſon offending in manner aforeſaid, or who ſhall embezzle any ſuch letters or packets, ſhall forfeit 20 l. the ſaid penalties for ſuch offence committed in England, Wales, or Berwick, to be recovered in her majeſty's courts of record at Weſtminſter; and for any offence in Scotland, to be recovered in the court of ſeſſions or exchequer there, by ſuch perſons as will ſue for the ſame, with coſts; and every perſon ſo offending ſhall be incapable of having any office, truſt, or employment, in the poſt-office. ſ. 40.

No perſon ſhall be capable of the office of poſtmaſter-general, or any part thereof, or any other employment relating to the poſt-office, unleſs ſuch perſon ſhall firſt have taken the following oath before ſome juſtice of the peace for the county where ſuch perſon reſides. ſ. 41.

I A. B. do ſwear, that I will not wittingly, willingly, or knowingly, open, detain, or delay, or cauſe, procure, permit, or ſuffer, to be opened, detained, or delayed, any letter or letters, packet or packets, which ſhall come into my hands, power, or cuſtody, by reaſon of my employment in, or relating to the poſt-office; except by the conſent of the perſon or perſons to whom the ſame is or ſhall be directed, or by an expreſs warrant in writing, under the hand of one of the principal ſecretaries of ſtate, for that purpoſe; or, except in ſuch caſes where the party or parties, to whom ſuch letter or letters, packet or packets, ſhall be directed, or who is or are hereby chargeable with the payment of the port or ports thereof, ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay the ſame; and except ſuch letters or packets as ſhall be returned for want of true directions, or when the party or parties to whom the ſame is or ſhall be directed, cannot be found; and that I will not any way embezzle any ſuch letter or letters, packet or packets, as aforeſaid.

One third part of the ſurplus of the yearly produce, ariſing by the poſt-office, over 111,461 l. 17 s. 10 d. which was the amount of the groſs receipt of the duties ariſing by virtue of the former acts, for one year ended the 29th of September 1710, and over the 700 l. per week, ſhall be reſerved to the diſpoſal of parliament for the uſe of the public. ſ. 42.

Such part of the ſaid duties which is hereby veſted in her majeſty, her heirs and ſucceſſors, undeterminable, ſhall not be chargeable or grantable for any eſtate to endure longer than the life of ſuch king as ſhall make ſuch charge or grant; and all grants contrary to this act ſhall be void. ſ. 43.

No poſtmaſter-general or his deputies, or any perſon employed under him in the revenue of the poſt-office, ſhall, by word, meſſage, or writing, or in any other manner, endeavour to perſuade any elector to give, or diſſuade any elector from giving, his vote for the choice of any knight of the ſhire, citizen, burgeſs or baron, to ſerve in parliament; and every officer offending therein ſhall forfeit 100*l.* one moiety to the informer, the other moiety to the poor of the pariſh; to be recovered in any of her majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, or in the exchequer in Scotland, reſpectively; and every perſon convict on ſuch ſuit, ſhall become incapable of bearing any office or place of truſt under her majeſty. ſ. 44.

By 6 Geo. 1. c. 21. Bills of exchange, wrote on the ſame piece of paper with a letter, and alſo letters to ſeveral perſons wrote on the ſame piece of paper, ſhall be rated as ſo many diſtinct letters. ſ. 51.

The proviſo in 9 Ann. c. 10. ſ. 13. ſhall extend only to ſuch merchants accounts, bills of exchange, invoices, and bills of lading, as ſhall be ſent to or from the general poſt-office in London, to or from any parts beyond the ſeas, not within his majeſty's dominions; and all other merchants accounts, bills of exchange, invoices, and bills of lading, ſhall be rated as ſo many ſeveral letters. ſ. 52.

By 4 Geo. 2. c. 33. Nothing in the act 9 Ann. c. 10. ought to reſtrain any meſſenger of the penny-poſt, from taking for every letter originally ſent by the penny-poſt, which ſhall be delivered at any place out of London, &c. 1 d. over and above the 1 d. paid on putting ſuch letter into the office.

By 22 Geo. 2. c. 25. The 9 Ann. c. 10. ſhall not reſtrain the letting out for hire, chaiſes or calaſhes with horſes, or to the furniſhing horſes for drawing chaiſes, &c. at any ſtage on any poſt road; and it ſhall be lawful for all perſons to let out for hire, as well on the poſt roads as elſewhere, chaiſes duly licenſed, with horſes to draw the ſame, and to furniſh or exchange horſes for drawing any ſuch chaiſes or calaſhes. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for all perſons who let out chaiſes, &c. with horſes for hire, to let horſes and furniture for horſing any perſon attending any perſon, who ſhall travel in chaiſes, &c. and to change ſuch horſes and furniture, ſ. 2.

Nothing herein ſhall ſtay or defeat any judgment or verdict obtained by virtue of the 9 Ann. c. 10. before the 25th of March 1749, or the proceedings thereon. ſ. 3.

By 26 Geo. 2. c. 13. Every writ and proceeding at law incloſed in a letter, or written on the ſame piece of paper, with with a letter, ſhall be paid for as a ſeveral and diſtinct letter, according to the rates mentioned in 9 Ann. ſ. 7.

For every ſingle letter or cover, containing one or more papers with patterns of cloth, ſilk, or ſtuff, or one or more ſamples or pieces of any other ſort of thing, if the ſame together do not weigh an ounce weight, the rates payable for a double letter ſhall be paid, and no more. ſ. 8.

By 4 Geo. 3. c. 24. No letters or packets ſent by the poſt, ſhall be exempted from poſtage, except all ſuch letters and packets as ſhall be ſent from or to the king; all letters and packets, not exceeding the weight of two ounces, ſent (within Great Britain or Ireland) during the ſitting of any ſeſſion of parliament, or within forty days before, or forty days after any ſummons or prorogation of the ſame, which ſhall be ſigned, on the outſide thereof, by any member of either of the two houſes of parliament of Great Britain, and whereof the whole ſuperſcription ſhall be of the hand-writing of ſuch member, or which ſhall be directed to any member, at his reſidence, or where he ſhall be at the time of the delivery thereof, or at the houſe of parliament, or the lobby of the houſe of parliament of which he is a member; all letters and packets directed to the lord high treaſurer or commiſſioners of the treaſury, or the ſecretaries to the treaſury; to the lord high admiral, or commiſſioners of the admiralty, or the ſecretaries of the admiralty; to his majeſty's principal ſecretaries of ſtate, or their under ſecretaries; to the commiſſioners for trade and plantations, or their ſecretary; to his majeſty's ſecretary at war, or the deputy ſecretary at war; or to his majeſty's lieutenant general, or other chief governor or governors of Ireland, and his or their chief ſecretary; his or their ſecretary for the provinces of Ulſter and Munſter in that kingdom, his or their ſecretary reſiding always in Great Britain; the under ſecretary and firſt clerk in the office in Ireland of the ſaid chief ſecretary, the firſt clerk in the office in Ireland of the ſaid ſecretary for the provinces of Ulſter and Munſter; or to his majeſty's poſtmaſter-general, or to the deputy of the poſtmaſter-general, for Scotland, for the kingdom of Ireland, or for his majeſty's dominions in America reſpectively; or to the ſecretary of ſuch poſtmaſter-general, or deputy of the poſtmaſter-general, or to the farmer of the bye and croſs road letters, or to any of the ſurveyors of the poſt-office; and all letters and packets ſent from any of the ſaid officers ſigned, on the outſide thereof, by ſuch officer, and whereof the whole ſuperſcription ſhall likewiſe be of the hand-writing of ſuch officer; and alſo except all letters and packets ſent from the treaſury, the admiralty-office, the office of his majeſty's principal ſecretaries of ſtate, the plantation-office, the war-office, or from the general poſt-office at London, or from any of the chief offices at Edinburgh, at Dublin, or in America, and which ſhall appear, by an indorſement made thereon, to be upon his majeſty's ſervice, and ſhall be ſealed with the ſeal of the office, or principal officer. ſ. 1. But part of this act is repealed by 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 1. c. 6. which ſee poſt.

It ſhall be lawful for the lord high treaſurer, or commiſſioners of the treaſury, the lord high admiral, or commiſſioners of the admiralty, his majeſty's principal ſecretaries of ſtate, the commiſſioners for trade and plantations, his majeſty's ſecretary at war, his majeſty's poſtmaſter-general, and the deputies of the poſtmaſter-general herein before mentioned, to authoriſe certain perſons in each of their offices, a liſt of whoſe names ſhall be tranſmitted to the general poſt-office in London, to make and ſubſcribe an indorſement upon each letter or packet on the public buſineſs of their offices, ſignifying that ſuch letter or packet is upon his majeſty's ſervice, and to ſeal the ſame; all which perſons are forbid ſo to indorſe and ſeal any letter or packet, unleſs they receive ſpecial direction of their ſuperior officer, or know the ſame to concern the buſineſs of their reſpective offices; and if any perſon employed in any of the ſaid offices, ſhall knowingly indorſe any letter or packet which does not concern the buſineſs of the office, he ſhall, for the firſt offence, forfeit 5 l. to be recovered as by 9 Ann. and, for the ſecond offence, ſhall be diſmiſſed from his office. ſ. 2.

The number of perſons appointed to make ſuch indorſement, ſhall not exceed two in one office, except only in the admiralty and war-office; and the admiralty-office ſhall not exceed eight in time of peace, or twelve in war; and the war-office ſix in peace, or ten in war. ſ. 3.

In caſe any perſon intitled to ſend letters or packets free of poſtage, being, by bodily infirmity, diſabled from writing the whole ſuperſcription, ſhall chuſe to appoint ſome one perſon, on his behalf, to ſign his name upon, and write the ſuperſcription, and ſhall cauſe notice thereof in writing, under his hand and ſeal, to be tranſmitted to the poſtmaſter-general; all letters and packets, ſo ſigned and ſuperſcribed by the perſon appointed, ſhall paſs free of poſtage. ſ. 3.

Nothing herein ſhall charge with poſtage, any printed votes, or proceedings in parliament, or printed newſpapers, being ſent without covers, or in covers open at the ſides, ſigned, on the outſide, by any member of parliament as heretofore practiſed, or which ſhall be directed to any member, at any place whereof he ſhall have given notice in writing to the poſtmaſter-general, or to his deputy at Edinburgh or Dublin reſpectively. ſ. 5. But by 9 Geo. 3. c. 35. ſuch votes, proceedings, and newſpapers, ſo ſent and directed, are to be ſent free of poſtage only during the ſitting of any ſeſſion of parliament, or within 40 days before, or 40 days after any ſummons or prorogation thereof. ſ. 6.

In the offices of his majeſty's principal ſecretaries of ſtate, and of his majeſty's poſtmaſter-general, it ſhall be lawful for clerks and officers, being thereunto licenſed by the principal ſecretaries of ſtate, or poſtmaſter-general, to continue to frank printed votes, and proceedings in parliment, and printed newſpapers, as heretofore ſent without covers, or in covers open at the ſides. ſ. 6.

Poſtmaſter-general, or officers employed under him, may examine and ſearch any packet ſent without a cover, or in a cover open at the ſides, to diſcover whether any other paper or thing be incloſed in or with ſuch printed paper, permitted to be ſent free of poſtage; and in caſe any other paper or thing ſhall be found incloſed, or in caſe there ſhall be any writing other than the ſuperſcription, ſuch packet ſhall be charged with poſtage. ſ. 7.

If any perſon ſhall counterfeit the hand-writing of any perſon whatſoever, in the ſuperſcription, in order to avoid the payment of the poſtage, he ſhall be deemed guilty of felony, and tranſported for ſeven years. ſ. 8.

By 5 Geo. 3. c. 25. No veſſel ſhall break bulk, or make entry in any port in the Britiſh dominions, until all letters and packets brought by ſuch veſſel, or any company, or paſſenger on board, ſhall be delivered to the deputies or agents of the poſtmaſter-general, to be forwarded, according to their directions; except ſuch letters, commiſſions, and other matters and things, as are excepted in the act 9 Ann. c. 10.; and alſo, except all ſuch letters and packets brought in any veſſel liable to perform quarantine; all which letters laſt mentioned ſhall be delivered, to the perſon appointed to ſuperintend the quarantine, that all precautions may be by him taken before delivery; and when due care has been had therein, the ſaid letters ſhall be diſpatched, in the uſual manner, by the poſt; and all maſters, mariners, paſſengers, and other perſons, neglecting or refuſing to deliver the letters, ſhall forfeit 20 l. to be recovered in any court of record, where the offence ſhall be committed; one moiety to his majeſty, and the other to ſuch perſon who ſhall inform, with full coſts of ſuit. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful for the poſtmaſter-general, and his deputy, to take for the port and conveyance of all letters and packets, paſſing and repaſſing by the poſt between England and Ireland, through Carliſle, Dumfries, Port Patrick, and Donaghadee, or other convenient ports in Scotland and Ireland, the ſame rates for Engliſh poſtage, according to the number of miles or ſtages ſuch letters are carried by the poſt in England, as alſo the ſame rates for Scotch poſtage, according to the number of miles ſuch letters are carried by poſt in Scotland, and moreover the ſame rates for packet poſtage between Port Patrick and Donaghadee, or other convenient ports in Scotland and Ireland, as likewiſe the ſame rates for Iriſh poſtage, according to the number of miles ſuch letters are carried by the poſt in Ireland, as are eſtabliſhed by the ſaid act 9 Ann. or this act. ſ. 7.

It ſhall be lawful for ſuch perſon as the poſtmaſter-general ſhall appoint, to meaſure by the wheel, all the poſt roads in Great Britain and Ireland, and other Britiſh dominions. ſ. 9.

Such perſons appointed to meaſure, ſhall be ſworn to perform the ſame according to the beſt of their ſkill and judgment; which oath ſhall be adminiſtered by any juſtice, who is to make certificates thereof in writing, to be entered, without fee, in the chief poſt offices in Great Britain, Ireland, and America; and moreover, ſuch perſon ſhall cauſe fair ſurveys or books to be made out: one of each whereof ſhall be left with the poſtmaſter-general in London, another at the chief poſt-office in Edinburgh, another at the chief poſt-office at Dublin, and another at each of the chief poſt-offices in America, to remain in the ſaid poſt-offices; each of which ſaid ſurveys or books ſhall be ſigned by the perſon making the ſame, who ſhall make oath of the truth of ſuch ſurveys, before any juſtice; and a certificate of his having ſworn to the truth thereof ſhall be ſigned by the poſtmaſter-general; which books ſhall determine the diſtances on all the poſt roads; and in caſe of any ſuſpicion of error or wrong admeaſurement, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid poſtmaſter-general to cauſe new ſurveys to be made. ſ. 10.

It ſhall be lawful for the poſtmaſter-general and his deputy to eſtabliſh an office, to be called The Penny Poſt-office, in any city or town, and the ſuburbs thereof, and places adjacent, within the kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Britiſh dominions in America, and to take the ſame rates for conveyance of letters and packets as may be taken by The Penny Poſt, within London and Weſtminſter, and Southwark. ſ. 11.

When ſuch penny poſt-offices ſhall be eſtabliſhed in ſuch cities or places, no perſon whatſoever ſhall make any collection of letters in or near ſuch city or places, without licence of the poſtmaſter-general, upon pain of incurring the forfeitures by 9 Ann. ſ. 12.

All letters brought by the inland or foreign poſt, to the general poſt-office in London, directed to any perſon beyond the delivery of the inland or foreign departments of the general poſt-office, and within the delivery of The Penny Poſt-office, ſhall be conveyed by the ſaid penny poſt-office; and it ſhall be lawful for any meſſenger carrying ſuch letters to take for the carriage and delivery, one penny, and no more, over the rates due to the general poſt-office. ſ. 13.

No letter, packet, or parcel, ſhall be conveyed by The Penny Poſt, if the weight ſhall exceed four ounces, other than ſuch letters as have firſt come to the general poſt-offices or ſhall be paſſing by The Penny Poſt, into the general. ſ. 14.

It ſhall be lawful for the poſtmaſter-general, and his deputy, to take for the port and conveyance of all letters and packets, ſent or conveyed from London to Hamburgh, or from Hamburgh to London, the ſame rates which by 9 Ann. are to be taken for letters paſſing from London to other parts of Germany. ſ. 15.

It ſhall be lawful for the ſaid poſtmaſter-general, and his deputy, if ſuch poſtmaſter-general ſhall deem it neceſſary, to cauſe the poſtage of all letters which are to be ſent out of the kingdom, to be paid upon their being put into any poſt-office. ſ. 16.

If any deputy, clerk, agent, letter carrier, or other officer, appointed and employed in the buſineſs of the poſt-office, ſhall ſecret, embezzle, or deſtroy any letter, packet, bag, or mail of letters, which he ſhall be entruſted with, or which ſhall have come to his poſſeſſion, containing any bank note, bank poſt-bill, bill of exchange, exchequer bill, South Sea or Eaſt India bond, dividend warrant of the bank, South Sea, Eaſt India, or any other company, ſociety, or corporation, navy or victualling bill, ſeaman's ticket, ſtate lottery ticket, goldſmith's note for the payment of money, or other bond or warrant, bill, or promiſſory note for the payment of money, or American provincial bill of credit; or ſhall ſteal and take out of any letter or packet that ſhall come to his poſſeſſion, any ſuch bank note, &c. with intent to ſecret, embezzle, or deſtroy the ſame; every ſuch offender ſhall be guilty of felony. ſ. 17.

If any perſon ſhall rob any of his majeſty's mails of any letter, or packet or bag, or mail of letters, ſuch offender ſhall be deemed guilty of felony, and ſuffer death as a felon. ſ. 18.

If any deputy, clerk, agent, letter carrier, or other ſervant, appointed and entruſted, to take in letters or packets, and receive the poſtage thereof, ſhall embezzle, or apply to his own uſe, any money by him received with ſuch letters for the poſtage thereof; or ſhall burn or otherwiſe deſtroy any letters or packets, by him received; or who, by virtue of their offices, ſhall advance the rates, and not account for the money received for ſuch advanced poſtage; every ſuch offender ſhall be deemed guilty of felony. ſ. 19.

If any poſt-boy or rider, having taken any of his majeſty's mails, or bags letters or packets, under his care, in order to convey the ſame to the next poſt town or ſtage, ſhall quit the ſame before his arrival at ſuch ſtage, or ſhall ſuffer any other perſon (the perſons employed to guard ſuch mail only excepted) to ride on the horſe or carriage along with the ſaid mails or bags; or ſhall loiter on the road, and wilfully miſpend his time, ſo as to retard the arrival of the ſaid mails or bags; or ſhall not, in all poſſible caſes, convey ſuch mails after the rate of ſix Engliſh miles an hour at the leaſt; every ſuch offender convicted, either by voluntary confeſſion, or the oath of one witneſs, before any juſtice, ſhall be ſent to the houſe of correction, and confined to hard labour for not exceeding one month, nor leſs than fourteen days. ſ. 20.

If any poſt-boy or rider ſhall, by himſelf, or in combination with others, unlawfully collect, or convey letters as aforeſaid, every ſuch offender ſhall, for every letter collected or delivered, forfeit 10*s.* to be paid to the informer; and if not paid upon conviction, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice to commit ſuch offender to the houſe of correction, to hard labour for not exceeding two months, nor leſs than one. ſ. 21.

"Clauſes in any other act, not hereby altered or repealed, "extended to this. ſ. 22."

All rates eſtabliſhed by this act, and all penalties and monies herein mentioned, ſhall be deemed to be ſterling money of Great Britain. ſ. 23.

The

The paymaſter-general of his majeſty's forces may ſend and receive letters, free of poſtage, in the ſame manner, and under ſuch reſtrictions, as other officers mentioned in 4 Geo. 3. c. 24.; and the clerk of the parliaments, and clerk of the houſe of commons of Great Britain, may ſend and receive letters, free of poſtage, as any member of parliament of Great Britain. ſ. 26.

Action againſt any perſon for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſhall be commenced within ſix months; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue, and may recover treble coſts. ſ. 27.

By 7 Geo. 3. c. 50. If any deputy, clerk, agent, letter-carrier, poſt-boy, or rider, or other officer or perſon whatſoever, employed in receiving, ſtamping, ſorting, charging, carrying, or delivering, letters or packets, or in any other buſineſs relating to the poſt-office, ſhall ſecrete, embezzle, or deſtroy any letter or packet, bag or mail of letters, which he ſhall be intruſted with, or which ſhall have come to his poſſeſſion, containing any bank note, bank poſt bill, bill of exchange, exchequer bill, South Sea or Eaſt India bond, dividend warrant of the bank, South Sea, Eaſt India, or any other company, ſociety, or corporation, navy or victualling or tranſport bill, ordnance debenture, ſeaman's ticket, ſtate lottery ticket or certificate, bank receipt for payment on any loan, note of aſſignment of ſtock in the funds, letter of attorney for receiving annuities or dividends, or for ſelling ſtock in the funds, or belonging to any company, ſociety, or corporation, American provincial bill of credit, goldſmith's or banker's letter of credit or note for the payment of money, or other bond or warrant, draught, bill, or promiſſory note whatſoever, for the payment of money; or ſhall ſteal and take out of any letter or packet that ſhall come to his poſſeſſion, any ſuch bank note, &c.; every ſuch offender ſhall be deemed guilty of felony, without benefit of clergy. ſ. 1.

If any perſon ſhall rob any mail, in which letters are ſent by the poſt, of any letter or packet, bag or mail of letters; or ſhall ſteal and take from any ſuch mail, or from or out of any bag, or from or out of any poſt-office, or place for the receipt or delivery of letters, any letter or packet; ſuch offender ſhall be deemed guilty of felony, without benefit of clergy. ſ. 2.

If any deputy, clerk, agent, letter-carrier, officer, or other perſon whatſoever, employed in any buſineſs relating to the poſt-office, ſhall receive into his poſſeſſion any letter or packet, to be forwarded by the poſt, and receive any money therewith for the poſtage thereof, ſhall burn or otherwiſe deſtroy any letter, &c. by him ſo received; or if any ſuch deputy, or other perſon ſo employed, ſhall advance the rate of poſtage upon any letter, &c. ſent by the poſt, and ſhall ſecrete, and not duly account for, the money by him received for ſuch advanced poſtage; every ſuch offender ſhall be guilty of felony. ſ. 3.

It ſhall and may be lawful for his majeſty's poſtmaſter-general, and his deputy, to receive, for the poſt and conveyance of all letters and packets carried or conveyed by packet-boats to or from the port of Whithaven, or any other convenient port in Great Britain, from or to the port of Douglas, or any other convenient port in the Iſle of Man (above all other rates) according to the rates hereafter-mentioned (the ſame being rated either by the letter, or by the ounce), viz.

For every ſingle letter, two-pence.
Double, four-pence.
Treble letter, ſix-pence.
And for every ounce, eight-pence.

And ſo in proportion for every packet of deeds, writs, and other things. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for the poſtmaſter-general to eſtabliſh poſt offices and poſt roads within the Iſle of Man, wherever it ſhall appear to him neceſſary; and ſuch poſtmaſter-general, and his deputy, may take, for the inland conveyance of all letters and packets conveyed by the poſt within the ſaid iſle, ſuch rates of poſtage, in proportion to the number of miles ſuch letters are carried, as now are eſtabliſhed to be paid for the inland conveyance of letters within England. ſ. 5.

All the clauſes in act 9 Ann. not repealed or altered by any ſubſequent law; and in act 6 Geo. 1. and in act 26 Geo. 2. ſo far as the ſame relate to the poſt-office; alſo in act 4 Geo. 3. and act 5 Geo. 3. and alſo in this preſent, or any other act relatng to the poſt-office, ſhall extend to the Iſle of Man. ſ. 6.

"Monies ariſing by the poſtage there, after all charges de-"ducted, to be applied as the preſent rates ofpoſtage. ſ. 7."

Actions againſt perſons for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſhall be commenced within ſix months; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the jury find for the defendant, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 8.

By 9 Geo. 3. c. 35. There ſhall be charged upon the revenues ariſing in the general letter-office or poſt-office, or office of poſtmaſter-general, 1500 l. per annum, which ſhall be payable thereout to his majeſty's principal ſecretaries of ſtate, in equal proportions, to be diſtributed by ſuch ſecretaries among the clerks in their offices quarterly. ſ. 5.

The clerk aſſiſtant, and the reading clerk of the houſe of peers, and alſo the clerk aſſiſtant and the chief clerk without doors of the houſe of commons of Great Britain, may ſend and receive letters free from poſtage in the ſame manner as any member of either houſe of parliament. ſ. 7.

By 22 Geo. 3. c. 70. The commander in chief of his majeſty's forces, and the ſecretary to the commander in chief, may ſend and receive letters and packets free of poſtage, in the ſame manner as other officers mentioned in 4 Geo. 3. are permitted. ſ. 1.

The ſaid commander in chief may authoriſe perſons, not exceeding two, in his office (a liſt of whoſe names ſhall be tranſmitted to the general poſt-office in London), to make and ſubſcribe an indorſement upon letters and packets, to be ſent by the poſt from his office, which ſhall concern the public buſineſs of his office, ſignifying that ſuch letters, &c. are upon his majeſty's ſervice; which letters, &c. ſo ſubſcribed, and ſealed with the ſeal of the commander in chief, or his ſecretary, may be ſent by the poſt free of poſtage.

If any perſon authoriſed to make and ſubſcribe ſuch indorſement, ſhall knowingly make the ſame, or procure the ſame to be made, upon any letter which does not really concern the buſineſs of the ſaid office, ſuch perſon ſhall, for the firſt offence, forfeit 5 l. to be recovered and applied according to 9 Ann.; and for the ſecond offence ſhall be diſmiſſed from his office. ſ. 3.

By 23 Geo. 3. c. 69. The adjutant-general of the forces, and the comptrollers of army accounts, may receive letters and packets free from the duty of poſtage, in the ſame manner, and under ſuch reſtrictions, as other officers mentioned in the ſaid act are thereby permitted, in reſpect of their offices, to ſend and receive the ſame in purſuance of the ſaid act.

By 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 1. c. 6. After the eſtabliſhment of a general poſt-office in Ireland, ſo much of 4 Geo. 3. as relates to letters and packets, printed votes, proceedings in parliament, and printed newſpapers, paſſing by the poſt free from poſtage, from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain, ſhall be repealed. ſ. 1.

Nothing herein ſhall deprive the poſtmaſter-general, and his deputies, of the poſtage and conveyance of letters and packets from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain, or prevent the ſaid poſtmaſter-general, &c. from demanding, and taking the rates by any act payable for the ſame. ſ. 2.

It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty's poſtmaſter-general, &c. to demand and receive, for the conveyance of all letters and packets for Great Britain, carried by the poſt within Ireland, in addition to the rates hereby reſerved, ſuch further rates as ſhall, upon the eſtabliſhment of a poſt-office in Ireland, be charged for conveyance of letters therein, by any act made by the parliament of that kingdom; and his majeſty's poſtmaſter-general ſhall account for and pay to the revenue of the poſt-office of Ireland, quarterly, ſuch poſtage ſo to accrue within Ireland, and to be received within Great Britain. ſ. 3.

Until the general poſt-office of Ireland ſhall have eſtabliſhed packet boats for the conveyance of letters, &c. from Ireland to Great Britain, there ſhall be allowed in account, from the general letter-office or poſt-office in Great Britain to the revenue of the poſt-office in Ireland, not exceeding 4000*l. per annum*, by quarterly payments, in lieu as well of the profits of the ſaid packets, as in compenſation for other purpoſes. ſ. 4.

The poſtmaſter-general of Great Britain, and all perſons in whom the buildings erected in Dublin, and known by the name of The General Poſt-office in Ireland, are veſted, ſhall, ſo ſoon as a poſt-office ſhall be eſtabliſhed in Ireland, by authority of the parliament of that kingdom, aſſign over and convey to the poſtmaſter-general of Ireland, for the uſe of his majeſty, without conſideration, all the ſaid buildings, and all right, &c. in and to the ſame. ſ. 5.

It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty's poſtmaſter-general to authoriſe perſons to ſend and receive printed votes, proceedings in parliament, and printed newſpapers, by the poſt, to and from Great Britain and Ireland, at one penny only for each printed vote and proceeding in parliament, and each printed newſpaper, over the printed price thereon, to be carried to the revenue of the poſt-office of Great Britain; and all printed votes and proceedings in parliament, and printed newſpapers, ſo ſent and received, ſhall be free from any other poſtage. ſ. 6.

Provided, that it ſhall be lawful for any perſon to ſend any printed votes, proceedings in parliament, and printed newſpapers, by the poſt, to and from Great Britain and Ireland, at one penny only for the carriage of each printed vote, &c.; ſuch printed votes, &c. when ſent, to be open at both ends; the penny required to be paid for the carriage of the ſame to be paid when put into the poſt-office; which printed votes, &c. ſhall be marked poſt paid, and the money received thereon ſhall be carried to the revenue of the poſt-office of Great Britain. ſ. 7.

By 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 8. After the eſtabliſhment of a general poſt-office in Ireland, it ſhall be lawful for certain perſons who, by virtue of their reſpective offices in Great Britain and Ireland, ſend and receive letters, free of poſtage, under 4 Geo. 3. or under any other act paſſed ſince the ſaid act, and for his majeſty's poſtmaſter general of Ireland, the ſecretary of the general poſt-office of Ireland, and the ſurveyors of the general poſt-office, and for the under ſecretary and firſt clerk for the military department of the office of the chief ſecretary of the lieutenant-general, or other chief governor of the ſaid kingdom, to ſend and receive, by the poſt, letters from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain, free of poſtage, on account of the poſt-office of Great Britain: provided all ſuch letters ſo ſent relate to the buſineſs of their reſpective offices, and there be certified, on the outſide of ſuch letters, under the hand-writing of ſuch officers, to be on his majeſty's ſervice; and ſuch letters ſhall be ſealed with the ſeal of the office or officer ſending the ſame: and in caſe ſuch officers ſhall receive, under cover to them, any letters intended for or directed to other perſons, ſuch officers are to ſend the ſame to the general poſt-office in London or Dublin, that ſuch letters may be charged with the poſtage; it being the meaning of this act, that the privilege of ſending and receiving letters by ſuch officers ſhall extend to ſuch letters only as relate to the buſineſs of their offices.

By 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 37. Whenever any foreign letter or packet, containing any incloſure, ſhall be received at any of the offices of the general poſt-office, it ſhall be lawful for any of the officers employed in the ſaid office to carry ſuch letter, &c. to any juſtice or magiſtrate, and to make oath before ſuch magiſtrate, that he ſuſpects the ſame to contain goods prohibited to be imported, or on the importation of which a duty is payable; and it ſhall then be lawful for him, in the preſence of the magiſtrate, to cut with a penknife in and through the folds of the ſaid letter, &c. and its incloſure, one opening or ſlit not exceeding two inches in length; and if it ſhall then appear to the ſaid magiſtrate that ſuch goods are contained therein, he ſhall proceed forthwith to open the ſaid letter, and ſhall immediately, in preſence of the officer, deſtroy ſuch goods; and in ſuch caſe, the magiſtrate ſhall incloſe ſuch letter in a cover, in which ſhall be written an atteſtation ſigned by him, containing the name of the officer by whom ſuch letter, &c. ſhall have been brought to him, the time of its being brought, and the quantity and deſcription of the goods found therein, and atteſting that the ſame were then by him deſtroyed; and ſhall deliver the ſaid letter, &c. ſo incloſed, and alſo ſealed by him, to the ſaid officer, to be by him forwarded to the commiſſioners of cuſtoms, who ſhall, on receipt thereof, cauſe to be paid to the ſaid officer not exceeding five pounds, nor leſs ten ſhillings. ſ. 4.

If, on making ſuch opening in ſuch letter, no ſuch goods ſhall be found therein, the magiſtrate ſhall then incloſe the ſame in a cover, with an atteſtation ſigned by him, that the opening was made in his preſence, and ſhall deliver the ſame, ſealed up, to the ſaid officer, to be tranſmitted by the ordinary courſe of the poſt to the perſon to whom ſuch letter, &c. ſhall have been directed when it was received at the poſt-office: but no additional poſtage ſhall be charged on ſuch letter, &c. in conſequence of theſe proceedings, nor ſhall any letter, &c. be detained thereby beyond the regular courſe of the poſt, except in caſes of the moſt urgent neceſſity. ſ. 5.

Nothing herein ſhall extend to alter, or affect the rates for letters paſſing by The Penny Poſt. ſ. 6.

No letter or packet, ſent by the poſt from Great Britain, directed by any member of either of the two houſes of parliament of Great Britain, ſhall be exempted from poſtage, unleſs the whole ſuperſcription upon every letter ſhall be of the hand-writing of the member directing the ſame, and ſhall have indorſed thereon the name of ſuch member, together with the name of the poſt town from which the ſame is intended to be ſent, and the day, month, and year when the ſame ſhall be to be put into the poſt-office, the day of the month to be in words at length, and the whole to be of the hand-writing of the member; and alſo unleſs ſuch letter ſhall be put into the general, or other poſt-office, or into any receiving houſe appointed by the poſtmaſter-general for the receipt of letters to be forwarded by the poſt, on the day of the date put upon ſuch letter; and no letters directed to any member of either of the two houſes of parliament of Great Britain ſhall be exempted from poſtage, unleſs ſuch letters as ſhall, during the ſitting of any ſeſſion of parliament, or within forty days before, or forty days after any ſummons or prorogation of the ſame, be directed to ſuch member at the place where he ſhall actually be at the time of the delivery thereof, or at his uſual place of reſidence in London, or at the houſe of parliament, or the lobby of the houſe of parliament, of which he is a member. ſ. 7.

The perſons who, by virtue of any act, are authoriſed, in right of their offices, to ſend and receive letters free from poſtage, may, during their continuance in ſuch offices, ſend and receive letters free from poſtage, in the ſame manner, and under ſuch reſtrictions, as any member of either houſe may ſend and receive the ſame in purſuance of this act; and may ſend and receive votes, proceedings in parliament, and printed newſpapers, free from poſtage, in the like manner as any member of either houſe may ſend and receive the ſame: provided nothing herein ſhall extend to the delivery of letters ſent by The Penny Poſt. ſ. 8.

If any perſon ſhall counterfeit the hand-writing of any perſon whatſoever, in the ſuperſcription of any letter to be ſent by the poſt, in order to avoid the payment of poſtage, or ſhall counterfeit or alter, or ſhall procure to be counterfeited or altered, the date upon the ſuperſcription of any ſuch letter, or ſhall write and ſend by the poſt, or cauſe to be written and ſent by the poſt, any letter, the ſuperſcription or cover whereof ſhall be forged, or the date upon ſuch ſuperſcription or cover altered, in order to avoid the payment of the poſtage, knowing the ſame to be counterfeited, or altered, ſuch perſon ſhall be guilty of felony, and be tranſported for ſeven years. ſ. 9.

The duties before granted ſhall be paid into the hands of the receiver-general of the poſt-office, who ſhall pay out of ſuch duties (the charges of collecting, paying, and accounting for the ſame being firſt deducted) the clear weekly ſum of 2300 l. into the exchequer, upon Tueſday in every week, if it be not an holiday, and if it be, then upon the next day that is not an holiday; the firſt of the ſaid weekly payments to begin on Tueſday the 30th Nov. 1784; and in caſe the duties hereby granted ſhall not be ſufficient to anſwer the ſaid weekly payments, the deficiency ſhall be ſupplied out of the whole receipt of the duties of poſtage; and in caſe the duties hereby granted ſhall be more than ſufficient to anſwer the ſaid weekly payments, the overplus ſhall be appropriated to ſuch uſes as the preſent duties of poſtage are. ſ. 10.

There ſhall be kept, in the office of the auditor of the exchequer, a book, in which all monies paid in weekly as aforeſaid, upon account of the ſaid duties, ſhall be entered ſeparate from all other monies payable to his majeſty; and the ſaid weekly payments ſhall be a fund for the payment of the ſeveral annuities and all ſuch other charges and expences as are directed to be paid and payable, purſuant to an act of this preſent ſeſſion of parliament, intituled, an act for raiſing a certain ſum of mony by way of annuities, and for eſtabliſhing a lottery. ſ. 11. See general title FUNDS.

Perſons proſecuted for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 12.

By 25 Geo. 3. c. 57. All carriages whatſoever, or horſes, employed in conveying from one part of this kingdom to another the mail or packet, ſhall be exempted from the payment of any tolls for the paſſage through any turnpike, toll-gate, or bar; and all turnpike keepers or toll collectors are to permit ſuch carriages and horſes to paſs, without demanding toll.

By 25 Geo. 3. c. 60. There ſhall be charged upon the revenues ariſing in the general letter-office or poſt-office, or office of poſtmaſter-general, 1000 l. per annum, which ſhall be payable thereout to his majeſty's principal ſecretaries of ſtate, in equal proportions, to be diſtributed by ſuch ſecretaries of ſtate among the clerks in their offices; which ſaid annual ſum ſhall be made in quarterly payments, to be computed from 5th July 1784; and the receiver-general of the poſt-office ſhall, upon any warrant under his majeſty's royal ſign manual, counterſigned by three of the commiſſioners of the treaſury, make ſuch quarterly payments to ſuch perſons as ſhall be appointed by ſuch ſecretaries of ſtate to receive their proportions of the ſaid ſum; ſuch perſons producing and delivering to ſuch receiver a receipt under the hands of of ſuch ſecretaries of ſtate, and which receipts ſhall be a full acquittance to ſuch receiver for the ſums mentioned therein. ſ. 28.

Prints and Engravings.

By 8 Geo. 2. c. 13. Every perſon who ſhall invent and deſign, engrave, etch, or work in mezzotinto or chiaro oſcuro, any hiſtorical or other prints, ſhall have the ſole right of printing the ſame for fourteen years, to commence from the day of the publiſhing, which ſhall be engraved with the name of the proprietor on each plate; and if any other perſon ſhall copy and ſell, in the whole or in part, by varying, adding to, or diminiſhing from the main deſign, or ſhall reprint, or import for ſale, any ſuch prints, without conſent of the proprietor in writing, ſigned in the preſence of two witneſſes, or, knowing the ſame to be ſo printed without conſent, ſhall ſell, or expoſe to ſale, ſuch prints without conſent as aforeſaid, ſuch offender ſhall forfeit the plates and all ſheets ſo printed, to the proprietors of ſuch original prints, who ſhall forthwith deſtroy and damaſk the ſame; and every ſuch offender ſhall forfeit 5 s. for every print found in his cuſtody, contrary to this act; one moiety to the king's majeſty, and the other moiety to any perſon that ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon, who ſhall purchaſe any plates for printing from the original proprietors, to reprint from the ſaid plates. ſ. 2.

If any action ſhall be brought for doing any thing in purſuance of this act, the ſame ſhall be brought within three months; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue. ſ. 3.

If any action ſhall be brought for any offence committed againſt againſt this act, the ſame ſhall be brought within three months after the diſcovery of ſuch offence. ſ. 4.

Whereas John Pine doth purpoſe to engrave a ſet of prints copied from pieces of tapeſtry in the houſe of lords, and his majeſty's wardrobe, and other drawings, relating to the Spaniſh invaſion in 1588, the ſaid John Pine ſhall be intitled to the benefit of this act, in the ſame manner as if he had been the inventor of the ſaid prints. ſ. 5.

By 7 Geo. 3. c. 38. All perſons who ſhall invent or deſign, engrave, etch, or work in mezzotinto or chiaro oſcuro, or, from his own work, deſign, or invention, cauſe to be deſigned, engraved, etched, or worked in mezzotinto or chiaro oſcuro, any hiſtorical print, or any print of any portrait, converſation, landſcape, or architecture, map, chart, or plan, or any other print whatſoever, ſhall have the benefit of 8 Geo. 2. c. 13. under the limitations aftermentioned.

All perſons who ſhall engrave, etch, or work in mezzotinto or chiaro oſcuro, or cauſe to be engraved, etched, or worked, any print, taken from any picture, drawing, model, or ſculpture, either ancient or modern, ſhall have the benefit of the ſaid act, and this act, for the term herein after-mentioned; and if any perſon ſhall engrave, print, and publiſh, or import for ſale, any copy of any ſuch print, contrary to this and the former act, every ſuch perſon ſhall be liable to the penalties in the ſaid act. ſ. 2.

All the penalties inflicted by the ſaid act, and extended to the caſes compriſed in this, may be recovered as by the ſaid act is appointed, with full coſts of ſuit. ſ. 5.

Provided, the party ſhall commence proſecution within ſix months after offence committed. ſ. 6.

The ſole right and liberty of printing and reprinting, intended to be ſecured by the former, and this act, ſhall be extended and veſted in the reſpective proprietors for 28 years, to commence from the day of firſt publiſhing of any of the works herein, and in the former act mentioned. ſ. 7.

Action for doing any thing in purſuance of this act, ſhall be brought within ſix months; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if a verdict ſhall be given for the defendant, he ſhall recover full coſts. ſ. 8.

By 17 Geo. 3. c. 57. If any engraver, etcher, printſeller, or other perſon, ſhall, within the time limited by the ſaid acts, or either of them, engrave, etch, or work, or cauſe to be engraved, &c. in mezzotinto or chiaro oſcuro, or otherwiſe, or in any manner copy in the whole, or in part, by varying, adding to, or diminiſhing from, the main deſign, or ſhall print, reprint, or import for ſale, or cauſe to be printed, &c. or ſhall publiſh, ſell, or otherwiſe diſpoſe of, or cauſe to be publiſhed, &c. any copy of any hiſtorical print, or any print of any portrait, converſation, landſcape, or architecture, map, chart, or plan, or any other print whatſoever, which ſhall be engraved, etched, drawn, or deſigned, in Great Britain, without the expreſs conſent of the proprietor thereof firſt had in writing, ſigned by him with his own hand, in the preſence of, and atteſted by, two witneſſes, then ſuch proprietor may, in a ſpecial action upon the caſe, to be brought againſt the perſon offending, recover ſuch damages as a jury on the trial of ſuch action, or on the execution of a writ of enquiry thereon, ſhall give, together with double coſts.

Priſons and pretended privileged Places.

Stat. Weſtm. 1. 3 Edw. 1. c. 3. Nothing ſhall be taken by the ſheriff or other for the eſcape of a felon, until it be judged an eſcape by the juſtices in eyre; and he that doth otherwiſe, ſhall reſtore as much to him that paid it, and as much to the king.

Stat. de frangen. priſon. 1 Edw. 2. ſt. 2. None ſhall have judgment of life or member for breaking of priſon only, except the cauſe for which he was impriſoned did require ſuch judgment, if he had been convicted thereupon.

By 1 Edw. 3. ſt. 1. c. 7. Of ſheriffs, &c. which have pained their priſoners, and compel them to become appealers, the juſtices of the one bench and of the other, and juſtices of aſſiſe and gaol-delivery, ſhall enquire of ſuch compulſion, puniſhments, and procurements, and hear the complaints of all that will complain in ſuch caſes by bill, and ſhall hear and determine ſuch plaints, as well at the ſuit of the party as the king's ſuit.

By 4 Edw. 3. c. 10. Sheriffs and gaolers ſhall receive thieves and felons, by the delivery of conſtables and townſhips, without taking any thing for the receipt; and the juſtices aſſigned to deliver the gaol ſhall hear complaints in ſuch caſe, and puniſh the ſheriffs and gaolers.

By 5 Edw. 3. c. 8. Perſons indicted of felonies, who have removed the indictment before the king, and there yielded themſelves, and all perſons appealed of felony, who after the exigent awarded have yielded themſelves before the king, ſhall be ſafely kept in priſon, according to the charge which the marſhals ſhall have of the juſtices: and if any marſhal do otherwiſe, at the complaint of every man, the juſtices ſhall do him right during terms; and in the end of the terms, the marſhals ſhall chooſe before the juſtices in what town they will keep ſuch priſoners at their peril; and in the ſame town they ſhall hire them houſes to keep ſuch priſoners at their own coſts; and there they ſhall keep them in priſon, and ſhall not ſuffer them to go wandering abroad, neither by bail nor without bail: and if any ſuch priſoner be found wandering out of priſon, and that be found at the king's ſuit, or at the ſuit of the party, the marſhals ſhall have half a year's impriſonment, and be ranſomed at the king's will: and the juſtices ſhall thereof make enquiry: and as to the marſhals, it ſhall be done within the verge that which reaſon will: and in caſe the marſhals ſuffer by aſſent ſuch priſoners to eſcape, they ſhall be at the law as before: and the king intendeth not by this ſtatute to loſe the eſcape, where he ought to have the ſame.

By 14 Edw. 3. c. 10. The gaols ſhall be rejoined to the ſheriffs, and the ſheriffs ſhall have the cuſtody of the ſame, as before; and they ſhall put in keepers, for whom they will anſwer. And if the keeper of the priſon, or under-keeper, by too great dureſs of impriſonment, and pain, make any priſoner to become an appellor againſt his will, and thereof be attainted, he ſhall have judgment of life and of member; and the king's juſtices before whom ſuch caſes ſhall happen ſhall enquire thereof.

By 1 Ric. 2. c. 12. No warden of the Fleet ſhall ſuffer any priſoner there being by judgment to go out of priſon by bail, nor by baſton, without making gree to the parties of that whereof they were judged, unleſs it be by writ or other command of the king; upon pain to loſe his office. And if ſuch warden be attainted, that he hath ſuffered ſuch priſoner to go at large, the plaintiffs ſhall have their recovery againſt the warden by writ of debt. And if any at the ſuit of the party judged to another priſon for debt, treſpaſs, or other quarrel, will confeſs himſelf by a fained cauſe debtor to the king, and by that means be judged to the priſon of the Fleet, the recognizance ſhall be received; and if he be not debtor to the king of record, his body ſhall be remanded to the priſon where he was before, till he hath made made gree to the party, and then he ſhall be ſent again to the Fleet till he hath made gree to the king of his recognizance.

By 13 Ric. 2. ſt. 1. c. 15. The king's caſtles and gaols ſhall be rejoined to the counties.

By 5 Hen. 4. c. 10. None ſhall be impriſoned by any juſtice of peace, but in the common gaol; ſaving to the lords and other, which have gaols, their franchiſe.

By 19 Hen. 7. c. 10. Every ſheriff ſhall have the cuſtody of the king's common gaols in the county where he is ſheriff, except gaols whereof any perſons or body corporate have the keeping, of eſtate of inheritance. Provided, that no ſheriff have the cuſtody of the gaols of the king's bench and marſhalſea.

By 14 Eliz. c. 5. It ſhall be lawful for the juſtices of peace of every ſhire at their quarter-ſeſſions, to rate every pariſh within the ſhire, for relief of the priſoners in the common gaol of the ſhire; ſo that the rate do not exceed 6*s.* 8*d.* by the week out of every pariſh. ſ. 37.

The juſtices of peace within any county ſhall not enter into any city, borough, or town corporate, where be juſtices of peace for ſuch city, &c. for the execution of this act; but it ſhall be lawful to the juſtices of peace, mayor, and other head officers of thoſe cities, &c. to proceed to the execution of this act, within their liberties. ſ. 38. See 12 Geo. 2. c. 29. ſ. 22. under title "County rates."

By 43 Eliz. c. 2. The juſtices of peace of every county or place corporate, in their general ſeſſions next after Eaſter, yearly, ſhall rate every pariſh to ſuch weekly ſum as they ſhall think convenient, ſo as no pariſh be rated above 6*d.* nor under a halfpenny, and ſo as the total ſum of ſuch taxation in every county, amount not above the rate of 2*d.* for every pariſh. ſ. 12.

If any perſon neglect to pay ſuch money, it ſhall be lawful for the churchwardens and conſtables, or in their default, for any juſtice of peace, to levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, and in default of diſtreſs, to commit ſuch perſon to priſon till he have paid. ſ. 13.

The juſtices of peace for the quarter ſeſſions, ſhall ſet down what money ſhall be ſent quarterly out of every county or place corporate, for the relief of the poor priſoners of the king's bench and marſhalſea, and alſo of ſuch hoſpitals and alms-houſes as ſhall be in the county, ſo as there be ſent out of every county, yearly, 20*s.* at leaſt, to each of the priſons of the king's bench and marſhalſea; which ſums to be aſſeſſed upon every pariſh ſhall be paid to ſuch two treaſurers, or to one of them, as ſhall be by the juſtices elected; the ſaid treaſurers to continue for one year, and then to give up their account at the quarter-ſeſſions after Eaſter, to ſuch others as ſhall be elected treaſurers for the ſaid county, city, &c. which treaſurers ſhall pay over the ſame to the lord chief juſtices of England, and knight-marſhal, or in default of the chief juſtice, to the ancienteſt juſtice in the king's bench; and if any churchwarden, or high conſtable, or his executors, ſhall fail to make payment, every churchwarden, his executors, &c. ſhall forfeit 10*s.* and every high conſtable, &c. 20*s.* to be levied by the treaſurers, by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, and employed towards the charitable uſes in this act. ſ. 14.

The ſurpluſage money remaining in the ſtock of any county ſhall, by diſcretion of the juſtices in their quarter-ſeſſions, be diſtributed for relief of the poor hoſpitals of that county, and of thoſe that ſhall ſuſtain loſſes by fire, water, or other caſualties, and to ſuch other charitable purpoſes, for the relief of the poor, as to the juſtices ſhall ſeem convenient. ſ. 15.

If any treaſurer elected, ſhall refuſe to take upon him the office, or to diſtribute or account, as ſhall be appointed by the juſtices; it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices in their quarter-ſeſſions, or in their default, for the juſtices of aſſize, to fine the treaſurer, not under 3*l.* to be levied by ſale of his goods, and to be proſecuted by any two juſtices of peace whom they ſhall authoriſe. ſ. 16.

By 3 Jac. 1. c. 10. Continued indefinitely by 3 Car. 1. c. 4. and 16 Car. 1. c. 4. All perſons that ſhall be committed to the common gaol within any county or liberty, by any juſtice of peace, having ability thereunto, ſhall bear their own charges for conveying them to the gaol, and the charges of ſuch as ſhall be appointed to guard them. And if any ſuch perſon ſhall refuſe to defray the ſaid charges, ſuch juſtices ſhall give warrant to the conſtables of the hundred or townſhip, to ſell ſuch goods of the ſaid perſons, as by the diſcretion of the juſtice, ſhall ſatisfy the charges, the appraiſement to be made by four inhabitants of the pariſh where ſuch goods ſhall be. ſ. 1.

If any ſuit ſhall be brought for taking any diſtreſs, or any other act by authority of this act, the defendant may either plead not guilty, or make avowry, cognizance, or juſtification, for the taking of the ſaid diſtreſſes, &c. alledging that the ſaid diſtreſs, &c. was done by authority of this act, and according to the effect of this act, without expreſſing any other matter of circumſtance; to which avowry, &c. the plaintiff ſhall reply, that the defendant did take the ſaid diſtreſs, &c. of his own wrong, without any ſuch cauſe, &c. whereupon iſſue ſhall be joined; and after ſuch iſſue tried for the defendant, or nonſuit of the plaintiff, after appearance, the defendant to recover treble damages, with coſts to be aſſeſſed by the ſame jury, or writ to enquire. ſ. 3.

By 13 Car. 2. ſt. 2. c. 2. Every perſon who ſhall have cauſe of perſonal action againſt any priſoner in the Fleet, may ſue forth an original writ; and a habeas corpus ſhall be granted to ſuch plaintiff, directed to the warden of the ſame priſon, to have the body of ſuch priſoner before the juſtices of the common pleas, at ſome certain day in term, to anſwer the plaintiff; and if the plaintiff at the ſaid day put into court his declaration againſt the priſoner being preſent at the bar, the priſoner ſhall be bound to appear in perſon, or to put in attorney to appear for him; and unleſs the defendant plead upon a rule given to be out at eight days at leaſt after ſuch appearance, judgment, by nihil dicit, may be entered againſt ſuch defendant as appearing in perſon, and ſuch priſoner ſhall not be diſcharged without a ſuperſedeas or rule of court; and if the warden do otherwiſe, he ſhall be reſponſible to the court, and to the party grieved for damages, by action upon the caſe. ſ. 5.—This act not to extend to popular actions, &c. See ſ. 11. under ERROR.

By 19 Car. 2. c. 4. The juſtices of peace at their general ſeſſions may provide ſtock for ſetting poor priſoners on work, in ſuch manner as other county charges are raiſed; and provide perſons to overſee ſuch priſoners, and make orders concerning the premiſes, and for beſtowing the profit ariſing by the labour of the priſoners for their relief. Provided that no pariſh be rated above 6*d.* by the week. ſ. 1.

Any ſheriff, or perſons who have the cuſtody of the gaol, with the conſent of three juſtices of peace, whereof one of the quorum, may, upon emergent occaſions, provide other ſafe places, for the removal of ſick or other perſons from the ordinary gaols. Provided no place be made uſe of for the purpoſe aforeſaid againſt the will of the owners. ſ. 2.

The mayor, and other head officer, or any other person who hath the custody of the gaol, within any corporation, shall, with the advice of three justices within the corporation, whereof one of the quorum, in time of infection, have the like power for removing their prisoners to some other place within their jurisdiction, and also to raise a stock. s. 3.

The sum of 2000*l.*, provided for the purpose aforesaid, for the county of Devon, shall be laid out in lands, and an overseer therein placed, removeable by order of session, who shall have 50*l. per annum*, and 10*l.* for his deputy, but no fees of the prisoners; and the justices may, by approbation of the ordinary, appoint a minister to read divine service, and allow him 30*l. per annum*; any person charged with such offence only for which clergy is allowable, if needy, may, by the justice of peace, be committed to the work-house in order to his trial; and any person indigent may, by warrant of three justices, whereof one of the quorum, be removed from the common gaol to the said house; all which prisoners shall be in custody of the overseer, and conveyed to the gaol delivery, as the prisoners in other gaols. s. 4.

The prisoners, by order from the sessions or gaol delivery, may, in order to their trials, be removed to the common gaol. The overseer shall give security for the stock. s. 5.

Saving to the king, &c. all rights, &c. s. 6.

By 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 20. If any under-sheriff, bailiff, serjeant at mace, or other officer, shall have in his custody any person by virtue of any writ, process, or other warrant, it shall not be lawful for such officer to carry the person to any tavern, ale-house, or public victualling or drinking-house, without the consent of the person, so as to charge such prisoner for any wine, beer, ale, victuals, tobacco, or other things, but what he shall call for of his own accord; and shall not demand or receive any greater sum than by law ought to be taken for such arrest, or waiting until such person have procured an appearance, found bail, agreed with his adversaries, or be sent to the proper gaol, nor take any other reward for keeping the person out of gaol, than what he shall freely give; nor take any other sum for each night's lodging, or other expences, than what is reasonable, or shall be so adjudged by the next justice of peace, or at the next quarter-sessions; and shall not cause the person to pay for other wine, beer, ale, victuals, tobacco, or other things, than what he shall freely call for. s. 9.

Every under-sheriff, gaoler, and every person to whose custody any person shall be committed, shall permit the said person to send for beer ale, victuals, and other food, where they please, as also to have such bedding, and other things, as they shall think fit, without detaining or paying for the same; nor shall receive of the said persons any other fees for their commitment or discharge, or for chamber-rent, than what is allowable by law; until the same be settled by three justices of peace, whereof one to be of the quorum, of each county, city, and town corporate; and for the city of London and counties of Middlesex and Surrey, the two lord chief justices, and the lord chief baron, or any two of them, and the justices of the same, in their several jurisdictions. s. 10.

The lord chief justices, lord chief baron, and justices of peace, and all commissioners for charitable uses, shall use their best endeavours to find out gifts and bequests given for the benefit of poor prisoners for debt; and send for any deeds, wills, writings, and books of accounts, and any persons concerned therein, and examine them upon oath, to make true discovery thereof, and the same so found out, to order in some way, that the prisoners may not be defrauded. s. 11.

These accounts of gifts and bequests bestowed upon the prisoners for debt, and the rates of fees, and the future government of prisons, shall be signed and confirmed by the lord chief justices and lord chief baron, or any two of them, and the justices of peace in London, Middlesex, and Surrey, and by the judges for the several circuits, and justices of peace in their precincts, and registered by every clerk of the peace; and no other fees than shall be so established shall be demanded. s. 12.

It shall not be lawful for any sheriff or gaoler, to lodge prisoners for debt and felons together in one room, but they shall be kept apart; upon pain that they that shall offend against this act shall forfeit their office, and treble damages to the party aggrieved. s. 13.

By 4 & 5 Will. & Mar. c. 21. If any defendant be taken or charged in custody at the suit of any person, upon any writ out of the courts at Westminster, and imprisoned for want of sureties, the plaintiff may, before the end of next term, after such process shall be returnable, declare against such prisoner in the court out of which the writ shall issue, and shall cause a copy thereof to be delivered to such prisoner, or to the gaoler in whose custody such prisoner shall be; and if such prisoner shall not appear and plead to the same, the plaintiff shall have judgment, as if the prisoner had appeared and refused to plead. s. 2.

In all declarations against any prisoner detained by virtue of any writ issued out of the court of king's bench, it shall be alledged in custody of what sheriff, bailiff, or steward of any franchise, or other person having the return and execution of writs, such prisoner shall be, by virtue of the process of the said court at the suit of the plaintiffs; which allegation shall be as good as if such prisoner were in the custody of the marshal. s. 3.

By 8 & 9 Will. 3. c. 27. All prisoners, either upon contempt or mesne process, or in execution, who shall be committed to the custody of the marshal of the king's bench prison, or warden of the Fleet, shall be detained within the said prisons, or the rules of the same, until they be discharged by course of law; and if the said marshal or warden, or any other keeper of any prison, shall suffer any prisoner to go at large out of the rules (except by habeas corpus, or rule of court, which rule shall not be granted, but by motion made, or petition read in court) every such being out of the rules shall be judged an escape. s. 1.

Every person obtaining judgment in any action of escape against the marshal or warden, or their deputies, shall have not only the remedies already by law allowed, but the judges of the courts where such judgment shall be obtained (upon oath made by the persons obtaining such judgment, that the same was obtained without fraud or covin, and that the debt of the prisoner making such escape, was a true and real debt and unsatisfied) shall, upon motion, sequester the profits of the office of marshal and warden, or so much thereof as they shall think fit, and apply the same towards the satisfaction of the debt due from the prisoner who escaped, together with all costs and damages recovered. s. 2.

If the marshal or warden, or their deputies, sue forth any writ of error in any action of escape, such marshal or warden, &c. shall put in special bail. s. 3.

If any marshal or warden, or any keeper of any other prison, shall take any reward or security to permit any escape, eſcape, and ſhall be convicted, the ſaid marſhal or warden, &c. ſhall forfeit 300*l.* and his office, and be for ever incapable of executing ſuch office. ſ. 4.

Provided that this act ſhall not make void ſuch ſecurities as ſhall be given by any priſoners for their lodgings without the priſons within the rules, ſo as ſuch ſecurities be not taken for the enlargement of any priſoner beyond the rules. ſ. 5.

No retaking on freſh purſuit ſhall be given in evidence on the trial of any iſſue in any action of eſcape againſt the marſhal or warden, or any other keeper of any priſon, unleſs the ſame be ſpecially pleaded; nor ſhall any ſpecial plea be received, unleſs oath be made in writing by the marſhal, &c. and filed, that the priſoner did, without his conſent, privity, or knowledge, make ſuch eſcape; and if ſuch affidavit ſhall appear to be falſe, and the marſhal, &c. be convicted thereof, ſuch marſhal, &c. ſhall forfeit 500*l.* ſ. 6.

If any priſoner committed in execution to any of the priſons, ſhall eſcape, the creditors, at whoſe ſuit ſuch priſoner was charged in execution, may retake ſuch priſoner by any new capias or capias ad ſatisfaciendum, or ſue forth any other kind of execution, as if the body of ſuch priſoner had never been in execution. ſ. 7.

If the marſhal, &c. or keeper of any priſon, ſhall, after one day's notice in writing, refuſe to ſhew any priſoner in execution, to the creditor at whoſe ſuit the priſoner was charged, or his attorney, ſuch refuſal ſhall be judged an eſcape. ſ. 8.

If any perſon deſiring to charge any perſon with any action or execution, ſhall deſire to be informed by the marſhal or other keeper of any priſon, whether ſuch perſon be a priſoner in his cuſtody or not, the ſaid marſhal, &c. ſhall give a note thereof to the perſon requeſting, or his attorney, upon demand, at his office, or in default thereof ſhall forfeit 50*l.*; and if ſuch marſhal or other keeper give a note that ſuch perſon is an actual priſoner in his cuſtody, ſuch note ſhall be ſufficient evidence that ſuch perſon was a priſoner. ſ. 9.

All conveyances and mortgages of the inheritance of the priſons of king's bench and Fleet, and of the priſon houſes or other hereditaments to them belonging, and all leaſes thereof, and the titles of the marſhal and warden, or of them in whom the inheritance of the priſons are, and all truſts thereunto relating, ſhall be inrolled, viz. that of the marſhal of the king's bench in the king's bench court, and that of the warden of the Fleet in the court of common pleas; and all future conveyances, &c. thereof, ſhall be ſo inrolled within ſix months after the executing; and if any ſuch conveyances, &c. be not ſo inrolled, they ſhall be void. ſ. 10.

The ſaid offices of marſhal and warden ſhall be executed by the perſons to whom the inheritance of the priſons ſhall belong, or by their deputies (for which they ſhall be anſwerable), and the profits and inheritances of the ſaid offices ſhall be ſequeſtered or extended, to make ſatisfaction for forfeitures, eſcapes, and miſdemeanors, as if ſuffered or committed by the perſons themſelves. ſ. 11.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon having cauſe of action againſt the warden of the Fleet, upon bill filed in the common pleas or exchequer, and a rule being given to plead, to be out eight days at moſt after filing ſuch bill, to ſign judgment againſt the warden, unleſs he plead within three days after ſuch rule is out. ſ. 12.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon who ſhall have cauſe of action againſt any priſoner of the Fleet, after filing or entering a declaration to deliver a copy to ſuch defendant in any perſonal action, or to the turnkey or porter of the Fleet priſon, and after rule given to plead, to be out at eight days at moſt, after delivery of ſuch copy of declaration, and affidavit made of ſuch delivery, to ſign judgment againſt ſuch defendant, as if he had been charged at the bar of the common pleas or exchequer. ſ. 13.

No priſoner ſhall pay any chamber rent for any chamber within any of the ſaid priſons, for any longer time than he is in poſſeſſion of the chamber; ſuch priſoner ſhall not pay above 2*s.* 6*d.* per week for any chamber; and if the marſhal or keeper of any other priſon demand any greater ſum, he ſhall forfeit 20*l.* ſ. 14.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon who hath any money owing to him from any perſon who ſhall be within the Whitefriars, Savoy, Saliſbury-court, Ram-alley, Mitre-court, Fullers-rents, Baldwin's gardens, Montague-cloſe, or the Minories, Mint, Clink, or Deadman's-place, upon proceſs taken out againſt ſuch perſon, to require the ſheriffs of London and Middleſex, head bailiff of the liberty of the duchy of Lancaſter, or high ſheriff of Surrey, or bailiff of the borough of Southwark, or their officers, to take the poſſe comitatus, or ſuch other power as ſhall ſeem requiſite, and enter the ſaid pretended privileged places, and arreſt, and in caſe of reſiſtance or refuſal, to open the doors, to break open any doors, to arreſt ſuch perſon upon meſne or other proceſs, or to ſeize the goods of ſuch perſon upon any execution or extent; and if the ſheriff, &c. ſhall neglect with ſuch force to uſe their beſt endeavours for the executing of ſuch proceſs, he ſhall forfeit to the plaintiff 100*l.*; and if, in the executing ſuch proceſs, any perſon ſhall oppoſe any officer, he ſhall forfeit 50*l.* and be by ſome juſtice of peace committed to the common gaol of ſuch county or place until the next aſſizes and gaol delivery, and ſuch offender being convicted ſhall ſuffer impriſonment, and be ſet in the pillory; and if any reſcous be made of any priſoner taken by ſuch officers, within the before-mentioned pretended privileged places, by any perſon, ſuch perſon making reſcous, or aſſiſting the ſame, and being convicted, ſhall forfeit to the plaintiff 500*l.*; and if the perſon againſt whom ſuch recovery ſhall be had, neglect to pay the ſum recovered, with coſts, within one month after judgment ſigned upon ſuch recovery, and demand made, upon producing a copy of the judgment, and oath made, that the money is not paid, he ſhall, by order of ſuch court wherein he was convicted of ſuch reſcous, be tranſported by the ſheriffs of the county or place where ſuch conviction ſhall be, to one of his majeſty's plantations for ſeven years; and if he return again within the ſeven years, he ſhall be guilty of felony, and ſhall not be allowed benefit of clergy: and if any perſon, inhabiting within any of the ſaid pretended privileged places, ſhall conceal any perſon who ſhall have made any reſcous, knowing that ſuch perſon had been guilty of ſuch offence, being thereof convicted, he ſhall be, by order of that court where ſuch conviction ſhall be, by the ſheriff, tranſported to his majeſty's plantations for ſeven years, unleſs ſuch perſon ſhall, within one month after conviction, pay to the plaintiff the debt for which ſuch action was brought, with coſts; and if he ſhall return within the ſeven years, he ſhall be guilty of felony, and not be allowed benefit of clergy. ſ. 15.

The penalties in this act, not particularly diſpoſed of, ſhall go, one half to his majeſty, and the other half to him that will ſue for the ſame. ſ. 16.

This act ſhall be a general law, and ſhall be conſtrued moſt beneficially for the preventing the miſchiefs provided againſt. And any perſon ſued for putting in execution any power given by this act, may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiffs be nonſuit, &c. ſuch defendants ſhall have double coſts. ſ. 17.

Saving unto Martha Johnſon, Thomas Johnſon, John Johnſon, and Frances, all right to the houſes and ſhops belonging to the office of the warden of the Fleet, or to the priſon of the Fleet. ſ. 18.

Saving to Anthony Smith, mariner, all right to the office of warden of the Fleet, by virtue of two decrees in chancery of the 22d of June 1683, and the 26th of January 1685. ſ. 20.

Nothing in this act ſhall prejudice the right of Thomas Norwood, executor to Henry Norwood, concerning a debt of 2153 l. ſecured by mortgage of the office of warden of the Fleet, bearing date the 23d of November, 1676, nor prejudice the right of John Clements, concerning a debt of 2299 l. ſecured by mortgage of the office of warden, bearing date the 3d May 1678. ſ. 21.

By 11 & 12 Will. 3. c. 19. Made perpetual by 6 Geo. 1. c. 19. It ſhall be lawful for the juſtices of peace, upon preſentment of the grand jury at the aſſize, great ſeſſions, and gaol delivery, of the inſufficiency or inconveniency of their gaol, to agree upon ſuch ſums of money as upon examination of workmen ſhall be thought neceſſary for the building or repairing a gaol, and by warrant by equal proportion to charge the money upon the ſeveral hundreds or other diviſions of the county; and the juſtices are empowered at the quarter ſeſſions, held for the reſpective diviſion, to direct their warrants to high conſtables, petty conſtables, or other officers, for collecting the ſame. ſ. 1.

If any perſon neglect to pay his aſſeſſment four days after demand, or convey away his goods or eſtate, whereby the money cannot be levied, it ſhall be lawful for the collectors, by warrants from any one of the juſtices preſent at the ſaid quarter ſeſſions, to levy by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, and the diſtreſs to keep four days; and if the ſaid owner do not pay the money, then the diſtreſs to be appraiſed by two perſons, and ſold by the collector; and the juſtices are empowered to appoint a receiver of the money, giving ſecurity to account for all money received or diſburſed in purſuance of ſuch order of the juſtices: and if the receiver, conſtable, or other officers, ſhall, four days after demand, refuſe to account for all money received by them, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices to commit them to priſon, until they have made account, or paid ſuch money; and the diſcharge of the juſtices at the aſſize, great ſeſſions, and gaol delivery, to their receivers, ſhall be ſufficient; and the juſtices are empowered to contract for the building or repairing of the gaols. ſ. 2.

All murderers and felons ſhall be impriſoned in the common gaol, and the ſheriff ſhall have the keeping of the gaols. ſ. 3.

Provided that this act be not prejudicial to any perſon having any common gaol by inheritance, for life, or years. ſ. 4.

This act ſhall not charge any perſon inhabiting in any liberty, city, or borough corporate, which have common gaols for felons, and commiſſions of aſſize, or gaol delivery of ſuch felons, for any aſſeſſment to the making the gaol of the county. ſ. 5.

If any action be commenced againſt any perſon for what he ſhall do in purſuance of this act, ſuch perſon may plead the general iſſue not guilty; and if the plaintiff become nonſuit, &c. the defendants ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 6.

Where any priſons belonging to any county of this realm, or Wales, are ſituate upon lands belonging to the king, the ſaid lands ſhall not be alienated from the crown, but remain for the public benefit of the county. ſ. 7.

It ſhall not be lawful for any officer to enter into the manſion-houſe of any peer or peereſs to diſtrain for the duties aforeſaid. ſ. 8.

By 1 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 6. If any perſon committed to the cuſtody of the marſhal of the queen's bench, or to the priſon of the Fleet, either in execution, or upon meſne proceſs, or upon any contempt in not performing any order or decree, by any of her majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, ſhall, before he ſhall have made payment or ſatisfaction to the plaintiff or creditors, or ſhall have cleared ſuch contempts, eſcape from the cuſtody of the marſhal, or from the priſon of the Fleet, or go at large; it ſhall be lawful, upon oath made before any of the judges of that court where ſuch action was entered, or where the party was committed, for ſuch judge to grant unto any perſon warrants, reciting the actions, executions, or contempts, with which ſuch perſon eſcaping ſtood charged, at the ſuit of any perſon on whoſe behalf ſuch warrants ſhall be demanded, directed to all ſheriffs, mayors, bailiffs, conſtables, headboroughs, and tithingmen, commanding them in their reſpective counties and precincts to retake ſuch perſon eſcaped, and ſuch perſons to convey to the common gaol where they ſhall be retaken, there to remain until the judgments on which ſuch executions were ſued ſhall be reverſed, or until judgment in ſuch actions be given for ſuch perſons, or until the contempts for which ſuch perſons were committed be cleared; except ſuch perſons be charged with treaſon or felony, or any other matter on the behalf of the queen: and if he, for any ſuch cauſe on behalf of the queen, be removed to any other gaol, he ſhall be in ſuch gaol, charged with all the cauſes with which he ſhall be charged in the gaol from whence he ſhall be removed. And every mayor or other officer, after delivery of ſuch priſoner, together with ſuch warrant to the ſheriff, ſhall take a note from ſuch ſheriff, teſtifying the receipt of ſuch priſoner: and ſuch ſheriff, after the execution of ſuch warrant, ſhall make a return thereof to the court where the action ſhall be depending, or judgment or decree obtained, which ſhall be filed. ſ. 1.

If any perſon ſo retaken ſhall eſcape out of the gaol to which he ſhall be ſo conveyed, the ſheriff ſhall be liable, as in caſe of any other eſcape. ſ. 2.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſons that ſhall be bail in her majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, for any perſon that ſhall be retaken by ſuch warrant, to proſecute out of ſuch courts where they ſhall be bail, a writ to the ſheriff where ſuch priſoner ſhall be committed, commanding ſuch ſheriff to detain ſuch priſoner in cuſtody in diſcharge of his bail; which writ, with an account whether he hath the priſoner in his cuſtody, ſhall be returned at a day therein mentioned. And the delivery of ſuch writ to the ſheriff ſhall be a render of ſuch priſoner in diſcharge of the bail. And in caſe ſuch ſheriff, or his officer, ſhall ſuffer the perſon to eſcape, they ſhall be liable to ſuch action as the marſhal of the queen's bench or warden of the Fleet are. ſ. 3.

All ſheriffs, upon requeſt of ſuch bail, who ſhall deliver ſuch writ for detaining ſuch priſoner, and for the uſual fees of return, ſhall return the receipt of ſuch writ, and the time, and whether the perſon was in his cuſtody, and in default thereof, ſhall forfeit 50 l.; and upon producing ſuch return, ſuch court ſhall cauſe a reddidit ſe to be entered upon the bail-piece. ſ. 4.

This act ſhall be a general law, and ſhall be conſtrued moſt beneficially for the preventing the miſchiefs provided againſt; and any perſon ſued for putting in execution any power given by this act, may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff be nonsuit, &c. shall have treble costs. s. 5.

By 5 Ann. c. 9. All persons taken by virtue of the act 1 Ann. st. 2. c. 6. shall, instead of being committed to the common gaol of the county, be committed to the prison where the sheriff keeps the debtors, to remain in custody of the sheriff, subject to the same rules as if they had been committed to the common gaol of the county; and if any person so committed shall escape, the sheriff shall be answerable as in case of any other escape. s. 1.

It shall be lawful for the judges to grant like warrants upon oath, in writing, made before any person commissionated to take affidavits in the country (the oath being filed), as upon like oath made before himself. s. 2.

It shall be lawful to take upon the Lord's day any person by virtue of any warrant granted in pursuance of this or the former act. s. 3.

If any person shall be in custody of any sheriff or other officer for not performing any decree in chancery, or exchequer, whereby money is decreed to be paid, and shall escape, the person to whom the money was to be paid shall have the same remedy against the sheriff as if such person had been in custody, upon an execution at law, and shall recover the money decreed against such sheriff, or other officer, with costs, in any action of debt or upon the case in her majesty's courts at Westminster. s. 4.

By 9 Geo. 1. c. 28. If any person shall, within the place called Suffolk-place, or the Mint, or the pretended limits thereof, knowingly oppose any person's serving any writ, rule, or order, or other legal process, or any escape-warrant, or any warrants of justices of peace, or shall assault or abuse any person serving such writ, &c. whereby such person shall receive any damage, every person being convicted thereof shall be guilty of felony, and shall be transported as felons. s. 1.

On complaint to any three justices of peace for Surrey, by any person who hath any debt owing from any person residing in the Mint, &c. (such creditor having legal process taken out for recovery of his debt, and making oath before such justices, that a debt exceeding 50 l. is justly due to him from the person against whom such complaint shall be made, and that he believes such person doth reside in that place), it shall be lawful for the justices to issue their warrant to the sheriff of Surrey, or the bailiffs of Southwark, requiring them to take the posse comitatus, or such other force as they shall think requisite, and enter the said Mint, and arrest, or in case of resistance or refusal, to break open any doors to arrest such person, upon mesne or other process, and to seize goods upon execution or extent. And the sheriff, &c. refusing on such warrant, with such force, to use his best endeavours for the executing such process, &c. shall forfeit to the plaintiff 200 l. And if any person shall resist any officer of justice, or any person aiding such officer, within the Mint, &c. or shall make rescous of any prisoner taken upon such writ, &c. within the said place, or shall there knowingly conceal any prisoner so taken, or any who rescued such prisoner, or shall be assisting in resisting such officer, or in rescuing such prisoner, or shall exercise any jurisdiction, or join in making any pretended rule or ordinance, for supporting any pretended privilege within the said place, or for opposing the execution of legal process, &c. every person so offending, and being thereof convicted on indictment or information brought within six months after the offence, shall be guilty of felony, and transported. s. 2.

If any person wearing a mask or disguised habit, or having his face or body disguised, shall, within the said place, &c. join in or abet any riot there, or shall in any disguise knowingly oppose the execution of any legal process, &c. or assault or abuse any person serving such process, &c. every such person being convicted shall be guilty of felony, and transported. s. 3.

Every person, who shall apprehend any one guilty of the offences aforesaid, and prosecute him till convicted, shall receive for every such offender 40 l. to be paid by the sheriff of Surrey without fee, in one month after such conviction, and demand thereof made by tendering a certificate to the sheriff of the judge before whom such offender was convicted, certifying his conviction, and that he was taken by the person claiming the reward; and in case of dispute touching the reward, the judge shall in the certificate direct the reward among the parties, in such shares as shall seem reasonable; and if such sheriff shall die or be removed, the succeeding sheriff shall pay it in one month; and if the sheriff make default, he shall forfeit to the person to whom such money shall be due, double the sum he ought to have paid, to be recovered with double costs. s. 4.

If any person shall be killed by such offender endeavouring to apprehend him, the executors, &c. of each person so killed (on certificate of the judge of assise, or the two next justices of peace) shall receive 40 l. from the sheriff of the county where the fact was committed; and on failure of payment, such sheriff shall forfeit double the sum, to be recovered with double costs. s. 5.

All sheriffs producing such certificates and the receipts may deduct, on accounting with his majesty, all monies (other than the forfeited sums and costs of suit) which they shall disburse as aforesaid. s. 6.

If on the account of any sheriff there shall not be sufficient in his hands to reimburse him, he shall be repaid by the treasury, or by record of surplusage on any other sheriff indebted to his majesty, on certificate from the clerk of the pipe. s. 7.

If any such apprehender or prosecutor is guilty of any the said offences, not being in prison for the same, and convicting two or more, he shall not only have the reward, but also be entitled to a pardon. s. 8.

The charge of raising the posse comitatus, or other power, for enforcing the execution of this act, or the act of 8 & 9 Will. 3. c. 27. shall be paid by the sheriff, and allowed in his accounts, or be repaid by the treasury out of the revenue, or by record of surplusage on any other sheriff, on certificate from the clerk of the pipe. s. 9.

Nothing in this act shall repeal the act 8 & 9 Will. 3. c. 27. or any other law in force against pretended privileged places, or for suppressing of riots; except in cases touching which other provision is made by this act. s. 10.

If any action be brought against any justice, sheriff, bailiff, officer, or other minister, for any thing done in pursuance of this act, he may plead the general issue, &c. and on judgment for the defendant, shall have treble costs. s. 11.

By 11 Geo. 1. c. 22. If any number of persons, not less than three, shall, within the hamlet of Wapping-Stepney, or any other place within the bills of mortality of the cities of London and Westminster, wherein persons shall unlawfully assemble for the sheltering themselves from their debts, of which complaint shall have been made by presentment of the grand jury at a quarter-sessions, knowingly obstruct any persons serving any writ, rule, or order of any court, or other legal process, and shall assault or abuse any person serving or executing such writ, &c. whereby such person shall receive bodily hurt, the offender being convicted shall be guilty of felony, and shall be transported for seven years. s. 1.

On complaint to a judge of any court out of which the writs shall issue, of opposition within the said hamlet, or elsewhere within the bills of mortality, wherein persons shall unlawfully assemble, &c. by any persons who have debts due to them from any persons sheltering as aforesaid, the creditor having any legal writ or process, and making oath before such judge, that a debt exceeding 50*l.* is justly due to him from the person against whom complaint shall be made, and that such creditor verily believes that the person is sheltered within such place, such judge is authorised to issue his order to the sheriff, his deputy, or officers, enjoining him to take the posse comitatus, and enter the said hamlet, or any place elsewhere, &c. mentioned in the said oath, and to arrest such person on any mesne process, extent, or execution, and to seize the goods of such person upon any execution or extent. And if such sheriff, &c. shall wilfully neglect to use his best endeavours for the executing of such process, &c. he shall forfeit to the plaintiff 200*l.* And if any person shall knowingly resist any officers of justice in the execution of any writ, &c. in the said hamlet, &c. or shall make rescous of any prisoner taken upon such process, &c. or shall knowingly harbour or conceal any prisoner so taken, or any persons who rescued such prisoner, or shall be knowingly abetting in resisting any such officer, or in rescuing such prisoner, every person so offending, being convicted upon indictment or information, to be brought within six months after the offence, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and be transported for seven years, &c. s. 2.

By 11 Geo. 2. c. 20. Every treasurer of every county within England and Wales, shall, on or before the first day of Trinity-term yearly, pay over to the lord chief justice of England, and knight marshal, or as they shall appoint, or, in default of the chief justice, to the next most ancient justice of the king's bench, the several sums of money which shall be due from such county, equally to be divided between the prisoners of the king's bench and Marshalsea prisons, for the charitable purposes in the act 43 Eliz. c. 2. s. 1.

If any such treasurer shall neglect to pay, then, upon report of the chief justice, or of the next ancient justice of the king's bench, or upon the certificate of the knight-marshal, or the certificate, on oath, of such as they shall appoint to receive the same, it shall be lawful for the court of king's bench to make a rule on every such treasurer, to pay the money reported or certified to be due. s. 2.

Every treasurer of any county shall, within 30 days after his election, transmit his name and place of abode to the clerk of the crown in his majesty's court of king's bench, to be entered in a book, for which entry no fee shall be taken; and in case any such treasurer neglect to transmit his name, &c. then, upon report of the clerk of the crown, such treasurer shall be proceeded against as aforesaid. s. 3.

The costs of such rules and all charges shall be paid by the treasurers whose default shall cause the making such rules. s. 4.

By 16 Geo. 2. c. 31. If any person be assisting to any prisoner to attempt to make his escape from any gaol, although no escape be made, in case such prisoner was then attainted or convicted of treason, or any felony, except petty larceny, or committed to or detained in gaol for treason, or any felony, except petty larceny, expressed in the warrant of commitment or detainer, every person so offending, and convicted, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and be transported to one of his majesty's colonies in America for seven years; and in case such prisoner then was convicted of, committed, or detained for petty larceny, or any other crime, not being treason or felony expressed in the warrant of commitment or detainer, or then was in gaol upon any process for debt, damages, costs, or sums of money, amounting to 100*l.* every person so offending and convicted, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, for which he shall be liable to a fine and imprisonment. s. 1.

If any person convey into any gaol any disguise, or instrument, or arms, proper to facilitate the escape of prisoners, and the same deliver, or cause to be delivered, to any prisoner, or for the use of any prisoner, without the privity of the keeper, or under-keeper of such gaol; every such person, although no escape or attempt to escape be made, shall be deemed to have delivered such disguise, instrument, or arms, with intent to assist such prisoner to escape; and in case such prisoner then was attainted or convicted of treason, or any felony, except petty larceny, or committed or detained for treason, or any felony, except petty larceny, expressed in the warrant of commitment or detainer, every person so offending and convicted, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and be transported to America for seven years; but in case the prisoner to whom, or for whose use such disguise, instrument, or arms, shall be so delivered, then was convicted, committed, or detained for petty larceny, or any other crime, not being treason or felony expressed in the warrant of commitment or detainer, or upon any process for debt, damages, costs, or sums of money, amounting to 100*l.*; every person so offending and convicted shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, for which he shall be liable to a fine and imprisonment. s. 2.

If any person assist any prisoner to attempt to make his escape from the custody of any constable, headborough, tythingman, or other officer, who shall then have the lawful charge of such prisoner, in order to carry him to gaol, by warrant of commitment for treason, or any felony (except petty larceny) expressed in such warrant; or if any person be assisting to any felon, to attempt to make his escape from any boat or ship, carrying felons for transportation, or from any person to whom such felon is lawfully delivered in order for transportation; every person so offending and convicted shall be deemed guilty of felony, and be transported to America for seven years. s. 3.

There shall be no prosecution for any of the said offences, unless such prosecution be commenced within one year after such offence. s. 4.

If any person ordered for transportation in pursuance of this act, return, or be at large, in Great Britain, without lawful cause, before the expiration of the term for which he was ordered to be transported, such person shall be liable to the same punishment, and to the like methods of prosecution, trial, and conviction, as other felons transported or ordered to be transported. s. 5.

By 27 Geo. 2. c. 3. When any person, not having goods or money, within the county where he is taken, sufficient to bear the charges of himself, and of those who convey him, is committed to gaol or the house of correction, by warrant from any justice of peace, then, on application by the officer who conveyed him, any justice for the same county or place, shall, upon oath, examine into and ascertain the expences to be allowed such officer, and shall, without fee, by warrant, order the treasurer of the county, &c. to pay the same. s. 1.

So much of the 3 Jac. 1. c. 10. as relates to the taxing the parish where offenders are taken for defraying the charges of conveying them to gaol shall be repealed. s. 2.

When any poor person shall appear on recognizance in any court to give evidence against another accused of any grand grand or petit larceny, or other felony, the court, at the prayer, and on the oath of ſuch perſon, and on conſideration of his circumſtances, may order the treaſurer of the county in which the offence was committed, to pay unto ſuch perſon ſuch ſum as to the court ſhall ſeem reaſonable, for his time, trouble, and expence; which order the proper officer is to make out, and deliver to ſuch perſon, upon being paid 6*d*. ſ. 3. See alſo the general title FELONS, &c.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to empower any court or juſtice of peace to make orders on the treaſurer of the county of Middleſex, for the payment of the expences of the conſtable or other officer, in conveying any perſon to gaol; or for the payment of any perſon for his time, trouble, and expence, who ſhall appear on his recognizance to give evidence. But within the ſaid county of Middleſex, the expences of the officer in conveying any perſon to gaol by virtue of a warrant from any juſtice of peace, ſhall (after ſuch expences have been examined into upon oath, and allowed by ſuch juſtice, for which no fee ſhall be taken) be paid by the overſeers of the poor of the pariſh or place where the ſaid perſon was apprehended. ſ. 4.

By 27 Geo. 2. c. 17. Whereas king James I. by his letters patent granted to Sir William Smith, Knt. his heirs and aſſigns, the office of marſhal of the marſhalſea of the court of king's bench, to exerciſe the ſaid office by themſelves or deputies, and alſo granted to the ſaid Sir William Smith, his heirs and aſſigns, all profits belonging to the ſaid office, together with the cuſtody of the priſon; and the inheritance of the ſaid office, by ſeveral meſne conveyances, afterwards veſted in William Lenthall, late of Great Hazeley in the county of Oxon, Eſq. who by indenture dated the 24th of February 1684, in conſideration of 10,000 l. lent by Sir John Cutler of Weſtminſter, Knt. and Bart. covenanted, that he and his heirs ſhould ſtand ſeized of the inheritance of the ſaid office for ſecuring the payment of the ſaid 10,000 l. with intereſt; and whereas by 8 & 9 Will. 3. c. 27. ſ. 19. it was provided, that nothing in the ſaid act ſhould prejudice any ſecurity given out of the ſaid office by the ſaid William Lenthall to the ſaid Sir John Cutler, or to Edmund Boulter, Eſq. executor of the ſaid Sir John Cutler, or in truſt for either of them, or to ſubject the ſaid office to the forfeitures or penalties of the ſaid act until the money ſecured by the ſaid mortgage ſhould be paid; and it was enacted [ſect. 22.], that every deputation theretofore made by the ſaid William Lenthall of the ſaid office was void, and that every ſucceeding marſhal ſhould be appointed by the ſaid William Lenthall, his heirs and aſſigns, with the conſent under the hand and ſeal of the ſaid Edmund Boulter, his executors, adminiſtrators, and aſſigns, until the debt owing by the ſaid William Lenthall to the ſaid Edmund Boulter, as executor of the ſaid Sir John Cutler, ſhould be ſatisfied; and whereas, by an account ſigned by the ſaid William Lenthall, the 26th of June 1700, there appeared to be then due and ſecured by the ſaid mortgage 20438 l. 10 s. 6 d. ½. which debt was afterwards aſſigned to Joſeph Studley, late of St. Nicholas Lane, London, gent. and the inheritance of the office aforeſaid by ſeveral meſne conveyances, is now veſted in Ebenezer Blackwell of Lombard Street, London, goldſmith, in truſt for the ſaid heirs of the ſaid William Lenthall, and in truſt that he the ſaid Ebenezer Blackwell, and his heirs, ſhall, until the debt due on the ſaid mortgage be ſatisfied, with the conſent of the executors, adminiſtrators, and aſſigns of the ſaid Joſeph Studley, under their hands and ſeals, appoint ſome perſon to execute the ſaid office, and appoint other officers belonging to the ſame office; and whereas the debt due on the ſaid mortgage hath been ſince aſſigned to the perſons, and in the proportions after-mentioned, viz. to Thomas Martin of Clapham in Surrey, Eſq. eight-twentieth parts, to John Martin of Overbury in Worceſterſhire, Eſq. four-twentieths, to the ſaid Thomas and John Martin, as executors of Edward Bowman, late of London, citizen and goldſmith, four-twentieths, upon the truſts in his will, to John Langmore of Bow Lane, London, gent. as executor of the ſaid Joſeph Studley, one-twentieth, to the ſaid John Langmore, in his own right, one half of one-twentieth, to Edward Birch, of the pariſh of St. Giles in the Fields in Middleſex, cordwainer, and Ann his wife, one half of one-twentieth, and to the ſaid Ebenezer Blackwell, two-twentieth parts; and whereas, on the 1ſt of February 1753, there was due for principal and intereſt on the ſaid mortgage 30,397 l. 3 s. 3 d. and the proprietors of the ſaid debt have agreed to accept 10,500 l. in ſatisfaction for the ſame; and whereas the priſon of the marſhalſea of the ſaid court of king's bench is decayed and out of repair; and whereas the granting the ſaid office of marſhal in fee, and the mortgaging the ſame, has been an obſtruction to the due exerciſe thereof, and injurious to the ſuitors of the court of king's bench, who cannot have any benefit of the ſtatute of 8 & 9 Will. 3. c. 27. until the debt due on the ſaid mortgage be paid: be it enacted, that out of any ſupplies granted for the year 1754, any ſum not exceeding 10,500 l. ſhall be paid to the ſaid Thomas Martin, John Martin, John Langmore, Edward Birch, and Ebenezer Blackwell, their executors, adminiſtrators, or aſſigns, in ſatisfaction for the debt due to them on the ſaid mortgage of the office of marſhal as aforeſaid, upon their conveying and releaſing unto his majeſty, his heirs, and ſucceſſors, all their eſtate and intereſt in the ſaid office, and the ſaid debt. ſ. 1.

Immediately after payment of the ſaid 10,500 l. the priſon of the marſhalſea of the court of king's bench, and the ſite thereof, and the ground and appurtenances thereunto belonging, and the power of granting the cuſtody of the ſaid priſon, and the office of marſhal of the marſhalſea aforeſaid, ſhall be re-veſted in his majeſty, and ſhall for ever remain unalienable; ſubject to ſuch proviſo for redemption as herein after is mentioned, and ſubject to ſuch regulations with regard to the execution of the ſaid office and government of the priſon, as are herein-after provided. ſ. 2.

Provided, that if the heirs or aſſigns of the before-named William Lenthall, before the 29th of September 1756, exhibit a bill in the exchequer at Weſtminſter, obtain a decree for redemption of the ſaid office, and pay into the exchequer ſuch money as by the ſaid court they ſhall be decreed to pay in diſcharge of the ſaid mortgage; then they ſhall repoſſeſs and enjoy the ſaid office. ſ. 3.

Provided, nothing in this act ſhall give to the heirs or aſſigns of the ſaid William Lenthall any right of redemption of the ſaid office, which by reaſon of the length of time, or otherwiſe, they would not have been entitled to, if this act had not been made. ſ. 4.

After payment of the ſaid ſum, John Aſhton, Eſq. the preſent marſhal, ſhall continue to hold the ſaid office, and all fees and advantages thereto belonging (ſubject to the proviſo for redemption before-mentioned), for ſo long a time as he ſhall behave himſelf well in his ſaid office, and ſhall be reſident in the ſaid priſon, or within the rules thereof: and after the death, reſignation, or amoval of the ſaid John Aſhton, his majeſty ſhall have power (ſubject to the proviſo for redemption before-mentioned) to appoint by his letters patent, or ſign manual, ſuch perſon as his majeſty ſhall think fit, to be marſhal of the marſhalſea aforeſaid; and ſo from time to time to appoint the marſhal of the

marſhalſea aforeſaid, as often as the ſaid office ſhall become vacant; and every perſon ſo appointed ſhall hold the ſaid office, and all fees and advantages thereto belonging, for ſo long time as ſuch marſhal ſhall behave himſelf well in his ſaid office, and ſhall be reſident in the ſaid priſon, or within the rules thereof: and all grants of the ſaid office ſhal be made accordingly, or otherwiſe ſhall be void. ſ. 5.

The marſhal aforeſaid, and all officers belonging to the ſaid office of marſhal, and the priſoners committed to the priſon aforeſaid, ſhall be governed by ſuch rules as have been or ſhall be made in purſuance of the directions of 2 Geo. 2. c. 22.; and the ſaid marſhal, and the officers aforeſaid, ſhall take ſuch fees only as have been or ſhall be ſettled in purſuance of the laſt-mentioned act. ſ. 6. The 2 Geo. 2. c. 22. is expired, and the ſubſtance of it re-enacted by 32 Geo. 2. cap. 28. infra.

After payment of the ſaid 10,500*l.* the marſhal aforeſaid ſhall have the nomination of all ſuch inferior officers as now belong or have uſually belonged to the office of marſhal; and all inferior officers appointed in purſuance of this act ſhall hold their offices during ſo long time as they ſhall reſpectively behave themſelves well therein, and all grants of the ſaid inferior offices ſhall be made accordingly, or otherwiſe be void. ſ. 7.

As well the marſhal aforeſaid, as the inferior officers to be nominated in purſuance of this act, ſhall be liable to be amoved by rule of the court of king's bench, in caſe of any ſuch non-reſidence or other neglect of duty, or any ſuch miſbehaviour as the ſaid court of king's bench ſhall think ſufficient cauſe for ſuch amoval, upon any complaint by motion or petition in a ſummary way. ſ. 8.

If any perſon after payment of the ſaid 10,500*l.* ſhall bargain or ſell the ſaid office of marſhal, or any inferior office thereto belonging, or any deputation of any ſuch office, or any part of them, or take any money or profit directly or indirectly, or any promiſe or aſſurance to receive any money, &c. for any ſuch office, &c. or to the intent that any perſon ſhould have any ſuch office, &c. every ſuch perſon who ſhall ſo bargain, &c. ſhall forfeit all his right, intereſt, and eſtate in any of the ſaid offices, &c. or in the gift or nomination of any of the ſaid offices, &c. for which he ſhall ſo bargain, &c.; and every perſon who ſhall give any money or reward, or make any promiſe or aſſurance to give any money, &c. for any of the ſaid offices, &c. ſhall immediately upon the ſame money, &c. being given, or promiſe, &c. made, be diſabled to have the ſaid office, &c. for which he ſhall ſo give any money, &c. or make any promiſe, &c. to give any money, &c. ſ. 9.

Nothing in this act ſhall prejudice any perſon who hath heretofore purchaſed any inferior office belonging to the office of marſhal aforeſaid, of any perſon claiming under the aforeſaid mortgage of the 24th of February 1684, and who is now in poſſeſſion of ſuch office; but ſuch perſon may hold the ſame, giving ſuch ſecurity for the due execution of his office to the marſhal as the court of king's bench ſhall direct; and ſhall have power to ſell ſuch office, ſo as ſuch ſale be by deed of aſſignment, or by words of aſſignment indorſed on the grant of the ſaid office, and be made with the approbation of the court of king's bench, if in term time, or with the approbation of the lord chief juſtice, or other of the juſtices of the ſaid court, during any vacation; and every ſuch purchaſer ſhall be poſſeſſed of the ſaid office for ſo long time as he ſhall well behave himſelf, but ſhall be amoveable in a ſummary way as aforeſaid, and be ſubject to the regulations before-mentioned, and have no power to ſell the ſame; and ſhall give ſuch ſecurity for the due execution of his office to the marſhal, as the lord chief juſtice, or any of the juſtices of the ſaid court ſhall direct. ſ. 10.

The ſaid Ebenezer Blackwell, as truſtee for the heirs and aſſigns of the ſaid William Lenthall, and Thomas Martin and John Martin, as executors of Edward Bowman, ſhall not be liable to any claim either at law or in equity, by the heirs or aſſigns of William Lenthall, or any perſon claiming under him, or by any perſon claiming under the will of Edward Bowman, for any ſuppoſed breach of truſt in accepting ſuch compoſition before-mentioned in ſatisfaction for the debt ſecured by the mortgage of the office of marſhall aforeſaid, or by aſſigning or releaſing all their eſtate and intereſt in the ſaid office in purſuance of this act. ſ. 11.

It ſhall be lawful for Thomas Martin and John Martin, to retain out of the truſt-monies which ſhall come to their hands by virtue of this act, a proportionable part of all ſuch expences as they have ſuſtained in relation to the ſaid mortgage. ſ. 12.

Immediately after payment of the ſaid 10,500*l.* the before recited clauſes of 8 & 9 Will. 3. c. 27. (viz. ſ. 19. & 22.) ſhall be repealed. ſ. 13.

The ſaid John Aſhton, his heirs, executors, adminiſtrators, and aſſigns, and all other perſons, ſhall be diſcharged from the payment of any money upon the account of holding the office of marſhal aforeſaid, after the 12th of February 1753, by virtue of any leaſe or agreement. ſ. 14.

Out of any ſupplies granted for the year 1754, there ſhall be applied any ſum not exceeding 7800*l.* for rebuilding the priſon of the marſhalſea of the court of king's bench, in ſuch manner, and at ſuch place, within the rules of the ſaid priſon, as the commiſſioners of the treaſury, or any three of them, ſhall direct by writing under their hands. ſ. 15.

It ſhall be lawful for all bodies politic, and all truſtees, mortgees, and feoffees in truſt, guardians of infants, and committees of lunatics and ideots, executors and adminiſtrators, and for all femes covert, and all other perſons intereſted in any lands within the rules of the ſaid priſon, to ſell the ſame to ſuch perſons as the commiſſioners of the treaſury ſhall appoint to contract for the purchaſe thereof, and ſuch lands and tenements ſhall be conveyed to his majeſty, his heirs, and ſucceſſors, by deed inrolled in the king's bench. And every ſum of money paid to the uſe of any ſuch body politic, or other perſon aforeſaid, for the purchaſe of lands for the purpoſes of this act, ſhall be laid out in the purchaſe of other lands to be ſettled and ſubject to ſuch titles, uſes, truſts, limitations, remainders, and contingencies, as the lands ſold; and until ſuch purchaſe-money be re-inveſted in lands, the ſame ſhall be laid out in the purchaſe of ſtocks, in ſome of the public funds, or placed out on government or real ſecurities at intereſt, and ſuch intereſt ſhall be paid to the uſe of ſuch perſon as would have been intitled to the rents of the lands ſold. ſ. 16.

When ſuch priſon ſhall be rebuilt, the marſhal for the time being, ſhall, at his own coſts, out of the profits of his office, keep in repair the ſaid priſon and all the appurtenances thereunto; and the ſaid priſon ſo rebuilt with the appurtenances ſhall remain unalienably veſted in his majeſty for ever. ſ. 17.

Nothing in this act ſhall affect any eſtate or intereſt of Thomas duke of Leeds, in thoſe two meſſuages with the appurtenances in Southwark in Surrey, whereof heretofore one was called the Angel, and is now or late was known by the name of the king's bench; and the other called the Crane; and all tenements and gardens to the ſaid meſſuages appertaining; and a piece of ground behind the ſaid garden; which ſaid two meſſuages and premiſes by letters patent under the seal of the court of exchequer dated at Westminster the 11th of March, in the 24th year of his majesty's reign, were among other things granted by his majesty unto the said Thomas duke of Leeds, for 31 years from the date of the said patent. s. 18.

By 32 Geo. 2. c. 28. No sheriff, bailiff, or other officer, shall convey any person arrested by virtue of any process to any public victualling or drinking house, or to the house of such officer, or of any tenant or relation of his, without the consent of the person arrrested; nor charge him for wine, victuals, or any other liquor or things whatsoever, save what he shall call for; nor shall cause him to call or pay for such liquor or things, except what he shall particularly and freely ask for; nor shall take any greater sum than is by law allowed for any arrest, or for detaining, or waiting till the person arrested have given an appearance or bail, or agreed with the person at whose suit he is arrested, or until he be sent to the gaol belonging to the county or place where such arrest shall be; nor shall take any reward for keeping the person arrested out of gaol; nor shall carry any such person to gaol within 24 hours from the time of such arrest, unless such person refuse to be carried to some safe and convenient dwelling house of his own nomination within a city, borough, corporation, or market town, in case such person be there arrested; or within three miles from the place where such arrest shall be, if the same be made out of any city, &c. so as such dwelling house be not the house of the person arrested, and be within the county or liberty in which the person was arrested; and then it shall be lawful for such officer to convey the person arrested, and refusing to be carried to such safe and convenient dwelling house, to gaol. s. 1.

No sheriff, bailiff, or other officer, shall take any greater sum for one or more nights lodging, or for a day's diet, or other expences of any person under arrest on any process, other than shall be allowed by some order already made, or which shall be made, by the justices of peace at some general or quarter sessions for the county or place where such arrest shall be; who are with all convenient expedition to make some standing orders for ascertaining such charges within their respective counties and jurisdictions, if the same hath not already been there made; and if any such order hath been made, such justices at their general or quarter sessions are to alter the same from time to time as they see occasion; and are to cause a copy of every such order, and of every alteration thereof, signed by the clerk of the peace, to be put and kept in some conspicuous place in the sessions house, or some other proper place, of every such county, &c. as such justices shall order, so as the same may be there seen and examined as occasion may require. s. 2.

Every sheriff, under sheriff, and bailiff of any liberty, and the respective secondaries and clerk sitters in the compters in London, and all other persons intrusted with the execution of process, or who shall enter any actions, or make any warrant or any writ or process, in order to have he same executed, shall deliver a printed copy of the several clauses in this act relating to bailiffs, and other officers and persons employed under them to execute any process, or who shall arrest any person on any action entered, or otherwise, within their respective sheriffwicks or jurisdictions, to every such bailiff, &c. and shall make it part of the condition of every security given to any such sheriff or under sheriff, or bailiff of any liberty, by any bailiff or person employed to execute process, that every such bailiff, &c. shall shew and deliver a copy of the said clauses to every person he shall arrest and carry to any public or other house where any liquor shall be sold, and shall permit every such person arrested, or any friend of him or her, to read over the same clauses, before any liquor or victuals be called for or brought to such person under arrest; and in case any bailiff, &c. offend in the premises, every such offence, besides the breach of the condition of such security bond, shall be deemed a misdemeanor in the execution of the process on which such person was arrested, and shall be punishable as such by this act. s. 3.

Every sheriff, under sheriff, bailiff of any liberty, and keeper of any prison, and other person to whose custody any one hath been or shall be arrested, committed, or charged in execution, by virtue of any process, shall permit such person during his continuance in custody to send for or have brought to him at seasonable times in the day time any beer or victuals, from what place he thinks fit or can have the same; and to use such bedding, linen, and other necessary things, as he shall have occasion for or be supplied with, without purloining or detaining the same, or requiring him to pay for the using thereof, or putting any restraint upon him in the using thereof, or relating thereto; and no such prisoner shall pay any thing in respect thereof to any such sheriff, &c. s. 4.

The lord chief justice of the king's bench, the lord chief justice of the common pleas, and the lord chief baron of the exchequer, or any two of them, with the mayor and two aldermen, or with three aldermen of London without the mayor, for the prisons within the said city; and the said lord chief justices, and lord chief baron, or any two of them, with three justices of peace of the counties of Middlesex and Surrey respectively, for the prisons in the said counties respectively; are required with all convenient speed to meet from time to time at such place as they think fit, and to settle a table of fees to be taken by any gaoler in London, or in Middlesex and Surrey, where the same hath not been already established; and where the same hath been established, they are to meet and vary the same from time to time as they see occasion. And the justices of peace of every other county and place, for the prisons in each county, &c. are at any general or quarter session of peace with all convenient speed, to settle a table of the fees to be taken by any gaoler within their respective jurisdictions, where the same hath not been already settled; and where the same hath been settled, to alter the same from time to time as there shall be occasion. And the tables of such fees so made or altered for the several prisons within the city of London, and counties of Middlesex and Surrey, shall be signed by the said lords chief justices, and lord chief baron, or two of them, and the mayor and two aldermen of London, or by three aldermen without the mayor, and by three justices of the peace of the counties of Middlesex and Surrey respectively: and the tables of such fees made or altered for the rest of the prisons shall be signed by three or more justices of peace, who make or alter the same at any general or quarter session of the peace; and shall afterwards be confirmed, or moderated, within England by the justices of assize; and if within Wales, or the county palatine of Chester, by the justices of great sessions respectively; at the next assizes, or great sessions, in the respective counties within their several circuits next after the making or altering such table of fees; and the same shall be afterwards signed by the respective judges of assize, or justices of great sessions, who confirm or moderate the same, and three or more justices of peace of such county, &c. for the prisons within their respective circuits, counties, or jurisdictions. s. 5.

Rules for the better government of the prisons in England, and of the prisoners therein, where such rules have not not already been made, ſhall with all convenient ſpeed be made by the ſeveral courts in Weſtminſter-hall, for the ſeveral priſons belonging to ſuch courts; and by the lords chief juſtices, and lord chief baron, or two of them, with the mayor and two aldermen of London, or three or more aldermen without the mayor, for the priſons within the ſaid city; and by the lords chief juſtices, and lord chief baron, or two of them, with three or more juſtices of peace, for the priſons within the counties of Middleſex and Surrey; and by three or more juſtices of peace of each county, &c. for the priſons within their reſpective counties, &c. at ſome general or quarter ſeſſions; and the ſame ſhall afterwards be reviewed, and may be altered if neceſſary, by the judge or judges of aſſize, or juſtice or juſtices of great ſeſſions reſpectively, at the next aſſizes or great ſeſſions within their ſeveral circuits, after the making or altering ſuch rules. And where any rules for regulating priſons have been or ſhall be made, the ſame may at all times hereafter be altered by the reſpective courts in Weſtminſter-hall, and other perſons authoriſed by this act: and after every making or altering, all ſuch rules ſo altered ſhall be ſigned by the judges of each reſpective court in Weſtminſter-hall, for the priſons and priſoners belonging to the ſaid court; and in reſpect to the other priſons or priſoners by the reſpective perſons authoriſed. And duplicates of every ſuch table of fees made or altered, and of all rules for regulating any priſon in purſuance of this act, belonging to the courts in Weſtminſter-hall, ſhall be inrolled on record in every ſuch reſpective court by the proper officer without fee: and a like duplicate of every ſuch table of fees or rules ſo made or altered, which relate to any other priſon or the priſoners therein in England, ſhall from time to time with all convenient ſpeed be tranſmitted to the reſpective clerks of the peace of the counties, &c. for which the ſame are made, and ſhall be by ſuch clerk of the peace entered on the rolls of the ſeſſions without fee: and ſuch clerks of the peace ſhall cauſe another copy to be hung up in the court where every aſſize, great ſeſſions, or quarter ſeſſions of the peace, for ſuch county, &c. in his juriſdiction, ſhall be held, there to be inſpected as occaſion ſhall require; and ſhall cauſe another copy to be tranſmitted to every gaoler within the juriſdiction of ſuch clerk of the peace: and ſuch gaoler ſhall forthwith, after the receipt of ſuch table of fees or rules, cauſe the ſame to be hung up in ſome public room or place, and in a conſpicuous manner, in his priſon; and it ſhall be incumbent on every ſuch gaoler to take care that the ſame be kept up there, ſo as the priſoners may have free reſort thereto, at ſeaſonable times in the day-time, without paying any thing for the ſame. ſ. 6.

The ſeveral courts of record in Weſtminſter-hall ſhall, in every Michaelmas term, appoint ſome day in ſuch term to inquire whether ſuch table of fees, and ſuch rules are hung up, and remain public, and eaſy to be reſorted to, in the priſons to the ſaid courts belonging, and whether the ſame be duly obſerved; and ſhall cauſe eight days notice to be given in every Michaelmas term, to the priſoners in the reſpective priſons of the time for ſuch inquiry, and ſhall inform themſelves touching the ſame in the beſt manner they can, and redreſs whatever they find neglected. ſ. 7.

The judges and juſtices of aſſize, gaol delivery, and great ſeſſions within their reſpective juriſdictions, ſhall at all aſſizes and ſeſſions of gaol delivery and great ſeſſions make inquiry whether ſuch table of fees and rules are hung up, and remain public to be reſorted to in the ſeveral priſons within their reſpective juriſdictions, and whether the ſame be duly obſerved; and ſhall inform themſelves touching the ſame in the beſt manner they can, and redreſs whatever they find neglected, and ſhall expreſsly give in charge to every grand jury ſworn before them reſpectively, to make inquiries concerning the ſame. ſ. 8.

The ſeveral courts of king's bench, common pleas, and exchequer, judges of aſſize, and juſtices of great ſeſſions, and juſtices of peace within their reſpective juriſdictions, and all commiſſioners for charitable uſes, ſhall from time to time uſe their beſt endeavours to diſcover the ſeveral gifts and legacies given for the benefit of the poor priſoners in the priſons within their reſpective juriſdictions; and they are hereby authoriſed to cauſe to be brought before them any deeds, wills, writings, books of account, and papers, as they ſhall receive information of and concern the premiſes; and may ſummon and cauſe to come before them any perſons who they apprehend may make diſcovery concerning the ſame; and examine ſuch perſons on oath, in order to get a true diſcovery thereof, and to ſettle the payment, recovery, and receipt of ſuch gifts or legacies. ſ. 9.

A table of ſuch gifts and legacies for the benefit of the priſoners in every priſon reſpectively, ſhall, after every ſettling thereof, be tranſmitted by the perſons authoriſed to ſettle the ſame, unto the clerks of the peace of the reſpective counties, &c. and ſhall be regiſtered by them in the manner tables of fees and orders are to be regiſtered, without fee. And a table of ſuch gifts and legacies ſhall be tranſmitted, by order of ſuch perſons as aforeſaid, to the keeper of every priſon to which the gifts therein contained relate; and forthwith ſhall be hung up by the gaoler in a conſpicuous manner in ſome public place in his priſon, and where the priſoners may have free reſort thereto, without fee: and it ſhall be the duty of every gaoler to take care that every ſuch table of gifts, or a copy thereof, be kept hung up in his priſon. ſ. 10.

Upon the petition in term time of any priſoner complaining of any extortion by any gaoler, bailiff, or other perſon employed in the keeping any priſon or other place where ſuch priſoner ſhall have been carried, or in reſpect of the arreſting any perſon, or of any other abuſe, unto any court of record at Weſtminſter from whence the proceſs iſſued, or under whoſe juriſdiction ſuch priſon or place is; or in vacation time, to any judge of any court at Weſtminſter, from whence ſuch proceſs iſſued; or to the judges of aſſize, or juſtices of great ſeſſions, in their reſpective circuits; or to the judge of any other court of record, where any priſoner was arreſted, or in cuſtody, by proceſs of ſuch court within England; and if within Wales, or the county palatine of Cheſter, then to the juſtices at ſome great ſeſſions for the county where ſuch priſoner was arreſted, or in cuſtody; every ſuch court, &c. are to hear and determine the ſame in a ſummary way, and to make order for redreſſing the abuſes complained of, and for puniſhing ſuch perſon complained againſt, and for making reparation to the party injured, with the coſts of ſuch complaint: and all orders thereupon made ſhall have the ſame effect, and obedienee thereto be enforced, as other orders of the ſaid reſpective courts, judges, juſtices of aſſize and great ſeſſions, or judges of inferior courts of record, may be enforced. ſ. 11.

No keeper of any priſon, or other perſon thereunto belonging, ſhall take directly or indirectly of any priſoner for debt, damages, coſts, or contempt, any greater fees for his commitment, chamber-rent, or diſcharge, than ſhall be allowed in the table of fees inrolled and regiſtered as aforeſaid; and every ſheriff and other officer who ſhall offend againſt this act, ſhall, for every ſuch offence (over and above ſuch penalties as he ſhall be liable unto by the laws now in force), forfeit to the party aggrieved 50 l. to be recovered, with treble costs, by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Westminster; wherein no essoin, &c. shall be allowed. s. 12.

If any person charged in execution for any sum not exceeding 100 l. * or on which execution there remains due (as shall be made appear by oath) a sum not amounting to above 100 l. be minded to deliver up to his creditors, who shall so charge him in execution, all his effects; it shall be lawful for such prisoner, before the end of the first term next after he is charged in execution, to exhibit a petition to any court at law from whence the process issued, or to the court into which such prisoner is removed by habeas corpus, or charged in custody, and remains in the prison thereof, certifying the cause of his imprisonment; and not only setting forth an account of all the real and personal estate which he, or any person in trust for him, is entitled to at the time of his petitioning, and of all incumbrances affecting such estate, but also an account of all the real and personal estate which such prisoner, or any person in trust for him, was entitled to, at the time of his first imprisonment in the action in which he is charged in execution, either in possession or expectancy, to the best of his belief, and so far as his knowledge extends; and an account of all securities wherein any part of his estates consists, and of all the deeds and papers concerning the same; and the names and places of abode of the witnesses to all securities or notes, and where they are to be met with, so far as his knowledge extends. And before such petition be received, such prisoner shall cause to be given or left, for all creditors at whose suit he stands charged in execution, or their executors or administrators, and at their usual place of abode (or for their attorney last employed in such action, in case any creditor, &c. cannot be met with), 14 days at least before such petition be presented, a notice in writing, signed with the name or mark of such prisoner, importing that such prisoner intends to petition the court, and setting forth a copy of the schedule of his estate, which he intends to deliver into court, except the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of the prisoner and his family, and the tools of his trade, not exceedidg 10 l. in value. And an affidavit of the due service of such notice shall be delivered with such petition, and read in court. And if such court be satisfied of the regularity of such notice, such petition shall be received; and such court shall, by rule, cause the prisoner so petitioning to be brought up to such court, on some day in such rule specified; and the creditors at whose suit he stands charged in execution, or their executors or administrators, to be summoned to appear personally, or by attorney, at some day specified in such rule: and if any creditors so summoned, or their executors or administrators appear, or if they neglect to appear, upon affidavit of the service of such rule on them (or their attorney, if they cannot be met with), such court shall, in a summary way, examine into such petition, and hear what shall be alleged for or against the discharge of such prisoner; and administer to the prisoner an oath to the effect following, viz.

I A. B. do swear in the presence of Almighty God, that the account by me set forth in my petition presented to this honourable court, doth contain a full and true account of the real and personal estate, debts, credits, and effects whatsoever, which I, or any in trust for me, at the time of my first imprisonment in this action, or at any time since, had, or was in any respect entitled to, in possession, reversion, or remainder (except the wearing apparel and bedding of or for me and my family, and the tools or instruments of my trade or calling, not exceeding 10 l. in value in the whole); and also an account how much of my real and personal estate, debts, credits, or effects, hath since been disposed of, released, or discharged, and how, to whom, and on what consideration, and for what purpose, and how much thereof I, or any person or persons in trust for me, have, or, at the time of my presenting my said petition to this honourable court, had, or which I am or was, or any person in trust for me, or for my use, is any ways interested in, or entitled to, in possession, reversion, remainder, or expectancy; and also a true account of all deeds, writings, books, papers, securities, bonds, and notes, relating thereto, and where the same respectively now are, to the best of my knowledge and belief, and what charges are now affecting the real estate I am now seised of, or entitled to (if such prisoner be then seised of any real estate), and that I have not, at any time before or since my imprisonment, directly or indirectly, sold, leased, assigned, mortgaged, pawned, or otherwise disposed of, or made over in trust for myself, or otherwise than is mentioned in such account, any part of my messuages, lands, tenements, estates, goods, stock, money, debts, or other real or personal estate, whereby to have or accept any benefit, advantage, or profit, to myself or my family, or with any view, design, or intent, to deceive, injure, or defraud, any of my creditors to whom I am indebted.

So help me God.

And in case any prisoner as aforesaid in court take the said oath, such court may then order the lands and effects contained in such account, or so much as may satisfy the debts wherewith such prisoner stands charged in execution, and the fees due to the keeper of the prison, to be by a short indorsement signed by the prisoner, assigned to the creditors who have charged such prisoner in execution, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, for the benefit of them who have so charged him in execution, subject to all prior incumbrances; and the estate belonging to any such prisoner shall, by such assignment, be vested in the persons to whom such assignment is made, according to the interest such prisoner had therein, and the creditors to whom such assignment is made, shall take possession of, and sue in their names for the recovery thereof, as assignees of commissioners of bankrupts may sue for the recovery of the effects of bankrupts; and no release of such prisoner, his executors, or administrators, or any trustee for him subsequent to such assignment, shall be pleadable in bar of any action commenced by such assignees of such prisoner: and upon every such assignment being executed by such prisoner, he shall be discharged out of custody by rule of court, and such rule being produced to, and a copy thereof left with such sheriff, or keeper of any prison, shall be a warrant to him to discharge such prisoner, if charged in execution, or detained for the causes mentioned in his petition, and no other. And every such sheriff or keeper is, on having such order produced to him, and a copy thereof left with him, to discharge forthwith every prisoner ordered to be so discharged, without taking any fee, or detaining him in respect of any demand of chamber-rent, or otherwise; or for any fees due to such sheriff, or keeper, or any employed under him. And no such sheriff or keeper shall be liable to any action of escape, or other suit or information, for what he shall do in pursuance of this act. And the persons to whom the effects of such prisoner shall be assigned, shall, with all convenient speed, sell the estates and effects of such prisoner, and divide the produce among the creditors who have charged such prisoner in execution, before the time of his petition, in proportion to their debts. But in case the persons at whose suit such prisoner stood charged in execution be not ſatisfied with the truth of ſuch priſoner's oath, and, either perſonally, or by attorney (if they cannot perſonally attend, and proof be made thereof to the ſatisfaction of ſuch court), deſire further time to inform themſelves of the matters therein, ſuch court may remand ſuch priſoner, and direct him and the perſons diſſatisfied with ſuch oath to appear in perſon, or by attorney, on ſome other day appointed by ſuch court, at furtheſt within the firſt week of the term next following the time of ſuch examination, but ſooner if ſuch court think fit. And all objection to the inſufficiency in form againſt any priſoner's ſchedule of his effects, ſhall be only made the firſt time ſuch priſoner is brought up. And if at ſuch ſecond day the creditors diſſatisfied with ſuch oath make default in appearing; or appear and be unable to diſcover any effects of the priſoner omitted in the account ſet forth in his petition; then ſuch court ſhall by rule immediately cauſe the priſoner to be diſcharged, upon ſuch priſoner's executing ſuch aſſignment as is before directed; unleſs ſuch creditor who charged ſuch priſoner in execution, his executors or adminiſtrators, inſiſt upon ſuch priſoner being detained, and agree by writing ſigned with his name or mark (or under the hand of his attorney, in caſe ſuch creditor, &c. be out of England) to pay weekly a ſum not exceeding 2 s. 4 d. as ſuch court thinks fit, unto the ſaid priſoner, to be paid every Monday in every week, ſo long as ſuch priſoner continues in priſon in execution at the ſuit of ſuch creditor; and in ſuch caſe ſuch priſoner ſhall be remanded to priſon: but if any failure at any time be made in the payment of the weekly ſum, ſuch priſoner, upon application, in term time, to the court where the ſuit was commenced, or carried on, or in the priſon of which ſuch priſoner ſtands committed on habeas corpus, or in vacation time, to the judge of ſuch court, may, by order of ſuch court or judge be diſcharged, proof being made on oath of the nonpayment for any week of the ſum ordered; but every ſuch priſoner before he be diſcharged ſhall execute an aſſignment of his effects in manner before directed. And if any priſoner petitioning for his diſcharge under this act, refuſe to take the oath before directed, or be detected before ſuch court or judge of falſity therein, or refuſe to execute ſuch aſſignment of his effects, he ſhall be remanded and continue in execution. ſ. 13.

Where more creditors than one charge any priſoner in execution, and deſire to have ſuch priſoner detained, each creditor ſhall only pay ſuch weekly ſum not exceeding 1 s. 6 d. a week, on every Monday, as the court at the time of his being remanded ſhall direct. ſ. 14.

Where any priſoner is charged in execution in any county-gaol, or in any other priſon above 20 miles from Weſtminſter Hall, or the court out of which the execution iſſued; then, upon petition to the court from whence ſuch execution iſſued, or in the priſon of which ſuch priſoner ſtands charged in execution, in like form as the petitions before-mentioned, and on affidavit, to the purport before directed, made and left with ſuch petition, ſuch court (being ſatisfied with the truth of ſuch affidavit) is to make a rule, to cauſe the priſoner ſo petitioning to be brought to the next aſſizes for the county or place where he is impriſoned, if the ſame be within England; and if within the principality of Wales, or county palatine of Cheſter, then to the next great ſeſſions for the county in which ſuch priſoner is impriſoned. And the expence of bringing ſuch priſoner to ſuch aſſizes, not exceeding 1 s. a mile, ſhall be paid to the gaoler who brings ſuch priſoner, out of ſuch priſoner's effects, if ſufficient to pay ſuch expence; and if not, then ſuch expence ſhall be paid by the treaſurer of the county, &c. in which ſuch priſoner is impriſoned, out of the ſtock of the county, &c. as the ſame is allowed by ſuch court from which ſuch execution iſſued, or in the priſon of which ſuch priſoner is, by one of the judges of aſſize or juſtices of great ſeſſions. And the creditors, their executors or adminiſtrators, at whoſe ſuit ſuch priſoner ſtands charged in execution, ſhall, by rule of court from whence the proceſs iſſued, be ſummoned to appear at the ſaid next aſſizes or great ſeſſions, if ſuch creditors, &c. can be met with; and if not, then the attorney laſt employed for ſuch creditors ſhall be ſummoned; and a copy of ſuch rule ſhall be ſerved on ſuch creditors, &c. or left at their uſual place of abode, or with their attorney laſt employed, 14 days at leaſt before ſuch aſſizes or great ſeſſions. And on an affidavit of ſuch ſervice being laid before the judge of aſſize, or of great ſeſſions, ſuch judge being ſatisfied with the truth of ſuch affidavit, is to appoint a time for hearing ſuch petition, on ſome day on the crown ſide of ſuch court during ſuch aſſizes or great ſeſſions. And upon the appearance of the creditors, &c. ſummoned in purſuance of this act; or in default of their appearance in perſon, or by attorney, on proof of their being ſerved with the notice required, and a copy of the account of the eſtate of the priſoner being compriſed in ſuch notice, and of the rule of court for his appearance at ſuch aſſizes or great ſeſſions having been ſerved; the judge ſhall, in a ſummary way, examine into ſuch petition, and hear what ſhall be alleged for or againſt the diſcharge of the priſoner; and upon ſuch examination, ſuch judge is to adminiſter to ſuch priſoner the oath before appointed: and ſuch judge is to make ſuch order in the premiſes as ſeems meet, and proceed in the ſame manner concerning the diſcharge of any priſoner in any priſon within their reſpective juriſdictions, and give the ſame relief and directions, as any court out of which any proceſs iſſued againſt any priſoner as aforeſaid: and every order made in the premiſes by ſuch judge of aſſize or great ſeſſions ſhall be as effectual as if made in the court out of which the proceſs iſſued on which ſuch priſoner was charged in execution; and the ſame ſhall be made a record of the proceedings at ſuch aſſizes or great ſeſſions, and a copy thereof ſhall be tranſmitted to the court from whence the execution againſt the priſoner diſcharged iſſued, ſigned by the judge of aſſize or great ſeſſions, to be a record of the ſaid court. ſ. 15.

If any priſoner now charged in execution for any debt or damages not exceeding 100 l. beſides coſts, ſhall not before the 29th of September 1759, make ſatisfaction to the creditors at whoſe ſuit he is charged in execution; or if any priſoner after the 15th of June 1759, charged in execution for any debt or damages not exceeding 100 l. beſides coſts, ſhall not within three months after he is charged in execution make ſatisfaction to his creditors who charge him in execution, then ſuch creditors, their executors or adminiſtrators, are empowered to require ſuch priſoner, on giving 20 days notice in writing to him, that they deſign to compel him to give in to the court from which the proceſs iſſued, on which he is charged in execution, or into the court in the priſon of which he hath been removed by habeas corpus, or remains charged in execution, within the firſt ſeven days of the term next enſuing the expiration of the ſaid 20 days, in reſpect to any priſoner charged in any priſon belonging to the courts in Weſtminſter Hall; and at the ſecond court held by any other court of record after the expiration of the ſaid 20 days, in reſpect to any priſoner charged in any priſon belonging to ſuch other court; and where any ſuch priſoner is charged in execution in any priſon above 20 miles from Weſtminſter Hall, or the court out of which the proceſs, on which he is charged in execution, iſſued, then to give in upon oath, at the aſſizes or great ſeſſions as aforeſaid, and on the crown ſide thereof, for the county or place in the priſon of which ſuch priſoner is, next after the expiration of ſuch 20 days, an account in writing, ſigned with his name or mark, of his real and perſonal eſtate, and of all incumbrances affecting the ſame, to the beſt of his knowledge and belief, in order that his effects may be diveſted out of him, and may by the court or judge as aforeſaid, be ordered to be aſſigned in manner and for the purpoſes herein after declared: and every creditor requiring any priſoner to be brought up as aforeſaid, ſhall alſo give 20 days notice in writing of his intention to all other creditors of ſuch priſoner, at whoſe ſuit he is detained, if he be detained or charged in execution at the ſuit of any other creditors beſides thoſe giving ſuch notice, if ſuch other creditors can be found, and if not, then to the ſeveral attornies laſt employed in the reſpective actions in which ſuch priſoner is ſo detained; and ſhall give a like notice in writing to the ſheriff or keeper of the priſon in which ſuch priſoner is detained, of his intention to have ſuch priſoner brought up, and to require ſuch ſheriff or gaoler to bring up ſuch priſoner. And ſuch notice to any ſheriff or gaoler ſhall be ſo given 20 days at leaſt before the time appointed for ſuch priſoner to be brought up: and thereupon every ſuch ſheriff or gaoler to whom ſuch notice is ſo given, ſhall, at the coſts of ſuch creditor, cauſe ſuch priſoner to be brought, as by ſuch notice is required, to ſuch court, aſſizes, or great ſeſſions, as aforeſaid, together with a copy of the cauſes of his detainer: and if ſuch ſheriff or gaoler, on ſuch notice in writing being given him, and tender, on behalf of ſuch creditor, of reaſonable charges, not exceeding 1 s. a mile, to bring up the priſoner required, neglect to bring him there at the time required, with a copy of his detainer, ſuch ſheriff or keeper ſhall, for every ſuch offence, forfeit 20 l. to be recovered by the party aggrieved by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter, if ſuch offence be committed out of Wales, or the county palatine of Cheſter; and if in the principality of Wales, or county palatine of Cheſter, then in ſome court of record in the ſaid principality or county palatine within the juriſdiction of which ſuch offence is committed, with treble coſts. ſ. 16.

Every priſoner charged in execution, who in the purſuance of this act ſhall, at the deſire of any creditor, be brought up to any ſuch court, ſhall, on proof there firſt made of ſuch notices as before directed having been given, deliver in court upon oath, within the time before preſcribed, an account in writing of his real and perſonal eſtate, and of all writings and ſecurities relating thereto, and of all incumbrances then affecting the ſame, and the reſpective times when made, to the beſt of his knowledge and belief, except neceſſary wearing apparel and bedding of ſuch priſoner and his family, and the neceſſary tools of his trade, not exceeding the value of 10 l. which account ſhall be ſubſcribed with the name or mark of the priſoner: and on the delivering in of ſuch account, the effects of ſuch priſoner ſhall be aſſigned by ſuch priſoner, by a ſhort indorſement on ſuch account, to ſuch perſons as the court or judge, in which, or to whom ſuch account ſhall be ſo given in, ſhall order, in truſt for the creditor who required ſuch priſoner to be brought up, and of ſuch other creditors (if any) at whoſe ſuit ſuch priſoner is charged in cuſtody or in execution, and who by writing, ſigned by them reſpectively, before ſuch aſſignment, conſent to ſuch priſoner's being diſcharged at their ſuits, and agree to take a proportionable dividend of his effects, with the creditors who required him to be brought up; and if there be no other creditors, or there being ſuch they do not agree in writing to diſcharge ſuch priſoner, and accept ſuch proportionable dividend, then in truſt for the creditors only who ſhall require ſuch priſoner to be brought up; and by ſuch aſſignment all the priſoner's effects ſhall be veſted in the creditors to whom the ſame are aſſigned, in truſt as aforeſaid; and if any overplus remain after payment of the debt, or damages, and coſts, due to any creditors, at whoſe ſuit ſuch priſoner is diſcharged, and all charges of getting in ſuch effects, the ſame ſhall be paid to ſuch priſoner, his executors, adminiſtrators, or aſſigns. And upon every ſuch aſſignment by ſuch priſoner, to the ſatisfaction of the court, judge of aſſize, or juſtice of great ſeſſions, before whom the ſame is made, ſuch priſoner ſhall by ſuch court or judge be diſcharged in the actions of the creditors who require ſuch priſoner to be brought up, and in the actions of every other creditor ſigning ſuch conſent as aforeſaid, with the ſame benefit of making uſe of ſuch diſcharge, as is before provided for priſoners ſeeking and obtaining their diſcharge under the proviſions in the former part of this act; and no greater fee than 2 s. 6 d. ſhall be taken for ſuch diſcharge by all or any officers of any ſuch courts, aſſizes, or great ſeſſions; and no ſtamp ſhall be neceſſary on ſuch aſſignment, or any rule made for ſuch diſcharge. But all the future effects of ſuch priſoner (except the neceſſary wearing apparel and bedding of ſuch priſoner and his family, and the tools of his trade) ſhall be liable to his debts, if not fully paid from his eſtate aſſigned as aforeſaid. And no advantage ſhall be taken in any action hereafter commenced againſt ſuch priſoner, his heirs, executors, or adminiſtrators, for that the cauſe of action did not accrue within ſix years next before the commencing of ſuch action, unleſs ſuch priſoner was entitled to ſuch advantage before he ſtood charged by the original action; and in ſuch caſe the ſame may be pleaded by ſuch priſoner, his heirs, &c. And if any priſoner charged in execution, and required to be brought up as aforeſaid, neglect to deliver in and ſubſcribe ſuch account of his effects in ſuch court, &c. within the time before appointed, or within 60 days then next following, without making appear ſome juſt excuſe to be allowed of by the court, &c. or refuſe to aſſign his effects, he ſo offending and convicted upon indictment, ſhall be tranſported to ſome of the plantations in America, for ſeven years. And if ſuch priſoner deliver in a falſe account of his effects, or deſignedly conceal, and not inſert in the account, any ſecurities or writings relating to his effects, with intent to defraud his creditors, and be convicted on indictment, he ſhall ſuffer the pains and penalties by law inflicted on perſons convicted of wilful perjury. ſ. 17.

If any perſon taking any oath by this act required, upon any indictment for perjury, be convicted by confeſſion or verdict, he ſhall ſuffer the pains and forfeitures by law inflicted on perſons convicted of wilful perjury, and ſhall be liable to be taken on any proceſs de novo, and charged in execution for the ſaid debt, as if he had not been diſcharged, or not charged in execution before, and ſhall never after have the benefit of this act. ſ. 18.

If the effects of any priſoner aſſigned in purſuance of this act, extend not to ſatisfy the whole debt, and the fees to the gaoler, ſuch gaoler ſhall only receive a proportionable dividend in reſpect of ſuch fees pro rata with the other creditors. ſ. 19.

The priſoner ſo diſcharged ſhall never after be arreſted for the ſame debts; nor ſhall any action of debt be brought againſt him on any ſuch judgment, unleſs he be under this act convicted of wilful perjury. But notwithſtanding any diſcharge by this act for the perſon of ſuch priſoner, the judgment againſt him ſhall continue in force, and execution may at any time be taken out thereon againſt the lands or goods of ſuch priſoner, except the neceſſary wearing apparel and bedding for himſelf and family, and the tools for his trade, not exceeding 10 l. in value. ſ. 20.

Any aſſignee to whom by virtue of this act the effects of any priſoner diſcharged by this act ſhall be aſſigned, is empowered to make compoſition with any debtors or accountants to ſuch priſoner, where the ſame appears reaſonable, and to take ſuch part of any debt as can be gotten in full diſcharge of ſuch debt or account; and alſo to ſubmit any difference concerning ſuch priſoner's effects, or in reſpect of any debt to ſuch priſoner, to the determination of arbitrators choſen by the aſſignees, and the parties with whom ſuch difference is; and if ſuch arbitrators cannot agree, then to the determination of any umpire choſen by them, or otherwiſe to ſettle the matter in difference between them, as ſuch aſſignees think fit; and the ſame ſhall be binding, as well to all other of the priſoner's creditors who have charged him in cuſtody or execution, as to ſuch priſoner: and every ſuch aſſignee is indemnified for what he fairly does in the premiſes according to this act. ſ. 21.

It ſhall be lawful for the reſpective courts at Weſtminſter, from whence any proceſs iſſued, upon which ſuch priſoner was charged in execution, whoſe effects are aſſigned; or where ſuch priſoner is charged in execution by proceſs iſſued out of any other court, it ſhall be lawful for the judges of the king's bench, common pleas, and exchequer, or any one of them, on the petition of any creditor having charged ſuch priſoner in execution, or of ſuch priſoner, complaining of any fraud or miſbehaviour of any ſuch aſſignee, to order the parties concerned to attend ſuch court or judge at ſome certain time in ſuch order mentioned; and every ſuch court at Weſtminſter, and every judge thereof, is hereby authoriſed to make ſuch order in the premiſes, either for diſplacing ſuch aſſignee, and appointing a new aſſignee, or for the prudent management of the ſaid effects, for the benefit of the creditors, as any of the ſaid courts or judges think fit; and in caſe of the diſplacing of an aſſignee, and the appointing of a new aſſignee, the effects of ſuch priſoner ſhall from thenceforth be diveſted out of the aſſignee ſo removed, and be veſted in, and delivered over to the new aſſignee, in the ſame manner, and for the like purpoſes, as the ſame were before veſted in the former aſſignee. ſ. 22.

Where mutual credit ſhall have been given between any priſoner diſcharged under this act, and any other perſon before the delivery of any ſchedule of the effects of ſuch priſoner upon oath; the aſſignees of ſuch priſoner ſhall ſtate an account between them; and nothing more ſhall be veſted by any aſſignment made in purſuance of this act, as effects of ſuch priſoner, than what appears due to him for the balance of ſuch account. ſ. 23.

No perſon who hath taken or ſhall take the benefit of any act for the relief of inſolvent debtors, ſhall have any benefit under this act, or be deemed within the meaning hereof, ſo as to gain any diſcharge, unleſs compelled by any creditor to deliver up his effects. ſ. 24.

This ſhall not extend to Scotland. ſ. 25. See "ARRESTS, DEBT."

By 13 Geo. 3. c. 58. It ſhall be lawful for the juſtices at quarter ſeſſions within England and Wales, to aſcertain how many clergymen ſhall by them be deemed neceſſary to be employed in performing religious duties, according to the rights of the church of England, in the ſeveral gaols within their juriſdictions, and to aſcertain what duty ſhall be performed, and what ſalary ſhall be paid to every clergyman, not exceeding 50 l. yearly. ſ. 1.

The treaſurers of ſuch counties, &c. receiving a certificate, ſigned by the chairman of ſuch quarter ſeſſions, of the number of clergymen, and the ſalary to be reſpectively paid to them, ſhall pay out of the rates of ſuch county, &c. the ſums in the certificate mentioned; and the ſaid ſums ſo paid ſhall be allowed to the treaſurers by the juſtices before whom their accounts ſhall be paſſed. ſ. 2.

When the number of ſuch clergymen, and the ſalary to be reſpectively paid to them, ſhall have been ſettled by ſuch juſtices, it ſhall be lawful for juſtices, at the quarter ſeſſions, to nominate, in every county, &c. where the juſtices ſhall have aſcertained the number of the clergymen and the ſalary to be paid to them, ſo many clergymen to perform divine ſervice, according to the rites of the church of England, in the ſeveral gaols within ſuch county, &c. as ſhall have been ſo aſcertained by ſuch juſtices; and in caſe ſuch clergymen ſhall die, or be thought unworthy, at the quarter ſeſſions, to be continued in office, then it ſhall be lawful for ſuch quarter ſeſſions to nominate, from time to time, any other clergyman to officiate in the room of ſuch clergyman dying, or deemed unworthy to continue in office. ſ. 3.

By 14 Geo. 3. c. 20. Every priſoner charged with felony, or other crime, or as an acceſſary thereto, before any court holding criminal juriſdiction, within England and Wales, againſt whom no bill of indictment ſhall be found by the grand jury, or who, on his trial, ſhall be acquitted, or who ſhall be diſcharged by proclamation, for want of proſecution, ſhall be immediately ſet at large in open court, without payment of any fee to the ſheriff, gaoler, or keeper of the gaol, from whence he ſhall be diſcharged. ſ. 1.

All fees uſually paid to the ſheriff, gaolers, and keepers of priſons, in England and Wales, in any of the caſes aforeſaid, ſhall ceaſe; and no gaoler ſhall demand or receive any money from any of the ſaid priſoners, as fees for his diſcharge. ſ. 2.

In lieu of ſuch fees aboliſhed, the treaſurers, or other officers of the counties, &c. not uſually aſſeſſed to the county at large, and of ſuch cities, &c. as do not pay to the rates of the ſeveral counties in which they are ſituated, ſhall, on receiving a certificate, ſigned by one judge or juſtice, before whom ſuch priſoner ſhall have been diſcharged (which certificate the judge is to give), pay out of the rates of ſuch county, or of ſuch diſtrict, &c. or out of the public ſtock of ſuch city, &c. ſuch ſum as has been uſually paid upon that occaſion, not exceeding 13 s. 4 d. for every priſoner diſcharged, to the ſheriff, gaoler, or keeper of the priſon, which ſums ſo paid ſhall be allowed to the ſaid treaſurers and officers by the juſtices before whom their accounts ſhall be paſſed. ſ. 3.

By 14 Geo. 3. 59. The juſtices in England and Wales, in their quarter ſeſſions aſſembled, are to order the walls and cielings of the cells and wards, both of the debtors and the felons, and alſo of any other rooms uſed by the priſoners in their gaols and priſons, where felons are uſually confined, to be ſcraped and white-waſhed, once in the year at leaſt; to be regularly waſhed and kept clean, and conſtantly ſupplied with freſh air, by hand ventilators, or otherwiſe; to order two rooms in each gaol or priſon, one for the men, and the other for the women, to be ſet apart for the ſick priſoners, directing them to be removed into ſuch rooms as ſoon as they ſhall be ſeized with any diſorder, and kept ſeparate from thoſe who ſhall be in health; to order a warm and cold bath, or bathing tubs, to be provided in each gaol or priſon, and direct the priſoners to be waſhed in ſuch baths or tubs, according to the condition in which they ſhall be at the time, before they are ſuffered to go out of ſuch priſons upon any occaſion whatever; to order this act to be painted in large and legible characters, upon a board, and hung up in ſome conſpicuous part of each priſon; and to appoint an experienced ſurgeon or apothecary, at a ſtated ſalary, to attend each priſon, who ſhall report to the juſtices by whom he is appointed, at each quarter ſeſſions, a ſtate of the health of the priſoners under his care. ſ. 1.

The juſtices in quarter ſeſſions, are to direct the courts of juſtice within their juriſdiction to be ventilated; to order cloaths for the priſoners when they ſee occaſion; to prevent the priſoners from being kept under ground, whenever they can do it conveniently; and to make ſuch other orders for reſtoring or preſerving health as they ſhall think neceſſary. ſ. 2.

The expences attending the execution of the orders of the juſtices, ſo far as the ſame ſhall reſpect county gaols, &c. and courts of juſtice belonging to counties, ſhall be defrayed out of the county rates; and ſo far as the ſame ſhall reſpect the gaols, and courts of juſtice, of particular cities, &c. that do not contribute to the rates of the counties, &c. ſuch expences ſhall be defrayed out of the public ſtock or rates of ſuch cities, &c.: and if any gaoler ſhall neglect or diſobey the orders of ſuch juſtices, he may be proceeded againſt in a ſummary way, by complaint made to the judges of aſſize, or to the juſtices in quarter ſeſſions; and if found guilty, he ſhall pay ſuch fine as the judges or juſtices ſhall impoſe, and ſhall be committed in caſe of non-payment. ſ. 3.

By 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 54. It ſhall be lawful for the juſtices for every county, &c. within England and Wales, at their general quarter ſeſſions, the ſaid juſtices there aſſembled, not being leſs than ſeven, upon preſentment made by the grand jury, at the aſſizes, great ſeſſions, or general gaol delivery, held for every ſuch county, &c. of the inſufficiency, inconveniency, or want of repair, of any gaol belonging to ſuch county, &c. to contract with any perſon, for the building, rebuilding, finiſhing, repairing, or enlarging ſuch gaol, and the yards, courts, and outlets thereof, and adding ſuch other buildings, and making ſuch conveniencies as ſhall be adjudged requiſite, by the juſtices, at a certain ſum; or for erecting any new gaol, upon any ſcite, or ground within any diſtance not exceeding two miles from the ſcite of the old gaol, and in that caſe for ſelling the old gaol and the ſcite thereof, and land thereto belonging, or any part thereof, and alſo the materials of the old gaol, for the beſt price; ſuch contractors giving ſecurity for the performance of their contracts, to the clerks of the peace for ſuch county, &c. ſ. 1.

The ſaid juſtices, after ſuch preſentment made ſhall, at the next general quarter ſeſſions, give notice, three times at leaſt, in ſome public paper, circulating in ſuch county, &c. of ſuch preſentment having been made, and of their intention to take the ſame into conſideration at the next, or ſome following general quarter ſeſſions; and after ſuch conſideration ſhall have been had, the juſtices ſhall give notice in ſuch public paper, of their intention of contracting with any perſon for building, rebuilding, finiſhing, repairing, or enlarging ſuch gaol, and of every other matter intended to be done in conſequence of ſuch preſentment; and ſuch contract ſhall be made at the moſt reaſonable rates, and with the moſt reſponſible perſons; and every contractor ſhall give ſecurity for the performance of his contract to the clerk of the peace; and all contracts when made, and all orders relating thereto, ſhall be entered in a book to be kept by the clerk of the peace, who is to keep the ſame, among the records of ſuch county, &c. to be inſpected at all ſeaſonable times, by any of the juſtices or other perſons contributing to the rates of ſuch county, &c. without fee. ſ. 2.

It ſhall be lawful for the juſtices to build any new gaol, in any part of the county, &c. in caſe, (in the preſentment made of the inconvenience of ſuch old gaol) it be expreſsly preſented, that the place wherein the old gaol is ſituate is improper, and that the ſaid gaol ought to be removed to ſome other part of the county, &c.; and in caſe three-fourths in number of the juſtices, at two ſucceſſive quarter ſeſſions (notice having been given three times in ſome public newſpaper, of the time of the holding, and of the place to which ſuch gaol is to be removed), ſhall approve of ſuch removal, but not otherwiſe. ſ. 3.

The juſtices, as well in the choice of the ground, as in determining upon the plans for building, rebuilding, enlarging, or altering ſuch gaols, and the yards thereof, ſhall, as far as may be, purſue ſuch meaſures, and adopt ſuch plans, as ſhall provide ſeparate places of confinement, and dry and airy cells, in which the priſoners may be confined, as well by day as by night: priſoners convicted of felony; priſoners committed on charge or ſuſpicion of felony; priſoners committed for, or adjudged guilty of, miſdemeanors only; and debtors, the males of each claſs to be ſeparated from the females; and a ſeparate place of confinement to be provided for ſuch priſoners as are intended to be examined as witneſſes on behalf of any proſecution of any indictment for felony; and alſo ſeparate infirmaries or ſick wards, for the men and the women; and alſo a chapel, and convenient warm and cold baths, or bathing tubs, for the uſe of the priſoners, in ſuch manner as is directed by 14 Geo. 3. c. 59. and care to be taken that the priſoners ſhall not be kept in any apartments under ground. ſ. 4.

The ſaid juſtices (after preſentment made) ſhall have full power to purchaſe any houſes, buildings, lands, tenements, hereditaments, ways, waters, and watercourſes, for building, enlarging, and accommodating ſuch gaols; and to direct the houſes, &c. ſo purchaſed, to be conveyed to ſuch perſon the juſtices think fit, in truſt for the purpoſes aforeſaid; and ſuch houſes, &c. when incloſed and added thereto, ſhall be deemed to be a part of ſuch gaols, and to be part of ſuch county, &c. where ſuch gaol is ſituated. ſ. 5.

Whenever the juſtices, in their ſaid general quarter ſeſſions, ſhall deem it neceſſary, that the felons, debtors, and other priſoners, ſhall be removed, either for repairing their old gaol, or uſing the materials thereof in building a new gaol, on giving notice to the ſheriff of ſuch county, &c. it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid ſheriff to remove ſuch felons, debtors, and other priſoners, to the houſe of correction belonging to ſuch county, &c. or ſuch other places of confinement as the ſaid juſtices, with the conſent of the ſheriff, ſhall approve of, and to confine them there during the time ſuch new gaol ſhall be building, or old gaol repairing or enlarging; and when ſuch gaol ſhall be made fit for the reception of ſuch priſoners, then it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid ſheriff to remove thither all ſuch priſoners then in his cuſtody; and the expence of ſuch removal, and on account of the ſafe cuſtody of ſuch priſoners, ſhall be paid by ſuch county, &c.; and ſuch removal ſhall not be deemed an eſcape: provided nothing herein ſhall diſcharge the ſheriff or gaoler from being anſwerable for the actual eſcape of any priſoner. ſ. 6.

The

The juſtices in their general quarter ſeſſions, are to nominate one or more juſtices, to viſit and ſuperintend the gaols, and from time to time to make a report of the ſtate thereof to the general quarter ſeſſions, which is authoriſed, upon ſuch report, to order any money, not exceeding 200*l.* in one year, to be laid out upon the repair of ſuch gaols, as they ſhall deem requiſite (notwithſtanding ſuch want of repair ſhall not have been preſented by the grand jury as aforeſaid); and if it ſhall happen that the ſaid gaols, by any breach made in the ſame, from attempts of priſoners to eſcape, or other caſualties, ſhall be rendered unſafe for the cuſtody of priſoners, between the holding the general quarter ſeſſions, it ſhall be lawful for one juſtice to order the damages occaſioned thereby to be immediately ſo far repaired as may be neceſſary for the ſafe cuſtody of ſuch priſoners; and ſuch juſtice ſhall report the ſame to the next general quarter ſeſſions, which is to order the payment of ſuch money as ſhall have been expended in ſuch reparation. ſ. 7.

Where ſuch gaols are repaired at the expence of the county, &c. to which the ſame belong, the juſtices, at their general quarter ſeſſions, may cauſe ſuch money to be raiſed as directed by 12 Geo. 2. c. 29. & 13 Geo. 2. c. 18. (See COUNTY RATES, in PART I.) ſ. 8.

When it ſhall appear, that the amount of any eſtimate, approved by the juſtices, for building, rebuilding, enlarging, or removing and fitting up any gaol, under this act, ſhall exceed one half of the amount of the ordinary annual aſſeſſment for the county rate, to be taken in a proportion of the rate for the laſt five years, then it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices, within the limits of their commiſſions, ſo aſſembled in quarter ſeſſions, to borrow on mortgage of the rates, by inſtruments in the form contained in the ſchedule, or to that effect, any ſums not leſs than 50*l.* nor exceeding 100*l.* each, at legal or lower intereſt, as to the major part (not leſs than five) ſhall appear neceſſary; and to ſecure ſuch money borrowed upon the credit of the rates to be raiſed upon ſuch county; and the ſaid juſtices, ſo aſſembled, are to treat with any perſon for the loan of any money, and by their order to confirm ſuch agreement; and ſuch agreement eſtabliſhed by ſuch order, and ſigned by the chairman, and two juſtices preſent at the making ſuch order, ſhall be effectual for ſecuring to the perſon advancing any money, all ſuch money, with intereſt for the ſame, on ſuch terms as in ſuch agreement ſhall be ſtipulated; and copies of all ſuch agreements or ſecurities ſhall be kept with the clerk of the peace, or other officer having the cuſtody of the records of the quarter ſeſſions; and every perſon to whom ſuch ſecurity ſhall be made, or who ſhall be entitled to the money thereby ſecured, is empowered (by indorſing his name on the back of ſuch ſecurity) to transfer the ſame unto any perſon, and ſuch aſſignee may in like manner transfer the ſame again, and ſo toties quoties; and the perſons to whom ſuch ſecurities or ſuch aſſignment thereof ſhall be made, ſhall be creditors upon the rates in an equal degree, and ſhall not have any priority. ſ. 9.

The ſaid juſtices are not only to charge the rates to be raiſed upon ſuch county, with the intereſt of the money borrowed, but alſo with the payment of a farther ſum, equal at leaſt to the intereſt of ſuch ſecurities; which ſums ſhall be aſſeſſed on ſuch county, &c. in ſuch manner as county rates are aſſeſſed and paid, under the direction of the ſaid juſtices, in diſcharge of the intereſt, and of ſo many of the principal ſums on the ſaid ſecurities as ſuch money will extend to diſcharge in each year, until the whole, and the intereſt thereof, ſhall be fully paid; and the ſaid juſtices are to fix one or more days in each year, on which ſuch payment ſhall be made, and ſhall make orders for aſſeſſments in due time, ſo as to provide for the regular payment thereof; and they are to appoint a proper perſon to keep an account of all the receipts and payments under this act, in a book ſeparate from all other accounts, and the ſame to adjuſt in ſuch manner that it may eaſily be ſeen what intereſt is growing due, and what principal money has been diſcharged, and what remains due; and the ſaid books, ſo ſettled, to deliver into court at every general or quarter ſeſſions; and the ſaid juſtices are, at ſuch ſeſſions, carefully to inſpect all ſuch accounts, and make orders for carrying this act into execution; and if it ſhall appear to the juſtices, that the perſon appointed has neglected the order, and has not duly applied the money in his hands to the purpoſes hereby directed, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit double the amount of the money not applied; and the ſaid juſtices, aſſembled in ſeſſion, ſhall direct in what order ſuch ſecurities ſhall be diſcharged, by drawing lots, or otherwiſe, as they think fit, firſt diſcharging all ſecurities which bear the higheſt intereſt. ſ. 10.

The juſtices in their quarter ſeſſions ſhall make proviſion, by means of the rates and by their orders, in ſuch manner, that the whole money borrowed under this act ſhall be fully paid within a time to be limited, not exceeding 14 years from the time of borrowing the ſame. ſ. 11.

It ſhall be lawful for the king, for all bodies politic and corporate, and alſo for all guardians, committees, huſbands, truſtees, and attornies, of any perſon being infants, lunatics, idiots, under coverture, or any other diſability, and alſo for all other perſons, to contract for, and to ſell, convey, and aſſure houſes, buildings, lands, tenements, hereditaments, eaſements, and privileges, unto ſuch perſons as ſhall be named by the juſtices, in truſt, and for the purpoſe of erecting new gaols, &c.; and all ſuch contracts, &c. ſhall be valid. ſ. 12.

All money agreed to be paid to any corporation, &c. whoſe houſes, &c. ſhall be limited in ſtrict ſettlement, for the purchaſe of ſuch lands, &c. ſhall, in caſe ſuch money ſhall exceed 100*l.* be laid out by ſuch corporations, &c. as ſoon as may be, in the purchaſe of lands, &c. in fee ſimple, to be conveyed to or to the uſe of ſuch corporations, &c. for ſuch eſtate, and upon ſuch uſes, &c. as the houſes, &c. in reſpect whereof ſuch purchaſe money ſhall be paid as aforeſaid, ſhall be limited, &c.; the charges of ſuch conveyances and ſettlements to be paid in the ſame manner as other expences relating to the gaol; and till ſuch purchaſe ſhall be made, ſuch money, whether the ſame ſhall or ſhall not exceed 100*l.* ſhall be laid out by ſuch corporations, &c. in ſome government ſecurities, in the names of two perſons, one to be nominated by the party intereſted therein, and the other by the juſtices; and the intereſt ariſing from ſuch ſecurities ſhall be paid to ſuch perſon as would have been entitled to the rents and profits of ſuch lands, &c. in caſe the ſame had not been ſold. ſ. 13.

If ſuch corporations, guardians, committees, huſbands, truſtees, and attornies, or any perſons intereſted in ſuch houſes, &c. deemed neceſſary for the purpoſes of this act, upon notice in writing to them given, or left at the houſes of abode of ſuch perſons, or of the principal officer of ſuch corporation, ſhall, for 21 days after ſuch notice, neglect, or refuſe to treat, or ſhall refuſe to accept ſuch price as ſhall be offered by the juſtices or their agent, or ſhall otherwiſe not agree for the ſale of ſuch houſes, &c. or if by abſence or incapacity, they ſhall be prevented from treating for ſuch ſale, then the juſtices, at their general or quarter ſeſſions, or two of them appointed for that purpoſe, ſhall cauſe cause the value of such houses, &c. to be ascertained by a jury of indifferent men of the county, &c. and to that end shall summon before such jury, and examine upon oath (which one of such justices is to administer) any persons whomsoever; and such justices, or two of them, shall, by ordering a view or otherwise, use all ways for the information of themselves and of such jury in the premises; and when such jury shall have ascertained the value of such houses, &c. the said justices shall thereupon order that the sums which shall appear to be the value of such houses, &c. shall be paid in such manner as is before directed, touching the money to be paid for such houses, &c. whereof the person interested shall contract in manner aforesaid; which verdict and order shall be filed of record by the clerk of the peace or officer having the custody of the records, and shall be final and conclusive against all parties whomsoever. s. 14.

Such justices, or two of them, may issue their warrants to the sheriff or bailiff of any particular county, or precinct, within the limits of which the houses, &c. shall be situated, requiring him to return a jury of 24 persons, qualified to serve on juries, to appear before the justices, or two of them, at such time as in such warrants shall be appointed; and such sheriff or bailiff is to impannel, summon, and return such persons, and out of the persons returned, or out of such as shall appear upon such summons, the justices, or two of them, shall draw by ballot, and swear, or cause to be sworn, 12 men, who shall be the jury for the purposes aforesaid, and in default of a sufficient number returned, the sheriff or bailiff shall take such other men of the by-standers, or that can speedily be procured to attend that service, to make up 12; and all persons concerned shall have their lawful challenges against any of the jurymen when they come to be sworn: and the justices, or two of them, shall have power to impose a fine on such sheriff or bailiff, or his deputy, making default in the premises, and on any of the persons summoned and returned on such jury, and who shall not appear, or appearing, shall refuse to be sworn on the jury, or being sworn, shall refuse to give, or shall not give a verdict, or shall in any other manner wilfully neglect his duty, and also on any person who, being summoned and required to give evidence before the jury, shall refuse or neglect to appear, or appearing, shall refuse to be sworn or to give evidence, so that no such fine be more than 10 l. nor less than 20 s. on one person. s. 15.

In case any jury shall give in a verdict for more money, as the value of such houses, &c. than what shall have been offered for the purchase thereof by the justices, or their agent, the costs of summoning and maintaining the jury and witnesses shall be paid out of the same fund as the expences of the buildings; but if such jury shall give in a verdict for no more, or for less money, than the money which shall have been offered by such justices, then the costs of summoning and maintaining the said jury, shall be paid by the person with whom such controversy shall arise. s. 16.

Upon payment of the money ordered to be paid for the purchase of such houses, &c. or (upon refusal or inability to receive the same) leaving the same in the hands of such person as the justices in quarter sessions shall appoint, for the use of the party entitled thereto; or in case of the said party not being to be found, then, upon notice to be published in some paper circulating in the said county, &c. where such gaol is to be built or enlarged, of the payment of such purchase-money, the said lands, &c. so purchased, shall vest in the person authorised to take the same by this act; and it shall be lawful for the justices, or two of them, their workmen, or agents, to take possession of such houses, &c.; and thereupon all such persons who were the owners or occupiers thereof, shall be divested of all right to the same. s. 17.

'As in several counties in England, there are several 'commissions of justices for the several ridings into which 'such counties are divided, and several courts of sessions are 'holden for each of such ridings, and in such counties there 'are not any courts of general or quarter sessions;' therefore in all such counties it shall be lawful for the justices for such ridings, at the general quarter sessions, holden next after such presentment of the gaol, to appoint three justices for such riding for which such general quarter sessions shall be holden, which said justices so appointed by each of such ridings, are, within one month after such appointment (due notice thereof having been previously given to such justices by the clerk of the peace), to meet at such gaol which shall have been presented; and the said justices, or the major part of them there assembled (not being less than five), shall hold a special sessions at the gaol, for receiving plans, and contracting for the building, rebuilding, repairing, enlarging, or altering such gaol, and the yards thereto belonging, subject to the like regulations as are before provided for counties not divided into such ridings as aforesaid; and the last-mentioned justices shall make their report to the general quarter sessions of such ridings, of the several plans, estimates, and contracts, made and entered into as aforesaid, and also a report of the money necessary to be raised on each riding, as their quota of the expence to be incurred on the accounts aforesaid; which money shall be raised on each riding as county rates are now raised. s. 18.

No justice who shall, under this act, do any matter in the execution thereof, shall be capable of having any beneficial interest or concern whatsoever, either in his own name, or in the name of any other in trust for him, in any contract made under this act, or shall, for any design or plan he may deliver or produce, receive any benefit whatsoever. s. 19.

'As preventing gaolers from selling liquors or deriving 'any profit from the sale of liquors, may prevent drunken-'ness in gaols, &c., and it may be proper to give autho-'rity to the justices in sessions, to allow salaries to gaolers in 'lieu of the profits now derived from the sale of liquors;' therefore it shall be lawful for the justices, within England or Wales, at the general quarter sessions, to appoint such salaries or allowances, to such gaolers and their assistants, in the several gaols within their jurisdictions, and to vary the same as to them shall seem meet; and to order the said salaries to be paid out of the county rate, by the treasurer of such county, on a certificate, signed by the chairman of such quarter sessions, specifying the salaries directed to be made. s. 20.

It shall not be lawful for any chairman of any quarter sessions, to sign such certificate, unless such salaries shall have been settled at some general quarter sessions, or adjournment thereof, and notice shall have been given 14 days at least before such general quarter sessions, or adjournment, by two advertisements inserted in some newspaper printed and circulated in the county, of an intended application for granting such salaries; which advertisements shall be signed by the clerk of the peace, or his deputy. s. 21.

No gaoler, or person employed by such gaoler, shall suffer tipling or gaming in such prison, or shall sell, or permit to be sold, or be capable of being licensed to sell, any wine, beer, ale, or other liquors; or have any beneficial interest intereſt or concern whatſoever in the ſale of any liquors of any kind, or in any tap-houſe, tap-room, or tap, under the penalty of 10 l. for every offence, to be recovered by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods, by warrant under the hands and ſeals of two juſtices (which ſuch juſtices are to grant), upon the confeſſion of the party, or upon the information of any witneſs upon oath; and the ſaid penalty, after charges of recovering ſhall be deducted, ſhall be paid, one moiety to the informer, and the other to the uſe of the priſoners confined within ſuch gaol; and in caſe ſufficient diſtreſs cannot be found, then it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtices to commit ſuch offenders to the houſe of correction, for not exceeding three months, unleſs ſuch penalty and charges be ſooner paid. ſ. 22.

All juſtices before whom any perſon ſhall be convicted of any offence againſt this act, ſhall cauſe the conviction to be drawn up in the following form. ſ. 23.

By 26 Geo. 3. c. 44. Every perſon in execution for any money, not exceeding 200 l. ſhall be entitled to ſuch relief as by 32 Geo. 2. c. 28. is granted to perſons charged in execution for any money not exceeding 100 l. ſ. 1.

Every creditor at whoſe ſuit any debtor ſhall be charged in execution for any ſum not exceeding 200 l. ſhall have ſuch remedy, by compelling ſuch debtor to deliver up his eſtate and effects for the benefit of his creditors, as is provided by the ſaid act, where the ſum does not exceed 100 l. ſ. 2.

'As many perſons are often committed on attachments, 'for not paying money awarded to be paid under ſubmiſ- 'ſions to arbitration by rules of court, or under ſubmiſſions 'to arbitration bonds, and which ſubmiſſions have been 'made rules of the court, in purſuance of 9 & 10 Gul. 3. 'c. 15. and likewiſe for not paying of coſts, taxed and 'allowed by the proper officer, after demand made for that 'purpoſe, and alſo upon any writ of excommunicato capi- 'endo, or other proceſs for non-payment of coſts or ex- 'pences in any eccleſiaſtical court;' it is hereby declared that ſuch perſons ſhall be entitled to the benefit of this act, and ſubject to the ſame terms as are herein expreſſed with reſpect to priſoners for debt only. ſ. 3.

All gaolers are to give notice of this act to all perſons in their cuſtody for debt, within three days after ſuch perſons ſhall have been charged in execution, ſo as to make the ſame clearly underſtood; and if any gaoler ſhall neglect to give ſuch notice according to this act, he ſhall forfeit to any perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame, 50 l. to be recovered by him by action of debt, in any court of record at Weſtminſter; and in every ſuch action the proof ſhall lie on the perſon againſt whom the ſame ſhall be brought: provided ſuch action ſhall be brought within ſix months. ſ. 4.

Where any debtor ſhall have neglected to take the benefit of the ſaid act, within the time limited by the ſaid act, and ſhall have remained in priſon one year, and ſhall make it appear to the court out of which execution iſſued, that ſuch neglect aroſe from ignorance or miſtake, ſuch debtor ſhall then be entitled to take the benefit of the ſaid act, as if he had taken the ſame within the time by the ſaid act limited. ſ. 5.

It ſhall be lawful for any creditor, at whoſe ſuit any debtor ſhall be in execution, to file interrogatories for the examination of ſuch priſoner, before his being admitted to take the benefit of this or the recited act. ſ. 6.

This act ſhall not extend to any debt owing to the crown, nor ſhall it affect any proceeding under any commiſſion of bankrupt. ſ. 7.

This act ſhall not extend to Scotland. ſ. 8.

This act ſhall continue for five years, and from thence to the end of the then next ſeſſion, and no longer. ſ. 9.

By 29 Geo. 3. c. 67. At the general quarter ſeſſion of the peace throughout England and Wales, to be next holden after the end of the next ſeſſion of parliament, and at the firſt ſeſſion of the peace to be holden after Michaelmas, in every ſucceeding year, the gaoler, or officer having the care of any gaol, within the juriſdiction of ſuch ſeſſion, ſhall deliver to the chairman or other magiſtrate preſiding in ſuch court, a certificate according to the form annexed, ſubſcribed by himſelf and verified by him, to the beſt of his knowledge and belief, on oath, to be taken either ther before such court, or in case of sickness, or inability from any other cause to attend, then before some justice for the county, and such certificate shall express, after each of the provisions therein enumerated, whether such provision is complied with or observed within such gaol; and such certificate shall be read publicly in open court, in the presence of the grand jury, and entered upon record as part of the minutes of the session. s. 1.

The said quarter session shall thereupon take the said certificate into consideration, and summon any person named therein to appear before them, and shall give directions, and make orders relative to any of the matters contained in such certificate, and shall take security from any person whom the same may concern for his compliance therewith. s. 2.

If any gaoler of any gaol, being a county gaol, shall neglect to deliver such certificate, he shall forfeit 50*l.* and, not being a county gaol, 20*l.* to be recovered by any person in any court of record at Westminster, or court of great session in Wales, or the county palatine of Chester, by action of debt, &c. s. 3.

Probate of Wills.

By 31 Edw. 3. st. 1. c. 4. Whereas the ministers of bishops and other ordinaries take of the people grevious fines for the probate of testaments; the archbishop of Canterbury and the other bishops shall thereof make amendment; and if they do not, the king shall cause to be inquired by his justices of such oppressions and extortions, and to hear and determine them, as well at the king's suit, as at the suit of the party, as in old time hath been used.

By 21 Hen. 8. c. 5. Nothing shall be taken by any bishop, archdeacon, chancellor, or other person which have power to take probation of testaments, by themselves, nor by their registers, praises or other ministers, for the probation, insinuation and approbation, of any testament, or for writing, sealing, praising, registering, fines, making of inventories, and giving of acquittances, or for any other cause concerning the same, where the goods of the testator do not amount above the value of 100*s.* except only to the scribe for writing the probate 6*d.* and for the commission of ministration of the goods of any man deceasing intestate, not being above like value 100*s.* clear, 6*d.* And the bishop, &c. shall not refuse to approve such testament, being lawfully tendered, whereof the goods of the testator amount not above 100*s.* so that the testament be exhibited in writing with wax affixed ready to be sealed, and be lawfully proved to be the true whole and last testament of the testator. s. 2.

When the goods of the testator amount above the value of 100*s.* and do not exceed 40*l.* no bishop, &c. shall take but only 3*s.* 6*d.* whereof to be to the bishop, &c. for him or his ministers, 2*s.* 6*d.* and 12*d.* residue of the 3*s.* 6*d.* to be to the scribe for registering; and where the goods amount above the value of 40*l.* the bishop, &c. shall take but 5*s.* whereof to be to the bishop, &c. for him and his ministers, 2*s.* 6*d.* and 2*s.* 6*d.* residue to the scribe for registering, or the scribe to be at liberty to have for writing every ten lines, whereof every line to contain in length ten inches, 1*d.* and such bishop, &c. shall approve, insinuate, seal and register the said testaments, and deliver the same sealed with the seal of their office to the executors without any frustratory delay. s. 3.

The executors, or such persons to whom administration shall be committed, taking to them two at least, to whom the person dying was indebted or made any legacy, and upon their absence two other persons being next of kin to the person dying, and in their absence two other honest persons, shall make a true inventory of all goods, as well moveable as not moveable, that were of the person deceased; and the same shall cause to be indented, whereof the one part shall be by the executors or administrators, upon oath to be taken before the bishops, &c. delivered into the keeping of the bishop, &c. and the other part to remain with the executors or administrators; and no bishop, &c. shall refuse to take any such inventory. s. 4.

If the perſon deceaſed will by his teſtament any lands to be ſold, the money thereof, or the profits of the lands, ſhall not be accounted as any of the goods of the perſon deceaſed: and the biſhop, &c. upon delivery of the ſign and ſeal of the teſtator, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be defaced, and redeliver the ſame to the executors: and in caſe any perſon require a copy of the teſtaments ſo proved, or of the inventory, the ordinary, &c. ſhall with convenient ſpeed deliver a copy, taking for the ſearch and for the copy, ſuch fee as for the regiſtering of the teſtament, or for every ten lines, 1 d. ſ. 5.

Provided that where any have uſed to take leſs, they ſhall take ſuch ſums of money as they have uſed to take, and not above. ſ. 6.

Every biſhop, &c. that ſhall do or attempt againſt this act in any thing, ſhall forfeit to the party grieved ſo much as any ſuch perſon ſhall take contrary to this act; and ſhall forfeit 10 l. whereof one moiety ſhall be to the king, and the other moiety to the party grieved, that will ſue, &c. and every biſhop, &c. which ſhall incur ſuch penalty, ſhall be charged only for himſelf, and none of them for other's offence. ſ. 7.

Provided that this act be not prejudicial to any ordinary, &c. but that every of them may convent before them executors, to prove or refuſe the teſtament, and to bring in inventories, &c. as before. ſ. 8.

By 4 & 5 Ann. c. 16. Proceſs.

Stat. Weſtm. 1. 3 Edw. 1. c. 45. If the tenant or defendant, after the firſt attachments returned, make default, the great diſtreſs ſhall be awarded; and if the ſheriff do not make ſufficient return by a certain day, he ſhall be grievouſly amerced; and if he return that he hath done execution in due manner, and the iſſues delivered to the ſureties, the ſheriff ſhall be commanded, that he return iſſues at another day before the juſtices. And if the party being attached come in at his day to ſave his defaults, he ſhall have his iſſues; and if he come not, the king ſhall have them, and the juſtices ſhall cauſe them to be delivered in the wardrobe. And the juſtices of the bench at Weſtminſter ſhall deliver them in the exchequer, and the juſtices in eyre unto the ſheriff, and they ſhall be charged therewith in ſummons by the rolls of the juſtices.

Artic. ſuper chart. 28 Edw. 1. c. 15. In ſummons and attachments in plea of land, the writs ſhall contain fifteen days at leaſt, according to the common law, if it be not in attachment of aſſizes taken in the king's preſence, or of pleas before juſtices in eyre.

By 6 Hen. 6. c. 1. Before any exigend be awarded againſt perſons indicted of felony and treaſon before the king in his bench, writs of capias ſhall be directed as well to the ſheriff of the county in which they be indicted, as to the ſheriff of the county whereof they be named in the indictments, the ſame capias having ſix weeks at leaſt before the return of the ſame; which writs returned, the juſtices ſhall proceed as they have done before; and if any exigend be awarded or any outlawry pronounced againſt ſuch perſons indicted, before the return of the ſaid writs, the ſame ſhall be void; and this ordinance ſhall endure ſo long as ſhall pleaſe the king.

By 8 Hen. 6. c. 10. Upon every indictment or appeal, by which any of the lieges dwelling in other counties, than there where ſuch indictment or appeal is taken, of treaſon, felony or treſpaſs, before any exigend awarded, after the firſt capias returned another capias ſhall be awarded, directed to the ſheriff of the county whereof he which is ſo indicted is ſuppoſed to be converſant, containing three months from the date of the writ, where the counties be holden from month to month, and where the counties be holden from ſix weeks to ſix weeks, he ſhall have four months until the day of the return of the writ; by which ſecond capias it ſhall be commanded to the ſheriff to take him by his body, if he may be found within his bailiwick, and if he may not be found, that the ſheriff make proclamation in two counties before the return, that he which is ſo indicted or appealed appear before the juſtices or commiſſioners where he is indicted or appealed, &c. to anſwer to the king, or to the party, of the felony, treaſon or treſpaſs, whereof he is indicted or appealed; after which ſecond capias returned, if he which is indicted or appealed come not at the day, the exigent ſhall be awarded. ſ. 2.

If any exigent be awarded in ſuch indictment or appeal againſt the form aforeſaid, or any outlawry pronounced, they ſhall be void. ſ. 3.

Provided that the ſtatute 6 Hen. 6. cap. 1. ſtand in force. And every perſon indicted or appealed in form aforeſaid, after he be acquit by verdict, ſhall have a writ and action upon his caſe againſt every procurer of ſuch indictments or appeals, and like proceſs ſhall be in the ſame as in a writ of treſpaſs with force and arms; and if ſuch procurer be attainted, the plaintiff ſhall recover treble damages. ſ. 4.

This ordinance ſhall not extend to indictments or appeals taken without the county of Cheſter. ſ. 5.

Provided that if any of the lieges be appealed or indicted of felony or treaſon, and at the ſame time of the felony or treaſon ſuppoſed he was converſant in the county whereof the indictment or appeal maketh mention, the like proceſs be made againſt ſuch indicted perſon or appealed as hath been uſed before. ſ. 6.

By 10 Hen. 6. c. 6. If any ſuch indictments taken before juſtices of peace, or any other, ſhall be removed before the king in his bench, or elſewhere by certiorari or otherwiſe, then before any exigent awarded, after the firſt writ of capias returned, another capias ſhall be awarded, directed to the ſheriff of the county whereof he that is indicted or appealed is ſuppoſed to be converſant, returnable before the king in his bench, at a day containing three months or four, of the date of the laſt writ of capias, according to the manner that the juſtices of peace and other in the ſaid ſtatute 8 Hen. 6. cap. 10. ought to have done; and if any ſuch exigent be awarded upon ſuch indictment or appeal after ſuch removing againſt the form aforeſaid, or any outlawry thereupon pronounced, the ſame ſhall be void.

By 19 Hen. 7. c. 9. Like proceſs ſhall be had in actions upon the caſe in the king's bench and common place, as in actions of treſpaſs or debt.

By 23 Hen. 8. c. 14. Like proceſs ſhall be had in every writ of annuity and covenant, as in action of debt.

By 31 Eliz. c. 3. After every ſummons upon the land land in any real action, 14 days at leaſt before the return thereof, proclamations of the ſummons ſhall be made on a Sunday at or near the moſt uſual door of the church or chapel of that town or pariſh where the land doth lie, and that proclamation ſhall be returned together with the names of the ſummoners; and if ſuch ſummons ſhall not be proclaimed and returned according to this act, no grand cape to be awarded, but an alias and pluries ſummons, until a ſummons and proclamation ſhall be duly made and returned. ſ. 2. See the reſt of this act in OUTLAWRY.

By 13 Car. 2. ſtat. 2. c. 2. In actions of debt and other perſonal actions, and in actions of ejectione firmæ by original writ, in either of his majeſty's courts of king's bench and common pleas, after iſſue joined, and after judgment obtained, there ſhall not need to be fifteen days between the teſte and the return of any writ of venire facias, habeas corpora juratorum, or diſtringas juratores, fieri facias, or capias ad ſatisfaciendum. ſ. 6.

This act ſhall not extend to any writ of capias ad ſatisfaciendum, whereon a writ of exigent after judgment is to be awarded, nor to capias ad ſatisfaciendum againſt the defendant, in order to make any bail liable. This act not to extend to actions popular, indictments, &c. ſ. 7. See ARRESTS, OUTLAWRY, ERROR.

Prohibition.

Stat. circumſpecte agatis, 13 Edw. 1. ſt. 4. The clergy ſhall not be puniſhed if they hold plea in court chriſtian of ſuch things as be meer ſpiritual, viz. of penance enjoined by prelates for deadly ſin, as fornication, adultery and ſuch like, for which ſometimes corporal penance, and ſometimes pecuniary, is enjoined, ſpecially if a freeman. Alſo if the prelates puniſh for leaving the church-yard uncloſed, or for that the church is uncovered, or not conveniently decked, in which caſes none other penance can be enjoined but pecuniary. ſ. 1.

If a parſon demand of his pariſhioners oblations or tithes due and accuſtomed, or if a parſon ſue againſt another parſon for tithes greater or ſmaller, ſo that the fourth part of the value of the benefice be not demanded. ſ. 2.

If a parſon demand mortuaries where a mortuary hath been uſed. ſ. 3.

If a prelate or patron demand of a parſon a penſion due to him; all ſuch demands are to be made in a ſpiritual court. And for laying violent hands on a clerk, and cauſe of defamation, it hath been granted, that it ſhall be tried in a ſpiritual court, when money is not demanded, but a thing done for puniſhment of ſin; and likewiſe for breaking an oath. In all caſes afore rehearſed the ſpiritual judge ſhall have power to take knowledge, notwithſtanding the king's prohibition. ſ. 4.

Stat. of conſultation, 24 Edw. 1. Where eccleſiaſtical judges ſurceaſe to proceed by force of the king's prohibition, in caſes where remedy could not be given in the king's court by any writ out of chancery, the chancellor, or the chief juſtice, upon ſight of the libel, at the inſtance of the plaintiff (if they ſee that the caſe cannot be redreſſed by writ out of chancery, but that the ſpiritual court ought to determine the matter) ſhall write to the eccleſiaſtical judges, that they proceed therein notwithſtanding the king's prohibition.

Artic. cler. 9 Edw. 2. c. 1. In tithes, oblations, obventions, mortuaries (when they are propounded under theſe names) the king's prohibition ſhall hold no place. But if a clerk ſell his tithes being gathered, if the money be demanded before a ſpiritual judge, the king's prohibition ſhall lie.

Artic. cler. 9 Edw. 2. c. 2. If debate ariſe upon the right of tithes, having original from the right of patronage, and the quantity of the tithes come to the fourth part of the goods of the church, the king's prohibition ſhall hold place, if the cauſe come before a judge ſpiritual. Alſo if a prelate enjoin a penance pecuniary, and it be demanded, the king's prohibition ſhall hold place: but if prelates enjoin a penance corporal, and they which be puniſhed will redeem ſuch penances by money; if the money be demanded before a judge ſpiritual, the king's prohibition ſhall hold no place.

Artic. cler. 9 Edw. 2. c. 4. In defamations prelates ſhall correct in manner aboveſaid, the king's prohibition notwithſtanding.

Artic. cler. 9 Edw. 2. c. 5. If any do erect a mill of new, and the parſon demandeth tithe for the ſame, the king's prohibition ſhall not lie. See title ECCLESIASTICAL PERSONS.

By 1 Edw. 3. ſt. 2. c. 11. When clerks or others have been indicted in the turn, and after their deliverance do ſue in the ſpiritual court againſt the indictors, ſurmiſing that they defamed them; in ſuch caſe every man grieved ſhall have a prohibition formed in the chancery upon his caſe.

By 18 Edw. 3. ſt. 3. c. 5. No prohibition ſhall go out of chancery, but where the king hath cognizance, and ought to have it.

By 50 Edw. 3. c. 4. Where a conſultation is once duly granted upon a prohibition to the judge of holy church, the judge may proceed notwithſtanding any other prohibition, provided the matter in the libel be not changed.

By 2 Hen. 5. ſt. 1. c. 3. At what time the libel is grantable by law, it ſhall be delivered to the party without difficulty. See title LIMITATIONS and TITHES.

Prophecies.

By 5 Eliz. c. 15. If any perſon do adviſedly and directly publiſh by writing, printing, ſigning, or any other open ſpeech or deed, any fond, fantaſtical or falſe propheſy, upon any arms, fields, beaſts, badges, or ſuch things accuſtomed in arms, cognizances or ſignets, or upon any time, year or day, name bloodſhed or war, to the intent to make any rebellion, inſurrection, diſſenſion, loſs of life or diſturbance within the queen's dominions, every ſuch perſon being convicted ſhall ſuffer impriſonment one year, and forfeit 10 l. ſ. 2.

If any ſuch offender do after ſuch conviction offend in the premiſes and be convicted, he ſhall for his ſecond offence ſuffer impriſonment during life, and forfeit all his goods reals and perſonals; the moieties of every which forfeitures ſhall be to the queen, and the other moiety to him that will ſue for the ſame in any of the queen's courts of record. ſ. 3.

Every juſtice of aſſiſe, juſtice of oyer and terminer, and juſtice of peace, ſhall have power to inquire, hear and determine, all offences aboveſaid. ſ. 4.

Provided that no perſon be impeached for any offence contrary to this act, unleſs he be accuſed within ſix months enſuing ſuch offence committed. ſ. 5.

Protections.

By 33 Edw. 1. ſt. 1. Foraſmuch as many purchaſe the protection of the king, affirming that they were out of the realm in the king's ſervice, if the adverſary will challenge the protection, and aver that they were within the four ſeas, and out of the king's ſervice, in a place certain, ſo that they might have conveniently appeared, their challenge ſhall be entered, and the matter ſhall remain without delay according to the protections; and when it ſhall be reſummoned, the party ſhall demand judgment and hearing of the proceſs, and ſhall offer to aver his challenge, if his adverſary will abide it; and if the country paſs againſt him that caſt it, the protection ſhall return as a default, if he be tenant; and if he be demandant he ſhall loſe his writ, and ſhall be amerced.

By 25 Edw. 3. ſt. 5. c. 19. Foraſmuch as the king hath made divers protections to the people which were bound to him in ſome debt, that they ſhould not be impleaded of the debts which they owed to other till they have made gree to the king; notwithſtanding ſuch protections, the parties which have actions againſt their debtors ſhall be anſwered in the king's court; and if judgment be given for the plaintiff or demandant, the execution ſhall be put in ſuſpenſe till gree be made to the king of his debt; and if the creditors will undertake for the king's debt, they ſhall be received, and ſhall have execution againſt the debtors of the debt due to them, and alſo ſhall recover as much as they ſhall pay to the king for them.

By 1 Ric. 2. c. 8. No protection with the clauſe of volumus ſhall be allowed for victuals taken upon the voyage whereof the protection maketh mention, nor in pleas of treſpaſs, or other contract, made or perpetrate after the date of the protection.

By 13 Ric. 2. c. 16. No protection with clauſe profecturus ſhall be allowed in any plea whereof the ſuit is commenced before the date of the protection, if he be not in the voyage that the king himſelf goeth, or other voyages royal, or in the king's meſſages for buſineſs of the realm; but they ſhall make their attornies in ſuch pleas, or elſe let them tarry themſelves, but the protection with clauſe quia moraturus ſhall be allowed as before; and if any tarry in the country without going to the ſervice for which he is retained, over a convenient time after that he hath any protection, or repair from the ſervice, if the chancellor be informed, he ſhall repeal ſuch protections, as it hath been uſed before.

By 7 Hen. 4. c. 4. Where the wardens of priſons let debtors go at large, and purchaſe the king's protections, whereby the creditors be delayed; no protection ſhall be available, nor allowed in ſuch caſe.

Purveyance.

By 14 Edw. 3. c. 2. Takings ſhall not be made by other than the purveyors of the king, of the queen, and of the prince their eldeſt ſon; and if any other man's purveyors make ſuch takings, it ſhall be done of them as of thoſe which do without warrant, and their deed judged as a thing done againſt the peace and the law of the land.

By 12 Car. 2. c. 24. No money or other thing ſhall be taken for any proviſion, carriages or purveyance, for his majeſty. ſ. 12.

No perſon by any authority, by colour of buying or making purveyance for his majeſty, or any queen, or the children of any king or queen, or for their houſhold, ſhall take any timber, fewel, cattle, corn, hay, ſtraw, victual, carriage or other thing, of any ſubjects, without the full conſent of the owner obtained without menace or force; nor ſhall ſummon or require any ſubjects to find any horſes or other cattle, carts, ploughs, wains or other carriages, for the uſe of his majeſty, or of any queen, or of any child of any king or queen, for the carrying their goods, without free conſent. ſ. 3.

No pre-emption ſhall be claimed in behalf of his majeſty, or of any queen, or of any the children of the royal family. And if any perſon ſhall make purveyance for his majeſty, &c. or take away carriages or other things aforeſaid, it ſhall be lawful for two juſtices of peace, and the conſtables of ſuch pariſh or village, at the requeſt of the party grieved, to commit the parties offending to gaol till the next ſeſſions; and the officers and inhabitants of the village or pariſh ſhall be aſſiſtant; and the party grieved ſhall recover his treble damages, and treble coſts. And if any perſon ſhall cauſe any action grounded on this ſtatute to be ſtaid before judgment, by any authority, ſave only of the court where ſuch action ſhall be depending; or after judgment ſhall cauſe execution to be ſtaid, ſave only by writ of error or attaint, or order of ſuch court where ſuch writ of error or attaint ſhall be depending; the perſon offending ſhall incur the penalties of præmunire, 16 Ric. 2. cap. 5. Provided that this act extend not to prejudice his majeſty's duties of tin in the ſtannaries of Devon and Cornwall, nor the ancient duties of butlerage and prizage of wines. ſ. 14.

Quo Warranto.

Stat. quo warranto, 6 Edw. 1.

THE prelates, earls, barons and other, ſhall uſe their liberties after the form of the writ following: ſ. 1.

The king to the ſheriff greeting. Whereas lately in our parliament at Weſtminſter it was provided and proclaimed by us and our council, that the prelates, earls, barons and others of our realm, who claim to have divers liberties by charters of our progenitors kings of England, for the examining and judging whereof we had prefixed a day in the ſame parliament, ſhould uſe thoſe liberties in ſuch manner, that they ſhould increaſe nothing to themſelves by uſurpation or occupation, nor ſhould occupy ought upon us; we command you, you, that you permit all thoſe of your county to uſe and enjoy their liberties which they have hitherto reaſonably uſed in form aforeſaid, until our next coming by the county aforeſaid, or until the next coming of our juſtices itinerant for all pleas in the county, or until we ſhall give other command therein; ſaving always our right, when we will implead thereof; witneſs, &c. ſ. 2.

In the ſame form writs ſhall be directed to ſheriffs, &c. for every demandant, and the form ſhall be changed after the diverſity of the liberty in this wiſe: ſ. 3.

The King to the ſheriff greeting: We command you, that through all your bailiwick, viz. as well in cities as in boroughs, and other market towns and elſewhere, you cauſe publicly to proclaim, that all they who claim to have any liberties by charters of our progenitors kings of England, or in other manner, be before our juſtices at the firſt aſſiſe, to ſhew what kind of liberties they claim to have, and by what warrant; and that yourſelf be there perſonally with your bailiffs and miniſters, to certify the juſtices upon theſe and other buſineſſes touching the ſame. ſ. 4.

The clauſe of publicly proclaiming is put in the writ of common ſummons of the juſtices in eyre, and ſhall have a warning of forty days as the common ſummons hath. And if the party do not come, the liberties ſhall be taken into the king's hands in name of diſtreſs by the ſheriff, ſo that they ſhall not uſe them until they come to anſwer before the juſtices. And when they come in, their liberties ſhall be replevied: and if they challenge, that they are not bound to anſwer in the original writ, if it appear that they have uſurped any liberties, they ſhall be commanded to anſwer without writ: and if they will ſay that their anceſtors died ſeiſed, they ſhall be heard, and the truth ſhall be inquired. And if it appear that their anceſtors died ſeiſed, the king ſhall have a writ out of chancery in this form: The king to the ſheriff greeting: Summon by good ſummoners ſuch a one, that he be before us at ſuch a place, in our next coming in the county aforeſaid, or before our juſtices at the next aſſiſe, when they ſhall come into thoſe parts, to ſhew by what warrant he holds the view of frankpledge in his manor of N. Or thus: by what warrant he holds the hundred of S. in the county aforeſaid. Or, by what warrant he claims to have toll for him and his heirs through our whole realm: and have there this writ; witneſs, &c. And they ſhall be adjourned unto ſhort days, and have reaſonable delays, according to the diſcretion of the juſtices, as in perſonal actions. And the clauſe under-written ſhall be put in a writ of common ſummons in the circuit of the juſtices aſſigned to common pleas: viz. The king to the ſheriff greeting: We command you that you cauſe publicly to proclaim, that all who complain, or will complain, as well of our miniſters and other bailiffs whomſoever, as of the miniſters and bailiffs of any other whomſoever, and others, that they come before our juſtices at the firſt aſſiſe, there to ſhew all their complaints, to receive competent amends thereof, according to the law and cuſtom of our realm, and according to the ordinance thereupon by us made, and according to the tenor of the ſtatutes, and according to the articles thereupon delivered to our ſame juſtices, as the aforeſaid juſtices ſhall do you to know on our part; witneſs ourſelf, &c. ſ. 5.

Stat. quo warranto, 18 Edw. 1. ſt. 2. All which can verify by the county or otherwiſe, that they and their anceſtors or predeceſſors have uſed any liberties before the time of king Richard, or in all his time, and have continued hitherto (ſo that they have not miſuſed ſuch liberties), ſhall in a quo warranto be adjourned unto a certain day before the juſtices, within the which they may go to the king with the record of the juſtices and return; and the king by letters patent ſhall confirm their eſtate; and they that cannot prove the ſeiſin of their anceſtors or predeceſſors in ſuch manner, ſhall be judged after the law. ſ. 1.

All judgments that are to be given in pleas of quo warranto by the juſtices at Weſtminſter for the king, if the parties grieved will come again before the king, he of his grace ſhall give them ſuch remedy as before; alſo pleas of quo warranto ſhall be pleaded and determined in the circuit of the juſtices. ſ. 2.

Stat. quo warranto, 18 Edw. 1. All thoſe which claim to have quiet poſſeſſion of any franchiſe before the time of king Richard, without interruption, and can ſhew the ſame by a lawful enqueſt, ſhall enjoy their poſſeſſion; and in caſe ſuch poſſeſſion be demanded for cauſe reaſonable, the king ſhall confirm it by title; and thoſe who have old charters of franchiſe, ſhall have the ſame charters adjudged according to the tenor of them. ſ. 3.

Receipt.

By 20 Edw. 1. ſt. 3.

IF any before judgment in caſe of the ſtatute Weſtm. 2. c. 3. (ſee title cui in vita), cometh in and deſireth to be received, he ſhall find ſurety to ſatisfy the demandant of the value of iſſues of the lands from the day that he is received until final judgment be given upon the petition of the demandant; and if the demandant recover, the defender ſhall be greviouſly amerced, if he have whereof; and if he have not, he ſhall be impriſoned at the king's pleaſure; and if he can prove his right, he ſhall go quit.

By 13 Ric. 2. c. 17. If any tenant for life, in dower, &c. be impleaded, and he in the reverſion come and prayeth to be received at the day that the tenant pleaded to the action, or before, he ſhall be received to plead in chief, without taking delay by voucher, aid prayer, nonage or other delay, ſo that after ſuch receipt he ſhall have no delay by protection, eſſoin of the king's ſervice, common eſſoin, or any other delay, and days of grace ſhall be given by the diſcretion of the judges without giving the common day in plea of land. ſ. 1.

Pro-

Provided that they in the reverſion, which pray to be received, ſhall find ſurety of the iſſues of the tenements demanded for the time that the demandants be delayed, after the plea determined between the demandants and tenants, if the judgment paſs for the demandant, as well where the receipt is counterpleaded as where it is granted. ſ. 2.

Receivers.

By 34 & 35 Hen. 8. c. 2. Every high collector of fifteen, ſubſidy or other tax, and all other the king's particular and general receivers of money and other duties belonging to the king, ſhall, within three months after ſuch money or yearly profits ſhall be due and gathered, pay the ſame to the king's uſe, as ſhall be appointed, upon pain to forfeit for every pound 4 s. for every month, and alſo loſe his office; and the king ſhall charge the collector or receiver, upon his accounts, with the forfeiture, or recover the ſame by action. ſ. 1.

Provided that if any collector or receiver tender ſuch money to the king's uſe within the four months unto ſuch perſons as be charged with the receipt of the ſame, he ſhall not incur any penalty. ſ. 2.

The heirs of any collector ſhall not be charged by this act, but only for lands which they have by deſcent in fee-ſimple or fee-tail, or by gift or other aſſurance by covin, from the ſaid collector or receiver, or other aſſigns; and the king ſhall have execution only of ſuch lands until his majeſty be paid. ſ. 3.

The executors or adminiſtrators of ſuch collector or receiver ſhall not be charged by this act but as executors, &c. ſ. 4.

Where the heirs of any the king's receivers or debtors ſhall be charged for his anceſtors debts, whereby the land deſcended or given to him by covin is put in execution, ſuch heirs may have their action of debt againſt the executors or adminiſtrators of the anceſtor. ſ. 5.

This act ſhall not extend to the collectors of the cuſtom of tonnage and poundage, which be accountable yearly in the exchequer. ſ. 6.

This act ſhall not extend to any receivers for the payments of any penſions or other allowances paid according to order or decree. ſ. 7.

By 7 Edw. 6. c. 1. Every perſon appointed treaſurer, receiver, collector, bailiff or miniſter accountant of the king, ſhall, before their executing their offices, with ſureties make bonds to the king in ſuch court of record where the officer ſhall be accountable, that they, their heirs, executors, &c. ſhall truly account and pay all ſuch money as ſhall come to their hands concerning their offices, to the king's uſe, upon pain of forfeiture of their offices. ſ. 3.

Every receiver of the king's honours, lands and revenues, ſhall yearly make his precepts to all collectors, miniſters and bailiffs accountant, within the circuit of his office, charging them on the king's behalf to appear before them within the county where the offices, bailiwick or collections lie, at a certain day and place, and to pay to the king's uſe ſuch money as they ought by reaſon of their offices, being due to the king, at or before Eaſter, which they may receive by reaſon of their offices; and the precepts ſhall be delivered to the ſaid officers, &c. or left at their houſes, or at the place where their receipt ought to be, 12 days before the day prefixed. ſ. 4.

If any of the ſaid collectors or bailiffs accountants make default at the day appointed, the collector, &c. being convicted in the court where the revenue ſhall be anſwered, ſhall for the firſt offence forfeit his fee for that year, and ſhall forfeit for the firſt offence of non-payment 6 d. of the pound for every month. ſ. 5.

After the firſt default of appearance, the officer making again default, and being convict for the ſecond offence of non-appearance, ſhall forfeit his office, and for the ſaid ſecond offence in non-payment of money ſhall forfeit 12 d. of every pound for every month. ſ. 6.

Every auditor of the king of his honours, lands and revenues, ſhall have power yearly to make their precepts to all collectors and bailiffs accountant, to appear and account before them within the county where the lands lie, at the king's audit to be holden there yearly between the feaſt of St. Michael and the nativity of our Lord, for all rents and profits payable within their bailiwicks, at or before the feaſt of St. Michael, the precepts to be delivered to the collectors or bailiffs, or left at their houſes, or at the place where their receipts are, twelve days before the day prefixed; and if any collector or bailiff accountant do not appear before the auditor, or refuſe to account, he ſhall for his firſt offence forfeit his whole fee for that year; and for non-payment of money ſhall forfeit 6 d. of every pound, in the name of a pain for every month; and the ſaid officer that ſhall make again default of appearance, for the ſecond offence ſhall forfeit his office. ſ. 7.

And for the ſecond offence in non-payment of money ſhall forfeit 12 d. of every pound, in the name of a pain, for every month. ſ. 8.

Every receiver ſhall make payment yearly to the treaſurer, or general receiver of the court where the revenue ſhall be anſwerable, or otherwiſe as he ſhall be appointed, of all money due at or before Eaſter, by the 20th of June following; and ſhall make like payment yearly of all rents due at or before the feaſt of St. Michael, by the 20th of January following, upon pain of forfeiture for every default 2 d. of every pound for every day. ſ. 9.

The ſaid receivers ſhall enter into their account yearly in the term of St. Hilary, and finiſh the ſame before the tenth of March, and make payment of the money that ſhall be due upon the foot of the account before the 20th of March, upon pain of forfeiture of the offices, and 4 d. of the pound for every day that they ſhall detain the money. ſ. 10.

All receivers, collectors and bailiffs, of the king's manors or revenues, for lack of payment and levying of their rents within their offices, ſhall have power to diſtrain for the ſame, and to uſe the diſtreſs in ſuch ſort as any officer of the exchequer for levying of the king's revenues anſwerable in the ſame court. ſ. 11.

The head officer of every of the king's courts of revenues of record, ſhall have power to aſſeſs fines and amerciaments upon any ſheriff, for not returning or miſreturning of any writ delivered out of the ſame courts, touching the levying of any iſſues, rents or revenues, or of any debts due to the king, in ſuch ſort as hath been lawfully uſed in like caſes in the exchequer. ſ. 12.

All treaſurers and chamberlains, and receivers of any of the king's courts of revenue, and all cuſtomers and collectors of cuſtoms, or certain ſubſidies within any port, within ten days after notice from the king or ſix of his privy council in writing, ſhall declare in writing, what ſums of money then due to the king be in their hands, and ſhall make payment in ſuch ſort as ſhall be commanded, upon pain of forfeiture of their offices. ſ. 13.

The ſame treaſurers, chamberlains and receivers, ſhall yearly before the 20th of June make account of all ſuch money or treaſure as hath come to their hands before the 20th of March, and ſhall make declaration in writing of the money remaining in their hands to the king or his privy council yearly before the laſt of June, and make payment of the ſame as they ſhall be commanded, upon pain of forfeiture of their offices. ſ. 14.

If any treaſurer, receiver or miniſter accountant, take of any perſon any money or other profit for payment of any fees, penſions or warrants, more than they may lawfully do, they ſhall forfeit for every penny or pennyworth, 6*s.* 8*d.* to the party grieved. ſ. 15.

If any auditor which ought to take the account of any treaſurer, chamberlain, receiver or other officer, refuſe or willingly protract the taking of the ſame, in ſuch wiſe as it cannot be finiſhed within the time limited by this act, ſuch auditor being convict in the court where the charge of the ſame account is anſwerable, ſhall forfeit as the treaſurer, chamberlain, receiver or other officer, ought to do for not accounting, and thereby the ſame treaſurer, &c. ſhall be diſcharged. ſ. 16.

The duplicate of every account that ſhall be made by any treaſurer or receiver, at the requeſt and coſts of ſuch accountant ſhall be delivered to them, ſubſcribed with the hands of the auditor that ſhall take the ſame; upon pain that the auditor ſhall forfeit to the king 10*l.* ſ. 17.

This act ſhall not charge any ſheriff, eſcheator, or collector of diſmes, quindiſmes, benevolences, or ſubſidies, tonnage and poundage only except. ſ. 20.

By 13 Eliz. c. 4. All lands and hereditaments which any treaſurer or receiver in the queen's court of exchequer or duchy of Lancaſter, treaſurer of the chamber, cofferer of the houſhold, treaſurer for the wars, treaſurer of any town or caſtle where any garriſon is kept, treaſurer of the admiralty or navy, treaſurer or other perſon accountable of the mint, treaſurer or receiver of any money impreſt, or otherwiſe, for the uſe of the queen, or for proviſions of victual for the fortifications or works, or for any other proviſions to be uſed in the offices of ordnance, armory, wardrobe, tents and pavilions, or revels, cuſtomer, collector, farmer of cuſtoms or other duties within any port, collector of the tenths, collector of any ſubſidy or fifteen, receiver general of the revenues of any county anſwerable in the receipt of the exchequer or the duchy of Lancaſter, clerk of the hamper, ſhall have, whilſt they remain accountable, ſhall, for ſatisfaction to the queen of their arrearages determined upon their account, be liable to the payment thereof, and be put in execution for ſuch arrearages or debts, in as large manner as if the ſame treaſurer, &c. had the day he became officer or accountant, ſtood bound by writing obligatory, having the effect of a ſtatute ſtaple, to her majeſty for the ſame arrearages or debts. ſ. 1.

If any treaſurer or other accountant before-mentioned, chargeable with money or treaſure of the queen, ſhall, upon his account, or by reaſon of any farm as aforeſaid, be found in arrearages unto the queen, and ſhall not within ſix months after his accounts finiſhed or debt known, pay ſuch money, it ſhall be lawful to the queen to make ſale by letters patent of ſo much of the lands of ſuch accountant or debtor as may ſuffice for their debt or arrearages, all due petitions being allowed. ſ. 2.

If any overplus be had upon ſuch ſale, the ſame ſhall be paid to the accountant or his heirs, by the officer that ſhall receive the money. ſ. 3.

The ſales made by the queen ſhall be good againſt the party, and againſt the queen, notwithſtanding any former charge or incumbrance to her majeſty. ſ. 4.

If any perſon accountant or indebted as aforeſaid, purchaſe lands, and cauſe the aſſurance to be made in the name of any other, where the ſame is intended to the uſe or behoof of ſuch perſon accountant or indebted, or of any other, and the manner of purchaſing and ſecret uſes ſhall be found by office or inquiſition, all lands ſo purchaſed ſhall be taken for ſatisfaction of the arrearages and debt, as though the perſon indebted were thereof ſeiſed. ſ. 5.

No biſhop having the collection of any ſubſidy or tenths, or his lands in right of his biſhoprick, ſhall be charged in any other manner than he might lawfully have been before. ſ. 9.

This act ſhall not charge any treaſurer, receiver, teller, cuſtomer, collector, or accountant aforeſaid, having any yearly receipt, nor their lands, whoſe yearly receipt, or whoſe whole receipt from the beginning of his charge, ſhall not be above 300*l.* otherwiſe than he might lawfully have been charged before. ſ. 10.

Foraſmuch as ſundry accountants are by order of their offices, after their accounts ended, to diſburſe the debt remaining, in ſuch charges as are neceſſarily to be provided in their offices; this act ſhall not extend to give power to make ſale of any lands for any ſuch debt, unleſs the queen upon the ending of their accounts require preſent payment, or require a new account of the ſame debt, and that the debt be found owing and unexpended, and remain unpaid ſix months after ſuch requeſt. ſ. 11 & 12.

This act ſhall not charge any ſheriff, eſcheator, or bailiff of liberties, for any thing touching their office, otherwiſe than they might have been charged before. ſ. 13.

It ſhall be lawful to every perſon, whoſe lands ſhall by any office or inquiſition be found to be fraudulently conveyed as aboveſaid, to have his traverſe to ſuch office or inquiſition; and if it be found with the party that tendereth the traverſe, he ſhall have the lands out of the prince's hands, without any petition, livery, or ouſter le main, or any other ſuit. ſ. 14.

If the queen ſhall by ſale of lands be ſatisfied of the debt or arrearages of ſuch accountant or debtor, the ſureties of ſuch accountant or debtor ſhall be diſcharged of ſo much. ſ. 15.

By 14 Eliz. c. 7. revived by 1 Jac. 1. c. 25. ſ. 31. The ſtatute 13 Eliz. c. 4. ſhall extend to all under-collectors of tenths and ſubſidies of the clergy, and to their lands, of what yearly ſum ſoever the charge of their collection ſhall be. ſ. 1.

Every ſuch under-collector ſhall, upon proceſs out of the exchequer, be chargeable to account for his receipt of ſuch tenths and ſubſidies, as any receiver immediately accountant to her majeſty ought to be: and every archbiſhop and biſhop, and dean and chapter (ſede vacante), to whoſe charge the collection of ſuch tenths or ſubſidies ſhall appertain, ſhall be diſcharged of ſo much as ſhall be ſatisfied by the lands or goods of ſuch under-collector, without any other warrant. ſ. 2.

By 27 Eliz. c. 3. revived by 1 Jac. 1. c. 25. The act 13 Eliz. c. 4. touching the power to make ſale of lands, ſhall be expounded as well in caſe where the ſale is made after the death of ſuch accountant or debtor, as where it is made in his life-time; and alſo as well where the account is made, or the debt known, within eight years after the death of ſuch accountant or debtor, as where the ſame account is made, or the debt known, in the life-time. ſ. 2.

Provided, that after the death of ſuch accountant and debtor, and before any lands deſcended unto the heir ſhall be ſold, a ſcire facias ſhall be awarded out of her majeſty's exchequer unto the ſheriff of the county where ſuch lands lie, to garniſh the heir, to ſhew cauſe why the lands ſhould not be put to ſale; whereupon, if the heir do not within a convenient time, upon a garniſhment or two nichils returned, ed, ſhew that the executors or adminiſtrators of ſuch accountant or debtor have ſufficient which ought to anſwer for the debt or farm, after ten months the lands ſhall be ſold by her majeſty. ſ. 3.

The ſaid recited act, and this ſtatute of explanation alſo, ſhall not extend to any lands, which any perſon before any ſcire facias awarded ſhall purchaſe bona fide, and upon good conſideration. ſ. 4.

This act of explanation ſhall extend only unto tellers, receivers, treaſurers, cuſtomers, cofferers of the houſhold, farmers of impoſt, collectors, bailiffs, victuallers, and other officers of receipts and accounts to the queen. ſ. 5.

In caſes where any account ought to be made, or any debt ſhall be owing, in the court of the duchy of Lancaſter, after the death of ſuch accountant or debtor, and before any of the lands deſcended unto the heir be ſold, proceſs ſhall be awarded, viz. firſt a privy ſeal commanding the heir to make perſonal appearance, to ſhew cauſe as in the writ of ſcire facias to be awarded out of the exchequer is appointed; and if the heir ſhall make default at the return of the privy ſeal, upon affidavit that the privy ſeal was duly ſerved, either upon the perſon of the heir, or left at the place of his abode, an attachment with proclamation ſhall be awarded, and ſhall be proclaimed in ſome market-town in the county where the heir was laſt dwelling 20 days before the return; and if upon return the heir make default, all things ſhall be done for ſale of the lands, as is appointed where default is made upon a garniſhment, or two nichils, returned upon a ſcire facias out of the exchequer. ſ. 6.

If the heir of any accountant or debtor before-mentioned ſhall be within the age of 21 years when ſuch proceſs ſhall be awarded, then during his nonage this act ſhall not be executed, as touching the ſelling of the lands: and after ſuch heir ſhall accompliſh the age of 21 years, the lands ſhall, during eight years then next enſuing, be liable to be ſold for the payment of her majeſty. ſ. 7.

This act ſhall not extend to the ſale of the lands of any ſuch heir for any account, debt, or farm, whereof ſuch debtor or accountant ſhall have a quietus eſt or diſcharge in his life-time. ſ. 8.

By 20 Car. 2. c. 2. Receivers, reeves, bailiffs, collectors, and other officers, receiving monies for his majeſty's uſe, ſhall uſe all diligence to gather the monies due to his majeſty within the receipts, and to pay the ſame according to their duties. ſ. 1.

All perſons, who having received any monies due to the king, ſhall not account for, and pay the ſame, according to the courſe of the exchequer, into the receipt there, or to ſuch perſons to whom the ſame ought to be paid, within two months after the ſame ſhall have been received, ſhall anſwer damages after the rate of twelve per cent. by the year, by the judgment of the court of exchequer, without any power of abatement or inſtalment, and the proceſs of the court ſhall be awarded againſt the ſaid perſons. ſ. 2.

Nothing herein contained ſhall alter the time or way of accounting of any ſheriff. ſ. 3.

By 3 Geo. 1. c. 4. The lords commiſſioners of the treaſury are empowered to cauſe ſuch ſums of money, as they ſhall judge reaſonable, to be paid or allowed to receivers out of the arrears in their hands, and the auditors are to allow the ſame. ſ. 3.

By 7 Geo. 1. c. 20. The lords commiſſioners of the treaſury are empowered to cauſe ſuch ſums of money, as they ſhall judge reaſonable, to be paid or allowed to receivers, out of any overplus monies to ariſe by any land-tax, after diſcharging all payments charged thereupon by parliament. ſ. 36.

By 25 Geo. 3. c. 35. It ſhall be lawful for the court of exchequer, on the application of the attorney general in a ſummary way, by motion to the ſame court, to order that the right and title, eſtate and intereſt, of any debtor to his majeſty, and the right, title, eſtate, and intereſt of the heirs and aſſigns of ſuch debtor, in any lands, tenements, or hereditaments which ſhall be extended under a writ of extent, or diem clauſit extremum, or ſo much thereof as ſhall be ſufficient to ſatisfy the debt for which the ſame ſhall have been extended, ſhall be ſold in ſuch manner as the court ſhall direct; and when a purchaſer ſhall be found, the conveyance of the lands, &c. decreed to be ſold, ſhall be made to the purchaſer, by the remembrancer in the court of exchequer, or his deputy, under the direction of the court, by a deed of bargain and ſale, to be inrolled in the ſame court; and after ſuch conveyance, and the inrollment thereof, the bargainee ſhall have and enjoy the lands, &c. therein compriſed, for his own uſe, not only againſt the extent of the crown, but alſo againſt ſuch debtor of the crown, or the ſureties for ſuch debtor, and all perſons claiming under ſuch debtor, or the ſureties, unleſs by a title paramount to, and available in law againſt ſuch extent; and all monies payable from ſuch purchaſer, ſhall be paid, accounted for, and applied towards the diſcharge of the debt due to the crown, and of all coſts incurred by the crown in enforcing the payment of ſuch debt, in ſuch manner as the exchequer ſhall order: and if, after payment of the whole debt to the crown, and of all coſts, there ſhall be any ſurplus of the monies ariſing from ſuch ſale, the ſaid ſurplus ſhall belong to the ſame perſon as would be entitled to the lands, if there had not been a ſale thereof, and ſhall accordingly be paid to ſuch perſon, under the order of the court of exchequer, upon motion or petition to the ſaid court, to be made upon ſuch notice to the crown, and to be ſupported by ſuch affidavits or proofs, as to the ſaid court ſhall ſeem reaſonable. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for the court of exchequer to make order touching the production, delivery, and cuſtody of title deeds and writings, in the ſame manner as if a decree had been made by the ſaid court for a ſale of the lands of a crown debtor, in execution of a truſt created for payment of debts by ſuch crown debtor himſelf. ſ. 2. See DEBT to the KING.

Recognizances.

Stat. of Acton-burnal, 11 Edw. 1. Every merchant which will be ſure of his debt, ſhall cauſe his debtor to come before the mayor of London, York, or Briſtol, or before the mayor and a clerk which the king ſhall appoint, to acknowledge the debt and the day of payment, and the acknowledgment ſhall be entered in a roll by the clerk; moreover the clerk ſhall make a bill obligatory, whereunto the ſeal of the debtor ſhall be put with the king's ſeal, which ſeal ſhall remain in the keeping of the mayor and clerk; and if the debtor do not pay at the day, the creditor ſhall come before the mayor and clerk with his bill; and the mayor ſhall cauſe the moveables of the debtor and his burgages deviſable to be ſold as far as the debt doth amount; and if the mayor can find no buyer, he ſhall cauſe the moveables to be delivered to the creditor at a reaſonable price, as much as doth amount to the debt, and the king's ſeal ſhall be put unto the ſale and deliverance of the burgages deviſable; and if the debtor have no moveables within the juriſdiction of the mayor, but hath ſome other where, then ſhall the mayor ſend the recognizance unto the chancellor, and the chancellor ſhall direct a writ unto the ſheriff in whoſe bailiwick the moveables be, that the ſheriff cauſe the creditor to be ſatisfied; and if the praiſers ſet an over price, then ſhall the thing praiſed be delivered unto themſelves at ſuch price; and if the debtor have no moveables, then ſhall his body be taken and kept in priſon until he have made agreement; and if he have not wherewith he may ſuſtain himſelf in priſon, the creditor ſhall find him bread and water, which coſts the debtor ſhall recompenſe him with his debt. And if the creditor be a merchant ſtranger, he ſhall remain at the coſts of the debtor ſo long as he tarrieth about the ſuit of his debt, and until goods of the debtor be ſold or delivered unto him. And if pledges or mainpernors come before the mayor and clerk, and bind themſelves by recognizance in like manner as the principal debtor, if the debt be not paid at the day, ſuch execution ſhall be awarded againſt the pledges, as is appointed for the debtor. ſ. 1.

As long as the debt may be fully levied of the goods of the debtor, the pledges ſhall be without damage. ſ. 2.

Stat. of merchants, 13 Edw. 1. ſt. 3. A merchant which will be ſure of his debt, ſhall cauſe his debtor to come before the mayor of London, or before ſome chief warden of the city or other town where the king ſhall appoint, and before the mayor or chief warden, or other diſcreet men ſworn thereto, when the mayor or chief warden cannot attend, and before one of the clerks that the king ſhall aſſign, when both cannot be attendant, and acknowledge the debt and day of payment; and the recognizance ſhall be inrolled by one of the clerks, and the roll ſhall be double, whereof one part ſhall remain with the mayor or chief warden, and the other with the clerks; and one of the clerks ſhall write an obligation whereunto the ſeal of the debtor ſhall be put with the king's ſeal, which ſeal ſhall be of two pieces, whereof the great piece ſhall remain with the mayor or chief warden, and the other in the keeping of the clerks; and if the debtor do not pay the debt at the day, then ſhall the merchant come before the mayors and clerk with his obligation, and the mayor or chief warden ſhall cauſe the body of the debtor to be taken (if he be lay), and ſhall commit him to the priſon of the town, if there be any, and he ſhall remain there at his own coſts until he hath agreed for the debt; and if the keeper of the town-priſon will not receive him, he ſhall be anſwerable for the debt; and if he have not whereof, he that committed the priſon to his keeping ſhall anſwer it; and if the debtor cannot be found by the mayor or chief warden, then ſhall the mayor or chief warden ſend to the chancery the recognizance, and the chancellor ſhall direct a writ to the ſheriff, in whoſe ſhire the debtor ſhall be, to take his body (if he be lay), and ſafely to keep him in priſon until he hath agreed for the debt; and within a quarter of a year after he is taken, his goods and lands ſhall be delivered: and it ſhall be lawful to him, during the ſame quarter, to ſell his lands for the diſcharge of his debt; and if he do not ſatisfy it within the quarter, all the lands and goods of the debtor ſhall be delivered unto the merchant by a reaſonable extent, to hold them until the debt is levied; and his body ſhall remain in priſon, and the merchant ſhall find him bread and water: and the merchant or his aſſigns ſhall have ſuch ſeiſin in the lands delivered, that he may maintain a writ of novel diſſeiſin, and a rediſſeiſin, as of freehold to hold to him and his aſſigns, until the debt be paid; and as ſoon as the debt is levied, the body of the debtor ſhall be delivered with his lands. And in the writs which the chancellor ſhall award, mention ſhall be made, that the ſheriff ſhall certify the juſtices of the one bench or of the other, how he hath performed the king's command at a certain day; at which day the merchant ſhall ſue before the juſtices, if they be not ſatisfied; and if the ſheriff do not return the writ, or return that the writ came too late, or that he hath directed it to the bailiff of ſome franchiſe, the juſtices ſhall do as is contained in the ſtatute Weſtm. 2. c. 39. See "Sheriffs." And if the ſheriff return that the debtor cannot be found, or that he is clerk, the merchant ſhall have writs to all the ſheriffs where he ſhall have any land, that they deliver all the goods and lands of the debtor by a reaſonable extent, to hold unto him and his aſſigns: and he ſhall have a writ to what ſheriff he will, to take his body, (if he be lay,) and the keeper of the priſon muſt anſwer the body or the debt; and after that the debtor's lands be delivered to the merchant, the debtor may ſell his land, ſo as the merchant have no damage by the approvements; and the merchants ſhall be allowed their damages and coſts. And if the debtor find ſureties, which ſhall acknowledge themſelves as principal debtors, the ſureties ſhall be ordered as the principal debtor. And the merchant ſhall have ſeiſin of all the lands that were in the hand of the debtor the day of the recognizance made; and after the debt paid, the lands and iſſues thereof ſhall return again, as well to the feoffees as the other lands unto the debtor: and if the debtor or his ſureties die, the merchant ſhall have none authority to take the body of his heir, but he ſhall have his lands if he be of age, or when he ſhall be of age, until he hath levied the debt. And there ſhall be alſo another ſeal provided that ſhall ſerve for fairs, and the ſame ſhall be ſent unto every fair under the king's ſeal by a clerk ſworn, or by a keeper of the fair. And of the commonalty of London two merchants ſhall be choſen that ſhall be ſworn, and the ſeal ſhall be opened before them, and one piece ſhall be delivered to the merchants, and the other ſhall remain with the clerk; and before them or one of the merchants (if both cannot attend) the recognizances ſhall be taken; and before the recognizances be inrolled, the pain of the ſtatute ſhall be read before the debtor. And to maintain the coſts of the clerk, the king ſhall take of every pound a penny, in every town where the ſeal is, except fairs, where he ſhall take 1 d. ob. of the pound. This act to be obſerved throughout England and Ireland, between any that will make ſuch recognizances, except Jews; and by this ſtatute the writ of debt ſhall not be abated; and the chancellor, juſtices of either bench, and juſtices errants, ſhall not be by this precluded to take recognizances, but the execution of recognizances made before them ſhall not be made in the form aboveſaid, but by the law before uſed.

A like ſtatute have the mayor and citizens of Exeter.

By 14 Edw. 3. ſt. 1. c. 11. Every clerk deputed to receive recognizances in cities and boroughs, ſhall abide in perſon to do his office, and ſhall have lands ſufficient in the county, whereof he may anſwer.

By 27 Edw. 3. ſt. 2. c. 9. Every mayor of the ſtaples ſhall have power to take recognizances of debts in preſence of the conſtables of the ſtaple, or one of them. And in every of the ſtaples ſhall be a ſeal remaining in cuſtody of the mayor, under the ſeals of the conſtables; and all obligations made upon ſuch recognizances ſhall be ſealed with the ſaid ſeal, paying for every obligation of 100 l. and within, of every pound a halfpenny, and of every obligation above 100 l. a farthing; and the mayor of the ſtaple may take and hold in priſon the bodies of the debtors after the term incurred, if they be found within the ſtaple, till they have made gree; and alſo arreſt the goods found within the ſtaple, and deliver them to the creditors, or ſell them at the beſt, and deliver the money to the creditors; and in caſe the debtors be not found within the ſtaple, nor their goods to the value of the debt, the ſame ſhall be certified in the chancery under the ſaid ſeal, by which certification a writ ſhall be ſent to take the bodies, and to ſeize the lands and goods; and the writ ſhall be returned into the chancery, with the certificate of the value of the lands and goods; and thereupon execution ſhall be made from day to day, in manner as in the ſtatute-merchant; ſo that he to whom the debt is due, ſhall have eſtate of freehold in the lands, and recovery by writ of novel diſſeiſin, if he be outed. And the debtor ſhall have no advantage of the quarter of a year in the ſaid ſtatute-merchant. And in caſe a creditor ſhall not have letters of the ſeal, but will ſtand to the faith of the debtor, if after the term incurred he demand the debt, the debtor ſhall be believed upon his faith.

By 5 Hen. 4. c. 12. When any ſtatute-merchant is certified into the chancery, and a writ awarded to the ſheriff, and returned into the common place, and the ſtatute there once ſhewed, howſoever the proceſs after be diſcontinued, the juſtices of the bench may upon the ſame record award execution of the ſtatute, without ſhewing thereof at any other time.

By 11 Hen. 6. c. 10. Where perſons taken for execution of recognizances of the ſtaple come in by writs of corpus cum cauſa in chancery, ſhewing forth divers indentures and other things in defeaſance, deſiring writs of ſcire facias to warn the parties at whoſe ſuit they be taken, and by ſurety found to the king have been delivered; from henceforth ſuch ſureties ſhall be made ſeverally, as well to the king as to the party.

By 23 Hen. 8. c. 6. The chief juſtice of the king's bench, and the chief juſtice of the common pleas, every of them by himſelf, and in their abſence out of term, the mayor of the ſtaple at Weſtminſter, and the recorder of London together, ſhall have power to take recognizances for debts, according to ſuch form as enſueth: ſ. 2.

Know all men by theſe preſents, us A. B. and C. D. to be held and firmly bound to J. S. in 100 l. ſterling, to be paid to the ſame J. or his certain attorney ſhewing this writing, his heirs or executors, in ſuch a feaſt, &c. next enſuing after the date of theſe preſents; and if we fail in payment of the ſaid debt, we will and grant, that there ſhall then run upon us the pain ordained and provided in the ſtatute of the ſtaple, for the recovering of debts for merchandize bought in the ſame. Dated ſuch a day, &c.

Every obligation made according to this act ſhall be ſealed with the ſeal of the party, and alſo with ſuch ſeal as the king ſhall appoint, with the ſeal of one of the ſaid juſtices, or with the ſeals of the mayor and recorder, and with their names ſubſcribed, that ſhall take the recognizance; and the juſtices, mayor, and recorder, ſhall have the cuſtody of one ſuch ſeal, which ſhall ſeverally remain with them. ſ. 3.

Such perſon as ſhall be aſſigned by the king ſhall write all ſuch obligations, and cauſe the ſame to be inrolled in two rolls indented, whereof one ſhall remain with the juſtices, or with the ſaid mayor and recorder, that ſhall take the recognizance, and the other with the writer; and the perſon appointed for writing and inrolling ſuch obligations, or his deputy, ſhall dwell in London, upon pain to forfeit for every time that he ſhall be abſent two days, 10 l. ſ. 4.

The perſon aſſigned to write and inrol ſuch obligations, at the requeſt of the creditors, ſhall certify ſuch obligations into the chancery, under the ſeal of the ſaid perſon. ſ. 5.

Every perſon to whom ſuch obligation ſhall be made for default of payment, ſhall have like proceſs and execution as hath been uſed upon any obligation of ſtatute-ſtaple. ſ. 6.

Every perſon, that ſhall have proceſs for execution by reaſon of any ſuch obligation, ſhall pay to the king at the time of the ſealing of the proceſs, one halfpenny for every pound contained in the obligation. ſ. 8.

Every of the ſaid juſtices, and the ſaid mayor and recorder, before whom ſuch obligation ſhall be recognized, ſhall take for knowledge of every ſuch recognizance, 3 s. 4 d.; and the clerk that ſhall write and inrol the ſame, 3 s. 4 d.; and for the certificate of every ſuch obligation, 20 d. And if any of the ſaid juſtices, mayor, recorder, or clerk, take above the ſums limited, they ſhall forfeit 40 l. ſ. 10.

No mayor or conſtable of the ſtaple for the payment of money ſhall take any recognizance of the ſtatute-ſtaple, upon pain to forfeit 40 l. the one moiety of the ſaid penalties to be to the king, and the other moiety to the party that will ſue for the ſame; provided, that this act be not hurtful to any mayor and conſtables of the ſtaple, for any bond of ſtatute-ſtaple taken between merchants being free of the ſtaple, for merchandize of the ſtaple between them bought and ſold. ſ. 11.

By 29 Car. 2. c. 3. The day of the month, and year of the inrolment of recognizances ſhall be ſet down in the margin of the roll; and no recognizance ſhall bind any lands in the hands of any purchaſer bona fide, and for valuable conſideration, but from the time of ſuch inrolment. ſ. 18.

By 8 Geo. 1. c. 25. The rolls appointed by 23 Hen. 8. c. 6. to be made of recognizances in nature of a ſtatute-ſtaple ſhall be made in manner following, viz. the clerk of the recognizances, or his deputy, ſhall yearly prepare three parchment rolls, and ſhall, at the times of acknowledging every recognizance, ingroſs the full tenor of ſuch recognizance; and one of the rolls ſhall contain all the recognizances taken before the chief juſtice of the king's bench; and one other of them, all the recognizances taken before the chief juſtice of the common pleas; and the other, all the recognizances before the mayor of the ſtaple at Weſtminſter, and recorder of London; and at the time of ſuch acknowledgment, the perſons before whom ſuch recognizances ſhall be taken, and alſo the party acknowledging, ſhall ſign their names to the roll, as well as ſign and ſeal the recognizance; and all the three rolls ſhall, at the end of every year, be fixed together and made one roll, and remain in the cuſtody of the clerk of the recognizances, in his public office in London or Middleſex, who ſhall keep a docket to refer to the rolls; to which docket ſhall be added the day, month, and year, of every acknowledgment. ſ. 1.

In caſe any loſs ſhall happen to any ſuch recognizance, the ſame ſhall, from any of the rolls, be by the clerk, by certificate under his ſeal, certified into chancery; and to ſuch certificate, and all certificates of ſuch recognizances, ſhall be annexed a tranſcript of the entry from the rolls; and a like certificate with ſuch tranſcript annexed ſhall be made, and remain with the clerk of the petty bag; and ſhall be as effectual, as if the recognizance under ſeal had been left in the office; and in caſe of loſs, a copy from the rolls, ſigned by the clerk, and duly proved, ſhall be evidence of ſuch recognizances. ſ. 2.

The proſecutor of every ſuch recognizance ſhall, at the time of ſuing out the firſt writ of extent, deliver into the office a note, teſtifying the ſum of the damages intended to be levied, which ſum the officer ſhall inſert in the writ; and the poundage of one halfpenny ſhall be taken only for every pound, according to the ſum ſo inſerted. ſ. 3.

In caſe it ſhall at any time before or after the filing or returning of any liberate, be made appear to the chancery, that that ſufficient has not been levied to ſatisfy the recognizance, or that any omiſſion or error has happened in ſuing out, executing, or returning, any of the ſaid writs, or any proceſs thereon; or that any lands ſhall be evicted from any perſon who ſhall have extended the ſame by virtue of ſuch proceſs; the chancery ſhall award re-extents for ſatisfying the ſame, and writs of liberate may be ſued out thereupon. ſ. 4.

No ſheriff ſhall take for the extent and liberate, and habere facias poſſeſſionem or ſeiſinam on the real eſtate, and levy on the perſonal eſtate, by virtue of ſuch extent, any more than the fees appointed by 3 Geo. 1. c. 15. for executing a writ of elegit, and habere facias poſſeſſionem or ſeiſinam, under the like penalties. ſ. 5. See SHERIFF and FRAUDS.

Records.

By 9 Edw. 3. ſt. 1. c. 5. Juſtices of aſſiſe, gaol-delivery, and of oyer and terminer, ſhall ſend all their records and proceſſes, determined and put in execution, to the exchequer at Michaelmas every year: and the treaſurer and chamberlains, having ſight of the commiſſions of ſuch juſtices, ſhall receive records under their ſeals, and keep them in the treaſury; ſo always that the juſtices do firſt take out the eſtreats of the records, and proceſs to ſend them to the exchequer.

By 8 Ric. 2. c. 4. Of falſe entering of pleas, razing of rolls, and changing of verdicts, if any judge or clerk be of ſuch default (ſo that by the ſame there enſueth diſheriſon of any parties), ſufficiently convict before the king and his council, by the manner and form as to the king and his council ſhall ſeem reaſonable, and within two years after ſuch default made, if the party grieved be of full age; and if he be within age, then within two years after he ſhall come to his full age, he ſhall be puniſhed by fine and ranſom at the king's will, and ſatisfy the party; and as to the reſtitution of the inheritance, the party grieved ſhall ſue by writ or otherwiſe according to law.

By 11 Hen. 4. c. 3. The juſtices aſſigned to take aſſiſes ſhall cauſe to be delivered in the king's treaſury, all the records of aſſiſes of novel diſſeiſin, of mortdanceſtor, and of certifications, before them determined, every ſecond year; and the records and proceſs of pleas real and perſonal, and of aſſiſes of novel diſſeiſin, or mortdanceſtor, and certifications, and of other, whereof judgment is given and inrolled, ſhall in no wiſe be amended nor impaired by new entering of the clerks, or by the record or thing certified in commandment of any juſtice, in no term after ſuch judgment given and inrolled.

Recoveries.

Stat. Weſtm. 2. 13 Edw. 1. c. 4. Where the huſband being impleaded giveth up the land demanded, and where the huſband loſeth land by default, in both caſes the woman demanding her dower ſhall be heard; and if it be alledged againſt her, that her huſband loſt the land by judgment, and it be enquired by what judgment, and it be found that it was by default, whereunto the tenant muſt anſwer; then the tenant ſhall anſwer further, and ſhew that he had right in the land according to the form of the writ purchaſed againſt the huſband; and if he can ſhew that the huſband had no right in the lands, nor any other but he that holdeth them, the tenant ſhall go quit, and the wife ſhall recover nothing of her dower; which if he cannot ſhew, the wife ſhall recover her dower. And ſo in theſe caſes, and in other, viz. when the wife being endowed loſeth her dower by default, and tenants in free marriage, by the law of England, or for term of life, or in fee tail, divers actions concur for ſuch tenants when they demand their land loſt by default; for when it is come to that, that ſuch tenants muſt be compelled to ſhew their right, and they cannot anſwer without them to whom the reverſion belongeth, therefore it is granted unto them to vouch to warranty, as if they were tenants, if they have a warranty; and when the warrantor hath warranted, the plea ſhall paſs between him that is ſeiſed and the warrantor, according to the tenor of the writ that the tenant purchaſed before, and by which he recovered by default. And if the action of ſuch a tenant, which is compelled to ſhew his right, be moved by a writ of right, though the great aſſiſe or battail cannot be joined by the words accuſtomed, yet it ſhall be joined by words convenient. And where ſometime a woman not having right to demand dower, the heir being within age, doth purchaſe a writ of dower againſt a guardian, and the guardian endoweth the woman by favour, or maketh default, or by colluſion defendeth the plea faintly, whereby the woman is awarded her dower; the heir, when he cometh to age, ſhall have an action to demand the ſeiſin of his anceſtor againſt ſuch woman, like as againſt any other deforceor; yet ſo that the woman ſhall have her exception ſaved againſt the demandant, to ſhew that ſhe had right to her dower; which if ſhe can ſhew, ſhe ſhall go quit and retain her dower, and the heir ſhall be grievouſly amerced according to the diſcretion of the juſtices; and if not, the heir ſhall recover his demand. In like manner the woman ſhall be aided, if the heir, or any other, do implead her for her dower, or if ſhe loſe her dower by default; in which caſe the default ſhall not be ſo prejudicial to her but that ſhe ſhall recover her dower, if ſhe have right thereto; and ſhe ſhall have this writ: ſ. 1.

Command A. that juſtly, &c. he render to B. who was the wife of F. ſo much land with the appurtenances in C. which ſhe claimeth to be her reaſonable dower, and which the aforeſaid A. to her deforceth, &c. And if a man loſe his land by default, he may recover by another writ. For land in free marriage loſt by default, this writ ſhall be made: Command A. that juſtly, &c. he render to B. the manor of D. with the appurtenances, which he claimeth to be his right in marriage, and which A. to him unjuſtly deforceth. Likewiſe of land for term of life loſt by default, this writ ſhall be made: Command A. that juſtly and without delay, &c. he render to B. the manor of D. with the appurtenances, which he claimeth to hold to the term of his life, and which the aforeſaid A. to him deforceth, &c. Likewiſe: which he claimeth to hold to him and the heirs of his body lawfully begotten, and which the aforeſaid A. to him deforceth, &c. ſ. 2.

By 7 Hen. 8. c. 4. Recoverers in recoveries, their heirs and aſſigns, may diſtrain for rents, ſervices, and cuſtoms, and make avowry, or juſtify, as thoſe againſt whom the recovery is; and alſo have quare impedit for the advowſon, if any diſturbance be made. ſ. 2. See AVOWRY.

By 21 Hen. 8. c. 15. A termor may falſify for his term recoveries, in ſuch wiſe as a tenant of freehold may. ſ. 2.

The termors, notwithſtanding ſuch recovery, ſhall enjoy their terms according to their leaſes againſt all ſuch recoverers. And ſuch recoverers, their heirs and aſſigns, ſhall have like remedy againſt the termors, their executors and aſſigns, by avowry, or action of debt, for the rents and ſervices reſerved, and alſo like actions for waſte done after the recoveries had, as the leſſors might. ſ. 3.

No ſtatute ſtaple, ſtatute merchant, nor execution by elegit, ſhall be avoided by any fained recovery; but all perſons having lands by execution ſhall have like remedy to falſify recoveries, as is provided for the leaſe for years. ſ. 4.

By 14 Eliz. c. 8. Where perſons are ſeiſed of lands, as tenants by the curteſy, tenants in tail after poſſibility of iſſue extinct, or otherwiſe for term of life, or of eſtates determinable upon life, all recoveries by agreement of parties, or by covin, againſt any ſuch particular tenant, or againſt any other with voucher over of ſuch particular tenant, ſhall, as againſt ſuch perſons to whom any reverſion or remainder ſhall appertain, be void. ſ. 2.

This act ſhall not be prejudicial to any perſon that ſhall, by good title, recover lands by reaſon of any former right. ſ. 3.

All recoveries of lands by aſſent of any perſon to whom any reverſion or remainder thereof ſhall appertain (ſo that the ſame aſſent appear of record in any court of the queen) ſhall be in like force againſt ſuch perſons that ſhall aſſent, as before this act. ſ. 4.

By 14 Geo. 2. c. 20. All common recoveries in the court of common pleas at Weſtminſter, or in any court of record in Wales, or in any counties palatine, or in any other court having juriſdiction of any honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, without any ſurrender of a leaſe for one or more lives, under particular rents reſerved, or without the concurrence of or any conveyance from ſuch leſſee, or other perſon claiming under ſuch leſſee, in order to make good tenants to the writs of entry, ſhall be as effectual in law as if ſuch leſſee had conveyed or joined in conveying a good eſtate of freehold to the tenant to the writ of entry. ſ. 1.

Nothing in this act ſhall make any common recoveries valid, unleſs the perſon entitled to the firſt eſtate for life, or other greater eſtate (in caſe there be no ſuch eſtate for life in reverſion, or remainder next after the expiration of ſuch leaſes), has by ſome lawful act conveyed or joined in conveying an eſtate for life to the tenant to the writ of entry, or other writs whereupon ſuch common recoveries are ſuffered. ſ. 2.

Nothing in this act ſhall prejudice the eſtate of ſuch leſſee, or any perſon claiming under ſuch leſſee. ſ. 3.

Where any perſon hath purchaſed, for a valuable conſideration, any eſtate in lands or hereditaments, whereof a recovery is neceſſary to be ſuffered, to complete the title, ſuch perſon, and all claiming under him, having been in poſſeſſion from the time of ſuch purchaſe, may, after the end of 20 years, produce in evidence the deed making a tenant to the writ of entry or other writ for ſuffering a common recovery, and declaring the uſes of a recovery; and the deed ſo produced (the execution thereof being proved) ſhall be deemed good evidence for ſuch purchaſer and thoſe claiming under him, that ſuch recovery was ſuffered according to ſuch deed, in caſe no record can be found of ſuch recovery, or the ſame ſhall appear not to be regularly entered on record; provided the perſon making ſuch deed and declaring the uſes of a common recovery had a ſufficient eſtate and power to make a tenant to ſuch writ and to ſuffer ſuch common recovery. ſ. 4.

Every common recovery ſhall after 20 years from the ſuffering thereof be deemed valid, if it appears upon the face of ſuch recovery, that there was a tenant to the writ; and if the perſons joining in ſuch recovery, had a ſufficient eſtate and power to ſuffer the ſame, notwithſtanding the deed or deeds making the tenant to ſuch writ ſhould be loſt or not appear. ſ. 5.

Every recovery ſhall be deemed valid, notwithſtanding the fine, or deed making the tenant to ſuch writ, ſhould be levied or executed after the time of the judgment given in ſuch recovery, and the award of the writ of ſeiſin, provided the ſame appear to be levied or executed before the end of the term, great ſeſſion, ſeſſion, or aſſizes, in which ſuch recovery was ſuffered, and the perſons joining in ſuch recovery had a ſufficient eſtate and power to ſuffer the ſame. ſ. 6.

Nothing in this act ſhall make any common recovery heretofore ſuffered valid, which has been avoided by any lawful act, or which ſhall be avoided by entry before the 16th of January 1740, or by judgment or decree upon ſome ſuit at law or in equity, commenced before the ſaid 16th of January, but every ſuch common recovery ſhall be of ſuch force only as the ſame would have been if this act had never been made. ſ. 7.

Nothing in this act ſhall prejudice any queſtion of law which may ariſe upon common recoveries not remedied by this act; but all ſuch common recoveries ſhall be of ſuch force as the ſame would have been if this act had never been made. ſ. 8.

Rectories and Vicarages.

By 29 Car. 2. c. 8. Every augmentation reſerved or agreed to be made payable ſince the 1ſt of June in the 12th year of his majeſty's reign, or which ſhall be made payable to any vicar or curate, or reſerved by way of increaſe of rent to the leſſors, but intended for the benefit of any vicar or curate, by any archbiſhop, biſhop, or other eccleſiaſtical perſons, out of any rectory impropriate, or portion of tithes, ſhall continue for ever, as well during the continuance of the eſtate upon which the augmentations were reſerved, as afterwards; and the ſaid rectories or portion of tithes ſhall be chargeable therewith, whether the ſame be reſerved again or not; and the ſaid vicars and curates are hereby adjudged to be in the actual poſſeſſion thereof, for the uſe of themſelves and their ſucceſſors; and ſhall have remedy for the ſame, either by diſtreſs upon the rectories impropriate, or portions of tithes, or by action of debt againſt that perſon who ought to have paid the ſame. ſ. 2.

Provided that no future augmentation be confirmed by this act which ſhall exceed one moiety of the yearly value of the rectory impropriate. ſ. 3.

Every archbiſhop, biſhop, dean and chapter, ſhall cauſe every leaſe or grant whereon ſuch augmentation is made, to be entered in a book of parchment to be kept by their regiſters. And every dean, or other eccleſiaſtical perſon, ſhall cauſe every leaſe or grant, whereon any ſuch augmentation hath been made by himſelf or his predeceſſors, to be entered in the ſaid book; which entry being examined by the archbiſhop, biſhop, or dean, and atteſted in the book to be a true copy of the original leaſe or grant, and that the augmentation in the ſame was intended for ſuch uſe, ſhall be as a record, a copy whereof proved by witneſſes ſhall be evidence in law, whereupon the vicars and curates may recover the benefit of ſuch augmentation. ſ. 4.

Where any archbiſhop, biſhop, or other eccleſiaſtical perſon, upon the renewing or granting any leaſe, have made any agreement for an augmentation for the vicar or curate, and ſuch augmentation hath for any time been paid, although the agreement is not mentioned in the leaſe, ſuch eccleſiaſtical perſon ſhall cauſe the ſubſtance of ſuch agreement to be entered in a book. ſ. 5.

Such augmentation ſo entered ſhall likewiſe continue for ever, in the ſame manner as if the ſame had been reſerved by the leaſe. ſ. 6.

If any queſtion ariſe concerning any thing in this act, ſuch favourable conſtructions, and ſuch further remedy, ſhall be had for the benefit of the vicars and curates, as may be had upon the ſtatutes for charitable uſes. ſ. 7.

If upon the ſurrender or determination of any leaſe wherein any ſuch augmentation hath been granted, any new leaſe of the premiſes ſhall be made without expreſs continuance of the augmentation, ſuch new leaſe ſhall be void. ſ. 8.

By 17 Geo. 3. c. 53. Whenever the parſon, vicar, or other incumbent, of any eccleſiaſtical living, parochial benefice, chapelry, or perpetual curacy, under the juriſdiction of the biſhop or other eccleſiaſtical ordinary, whereon there is no houſe of habitation, or ſuch houſe is become ſo ruinous, or is ſo mean, that one year's neat income and produce of ſuch living will not be ſufficient to build, rebuild, or put the ſame, with the offices, in ſufficient repair, ſhall think fit to apply for the aid given by this act; it ſhall be lawful for ſuch parſon, &c. after having procured, from ſome workman, a certificate, containing a ſtate of the condition of the buildings on their glebes, and of the value of the timber and other materials thereupon, fit to be employed in ſuch buildings or repairs, or to be ſold, and alſo a plan and eſtimate of the work propoſed to be done, (ſuch ſtate to be verified upon oath before ſome juſtice, or maſter in chancery) and laid the ſame, together with a particular account in writing, ſigned by him, and verified upon oath, of the annual profits of ſuch living, before the ordinary and patron, and obtained their conſent to ſuch propoſed new buildings or repairs, by writing, under their hands, in the form in the ſchedule, to borrow ſuch money as the eſtimate ſhall amount unto, after deducting the value of timber or materials proper to be ſold, not exceeding two years neat income and produce of ſuch living, after deducting all rents, ſtipends, tares, and other out-goings, excepting only the ſalaries to the aſſiſtant curate, where ſuch a curate is neceſſary; and as a ſecurity for the money borrowed, to mortgage the glebe, tithes, rents, and other profits and emoluments, ariſing from ſuch living, to ſuch perſon who ſhall advance the ſame, by deeds, for 25 years, or until the money borrowed, with intereſt for the ſame, and ſuch coſts as may attend the recovery thereof, ſhall be fully paid, according to this act; which mortgage deed ſhall be made in the forms in the ſchedule, and ſhall bind every ſucceeding parſon, &c. until the principal, intereſt, and coſts, &c. ſhall be paid off. ſ. 1.

Such mortgagee ſhall execute a counterpart of ſuch mortgage, to be kept by the incumbent, and a copy of every mortgage ſhall be regiſtered in the office of the regiſtrar of the biſhop of the dioceſe, or other ordinary having epiſcopal juriſdiction, after having been firſt examined by him with the original; which officer ſhall regiſter the ſame, and be entitled to demand and receive 5*s.* for ſuch regiſter; and ſuch deed ſhall be referred to upon all occaſions, the perſon inſpecting the ſame paying one ſhilling for every ſearch; and the ſaid deed, or a copy thereof, certified under the hand of the regiſtrar, ſhall be allowed as evidence, in caſe ſuch mortgage deed ſhall be loſt or deſtroyed. ſ. 2.

Whenever the principal and intereſt, directed to be paid to the mortgagee under this act, ſhall be in arrear forty days after due, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch mortgagee to recover the ſame, and coſts, by diſtreſs and ſale, in ſuch manner as rents may be recovered by landlords from their tenants. ſ. 3.

The money borrowed ſhall be paid to ſuch perſon as ſhall be nominated to receive and apply the ſame for the purpoſes aforeſaid, by the ordinary, patron, and incumbent, by writing under their hands, in the form in the ſchedule, after ſuch nominee ſhall have given a bond to the ordinary, with ſurety, in double the ſum borrowed, with condition for his duly applying and accounting for the ſame according to this act; and the receipt of the perſon nominated ſhall be a diſcharge to the perſon who ſhall advance the money: and the perſon nominated ſhall enter into contracts with proper perſons for ſuch buildings or repairs as ſhall be approved by the ordinary, patron, and incumbent, and ſhall be ſpecified in an inſtrument written upon parchment, and ſigned by them, in the form in the ſchedule; and ſhall inſpect and have the care of the execution of ſuch contracts, and ſhall pay the money for ſuch buildings and repairs according to ſuch agreements, and ſhall take proper receipts and vouchers for the ſame; and as ſoon as ſuch buildings or repairs ſhall be completed, and the money paid, ſhall make out an account of his receipts and payments, together with the vouchers for the ſame, and enter them in a book, fairly written, which ſhall be ſigned by him, and laid before the ordinary, patron, and incumbent, and examined by them; and when allowed, by writing under their hands, in the form in the ſchedule, ſuch allowance ſhall be a diſcharge to the perſon nominated, in reſpect to the ſaid accounts; but if any balance ſhall remain in the hands of ſuch nominee, the ſame ſhall be laid out in ſome further laſting improvements in building upon ſuch glebe, or ſhall be paid in diſcharge of the principal debt, at the diſcretion of the ordinary, patron, and incumbent, or two of them, of which the ordinary to be one, by order ſigned by them, in the form in the ſchedule; and an account ſhall alſo be kept, made out, and allowed, of ſuch further diſburſements, in manner aforeſaid: all which accounts, when made out and allowed, ſhall be depoſited with the vouchers, in the hands of the regiſtrar, and kept by him for the uſe of the incumbents, who may inſpect the ſame, paying to ſuch regiſtrar or deputy one ſhilling for every inſpection. ſ. 4.

Every ordinary, before he ſignify his conſent as aforeſaid, ſhall cauſe an inquiry to be made, and certified to him by the archdeacon, chancellor of the dioceſe, or other proper perſons, living in or near the pariſh where ſuch buildings are to be made, in the forms in the ſchedule, of the ſtate and condition of ſuch buildings at the time the incumbent entered upon ſuch living; how long ſuch incumbent had enjoyed ſuch living; what money he had received, or may be entitled to for dilapidations, and how he had laid out what he received; and if it appear that ſuch incumbent had, by wilful negligence, ſuffered ſuch buildings to go out of repair, then to certify the ſame to the ordinary, and alſo the amount of the damage which ſuch buildings had ſuſtained by the wilful neglect of ſuch incumbent; and ſuch incumbent, if the ordinary require it, ſhall pay the ſame into the hands of the nominee towards defraying the expences of building and repairs, before the ordinary ſhall give his conſent. ſ. 5.

The incumbent of every ſuch living, where ſuch mortgage ſhall be made, and his ſucceſſors, ſhall pay the intereſt ariſing upon every ſuch mortgage yearly, as the ſame ſhall become due, or within one month after, and alſo 5 l. per cent.

per ann. of the principal remaining due, by yearly payments; and ſuch incumbent, who ſhall not reſide 20 weeks in each year upon ſuch living, computing from the date of the mortgage, ſhall, inſtead of the 5 l. per cent. per ann. pay 10 l. per cent. per ann. of the principal by yearly payments, ſuch payments to be made at the ſame time ſuch intereſt ſhall be paid, until the whole principal and intereſt ſhall be fully paid; and every incumbent who ſhall pay only 5 l. per cent. per ann. of ſuch principal money, ſhall, at the time he pays the ſame, produce and deliver to the mortgagee, a certificate under the hands of two rectors, vicars, or officiating miniſters, of ſome pariſhes near adjoining, ſignifying that he had reſided 20 weeks upon the ſaid living, within the year for which ſuch payment became due; which certificate ſhall be in the form in the ſchedule; and ſuch incumbent ſhall annually, at his own expence, from the time ſuch buildings ſhall be completed, inſure, at one of the public offices, eſtabliſhed in London or Weſtminſter, for inſurance of houſes, the houſe and other buildings upon ſuch glebe, againſt accidents by fire, at ſuch money as ſhall be agreed upon by the ordinary, patron, and incumbent; and in default of payment of either the principal or intereſt, or neglect of inſurance, the ordinary may ſequeſter the profits of the living, till ſuch payment or inſurance be made. ſ. 6.

That the payment of ſuch year may be juſtly aſcertained, between the ſucceſſor and the incumbent, avoiding ſuch living, &c. in caſe any difference ſhall ariſe in adjuſting the proportions, the ſame ſhall be determined by two indifferent perſons, the one to be named by the ſucceſſor, and the other by the perſon making avoidance, or his repreſentatives, in caſe of his death; and in caſe ſuch nominees ſhall not be appointed within two months after ſuch death or avoidance, or if they cannot agree in adjuſting ſuch proportions within one month after appointed, the ſame ſhall be determined by ſome neighbouring clergyman, to be nominated by the ordinary, whoſe determination ſhall be concluſive between the parties; which nominations and determinations ſhall be made according to the forms in the ſchedule. ſ. 7.

Where there ſhall be no houſe of habitation upon any eccleſiaſtical living, exceeding clear 100 l. per annum, or being one, the ſame ſhall be ſo mean, or in a ſtate of decay, and the incumbent ſhall not reſide in the pariſh 20 weeks within any year, computing from 1ſt Jan. it ſhall be lawful for the ordinary, with the conſent of the patron (in caſe the incumbent ſhall not think fit to lay out one year's income, where the ſame may be ſufficient, to put the houſe in proper repair, or to make ſuch application as aforeſaid, for building, repairing, or re-building ſuch parſonage houſe), to procure ſuch plan, eſtimate, and certificate, as herein directed, and at any time, within the ſucceeding year, to proceed in the execution of this act, in ſuch manner as the incumbent is authoriſed to proceed, and to make ſuch mortgage as aforeſaid, which ſhall be binding upon the incumbent and his ſucceſſors, and he ſhall be liable to the payment of the intereſt, principal, and coſts; and ſuch incumbent and his repreſentatives ſhall be liable to the proportion of the payments for the year which ſhall be growing at the time of the death, or avoidance, which intereſt, principal, and coſts, and proportion of payments, ſhall be recovered againſt ſuch incumbent, by action of debt, in any court of record. ſ. 8.

All money recovered or received, by ſuit or compoſitions, from the repreſentatives of any former incumbent, and not laid out in the repairs of buildings, ſhall go in part of the payments under ſuch eſtimate; and all money thereafter to be recovered or received, in caſe the ſame cannot be had before ſuch buildings are completed, and the money paid for the ſame, ſhall be applied, as ſoon as received, in payment of the principal then due, as far as the ſame will extend; or in caſe the ſaid mortgage money ſhall have been diſcharged, ſuch money ariſing from dilapidations, ſhall be paid into the hands of the nominee appointed as aforeſaid, or of ſome other perſon nominated by the ordinary, patron, or incumbent, in caſe ſuch nominee ſhall be dead, or ſhall decline to act therein, to be laid out in making ſome additional buildings or improvements upon the glebe, to be approved by the ordinary, patron, and incumbent; and in the mean time, or in caſe ſuch buildings ſhall not be neceſſary, then in truſt, to lay out the ſame in government or other good ſecurities, and pay the intereſt thereof to the incumbent. ſ. 9.

Where new buildings are neceſſary to be provided for the habitation of the rector, vicar, or other incumbent, purſuant to the authority hereby given, it ſhall be lawful for the ordinary, patron and incumbent, to contract, or to authoriſe, if they ſhall think fit, the perſon nominated by them to contract for the abſolute purchaſe of any houſe, in a ſituation convenient for the reſidence of the rector, or vicar, and not at a greater diſtance than one mile from the church; and alſo to contract for any land adjoining to ſuch houſe, or to the houſe belonging to any parochial living, having no glebe lying near to the ſame, not exceeding two acres, if the annual value of ſuch living, aſcertained as aforeſaid, be leſs than 100 l. per annum, nor two acres for every 100 l. per annum, if of greater value, and to cauſe the purchaſe money for ſuch houſe to be paid out of the money to ariſe under this act; in all which caſes the ſaid buildings and lands ſhall be conveyed to the patron, and his heirs, in truſt, for the ſole uſe of the incumbent, and ſhall be annexed to ſuch church or chapel, and go in ſucceſſion with the ſame for ever; but no contract ſo made by the nominee ſhall be valid, until confirmed by the ordinary, patron, and incumbent, by writing under their hands; and ſuch purchaſe deed ſhall be in the form in the ſchedule, and ſhall be regiſtered as the other deeds are hereby directed to be regiſtered. ſ. 10.

When ſuch land lying near to the parſonage houſe belonging to ſuch living, or to be ſo purchaſed or exchanged, ſhall be thought fit to be taken as a convenience for the ſame, the purchaſe money or equivalent ſhall be raiſed by ſale or exchange of ſome part of the glebe or tithes of ſuch living which ſhall appear to the ſaid ordinary, patron, and incumbent, moſt convenient; and ſuch ſale or exchange ſhall be by deed, in the form in the ſchedule, and regiſtered as before directed. ſ. 11.

It ſhall be lawful for the governors authoriſed to regulate the bounty given by queen Anne, to advance, not exceeding 100 l. in reſpect of each living, out of the money which ſhall ariſe from that bounty, for promoting the purpoſes of this act, as to any livings, as ſhall not exceed the clear annual improved value of 50 l.; and ſuch mortgage ſhall be made for the re-payment of the principal ſums advanced, as before mentioned, but no intereſt ſhall be paid for the ſame; and where the annual value ſhall exceed 50 l. it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid governors to advance, not exceeding two years income of ſuch living, upon ſuch mortgage as aforeſaid, and ſubject to the regulations of this act, and to receive intereſt for the ſame, not exceeding 4 l. per cent. ſ. 12.

It ſhall be lawful for any college or hall, within the univerſities of Oxford and Cambridge, or for any other corporate porate bodies poſſeſſed of the patronage of eccleſiaſtical livings, to advance any money, of which they have the power of diſpoſing, to aid the purpoſes of this act, for the building, rebuilding, repairing, or purchaſing, of any houſes upon livings, under the patronage of ſuch college or hall, upon the mortgage directed by this act for the re-payment of the principal, without taking intereſt for the ſame. ſ. 13.

Whenever the patron of any living ſhall be a minor, idiot, lunatic, or feme-covert, it ſhall be lawful for the guardian, committee, or huſband of ſuch patron, to tranſact the matters for ſuch patron, who ſhall be bound thereby. ſ. 14.

All acts required to be done by the ordinary and patron ſhall be done by the ordinary alone, when ſuch ordinary ſhall be the patron; and no deed, &c. made under this act, ſhall be charged with any ſtamp-duty, or fee of office, except as herein mentioned. ſ. 15.

Where any act is required to be done by the ordinary, and ſuch ordinary ſhall be a body corporate aggregate, ſuch act ſhall be done under the ſeal of ſuch body corporate. ſ. 16.

Where the incumbent of any chapelry or perpetual cure, ſhall be nominated by the rector or vicar, in ſuch caſe, the conſent of ſuch rector or vicar, together with the conſent of the patron of ſuch rectory, ſhall be neceſſary in all matters wherein the conſent of the patron is required. ſ. 17.

Whenever any controverſy ſhall ariſe, touching the reſidence of the incumbent, the ſame ſhall be determined by the ordinary of the dioceſe. ſ. 18.

It ſhall be lawful for the patron, ordinary, and incumbent, or two of them, of which the ordinary to be one, by writing, under their hands, to make ſuch allowance to the perſon nominated by them, for applying the money raiſed as they think fit, not exceeding 5 l. for every 100 l. laid out. ſ. 19.

Where the patronage of any living ſhall be in the crown, and ſuch living ſhall be above the yearly value of 20 l. in the king's books, the conſent of the crown to the proceedings hereby authoriſed reſpecting ſuch living ſhall be ſignified by the firſt commiſſioner of the treaſury; but if ſuch living ſhall not exceed 20 l. in the king's books, ſuch conſent ſhall be ſignified by the lord high chancellor, &c; or if ſuch living ſhall be within the patronage of the crown in right of the duchy of Lancaſter, then ſuch conſent ſhall be ſignified by the chancellor of ſuch duchy, by writing, under their reſpective hands, in the form in the ſchedule; and in all ſuch caſes where ſuch deed is required to be executed by the patron as well as the ordinary and incumbent, ſuch deed ſhall be valid, if executed by the ordinary and incumbent only, after ſuch conſent ſhall have been obtained from the firſt commiſſioner of the treaſury, lord chancellor, &c. or chancellor of the duchy of Lancaſter: provided ſuch conſent ſhall be regiſtered at the regiſter office. ſ. 20.

It ſhall be lawful for any archbiſhop or biſhop of any dioceſe, and alſo for any eccleſiaſtical corporation, ſole or aggregate, being lord of any manor within which there ſhall be any waſte or common lands, parcel of the demeſnes of ſuch manor, lying convenient for the houſe, and other purpoſes of this act, to grant a part of ſuch waſte or common lands in perpetuity for the purpoſes of this act, leaving ſufficient common for the perſons having right of common upon ſuch waſtes or commons, and obtaining the conſent of the leſſee of ſuch lands, if the ſame be in leaſe. ſ. 21.

SCHEDULE.

FORM of the CONSENT of the Ordinary and Patron, (to be written on Parchment.)

Recuſants.

By 23 Eliz. c. 1. Every perſon which ſhall ſay or ſing maſs, being thereof convicted, ſhall forfeit two hundred marks, and be committed to the next gaol by the ſpace of one year, and till he have paid the ſum; and every perſon which ſhall willingly hear maſs, ſhall forfeit one hundred marks, and ſuffer impriſonment a year. ſ. 4.

Every perſon above the age of ſixteen years, which ſhall not repair to ſome church, chapel, or uſual place of common prayer, but forbear the ſame, contrary to the ſtatute 1 Eliz. c. 2. for uniformity, being thereof convicted, ſhall forfeit for every month 20*l.* and every perſon ſo forbearing twelve months, ſhall for his obſtinacy, after certificate made into the king's bench by the ordinary, a juſtice of aſſiſe and gaol delivery, or a juſtice of peace, be bound with two ſureties in 200*l.* at leaſt to the good behaviour, and ſo continue bound until they conform themſelves, and come to church, according to the ſaid ſtatute. ſ. 5.

If any perſon ſhall keep any ſchool-maſter which ſhall not repair to church, or be allowed by the ordinary, he ſhall forfeit for every month 10*l.* ſ. 6.

Provided that no ordinary, or their miniſters, ſhall take any thing for the allowance. And ſuch ſchool-maſter preſuming to teach contrary to this act, and being thereof convict, ſhall be diſabled to be a teacher of youth, and ſhall ſuffer impriſonment one year. ſ. 7.

All offences againſt this act, or againſt 1 Eliz. cap. 1. 5 Eliz. cap. 1. or 13 Eliz. cap. 2. touching acknowledging of her majeſty's ſupreme government in cauſes eccleſiaſtical, or touching the ſervice of God, or coming to church, or eſtabliſhment of true religion, ſhall be inquirable, as well before juſtices of peace as other juſtices, within one year and a day after ſuch offence committed. ſ. 8.

Juſtices of oyer and terminer, of aſſiſe, and gaol delivery, ſhall have power to inquire, hear and determine, of all offences againſt this ſtatute; and juſtices of peace in their quarter ſeſſions ſhall have power to inquire, hear, and determine, of all offences againſt this act, except treaſon and miſpriſion of treaſon. ſ. 9.

Every perſon guilty of any offence againſt this ſtatute, other than treaſon and miſpriſion of treaſon, which ſhall before he be indicted, or at his arraignment or trial before judgment, ſubmit and conform himſelf before the biſhop of the dioceſe, or before the juſtices where he ſhall be arraigned (having not before made like ſubmiſſion being indicted for his firſt like offence) ſhall upon his recognition of ſuch ſubmiſſion in open aſſiſes or ſeſſions be diſcharged. ſ. 10.

All forfeitures of money limited by this act ſhall be divided in three parts, whereof one ſhall be to the queen to her own uſe, one other third to the queen for relief of the poor in the pariſh, to be delivered by warrant of the principal officers in the receipt of the exchequer, and the other third part to ſuch perſon as will ſue for the ſame in any court of record; and every perſon which ſhall forfeit any money by this act, and ſhall not pay the ſame within three months after judgment given, ſhall be committed to priſon until he have paid the ſums, or conform himſelf to go to church. ſ. 11.

Every perſon which uſually on the Sunday ſhall have in his houſe divine ſervice eſtabliſhed by law, and be thereat uſually preſent, and ſhall not obſtinately refuſe to come to church, and ſhall alſo four times in the year be preſent at divine ſervice in the church of the pariſh, or in ſome other church or chapel of eaſe, ſhall not incur any penalty by this act for not repairing to church. ſ. 12.

Every conveyance and judgment to be had of covenous purpoſe to defraud any intereſt that may grow to the queen, or any other perſon, by any conviction by this ſtatute, or 13 Eliz. cap. 2. ſhall be void. ſ. 13.

This act ſhall not abridge the juriſdiction of eccleſiaſtical cenſures. ſ. 15.

By 28 or 29 Eliz. c. 6. Every conveyance of lands made by any perſon who ſhall not repair to church contrary to the ſtatute 23 Eliz. cap. 1. and which ſhall be revokable at the pleaſure of ſuch offender, or intended for the behoof or diſpoſition of ſuch offender, or whereby ſuch offender or his family ſhall be maintained, ſhall be void, as againſt the queen, for levying of ſuch ſums as ſuch perſon ought to forfeit, and ſhall alſo be ſeiſed for his majeſty's uſe. ſ. 1.

Every convicton for any offence before mentioned ſhall be in the king's bench, or at the aſſiſes or general gaol delivery, and ſhall be eſtreated into the exchequer before the end of the term next enſuing. ſ. 2.

Every ſuch offender, in not repairing to divine ſervice, as ſhall be once convicted, ſhall, in ſuch of the terms of Eaſter or Michaelmas as ſhall be next after ſuch conviction, pay into the receipt of the exchequer 20*l.* for every month contained in the indictment; and ſhall alſo for every month after ſuch conviction, without any other indictment or conviction, pay into the exchequer in every Eaſter term and Michaelmas term 20*l.* for every month; and if default be made in any payment aforeſaid, the queen may by proceſs out of the exchequer ſeiſe all the goods, and two parts of the lands, liable to the penalties aforeſaid, leaving the third part of the lands, leaſes, and farms, for the maintenance of the offender and his family. ſ. 4.

The indictment mentioning the not coming of ſuch offender to the church of the pariſh where ſuch perſon at any time before ſuch indictment did keep reſidence, nor to any other church, chapel, or uſual place, of common prayer, ſhall be ſufficient; and it ſhall not be needful to mention that the offender was inhabiting within the queen's dominions: but if ſuch offender was not within her majeſty's dominions, he ſhall be relieved by plea, and not otherwiſe. And upon the indictment a proclamation ſhall be made at the ſame aſſiſes or gaol delivery (if the ſame be taken at any aſſiſe, &c.) by which it ſhall be commanded, that the body of ſuch offender be rendered to the ſheriff before the next aſſiſes, &c. and if at the next aſſiſes, &c. the offender ſhall not make appearance, upon ſuch default recorded the ſame ſhall be a ſufficient conviction. ſ. 5.

Provided that whenſoever any ſuch offender ſhall make ſubmiſſion, and become conformable, or ſhall die, no forfeiture or ſeiſure of the lands after ſuch ſubmiſſion or conformity, or death, and ſatisfaction of all arrearages of 20*l.* monthly, ſhall enſue. ſ. 6.

It ſhall be lawful for the lord treaſurer, chancellor, and chief baron of the exchequer, or two of them, to diſpoſe of the third part of the 20*l.* for every month, for the maintenance as well of the poor, and of the houſes of correction, as of impotent and maimed ſoldiers. ſ. 7.

This act ſhall not make void any grant or leaſe to be made without covin, whereupon the accuſtomed yearly rent is reſerved, otherwiſe than to give title to her majeſty to have ſuch rents. ſ. 8.

This act ſhall not continue any ſeizure of any lands of ſuch offender in her majeſty's hands after the offender's death, which lands he ſhall be ſeiſed of only for his life, or in right of his wife. ſ. 9.

By 35 Eliz. c. 1. If any perſon above the age of ſixteen years ſhall obſtinately refuſe to repair to ſome church, or uſual place of common prayer eſtabliſhed by law, and ſhall forbear to do the ſame by the ſpace of a month, without any lawful cauſe, or ſhall, by printing, writing, or expreſs words, adviſedly practiſe, or go about to perſuade any other, to deny and impugn her majeſty's authority in caſes eccleſiaſtical annexed to the imperial crown of this realm, or to that end ſhall adviſedly and maliciouſly move any other perſon to forbear coming to church to hear divine ſervice, or to receive the communion according to her majeſty's laws, or to be preſent at any unlawful conventicles or meetings under colour of any exerciſe of religion contrary to law; or if any perſon which ſhall obſtinately refuſe to repair to ſome church or uſual place of common prayer, and ſhall forbear by the ſpace of a month to hear divine ſervice, ſhall willingly be preſent at any ſuch conventicles or meetings, under colour of ſuch exerciſe of religion, contrary to law; every perſon ſo offending, and being thereof convicted, ſhall be committed to priſon until they conform and yield themſelves to come to ſome church, or uſual place of common prayer, and hear divine ſervice according to law, and make ſuch open ſubmiſſion and declaration of their conformity as in this act is appointed. ſ. 1.

If any ſuch perſons ſhall not within three months after they ſhall be convicted, conform themſelves to the obedience of the laws in coming to church to hear divine ſervice, and in making ſuch public confeſſion and ſubmiſſion as hereafter is appointed, being required by the biſhop of the dioceſe, or any juſtice of peace, or by the miniſter or curate of the pariſh; ſuch offender being thereunto required by any juſtice of peace, ſhall, upon oath before the juſtices in the quarter ſeſſions, or at the aſſiſes and gaol delivery, abjure this realm and all the queen's dominions for ever, unleſs her majeſty ſhall licence the party to return; and thereupon ſhall depart out of this realm at ſuch port as ſhall be aſſigned by the ſaid juſtices, unleſs he be ſtaid by ſuch lawful means as by common law are allowed in caſes of abjuration for felony; and in ſuch caſes, then within ſuch time after as the common law requireth in caſe of abjuration for felony; and the juſtices of peace, before whom any ſuch abjuration ſhall be made, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be entered of record, and certify the ſame at the next aſſiſes or gaol delivery. ſ. 2.

If any ſuch offender refuſe to make abjuration, or ſhall not go to ſuch haven as is appointed, and from thence depart out of this realm, or ſhall return into her majeſty's dominions without her majeſty's licence, he ſhall be adjudged a felon without benefit of clergy. ſ. 3.

If any perſon that ſhall offend againſt this act ſhall, before he be required to make abjuration, repair to ſome pariſh church on ſome Sunday or feſtival, and hear divine ſervice, and at ſervice time, before the ſermon or reading of the goſpel, make public ſubmiſſion and declaration of his conformity to her majeſty's laws, the ſame offender ſhall be diſcharged of all penalties; the ſubmiſſion to be as followeth. ſ. 4.

I A. B. do humbly confeſs and acknowledge, that I have grievouſly offended God, in contemning her majeſty's godly and lawful government and authority, by abſenting myſelf from church, and from hearing divine ſervice, contrary to the godly laws and ſtatutes of this realm, and in uſing and frequenting diſordered and unlawful conventicles and aſſemblies, under pretence and colour of exerciſe of religion. And I am heartily ſorry for the ſame, and do acknowledge and teſtify in my conſcience, that no other perſon hath or ought to have, any power or authority over her majeſty. And I do promiſe and proteſt without any diſſimulation, or any colour or means of any diſpenſation, that from henceforth I will from time to time obey and perform her majeſty's laws and ſtatutes, in repairing to the church, and hearing divine ſervice, and do my uttermoſt endeavour to maintain and defend the ſame.

Every miniſter or curate of every pariſh where ſuch ſubmiſſion ſhall be made, ſhall enter the ſame in a book, and within ten days certify the ſame to the biſhop. ſ. 5.

Provided that if any offender, after ſuch ſubmiſſion made, fall into relapſe, or obſtinately refuſe to repair to church, &c. or ſhall be preſent at any ſuch conventicles or meetings, under pretence of exerciſe of religion, contrary to law, ſuch offender ſhall loſe all benefit of the ſubmiſſion. ſ. 6.

The ſaid forfeitures may be recovered to her majeſty's uſe in the king's bench, common pleas, or exchequer, as any other debt may be. ſ. 9.

The third part of the penalties ſhall be employed to ſuch charitable uſes as is appointed in the ſtatute 28 or 29 Eliz. c. 6. ſ. 10.

Provided that no popiſh recuſant or feme covert be compelled to abjure by this act. ſ. 11.

Every perſon that ſhall abjure by force of this act, or refuſe to abjure, ſhall forfeit to her majeſty all his goods, and ſhall loſe all his lands during the life of ſuch offender; and the wife of any offender ſhall not loſe her dower, nor any corruption of blood be by reaſon of any offence mentioned in this act. This act to continue to the end of the next ſeſſion of parliament. ſ. 12.

Continued indefinitely by 3 Car. 1. c. 4. and 16 Car. 1. c. 4. and enforced by 16 Car. 2. c. 4.

By 35 Eliz. c. 2. Every perſon above the age of ſixteen years, born within her majeſty's dominions, or made denizen, and having any certain place of abode within this realm, which being a popiſh recuſant ſhall be convicted for not repairing to church, &c. and being within this realm, ſhall within forty days after conviction (if they be not reſtrained by impriſonment, or by her majeſty's command, or by order of ſix of the privy council, or by ſickneſs, and in ſuch caſes within twenty days after they ſhall be enlarged, and ſhall be able to travel) repair to their place of abode, and ſhall not at any time after remove above five miles from thence, upon pain to forfeit all their goods, and alſo forfeit to the queen all the lands of every ſuch perſon during the life of the offender. ſ. 3.

Every ſuch offender which ſhall have any lands by copy of court roll, or other cuſtomary tenure at the will of the lord, according to the cuſtom of any manor, ſhall forfeit all his lands holden by copy of court roll, &c. during the life of ſuch offender (if his eſtate ſo long continue) to the lords of whom the ſame be holden, if the lord be not a popiſh recuſant convict, nor ſeiſed upon truſt to the uſe of any ſuch recuſant, and in ſuch caſe the forfeiture to be to the queen. ſ. 5.

Such perſons, as by this act are to repair to their place of abode, ſhall within 20 days after their coming to the ſaid places notify their coming thither, and preſent themſelves, and deliver their names, in writing, to the miniſter or curate of the pariſh, and to the conſtable, headborough, or tythingman, of the town, and thereupon the miniſter ſhall enter the ſame in a book. ſ. 6.

The miniſter and conſtable, &c. ſhall certify the ſame to the juſtices of peace at the next ſeſſions, and the juſtices ſhall cauſe the ſame to be entered by the clerk of the peace. ſ. 7.

If any ſuch popiſh recuſant (not being a feme covert, and not having lands or annuities, of an abſolute eſtate of freehold, of the yearly value of twenty marks, or goods above the value of 40*l.*) ſhall not within the time in this act act limited, repair to their place of abode, and notify their coming to the miniſter and conſtable as aforeſaid, or ſhall paſs above five miles from the ſame, and ſhall not, within three months after ſuch perſon ſhall be apprehended, conform to the obedience of the laws in coming to church and making public ſubmiſſion, being required by the biſhop, or any juſtice of peace, or by the miniſter of the pariſh; ſuch offender, being required by two juſtices of peace or coroner of the county, ſhall upon oath abjure this realm and all the queen's dominions for ever, and ſhall depart out of this realm at ſuch port, and within ſuch time, as ſhall be aſſigned by the juſtices or coroner; unleſs they be ſtayed by ſuch cauſes as are allowed in caſes of abjuration for felony; and in ſuch caſes within ſuch time after, as the law requireth in caſe of abjuration for felony. ſ. 8.

Every juſtice of peace and coroner, before whom ſuch abjuration ſhall be made, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be entered of record, and certify the ſame at the next aſſiſes or gaol delivery. ſ. 9.

If ſuch offender ſhall refuſe to make abjuration, or ſhall not go to ſuch haven, and depart out of this realm, or ſhall return into any her majeſty's dominions without her majeſty's licence, he ſhall be adjudged a felon without benefit of clergy. ſ. 10.

If any perſon ſuſpected to be a jeſuit, ſeminary, or maſſing prieſt, being examined by any perſon having lawful authority, ſhall refuſe to anſwer whether he be a jeſuit, or a ſeminary, or maſſing prieſt, he ſhall be committed to priſon until he anſwer the ſaid queſtions. ſ. 11.

If any perſon ſo reſtrained ſhall be urged by proceſs, or be bound without fraud, to make appearance in any of her majeſty's courts, or ſhall be required by three of her majeſty's privy council, or by any four commiſſioners aſſigned by her majeſty, to make appearance before her majeſty's council or commiſſioners, ſuch perſon ſhall not incur any forfeiture for travelling to make appearance accordingly. ſ. 13.

If any perſon ſo reſtrained ſhall be bound to yield their bodies to the ſheriff upon proclamation, he ſhall not incur any forfeiture for travelling for that purpoſe. ſ. 14.

If any perſon that ſhall offend againſt this act, ſhall, before he be convicted, come to ſome pariſh church on ſome Sunday or other feſtival, and hear divine ſervice, and at ſervice time, before the ſermon or reading of the goſpel, make public ſubmiſſion and declaration of his conformity to her majeſty's laws, he ſhall be diſcharged of all forfeitures; the ſubmiſſion to be made as followeth: ſ. 15.

I A. B. do humbly confeſs and acknowledge, that I have grievouſly offended God, in contemning her majeſty's godly and lawful government and authority, by abſenting myſelf from church, and from hearing divine ſervice, contrary to the godly laws and ſtatutes of this realm, and I am heartily ſorry for the ſame, and do acknowledge and teſtify in my conſcience, that the biſhop or ſee of Rome hath not, nor ought to have, any power or authority over her majeſty, or within any her majeſty's realms or dominions. And I do promiſe and proteſt without any diſſimulation, or any colour or means of any diſpenſation, that from henceforth I will from time to time obey and perform her majeſty's laws and ſtatutes, in repairing to the church and hearing divine ſervice, and do my uttermoſt endeavour to maintain and defend the ſame.

Every miniſter of every pariſh where ſuch ſubmiſſion ſhall be ſo made, ſhall enter the ſame in a book, and within ten days certify the ſame to the biſhop. ſ. 16.

If any offender, after ſuch ſubmiſſion made, ſhall fall into relapſe, or become a recuſant, ſuch offenders ſhall loſe all benefit of their ſubmiſſion. ſ. 17.

Every woman married ſhall be bound by every article in this ſtatute, other than the article of abjuration; and no woman married ſhall be compelled to abjure. ſ. 18.

By 1 Jac. 1. c. 4. The ſtatutes made in the reign of queen Elizabeth, as well againſt jeſuits, ſeminary prieſts and other prieſts, deacons and eccleſiaſtical perſons, ordained or profeſſed by any authority from the ſee of Rome, as thoſe which concern the withdrawing the king's ſubjects from their due obedience, and the religion now profeſſed, and the taking of the oath of obedience to the king, together with thoſe made againſt recuſants, ſhall be put in execution. ſ. 1.

If any recuſant ſhall ſubmit to reform himſelf, and become obedient to the laws of England, and repair to church, ſuch perſon ſhall be freed from the penalties of recuſancy. ſ. 2.

If any recuſant die, his heir being no recuſant, ſuch heir ſhall be diſcharged of all penalties in reſpect of his anceſtor's recuſancy. And if the heir be a recuſant, and after ſhall become conformable and repair to church, and ſhall take the oath of ſupremacy before the archbiſhop or biſhop, ſuch heir ſhall be diſcharged of all penalties. ſ. 3.

If the heir of any recuſant ſhall be within the age of ſixteen years at the deceaſe of his anceſtor, and ſhall after his age of ſixteen years be a recuſant, ſuch heir ſhall not be diſcharged of the penalties, until he ſubmit or reform himſelf, and repair to church and take the oath of ſupremacy. ſ. 4.

Where any ſeiſure ſhall be had of the two parts of any lands, leaſes or farms, for the non-payment of the 20 l. per month, ſuch two parts ſhall according to the extent go towards ſatisfaction of the 20 l. per month; and the third part ſhall not be extended or ſeiſed; and where ſuch ſeiſure ſhall be had of the two parts, and ſuch recuſant ſhall die, the two parts ſhall continue in his majeſty's poſſeſſion until the debt be paid; and his majeſty ſhall not ſeiſe or extend any third part deſcending to heirs, either by reaſon of the recuſancy of his anceſtors, or the recuſancy of ſuch heir. ſ. 5.

All perſons under the king's obedience, which ſhall go or ſend any child or other perſon under their government beyond the ſeas, out of the king's obedience, to the intent to be reſident in any college, ſeminary, or houſe of jeſuits, prieſts, or other popiſh order, to be inſtructed in the popiſh religion; every perſon ſo ſending any child or other perſon, ſhall forfeit 100 l. and every perſon ſo paſſing beyond the ſeas ſhall, as in reſpect of himſelf only, and not in reſpect of his heirs or poſterity, be diſabled to inherit, purchaſe or enjoy, any lands, goods, debts, legacies, or ſums of money, within his majeſty's dominions; and all eſtates made upon any truſt for the benefit of any ſuch perſon ſhall be void. ſ. 6.

Provided that if any perſon or child, ſo paſſing or ſent beyond the ſeas, ſhall after become conformable and repair to church, ſuch perſon and child, for ſuch time as he ſhall continue in conformity, ſhall be diſcharged of ſuch diſability. ſ. 7.

No woman, nor any child under the age of 21 years, (except ſailors or ſhip-boys, or the apprentice or factor of ſome merchant,) ſhall be permitted to paſs the ſeas, (except the ſame be by licence of the king, or of ſix of the privy council,) upon pain that the officer of the port that ſhall ſuffer any ſuch to paſs, or ſhall not enter the names of ſuch paſſengers licenced, ſhall forfeit his office and all his goods, and and upon pain that the owner of any ſhip that ſhall wittingly carry any ſuch over the ſeas, ſhall forfeit his ſhip; and every maſter or mariner in any ſhip offending as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit all their goods, and ſuffer impriſonment twelve months. ſ. 8.

No perſon ſhall keep ſchool, or be a ſchool-maſter, out of the univerſities or colleges, except it be in ſome public or free-grammar ſchool, or in ſome ſuch gentleman's or gentlewoman's houſe as are not recuſants, or where the ſchool-maſter ſhall be licenced by the biſhop; upon pain that as well the ſchool-maſter as the party that ſhall maintain ſuch ſchool-maſter, ſhall forfeit for every day 40 s. the one half of all penalties beforementioned to be to the king, the other to him that ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of the courts in Weſtminſter. ſ. 9.

By 3 Jac. 1. c. 4. Every popiſh recuſant convict, which ſhall conform and repair to church, ſhall, within the firſt year after he ſhall ſo conform himſelf, and once in every year following, receive the ſacrament of the Lord's ſupper in the church of that pariſh where he ſhall moſt uſually abide. ſ. 2.

And if there be no ſuch pariſh church, then in the church next adjoining to the place of his abode. And if any recuſant ſo conformed ſhall not receive the ſacrament, he ſhall forfeit for the firſt year 20 l. and for the ſecond year 40 l. and for every year after 60 l. until he ſhall have received the ſacrament; and if, after he ſhall have received the ſacrament, he ſhall eftſoons offend in not receiving the ſacrament by one whole year, he ſhall forfeit 60 l. one moiety to the king, and the other moiety to him that will ſue in any of the courts at Weſtminſter, or before juſtices of aſſiſe or gaol delivery, or before juſtices of peace at their quarter ſeſſions, by action of debt, &c. ſ. 3.

The church-wardens and conſtables of every town, &c. or if there be none, then the chief conſtables of the hundred, ſhall once every year preſent the monthly abſence from church of all popiſh recuſants, and the names of the children of the ſaid recuſants, being of the age of nine years and upwards, abiding with their parents, and the age of the children, and the names of the ſervants, of ſuch recuſants, at the quarter ſeſſions. ſ. 4.

Such preſentments ſhall be recorded by the clerk of the peace, or town clerk, without fee. And in default of ſuch preſentment, the churchwardens, conſtables, or high conſtables, ſhall forfeit 20 s. and in default of recording, the clerk of the peace or town clerk ſhall forfeit 40 s. ſ. 5.

Upon every preſentment of ſuch monthly abſence, whereupon ſuch party ſhall be indicted or convicted, the churchwardens, &c. making ſuch preſentments, ſhall have a reward of 40 s. to be levied out of the recuſants goods and eſtate, as by the juſtices ſhall be by warrant appointed. ſ. 6.

Juſtices of aſſiſe and gaol delivery, and juſtices of peace at their ſeſſions, ſhall have power to inquire, hear, and determine, of all recuſants and offences, as well for not receiving the ſacrament according to this law, as for not repairing to church according to former laws; and ſhall have power at their aſſiſes and ſeſſions (in which any indictment for not repairing to church, or not receiving the ſacrament, ſhall be taken) to make proclamation, by which it ſhall be commanded, that the body of every ſuch offender ſhall be rendered to the ſheriff of the county, or bailiff, or other keeper of the gaol of the liberty, before the next aſſiſes or the next quarter ſeſſions; and if at the next aſſiſes or ſeſſions the offender ſhall not make appearance, ſuch default recorded ſhall be a conviction in law of the offence. ſ. 7.

Every offender in not repairing to divine ſervice, that ſhall be once convicted, ſhall in ſuch of the terms of Eaſter and Michaelmas as ſhall be next after ſuch conviction, pay into the receipt of the exchequer 20 l. for every month contained in the indictment, and for every month after ſuch conviction, without any other indictment or conviction, 20 l. except where the king ſhall refuſe the ſame, and take two parts of the lands and leaſes of ſuch offender, till he conform himſelf and come to church. ſ. 8.

Every conviction recorded for any offence beforementioned, ſhall be certified into the exchequer before the end of the term following; and if default be made in any payment aforeſaid, the king may by proceſs of the exchequer ſeiſe the goods and two parts of the lands and leaſes of ſuch offender, leaving the third part for the maintenance of the offender and his family. ſ. 9.

The king ſhall have power to refuſe the penalty of 20 l. a month, and take two parts in three of the lands and leaſes that ſhall be or come to the offenders, till every ſuch offender conform himſelf, in lieu of the 20 l. monthly; ſaving to all perſons (other than the offender, and all claiming in truſt for him) all rights had before ſuch ſeiſure. ſ. 11.

The king ſhall leave to ſuch offender his chief manſion-houſe, as part of his third part, and ſhall not leaſe the two parts to or for the uſe of any recuſant; and whoſoever ſhall take the ſame of his majeſty, ſhall give ſecurity not to commit nor ſuffer waſte, as by the court of exchequer ſhall be allowed. ſ. 12.

It ſhall be lawful for any biſhop in his dioceſe, or any two juſtices of peace, whereof one of the quorum, to require any perſon of the age of eighteen years or above, being convict or indicted of recuſancy (other than noblemen or noblewomen) or which ſhall not have received the ſacrament twice within the year, or any perſon paſſing through the country and unknown, that being examined upon oath ſhall not deny himſelf to be a recuſant, or that he had not received the ſacrament twice within the year, to take the oath of allegiance in the act; which biſhop or juſtices ſhall certify at the next quarter ſeſſions, the name and place of abode of every perſon who ſhall take the oath, which certificate ſhall be recorded by the clerk of the peace or town clerk. ſ. 13.

This oath of allegiance is aboliſhed by 1 Will. & Mar. ſt. 1. c. 8. and another appointed. See OATHS.

If any perſon refuſe to anſwer upon oath to ſuch biſhop or juſtices, or to take the oath, the biſhop or juſtices may commit the perſon to the common gaol till the next aſſiſe or quarter ſeſſions, where the oath ſhall be again required of ſuch perſon; and if the ſaid perſon, or any other perſon (other than noblemen or noblewomen) of the age of eighteen years, ſhall refuſe to take the oath, being tendered by the juſtices of aſſiſe or the juſtices of peace in their general ſeſſions, every perſon ſo refuſing ſhall incur the penalty of præmunire, 16 Ric. 2. cap. 5. except women covert, who ſhall be by the juſtices committed to the common gaol till they take the oath. ſ. 14.

No indictment for not repairing to church but abſenting himſelf one month, or for not receiving the ſacrament, nor any proclamation of outlawry, or other proceeding thereupon, ſhall be avoided or reverſed by any default in form or other defect, other than by traverſe to the point of not coming to church, or not receiving the ſacrament. ſ. 16.

Provided that if any perſon ſo indicted ſhall ſubmit and conform himſelf, and repair to the pariſh church, and if there be none ſuch, then to the church next adjoining to his dwelling, &c. and receive the ſacrament according to the the laws of England, ſuch perſon ſhall be admitted to avoid and reverſe the ſaid indictment, and all proceedings thereupon. ſ. 17.

Every ſubject of this realm, that ſhall go out of this realm to ſerve any foreign prince or ſtate, or ſhall paſs over the ſeas, and ſerve any foreign prince, &c. not having taken the oath aforeſaid, ſhall be a felon. ſ. 18.

If any gentleman or perſon of higher degree, or any perſon which hath born any office of captain, lieutenant, or any other office in camp, army, or company of ſoldiers, ſhall paſs out of this realm, to ſerve any foreign prince, &c. or ſhall voluntarily ſerve any ſuch prince &c. before he ſhall become bound by obligation with two ſureties unto the king, in 20*l.* at leaſt, with condition to the effect following, he ſhall be a felon. ſ. 19.

The condition is, That if the within bounden, &c. ſhall not at any time then after be reconciled to the pope or ſee of Rome, nor ſhall enter into, or conſent unto, any practice, plot or conſpiracy whatſoever, againſt the king's majeſty, his heirs and ſucceſſors, or any his and their eſtate and eſtates, realms or dominions; but ſhall within convenient time after knowledge thereof had, reveal and diſcloſe to the king's majeſty, his heirs and ſucceſſors, or ſome of the lords of his or their honourable privy council, all ſuch practices, plots and conſpiracies; that then the ſaid obligation to be void. ſ. 20.

It ſhall be lawful for the cuſtomer and controller of every port, and none other, to receive ſuch bond, and to give the oath, taking for ſuch bond 6*d.* and for the oath no fee; which cuſtomer and controller ſhall regiſter and certify every ſuch bond and oath into the exchequer once every year, upon pain of 5*l.* for every bond not certified, and 20*s.* for every oath. ſ. 21.

If any perſon ſhall either upon the ſeas, or beyond the ſeas, or in any other place within the dominions of the king, put in practice to abſolve, perſuade, or withdraw, any of the ſubjects from their natural obedience to his majeſty, or to reconcile them to the pope or ſee of Rome, or to move them to promiſe obedience to the ſee of Rome, or to any other prince or ſtate, every ſuch perſon, their procurers, counſellors, aiders and maintainers, ſhall be adjudged traitors, as in caſes of high treaſon. ſ. 22.

If any ſuch perſon ſhall be either upon the ſeas, or beyond the ſeas, or in any other place within the dominions of the king, willingly abſolved, or withdrawn, or reconciled, or ſhall promiſe obedience to any ſuch pretended authority, prince or ſtate, ſuch perſons, their procurers and counſellors and maintainers, ſhall be adjudged traitors, as in caſes of high treaſon. ſ. 23.

This branch ſhall not extend to any perſon which ſhall be reconciled to the pope or ſee of Rome (for ſo being reconciled only) that ſhall return into this realm, and within ſix days after ſuch return before the biſhop of the dioceſe or two juſtices of peace (jointly or ſeverally) ſubmit himſelf to his majeſty, and take the oath of ſupremacy [See Oaths] as alſo the oath in this act; and the ſaid oaths ſo taken, the biſhop and juſtices ſhall certify at the next general ſeſſions, upon pain of 40*l.* ſ. 24.

Every perſon that ſhall offend contrary to this branch, ſhall be indicted, tried and proceeded againſt, before the juſtices of aſſiſe and gaol delivery, or before the court of king's bench, as if the offence had been committed in the county where ſuch perſons ſhall be taken. ſ. 25.

Provided that any peer, indicted of any offence made treaſon by this act, ſhall have his trial by his peers. ſ. 26.

If any ſubject of this realm ſhall not reſort every Sunday to ſome church, or other place appointed for common prayer, and there hear divine ſervice, it ſhall be lawful for any one juſtice of peace, upon proof of ſuch default, by confeſſion or oath of witneſs, to call the party before him, and if he ſhall not make a ſufficient excuſe, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtice to give warrant to the church-warden of the pariſh wherein the party ſhall dwell, to levy 12*d.* for every default, by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and in default of diſtreſs, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtice to commit ſuch offender to priſon until payment; which forfeiture ſhall be for the uſe of the poor. ſ. 27.

Provided that no man be impeached upon this clauſe, except he be called in queſtion within one month after the default. ſ. 28.

No man being puniſhed according to this branch, ſhall, for the ſame offence, be puniſhed by the forfeiture of 12*d.* upon the law 1 Eliz. c. 2. See Service, &c. ſ. 29.

Every perſon which ſhall willingly keep or harbour in his houſe, any ſervant, ſojourner or ſtranger, who ſhall not repair to ſome church or uſual place of common prayer, but ſhall forbear the ſame one month, not having a reaſonable excuſe, ſhall forfeit for every month 10*l.* ſ. 32.

Every perſon which ſhall keep in his ſervice or livery, any perſon which ſhall not repair to ſome church, or uſual place of common prayer, but ſhall forbear the ſame one month, ſhall forfeit for every month 10*l.* ſ. 33.

This act ſhall not extend to any perſon maintaining or harbouring his father or mother wanting ſufficient maintenance, or the ward of ſuch perſon, or any perſon that ſhall be committed by authority to the cuſtody of any by whom they ſhall be kept. ſ. 34.

Upon any lawful writ or proceſs for the apprehending of any popiſh recuſant ſtanding excommunicated for recuſancy, it ſhall be lawful for the officer, if need be, to break open any houſe wherein ſuch perſon ſhall be, or to raiſe the power of the county for the apprehending of ſuch perſon. ſ. 35.

Every offence againſt this act ſhall be inquired of, heard and determined, before the juſtices of the king's bench, juſtices of aſſiſe and gaol delivery; and all offences, other than treaſon, ſhall be inquired, heard, and determined, before the juſtices of peace in their quarter ſeſſions. ſ. 36.

Any attainder of felony made by this act, ſhall not take away the dower of the wife, nor work corruption of blood, or diſheriſon of the heir. ſ. 37.

If any action be brought againſt any perſon doing any thing concerning the execution of this ſtatute, every defendant in ſuch action may plead the general iſſue. ſ. 38.

Provided that this act ſhall not abridge the juriſdiction of the eccleſiaſtical cenſures. ſ. 39.

No perſon ſhall be charged with any forfeiture by this act for his wife's offence in not receiving the ſacrament during her marriage, nor ſhall any woman be charged with any penalty by this act for ſuch offence which ſhall happen during her marriage. ſ. 40.

Where any biſhop or juſtices of peace may, by this act, require of any ſubject the oath above mentioned, the lords of the privy council, or any ſix of them, whereof the lord chancellor, lord treaſurer, or the principal ſecretary to be one, ſhall have power to require the ſaid oaths of any nobleman or noblewoman; and if ſuch nobleman, &c. (other than woman married) ſhall refuſe to take ſuch oaths, they ſhall incur the penalty of a premunire. ſ. 41.

Where any perſon ſhall paſs out of the cinque ports, or any member thereof, to any parts beyond the ſeas, to ſerve any foreign prince, &c. the lord warden, or any perſon by him appointed, ſhall have power to take the bond and miniſter the oath. ſ. 42.

By 3 Jac. 1. c. 5. Such perſon as ſhall firſt diſcover to any juſtice of peace any recuſant, or other perſon, which ſhall entertain or relieve any jeſuit, ſeminary, or popiſh prieſt, or ſhall diſcover any maſs to have been ſaid, and the perſons that were preſent, and the prieſt that ſaid the ſame, within three days after the offence committed, and by ſuch diſcovery any of the offenders be taken and convicted, the perſon which hath made ſuch diſcovery, ſhall not only be freed from the penalty of ſuch offence, but alſo ſhall have the third part of the forfeiture (ſo as the total forfeiture exceed not 150 l., and if it exceed, the ſaid perſon ſhall have 50 l.); and ſuch perſon, after conviction of the offender, ſhall have a certificate from the judges, or juſtices of peace, directed to the ſheriff or other officer that ſhall ſeize the goods or levy the forfeiture, commanding the ſheriff, &c. to pay the ſame to him. ſ. 1.

No popiſh recuſant, convicted, ſhall come into the houſe where the king or his heir apparent ſhall be, unleſs he be commanded by the king, or by warrant from the privy council, upon pain to forfeit 100 l., the one moiety to the king, and the other moiety to him that will ſue for the ſame in any of his majeſty's courts of record. ſ. 2.

All popiſh recuſants which ſhall dwell within London, or within 10 miles of the ſaid city, which ſhall be indicted or convicted of recuſancy, or which ſhall not repair to ſome church or chapel and hear divine ſervice, but ſhall forbear the ſame three months, ſhall, within 10 days after ſuch indictment or conviction, depart from London, and 10 miles compaſs of the ſame, and ſhall deliver their names to the lord mayor, in caſe ſuch recuſant ſhall dwell in London; and in caſe he ſhall dwell in any other county within 10 miles of the ſaid city, then to the next juſtice of peace within 10 days after ſuch indictment or conviction, upon pain to forfeit 100 l. the one moiety to the king, and the other to him that will ſue for the ſame in any of the king's courts of record. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for the king, or for three of his privy council, to give licence to a recuſant to go out of the compaſs of the five miles from his place of abode. And if any of the perſons confined by the ſtatute 35 Eliz. c. 2. ſhall have neceſſary occaſion to go out of the compaſs of the ſaid five miles, upon licence of four juſtices of peace, with the aſſent of the biſhop, or of the lieutenant or any deputy lieutenant of the county, reſiding within the county (in which licence ſhall be ſpecified the cauſe of the licence, and the time how long the party ſhall be abſent), it ſhall be lawful for ſuch perſon to go about ſuch his buſineſs, he firſt taking his oath before the juſtices, that he had truly informed them of the cauſe of his journey, and that he ſhall not make any cauſeleſs ſtays; and every licence in this behalf, contrary to this ſtatute ſhall be void. And every perſon ſo confined, which ſhall go above five miles from the place whereunto he ſhall be confined, not having ſuch licence, and having taken ſuch oath, ſhall forfeit as a recuſant convict, and paſſing above five miles from the place, where he is confined, by the ſtatute 35 Eliz. c. 2. ſ. 7.

No recuſant convict ſhall practiſe the common law as a counſellor, clerk, attorney, or ſolicitor, nor ſhall practiſe the civil law as advocate or proctor, nor practiſe phyſic, nor uſe the trade of an apothecary, nor ſhall be judge, miniſter, or clerk, or ſteward, of any court, or keep any court, nor ſhall be regiſter or town clerk, or other officer in any court, nor ſhall bear any office, as captain, lieutenant, corporal, ſerjeant, ancient-bearer, or other office in camp, troop, or company of ſoldiers, nor ſhall be captain, maſter, governor, or bear any office, of any ſhip, caſtle, or fortreſs, of the king; and every perſon offending herein ſhall forfeit 100 l. one moiety to the king, and the other moiety to him that will ſue for the ſame in any of the king's courts of record. ſ. 8.

No popiſh recuſant convict, nor any having a wife being a popiſh recuſant convict, ſhall exerciſe any public office in the commonwealth, except ſuch huſband and his children, above the age of nine years, abiding with him, and his ſervants in houſehold, ſhall once every month, not having reaſonable excuſe, repair to ſome church or chapel for divine ſervice; and the ſaid huſband, and ſuch his children and ſervants as are of meet age, receive the ſacrament at ſuch times as are limited by law, and bring up his ſaid children in the true religion. ſ. 9.

Every married woman, being a popiſh recuſant convict, (her huſband not ſtanding convicted of popiſh recuſancy) which ſhall not conform herſelf, but ſhall forbear to repair to ſome church or uſual place of common prayer, and within the year receive the ſacrament by the ſpace of one year next before the death of her huſband, ſhall forfeit the profits of two parts of her jointure, and two parts of her dower, and be diſabled to be executrix or adminiſtratrix of her huſband, and to have any part of her huſband's goods. ſ. 10.

Every popiſh recuſant convict ſhall be diſabled as a perſon excommunicated, until he ſhall conform himſelf, and come to church and receive the ſacrament, and take the oath of allegiance; and every perſon ſued by ſuch perſon diſabled, may plead the ſame in diſabling of ſuch plaintiff. ſ. 11.

Provided that it ſhall be lawful for any ſuch perſon diſabled, to ſue any action concerning ſuch of his lands which are not to be ſeiſed into the king's hands for his recuſancy. ſ. 12.

Every man being a popiſh recuſant convict, and who ſhall be married otherwiſe than in ſome open church or chapel, and according to the orders of the church of England, by a miniſter lawfully authoriſed, ſhall be diſabled to have any eſtate of freehold in the lands of his wife as tenant by the curteſy; and every woman, being a popiſh recuſant convict, and who ſhall be married in other form than as aforeſaid, ſhall be diſabled, not only to claim any dower, or in any jointure of the lands of her huſband, but alſo her widow's eſtate and frank-bank in any cuſtomary lands, and likewiſe to have any part of the goods of her huſband, by virtue of any cuſtom. And if any man ſhall be married with any woman contrary to this act, which woman ſhall have no lands whereof he may be tenant by the curteſy, ſuch man ſhall forfeit 100 l. the one half to the king, and the other to ſuch as ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of the king's courts of record. ſ. 13.

Every popiſh recuſant which ſhall have any child born, ſhall, within one month after the birth, cauſe the child to be baptized by a lawful miniſter, according to the laws of this realm, in the open church of the pariſh where the child ſhall be born, or in ſome other church near adjoining, or chapel where baptiſm is uſually adminiſtered; or if by infirmity of the child it cannot be brought to ſuch place, the ſame ſhall within the time aforeſaid be baptized by the miniſter of any of the ſaid places, upon pain that the father, if he be living one month after the birth of ſuch child, or if he be dead within the ſaid month, then the mother of ſuch child, ſhall forfeit 100 l., one third part to the king, one other third to the informer, and the other third to the poor of the pariſh, to be recovered in any of the king's courts of record. ſ. 14.

If any popiſh recuſant, not being excommunicate, ſhall be buried in any place other than in the church or churchyard, or not according to the eccleſiaſtical laws of this realm, the executors or adminiſtrators of ſuch perſon, knowing the ſame, or the party that cauſeth him to be ſo buried, ſhall forfeit 20*l.* one third part to the king, one third to the informer, and the other third to the poor of the pariſh where ſuch perſon died, to be recovered in any of the king's courts of record. ſ. 15.

If the children of any ſubject (the ſaid children not being ſoldiers, mariners, merchants, or their apprentices, or factors) ſhall be ſent or go beyond ſeas without licence of the king, or ſix of his privy council, (whereof the principal ſecretary to be one,) ſuch children ſhall take no benefit by any gift, deſcent, deviſe, or otherwiſe, of any lands, leaſes, or goods, until they being of the age of 18 years take the oath of allegiance before ſome juſtice of peace, where ſuch parent of ſuch children as ſhall be ſo ſent did inhabit; and in the mean time, the next of kin, which ſhall be no popiſh recuſant, ſhall have the lands and goods ſo given, deſcended or deviſed, until the perſon ſo ſent or gone beyond the ſeas ſhall conform, and take the oath, and receive the ſacrament; and after ſuch oath taken, and conforming, they which have received the profits of the lands and goods ſhall make account and payment thereof to ſuch perſon as ſhall ſo conform; and all ſuch perſons as ſhall ſend children over ſeas without licence as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit 100*l.* to be divided in three equal parts, one third to the king, one third to ſuch as ſhall ſue for the ſame, and the other third to the poor of ſuch pariſh where ſuch offender doth inhabit. ſ. 16.

Every popiſh recuſant convict, during the time that he ſhall remain a recuſant, ſhall be diſabled to preſent to any benefice or eccleſiaſtical living, or to nominate to any free-ſchool, hoſpital, or donative, and ſhall likewiſe be diſabled to grant any avoidance to any benefice. ſ. 18.

The chancellor and ſcholars of the univerſity of Oxford ſhall have the preſentation, &c. to every ſuch benefice, ſchool, hoſpital, and donative, in the counties of Oxford, Kent, Middleſex, Suſſex, Surrey, Hampſhire, Berkſhire, Buckinghamſhire, Glouceſterſhire, Worceſterſhire, Staffordſhire, Warwickſhire, Wiltſhire, Somerſetſhire, Devonſhire, Cornwall, Dorſetſhire, Herefordſhire, Northamptonſhire, Pembrokeſhire, Carmarthenſhire, Brecknockſhire, Monmouthſhire, Cardiganſhire, Montgomeryſhire, the city of London, and in every city and town being a county of itſelf, within the limits of the counties aforeſaid. ſ. 19.

The chancellor and ſcholars of the univerſity of Cambridge, ſhall have the preſentation, &c. to every ſuch benefice, ſchool, hoſpital, and donative, in the counties of Hertfordſhire, Bedfordſhire, Cambridgeſhire, Huntingdonſhire, Suffolk, Norfolk, Lincolnſhire, Rutlandſhire, Leiceſterſhire, Derbyſhire, Nottinghamſhire, Shropſhire, Cheſhire, Lancaſhire, Yorkſhire, Durham, Northumberland, Cumberland, Weſtmorland, Radnorſhire, Denbyſhire, Flintſhire, Carnarvonſhire, Angleſey, Merioneth, Glamorganſhire, and in every city and town being a county of itſelf, lying within the limits of the counties laſt mentioned. ſ. 20.

Provided that neither of the univerſities ſhall preſent to any benefice any ſuch perſon as ſhall then have any other benefice with cure, and ſuch preſentation ſhall be void. ſ. 21. See 1 Will. & Mar. c. 26. 12 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 14. & 11 Geo. 2. c. 17. ſ. 5. under the general title PAPISTS.

Recuſants convict ſhall be diſabled to be executor or adminiſtrator, nor ſhall have the charge of any child as guardian in ſocage, or guardian in nurture, of any lands freehold or copyhold. ſ. 22.

The next of kin to ſuch children to whom the lands cannot deſcend, who ſhall uſually reſort to church, and receive the ſacrament thrice in the year next before, ſhall have the cuſtody of the child, and of his lands, as a guardian in ſocage, and of the lands holden by copy, ſo long as the cuſtom of the manor ſhall permit. ſ. 23.

No perſon ſhall bring from beyond the ſeas, nor ſhall print, ſell, or buy, any popiſh primers, ladies pſalters, manuals, roſaries, popiſh catechiſms, miſſals, breviaries, portals, legends, and lives of ſaints, containing ſuperſtitious matter, upon pain of 40*s.* for every book; one third part to the king, one third to him that will ſue for the ſame, and the other to the poor of the pariſh where ſuch books ſhall be found. ſ. 25.

It ſhall be lawful for any two juſtices of the peace, and to all mayors, bailiffs, and chief officers, of cities and towns corporate, to ſearch the houſes of every popiſh recuſant convict, or of every perſon whoſe wife ſhall be a popiſh recuſant convict, for popiſh books and relics; and if any altar, pix, beads, pictures, or ſuch like popiſh relics, or any popiſh books, ſhall be found in their cuſtody, as in the opinion of the juſtices, &c. ſhall be unmeet for ſuch recuſant to have, the ſame ſhall be burnt; and if it be a crucifix, or other relic of any price, the ſame to be defaced at the quarter ſeſſions, and reſtored to the owner. ſ. 26.

All ſuch armour, gunpowder, and munition, as any popiſh recuſant convict ſhall have, ſhall be taken from ſuch recuſants, by warrant of four juſtices of peace, at their quarter ſeſſions (other than ſuch neceſſary weapons as ſhall be thought fit by the juſtices for the defence of the perſon of ſuch recuſant, or of his houſe); and the ſaid armour and munition ſhall be kept at the coſts of ſuch recuſants, as the juſtices ſhall appoint. ſ. 27.

If any ſuch recuſant, or any other perſon, which ſhall have any armour, gunpowder, and munition, to the uſe of any recuſant, ſhall refuſe to declare to the juſtices, what armour they have, or ſhall hinder the delivery thereof, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit their ſaid armour, gunpowder, and munition, and ſhall alſo be impriſoned by warrant of any juſtices of peace three months. ſ. 28.

Notwithſtanding the taking away of ſuch armour and munition, the ſaid recuſant ſhall be charged with the maintaining of the ſame, and with the providing of horſe, and other armour and munition, in ſuch ſort as other his majeſty's ſubjects; and the ſaid armour and munition, at the charge of ſuch popiſh recuſant, ſhall be ſhewed at every muſter within the county. ſ. 29.

This act ſhall not abridge the authority of the eccleſiaſtical cenſure. ſ. 30.

By 7 Jac. 1. c. 6. If any married woman, convicted as a popiſh recuſant for not coming to church, ſhall not within three months after conviction, conform herſelf, and repair to church and receive the ſacrament, ſhe ſhall be committed to priſon by one of the privy council, or by the biſhop, if ſhe be a baroneſs, or if ſhe be under that degree, by two juſtices of peace, one of the quorum, until ſhe ſhall conform herſelf, unleſs the huſband of ſuch wife ſhall pay to the king for every month 10*l.* or the third part of all his lands, at the choice of the huſband, ſo long as ſhe remaining a recuſant ſhall continue out of priſon. ſ. 28.

By 25 Car. c. 2. Every perſon that ſhall bear any office, civil or military, or ſhall receive any ſalary, fee, or wages, by reaſon of any grant from his majeſty, or have com-command or place of truſt under his majeſty, or by his authority, or by authority derived from him, within England, Wales, or Berwick, or in his majeſty's navy, or in the iſlands of Jerſey and Guernſey, or be of the houſehold, or in the ſervice of his majeſty, and reſide within the cities of London or Weſtminſter, or within 30 miles of the ſame, ſhall take the oaths of ſupremacy and allegiance in the court of chancery or king's bench, in the next term after their admittance into the offices or employments aforeſaid, between the hours of 9 and 12 in the forenoon; and proceedings to ceaſe: and every ſuch perſon not having taken the oaths in the ſaid courts, ſhall at the quarter ſeſſions for that county or place where he ſhall reſide, next after his admittance into the ſaid office or employment, take the ſaid oaths; and every ſuch perſon ſhall alſo receive the ſacrament of the Lord's ſupper, according to the uſage of the church of England, within three months after his admittance, in ſome public church, upon ſome Lord's day, immediately after divine ſervice and ſermon; and every of the ſaid perſons, in the court where he takes the oaths, ſhall firſt deliver a certificate of his receiving the ſacrament under the hands of the miniſter and churchwarden, and make proof of the truth thereof by two witneſſes, all which ſhall be put upon record. ſ. 1 & 2.

The time is enlarged to ſix months by 16 Geo. 2. c. 30. ſ. 3.

All the perſons aforeſaid, that ſhall neglect to take the oaths and ſacrament, ſhall be diſabled to enjoy the ſaid offices or employments, or any thing aforeſaid, or any profit appertaining to them; and ſuch office, &c. ſhall be void. ſ 3.

Every ſuch perſon that ſhall neglect to take the oaths or the ſacrament as aforeſaid, and after ſuch neglect ſhall execute any of the ſaid offices or employments, and being thereupon convicted upon information, preſentment, or indictment, in any of the king's courts at Weſtminſter or at the aſſizes, ſuch perſon ſhall be diſabled to ſue any action or information in courſe of law, or to proſecute any ſuit in equity, or to be guardian of any child, or executor or adminiſtrator of any perſon, or capable of any legacy or deed of gift, or to bear any office within England, Wales, or Berwick, and ſhall forfeit 500 l. to be recovered by him that ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 4.

The names of all ſuch perſons that take the oaths ſhall be inrolled, with the time of their taking the ſame, in rolls kept only for that purpoſe; which rolls for the court of chancery ſhall be publicly hung up in the office of the petty bag, and the roll for the king's bench in the crown office, and in ſome public place in every quarter ſeſſions, and there remain during the whole term and the whole ſeſſions. And none of the perſons aforeſaid ſhall pay to any officer belonging to the courts above 12 d. for entry of his taking the oaths. ſ. 5.

Upon the tender of any perſon to take the oaths, the courts are required to adminiſter the ſame. ſ. 6.

If any perſons not bred up by their parents from their infancy in the popiſh religion, and profeſſing themſelves popiſh recuſants, ſhall educate their children, or ſuffer them to be inſtructed or educated, in the popiſh religion; ſuch perſon being thereof convicted ſhall be diſabled of bearing any office or place of truſt or profit in church or ſtate; and ſuch children ſhall be diſabled of bearing any ſuch office or place of truſt or profit, until they be reconciled to the church of England, and take the oaths before the juſtices of peace in quarter ſeſſions where they ſhall inhabit, and thereupon receive the ſacrament, and obtain a certificate thereof under the hands of two juſtices of peace. ſ. 7.

At the time when the perſons concerned in this act ſhall take the oaths, they ſhall likewiſe make and ſubſcribe this declaration following:

I A. B. do declare, that I do believe, that there is not any tranſubſtantiation in the ſacrament of the Lord's ſupper, or in the elements of bread and wine, at or after the conſecration thereof by any perſon whatſoever.

Of which ſubſcription there ſhall be the like regiſter kept, as of the taking the oaths. ſ. 8.

This act ſhall not prejudice the peerage of any peer, or take away any privilege or profit which any peer ought to enjoy by reaſon of his peerage, or take away creation-money, or bills of impoſt, nor make void any penſion granted by his majeſty to any perſon for valuable conſideration for life or years, other than ſuch as relate to any office or place of truſt under his majeſty, and other than penſions of bounty; nor make void any eſtate of inheritance granted by his majeſty, or his predeceſſors, in any lands or hereditaments, not being offices; nor take away any penſion granted by his majeſty to any perſon who was inſtrumental in the preſervation of his majeſty after the battle of Worceſter, until his arrival beyond the ſeas: nor make void the grant of any office of inheritance, or any fee thereto belonging, enjoyed by any perſon who ſhall neglect to take the oaths, &c. ſo as ſuch perſon appoint his deputy, until ſuch time as the perſon having ſuch office ſhall, in the court of chancery, before the lord chancellor, or in the king's bench, take the oaths and receive the ſacrament according to law, and ſubſcribe the declaration; and ſo as the deputy take the oaths, receive the ſacrament, and ſubſcribe the declaration; and ſo as ſuch deputies be approved of by the king under his privy ſignet. ſ. 9.

Peers may take the oaths, and make the ſubſcription, and deliver the certificates, before the peers ſitting in parliament, if the parliament be ſitting within the time limited, and in the intervals of parliament in chancery, in which courts the ſaid proceedings are to be recorded. ſ. 10.

Provided that any perſon, who by neglect according to this act ſhall forfeit any office, may be capable by a new grant of the ſaid office, or of any other, ſuch perſon taking the oaths, and doing all other things required by this act, ſo as ſuch office be not enjoyed by ſome other perſon at the time of the regranting thereof. ſ. 12.

Nothing in this act ſhall make any forfeiture or incapacity in any non-commiſſion officer in his majeſty's navy, if ſuch officer ſhall only ſubſcribe the declaration. ſ. 13.

This act ſhall not extend to the office of any high conſtable, petty conſtable, tithingman, headborough, overſeer of the poor, churchwardens, ſurveyor of the highways, or any like inferior civil office, or to any office of foreſter, or keeper of any park, chace, warren, or game, or of bailiff of any manor or lands, or to any like private offices. ſ. 14.

By 16 Geo. 2. c. 30. Whereas, by 25 Car. 2. c. 2. it is enacted, that all perſons that ſhall be admitted into any office, or ſhall receive any pay, &c. by reaſon of any grant of his majeſty, or have command or place of truſt under his majeſty, in England, Wales, Berwick, or in the navy, or in Jerſey or Guernſey, ſhall receive the ſacrament of the Lord's ſupper within three months after their admittance, mittance, in ſome public church upon ſome Lord's day immediately after divine ſervice and ſermon; which time is found to be too ſhort; be it enacted, that all ſuch perſons ſhall receive the ſacrament of the Lord's ſupper according to the uſage of the church of England within ſix months after their admittance in, or receiving, their ſaid employment, in ſome public church, upon ſome Lord's day, immediately after divine ſervice and ſermon. ſ. 3.

All perſons that neglect to receive the ſacrament according to the direction of this act, ſhall be liable to all ſuch diſabilities and forfeitures, as by the ſaid act of 25 Car. 2. c. 2. ſ. 4.

This act ſhall not reſtore any perſon to any office already avoided by judgment of any court of record, or already filled up by another perſon. ſ. 15. See KING, OATHS, PAPISTS, ROME, SERVICE, AND SACRAMENTS.

Rediſſeiſin.

Stat. Merton, 20 Hen. 3. c. 3. If any be diſſeiſed of his freehold, and before the juſtice in eyre hath recovered ſeiſin by aſſiſe, or by confeſſion of them which did the diſſeiſin, and the diſſeiſee hath had ſeiſin delivered him by the ſheriff, if the ſame diſſeiſors ſhall again diſſeiſe the ſame plaintiff of the ſame freehold, and thereof be convict, they ſhall be taken and kept in priſon until the king diſcharge them by ranſom or other mean. And this is the form how ſuch convict perſons ſhall be puniſhed, viz. when the plaintiffs come to the court, they ſhall have the king's writ directed to the ſheriff, in which ſhall be contained the declaration of the diſſeiſin done upon diſſeiſin; and it ſhall be commanded to the ſheriff, that he, taking with him the keepers of the pleas of the crown, and other lawful knights, in his proper perſon ſhall go unto the land or paſture of which the plaint hath been made; and that before them he make by the jurors and other lawful men diligent inquiſition thereof; and if they find him diſſeiſed again, that they do according to the proviſion afore mentioned; and if it be found otherwiſe, the plaintiff ſhall be amerced, and the other go quit. Neither ſhall the ſheriff proſecute any ſuch plaint without command of the king. In the ſame manner ſhall be done for them that have recovered their ſeiſin by aſſiſe of mordanceſtor; and ſo it ſhall be of all lands recovered in the king's court by inqueſts, if they be diſſeiſed after by the firſt deforceors.

Stat. Marleber. 52 Hen. 3. c. 8. They which be impriſoned for rediſſeiſin ſhall not be delivered without the ſpecial command of the king, and ſhall make fine with the king for their treſpaſs; and if it be found that the ſheriff delivereth any contrary to this ordinance, he ſhall be grievouſly amerced; and nevertheleſs they which are ſo delivered ſhall be grievouſly puniſhed.

Stat. Weſtm. 2. 13 Edw. 1. c. 26. In writs of rediſſeiſin double damages ſhall be awarded, and the rediſſeiſors ſhall not be repleviable by the common writ; and the ſame writ ſhall hold place for them that ſhall recover by default, reddition, or otherwiſe, without recognition of aſſiſes or juries.

Regiſter.

By 2 Ann. c. 4. A memorial of all deeds and conveyances which, after the 29th of September 1704, ſhall be made, and of all wills in writing, where the deviſor ſhall die after the ſaid day, concerning any lands or hereditaments in the weſt riding of the county of York, may at the election of the parties concerned be regiſtered; and every deed or conveyance, that ſhall after any memorial is ſo regiſtered, be made of the lands comprized in ſuch memorial, ſhall be adjudged fraudulent and void againſt any ſubſequent purchaſer or mortgagee for valuable conſideration, unleſs ſuch memorial thereof be regiſtered before the regiſtering the memorial of the deed or conveyance under which ſuch ſubſequent purchaſer or mortgagee ſhall claim; and every deviſe by will of lands contained in any memorial ſo regiſtered, that ſhall be made after the regiſtering of ſuch memorial, ſhall be adjudged fraudulent and void againſt any ſubſequent purchaſer or mortgagee, &c. unleſs a memorial of ſuch will be regiſtered. ſ. 1.

One public office for regiſtering ſuch memorials ſhall be kept in Wakefield, to be executed by a fit perſon elected, or his ſufficient deputy, to continue in the ſaid office ſo long as he ſhall well demean himſelf therein. ſ. 2.

All elections of a regiſter ſhall be by balloting, viz. all the freeholders that have freehold within the weſt-riding, of the yearly value of 100 l. (to be determined by the oath of the elector before the ſcrutators) ſhall be electors of the regiſter; and the juſtices of peace for the weſt-riding, or any five ſuch juſtices appointed by them, ſhall be ſcrutators of the ballot; who ſhall, in the preſence of the electors, place glaſs veſſels, into which each elector ſhall put one open paper, containing the name of ſuch perſon as he approves of to be regiſter; which papers ſhall be taken out in the preſence of the ſcrutators, and the names of every perſon therein ſhall be tranſcribed in columns, with the number of their electors, and the ſame ſhall be read over in the hearing, and fixed up in the view, of the electors; and the perſon upon whom the majority ſhall fall, ſhall be regiſter. ſ. 3.

As often as the office ſhall become vacant, the juſtices of peace, at the quarter-ſeſſions next after ſuch vacancy, ſhall declare the vacancy, and by order of ſeſſions appoint a time within one calendar month, and above three weeks, enſuing the end of ſuch ſeſſions, for the electors to aſſemble at Wakefield, to chuſe a perſon to ſupply the vacancy; and the clerk of the peace ſhall cauſe copies of ſuch order to be delivered to the chief conſtables of the ſeveral wapentakes, who ſhall publiſh the ſame in full market, in every market-town, on the next market-day, and affix the ſame in the moſt public place there. ſ. 5.

Upon the death of any ſuch regiſter, and until another election, the executors and adminiſtrators of the regiſter deceaſed, together with the ſureties for the ſaid regiſter, ſhall appoint a perſon to execute the office, for whoſe demeanor the ſecurity ſhall be anſwerable. ſ. 6.

All memorials ſhall be in writing on vellum or parchment, and directed to the regiſter; and in caſe of deeds and conveyances, ſhall be under the hand and ſeal of one of the grantors or grantees, their guardians or truſtees, atteſted by two witneſſes, one whereof to be one of the witneſſes to the execution of ſuch deed; which witneſs ſhall, upon oath, before the regiſter prove the ſigning and ſealing of the memorial, and the execution of the deed mentioned in ſuch memorial; and in caſe of wills, the memorials ſhall be under the hand and ſeal of one of the deviſees, his guardians or truſtees, atteſted by two witneſſes, one whereof ſhall prove the ſigning and ſealing of ſuch memorial. ſ. 7.

Every memorial of any deed or will ſhall contain the day of the month and year when ſuch deed or will bears date, and the names and additions of all the parties to ſuch deed, and of the deviſor of ſuch will, and of all the witneſſes, and the places of their abode, and ſhall mention the lands and hereditaments contained in ſuch deed or will; and the names of all the pariſhes, townſhips, hamlets, precincts, or extraparochial places, where ſuch lands are, in ſuch manner as the ſame are mentioned in ſuch deed or will, and every ſuch deed and will, or probate of the ſame, of which ſuch memorial is to be regiſtered, ſhall be produced to the regiſter at the time of entering ſuch memorial, who ſhall endorſe a certificate on ſuch deed and will, or probate thereof, and mention the day, hour, and time, on which ſuch memorial is entered, expreſſing alſo in what book, page, and number, the ſame is entered; and the regiſter ſhall ſign the certificate ſo endorſed; which ſhall be allowed as evidence of ſuch regiſtries in all courts of record; and every page of ſuch regiſter-books, and every memorial that ſhall be entered, ſhall be numbered, and the day of the month, and the year, and hour, or time of the day, ſhall be entered in the margins of the regiſter-books, and of the memorial; and ſuch regiſter ſhall keep an alphabetical calendar of all pariſhes, extraparochial places and townſhips, within the weſt-riding, with reference to the number of every memorial that concerns lands in ſuch pariſh, &c. and of the names of the parties; and ſuch regiſter ſhall duly file every ſuch memorial in order as the ſame is brought to the office, and enter the memorials in the order that they ſhall come to his hand. ſ. 8.

Such regiſter, before he enter upon the office, ſhall be ſworn before the juſtices of peace, or three of them, that ſhall be preſent at his election, in theſe words: ſ. 9.

You ſhall truly and faithfully perform and execute the office and duty that is directed and required by act of parliament, in regiſtering memorials of deeds, conveyances, and wills, within the weſt-riding of the county of York, ſo long as you ſhall continue in the ſaid office; and that you have not given nor promiſed, directly nor indirectly, nor authorized any perſon to give or promiſe, any money, gratuity, or reward whatſoever, for procuring or obtaining the ſaid office for you:

So help you God.

When the regiſter ſhall appoint any deputy, ſuch deputy ſhall take the oath before two juſtices of peace; and every regiſter, at the time of his being ſworn, ſhall enter into a recognizance with two ſureties, to be approved of by five juſtices of peace preſent at his election, by writing, to be regiſtered at the next quarter-ſeſſions, of the penalty of 2000 l. to her majeſty, to be taken by the ſame juſtices that approved of his ſecurity, conditioned for his true and faithful performance of his duty in the execution of his office; the ſame to be tranſmitted by the juſtices within one month into the office of her majeſty's remembrancer of the exchequer. ſ. 10.

When any regiſter ſhall die or ſurrender, and within three years from ſuch death or ſurrender no miſbehaviour appear to have been committed by ſuch regiſter, the recognizance ſhall become void. ſ. 11.

Such regiſter, or his deputy, ſhall give due attendance at his office every day (except Sundays and holy-days), between nine and twelve in the forenoon, and two and five in the afternoon, for the diſpatch of buſineſs, and ſhall make ſearches concerning all memorials regiſtered as aforeſaid, and give certificates concerning the ſame, if required. ſ. 12.

Such regiſter ſhall be allowed for the entry of every memorial, 1 s. in caſe the ſame do not exceed 200 words; but if ſuch memorial exceed, then after the rate of 6 d. an hundred for all the words above the firſt 200; and the like fees for the like number of words contained in every certificate or copy; and for every ſearch, 1 s. ſ. 13.

If any ſuch regiſter, or his deputy, neglect his duty, or commit or ſuffer any undue or fraudulent practice in the office, and be thereof convict, ſuch regiſter ſhall forfeit his office, and pay treble damages with coſts, to every perſon injured thereby, to be recovered in any of her majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 14.

The perſon nominated upon the death of any regiſter to execute the office during the time the ſame ſhall be vacant, ſhall take the oath appointed to be taken by ſuch regiſter and his deputy, before two juſtices of peace; and if ſuch perſon be convicted of any neglect, miſdemeanor, or fraudulent practice, he ſhall pay treble damages with full coſts, to every perſon injured, to be recovered as aforeſaid. ſ. 15.

This act ſhall not extend to any copyhold eſtates, or to any leaſes at a rack rent, or to any leaſe not exceeding 21 years, where the actual poſſeſſion goeth along with the leaſe. ſ. 16.

Where there are more writings than one for perfecting any conveyance which concern the ſame lands, it ſhall be a ſufficient memorial and regiſter thereof, if all the lands, and the pariſhes, townſhips, hamlets, or extraparochial places, where the ſame lie, be once named in the memorial, regiſter, and certificate, of any one of the deeds; and the dates of the reſt of the deeds relating to the ſaid conveyance, with the names and additions of the parties and witneſſes, and the places of their abodes, be ſet down in the memorials, regiſters, and certificates of the ſame, with a reference to the deed whereof the memorial expreſſes the parcels, and directions to find the regiſtering the ſame. ſ. 17.

A memorial of ſuch deeds and wills, as ſhall be made or publiſhed in London, or in any other place not within 40 miles of the weſt-riding, which may affect lands in the weſt-riding, ſhall be regiſtered, in caſe an affidavit ſworn before any one of the judges at Weſtminſter, or a maſter in chancery, be brought with the memorial to the regiſter, wherein one of the witneſſes to ſuch deeds ſhall ſwear he ſaw the ſame executed, and the memorial ſigned and ſealed, or wherein one of the witneſſes to the memorial of any will ſhall ſwear he ſaw ſuch memorial ſigned and ſealed, and the ſame ſhall be a ſufficient authority to the regiſter to give a certificate of the regiſtering ſuch memorial; which certificate ſigned by the regiſter ſhall be evidence of the regiſtries. ſ. 18.

If any perſon ſhall forge or counterfeit any ſuch memorial or certificate, and be thereof convicted, ſuch perſon ſhall incur ſuch penalties as by 5 Eliz. c. 14. are impoſed upon perſons for forging or publiſhing of falſe deeds, whereby the freehold of any perſon may be moleſted; and if any perſon ſhall forſwear himſelf before the regiſter, or before any judge or maſter in chancery, in the caſes aforeſaid, and be thereof convicted, ſuch perſon ſhall incur the ſame penalties as if the oath had been made in any of the courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 19.

Memorials of wills regiſtered within ſix months after the death of the deviſor dying within England, Wales, and Berwick, or within three years after the death of every deviſor dying upon or beyond the ſeas, ſhall be effectual. ſ. 20.

In caſe the perſons intereſted in the lands deviſed by reaſon of the conteſting ſuch will or other inevitable difficulty, without their wilful neglect, ſhall be diſabled to exhibit a memorial within the times limited, in ſuch caſe the regiſtry of the memorial, within ſix months after their attainment attainment of ſuch will, or a probate thereof, or removal of the impediment, ſhall be ſufficient. ſ. 21.

No member of parliament ſhall be capable of being choſen regiſter, or of executing the office, nor ſhall any regiſter or his deputy be capable of being choſen a member. ſ. 22.

By 5 Ann. c. 18. All bargains and ſales of lands within the ſaid weſt-riding, inrolled before the regiſter in the public office at Wakefield, ſhall be effectual, according to the act 27 Hen. 8. c. 16.; and the regiſter, or his deputy, (together with one juſtice of peace), ſhall have power to take the acknowledgment of the bargainers; and ſhall inrol ſuch bargains and ſales; and indorſe a certificate on ſuch bargains and ſales, of the times of inrolling, and ſign the ſame; and the rolls thereof ſhall keep in the public office upon record amongſt the memorials of deeds. ſ. 1.

Deeds of bargain and ſale ſo inrolled, and copies of the inrolments thereof, ſhall be allowed in all courts as ſufficient evidence, as bargains and ſales inrolled in the courts at Weſtminſter. ſ.

Such inrolment of ſuch deed in the regiſter-office ſhall be deemed the entering of a memorial thereof. ſ. 3.

No judgment, ſtatute, or recognizance, (other than ſuch as ſhall be entered into in the name, and upon the proper account of his majeſty,) ſhall affect any lands in the weſt-riding, but only from the time that a memorial of ſuch judgment, &c. ſhall be entered at the regiſter-office, expreſſing, in caſe of ſuch judgment, the names of the plaintiffs, and the names and additions therein of the defendants, the ſums recovered and the time of ſigning; and in caſe of ſtatutes and recognizances, expreſſing the date of ſuch ſtatute or recognizance, the names and additions of the cognizors and cognizees, and for what ſums, and before whom the ſame was acknowledged; and the party ſhall produce and leave with the regiſter to be filed, a memorial of ſuch judgment, ſtatute, or recognizance, ſigned by the proper officer, together with an affidavit ſworn before one of the judges at Weſtminſter, or a maſter in chancery, that ſuch memorial was duly ſigned; which memorial ſuch officer is required to give ſuch plaintiffs or cognizees, or their executors or adminiſtrators, or attorney; they paying 1 s. ſ. 4.

The regiſter ſhall make an entry, and if required give a certificate under his hand, teſtified by two witneſſes, of ſuch memorial of any judgment, ſtatute, or recognizance, and therein mention the day on which ſuch memorial is regiſtered, expreſſing in what book, page, and number. ſ. 5.

The recognizance entered into by the regiſter for the faithful performance of his duty, ſhall ſtand a ſecurity, as well for the due inrolment and ſafe keeping of the inrolments of all bargains and ſales inrolled before the regiſter, as for the faithful performance of his duty in the execution of his office of regiſter. ſ. 6.

The regiſter ſhall be allowed for inrolling every ſuch bargain and ſale, and memorial, and for certificates, copies, and ſearches, like fees as for the entering memorials of deeds and wills, &c. ſ. 7.

If any perſon ſhall forge or counterfeit any entry of the acknowledgment of any bargainer in ſuch bargain or ſale, or any ſuch memorial, certificate, or indorſement, as herein mentioned, and be thereof convicted, ſuch perſon ſhall incur ſuch penalties as in an act 5 Eliz. c. 14. are impoſed for forging or publiſhing of falſe deeds, whereby the freehold of any perſon may be moleſted; and if any perſon ſhall forſwear himſelf before the regiſter, or before any judge or maſter in chancery, in the caſes herein mentioned, and be thereof convicted, ſuch perſon ſhall incur the ſame penalties, as if the oath had been made in any of the courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 8.

All certificates required by this act, or by the act 2 Ann. c. 4. to be given by the regiſter in caſe of ſearches, ſhall be ſigned by the regiſter, or his deputy, in the preſence of two perſons, who ſhall ſet their names as witneſſes. ſ. 9.

In caſe of mortgages, judgments, ſtatutes, and recognizances; if a certificate ſhall be brought to the regiſter, ſigned by the mortgagers and mortgagees, plaintiffs and defendants, cognizor and cognizees, reſpectively, their executors, adminiſtrators, or aſſigns, and atteſted by two witneſſes, whereby it ſhall appear, that all monies due have been paid in diſcharge thereof; which witneſſes ſhall, upon oath before the ſaid regiſter, prove ſuch monies to be ſatisfied, and that they ſaw ſuch certificate ſigned; the regiſter ſhall make an entry in the margins of the regiſter books, againſt the inrolment of ſuch mortgage, or regiſtry of the memorial thereof, and againſt the regiſtry of ſuch judgment, ſtatute, or recognizance, that ſuch mortgage, &c. was ſatisfied, and ſhall file ſuch certificate upon record in the office. ſ. 10.

If any judgment, ſtatute, or recognizance, be regiſtered within 30 days after the acknowledgment or ſigning thereof, all the lands that the defendant or cognizor had at the time of ſuch acknowledgment or ſigning, ſhall be bound. ſ. 11.

By 6 Ann. c. 35. A memorial of all conveyances, which after the 29th of September 1708, ſhall be made, and of all wills where the deviſor ſhall die after the ſaid 29th of September, concerning any lands in the eaſt-riding of the county of York, or in the town and county of Kingſton upon Hull, may be affected, may be regiſtered; and every ſuch deed ſhall be adjudged fraudulent againſt any ſubſequent purchaſer or mortgagee for valuable conſideration, unleſs ſuch memorial be regiſtered, before the regiſtering the memorial of the deed under which ſuch ſubſequent purchaſer or mortgagee ſhall claim; and every ſuch deviſe by will ſhall be adjudged fraudulent againſt any ſubſequent purchaſer or mortgagee for valuable conſideration, unleſs a memorial of ſuch will be regiſtered as is herein directed. ſ. 1.

One public office for regiſtering ſhall (at the public charge of the eaſt-riding, to be raiſed by the juſtices of peace at their quarter-ſeſſions, in ſuch manner as they are empowered to raiſe money for the repairs of county bridges) be eſtabliſhed at Beverly. ſ. 2.

The act contains other directions to the ſame effect, as the acts 2 Ann. c. 4. and 5 Ann. c. 18. with the following additions.

In all deeds of bargain and ſale inrolled in purſuance of this act, whereby any eſtate of inheritance in fee-ſimple is limited to the bargainee and his heirs, the words grant, bargain, and ſell, ſhall amount to, and be conſtrued to be, expreſs covenants to the bargainee, his heirs and aſſigns, from the bargainer, for himſelf, his heirs, executors and adminiſtrators, that the bargainer, notwithſtanding any act done by him, was at the time of the execution of ſuch deed ſeiſed of the hereditaments thereby granted, bargained, and ſold, of an indefeazible eſtate in fee-ſimple, free from all incumbrances, (rents and ſervices due to the lord of the fee only excepted), and for quiet enjoyment thereof againſt the bargainer, his heirs and aſſigns, and all claiming under him, and alſo for further aſſurance thereof to be made by the bargainer, his heirs and aſſigns, and all claiming under him; unleſs the ſame ſhall be reſtrained by expreſs words contained in ſuch deed; and the bargainee, his heirs, executors, adminiſtrators, and aſſigns, may in any action action aſſign breaches thereupon, as they might do in caſe ſuch covenants were expreſsly inſerted. ſ. 30.

Every leaf of the regiſter-books and inrolment-books ſhall be ſigned by two juſtices of peace appointed by the juſtices at their quarter-ſeſſions, and an entry thereof ſhall be made from time to time by the clerk of the peace of the ſaid riding in the order-book of the ſeſſions, and ſigned by the juſtices that ſhall ſign the regiſter-books and inrolment books; and a like entry ſhall be made upon record, and ſigned, of the number of the books, and how marked, and how many pages each of them contains, in the regiſter office. ſ. 31.

All the clauſes in this act concerning the eaſt-riding, and the town of Kingſton upon Hull, and not contained in the acts 2 Ann. c. 4. and 5 Ann. c. 18. ſhall extend unto all lands within the weſt-riding, (the mortgage or purchaſe whereof ſhall exceed 50*l.*) as effectually as if the ſame were inſerted in the ſaid acts. ſ. 34.

By 7 Ann. c. 20. A memorial of all conveyances, which after the 29th of September 1709, ſhall be made, and of all wills where the deviſor ſhall die after the ſaid day, concerning any lands in the county of Middleſex, may be regiſtered; and every ſuch conveyance ſhall be adjudged fraudulent againſt any ſubſequent purchaſer or mortgagee for valuable conſideration, unleſs ſuch memorial thereof be regiſtered before the regiſtering of the memorial of the deed under which ſuch ſubſequent purchaſer or mortgagee ſhall claim; and every ſuch deviſe by will ſhall be adjudged fraudulent againſt any ſubſequent purchaſer or mortgagee for valuable conſiderations, unleſs a memorial of ſuch will be regiſtered. ſ. 1.

One public office for regiſtering ſuch memorials ſhall be erected in manner following, viz. the clerk of inrolment in chancery for Middleſex, the chief clerk to inroll pleas in the queen's bench, the clerk of the warrants in the common pleas, and the queen's remembrancer or his deputy in the exchequer, ſhall be the regiſters or maſters of the office, and ſhall appoint one or more perſons, for whom they ſhall be accountable, to be their deputies; which regiſters ſhall perform all things intended by this act in ſome office in or near the inns of court or chancery; and the ſaid regiſters ſhall preſent ſuch deputies to the lord chancellor, the chief juſtice of the queen's bench, the chief juſtice of the common pleas, and the chief baron of the exchequer, to be by three of them approved of, before ſuch deputies ſhall enter upon the execution of the office; and ſuch deputies may be diſplaced by the lord chancellor, the chief juſtices and chief baron, or any three of them, by writing; and the lord chancellor, the two chief juſtices and chief baron, or any three of them, ſhall have power to make rules and orders for the government of the ſaid office. ſ. 2. See 25 Geo. 2. c. 4.

Every ſuch regiſter, before he enter upon the execution of the office, ſhall be ſworn before the lord chancellor, the chief juſtices and chief baron, or one of them, as in 2 Ann. c. 4. ſ. 3.

If ſuch perſon appointed regiſter ſhall be convicted of any neglect, miſdemeanor or fraudulent practice, in the office, he ſhall be liable to pay treble damages, with full coſts, to every perſon injured. ſ. 4.

The five following ſections are to the ſame effect as 2 Ann. c. 4. ſ. 7, 8. 17. 20 & 21.

In caſe of concealment, or ſuppreſſion, of any will or deviſe, purchaſers ſhall not be diſturbed, unleſs the will be actually regiſtered within five years after the death of the deviſor. ſ. 10.

The two following ſections are to the ſame effect as 2 Ann. c. 4. ſ. 12 & 13.

Each of the regiſters or maſters, at the time of his being ſworn into the office, ſhall enter into a recognizance with ſureties (to be approved of by the lord chancellor, the chief juſtices and chief baron, or one of them) of the penalty of 2000*l.* unto her majeſty, to be taken by one of the chief juſtices, conditioned for his true and faithful performance of his duty in his office, in all things directed by this act, the ſame to be tranſmitted by ſuch chief juſtice within one month after the date, into the office of her majeſty's remembrancer of the exchequer. ſ. 13.

The damages to be forfeited by any ſuch regiſter, for any neglect, miſdemeanor or fraudulent practice, ſhall be recovered in any of her majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 14.

The following ſection is to the ſame effect as 2 Ann. c. 4. ſ. 19.

In caſe of mortgages, if a certificate ſhall be brought to the regiſters, ſigned by the mortgagees, &c. that all monies due upon ſuch mortgage have been paid, &c. the regiſters ſhall make an entry in the margins of the regiſter-books, that ſuch mortgage was ſatisfied, as in 5 Ann. c. 18. ſ. 10—ſ. 16.

This act ſhall not extend to any copyhold eſtates, or to any leaſes at a rack rent, or to any leaſe not exceeding 21 years where the actual poſſeſſion goeth along with the leaſe, or to any of the chambers in ſerjeants-inn, the inns of court, or inns of chancery. ſ. 17.

The reſt of the act is to the ſame effect as 5. Ann. c. 18. ſ. 4. & ſ. 5. and 2 Ann. c. 4. ſ. 22.

By 8 Geo. 2. c. 6. A memorial of all deeds and conveyances, which after the 29th of September 1736, ſhall be made, and of all wills where the deviſor ſhall die after the ſaid day, and of all judgments, ſtatutes and recognizances (other than ſuch as ſhall be entered into in the name and upon account of his majeſty) which ſhall be obtained or entered into after the ſaid day, whereby any lands in the north-riding of Yorkſhire may be affected, may be regiſtered; and every ſuch deed or conveyance, judgment, &c. ſhall be adjudged fraudulent againſt any ſubſequent purchaſer or mortgagee, plaintiff or cogniſee, upon valuable conſideration, unleſs ſuch memorial thereof be regiſtered, before the regiſtering of the memorial of the deed or conveyance, judgment, &c. under which ſuch ſubſequent purchaſer or mortgagee, plaintiff or cogniſee, ſhall claim; and every ſuch deviſe by will ſhall be adjudged void againſt a ſubſequent purchaſer or mortgagee, plaintiff or cogniſee, upon valuable conſideration, unleſs a memorial of ſuch will be regiſtered. ſ. 1.

One public office for regiſtering ſuch memorials, ſhall be eſtabliſhed at ſuch market-town, as the juſtices of peace ſhall adjudge to be the neareſt to the centre of the north-riding, to be managed as in 2 Ann. c. 4. ſ. 2.

The following fourteen ſections with ſec. 28. are to the ſame effect as 6 Ann. c. 35. ſ. 2. 2. Ann. c. 4. ſ. 3. 5. 9. 10. 6. 15. 7. 8. 18. 17. 20 & 21.

In caſe of concealment of any will, no purchaſer for valuable conſideration, nor any plaintiff in any judgment, or cogniſee of any ſtatute or recognizance, ſhall be defeated by any title deviſed by ſuch will, unleſs the will be actually regiſtered within three years after the death of the diviſor. ſ. 17.

The following two ſections are to the ſame effect as in 5 Ann. c. 18. ſ. 4 & 5.

Bargains and ſales of lands within the north-riding, which ſhall be inrolled by the regiſter, ſhall be as effectual as if the ſame had been inrolled according to the act 27 Hen 8. cap. 16. and one juſtice of peace ſhall have power to take the acknowledgment of the bargainer, or of one of the bargainers; and the regiſter ſhall inrol all ſuch bargains and ſales, and ſhall indorſe a certificate of the times of inrolling, as in 5. Ann. c. 18. ſ. 1.—ſ. 21.

Any perſon claiming title to any hereditaments in the north-riding, may regiſter, at full length in the ſaid office, any deeds, wills or conveyances, under which ſuch title ſhall be claimed, and which ſhall be made, and in the caſe of wills, where the deviſor ſhall die, after the ſaid 29th of September 1736, and the ſaid regiſter is authoriſed to inrol ſuch deeds, wills and conveyances; and the regiſter ſhall, in the margin of ſuch inrolment, mention the time of inrolment, and ſhall indorſe and ſign a certificate on ſuch deed or will, and ſhall keep all the books, wherein ſuch inrolments ſhall be made, in the ſaid office, there to remain upon record; and all copies of ſuch inrolments, ſigned by the regiſter, and atteſted by two witneſſes, ſhall be good evidence of ſuch deeds, wills or conveyances, deſtroyed by fire or other accident. ſ. 22.

At the time any deed or will ſhall be brought to be inrolled, one of the witneſſes ſhall make oath or affirmation before the regiſter, that ſuch deed was duly executed by the granters, or that ſuch will was ſigned and publiſhed by the deviſor. ſ. 23.

Such deeds and wills, as ſhall be made and executed in any place not within forty miles of the office, may be entered in length, in caſe an affidavit or affirmation, made before one of the judges, or a maſter in chancery, be brought with ſuch deed or will, wherein one of the witneſſes ſhall ſwear, or affirm, that he ſaw the ſaid deeds executed, or ſuch will ſigned and publiſhed. ſ. 24.

Such inrolment of ſuch deeds and wills ſhall be deemed to be the entry of a memorial thereof, purſuant to this act. ſ. 25.

Such regiſter ſhall be allowed for the entry of every memorial, 1*s.* but if ſuch memorial exceed two hundred words, then after the rate of 4*d.* an hundred for all the words in ſuch memorial, over and above the firſt two hundred words; and the like fees for every bargain and ſale inrolled, and deeds and wills regiſtered at length; and for every ſearch 1*s.* ſ. 26.

The ſix following ſections are to the ſame effect as 2 Ann. c. 4. ſ. 12. 10. 14. 11. 19. and 5 Ann. c. 18. ſ. 10.

If any judgment, ſtatute or recognizance, be regiſtered within twenty days after the acknowledgment or ſigning thereof, it ſhall be as available as if ſuch memorial had been entered on the day of the ſigning or acknowledgment. ſ. 33.

The reſidue of this act is to the ſame effect as 2 Ann. c. 4. ſ. 16.—6 Ann. c. 35. ſ. 30, 31. and 2 Ann. c. 4. ſ. 21 & 22.

By 25 Geo. 2. c. 4. The deputy or ſecondary of the chief clerk to inroll pleas in the king's bench, called the maſter of the king's bench office, ſhall be one of the regiſters of the office for the things contained in the 7 Ann. c. 20. inſtead of the chief clerk to inroll pleas in the king's bench, with the like powers as by the ſaid act are given to ſuch chief clerk; and the chief clerk ſhall be diſcharged from being one of the regiſters for inrolling ſuch deeds, &c. for the county of Middleſex as are mentioned in the ſaid act, and from any diſability which ſuch chief clerk as one of the ſaid regiſters would have been ſubject to. ſ. 1.

Such ſecondary, called the maſter of the king's bench office, ſhall, before he enters upon the ſaid office of one of ſuch regiſters, take the oath preſcribed by the ſaid act, and enter into ſuch recognizance as therein mentioned, and be liable to ſuch penalties for miſbehaviour as any of the other regiſters are ſubject to. ſ. 2.

Rents.

By 32 Hen. 8. c. 37. The executors or adminiſtrators of tenants in fee ſimple, tenants in fee tail, and tenants for term of life, of rent ſervices, rent charges, rent ſeck, and fee farms, unto whom any ſuch rent or fee farm ſhall be due, ſhall have an action of debt for ſuch arrearages againſt the tenants that ought to have paid in the life of their teſtator, or againſt the executors and adminiſtrators of the ſaid tenants; and it ſhall be lawful to every ſuch executor and adminiſtrator of any perſon unto whom any ſuch rent or fee farm is due, to diſtrain for the arrearages upon the lands charged with the payment, ſo long as the ſaid lands continue in the ſeiſin or poſſeſſion of the tenant in demean, who ought to have paid the rent or fee farm, or in the ſeiſin or poſſeſſion of any other perſon claiming only from the ſame tenant by purchaſe, gift, or deſcent, in like manner as their teſtator might have done. ſ. 1.

This act ſhall not extend to any ſuch manor or lordſhip in Wales, whereof the inhabitants have uſed time out of mind to pay unto every lord of ſuch lordſhip, &c. at his firſt entry, any ſums of money for the diſcharge of all duties and penalties wherewith the ſaid inhabitants were chargeable to any of the lord's anceſtors or predeceſſors. ſ. 2.

If any man ſhall have in the right of his wife, any eſtate in fee ſimple, fee tail, or for term of life, in any rents or fee farms, and the ſame ſhall be unpaid in the wife's life; the huſband, after the death of his wife, his executors and adminiſtrators, ſhall have an action of debt for the arrearages againſt the tenant of the demean that ought to have paid the ſame, his executors or adminiſtrators; and alſo the huſband after the death of his wife may diſtrain for the arrearages, in like manner as if his wife had been living. ſ. 3.

If any ſhall have any rents or fee farms for term of life of any other perſon, and the ſaid rent, &c. ſhall be unpaid in the life of ſuch perſon, and after the ſaid perſon doth die; he unto whom the rent or fee farm was due, his executors and adminiſtrators, ſhall have an action of debt againſt the tenant in the demean that ought to have paid the ſame, his executors and adminiſtrators, and alſo diſtrain for the ſame arrearages upon ſuch lands out of the which the ſaid rents or fee farms were iſſuing, in like manner as if ſuch perſon, by whoſe death the eſtate in the ſaid rents and fee farms was determined, had been in full life. ſ. 4.

By 8 Ann. c. 14. No goods upon any tenements leaſed ſhall be taken by any execution, unleſs the party at whoſe ſuit the execution is ſued out, ſhall before the removal of ſuch goods, pay to the landlord of the premiſes, or his bailiff, all money due for rent for the premiſes; provided the arrears do not amount to more than one year's rent; and in caſe the arrears ſhall exceed one year's rent, then the party at whoſe ſuit, &c. paying the ſaid landlord or his bailiff one year's rent, may proceed to execute his judgment; and the ſheriff is required to levy and pay to the plaintiff, as well the money paid for rent, as the execution money. ſ. 1.

In caſe any leſſee of tenements, upon the demiſe whereof any rents ſhall be reſerved, ſhall fraudulently or clandeſtinely carry off from ſuch premiſes his goods, with intent to prevent the leſſor from diſtraining, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch leſſor, or any perſon by him impowered, within five days next enſuing ſuch carrying off, to ſeize ſuch goods wherever the ſame ſhall be found, as a diſtreſs for the ſaid arrears of rent; and the ſame to ſell or diſpoſe of, as if the goods had been diſtrained upon ſuch premiſes. ſ. 2. See 11 Geo. 2. c. 19.

Nothing in this act ſhall impower ſuch leſſor to ſeize any goods as a diſtreſs for rent, which ſhall be ſold bona fide, and for a valuable conſideration before ſuch ſeizure. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon, having rent due upon any leaſe for life, to bring an action of debt for ſuch arrears, as upon a leaſe for years. ſ. 4.

All diſtreſſes hereby impowered to be made, ſhall be liable to ſuch ſales, and in ſuch manner as by 2 Will. & Mar. ſt. 1. c. 5. (See DISTRESS). ſ. 5.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon having rent due upon any leaſe for life, for years, or at will, determined, to diſtrain for ſuch arrears, after the determination of the leaſes. ſ. 6.

Provided that ſuch diſtreſs be made within ſix calendar months after the determination of ſuch leaſe, and during the continuance of ſuch landlord's title, and during the poſſeſſion of the tenant from whom ſuch arrear became due. ſ. 7.

Nothing in this act ſhall prejudice her majeſty in the levying any debts or forfeitures. ſ. 8.

By 4 Geo. 2. c. 28. In caſe any tenant for life or years, or other perſon who ſhall come into poſſeſſion of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, under, or by colluſion with, ſuch tenant, ſhall wilfully hold over after the determination of ſuch term, and after demand made in writing for delivering the poſſeſſion thereof, by the perſon to whom the remainder or reverſion ſhall belong, or his agent; ſuch perſon holding over ſhall pay double the yearly value of the lands, &c. ſo detained; to be recovered by action of debt, whereunto the defendant ſhall be obliged to give ſpecial bail; againſt which penalty there ſhall be no relief in equity. ſ 1.

In all caſes between landlord and tenant, as often as one half year's rent ſhall be in arrear, and the landlord hath right by law to re-enter for non-payment, ſuch landlord may, without any formal demand or re-entry, ſerve a declaration in ejectment; or in caſe the ſame cannot be legally ſerved, affix the ſame upon the door of any demiſed meſſuage, or upon ſome notorious place of the lands, &c. compriſed in ſuch declaration; which ſervice, or affixing ſuch declaration, ſhall ſtand in ſtead of a demand and re-entry; and in caſe of judgment againſt the caſual ejector, or nonſuit for not confeſſing leaſe, entry, and ouſter, it ſhall be made appear to the court by affidavit, or be proved upon the trial in caſe the defendant appears, that half a year's rent was due before the declaration was ſerved, and no ſufficient diſtreſs was to be found, and that the leſſor in ejectment had power to re-enter; the leſſor in ejectment ſhall recover judgment and execution, in the ſame manner as if the rent in arrear had been legally demanded, and a re-entry made: and in caſe the leſſee, or other perſon claiming under the leaſe, ſhall ſuffer judgment to be recovered on ſuch ejectment, and execution executed, without paying the rent and arrears with coſts, and without filing any bill for relief in equity within ſix calendar months after execution executed; the ſaid leſſee, and all perſons claiming under the leaſe, ſhall be barred from all relief in law or equity, other than by writ of error: provided that nothing herein ſhall bar the right of any mortgagee of ſuch leaſe, who ſhall not be in poſſeſſion, ſo as ſuch mortgagee, within ſix calendar months after execution executed, pay all rent in arrear, and coſts and damages, and perform all covenants and agreements on the part of the firſt leſſee. ſ. 2.

In caſe the leſſee, or other perſon claiming any right in law or equity to the leaſe, ſhall within the time aforeſaid file a bill for relief in any court of equity, ſuch perſon ſhall not have or continue any injunction, unleſs he ſhall within forty days after full anſwer bring into court ſuch ſum of money, as the leſſor ſhall in his anſwer ſwear to be due over and above all juſt allowances, and alſo the coſts taxed, to remain till the hearing of the cauſe, or to be paid out to the leſſor on ſecurity, ſubject to the decree of the court: and in caſe ſuch bill ſhall be filed within the time aforeſaid after execution executed, the leſſor of the plaintiff ſhall be accountable only for ſo much as he ſhall really and without wilful neglect make of the demiſed premiſes, from the time of his entering into actual poſſeſſion; and if what ſhall be ſo made by the leſſor of the plaintiff happen to be leſs than the rent reſerved, the leſſee, before he ſhall be reſtored to his poſſeſſion, ſhall pay ſuch leſſor what the money ſo made fell ſhort. ſ. 3.

If the tenant ſhall, at any time before trial in ſuch ejectment, tender to the leſſor, his executors or adminiſtrators, or his attorney in that cauſe, or pay into court all arrears with coſts, all proceeding in the ejectment ſhall ceaſe; and if ſuch leſſee ſhall upon ſuch bill filed be relieved in equity, he ſhall enjoy the demiſed lands according to the leaſe without any new leaſe. ſ. 4.

All perſons ſhall have like remedy by diſtreſs, and by impounding and ſelling the ſame, in caſes of rents ſeck, rents of aſſiſe, and chief rents, which have been anſwered or paid for three years within the ſpace of twenty years before the firſt day of this ſeſſion of parliament, or ſhall be hereafter created, as in caſe of rent reſerved upon leaſe. ſ. 5. See DISTRESS.

In caſe any leaſe ſhall be ſurrendered in order to be renewed, and a new leaſe executed by the chief landlord, the new leaſe ſhall without a ſurrender of the under leaſes, be as valid, as if all the under leaſes had been ſurrendered; and every perſon in whom any eſtate for life, or years, ſhall be veſted by virtue of ſuch new leaſe, ſhall be intitled to the rents and duties, and have like remedy for the recovery thereof, and the under leſſees ſhall hold and enjoy the tenements, as if the original leaſes had been kept on foot; and the chief landlord ſhall have the ſame remedy, by diſtreſs, or entry, for the rents and duties reſerved by ſuch new leaſe, ſo far as the ſame exceed not the rents and duties reſerved in the leaſe out of which ſuch under leaſe was derived, as they would have had in caſe ſuch former leaſe had been continued, or the under leaſes had been renewed under ſuch new leaſe. ſ. 6.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to Scotland. ſ. 7.

By 11 Geo. 2. c. 19. In caſe any tenant or leſſee of lands or tenements, upon the demiſe whereof any rent is payable, ſhall fraudulently or clandeſtinely carry off his goods, to prevent the landlord from diſtraining; it ſhall be lawful for every landlord within England, Wales, or Berwick, or any perſon by him impowered, within thirty days next enſuing ſuch carrying off, to ſeize ſuch goods wherever the ſame ſhall be found, as a diſtreſs for the rent, and the ſame to ſell or diſpoſe of, as if the ſaid goods had been diſtrained upon ſuch premiſes. ſ. 1.

Provided that no landlord ſhall ſeize goods ſold bona fide, and for a valuable conſideration, to any perſon not privy to ſuch fraud. ſ. 2.

If any ſuch tenant ſhall fraudulently remove his goods, orif any perſon ſhall knowingly aſſiſt ſuch tenant in fraudulent dulent conveying away his goods, or in concealing the ſame, all perſons ſo offending ſhall forfeit to the landlord, from whoſe eſtate ſuch goods were carried off, double the value of the goods, to be recovered by action of debt in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, or in the courts of ſeſſion in the counties palatine, or in the courts of grand ſeſſions in Wales. ſ. 3.

Where the goods carried off ſhall not exceed the value of 50 l. it ſhall be lawful for the landlord, his bailiff, ſervant or agent, to exhibit a complaint in writing againſt ſuch offenders before two juſtices of peace reſiding near the place, not being intereſted in the tenements; who may ſummon the parties, examine the fact, and all witneſſes upon oath, or if quakers, upon affirmation; and in a ſummary way determine whether ſuch perſon be guilty of the offence, and inquire of the value of the goods by them fraudulently carried off or concealed; and upon proof of the offence, by order the ſaid juſtices may adjudge the offenders to pay double the value of the goods to ſuch landlord, his bailiff, ſervant, or agent, as the juſtices ſhall appoint; and in caſe the offenders having notice of ſuch order ſhall neglect ſo to do, ſhall by warrant levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and for want of diſtreſs, may commit the offenders to the houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour for ſix months, unleſs the money be ſooner ſatisfied. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon aggrieved by ſuch order of the two juſtices to appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions, who ſhall hear and determine ſuch appeal, and give coſts to either party. ſ. 5.

Where the party appealing ſhall enter into a recognizance with ſurety in double the ſum ordered, with condition to appear at ſuch quarter ſeſſions, the order of the two juſtices ſhall not be executed in the mean time. ſ. 6.

Where any goods fraudulently carried away by any tenant, his ſervant or agent, or other perſon aſſiſting, ſhall be put in any place locked up or ſecured, ſo as to prevent ſuch goods from being ſeized for rent, it ſhall be lawful for the landlord, his ſteward, bailiff, receiver or other perſon impowered, to ſeize for rent ſuch goods (firſt calling to his aſſiſtance the conſtable, headborough, borſholder, or other peace officer, of the place where the ſame ſhall be ſuſpected to be concealed, who are required to aſſiſt; and in caſe of a dwelling houſe, oath being alſo made before ſome juſtice of peace of a reaſonable ground to ſuſpect that ſuch goods are there) in the day time to break open ſuch houſe, &c. and ſeize ſuch goods for the rent, as they might have done if ſuch goods had been put in any open place. ſ. 7.

It ſhall be lawful for every landlord, his ſteward, bailiff, receiver, or other perſon impowered by him, to ſeize, as a diſtreſs for rent, any cattle or ſtock of their tenants feeding upon any common appendant or appurtenant to any part of the premiſes demiſed; and alſo to ſeize corn and graſs, hops, roots, fruits, or other product, growing on the eſtates demiſed, as a diſtreſs for rent; and the ſame to cut, gather and lay up, when ripe, in the barns or other proper place on the premiſes; and in caſe there ſhall be no proper place, then in any other barn or proper place which ſuch landlord ſhall procure as near as may be to the premiſes; and in convenient time to appraiſe, ſell or diſpoſe of the ſame, towards ſatisfaction of the rent, in the ſame manner as other goods may be ſeized and diſpoſed of, the appraiſement to be taken when gathered and made. ſ. 8.

Provided that notice of the place where the goods ſhall be lodged ſhall within one week be given to ſuch tenant, or left at the laſt place of his abode; and if after any diſtreſs for rent ſo taken, of corn, graſs, or other product growing, and before the ſame ſhall be ripe and cut, the tenant, his executors, adminiſtrators or aſſigns, ſhall pay to the landlord, or to the ſteward, or other perſon employed to receive the rents, the whole rent in arrear, together with coſts, ſuch diſtreſs ſhall ceaſe, and the corn, graſs, or other product diſtrained, ſhall be delivered up to the tenant, &c. ſ. 9.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon lawfully taking any diſtreſs for rent, to impound or ſecure the diſtreſs on ſuch part of the premiſes chargeable with the rent as ſhall be moſt convenient, and to appraiſe, ſell and diſpoſe of the ſame upon the premiſes, as any perſon may now do off the premiſes, by virtue of 2 Will & Mar. ſtat. 1. cap. 5. [See DISTRESS,] or of 4 Geo. 2. c. 28. and it ſhall be lawful for any perſon to come and go to and from ſuch part of the premiſes, to view, appraiſe and buy, and alſo to carry off the ſame on account of the purchaſer; and if any pound breach or reſcous be made of goods diſtrained for rent ſecured by virtue of this act, the perſon aggrieved ſhall have like remedy as in caſes of pound breach or reſcous by the ſaid ſtatute. ſ. 10.

It ſhall be lawful for the landlord, where the agreement is not by deed, to recover a reaſonable ſatisfaction for the tenements occupied by the defendants, in an action on the caſe for the uſe and occupation of what was ſo held; and if in evidence on the trial any parol demiſe, or any agreement not by deed, whereon a certain rent was reſerved, ſhall appear, the plaintiff may make uſe thereof as an evidence of the quantum of the damages. ſ. 14.

Where any tenant for life ſhall die before or on the day on which any rent was reſerved upon any demiſe which determined on the death of ſuch tenant for life, the executors or adminiſtrators of ſuch tenant for life may in an action on the caſe recover of the under tenants, if ſuch tenant for life die on the day on which the ſame was made payable, the whole, or if before ſuch day, then a proportion, of ſuch rent, according to the time ſuch tenant for life lived of the laſt year or quarter, or other time, in which the ſaid rent was growing due, making all juſt allowances. ſ. 15.

If any tenant holding tenements at a rack rent, or where the rent reſerved ſhall be full three fourths of the yearly value of the premiſes, who ſhall be in arrear for one year's rent, ſhall deſert the premiſes, and leave the ſame uncultivated, or unoccupied, ſo as no ſufficient diſtreſs can be had to countervail the arrears; it ſhall be lawful for two juſtices of peace (having no intereſt in the premiſes) at the requeſt of the landlord, his bailiff or receiver, to go upon and view the ſame, and to affix on the moſt notorious part notice in writing, what day (at the diſtance of fourteen days at leaſt) they will return to take a ſecond view; and if upon ſuch ſecond view, the tenant, or ſome perſon on his behalf, ſhall not appear and pay the rent in arrear, or there ſhall not be ſufficient diſtreſs upon the premiſes, the juſtices may put the landlord into poſſeſſion, and the leaſe to ſuch tenant, as to any demiſe therein contained only, ſhall become void. ſ. 16.

Provided that ſuch proceedings of the juſtices ſhall be examinable into in a ſummary way by the next juſtices of aſſiſe; and if they lie in London or Middleſex, by the judges of the courts of king's bench or common pleas; and if in the counties palatine, then before the judges thereof; and if in Wales, before the courts of grand ſeſſions: who are impowered to order reſtitution to be made to ſuch tenant, together with his coſts to be paid by the landlord, if they ſhall ſee cauſe for the ſame; and in caſe they ſhall affirm affirm the act of the juſtices, to award coſts not exceeding 5 l. for the appeal. ſ. 17.

In caſe any tenant ſhall give notice of his intention to quit the premiſes, and ſhall not accordingly deliver up the poſſeſſion at the time in ſuch notice contained, the ſaid tenant, his executors or adminiſtrators, ſhall pay to the landlord double the rent which he ſhould otherwiſe have paid. ſ. 18.

Where any diſtreſs ſhall be made for rent due, and any irregularity or unlawful act ſhall be afterwards done by the party diſtraining, or his agents, the diſtreſs ſhall not be therefore deemed unlawful, nor the party a treſpaſſer ab initio; but the party grieved ſhall recover ſatisfaction for the ſpecial damage ſuſtained thereby, and no more, in an action of treſpaſs or on the caſe; the plaintiff to recover full coſts. ſ. 19.

Provided that no tenant ſhall recover for ſuch irregularity aforeſaid, if tender of amends hath been made by the party diſtraining, or his agents, before action brought. ſ. 20.

In actions of treſpaſs, or upon the caſe, brought againſt perſons intitled to rents or ſervices, their bailiff or receiver, or other perſons, relating to any entry upon the premiſes chargeable with ſuch rents or ſervices, or to any diſtreſs or ſeizure, ſale or diſpoſal, of any goods thereupon; it ſhall be lawful for the defendants to plead the general iſſue; and in caſe the plaintiffs become nonſuit, &c. the defendants ſhall recover double coſts. ſ. 21. See general titles ATTORNMENT, AVOWRY, DISTRESS, EJECTMENTS, REPLEVIN.

Replevin.

Stat. Marleber. 52 Hen. 3. c. 21. If the beaſts of any man be taken and wrongfully with-holden, the ſheriff, after complaint made to him, may deliver them, if they were taken out of liberties; and if the beaſts were taken within any liberties, and the bailiffs of the liberty will not deliver them, the ſheriff ſhall cauſe them to be delivered.

Stat. Weſtm. 1. 3 Edw. 1. c. 17. If any take the beaſts of other, and cauſe them to be driven into a caſtle or fortreſs, and there with-hold them againſt gage and pledges, whereupon the beaſts be ſolemnly demanded by the ſheriff, or by ſome other bailiff of the king, at the ſuit of the plaintiff, and the ſheriff or bailiff, taking with him the power of the ſhire or bailiwick, do aſſay to make replevin; if any deforce him of the deliverance, or that no man be found for the lord to make deliverance; after ſuch time as the taker ſhall be admoniſhed to make deliverance by the ſheriff or bailiff, the king for the treſpaſs and deſpite ſhall cauſe the caſtle or fortreſs to be beaten down: and all damages that the plaintiff hath ſuſtained in his beaſts or otherwiſe (after the firſt demand made by the ſheriff or bailiff) ſhall be reſtored to him double by him that took the beaſts, if he have whereof; and if he have not, he ſhall have it of the lord. And where the ſheriff ought to return the king's writ to the bailiff of the lord of the caſtle or fortreſs, or to any other to whom the return belongeth, if the bailiff of the franchiſe will not make deliverance, the ſheriff ſhall do his office. And in like manner deliverance ſhall be made by attachment of plaint made without writ. And if it be done in the marches of Wales, or in other place where the king's writs be not current, the king which is ſovereign lord ſhall do right.

Stat. Weſtm. 2. 13 Edw. 1. c. 2. Foraſmuch as lords of fees diſtraining their tenants for ſervices and cuſtoms due, are many times grieved becauſe their tenants do replevy the diſtreſs; and when the lords come by attachment to the county or other court and avow the taking, by reaſon that the tenants diſclaim to hold ought of him which took the diſtreſs, he that diſtrained is amerced; it is provided that where ſuch lords cannot obtain juſtice in the counties, and ſuch courts, as ſoon as they ſhall be attached at the ſuit of their tenants a writ ſhall be granted them to put the matter before the juſtices, and the cauſe put in the writ ſhall be this, becauſe ſuch a man diſtrained in his fee for ſervices and cuſtoms to him due. ſ. 1 & 2.

Sheriffs or bailiffs ſhall not only receive of the plaintiffs pledges to purſue, before they make deliverance of the diſtreſs, but alſo for the return of the beaſts, if return be awarded: and if any take pledges otherwiſe, he ſhall anſwer for the price of the beaſts; and the lord that diſtraineth ſhall have his recovery by writ quod reddat ei tot averia vel tot catalla: and if the bailiff be not able to reſtore it, his ſuperior ſhall. And ſo ſoon as the return of the beaſts ſhall be awarded, the ſheriff ſhall be commanded by a judicial writ to make return unto the diſtrainer; in which writ it ſhall be expreſſed, that the ſheriff ſhall not deliver them without writ making mention of the judgment given by the juſticers: therefore when he cometh unto the juſticers, and deſireth again replevin of the beaſts, he ſhall have a judicial writ, that the ſheriff taking ſurety of him to proſecute the ſuit, and alſo for the cattle to be returned (or the price of them) if return be awarded, ſhall deliver unto him the beaſts before returned: and the diſtrainer ſhall be attached to come at a certain day before the juſticers, afore whom the plea ſhall be handled in the preſence of the parties: and if he that replevied make default again, or for other cauſe return of the diſtreſs being now twice replevied be awarded, the diſtreſs ſhall remain irrepleviable. But if the diſtreſs be taken of new, and for a new cauſe, the proceſs aboveſaid ſhall be obſerved in the new diſtreſs. ſ. 3.

By 11 Geo. 2. c. 19. Sheriffs and other officers having authority to grant replevins, ſhall in every replevin of a diſtreſs for rent take in their own names from the plaintiff and two ſureties, a bond in double the value of the goods diſtrained (ſuch value to be aſcertained by the oath of one or more witneſſes not intereſted, which oath the perſon granting ſuch replevin is to adminiſter) and conditioned for proſecuting the ſuit with effect, and without delay, and for returning the goods in caſe a return ſhall be awarded, before any deliverance be made of the diſtreſs; and ſuch ſheriff or officer taking ſuch bond ſhall, at the requeſt and coſts of the avowant, or perſon making conuzance, aſſign ſuch bond to the avowant, &c. by indorſing the ſame, and atteſting it under his hand and ſeal in the preſence of two witneſſes, which may be done without any ſtamp, provided the aſſignment be ſtamped before any action brought thereupon; and if the bond be forfeited, the avowant, &c. may bring an action thereupon in his own name; and the court may by rule give ſuch relief to the parties upon ſuch bond, as may be agreeable to juſtice, and ſuch rule ſhall have the effect of a defeaſance. ſ. 23. See general title AVOWRY.

Reſidence.

Artic. cler. 9 Edw. 2. c. 8. Such clerks as attend in the king's ſervice ſhall be corrected by their ordinaries like as other, but ſo long as they are occupied about the king's buſineſs they ſhall not be bound to keep reſidence in their churches. See general title ECCLESIASTICAL PERSONS in Part I. and title RECTORIES AND VICARAGES, ante.

Return of Writs.

Artic. ſuper chart. 28 Edw. 1. cap. 16. Such execution ſhall be done of them that make falſe returns of writs, whereby right is deferred, as in Stat. Weſtm. 2. cap. 29. See general title SHERIFFS.

Stat. of York, 12 Edw. 2. c. 5. For returns delivered to ſheriffs by bailiffs of franchiſes, an indenture ſhall be made between the bailiff of the franchiſe and the ſheriff by his proper name; and if the ſheriff change the return ſo delivered to him by indenture, and be thereof convict of the ſuit of the lord, or of the party that hath ſuſtained loſs, he ſhall be puniſhed by the king for his falſe return, and ſhall yield unto the lord and to the party double damages; alſo ſheriffs and other bailiffs that receive the king's writs ſhall ſend their own name with the returns, ſo that the court may know of whom they took ſuch returns; and if any ſheriff or other bailiff leave out his name in his returns, he ſhall be grievouſly amerced.

By 1 Edw. 3. ſt. 1. c. 5. Againſt falſe returns of bailiffs of franchiſes, a man ſhall have averment, and recover as well againſt them as againſt the ſheriff, as well of too little iſſues returned as in other caſes, ſo that it fall not in prejudice of the lords, nor in blemiſh of their franchiſe, and that the eſtate of holy church be always ſaved, and that all the puniſhment fall upon the bailiffs by puniſhment of their bodies, if they have not whereof to anſwer.

By 2 Edw. 3. c. 5. At what time or place of the county a man doth deliver any writ to the ſheriff, they ſhall receive the writs, and make a bill, after the form contained in the ſtatute Weſtm. 2. cap. 30. (ſee SHERIFFS,) without taking any thing; and if they refuſe to make a bill, other perſons that preſent ſhall ſet to their ſeals; and if the ſheriff or under ſheriffs do not return the writs, they ſhall be puniſhed after the form in the ſame ſtatute; and the juſtices of aſſiſes ſhall have power to inquire thereof at every man's complaint, and to award damages.

Riots.

By 13 Hen. 4. c. 7. If any riot, aſſembly, or rout of people, againſt law, be made, the juſtices of peace, or two of them, and the ſheriff, ſhall come with the power of the county, if need be, and arreſt them; and the ſame juſtices and ſheriff ſhall have power to record that they find ſo done in their preſence againſt law; and by the record ſuch offenders ſhall be convict in manner as in the ſtatute of forcible entry; and if ſuch offenders be departed before the coming of the juſtices and ſheriff, the ſame juſtices, or two of them, ſhall diligently enquire, within a month after, of ſuch riot, aſſembly, or rout, and ſhall hear and determine the ſame. ſ. 1.

If the truth cannot be found, then within a month next following, the juſtices, or two of them, and the ſheriff, ſhall certify before the king and his council all the deeds and circumſtances thereof, which certificate ſhall be of like force as the preſentment of 12 men; upon which certificate the offenders ſhall be put to anſwer, and they which be found guilty ſhall be puniſhed after the diſcretion of the king and his council. ſ. 2.

If ſuch offenders traverſe the matter certified, the certificate and traverſe ſhall be ſent to the king's bench to be tried and determined; and if the offenders do not come before the king and his council at the firſt command, there ſhall be made another, directed to the ſheriff, to take the offenders if they may be found, and bring them at a certain day before the king and his council, or in the king's bench; and if they cannot be found, the ſheriff ſhall make proclamation in the county next enſuing the delivery of the ſaid ſecond command, that they come before the king and his council, or in the king's bench, or in the chancery in time of vacation, within three weeks then following; and in caſe the offenders come not, and the proclamation made and returned, they ſhall be convict of the riot, aſſembly, or rout. ſ. 3.

The juſtices of peace dwelling nigheſt where ſuch riot, aſſembly, or rout, ſhall be made, together with the ſheriff, and alſo the juſtices of aſſizes for the time that they ſhall be in their ſeſſions, ſhall do execution of the ſame ſtatute, every one upon pain of 100 l. ſ. 4. By 17 Ric. 2. c. 8. the king's miniſters generally have power to arreſt rioters with force.

By 2 Hen. 5. ſt. 1. c. 8. If default be found in the ſaid juſtices of peace, or juſtices of aſſize (named in the ſtatute 13 Hen. 4. c. 7.), and the ſheriff or under-ſheriff of the county where ſuch riot, aſſembly, or rout, ſhall be made, touching the execution of the ſaid ſtatute; at the inſtance of the party grieved the king's commiſſion ſhall go out under his great ſeal, to enquire as well of the truth of the cauſe, and of the original matter, as of the defaults of the juſtices, ſheriff, or under-ſheriff, to be directed to indifferent perſons, at the nomination of the chancellor; and the commiſſioners ſhall ſend into the chancery the inqueſts before them taken; and the coroners ſhall make the panel for the time that the ſheriff, that is ſuppoſed in default, ſhall ſtand in his office, which coroners ſhall return no perſons but ſuch which have lands to the value of 10 l. by the year; and the coroners ſhall return upon the perſons, impanelled at the firſt day iſſues to 20 s., and at the ſecond day 40 s. and at the third day 100 s. and at every day after, the double at leaſt; and if default be found in the coroners, touching the return of ſuch perſons impanelled, or touching the return of iſſues, every of them ſhall pay to the king 40 l., and if the ſheriff be diſcharged of his office, the new ſheriff ſhall make the panel. And the chancellor, as ſoon as he may have knowledge of ſuch riot, aſſembly, or rout, ſhall cauſe to be ſent the king's writ to the juſtices of peace and to the ſheriff, that they put the ſtatute in execution, upon the pain contained in the ſame; and though ſuch writ come not to the juſtices or ſheriff, they ſhall not be excuſed if they make not execution of the ſtatute. ſ. 1.

Provided that the juſtices and other officers ſhall do their offices at the king's coſts, by payment to be made by the ſheriff by indentures betwixt the ſheriff and the juſtices and other officers. And rioters attainted of great and heinous riots ſhall have one year's impriſonment, and rioters attainted of petty riots, ſhall have impriſonment as beſt ſhall ſeem to the king and his council; and the fines of ſuch rioters ſhall be by the ſaid juſtices increaſed and put in greater ſums than they were wont to be; and the king's liege people in the county ſhall be aſſiſtant to the juſtices, commiſſioners, ſheriff, or under-ſheriff, when they ſhall be reaſonably warned, to ride with them to reſiſt ſuch riots, &c. upon pain of impriſonment, and to make fine and ranſom to the king; and bailiffs of franchiſes ſhall cauſe to be impanelled ſufficient people, upon pain to loſe to the king king 40 l., and like ordinances and pains ſhall hold place in cities, boroughs, and other places which have juſtices of peace. ſ. 2.

By 2 Hen. 5. ſt. 1. c. 9. Made perpetual by 8 Hen. 6. c. 14. Of murders, manſlaughters, robberies, batteries, aſſemblies of people in great number in manner of inſurrection, and other rebellious riots, if any perſon come into chancery, and make complaint, that any ſuch felon or offender fly or withdraw him, a bill ſhall be made for the king; and the chancellor, after ſuch bill to him delivered (if he be duly informed that ſuch bill containeth truth), ſhall have power to make a writ of capias at the king's ſuit, directed to the ſheriff, returnable in chancery at a certain day; and if the perſons be taken by the ſheriff, or yield them in the chancery, ſuch perſons ſhall be put in ward, or to mainpriſe; and he ſhall ſend to inquire of ſuch offences; and if the ſheriff return, that the perſons cannot be taken, and the ſame perſons do not yield them in the chancery, the chancellor ſhall cauſe to be made a writ of proclamation, directed to the ſheriff, returnable in the king's bench, that he make proclamation in two counties, that the perſons named in the writ ſhall come to anſwer to the matter compriſed in the bill, upon pain to be convict; and in every ſuch writ of proclamation ſhall be contained the ſubſtance of the bill, and if they come not at the day, then ſhall they be convict. ſ. 1.

Provided that the ſuggeſtions of ſuch riots be witneſſed to the chancellor by letters under the ſeal of two juſtices of peace and the ſheriff, before the writ of capias be granted, in which writ the matter compriſed in the bill ſhall be as well expreſſed as in the writ of proclamation. And if ſuch cauſe happen in the county palatine of Lancaſter, or elſewhere, in any franchiſe where there is a chancellor, the chancellor of England ſhall cauſe to be ſent by the king's writ, to the chancellor of ſuch county or franchiſe, all the ſuggeſtion in the bill compriſed, commanding him to make execution; ſo always that the king's writ do not run out of the chancery of England into ſuch county or franchiſe otherwiſe than hath been uſed. ſ. 2.

By 8 Hen. 6. c. 14. The ſaid ſtatute 2 Hen. 5. c. 9. ſhall be kept. ſ. 1.

Provided that it be witneſſed by two juſtices of the peace, that the common fame runneth in the counties of the ſame riots, before the writ of capias be awarded. Provided alſo, that if ſuch caſe happen in the county palatine of Lancaſter, or elſewhere in a place enfranchiſed, where there is a chancellor, the chancellor of ſuch county or place enfranchiſed, after complaint to him duly made and witneſſed by a juſtice, or the lieutenant of a juſtice, and the ſheriff of ſuch counties palatine or place enfranchiſed, ſhall have like power to award a capias, and a writ of proclamation, as the chancellor of England hath. ſ. 2.

By 19 Hen. 7. c. 13. If any riot, rout, or unlawful aſſembly, be committed, the ſheriff having a precept directed to him ſhall return 24 perſons dwelling within the ſhire, whereof every of them ſhall have lands within the ſhire to the yearly value of 20 s. of freehold, or 26 s. 8 d. of copyhold, or of both, to inquire of the ſaid riot, rout, or unlawful aſſembly; and he ſhall return upon every perſon impannelled in iſſues, at the firſt day 20 s. and at the ſecond day 40 s. and if default be found in the ſheriff for returning of other perſons, &c. he ſhall forfeit to the king 20 l. And if the riot, rout, or unlawful aſſembly, be not found by the jury, by reaſon of any maintenance or embracery, the juſtices and the ſheriff ſhall, in the certificate certify the names of the maintainers and embracers, with their miſdemeanors, upon pain of every of the ſaid juſtices, and ſheriff or under-ſheriff, to forfeit 20 l. if they have no reaſonable excuſe; which certificate ſhall be of like force as if the matter were found by verdict of 12 men: and every perſon proved to be a maintainer or embracer in the ſame ſhall forfeit to the king 20 l., and as well the maintainers as embracers, ſhall be committed to ward by the diſcretion of the juſtices. See the general title FELONS, &c. diviſion Riots.

Rivers and Navigable Canals.

Mag. Chart. 9 Hen. 3. c. 16. No rivers ſhall be defended but ſuch as were in defence in the time of king Hen. 2. by the ſame places and the ſame bounds.

By 5 Geo. 2. c. 33. Made perpetual by 27 Geo. 2. c. 16. The commiſſioners empowered to put in execution any act of parliament for making rivers navigable, may out of the tolls diſcharge the coſts of any action or proſecution which ſhall be commenced on account of the pulling down or deſtroying any lock, ſluice, or other works, on any navigable river, erected by authority of parliament. ſ. 3.

By 8 Geo. 2. c. 20. Made perpetual by 27 Geo. 2. c. 16. If any perſon ſhall wilfully or maliciouſly pull down or deſtroy, any lock, ſluice, or other works, on any navigable river, erected by authority of parliament; or forcibly reſcue any perſon, being lawfully in cuſtody, for the offences before-mentioned, every perſon ſo offending ſhall be guilty of felony without benefit of clergy. ſ. 1.

If any perſon ſhall wilfully and maliciouſly draw up any flood-gates, erected by authority of parliament upon any navigable river, every perſon ſo offending, being convicted upon the oath of one witneſs, before two juſtices of peace of the adjacent county, ſhall be ſent to the houſe of correction and be kept to hard labour for one month. ſ. 2.

Every offence aforeſaid may be determined in any adjacent county in England. ſ. 3.

No attainder for any of the offences made felony by this act ſhall work corruption of blood, loſs of dower, or forfeiture of lands or goods. ſ. 4.

If any perſon ſhall commit any of the offences declared to be felony by this act, and being out of priſon, ſhall diſcover and cauſe to be apprehended one or more who ſhall commit any ſuch offence, ſo as they be convicted, every ſuch perſon, on conviction of the offenders, ſhall have his majeſty's pardon for the felonies aforeſaid. ſ. 5.

The inhabitants of every hundred in England, within which ſuch offence ſhall be committed, ſhall make ſatisfaction for the damages; and the ſaid damages may be recovered by action of debt, &c. in the name of the clerk of the peace of the county, without naming the name of the clerk of the peace; and the damages to be recovered ſhall be to the uſe of the truſtees or proprietors of any navigable river (the ſum to be recovered againſt the inhabitants of ſuch hundred not exceeding for any offence 20 l.) and the inhabitants of ſuch hundred ſhall be taxed for the relief of ſuch inhabitants againſt whom execution ſhall be had, in ſuch manner as is preſcribed in 27 Eliz. c. 13.—ſ. 6.

Where any of the offenders ſhall be convicted within 12 months after ſuch offence, any hundred, who ſhall have made ſuch ſatisfaction, ſhall be repaid out of the tolls. ſ. 7.

If any clerk of the peace commence ſuch action, and die or be removed before recovery, no ſuch action ſhall, by ſuch diſplacing or death, be abated; but the clerk of the peace next ſucceeding may proſecute ſuch action. ſ. 8.

No action ſhall be proſecuted to recover damages, by virtue of this act, unleſs information upon oath ſhall be made within ſix days, before ſome juſtice of peace where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, inhabiting within the hundred or near the ſame. ſ. 9.

No ſuch action ſhall be proſecuted to recover damages againſt a hundred, except ſuch action be commenced within ſix months after ſuch offence. ſ. 10.

If any perſon ſhall aſſault any collectors of the toll, or threaten them in the execution of their office, or ſhall forcibly paſs through any fences without paying the toll; or if any perſon ſhall forcibly carry away or detain any collectors of the toll, ſo as they ſhall not be able to return to their duty for three days; in any of the ſaid caſes, the party offending, upon conviction by oath, of one witneſs, before two juſtices of the county, &c. ſhall forfeit 5 l. one moiety to the informer, and the other moiety to the conſtable of the pariſh where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, to the uſe of the truſtees or undertakers of any navigable river, to be levied by warrant of the juſtices by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and for want of diſtreſs, the party offending ſhall, by warrant of ſuch juſtices, be ſent to the common gaol of the county for ſix months; and if ſuch party ſhall offend a ſecond or third time, he ſhall forfeit 10 l. in manner aforeſaid, and for want of diſtreſs ſhall be ſent by two juſtices to the common gaol for one year, and ſhall alſo give ſecurity at the quarter ſeſſions for his behaviour for ſeven years. ſ. 11.

Such collectors of the toll may ſeize any perſon guilty of the offences before mentioned, and ſuch perſons carry before a juſtice; and ſuch juſtice is authoriſed, to oblige ſuch perſon to give ſecurity for his appearing at the petty ſeſſions; and for want of ſecurity, to commit the perſon to the common gaol until he give ſecurity. ſ. 12.

If any conſtable ſhall refuſe to execute any warrant under the hands of two juſtices, for apprehending any perſon that ſhall be guilty of any offence againſt this act; or if any other perſon ſhall refuſe to aſſiſt ſuch conſtable in apprehending ſuch offenders, ſuch conſtable or other perſon ſhall forfeit 5 l. to the clerk to the undertakers of any navigable river, for the like uſes as the tolls ſhall be directed to be applied to, to be levied by diſtreſs, by warrant of two juſtices to be directed to the high conſtable, to be by him levied as before directed. ſ. 13.

All forfeitures by this act ſhall be paid over to any perſon to whom the undertakers, or any five of them, ſhall direct; and in caſe ſuch conſtable or clerk ſhall refuſe to account for or pay over the ſame, two juſtices, upon oath of one witneſs, may commit the party refuſing to the common gaol until he ſhall pay the ſame. ſ. 14.

Any perſon aggrieved may appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions, giving reaſonable notice, which notice ſhall be determined by the quarter ſeſſions; and if it ſhall appear that reaſonable notice was not given, they ſhall adjourn the appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions; and the quarter ſeſſions ſhall hear the matter, and award coſts to either party. ſ. 15.

No certiorari ſhall be granted for removing any orders or proceedings of juſtices concerning the matters in this act. ſ. 16.

When complaint of abuſe, or exceſs of power in the commiſſioners hath been heard by the juſtices in the quarter ſeſſions, ſuch hearing ſhall be final. ſ. 17.

If any ſuit ſhall be brought for any thing done in purſuance of this act, the action ſhall be laid in ſuch county where the cauſe did ariſe, and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if judgment ſhall be againſt the plaintiff, the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 18.

Robbery.

Stat. Winton, 13 Edw. 1. ſt. 2. c. 4. In great towns walled, the gates ſhall be cloſed from ſun-ſetting until ſun-riſing, and no man ſhall lodge in the ſuburbs but in the day-time, nor in the day-time without his hoſt will anſwer for him; and the bailiffs of towns every week, or at leaſt every fifteenth day, ſhall make enquiry of all perſons lodged in the ſuburbs; and if they find any that receive men of whom there is ſuſpicion, the bailiffs ſhall do right therein. And watches ſhall be made from the feaſt of aſcenſion unto Michaelmas, in every city, by ſix men at every gate; in every borough, by twelve men; in every town, by ſix or four, according to the number of the inhabitants; and they ſhall watch all night from ſun-ſetting unto ſun-riſing: and if any ſtranger paſs by them, he ſhall be arreſted unto the morning; and then, if no ſuſpicion be found, he ſhall go quit; and if they find ſuſpicion, they ſhall deliver him to the ſheriff, and he ſhall keep him until he be delivered in due manner; and if they will not obey the arreſt, hue and cry ſhall be levied upon them, and the watchmen ſhall follow them with all the town, with hue and cry from town to town, until they be taken and delivered to the ſheriff.

By 5 Edw. 3. c. 14. Becauſe there hath been divers manſlaughters, felonies, and robberies, done by people called roberdeſmen, waſters, and drawlatches, if any man have ſuſpicion of ſuch, be it by day or by night, they ſhall be arreſted by the conſtables; and if they be arreſted within franchiſes, they ſhall be delivered to the bailiffs, and if in the guildable, they ſhall be delivered to the ſheriffs; and kept in priſon till the coming of the juſtices of gaol delivery; and in the mean time the ſheriffs and bailiffs ſhall cauſe enquiry to be made of ſuch perſons arreſted, and at the coming of the juſtices, they ſhall return their inqueſts before them, with the bodies, and the juſtices ſhall proceed to the deliverance of ſuch perſons; and in caſe the ſheriffs or bailiffs have not enquired of ſuch perſons arreſted, they ſhall be amerced, and nevertheleſs the juſtices ſhall proceed to the deliverance.

By 4 & 5 Will. & Mar. c. 8. Every perſon who ſhall take any thieves or robbers upon the highway, and proſecute them till they be convicted of any robbery committed in any highway, paſſage, field, or open place, ſhall have from the ſheriff, without fee, for every offender convicted, 40 l. within one month after conviction, and demand thereof made by tendering a certificate under the hand of the judge before whom ſuch felons ſhall be convicted; and in caſe any diſpute ſhall ariſe between the perſons apprehending the robbers, the judge ſhall in the certificate direct the reward to be paid amongſt the parties, in ſuch proportions as ſhall ſeem juſt. And if ſuch ſheriff ſhall die, or be removed, before the expiration of one month after ſuch conviction and demand made, the ſucceeding ſheriff ſhall pay the ſame. And if default of payment be made by any ſheriff, ſuch ſheriff ſhall forfeit to the perſons to whom ſuch money is due double the ſum he ought to have paid, with treble coſts. ſ. 2.

In caſe any perſon ſhall be killed by ſuch robbers, endeavouring to apprehend, or make purſuit after them, the executors or adminiſtrators, or ſuch perſons to whom the right right of adminiſtration of each perſon killed ſhall belong (upon certificate of the judge of aſſize, or the two next juſtices of peace, which certificate they, upon proof before them made, are required to give, without fee), ſhall receive the 40 l. from the ſheriff, and upon failure of payment, double the ſum to be recovered, with treble coſts. ſ. 3.

All ſheriffs, upon producing ſuch certificates, and the receipts for the money, ſhall be allowed upon their accounting all money (other than the double ſums) which they ſhall diſburſe as aforeſaid. ſ. 4.

If there ſhall not be monies ſufficient in the hands of ſuch ſheriff, he ſhall have the ſame repaid by the treaſury, upon certificate from the clerk of the pipe. ſ. 5.

Every perſon who ſhall apprehend, proſecute, or convict, ſuch robbers, ſhall have the horſe, furniture, and arms, money or other goods, of the robber, taken with him; their majeſties right, or the right of the lord of any manor, or of them lending or letting the ſame to hire to any ſuch robber, notwithſtanding. ſ. 6.

Provided, that this clauſe ſhall not take away the right of any perſon, to ſuch horſes, &c. from whom the ſame were feloniouſly taken. ſ. 7.

If any perſon, being out of priſon, ſhall commit any robbery, and afterwards diſcover two or more who ſhall commit any robbery, ſo as they be convicted, ſuch diſcoverer ſhall have the pardon of their majeſties for all robberies; which pardon ſhall be likewiſe a bar to any appeal for ſuch robbery. ſ. 8.

By 6 Geo. 1. c. 23. The ſtreets of London and Weſtminſter, and other cities, towns, and places, ſhall be deemed highways within the act 4 & 5 Will. & Mar. c. 8. And certificates upon convictions for robbery ſhall be ſigned and paid without fee, excepting 5 s. for writing; and that as well where the offenders plead guilty, as where they are convicted on evidence: and if any perſon, under pretence of ſigning any ſuch certificate, or of payment of the money, ſhall take any fee other than as aforeſaid, ſuch offender ſhall forfeit 40 l. to be recovered to the perſon entitled to the certificate. ſ. 8. See general titles FELONS, &c. and HUE AND CRY.

Rome.

By 25 Edw. 3. ſt. 6. The free elections of archbiſhops, biſhops, and all other dignities and benefices elective, ſhall ſtand as they were granted by the king's progenitors, and by the anceſtors of the founders: and all prelates and other people of holy church, which have advowſons of benefices of the king's gift, or of other donors, ſhall have their collations and preſentments freely in the manner as they were infeoffed: and in caſe any reſervation, collation, or proviſion, be made by the court of Rome, of any archbiſhopric, biſhopric, dignity, or other benefice, in diſturbance of the elections, collations, or preſentations aforenamed; the king ſhall have for the time the collations to the archbiſhoprics, and other dignities elective, which be of his advowry, as his progenitors had, before free election was granted. ſ. 1.

In caſe collation, reſervation, or proviſion, be made by the court of Rome, of any church, prebend, or other benefices, which be of the advowry of people of holy church, whereof the king is advowee paramount immediate at the time of the voidance, the king ſhall have the preſentment or collation for that time. And in the ſame manner every other lord ſhall have the collations or preſentments which be of his advowry. And if ſuch advowees do not preſent to ſuch benefices within the half year, nor the biſhop of the place do not give the ſame by lapſe of time within a month after, the king ſhall have the preſentments and collations. And in caſe the preſentees of the king, or of other patrons of holy church, or of their advowees, or they to whom the king or ſuch patrons have given benefices, be diſturbed by ſuch proviſors, or that they which be in poſſeſſion of ſuch benefices, be impeached by ſuch proviſors; the ſaid proviſors, their procurators, executors, and notaries, ſhall be attached by their body, and brought in to anſwer: and if they be convict, they ſhall abide in priſon till they have made fine and ranſom to the king at his will, and gree to the party grieved; and before they be delivered, they ſhall make renunciation, and find ſurety, that they ſhall not attempt ſuch things in times to come, nor ſue no proceſs by them, nor other, againſt any man in the court of Rome, nor elſewhere, for ſuch impriſonments. ſ. 4.

In caſe ſuch proviſors, &c. be not found, the exigend ſhall run againſt them; and writs ſhall go forth to take their bodies, as well at the king's ſuit as at the ſuit of the party. And in the mean time the king ſhall have the profits of ſuch benefices, except houſes which have colleges, and in ſuch houſes the colleges ſhall have the profits. Saving to the king, and other lords, their old right. ſ. 5.

By 27 Edw. 3. ſt. 1. c. 1. All the people of the king's ligeance which draw any out of the realm in plea, whereof the cognizance pertaineth to the king's court, or of things whereof judgments be given in the king's court, or which ſue in any other court, to defeat or impeach the judgments given in the king's court, ſhall have day, containing the ſpace of two months, by warning to be made them in the place where the poſſeſſions be, or where they have lands, by the ſheriffs, or other the king's miniſters, to be before the king and his council, or in his chancery, or before the king's juſtices of the one bench or the other, or before other the king's juſtices, to anſwer in their proper perſons to the king, of the contempt done: and if they come not at the day in their proper perſons, they, their procurators, attornies, executors, notaries, and maintainers, ſhall be put out of the king's protection, and their lands and goods forfeit to the king, and their bodies ſhall be impriſoned and ranſomed at the king's will; and a writ ſhall be made to take them by their bodies, and to ſeize their lands, goods, and poſſeſſions into the king's hands; and if it be returned, that they be not found, they ſhall be put in exigent and outlawed. ſ. 1.

Provided, that at what time they come before they be outlawed, and will yield them to the king's priſon, to be juſtified by the law, they ſhall be thereto received; the forfeiture of the lands and goods abiding in force, if they do not yield them within the two months. ſ. 2.

By 38 Edw. 3. ſt. 1. c. 4. Whereas people be bound in another court out of the realm, all ſuch penal bonds in the third perſon ſhall be void.

By 38 Edw. 3. ſt. 2. c. 1. The proviſions made by 25 and 27 Edw. 3. the king, &c. hath confirmed; ſaving the eſtate of the prelates and other lords, touching the liberty of their bodies, ſo that by force of this ſtatute their bodies be not taken: joining to the ſame, that all they which ſhall purchaſe or purſue perſonal citations againſt the king, or any of his ſubjects; and alſo they that ſhall obtain in the court of Rome, deanries, archdeaconries, provoſties, and other benefices of holy church, pertaining to the collation or diſpoſition of the king, or of other lay patron; and alſo all obtainers of churches, offices, or benefices of holy holy church, penſions, or rents appropriated to churches cathedral or collegial, hoſpitals, or other poor houſes, before ſuch appropriations and amortizements be avoided by due proceſs; and alſo all they which ſhall obtain benefices, whereby prejudice may be done to the king or to his ſubjects, or to the laws and liberties of his realm, and of his crown; and all their maintainers, counſellors, abettors, aiders, and fautors, wittingly, as well at the ſuit of the king as of the party, or other of the realm finding pledges to purſue all the ſaid perſons defamed and violently ſuſpected of ſuch purſuits, ſhall be arreſted by the ſheriffs and juſtices, and other the king's miniſters, and put in bail, and ſhall be preſented to the king and his council, to ſtand to right; and if they be convict of any of the ſaid things, they ſhall have the pain compriſed in the ſtatute 25 Edw. 3. ſt. 6.

By 38 Edw. 3. ſt. 2. c. 2. If any perſons defamed or ſuſpect of the ſaid proſecutions or grievances cannot be attached, and do not preſent them before the king or his council, within two months after they be warned in any of the king's courts, or in the counties, or before the king's juſtices in their ſeſſions, to anſwer to the king and to the party, to be at the law, they ſhall be puniſhed by the form compriſed in the ſtatute 27 Edw. 3. c. 1. and otherwiſe, as to the king and his council ſhall ſeem to be done; without any pardon by the king, without the aſſent of the party, and without making him ſatisfaction.

By 38 Edw. 3. ſt. 2. c. 3. None other ſubject keeping theſe ordinances, ſhall incur any forfeiture of life and member, nor of lands nor goods, becauſe of the ſaid things ordained; and if any perſon attempt againſt the ſaid ordinances, he ſhall be brought to anſwer as aforeſaid; and if he be convict, he ſhall be put out of the king's protection, and puniſhed after the form of the ſtatute 27 Edw. 3. ſt. 1. c. 1.

By 38 Edw. 3. ſt. 2. c. 4. If any perſon maliciouſly or falſely make purſuit againſt any of the realm, for cauſe compriſed in theſe ordinances, and thereof be attainted, ſuch plaintiff ſhall be puniſhed at the ordinance of the king and his council, and ſhall make amends to the party grieved.

And the king, the prelates, dukes, earls, barons, nobles and commons, clerks and lay, ſhall aid, comfort, and counſel, the one the other, as often as ſhall need, and impeach ſuch offenders, and reſiſt their enterpriſes, without ſuffering them to inhabit or paſs by their juriſdictions, and ſhall defend the one the other from all damage, as far forth as if ſuch proſecutions were made againſt them in common.

By 3 Ric. 2. c. 3. None ſhall take procuracy, letter of attorney, nor farm, nor other adminiſtration, of any benefice within the realm, but only of the king's people of the realm, without the licence of the king by the advice of his council. And none ſhall ſend by virtue of ſuch procuracy, farm, or adminiſtration, gold, ſilver, nor other treaſure nor commodity, out of the realm, to the profit of the aliens, without like licence of the king by advice of his council; and if any do the contrary, he ſhall incur the pain contained in the ſtatute of proviſors, 27 Edw. 3. c. 1. And if they be out of the realm, and not beneficed, nor having poſſeſſion within the realm where they may be warned, a writ ſhall be made in chancery, grounded upon this ordinance, to the ſheriff of London, or to the ſheriff of the county in which they were born, at the king's ſuit, returnable in the one bench or the other; by which writ it ſhall be commanded, that proclamation be made, that they be before the juſtices in the bench where the writ is returnable at a day compriſed in the writ, containing the ſpace of half a year, to anſwer upon the matters compriſed in the writ; and after this writ returned, the juſtices ſhall proceed. And no biſhop, nor other perſon of holy church, ſhall meddle with the fruits of ſuch benefices given to aliens, to the profit of the ſame aliens, upon the peril that belongeth.

By 7 Ric. 2. c. 12. If any alien purchaſe any benefices of holy church, or other thing, and in perſon take poſſeſſion of the ſame, or occupy it himſelf within the realm, without ſpecial licence of the king, he ſhall be compriſed within the ſtatute 3 Ric. 2. c. 3. and ſhall incur all forfeitures ordained by another ſtatute 25 Edw. 3. ſt. 6. And the king commandeth that all ſhall abſtain to pray him for any ſuch licence.

By 12 Ric. 2. c. 15. No liege man of the king ſhall paſs over the ſea, nor ſend out of the realm, without ſpecial leave of the king himſelf, to provide for himſelf a benefice of holy church in the realm; and if any do, and by virtue of ſuch proviſion accept any benefice of the realm, the ſame proviſor ſhall be out of the king's protection, and the benefice void.

By 13 Ric. 2. ſt. 2. c. 2. Concerning archbiſhoprics, biſhoprics, and other dignities and benefices elective, and all other benefices of holy church, which ſhall be void within England, the ſtatute 25 Edw. 3. ſt. 6. ſhall be put in due execution; and if any make acceptation of any benefice contrary to this ſtatute, and be beyond the ſea, he ſhall abide baniſhed out of the realm for ever, his lands and goods forfeit to the king; and if he be within the realm, he ſhall be alſo baniſhed, and ſhall incur the ſame forfeiture, and take his journey ſo that he be out of the realm within ſix weeks after ſuch acceptation; and if any receive any ſuch perſon baniſhed after the ſix weeks, knowing thereof, he ſhall be baniſhed, and incur ſuch forfeiture, as aforeſaid. And their procurators, notaries, executors, and ſummoners, ſhall ſuffer the pain aforeſaid. ſ. 1.

If the king ſend to the court of Rome at the interceſſion of any perſon, or if any other ſend, to pray to the ſame court, whereby any thing be done contrary to this ſtatute, touching any biſhopric, dignity, or benefice, of holy church within the realm; if he that maketh ſuch excitation or prayer be a prelate, he ſhall pay to the king the value of his temporalties of one year; and if he be a temporal lord, he ſhall pay the king the value of his lands of one year; and if he be of more mean eſtate, he ſhall pay the king the value of the benefice for which ſuit is made, and be impriſoned one year. ſ. 2.

By 13 Ric. 2. ſt. 2. c. 3. If any man bring or ſend within the realm, or the king's power, any ſummons, ſentence, or excommunication, againſt any perſon, for the cauſe of making motion or execution of the ſtatute of proviſors, [25 Edw. 3.] he ſhall be put in priſon and forfeit all his lands and goods, and moreover incur the pain of life and member. And if any prelate make execution of ſuch ſummons, ſentences, or excommunications, his temporalties ſhall be taken and remain in the king's hands till due redreſs be made: and if any perſon of leſs eſtate make ſuch execution, he ſhall have impriſonment, and make fine and ranſom by the diſcretion of the king's counſel.

By 16 Ric. 2. c. 5. If any purchaſe or purſue in the court of Rome, or elſewhere, any tranſlations, proceſſes, and ſentences of excommunications, bulls, inſtruments, or other things which touch the king, againſt him, his crown, or his realm, and they which bring within the realm, or them receive, or make thereof notification, or any other execution within the realm or without, their notaries, procurators, maintainors, abettors, fautors, and counſellors, counſellors, ſhall be put out of the king's protection, and their lands and goods forfeit to the king, and they ſhall be attached by their bodies, and brought before the king and his council to anſwer to the caſes aforeſaid, or proceſs ſhall be made againſt them by præmunire facias, as it is ordained in other ſtatutes of proviſors. ſ. 2.

By 2 Hen. 4. c. 3. If any proviſion be made by the pope to any perſon, to be exempt of obedience ordinary, if ſuch proviſors accept any ſuch proviſion, they ſhall incur the pains in the ſtatute of proviſors, 13 Ric. 2.

By 2 Hen. 4. c. 4. The religious of the order of Ciſteaux, having purchaſed bulls to be diſcharged to pay tithes of their lands let to farm; as well they of the ſaid order of Ciſteaux, as all other which put the ſaid bulls in execution, or do purchaſe other ſuch bulls, or by colour of the ſame take advantage; proceſs ſhall be made againſt them by garniſhment of two months by writ of præmunire facias; and if they make default or be attainted, they ſhall incur the pains in the ſtatute of proviſors, 13 Ric. 2.

By 7 Hen. 4. c. 8. No licence or pardon of proviſion ſhall be available to any benefice full of any incumbent at the day of the date of ſuch licence or pardon.

By 3 Hen. 5. c. 4. If any feel himſelf grieved by colour of ſuch proviſions, licences, or pardons, the moleſtors ſhall incur the penalties in the ſtatutes of proviſors, by proceſs of præmunire facias; and the party which ſhall ſue by the ſame writ, ſhall recover his treble damages.

By 24 Hen. 8. c. 12. All cauſes teſtamentary, cauſes of matrimony and divorce, rights of tythes, oblations and obventions, ſhall be heard, adjudged, and determined, within the king's juriſdiction: alſo all ſpiritual prelates, paſtors, miniſters, and curates, within this realm, ſhall miniſter all ſacraments, divine ſervices, and other things, within the realm, to all the ſubjects of the ſame; any former citations, inhibitions, ſuſpenſions, interdictions, excommunications, or appeals, for any of the cauſes aforeſaid, from or to the ſee of Rome notwithſtanding. ſ. 2.

If any ſpiritual perſons, by occaſion of the ſaid fulminations, refuſe to miniſter the ſacraments, and other divine ſervices, they ſhall have one year's impriſonment, and make fine and ranſom at the king's pleaſure. ſ. 3.

If any perſons in any the cauſes aforeſaid attempt or procure any foreign proceſs, inhibitions, appeals, ſentences, ſuſpenſions, interdictions, excommunications, or judgments, or execute any of the ſame, or do any act to the derogation of any proceſs, ſentence, judgment, or determination, had in any courts of the king's dominions for the cauſes aforeſaid, every ſuch perſon, and their fautors, comforters, abettors, procurers, executors, and counſellors, being convict, ſhall incur the penalties of the ſtatute of proviſion and præmunire, 16 Ric. 2. c. 5. ſ. 4.

In caſes where the king's ſubjects have uſed to purſue any appeal to the ſee of Rome, and in all other caſes of appeals for any of the cauſes aforeſaid, they may have their appeals within this realm, viz. from the archdeacon or his official to the biſhop dioceſan. ſ. 5.

If it be commenced before the biſhop dioceſan or his commiſſary, within 15 days next enſuing the ſentence, to the archbiſhop of the province. ſ. 6.

If the matter be commenced before the archdeacon of any archbiſhop or his commiſſary, the party grieved may take his appeal within 15 days after ſentence, to the court of the arches or audience of the archbiſhop; and from the ſaid court within 15 days after ſentence, to the archbiſhop of the province, to be finally determined without any farther appeal. ſ. 7.

Every cauſe that ſhall be commenced for any of the cauſes aforeſaid before any of the archbiſhops, ſhall be before the ſame archbiſhop definitively determined without any other appeal or foreign proceſs out of this realm, otherwiſe than is by this act appointed; ſaving the prerogative of the archbiſhop and church of Canterbury, in all the ſaid cauſes of appeals, in ſuch wiſe as they have been accuſtomed. ſ. 8.

In caſe any cauſe ſhall come in contention for any of the ſame cauſes in the aforeſaid courts which may touch the king, the party grieved may appeal from any of the ſaid courts, to the ſpiritual prelates of the upper houſe in the convocation next enſuing within the province, ſo that ſuch appeal be taken within 15 days after ſentence given. ſ. 9.

If any perſon ſhall purſue any appeal contrary to this act, or refuſe to obſerve the ſame concerning appeals and foreign proceſſes for the cauſes aforeſaid, ſuch perſons, their procurers, fautors, advocates, counſellors, and abettors, ſhall incur the penalties in the ſtatute 16 Ric. 2. c. 5. ſ. 10. Revived by 1 Eliz. c. 1.

By 25 Hen. 8. c. 19. revived by 1 Eliz. c. 1. No appeals ſhall be made out of the king's dominions to the biſhop or ſee of Rome, in any cauſes beginning in any courts within the king's dominions; but all appeals, what cauſe ſoever they concern, ſhall be made as is limited for appeals in cauſes of matrimony, tythes, &c. by 24 Hen. 8. c. 12. ſ. 3.

For lack of juſtice in the court of the archbiſhops, it ſhall be lawful to appeal to the king's court of chancery; and upon ſuch appeal a commiſſion ſhall be directed to perſons named by the king, like as in caſe of appeal from the admiral court, to hear and determine ſuch appeals; and ſuch ſentence as the commiſſioners ſhall decree ſhall be definitive; and no further appeals to be had. ſ. 4.

If any perſon ſue any appeals to the biſhop or ſee of Rome, or procure or execute any proceſs from the ſee of Rome to the derogation of this act, ſuch perſons, their aiders, counſellors, or abettors, ſhall incur the penalties in the act of proviſion and præmunire, 16 Ric. 2. c. 5.

Appeals to be made from the juriſdictions of any heads of houſes and places exempt, in ſuch caſes as they might afore this act have immediately any appeal to the ſee of Rome, ſuch perſons may take their appeals immediately to the king into the court of chancery, which appeals ſhall be definitively determined by authority of the king's commiſſion as above mentioned. ſ. 6. See Ecclesiastical Persons, &c.

By 25 Hen. 8. c. 21. No perſon of this realm ſhall pay any penſion, portion, Peter-pence, or other impoſitions, to the uſe of the biſhop of Rome, but all ſuch penſions and Peter-pence ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 2.

Neither the king nor any ſubjects of this realm ſhall ſue to the pope, or ſee of Rome, for licences, diſpenſations, compoſitions, faculties, grants, reſcripts, delegacies, or any other inſtruments, but every ſuch licence, &c. ſhall be obtained within this realm in manner following, viz. the archbiſhop of Canterbury ſhall have power to grant unto his majeſty all manner ſuch licences, &c. for cauſes not contrary to the holy ſcriptures and laws of God, as hath been uſed to be had at the ſee of Rome. ſ. 3.

The archbiſhop ſhall have power to grant to any ſubjects licences, &c. for any cauſe whereof ſuch licences, &c. have been accuſtomed to be had at the ſee of Rome, or of any prelate of this realm. ſ. 4.

The archbiſhop ſhall not grant any other licence, &c. in cauſes not accuſtomed to be had at the court of Rome, nor by any prelate of this realm, until the king or the council be advertiſed thereof, and determine whether ſuch licences, &c. ſhall commonly paſs as other diſpenſations, &c. upon the pain that the grantors of every ſuch licence, &c. ſhall make fine at the will of the king. And if it be determined termined by the king or the council, that diſpenſations, &c. in any ſuch cauſe unwont ſhall paſs, the archbiſhop, having licence of the king by bill ſigned, ſhall diſpenſe with them accordingly. ſ. 5.

Provided, that no diſpenſations, &c. to be granted by authority of this act by the archbiſhop or his commiſſary, being of ſuch importance, that the tax for the expedition thereof at Rome extended to 4 l. ſhall be put in execution till the ſame be firſt confirmed by the king under the great ſeal, and inrolled in chancery: and this act ſhall be ſufficient warranty to the chancellor to confirm the aforeſaid writings paſſed under the archbiſhop's ſeal by letters patent. And all ſuch licences, &c. for the expedition of which the taxes to be paid at Rome was under 4 l. which be matters of no great importance, ſhall paſs only by the archdeacon's ſeal, unleſs the procurers of ſuch licence, &c. deſire to have them confirmed; in which caſe they ſhall pay for the great ſeal, to the uſe of the king, 5 s. beſides ſuch tax as ſhall be limited for the making, writing, regiſtering, confirming, and inrolling, of ſuch licence, &c. ſ. 6.

Every ſuch licence, &c. for ſuch cauſes as the tax was wont to be 4 l. or above, ſo granted by the archbiſhop, and confirmed under the great ſeal, and all other licences, &c. to be granted by the archbiſhop by virtue of this act, whereunto the great ſeal is not of neceſſity to be put, ſhall be effectual without revocation. ſ. 7.

Children procreated after ſolemnization of marriages by virtue of ſuch licences or diſpenſations, ſhall be legitimate, and all acts done according to ſuch licences, &c. ſhall be in force. ſ. 8.

The archbiſhop ſhall have power to make a clerk, which ſhall write and regiſter every ſuch licence, &c. and ſhall find parchment, wax, and laces, for the ſame; and the king ſhall by letters patent depute one clerk learned in the chancery, which ſhall be attendant upon the lord chancellor, and ſhall make and inrol the confirmations of ſuch licences, &c. and ſhall alſo inrol ſuch other writings as ſhall be brought under the archbiſhop's ſeal; and as well the clerk appointed by the archbiſhops, as the clerk appointed by the king, ſhall ſubſcribe their name to every ſuch licence, &c. that ſhall come to their hands. ſ. 9.

There ſhall be two books made of one tenor, in which ſhall be contained the taxes of all cuſtomable diſpenſations, &c. wont to be ſped at Rome, and both ſides of every leaf ſhall be ſubſcribed by the archbiſhop of Canterbury, the lord chancellor, the lord treaſurer, and the two chief juſtices, to which books all ſuitors for diſpenſations, &c. ſhall have recourſe; and one of the books ſhall remain in the hands of the regiſter and ſcribe of the ſaid faculties, &c. under the archbiſhop of Canterbury; and the other book ſhall remain with the clerk of the chancery, which by the king ſhall be appointed as before rehearſed; which clerk of the chancery ſhall alſo note in his book the number and quality of the diſpenſations, &c. which ſhall be ſealed only with the ſeal of the archbiſhop, and alſo which ſhall be ſealed with the ſaid ſeal, and confirmed with the great ſeal. ſ. 11.

No man ſuing for diſpenſations, &c. which were wont to be ſped at Rome, ſhall pay any more than ſhall be taxed in the ſaid books; compoſitions excepted, the tax whereof ſhall be ſet by the archbiſhop and the lord chancellor. And ſuch as ſhall receive of any ſuitor more for any diſpenſation, &c. than ſhall be contained in the books, ſhall forfeit ten times ſo much; the one half to the king, and the other half to ſuch ſubjects as will ſue for the ſame. ſ. 12.

The tax appointed to be paid for every ſuch diſpenſation, &c. ſhall be employed as enſueth, viz. if the tax extend to 4 l. the ſaid tax ſhall be divided into three parts, whereof two ſhall be received by the clerk of the chancery, to the uſe of the king, and the lord chancellor, and of the clerk; and the third part ſhall be taken by the clerk of the archbiſhop, to the uſe of the archbiſhop and his commiſſary, and his ſaid clerk and regiſter; and the ſaid two parts ſhall be divided in four parts, of which three parts ſhall be taken to the only uſe of the king, and the fourth part ſhall be divided in three parts, whereof the chancellor ſhall have two parts, and the clerk of the chancery the third part; and the third part appointed to the archbiſhop and his officers ſhall be divided into three parts, whereof the archbiſhop ſhall have two parts, and his officers ſhall have the third part, of which third part the clerk which ſhall find parchment, wax, and ſilk, and ſhall write the ſaid diſpenſations, &c. ſhall have the one moiety, and the commiſſary of the archbiſhop appointed to ſeal the ſaid diſpenſations, &c. ſhall have the other part. ſ. 13.

If the tax be under 4 l. and not under 40 s. the ſaid tax ſhall be divided into three parts, whereof the king ſhall have two parts, abating 3 s. 4 d. which ſhall be to the ſaid clerk of the chancery for inrolling; and the archbiſhop and his officers ſhall have the third part, which third ſhall be divided into two parts, whereof the archbiſhop ſhall have the one, his ſcribe and commiſſary the other. And if the tax be under 40 s. and not under 26 s. 8 d. the ſame ſhall be divided into two parts, whereof the one ſhall be to the king, deducting thereof 2 s. for the clerk of the chancery aforeſaid; and the other part ſhall be to the archbiſhop and his officers, which ſhall be divided into two parts, whereof the archbiſhop ſhall have the one, and his commiſſary and ſcribe the other. And if the tax be under 26 s. 8 d. and not under 20 s. the ſame ſhall be divided into two parts, whereof the king ſhall have the one part, abating 2 s. thereof to the ſaid clerk of the chancery; and the archbiſhop and his officers ſhall have the other part, and the ſame ſhall be divided into three parts, whereof the archbiſhop ſhall have one, his commiſſary the ſecond, and his ſcribe or regiſter the third; and in caſe the tax be under 20 s. the ſame ſhall be received to the uſe of the commiſſary, clerk of the ſaid archbiſhop, and clerk of the chancery, to be equally divided amongſt them. ſ. 14.

This act ſhall not be prejudicial to the archbiſhop of York, or to any biſhop of this realm, but that they may diſpenſe in all caſes in which they were wont to diſpenſe by the common law. ſ. 15.

If the ſee of the archbiſhop of Canterbury be void, ſuch licences, &c. ſhall be granted under the ſeal of the guardian of the ſpiritualties. ſ. 16.

If the archbiſhop of Canterbury, or the guardian of the ſpiritualties, refuſe to grant any licences, &c. which they be authoriſed to do by this act, the chancellor ſhall direct the king's writ to the archbiſhop, &c. enjoining him that he ſhall in due form grant ſuch licence, &c. or elſe ſignify in the chancery for what cauſe he refuſed to grant ſuch licences, &c.; and if it ſhall appear to the chancellor upon ſuch certificate, that the cauſe of refuſal was juſt, then to be allowed; and if it ſhall appear that the archbiſhop, &c. without a juſt cauſe, refuſe to grant ſuch licence, &c. the king ſhall have power to ſend an injunction under the great ſeal, out of chancery, commanding the archbiſhop or guardian, to make grant thereof by a certain day, and under a certain pain; and if the archbiſhop or guardian, after receipt of the writ, refuſe to grant ſuch licences, &c. and ſhew before his majeſty no juſt cauſe why they ſhould ſo do, the ſaid archbiſhop or guardian ſhall forfeit to the king ſuch pain as ſhall be limited in the injunction; and it ſhall be lawful to his highneſs to give power, by commiſſion under his great ſeal, to two ſpiritual perſons to grant ſuch licences, &c. ſ. 17.

The

The two ſpiritual perſons to whom ſuch commiſſion ſhall be directed, ſhall have power to grant ſuch licence, &c. ſo refuſed to be granted by the archbiſhop or guardian, taking like fees as before rehearſed. ſ. 18.

Provided that the archbiſhop of Canterbury ſhall have no power by this act to viſit any colleges, hoſpitals, or other places religious, which be exempt; but that redreſs, viſitation, and confirmation, ſhall be had by the king by commiſſion under the great ſeal; ſo that no viſitation be had by the biſhop of Rome, nor that any perſon reſiant in the king's dominions, depart out of the king's dominions, to any viſitation or aſſembly for religion. ſ. 20.

Provided that this act, or any diſpenſation by virtue thereof, ſhall not extend to the repeal of the late act 21 Hen. 8. c. 13. for reformation of pluralities and non-reſidence; nor ſhall give licence to any perſon to have more benefices than is limited in the ſaid act. ſ. 21. See Ecclesiastical Persons.

If any perſon within the king's dominions ſue to the court of Rome for any licenſe, &c. or put in execution any licence, &c. obtained from Rome, or from any claiming authority by the ſame for any cauſes that may be granted by authority of this act, or attempt any thing contrary to this act; or maintain, admit, or obey any cenſures or other proceſs from Rome, to the derogation of this act; ſuch perſons being convict, their aiders, counſellors, and abettors, ſhall incur the penalty in the act of proviſion and præmunire, 16 Ric. 2. c. 5. ſ. 22.

Provided that this act ſhall not be expounded to the derogation of any grants of any houſes or places exempt, which before this act have been obtained at Rome, or by authority thereof; provided that the chief rulers and governors of ſuch houſes and places exempt, ſhall not pay any penſion or other cenſe to the ſee of Rome, nor admit any viſitation, nor any confirmation from the ſee of Rome, or by authority thereof, or for any perſon to be elect, named, or preſented, to be heads of ſuch houſes exempt, nor ſhall make any oath to the biſhop of Rome, upon the pain limited in this act; but every ſuch viſitation and confirmation of ſuch heads elect, ſhall be made within this realm within ſuch houſes exempt by ſuch perſons as ſhall be appointed by the king's commiſſion. ſ. 23.

Provided that in ſuch houſes exempt, where no ſuch confirmation hath been uſed, they ſhall not be bound to take any confirmation, but uſe their privileges therein as before. ſ. 24.

The king, by advice of his council, ſhall have power for the ordering and reformation of all indulgences and privileges thereof within this realm, heretofore obtained at the ſee of Rome, and of the abuſes of ſuch indulgences and privileges; and ſuch order as ſhall be taken by his highneſs in that behalf ſhall be obſerved, upon the pains limited in this act. ſ. 27. Revived by 1 Eliz. c. 1.

By 28 Hen. 8. c. 16. Revived by 1 Eliz. c. 1. All bulls, breves, faculties, and diſpenſations, heretofore obtained of the biſhop of Rome, or by authority of the ſee of Rome, by any ſubjects of the king's dominions, ſhall be void, and ſhall never be uſed, allowed, pleaded, or alledged, in the king's dominions, upon the pain contained in the ſtatute of proviſion or præmunire, 16 Ric. 2. c. 5. ſ. 2.

All the king's ſubjects bringing to ſuch of his council, or of the maſters of chancery, as the king ſhall appoint, any bulls, breves, or any other faculties, if it ſhall appear that the effects contained in ſuch bulls, &c. may be granted by the archbiſhop of Canterbury, the king's ſaid ſubjects ſhall have of the chancellor, under the great ſeal, all ſuch effects by authority of the laws of this realm, paying for the ſealing of ſuch writing, 20 s. 4 d., and for the writing thereof, 3 s. 4 d. and for the examination of ſuch bulls, &c. 3 s. 4 d. ſ. 6.

By 1 & 2 Phil. & Mar. c. 8. All laws made contrary to the ſupremacy and ſee apoſtolic ſince the 20th year of king Hen. 8. are repealed. ſ. 2. This act is repealed by 1 Eliz. c. 1. but all laws repealed by this act, and not revived by 1 Eliz. c. 1. are to ſtand repealed by 1 Eliz. c. 1. ſ. 13.

By 5 Eliz. c. 1. If any perſon dwelling within the queen's dominions ſhall by writing, ciphering, printing, preaching, teaching, or act, adviſedly and willingly hold, maintain, or defend, the power of the biſhop of Rome, heretofore uſed within this realm; ſuch perſons, their abettors, procurers, and counſellors, and alſo their aiders and comforters, upon purpoſe to further the ſaid uſurped power, being thereof indicted or preſented within one year after any ſuch offences committed, and being convicted, ſhall incur the penalties provided by the ſtatute of proviſion and præmunire, 16 Ric. 2. c. 5.—ſ. 2.

As well juſtices of aſſize, as juſtices of peace, or two of them, whereof one to be of the quorum, ſhall have power in their ſeſſions to enquire of all offences contrary to the premiſes, in like manner as they may of other offences againſt the queen's peace, and ſhall certify every preſentment afore them made concerning the ſame, before the queen in the king's bench, within 40 days after any ſuch preſentment made, if the term be then; and if not, at the firſt day of full term next following the ſaid 40 days; upon pain that every of the juſtices of aſſizes, or juſtices of peace, making default of ſuch certificate to forfeit 10 l. to the queen. ſ. 3.

The juſtices of the king's bench, as well upon every ſuch certificate as by enquiry before themſelves, ſhall have power to hear and determine every ſuch offence, in ſuch manner as if the perſons againſt whom any preſentment ſhall be had upon this ſtatute had been preſented upon any offence in 16 Ric. 2. c. 5. ſ. 4.

As well all perſons appointed by the act 1 Eliz. c. 1. (ſee King,) to take the oath expreſſed in the ſame, as all other perſons which ſhall take eccleſiaſtical orders, or ſhall be promoted to any degree of learning in any univerſity, and all ſchoolmaſters and teachers of children, as alſo all perſons that ſhall take any degree of learning in the common laws, as well utter barriſters as benchers, readers, ancients in any houſe of court, and all principal treaſurers, and ſuch as be of the grand company in every inn of chancery, and all attornies, prothonotaries, and philizers, and all ſheriffs, eſcheators and feodaries, and all other perſons which ſhall take upon them any office in the common law or any other law; and all other officers of any court, ſhall take an oath (viz. the oath of ſupremacy altered by 1 Will. & Mar. c. 8.) before they be admitted to take upon them any ſuch office, degree, &c. and that in the court whereunto they ſhall belong; and if they do not belong to any court, they ſhall take the oath before a convenient aſſembly, and before ſuch perſons as ſhall have authority to admit ſuch perſons to ſuch office, &c. or elſe before ſuch perſons as by the queen, by commiſſion under the great ſeal, ſhall be aſſigned according to the oath ſet forth in the act 1 Eliz. c. 1.—ſ. 5.

Every archbiſhop and biſhop ſhall have power to miniſter the oath to every eccleſiaſtical perſon, as well in places exempt as elſewhere. ſ. 6.

The lord chancellor may direct commiſſions to any perſons, giving them authority to miniſter the oath to ſuch perſons as by the commiſſions they ſhall be authoriſed to tender the oath unto. ſ. 7.

If any perſons compellable to take the ſaid oath, or to whom the oath by any ſuch commiſſion ſhall be appointed to be tendered, ſhall at the time of the oath tendered refuſe to take the ſaid oath, the party ſo refuſing, and being lawfully indicted or preſented within one year, and convicted, ſhall ſuffer the penalties provided by the ſtatute of proviſion and præmunire, 16 Ric. 2. c. 5.—ſ. 8.

All perſons having authority to tender the oath, ſhall within 40 days after ſuch refuſal, if the term be open, and if not, then at the firſt day of the full term next following the ſaid 40 days, make certificate of the names, places and degrees, of the perſons refuſing the ſame, before the queen in the king's bench, upon pain to forfeit 100*l.* to the queen; and the ſheriff of the county where the king's bench ſhall be holden, ſhall impannel a jury to inquire of ſuch refuſals, which jury may, upon every ſuch certificate, and other evidence, proceed to indict the perſons ſo offending, in ſuch ſort as the ſame jury may do of any offence againſt the queen's peace committed within the county. ſ. 9.

If any ſuch offenders of the firſt part of this ſtatute, viz. by writing, &c. to defend the power of the biſhop of Rome, after ſuch conviction as aforeſaid, do eftſoons commit the ſaid offences, and be thereof convicted, and alſo if any the perſons appointed by this act to take the oath, do three months after the firſt tender thereof, the ſecond time refuſe to take the ſame, ſuch offenders for the ſecond offences ſhall ſuffer as in caſes of high treaſon. ſ. 10 & 11.

Provided that any attainder to be had by force of this act ſhall not make any corruption of blood, diſheriting of any heir, forfeiture of dower, nor prejudice of the right of any perſon, other than the right of the offenders during their natural lives. ſ. 12.

It ſhall be lawful to every perſon to whom the right of any lands after the death of any ſuch offender ſhould have appertained if no ſuch attainder had been, to enter into the ſame without ouſter le main, as they might have done if this act had never been. ſ. 13.

This act ſhall be read at every quarter ſeſſions by the clerk of the peace, and at every leet, by the ſteward, and once every term in the hall of every houſe of court and chancery, by perſons to be appointed by the lord chancellor. ſ. 15.

Every perſon who ſhall be elected a knight, citizen, or burgeſs, or baron of the five ports, for any parliament, ſhall, before he enter into the parliament houſe, or have any voice there, pronounce the ſaid oath before the lord ſteward or his deputy; and he which ſhall enter into the parliament houſe, without taking the oath, ſhall be no knight, citizen, burgeſs, nor baron, for that parliament, and ſhall ſuffer ſuch penalties as if he had preſumed to ſit without election. ſ. 16.

Provided that this act ſhall not extend to compel any temporal perſon of the degree of a baron to take the oath. ſ. 17.

Charitable giving of alms to any of the offenders above ſpecified, without fraud, ſhall not be any ſuch abetment, aiding, or comforting, as thereby the giver of ſuch alms ſhall incur any penalty. ſ. 18.

If any peer ſhall offend contrary to this act, they ſhall be tried by their peers. ſ. 19.

No perſon ſhall be compelled by this act to take the oath, upon the ſecond time of offering, except the ſame perſon be an eccleſiaſtical perſon that have cure or office in the church, or ſuch perſon as ſhall have office in any eccleſiaſtical court, under any archbiſhop or biſhop, or ſuch perſon as ſhall wilfully refuſe to obſerve the orders for divine ſervice in the church of England, after they be publicly by the ordinary admoniſhed: or ſuch as ſhall openly and adviſedly deprave by words, writings, or open fact, any of the rites and ceremonies uſed in the church of England; or that ſhall ſay or hear private maſs prohibited by law. ſ. 20.

It ſhall not be lawful to kill any perſon attainted upon any præmunire, by pretence of any judgment given upon the ſame, or by force of any words in any ſtatute of proviſion and præmunire. ſ. 21.

Saving the due execution of every perſon attainted for any offence, whereupon judgment of death may lawfully be given; and ſaving ſuch pains of death, or other hurt or baniſhment, as heretofore might without danger of law be done upon perſons that ſend or bring into the queen's dominions, or within the ſame ſhall execute, any ſummons, ſentence or excommunication, or other proceſs, from the biſhop of Rome. ſ. 22.

No perſon ſhall be indicted for aſſiſting, maintaining, comforting, or abetting, of any perſon for the ſaid offences in defending of the biſhop of Rome, unleſs he be thereof lawfully accuſed by ſuch teſtimony as by the jury by whom he ſhall be indicted ſhall be thought ſufficient to prove him guilty. ſ. 23.

By 13 Eliz. c. 2. If any perſon ſhall uſe within the queen's dominions any bull or inſtrument of abſolution from the biſhop of Rome, or from any perſon claiming authority from the ſaid biſhop; or if any perſon ſhall take upon him by colour of any ſuch bull, &c. to abſolve or reconcile any perſon, or grant or promiſe to any perſon within the queen's dominions any ſuch abſolution or reconciliation, by any ſpeech, preaching, teaching, writing, or other open deed; or if any perſon within the queen's dominions ſhall willingly receive any ſuch abſolution or reconciliation; or elſe if any perſon ſhall obtain from the ſee of Rome any bull or inſtrument, or ſhall publiſh or put in ure any ſuch bull, &c. every ſuch act ſhall be high treaſon. ſ. 2 & 3.

All aiders, comforters, or maintainers, of any the ſaid offenders, after the committing any of the ſaid acts, to the intent to uphold or allow the execution of the ſaid uſurped power, ſhall incur the penalties in the ſtatute of præmunire, 16 Ric. 2. c. 5.—ſ. 4.

If any perſon to whom any ſuch abſolution, reconciliation, bull, writing, or inſtrument, ſhall be offered, ſhall conceal the ſame, and not diſcloſe the ſame within ſix weeks to ſome of the privy council, he ſhall incur the penalty of miſpriſion of high treaſon. ſ. 5.

No perſon ſhall be troubled for miſpriſion of treaſon for any offence made treaſon by this act, other than ſuch as by this act are before declared to be in caſe of miſpriſion of high treaſon. ſ. 6.

If any perſon ſhall bring into this realm, any token or thing called an agnus dei, or any croſſes, pictures, beads, or ſuch like vain and ſuperſtitious things from the biſhop of Rome, or from any perſon claiming authority from the ſaid biſhop to conſecrate the ſame, and ſhall deliver or offer the ſame to any ſubject of this realm to be worn or uſed, as well the perſon ſo doing, as all other perſons which ſhall receive the ſame, to the intent to uſe and wear the ſame, being thereof convicted, ſhall incur the penalties provided by the ſtatute of præmunire and proviſion, 16 Ric. 2. c. 5. ſ. 7.

If any perſon to whom ſuch agnus dei or other things ſhall be offered, ſhall apprehend the party offering the ſame, and bring him to the next juſtice of peace, if he ſhall be of power ſo to do, or for lack of ſuch ability ſhall, within three days after ſuch offer made, diſcloſe the name of ſuch perſon as ſhall make the offer, and the dwelling place, or places of reſort of the ſame perſon (which he ſhall endeavour to know by all the means he can), to the ordinary of that dioceſe, or to any juſtice of peace where ſuch perſon to whom ſuch offer ſhall be made ſhall be reſiant; and alſo if ſuch perſon ſhall receive any ſuch agnus dei, or other thing, and ſhall within one day after ſuch receipt deliver the ſame to any juſtice of peace, ſuch perſon ſhall not incur any penalty. ſ. 8.

If any juſtice of peace to whom any matter before mentioned ſhall be ſhewed, do not within 14 days declare the ſame to ſome of the privy council, the juſtice ſhall incur the pain provided by the ſaid ſtatute 16 Ric. 2. c. 5. ſ. 10.

If any peer ſhall be indicted for any the offences aforeſaid, ſuch peer ſhall have his trial by his peers, as in caſes of high treaſon and miſpriſion of treaſon. ſ. 11.

Saving to all perſons (other than the offenders and their heirs, and ſuch as claim to their uſes) all rights, &c. ſ. 12.

By 23 Eliz. c. 1. Every offence againſt this ſtatute is inquirable as well before juſtices of peace as other juſtices, within one year and a day after the offence committed.

By 27 Eliz. c. 2. It ſhall not be lawful for any Jeſuit, ſeminary prieſt, or other prieſt, deacon, or religious, or eccleſiaſtical perſon, being born within her highneſs's dominions, and ordained or profeſſed by any authority from the ſee of Rome, to come into or remain in her highneſs's dominions, other than in caſes expreſſed in this act; and if he do, ſuch offence ſhall be high treaſon. ſ. 3.

Every perſon who ſhall wittingly and willingly receive, comfort, aid, or maintain, any ſuch Jeſuit, &c. being at liberty, ſhall be adjudged a felon without benefit of clergy. ſ. 4.

If any of her majeſty's ſubjects (not being a Jeſuit or eccleſiaſtical perſon), which ſhall be of any college of Jeſuits or ſeminary beyond the ſeas, ſhall not within ſix months after proclamation made in London, under the great ſeal, return into this realm, and within two days after ſuch return, before the biſhop of the dioceſe, or two juſtices of peace of the county where he ſhall arrive, ſubmit himſelf to her majeſty, and take the oath of ſupremacy, every ſuch perſon which ſhall otherwiſe return ſhall ſuffer as in caſe of high treaſon. ſ. 5.

If any perſon under her majeſty's obedience ſhall wittingly and willingly convey out of her majeſty's dominions, or wittingly or willingly give or contribute any money or other relief for any Jeſuit, ſeminary prieſt, or ſuch other eccleſiaſtical perſon as aforeſaid, or for the maintenance or relief of any college of Jeſuits or ſeminary beyond the ſeas, or of any perſon in the ſame, every perſon ſo offending ſhall incur the penalty of præmunire in the ſtatute 16 Ric. 2. c. 5. ſ. 6.

Every offence againſt this act may be inquired of, heard, and determined, as well in the king's bench in the county where the court ſhall be, as in any other county, or any other her highneſs's dominions where the offence ſhall be committed, or the offender taken. ſ. 8.

This act ſhall not extend to any ſuch Jeſuit, ſeminary prieſt, or other eccleſiaſtical perſon, as ſhall within three days after he ſhall come into this realm, ſubmit himſelf to ſome biſhop, or to ſome juſtice of peace within the county where he ſhall arrive, and take the oath of ſupremacy, and under his hand acknowledge and continue his due obedience to her highneſs's laws in cauſes of religion. ſ. 10.

If any peer be indicted of any offence made treaſon, felony, or præmunire, by this act he ſhall have his trial by his peers. ſ. 11.

Every ſubject of this realm, which ſhall know that any ſuch Jeſuit or other prieſt aboveſaid ſhall be within this realm contrary to this act, and ſhall not diſcover the ſame to ſome juſtice of peace, or other higher officer, within 12 days, but willingly conceal his knowledge therein, ſuch offender ſhall make fine, and be impriſoned at the queen's pleaſure. And if ſuch juſtice of peace, or other officer, to whom ſuch matter ſhall be diſcovered, do not, within 28 days, give information thereof to ſome of the privy council, he ſhall forfeit 200 marks. ſ. 13.

Such of the privy council to whom ſuch information ſhall be made, ſhall thereupon deliver a note to the party by whom he ſhall receive ſuch information, teſtifying that ſuch information was made to him. ſ. 14.

All oaths and ſubmiſſions made by force of this act ſhall be certified into the chancery, by ſuch parties before whom the ſame ſhall be made, within three months after ſuch ſubmiſſion, upon pain to forfeit 100 l. to the queen. ſ. 15.

If any perſon ſo ſubmitting do within 10 years after ſuch ſubmiſſion, come within 10 miles of ſuch place where her majeſty ſhall be, without eſpecial licence from her majeſty, under her hand, ſuch perſon ſhall take no benefit of his ſubmiſſion. ſ. 16.—Qu. If the laſt paragraph is in force.

Ruſſia Company.

By 10 & 11 Will. 3. c. 6. After reciting letters patent of king Philip and queen Mary, dated the 6th of February, in the firſt and ſecond years of their reign, whereby they did incorporate the merchants adventurers for the diſcovery of the lands unknown, and not before frequented, with power that the ſaid fellowſhip ſhould have the ſole trade to all the main lands, iſles, ports, and rivers, of the emperor of Ruſſia; and that the ſaid letters patent were by an act of parliament, 8 Eliz. (not printed) confirmed to the ſaid fellowſhip by the name of the fellowſhip of Engliſh merchants for diſcovery of new trades, with a prohibition that no ſubject of this realm ſhould traffic to, viſit, or frequent, any of the places granted by the ſaid act to the ſaid fellowſhip to trade in, but by conſent of the governor, conſuls, and aſſiſtants, of the ſaid fellowſhip, upon pain that every perſon offending ſhould forfeit every ſuch ſhip, and all goods conducted to or from any of the places prohibited; one moiety thereof to the queen, and the other moiety to the fellowſhip; IT IS ENACTED, that every ſubject of this realm deſiring admiſſion into the ſaid fellowſhip called the Ruſſia company, on requeſt to be made to the governor, conſuls, and aſſiſtants, or any three of them, ſhall be admitted into the ſaid fellowſhip, paying for ſuch admiſſion 5 l. ſ. 1.

Where any perſon reſiding in any outport or other place within this realm ſhall requeſt to be admitted by his agent, making tender of 5 l. the governor, conſuls, and aſſiſtants, ſhall within ten days appoint one to admit ſuch perſon, and to tender him the oath to be taken by the freemen. ſ. 3.

The commiſſioners of the cuſtoms ſhall at every ſeſſion of parliament, lay before both houſes an account of what naval ſtores ſhall have been imported by perſons trading to Ruſſia. ſ. 4.

By 14 Geo. 2. c. 36. It ſhall be lawful for any perſon free of the Ruſſia company, excluſive of all others, to import port into this kingdom, in Britiſh built ſhipping, navigated according to law, from any place belonging to Ruſſia, raw ſilk or any other goods of the growth or manufacture of Perſia (ſuch manufacture being made of the growth of Perſia) purchaſed by barter with woollen or other goods exported from Great Britain to Ruſſia and from thence carried into Perſia (gold and ſilver in bullion or coin excepted), or with the produce ariſing from the ſales of ſuch goods exported to Ruſſia and carried into Perſia, upon paying or ſecuring the duties now payable for the ſame, according to ſuch rules, and with ſuch allowances, and under ſuch penalties as are by law preſcribed on the importation of the like goods of the produce or manufacture of Perſia from any port in the Levant ſeas, by any perſon free of the Turkey company, notwithſtanding 12 Car. 2. c. 18. ſ. 1.

No ſilk, or other produce or manufactures of Perſia, ſhall be imported through Ruſſia by virtue of this act, unleſs the importer take an oath (or being a quaker an affirmation) before the collector, cuſtomer, or comptroller of the cuſtoms at the port of importation, that to the beſt of his knowledge and belief, the ſilk and other commodities of Perſia contained in his entry, were purchaſed by barter with goods exported from Great Britain to Ruſſia, and from thence carried into Perſia (not being gold or ſilver in coin or bullion), or with the produce ariſing from the ſales of ſuch goods, and not otherwiſe; and in default of taking ſuch oath, &c. all ſuch ſilk or other commodities of Perſia ſo imported from Ruſſia, ſhall be liable to be ſeized, as if the ſame had been imported contrary to 12 Car. 2. c. 18. ſ. 2.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to the permitting the uſing in this kingdom any wrought ſilks or other manufactures of Perſia, mentioned in 11 Will. 3. c. 10. (India Goods,) which may be imported by virtue hereof through Ruſſia; but the ſame act, ſo far as it relates to the importing the ſaid goods into the port of London only, and to the entry thereof, and payment of the duties, and putting the ſame into warehouſes, and exporting them on ſecurity, and to the ſeizing thoſe goods, and dividing the produce of ſuch ſeizures, and keeping accounts thereof, and ſubjecting the perſons concerned to penalties, ſhall be of force, as if the ſaid act were repeated in this act. ſ. 3.

If any doubts ariſe whether any of the goods imported by virtue of this act, be of the growth or manufacture of Perſia, or not, or were imported contrary to the intent of this act, and the ſame for that reaſon be ſeized, as forfeited; the proof thereof ſhall be incumbent on the importer or claimer, and not upon the officer or informer. ſ. 4.

If any action be commenced for any thing done in purſuance of this act, the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff be nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 5.

Any thing in this act ſhall not extend to deprive the Eaſt India company of their powers and privileges. ſ. 6.

By 23 Geo. 2. c. 34. It ſhall be lawful for any perſon free of the Ruſſia company, excluſive of all others, to import into this kingdom in Britiſh built ſhipping, navigated according to law, from any place belonging to the empire of Ruſſia, raw ſilk of the produce of Perſia purchaſed by barter with goods exported from Great Britain to Ruſſia, although the ſame be not carried from thence into Perſia, (gold and ſilver in coin or bullion excepted,) or with the produce ariſing from the ſale of ſuch goods exported from Great Britain to Ruſſia as aforeſaid, and not otherwiſe; upon paying, or ſecuring the duties now payable for the ſame, according to the rules preſcribed on the importation of raw ſilk of the produce of Perſia, from any place in the Levant ſeas, by perſons free of the Levant or Turkey company; any thing in the 14 Geo. 2. c. 36. or 12 Car. 2. c. 18. notwithſtanding. ſ. 1.

No ſilk of the produce of Perſia ſhall be imported into Great Britain, from any of the countries belonging to the empire of Ruſſia by virtue of this act, unleſs the importer make oath before the collector, cuſtomer, or comptroller of the cuſtoms at the port of importation, that to the beſt of his knowledge and belief, the ſilk contained in his entry was purchaſed by barter with woollen or other commodities exported from Great Britain to Ruſſia (not being gold or ſilver in coin or bullion), or with the produce ariſing from the ſale of ſuch commodities; and in default of making ſuch oath, all ſuch ſilk imported from Ruſſia ſhall be liable to be ſeized and forfeited, as if the ſame had been imported contrary to the 12 Car. 2. c. 18.—ſ. 2.

Nothing herein ſhall extend to deprive the Eaſt India company of any their powers and privileges. ſ. 3.

Safe Conduct.

By 15 Hen. 6. c. 3.

THE keepers of the great and privy ſeal ſhall not ſuffer the clauſe vidimus to be put in any ſafe conduct, unleſs ſome great cauſe move the king to grant the ſame in ſuch wiſe; and in all ſafe conducts to be granted to any perſons, the names of them, of the ſhips, and of the maſters, and the number of the mariners, with the portage of the ſhip, ſhall be expreſſed.

By 18 Hen. 6. c. 8. Merchants aliens may load ſhips of Spain and other parts adverſaries and enemies of the king, if the maſters or merchants of ſuch ſhips have letters patent patent of the king of his ſafe conduct, making mention of the name of the ſhips and of the maſter; and if any ſuch ſhips charged with ſuch merchandizes of ſuch merchants be taken upon the ſea by the king's people, not having the king's letters patent within the board of ſuch ſhips, at the day of the taking, nor that ſuch letters patent be in the chancery inrolled, the takers may enjoy the ſame.

By 20 Hen. 6. c. 1. All letters of ſafe conduct to be granted to the king's enemies or other, ſhall be inrolled in chancery before ſuch letters be delivered; and all letters of ſafe conduct not inrolled before delivery ſhall be void. ſ. 2.

If any goods be taken by the ſubjects of the king upon the ſea, charged in any ſhip belonging to enemies, not having letters of ſafe conduct inrolled, they that take the goods ſhall them enjoy. ſ. 3.

The ſubjects taking ſuch ſhips, not having letters of ſafe conduct in the ſame ſhips, and bringing them within the realm, ſhall not be endamaged for ſuch taking, if they be ready to make reſtitution within reaſonable time after knowledge is made to them of the letters of ſafe conduct inrolled in chancery before the taking. ſ. 4.

By 31 Hen. 6. c. 4. If any ſubjects attempt to offend upon the ſea, or in any port under the king's obeiſance, againſt any ſtrangers in amity, league, or truce, or by ſafe conduct, and ſpecially in attaching of any ſuch ſtrange perſon, robbing of him, his ſhip or goods, or againſt any of his liege people, the chancellor (as well for the deliverance of any ſuch perſon, as for reſtitution of ſhip or goods) ſhall have authority, calling to him any of the juſtices, upon bills of complaint to make proceſs out of the chancery, as well againſt ſuch offenders as againſt any other perſons to whoſe hands ſuch perſon, ſhip, or goods, ſhall come, as for the deliverance and reſtitution of the ſame perſon, ſhip, and goods, and further to proceed to make the ſtrangers grieved to have full deliverance and reſtitution, and alſo their coſts and loſſes.

ported, upon producing the certificate, and oath made of ſhipping off the ſalt, and of its not being relanded in England or Wales, ſhall give a debenture for repayment of the duty, which being produced to the officer where the duty ſhall have been paid or ſecured, ſuch ſecurity ſhall be diſcharged; and all money paid for the duty of the ſalt ſhall be repaid upon demand by the officer without fee. 5 Will. & Mar. c. 7. ſ. 11. 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 44. ſ. 13. 20 Geo. 3. c. 34. and 22 Geo. 3. c. 39.

By 25 Geo. 3. c. 63. Perſons who ſhall export beyond the ſeas any Glauber or Epſom ſalts, made at any ſalt works in Great Britain, the duty whereof ſhall have been paid, ſhall upon ſuch exportation be intitled to a drawback of 10*s. per cwt.* upon the like terms as in caſes of exportation of foreign and Engliſh ſalt. ſ. 7.

By 5 Will. & Mar. c. 7. The duty hereby ſet on imported ſalt ſhall be paid upon entry, and before the landing, and in caſe any foreign ſalt ſhall be landed before entry made with the collector or officer for the duty on ſalt, or before the duty be paid, without warrant ſigned by the collector or officer for the duty on ſalt, ſuch imported ſalt, or the value thereof, ſhall be forfeited; nevertheleſs every perſon importing ſalt ſhall have ſix months time for payment, giving ſecurity; and in caſe ſuch importer ſhall pay ready money, he ſhall have ten per cent. per annum abated. ſ. 4.

All makers and proprietors of ſalt and rock ſalt ſhall make entries with the officers, of the quantities by them made, or taken out of any pits, and delivered or imported, and ſhall have a warrant of the officers, impowering ſuch maker or proprietor to carry away the ſame, before the ſalt ſhall be removed from the works; which warrant the officers are to give gratis, upon payment or ſecurity for payment of the duties within ſix months; provided that if any perſon at the time of the entry ſhall pay down the duty, ſuch perſon ſhall be allowed ten per cent. per annum. ſ. 6. alſo 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 44. ſ. 7. See 5 Ann. c. 29. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for the officers to ſeize all ſalt which ſhall be conveyed before entry, without warrant; and the ſalt ſo ſeized ſhall be brought to the office next adjoining; and in caſe the ſalt ſhall not be claimed by the owner within ten days, the ſalt ſhall be forfeited to their majeſties, and ſhall be ſold the next day of ſale, one moiety of the proceed to be to their majeſties, and the other moiety to the party who ſeized the ſame; and in caſe ſuch ſalt ſhall be claimed, and the owner ſhall neglect to make it appear before the next juſtice, by oath of one witneſs, that the ſalt was duly entered, and a warrant obtained for the carrying the ſame, the ſalt ſhall likewiſe be forfeited: and every perſon who ſhall cauſe ſalt to be carried before entry made and warrant obtained, ſhall forfeit to their majeſties double the value of ſuch ſalt. ſ. 7. alſo 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 44. ſ. 8.

No retailer nor ſhop-keeper ſhall be permitted to ſhip any ſalt to be ſent to any port within England, before he hath made it appear before commiſſioners for the duties granted by this act, or their officers, that the duty is paid or ſecured, or that it was bought of ſome other retailer that hath paid the duty. ſ. 8. alſo 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 44. ſ. 9.

Every maſter of a ſhip, that ſhall tranſport ſalt or rock ſalt from one port to another within this kingdom, ſhall before he have any warrant for the delivering of ſuch ſalt, deliver to the officers a particular of the quantity, ſigned by the officers for the ſaid duties and by the officers of the cuſtoms of the port from whence the ſhip came; and the maſter or his mate, or the boatſwain, ſhall make oath before the commiſſioners, or their officers, that to his knowledge there hath not been taken into the ſhip any ſalt ſince they came from ſuch port; and in caſe ſuch ſhip be to deliver part of her ſalt at one port, and part at another, the officers for the ſaid duties and officers of the cuſtoms, when ſuch part ſhall be delivered, ſhall certify on the back of the cocquet, tranſire, or other warrant, or elſe by certificate under the hands and ſeals of the officers, what quantity of the ſalt hath been delivered, upon the penalty of double the value of the ſalt otherwiſe delivered. And no fee ſhall be taken for making or granting the warrants before-mentioned. ſ. 9. alſo 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 44. ſ. 11.

The juſtices of peace, not concerned in making or ſelling ſalt, in every county, &c. in England, ſhall at every Eaſter and Michaelmas ſeſſions, ſet the prices of all ſalt and rock ſalt, to be ſold by the maker or firſt ſeller thereof, in the county, for the half year enſuing: and no maker or firſt ſeller ſhall ſell for more than the prices ſo ſet, over and above the duty payable by this act; upon pain of 5 l. and double the value of the ſalt, to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale, one moiety to their majeſties, and the other moiety to the informer. ſ. 12. Qu. If this clauſe is in force? This power is altered and enlarged by 7 & 8 W. 3. cap. 31. ſect. 92.

All ſalt brought into England, and not of the product of England, ſhall be deemed foreign ſalt imported. ſ. 13.

No perſon ſhall be capable of acting as commiſſioner for collecting the ſaid duties, until he ſhall before one of the barons of the exchequer take the oaths, and the oath following: ſ. 14.

You ſhall ſwear to execute your office truly and faithfully without favour or affection, and ſhall from time to time true account make and deliver to ſuch perſon and perſons as their majeſties ſhall appoint to receive the ſame, and ſhall take no fee or reward for the execution of the ſaid office from any other perſon than from their majeſties, or thoſe whom their majeſties ſhall appoint on that behalf.

So help me God, &c.

No perſon ſhall be capable of any office or employment relating to the ſaid duties, other than that of commiſſioner, until he ſhall before two of the commiſſioners, or two juſtices of peace, take the oaths, and the ſaid laſt mentioned oath, mutatis mutandis. ſ. 15.

No certiorari ſhall ſuperſede proceedings upon any order made by the commiſſioners or juſtices of peace, in purſuance of this act. ſ. 17.

No ſalt ſhall be delivered from any works without notice given to the officer, upon pain of forfeiture of the ſalt, and upon pain of 20 l. to be forfeited by the owner of the works. ſ. 19.

If any ſalt for which the duty ſhall have been repaid and diſcharged upon exportation, ſhall be landed in England before the duty be again paid, and all other things performed as where foreign ſalt is imported, every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit double the value of ſuch ſalt, and ſuch other penalties as are herein inflicted upon any perſon who ſhall land foreign ſalt contrary to this act. ſ. 20.

If any ſubject of this realm ſhall ſhip any ſalt or rock ſalt that hath paid the duty to convey it by ſea to any part of England, and the veſſel periſh at ſea, or be taken by enemies with ſuch ſalt on board, ſuch perſon ſhall, upon proof made at the quarter ſeſſions for the county, &c. wherein he doth inhabit, of the loſs of ſuch ſalt, receive from from the ſeſſions a certificate, and upon producing the certificate to any officers of the duty, they are to let ſuch perſons buy the like quantity of ſalt, without paying any duty. ſ. 21.

It ſhall be lawful for proprietors of rock ſalt, to remove from the pits into their other ware-houſes, for conveniency of ſelling or ſhipping off the ſame, any rock ſalt after entry made and a warrant taken from the officer, which warrant the officer is upon demand to give without fee; and the proprietors ſhall not be obliged to pay or ſecure the duty, until the rock ſalt be ſold and delivered. ſ. 22.

Salt made at the ſalt works in the county of Cheſter ſhall be entered by weight, and 50 lb. ſhall be deemed a Winchester buſhel of eight gallons. ſ. 24.

The commiſſioners of exciſe ſhall keep apart the monies hereby granted, and pay weekly on Wedneſday, &c. all the monies into the receipt of the exchequer, apart from other monies. ſ. 29.

If the commiſſioners neglect to pay, or ſhall miſapply the ſame, they ſhall forfeit their offices, and be incapable of any place of truſt, and ſhall be liable to pay the value of any ſums ſo miſapplied, to any perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of their majeſties courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 31.

It ſhall be lawful for their majeſties, out of the duties upon ſalt, to cauſe ſuch ſums to be paid for ſalaries or incident charges as ſhall be neceſſary. ſ. 33.

The head office of exciſe ſhall be continued within London or ten miles thereof, and there ſhall be continued a controller of exciſe, who ſhall keep a diſtinct account of all monies which ſhall ariſe by the ſaid duties upon ſalt, to which all perſons concerned ſhall have free acceſs. ſ. 34.

Receivers employed in the collecting the duties upon ſalt ſhall, between the 25th of March and the 29th of September yearly, deliver in their accounts thereof to the auditors of the impreſt, who ſhall examine upon oath the ſaid receivers. ſ. 5.—This duty is made perpetual by 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 31. repealed in part by 3 Geo. 2. c. 20. and revived by 5 Geo. 2. c. 6. and made perpetual by 26 Geo. 2. c. 3.

By 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 31. All ſalt made from rock ſalt (allowing the drawback) and all refined ſalt, or ſalt made from ſalt, either imported or made in England, is to be charged with the duty of one penny halfpenny per gallon. ſ. 43.

All ſalt at ſalt works (rock ſalt excepted) ſhall be aſcertained as to the payment of the duties, at fifty-ſix pounds weight to the buſhel. ſ. 44. alſo 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 44. ſ. 34.

All ſalt brought from Scotland by land, and all imported ſalt, whether the ſame be of the product of this kingdom, Wales or Berwick, landed before entry made with the officer, and payment of duties ſhall be forfeited. ſ. 45.

Every collector or officer appointed to receive the ſaid duties, ſhall provide at every ſalt work, a beam, ſcale and weights, or ſteelyard, and ſhall have liberty to fix the ſame in ſome convenient place about ſuch ſalt work, for the weighing all ſalt that ſhall be delivered from ſuch work; and perſons living near ſuch ſalt work ſhall be admitted and ſworn to the true weighing all ſalt from thence before a juſtice of peace, which oath he is to adminiſter without fee; and ſuch weighers ſhall be paid by the collector. ſ. 46.

The officers are to deliver gratis, ſo many permits to each carrier of ſalt, as he ſhall demand, for ſuch ſeveral horſe loads as he ſhall load at one time. ſ. 47.

All perſons ſelling ſalt (except foreign ſalt) ſhall ſell the ſame after the rate of fifty-ſix pounds weight to the buſhel; and every perſon offending therein ſhall forfeit 5 l. to the informer. ſ. 49.

PART II.

The lord mayor and court of aldermen of London ſhall aſcertain certain reaſonable prices upon all ſalt to be ſold in London, and the bills of mortality; and the juſtices of peace ſhall at the general ſeſſions ſet prices upon all ſalt ſold within the ſeveral counties and places where they are juſtices, and ſhall from time to time alter the prices of ſalt, which prices are required to be obſerved by all perſons ſelling ſalt; and if any ſhall ſell at higher price, or refuſe to ſell at the prices aforeſaid, ſuch perſons ſhall forfeit 5 l. to be levied of the goods of ſuch offenders by diſtreſs and ſale by warrant of the lord mayor of London, or of any juſtice of peace for the place wherein ſuch diſtreſs ſhall be made; and in default of diſtreſs, it ſhall be lawful by warrant from the lord mayor, or any ſuch juſtice, to impriſon the offender until he pay the ſaid ſum. ſ. 92. and re-enacted by 9 Will. 3. c. 44. ſ. 39.

By 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 6. No perſon dealing in ſalt ſhall ſell ſalt otherwiſe than by weight, after the rate of 56 pounds to the buſhel; and every perſon offending therein ſhall forfeit 5 l. to the informer. ſ. 1.

The offences againſt this act ſhall be heard and determined by any two juſtices of peace reſiding near the place where ſuch offence ſhall be committed; and the party aggrieved may appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions; and all juſtices of peace are required, upon complaint of any forfeiture made contrary to this act, to ſummon the party accuſed; and upon his appearance or contempt, to proceed to the examination of the fact; and upon proof by the oath of two witneſſes or the confeſſion of the party, to give judgment and iſſue warrants for the levying of ſuch forfeitures upon the goods of the offender, and to cauſe ſale to be made, if the ſame ſhall not be redeemed within ſix days; and for want of diſtreſs to impriſon the party until ſatisfaction. ſ. 2.

When any ſalt ſhall be entered to be put on board any ſhip, or carried by land, and the duty paid or ſecured, together with all monies then due by bond or otherwiſe upon account of ſalt before that time delivered, the officer ſhall, upon notice, by himſelf or a deputy, in the day time between ſun-riſing and ſun-ſetting, attend the weighing out ſuch ſalt without loſs of time; and in caſe he refuſe, he ſhall forfeit 40 s. to be recovered or mitigated by the ſame ways as the other penalties in this act. ſ. 3.

By 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 44. In caſe any imported ſalt ſhall be landed before entry made, &c. as in 5 Will. & Mar. c. 7. ſ. 4. ſuch imported ſalt, or the value thereof, and alſo 10 s. for every buſhel, ſhall be forfeited; nevertheleſs every perſon importing ſalt ſhall have ſix months for payment, giving ſecurity; and in caſe ſuch importer ſhall pay ready money, he ſhall have ten per cent. per ann. abated.

Every perſon who ſhall convey ſalt before entry made and warrant obtained, ſhall forfeit to his majeſty double the value, and alſo 10 s. per buſhel. ſ. 10.

Every maſter of any ſhip that ſhall tranſport ſalt, or rock ſalt, from one port to another, ſhall deliver to the officers a particular of the quantity, &c. as in 5 Will. & Mar. c. 7. ſ. 9. upon the penalty of double the value of the ſalt that ſhall be otherwiſe delivered, and likewiſe 10 s. per buſhel. ſ. 12.

The following directions are to the ſame effect as 5 Will. & Mar. c. 7. ſ. 11, 12, 13, 14.

No ſalt ſhall be delivered without notice given to the officer, upon pain of forfeiting the ſalt, and 10 s. per buſhel, as in 5 Will. & Mar. c. 7. ſ. 19.—ſ. 26.

If any ſalt, for which the duty ſhall have been repaid or diſcharged upon exportation, ſhall be landed in England before the duty be again paid, &c. every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit double the value, and 10 s. per buſhel, &c. ſ. 27.—as in 5 Will. & Mar. c. 7. ſ. 19.

The following directions are to the ſame effect as 5 Will. & Mar. c. 7. ſ. 21, 22. 33.

All ſalt made from rock ſalt (allowing the drawback) and all refined ſalt, either imported or made in England, is to be charged with the ſaid duties. ſ. 33.

All ſalt landed before entry and payment of the duties ſhall be forfeited, and 10 s. per buſhel. ſ. 35.

The next ſections are the ſame as 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 31. ſ. 46, 47. 49. 92.

If the commiſſioners neglect to pay into the exchequer, or ſhall miſapply any of the money, they ſhall forfeit their offices, and ſhall be incapable to ſerve his majeſty in any place of profit or truſt, and ſhall be liable to pay double the value of all ſums of money ſo miſapplied, to any perſon intitled to any payment out of the fund. ſ. 42.

The head office of exciſe ſhall be continued, with a ſufficient number of commiſſioners and a comptroller, for performing ſuch things as are by this act injoined, ſ. 43. But ſee 1 Ann. ſtat. 1. c. 21. in page 427.

The comptroller ſhall keep accounts of all monies which ſhall ariſe of the ſaid duties upon ſalt, to which all perſons concerned ſhall have free acceſs; and if ſuch comptroller ſhall neglect his duty therein, he ſhall forfeit his office, and be incapable, &c. and ſhall alſo forfeit 100 l. to any perſon intitled to any payment by this act. ſ. 44.

If any collector or receiver of the duties by this act granted ſhall detain any part of the monies contrary to his duty, he ſhall be diſmiſſed from his employment, and be charged with intereſt of twelve per cent. and be liable to anſwer treble damages to all perſons grieved; and if any collector or receiver ſhall miſapply any of the monies, he ſhall be diſmiſſed from his employment, and rendered incapable to ſerve his majeſty, and ſhall forfeit double the ſums miſapplied, to any perſon intitled to any payment out of the fund by this act ſettled. ſ. 45.

The directions enacted in 1 Will. 3. ſt. 2. c. 1. ſee "EXCHEQUER," for the ſpeedy payment of money thereby granted into the receipt of the exchequer by the collectors and receivers, and for the application thereof, and keeping accounts of the ſame, and all other proviſions and forfeitures thereby enacted in caſe of miſapplication, ſhall be applied for the application of the ſums hereby appropriated. ſ. 88.

By 10 & 11 Will. 3. c. 22. Every 75 pounds weight of rock ſalt taken out of any pit, ſhall be deemed a Winchester buſhel of eight gallons, and ſhall be taxed accordingly. ſ. 2.

Every proprietor of rock pits, who ſhall take any rock ſalt out of any ſuch pit, ſhall before the removal thereof cauſe the ſame to be weighed in the preſence of the officer for the duties on ſalt; which officer is required to attend at ſuch ſalt pits at all reaſonable hours, and thereof to make return to the commiſſioners, or to ſuch perſon as they ſhall appoint, leaving a copy of ſuch return with ſuch proprietor, and ſuch return ſhall be a charge upon ſuch proprietor; and if ſuch proprietor ſhall refuſe to weigh ſuch rock ſalt, in the preſence of the officer, when taken out of any pit, or ſhall ſuffer to be conveyed from ſuch pit any ſuch rock ſalt before the ſame ſhall have been weighed, he ſhall forfeit 20 l. and double the value of the rock ſalt removed. ſ. 3.

Every proprietor of rock pits ſhall clear off the duties of rock ſalt ſo charged within two days after ſuch charge made, or give ſecurity to pay the ſame within nine months; and every proprietor who ſhall not clear off, nor give ſecurity, ſhall forfeit double the duties. ſ. 4. See 5 Ann. c. 29. ſ. 5.

If any perſon ſhall within the two days after ſuch charges pay down the duty, he ſhall be allowed ten per cent. per ann. for the ſaid nine months. ſ. 5.

Where any ſuch rock ſalt, for which his majeſty's duties ſhall have been paid or ſecured, ſhall be melted and refined, the perſons who ſhall refine the ſame into white ſalt, ſhall have an allowance out of the duties of the white ſalt, of ſo much as was charged on the rock ſo refined, ſo as the rock was before the melting weighed in the preſence of the officer, and ſo as oath be firſt made before ſome juſtice of peace near adjoining, of the quantities of ſuch rock ſalt, by ſuch refiner employed in making white ſalt, and that he or any other by his privity did not increaſe the rock ſalt, by mixing or other undue practice, and that no former allowance for the ſaid rock ſalt had been made to his uſe, and ſo as proof be made that the duties for the rock ſalt ſo refined were paid or ſecured. ſ. 6.

For all ſuch rock ſalt, and refined ſalt made from rock ſalt, as ſhall be exported beyond the ſeas, there ſhall be paid for every buſhel, whereof the duties ſhall have been paid, after the rate of 75 pounds weight to the buſhel, and for every buſhel of ſuch refined ſalt made from rock ſalt, whereof the duties ſhall have been paid, after the rate of 56 pounds to the buſhel, the duties which ſhall have been ſo paid for every ſuch buſhel of rock ſalt or refined ſalt ſo exported, to the perſon exporting, by the officer appointed to collect the duties in the port from whence ſuch refined ſalt ſhall be exported, within two days after demand, on a debenture to be prepared by the collector of the cuſtoms, and verified by the ſearcher in ſuch port, as to the quantity of ſuch rock ſalt or refined ſalt ſhipped; and the oath of the exporter, or his agent, ſhall be taken before the principal officers of the port, before the debenture be allowed, that the duties were paid, and that ſuch rock ſalt or refined ſalt is ſhipped to be exported, and not intended to be relanded in England; for which debenture no fee ſhall be given; and in caſe the officer ſhall not have ſufficient money in his hands, then upon certificate thereof (which he is required to give gratis) the commiſſioners ſhall be chargeable with the payment out of the firſt money in their hands of the duties upon ſalt, and any officer neglecting to pay, or to give ſuch certificate, ſhall forfeit double the ſums to the party grieved, to be recovered by action. ſ. 7.

The duties upon rock ſalt, charged in purſuance of this act, ſhall be raiſed in ſuch manner as the duties upon ſalt or rock ſalt chargeable by the former acts. ſ. 8.

Any perſon aggrieved by any order or judgment of any two juſtices relating to the duties upon ſalt, may appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions. ſ. 9.

All rock ſalt and white ſalt that ſhall be ſhipped to be delivered as a commodity, either to be exported or to be unladen on the coaſts, ſhall be weighed at the place where the ſalt is to be taken on board, by ſuch officer as the commiſſioners ſhall appoint; and no ſuch ſalt ſhall be carried on board any ſhip till the ſame be ſo weighed or tendered to be weighed, and a permit obtained; under the penalty of forfeiting the ſalt, and 10 s. per buſhel to his majeſty; which permit ſuch officer ſhall give gratis, on the penalty of 5 l. to the party grieved. ſ. 10.

If the officer refuſe to weigh ſuch ſalt, or to give ſuch permit, it ſhall be lawful for the owner to carry the ſalt on board. ſ. 11.

It ſhall be lawful for the officers at every unlading port of ſuch ſhip to go on board before the delivery, and demand a ſight of ſuch permit, and to weigh the ſalt upon the unlading; and if the ſalt be found to be more than what is contained in the permit, the ſurpluſage ſhall be forfeited; and if the maſter of ſuch ſhip refuſe to ſhew the permit, it ſhall be lawful for the officer to ſeize the ſalt until the permit be produced. ſ. 12.

If the permit be not ſhewn to ſuch officer within four days after the ſeizure, the ſalt ſhall be forfeited. ſ. 13.

By 1 Ann. ſt. c. 21. Every maker of ſalt, or refiner of rock ſalt, or proprietor of any ſalt works or ſalt pits, who ſhall erect to make uſe of any ſalt work, ſalt pit, ſtorehouſe, or other place, for the making, laying, refining, or keeping, of ſalt or rock ſalt, without giving notice thereof at the next ſalt office, ſhall forfeit for every ſalt work, &c. 40*l.* ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for the officers to enter into all the works, ſtorehouſes and other places, made uſe of by any maker, refiner, or importer of ſalt, or proprietor of rock ſalt, for the better looking after the duties, and preventing frauds; and if any ſalt maker, &c. ſhall upon demand made by the officers in the day time, or in the night, in the preſence of a conſtable, or other officer of the peace, refuſe to permit ſuch officer to enter his works, &c. he ſhall forfeit 40*l.* ſ. 2.

Every perſon in whoſe cuſtody any ſalt removed from the works ſhall be found, which hath not been duly entered, and the duties paid or ſecured, ſhall, in caſe the ſame be foreign ſalt, be liable to the ſame penalties as if ſuch perſon had landed the ſame; or in caſe the ſame be Engliſh ſalt, then to ſuch penalties as if ſuch perſon had removed ſuch ſalt from the works without entry or paying the duties; unleſs he ſhall make it appear that he bought ſuch foreign or Engliſh ſalt of a maker, retailer, or importer. ſ. 3.

If any perſon ſhall remove ſalt from any ſalt works without entry and payment of the duties, or giving ſecurity, or without warrant, it ſhall be lawful for the officers not only to ſeize the ſalt, but alſo to apprehend the offenders, and carry them before one of her majeſty's juſtices of peace; and in caſe the offence be proved, and the offender ſhall not pay down the penalties, and no ſufficient diſtreſs can be found, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtice to commit ſuch offender to the houſe of correction, to be whipt and kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding one month; and if any perſon ſhall obſtruct any officer for the ſaid duties in the execution of his office, or ſhall beat and abuſe the officers in the execution of their offices, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 20*l.* and for non-payment, and in default of diſtreſs, it ſhall be lawful for any juſtice of peace, upon proof of ſuch offence, to commit ſuch offender to the houſe of correction, to be whipt and kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding one month. ſ. 4.

No perſon ſhall make uſe of brine before the ſame is boiled into ſalt, or of rock ſalt before the ſame is refined into white ſalt, for the curing of fleſh, or fiſh, or for preſerving of proviſions, upon pain of 40*s.* for every gallon of brine or pound of rock ſalt. ſ. 5.

Eighty-four pounds weight of foreign ſalt ſhall be deemed a buſhel. ſ. 6.

Where any ſhip laden with ſalt ſhall be found hovering on the coaſts, not proceeding on her voyage, it ſhall be lawful for the officers of the cuſtoms, or the duty on ſalt, to go on board ſuch veſſels, and compel them to come into port, and to continue on board until the ſalt be unladen, or the ſhip ſhall depart from the port; and if the perſons on board any ſhip importing ſhall neglect to enter or unlade ſuch ſalt twenty days after the ſame is come into port, or within that time to depart and proceed on their voyage, unleſs permitted by the chief officer of the cuſtoms to make a longer ſtay, all the ſalt on board ſuch ſhip ſhall be forfeited, and double the value thereof, to be recovered of the maſter. ſ. 7.

No foreign ſalt ſhall be imported in any ſhip of leſs burden than twenty tuns, and in bulk only (except for the proviſions of the ſhips) upon pain of forfeiting the ſalt, and double the value, to be recovered of the perſon importing. ſ. 8.

Sixty-five pounds of rock ſalt ſhall be deemed a buſhel. ſ. 9.

No rock ſalt ſhall be refined into white ſalt, except within ten miles of the pits, or at ſuch places as upon or before the 10th of May 1702 ſhall have been uſed for the refining of rock ſalt, under the pain of 40*s.* for every buſhel. ſ. 10. See 8 Geo. 2. c. 12. ſ. 2.

No debenture ſhall be made, or drawback allowed, for the exportation of any ſalt or rock ſalt for Ireland, until the exporter ſhall produce to the officer a certificate of the collector of the cuſtoms of the port in Ireland where ſuch ſalt ſhall be landed, of the quantity of ſalt landed, after the rate of 56 pounds to the buſhel in caſe the ſame be Engliſh white ſalt, and 65 pounds to the buſhel in caſe the ſame be Engliſh rock ſalt, and 84 pounds to the buſhel in caſe the ſame be foreign ſalt; which ſalt and rock ſalt is required to be weighed by the collectors, and the certificate to be made gratis. ſ. 11.

If any ſhip laden with ſalt to be carried beyond the ſeas ſhall come into any place in England, it ſhall be lawful for the officer of ſalt to enter ſuch ſhip, and there continue till the ſhip unlade her cargo or return to ſea; under the penalty of 20*l.* to be recovered of the maſter who ſhall refuſe ſuch officer to come on board; and if any perſon ſhall unlade any of the ſalt before entry or repayment of the duty, the whole cargo of ſalt ſhall be forfeited. ſ. 12.

Where any ſalt ſhall be laid on board any ſhip, either to be tranſported beyond the ſeas, or carried coaſtwiſe, the officer of the cuſtoms ſhall in the cockets (which ſhall be alſo ſigned by the officer for the duty on ſalt, and given without fee) expreſs the quantity of ſalt; and in caſe ſuch ſhip ſhall come into any port in England, it ſhall be lawful for the officers of the cuſtoms, or officers for the ſaid duties, to go on board ſuch ſhip, and demand a ſight of ſuch cocket, and (in caſe he have cauſe to ſuſpect that there is not ſo much ſalt on board as the quantity expreſſed in ſuch cocket, and ſhall make affidavit thereof before the collector or cuſtomer of the port) to weigh all the ſalt remaining on board; and in caſe there ſhall appear not to be ſo much as the quantity expreſſed in ſuch cocket (making allowance for the waſte, and for ſalt delivered at another port, and indorſed in the permit) the ſalt remaining ſhall be forfeited. ſ. 13.

No fiſh, for which allowances are given upon exportation, ſhall be landed in England, unleſs the owner of ſuch fiſh, or the maſter of the veſſel, ſhall make oath before the officer for the ſaid duties, that all the ſalt wherewith the fiſh was cured was laden from ſome part of England, and that no drawback or debenture for the ſame hath to his knowledge or belief been had, or is intended to be had, upon the exportation of the ſalt, or any part thereof; upon pain of forfeiting ſuch fiſh, and double the value thereof, to be recovered of the importer or proprietor. ſ. 14.

It ſhall be lawful for the officers for the duties on ſalt to go on board all ſhips importing or exporting ſalt or fiſh, and to continue on board to take account of ſuch ſalt and fiſh, and ſee the ſame weighed, landed or exported; and if any perſon ſhall obſtruct the officers, the perſon offending ſhall forfeit 20*l.* ſ. 15.

It ſhall be lawful for the officers, upon the exportation of any codfiſh, ling or hake, and before the ſame be laid on board, to cut off part of the tail, to the intent it may be known that ſuch fiſh hath been ſo exported, and allowances obtained; and it ſhall be lawful upon the exportation of pilchards, ſcads, white herrings, red herrings, ſalmon or dried red ſprats, and before the ſame be laid on board, to mark any caſk wherein ſuch pilchards, &c. ſhall be exported. ſ. 16.

In caſe any codfiſh, ling or hake, or any pilchards, ſcads, white herrings, red herrings, ſalmon or dried red ſprats, ſhall after the ſame ſhall be exported, be fraudulently relanded or re-imported, the fiſh ſhall be forfeited, and double the value, to be recovered of the importer or proprietor. ſ. 17.

No dealer in ſalt ſhall act as a juſtice of peace in any matter relating to the duties on ſalt. And in caſe there ſhall not be a ſufficient number of juſtices in any corporation to hear and determine the offences relating to the ſaid duties, the juſtices of the county next adjoining ſhall have power to hear and determine all matters relating to the ſaid duties, as if they were juſtices for ſuch corporation. ſ. 18.

No allowance ſhall be paid on exportation of fiſh that ſhall not be well cured, or ſhall be unmerchantable, nor for any conger. ſ. 25.

Where any ſalt or rock ſalt ſhall be entered to be exported beyond the ſeas, the officers ſhall be impowered to take ſecurity from the merchants that intend to export ſuch ſalt, for the payment of the duties, without inſiſting that the original proprietor be bound. ſ. 27.

No perſon ſhall buy ſalt otherwiſe than by weight, and not by meaſure; under the penalty of 10 s. for every buſhel, to be paid by the perſon buying. ſ. 28.

Every perſon who ſhall give ſuch ſecurity as in 5 W. & M. c. 7. ſ. 6. and 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 22. ſ. 4. ſhall have liberty within 28 days after to pay the duty ſecured, and ſhall have a diſcount of ten per cent. per annum. ſ. 29.

No perſon ſhall cure or pack pilchards for ſale, unleſs he be owner or part owner of ſome ſeyn or of drift-nets, or have the conſent of ſuch owners in writing; and on each caſk of pilchards the words ſeyn or drift (according to the manner of their being taken) ſhall be burnt with an iron, together with the name of the owner, as alſo the number of pilchards contained in each caſk; under the penalty of double the value of the fiſh. ſ. 31.

By 2 & 3 Ann. c. 14. No ſalt of the produce of England, Scotland, or Ireland, nor any other ſalt coming from Ireland, Scotland, or the Iſle of Man, ſhall be imported into England, upon pain that all the ſalt ſo imported, &c. ſhall be forfeited, and that the ſhip ſhall alſo be forfeited; and every perſon that ſhall take any ſalt out of ſuch ſhip, or carry the ſame on ſhore, or convey the ſame from the ſhore, or be aſſiſting therein, ſhall forfeit 20 l. or ſuffer ſix months impriſonment. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for any of the officers for the duties upon ſalt, within two months after the landing any ſuch ſalt, to ſeize the ſalt, and alſo the ſhip; and in caſe the owner of ſuch ſalt or ſhip ſhall not within twenty days claim the ſalt and ſhip, and give ſecurity to anſwer the value, the ſalt and ſhip ſhall be ſold. ſ. 2.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to any ſalt ſhipped to be carried coaſtwiſe by certificate from one port to another, according to former acts. ſ. 3.

In caſe where ſalt ſhall have been ſhipped to be exported, and the ſhip ſhall by ſtreſs of weather, enemies, or other neceſſities, be forced into any port in England, it ſhall be lawful for the owner of ſuch ſalt, or maſter of ſuch ſhip, within twenty days to reland the ſalt, ſo as due entry be made, and the duties be again paid down for the whole quantity that was entered to be exported, before any part thereof be relanded. ſ. 4.

Where any fiſherman ſhall have taken ſalt on board his veſſel from any part of England for ſalting of fiſh at ſea, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch fiſherman to land any ſuch ſalt, ſo as oath be made before the landing (which oath the officer for the ſaid duties is directed to adminiſter without fee) that the particular quantity to be landed was taken on board from ſome part of England, and at what place, and that no part thereof was taken out of any ſhip at ſea. ſ. 5.

Where any ſhip ſhall come into any port of England from Ireland, or other foreign part, having on board any ſalt which was taken in only for the proviſion of the ſhip, or for curing of fiſh, it ſhall be lawful to land the ſalt, ſo as entry be made thereof within ten days after coming into port, and the duties paid down or ſecured, before any part thereof be landed. ſ. 6.

No ſalt ſhall be brought out of Scotland by land into England, on pain of forfeiting the ſalt, and 20 s. a buſhel: and it ſhall be lawful for the officers for the duties upon ſalt to ſeize any ſalt ſo brought, and to apprehend the perſons who ſhall bring in the ſame, and carry them before any juſtice of peace near the place; and if, upon proof of the fact, ſuch offender ſhall not pay down the penalties, ſuch juſtice ſhall commit him to the next gaol for ſix months. ſ. 7.

As well the perſon who ſhall carry any ſalt without a permit, as the proprietor of the ſalt works, who ſhall deliver ſalt without notice, ſhall forfeit 20 l. ſ. 8.

It is declared that it is the intent of the acts, that any perſon exporting ſalt to Scotland, the Iſle of Man, or Jerſey and Guernſey, according to the directions of the acts, ſhall be intitled to a drawback of the duties, in ſuch manner as is directed by the acts. ſ. 9.

Where any ſalt or rock ſalt (the duties whereof ſhall have been paid or ſecured) ſhall be ſhipped in order to be exported beyond the ſeas, or carried coaſtwiſe, and the ſaid ſalt ſhall periſh by the ſinking of the ſhip, before the ſhip ſhall go out of port, and before the exporter ſhall be intitled to a drawback, the exporter or proprietor of the ſalt ſhall, upon proof made before the juſtices at the next quarter ſeſſions, receive from the ſeſſions a certificate, that ſuch proof was made, and upon producing the certificate to any collector of the ſaid duties, the collector ſhall let the proprietor buy the like quantity of ſalt without paying duty. ſ. 11. See 26 Geo. 2. c. 32. ſ. 6.

No herrings, pilchards, ſcads, codfiſh, ling, hake, ſalmon, or dried red ſprats, ſhall be landed within England, unleſs the owner of the fiſh, or the maſter of the veſſel, make oath before the officer for the ſaid duties, that all the ſalt wherewith the fiſh was cured was laden from England, and when and where the ſame was put on board, and that no drawback or debenture for the ſame hath to his knowledge or belief been had upon the exportation of any part thereof, or is intended to be had; upon pain of forfeiting ſuch fiſh, and double the value, to be recovered of the importer or proprietor. ſ. 13.

Nothing in this act ſhall prohibit the importing codfiſh, ling, or hake, caught and cured at Newfoundland or Iſeland, ſo as oath be made before the landing by the owner of ſuch fiſh, or the maſter of the veſſel, that all the fiſh came from Newfoundland or Iſeland, and were caught and cured there, and ſo as the fiſh be at the landing thereof tendered to the officer to have the tail cut; and in caſe any ſuch fiſh ſhall be landed before the ſame be tendered to the officer to have the tail cut, the fiſh ſhall be forfeited, and double the value, to be recovered of the importer or proprietor. ſ. 14.

Where any ſalt or rock ſalt ſhall be entered, and ſecurity given for the duties, and certified to the officer, no ſuch ſalt ſhall afterwards be entered for exportation by any perſon not bound in the ſecurity, until ſuch perſon find ſecurity for the duties (which the officer for the duties at the port where the ſame is ſo entered for exportation is required to take) and the ſame officer ſhall deliver gratis a certificate of ſuch new ſecurity, and upon producing ſuch certificate to the officer of the place where the duty was firſt ſecured, ſuch firſt ſecurity ſhall be diſcharged. ſ. 15.

Where any ſubjects of this realm do ſhip ſalt that hath paid the duty, to convey into ſome part of England, and the ſame or part thereof is loſt at ſea by ſtormy weather, or by being thrown over board for preſerving men's lives, or the veſſel, any owner of the ſalt ſhall, upon proof by the oaths of two witneſſes, whereof the maſter or mate of the veſſel to be one, before the juſtices at the quarter ſeſſions for the county or town wherein he doth inhabit, of the loſs of ſuch ſalt, and that the ſame was not occaſioned by any leakage of the ſhip, or by any default of the maſter or mariners, receive from the ſeſſions a certificate that ſuch proof was made; and, upon producing the certificate, the officers are required to let ſuch perſons buy the like quantity of ſalt without paying duty. ſ. 18.

Rock ſalt may be uſed in the making ſalt from ſea water in the ſalt works at Lawn Marſh, in the county of Carmarthen, ſo as her majeſty's duties for all the ſalt, proceeding as well from the rock ſalt as from the ſea water, be duly paid. ſ. 20.

By 4 Ann. c. 12. Where any ſalt or rock ſalt ſhall be ſhipped for exportation to Ireland, and the ſame ſhall periſh by ſinking the ſhip, or be taken by enemies, the exporter or proprietor ſhall, upon proof made at the quarter ſeſſions for the county or place from whence the ſame was exported, receive a certificate; and upon producing the certificate to the officer of the place where the duty ſhall have been paid or ſecured, ſuch ſecurity ſhall be diſcharged, and ſo much money as was paid for the duty ſhall be repaid upon demand by the officer without fee; the proof to be made within ſix months after ſuch loſs. ſ. 11. Within two years by 26 Geo. 2. c. 32. ſ. 7.

Nothing in 2 Ann. c. 14. contained ſhall prohibit the importing and landing any cod-fiſh, ling, or hake, caught and cured in the North Sea, upon making the like oath, and ſubject to the ſame reſtrictions, as is directed for cod-fiſh, &c. caught and cured at Newfoundland or Iſeland. ſ. 12.

By 5 Ann. c. 29. All foreign ſalt imported into England, ſhall upon the landing be weighed and locked up in the preſence of an officer, under the cuſtody of the importer, (who is to be at the charge of the ſtorehouſe), and ſuch officer as the commiſſioners ſhall appoint in the place where the ſame ſhall be imported; and it ſhall be lawful for the importer, in the preſence of an officer, and by permit, to have what quantity thereof his occaſion may require, not under a weigh or forty buſhels at a time, giving ſecurity for the duty of what he receives, payable in ſix months after delivery of ſuch ſalt; and in caſe he ſhall pay ready money, he ſhall have ten per cent. per ann. abated. ſ. 1.

If ſuch foreign ſalt ſhall not be ſecured as aforeſaid, the ſame ſhall be liable to payment of duties, and to ſuch penalties as if this act had not been made; and no ſalt ſo locked up ſhall be removed without notice given to the officer, and without a permit, upon pain of forfeiting ſuch ſalt, and 10 s. per buſhel, and alſo 20 l. for every offence, to be recovered from the perſon who imported the ſame; and every perſon who ſhall remove ſuch ſalt without notice, and without a permit, ſhall be liable to the like forfeitures of 10 s. per buſhel, and 20 l. for every offence. ſ. 2.

Where the whole quantity of foreign ſalt imported in any ſhip does not amount to forty buſhels, the duties ſhall be paid and ſecured according to the former laws. ſ. 3.

Any perſon who ſhall ſhip any Engliſh ſalt, or rock ſalt, to be carried coaſtwiſe, the duties having been paid or ſecured, ſhall have an allowance of three buſhels for every forty buſhels of white ſalt, and one buſhel and an half for every forty buſhels of rock ſalt, in conſideration of the waſte in carriage; which allowance ſhall be made but once for the ſame ſalt, although ſuch ſalt be carried from ſeveral ports: and the officer of the port where ſuch ſalt ſhall be firſt ſhipped, ſhall not only expreſs the allowance on the coaſt-cocket or tranſire, but alſo give gratis to the perſon ſhipping the ſame, a certificate of the number of buſhels ſhipped, and how much the allowance doth amount to; which certificate being produced to the officer who firſt received the duties, or took ſecurity for the ſame, he ſhall repay ſo much as he received for the duties of the ſalt to be allowed for waſte; and if the duties ſhall not then have been paid, the officer ſhall diſcount the allowance for waſte on the ſecurity. ſ. 4. This allowance is reduced by 25 Geo. 3. c. 63.

In all caſes where the time for payment of the duties on rock ſalt is appointed to be nine months, there ſhall be twelve months time allowed; and where the time for payment of the duties on other Engliſh ſalt is appointed to ſix months, there ſhall be nine months time allowed; and the ſecurities and diſcounts for prompt payment ſhall be regulated accordingly. ſ. 5.

For all white herrings exported from any place in England to parts beyond the ſeas, there ſhall be the like allowances as are to be made upon the exportation of white herrings from Scotland; to be paid by the officer appointed to collect the duties upon ſalt in the port from whence ſuch herrings ſhall be exported, within thirty days after demand, on a debenture to be prepared by the collector of the cuſtoms, and verified by the ſearcher as to the quantity of herrings ſhipped, and that the ſame were well cured and merchantable, and full packed; and the oath of the exporter ſhall be taken before the principal officers of the port before the debenture be allowed, that the herrings were cured with ſalt for which the duties had been paid and not drawn back, and that the ſame is really exported to parts beyond the ſeas, and not intended to be relanded in England; for which debenture no fee ſhall be taken: and in caſe the officer ſhall not have ſufficient money in his hands to pay the ſame, upon certificate thereof, (which he is required to give gratis,) the commiſſioners ſhall be chargeable with the payment, to be made out of the firſt money in their hands of the duties upon ſalt. And it ſhall be lawful for the officers, upon the exportation of any herrings, and before the ſame ſhall be laid on board, to mark any caſk wherein ſuch herrings ſhall be exported. ſ. 6. See 6 Ann. c. 12. ſ. 3.

In caſe any ſuch herrings ſhall be relanded, they ſhall be forfeited, and 20 s. per barrel, to be recovered of the importer or proprietor. ſ. 7.

For every barrel of ſalted beef or pork exported for ſale, there ſhall be the like allowances as are to be allowed upon exportation of ſuch beef and pork from Scotland; which ſhall be paid by the officer appointed to collect the duties upon ſalt in the port from whence ſuch beef or pork ſhall be exported, within 30 days after demand, on a debenture to be prepared by the collector of the cuſtoms, and verified by the ſearcher as to the quantity ſhipped, and that the ſame is good and merchantable; the oath of the exporter to be taken before the principal officers of the port, before the debenture be allowed, that the beef or pork was ſalted with ſalt for which the duties had been paid, and not drawn back, and that the ſame is exported to parts beyond the ſeas for ſale, and that any part thereof was not ſpent, or intended to be ſpent, for the ſhip's uſe, or intended to be relanded; for which debenture no fee ſhall be taken; and in caſe the officer ſhall not have money in his hands to pay the ſame, upon certificate thereof, (which he is to give gratis,) the commiſſioners ſhall be chargeable with the payment, to be made out of the firſt money in their hands of the duties upon ſalt. And it ſhall be lawful for the officers, upon exportation of beef or pork, and before the ſame ſhall be laid on board, to mark any caſk wherein ſuch beef or pork ſhall be exported. ſ. 8. See 3 Geo. 2. c. 20. ſ. 15.

In caſe any beef or pork ſhall be relanded, the ſame ſhall be forfeited, and 40 s. per barrel, to be recovered of the importer or proprietor. ſ. 9.

There ſhall be no debenture made out or drawback allowed for any ſalt landed in Ireland, unleſs the entry of the ſalt at exportation be made for ſome port in Ireland. ſ. 13.

Upon producing ſuch certificate, as is by law required, from the collector and proper officers of the port in Ireland, of the quantity of white ſalt and rock ſalt there landed, the exporter or proprietor ſhall have an allowance of four buſhels for every forty of white ſalt, and of two for every forty of rock-ſalt, put on board in England to be exported to Ireland, in conſideration of the waſte; and debentures ſhall be iſſued gratis accordingly, and the ſame ſhall be allowed or paid in like manner as debentures are payable for ſalt exported. ſ. 14. But this allowance is reduced by 25 Geo. 3. c. 63.

No perſon who ſhall export rock ſalt, or ſalt refined from rock ſalt, ſhall have any other allowance on prompt payment and exportation by debenture, than what was before paid for the duty; and no perſon giving bond for the duty, and paying the ſame in 28 days after, ſhall be entitled on exportation to any other advantage, than to ſuch a debenture as ſhall diſcharge the bond. ſ. 16.

Perſons importing foreign ſalt ſhall be charged with the duties for the full quantity cellared; and if upon clearing any cellar, there be any want of the quantity, the importer ſhall be anſwerable. ſ. 17.

By 6 Ann. c. 12. All perſons that ſhall ſhip ſalt to be carried coaſtwiſe by cocket or tranſire twenty miles by ſea, or from the port of Great Yarmouth to Loweſtoff or Southwold Bay, although unto a member or creek of the port from whence it was ſhipped off, ſhall have an allowance of three buſhels for every forty of Engliſh white ſalt, and one buſhel and an half for every forty of Engliſh rock ſalt, in conſideration of waſte. ſ. 1. But ſee 25 Geo. 3. c. 63.

Rock ſalt may be uſed in making ſalt from ſea water in the ſalt works near Holyhead in Angleſea. ſ. 2.

For all white herrings exported from any port in England to parts beyond the ſeas, there ſhall be the allowances made as are directed by 5 Ann. c. 29. ſ. 3. upon oath of the exporter, or his agent, that he bought the herrings in the debenture mentioned, and that the ſame were cured with ſalt for which the duties had been paid and not drawn back to the beſt of his knowledge and belief, and that the ſame are really exported to parts beyond the ſeas, and not relanded or intended to be relanded in England; in which oath ſhall be inſerted the name of the perſon of whom the ſaid herrings were bought. ſ. 3.

By 9 Ann. c. 23. During 32 years, there ſhall be paid to her majeſty, 9*s.* for every ton of rock ſalt put on board any ſhip in Great Britain and exported to Ireland, over and above the preſent duties, to be paid by the exporter, upon entry out for exportation, to the officer of the port where ſuch rock ſalt ſhall be put on board, and before any cocket ſhall be granted for the ſame; and the officer ſhall ſign a certificate or receipt for ſuch money as ſhall be paid by ſuch exporter. ſ. 44.

Made perpetual by 3 Geo. 1. c. 7. But by 8 Geo. 1. c. 15. ſ. 7. all duties on the exportation of any goods of the product of Great Britain, not therein excepted, are taken off.

No drawback ſhall be allowed for duties formerly granted on rock ſalt, which ſhall be landed in Ireland, unleſs ſuch receipt for the duty hereby granted, ſhall be firſt delivered up to the officer authoriſed to allow ſuch drawback. ſ. 45.

In caſe any ſhip carrying rock ſalt to Ireland ſhall be loſt at ſea, or taken by the enemy, upon proof made thereof upon oath, and producing the receipt, that the duty hereby granted was actually paid upon entry out in Great Britain, the officer who received the money ſhall repay the ſame without fee. ſ. 46.

The monies ariſing by the ſaid duties on rock ſalt ſhall be brought into the receipt of the exchequer. ſ. 47.

There ſhall be appointed commiſſioners and officers for collecting the ſaid duties, and they ſhall perform their duties under the penalties preſcribed by 9 Will. 3. c. 44. ſ. 48.

By 12 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 2. The maſter of any veſſel bound on a fiſhing voyage to the north ſeas or Iſeland, may take on board, in Great Britain, ſuch quantities of Britiſh ſalt as he ſhall judge proper for his voyage, paying or giving ſecurity to pay the duties; which money ſhall be repaid, or ſecurity diſcharged, as herein after mentioned. ſ. 1.

The officer of the place where the ſalt was made, and the duties paid or ſecured, ſhall deliver gratis to ſuch maſter a certificate of the quantity of ſalt ſhipped for the north ſeas or Iſeland, and that the duties have been paid or ſecured. ſ. 2.

Codfiſh, ling, or hake, caught and cured at the north ſeas, or at Iſeland, may be imported, ſo as oath be made before the landing, by the owner of ſuch fiſh, or the maſter of the veſſel, before the officer for the ſaid duties in the port where ſuch fiſh ſhall be brought in, that all the fiſh came from the north ſeas or Iſeland, and were caught and cured there; and ſo as the ſaid fiſh be at the landing tendered to the officer to have the tail cut; and in caſe any ſuch fiſh be landed before the ſame be tendered, the ſame ſhall be forfeited, and double the value to be recovered of the importer or proprietor. ſ. 3.

If any of the ſalt made uſe of in curing the fiſh ſhall remain, ſuch foul ſalt ſhall be thrown over-board in preſence of the officer, before the collector ſhall ſign his certificate. ſ. 4.

If any of the ſalt taken on board for curing of fiſh ſhall not have been uſed, it ſhall be lawful for the maſter of ſuch ſhip to land the ſalt, ſo as entry be made within ten days after his coming into any port in Great Britain that he ſhall firſt arrive at, and the duties paid, before ſuch ſalt be taken out of ſuch ſhip; and if ſuch maſter neglect to enter ſuch ſalt and pay the duties within the ten days, (except in caſe of his being driven into any port, or detained by ſtreſs of weather or contrary winds, or other neceſſities,) all the ſalt on board ſuch ſhip ſhall be forfeited, and double the value, to be recovered of the owner of ſuch fiſh, or the maſter of the veſſel. ſ. 5.

The maſter of ſuch veſſel, upon producing to the collector of the ſalt-duties for the port where he imports his fiſh, ſuch certificate of the quantity of ſalt taken on board, and and that the duties were paid or ſecured, and making oath before the collector, of the quantity of ſalt made uſe of in curing of codfiſh, ling, or hake, caught and cured at the north ſea, or at Iſeland, and that the fiſh have been all marked, ſhall receive gratis from the collector a certificate of the ſame; which, together with a certificate of the payment of the duty of the remainder of the ſalt, if there be any, being produced to the collector for the place where the duties were paid or ſecured, ſuch ſecurity ſhall be diſcharged, and all money paid for the duty ſhall be repaid upon demand by the collector, without fee. ſ. 6.

If the maſter of ſuch veſſel ſhall have taken in any Britiſh ſalt, for the curing of fiſh in the north ſeas, or at Iſeland, the duties having been paid or ſecured, and the veſſel ſhall either periſh at ſea, or be taken by enemies with ſuch ſalt on board; any perſon owner of the ſalt ſhall, upon proof made at the quarter ſeſſions for the county, &c. wherein he doth inhabit, of the loſs of ſuch ſalt, receive a certificate that ſuch proof was made; and upon producing the certificate to the officer of the place where the duty ſhall have been paid or ſecured, ſuch ſecurity ſhall be diſcharged, and ſo much money as was paid for the duty ſhall be repaid upon demand by the officer; provided ſuch proof be made within nine months after ſuch loſs. ſ. 7.

By 5 Geo. 1. c. 18. The allowances relating to the duties on ſalt upon the exportation of fiſh ſhall not be paid, but the curers of fiſh ſhall be allowed to import foreign ſalt, or take from any ſalt works ſuch quantity of Britiſh ſalt, where the ſame is allowed by law, as they ſhall think proper, for curing fiſh for foreign markets, without paying any duty, except the cuſtoms payable on importation; ſuch foreign ſalt being landed, and ſuch Britiſh ſalt being taken from the works, and weighed in the preſence of an officer, and lodged in a warehouſe under the key of the officer and proprietor; which ſalt ſhall remain in the joint cuſtody of the officer and proprietor, during the intervals of the fiſhing ſeaſons, the proprietor entering at the next ſalt office the quantity, and the officer keeping an account of the quantities in his cuſtody: and at the beginning of every fiſhing ſeaſon, the proprietor ſhall make oath in writing at the next office, of the quantity ſo lodged, and that all the ſalt is intended for curing of fiſh for exportation, and that by his conſent or connivance it ſhall not be ſold or delivered, but for the purpoſes aforeſaid; after which oath filed in the office, the officer ſhall deliver the ſalt into the ſole cuſtody of the proprietor: and at the end of every fiſhing ſeaſon the officer ſhall take accouut of the quantities of foreign and Britiſh ſalt remaining in hand, which ſhall be locked up in the joint cuſtody of the officer and proprietor; and the proprietor ſhall, at the end of every fiſhing ſeaſon, deliver an account in writing into the ſalt office, of the quantity of fiſh ſhipped to be exported, on which the ſalt was conſumed, together with certificates by the officers of the ſeveral ports where the ſaid fiſh were ſhipped, which account ſhall be affirmed by the oath of the proprietor, or his agent; and in caſe any of the ſalt ſhall be delivered over to other perſons, and uſed by them in curing of fiſh, the quantities thereof ſhall be expreſſed in the account; and each perſon to whom ſuch ſalt ſhall be delivered, or his agent, ſhall likewiſe on oath make another account of the quantity of the ſalt uſed by them; which account, with proper certificates, ſhall likewiſe be delivered into the office; but if ſuch proprietor ſhall, for ſix months after the end of the fiſhing ſeaſon, neglect to deliver ſuch account, he ſhall forfeit 40*l.* ſ. 1.

For every buſhel of ſalt taken out of the cellars or ſalt works, which ſhall not be accounted for or certified from the quarter ſeſſions to be loſt at ſea, or ſhall not be returned into the cellars at the end of every fiſhing ſeaſon, the proprietor, or his agent, who took out the ſame, or the perſon to whom it was delivered for curing of fiſh, ſhall forfeit 20*s.* And every perſon ſelling, uſing, or delivering ſuch ſalt, otherwiſe than for the purpoſes aforeſaid, ſhall for every buſhel forfeit 20*s.* one third to his majeſty, and the remainder to the informer; and every perſon buying or uſing ſuch ſalt, otherwiſe than for curing of fiſh, ſhall forfeit 20*s.* for every buſhel; and in default of payment within 14 days after conviction, and where no ſufficient effects can be found to anſwer the ſame, the offender ſhall be ſent to the houſe of correction, to be whipped and kept to hard labour, not exceeding three months. ſ. 2.

For every buſhel of ſalt ſo lodged, which ſhall be carried away, or found wanting at the re-delivering thereof into the ſole cuſtody of the proprietor, (allowance for waſte being made,) the proprietor ſhall forfeit 20*s.* ſ. 4.

Any perſon who ſhall take away or miſapply any foreign ſalt, before it is cellared for the curing of fiſh, ſhall forfeit 20*s.* for every buſhel, reckoning ſuch ſalt at 80 pounds to the buſhel. And any perſon who ſhall take away, &c. any Britiſh ſalt, after it is weighed and carried from any ſalt work, and before it is locked up by the proprietor and officer, ſhall forfeit 10*s.* for every buſhel, at 56 pounds weight to the buſhel. ſ. 4.

The rates hereafter expreſſed ſhall be allowed for all fiſh hereafter mentioned, exported to places beyond ſea, viz. for every caſk of pilchards or ſcads, containing 50 gallons, 7*s.* † For every 100 of codfiſh, ling, or hake, (except haberdine,) in length 14 inches, from the bone in the fin to the third joint in the tail, 3*s.* (by 26 Geo. 3. c. 81. ſ. 16.) For every barrel of wet codfiſh, ling, or hake, containing 32 gallons, 2*s.* For every 100 weight of dried codfiſh, ling, or hake, called haberdine, 3*s.* For every barrel of ſalmon, containing 42 gallons, 4*s.* 6*d.* For every barrel of white herrings, containing 32 gallons, 2*s.* 8*d.* For every barrel of full red herrings, containing 32 gallons, 1*s.* 9*d.* For every barrel of clean ſhotten herrings, containing 32 gallons, 1*s.* For every laſt of dried red ſprats, 1*s.* Which allowances ſhall be paid by the collector of the duties on ſalt in the port from whence ſuch fiſh ſhall be exported, within 30 days after demand, on a debenture to be prepared by the collector of the cuſtoms, and verified by the ſearcher as to the quantity; and on oath of the exporter, that the fiſh were Britiſh taken, and really exported for parts beyond the ſeas, and not relanded, nor intended ſo to be, in Great Britain; for which debenture no fee ſhall be taken; and if the officer have not ſufficient money in his hands, on his certificate the commiſſioners ſhall be chargeable with the payment, to be made out of the firſt money of the ſaid duty. And the debentures for fiſh exported from Scotland, ſhall be paid by the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms or exciſe in Scotland, at the option of the merchant. And any officer refuſing to pay the money, or to give ſuch certificate, ſhall forfeit double the ſum to the party grieved, to be recovered by action, &c. And the officers for the duty on ſalt, before any codfiſh, ling, or hake, ſhall be laid on board for exportation, ſhall cut off part of the tail of every fiſh, and mark the barrels wherein any pilchards, ſcads, white or red herrings, ſalmon, or dried red ſprats, ſhall be exported; and if any the beforementioned fiſh ſhall be fraudulently re-imported, they ſhall be forfeited, and double the value, to be recovered of the importer or proprietor; and no allowance ſhall be paid for the exportation of any fiſh not well cured, or unmerchantable. ſ. 6.

The officers of the ſalt duties, when fiſh are curing, bulking, or packing, and at other times, may in the day, or in the night, with a conſtable, or other peace officer, enter into the cellars and warehouſes of the curers of fiſh, to inſpect them, and to gauge the ſalt for the diſcovery of any frauds, and to mark the caſks wherein the fiſh are put for exportation. And if any perſon ſhall hinder any ſuch officer in the performance of his duty, he ſhall forfeit 10 l. ſ. 7.

Where any fiſh, entitled to any allowance on exportation, ſhall be loaden and duly entered, and ſhall be loſt or ſpoiled before the ſhip's proceeding on her voyage; the officer ſhall on proof thereof upon oath before any of the chief officers of ſuch port, by the proprietor of the fiſh, or his agents, make out debentures for the bounty, as if it had been actually exported; provided the fiſh was ſunk in the ſea or port where the ſaid ſhip was loſt, in ſight of the officer, where any of the ſaid fiſh ſhall come a-ſhore, and that no uſe be made of it by the proprietor; and the officer is to cauſe ſuch fiſh to be burnt or deſtroyed. ſ. 8.

If any red herrings or ſprats ſhall, during the time of their drying or curing, be burnt, and rendered unfit for uſe; the number ſhall be computed by the proprietor, in conjunction with the officer; which computation, added to the account given in of the quantity of herrings or ſprats exported or ſhipped for exportation, ſhall be accepted at the office, in the ſame manner as if all the herrings, &c. had been exported. ſ. 10.

Salt imported from the iſlands of Jerſey, Guernſey, Sark, and Alderney, ſhall be liable to the ſame duties as other foreign ſalt. ſ. 11.

The contents of the herring and ſalmon barrel ſhall be the ſame throughout the whole united kingdom, viz. the herring barrel ſhall contain 32 gallons, and the ſalmon barrel 42; and all exportation in barrels of a different ſize ſhall be unlawful, and ſhall not entitle the exporter to any premium. ſ. 15.

Herrings or ſalmon may be exported in half barrels, according to the proportion above-mentioned, but in no caſk of any other ſize; and they ſhall be entitled to a proportionable premium. ſ. 16.

Every perſon who ſhall carry brine from the pits (other than the proprietors of pans for boiling the ſame into white ſalt) ſhall forfeit 40 s. for every gallon. ſ. 17.

If any maſter of a ſhip, who ſhall import into Great Britain, any ſalt taken in for the proviſions of the ſhip, or for curing of fiſh, ſhall not enter and pay, or ſecure, the duty for the ſame, within ten days after coming into any port, and before the ſame be landed, the ſalt ſo imported ſhall be forfeited, and the maſter or owner ſhall likewiſe forfeit double the value. ſ. 18.

No proprietor of ſalt works, or who hath any intereſt in, or any rent or profit iſſuing out of, any ſalt pits, &c. ſhall act as a juſtice of peace in any matter relating to the duties on ſalt. ſ. 19.

Every maſter of any veſſel, who ſhall tranſport any foreign ſalt from Scotland, or any the iſlands thereto belonging, to England, or from one port to another in Great Britain, ſhall, before landing or delivering ſuch ſalt, deliver to the officers for collecting the duties on ſalt, a particular of the quantity ſigned by the officers of ſalt and cuſtoms for the port whence the veſſel came; and the maſter, his mate, or boatſwain, ſhall make oath before the commiſſioners for the ſalt duties, or their officers, that to his knowledge, there hath not been taken into the veſſel any ſalt ſince he came from ſuch port: and if ſuch veſſel be to deliver part of her ſalt at one port, and part at another, the officers of the ſalt duties and of the cuſtoms, where ſuch ſalt ſhall be delivered, ſhall certify on the back of the cocquet or tranſire, or elſe by certificate, what quantity of the ſalt hath been delivered, on penalty of double the value of the ſalt otherwiſe delivered, and 10 s. per buſhel. ſ. 20.

It ſhall be lawful for the ſalt officers, at any unlading port, to go on board ſuch veſſel, before the delivery, and demand a ſight of the cocquet, and to weigh the ſalt upon the unlading; and if the ſalt be found to be more in weight than what is contained in the cocquet, the ſurpluſage ſhall be forfeited, one half to the king, the other to the informer: and if the maſter refuſes to ſhew the cocquet, the officer may ſeize the ſalt, and detain it till the cocquet be produced; and if it be not produced in four days, the ſalt ſhall be forfeited. ſ. 21.

The officers of the cuſtoms, or of the duties on ſalt, may go on board any veſſel to ſearch if there be any ſalt on board, and may ſeize the ſame, if it be found on board any other veſſel than that in which ſuch ſalt was imported, unleſs it had been duly entered, or the duties paid or ſecured; and all ſuch ſalt ſhall be forfeited, or the value thereof, to be recovered of the maſter or owner of ſuch veſſel, who ſhall likewiſe be liable to all other penalties, as if the ſame had been landed without entry or payment of the duties: and every perſon, who ſhall hinder any officer in going on board any veſſel and ſearching, ſhall forfeit 40 l. ſ. 22.

No ſalt or rock ſalt, &c. nor any herrings, pilchards, ſcads, codfiſh, &c. ſhall, after the ſame be put on board any veſſel, to be exported, be taken out of ſuch boat, &c. otherwiſe than to put the ſame into the ſhips in which they are to be exported, nor put on ſhore, except in the preſence of ſome ſalt officer, under the penalties in the act 2 Ann. c. 14. ſ. 23.

If any foreign ſalt be put on ſhore before entry, or the duty paid, or without a warrant; the perſon landing the ſame, or conveying it from the ſhore, or aſſiſting therein, ſhall, over and above the penalties already given, forfeit 100 l. ſ. 24.

On reſhipping any ſalt, Britiſh or foreign, or any rock ſalt, from any boat, into any ſhip, and before any diſpatches for the ſalt ſo reſhipped be granted, the maſter, &c. that comes along with the ſalt to be ſhipped on board another veſſel, ſhall make oath before the ſalt officer, that all the ſalt he took in is truly reſhipped, and that there was no ſalt added to it, or taken from it, to the beſt of his knowledge, on penalty of forfeiting double the value of the ſalt that ſhall be otherwiſe reſhipped, and alſo 10 s. per buſhel. ſ. 25.

All penalties given by any law relating to the duties on ſalt, (except where it is otherwiſe directed by this act,) ſhall be one moiety to the crown, the other to the officer who ſhall ſeize, or inform for the ſame, to be recovered in ſuch manner, and with ſuch power of mitigation, as by the laws of exciſe; or by action in any of the courts at Weſtminſter. And all ſalt officers are empowered to ſeize all ſalt and other things, which by this or any other act relating to the duties on ſalt, are declared to be forfeited. ſ. 26.

Perſons ſued for any thing done in execution of any act relating to the duties on ſalt, may plead the general iſſue, and ſhall recover double coſts. ſ. 27.

By 8 Geo. 1. c. 4. At the beginning of every fiſhing ſeaſon for herrings, the proprietors of ſalt delivered duty-free for the curing of herrings for exportation, purſuant to 5 Geo.

5 Geo. 1. c. 18. or their agents, ſhall, inſtead of the oath required by that act, make oath in writing before the officer for the duty on ſalt, at the office neareſt to the place where the ſalt is lodged, declaring the quantity of foreign or Britiſh ſalt lodged for curing of fiſh, and that all the ſaid ſalt is intended for the curing of fiſh for exportation only, and ſhall not by their order, conſent, or connivance, be ſold or delivered but for the purpoſe aforeſaid, except ſo much as ſhall be uſed for curing ſuch red herrings, as ſhall be entered with the officer for home-conſumption, and charged with the duties by this act chargeable. ſ. 1.

Every curer of red herrings, before he remove any red herrings (except for exportation) from the place where cured, ſhall make entry thereof at the next ſalt-office, and pay a duty of 1*s.* 8*d.* for every thouſand; and in caſe ſuch red herrings ſhall be packed up in caſks, the number of herrings in each caſk ſhall be marked on the head; and upon entry, payment of the duty, and marking each caſk, a permit ſhall be given gratis by the officer, expreſſing the number of red herrings for which the duties ſhall be paid, and the marks and number of ſuch caſks, and for what place the ſame are intended, and whether to be ſent by land or water carriage, on forfeiture of the red herrings removed before entry, and the duty paid, and without the caſks being marked, and permit obtained, and of the caſk in which ſuch herrings ſhall be found, and alſo of 40*s.* for every thouſand, to be recovered from the perſons who ſhall remove the ſame; one moiety to the king, the other to the officer who ſhall ſeize or inform for the ſame; to be ſued for in ſuch manner, and with ſuch power of mitigation, as by any law of exciſe, or by action, &c. in any court at Weſtminſter; and all officers of the cuſtoms, exciſe, or duties upon ſalt, are empowered to ſeize ſuch red herrings ſo removed. ſ. 2. But ſee 26 Geo. 3. c. 81. ſ. 15. poſt.

The proprietors of ſalt delivered duty free for curing red herrings for exportation, ſhall, in the account which after the end of every fiſhing ſeaſon they are to deliver into the ſalt office, expreſs alſo the quantity of red herrings entered for home conſumption, on which ſuch ſalt has been uſed. ſ. 3.

Where fiſh entered for exportation may not be exported for want of opportunity, the owner may cauſe them to be deſtroyed in the preſence of an officer of the ſalt duties; and his certificate that the fiſh were deſtroyed, ſhall be admitted to verify the account of the proprietor of the ſalt. ſ. 4.

In caſe the duties of exciſe on ſalt (which now amount to 3*s.* 4*d.* per buſhel on home-made ſalt, and 6*s.* 8*d.* per buſhel on foreign), or any of them, ſhall ceaſe, the duty of 1*s.* 8*d.* per thouſand hereby impoſed on red herrings, ſhall ceaſe, or be leſſened in proportion. ſ. 5.

All ſuch foreign or Britiſh ſalt, as ſhall be delivered for curing of fiſh for foreign markets, ſhall be accounted for yearly, within three months after the expiration of each year; and every perſon who ſhall receive into his cuſtody any ſalt, duty free, for curing of fiſh for foreign markets, that ſhall neglect to weigh over to the officer what ſhall remain, or to deliver, within three months after the expiration of each year, accounts of the ſalt received, and of the fiſh cured therewith and exported, with a certificate by the officers of the port where the fiſh was ſhipped (which certificates ſuch officers are to give gratis) ſhall forfeit 10*s.* per buſhel, to be recovered of the proprietors or perſons for whoſe uſe the ſalt was delivered; one moiety of which penalties to be to the king, the other to the officer who ſhall ſue or inform for the ſame; to be ſued for, &c. as by any law of exciſe, or by action, &c. in any court at Weſtminſter, or in the exchequer in Scotland. ſ. 10.

Owners of ſalt which after the payment of the duty ſhall be loſt in the ports, ſhall, upon ſuch proofs thereof as by the act 2 Ann. c. 14. be intitled to ſuch certificate and privilege, as the owners of ſalt loſt at ſea. ſ. 11. See 26 Geo. 2. c. 32. ſ. 6.

By 8 Geo. 1. c. 16. At the beginning of every fiſhing ſeaſon for herrings, the proprietors of the ſalt delivered duty free for curing of white herrings for exportation purſuant to 5 Geo. 1. c. 18. ſhall, inſtead of the oath thereby required, make oath before the ſalt officer of the next office, declaring the quantity of foreign or Britiſh ſalt lodged for curing of fiſh, and that all the ſalt is intended for curing of fiſh for exportation only, and ſhall not be ſold or delivered but for that purpoſe; except ſo much as ſhall be uſed for curing ſuch white herrings, as ſhall be entered with the officer for home conſumption, and charged with the duties by this act chargeable. ſ. 1.

Every curer of white herrings in England, before he remove any white herrings (except for exportation) from the place where cured, ſhall make entry thereof at the next ſalt office, and pay a duty of 3*s.* 4*d.* for every barrel containing 32 gallons; and every caſk in which ſuch white herrings ſhall be put up, ſhall have a mark on the head, ſhewing the contents; and a permit ſhall be given gratis by the ſalt officer, expreſſing the quantity of white herrings for which the duties ſhall be paid, and the marks and numbers of the caſks, and for what place intended, and whether to be ſent by land or water carriage; on forfeiture of the white herrings and of the caſks, and alſo 40*s.* for every caſk, to be recovered of the perſon who ſhall remove the ſame; one moiety to the king, the other to the officer who ſhall ſeize or inform for the ſame; to be ſued for, &c. as by any law of exciſe, or by action, &c. and all officers of the cuſtoms, exciſe, or duties upon ſalt, are authoriſed to ſeize all white herrings removed before entry, &c. ſ. 2. But ſee 26 Geo. 3. c. 81. ſ. 15. poſt.

The proprietors of ſalt delivered duty free, for curing white herrings for exportation, in England, ſhall, in the account which after the end of every fiſhing ſeaſon they are to deliver into the ſalt office, expreſs alſo the quantity of white herrings entered for home conſumption, on which ſuch ſalt has been uſed. ſ. 3.

In caſe the duties of exciſe on ſalt ſhall ceaſe, the rate by this act impoſed upon white herrings ſhall ceaſe or be leſſened in proportion. ſ. 4.

Any refiner of rock ſalt may deliver, in preſence of a ſalt officer, to any curer of fiſh, ſuch quantity of refined ſalt, where the ſame is allowed by law for curing fiſh for exportation, as they ſhall think proper, for curing fiſh for foreign markets; and the collector of the duties ſhall give a certificate of the quantity delivered, and to whom, and whither to be carried; and the officer of the place whither the ſame ſhall be carried, ſhall give a certificate of the quantity brought thither and lodged in a warehouſe under the key of the officer, as well as the proprietor; and if it ſhall appear to be the full quantity that was firſt delivered (making allowance for waſte), ſuch certificate ſhall be accepted by the collector of the duties at the rock pits, towards diſcharging the ſecurity given for the duty on the rock ſalt made uſe of in making the ſaid refined ſalt. And on the warehouſeing any ſuch ſalt, delivered duty free for the curing of fiſh for foreign markets, that has been brought by ſea, the maſter, mate, or boatſwain, ſhall make oath before the officer of the ſalt duties, that all the ſalt he took in at the place of loading (mentioning the quantity) is delivered to be lodged in a warehouſe, and that there was no ſalt added to it or taken from it at ſuch place of loading, or ſince he came from it, to the beſt of his knowledge and belief; under penalty of forfeiting double the value of the ſalt otherwiſe delivered, and 10 s. per buſhel. And if the veſſel on which ſuch refined ſalt is ſhipped ſhall periſh at ſea, or be taken by enemies with ſuch ſalt on board, the owner of ſuch ſalt ſhall on proof before the juſtices at the quarter ſeſſions for the county, &c. where he doth inhabit, of the loſs of ſuch ſalt, receive a certificate, upon producing whereof to the collector of the rock pits, it ſhall be accepted by him towards diſcharging the ſecurity given for the duty on the rock ſalt, made uſe of in making ſuch refined ſalt. ſ. 6.

By 11 Geo. 1. c. 30. If any proprietor of ſalt, or his agent, ſhall deliver over to any perſon any quantity of ſalt which he ſhall have received from the officer; ſuch proprietor, or his agent, ſhall make it appear to the ſatisfaction of the proper officer, that ſuch ſalt was uſed in curing fiſh, according to the act 5 Geo. 1. c. 18. and in default thereof, the proprietor, or his agent, ſhall be adjudged guilty of embezzlement and miſapplication of ſuch ſalt, and ſhall forfeit 50 l. ſ. 41.

By 3 Geo. 2. c. 20. The duty of one penny halfpenny per gallon on ſalt and rock ſalt made at the ſalt works or taken out of any pits within this kingdom, which was granted by 5 & 6 Will. & Mar. c. 7. and the additional duties on ſalt granted by 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 44. ſhall ceaſe. See 5 Geo. 2. c. 6.

Nothing in this act ſhall determine the duty of 3 d. per gallon on ſalt, not of the product or manufacture of England, Wales, or Berwick, granted by 5 & 6 Will. & Mar. c. 7.—ſ. 2.

The duty of 3 d. per gallon on foreign ſalt ſhall extend only to ſuch ſalt as is not the product and manufacture of Great Britain, and all ſalt of the product or manufacture of Scotland ſhall be exempted from the ſaid duty. ſ. 3.

Nothing herein ſhall determine any penalties impoſed by any former acts for any offences in the landing of foreign ſalt before entry, or any frauds upon the re-exporting the ſame, in relation to the drawbacks of duties which had been before paid upon the firſt importing and landing the ſame in Great Britain clandeſtinely; ſave only that the proviſions of recovering the ſame by the ſame methods, as by any laws relating to the exciſe, ſhall ceaſe; and they ſhall be ſued for, &c. for any offences committed in England, by action, &c. in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, and for offences committed in Scotland, in the exchequer at Edinburgh. ſ. 4.

Where any proviſions are made by former acts for recovering any penalties for offences in relation to the ſaid duties, before juſtices of peace, the ſame ſhall continue in relation to the duty of 3 d. per gallon on foreign ſalt. ſ. 5.

Nothing in this act ſhall determine the bounties directed to be paid on the exportation of fiſh out of the duties on ſalt, by the act 5 Geo. 1. c. 18.—ſ. 8.

Saving only as to ſuch bounties as ſhall become payable for fiſh cured in and exported from any port in England, which bounties ſhall be paid out of the monies remaining in the hands of the collectors of the duties on ſalt or cuſtoms in the port where ſuch fiſh was exported, or in default thereof out of the monies in the hands of the collectors of the cuſtoms out of which the bounties for corn exported are payable; and if the collectors of the cuſtoms or the duties on ſalt in any out-port, ſhall not have ſufficient in their hands to pay the ſaid bounties ariſing by the duty of 3 d. per gallon on foreign ſalt, or by monies ariſing by cuſtoms out of which the bounties on corn exported are payable, ſuch collectors ſhall give to the exporter (without fee) a certificate, atteſted by the controller of the port, of what is due to ſuch exporter for fiſh exported, certifying to the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms in London, that he hath not money ſufficient to pay the ſame; which certificate being affixed to the debenture, and produced to the commiſſioners at London, they are required on demand to cauſe the monies to be paid in three months by the receiver general or caſhier of the cuſtoms (without fee) out of ſuch money in his hand ariſing by the duty of 3 d. per gallon on foreign ſalt, or by ſuch cuſtoms or duties as are chargeable with the bounty for the exportation of corn, in like manner as the debentures for corn exported are payable; and as to ſuch of the bounties as ſhall become due for fiſh cured in and exported from any port in Scotland, the ſame ſhall continue to be paid in the ſame manner as now. ſ. 9.

As to the duties on foreign ſalt imported, not by this act determined, the ſame liberty of importing it for the uſe of the Britiſh fiſhery, free from the duty of 3 d. per gallon, and the ſame powers for locking it up, and accounting for it for the curing of fiſh to be exported, and the ſame penalties for offences therein, as were enacted by 5 Geo. 1. c. 18. except only what relates therein to the laws of exciſe, ſhall continue as if this act had not been made. ſ. 10.

The management of the duty on foreign ſalt imported ſhall be under the care of the commiſſioners and officers of the cuſtoms. ſ. 11.

Such commiſſioners of the cuſtoms, or their officers, when the ſaid duties ſhall firſt come under their management, ſhall not on that account be obliged to qualify themſelves again, ſo as they have before that time duly qualified themſelves for the offices they ſhall be in poſſeſſion of. ſ. 12.

The allowance of 5 s. per barrel on the exportation of ſalted beef or pork exported for ſale from any part of Great Britain, ſhall be reduced to 1 s. 6 d. per barrel on all beef or pork ſalted with foreign ſalt only, without any mixture of Britiſh or Iriſh ſalt, to be paid out of the ſame duties as the bounties on fiſh exported. ſ. 15.

No foreign ſalt ſhall be imported in any ſhip of leſs burden than 40 tuns, and in bulk only (except for proviſions of the ſhip), on pain of forfeiting the ſalt, and double the value. ſ. 17.

Nothing herein ſhall determine the powers granted by 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 44. to the lord mayor and aldermen of London, and the juſtices of the peace, to ſet the prices at which ſalt ſhall be ſold. ſ. 18.

No proſecution ſhall, after the 25th March 1731, be brought againſt any perſon employed in the ſalt duties, for any thing by him done in the execution of his office. ſ. 19.

Any perſon ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, or any of the before-recited acts, may plead the general iſſue, and ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 25.

By 5 Geo. 2. c. 6. From the 25th of March 1732, for three years the duty of 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per gallon on ſalt made within this kingdom, granted by 5 & 6 Will. & Mar. c. 7. and alſo the additional duties on ſalt, whether imported or made in Great Britain, which were granted by the 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 44. or made payable by the articles of union, ſhall be revived, with the allowances for prompt payment, and waſte on ſalt carried coaſtwiſe, or to Ireland; and all the powers granted by the ſaid acts, or any other acts of parliament for levying the ſame, and all penalties relating thereto ſhall be revived. ſ. 1.

The managing the duties on ſalt and foreign ſalt, ſhall be under the care of the commiſſioners for the duties on ſalt appointed by his majeſty, and of the officers for the ſaid duties on ſalt; and the bounties upon the exportation of fiſh ſhall be allowed as before. ſ. 2.

The duty of 1 s. 8 d. per thouſand on red herrings, and of 3 s. 4 d. per barrel on white herrings cured promiſcuouſly with red herrings, or white herrings deſigned for exportation, but afterwards delivered out for home conſumption, by 8 Geo. 1. c. 4. & c. 16. ſhall be revived. ſ. 3. But ſee 26 Geo. 3. c. 81. ſ. 15. poſt.

The allowances of 5 s. per barrel on exportation of ſalt beef or pork exported for ſale from Great Britain to parts beyond the ſea ſhall be revived. ſ. 4.

No perſons who ſhall export ſalt, either foreign or Engliſh, or rock ſalt, for which the duties ſhall have been paid, ſhall have any greater allowance on prompt payment, and for waſte on being carried coaſtwiſe, and for waſte on being carried to Ireland, and upon exportation, than what really was before paid for the duty of the ſaid ſalt; and no perſons giving bond for the duty ſhall be intitled to any greater allowance for waſte, than what ſhall diſcharge the bond. ſ. 5.

By 7 Geo. 2. c. 6. The duties upon ſalt, and upon red and white herrings, ſhall be further continued for ſeven years. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners of his majeſty's duties on ſalt, to licence any perſons to make uſe of any building for the refining of rock ſalt, and making it into white ſalt, ſo as the number to be licenſed do not exceed one at each of the following places, viz. at Heybridge, Colcheſter, Maningtree, Ipſwich, Woodbridge, Walderſwick, and Southwold, upon requeſt from the juſtices of peace at the quarter ſeſſions neareſt to the places aforenamed, ſo as his majeſty's duties be duly paid. ſ. 17.

By 8 Geo. 2. c. 12. The miles mentioned in 1 Ann. ſt. 1. c. 21. ſ. 10. ſhall be taken according to the common eſtimation of the counties where ſuch pits are, and not according to the ſtatute meaſure. ſ. 2.

By 35 Eliz. c. 6. a mile ſhall contain eight furlongs, every furlong 40 poles, and every pole 16 foot and a half; but the act is expired.

No foreign ſalt ſhall be delivered over from the joint cuſtody of the officer and proprietor into the ſole cuſtody of the proprietor, for curing fiſh for exportation, except he give ſecurity that he will account for the foreign ſalt by him received, according to the acts 5 Geo. 1. c. 18. and 8 Geo. 1. c. 4.—ſ. 3.—See 26 Geo. 3. c. 81. ſ. 29. poſt.

By 14 Geo. 2. c. 22. Whereas there hath been anciently an houſe in which rock ſalt hath been refined near the ſea between Neath and Swanzey, in the county of Glamorgan, in South Wales, but the ſame is now covered with ſand, and uſeleſs, and ſalt works have been erected at Neath aforeſaid, about four or five miles from the place before-mentioned; it is therefore enacted, That rock ſalt may be uſed in the making ſalt from ſea water in the ſalt works at Neath aforeſaid; ſo as his majeſty's duties for all the ſalt proceeding as well from the ſaid rock ſalt as from the ſea water be duly paid. ſ. 19.

By this ſtatute the duties upon ſalt and upon red and white herrings are continued for ſeven years. And by 18 Geo. 2. c. 5. the ſaid duties are further continued for ſix years.

By 26 Geo. 2. c. 3. The duties upon ſalt, and upon red and white herrings continued by 18 Geo. 2. c. 5. ſhall be payable unto his majeſty for ever, ſubject to redemption by parliament; and ſhall be managed and paid in ſuch manner, and under ſuch powers, penalties, and regulations, and with ſuch allowances for prompt payment, and for waſte, on ſalt carried coaſtwiſe, or to Ireland, and for fiſh, beef, and pork, exported, and with ſuch other allowances, and drawbacks or debentures, on account of duties paid and ſecured for ſalt exported, as are mentioned in the acts recited in the 18 Geo. 2. c. 5. that is in 5 W. & M. c. 7. 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 31. 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 44. 3 Geo. 2. c. 20. 5 Geo. 2. c. 6. 7 Geo. 2. c. 6. 8 Geo. 2. c. 12. and 14 Geo. 2. c. 22. or in any other act now in force. ſ. 1.

Provided that the duties on ſalt ariſing in Scotland, ſhall be ſubject to the ſame or the like charges as they were ſubject to by 5 Geo. 1. c. 20. ſ. 2.

By 26 Geo. 2. c. 32. Where any ſalt or rock ſalt hath been or ſhall be loſt in carrying the ſame down any river in order to be ſhipped for exportation, or hath been or ſhall be loſt in the port after the ſame is ſhipped, and before the exporter is entitled to a debenture, and proof thereof hath been or ſhall be made as directed by 2 & 3 Ann. c. 14. and 8 Geo. 1. c. 4. the certificate for all ſuch ſalt or rock ſalt loſt ſhall be applied by the collector of the duties on ſalt for the place where the duty on ſuch ſalt or rock ſalt is ſecured, to diſcharge the ſecurity given for the duty of ſo much ſalt as ſhall appear by ſuch certificate to have been loſt. ſ. 6.

The ſix months limited by 4 & 5 Ann. c. 12. for making proof that any ſalt or rock ſalt ſhipped for exportation to Ireland, hath been loſt by ſinking of the ſhip, or been taken by enemies, ſhall be enlarged to two years. ſ. 7.

By 5 Geo. 3. c. 43. If any officer for the duties on ſalt ſhall deliver, or cauſe to be delivered, or be privy to the delivering, removing, or conveying, Britiſh white ſalt, refined ſalt, rock ſalt, or ſalt rock, from any ſalt work, crib, ſtorehouſe, warehouſe, or other place, made uſe of for making, refining, or keeping, of ſuch ſalt, or from any pits, or to the landing any foreign ſalt out of any ſhip importing the ſame, before entered and charged, whereby the maker, refiner, or owner, or the merchant or importer, ſhall become chargeable with the duties, ſuch officer ſhall forfeit above the penalty of the bond he entered into, either by himſelf or ſureties, for the performance of the truſt repoſed in him, double the value of ſuch ſalt, and alſo 10 s. per buſhel. ſ. 40.

Where ſalt is ſhipped on board veſſels for the fiſhery, or to be ſhipped for exportation, all ſuch ſalt which ſhall be landed without the preſence of an officer for the duties on ſalt, ſhall be forfeited, and alſo 10 s. per buſhel, to be recovered of the owner of ſuch veſſel; and all veſſels out of which ſuch ſalt ſhall be taken or put on ſhore, together with their tackle and apparrel, ſhall alſo be forfeited; and every perſon that ſhall take ſuch ſalt out of ſuch veſſel, or carry the ſame or ſhore, or convey the ſame from the ſhore when landed, or be aiding, ſhall forfeit 20 l. ſ. 41.

It ſhall be lawful for the officer of the duties on ſalt, where he ſhall meet with any perſon carrying ſalt by day or by night, by land or by water, to demand a ſight of the permit granted for conveying the ſaid ſalt; and if, upon producing ſuch permit, the officer ſhall ſuſpect that there is more ſalt than is expreſſed in ſuch permit, then the ſaid officer ſhall, at his own expence, re-weigh the ſalt; and if, on re-weighing the ſame, it ſhall be found to be more in weight than what is contained in the permit, then the ſurpluſage that ſhall exceed the quantity contained in the permit ſhall be forfeited, and the perſon concerned in carrying the ſame ſhall alſo be liable to the penalties by this and any other act for removing ſalt, &c. from any works or places without entry, or payment of the duties, or giving ſecurity for ſuch duties, or without warrant for removing the ſame. ſ. 42.

If any perſon ſhall obſtruct any officer, in the execution of his office, or of the powers given by this act, or any other law relating to the duties, or ſhall beat or abuſe the ſaid officers, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 20*l.* ſ. 43.

If any ſalt, as well Britiſh as foreign, rock ſalt, or ſalt refined from rock ſalt, or red herrings or white herrings, or any other ſort of fiſh, be ſeized for non-payment of duties, or any other cauſe, and any diſpute ſhall ariſe whether the ſalt, or herrings, or other fiſh, had been entered, and the duties paid or ſecured, or that ſuch ſalt, or herrings, or fiſh, had been condemned, or that the ſalt had been entered and locked up for the fiſhery according to law, or that the quantity of ſalt uſed in curing of fiſh, as ſet forth in the curer's account, was truly uſed; then, the proof thereof ſhall lie on the owner or the curer, and not on the officer who ſhall ſeize. ſ. 44.

Where ſalt or fiſh ſhall be liable to ſeizure by this or any former act, the bags, ſacks, caſks, or other package, and alſo the carriages, horſes, and cattle, made uſe of in conveying the ſame, ſhall be alſo forfeited; and the officers of the ſalt duties, and the officers of the cuſtoms may ſeize the ſame. ſ. 45.

All penalties and forfeitures, for which no other directions are before given, ſhall be recovered or mitigated, by ſuch ways as any forfeiture may be recovered by any law relating to the duties on ſalt; or the ſaid forfeitures may be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter, or in the exchequer in Scotland; and where not otherwiſe directed, one moiety of ſuch forfeiture ſhall be to his majeſty, and the other to him who ſhall diſcover, &c. ſ. 46.

For any thing done in purſuance of this or any other act relating to cuſtoms, exciſe, or ſalt duties, the defendants may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 47.

By 12 Geo. 3. c. 58. The maſter of the ſhip importing herrings from the Iſle of Man, ſhall bring with him a certificate from the governor, lieutenant-governor, commander in chief, or chief magiſtrates for the time being, that oath has been made before him or them, in the preſence of the officer of cuſtoms for the port where ſuch herrings ſhall be put on board, that the ſame were, bona fide, taken on the coaſts of the Iſle of Man, and cured there; which certificate ſhall alſo be atteſted by the officer of cuſtoms, and ſhall expreſs the number of barrels, and quantity, of ſuch herrings, and the marks of the package expreſſed in the bill of lading, with the name and abode of ſuch perſons as ſhall have made the oath before directed, and where and to whom ſuch herrings ſhall be conſigned in Great Britain; and the maſter ſhall alſo make oath before the collector or principal officer of the ſalt duties, at the port of importation in Great Britain, that the ſaid herrings are the ſame that were taken on board by virtue of the certificate; on failure whereof, and of any of the requiſites before mentioned, the herrings ſhall be liable to the ſame duties, penalties, and forfeitures, as ſuch herrings would have been liable to by law, if this act had not been made. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful for ſubjects reſiding in the Iſle of Man, to export from thence, and import into any Britiſh plantations in America, in Britiſh ſhips, manned and navigated according to 12 Car. 2. herrings caught and cured by them in the ſame manner as victuals of and from Ireland may be imported into the plantations by 15 Car. 2. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for any fiſherman inhabiting the Iſle of Man, to load there on board any veſſel or boat, employed in the fiſhery on the coaſts of the iſland, any quantity of ſalt neceſſary for curing the herrings taken by ſuch veſſel, bond being firſt given to his majeſty, with one ſurety beſides the maſter, to be approved of by the collector, or principal officer of revenue, at the port from whence ſuch veſſel ſhall depart, in 50*l.* for every ton of ſalt taken on board, with condition that the ſame ſhall be uſed only in the curing of ſuch herrings, and ſhall not be landed in Great Britain, or tranſhipped, or put on board any other veſſel; and on return of ſuch veſſel from the fiſhery into any port in the Iſle of Man, the maſter and one of the crew ſhall make oath before the collector or principal officer of revenue, at the neareſt port where they arrive, that the ſalt ſo laden in ſuch veſſel (excepting ſuch part as may remain unuſed) has been really expended in curing the herrings caught by them, and that no part thereof had been landed in Great Britain, or tranſhipped, or put on board any other ſhip; which bond ſhall continue in force for one year from the completion of the voyage: and in caſe no fraud appears within that time, it ſhall be lawful for the receiver-general of his majeſty's revenue in the Iſle of Man, or his deputy, to direct the bond to be cancelled and delivered up. ſ. 5.

By 19 Geo. 3. c. 52. The duties now payable on ſalt uſed in curing of pilchards for home conſumption, ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 1.

At the beginning of every fiſhing ſeaſon for pilchards, the proprietor of the ſalt delivered duty free for curing of pilchards for exportation, purſuant to 5 Geo. 1., or his agent, ſhall, inſtead of the oath required by the ſaid act, make oath, in writing, before the officer for the duty on ſalt, at the neareſt office, declaring the quantity of foreign or Britiſh ſalt lodged for the curing of fiſh, and that all the ſaid ſalt is intended for curing of fiſh for exportation only; and ſhall not, by his order, conſent, or connivance, directly or indirectly, be ſold, given away, or any way delivered, but for the purpoſe aforeſaid, except ſo much as ſhall be uſed for curing pilchards, entered with the officer of the place for home conſumption, and charged with the duties by this act chargeable thereon. ſ. 2.

Every curer of pilchards, before he removes any (except for exportation) from the office, cellar, or place, where cured, ſhall make entry thereof at the next ſalt office, and ſhall pay a duty of 5*s.* 2½*d.* for every caſk or barrel containing 50 gallons of cured pilchards, ſo to be removed, and ſo in proportion, in lieu of any other duty impoſed on ſalt, in reſpect of pilchards cured for home conſumption; and no ſuch curer ſhall ſell a leſs quantity than 25 gallons of pilchards at one time; and ſuch pilchards ſhall be packed in caſks each not leſs than 25 gallons, and the contents of ſuch caſks ſhall be marked on the heads thereof by the officer; and upon entry and payment of the duty, and marking ſuch caſks, a permit ſhall be given gratis by the ſalt officer, expreſſing the contents of the caſks for which the duty ſhall be paid, and the marks of ſuch caſks, and for what place the ſame are intended, and whether to be ſent by land or water carriage, on pain of forfeiting all the pilchards that ſhall be ſold in leſs quantities than before mentioned, or that ſhall be removed before entry, and the duty paid, and without the caſks containing ſuch quantity of pilchards at the leaſt, and being marked, and ſuch permit obtained, and of the caſks in which ſuch pilchards ſhall be found, and alſo the 40*s.* for every 25 gallons of pilchards ſold or removed, removed, to be recovered from the perſon who ſhall ſell or carry away the ſame; one moiety for his majeſty, and the other to the officer who ſhall ſeize, &c. to be recovered as any forfeiture may by law of exciſe, or by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter; and officers of cuſtoms, exciſe, or ſalt, are hereby empowered to ſeize pilchards ſo ſold in leſs quantities than before mentioned, or removed before entry and payment of duty, and all other things performed as aforeſaid, and the ſaid caſks wherein they ſhall be found. ſ. 3.

No perſon puchaſing pilchards to ſell by retail ſhall, at one time, buy a leſs quantity than 25 gallons, and ſhall alſo be obliged upon demand, or inquiry made of him, by any officer of cuſtoms or exciſe, in the day, to diſcover to ſuch officer the name and place of abode of the curer or vender; and if ſuch retailer ſhall purchaſe a leſs quantity than before mentioned, or ſhall, upon ſuch demand, refuſe to diſcover the name and abode of ſuch curer or vender, he ſhall forfeit the pilchards ſo purchaſed, or reſpecting which ſuch demand ſhall be made, and the caſk (if any) wherein the ſame ſhall be contained, and alſo 40*s.* to be recovered in manner before mentioned. ſ. 4.

The proprietor of the ſalt delivered duty free for curing pilchards for exportation, or his agent, ſhall, in the account which, after the end of every fiſhing ſeaſon, they are to deliver in writing, into the ſalt office, containing the quantity of fiſh exported, or entered to be exported, on which the ſalt taken away, after its delivery into the ſole cuſtody of the ſaid proprietor or his agent, has been uſed, as by the former law is directed, (and under the penalties thereby preſcribed) expreſs alſo the quantity of pilchards entered for home conſumption, on which ſuch ſalt has been uſed. ſ. 5.

In caſe the duties of exciſe on ſalt (which now amount to 3*s.* 4*d. per* buſhel, on home-made ſalt, and 6*s.* 8*d.* on foreign ſalt), or any of them, ſhall ceaſe, or be redeemed by parliament, then the duty of 5*s.* 2½*d.* for every caſk of 50 gallons, hereby impoſed upon cured pilchards for home conſumption, ſhall ceaſe, or be leſſened in proportion to the duties that ſhall ceaſe, &c. ſ. 6.

By 20 Geo. 3. c. 34. No debenture ſhall be granted, or drawback paid, on account of the exportation of ſalt for the Iſle of Man, until the exporter ſhall produce to the officer appointed to make out ſuch debenture, a certificate, under the hand of the chief officer of the cuſtoms of the place in the Iſle of Man where ſuch ſalt ſhall be landed, or of the perſon executing ſuch office, of the particular quantity actually landed, to be computed after the rate of 56 pounds weight to the buſhel, in caſe the ſame ſhall be white ſalt, and after 65 pounds to the buſhel, in caſe the ſame ſhall be rock-ſalt; which ſalt is to be weighed by the ſaid officer, who ſhall, without delay, deliver a certificate thereof as aforeſaid, gratis. ſ. 3.

No drawback ſhall be paid for more ſalt of the quantity exported, than what ſhall appear by ſuch certificate to have been actually landed in the Iſle of Man. ſ. 4.

Upon producing ſuch certificate, the exporter or proprietor of ſuch white ſalt and rock-ſalt ſhall have an allowance of 4 buſhels for every 40 of white ſalt, and 2 buſhels for every 40 of rock ſalt, put on board in order to be exported to the Iſle of Man, in conſideration of the ordinary waſte in the carriage thereof, to be allowed upon the debenture before mentioned, over the quantity certified to have been landed in the iſle, and no other allowance for ſuch waſte. ſ. 5. But this allowance is reduced by 25 Geo. 3. c. 63.

No debenture ſhall be granted to the exporter for more than the quantity actually ſhipped, although the certificate of the quantity landed in the iſle, together with the allowance for waſte, ſhall amount to more. ſ. 6.

In caſe any ſalt or rock-ſalt, ſhipped for exportation to the Iſle of Man, (the duties whereof ſhall have been paid or ſecured,) ſhall happen to periſh by ſinking the ſhip, or ſhall be taken by enemies, then the exporter or proprietor ſhall, upon proof made before the general quarter-ſeſſions for the county, &c. from whence the ſame ſhall be exported, of the loſs of ſuch ſalt ſhipped, receive from the ſeſſions a certificate, (which the juſtices are to grant,) that ſuch proof was made before them; and upon producing the ſaid certificate to the officer where the duty ſhall have been paid or ſecured, ſuch ſecurity ſhall be diſcharged, and ſo much as was actually paid for the duty ſhall be repaid upon demand by the officer, without fee, provided ſuch proof ſhall be made by two witneſſes upon oath, within two years after loſs. ſ. 7.

There ſhall be no debenture made out, or drawback allowed, for ſalt, &c. landed in the Iſle of Man, unleſs the entry at exportation be made for ſome place in the iſle. ſ. 8.

Perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 9.

By 22 Geo. 3. c. 39. It ſhall be lawful for any perſon in Great Britain to take rock ſalt or ſalt rock from any rock pit, or to take any brine or ſea water for the purpoſe of making a mineral alkali or flux for glaſs, upon giving ſecurity in double the duty; ſuch ſecurity to be diſcharged upon the proprietor or manufacturer, or his agent, making oath before a neighbouring juſtice, that all the ſaid ſalt, for which ſuch bond was given, were made uſe of in making ſuch mineral alkali or flux, and for no other purpoſe, and the officer at the ſame time certifying his belief thereof; and no perſon whatſoever ſhall obtain ſuch ſalt, brine, or ſea water, for making mineral alkali or flux, unleſs ſuch perſon ſhall have firſt obtained a licence from the commiſſioners of the ſalt duties, or perſons appointed by them, for making of mineral alkali or flux, to be made from ſuch rock ſalt or ſalt rock, or from brine or ſea water, or from any other materials whatever, and ſhall pay for ſuch licence 5*l.*; and which licence, upon payment thereof, the ſaid commiſſioners, or thoſe appointed under them, are to grant, (unleſs they ſee cauſe to the contrary;) and alſo ſhall deliver in to ſuch commiſſioners, or at the ſalt-office next to the place where the ſaid mineral alkali or flux is intended to be made, or to their habitation, a true entry in writing, under their hands, containing the ſituation of the place, wherein not only the ſaid mineral alkali is to be manufactured, but alſo where the ſame, and the rock-ſalt, or ſalt rock, brine, or ſea water, from which the ſame is to be made, ſhall be kept; and alſo of every ſtorehouſe, warehouſe, and other place, to be in any wiſe uſed in manufacturing of ſuch mineral alkali or flux: and if any perſon ſhall make any mineral alkali or flux, without firſt taking out ſuch licence, ſuch perſon ſhall, for ſuch offence, forfeit 500*l.*; and perſons, who ſhall take out ſuch licence, are to take out a freſh licence ten days before the expiration of twelve months from taking out the firſt, before he preſume to make, vend, or uſe any rock ſalt or ſalt rock, from any rock pit, or to take any brine or ſea water for making a mineral alkali or flux for glaſs, or to make any mineral alkali or flux from rock ſalt or ſalt rock, brine or ſea water, or from any other materials whatever, and in the ſame manner to renew ſuch licence from year to year, paying ing down 5 l. for each renewed licence, in manner before mentioned; and if any perſon ſhall preſume to make any mineral alkali or flux, or to make, vend, or uſe, any rock ſalt, &c. or to take any brine, &c. for making a mineral alkali or flux for glaſs, without firſt taking out ſuch licence, and renewing the ſame yearly, he ſhall forfeit 500 l. ſ. 2.

No ſuch ſalt rock or rock ſalt ſhall be delivered at any of the works or pits, from which the ſame ſhall be produced, under any pretext of making mineral alkali or flux for glaſs therefrom, or ſhall be afterwards delivered at ſuch works, for making mineral alkali or flux, or ſtored in any warehouſe belonging thereto, but in the preſence of ſome officer of ſalt duties neareſt to ſuch works; and who ſhall make and keep an entry in writing, containing the true quantity of ſalt ſo delivered at ſuch ſalt works, and brought into ſuch alkali works, together with the day on which the ſame ſhall be delivered at ſuch ſalt works, and brought into ſuch alkali works; and which entry, at ſuch ſalt works, ſhall alſo contain the name of the perſon to whom the ſalt was delivered, and for the uſe of what work for making mineral alkali or flux, and to whom belonging; and that a duplicate thereof, ſigned by the officer, ſhall be produced and delivered to the officer attending at ſuch alkali work, at the time the ſalt ſhall be brought into be there uſed, &c. ſ. 3.

In caſe the ſalt ſo brought in to be uſed at ſuch works, for making mineral alkali, &c. ſhall be of leſs weight than that contained in the entry at ſuch ſalt work, &c. at the time of the delivery thereof, the perſon to whoſe uſe the ſalt was delivered at ſuch ſalt works ſhall be anſwerable for the ſame. ſ. 4.

In caſe any perſon to whom or on whoſe uſe any ſuch ſalt ſhall be delivered at ſuch ſalt works, ſecured as aforeſaid, ſhall uſe the ſame, or any part thereof, or any acid materials to be produced therefrom, after being uſed in making of ſuch mineral alkali or flux, for any other purpoſe than that of making mineral alkali or flux for glaſs, the perſon offending ſhall, upon conviction, forfeit for the ſalt or acid materials uſed for any other purpoſe, after the rate of double the duties impoſed by this or any former act, on rock ſalt or ſalt rock. ſ. 5.

In caſe any perſon ſhall, under any pretext whatſoever, procure ſuch ſalt to be delivered to him at ſuch ſalt works, and otherwiſe than for being uſed in making of mineral alkali or flux for glaſs, and ſhall be convicted thereof, the perſon offending ſhall forfeit 40 s. for every buſhel obtained. ſ. 6.

It ſhall be lawful for the officers of the ſalt duties to enter into all works, warehouſes, and places made uſe of by any proprietor or manufacturer of mineral alkali or flux for glaſs, made from rock ſalt, ſalt rock, brine, or ſea water, either for ſtoring the ſame, or of ſtoring any ſalt, brine, or ſea water, for the purpoſe of making the ſame; and if ſuch proprietor or manufacturer, that, upon requeſt made by the officers, in the day-time, or in the night, in the preſence of a conſtable, or officer of the peace, refuſe to permit ſuch officer to enter into ſuch works, &c. ſhall forfeit 40 l. ſ. 7.

Nothing in this act ſhall impoſe any duty on ſuch Glauber ſalts as ſhall be made in any of the proceſſes of making mineral alkali or flux for glaſs, and which ſhall be truly conſumed in making ſuch mineral alkali or flux. ſ. 8.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to the manufacture of kelp, barilla, or flux, for glaſs, made in Great Britain, by the incineration of marine or other plants. ſ. 9.

No grey or ſcrow ſalt, ſalt-ſcale, ſand-ſcale, or cruſtings, or other foul ſalt whatſoever, produced at any ſalt works within England, Wales, and Berwick, from the manufacturing of white ſalt, ſhall be removed from the works where produced, without notice firſt given to the officer; and without having been firſt well mixed, in the preſence of ſuch officer, at the expence of the purchaſer or proprietor, with common chimney coal ſoot, in the proportion of two buſhels of ſoot to 100 buſhels of ſalt; and if any perſon ſhall preſume to remove ſuch foul ſalt from the works, without having been ſo mixed with ſoot, he ſhall forfeit 20 s. for every buſhel of foul ſalt; one moiety to his majeſty, and the other to ſuch perſon who ſhall inform, &c. and to be recovered as any fine, &c. may by any law of exciſe, or by action of debt, &c. at Weſtminſter. ſ. 11. But ſee 25 Geo. 3. 63. ſ. 5 & 6. in page 439.

Perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue; and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 12.

But by 26 Geo. 3. c. 90. Such part of the foregoing act as relates to the obtaining of rock ſalt or ſalt rock duty free, or brine, or ſea water, for the purpoſe of making a mineral alkali or flux for glaſs, ſhall be repealed, except as after mentioned. ſ. 1.

Provided, that it ſhall be lawful for any glaſs maker to have and take any rock ſalt or ſalt rock, or brine, or ſea water, for the purpoſe only of making a flux for glaſs, at his glaſs work, and not elſewhere, upon paying the like duty, and obtaining ſuch licence as is in the act mentioned, and ſubject to the like directions. ſ. 2.

By 25 Geo. 3. c. 58. For every caſk or veſſel of pilchards, containing 50 gallons, and ſo in proportion, which ſhall be exported from Great Britain into parts beyond the ſeas, between the 25th of June 1785, and the 25th of June 1786, upon which the perſon exporting ſhall be entitled to the bounty of 7 s. by 5 Geo. 1. c. 18. and 3 Geo. 2. c. 20. an additional bounty of 2 s. ſhall be paid to ſuch perſon ſo entitled to the bounty of 7 s. in ſuch manner as the bounty of 7 s. is to be paid. ſ. 1.

The regulations ſhall be in force with reſpect to pilchards exported, to prevent the relanding or reimporting thereof; and the owners ſhall be ſubject to the ſame penalties, in caſe of relanding, or other fraudulent proceedings, in order to obtain the bounties granted by this act, as by the 5 Geo. 1. are preſcribed, with regard to fiſh cured in and exported from England. ſ. 2.

Where any fiſh, entitled to the bounty granted by this act, ſhall be loaden for exportation, and entered and paſſed by the proper officer, and the fiſh ſhall be loſt or ſpoiled before the ſhip's proceeding on her voyage, then the officer of the port where ſuch fiſh was entered, ſhall, upon due proof thereof, made upon oath before any of the chief officers of ſuch port, by the proprietor, or his agents, give a debenture for the bounty granted by this act, as if ſuch fiſh had been actually exported; provided that the ſaid fiſh was ſunk in the ſea or port where the ſaid ſhip was loſt or deſtroyed, in the ſight of the proper officer, where any of the ſaid fiſh ſhall come aſhore, and that no uſe be made of the ſaid fiſh by the proprietor or his agents; and the officer is to cauſe ſuch fiſh to be burnt or deſtroyed. ſ. 3.

'As veſſels, the length of which is greater than in 'the proportion of three feet and an half to one foot in 'breadth, are commonly employed in the pilchard fiſh-'ery; which, together with all goods laden thereon and 'their tackle and furniture, are ſubjected to forfeiture 'by 24 Geo. 3. c. 47.' (See general title IMPORTATION, &c.) 'unleſs the ſame are licenſed as the ſaid act directs:' It is therefore enacted, that it ſhall be lawful for the officer appointed to collect the duties on ſalt in any port in this king-kingdom, upon demand of the owner of ſuch veſſel or boat, and ſecurity given as after mentioned, to grant to ſuch owner a licence, to be ſubſcribed by ſuch officer, ſpecifying the tonnage of ſuch veſſel, and deſcribing the built thereof, with reſpect to length and breadth, and who is the owner thereof; which licence the officer is duly to regiſter, and no fee ſhall be demanded or received for ſuch licence, nor for the regiſtering of the ſame; and the owner ſhall give ſufficient ſecurity, by bond, to his majeſty, in double the value of ſuch veſſel, to be approved by ſuch officer, (which bond the officer is to provide, without demanding or receiving any fee, except the ſtamp duties thereon,) with condition that ſuch veſſel ſhall not be employed in the importation or landing of any tea or foreign ſpirituous liquors, or any prohibited or other goods, contrary to 24 Geo. 3. c. 27. or of any other act, or in the exportation of any goods which are prohibited to be exported, or in the relanding of any goods whatſoever, contrary to law, which are entered outwards for exportation, for any drawback or bounty, or which are prohibited to be uſed or worn in Great Britain; on failure whereof, ſuch licence ſhall be void, and ſuch veſſel ſhall be liable to ſeizure and proſecution, in the ſame manner as if no licence had been granted. ſ. 4.

Perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have double coſts. ſ. 5.

And by 26 Geo. 3. c. 45. The act 25 Geo. 3. c. 58. (except as after mentioned) ſhall, from the 24th of June 1786, be continued for five years. ſ. 1.

In caſe the quantity of pilchards exported from Great Britain, upon which the bounty of 7 s. ſhall become payable, do in one year exceed 20,000 hogſheads, the additional bounty of 2 s. ſhall not be payable for any pilchards ſo exported beyond the 20,000 hogſheads. ſ. 2.

If a greater quantity than 20,000 hogſheads of pilchards ſhall be taken, cured, and exported, in one year, then the additional bounty of 2 s. upon the 20,000 hogſheads ſhall be paid to each perſon entitled to the additional bounty, in proportion to the whole quantity of pilchards ſo taken, cured, and exported. ſ. 3.

The charges attending the obtaining this act ſhall be defrayed by the perſons to whom the additional bounty ſhall be payable, according to the money by them received, not exceeding 2 s. on each caſk or veſſel of pilchards containing 50 gallons. ſ. 6.

By 25 Geo. 3. c. 63. Be it enacted, that the ſeveral allowances for waſte on white ſalt and rock ſalt carried coaſtwiſe, or ſhipped or exported to Ireland, under 5 Ann. 29. 6 Ann. c. 12. and 20 Geo. 3. c. 34. be reduced; and inſtead, there be allowed for waſte on white ſalt and rock ſalt, carried coaſtwiſe not leſs than twenty miles by ſea, after the rate of one buſhel for every forty of white ſalt, and after the rate of half a buſhel for every forty of rock ſalt; and for waſte on white ſalt and rock ſalt exported to Ireland, after the rate of two buſhels for every forty of white ſalt, and one buſhel for every forty of rock ſalt, the perſons who claim the ſaid all owances producing ſuch certificate as is by the former acts required; and that no allowance whatſoever be made for waſte on any ſalt carried coaſtwiſe by ſea leſs than twenty miles. ſ. 1.

And by 26 Geo. 3. c. 36. All allowances hereafter to be made for waſte on white ſalt and rock ſalt to be exported to the Iſle of Man, ſhall be after the rate of one buſhel in forty of white ſalt, and half a buſhel in forty of rock ſalt. ſ. 1.

The directions of 20 Geo. 3. c. 34. ſo far as the ſame relate to the exportation of white ſalt or rock ſalt to the Iſle of Man (except as to the allowance for waſte as after mentioned) ſhall extend to the exportation of white ſalt and rock ſalt to Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, and Sark. ſ. 2.

Provided that, inſtead of the allowance for waſte of four buſhels for every forty of white ſalt, and of two for every forty of rock ſalt, ſhipped for exportation to the Iſle of Man, in purſuance of the laſt act, or to Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, and Sark, every exporter ſhall be allowed only one buſhel for every forty of white, and half a buſhel for every forty of rock ſalt. ſ. 3.

Thoſe parts which allow the uſing of foul ſalt for manuring of land only, and direct that it ſhall not be removed from the works without having been firſt mixed with chimney coal ſoot, ſhall be repealed. And all foul ſalt that ſhall be made at any ſalt works, ſhall be ſubject to the ſame duties as any Engliſh white ſalt. ſ. 5 & 6.

No fiſh curer ſhall ſell, retail, or vend any ſalt other than to fiſh curers, in purſuance of 5 Geo. 1. c. 18. under the penalty of forfeiting 20 s. a buſhel for every buſhel that he ſhall ſo diſpoſe of, and ſhall never afterwards be permited to have ſalt duty free, or be concerned with any other as a curer of fiſh. ſ. 8.

No herrings caught upon the coaſts of the Iſle of Man, and cured there, ſhall be ſhipped or exported from thence, for any place, till ſuch certificate is obtained as required by 12 Geo. 3. c. 58. under the penalty of 40 s. a barrel, to be recovered of the owner, proprietor, maſter of the veſſel, or the perſon who ſhall ſhip or export the ſame; and alſo giving bond to his majeſty, in double the amount of the duty, to the ſatisfaction of the chief officer of cuſtoms (who is to take the ſame), at the port in the ſaid iſland where ſuch herrings ſhall be ſhipped, for landing them at the port for which they ſhall be ſhipped, and if for Great Britain, upon paying the duty and making the oath upon the importation thereof; which bond ſhall be diſcharged, without fee, upon certificate returned or produced to the chief officer of cuſtoms, of the port in the ſaid iſland from whence the herrings were exported, within twelve months from the date of the bond, or otherwiſe it ſhall be lawful for ſuch chief officer to cauſe ſuch bond to be put in ſuit, unleſs he find cauſe to forbear; which certificate the chief officer of the ſalt duties, or otherwiſe of the cuſtoms (in caſe there be no ſalt officer), at the port of importation in Great Britain, or any other of his majeſty's dominions, is to grant, without fee; and if exported to any other place out of his majeſty's dominions, then, upon certificate under the common ſeal of the chief magiſtrate there, or under the hands and ſeals of two known Britiſh merchants, then at ſuch place, that ſuch herrings were there landed; or upon proof, by credible perſons, that ſuch herrings, or part thereof, were taken by enemies, periſhed in the ſeas, or were otherwiſe loſt by accident; the examination and proof thereof being left to the judgment of the governor, lieutenant governor, commander in chief, or chief magiſtrates of the Iſle of Man. ſ. 9.

On delivering over Britiſh ſalt from the joint cuſtody of the officer and proprietor, into the ſole cuſtody of the proprietor or his agent, for the curing of fiſh for exportation, the proprietor or his agent ſhall give ſecurity (to the ſatisfaction of the chief officer of ſalt duties in the port where ſuch ſalt has been lodged) in double the amount of the duties, that he will account for the ſame, according to the acts made in that behalf, in like manner as curers of fiſh now do for foreign ſalt delivered into their ſole cuſtody, for curing fiſh for exportation, by 8 Geo. 2.; and all ſuch ſalt ſhall, upon being delivered into the ſole cuſtody of the proprietor, be weighed over by the proprietor in the preſence ſence of the officer for the duties on ſalt, if he require the ſame, that the quantity delivered, and the deficiency from the quantity before lodged under the joint lock and key of ſuch officer and proprietor, may be aſcertained, and the real quantity wanting at the re-delivery truly known, making allowance for the waſte for the time the ſalt has been locked up; and every fiſh curer, who ſhall neglect or refuſe to weigh over to the officer what ſalt ſhall remain unuſed (in order to adjuſt the quantity uſed), and alſo to lock up the remainder in the joint cuſtody of the officer and proprietor, when required, ſhall forfeit 500 l. and ſhall never afterwards be permitted to have ſalt duty free for the curing of fiſh, or be concerned with any other as a curer of fiſh; and no ſalt, after the ſame has been delivered into the ſole cuſtody of the curer of fiſh for foreign markets, ſhall be delivered over to any other perſon for curing of fiſh, nor ſhall be removed from the place where lodged to any other place for curing fiſh, without giving notice to the officer, and having a warrant from him, upon pain of 50 l. by the proprietor or owner of the ſalt, or the perſon removing the ſame; and no perſon ſhall be deemed a curer of fiſh, ſo as to have ſalt delivered into his ſole cuſtody duty free, for curing fiſh for foreign markets, who has not a warehouſe, wherein the ſalt may be lodged under the lock and key of the officer, as well as the proprietor. ſ. 10.

For the better trial of any indictment for any aſſault upon any of the officers, or others acting in their aid, ſuch offence may be tried in any county within England, as if the offence had been therein committed. ſ. 11.

Where any writ of capias, or other proceſs, ſhall iſſue out of any court, directed to any ſheriff, or perſon having the execution of proceſs in any county, city, or liberty, againſt any perſon proſecuted for any offence, contrary to any ſtatutes relating to duties on ſalt, or any other duties under the management of the commiſſioners for the duties on ſalt, ſuch ſheriff, and their under ſheriffs, &c. ſhall, upon the requeſt of the known ſolicitor for the duties on ſalt (ſuch requeſt to be in writing, indorſed upon the back of the proceſs, and ſigned by ſuch ſolicitor), grant a ſpecial warrant to ſuch perſon as ſhall be named to them by ſuch ſolicitor, for apprehending ſuch offender; or, in default thereof, ſuch ſheriff, &c. ſhall be ſubject to ſuch proceſs of contempt, fines, amerciaments, penalties, and forfeitures, as they are now by law liable to in caſe of refuſing to execute the like proceſs, where the defendant might have been taken thereupon, in the common method of proceeding. ſ. 12.

As it has been doubted where the commiſſioners for the duties and juſtices, have iſſued out any ſummons, which hath been left at the houſe or uſual reſidence, or with the wife, child, or ſervant, whether the ſame ſhould be deemed a ſufficient ſummons; now ſuch ſummons, ſo left, ſhall be deemed to be a ſufficient ſummons, and as legal a notice as if the ſame had been actually delivered to the proper hands of ſuch perſons to whom the ſame was by name directed. ſ. 13.

In all caſes relating to the duties on ſalt, or to any of the other duties which now are, or hereafter may be under the management of the commiſſioners of the duties on ſalt, the leaving ſuch ſummons at the houſe, workhouſe, warehouſe, boiling houſe, hot houſe, ſalt crib, ſhop, cellar, vault, or uſual reſidence of ſuch perſon, directed to ſuch perſon by his right or aſſumed name, ſhall be deemed to be as legal a notice and ſummons as if perſonally given to the party for whom the ſame ſhall be deſigned, and as if the ſame was directed to the party by his proper name. ſ. 14.

In caſe any ſuit ſhall be commenced and brought to trial, on account of the ſeizure of any ſalt, fiſh, or other goods whatſoever, or the package thereof, ſeized as forfeited by any act relating to the duties on ſalt, or any other duties under the management of the commiſſioners for the duties on ſalt, or of any ſhip, veſſel, or boat, or of any horſes or other cattle, or of any carriages uſed in removing the ſame, wherein a verdict ſhall be found for the owner or claimer, and it ſhall appear to the court, that there was a probable cauſe of ſeizure, the court ſhall certify on the record, that there was a probable cauſe, and in ſuch caſe the claimant or owner ſhall not be intitled to any coſts, nor ſhall the perſon who ſeized, be liable to any action, indictment, or ſuit, on account of ſuch ſeizure; and in caſe any action, indictment, or proſecution, ſhall be commenced and brought to trial, againſt any perſon, on account of the ſeizure, wherein a verdict ſhall be given againſt the defendant, if the court ſhall certify on the record, that there was a probable cauſe for ſuch ſeizure, then the plaintiff, beſides the thing ſeized or the value thereof, ſhall not be intitled to above two pence damages, nor to any coſts, nor ſhall the defendant, in ſuch proſecution, be fined above 1 s. ſ. 15.

No writ ſhall be ſued out againſt, nor a copy of any proceſs ſerved upon any officer for the ſalt duties, or againſt any perſon acting by his order, and in his aid, until one month after notice in writing ſhall have been delivered to him, or left at his abode, by the attorney for the party who intends to ſue; in which notice ſhall be clearly contained the cauſe of action, the name and abode of the perſon who is to bring ſuch action, and the name and abode of the attorney, and a fee of 20 s. ſhall be paid for preparing and ſerving ſuch notice. ſ. 16.

It ſhall be lawful for any of the ſaid officers, or perſons acting in their aid, to whom ſuch notice ſhall be given, within one month after ſuch notice given, to tender amends to the party complaining, or to his attorney; and in caſe the ſame is not accepted, to plead ſuch tender in bar, together with not guilty, and any other plea with leave of the court; and if, upon iſſue joined thereon, the jury find the amends tendered ſufficient, then they ſhall give a verdict for the defendant; and in ſuch caſe, or in caſe the plaintiff ſhall become nonſuited, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall be intitled to the like coſts, as in caſe he had pleaded the general iſſue only; and if the jury find that no amends were tendered, or that the ſame were not ſufficient, and ſhall alſo find againſt the defendant, then they ſhall give a verdict for the plaintiff, and ſuch damages as they think proper, together with coſts. ſ. 17.

No plaintiff ſhall produce any evidence of the cauſe of action, except ſuch as ſhall be contained in the notice, or ſhall recover any verdict againſt ſuch officer or perſons acting in his aid, unleſs he prove on the trial that ſuch notice was given, and in default of ſuch proof, the defendant ſhall recover a verdict and coſts. ſ. 18.

In caſe ſuch officer or others neglect to tender amends, or have tendered inſufficient, it ſhall be lawful for them, by leave of the court, before iſſue joined, to pay into court ſuch money as they ſee fit. ſ. 19.

Action againſt any perſon for any matter done by any officer for the ſalt duties, or others acting in their aid, ſhall be brought within three months, and ſhall be laid and tried in the county where the facts were committed, and the defendant may plead the general iſſue, and if the plaintiff become nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 20.

If any ſalt, fiſh, or other goods, liable to duties, ſhall be ſeized by virtue of any act now or hereafter made, or if any action ſhall be brought by the owner or claimer of ſuch ſalt,

ſalt, or goods, againſt any officer, &c. for any thing done in purſuance of ſuch acts, the proof of the payment of the duties upon ſuch ſalt, &c. ſeized, ſhall lie upon the owner or claimer, and not on the perſon who ſeized. ſ. 21.

If any perſon obſtruct, aſſault, reſiſt, oppoſe, moleſt, or hinder any officer of the ſalt duties in the execution of his office, or beat or abuſe the ſaid officers in the execution of their office, every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit 100 l. ſ. 22.

Upon the entry of any claim to any horſes or other cattle, or to any carriages, or to any ſhip, boat, or other veſſel, or to any ſalt, fiſh, or other goods, or the package thereof, or to any other thing whatſoever, ſeized for forfeiture, by virtue of any act now or hereafter made, relating to the duties on ſalt, or any other duties under the management of the commiſſioners, the perſon who ſhall enter the claim, as the owner or proprietor (in caſe ſuch claimant ſhall reſide in Great Britain) ſhall be bound, with two ſecurities, in the penalty of 100 l. to pay the coſts occaſioned by ſuch claim; and if ſuch owner ſhall not reſide in Great Britain, then the attorney by whoſe direction ſuch claim ſhall be entered, ſhall be bound, with two other ſecurities, in like penalty, to pay the coſts occaſioned by ſuch claim. ſ. 23.

All fines and forfeitures, by this and any former act impoſed or hereafter to be impoſed, relating to the duties on ſalt, or any other duty now or hereafter to be under the management of the commiſſioners for the duties on ſalt, ſhall be recovered or mitigated, by ſuch ways as any forfeiture may be recovered or mitigated by law of exciſe, or ſalt duties; and no appeal or writ of certiorari ſhall be allowed upon any judgment or conviction: or by any action of debt, &c. in any court of record in Great Britain; and one moiety of every forfeiture (not otherwiſe directed) ſhall be to his majeſty, and the other to him who ſhall diſcover, &c. ſ. 25.

Perſons ſued for any thing done by virtue of this or any other act now in force or hereafter to be made, may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 26.

By 26 Geo. 3. c. 81. All duties now payable for ſuch herrings, cod, ling, hake, and ſalmon, or other white fiſh, caught and cured by Britiſh ſubjects, as ſhall be removed for home conſumption, except ſuch equalizing duties as are by this act continued on ſalmon, &c. cured with ſalt for which the duty hath been paid, and which ſhall be imported into England from Scotland, ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 15.

On all barrels in which any fiſh whatſoever (except freſh fiſh) ſhall be packed either for exportation or home conſumption, the names of the curers ſhall be burnt with iron, in permanent characters; and every barrel which ſhall not have the name of the curer marked ſhall be ſeized and ſecured by any officer of cuſtoms; and upon proof of the fact upon oath, before one juſtice, ſuch barrel ſhall, together with the fiſh therein be forfeited. ſ. 17.

The ſtaves of every barrel in which white herrings, &c. ſhall be packed for exportation ſhall not be of leſs thickneſs at the bulge than half an inch, and ſuch barrels ſhall be full bound; and every barrel found to be of leſs thickneſs, or not full bound, ſhall be ſeized and ſecured by any officer of cuſtoms; and upon proof of the fact, on oath, before one juſtice, ſhall, together with the fiſh therein, be forfeited. ſ. 18.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon to carry from any port in Great Britain, to any other port in the united kingdom, for home conſumption, any red herrings or white herrings, or any ſalmon, cod, ling, tuſk, &c. cured with ſalt made in any part of Great Britain. ſ. 20.

The duties, which by 29 Geo. 2. c. 23. are payable on the importation into England, of ſalmon, cod, ling, tuſk, &c. cured with ſalt made in Scotland, for which the duty hath been there paid, ſhall be continued, and the ſame duties paid for all ſalmon, cod, ling, hake, tuſk, &c. brought from Scotland into England for home conſumption, cured in Scotland with ſalt made in Great Britain, for which the duty hath been paid or ſecured; and the proviſions in the ſaid act for the entry and clearance of ſuch ſalmon, &c. cured with ſalt made in Scotland, and for the importation and removal thereof, and for the payment and ſecuring the duties thereby granted, and the penalties thereby inflicted for breach of the proviſions, ſhall be obſerved. ſ. 21.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon to carry from any port in Great Britain, to any other port in the united kingdom, for exportation to foreign parts, any red herrings or white herrings, or any ſalmon, cod, ling, tuſk, &c. the owner of the fiſh, or maſter of the veſſel, making oath before the chief officer of cuſtoms, or his deputy, that ſuch fiſh were caught in Great Britain, or on the coaſt thereof, and cured with ſalt delivered duty free, from ſome part of the united kingdom of Great Britain, and when, and where, and to whom, the ſalt was delivered. ſ. 22.

All ſuch red herrings, white herrings, ſalmon, cod, ling, tuſk, &c. conveyed coaſtwiſe from one port of the united kingdom of Great Britain to another, ſhall, upon exportation thereof to foreign parts, be entitled to the ſame bounties as by 5 Geo. 1. c. 18. are granted on the exportation of fiſh cured in Great Britain, being ſubject to the ſame regulations to prevent the re-landing or re-importing thereof, after clearance outwards for exportation to foreign parts, and the owner thereof being ſubject to the ſame penalties in caſe of re-landing, or any other fraudulent proceeding, in order to obtain the bounties, as by the ſaid act are preſcribed. ſ. 23.

No bounty upon ſuch exportation to foreign parts, of any red herrings, white herrings, ſalmon, cod, ling, tuſk, &c. carried coaſtwiſe from any port in England, to any port in Scotland, ſhall be paid in Scotland; but the chief officer of cuſtoms, at the port from which ſuch fiſh ſhall be exported to foreign parts, ſhall, upon the requeſt of the perſon exporting the ſame, and oath made before the chief officer, of the ſhipping of the fiſh, and its not being re landed, or intended to be re-landed, in Great Britain, give a debenture under his hand, without delay or reward, for payment of the bounties; which debenture being produced to the commiſſioners of cuſtoms in England, ſhall entitle the exporter to the bounties granted by 5 Geo. 1.; and the ſaid commiſſioners are to pay the ſame out of any money remaining in their hands, ariſing by any branch of cuſtoms, regard being had to the priority of the dates of the debentures. ſ. 24.

No bounty upon ſuch re-exportation of any red herrings, &c. ſo carried coaſtwiſe from any port in Scotland, to any in England, ſhall be paid in England; but the chief officer of cuſtoms, at the port from which ſuch fiſh ſhall be exported to foreign parts, ſhall, upon the requeſt of the perſon exporting, and oath made before the chief officer, of the ſhipping of the fiſh, and its not being relanded, or intended to be relanded in Great Britain, give a debenture under his hand, without delay or reward, for payment of the bounties; which debenture being produced to the commiſſioners of cuſtoms, or exciſe (at the option of the importer), in Scotland, ſhall entitle the exporter to the payment of the bounties granted by 5 Geo. 1.; and the ſaid commiſſioners are to pay the ſame out of any money remaining in their hands, ariſing by cuſtoms or exciſe, regard being had to the priority of dates of the debentures. ſ. 25.

The proprietor of ſuch red herrings, &c. as ſhall be put on board of any ſhip in any port in Great Britain, to be carried to any other port in Great Britain, whether for home conſumption, or exportation to foreign parts, or his agent, ſhall, before ſuch ſhip ſhall depart from the port where the ſame ſhall be ſhipped, make entry with the collector, or principal officer of cuſtoms at ſuch port, of the fiſh ſhipped, expreſſing the number of barrels of wet fiſh, with the marks and numbers thereof, and the number and weight of each ſpecies of dry fiſh, and declare upon oath that the ſaid fiſh were cured in Great Britain, or on the coaſt thereof, and whether they were cured with ſalt delivered duty free, or with ſalt for which the duty hath been paid or ſecured, and that the ſalt uſed in curing ſuch wet or dry fiſh was taken on board from ſome port in Great Britain, and when and where it was ſo taken on board, and that no drawback for the ſame hath been had, or intended to be had, upon the exportation of the ſalt (which oath the collector, or principal officer of cuſtoms, or his deputy, is to adminiſter); and is likewiſe required to grant to the maſter of ſuch ſhip, without delay, or reward, a certificate or cocquet under his hand, that ſuch entry and oath have been made; and the maſter of every ſhip wherein ſuch fiſh ſhall be ſhipped to be carried coaſtwiſe, or the proprietor of ſuch fiſh, or his agent, ſhall, before landing the ſaid fiſh, or any part thereof, or putting it on board of any other ſhip or boat in any port of Great Britain, deliver the ſaid cocquet to the proper officer of cuſtoms in the port where the ſame ſhall be imported or landed, or put on board of any other ſhip or boat, upon pain of forfeiting all ſuch fiſh as ſhall be imported or landed, or put on board of any other ſhip or boat, contrary to this act, and alſo double the value thereof, together with all the caſks in which ſuch fiſh ſhall be found, the ſame to be recovered of the importer or proprietor, or of the maſter; and all officers, as well of cuſtoms, as of the duties, upon ſalt, are to ſeize all ſuch red herrings, &c. imported, landed, or put on board of any other ſhip or boat, contrary to this act, and alſo the caſks in which ſuch fiſh ſhall be found. ſ. 26.

It ſhall be lawful for the curers of fiſh in any part of the united kingdom of Great Britain, to take from any ſalt works, or pits, ſuch quantity of Britiſh ſalt as they think proper, as well for curing of fiſh for exportation to foreign markets, as for curing of herrings and other fiſh taken in the herring fiſhery for home conſumption, without paying any duty for the ſame, and to bring, and remove coaſtwiſe, the ſalt ſo taken, to any port in Great Britain, ſuch curers, or their agents, before ſuch ſalt ſhall be removed from the work, or pit, entering, at the next office for the duty on ſalt, the quantity intended to be removed, and procuring the ſame to be weighed in the preſence of an officer for the duties upon ſalt before the removal thereof, and alſo making oath in writing before ſuch officer (to be by him filed in his office for the duty on ſalt), declaring the true quantity of ſuch ſalt, and that all the ſaid ſalt is intended for the curing of fiſh for exportation, or for curing of herrings and other fiſh taken in the herring fiſhery for home conſumption, and that the ſaid ſalt is intended to be carried coaſtwiſe to ſuch a port (naming the ſame), and ſhall not, by their order, or connivance, be ſold, given away, or any ways delivered but for the purpoſe aforeſaid; and alſo making entry of ſuch ſalt with the proper officer of cuſtoms at the port where the ſame ſhall be ſhipped, for the purpoſe of being brought coaſtwiſe, and alſo giving ſecurity to the ſaid officer, by their bond, in double the amount of the duties, for the payment of ſuch duties; and the proprietor of ſuch ſalt ſo to be brought coaſtwiſe, or his agent, ſhall, on the arrival thereof at the port for which it ſhall have been ſhipped and entered, and before the ſame ſhall be relanded, make entry with the collector, or principal officer of cuſtoms there, of the ſalt brought in and intended to be relanded, expreſſing the true quantity thereof; and alſo making oath in writing, before ſuch collector or officer, that all the ſalt was ſhipped on board at ſuch a port (naming the ſame), and when the ſame was ſhipped, and that all the ſalt is intended for curing of fiſh for exportation, or for curing of herrings and other fiſh taken in the herring fiſhery for home conſumption, and that no part of ſuch ſalt, ſince ſhipped, hath been, or ſhall be thereafter, by their order, or connivance, ſold, given away, or any ways delivered, but for the purpoſe aforeſaid, and that no drawback for the ſame hath been had, or is intended to be had, upon the exportation of the ſalt; after which oath the collector, or principal officer of cuſtoms, is to grant to the proprietor of the ſalt, or his agent, without fee, a certificate, under his hand, that ſuch entry hath been made; upon the production and delivery whereof to the officer of cuſtoms, to whom ſuch bond ſhall have been given, ſuch bond ſhall be delivered up to be cancelled; and after ſuch entry and oath made, the proprietor of ſuch ſalt, or his agent, ſhall be at liberty to reland the ſame in the preſence of the officer, and ſuch ſalt, being weighed in the preſence of ſuch officer, and lodged in a warehouſe, under the lock and key of the ſaid officer, as well as of the proprietor, ſhall be ſecured, and dealt with, delivered over, and accounted for, in the ſame manner as is in 5 Geo. 1. c. 18. preſcribed concerning ſalt thereby allowed to be taken by curers of fiſh for exportation, any thing in the ſaid act, or 29 Geo. 2. or any other act, notwithſtanding. ſ. 27.

If any Britiſh ſalt ſhall be removed from the works or pits, or carried coaſtwiſe, or landed, contrary to this act, ſuch ſalt, and alſo double the value over the duties, ſhall be forfeited, to be recovered of the proprietor, or the maſter of the veſſel removing the ſame. ſ. 28.

Whenever any ſalt, foreign or Britiſh, ſhall be delivered over from the joint cuſtody of the officer and proprietor, into the ſole cuſtody of the proprietor, or his agent, for curing fiſh for exportation, ſuch proprietor, or his agent, ſhall not be obliged, under 8 Geo. 2. c. 12. and 25 Geo. 3. c. 63. to give any ſecurity, by ſureties, for the purpoſes therein expreſſed, but his own bond, in double the amount of the duties only, and no otherwiſe. ſ. 29.

Credit for the quantity of ſalt, for which ſuch bond ſhall be given, which ſhall have been uſed and duly accounted for, ſhall, from time to time, be given by the proper officer on the back of the bond; and alſo when a proper account ſhall have been rendered of the whole of the ſalt ſpecified therein, or the duties paid upon the deficiency thereof, the ſaid bond ſhall be void, and delivered up and cancelled. ſ. 30.

No bond or other ſecurity ſhall be charged with any ſtamp duty. ſ. 31.

It ſhall not be lawful for any officer of cuſtoms to demand, or accept, any fee for any tranſaction relative to any veſſel or boat employed in the fiſheries, or in the tranſportation from one place to another of fiſh, or of ſalt for the uſe of the fiſheries, or for the payment of any bounty or debenture on fiſh; and in caſe any ſuch officer ſhall demand or accept any ſuch fee, he (being thereof convicted) ſhall forfeit treble the amount demanded or accepted, and ſhall be diſcharged from ſuch office as he ſhall then hold in the cuſtoms. ſ. 32.

All ſuch herrings as ſhall be caught and cured by the inhabitants of the Iſle of Man, and exported from thence, or from Great Britain, to foreign parts, ſhall, upon exportation thereof, or any part thereof, be intitled to the like bounties of 2 s. 8 d. per barrel on white herrings exported, and of 1 s. 9 d. per barrel on red herrings ſo exported, as by 5 Geo. 1. c. 18. are granted on the exportation of white and red herrings; which ſaid bounties ſhall, on ſuch white or red herrings exported directly from the Iſle of Man, be payable from the ſame funds, and in the ſame manner, as in this act is provided with reſpect to the bounty on the landing of herrings in the Iſle of Man, (ſee FISHERIES) caught and cured by the inhabitants thereof, as above mentioned; and ſuch bounties on exportation of herrings, caught and cured by the inhabitants of the iſland, and exported from Great Britain to foreign parts, ſhall, on the owner thereof producing certificates, ſigned by the collector, comptroller, or other chief officer of his majeſty's revenue of the ſaid iſland, of ſuch owner having taken the like oaths, and of their having conformed to the like proviſions, as by this act are directed in the caſe of herrings cured in Scotland, and exported from England, and of herrings cured in England, and exported from Scotland, be payable from the ſame funds, and be paid under the like conditions, and with the like penalties in caſe of relanding, &c. as by the ſaid recited, or this preſent act, are provided, in regard to herrings cured in, and exported from Great Britain. ſ. 34.

All duties payable on ſuch herrings as are caught and cured by the inhabitants of the Iſle of Man, and imported into Great Britain, ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 35.

The like reſtrictions and penalties as are herein provided, with regard to officers aſking or accepting of any fee for any tranſaction relative to the fiſheries, ſhall be extended to the fiſheries of the Iſle of Man. ſ. 36.

The oath required by 12 Geo. 3. c. 58. to be taken before the governor, lieutenant governor, commander in chief, or chief magiſtrate for the time being, ſhall be adminiſtered by the collector, comptroller, or other chief officer of the revenue, at the port in the ſaid iſland where ſuch herrings ſhall be ſhipped, who is to adminiſter the ſame, and grant a certificate thereof, in the form by the ſaid act, under his hand and ſeal of office. ſ. 37.

If upon complaint or information, upon oath, made before two juſtices, it ſhall appear that ſuch officers know, or are credibly informed, or believe, that any fiſh hath been imported, or ſold or expoſed to ſale, in London, contrary to 1 Geo. 1. c. 18. (ſee Part I. p. 390.) and 9 Geo. 2. c. 33. (ſee Part I. p. 392.) and this act, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices to ſummon the perſon charged by ſuch complaint or information, to appear before them, at a time and place ſpecified in the ſummons; and in caſe the party ſummoned ſhall not appear according to ſuch ſummons, then, upon proof made of the ſervice of ſuch ſummons, either perſonally, or by leaving the ſame at his abode, whilſt the party ſhall be on ſhore, or not being on ſhore, with ſome perſon in the ſhip to which he belong, to cauſe ſuch party to be apprehended, by warrant, under the hands and ſeals of ſuch juſtices, and to be brought before them; and thereupon, whether ſuch party ſhall appear upon ſummons, or be apprehended, ſuch juſtices ſhall hear the complaint, and determine the ſame. ſ. 43.

It ſhall be lawful for the ſaid juſtices, before whom ſuch complaint ſhall be made, to ſummon before them any ſeaman, fiſherman, or other perſon, who ſhall by ſuch complaint appear to be a neceſſary witneſs, to appear before them; and in caſe ſuch ſeaman, &c. ſhall not appear according to ſuch ſummons, then, upon proof of the ſervice of ſuch ſummons as aforeſaid, to cauſe ſuch ſeaman, &c. to be apprehended by warrant under the hands and ſeals of ſuch juſtices, and to be brought before them, and thereupon, whether ſuch ſeaman, &c. ſhall appear upon ſummons, or be apprehended, ſuch juſtices ſhall examine him upon oath as to the complaint; and in caſe ſuch ſeaman, &c. ſhall refuſe to be ſworn, or to give evidence, or ſhall forſwear himſelf, or prevaricate, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtices, by warrant under their hands and ſeals, to commit ſuch ſeaman, &c. to the common gaol of the county for one year, without bail. ſ. 44.

The examination of every perſon examined as a witneſs, ſhall be taken down in writing by or before the juſtices; and in caſe the party charged, cannot be made to appear at ſuch examination, and ſuch witneſs cannot be made to attend when ſuch party ſhall appear, then ſuch examination in writing ſhall have the ſame effect as if ſuch witneſs were then preſent and examined viva voce. ſ. 45.

The penalties by 9 Geo. 2. c. 33. ſhall be recoverable before two juſtices, on proof and conviction of the offence by the oath of any witneſs, or by confeſſion of the offender, and the whole of ſuch penalty ſhall belong to the informer; and in caſe of non-payment of ſuch penalty, with the charges incident to ſuch conviction, immediately upon conviction, the ſame ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of ſuch offender, by warrant under the hands and ſeals of the juſtices; and for want of ſufficient diſtreſs, the offender ſhall be ſent by the juſtices to the common gaol, for one year, without bail, unleſs ſuch penalty ſhall be ſooner paid. ſ. 46.

It ſhall be lawful for the juſtices before whom ſuch offender ſhall be convicted, immediately after conviction to order ſuch offender into cuſtody (in caſe the penalty be not immediately paid), not exceeding forty-eight hours, as ſuch juſtices ſhall think proper to allow for the return of the warrant for levying ſuch penalty by diſtreſs and ſale. ſ. 47.

If it appear to the ſatisfaction of the juſtices before whom ſuch offender ſhall be convicted, either by the confeſſion of the party convicted, or other witneſs, that ſuch party hath not goods ſufficient to anſwer the penalty, then the juſtices ſhall, without iſſuing any warrant of diſtreſs, commit the party convicted, as if ſuch warrant had actually iſſued, and a return of nulla bona been made thereon. ſ. 48.

If ſuch offender, ordered to be committed under this act, ſhall, before commitment, procure ſecurity to be given by two ſecurities, to the ſatisfaction of the juſtices, for payment of the penalty, with the charges, within fourteen days, excluſive of the day of conviction; then it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtices to accept ſuch ſecurity, and upon non-payment thereof, at the time, the ſame juſtices, or any other juſtices for the ſame county, may cauſe the party convicted, and his ſureties, to be apprehended by warrant under their hands and ſeals, and them commit to the common gaol, for ſuch time as the party convicted was ſubject to have been impriſoned, in caſe no ſecurity had been given, unleſs ſuch penalty, &c. be ſooner paid. ſ. 49.

Perſons convicted, aggrieved by the judgment of any juſtices, may, within three months, appeal to the general or quarter ſeſſions, ſuch perſons appealing giving ſix days notice to the informer of his intention to appeal, and of the matter thereof, and ſhall, with two ſureties, enter into recognizance before ſome juſtice for the ſame county, to appear and proſecute ſuch appeal at the ſaid ſeſſions, and abide by the determination of the court, and to pay the coſts awarded againſt ſuch perſon; and ſuch appeal ſhall by the ſaid ſeſſions be examined, and the caſe fully enquired into, and the matter finally determined; and in caſe ſuch judgment appealed againſt, ſhall be affirmed, the party appealing ſhall pay unto the informer double coſts, to be aſcertained by the court. ſ. 50.

In caſe the perſon intending to appeal ſhall have paid the penalty, under ſuch conviction, into the hands of the juſtices by way of depoſit, or ſhall be then impriſoned, ſuch perſon may appeal to the general or quarter ſeſſions within the time aforeſaid, on his entering (without ſureties) into ſuch recognizance as before, and remaining in priſon in the mean time, or depoſiting ſuch penalty into the hands of the juſtices, there to remain until the appeal ſhall be determined. ſ. 51.

No ſuch conviction ſhall be ſet aſide by the ſaid ſeſſion for want of form, or through the miſ-ſtating of any fact, provided the material facts be proved to the ſatisfaction of the court; nor ſhall ſuch conviction, or any proceedings of the court, be removed by certiorari into any court of record at Weſtminſter. ſ. 52.

Every proſecution in purſuance of this act, for any offence againſt 1 Geo. 1. c. 18. and 9 Geo. 2. c. 33. may be commenced within twelve months. ſ. 53.

Nothing in this act ſhall repeal or alter any act, or affect any of the powers thereby given, for ſettling the courſe to be obſerved in fitting out for any fiſhery, or clearance outwards, or entry inwards, or the diſcharge of any buſs or fiſhing veſſel, or in cellaring, ſecuring, ſhipping, reſhipping, or relanding any ſalt, uſed for the curing of fiſh, or in fiſhing for, catching, ſalting, curing, ſtoring, landing, removing, marking, or exporting any fiſh whatſoever, or in the payment of any bounties thereby granted, on the tonnage of any buſs, or on any fiſh exported, except ſo far as ſuch acts are ſpecifically repealed, altered, or controlled by this act, or repugnant to any of the proviſions herein; but all the former acts, and the bounties thereby granted, and the authorities therein contained, and the forfeitures thereby inflicted, except as aforeſaid, ſhall remain in force. ſ. 54.

Sanctuary.

By 1 Jac. 1. c. 25. So much of all ſtatutes as concerneth abjured perſons and ſanctuaries, made before 35 Eliz. ſhall ſtand repealed. ſ. 34.

By 21 Jac. 1. c. 28. All ſtatutes that take away ſanctuary ſhall, for ſo much, be revived. ſ. 6.

No privilege of ſanctuary ſhall be allowed. ſ. 7.

Scotland.

By 5 Ann. c. 8. ſ. 1. The articles of union approved of by the parliaments of Scotland are:

'1. The two kingdoms of England and Scotland ſhall 'upon the firſt of May 1707, and for ever after, be united 'into one kingdom by the name of Great Britain; and the 'enſigns armorial of the united kingdom ſhall be ſuch as her 'majeſty ſhall appoint, and the croſſes of St. George and 'St. Andrew ſhall be conjoined in ſuch manner as her 'majeſty ſhall think fit.

'2. The ſucceſſion to the monarchy of Great Britain, 'in default of iſſue of her majeſty, ſhall be to the moſt excellent princeſs Sophia, electoreſs and ducheſs dowager of 'Hanover, and the heirs of her body being proteſtants; 'and all papiſts, and perſons marrying papiſts, ſhall be excluded from the imperial crown of Great Britain; and 'in every ſuch caſe, the crown ſhall deſcend to ſuch perſon, being a proteſtant, as ſhould have inherited the ſame, 'in caſe ſuch papiſt, or perſon marrying a papiſt, was naturally dead, according to the proviſion for the deſcent 'of the crown of England by 1 Will. & Mar. ſt. 2. 'cap. 2.

'3. The united kingdom ſhall be repreſented by one 'parliament, to be ſtiled The Parliament of Great Britain.

'4. All the ſubjects of the united kingdom ſhall have 'full freedom of trade and navigation to any port within 'the united kingdom, and the dominions thereunto belonging; and there ſhall be a communication of all other 'rights which belong to the ſubjects of either kingdom, 'except where it is otherwiſe agreed in theſe articles.

'5. All ſhips belonging to her majeſty's ſubjects of 'Scotland, at the time of ratifying the treaty of union in 'the parliament of Scotland, though foreign built, ſhall 'paſs as ſhips of the built of Great Britain; the owners, 'within 12 months after the firſt of May next, making 'oath, that at the time of ratifying the treaty of union in 'the parliament of Scotland, the ſame did, in whole or in 'part, belong to them, or to other ſubjects of Scotland, to 'be particularly named, with the place of their abodes; 'and that the ſame doth, at the time of the depoſition, 'wholly belong to them; and that no foreigner hath any 'intereſt therein; which oath ſhall be made before the 'chief officers of the cuſtoms in the port next to the abode 'of the owners; and the oath ſhall be atteſted by the officer 'who adminiſtered the ſame; and being regiſtered, ſhall 'be delivered to the maſter of the ſhip; and a duplicate 'thereof ſhall be tranſmitted to the chief officers of the 'cuſtoms in the port of Edinburgh, and from thence ſent 'to the port of London, to be entered in the general regiſter.

'6. All parts of the united kingdom ſhall have the ſame 'encouragements and drawbacks, and be under the ſame 'regulations of trade, and liable to the ſame cuſtoms; and 'the allowances, drawbacks, and regulations of trade, 'and the duties on import and export ſettled in England, 'ſhall take place through the whole united kingdom, excepting the duties upon export and import of ſuch particular commodities, from which any perſons are ſpecially 'exempted by their private rights. And no Scots cattle 'carried into England ſhall be liable to any other duties, 'than thoſe to which the cattle of England are. And when 'oats ſhall be ſold at 15 s. per quarter, or under, there 'ſhall be paid 2 s. 6 d. for every quarter of oatmeal exported, ſo long as rewards are granted for exportation of 'other grains, and the bear of Scotland ſhall have the ſame 'rewards as barley; and the prohibition by the law of 'Scotland againſt importation of victuals from Ireland, or 'any other place beyond ſea into Scotland, ſhall remain, 'until more effectual ways be provided by the parliament 'of Great Britain.

'7. All parts of the united kingdom ſhall be liable to 'the ſame exciſes upon liquors, excepting only that the '34 gallons, Engliſh barrel of beer or ale, amounting to '12 gallons Scots preſent meaſure, ſold in Scotland by the 'brewer at 9 s. 6 d. excluding all duties, and retailed, including duties and the retailer's profit, at 2 d. the Scots 'pint, be not liable on account of the preſent exciſe in 'England to any higher impoſition than 2 s.

'8. Foreign ſalt imported into Scotland ſhall be charged 'with the ſame duties as the like ſalt is now charged with 'being imported into England; but all foreign ſalt imported 'into Scotland ſhall be cellared under the cuſtody of the 'merchants and the officers, and the merchant may have 'what quantity his occaſion may require, not under a

'weigh at a time, giving ſecurity for the duty, payable in 'ſix months. Scotland, from the expiration of ſeven years, 'ſhall be ſubject to the ſame duties for ſalt made in Scotland 'as ſhall be then payable for ſalt made in England, with 'this exception, that Scotland ſhall remain exempted from 'the duty of 2 s. 4 d. a buſhel on home ſalt, impoſed by an 'act made in England, 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 44. and if the 'parliament of Great Britain ſhall ſubſtitute any other 'fund in place of the ſaid 2 s. 4 d. on the buſhel of home 'ſalt, Scotland ſhall, after the ſeven years, bear a propor-'tion of the ſaid fund, and have an equivalent in the terms 'of this treaty. * And after the ſeven years, as long as 'the ſaid duty of 2 s. 4 d. a buſhel upon ſalt is continued 'in England, the ſaid 2 s. 4 d. a buſhel ſhall be payable 'for all ſalt made in Scotland and imported into England; 'and during the continuance of the 2 s. 4 d. a buſhel, no 'ſalt ſhall be brought from Scotland to England by land, 'under the penalty of forfeiting the ſalt, and the cattle and 'carriages made uſe of in bringing the ſame, and 20 s. for 'every buſhel, for which the carrier as well as the owner 'ſhall be liable, and the perſons carrying the ſame to be 'impriſoned by any juſtice of peace ſix months, and until 'the penalty be paid. § And all fleſh exported from Scot-'land to England, and put on board in Scotland to be ex-'ported beyond the ſeas, and proviſions for ſhips in Scotland, 'and for foreign voyages, may be ſalted with Scots ſalt, 'paying the ſame duty for what ſalt is ſo employed, as the 'like quantity of ſuch ſalt pays in England, and under the 'ſame penalties and proviſions; and the laws in Scotland 'for pining, curing, and packing, of herrings, white fiſh, 'and ſalmon, for exportation, with foreign ſalt only, with-'out any mixture of Britiſh or Iriſh ſalt, and for prevent-'ing of frauds in curing and packing of fiſh, ſhall be con-'tinued in Scotland, ſubject to ſuch alterations as ſhall be 'made by the parliament of Great Britain: and all fiſh 'exported from Scotland beyond the ſeas, which ſhall be 'cured with foreign ſalt only, ſhall have the ſame premiums 'and drawbacks as ſhall be allowed to ſuch as export the 'like fiſh from England; and there ſhall be paid to the ſub-'jects of Great Britain, during the preſent allowances for 'other fiſh, 10 s. 5 d. for every barrel of white herrings 'exported from Scotland; and there ſhall be allowed 5 s. for 'every barrel of beef or pork ſalted with foreign ſalt, with-'out mixture of Britiſh or Iriſh ſalt, and exported for ſale 'from Scotland to parts beyond the ſea, alterable by the 'parliament of Great Britain: and if any matters of fraud 'relating to the ſaid duties on ſalt ſhall hereafter appear, 'the ſame ſhall be ſubject to ſuch further proviſions, as ſhall 'be thought fit by the parliament of Great Britain.

'9. Whenever the ſum of 1,997,763 l. 8 s. 4½ d. ſhall 'be enacted by the parliament of Great Britain to be 'raiſed in England by a land tax, Scotland ſhall be charged 'by the ſame act with a further ſum of 48,000 l. free of 'all charges, and ſo proportionably; and ſuch quota for 'Scotland ſhall be raiſed in the ſame manner, as the ceſs 'now is in Scotland, but ſubject to ſuch regulations in the 'manner of collecting, as ſhall be made by the parliament 'of Great Britain.

'10. During the continuance of the duties on ſtamped 'paper, vellum, and parchment, in England, Scotland 'ſhall not be charged with the ſame duties.

'11. During the continuance of the duties payable in 'England on windows, which determine on the firſt of 'Auguſt 1710, Scotland ſhall not be charged with the 'ſame.

'12. During the continuance of the duties payable in 'England on coals, culm, and cinders, which determine 'the 30th of September 1710, Scotland ſhall not be charged 'therewith for coals, &c. conſumed there, but ſhall be 'charged with the ſame duties as in England for all coals, '&c. not conſumed in Scotland.

'13. During the continuance of the duty payable in 'England upon malt, which determines the 24th of June '1707, Scotland ſhall not be charged with that duty.

'14. Scotland ſhall not be charged with any other duties 'laid on by the parliament of England before the union, 'except theſe conſented to in this treaty: provided, that if 'the parliament of England ſhall lay any further impoſi-'tions by way of cuſtoms, or ſuch exciſes with which by 'this treaty Scotland is charged equally with England, 'Scotland ſhall be liable to the ſame, and have an equiva-'lent to be ſettled by the parliament of Great Britain; 'with this further proviſion, that any malt, to be made 'and conſumed in Scotland, ſhall not be charged with any 'impoſition on malt, during this war. And there ſhall be 'no further exemption inſiſted upon for any part of the 'united kingdom.

'15. Scotland ſhall have an equivalent for what the ſubjects 'thereof ſhall be charged towards payment of the debts of 'England, in the manner following, viz. before the union, the 'ſum of 398,085 l. 10 s. ſhall be granted by the parliament of 'England for the equivalent to Scotland, for ſuch parts of 'the cuſtoms and exciſes with which that kingdom is to be 'charged, as will be applicable to the payment of the debts 'of England, according to the proportions which the pre-'ſent cuſtoms in Scotland, being 30,000 l. per annum, bear 'to the cuſtoms in England, computed at 1,341,559 l. per 'annum; and which the preſent exciſes on liquors in Scot-'land, being 33,500 l. per annum, bear to the exciſes on 'liquors in England, computed at 947,602 l. per annum; 'which ſum of 398,085 l. 10 s. ſhall be due from the time 'of the union. And after the union there ſhall be an ac-'count kept of the ſaid duties ariſing in Scotland, to the 'end it may appear, what ought to be anſwered to Scotland 'as an equivalent, for ſuch proportion of the increaſe as 'ſhall be applicable to the payment of the debts of England. 'And the whole encreaſe of the cuſtoms and exciſes upon 'liquors in Scotland, over and above the annual produce 'above ſtated, ſhall be applied for ſeven years to the uſes 'hereafter mentioned; and there ſhall be anſwered to 'Scotland annually from the end of ſeven years after the 'union, an equivalent in proportion to ſuch part of the ſaid 'encreaſe, as ſhall be applicable to the debts of England; 'and generally an equivalent ſhall be anſwered to Scotland 'for ſuch parts of the Engliſh debts, as Scotland may be-'come liable to pay by reaſon of the union. And as for 'the uſes to which the ſaid ſum of 398,085 l. 10 s. and all 'other monies to be anſwered to Scotland as aforeſaid, are 'to be applied; in the firſt place, out of the aforeſaid ſum, 'what conſideration ſhall be neceſſary to be had for any 'loſſes which private perſons may ſuſtain by reducing the 'coin of Scotland to the ſtandard of the coin of England, 'may be made good; in the next place, the capital ſtock 'or fund of the African and Indian company of Scotland, 'with intereſt of five per cent. from the times of the pay-'ment

* Additional ſalt duties are payable under 20 Geo. 3. c. 34. and 22 Geo. 3. c 39. which ſee under the general title SALT.

§ By 25 Geo. 3 c 63. Every perſon, reſiding in any county in England near the borders of Scotland, in whoſe cuſtody any ſalt brought from Scotland ſhall be found, ſhall be liable to the ſame penalties as if he was the carrier or owner thereof; unleſs he make it appear upon the trial, or hearing of any information, that it came by ſea, and that the duties had been paid or ſecured. ſ. 4.

'ment thereof, ſhall be paid, upon which the ſaid company 'ſhall be diſſolved; and the overplus of the ſaid ſum of '398,085 l. 10 s. and alſo the whole encreaſe of the revenues of cuſtoms and exciſes during the ſaid term of ſeven 'years, together with the equivalent which ſhall become 'due upon the improvement thereof in Scotland after the 'ſaid term; and all other ſums, which, according to the 'agreements aforeſaid, may become payable to Scotland by 'way of equivalent, for what that kingdom ſhall become 'liable towards payment of the debts of England; the 'ſame ſhall be applied in manner following, viz. all the 'public debts of Scotland, as ſhall be adjuſted by this preſent parliament, ſhall be paid; and 2000 l. per annum for 'ſeven years ſhall be applied towards encouraging the 'manufacture of coarſe wool within thoſe ſhires which 'produce the wool; and the firſt 2000 l. ſhall be paid at 'Martinmas next; and afterwards the ſame ſhall be wholly 'applied towards the encouraging the fiſheries, and ſuch 'other manufactures and improvements in Scotland, as 'may moſt conduce to the general good of the united 'kingdom. And her majeſty ſhall be empowered to appoint commiſſioners, who ſhall be accountable to the 'parliament of Great Britain, for diſpoſing the ſaid ſum of '398,085 l. 10 s. and all other monies which ſhall ariſe to 'Scotland, upon the agreements aforeſaid; and the collectors of the ſaid revenues ſhall give to the ſaid commiſſioners authentic abbreviations of the produce of ſuch 'revenues; and the ſaid commiſſioners ſhall have their 'office within Scotland, and ſhall keep accounts of the 'amount of the equivalents, and how the ſame ſhall have 'been diſpoſed of, which may be inſpected by any of the 'ſubjects.

'16. The coin ſhall be of the ſame ſtandard throughout 'the united kingdom, as now in England, and a mint ſhall 'be continued in Scotland, under the ſame rules as the 'mint in England, and the preſent officers of the mint continued, ſubject to ſuch alterations as her majeſty, or the 'parliament, ſhall think fit.

'17. The ſame weights and meaſures ſhall be uſed 'throughout the united kingdom, as are now eſtabliſhed in 'England; and ſtandards of weights and meaſures ſhall be 'kept by thoſe burghs in Scotland, to whom the keeping 'the ſtandards of weights and meaſures does of ſpecial 'right belong: all which ſtandards ſhall be ſent down to 'ſuch burghs, from the ſtandards kept in the exchequer 'at Weſtminſter, ſubject to ſuch regulations as the parliament of Great Britain ſhall think fit.

'18. The laws concerning regulation of trade, cuſtoms, 'and ſuch exciſes to which Scotland is by this treaty to be 'liable, ſhall be the ſame in Scotland as in England: and all 'other laws in uſe within Scotland ſhall after the union, and 'notwithſtanding thereof, remain in force, (except ſuch as 'are inconſiſtent with this treaty,) but alterable by the 'parliament of Great Britain: with this difference betwixt the laws concerning public right, policy, and civil 'government, and thoſe which concern private right; that 'the laws which concern public right, policy, and civil 'government, may be made the ſame throughout the whole 'united kingdom; but that no alteration be made in laws 'which concern private right, except for evident utility of 'the ſubjects within Scotland.

'19. The court of ſeſſion, or college of juſtice, ſhall, 'after the union, and notwithſtanding thereof, remain in 'all time coming within Scotland, as it is now conſtituted, 'and with the ſame authority; ſubject nevertheleſs to ſuch 'regulations for the better adminiſtration of juſtice, as 'ſhall be made by the parliament of Great Britain; and 'none ſhall be named by her majeſty, to be ordinary lords 'of ſeſſion, but ſuch who have ſerved in the college of juſtice as advocates, or principal clerks of ſeſſion, for five 'years, or as writers to the ſignet for ten years; with this 'proviſion, that no writer to the ſignet be capable to be 'admitted a lord of the ſeſſion, unleſs he undergo a private 'and public trial on the civil law before the faculty of advocates, and be found qualified for the office, two years 'before he be named a lord of the ſeſſion; yet ſo as the 'qualifications for capacitating perſons to be named ordinary lords of ſeſſion, may be altered by the parliament of 'Great Britain. And the court of juſticiary ſhall alſo 'after the union, and notwithſtanding thereof, remain in 'all time coming within Scotland, as it is now conſtituted, 'and with the ſame authority, ſubject to ſuch regulations 'as ſhall be made by the parliament of Great Britain, and 'without prejudice of other rights of juſticiary; and 'all admiralty juriſdictions ſhall be under the lord high admiral, or commiſſioners for the admiralty of Great Britain; and the court of admiralty now eſtabliſhed in Scotland ſhall be continued, and all reviews, reductions, or 'ſuſpenſions of the ſentences, in maritime caſes, competent to the juriſdiction of that court, ſhall remain in the 'ſame manner as now in Scotland, until the parliament of 'Great Britain ſhall make ſuch regulations as ſhall be 'judged expedient for the whole united kingdom; ſo as 'there be always continued in Scotland a court of admiralty, 'ſuch as in England, for determination of all maritime 'caſes relating to private rights in Scotland, competent to 'the juriſdiction of the admiralty court, ſubject nevertheleſs to ſuch alterations as ſhall be made by the parliament 'of Great Britain; and the heretable rights of admiralty 'and vice-admiralties of Scotland ſhall be reſerved to the 'proprietors as rights of property, ſubject nevertheleſs, as 'to the manner of exerciſing ſuch rights, to ſuch regulations 'as ſhall be thought proper by the parliament of Great Britain; and all other courts now in Scotland ſhall remain, 'but ſubject to alterations by the parliament of Great Britain; and all inferior courts within the ſaid limits ſhall 'remain ſubordinate to the ſupreme courts of juſtice within 'the ſame; and no cauſes in Scotland ſhall be cognoſcible 'by the courts of chancery, queen's bench, common 'pleas, or any other court in Weſtminſter-hall; and the 'ſaid courts, or any other of the like nature, ſhall have no 'power to cognoſce, review, or alter the acts or ſentences 'of the judicatures within Scotland, or ſtop the execution 'of the ſame; and there ſhall be a court of exchequer in 'Scotland, for deciding queſtions concerning the revenues 'of cuſtoms and exciſes there, having the ſame power in 'ſuch caſes, as the court of exchequer has in England; 'and the ſaid court of exchequer in Scotland ſhall have 'power of paſſing ſignatures, gifts, tutories, and in other 'things, as the court of exchequer at preſent in Scotland 'hath; and the court of exchequer that now is in Scotland 'ſhall remain, until a new court of exchequer be ſettled by 'the parliament of Great Britain in Scotland; and the 'queen may continue a privy council in Scotland, for preſerving of public peace and order, until the parliament of 'Great Britain ſhall think fit to eſtabliſh any other 'method.

'20. All heretable offices, ſuperiorities, heretable juriſdictions, offices for life, and juriſdictions for life, ſhall be 'reſerved to the owners thereof, as rights of property.

'21. The rights and privileges of the royal burghs in 'Scotland ſhall remain entire after the union, and notwithſtanding thereof.

'22. Of

'22. Of the peers of Scotland at the time of the union, '16 ſhall be the number to ſit and vote in the houſe of lords, 'and 45 the number of the repreſentatives of Scotland in 'the houſe of commons, of the parliament of Great Bri- 'tain; and when her majeſty ſhall declare her pleaſure for 'holding any parliament of Great Britain, until the par- 'liament of Great Britain ſhall make further proviſion 'therein, a writ ſhall iſſue under the great ſeal of the united 'kingdom, directed to the privy council of Scotland, com- 'manding them to cauſe 16 peers, who are to ſit in the 'houſe of lords, to be ſummoned to parliament, and 45 'members to be elected to ſit in the houſe of commons, in 'ſuch manner as by an act of this ſeſſion of the parliament 'of Scotland ſhall be ſettled; and the names of the perſons 'ſo ſummoned and elected ſhall be returned by the privy 'council of Scotland. And if her majeſty ſhall declare it 'expedient, the lords of parliament of England, and com- 'mons of the preſent parliament of England, ſhall be the 'members of the reſpective houſes of the firſt parliament 'of Great Britain for England. And every one of the 'lords of parliament, and every member of the houſe of 'commons, in all ſucceeding parliaments of Great Bri- 'tain, until the parliament of Great Britain ſhall otherwiſe 'direct, ſhall take the oaths appointed to be taken, inſtead 'of the oaths of allegiance and ſupremacy by 1 Will. '& Mar. ſt. 1. c. 8. and ſubſcribe and repeat the declara- 'tion mentioned in 30 Car. 2. ſt. 2. and ſhall take and ſub- 'ſcribe the oath mentioned in 1 Ann. ſt. 1. c. 22. [altered 'by 1 Geo. 1. c. 13.]

'23. The 16 peers of Scotland ſhall have all privileges 'of parliament which the peers of England have, and par- 'ticularly the right of ſitting upon the trials of peers: and 'in caſe of the trial of any peer, in time of adjournment 'or prorogation of parliament, the ſaid 16 peers ſhall be 'ſummoned; and in caſe any trials of peers ſhall happen, 'when there is no parliament in being, the 16 peers of 'Scotland, who ſat in the laſt preceding parliament, ſhall 'be ſummoned; and all peers of Scotland ſhall be peers of 'Great Britain, and have rank next after the peers of the 'like degrees in England at the time of the union, and be- 'fore all peers of Great Britain of the like degrees created 'after the union, and ſhall be tried as peers of Great Bri- 'tain, and ſhall enjoy all privileges of peers; except the 'right of ſitting in the houſe of lords, and the privileges 'depending thereon, and particularly the right of ſitting 'upon the trials of peers.

'24. There ſhall be one great ſeal for the united king- 'dom; and the quartering the arms, and the rank of the 'Lyon king of arms of Scotland, ſhall be left to her ma- 'jeſty; and the great ſeal of the united kingdom ſhall be 'uſed for ſealing writs to ſummon the parliament of Great 'Britain, and for ſealing all treaties with foreign ſtates, 'and all public acts of ſtate, which concern the united 'kingdom, and in all other matters relating to England, as 'the great ſeal of England is now uſed; and a ſeal in Scot- 'land ſhall be kept and made uſe of in all things relating to 'private rights or grants, which have uſually paſſed the 'great ſeal of Scotland, and which only concern offices, 'grants, commiſſions, and private rights, within that 'kingdom; and the privy ſeal, ſignet, caſſet, ſignet of the 'juſticiary court, quarter ſeal, and ſeals of courts, now 'uſed in Scotland, ſhall be continued, but adapted to the 'ſtate of the union, as her majeſty ſhall think fit; and the 'ſaid ſeals ſhall be ſubject to ſuch regulations as the parlia- 'ment of Great Britain ſhall make. And the crown, 'ſcepter, and ſword of ſtate, the records of parliament, 'and all other records, rolls, and regiſters, both public 'and private, ſhall continue to be kept as they are within 'Scotland, in all time coming.

'25. All laws in either kingdom, ſo far as they are in- 'conſiſtent with theſe articles, ſhall become void, and ſhall 'be ſo declared to be, by the reſpective parliaments.'

The act for ſecuring the proteſtant religion and preſby- terian church government within Scotland, is as follows: ſ. 2.

'Her majeſty, with advice and conſent of the eſtates of 'parliament, doth eſtabliſh and confirm the true proteſtant 'religion, and the worſhip, diſcipline, and government of 'this church, to continue without any alteration to the 'people of this land in all generations; and more eſpecial- 'ly the fifth act of the firſt parliament of king William and 'queen Mary, intituled, Act ratifying the confeſſion of 'faith, and ſettling preſbyterian church government, with 'all other acts of parliament relating thereto; and declares, 'that the foreſaid true proteſtant religion, contained in the 'confeſſion of faith, with the form and purity of worſhip 'in uſe within this church, and its preſbyterian church 'government and diſcipline, by kirk-ſeſſions, preſbyteries, 'provincial ſynods, and general aſſemblies, ſhall remain 'unalterable, and that the ſaid preſbyterian government 'ſhall be the only government of the church of Scotland.

'The univerſities and colleges of St. Andrews, Glaſgow, 'Aberdeen, and Edinburgh, as eſtabliſhed by law, ſhall 'continue for ever; and no profeſſors, principals, regents, 'maſters, or others, bearing office in any univerſity, col- 'lege, or ſchool, within this kingdom, ſhall be admitted 'to their functions, but ſuch as ſhall acknowledge the civil 'government in manner preſcribed by acts of parliament; 'as alſo, at their admiſſions, ſhall profeſs, and ſhall ſub- 'ſcribe to the foreſaid confeſſion of faith, and that they 'will conform themſelves to the worſhip in uſe in this 'church, and ſubmit themſelves to the government and 'diſcipline thereof, and never endeavour the prejudice or 'ſubverſion of the ſame, and that before the reſpective 'preſbyteries of their bounds.

'None of the ſubjects of this kingdom ſhall be liable to 'any oath, teſt, or ſubſcription, within this kingdom, in- 'conſiſtent with the foreſaid true proteſtant religion, and 'preſbyterian church government, worſhip, and diſcipline. 'And after the deceaſe of her majeſty, the ſovereign ſuc- 'ceeding in the royal government of the kingdom of 'Great Britain ſhall, in all time coming, at his acceſſion 'to the crown, ſwear and ſubſcribe, that they ſhall inviola- 'bly maintain and preſerve the aforeſaid ſettlement of the 'true proteſtant religion, with the government, worſhip, 'diſcipline, right, and privileges, of this church.

'This act ſhall be a fundamental and eſſential condition 'of union betwixt the two kingdoms, and ſhall be inſerted 'in any act of parliament for concluding the union; 'nevertheleſs, the parliament of England may provide for 'the ſecurity of the church of England as they think expe- 'dient, to take place within the bounds of England, and 'not derogating from the ſecurity above provided for the 'church of Scotland; as alſo the parliament of England 'may extend the proviſions contained in the articles of 'union in favour of the ſubjects of Scotland, to the ſubjects 'of England.

'All laws in this kingdom, ſo far as they are inconſiſtent 'with the articles, ſhall, after the union, become void.'

The act for ſecuring the church of England as by law eſtabliſhed. ſ. 3. 5 Ann. c. 5. is alſo inſerted, which ſee in SERVICE and SACRAMEMTS.

The ſaid articles of union, and alſo the ſaid act of par- liament of Scotland, for eſtabliſhing the proteſtant religion and and preſbyterian church government within that kingdom, ſhall be for ever confirmed. ſ. 4.

The ſaid act for ſecuring the church of England as by law eſtabliſhed, and alſo the ſaid act of parliament of Scotland for ſecuring the proteſtant religion and preſbyterian church government, ſhall for ever be obſerved as fundamental and eſſential conditions of the union. ſ. 5.

One other act ſettling the manner of electing the 16 peers, and 45 members to repreſent Scotland in the parliament of Great Britain, paſſed in the parliament of Scotland at Edinburgh, the 5th of February 1707, follows: ſ. 6.

'Her majeſty, with advice and conſent of the eſtates of 'parliament, ordains, that the 16 peers, who ſhall have a 'right to ſit in the houſe of peers in the parliament of Great 'Britain on the part of Scotland, ſhall be named by the 'peers of Scotland, out of their own number, by open 'election and plurality of voices of the peers preſent, and 'of the proxies for ſuch as ſhall be abſent, the ſaid proxies 'being peers, and producing a mandate duly ſigned before 'witneſſes, and both the conſtituent and proxy being qua-'lified according to law; alſo ſuch peers as are abſent, being 'qualified, may ſend to all ſuch meetings liſts of the peers 'whom they judge fitteſt, validly ſigned by the abſent peers, 'which ſhall be reckoned as if the parties had been preſent, 'and given in the liſt: and in caſe of the death, or legal 'incapacity, of any of the ſaid 16 peers, the ſaid peers of 'Scotland ſhall nominate another of their own number. 'And of the ſaid 45 repreſentatives of Scotland in the houſe 'of commons in the parliament of Great Britain, 30 ſhall 'be choſen by the ſhires or ſtewartries, and 15 by the royal 'boroughs, as follows, viz. one for every ſhire and ſtewart-'ry, excepting the ſhires of Bute and Cathneſs, which ſhall 'chuſe one by turns, Bute having the firſt election, the 'ſhires of Nairn and Cromarty which ſhall alſo chuſe by 'turns, Nairn having the firſt election; and in like manner 'the ſhires of Clackmanan and Kinroſs ſhall chuſe by turns, 'Clackmanan having the firſt election: and in caſe of the 'death or incapacity of any of the members from the re-'ſpective ſhires or ſtewartries, the ſhire or ſtewartry who 'elected the ſaid member ſhall elect another in his place. 'And the 15 repreſentatives for the royal boroughs ſhall be 'choſen as follows, viz. the town of Edinburgh ſhall ſend 'one member to the parliament of Great Britain; and 'each of the other burghs ſhall elect a commiſſioner in the 'ſame manner as they uſe to elect commiſſioners to the par-'liament of Scotland; which commiſſioners and burghs 'being divided in 14 diſtricts, ſhall meet at ſuch time and 'burghs within their diſtricts, as her majeſty ſhall appoint, 'and elect one for each diſtrict, viz. the burghs of Kirk-'wall, Week, Dornock, Dingwall, and Taine, one; the 'burghs of Fortroſe, Inverneſs, Nairn, and Forreſs, one; 'the burghs of Elgin, Cullen, Banff, Inverury, and Kin-'tore, one; the burghs of Aberdeen, Inverbervy, Montroſe, 'Aberbrothock, and Brochine, one; the burghs of Forfar, 'Perth, Dundee, Couper, and St. Andrews, one; and the 'burghs of Craill, Kilrennie, Anſtruther Eaſter, Anſtruther 'Weſter, and Pittenweem, one; the burghs of Dyſart, 'Kirkaldie, Kinghorn, and Brunt iſland, one; the burghs 'of Innerkithen, Dunfermline, Queensferry, Culroſs, and 'Sterling, one; the burghs of Glaſgow, Renfrew, Rugien, 'and Dumbarton, one; the burghs of Haddington, Dun-'barr, North Berwick, Lauder, and Jedburgh, one; the 'burghs of Selkirk, Peebles, Linlithgow, and Lanerk, one; 'the burghs of Dumfries, Sanquhar, Annan, Lockmaben, 'and Kirkcudbright, one; the burghs of Wigtoun, New 'Galloway, Stranraver, and Whitchern, one; and the 'burghs of Air, Irvin, Rotheſay, Campbletoun, and Inve-'rary, one. And where the votes of the commiſſioners 'for the burghs, met to chuſe repreſentatives, ſhall be equal, 'the preſident of the meeting ſhall have a caſting vote, ac-'cording to his vote as a commiſſioner from the burgh; 'the commiſſioner from the oldeſt burgh preſiding in the 'firſt meeting, and the commiſſioners from the other 'burghs by turns, in the order as they are called in the rolls 'of the parliament of Scotland: and in caſe any of the 15 'commiſſioners from burghs ſhall deceaſe, or become le-'gally incapable, the town of Edinburgh, or the diſtrict 'which choſe the ſaid member, ſhall elect a member in his 'place. Provided that none be capable to elect or be 'elected for any of the ſaid eſtates, but ſuch as are 21 years 'of age complete, and proteſtant, excluding all papiſts, 'or ſuch who being ſuſpect of popery, and required, re-'fuſe to ſwear and ſubſcribe the formula contained in the 'third act made in the eighth and ninth ſeſſions of king 'William's parliament, for preventing the growth of 'popery. And none ſhall be capable to elect, or be elect-'ed, to repreſent a ſhire or burgh for this part of the united 'kingdom, except ſuch as are now capable by the laws of 'this kingdom, to elect, or be elected as commiſſioners for 'ſhires or burghs, to the parliament of Scotland. And 'when her majeſty ſhall declare her pleaſure for holding 'any parliament of Great Britain, and a writ ſhall be 'iſſued, directed to the privy council of Scotland, conform 'to the 22d article, until the parliament of Great Britain 'ſhall make further proviſion, the ſaid writ ſhall contain a 'command to the privy council, to iſſue out a proclama-'tion, requiring the peers of Scotland to aſſemble at ſuch 'time and place within Scotland, as her majeſty ſhall think 'fit, to make election of the 16 peers; and requiring the 'lord clerk-regiſter, or two of the clerks of ſeſſion, to at-'tend all ſuch meetings, and to adminiſter the oaths and to 'aſk the votes, and having made up the liſts in the preſence 'of the meeting, to return the names of the 16 peers 'choſen (certified under the ſubſcription of the lord clerk-'regiſter, or clerks of ſeſſion attending) to the clerk of the 'privy council of Scotland; and in like manner requiring the 'ſeveral freeholders in the reſpective ſhires and ſtewartries, 'to conveen at the head burghs of their ſhires and ſtewart-'ries, to elect their commiſſioners, and ordaining the clerks 'of the ſaid meetings, immediately after the elections are 'over, to return the names of the perſons elected to the 'clerks of the privy council; and laſtly, ordaining the city 'of Edinburgh to elect their commiſſioner, and the other 'royal boroughs to elect each of them a commiſſioner, and 'to ſend the ſaid commiſſioners at ſuch times, to ſuch 'burghs within their diſtricts, as her majeſty by ſuch pro-'clamation ſhall appoint, requiring the common clerk of 'the burghs, where ſuch election ſhall be, to attend the 'ſaid meetings, and immediately after the election to re-'turn the name of the perſon elected (under his hand) to 'the clerk of privy council; to the end that the names of 'the 16 peers, 30 commiſſioners for ſhires, and 15 com-'miſſioners for burghs, may be returned to the court from 'whence the writ did iſſue. And the 16 peers, and 45 'commiſſioners for ſhires and burghs, who ſhall be choſen 'by the peers, barons, and burghs, reſpectively, in this 'ſeſſion of parliament, and out of the members thereof, 'ſhall be the members of the reſpective houſes of the firſt 'parliament of Great Britain, on the part of Scotland.'

The laſt-mentioned act paſſed in Scotland ſhall be valid, as if the ſame had been part of the articles of union. ſ. 7.

By

By 6 Ann. c. 6. The queen ſhall have but one privy council for the kingdom of Great Britain, and ſuch privy council ſhall have the ſame powers as the privy council of England had at the time of the union, and none other. ſ. 1.

In every ſhire and ſtewartry within Scotland, and alſo in ſuch cities, boroughs, liberties, and precincts, within Scotland, as her majeſty ſhall think fit, there ſhall be appointed by her majeſty, under the great ſeal of Great Britain, a number of good and lawful men to be juſtices of peace; which perſons, over and above the powers veſted in juſtices of peace by the laws of Scotland, ſhall be further authoriſed to exerciſe whatever doth appertain to the office of a juſtice of peace, by virtue of the laws made in England before the union, in relation to the public peace; provided that in the ſeſſions of the peace the methods of trial and judgments ſhall be according to the laws of Scotland. ſ. 2.

Nothing in this act ſhall alter any rights, liberties, or privileges, granted to the city of Edinburgh, or to any other royal borough, of being juſtices of peace within their bounds. ſ. 3.

Twice in the year, in April or May, and in October, circuit-courts ſhall be kept. ſ. 4.

When any parliament ſhall be ſummoned, the 45 repreſentatives of Scotland, in the houſe of commons, ſhall be elected by the queen's writs under the great ſeal of Great Britain, directed to the ſeveral ſheriffs and ſtewarts of the reſpective ſhires and ſtewartries; and the ſaid ſheriffs and ſtewarts ſhall, on receipt of ſuch writs, forthwith give notice of the time of election for the knights or commiſſioners for their ſhires or ſtewartries, and at ſuch time of election the ſeveral freeholders ſhall meet at the headburghs of their ſhires and ſtewartries, and proceed to the election of their commiſſioners or knights; and the clerks of the ſaid meetings immediately after the elections, ſhall return the names of the perſons elected to the ſheriff or ſtewart, who ſhall annex it to his writ, and return it into the court out of which the writ iſſued. And as to the manner of election of the 15 repreſentatives of the royal boroughs, the ſheriff of the ſhire of Edinburgh ſhall, on the receipt of the writ directed to him, forthwith direct his precept to the lord provoſt of Edinburgh, to cauſe a burgeſs to be elected for that city; and on receipt of ſuch precept, the city of Edinburgh ſhall elect their member, and their common clerk ſhall certify his name to the ſheriff of Edinburgh, who ſhall annex it to his writ, and return it; and as to the other royal boroughs divided into 14 diſtricts, the ſheriffs or ſtewarts of the ſeveral ſhires and ſtewartries, on the receipt of their writs, ſhall direct their precepts to every royal borough, reciting the contents of the writ, and the date thereof, and commanding them forthwith to elect each of them a commiſſioner, and to order the ſaid commiſſioners to meet at the preſiding borough of their diſtrict (naming the borough) upon the 30th day after the teſte of the writ, unleſs it be Sunday, and then the day after, and then to chooſe their burgeſs for the parliament; and the common clerk of the preſiding borough ſhall immediately after the election return the name of the perſon elected to the ſheriff or ſtewart of the ſhire or ſtewartry wherein ſuch preſiding borough is, who ſhall annex it to his writ and return it. And in caſe a vacancy ſhall happen in time of parliament, by the deceaſe or legal incapacity of any member, a new member ſhall be elected in his room, conformable to the method herein appointed; and in caſe ſuch a vacancy be of a repreſentative of any one of the ſaid 14 diſtricts of royal boroughs, that borough which preſided at the election of the deceaſed or diſabled member ſhall be the preſiding borough at ſuch new election. ſ. 5.

Upon the iſſuing writs of ſummons for the election of a new parliament, if any ſhire or ſtewartry, wherein a royal borough is, hath not then a turn or right to elect a commiſſioner, or knight of the ſhire for that parliament, it ſhall be omitted out of the writ directed to ſuch ſheriff or ſtewart, to cauſe a commiſſioner for that ſhire to be elected. ſ. 6.

By 16 Geo. 3. c. 52. All perſons, being natural-born ſubjects, within this united kingdom, or any other of the king's dominions, ſhall inherit, and be inheritable in Scotland, as heirs to any honours, manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, and make their pedigrees and titles by deſcent from any of their anceſtors, lineal or collateral, although the father and mother, or other anceſtor of ſuch perſon under whom they derive their title or pedigree, ſhall be born out of the king's allegiance and out of his majeſty's dominions, as fully, as if ſuch father or mother, or other anceſtor, had been naturalized or natural-born ſubject within the king's dominions. ſ. 1.

No perſon ſhall be hereby enabled to inherit as heirs or co-heirs, to any perſon dying ſeiſed of any manors, &c. through any alien anceſtor, unleſs the perſon ſo claiming title as heir or co-heir, was in being, and capable to take the ſame eſtate as heir or co-heir, at the death of the perſon who ſhall ſo laſt die ſeiſed of ſuch manors, &c. and to whom he ſhall ſo claim to be heir. ſ. 2.

In caſe the perſon who ſhall be in being, and capable to take, at the death of the anceſtor dying ſeiſed of any ſuch honours, &c. and upon whom the deſcent ſhall be caſt, ſhall happen to be a daughter of any alien, and the alien father or mother, through whom ſuch deſcent ſhall be derived by ſuch daughter, ſhall afterwards have a ſon born within any of his majeſty's dominions, the deſcent ſo caſt upon ſuch daughter ſhall be diveſted in favour of ſuch ſon, and ſuch ſon ſhall inherit and take the eſtate in like manner as is allowed by the common law in caſes of the birth of a nearer heir; or in caſe ſuch father or mother ſhall have no ſon, but ſhall have one or more daughters afterwards born within any of his majeſty's dominions, the deſcent ſo caſt upon ſuch daughter ſhall be diveſted in favour of ſuch ſon, and ſuch ſon ſhall inherit and take the eſtate in like manner as is allowed by the common law in caſes of the birth of a nearer heir; or in caſe ſuch father or mother ſhall have no ſon, but ſhall have one or more daughters afterwards born within any of his majeſty's dominions, the daughters ſo born afterwards ſhall inherit and take in coparcenary with the daughters upon whom the deſcent ſhall be caſt at the death of the anceſtor laſt ſeiſed. ſ. 3.

Alehouſes.

By 29 Geo. 2. c. 12. In every royal borough, and in every ſhire and ſtewartry in Scotland, no perſon ſhall keep any alehouſe, or ſell ale, beer, or other exciſeable liquors, by retail, but ſuch only who ſhall be licenſed according to this act. ſ. 10.

The juſtices in each ſhire and ſtewartry ſhall annually aſſemble on Nov. 1. or on the next lawful day thereafter, at the hour and place when and where the general quarter ſeſſions have uſually been held, to licenſe for the year enſuing perſons to keep alehouſes, or to ſell ale, beer, or other exciſeable liquors by retail, within ſuch ſhire or ſtewartry, or in the event hereafter mentioned within any royal borough in ſuch ſhire, &c. and the ſaid juſtices ſhall cauſe to be delivered to each perſon licenſed, a licenſe written or printed upon vellum, parchment, or paper ſtampt with a ſtamp denoting the payment of the duty, and ſigned by the praeſes of the meeting, and by the clerk of the peace, for each of which licenſes there ſhall be paid 1*s.* to the clerk of the peace for his fee, over the 20*s.* for the ſtamp duty, and no greater ſum ſhall be paid for each licenſe. ſ. 11.

The magiſtrates of each royal borough ſhall yearly on the 25th of October, or the next lawful day thereafter, aſſemble at the time and place when and where they uſually have met for tranſacting the buſineſs of ſuch royal borough; and they or two of them ſhall, at ſuch annual meeting, licenſe for the year then next enſuing ſuch and ſo many perſons as they or two of them think convenient to keep alehouſes, &c. or to ſell ale, &c. by retail, within every ſuch royal borough and the royalty thereof; and the ſaid magiſtrates ſhall cauſe to be delivered to each perſon ſo licenſed a licence written or printed upon vellum, &c. ſtampt with a ſtamp denoting the payment of the duty, and ſigned by two of the ſaid magiſtrates and by the clerk of ſuch royal borough; for each of which licences the fee of 1*s.* over and above the duty, and no more ſhall be paid. ſ. 12.

If in any royal borough there ſhall not be a ſufficient number of magiſtrates capable to grant licenſes, purſuant to this act, at any of the times when licenſes for alehouſes, &c. in the royal boroughs are to be granted, then it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices of peace of the ſhire or ſtewartry in which ſuch royal borough is ſituated, to grant licenſes for ſuch royal borough at the ſame time and in the ſame manner as they do for the ſhire or ſtewartry; and all licenſes ſo granted for royal boroughs, by juſtices of peace, ſhall continue in force until the next annual day of granting licenſes. ſ. 13.

Every perſon who in royal boroughs, &c. ſhall keep an alehouſe, or ſell ale, beer, or other exciſeable liquors, by retail, without being licenſed according to this act, and ſhall be convicted within one month after ſuch offence committed, on confeſſion or the oath of one witneſs, by any two juſtices of peace of the ſhire or ſtewartry, or by any two magiſtrates in any royal borough where ſuch offender ſhall reſide or be licenſed, every ſuch offender ſhall forfeit for the firſt offence 5*s.*, for the ſecond offence 10*s.*, and for the third offence 20*s.*, and be incapable of keeping an alehouſe, &c. or of ſelling ale, &c. by retail, by virtue of any licenſe granted before ſuch conviction, or of having any licenſe thereafter; and if any ſuch offender continue to commit any of the ſaid offences, he ſhall for every offence ſubſequent to his third conviction forfeit 40*s.*; all which penalties ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, by warrant ſigned by the juſtices or magiſtrates who convict ſuch offender; which penalties ſhall be applied, one half to the informer, and the other half to the poor of the pariſh where ſuch offence is committed; and ſuch conviction, ſigned by the ſaid two juſtices or magiſtrates ſhall be good in law; and the ſaid juſtices or magiſtrates ſhall immediately after the conviction is ſigned, intimate the ſaid conviction to the perſon convicted, and ſhall certify the ſame and the proceedings therein to the clerk of the peace of the ſhire or ſtewartry in which they act, or in which the royal borough is ſituated, to be by the ſaid clerk preſerved amongſt the records of the ſaid ſhire or ſtewartry. ſ. 14.

Any perſon aggrieved by ſuch conviction may, within two days after ſuch conviction intimated to him, appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions, or adjournment thereof, for the ſhire or ſtewartry where ſuch offence is committed or wherein ſuch royal borough is ſituated; and the juſtices of peace at ſuch ſeſſions are to determine ſuch appeals, and to give and cauſe to be executed ſuch judgment as the juſtices or magiſtrates from whom the caſe is appealed ought to have given. ſ. 15.

The perſon appealing ſhall with all ſpeed, and before the meeting of the ſaid quarter ſeſſions or adjournment, leave his reaſons of appeal in writing with the clerk of the peace of the ſhire or ſtewartry, and with effect proſecute ſuch appeal; and the clerk of the peace ſhall, at the quarter ſeſſions, &c. produce all convictions and reaſons of appeal certified to him, or left with him ſince the laſt quarter ſeſſions or adjournment, and ſhall upon reaſonable notice deliver to any perſon requiring the ſame a copy of ſuch conviction or reaſons of appeal; for each copy whereof the fee of 6*d.* and no more ſhall be paid. ſ. 16.

It ſhall be lawful for the juſtices of peace at the ſaid quarter ſeſſions or adjournment, if they judge any appeal to be frivolous, to order the party appealing to pay any ſum not exceeding 20*s.* over and above the penalties before mentioned, to be applied in ſuch manner as the ſaid juſtices ſhall direct; and the judgment of the juſtices ſhall be final. ſ. 17.

No juſtice of peace or any magiſtrate in any ſhire, ſtewartry, or royal borough, in Scotland, who is a brewer, malſter, diſtiller, or retailer of ale, beer, or other exciſeable liquors, or is concerned in partnerſhip, or otherwiſe, with any brewer, &c. at any time when any of the powers in this act are to be executed, ſhall act in any of the meetings for granting licences, or convict or join in any conviction, or in the determination of any appeal directed by this act; and every juſtice of peace or magiſtrate who ſhall offend in any of the premiſes, ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 50*l.* to be recovered by any perſon who will ſue for the ſame within ſix months after ſuch offence committed, by action, bill, plaint, or information, in the court of exchequer in Scotland, in which no eſſoin, protection, wager of law, or more than one imparlance ſhall be allowed; which penalty of 50*l.* ſhall be paid, one moiety to the perſon who ſues for the ſame, and the other moiety the collector of the ceſs for the ſhire or ſtewartry within which ſuch juſtice or magiſtrate has offended, to be applied for the reparation of the highways and bridges. ſ. 18.

Nothing in this act ſhall charge any licenſe for keeping any alehouſe, &c. or place for the ſale of ale, beer, and other exciſeable liquors by retail, upon or near the king's military roads in Scotland, not being within any royal borough, nor within the burghs of Dumblain, Muthill, Crief, Dunheld, or within one mile of any of the ſaid royal boroughs or burghs, with any duty hereby directed to be paid, but all ſuch licences ſhall be granted and delivered by the juſtices of peace for the reſpective ſhires and ſtewartries, where ſuch roads lie, upon the payment of 1*s.* for each licence to the clerk of the peace of ſuch ſhire or ſtewartry for his trouble. ſ. 19.

Arms.

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 20. The reſpective lieutenants in Scotland ſhall, over and above their power of commanding the militia, &c. be enabled by themſelves, or any two of their deputies, to grant warrants, appointing perſons (of which a commiſſioned officer, and the conſtable, or his deputy, or in their abſence ſome other perſon in the ſhire or ſtewartry ſhall be two) to ſearch for and ſeize all arms, ammuniton, and and other warlike ſtores, in the poſſeſſion of any perſons whom the ſaid lieutenants or their deputies judge dangerous to the peace of the kingdom, and to ſecure ſuch arms, &c. for the public ſervice, and thereof to give account to the ſaid lieutenants or two of their deputies. ſ. 10.

No ſuch ſearch ſhall be made in any houſe between ſun-ſetting and ſun-riſing, except in cities and their ſuburbs, boroughs royal, boroughs of regality and of barony, where ſearch may be made in the night-time, if the warrant ſo direct; and no dwelling-houſe of any peer ſhall be ſearched but by immediate warrant from his majeſty under his ſign manual, or in preſence of the lieutenant, or one of the deputy-lieutenants of the ſhire or ſtewartry; and it ſhall be lawful, in caſe of reſiſtance, to enter by force; and the arms ſo ſeized may be reſtored, if the lieutenants, or in their abſence any two of their deputies, ſhall think fit. ſ. 11.

All magiſtrates and other officers are required to be aiding and aſſiſting to the lieutenants, &c. in execution of the premiſes. ſ. 12.

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 54. It ſhall not be lawful for any perſons within the ſhires of Dunbartain on the north ſide of the water of Leven; Stirling, on the north ſide of the river of Forth; Perth, Kincardin, Aberdeen, Inverneſs, Nairn, Cromarty, Argyle, Forfar, Bamff, Sutherland, Caithneſs, Elgine, and Roſs, to have in their cuſtody, uſe, or bear, broad ſword or target, poinard, whingar or durk, ſide piſtol or gun, or any other warlike weapons, in the fields, or in the way, coming or going to, from or, at, any church, market, fair, burials, huntings, meetings, or any other occaſion, within the ſaid bounds, or to come into the Low Countries armed as aforeſaid: and if any perſon above deſcribed ſhall have in his cuſtody, uſe or bear arms, being thereof convicted before one juſtice of peace, or other judge competent ſummarily, he ſhall for the firſt offence forfeit all ſuch arms, and be fined not exceeding 40 l. nor leſs than 5 l. ſterling, and be impriſoned till payment; which if not inſtantly paid after commitment, the fine ſhall be levied out of the offender's goods and eſtate, by warrant of the judge who ſhall pronounce ſuch ſentence; to be applied, one half to the informer, and the other, at the ſight of the juſtices where convicted, towards repairing the public works in the ſhire, and be further liable to a month's impriſonment; and being convicted for a ſecond offence before the court of juſticiary, or the judges at their circuits, ſhall forfeit ſuch arms, and be fined not exceeding 80 l. nor under 10 l. ſterling; and for every ſubſequent offence to a fine double the former, to be levied and applied as above; and for want of payment or ſufficient diſtreſs, the offender ſhall be liable to be tranſported to the plantations for 7 years. ſ. 1.

All trials for the ſaid offences ſhall be entered in a record to be kept apart by the clerk of the court of juſticiary, or his deputies; and where an offender ſhall be tried for the firſt offence before an inferior court, the clerk of ſuch court ſhall exhibit duplicates of every ſuch trial and ſentence following thereon, ſigned judicially to the judges at their circuits the next court after ſuch trials, to be delivered to the clerk of the circuit, who is required to enter the ſame on the book of regiſter, to be kept ſeparate; and in 40 days after ſuch duplicates ſhall be exhibited and delivered, extracts thereof ſigned by the clerk of juſticiary ſhall have the ſame force as extracts from other regiſters of decrees and acts in Scotland; and the clerks of inferior courts within the juriſdiction of any ſeparate court of juſticiary general, ſhall forthwith tranſmit the ſaid duplicates into the ſaid court, there to be kept in a regiſter apart, in order to the conviction of ſuch as ſhall be guilty a ſecond time or oftener. ſ. 2.

If any clerks of inferior courts ſhall neglect to make and ſign ſuch duplicate, or to exhibit the ſame judicially in the circuit courts, or to deliver the ſame to the clerk of the circuits, or to tranſmit the ſame in the caſe above mentioned; or if the clerk of the juſticiary, or his deputy-clerks of the circuits, ſhall neglect to enter them in the regiſter, every clerk ſo offending ſhall be liable to a fine of 10 l. ſterling, to be levied as aforeſaid. ſ. 3.

The matters above mentioned ſhall be point of dittay; and the judges at their circuits ſhall inquire concerning the proſecutions made upon this act, and the keeping the duplicates of the trials. ſ. 4.

The clerk of the juſticiary or his deputy, ſhall exhibit into that court the book of regiſter above directed, at the firſt court after the judges return from their circuits, and the running of the 40 days allowed for filling up the ſaid regiſter. ſ. 5.

The prohibition of keeping, &c. warlike weapons, ſhall not extend to peers, nor their ſons, nor any officers, or their aſſiſtants, employed in the execution of juſtice; nor ſhall this act extend to hinder any commoner, having the yearly income of 400 l. Scots or more, or who is otherwiſe qualified to vote at elections of parliament men for any of the above-named counties, to have in his cuſtody or uſe, in manner allowed by laws now in force, any number of arms not exceeding two firelocks, two pair of piſtols, two ſwords; the magiſtrates of every burgh royal to have in their cuſtody a ſufficient number of arms for keeping guard within their burghs, and the inhabitants to uſe the ſaid arms in keeping guard; provided that the arms in burghs royal be kept in magazines under the care of the magiſtrates, and not left in private houſes, and that the whole number in any burgh royal ſhall not exceed 200; nor ſhall this act extend to hinder the commiſſion officers of the army and the ſoldiers under their command, to keep, uſe, or bear arms, as formerly; nor the lieutenants of counties, their deputies and the militia, nor fencible men under their command, to keep or receive arms out of his majeſty's magazines, and to uſe the ſame during the time that the militia and fencible men ſhall be called out. ſ. 6.

Provided that the ſaid lieutenants, &c. return the arms ſo received within 20 days after the expiration of the time for which they were called out, under the penalties above mentioned. ſ. 7.

When a warrant is granted by a lord lieutenant, or two deputy-lieutenants, of any the ſhires or bounds above mentioned, to ſearch for ammunition or other warlike ſtores, which they ſhall judge dangerous to the peace of the kingdom, and kept contrary to the directions of this act, in purſuance of 1 Geo. 1. c. 20. the ſearch may be made within the ſaid ſhires between ſun-ſetting and ſun-riſing, if the warrant ſo direct; and in caſe of reſiſtance or refuſal of entry, or of the concealing or conveying away ſuch arms, ammunition, or other warlike ſtores, all perſons wilfully aiding or being guilty, art and part, of ſuch reſiſtance, or refuſal of entry, &c. ſhall be liable to a fine not exceeding 15 l. nor under 5 l. ſterling, to be levied as above. ſ. 8. See the reſt in TENURES.

By 19 Geo. 2. c. 39. After the firſt of Aug. 1746, it ſhall be lawful for the lords lieutenants in Scotland, within the ſhire of Dunbartain, on the north ſide of the water of Leven; Stirling, on the north ſide of the river of Forth; Perth, Kincardin, Aberdeen, Inverneſs, Nairn, Cromarty, Argyle, Forfar, Bamff, Sutherland, Caithneſs, Elgine, and Roſs, and for ſuch other perſons as his majeſty ſhall, by his ſign manual, authorize to iſſue letters of ſummons, in his majeſty's name, and under their reſpective hands and ſeals, directed to perſons within the ſaid ſhires and bounds, commanding all perſons therein named, or inhabiting within the limits therein deſcribed, to bring in and deliver up at a certain day and place all their arms and warlike weapons, unto ſuch lord lieutenant or other perſon appointed by his majeſty, for the uſe of his majeſty, and to be diſpoſed of as his majeſty ſhall appoint; and if any perſon in ſuch ſummons mentioned or inhabiting within the limits therein deſcribed, ſhall by oath of one witneſs be convicted of having any arms or warlike weapons after the day prefixed in ſuch ſummons, before any juſtice of the peace for the ſhire or ſtewartry where ſuch offender reſides or is apprehended, or before the judge ordinary, or ſuch other perſon as his majeſty ſhall appoint, every perſon ſo convicted ſhall forfeit 15 l. ſterling, and be committed to priſon until payment; and if he neglect to make payment within one calendar month from the date of ſuch conviction, it ſhall be lawful to any juſtice of peace, or to the judge ordinary of the place where ſuch offender is impriſoned, in caſe he judges ſuch offender fit to ſerve his majeſty as a ſoldier, to cauſe him to be delivered over to ſuch officer belonging to the forces of his majeſty who ſhall be appointed to receive ſuch men, to ſerve as ſoldiers in America; and ſuch officer ſhall then cauſe the articles of war againſt mutiny and deſertion to be read to him in the preſence of ſuch juſtice of peace or judge ordinary; who ſhall cauſe an entry thereof to be made, together with the names of the perſons ſo delivered over, with a certificate thereof under his hand to be delivered to the officer; and after reading the ſaid articles of war, every perſon ſo delivered over to ſuch officer, ſhall be deemed a liſted ſoldier, and be ſubject to the diſcipline of war, and in caſe of deſertion be puniſhed as a deſerter; and in caſe ſuch offender be not judged fit to ſerve his majeſty, then he ſhall be impriſoned for ſix calendar months and until he gives ſecurity for his good behaviour for two years from the giving thereof. ſ. 1.

All perſons ſummoned to deliver up their arms, who ſhall conceal any arms, or be acceſſary to the concealing of ſuch arms, and ſhall be thereof convicted, by oath of one witneſs, before any juſtice of peace, judge ordinary, or other perſon authoriſed by his majeſty, ſhall be fined in any ſum not exceeding 100 l. ſterling, nor under 15 l. ſterling, and be committed to priſon until payment; and if the perſon ſo convicted, being a man, neglect to pay the fine within one calendar month from the conviction, he ſhall, if he be judged fit, be delivered over to ſerve as a ſoldier in America, and if he be not judged fit, he ſhall be impriſoned for ſix calendar months, and until he give ſecurity for his good behaviour for two years; and if the perſon convicted be a woman, ſhe ſhall over and above the aforeſaid fine and impriſonment, till payment, ſuffer impriſonment for ſix calendar months within the tolbooth of the head burgh of the ſhire or ſtewartry within which ſhe is convicted. ſ. 2.

If after the day appointed by any ſummons for delivering up arms, any arms be found concealed in any dwelling houſe, barn, out-houſe, office, or other houſe, being the reſidence of or belonging to any of the perſons ſummoned, the tenant, or poſſeſſor of ſuch houſe, or of the houſe to which ſuch barn, &c. belongs, being convicted, ſhall be deemed to be the haver and concealer of ſuch arms, and ſhall ſuffer the penalties enacted againſt concealers of arms, unleſs he give evidence by making oath or otherwiſe to the ſatisfaction of the ſaid juſtice, &c. that ſuch arms were ſo concealed without his knowledge. ſ. 3.

If any perſon convicted of any of the above offences, thereafter preſume to commit the like offence a ſecond time, being convicted before any court of juſticiary, or at the circuit courts, he ſhall be liable to be tranſported to any of the plantations for 7 years. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful to his majeſty by ſign manual, to authoriſe ſuch perſons as he thinks proper, to execute all the powers and authorities by this act given to juſtices of the peace, or to the judge ordinary, as to the apprehending, trying, and convicting, perſons ſummoned to deliver up their arms. ſ. 5.

The ſummons ſhall be deemed ſufficient if it expreſs the perſons commanded to deliver up their weapons, or the pariſhes or lands, limits, and boundings, whereof the inhabitants are to be diſarmed, and it ſhall be a ſufficient execution or notice of the ſummons, if it is affixed on the door of the pariſh church within which the lands (the inhabitants whereof are to be diſarmed) lie, on any Sunday between ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon four days at leaſt before the day prefixed for delivering up the arms, and on the market-croſs of the head burgh of the ſhire or ſtewartry within which the lands lie eight days before the day appointed for the delivery; and in caſe the perſon employed to affix the ſaid ſummons on the doors of the pariſh churches be interrupted, or forcibly hindered, upon oath thereof before any juſtice of peace, the ſummons affixed on the market-croſs of the ſaid head burgh ſhall be a ſufficient notice to all the perſons commanded thereby to deliver up their arms. ſ. 6.

Upon the elapſing of the days prefixed for delivering up arms the perſons employed to fix the ſummons on the market-croſs of the head burghs of any ſhire or ſtewartry, ſhall before any juſtice of peace for the ſaid ſhire, &c. make oath that he did give notice of the ſame by affixing it as aforeſaid; and the perſon employed to affix the ſummons on the door of the pariſh church ſhall make oath to the ſame effect, or otherwiſe ſhall ſwear that he was interrupted or forcibly hindered; which oath, with copies of the ſummons, ſhall be delivered to the ſheriff or ſteward clerk of the ſeveral ſhires or ſtewartries within which the perſons intended to be diſarmed live, who ſhall enter the ſame in books, and the ſaid books, or extracts out of the ſame, under the hand of the ſheriff or ſteward clerk, ſhall be evidence of the execution of ſummons in order to the conviction of the perſons who ſhall neglect to comply with the ſame. ſ. 7.

If any ſheriff or ſteward clerk neglect to make ſuch entry, or to exhibit the books, or to give extracts, being required by any perſon who ſhall carry on any proſecution, he ſhall forfeit his office, and be fined 50 l. ſterling; to be recovered upon a ſummary complaint before the court of ſeſſion, for the uſe of his majeſty. ſ. 8.

It ſhall be lawful for the lord lieutenant of any of the ſhires aforeſaid, or the perſon authoriſed by his majeſty, to ſummon perſons to deliver their arms, or for any juſtice of peace of the reſpective ſhires above mentioned, or to the judge ordinary within their reſpective juriſdictions, or to ſuch perſon as ſhall be authoriſed by his majeſty for trying offences againſt this act, to appoint ſuch perſons as they ſhall think fit to apprehend all perſons within the limits aforeſaid, having or wearing any arms contrary to law, and to carry them to ſome ſure priſon, in order to their being proceeded againſt according to law. ſ. 9.

It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty, by ſign manual, and for the lord lieutenant of any of the ſhires aforeſaid, or the perſon authoriſed by his majeſty to ſummon perſons to deliver up their arms, or any juſtice of peace, by warrant under his hand, to appoint any perſons to enter into any houſe within the limits aforeſaid, either by day or by night to ſearch for and ſeize all arms. ſ. 10.

Provided that if the ſearch be in the night, that is, between ſun-ſetting and ſun-riſing, it ſhall be made in the preſence of a conſtable, or ſome perſon named in the warrant. And if five or more perſons aſſemble to obſtruct the execution of this act, it ſhall be lawful for every lord lieutenant, deputy lieutenant, or juſtice of peace, and for every peace officer within ſuch ſhire or place where ſuch aſſembly ſhall be, and for every other perſon by his majeſty authoriſed, to require the aſſiſtance of the forces of his majeſty, by applying to the commanding officer, who ſhall carry the offenders before a juſtice of peace of the ſhire or place; and if the perſons aſſembled, or any other perſon ſummoned to deliver up his arms, be killed, maimed, or wounded in the diſperſing, and appehending, by reaſon of their reſiſting, then every ſuch lord lieutenant, deputy lieutenent, juſtice of peace, or peace officer, and all perſons authoriſed by his majeſty, and all perſons aſſiſting them, ſhall be indemnified againſt the king and againſt all other perſons for the killing, maiming, or wounding ſuch perſon. ſ. 11.

If any action civil or criminal be brought againſt any perſon for what he ſhall lawfully do in purſuance of this act, the court ſhall allow the defendant the benefit of the indemnity above provided, and ſhall farther decern the purſuer to pay the defender the expences of ſuch action or proſecution. ſ. 12.

This act, or the 1 Geo. 1. c. 54. ſhall not hinder any perſon whom his majeſty by licence, under his ſign manual, ſhall permit to wear arms, or who ſhall be licenſed to wear arms by any writing under the hand and ſeal of any perſon authoriſed by his majeſty to give ſuch licence, from keeeping or wearing ſuch arms as in ſuch licence ſhall be ſpecified. ſ. 13.

After the affixing any ſummons as aforeſaid, no perſon reſiding within the bounds therein mentioned, ſhall be proſecuted for having or bearing arms at any time before the day prefixed by ſuch ſummons for the delivering up arms; but if any perſon neglect to deliver up his arms, in obedience to ſuch ſummons, or afterwards be found in arms, he ſhall be liable to the penalties in the ſaid ſtatute as well as of this act. ſ. 14.

One moiety of the penalties impoſed by this act, with reſpect to which no other proviſion is made, ſhall be to the informer, and the other moiety ſhall be at the diſpoſal of the juſtices, judge ordinary, or other perſon authoriſed, before whom ſuch conviction ſhall happen; provided the ſame be applied towards the expence incurred in the execution of this act. ſ. 15.

Such parts of the ſhire of Dunbartain as lie upon the eaſt, weſt, and north ſides of Lochlomond, to the northward of that point where the water of Leven runs from Lochlomond, are and were intended to be diſarmed by the 1 Geo. 1. c. 54. and by this act. ſ. 20.

By 21 Geo. 2. c. 34. The lieutenants of any of the 15 ſhires in the 19 Geo. 2. c. 39. ſ. 1. named, and other perſons authoriſed by his majeſty, to iſſue letters of ſummons for the delivering of arms, may appoint, by writing, under their hands and ſeals, ſuch perſons as they think fit to receive the arms ſo to be delivered up, and the perſon appointed to receive ſuch arms ſhall tranſmit the ſame to ſuch place as ſuch lieutenant or perſon authoriſed ſhall direct; and every perſon obliged by the ſaid act to deliver up his arms, ſhall incur the like penalties for having and bearing arms after the day prefixed in ſuch ſummons, as for having or bearing arms contrary to the meaning of the ſaid act. ſ. 1.

So much of the ſaid act, whereby it is enacted, that no peers of this realm, nor their ſons, nor any members of parliament, nor any perſon who by the 1 Geo. 1. c. 54. were allowed to have arms, ſhould be liable to be ſummoned to deliver up their arms is hereby repealed. ſ. 2.

The prohibition in the 1 Geo. 1. c. 54. or 19 Geo. 2. c. 39. or in this act, of having arms, ſhall not extend to any officers or their aſſiſtants, employed in the execution of juſtice, nor to hinder any perſon qualified to vote at elections of parliament men for any of the ſaid counties, nor any heretor or life-renter poſſeſſed of an eſtate of 400 and leſs than 1000 l. Scots, valued rent, to have any number of arms not exceeding three firelocks, three pair of piſtols and three ſwords or cutlaſſes; nor any heretor or life-renter of an eſtate of 1000 and leſs than 3000 l. Scots, valued rent, to have ſeven firelocks, ſeven pair of piſtols, and ſeven ſwords or cutlaſſes; nor any heretor or life-renter of an eſtate of 3000 and leſs than 6000 l. Scots, valued rent, to have 12 firelocks, 12 pair of piſtols, and 12 ſwords or cutlaſſes; nor any heretor or life-renter of an eſtate of 6000 and leſs than 9000 l. Scots, valued rent, to have 20 firelocks, 20 pair of piſtols, and 20 ſwords or cutlaſſes; nor any heretor or life-renter of an eſtate of 9000 l. Scots, valued rent, or more, to have 30 firelocks, 30 pair of piſtols, and 30 ſwords or cutlaſſes; to be uſed by himſelf, family, or ſervants; nor to hinder the magiſtrates of any burgh royal to have a ſufficient number of arms for keeping guard; nor to hinder any perſon licenſed purſuant to 19 Geo. 2. c. 39. from keeping the arms in ſuch licence ſpecified; nor to hinder the officers of the army and the common ſoldiers to uſe arms as formerly; nor the lieutenants of counties or their deputies, or the fencible men under their command, to keep and receive arms out of his majeſty's magazines, and to uſe them when their militia ſhall be called out by lawful authority. ſ. 3.

Perſons to whom a limited number of arms is hereby allowed, ſhall, upon ſummons, deliver up all ſuch arms as they have over and above the number limited. ſ. 4.

The arms in burghs royal ſhall be kept in the magazines under the care of the magiſtrates, and not left in private houſes, unleſs by ſpecial warrant in writing from the magiſtrates; and the number of arms in any royal burgh ſhall not exceed 200 ſtand of arms; and the ſaid lieutenants of counties, their deputies, militia, and fenſible men, under their command, ſhall return the arms received out of the king's magazines, within 20 days after the expiration of the time for which they ſhall be called out. ſ. 5.

No perſon by reaſon of having an income of 400 l. Scots valued rent, or being qualified to vote at elections of parliament men, or by licence, ſhall be intitled to keep any arms, unleſs he ſhall firſt have qualified himſelf by taking and ſubſcribing the oaths of allegiance and abjuration, and ſubſcribing the aſſurance appointed to be taken by perſons in offices of public truſt in Scotland, either in the court of ſeſſion, court of juſticiary, or in the ſheriff or ſtewart's court of the county or ſtewartry where he reſides, or in one of the courts at Weſtminſter, and cauſed a certificate of his having ſo done to be regiſtered in a book to be kept in one of the ſaid courts in Scotland; and in caſe any ſuch perſon preſume to keep arms without having firſt qualified himſelf as aforeſaid, he ſhall forfeit the ſaid arms to his majeſty, and 100 l. ſterling, to be recovered in any of the ſaid courts in Scotland; one moiety to the uſe of his majeſty, and the other moiety to the perſon who ſhall ſue. ſ. 6.

Inſtead of the penalties inflicted by the 19 Geo. 2. c. 39. it ſhall be lawful for any juſtice, or judge ordinary, to cauſe ſuch offender (not being a landed man or the ſon of a landed man) whom he ſhall judge fit to ſerve his majeſty as a ſoldier, to be delivered to any officer belonging to his majeſty's forces, to ſerve therein; for which purpoſe the officer who ſhall receive him, ſhall then cauſe ſo much of the articles of war as are directed to be read to perſons inliſted as ſoldiers, to be read to him in the preſence of ſuch juſtice or judge ordinary; who ſhall cauſe an entry thereof to be made together with the names of the perſons ſo delivered over, with a certificate thereof under his hand to be delivered to the ſaid officer; and after reading ſuch part of the ſaid articles of war, every perſon ſo delivered over to ſuch officer ſhall be deemed a liſted ſoldier. ſ. 10.

By 26 Geo. 2. c. 29. All the parts of the ſhire of Stirling lying on the north or north-weſt ſide of an imaginary ſtraight line from Ballamachall upon Lock Loman, in the pariſh of Buchanan, to the kirk or bridge of Aberfoyl, upon the river of Forth, ſhall be ſubject to the proviſions made by 1 Geo. 1. c. 54.—19 Geo. 2. c. 39.—21 Geo. 2. c. 34. and by this act, in the ſame manner as if that boundary had been mentioned in the ſaid former acts relating to the diſarming the highlands in Scotland. ſ. 2.

Bail.

By 11 Geo. 1. c. 26. Whereas the ſums for which bail is to be taken on any criminal information in Scotland, in purſuance of the act 1701. for preventing wrongous impriſonment, &c. are too ſmall, viz. 6000 marks for a nobleman, 3000 marks for a landed gentleman, 1000 marks for any other gentleman or burgeſs, and 300 marks, money of Scotland, for any inferior perſon; it ſhall be lawful for every magiſtrate, judge, and court of judicature, in Scotland, to extend the bail to double the ſums aforeſaid. ſ. 11.

Bankers.

By 5 Geo. 3. c. 49. It ſhall not be lawful for any perſon whatſoever, bodies politic or corporate, to iſſue or give, or cauſe to be given, within Scotland, any note, ticket, token, or other writing for money, of the nature of a bank note, circulated, or to be circulated as ſpecie, but ſuch as ſhall be payable, on demand, in lawful money of Great Britain, and without reſerving any power or option of delaying payment thereof for any time or term whatſoever. ſ. 1.

Nothing in this act ſhall prevent iſſuing poſt bills, payable ſeven days after ſight, in the ſame manner as the bank of England. ſ. 2.

Every perſon whatſoever, bodies politic or corporate, and the legal adminiſtrators of ſuch perſons, bodies politic or corporate, who ſhall iſſue, or cauſe to be iſſued, any note, ticket, token, or other writing, for money, of the nature of a bank note, circulated, or to be circulated, as ſpecie, contrary to this act, ſhall for every offence forfeit to the perſon who ſhall inform and proſecute, 500 l. ſterling, with coſts; to be recovered, by complaint, before the court of ſeſſion, upon fifteen days notice to the perſon or perſons, bodies politic or corporate, complained of; which complaint the ſaid court of ſeſſion is hereby authorized and required ſummarily to determine, without abiding the courſe of any roll. ſ. 3.

Summary execution ſhall proceed upon every note, accepted, bill, poſt bill, ticket, token, or other writing, at the inſtance of the holder, againſt the perſon liable in payment, not only for the ſum therein contained, but alſo for the intereſt thereof from the time of demanding payment; and a proteſt, taken at the office of the perſon liable, between nine in the morning, and three in the afternoon, for not payment, or for not marking of ſuch note, &c. ſhall be regiſtrable in the courts of ſeſſion, or other competent judicatories, within ſix months after proteſt; that letters of horning, upon a charge of ſix days, and the other uſual execution of the law of Scotland, may paſs. ſ. 4.

"No ſuſpenſion to paſs but upon a diſcharge." ſ. 5.

"Proteſt may be made of ſeveral notes jointly." ſ. 6.

No note, &c. ſhall be circulated as ſpecie, for a leſs ſum than 20 s. ſterling, upon pain to forfeit the ſum of 500 l. with full coſts of ſuit, to the perſon who ſhall inform; to be recovered by way of ſummary complaint, before the court of ſeſſion. ſ. 7.

Bread.

By 3 Geo. 3. c. 6. Magiſtrates ſhall enquire into, and take proof of, the prices which the ſeveral ſorts of bread ſell for. ſ. 1.

Notice to be given the deacon of the bakers company, or where there is no company, to two bakers. ſ. 2.

The proof to proceed upon the oaths of two witneſſes converſant in the prices. ſ. 3.

Evidence to be ingroſſed in a book, and the aſſize and weight of bread for ſale, to be aſcertained according thereto. ſ. 5.

The aſſize not liable to be varied. ſ. 6.

Upon application and proof offered, a new aſſize to be made. ſ. 7.

Any perſon may be convicted of the offences in 31 Geo. 2. c. 29. or this act before any magiſtrate, as for other offences of the like nature. ſ. 8.

Where magiſtrates neglect their duty, two juſtices of the county, &c. may require them to ſet aſſize or alter the ſame. ſ. 9.

The 31 Geo. 2. not altered by this act, to extend to, and be in force within Scotland.

See the general title BREAD, in Part I.

Conjuration.

By 9 Geo. 2. c. 5. The act paſſed in the parliament of Scotland, in the ninth parliament of queen Mary, intituled Anentis witchrafts, ſhall be repealed. ſ. 2.

Corn.

By 14 Geo. 2. c. 7. The power of ſuſpending in time of dearth, the execution of the laws prohibiting the importation of victual from Ireland, and other parts beyond the ſeas into Scotland, which by the act 1703, Ann. ſeſſ. 1. cap. 9. in the parliament of Scotland, was veſted in the privy council of Scotland, ſhall be veſted in the judges of the courts of ſeſſion, juſticiary, and exchequer in Scotland; and any nine of the ſaid judges in time of ſeſſion, and any five of them in the time of vacance, ſhall exerciſe the ſaid power of ſuſpenſion in as ample manner as the privy council of Scotland could have exerciſed the ſame, before the union, ſubject to the rules of this act. In time of dearth it ſhall be lawful for any perſon deſirous to import victual from Ireland, or other parts beyond the ſeas, into Scotland, to apply by a ſummary petition to the judges of the court of ſeſſion for a licence; and the ſaid judges are to make intimation thereof by tranſmitting a copy of the ſame to the clerk of the peace for every ſheriffdom or ſtewartry of Scotland, and to appoint a time not exceeding 15 days from the time of ſuch application, for hearing the evidence herein after directed; and in time of vacance it ſhall be lawful to apply by a ſummary petition to the judge of the court of ſeſſion, who ſhall ſit upon the bills for ſuch licence for importation, who is to make intimation as aforeſaid, and to appoint a time not exceeding 20 days from the time of ſuch application for the hearing evidence concerning the premiſes, and to ſignify to the other judges of the reſpective courts the tenor of ſuch application, and the time appointed for ſuch examination; and the ſaid judges or nine of them in time of ſeſſion, and five in time of vacance, ſhall ſummon before them, in the ſeſſion court houſe at Edinburgh, on the day appointed, two or more honeſt and ſubſtantial perſons of the county of Edinburgh, not being corn merchants nor factors for corn, nor intereſted in any corn to be imported, and who ſhall each of them have a land eſtate of 400*l.* Scots per annum valued rent, and being ſkilful in the price of corn, and ſhall then and there upon the oaths of ſuch perſons, and otherwiſe, examine into the common market prices of middling corn and grain, and oatmeal, in the county and city of Edinburgh, and aſcertain the ſame by a determination ſubſcribed under the hand of one of the principal clerks of ſeſſion, an authentic copy of which determination ſhall be tranſmitted to the chief officer or collector of the cuſtoms at the port of Leith, and ſhall be by him hung up in the cuſtom-houſe at Leith, and there be patent to all perſons, and may be inſpected without fee; and it ſhall be lawful for any perſon intending to import victual into Scotland, or deſirous to have victual imported, or for any juſtice of peace to demand an extract of ſuch determination from one of the principal clerks of ſeſſion under his hand and ſeal, paying therefore 1*s.* and to deliver the ſame to the collector or chief officer of any port in Scotland, to be by him hung up and made patent; and if ſuch extract declare the current prices of victual in Edinburgh, to exceed the rates following, viz. wheat 3*l.* Scots or 5*s.* ſterling the Wincheſter buſhel, conſiſting of eight Wincheſter gallons, bear and barley 1*l.* 7*s.* Scots or 2*s.* 3*d.* ſterling the Wincheſter buſhel, oats 1*l.* Scots or 1*s.* 8*d.* ſterling, peaſe and beans 1*l.* 10*s.* Scots, or 2*s.* 6*d.* ſterling the Wincheſter buſhel, and oatmeal 8*l.* Scots, or 13*s.* 4*d.* the bole weighing eight ſtone troys, it ſhall be a ſufficient warrant to the collector, and other officers of the ſeveral ports in Scotland, to allow victual from Ireland, or other parts beyond the ſeas to be entered and landed without paying any higher duty than is herein-after mentioned. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for the perſons hereby authoriſed to exerciſe the ſaid power of ſuſpenſion, once in every thirty days during ſuch ſuſpenſion, by the ways before directed, to examine into and determine the common prices of middling corn and grain; and if it be found that the current price of victual in Edinburgh ſhall not exceed the rates above mentioned, then they are by an inſtrument ſubſcribed as aforeſaid to aſcertain the ſame, and tranſmit extracts to the collectors or chief officers of all the ports in Scotland; which ſhall be hung up in the reſpective cuſtom-houſes, and be patent to all perſons without fee; and ſuch extracts ſhall be ſufficient notice to the collectors and other officers of the ſeveral ports in Scotland, that the laws prohibiting the importation of victual are again revived, and an authority for them to ſtop the entering and landing the ſame. ſ. 2.

The ſame duties ſhall be paid for any corn or grain imported in purſuance of this act, as are charged upon foreign corn imported, and the ſaid duty ſhall be regulated according to the rates to be ſettled in purſuance of this act. ſ. 3.

All the clauſes in 22 Car. 2. c. 13. and in 2 Geo. 2. c. 18. relating to the payment and recovery of ſuch duties, which are now in force, ſhall extend to Scotland; and offences there committed againſt any parts of the ſaid acts relating to the ſaid duties, ſhall be proſecuted in the court of ſeſſion or exchequer at Edinburgh. ſ. 4.

By 26 Geo. 2. c. 15. If at any time the collector of the cuſtoms at any port in Scotland, ſhall not have ſufficient in his hand to pay what ſhall be due to any exporter, then ſuch collector ſhall give to the perſon demanding ſuch money, without fee a certificate under his hand of what is due, certifying to the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms at Edinburgh, that he hath not monies ſufficient to pay the ſame; which certificate being annexed to the debenture for the corn ſo exported, and being produced to the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms at Edinburgh, they ſhall on demand cauſe the monies thereby due to be paid in three months, by the general receiver of the cuſtoms in Scotland, out of ſuch duties as are chargeable with the payment of any money for the exportation of corn, without fee. ſ. 9.

If any debenture for the bounty on corn exported ſo payable by the general receiver of the cuſtoms in Scotland remain unſatisfied more than ſix months next following, the day when the ſame is produced to the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms at Edinburgh, then intereſt after the rate of three per cent. per ann. ſhall be allowed to the proprietor, to be computed from the end of the ſaid ſix months until the money due on ſuch debenture with ſuch intereſt be paid; or until money ſufficient be reſerved in the hand of the general receiver of the cuſtoms in Scotland for that purpoſe, and notice ſhall be given thereof in writing to be affixed on one or more doors of ſome public places inthe cuſtom-houſe at Edinburgh, and to be advertiſed in the Edinburgh Courant, that the general receiver is ready to pay the principal and intereſt due on ſuch debentures; after the expiration of which time limited in ſuch notice, if payment be not demanded all intereſt on ſuch debentures ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 10.

If at any time after the day prefixed by the order of the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms at Edinburgh for payment of any debenture produced to them, and before the end of ſix months next following the day on which the ſame is ſo produced, the general receiver of the cuſtoms in Scotland have money ſufficient to ſatisfy the ſame, and like notice be given that he is ready to make payment, and no demand of ſuch payment be made within the time limited, then no intereſt ſhall be allowed on ſuch debentures. ſ. 11.

All debentures for corn exported payable by the general receiver of the cuſtoms in Scoland, with the intereſt, ſhall be paid in courſe, reſpect being had to the times when ſuch debentures are produced to the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms at Edinburgh, without any other preference, according to the indorſement on the ſaid debenture of the day when the ſame was ſo produced; and every ſuch debenture ſhall be payable to the perſon therein named, or to his executors, adminiſtrators, or aſſigns. ſ. 12. But ſee the general title IMPORTATION, *&c. Courts.

By 10 Ann. c. 26. The fees, ſalaries, and other charges, allowed by her majeſty for keeping up the courts of ſeſſion, and juſticiary, and exchequer court of Scotland, may be chargeable upon any part of the cuſtoms and exciſe, preferable to all other payments, the charge of management excepted. ſ. 108.

By 32 Geo. 2. c. 35. There ſhall be paid in every year, out of the monies which ſhall ariſe of any duties in Scotland, which by 10 Ann. cap. 26. were charged with the payment of the ſalaries and other charges allowed for keeping up the courts of ſeſſion, and juſticiary, and exchequer, in Scotland, the ſums following, to the judges aftermentioned, as an addition to their ſalaries; viz. 300 l. to the preſident of the court of ſeſſion; 300 l. to the chief baron of the exchequer; and 200 l. to each of the other judges in the ſaid courts of ſeſſion and exchequer. Which ſums ſhall be charged upon the ſaid duties, and ſhall be paid in every year at ſuch time, and in ſuch manner, as the ſalaries and other charges of keeping up the ſaid courts. ſ. 22. See Judges poſt.

By 6 Geo. 3. c. 32. Any court in Scotland, pronouncing ſentence of tranſportation, may make over the offender, to the uſe of any perſon who ſhall contract for the performance of ſuch tranſportation, ſo as he may have a property and intereſt in the ſervice of ſuch offenders, for ſuch term as he might have had in the like caſe by an order of any court in that part of Great Britain called Scotland. ſ. 1.

Where perſons convicted, receive pardon upon condition, of tranſportation to America; it ſhall be lawful to any court in Scotland, to allow ſuch offenders the benefit of pardon, and to order the like conveyance to any perſon who will contract for ſuch tranſportation. ſ. 2.

No perſon ſhall make muirburn, or ſet fire to any heath or muir, in Scotland from the laſt day of March to the firſt day of November in any year, under the penalty of 40 s. for the firſt offence, 5 l. for the ſecond, and 10 l. for the third, and every other offence; one moiety ſhall belong to the procurator fiſcal, who ſhall ſue, and the other moiety ſhall be at the diſpoſal of the court before which the offender ſhall be convicted, for ſuch public uſes, within the pariſh where offence committed, as they ſhall think fit. ſ. 3.

The occupier of the ground, upon which ſuch muirburn ſhall be made or diſcovered, ſhall be deemed guilty of the offence, and ſhall be liable tothe penalties, unleſs he ſhall prove, that ſuch fire was communicated from ſome neighbouring ground, or was raiſed upon his ground by ſome other perſon not in his ſervice or family.

The penalties may be recovered before any two juſtices, or before the ſheriff of the county, ſubject to ſuch review as is competent by the law of Scotland in the like caſes.

Criminals.

By 11 Geo. 1. c. 26. No ſentence or judgment of any civil magiſtrate, or court of judicature, importing a capital or any corporal puniſhment, if pronounced in Edinburgh, or any other part of Scotland ſouth of the Forth, ſhall be put to execution within leſs than thirty days; and if pronounced in any place north of the Forth, within leſs than forty days: provided that nothing herein ſhall diſable the courts of judicature, or any civil magiſtrate, to commit to gaol in order to trial, or in order to the execution of ſentences. ſ. 4. For ſ. 11. ſee Bail.

It ſhall be lawful for the freeholders of every ſhire or diſtrict in North Britain, to aſſeſs the ſeveral ſhires or ſtewartries where their eſtates lie, at their meetings at any of the head courts yearly, for defraying the charges of apprehending of criminals, and of ſubſiſting them until proſecution, and of carrying on the proſecutions; and ſuch monies ſhall be collected and accounted for, as ſuch freeholders ſhall appoint. ſ. 12.

By 3 Geo. 2. c. 32. It ſhall be lawful for the magiſtrates and courts of judicature in Scotland to put in execution any judgment or ſentence, importing any corporal puniſhment leſs than death or diſmembering, if pronounced ſouth of the Forth, after the elapſing of eight days, and if north of the Forth, after the elapſing of twelve days. ſ. 2.

It ſhall be lawful for the judges of juſticiary, or any of them, upon application made, and cauſe ſhewn, by any perſon aggrieved by ſuch ſentence given by any court of regality, or other inferior civil magiſtrate or court of judicature, to ſtay all execution of ſuch ſentence for thirty days. ſ. 3.

Cuſtoms.

By 6 Ann. c. 26. The queen may, from time to time by commiſſions of the exchequer in Scotland, aſſign further ports, members and creeks in Scotland, for the landing or ſhipping of goods, and to what ancient and head ports ſuch places ſhall appertain; and the cuſtomer, collector, comptroller, and ſearcher, ſhall by themſelves, their deputies or ſervants, reſide, for the clearing of ſhips and goods; and may by virtue of the ſaid commiſſions appoint the extents and limits of every port, haven, or creek, in Scotland. ſ. 18.

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 19. The commiſſioners of the treaſury are impowered to treat with the proprietors of ſugar houſes in Scotland, for ſatisfaction for ſuch private rights of exemption from cuſtoms for exciſe, to which they are entitled. ſ. 19.

By

By 8 Geo. 1. c. 4. The proprietors of the ſugar houſes in Scotland ſhall pay for their ſugars and other commodities the ſame duties of cuſtom and exciſe, as any other of his majeſty's ſubjects. ſ. 6.

Debtors and Creditors.

By 23 Geo. 3. c. 18. continued by 30 Geo. 3. c. 5. until 15 May 1792, and to the end of the next ſeſſion. In all actions and queſtions ariſing upon the conſtruction and effect of the act of the parliament of Scotland, made in the year 1696, intituled, an act for declaring notour bankrupts, when a debtor is out of Scotland, or not liable to be impriſoned by reaſon of privilege of perſonal protection, a charge of horning executed againſt him, together with either an arreſtment of any of his perſonal effects not diſcharged within fifteen days, or a poinding executed of any of his moveables, or a decree of adjudication of any part of his heritable eſtate, or ſequeſtration by the act of a proper court of his eſtate or effects, heritable or moveable, for payment of debt, ſhall, when joined with inſolvency, be held as ſufficient proof of notour bankruptcy; and after the laſt ſtep of ſuch diligence, the debtor, if inſolvent, ſhall be held as bankrupt. ſ. 1.

When a debtor is made bankrupt in terms of the ſaid act, as now extended, all arreſtments uſed for attaching any perſonal effects of ſuch bankrupt within thirty days prior to the bankruptcy, or within four months ſubſequent, ſhall be pari paſſu preferable; and to ſave the expence of a multiplicity of arreſtments: where the effects of a debtor are arreſted by any creditor, within thirty days before the bankruptcy, or within four months after, and a proceſs of forthcoming or multiplepoinding is brought in which ſuch arreſtment is founded on, it ſhall be competent for any other creditor, producing his intereſt, and making his claim in the ſaid proceſs, before the expiration of the four months, to be ranked in the ſame manner as if he had uſed the form of arreſtment; the expence of raiſing the proceſs, and of the diligence, at the inſtance of the creditor who raiſes it, being always paid out of the common fund. ſ. 2.

An arreſtment executed at the market croſs of Edinburgh, and pier and ſhore of Leith, in the hands of any perſon out of the kingdom, without other ſufficient notification, ſhall not interpel the arreſtee from paying bona fide to the original creditor. ſ. 3.

No poinding of the moveables belonging to ſuch bankrupt, within thirty days before bankruptcy, or four months after, ſhall give a preference to ſuch poinder over the other creditors, but the goods ſhall be conſidered as in medio, and the perſon receiving the price of them ſhall be liable to make the ſame forthcoming, ſo as that all the other creditors who are poſſeſſed of liquidate grounds of debt, or decrees for payment, ſhall be intitled to their proportion of the ſame; provided they make their claim by ſummoning the poinder before the expiration of the four months, deducting the expence of ſuch poinding from the firſt end of the price of ſuch goods, together with twenty per cent. on the appraiſed value, which the poinder ſhall retain to account of his debt, in preference to the other creditors, reſerving liberty to him to rank on the remaining ſum for the full amount of the debt contained in his diligence. ſ. 4.

All actions of ſale of lands, or other heritable ſubjects, raiſed at the inſtance of creditors before the court of ſeſſion, upon any of the ſtatutes in that behalf, ſhall proceed to a concluſion, by actual ſale, as ſoon as the previous ſteps of a ſale are taken, whether the ranking of the creditors is concluded or not, unleſs the court, upon application of the creditors, ſhall find ſufficient cauſe to delay the ſale; and it ſhall be lawful to the purchaſer, at any term of Whitſunday or Martinmas ſubſequent to the term of payment of the price, to lodge the price, with the intereſt due, in the royal bank, or bank of Scotland, at ſuch intereſt as can be procured for it; declaring, that by ſo doing, and giving notice thereof to the common agent, who carried on the ſale, he ſhall be exonerate, as if the price had been conſigned in the hands of the magiſtrates and town council of Edinburgh, as required by the ſixth act of the parliament of Scotland in the year 1695, which act is ſo far repealed; and further declaring, that the court of ſeſſion, on the application of any of the creditors, ſhall be empowered to make an order on the purchaſer to lodge the price and intereſt in one of the ſaid banks; ſufficient intimation being always previouſly given both to the purchaſer and to the common agent for the creditors, that ſuch application is made, in order that all parties may have an opportunity to object; and to leſſen the number of adjudications, and the expence, the lord ordinary ſhall ordain intimation thereof to be made in the minute book, and on the wall, in order that any other creditors may produce the inſtructions of their debts, and be conjoined in the decree of adjudication; and a reaſonable time, not exceeding twenty ſederunt days, ſhall be given for that purpoſe, unleſs there be any hazard from a delay, which the court, or the lord ordinary, ſhall judge of. ſ. 5.

If any perſon, in Scotland, being a merchant or trader in groſs or by retail, or a banker, broker, or underwriter, or a manufacturer, artificer, or mechanic, and in general any perſon who, either for himſelf, or as an agent or factor for others, deals in the purchaſe, or ſale, or workmanſhip, of goods other than for his own uſe, or the produce of his own eſtate, or of any ſubject held by him as leſſee or tenant (and particularly excepting landholders, and occupiers or tenants of land, or other heritages, holders of India ſtock, or of ſtock in any of the banks eſtabliſhed by public authority, or in the Friendly Inſurance company at Edinburgh againſt fire, if ſuch perſons be not otherwiſe bona fide under one of the foregoing deſcriptions), ſhall be under diligence by horning and caption for debt, and ſhall either, in virtue thereof, be impriſoned, or retire to a ſanctuary, or fly for his perſonal ſafety, or defend his perſon by force; or being out of Scotland, or not liable to be impriſoned by reaſon of privilege or perſonal protection, ſhall be under diligence by charge of horning, attended with arreſtment, not looſed within fifteen days, or poinding of any part of his moveables, or decree of adjudication of any part of his heritable eſtate, for payment of debt, at the inſtance of any creditor, it ſhall be lawful to any creditor, whoſe debt ſhall amount to 100 l. ſterling, or two whoſe debts amount to 150 l. ſterling, or to three or more whoſe debts amount to 200 l. ſterling, at any time within four months of the laſt ſtep of the ſaid diligence, to apply, by ſummary petition, to the court of ſeſſion while ſitting, or to the lord ordinary on the bills in vacation, for a ſequeſtration of the ſaid debtor's eſtate, real and perſonal; and upon production of the grounds of debt aforeſaid, and the creditors ſwearing to their debts before any judge ordinary, or juſtice of peace, and alſo, that they believe the party to be a merchant, or under the deſcription above, and under the foregoing exceptions, the ſaid court, or the lord ordinary, ſhall grant warrant for citing the debtor, by delivering to him perſonally, or by leaving at his dwelling-houſe, a copy of the petition; or, if the debtor is out of Scotland, by affixing copies upon the market croſs of Edinburgh, pier and ſhore of Leith, and alſo leaving a copy at his laſt dwelling-houſe, or houſe of buſineſs in Scotland, to appear in court within the time ſpecified in the citation, not being leſs than ſix, nor more than forty, days from the date of the citation, to ſhew cauſe why ſequeſtration ſhould not be awarded; and at granting ſuch warrant, the court, or lord ordinary, ſhall likewiſe, if deſired, grant the uſual authority, at the inſtance of the petitioners, for recovering written evidence of the ſaid diligence; and upon production of ſuch evidence at the diet of appearance, if the debtor ſhall not appear either in perſon, or by counſel or agent, or ſo appearing, ſhall not inſtantly pay or produce written evidence of the debt being ſatisfied, and alſo pay the debt due to the petitioners, or ſhow other cauſe why further proceeding ſhould not be had, the court, or lord ordinary, ſhall immediately award ſequeſtration of the debtor's whole real and perſonal eſtate. ſ. 6.

The court of lord ordinary ſhall, by the ſame deliverance which awards the ſequeſtration, make an order upon the creditors to meet upon a certain day and hour, not more than three weeks from that date, and as much ſooner as circumſtances may permit; the ſaid meeting to be at a convenient place, either where the bankrupt reſides, or where his buſineſs was carried on, or as near it as poſſible, in order to name an interim factor upon the ſequeſtrated eſtate; which deliverance the petitioning creditors ſhall cauſe to be adverti ſed in the Edinburgh newſpapers, called The Caledonian Mercury, and Edinburgh Evening Courant, otherwiſe the whole proceedings to be void; and the ſaid court, or lord ordinary, ſhall at the ſame time grant commiſſion to any reſident magiſtrate of the burgh, or to the ſheriff or ſtewart depute or ſubſtitute of the county, &c. where the meeting is to be held, or, failing them, any juſtice to be named by the court, to attend the ſaid meeting, and to receive production of their grounds of debt, with the oaths thereon after mentioned, and to ſign the minutes, of the creditors, along with the preſes choſen by them; and all queſtions ſhall be determined by a majority of the creditors in value. ſ. 7.

The perſon choſen at the ſaid meeting as factor, ſhall be entitled to the office, and find ſecurity for his faithful management, to ſuch extent as the majority think reaſonable; and the ſaid factor ſhall ingroſs a copy of the minutes of this meeting in a book of ſederunt, which ſhall be ſigned by the ſaid commiſſioner, and by the preſes of the meeting, and kept by the factor as his warrant for acting; and the principal minutes of the meeting, at which the factor is appointed, being ſigned by the commiſſioner, by the preſes of the meeting, and by the factor, ſhall be tranſmitted by the commiſſioner to the clerk of the ſequeſtration, to be kept among the records of the court of ſeſſion. ſ. 8.

Upon awarding the ſequeſtration, the court, or lord ordinary, ſhall, if deſired by the petitioning creditors, grant warrant to the commiſſioner to ſeal up, and put under ſafe cuſtody, the books and papers of the bankrupt, and to lock up his ſhop, warehouſe, or other repoſitories, and to keep the keys thereof, till a factor is named; and it ſhall be competent for the court, or lord ordinary, even from the date of the application for ſequeſtration, to give ſuch interim orders as the circumſtances of the caſe may require, for preventing embezzlement or damage to the effects, upon application of any of the creditors. ſ. 9.

If any merchant, or perſon deſcribed as above, and under the aforeſaid exceptions, whether diligence has been executed againſt him or not, ſhall make a joint application along with any creditor whoſe debt ſhall amount to 100*l.* ſterling, or two whoſe debts amount to 150*l.* or three or more whoſe debts amount to 200*l.* or upwards, and oath being made as above to the verity of theſe debts, and the parties, or their agent, alſo making oath, to their knowledge or belief, of the debtor's being under the deſcription which he aſſumes, the ſaid court, or lord ordinary, are to award ſequeſtration of the debtor's eſtate, as before. ſ. 10.

No ſequeſtration ſhall be awarded againſt any perſon having an eſtate or effects in Scotland, who at the time of the application does not either reſide or has a dwelling-houſe or houſe of buſineſs there, or had ſuch reſidence, &c. within a year previous to the application, unleſs the debtor concur in the application. ſ. 11.

The eſtates of all companies carrying on buſineſs under any of the denominations above, and under the above exceptions, may be ſequeſtered upon the application either of thoſe entitled to act for them, with conſent of any creditor of ſuch company whoſe debt amounts to 100*l.* ſterling, or two whoſe debts amount to 150*l.* or three or more whoſe debts amount to 200*l.*; or at the application of ſuch creditors whoſe debts are to the amount already mentioned; in which laſt caſe it muſt appear, that diligence has been done againſt one of the partners of the company for payment of a company debt, in the manner before required to found an application againſt individuals; and in either caſe, the procedure with regard to individual debtors ſhall be followed out; and it ſhall be ſufficient to cite the company, by leaving a copy at the houſe or ſhop where their buſineſs is carried on, or where any of their partners reſide; or if the ſaid houſes and ſhop be ſhut up or deſerted, a copy ſhall be affixed at the market croſs of Edinburgh, and pier and ſhore of Leith. ſ. 12.

It ſhall be neceſſary for the party applying for the ſequeſtration to record the petition, and the firſt deliverance thereon, in the general regiſter of inhibitions, within 24 hours after the deliverance is pronounced; and the ſame ſhall, from the date of the application, be held equivalent to an inhibition againſt the debtor, for behoof of the whole creditors, in caſe of the ſequeſtration being finally awarded; and it ſhall not be in the power of the bankrupt, after ſequeſtration awarded, to ſtop proceedings by paying off the debt on which the diligence and petition did proceed, nor ſhall the proceedings be of any effect unleſs the ſaid petition and deliverance are ſo regiſtered. ſ. 13.

If the debtor, againſt whom ſequeſtration has been awarded without his own concurrence, or if any creditor who has not conſented to the application, ſhall apprehend that the party againſt whom it is awarded does not come within the deſcription before, or falls under any of the exceptions therefrom, ſuch debtor or creditor may, at any time within 30 days after ſequeſtration awarded, apply to the court of ſeſſion, if ſitting, or to the lord ordinary on the bills in time of vacation, ſetting forth the grounds upon which the ſequeſtration ought to be recalled, in reſpect of the deſcription not being applicable; and this petition being intimated to the party at whoſe inſtance the ſequeſtration was obtained, or the known agent of that party, and a reaſonable time given to make anſwers thereto, the court, or lord ordinary, ſhall determine ſummarily upon the ſame, and ſhall grant commiſſion, if neceſſary, for taking proof of the facts; and if upon evidence it ſhall appear that the perſon againſt whom the ſequeſtration is awarded, does not fall within the meaning or terms of this act, as not being under any of the deſcriptions above ſet forth, or as falling under any of the exceptions therefrom, the ſequeſtration ſhall be recalled; or, if the petition is found to be without ſufficient ground, it ſhall be diſmiſſed; but in the mean time, until this matter is finally determined, ed, the proceedings under the ſequeſtration ſhall go on, as if no ſuch application had been made. ſ. 14.

The ſaid factor ſhall, immediately after being named, be obliged to publiſh an advertiſement in the two newſpapers before mentioned, intimating the ſequeſtration; and that a general meeting of the creditors is to be held on ſuch day and at ſuch place as the creditors, at the meeting before mentioned, ſhall have fixed in their minutes, (the ſaid day being not leſs than four, nor more than eight weeks after the advertiſement,) for the purpoſe of chuſing a truſtee; and in the mean time, the factor ſhall enter upon the management of the eſtate, and ſhall, within two days after his appointment, apply to the ſheriff or ſtewart depute or ſubſtitute of the county or ſtewartry where the debtor reſides, or where his buſineſs was carried on, who is to name one day in each of the four ſucceeding weeks to be ſet apart for the public examination of the bankrupt and of his family, or others acquainted with his buſineſs, in the ſheriff court-houſe of the diſtrict, a fee of one guinea each ſitting being allowed to the ſheriff or ſtewart depute, if he officiates, or half a guinea each ſitting to the ſubſtitute; and ſuch periodical meetings being fixed, the ſame ſhall be immediately publiſhed by the factor in each of the two newſpapers before mentioned, by an advertiſement, inviting the whole creditors to be preſent at ſuch examination, that they may have an opportunity of putting queſtions for rendering the diſcovery and ſurrender more complete; and the ſaid judge ſhall, if neceſſary, iſſue his warrant for apprehending the bankrupt, or any of his family, or others who are to be examined, if within his juriſdiction, in order to force their appearance; or if they be without his juriſdiction, the court of ſeſſion, or lord ordinary on the bills, ſhall, on the application of the factor, grant ſuch warrant for apprehending and bringing them before the judge, who is to take the examination; and if any of theſe perſons ſhall happen to be indiſpoſed, or otherwiſe unable to attend at that time, the court, or lord ordinary on the bills, may grant commiſſion for examining them elſewhere; and it ſhall be competent for the factor or for the truſtee to apply at any time for re-examining thoſe perſons, upon due advertiſement given in manner aforeſaid; and the court, or lord ordinary on the bills, ſhall likewiſe, in caſe it be neceſſary, grant a perſonal protection to the bankrupt, at the application of the factor or truſtee, for ſuch time as may be requiſite for enabling him to attend the diets of examination, or may grant warrant to meſſengers at arms, or other officers of the law, to bring his perſon out of priſon, in order to attend ſuch meetings, and thereafter to carry him back to priſon. ſ. 15.

The perſons to be examined, appearing, or being brought in virtue of the warrant, before the ſheriff or ſtewart depute, or ſubſtitute, and in preſence of the factor and ſuch creditors as chuſe to attend, the bankrupt ſhall make a full diſcovery of his whole eſtate, heritable and moveable, wherever ſituated, including any eſtate in expectancy by contract of marriage, entail, or otherwiſe, and ſhall exhibit in writing a full ſtate of his affairs; and the judge ſhall proceed in the examination of him and the other perſons; and the ſaid ſtate and whole procedure ſhall be inſerted in the book of ſederunt, to be ſubſcribed by the ſaid judge examinator, and by the bankrupt, and likewiſe by the factor, together with a liſt of books, papers, accounts, title deeds, and documents, found in his poſſeſſion, or produced by him, and a rental of his lands; all which books and writings ſhall be delivered over to the factor; and at the laſt of theſe examinations the bankrupt ſhall take and ſubſcribe the following oath:

I A. B. do, in the preſence of Almighty God, and as I ſhall anſwer to God at the great day of judgment, ſolemnly ſwear, that the ſtate of my affairs, ſubſcribed by me, and now delivered up to my creditors, contains a full and true account of all the debts of whatever nature due to me, and of all my eſtate and effects, real and perſonal, (neceſſary wearing apparel only excepted,) as well as of all claims which I am entitled to make againſt any perſon or perſons whatſoever, and of all eſtate in expectancy, real and perſonal, which I have an eventual right to by contract of marriage, deed of entail, or otherwiſe, to the beſt of my knowledge; and that the ſaid ſtate likewiſe contains a full and true account of all the debts due by me, or demands upon me, ſo far as I know or can remember, and that I have delivered up the whole books, documents, accounts, and papers of every kind belonging to me, which in any way relate to my affairs, and which were in my poſſeſſion, or under my power, and have made a full diſcloſure of every particular relating to my affairs. And further I ſwear, that I ſhall forthwith reveal all and every other circumſtance or particular relative to my affairs, or which may tend to encreaſe or diminiſh my eſtate, or in which my creditors may be intereſted directly or indirectly, which may at any time hereafter come to my knowledge.

So help me God.

And if the perſon thus called upon is a member of a company, and examined upon the company's affairs, the terms of this oath ſhall only be ſo varied by the judge as to make it applicable to the caſe; which oath being annexed to the aforeſaid proceedings in the book of ſederunt, ſhall alſo be ſubſcribed by the ſheriff or ſtewart depute, or ſubſtitute; and if the bankrupt be a Quaker, it ſhall be ſufficient to take his ſolemn affirmation upon the matters contained in the ſaid oath, and likewiſe in all other caſes where an oath is required by this ſtatute: and all perſons convicted of taking the above oath or affirmation falſely, ſhall be held as guilty of perjury, and of fraudulent bankruptcy, and puniſhed accordingly, and for ever rendered incapable of holding any office of public truſt or emolument; declaring alſo, that if the bankrupt ſhall wilfully fail to exhibit a fair ſtate of his affairs, or to make oath in terms above, or to make a complete ſurrender, he ſhall be conſidered as a fraudulent bankrupt, and puniſhed accordingly, and rendered ever after incapable of holding any office of public truſt or emolument; and in either caſe ſhall forfeit every benefit ariſing from the ſtatute, and be accounted infamous, and incapable of giving evidence, or of ſitting or acting on any aſſize or jury. ſ. 16.

At the general meeting of the creditors appointed and advertiſed as before, for chuſing a truſtee, the factor ſhall exhibit the ſaid book of ſederunt, to be delivered over to the acting truſtee along with all the books, papers, accounts, documents, and title deeds, in his hands, relative to the bankrupt's eſtate; and the majority of creditors in value preſent ſhall determine who is to be truſtee; but no creditor ſhall be entitled to a vote, who has not, either then or formerly, exhibited his grounds of debt, with an oath thereon, as after mentioned, and got the ſame marked in the book of ſederunt; and at the ſaid or any other meeting, it ſhall be lawful for agents or attornies, having commiſſion, either general or ſpecial, from any of the creditors, to appear and vote; and the creditors may chuſe two or more truſtees to act in ſucceſſion, one failing another by death, reſignation, or removal. ſ. 17.

If the factor named at the firſt meeting is not choſen truſtee, he ſhall be allowed ſuch gratification for his trouble, to be retained out of the effects in his hands, or be paid by the truſtee, as a majority of the creditors ſhall think reaſonable; able; and the truſtee ſhall find ſecurity for his intromiſſions and faithful management, unleſs the ſame be diſpenſed with by four-fifths in number and value of the ſaid meeting, the ſaid diſpenſing reſolution to be always engroſſed in their minutes; and the truſtee ſhall be entitled to commiſſion for his management, on all money which he ſhall recover, at ſuch rate per cent. as ſhall be adjuſted or fixed by a majority in value; and it ſhall be competent at any time, for one-fourth of the creditors in value to apply ſummarily to the court of ſeſſion for having him removed, upon cauſe ſhewn; and a majority of creditors in value, at any meeting to be advertiſed for the purpoſe, may remove, or accept of the reſignation of any truſtee; and in either of theſe caſes, or in the event of the acting truſtee's death, the next truſtee in ſucceſſion ſhall be entitled to act; and upon failure of the truſtees originally named, by death or otherwiſe, it ſhall be competent to two of the creditors to apply to the court of ſeſſion, or lord ordinary on the bills, to cauſe a meeting of the creditors to be held, upon due advertiſement, for chuſing new truſtees in ſucceſſion; and in any of theſe caſes, the new-acting truſtee ſhall immediately call to account his predeceſſors in office, or their heirs and repreſentatives, and ſhall be veſted with the ſame powers, &c. as any former acting truſtee. ſ. 18.

The minutes of this meeting of the creditors electing a truſtee or ſucceſſion of truſtees, ſhall be reported to the court, or lord ordinary on the bills, by the truſtee who is to act, a copy being previouſly entered in the ſederunt book; and the court, or lord ordinary, ſhall then iſſue an order upon the bankrupt, to execute and deliver, within a certain time to be ſpecified in the interlocutor, a diſpoſition making over to the truſtees in their order his whole real and perſonal eſtate, wherever ſituated, and which ſhall ſpecially deſcribe and convey the ſubjects ſo far as they are known, or the truſtee think it neceſſary, and contain all proper clauſes for effectually veſting the right in him, with full powers of ſale, for behoof of the creditors; and if the bankrupt refuſe to obey ſuch order, the court, or lord ordinary, may puniſh him by impriſonment; and in that caſe, or in caſe of the bankrupt being abſent from Scotland, or for any other reaſon, not granting ſuch diſpoſition within the time that he is ordered by the interlocutor, the court or lord ordinary ſhall, upon the application of the truſtee, iſſue an act or decree, finding the property of the whole ſequeſtrated eſtate and effects, real and perſonal, to be in the ſaid truſtees in ſucceſſion, for behoof of the creditors, and adjudging the whole lands and other heritable eſtate, within the juriſdiction of the court, ſpecially enumerated, and which were the property of the bankrupt, to belong to the truſtees in ſucceſſion irredeemably, to the end that the ſame may be ſold and converted into money for payment of the creditors; which adjudication ſhall have the ſame effect as if the bankrupt had executed the conveyance before mentioned; and the factor originally named ſhall immediately deliver over to the truſtee every part of the bankrupt's eſtate in his poſſeſſion, and all ſecurities taken for the ſame, or any part thereof, and pay ſuch balance as may appear to be due by him upon ſettling his accounts; declaring always, that if any part of the bankrupt's property happens to be entailed, the conveyance to be executed by him, or the decree of adjudication to be obtained by the truſtee, ſhall only be underſtood to carry that right which the bankrupt himſelf has. ſ. 19.

The ſaid diſpoſition of the heritable eſtate, together with the order of the court, or lord ordinary, on which it proceeds, or failing thereof, the decree of adjudication of the court, or lord ordinary, ſhall, within 60 days of the date, be regiſtered by the truſtee in the regiſter of abbreviates of adjudications, and ſhall have the effect to entitle the truſtee for behoof of the whole creditors, to rank in the ſame manner upon the heritable eſtate as if it had been a proper decree of adjudication obtained at the date of the interlocutor awarding the ſequeſtration, accumulating the whole debts, principal and intereſt, as at that period, and adjudging for ſecurity or payment thereof, ſo as to rank pari paſſu with any prior effectual adjudication within a year and day of the ſame; and the ſaid diſpoſition or adjudication ſhall not be reduceable upon any of the ſtatutes concerning bankrupts, nor ſtruck at by any inhibition, or other legal interpellation; ſaving, however, in the ranking upon the price, any other effect which ſuch inhibition or interpellation may have, with regard to contractions of the debtor poſterior to the date thereof. ſ. 20.

Upon the ſaid diſpoſition, or decree of adjucation, the feudal titles requiſite by the law of Scotland to veſt heritable property, ſhall be made up either in the perſon of the truſtee, or in the perſon of the purchaſer from him, in virtue of ſuch truſtee's conveyance, agreeable to the forms of the law of Scotland; and each truſtee ſucceeding a prior truſtee, through his death, reſignation, or removal, unleſs ſubſtituted to him at his firſt nomination, ſhall be veſted in the right either by diſpoſition from the former truſtee, or by adjudication obtained by the new truſtee on a ſummary application to the court, or lord ordinary, as before; and the ſuperior ſhall, if required, be obliged to enter the truſtees in the ſame manner as he is directed by an act made in 20 Geo. 2. for aboliſhing ward-holdings, without being entitled to more than one compoſition for the whole; and if the truſtee ſhall afterward diſcover any other heritable ſubjects belonging to the bankrupt, and which belonged to him at the date of the application for ſequeſtration, the ſame ſhall either be diſponed or adjudged in manner before directed; and in caſe the bankrupt's own titles to any part of the eſtate, which belonged to him at that period, or to which he had then ſucceeded as apparent heir, neareſt in kin, or otherwiſe, to any predeceſſor, have not been ſo completed as to veſt the right properly in him, the factor or truſtee ſhall take the moſt eligible method of completing the bankrupt's title, in ſuch way as the law requires; declaring always, that the rules of preference or ranking between the creditors of the anceſtor, and thoſe of the heir by the law of Scotland, are not meant to be altered by this act. ſ. 21.

The whole eſtate, whether real or perſonal, belonging to the bankrupt at the period of ſequeſtration, ſhall become a fund of diviſion among thoſe who were his creditors prior to the date of the application, and none elſe, according to their order of preference; and all payments made by a debtor to any of his creditors after ſuch application ſhall be void to the receivers in the event of a ſequeſtration taking place, and the factor or truſtee ſhall be entitled to recover the money ſo paid as part of the bankrupt's eſtate; and all tranſactions of the bankrupt ſubſequent to the date of the application, from which any prejudice may ariſe either to the creditors or to third parties, ſhall be void; declaring always, that nothing herein ſhall oblige a bona fide purchaſer of any part of the moveable effects from the bankrupt while in poſſeſſion, and for a price truly paid, to reſtore the effects ſo purchaſed; nor the debtor of a bankrupt, who has paid his debt to him bona fide, without knowing of the bankruptcy, to pay it a ſecond time to the factor or truſtee. ſ. 22.

If,

If, after the ſaid application, and before a final diviſion among the creditors, any eſtate, real or perſonal, ſhall devolve upon the bankrupt, he ſhall be obliged, immediately when ſuch event happens, to make a full diſcovery thereof to the factor or truſtee, and ſhall, if required, make oath to the ſame before any magiſtrate of the borough, or judge ordinary of the county of his reſidence, that the factor or truſtee may have an opportunity of taking ſuch ſteps as are neceſſary, for the intereſt of his conſtituents; and the ſaid factor or truſtee ſhall likewiſe give immediate notice thereof to the creditors, either at the firſt general meeting, or by advertiſing a meeting for the purpoſe. ſ. 23.

No arreſtment of a debtor's perſonal eſtate, uſed within 30 days before an application for a ſequeſtration under this act, ſhall give any preference to the arreſting creditor in the event of a ſequeſtration taking place, and the arreſtee ſhall be obliged to deliver the effects arreſted, or pay what he owes the bankrupt, to the factor or truſtee, as if ſuch arreſtment had been uſed for the whole creditors; and if the arreſtee has delivered the effects, or paid the money arreſted to the arreſter by virtue of a decree forthcoming, or any other authority whatever, the arreſter ſhall be obliged to pay or deliver the ſame to the factor or truſtee: and in like manner, no poinding of a debtor's effects not completely executed 30 days before ſuch application, ſhall give any preference to the poinder in the event of a ſequeſtration, but the poinder ſhall deliver to the factor or truſtee the goods poinded, if not ſold when required; and if they are then ſold, he ſhall be liable to account to the factor or truſtee for the appraiſed value of the goods poinded, and which ſhall make part of the fund to be diſtributed among the creditors. ſ. 24.

All arreſters and poinders deprived of their diligences as aforeſaid, ſhall be entitled to demand or retain the expence laid out by them in proſecuting ſuch diligences. ſ. 25.

The truſtee, when appointed, ſhall proceed to recover, in the ſpeedieſt manner, the whole eſtate under his management, whether at home or in foreign parts, in order that the ſame may be diſtributed among the creditors; and he ſhall be obliged to follow thoſe directions with regard to the recovery, management, and ſale of the eſtate, which are laid down by a majority of the creditors in value, convened at the meeting by which he was appointed, or any ſubſequent meeting; and beſides the ſtated annual meetings after mentioned, the truſtee ſhall, if required by one-fourth of the creditors in value, who have produced and proved their claims, be obliged to call a general meeting; or he himſelf may on any emergency call ſuch meeting, ſufficient previous intimation of every occaſional meeting, and the purpoſe of calling it, being always given, by advertiſement in the two Edinburgh newſpapers before mentioned, 3 weeks before the meeting. ſ. 26.

If any part of the ſequeſtrated eſtate conſiſts of land, or other heritable ſubjects, it ſhall be optional to a majority of creditors in value, to determine, either at the meeting appointing the truſtee, or at any of the ſubſequent meetings or other meeting called for the purpoſe, whether the truſtee is to bring the ſaid heritable eſtate to judicial ſale before the court of ſeſſion, or to diſpoſe thereof by voluntary public ſale; and if the latter mode is adopted, the ſale made, after ſuch advertiſement, and at ſuch upſet price as ſhall be fixed by a majority of creditors in value, at ſuch meeting, ſhall be valid under the burden of all debts and claims heritably ſecured upon the eſtate, in ſo far as the ſame are preferable to the diſpoſition or degree veſting the ſaid eſtate in the truſtee, and the purchaſer ſhall have no concern with the application of the price; and if a majority of creditors in value determine for a judicial ſale and ranking, the truſtee ſhall be obliged forthwith to proceed in the ſame, and ſhall be entitled to carry it on, as to a part of the eſtate, without including the whole, and without any other proof of bankruptcy than the act of ſequeſtration; and it ſh ll be enough to call the bankrupt himſelf, and his real creditors in poſſeſſion, upon a citation of 15 days, whether they are within the kingdom or not, and the edical citations ſhall be diſpenſed with. ſ. 27.

Nothing in this act ſhall bar the right which any preferable heritable creditor may have by the law, as it ſtands at preſent, to bring his debtor's eſtate to a judicial ſale at his own inſtance, unleſs ſuch ſale has been previouſly brought at the inſtance of the truſtee. ſ. 28.

In every proceſs of ranking and ſale the creditors producing their grounds or claims of debt, ſhall be entitled to prove and conſtitute the ſame, if objected to, without bringing ſeparate actions for that purpoſe; but provided that the court ſhall only allow a reaſonable time for ſo doing, and the creditors ſhall be entitled to draw their ſhares of the price, in virtue of the diſpoſition and adjudication before mentioned, without the neceſſity of any other adjudication; and no other adjudication ſhall be competent after the date of the ſequeſtration. ſ. 29.

The truſtee ſhall be obliged to lodge all money he receives in ſuch bank, or with ſuch company, as a majority of creditors in value ſhall appoint, and failing ſuch appointment, in the royal bank or bank of Scotland, and at ſuch intereſt as can be procured for the ſame; and never to retain in his own hands above the ſum of 50*l.* ſterling for 10 days, otherwiſe to be liable to the creditors for ſeven and one half per cent. per annum on whatever exceeds 50*l.* ſterling in name of intereſt and damages. ſ. 30.

The truſtee ſhall, within 10 days after his appointment is confirmed by the court of ſeſſion, publiſh an advertiſement in each of the two newſpapers before mentioned, requiring all the creditors to lodge with him their claims and vouchers or grounds of debt, with their oaths for proving the ſame, as directed by this act, within nine months after the date of the interlocutor awarding the ſequeſtration; ſpecifying the day when the nine months expire, and certifying thoſe creditors who ſhall neglect to comply with this requiſition, that they ſhall not be entitled to any ſhare in the firſt diſtribution of the debtor's eſtate. ſ. 31.

The truſtee ſhall, within one month after the termination of the nine months, make up a ſtate of the bankrupt's effects that have been converted into money, and a ſtate of the debts which have been proved, and lodged with him in manner before required, calculating intereſt upon each up to the date of the ſequeſtration, with a ſcheme dividing the produce of the money recovered among the ſeveral creditors in theſe debts according to their ranking; which ſtates and ſcheme, together with a general ſtate of the bankrupt's affairs brought down to that period, ſhall lie open for the inſpection of the creditors in the truſtee's hands for two months longer, when a ſtated general meeting of the creditors ſhall be held at the place of the truſtee's reſidence, exactly at the diſtance of a year after the ſequeſtration, being the ſame day 12 months, or the next lawful day thereafter, to give ſuch orders as may appear neceſſary for the future management, and to receive their firſt dividends; and the truſtee ſhall give notice thereof two months before by advertiſement in the ſaid two newſpapers; and in caſe any of the debts claimed upon ſhall be objected to, or their place in ranking diſputed, or any other objection ſhall be made to the ſcheme, as made up by the truſtee, a ſhare of the ſaid fund, correſponding to the amount of the dividends to which the diſputed articles may be entitled, ſhall be left in the bank where the monies were depoſited till ſuch queſtions are determined by the court of ſeſſion, which the ſaid court is to do ſummarily, on the application of the truſtee, or any other perſon intereſted, and in ſuch ſummary proceſs to allow a proof of the debts or of the objections; and if, in the event of ſuch queſtion, the ſaid ſum ſhall remain unapplied to the debt for which it was claimed, the ſame ſhall go into the fund for any ſubſequent diſtribution, and the ſhares of creditors not called for at the time of diſtribution, ſhall again be depoſited on their riſque in the hands of the bank, at ſuch intereſt as can be got for the ſame, which intereſt gained ſhall be for the general behoof. ſ. 32.

Within one month after 21 months from the date of the ſequeſtration, the truſtees ſhall make up another ſcheme of diviſion among the creditors, who, before the end of the 21 months, have produced in his hands their claims, grounds of debt, and oaths of verity, together with new ſtates of the funds and debts, and of the bankrupt's affairs in general, as before directed; which ſhall in like manner remain open for inſpection for the two following months; and the next ſtated general meeting of the creditors for receiving their ſecond dividends, and for the other purpoſes beforementioned, ſhall be held after the like advertiſement exactly at the diſtance of another year, being on the ſame day two years from the date of the ſequeſtration, or on the next lawful day; and the like procedure ſhall be followed out at the ſame intervals of time thereafter, and until the whole funds of the bankrupt are collected and diſtributed among his creditors; declaring always, that no creditor ſhall draw any ſhare of the different diſtributions, unleſs his grounds of debt, and oath on the verity thereof, ſhall have been lodged with the truſtee before the days appointed for that purpoſe; but he ſhall be entitled, in the next diſtribution which happens, after the grounds of debt are produced and proved, to draw out of the firſt end of the remaining fund in the truſtee's hands, a ſum equal to the former dividend on his debt, with deduction of five per cent. on the dividends, which is to be retained by the truſtee for the common behoof, on account of the ſaid creditor's delay; and further declaring, that, in making up the ſchemes of diviſion, all debts claimed on which are entitled to a preference by the law of Scotland, not altered by this act, ſhall be preferred. ſ. 33.

Such creditors as claim upon debts whereof the term of payment is not come, may, upon diſcounting the legal intereſt to the term of payment, draw their ſhares in proportion to what remains after ſuch diſcount. ſ. 34.

In caſe any of the creditors claiming to be ranked on the ſequeſtrated eſtate, ſhall have received any partial payment out of the eſtates of other obligants, or in conſequence of any preferable ſecurity upon any particular ſubject belonging to the bankrupt before ſequeſtration, the ſaid partial payment ſhall be deducted from the total amount of his debt, and he ſhall only be ranked for the balance after ſuch deduction; but in caſe ſuch partial payment is not recovered till after the ſequeſtration, he ſhall be entitled to rank for his full debt without any ſuch deduction, but ſo as he ſhall never draw in whole more than complete payment of his debt; and the creditors of a company ſhall be entitled to rank upon the eſtates of the individual partners for the debts due to them by the company, deducting only what they may have received before the ſequeſtration. ſ. 35.

The making production of the grounds of debt along with the oath, ſhall have the ſame effect as to interrupting preſcription of every kind from the period of ſuch production, as if a proper action had been raiſed on the ſaid grounds of debt againſt the bankrupt and againſt the truſtee. ſ. 36.

In every ſuch oath the creditor deponing ſhall ſpecify every ſecurity he holds for his debt, whether on the eſtate of the debtor or other obligants; and in caſe any creditor ſhall, after the date of the ſequeſtration, obtain any preference on any eſtate or ſubject belonging to the bankrupt directly or indirectly, ſituated without the juriſdiction of the court, he ſhall be obliged to communicate and aſſign the ſame to the truſtee for behoof of all the creditors, before he draws any dividend. ſ. 37.

The oaths of verity upon debts required by this act, may be taken before any judge ordinary or juſtice of the peace; and where any creditor is out of the kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or is under age, or incapable to give an oath, in all ſuch caſes an oath of credulity by the agent, factor, guardian or other manager, taken in the ſame manner, ſhall be ſufficient; but which oaths, either by the party himſelf, or any other acting for him, ſhall not ſuperſede the neceſſity of bringing legal evidence of the debt, if the ſame is objected to as unliquidated, and where ſuch evidence appears to be neceſſary in the circumſtances of the caſe; and further declaring, that no fee ſhall be paid by any creditor to the clerks of court, or any perſon whatſoever, for an oath of verity or credulity as to the debt claimed being due, or for production of the intereſt or grounds of debt of any creditor, unleſs the debt claimed exceeds 10*l.* lawful money of Great Britain. ſ. 38.

Four-fifths in value of the creditors convened, either at the meeting when the truſtee is choſen, or at any ſubſequent meeting, ſhall be entitled to chooſe any three of the creditors, at whoſe ſight, and with whoſe conſent, or with the conſent of two, the truſtee ſhall be empowered to compound and tranſact, either by ſubmiſſion or by private compromiſe, all doubtful claims which the bankrupt may have againſt others, or all debts due to the eſtate out of the other bankrupt ſubjects, and likewiſe all doubtful claims made againſt the eſtate where the ſum claimed upon in this laſt caſe does not exceed 50*l.* ſterling, but not the order of ranking and preference of that or any other debt upon the eſtate; and the ſame majority may exempt the truſtee from being liable for omiſſions, and may declare whether he ſhall be liable for attornies or factors appointed by him. ſ. 39.

If at the expiration of three years from the date of the ſequeſtration, any of the perſonal effects of the bankrupt, or any debts, whether heritable or moveable, due to him, remain ſtill unuplifted, it ſhall be in the power of four-fifths of the creditors in number and value, convened at any general meeting advertiſed for the purpoſe, to direct that ſuch remaining debts and effects be ſold off by public auction, upon three months previous notice publiſhed in the two newſpapers before-mentioned, the ſale either to be in whole or in lots, as a majority ſhall direct. ſ. 40.

The ſurplus of every debtor's eſtate, real or perſonal, that may remain after payment of his debts, and of the expence incurred in carrying this act into execution, ſhall be paid over to the debtor. ſ. 41.

At any period after the ſequeſtration, and before the final diſtribution, it ſhall be competent for the bankrupt, with concurrence of the truſtee, and four-fifths of the creditors who have proved their debts to apply to the court of ſeſſion, or to the lord ordinary on the bills in time of vacation, for a perſonal protection from diligence for ſuch time as the court or lord ordinary ſhall think reaſonable; and the ſame being once obtained, ſhall be renewed, if applied for in name of the bankrupt, with conſent of the truſtee truſtee alone, unleſs any of the creditors oppoſe it; in which caſe the conſent of four-fifths of the creditors ſhall be required, as before; declaring always, that in this and all other caſes where conſent of creditors, both in number and value, is required, creditors whoſe debts are under 20*l.* ſterling ſhall not be counted in the number though they are to be counted in the value. ſ. 42.

It ſhall be competent to four-fifths in number and value of the creditors, after the ſecond dividend, to concur with the bankrupt in a petition to the court of ſeſſion, praying that he may be held as finally diſcharged of all his debts contracted before the application for ſequeſtration, ſo far as the ſame may affect his perſon, or any perſonal eſtate to be acquired by him after the date of the diſcharge; and this petition being intimated upon the wall, and in the two newſpapers, the court ſhall, at not leſs than three months after, reſume the conſideration thereof; and if no objection is made, they ſhall pronounce an act, in terms of the prayer of the petition; but if appearance is made by any of the creditors, objecting the diſcharge ought not to be granted, on account of the bankrupt's not having made a fair diſcovery and ſurrender of his eſtate, or that he has refuſed to grant a diſpoſition to the truſtee, as ordered by the court, or has wilfully not attended the diets of examination, or has been guilty of any colluſion, or that his bankruptcy did not ariſe from innocent misfortunes, or loſſes in buſineſs, but from culpable conduct, the court ſhall judge of theſe objections, and allow a proof of them, and ſhall either grant or refuſe the diſcharge; the bankrupt always taking an oath before the court, or upon commiſſion, when judgment is pronounced in his favour, and before the act can be extracted, that he has faithfully complied with the ſtatute, and has uſed no undue influence, nor had recourſe to any compromiſe with his creditors, to obtain their concurrence; and if it appear that there has been any ſuch compromiſe, the ſame is unlawful; and no action ſhall lie upon any bill, or other ſecurity granted in conſequence thereof. ſ. 43.

If the bankrupt ſhall afterwards either ſet up an equipage, or become poſſeſſed of heritable property, before he has paid all his debts, ſuch equipage or property ſhall be liable to be attached by his creditors, whether prior or ſubſequent to the diſcharge, as if no diſcharge had taken place; and the ſame ſhall only be effectual to protect his perſon or other effects. ſ. 44.

If the bankrupt ſhall obtain a final diſcharge, it ſhall be in the power of four-fifths of the creditors in number and value, convened at any meeting thereafter, to make him an allowance of three per cent. upon the nett funds divided, but not exceeding 200*l.* ſterling in all, if the dividends amount to leſs than 10*s.* in the pound; and 5*l.* per cent. but not exceeding 250*l.* ſterling, if they amount to 10*s.* and under 12*s.* 6*d.*; or ſeven and an half per cent. but not exceeding 300*l.* ſterling, if they amount to 12*s.* 6*d.* and under 15*s.*; or 10*l.* per cent. but not exceeding 400*l.* ſterling in all, if the dividends amount to 15*s.* in the pound, or upwards; the ſaid allowance to be calculated on the nett amount of the ſums divided; and in making the dividends, the truſtee ſhall have in view to deduct ſo much from each as ſhall leave a fund on hand for anſwering this allowance; and if the allowance ſhall in the end be refuſed, a final dividend ſhall be made thereof among the creditors; declaring always, that preferable creditors who are fully ſecured, ſhall not be counted either in the queſtion about the allowance, or in applying for the perſonal protection, or the diſcharge. ſ. 45.

The ſederunt book ſhall contain a full record of all the proceedings of the truſtee, minutes of general meetings, ſtates of accounts, ſchemes of diviſion, and all other matters relative to the truſt; and another duplicate of the whole proceedings, ingroſſed in the book, ſhall be ſubſcribed by the truſtee, and within 14 days after the proceedings take place, or the caſts, ſchemes, and accounts are made out, ſhall be tranſmitted by him to the clerk to the ſequeſtration in the court of ſeſſion, to lie among the records of court; and the ſaid book, and the bankrupt's books and papers, and other papers in the truſtee's hands, ſhall be made patent to any creditor who deſires to ſee the ſame. ſ. 46.

When any application for ſequeſtration ſhall be made to the court of ſeſſion when ſitting, and any thing ſhall be left undone at the end of any ſeſſion by the want of time, the lord ordinary on the bills is to do every thing neceſſary in execution of this act during the vacation, that he is to do when the petition for ſequeſtration is originally preſented to him; and, in like manner, when the application for ſequeſtration is made to the lord ordinary on the bills in time of vacation, and any thing is to be done in time of ſeſſion, the court ſhall proceed therein in the ſame way as if the petition had been originally preſented to themſelves. ſ. 47.

If any appeal ſhall be taken againſt any order of the court of ſeſſion, or againſt any act of the lord ordinary upon the bills, in the execution of this act, it ſhall be lawful to the court in time of ſeſſion, and lord ordinary on the bills in time of vacation, notwithſtanding ſuch appeal, to make ſuch orders, and direct ſuch proceedings, as ſhall appear to be expedient for preventing the eſtate of the debtor from being embezzled, ſecreted, damaged, or dilapidated, while the appeal is pendant. ſ. 48.

When any petition for ſequeſtration under this act is preſented, it ſhall be competent for any other creditor to concur therein, and to follow forth the ſame, even without the conſent or after the death of the creditor petitioning; and the expence ſhall be repaid by the factor or truſtee, out of the firſt end of the debtor's eſtate, to the creditor by whom the ſame is diſburſed; and if the bankrupt ſhall happen to die in the mean time, the proceedings under this act ſhall notwithſtanding be carried on and followed to concluſion, as if he were in life. ſ. 49.

It ſhall be lawful for the court of ſeſſion to eſtabliſh ſuch further regulations as ſhall appear to them moſt proper for carrying this act into execution according to the intent thereof, and to publiſh the ſame in any act of ſederunt, which ſhall be in force ſo far as is conſiſtent with this act. ſ. 50.

If at the meeting held for appointing a truſtee, or any ſubſequent meeting called for the purpoſe, it is determined by a majority of creditors in value, that the eſtate ought to be veſted in a factor accountable to the court of ſeſſion, and not in the perſon of a truſtee; the perſon choſen by the majority in value aforeſaid ſhall be, by the court of ſeſſion, or lord ordinary on the bills, appointed factor on the ſaid eſtate, and ſhall be veſted in the ſame, and obliged to manage and diſpoſe of the ſame, and to divide the proceeds, in the ſame way as the truſtee, and under ſuch regulations as the court of ſeſſion may lay down; and the bankrupt may alſo be diſcharged, and entitled to the ſame allowances as aforeſaid. ſ. 51.

This act ſhall be conſtrued by all judges in the moſt beneficial manner for promoting the ends intended; and the ſame ſhall be extended to all women as well as men, who fall under the deſcription before. ſ. 52.

No

No duties upon eſtates ſold by auction ſhall be exigible upon any eſtates ſold under this act. ſ. 53.

Equivalent.

By 3 Geo. 1. c. 14. No equivalent debentures, or the intereſt thereon, ſhall be liable to be ſtopped on account of any arreſtment or attachment that ſhall be laid on them in the hands of the commiſſioners or otherwiſe. ſ. 4.

The commiſſioners of the equivalent are authoriſed to retain 14,000 l. appointed by the 15th article of the union for the encouragement of the manufacture of coarſe wool. ſ. 5.

Evidence.

By 21 Geo. 2. c. 34. In all trials in Scotland for theft of cattle, or the maſterful taking away or detaining the ſame, it ſhall not be allowed to be a good objection to any witneſs produced for proving the libel, that he was ſocius criminis, nor ſhall ſuch witneſs be liable to be proſecuted for his acceſſion to the offence which he ſhall give evidence was committed by the pannel, or that ſuch pannel was art and part thereof. ſ. 20.

Exchequer.

By 6 Ann. c. 26. A court of exchequer, to be called The Court of Exchequer in Scotland, ſhall be conſtituted in Scotland, and ſhall be a court of record, revenue, and judicature for Scotland, and have continuance for ever, and be held within the city of Edinburgh, where the former exchequer of Scotland was uſually held, or at ſuch other places in Scotland, as by authority from the queen, and in default thereof by the judges of the ſaid court, ſhall be directed. ſ. 1.

The lord high treaſurer of Great Britain, and ſuch perſons as by commiſſions under the ſeal kept in Scotland ſhall be appointed chief baron and other barons of the ſaid court, ſhall be the judges of the court; and the ſaid lord high treaſurer and barons, and the ſaid barons in the abſence of the lord high treaſurer, ſhall have all judicial and other powers belonging to the court, and the barons ſhall have continuance in their offices quamdiu ſe bene geſſerint; which barons are to be made of ſuch as ſhall be ſerjeants at law, or barriſters of law five years ſtanding in ſome of the four inns of court in England, or elſe of ſuch perſons as ſhall be advocates in the college of juſtice in Scotland for five years; and the ſaid barons ſhall take the ſame oaths of office, and other oaths, as the barons of the exchequer in England; the ſaid oaths to be taken before the ſaid court of exchequer; and the chief baron and barons ſhall uſe ſuch robes as the chief baron and barons of the exchequer in England, or ſuch other robes as her majeſty ſhall appoint. ſ. 2.

There ſhall be in the ſaid court the offices following, viz. the office of queen's remembrancer, of lord treaſurer's remembrancer, of clerk of the pipe, and ſuch other offices now in being in the court of exchequer in England or in Scotland, relating to ſignatures, gifts, and tutories, as the queen ſhall think fit, to be appointed under the ſeal kept in Scotland; and ſuch perſons ſhall be the maſters or chief officers of the ſaid offices, and for ſuch term as the queen ſhall by letters patent under the ſeal aforeſaid appoint; and the ſaid maſters ſhall appoint under them, ſo many attornies and clerks as ſhall be fit; which maſters, as alſo the ſaid attornies and clerks, ſhall take ſuch oaths before the barons, for their faithful and honeſt behaviour in their offices, as the like officers in the court of exchequer in England, or as by the barons of the exchequer in Scotland ſhall be appointed. ſ. 3.

The ſaid chief officers, as alſo the ſaid attornies, clerks, and other officers, ſhall be obedient to the court, and may be ſuſpended, puniſhed, or amoved, for neglect of duty, or miſdemeanors in their offices, or other juſt cauſes. ſ. 4.

There ſhall be a ſeal for the ſealing ſuch letters patent, grants, commiſſions, writs, precepts, and other proceſs, which ſhall iſſue out of the ſaid court, or ought to paſs under the ſeal of the ſaid court; which ſeal ſhall be in the cuſtody of the chief baron; and the chief baron, or ſuch perſon as he ſhall depute, and for whom he will be anſwerable, ſhall therewith ſeal all letters, patents, &c. and for that purpoſe ſhall attend at times and places to be directed by the court, or any of the barons; and the ſaid court is empowered to appoint all ſuch other officers and attendants as ſhall be convenient. And all ſheriffs, by themſelves or their deputies, and other officers and ſubjects in Scotland, are to be obedient to and attendant upon the ſaid court, and ſhall be ſubject to ſuch penalties for neglect of their duties, or for any contempts or diſobedience, as ſhall be impoſed by the court. ſ. 5.

The cuſtoms and exciſe, and all other revenues appertaining to the queen within Scotland, either as queen of Great Britain, or as prince and ſteward of Scotland, and all honours, caſtles, manors, lands, and hereditaments, in Scotland, which ſhall appertain to the queen, and all the goods and perſonal eſtates within Scotland, any ways belonging to the queen, and all the remedies for recovering the ſame, and all accounts relating thereto, and all penalties by force of any ſtatute relating to the cuſtoms or exciſe, or by force of any other ſtatutes, and all fines, iſſues, forfeitures, or penalties, of what nature ſoever, ariſing within Scotland, and all informations or actions, and alſo all obligations, recognizances, ſpecialties, and other ſecurities, touching the before mentioned matters, ſhall be within the juriſdiction of the ſaid court; and the barons of the ſaid court ſhall be inveſted with all powers, as well judicial as otherwiſe, for the hearing and determining of all actions and queſtions in law or equity touching the aforeſaid revenues, &c. and the ſaid court may proceed therein as the court of exchequer in England hath uſed in like caſes; all which proceedings ſhall be in the office of the remembrancer of the queen's majeſty. And upon iſſues joined in any cauſes triable in the ſaid court upon matters of fact, the barons are authoriſed to cauſe the ſame to be tried, either at the bar of the court or elſewhere, at ſuch times and places as ſhall be by the court appointed, by a jury of 12 perſons of that county or place where the matters in iſſue did ariſe, or of ſuch other county or place in Scotland where the court ſhall direct the ſame to be laid; each of which jurymen ſhall have in his own right, or right of his wife, lands or tenements of inheritance, or for life, within the county, of the yearly value of 5 l. or ſhall be worth in goods 200 l. and for want thereof, or for any other juſt cauſe, ſhall be ſubject to be challenged; and in all verdicts to be given, the whole number of 12 muſt agree: and the ſaid barons, and ſuch of them before whom any ſuch trials ſhall be, ſhall have power to award proceſs; and all powers relating to ſuch trials, and for awarding new trials, as the barons of the exchequer in England; and the the barons and officers ſhall do all other things in order for judgments upon the records of trials at bar, and of the returns of records of niſi prius in caſe of trials in the countries, as are practiſed in like caſes in the exchequer in England; and the barons ſhall proceed to give judgment, and to award executions, and do every thing touching ſuch trials, judgments, or executions, as by law, or the rules of the court of exchequer in England, or by the laws or ſtatutes in England. ſ. 6.

The ſaid barons of the exchequer in Scotland, or any of them, ſhall have power to take recognizances and ſecurities for debts; and all obligations, recognizances, and other ſecurities, for any the revenues, debts, or other things, due to the queen within Scotland, or which ſhall relate thereto, or which ſhall be taken by order of the ſaid court, or for the uſe of the crown, ſhall be taken in the name of the queen, her heirs and ſucceſſors, and ſhall have the force of any obligations, recognizances, and ſpecialties, which may be taken in the court of exchequer in England, according to the ſtatute of 33 Hen. 8. c. 39. or any other law or uſage in the exchequer in Scotland, or by virtue of the prerogative royal: and all ſuits upon the ſaid obligations, &c. or for any revenues or duties payable to the queen within Scotland, ſhall be in the court of exchequer in Scotland, and her majeſty ſhall be preferred in all ſuits in the ſaid court, according to the ſaid ſtatute and the practice of the court of exchequer in England; and as well the bodies as the lands and tenements, debts, credits and ſpecialties, goods and perſonal eſtate, of all debtors or accountants to the crown, or their debtors, in Scotland, ſhall be liable by extent, inquiſition, and ſeizures, or by any other proceſs, to the payment of ſuch debts to the crown, in the ſame manner as hath been uſed in the court of exchequer in England. ſ. 7.

Provided, that no debt to the crown in Scotland ſhall affect any real eſtate in Scotland, further than ſuch real eſtate may be ſubject thereto by the laws of Scotland; and that the laws of Scotland ſhall in all ſuch caſes hold place. ſ. 8.

The ſeveral ſtatutes in England of jeofails, and for amendments, ſhall extend to all ſuits in the court of exchequer in Scotland for the recovery of any debt due to the crown, as fully as they do to the court of exchequer in England. And in the court of exchequer in Scotland there ſhall be kept four terms in every year, whereof one ſhall be called Martinmas term, and ſhall commence upon the 3d of November, and end on the 29th of November; and another ſhall be called Candlemas term, and ſhall commence upon the 23d of January, and end upon the 12th of February; and another ſhall be called Whitſuntide term, (and ſhall commence upon the 12th of May, and end on the 2d of June, by 30 Geo. 3. c. 17. ſ. 2.;) and the fourth ſhall be called Lammas term, (and ſhall commence on the 17th of June, and end on the 5th of July, by 30 Geo. 3. c. 17. ſ. 2.;) and if any of the ſaid days ſhall be a Sunday, ſuch term ſhall begin the day following, and end (by 30 Geo. 3. c. 17. ſ. 2. on the Saturday preceding;) during which terms the barons of the ſaid court ſhall ſit therein, and hear and determine the buſineſs depending in the court, and that either with or without adjournment to any time or place: and the barons ſhall appoint the days for the returns of writs; and ſet upon all ſuch ſheriffs, and other perſons, to whom the execution of ſuch writs ſhall appertain, ſuch iſſues, fines, amercements, and penalties, as ſhall ſeem fit: and the ſaid barons ſhall take bails, recognizances, and other ſecurities, informations, bills, anſwers, and affidavits, and take and declare accounts, and do all things relating to the buſineſs of the court, as fully as the barons of the exchequer in England: and the barons of the exchequer in Scotland are authoriſed to hold plea in equity by Engliſh bill, petition, or ſuit, brought by or againſt the attorney or advocate general of the queen on her behalf, or by or againſt any other perſons touching the revenues, as is uſed in the court of exchequer in England; ſave only that all iſſues at law directed for the information of the conſcience of the court ſhall be made up in the queen's remembrancer's office, in ſuch manner as ſuch iſſues are uſed to be made up in the office of pleas in the exchequer in England. ſ. 9.

The barons of the exchequer in Scotland, and the officers and members of the ſaid court, ſhall have the ſame privileges and immunities as the members of the college of juſtice have by the law in Scotland; excepting only that they may be purſued in juſtice before the lords of ſeſſion for cauſes not competent to the court of exchequer. ſ. 10.

All perſons employed about the collecting or accounting for the revenues of cuſtoms or exciſe, or other crown revenues in Scotland, ſhall be under the juriſdiction of the court of exchequer in Scotland in all things touching the revenues, which are not inconſiſtent with the commands of the queen's majeſty, or of the treaſury: and all perſons appointed under the ſeal kept in Scotland, to be auditors of the revenues in Scotland, ſhall take the like oath for the due execution of their offices before the barons of the exchequer in Scotland, as any auditor of any the crown revenues in England ought to take: and ſuch auditors ſhall have the taking all the ſaid accounts, which being ſworn to by the accountants, and allowed and declared by the court of exchequer, or before the chief baron, or ſome of the barons, the ſame ſhall be examined and inrolled in the offices of remembrancer of the queen, and vouchers of ſuch account ſhall be there left, and ſuch account ſhall be alſo entered in the office of the lord treaſurer's remembrancer, in like manner as in England, and then ſhall be delivered into the pipe office; and the clerk of the pipe ſhall cauſe the ſaid accounts to be examined, and if found true, to be inrolled in the office, and ſhall give a quietus or diſcharge to the accountant thereupon; and if any ſupers or arrears ſhall be ſet upon the accountant, or any other perſon, by the ſaid account, the court of exchequer ſhall award proceſs to be iſſued out of ſuch of the two remembrancers offices as the court ſhall direct, for the accounting for, levying, and receiving, of all ſuch ſupers and arrears, in ſuch ſort as hath been uſed in the court of exchequer in England. ſ. 11.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſons, parties to any judgment given in the court of exchequer in Scotland, or who ſhall be privy to and affected by ſuch judgment, and who by law are entitled to a writ of error, to ſue out of the chancery writs of error returnable in parliament; and the like ſecurities and method of proceedings ſhall be had thereupon as have been in England: and every perſon againſt whom any orders or decrees in Engliſh cauſes ſhall be made in the ſaid court of exchequer, may have like relief therein as any perſons againſt whom any orders or decrees in the court of exchequer in England may have. ſ. 12.

The lord high treaſurer of Great Britain ſhall have all ſuch powers relating to any the revenues of cuſtom and exciſe, and other the crown revenues or treaſure within Scotland, as he may have concerning any the revenues in England. ſ. 13.

All fines, iſſues, amercements, forfeited recognizances, or penalties, incurred or forfeited in the court of exchequer in Scotland, ſhall be levied by the proceſs of the ſaid court to the uſe of her majeſty, although the perſons, or their lands or goods, be in any part of Scotland whatſoever. ſ. 14.

In caſe any perſon ſhall alledge, plead, or ſhew, in the court of exchequer in Scotland, good, perfect, ſufficient cauſe and matter in law, reaſon, or good conſcience, in bar or diſcharge of any fines, forfeitures, debts, or duties, payable to the crown, or why ſuch perſon ought not to be charged with the ſame, and the ſame matter ſo alledged ſufficiently proved, the ſaid court ſhall have power to allow the ſame, and to diſcharge the perſons ſued for the ſame, or to take any fitting compoſition, as in the diſcretions of the barons, upon hearing of the attorney or advocate general, or other learned council of her majeſty, ſhall be thought juſt, in ſuch manner as is uſed in England. ſ. 15.

The barons of the exchequer in Scotland ſhall have power to take and paſs the accounts of all ſheriffs and other officers in Scotland, who have the execution of any the proceſs iſſuing out of the ſaid court, for the levying of any money for the crown, and to charge and diſcharge them according to juſtice, in ſuch manner as the ſaid ſheriffs and officers before the union were uſed to be charged and diſcharged. ſ. 16.

All acts of parliament made in England, and in force there, concerning any cuſtoms or ſubſidies there, and all acts of parliament made in England, and now in force, concerning any exciſes there, and all directions for navigation, and for carrying goods coaſtwiſe, and all other things in them contained, which are not inconſiſtent with the articles of the union, ſhall extend to Scotland, and ſhall be put in execution by the court of exchequer in Scotland; and perſons entitled to any benefits or remedies touching the cuſtoms or exciſes in Scotland, ſhall enjoy the ſame as fully as if the ſame aroſe in England: and the barons of the exchequer in Scotland are to cauſe right to be done to all perſons concerned therein. ſ. 17. See ſ. 18. under Cuſtoms, ſupra.

The court of exchequer in Scotland ſhall have power to receive reſignations in her majeſty's name of all baronies, lands, lordſhips, tithes, juriſdictions, offices, and all other rights which were in uſe, to be reſigned in the exchequer; and ſignatures, gifts, tutories, and other things, which were preſented, reviſed, and compounded, or which were paſſed or given, by the lord high treaſurer, or commiſſioners of the treaſury, or court of exchequer there, ſhall be given in, reſigned, preſented, reviſed, compounded, and expedited, as formerly, with this alteration, that the preſenter of ſignatures ſhall preſent the ſaid ſignatures and other things to the chief baron and barons of the exchequer in Scotland, who are authoriſed to reviſe and compound the ſame, in the ſame manner as the lord high treaſurer or commiſſioners of treaſury of Scotland might have done, and thereafter in court to hear parties, and to paſs all ſuch ſignatures, &c. and eſpecially to declare and appoint fines, as the court of exchequer might have done; and ſuch ſignatures, &c. being paſſed in the exchequer, ſhall be recorded by the clerks, and thereafter be expedited at the proper ſeals, as by the law and practice of Scotland was required; reſerving power to her majeſty to receive reſignations immediately in her royal hands, and to grant all ſignatures and other things, in the ſame manner as her majeſty could have done at the time of the ſaid treaty. ſ. 19.

All barriſters at law, advocates, or counſellors, who may plead and practiſe before the court of exchequer in England, or before the court of ſeſſion in Scotland, ſhall have right to plead and practice before the ſaid court of exchequer. ſ. 10.

The validity and preference of the title of the crown to any honours, manors, lands, or hereditaments, or to caſualties, belonging to the crown, ſhall continue to be tried in the court of ſeſſion by the law and practice of Scotland, and not otherwiſe. ſ. 22.

No officer, clerk, or other perſon employed in the exchequer in Scotland, ſhall take any other fee, in reſpect of any thing done in the ſaid court, than ſuch as ſhall be ſettled and allowed by the barons; which fees ſhall be contained in a table to be hung up in the moſt public place of the court; and each of the maſters in the offices of queen's remembrancer, lord treaſurer's remembrancer, clerk of the pipe, and clerk of the pleas, and auditor, ſhall take care that a table of the fees relating to their offices be hung up in ſome public place in their offices; and if any perſon ſhall offend in the premiſſes, the barons of the exchequer ſhall cauſe right to be done, and puniſh the offenders by fine, ſuſpenſion, or deprivation, as to them ſhall ſeem juſt, and recompence the complainer with coſts. ſ. 23.

The number of the barons of her majeſty's court of exchequer in Scotland ſhall not exceed five. ſ. 24.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 17. ſ. 2. Whitſuntide term for the court of exchequer in Scotland ſhall begin upon the 12th of May, and end upon the 2d of June; and Lammas term ſhall begin upon the 17th of June, and end upon the 5th of July; except the ſaid days happen upon Sunday, in which caſe the beginning of ſuch term ſhall be upon the day following, and the ending on the Saturday preceding.

Excommunication.

By 10 Ann. c. 7. No civil forfeiture or diſability ſhall be incurred by reaſon of any excommunication, or proſecution, in order to excommunication, by the church judicatories in Scotland; and all civil magiſtrates are prohibited to compel any perſons to appear when ſummoned, or to give obedience to ſuch ſentence when pronounced. ſ. 10.

Fiſhery.

By 13 Geo. 1. c. 30. It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty, by letters patent under the great ſeal kept in Scotland, to eſtabliſh a method whereby the funds due by 5 Geo. 1. c. 20. (in Funds, infra), for improvement of the fiſhery and manufactures in Scotland, ſhall be applied according to the fifteenth article of the union. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty, by letters patent under the ſaid ſeal, to appoint any perſons reſiant in Scotland, not exceeding 21, to be truſtees and commiſſioners for directing the application of the ſaid ſums, according to the method aforeſaid. ſ. 2.

It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty to appoint the receiver general of the crown rents and caſualties in Scotland to be caſhier for the commiſſioners above mentioned. ſ. 3.

The commiſſioners of the treaſury ſhall iſſue their orders for making payment of all money for encouraging fiſheries and manufactures in Scotland, as the ſame ſhall become due, to the receiver general of the crown rents and caſualties in Scotland, without fee, to be by him iſſued in like manner without fee, by order of the commiſſioners and truſtees. ſ. 4.

The commiſſioners ſhall annually at Chriſtmas make up an account of all the monies received and iſſued by their orders, together with a report of the ſtate of the fund, and of their proceedings in the execution of their truſt, which they ſhall within 30 days lay before his majeſty; and ſhall alſo within the like ſpace lay copies of the ſaid accounts and reports before the annual committee of the convention of the royal boroughs of Scotlond, that they may lay before his his majeſty ſuch obſervations as they ſhall make thereon. ſ. 5.

The commiſſioners may annually at Chriſtmas lay before his majeſty ſuch alterations as to them ſhall ſeem expedient for improving the method for encouraging the ſaid fiſheries or manufactures; and it ſhall be lawful for his majeſty, by letters patent under the ſaid ſeal, to alter the method upon the repreſentation of the commiſſioners. ſ. 6.

By 29 Geo. 2. c. 23. All inhabitants of Great Britain ſhall, when they think proper, freely take, buy from fiſhermen, and cure, any herrings, cod, ling, or any other ſort of white fiſh, in every part of the ſeas or other waters where ſuch fiſh are to be found, on the coaſts of Scotland, and of Orkney, Shetland, and all other iſlands belonging to Scotland; and if any perſon obſtruct any perſon in fiſhing in moonlight nights, or at any other time, in any part of the ſaid ſeas or other waters, or demand any gratuity in money, fiſh, or otherwiſe, under the name of Saturday's night fiſhing, or under any other name, for the liberty of fiſhing, every ſuch perſon ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 100 l. ſterling. ſ. 1.

All perſons employed in the fiſhery on the coaſts of Scotland, or of Orkney, Shetland, or any of the ſaid iſlands, ſhall have the free uſe of all ports, harbours, ſhores, and forelands, in Scotland, or in Orkney, Shetland, or any of the ſaid iſlands, below the higheſt water mark, and for 100 yards on any uncultivated land beyond ſuch mark within the land, for landing their nets, caſks, and other ſtores, and for erecting tents and ſtages, and for the landing, pickling, curing, drying, and reloading their fiſh, without paying any foreland or other dues, or any other conſideration for ſuch liberty, except as hereafter excepted; and if any perſon demand or receive any money or other conſideration for the uſe of any ports, ſhores, or forelands, within the limits aforeſaid, ſo made uſe of, or obſtruct the perſons employed in the taking, buying, or curing of fiſh, in the uſe of the ſame, every perſon ſo offending, ſhall, for every ſuch offence, forfeit 100 l. ſterling. ſ. 2.

Nothing in this act ſhall exempt the veſſels employed in the ſaid fiſhery from the payment of ſuch harbour or pier duties as are, and by law ought to be, demanded for veſſels in piers or harbours which are artificially made, but ſuch harbour or pier dues ſhall be paid before the paſſing of this act. ſ. 3.

The ſtaves of all barrels in which ſuch fiſh ſhall be packed ſhall be at leaſt one half of an inch in thickneſs throughout of made work; and if any barrel containing ſuch fiſh be found to be of a leſs thickneſs than one half of an inch in any part, any officer of cuſtoms or exciſe, or any curemaſter in Scotland, are to ſeize the ſame, and, upon proof before any two juſtices of peace, the owner ſhall forfeit both fiſh and barrel. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon in Scotland to import foreign ſalt, and to take Britiſh ſalt there from the ſalt works, without paying any duty for the ſame, for curing of fiſh for exportation only, except the cuſtoms payable upon the importation of ſuch foreign ſalt; and it ſhall be lawful for any perſon in Scotland to uſe any ſuch foreign or Britiſh ſalt delivered duty free for curing of fiſh for exportation, in the curing white herrings for home conſumption; and the 5 Geo. 1. c. 18. & 8 Geo. 1. c. 16. ſee the general title SALT, ſo far as relates to the curing of fiſh for exportation with ſalt, without payment of duty, and to the rates allowed upon the exportation of fiſh from England, and to the curing of white herrings for home conſumption, (except the duty of 3 s. 4 d. per barrel,) ſhall be extended to Scotland. ſ. 5.

For every barrel of white herrings containing 32 gallons, entered for home conſumption in Scotland, the proprietor ſhall pay a duty of 1 s. and ſo in proportion for every half barrel; under the regulations and penalties in the laſt mentioned act for aſcertaining and recovering the ſaid duty of 3 s. 4 d. per barrel. ſ. 6.

It ſhall be lawful to carry from any port of Scotland to any port of England white herrings cured with Britiſh or foreign ſalt, the perſons bringing the ſaid herrings into England, Wales, and Berwick, paying at the port to which the ſame are brought, 3 s. 4 d. for every barrel containing 32 gallons, which ſhall be entered there for home conſumption, and ſo in proportion for every half or quarter barrel. ſ. 7.

It ſhall be lawful to carry from any port in Scotland to any port of England for home conſumption, any ſalmon, cod, ling, tuſk, and other white fiſh, cured with ſalt made in Scotland, for which the duty hath been there paid or ſecured, the perſon bringing ſuch fiſh into England, &c. paying at the port to which the ſame ſhall be brought, 2 s. 4 d. for every barrel, containing 32 gallons of ſuch fiſh wet, and ſo in proportion for a greater or leſſer quantity; and 1 s. 2 d. for every hundred weight of ſuch fiſh dry, and ſo in proportion for a greater or leſſer quantity. ſ. 8.

It ſhall be lawful to carry from any place of Scotland, or the iſlands thereunto belonging, to any port of England for re-exportation, any herrings, ſalmon, cod, ling, tuſk, and other white fiſh, the owner of the fiſh, or maſter of the veſſel, making oath that ſuch fiſh was caught in North Britain, or on the coaſts thereof, and cured with ſalt delivered duty free from ſome part of Great Britain, and when and where the ſame was ſo delivered. ſ. 9.

All ſuch herrings, ſalmon, cod, ling, tuſk, and any other white fiſh, ſo brought coaſtwiſe from Scotland into England, &c. ſhall, upon exportation to foreign parts, be entitled to the ſame bounties as by 5 Geo. 1. c. 18. ſee SALT, are granted on the exportation of fiſh cured in England; ſuch fiſh being ſubject to the ſame regulations to prevent the re-landing, and the owners ſubject to the ſame penalties in caſe of re-landing, or any other fraudulent proceeding. ſ. 10.

No bounty granted by this act ſhall be paid in England, &c. but the chief officer of the cuſtoms, or his deputy, at the port from which ſuch fiſh is exported, ſhall, upon the requeſt of the exporter, and oath made before the principal officers of the ſaid port of the ſhipping the ſaid fiſh, and its not being re-landed, or intended to be re-landed, in Great Britain, give a debenture under his hand, without fee, for payment of the ſaid bounties; which debenture being produced to the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms, or of the exciſe, (at the option of the exporter or his aſſigns,) in Scotland, ſhall entitle the exporter or his aſſigns to the payment of the bounties granted by this act, which the ſaid commiſſioners are to pay, out of any money in their hands, ariſing by any branch of the cuſtoms or exciſe, regard being had to the priority of the dates of the debentures. ſ. 11.

The proprietor of herrings, ſalmon, and white fiſh, ſhipped in any port in Scotland, or the iſlands thereunto belonging, to be carried to England, &c. whether for home conſumption or exportation to foreign parts, or his agent, ſhall, before any ſuch veſſel depart from ſuch port, make an entry with the collector, or other principal officer of the cuſtoms there, of the fiſh ſo ſhipped, expreſſing the number of barrels of wet fiſh, with the marks and numbers thereof, and the number and weight of each ſpecies of dry fiſh, and declare upon oath that the ſaid fiſh were cured in Scotland, or on the coaſts thereof, and whether they were cured with ſalt delivered duty free, or with ſalt for which the duty payable by the above mentioned act hath been paid or ſecured, and that the ſaid ſalt was taken on board from ſome place in Great Britain, and when and where it was put on board, and that no drawback for the ſame hath been had, or intended to be had, upon the exportation of the ſaid ſalt; and the ſaid collector, or other principal officer of the cuſtoms, ſhall deliver to the maſter of ſuch veſſel, without fee, a certificate under his hand, that ſuch entry and oath have been made; and the maſter of every veſſel wherein ſuch fiſh ſhall be ſhipped to be carried coaſtwiſe, or the proprietor, or his agent, ſhall, before landing the fiſh, or putting it on board any other ſhip or boat in any place in England, &c. deliver the ſaid certificate to the proper officer of the cuſtoms in the port where the ſame is imported or put on board any other ſhip or boat, upon pain of forfeiting all ſuch fiſh, and double the value thereof, that ſhall be imported or put on board any other ſhip or boat contrary to the meaning hereof, and the caſks; to be recovered of the importer, or proprietor, or maſter of the ſhip; one moiety of all which penalties to the uſe of his majeſty, and the other moiety to the officer who ſhall ſeize, ſue, or inform, to be levied in ſuch manner, and with ſuch power of mitigation, as any fine by any law of exciſe, or by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter, wherein no eſſoign, &c. ſhall be allowed; and all officers of the cuſtoms or duties upon ſalt are to ſeize all ſuch herrings, ſalmon, cod, ling, tuſk, or any other white fiſh, imported or put on board any other ſhip contrary to the meaning of this act, and the caſks. ſ. 12.

The duties charged by this act upon fiſh brought from Scotland, or the iſlands thereunto belonging, into England, &c. ſhall be levied and diſpoſed of to the ſame purpoſes, and in the ſame proportions, as the duties upon ſalt and rock ſalt, and the duties upon red herrings and white herrings. ſ. 13.

If any perſon counterfeit, raſe, or alter, any certificate or cocquet by this act directed to be made, or uſe any ſuch certificate or cocquet, knowing the ſame to be counterfeited, raſed, or altered, ſuch perſon ſhall incur the pains by law inflicted on perſons found guilty of forgery. ſ. 14.

So much of 5 Geo. 2. c. 6. as relates to the importation of white herrings from Scotland into England is hereby repealed. ſ. 15.

If any perſon falſely make any oath by this act directed, and be convicted in any court of record in Great Britain, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 200*l.* and be impriſoned for 12 months. ſ. 16.

The penalties in this act mentioned ſhall be proſecuted and determined by bill, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter, or in the court of exchequer in Scotland, reſpectively, wherein no eſſoin, &c. ſhall be allowed; and one moiety of the ſaid penalties ſhall be to the uſe of his majeſty, and the other moiety to ſuch perſon as will ſue for the ſame. ſ. 17.

The truſtees for the fiſhery and manufactures of Scotland ſhall, as ſoon as may be, tranſmit one copy of this act to each of the miniſters of the pariſhes within the ſynods of Argyle, Roſs, Murray, Sutherland, and Caithneſs, and Orkney; and each of the ſaid miniſters ſhall immediately after divine ſervice, on the laſt Sunday of the month of May in every year, for four ſucceſſive years, commencing with the year 1757, publicly read to the pariſhioners, in the language beſt underſtood by them, the former part of this act, from the beginning to the concluſion of the third enacting clauſe; and the judges of Scotland ſhall order the ſaid part of this act to be publicly read at the opening of each circuit court, to be held at Inverara and Inverneſs every year for four years ſucceſſively, beginning in the year 1757. ſ. 18.

If any action be commenced for any thing done in purſuance of this act, the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff be nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 19.

The 26 Geo. 3. c. 106. paſſed for incorporating certain perſons therein named, by the name of The Britiſh Society for extending the fiſheries, and improving the ſea coaſts of this kingdom; and to enable them, when incorporated, to ſubſcribe a joint ſtock, and therewith to purchaſe lands, and build thereon free towns, villages, and fiſhing ſtations, in the highlands and iſlands in that part of Great Britain called Scotland; and for other purpoſes. See the general title SALT.

Funds.

By 5 Geo. 1. c. 20. Yearly from the feaſt of St. John Baptiſt 1719, the ſum of 10,000*l.* ſhall be one yearly fund, and 2000*l.* ſhall be another yearly ſum, for the purpoſes in this act, and ſhall be payable out of the cuſtoms and exciſe in Scotland, which ſhall remain after paying the charges of keeping up the three courts, and other charges of the civil government in Scotland, and with preference to all other payments, other than drawbacks ſettled by act of parliament. ſ. 1.

In caſe the produce of the ſaid revenues ſhall not be ſufficient to ſatisfy the ſaid yearly funds, the deficiences ſhall be made good out of any other revenues in Scotland, which were introduced by virtue of the treaty of union, other than ſuch as are expreſly appropriated by any act of parliament in Great Britain. ſ. 2.

The ſaid funds ſhall be paid at the four uſual feaſts, by equal portions, until redemption, and ſhall be free from taxes. ſ. 3.

The treaſury ſhall iſſue warrants for making the payments of the ſaid yearly funds, and the payments ſhall be made without fee; and if any officer, who ſhall have in his hands any of the monies appointed for the ſaid funds, ſhall miſapply the ſame, he ſhall be rendered incapable to ſerve his majeſty in any office of truſt or profit, and be liable to pay double the value of the money miſapplied, to the uſe of the corporation which ſhall be erected in purſuance of this act, for the benefit of the creditors of Scotland; to be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any of the courts at Weſtminſter, or in the exchequer in Scotland. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for the king, by letters patent under the great ſeal of Great Britain, to incorporate all the proprietors of the public debts of Scotland, ſtated to amount to 248,550*l.* 9*d.* ½; and all perſons entitled to any intereſt in the ſaid capital ſums ſhall be one body politic or corporate, and ſhall be capable in law to ſue and be ſued in all cauſes concerning the receiving the ſaid ſum of 10,000*l. per ann.* and the diſtribution thereof. ſ. 5.

The ſaid capital ſums, amounting to 248,550*l.* 9*d.* ½ ſhall be the joint ſtock of the ſaid corporation, and the ſhares of the members ſhall be transferrable and deviſable as the letters patent ſhall preſcribe. ſ. 6.

Every member of the corporation ſhall be entitled to an annuity in proportion to his ſhare in the capital. ſ. 7.

Upon

Upon payment by parliament of the ſaid capital ſum of 248,550*l.* 9*d.* ½ and all arrears of the ſaid yearly fund of 10,000*l.* the ſaid annuity ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 12.

The ſaid fund of 2000*l. per ann.* ſhall be wholly applied toward the encouraging the fiſheries, and ſuch manufactures and improvements in Scotland as may moſt conduce to the good of the united kingdom, according to the tenor of the 15th article of the treaty of union. ſ. 14.

The ſaid funds of 19,000*l.* and 2000*l. per ann.* and the ſeveral ſhares of the proprietors, ſhall be deemed perſonal eſtates, and ſhall go to executors or adminiſtrators, and not to heirs, nor be liable to arreſtments or attachments. ſ. 15.

No perſon ſhall incur any incapacity, &c. for executing this act, or for accepting any office or charter to be granted by his majeſty in purſuance thereof. ſ. 16.

Upon payment by parliament of the ſum of 40,000*l.* and of all arrears of the annuity of 2000*l.* the ſaid annuity ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 17.

The ſaid yearly funds of 10,000*l.* and 2000*l.* ſhall be in diſcharge of all equivalents that may be claimed on behalf of Scotland. ſ. 18.

The preſent commiſſion for ſtating the equivalent ſhall be continued till Midſummer 1719, and no longer. ſ. 19.

His majeſty's ſubjects in Scotland ſhall not be anſwerable for any deficiency in the proviſion that ſhould have been made by the parliament of Scotland for the ſervice of the year 1707. ſ. 20.

Over and above the ſaid annuity of 10,000*l.* there ſhall be paid to the corporation, till the ſaid annual ſum ſhall be redeemed, the farther annual ſum of 600*l.* for the charge of management, out of the ſame funds as the ſaid annuity of 10,000*l.* ſ. 21.

By 23 Geo. 2. c. 21. The yearly funds of 10,000*l.* and 2000*l.* made payable out of the cuſtoms and exciſe in Scotland by 5 Geo. 1. c. 20. ſhall, during the continuance thereof, be payable out of all the cuſtoms, duties, exciſes, and revenues, impoſed upon Scotland, that are under the management of the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms and commiſſioners of the exciſe in Scotland, or of any managers of theſe revenues, ſince the making the ſaid act, as well as out of the duties that ſubſiſted under the management aforeſaid, at the time of making the ſaid act. ſ. 5.

Game.

By 13 Geo. 3. c. 54. Every perſon who ſhall take, kill, deſtroy, carry, ſell, buy, or have in his poſſeſſion, or uſe any muir fowl or tarmagan, between the 10th of Dec. and 12th of Auguſt in any year; or any heath fowl, between the 10th of Dec. and 20th of Auguſt in any year; or any partridge, between the 1ſt of Feb. and the 1ſt of Sept. in any year; or any pheaſant, between the 1ſt of Feb. and 1ſt of Oct. in any year; ſhall, for every bird, forfeit 5*l.* ſterling: and in caſe of not paying the ſum decreed within 10 days after conviction by a final ſentence, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment for two months for each 5*l.* ſ. 1.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to any pheaſant or partridge taken in the ſeaſons allowed, and kept in any mew or breeding place. ſ. 2.

Every perſon whatſoever, not qualified to kill game in Scotland, who ſhall have in his cuſtody, or carry, at any time of the year, upon any pretence whatſoever, any hares, partridges, pheaſants, muir fowl, tarmagans, heath fowl, ſnipes, or quails, without the leave or order of a perſon qualified to kill game in Scotland, for carrying ſuch hares or game, or for having the ſame in his cuſtody, ſhall, for the firſt offence, forfeit 20*s.* ſterling; and for the ſecond, and every ſubſequent offence, 40*s.* ſterling: and in caſe of not paying within 10 days after conviction, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment for ſix weeks for the firſt offence, and for three months for the ſecond, and every ſubſequent offence. ſ. 3.

Every perſon who ſhall make muirburn, or ſet fire to any heath or muir, in Scotland, from the 11th of April to the 1ſt of Nov. in any year, ſhall forfeit 40*s.* ſterling for the firſt offence, 5*l.* for the ſecond, and 10*l.* for the third and every other offence: and in caſe of not paying the ſum decreed within 10 days after conviction, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment for ſix weeks for the firſt offence, two months for the ſecond, and three months for the third and every other offence. ſ. 4.

The tenant of the ground upon which ſuch muirburn ſhall be made or diſcovered within the forbidden time, ſhall be deemed guilty of the offence, and ſhall be liable to the penalties, unleſs ſuch tenant prove, to the ſatisfaction of the court before which he ſhall be proſecuted, that ſuch fire was communicated from ſome neighbouring ground, or was raiſed upon his ground by ſome other perſon not in his ſervice or family. ſ. 5.

Every proprietor of high and wet muir lands, the heath upon which frequently cannot be burnt ſo early as the 11th of April, may, when ſuch lands are in his own occupation, burn the heath upon the ſame, at any time between the 11th and 25th of April in any year, without incurring any of the penalties; and when ſuch lands are let, the proprietor, or his commiſſioner or factor, may, by a writing under his hand, authoriſe his tenant in ſuch lands to burn the heath thereon, at any time between the 11th and 25th of April in any year, without incurring any of the penalties. ſ. 6.

The writing authoriſing ſuch burning, when the lands are in the occupation of a tenant, ſhall, previous to ſuch burning, be recorded in the ſheriff or ſtewart court books of the county or ſtewartry within which the lands are, and which the ſheriff or ſtewart clerk is to do, upon receiving the fees uſually paid for recording writings. ſ. 7.

All offences againſt this act may be determined, either by the oath of one witneſs, or by the confeſſion or oaths of the parties accuſed, before two juſtices, or before the ſheriff, or ſtewart-depute, or ſubſtitute, of the county where the offence ſhall be committed, or where the offender ſhall be found; and all proſecutions ſhall be carried on, either at the inſtance of the fiſcal of the court in which the proſecution is brought, or of any other perſon who will inform. ſ. 8.

If any perſon convicted ſhall not pay the penalty within 10 days after a final judgment, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices, ſheriff, or ſtewart-depute, or ſubſtitute, before whom the information may have been brought, upon the application of the proſecutor, to grant warrant for levying the penalties, by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods, together with the coſts thereof, returning the overplus, if any, to the owner; or to grant warrant for committing the offender to the common gaol of the county, as ſatisfaction for the penalty, or until payment: and in caſe a warrant for levying the penalty by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods ſhall be firſt applied for and obtained, and the penalty ſhall not be recovered, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices, &c. who granted the warrant for levying the penalty, upon its being certified to him by the officer employed in executing the warrant, either that he has been able to recover no part of the penalty, or that a certain part, to be certified by him, ſtill remains unrecovered, to grant warrant for committing mitting the offender to the common gaol of the county. ſ. 9.

One moiety of the penalties ſhall be paid to the proſecutor, and the other moiety ſhall be applied to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh, or to the repairing of the high roads within the pariſh where the offence ſhall be committed, as the juſtices, &c. ſhall direct. ſ. 10.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon aggrieved by any decree of the juſtices to appeal to the next circuit court of juſticiary of the circuit wherein the county is where the decree is pronounced; or where there are no circuit courts, to the court of juſticiary at Edinburgh, by entering an appeal in open court, at the time of pronouncing ſuch decree, or at any time thereafter within 10 days, by lodging the ſame in the hands of the clerk of the court, and ſerving the adverſe party with a duplicate thereof perſonally, or at his dwelling houſe, or his procurator or agent in the cauſe; and ſuch ſervice ſhall be ſufficient ſummons to oblige the proſecutor to anſwer at the next circuit court 15 days after ſervice, or at the firſt court of juſticiary which ſhall be held at Edinburgh, in the caſe where there are no circuit courts, 15 days after ſuch ſervice; and thereupon the judge at ſuch circuit court, or in the court of juſticiary at Edinburgh, ſhall cognoſce and determine: and in caſe they ſhall find the reaſons of ſuch appeal not relevant, or not inſtructed, or ſhall determine againſt the party appealing, the judge ſhall condemn the appellant in coſts, and the decree ſo pronounced ſhall be final to the parties. ſ. 11.

When an appeal is taken, the appellant, at the time of entering his appeal, ſhall lodge with the clerk of the court from which the appeal is taken, a bond, with a ſufficient cautioner, for paying the ſum contained in the decree appealed againſt, ſo far as affirmed upon the appeal, and for paying the coſts; and the clerk of court ſhall be anſwerable for the ſufficiency of ſuch cautioner. ſ. 12.

In caſe any circuit court ſhall, on hearing ſuch appeal, find ſuch difficulty to ariſe, that by means thereof ſuch circuit court cannot proceed to the determination of the ſame, conſiſtently with juſtice and the nature of the caſe; in ſuch caſe, and not otherwiſe, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch circuit court to certify ſuch appeal, together with the reaſons of ſuch difficulty, and the proceedings thereupon had before ſuch circuit court, to the court of juſticiary at Edinburgh, which is to determine the ſame. ſ. 13.

No penalty ſhall be recovered, unleſs the proſecution be commenced within ſix months. ſ. 14.

Highways.

By 5 Geo. 1. c. 30. All the laws now in force made in Scotland before the union for repairing highways, bridges, and ferries, not hereby altered or repealed, ſhall be put in execution; excepting ſuch as relate to the powers of the privy council of Scotland. ſ. 1.

The juſtices of peace and commiſſioners of ſupply in the ſeveral ſhires and ſtewartries ſhall convene at the head boroughs on the third Tueſday of May yearly, with power to them, or any five of them, to adjourn themſelves, and to chooſe clerks, ſurveyors, and other officers, for putting the laws in execution relating to the highways, bridges, and ferries; and if any clerk or ſurveyor ſhall refuſe to accept of the ſaid offices, ſuch perſon ſhall be liable to the penalty of 5 l. ſ. 2.

The ſaid juſtices, commiſſioners, or the officers or overſeers to be appointed by them, are required to convene the tenants, cottars, and other labouring men, within their bounds, to work three days before the laſt of June, not being in ſeed time, and three days after harveſt, every year, till the highways, &c. are ſufficiently repaired, on ſuch days and at ſuch places as the commiſſioners or their officers ſhall appoint. ſ. 3.

Every tenant, &c. failing to come to work (on notice at the pariſh churches where ſuch perſons reſide, on the Lord's day immediately preceding) ſhall pay 18 d. for every day's failure, unleſs he ſend a man to work for him; which penalty ſhall be levied by warrant under the hands of any two juſtices or commiſſioners of ſupply, on a certificate of the overſeer, that ſuch perſon was abſent; which juſtices or commiſſioners are authoriſed to cauſe their officers to diſtreſs and poind the readieſt goods of any perſon ſo abſent for the penalty. ſ. 4.

The ſurveyors ſhall every ſix months, or ſooner if required, by warrant of two juſtices, ſurvey all the highways, bridges, and ferries, within the precinct, and give account in writing of the condition of ſuch highways, &c. and more eſpecially of defects and nuiſances, or encroachments committed on the highways, as alſo what repairs are wanting, to the juſtices and commiſſioners of ſupply, at their firſt meeting thereafter; and all ſurveyors neglecting to give ſuch account, or to proſecute offenders againſt this act, ſhall ſuffer the ſame penalties as if they refuſed to execute the offices. ſ. 5.

The juſtices and commiſſioners of ſupply ſhall draw up a report of the condition of the highways, &c. within their bounds yearly, containing an account of the number of men and horſes employed in amending the highways, &c. for the year preceding; which report they ſhall deliver to the lords of juſticiary at their circuits, to be recorded in their journals by the clerks of the commiſſioners of peace, or by the clerk of the ſupply. ſ. 6.

The penalties in this act (other than ſuch as ſhall be incurred by the tenants, &c.) ſhall be levied by ſentence of the juſtices and commiſſioners of ſupply, or any five of them; and the expences of the proſecution ſhall be defrayed by the ſhires and ſtewartries, at the ſuit of ſuch ſurveyors: And ſuch penalties ſhall be applied for repairing ſuch highways, &c. as the juſtices or commiſſioners of ſupply ſhall appoint; and in default of ſuch appointment, for repairing ſuch highways, &c. as the lords of juſticiary in their circuits ſhall direct. ſ. 7.

No perſon ſhall be proſecuted for any offence againſt this act, unleſs ſuch proſecution be begun within a year after the offence. ſ. 8.

By 32 Geo. 2. c. 15. Where any waggon or other carriage is drawn by four or more horſes or beaſts of draught, it ſhall be lawful for all truſtees or commiſſioners appointed or to be appointed by any act of parliament for the repair of any highway in Scotland, in their reſpective diſtricts, or five of them, or any perſon empowered by them to take, and they are required to take at all the gates erected for collecting any toll, before ſuch waggon, &c. be permitted to paſs through, over and above the tolls already granted or to be granted, the ſum of 5 s. ſterling for each horſe or other beaſt drawing ſuch waggon, &c. which additional toll ſhall be levied upon any perſon who ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay, as any other toll payable at the ſame turnpike-gate; and the money ariſing from ſuch additional duty ſhall be applied to the repair of the highway where collected. ſ. 1.

If any perſon take off any horſe or other beaſt of draught from any carriage, at or before the ſame come to any turnpike, with intent to avoid paying the additional toll, every perſon ſo offending and convicted before the ſaid truſtees, or five of them, upon the oath of one witneſs, ſhall forfeit 20*s.* ſterling; one half to the informer, and the other half to be applied to repairing ſuch part of the road as the truſtees appoint. ſ. 2.

Every perſon who ſhall drive any waggon, &c. upon any part of any turnpike road, with more horſes than ſuch carriage ſhall on the ſame day paſs through any turnpike-bar with, ſhall be deemed to have taken off the ſaid horſes with intent to avoid paying the additional toll. ſ. 3.

No waggon or other carriage ſhall be drawn by more than eight horſes or other beaſts of draught upon any turnpike road in Scotland, on pain of forfeiting 5 l. ſterling for every ſuch offence; one half to the informer, and the other half to be applied to repairing the road where the offence is committed, as the truſtees appoint. ſ. 4.

Nothing in this act ſhall reſtrain the owner of any carriage or his ſervants drawing with as many horſes or beaſts of draught as ſhall be neceſſary for drawing up any ſteep hill, as the truſtees within their reſpective diſtricts where ſuch ſteep hills lie, ſhall direct; a copy of which direction, under the hand of the clerk of the truſtees, ſhall be kept by the perſon empowered to levy the tolls at the toll-gate next to ſuch hills; and ſhall, without fee, be made patent to the owners of ſuch carriages paſſing the road, or their ſervants. ſ. 5.

Nothing in this act ſhall impoſe the additional duty on any waggon or other carriage, the fellies of the wheels whereof are of the breadth of nine inches; nor on any waggon, &c. employed in carrying one tree or piece of timber, one ſtone or block of marble, or any machine in one piece, which cannot be drawn by fewer than four horſes; nor on any waggon, &c. drawn by oxen or neat cattle only, or along with two horſes and no more. ſ. 6.

All waggons and carts, whereof the fellies of the wheels are of the breadth of ſix inches, drawn by three horſes, ſhall only be liable to ſuch toll as is impoſed, by the acts already made, upon waggons and carts drawn by two horſes. ſ. 7.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to any chaiſe marine, coach, chariot, landau, berlin, chaiſe, chair, or calaſh. ſ. 8.

It ſhall be lawful for the truſtees appointed by any act made or to be made for repairing any highway within Scotland, or five of them, and they are required, by writing under their hands, to order the fellies of the wheels of all waggons and other carriages, which ought to be of the breadth before directed, to be meaſured at any turnpike upon any part of the highway upon which ſuch carriage travels. ſ. 9.

In caſe it appear to the perſon appointed to meaſure the ſaid wheels, that the fellies of the wheels were originally of the breadth of nine or ſix inches reſpectively, and by wearing have been reduced to leſs breadth, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch carriage to travel upon any turnpike road, ſo as the fellies of all the wheels reſpectively be not diminiſhed more than one inch. ſ. 10.

If any perſon ſhall attempt to prevent the meaſuring the fellies of ſuch wheels, or uſe any violence to any perſon employed in ſuch meaſuring, every perſon ſo offending, and convicted before the truſtees, or five of them, upon the oath of one witneſs, ſhall forfeit 5 l. ſterling; one half to the informer, and the other half to be applied to repairing ſuch part of the road as the truſtees ſhall appoint. ſ. 11.

All tolls and forfeitures by this act impoſed, if not otherwiſe directed, ſhall be levied by diſtreſs of the offender's goods by warrant of any two juſtices of peace for the county or place where the offence is committed; and the perſons diſtraining are to ſell the goods diſtrained, and return the overplus money, if any, upon demand, to the owners, after ſuch tolls or forfeitures, with the charges of diſtreſs, are paid. ſ. 12.

If any perſon think himſelf aggrieved by any order of the truſtees or juſtices, it ſhall be lawful for him to appeal to the juſtices of peace for the county or place where the cauſe of appeal ariſes in their general quarter ſeſſions, who are to determine the matter in diſpute, and whoſe order therein ſhall be final. ſ. 13.

If any action be brought for any thing done in purſuance of this act, every ſuch action ſhall be brought within one month after the fact done. ſ. 14.

By 11 Geo. 3. c. 53. Juſtices, and commiſſioners of ſupply, for the ſhires and ſtewartries, are to make, repair, clear, widen, and extend, the highways under their directions; which are to be 20 feet in width. ſ. 1.

By 12 Geo. 3. c. 45. After September 1, 1772, no perſon ſhall drive any cart, car, or waggon, without the name of the owner, and his place of reſidence, to be placed on a conſpicuous part of ſuch cart; and alſo the number of ſuch carriage. ſ. 1.

Offenders driving carts, &c. without ſuch names and numbers, to forfeit, not exceeding 20*s.* nor leſs than 5*s.* for every offence. ſ. 2.

Names on carriages to be altered with the property, by ſucceeding owners, within 14 days after they become owners; on penalty of 20*s.* and not leſs than 5*s.* for every offence. ſ. 3.

Perſons placing falſe names on carriages to forfeit 40*s.* ſ. 4.

After September 1, 1772, every chaiſe driver found ſitting in his chaiſe, without another perſon on one of the horſes; or any carter, &c. riding on his carriage without a proper perſon on foot to guide it; within ſix miles of Edinburgh, four of Glaſgow, or two of any other city, &c.; or if any driver ſhall negligently occaſion any hurt or damage, or prevent the paſſage of any other carriage; or ſhall not diſmount when required by any perſon apprehending danger; offenders in any of the ſaid caſes ſhall forfeit 10*s.* if not the owners, and, if the owner, 20*s.* for each offence. ſ. 6.

No drivers of carts, &c. to drive alongſide of other carriages, ſo as to obſtruct the free paſſage, but ſhall follow one after another, and have bridles or halters upon every every horſe, which the driver ſhall have in his hand, &c.; on penalty of 20 s. and not leſs than 5 s. ſ. 7.

No drivers to drive their horſes, &c. abreaſt, ſo as to obſtruct the free paſſage, but ſhall drive them in a line, one after another, with a bridle affixed to the head of each horſe, &c.; nor ſhall the drivers of carts, &c. leave ſuch upon any ſtreet, &c. unyoked, except when loading and unloading; nor ſhall any perſon leave any ſtones, &c. upon ſtreets, &c.; on penalty of 20 s. nor leſs than 5 s. ſ. 8.

Drivers of loaded horſes, &c. and drivers of carts, coaches, and carriages, ſhall, on meeting other horſes or carriages, drive to the left hand or near ſide; penalty not exceeding 20 s. nor leſs than 5 s. ſ. 9.

Proſecutions againſt offenders to be brought before the ſheriff depute, or ſubſtitute, &c. of the county or place where the offence is committed; and judgment to proceed on confeſſion, or by credible witneſſes. ſ. 10.

Offenders to be apprehended for offences committed, by authority of the act, and carried before any juſtice or judge competent. Perſons who ſhall ſee offences committed, may, by authority hereof, detain horſes, carts, &c. till ſentence is pronounced; and in caſe the penalties adjudged ſhall not be paid, the judge to cauſe ſale to be made of the ſubjects detained. Offenders may be committed till ſatisfactory ſecurity be found. ſ. 11.

Offenders puniſhable by the act for maltreating any perſon whatever, to forfeit 20 s. for every offence. ſ. 12.

Perſons apprehended for offences, refuſing to diſcover their names to the judge, to be committed. ſ. 13.

Forfeitures ariſing by the act to be applied one half to the informer, and the other to the collector of the land-tax. ſ. 14.

No proſecution to lie, unleſs brought within three months after the offence was committed. Determination of the quarter ſeſſions to be final. ſ. 15.

Nothing herein to leſſen the juriſdiction of the royal boroughs. ſ. 16.

Houſes.

By 26 Geo. 2. c. 17. Whereas the acts 20 Geo. 2. c. 3. & 21 Geo. 2. c. 10. ſee the general title TAXES, diviſion Houſes, have not proved effectual for raiſing the duties upon windows or lights in Scotland; be it enacted, that the duties by the ſaid acts impoſed upon windows in Scotland, ſhall, after the 15th of May 1753, be raiſed in manner after-mentioned, viz. The commiſſioners of the land tax ſhall, upon the firſt day of their meeting, or at any ſubſequent meeting, before the 2d of Auguſt yearly, appoint one or more aſſeſſors for ſurveying and numbering the windows of all houſes ſubject to the ſaid duty within the ſeveral pariſhes belonging to the ſeveral counties or boroughs wherein the ſaid commiſſioners act; and the clerk to the ſaid commiſſioners of every ſhire or borough ſhall give notice to the aſſeſſors of their being named, by a note in writing ſubſcribed by the clerk, to be delivered to them perſonally, or left at their dwelling-houſes, within 10 days after their being appointed; and the aſſeſſors ſhall, upon ſuch day as the commiſſioners appoint, within one calendar month after their appointment, appear before the commiſſioners of ſupply at their ordinary place of meeting, and be there inſtructed by the commiſſioners as to their duty, and the manner of ſurveying and numbering of the windows ſubject to the duty. ſ. 1.

The aſſeſſors ſhall, at the time of their ſurveying and numbering the windows, leave a note in writing with the occupier of the houſe, or at the houſe itſelf, bearing the number of the windows, and the amount of the duty with which the ſaid occupier is charged. ſ. 2.

The aſſeſſors ſhall report the ſurvey by them made, and the number of windows in each houſe, and duty with which the occupier is charged, to the commiſſioners of ſupply, upon ſuch day as the commiſſioners appoint at the time they give their inſtructions; which ſhall be within 20 days after the day of giving the inſtructions. ſ. 3.

A note of theſe aſſeſſments ſhall forthwith be lodged by the clerk of the commiſſioners in the hands of the collector of the land tax for the county; and the collector of the land tax for each county and burgh within Scotland ſhall be collector of the duty upon windows; and the cautioners or ſureties for every ſuch collector of the land tax, ſhall be farther ipſo facto bound by virtue of this act for the faithful performance by ſuch collector of the office hereby committed to him in reſpect of the duties on windows, and that under the penalty of 100 l. ſterling; and every ſuch collector ſhall likewiſe be entitled to have an allowance from the receiver general of 3 d. per pound, of the money ariſing from the window tax. ſ. 4.

As often as there is a vacancy in the office of collector of the land tax, in any ſhire or borough in Scotland, it ſhall be lawful for the barons of the exchequer in Scotland, or two of them, upon the application of the receiver general or ſurveyor general of the duties on windows, to appoint a perſon to officiate as collector of the duty on windows within ſuch county or borough, during the vacancy of the office of collector of the land tax; and the perſon ſo appointed ſhall have all the powers and duties concerning the raiſing and paying over the ſaid duty on windows, that the collector of the land tax and of the ſaid duty had by this act; and ſhall alſo be entitled to receive from ſuch ſhire or borough during his ſervice the like ſalary as was given to the laſt collector of the land tax; and that over and above the allowance of 3 d. in the pound of the duties on windows to be collected by him. ſ. 5.

The occupiers of each houſe charged with the ſaid duty ſhall pay in the duty charged on or before the 29th of September yearly, for the half year betwixt Whitſunday and Martinmas, and on or before the 25th of March yearly, for the half year betwixt Martinmas and Whitſunday, to the collector of the ceſs perſonally, or at his office, unleſs ſuch occupier enter an appeal againſt the aſſeſſment; in which caſe ſuch appeal ſhall be diſcuſſed before payment, and ſhall be made only within 10 days after diſcuſſing or diſmiſſing ſuch appeal; and every ſuch occupier ſhall, in caſe of his not paying the duties upon the day hereby appointed, or within three days thereafter, forfeit treble the duty charged. ſ. 6.

The duties by the ſaid acts impoſed, and likewiſe all penalties, triple values, and forfeitures incurred by this act, ſhall be recovered at the ſuit of the reſpective collectors, by diſtraining or poinding according to the law of Scotland, upon warrants granted and ſubſcribed by any two commiſſioners of ſupply, or by the ſheriff, or depute ſheriff, of the county; who are to grant the ſame under the penalty of 10 l. ſterling, toties quoties, upon certificate made to them by the collector of the ceſs, that ſuch penalties are incurred, and ſuch duties not duly paid; which warrants ſhall be executed by the conſtables or ſheriff officers of the county; and the goods ſo poinded ſhall be valued by any two perſons appointed by the ſheriff officer or conſtable, which two perſons ſhall be obliged to value the ſame under the penalty of 40 s. ſterling for each neglect; and which valuation ſhall be made upon the ground, or at the houſe where where the ſame were poynded, and ſhall be ſold at the value by the officer who does poynd the ſame; and the value applied, in the firſt place, to the payment of the duty, triple value, or penalty; and in the ſecond place, to the payment for the trouble of the officer ſo poynding, at the rate of 2 s. per pound of the duty, &c. for which the goods ſhall be poynded, unleſs the owner redeem the ſame by payment of the appraiſed value, within four days after the poynding and valuation, to the officer who poynded the ſame, and the ſurplus ſhall be returned to the owner: and in caſe no purchaſer appear at the ſale, the goods ſhall be conſigned and lodged in the hands of the ſheriff depute or his ſubſtitute; and if not redeemed by the owner within four days after the conſignment, the ſame ſhall be rouped, ſold, and diſpoſed of, by order of the ſheriff, in ſuch manner as he ſhall appoint, he always being liable to the payment of the duty, &c. to the collector, and to the officer who poynded the ſame, for their trouble, in caſe the value of the goods amount to the extent of the duty and penalties, and to the fees to the officer; and ſhall be in the third place entitled to 1 s. per pound of the value of the goods for his own trouble, after allowance of the duty or penalties, and of what is to be paid to the officer: and there ſhall likewiſe be allowed to the officer ſo poynding, the expence of preſerving the goods or cattle ſo poynded, during the four days allowed to the owner to redeem them, and the expence of the ſale; and in like manner the expence ſhall be allowed to the ſheriff for preſerving the goods or cattle diſtrained, during the four days that the owner is allowed to redeem after conſignment in his hands, as alſo the expence of the ſale. ſ. 7.

The officer or conſtable who diſpoſes of ſuch goods or cattle, ſhall pay in the ſums ariſing from the ſale, ſo far as extends to the duties or penalties for which the ſame were poynded, to the collector of the land tax, within 10 days after receipt of the price, allowing what is above allowed for his own pains and expence; and in like manner, if the goods or cattle diſtrained be diſpoſed of by the ſheriff, he ſhall within four days after receipt of the price, pay in the ſame to the collector, after deduction of what is to be paid to the officer who made the poynding, and of what is above allowed for his own pains and expence, and ſhall remain liable to the collector until payment, and ſubject to be poynded therefore in the ſame manner as is above provided with regard to any perſon liable to duties or penalties by this act. ſ. 8.

Every ſuch collector of the land tax and duties on windows ſhall pay over to the receiver general at Edinburgh, all monies received of the duties or penalties in manner following, viz. the duties or penalties ariſing half-yearly, betwixt Whit-ſunday and Martinmas, on or before the 25th of December in ſuch year; and the duties and penalties ariſing between Martinmas and Whit-ſunday, on or before the 24th of June following. ſ. 9.

It ſhall be in the power of the perſons aſſeſſed for the duties aforeſaid, in caſe they conceive themſelves injured by the charge of the aſſeſſor, or to the ſurveyor or collector, if he judges the crown to be leaſed, to appeal to the commiſſioners of ſupply. ſ. 10.

Every occupier of a houſe aggrieved by the aſſeſſment ſhall, within 15 days after the note in writing, of his charge delivered to him or left at his houſe, cauſe to be delivered to the collector of the ceſs at his office, a note in writing, of the grievance of which he ſeeks redreſs by appeal; and ſuch collector is to make an entry in a book of all ſuch notices, and to lay the ſame before the commiſſioners at their firſt meeting, and ſhall upon demand by the aſſeſſors, give them leave to take a copy of all ſuch notices of appeals, that they may attend the meeting of the commiſſioners, prepared to anſwer the ſame. ſ. 11.

In caſe the party giving ſuch notice of appeal neglect to inſiſt therein before the commiſſioners at the next general meeting for diſcuſſing appeals, ſuch appeal ſhall be held to be fallen from, and the aſſeſſment ſhall ſtand in force. ſ. 12.

The commiſſioners ſhall hold a general meeting for diſcuſſing of appeals upon the firſt Tueſday of Auguſt yearly, and another upon the firſt Tueſday of March yearly, and upon ſuch other days as they ſhall appoint. And in caſe either the ſurveyor or the perſon ſo appealing be diſſatisfied with the determination of the commiſſioners upon ſuch appeal, it ſhall be lawful for either of them to proceed and take the benefit of the proviſion made in ſuch caſe in 21 Geo. 2. c. 10. ſ. 10.—See general title, TAXES, diviſion Houſes.

In caſe the aſſeſſors perform their duty by making their aſſeſſments and bringing in their certificates as by the former acts is directed, then the ſurveyors and inſpectors appointed as is directed by 20 Geo. 2. c. 3. ſhall proceed according to the powers thereby given to examine ſuch aſſeſſments; and as often as they find any perſon under-rated, give notice in writing of ſuch neglect to the occupier of the houſe, and to the collector, and ſuch additional charge ſhall be paid, or the juſtice thereof tried and diſcuſſed in the manner herein mentioned. And in caſe the commiſſioners neglect to appoint aſſeſſors, or the aſſeſſors neglect to make the inſpection and bring in the certificates, it ſhall be lawful for the ſurveyors to make a certificate in writing, under their hands, of every dwelling houſe inhabited, or charged by the ſaid acts, within the limits of thoſe places in which they ſeverally act, and of the number of windows in each houſe, with the names of the occupiers, and of the ſums which they ought to pay, and to leave a note in writing with the occupier, or at the houſe itſelf, bearing the number of the windows and the extent of the duty charged; and ſhall alſo deliver ſuch certificate to the reſpective collectors; whereupon the occupiers ſhall, in the manner, at the times, and under the penalties above-mentioned, pay their reſpective duties to ſuch collectors; and in caſe of failure ſuch collector ſhall recover the duties and penalties, and pay over the ſame to the receiver-general at Edinburgh in manner above directed. ſ. 14.

In caſe the occupier of any houſe give notice of appeal as aforeſaid, the collector ſhall not proceed to recover by diſtreſs the charge complained of, until the appeal is fallen from, or proſecuted to a final deciſion. ſ. 15.

By 7 Geo. 3. c. 33. All the powers, authorities, rules, directions, penalties, forfeitures, clauſes, matters, and things, contained in 26 Geo. 2. c. 17. except ſuch as are varied by 6 Geo. 3. c. 38. or this act, ſhall be put in execution in Scotland, for raiſing the duties on houſes, windows, and lights.—See the general title TAXES, diviſion Houſes.

Judges.

By 26 Geo. 3. c. 46. "As the ſalaries of the lords of ſeſſion, "lords commiſſioners of juſticiary, and barons of exchequer, "in Scotland, are inadequate to the importance of their "offices; and additional allowances have been made to "ſome of the judges, by warrants under the privy ſeal in "Scotland, which ought to be permanent; and as the lords "of ſeſſion are poſſeſſed of a fund called the ſtock of the "court, by grants before the union, amounting to 22,700*l.* "ſterling,

" ſterling, of capital money, the yearly intereſt of which " they divide among them, but which ought now to be re- " ſtored to the public:" be it enacted, that the ſaid 22,700*l.*, together with 1135*l.* ſterling, being one year's intereſt on the ſaid capital, ſhall be paid in to the receiver-general of his majeſty's land rents in Scotland, to be by him remitted to the Exchequer in England, for the uſe of the public. ſ. 1.

In time coming there ſhall be paid, in every year, out of the revenue in Scotland, which by acts made 7 and 10 Ann. were charged with the payment of the ſalaries allowed, for keeping up the courts of ſeſſion, juſticiary, and exchequer, in Scotland, the ſeveral ſalaries following, to the judges after mentioned; 2000*l.* ſterling to the lord preſident of the court of ſeſſion; 1000*l.* to each of the other lords of ſeſſion; 2000*l.* ſterling to the lord chief baron of the exchequer in Scotland; 1000*l.* to each of the other barons; 600*l.* ſterling to the lord juſtice clerk; and 300*l.* ſterling to each of the other lords commiſſioners of juſticiary. ſ. 2.

The ſaid ſums ſhall be paid quarterly in every year, in ſuch manner as the ſalaries have accuſtomarily been paid ſince the union; and the ſums hereby granted ſhall be in place of the different ſalaries, which the judges of the courts do at preſent, or have been in uſe to enjoy, whether by ſtated ſalary, additions by privy ſeal, or intereſt of the ſaid money; excepting always any additional yearly ſum which may be granted by his majeſty, by warrant under the privy ſeal in Scotland, to one of the puiſne barons of the court of exchequer, when appointed to that office from the bar of England; and excepting alſo the ſums iſſued in every year for defraying the expences of the juſticiary judges at their circuits. ſ. 3.

By 26 Geo. 3. c. 47. It ſhall not be lawful for the judge of the court of admiralty, directly or indirectly, to aſk or take from any ſuitor or other perſon, any fee for doing buſineſs as a judge, in name of ſentence money, poundage, droits of admiralty, or upon any pretence whatever; and in lieu of all fees heretofore paid, the judge ſhall be entitled to and receive a yearly ſalary, amounting to 400*l.* ſterling, payable in the ſame form, and upon the ſame eſtabliſhment, as the ſalaries of the judges of the courts of ſeſſion, juſticiary, and exchequer are. ſ. 1.

It ſhall not be lawful for the judges of the commiſſary court in Edinburgh, directly or indirectly, to aſk or take, from any ſuitor, or from any other perſon, any fee, for doing buſineſs as judges, in name of ſentence money, upon the decrees pronounced by them; and in lieu of ſuch ſentence money, heretofore in uſe, as well as for the better proviſion of the ſaid commiſſaries, they ſhall be entitled to, and receive 100*l.* ſterling per annum each of ſalary, payable in the ſame form, and upon the ſame eſtabliſhment, as the ſalaries of the judges of the courts of ſeſſion, &c. ſ. 2.

The allowances to the ſaid commiſſaries out of the biſhop's rents ſhall continue as before; and nothing herein ſhall enlarge or diminiſh their cuſtomary dues, on the confirmation of teſtaments, or other articles, except that of ſentence money. ſ. 3.

Nothing herein ſhall either enlarge or diminiſh the cuſtomary dues of the clerks and fiſcals of any of the ſaid courts, but the ſaid clerks ſhall ſtill receive what they are by law or cuſtom entitled to in the name of ſentence money, or otherwiſe; and for better aſcertaining the extent thereof, in thoſe caſes where the judges and the clerks and fiſcals have heretofore been in uſe to receive joint fees, and where the judges are not in future to receive them, the ſaid judges of the two courts aforeſaid, are before Nov. 1, 1786, to eſtabliſh regulations for the payment of clerks and fiſcals dues in their ſeveral courts, according to the juſt amount of the proportions which the ſaid clerks have been in uſe to receive in time paſt in the caſes aforeſaid, and which regulation ſhall be entered in their books of ſederunt; and it ſhall be lawful to any party concerned, to complain to the court of ſeſſion againſt ſuch determination, at any time within ſix months, whoſe judgment upon the ſame, or that of the judges not complained of, ſhall continue to be the rule for levying the ſaid dues. ſ. 4.

No perſon ſhall be appointed to the office of judge of the court of admiralty, or to the office of any of the commiſſaries, unleſs he has, during three years, immediately preceding his appointment, attended the court of ſeſſion regularly as a practitioner in the time of ſeſſion; and if any appointment ſhall happen to be made contrary to the meaning hereof, the ſame ſhall be void. ſ. 5.

By 26 Geo. 3. c. 48. There ſhall be paid throughout Scotland, the duties following, viz.

Upon every piece of vellum or parchment, or ſheet of paper, upon which ſhall be engroſſed, printed, or written, any depoſition of a witneſs, taken in any cauſe before the court of ſeſſion, or commiſſion of teinds, or court of admiralty in Scotland, or commiſſary court of Edinburgh, or in any civil cauſe before any inferior court in Scotland, or whereupon any affidavit, or written depoſition produced in the exchequer in Scotland, ſhall be engroſſed, &c. there ſhall be charged a ſtamp duty of 1 s. ſterling.

Upon every ſkin, &c. upon which ſhall be engroſſed, &c. any extract or atteſted copy from any deed, inſtrument, or writing, (except proteſts upon bills or promiſſory notes under 40 s. ſterling), given out from any public regiſter, or from the books or record of any court in Scotland, there ſhall be charged a ſtamp duty of 1 s. ſterling.

Nothing in this act ſhall charge with the ſaid duties any depoſition taken in any cauſe inſiſted in at the inſtance of the public proſecutor, for the public intereſt, or where the public revenue is concerned; or any depoſition taken in any civil cauſe, before any inferior court aforeſaid, where the ſum is under 5*l.* ſterling, excluſive of coſts; or ſuch depoſition taken at the inſtance of any perſon on the poor's roll, and who is admitted to ſue or defend in forma pauperis; or any extracts in the decrees of courts, other than ſuch formal decrees of regiſtration as are uſually annexed to the extracts of writings. ſ. 2.

' Duties to be under the management of the commiſ- ' ſioners of ſtamps. ſ. 3.

' Vellum, &c. to be ſtamped before written on, and ' the commiſſioners are to furniſh ſtampt vellum, &c. to ' to be ready for ſuch as may call for it. ſ. 4.

' Uſual allowance to be made on prompt payment. ' ſ. 5.'

If any perſon ſhall engroſs, print, or write, or cauſe to be engroſſed, &c. upon any vellum, &c. any of the matters for which the ſaid vellum, &c. ought to have a ſtamp as aforeſaid, before ſuch time as the ſaid vellum, &c. ſhall be ſtamped, or ſhall engroſs, &c. any ſuch matter, upon any vellum, &c. that ſhall be ſtamped, for any lower duty than the duty by this act payable for what ſhall be ſo engroſſed, &c. ſuch perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit 10*l.* ſterling, to be recovered as after directed; and in caſe any extractor, clerk, officer, or perſon, who, in reſpect of any public office, is entitled or entruſted to make, &c. any depoſition, extract, or other writing, by this act charged to pay a duty, ſhall be guilty of any fraud, by making, &c.

ſuch depoſition, &c. to be made upon vellum, &c. ſtamped with any ſtamp, knowing the ſame to be counterfeited, or by engroſſing, &c. the ſame upon vellum, &c. ſtamped for a lower duty, then ſuch extractor, &c. thereof lawfully convicted, ſhall (over the penalty aforeſaid) forfeit his office, and be diſabled to hold the ſame for the future; and if any attorney, conveyancer, agent, writer to the ſignet, writer, ſolicitor, or procurator, belonging to any of the courts, ſhall be guilty of any ſuch fraud, and be convicted thereof, he ſhall, (over the penalty aforeſaid) be diſabled for the future to practiſe; and if any depoſition, &c. ſhall, contrary to the meaning thereof, be engroſſed, &c. by any perſon whatſoever, upon vellum, &c. not ſtamped according to this act, or upon vellum, &c. ſtamped for a lower duty, then there ſhall be paid to his majeſty, over the duty aforeſaid, for every ſuch depoſition, &c. 10*l.* ſterling; and no ſuch depoſition, &c. ſhall be pleaded or given in evidence in any court in Great Britain, or admitted in any court to be good, until as well the duty, as the 10*l.* be firſt paid, and a receipt produced for the ſame, under the hand of ſome of the officers who ſhall be appointed to receive the duties, and until the vellum, &c. ſhall be ſtamped according to this act; and the proper officers are, upon payment or tender of the duty, and the 10*l.* unto them, to give a receipt for the ſame, and to ſtamp the ſaid vellum, &c. ſ. 6.

'Commiſſioners may appoint inſpectors of the papers 'uſed in courts, and the judges are to aſſiſt in ſecuring the 'duties. ſ. 7.

'Commiſſioners, &c. to follow the directions of the 'treaſury, and not to take any fees: perſons neglecting 'their duty, to be liable to proſecution. ſ. 8.

'Perſons counterfeiting or uſing forged ſtamps, guilty 'of felony without clergy. ſ. 9.

'Proviſions of former acts to extend to this. ſ. 10.

'Duties to be paid to the receiver general, and by 'him into the exchequer, where a ſeparate account is 'to be kept, and the money carried to the ſinking fund. 'ſ. 11.

'From Jan. 1, an annual account to be laid before 'the commons, of the ſums paid for augmentation of 'judges ſalaries, and of the produce of the duties. 'ſ. 12.'

No ſkin, &c. whereon any matter for which a duty is payable by this act, is engroſſed, &c. within Scotland, ſhall be divided into more than four pages, whereof each ſhall contain 36 lines, and each line nine words, and no more; and every ſuch matter ſhall be engroſſed conformable to the ſaid regulations, and according to the courſe of the courts; and if any attorney, or other perſon uſed to write for payment, within Scotland, ſhall engroſs, &c. upon any ſkin, &c. chargeable with any ſtamp duty by this act, any more words than according to the rate above, or in any other manner, ſo as to inſert in one ſkin, &c. above 1236 words, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 10*l.* ſterling, to be recovered as after directed, and ſhall be incapable to maintain any action for the recovery of any fee, on account of the engroſſing, &c. any ſuch depoſition, extract, or other writing. ſ. 13.

All pecuniary penalties ſhall be divided (if ſued for within ſix months), one moiety to his majeſty, in the manner after-mentioned, and the other moiety to the perſon who ſhall inform, &c. ſ. 14.

All ſuch penalties ſhall be recovered with coſts, in the court of ſeſſion, court of juſticiary, or court of exchequer in Scotland, by action of debt, &c. ſ. 15.

Such diviſion of the penalties ſhall be reſtricted to the proſecuting for the ſame, within the time before limited; and in default, no informer ſhall have any part of ſuch penalties, but the whole ſhall belong to his majeſty. ſ. 16.

'His majeſty's ſhare to be paid by the receiver-general 'into the exchequer on Auguſt 1, annually, and to be ap- 'plied like other penalties. ſ. 17.'

It ſhall be lawful for any juſtice reſiding near the place where the offence ſhall be committed, to hear and determine any offence againſt this act, which ſubjects the offender to any pecuniary penalty, which ſaid juſtice is, upon any information exhibited within ſix months, to ſummon the party accuſed, and alſo the witneſſes, and ſhall examine into the fact, and upon proof thereof, either by confeſſion of the party, or by the oath of one witneſs, to give judgment for the penalty, according as in this act is directed (all which penalties ſo adjudged, ſhall be divided, one moiety to the informer, and the other, the charges for the recovery thereof being firſt deducted, ſhall be paid to his majeſty), and to award his warrant under his hand and ſeal for the levying any ſuch penalties on the goods of the offender, and to cauſe ſale to be made thereof, in caſe they ſhall not be redeemed within ſix days, rendering to the party the overplus (if any); and where goods cannot be found to anſwer the penalty, to commit the offender to the houſe of correction for three months; and if any perſon ſhall find himſelf aggrieved by the judgment of ſuch juſtice, then he may, upon giving ſecurity to the value of ſuch penalty, together with ſuch coſts as ſhall be awarded in caſe ſuch judgment ſhall be affirmed, appeal to the next general quarter ſeſſions, who are to ſummon and examine witneſſes upon oath, and finally determine the ſame; and in caſe the judgment ſhall be affirmed, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtices to award the perſon to pay coſts occaſioned by ſuch appeal. ſ. 18.

If any perſon ſummoned as a witneſs, ſhall neglect or refuſe to appear, without reaſonable excuſe, to be allowed of by ſuch juſtice, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 10*l.* ſterling, to be levied as before directed as to other penalties. ſ. 19.

The ſaid juſtice, where he ſees cauſe, may mitigate ſuch penalties, reaſonable coſts being always allowed over ſuch mitigation, and ſo as ſuch mitigation do not reduce the penalties to leſs than one moiety of the penalties above the coſts; and no ſuch conviction ſhall be removed by certiorari into any court whatſoever. ſ. 20.

Perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 21.

Juriſdictions.

By 20 Geo. 2. c. 43. All heretable juriſdictions of juſticiary, and all regalities and heretable baillieries, and all heretable conſtabularies, other than the office of high conſtable of Scotland, and all ſtewartries, being parts only of counties, and all ſheriffſhips and deputy-ſheriffſhips of diſtricts, being parts only of counties within Scotland, belonging unto or poſſeſſed by any ſubject, and all juriſdictions and privileges thereunto appurtenant, ſhall be after the 25th of March 1748, totally diſſolved. ſ. 1.

All lands annexed or belonging to the ſaid heretable baillieries, ſtewartries, and conſtabularies, hereby diſſolved, and the rents and duties payable to the poſſeſſors of the ſaid heretable baillieries, &c. ſhall remain with them their heirs and ſucceſſors. ſ. 2.

All juriſdictions and powers belonging to any ſuch juſticiary, regalities, baillieries, conſtabularies, ſtewartries, ſheriffships, and deputy-ſheriffships, ſhall be veſted in the court of ſeſſion, court of juſticiary at Edinburgh, the judges in the circuits, and the courts of the ſheriffs, and ſtewarts of ſhires or counties, and other of the king's courts in Scotland, reſpectively, to which ſuch juriſdictions, &c. would have belonged in caſe ſuch juſticiary, &c. had never been granted; and the ſeveral towns, places, and bounds, ſubject to ſuch juſticiary, &c. and the inhabitants within the ſame, ſhall be ſubject to ſuch of the king's court as aforeſaid reſpectively, in the ſame manner as they would have been in caſe ſuch juſticiary, &c. had never exiſted. ſ. 3.

All ſheriffships of any county, and all ſtewartries not hereby extinguiſhed, within Scotland, granted unto or poſſeſſed by any ſubject either heretably or for life, and all juriſdictions or privileges thereunto belonging, ſhall be reſumed and annexed to the crown; and the ſheriffs and ſtewarts of ſuch counties and ſtewartries ſhall be nominated by his majeſty. ſ. 4.

No ſheriffship or ſtewartry, of any county or diſtrict within Scotland, ſhall hereafter be granted to any perſon, either heretably or for life, or for any term exceeding one year; and no juſticiary, regality, conſtabulary, or baillierie, nor any juriſdiction or immunity of the like kind within Scotland, ſhall hereafter be created or granted, but all grants of any of the premiſes contrary to the meaning of this act ſhall be void. ſ. 5.

Reaſonable ſatisfaction ſhall be made, out of the next aids to be granted in parliament, for every ſuch juſticiary, &c. hereby diſſolved or reſumed to the crown, to all perſons lawfully poſſeſſed of any ſuch juſticiary, &c. and to every clerk thereof, who was on the 11th of November 1746, lawfully poſſeſſed for life of his clerkſhip, in caſe ſuch office be neceſſarily extinguiſhed in conſequence of this act. ſ. 6.

All perſons lawfully poſſeſſed of any ſuch juſticiary, &c. or clerkſhip, ſhall, on or before the 11th of November 1747, enter their claims thereto in the court of ſeſſion in Scotland; and all ſuch claims, with the titles or vouchers, ſhall be given out in the uſual manner to his majeſty's advocate for Scotland, or his deputy, or to his majeſty's ſolicitor-general there, who are to appear on behalf of his majeſty to defend againſt all ſuch claims, as they find cauſe to oppoſe, either in reſpect of the validity of the claimant's title, or of the value; and the court of ſeſſion ſhall, in a ſummary way, examine the ſeveral titles; and in caſe they find any perſon to have been lawfully poſſeſſed of any ſuch juſticiary, &c. or clerkſhip, they ſhall declare their opinion touching the value, and cauſe all ſuch opinions to be entered in a roll, and make certificates thereof to his majeſty in his privy council, copies of which ſhall be laid before both houſes of parliament. ſ. 7.

The court of ſeſſion ſhall be empowered to meet and proceed on all ſuch claims in the times of vacation, and on Monday as well as other days, during the time of ſeſſion; and the ſaid court is to ſit for the purpoſes aforeſaid, during the whole month of March next after the ſaid 11th of November, unleſs they ſooner have diſcuſſed the matters hereby directed. ſ. 8.

The ſaid court ſhall compel the production of all books and writings relating to the matters which they are hereby empowered to determine, and examine any perſons upon oath concerning the ſame. ſ. 9.

Where any ſuch heretable juſticiary, &c. is ſubject to any ſtrict tailzie affected with irritant and reſolutive or prohibitive clauſes, or ſo ſettled or incumbered that the poſſeſſor cannot alien the ſame, the money allowed for the value ſhall, by order of the court of ſeſſion, be laid out in the purchaſe of lands or heretages within Scotland, which ſhall be ſettled to the ſame uſes, and under the ſame limitations, for the benefit of ſuch perſons, and in the ſame courſe of ſucceſſion, and ſubject to the ſame incumbrances, to which ſuch heretable juſticiary was ſettled or ſubject. ſ. 10.

In ſuch caſes, and where the entailed eſtate is ſubject to any debts of the maker of the entail, or other debts effectual to charge the eſtate, not being contracted by the preſent proprietor, it ſhall be lawful to apply the money for paying off ſuch debts, and the reſidue only ſhall be laid out in the purchaſe of other lands or heretages. ſ. 11.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon having any eſtate, right, or intereſt, in any ſuch juſticiary, &c. either in poſſeſſion or expectancy, and for any heir or ſubſtitute in any tailzie, or for any guardian, tutor, curator, or truſtee, on behalf of any infant, ideot, or lunatic, or for any mortgagee or incumbrancer, to enter his claim in manner before directed, and to petition the court of ſeſſion for directions for laying out ſuch money in the purchaſe of lands or heretages; and the ſaid court are to proceed in a ſummary way, and give directions thereupon; and until ſuch directions ſhall be given, the money allowed for the value of ſuch juſticiary, &c. ſhall be paid unto and remain in either of the banks of Scotland. ſ. 12.

Every perſon who ſhall omit to enter his claim within the time and in the manner before directed, ſhall be excluded from the ſatisfaction hereby provided. ſ. 13.

All ſuits, decrees, and proceedings, of any court hereby diſſolved, which were depending, pronounced, or had, before the ſaid 25th of March, ſhall be of the ſame force and in the ſame condition, as if this act had not been made; and all records and entries of any ſuch ſuits, &c. relating to any civil or criminal cauſe, in any ſuch court, ſhall, on or before the 24th of June 1748, be tranſmitted by the poſſeſſor of any ſuch juſticiary, &c. to the courts of the reſpective ſheriffs or ſtewarts of counties, and there kept amongſt the records, which courts ſhall proceed thereupon, as if the ſaid civil or criminal cauſes had been commenced originally in ſuch courts; and the regiſter books of hornings, inhibitions, and interdictions, heretofore kept in any baillieries of royalty or regality, or ſtewartries hereby abrogated, ſhall, on or before the ſaid 24th of June, be tranſmitted to the general regiſter houſe at Edinburgh. ſ. 14.

Every act or grant whereby any lands lying anciently within one ſhire in Scotland were diſunited from the ſame and annexed to another ſhire, to which they were not adjacent, ſhall be repealed, with reſpect to the juriſdiction of the ſheriffs or ſtewarts courts; and ſuch lands ſhall, with reſpect to ſuch juriſdiction only, be reſtored or annexed to the ſhire within which they locally lie; and ſuch lands interjected between two ſhires ſhall be annexed to the ſhire to the head borough of which they are neareſt adjacent. ſ. 15.

This reſtitution ſhall not alter the right of voting for members of parliament in reſpect of ſuch lands, or the payment of the ceſs or land tax. ſ. 16.

After the ſaid 25th of March 1748, no heretor or proprietor of lands in Scotland, erected into a barony, or granted with lower juriſdiction, or their baillies, ſhall by virtue thereof have any juriſdiction in capital caſes; and no ſuch baron or other heretor infeofft cum curiis, or their baillies, ſhall by virtue thereof have any juriſdiction in any criminal criminal cauſe, other than aſſaults, batteries, and ſmaller crimes, for which the puniſhment ſhall be by a fine not exceeding 20 s. ſterling, or by ſetting the delinquent in the ſtocks for any time not exceeding three hours, in the day-time; which fine ſhall be levied by diſtreſs or poynding of the goods of the delinquent, and in default of ſuch diſtreſs, by impriſonment of his perſon for any time not exceeding one month; and as to civil cauſes, it ſhall not be lawful for any ſuch baron or heretor, or their baillies, to judge in any cauſe where the debt or damages exceed 40 s. ſterling, other than for recovering their mails and duties, rents and profits, multures or mill-ſervices. ſ. 17.

Every baron or heretor of lands in Scotland, having any criminal juriſdiction not hereby taken away, ſhall enter in a book, to be kept by the ſheriff clerk of the county, the place provided for a priſon; and every ſuch priſon ſhall have windows or grates open to inſpection from without, and every baron or heretor ſhall for every offence againſt this act forfeit 20 l. ſterling, with coſts, to the party injured; and all ſheriffs ſtewarts or their deputies in Scotland, ſhall inſpect ſuch priſons, and diſallow the ſame, in caſe they appear grievous or unhealthy, or not agreeable to this act. ſ. 18.

No perſon ſhall be committed to priſon for cuſtody in order to trial, for any aſſaults, batteries, or ſmaller crimes, without a warrant in writing, expreſſing the cauſe for which ſuch perſon is impriſoned; which ſhall be entered at large in a book; and extracts thereof ſhall be tranſmitted every ſix months to the ſheriff or ſtewart's court there to remain on record. ſ. 19.

It ſhall be lawful for every heretor and proprietor of lands in Scotland entitled to any fair or market, to exerciſe ſuch juriſdiction as is competent to him by law, for preſerving the peace, determining controverſies, and reſtraining riots or diſorders which may ariſe within ſuch fair or market. ſ. 20.

Every heretor or proprietor of lands in Scotland within which any coal works, ſalt works, or mines ſhall be carried on, may exerciſe ſuch juriſdiction as is competent to him by law over his colliers, ſalters, or miners. ſ. 21.

The juriſdiction hereby reſerved to the propriets of fairs or markets, and of coal works, ſalt works, and mines, ſhall not extend to any juriſdiction in caſes inferring the loſs of life or demembration. ſ. 22.

No baillie or other perſon ſhall officiate as judge in any baron's or other court for executing ſuch juriſdiction as aforeſaid, without firſt taking the oaths appointed to be taken by perſons in offices of public truſt, and cauſing a certificate of his having done ſo to be regiſtered by the clerks of the ſhires, ſtewartries, or burghs, where he reſides; and every perſon ſo offending therein, being convicted before two juſtices of peace or other judge competent ſummarily, ſhall forfeit 10 l. ſterling; one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety to the informer; and ſhall ſuffer impriſonment for ſix months, unleſs or until the ſame be paid. ſ. 23.

All perſons lawfully poſſeſſed on the ſaid 25th of March 1748, of any juſticiary or other juriſdiction hereby abrogated, ſhall retain ſuch juriſdiction of barony or lower juriſdiction, as they would have been intitled to in caſe ſuch juſticiary or other juriſdiction abrogated had never exiſted; ſuch lower juriſdiction being always ſubject to the regulations hereby enacted. ſ. 24.

No patent or grant by his majeſty or the barons of the exchequer in Scotland, after the 6th of June 1747, for erecting any lands in Scotland into a barony, lordſhip, or earldom, or under any other denomination, or for annexing any lands in Scotland to any barony, &c. heretofore erected, ſhall be ſufficient to convey to the grantee or any other perſon, any greater or other juriſdiction than for recovering the mails and duties or rents and profits thereof or the multures or mill-ſervices; and all patents and grants contrary to the meaning of this act ſhall be void. ſ. 25.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to take away or prejudice any juriſdiction or privilege competent to any royal borough in Scotland. ſ. 26.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to take away or prejudice any juriſdiction or privilege competent to any burgh of regality, or of barony, in Scotland, or to the magiſtrates of any ſuch burgh reſpectively, which are independent of the lord of regality or baron, except any power of repledging from the ſheriff's or ſtewart's court or any other of the king's courts; and the juriſdiction hereby reſerved to ſuch corporation or community or the magiſtrates thereof ſhall be cumulative only. ſ. 27.

In the execution of poyndings in Scotland, it ſhall be lawful for the officer to carry the goods poynded, or ſamples thereof in ſuch caſes where the carrying of ſamples is practiſed, to the market croſs of that royal burgh, or burgh of regality, or barony (as well ſuch whereof the juriſdiction is hereby abrogated or regulated, as thoſe whereof the juriſdiction is ſaved entire) which lie neareſt to the place where ſuch poynding was inchoated, which ſhall be as ſufficient as if ſuch goods or ſamples had been carried to the head burgh of the ſhire. ſ. 28.

There ſhall be but one ſheriff depute, or ſtewart depute, in every county, ſhire, or ſtewartry in Scotland, not hereby taken away, and he ſhall be an advocate of three years ſtanding at the leaſt, and ſhall for ſeven years, from the ſaid 25th of March, be appointed by his majeſty, by warrant under his ſign manual, with ſuch continuance as his majeſty ſhall think fit; [the time is enlarged for 15 years more by 28 Geo. 2. c. 7.] and after the end of the ſaid ſeven years, the offices of ſheriff depute, and ſtewart depute, ſhall be granted and held ad vitam aut culpam only, with competent ſalaries for the time of their continuance; and every ſuch ſheriff depute, or ſtewart depute, ſhall have power to nominate one or more ſubſtitutes throughout the whole county or ſtewartry, or within ſuch diſtricts as ſhall be expreſſed in the commiſſion of ſuch ſubſtitute, during his pleaſure, for whom he ſhall be anſwerable; and ſuch ſubſtitutes are to take and ſubſcribe, in ſuch ſheriffs or ſtewarts courts the oaths appointed to be taken by perſons in offices of public truſt, to be there recorded before they enter upon their offices; and it ſhall be lawful for all ſheriffs depute, and ſtewarts depute, and their ſubſtitutes, to hold their courts at any time in the year, without any diſpenſation from the court of ſeſſion, and not only to hold the ſtated courts at their head boroughs, but alſo itinerant courts, at ſuch times and places within their juriſdictions as they judge expedient, or as they ſhall be directed by his majeſty, by warrant under his ſign manual; which ſheriffs depute, or ſtewarts depute, are to cauſe notice to be given, within a reaſonable time before ſuch itinerant courts be held, at the ſeveral pariſh courts within the diſtrict for which the ſame are to be ſo held; and every ſuch ſheriff depute, and ſtewart depute, ſhall reſide perſonally within his county or ſtewartry during four months at leaſt in the year; and it ſhall not be lawful for any ſheriff depute, or ſtewart depute, to adviſe, plead, or otherwiſe act as an advocate, before any of the king's courts at Edinburgh, or at the circuit courts, in any cauſe civil or criminal, ariſing within, or coming from his county, or ſtewartry; and in caſe any ſuch ſheriff depute, or ſtewart depute, ſhall not ſo reſide, or

ſhall ſo adviſe, plead, or otherwiſe act as an advocate, or be guilty of any groſs miſbehaviour or neglect of duty, being convicted upon a ſummary trial before the court of ſeſſion, at the ſuit of his majeſty's advocate, or of any four freeholders entitled to vote in elections of members of parliament for ſuch county or ſtewartry, he ſhall be deprived of his office. ſ. 29.

It ſhall not be lawful for any principal, or high ſheriff, or ſtewart, in Scotland, perſonally to judge in any caſe, civil or criminal, within his ſhire or ſtewartry, in virtue of ſuch his office. ſ. 30.

After the ſaid 25th of March 1748, the circuit courts ſhall be held twice in every year, within Scotland, and the judges thereof ſhall continue ſix days at leaſt at each town or place where the circuit courts ſhall be held. ſ. 31.

It ſhall be lawful for any one of the judges in ſuch circuit courts to diſpatch buſineſs whenever it ſhall happen that his colleague ſhall, through indiſpoſition, or other neceſſary avocation, be abſent, and the juſtice general not be preſent. ſ. 32.

The ſhire of Argyll, and all the places and bounds ſubject to the juriſdiction of the juſticiary belonging to the duke of Argyll, ſhall be deemed within the limits of the weſtern circuit, or of ſuch circuit in Scotland as ſhall be appointed by his majeſty, purſuant to the power herein after mentioned; and the burgh of Inverary ſhall be the place where the circuit court ſhall be held twice in the year for the ſhires of Argyll and Bute. ſ. 33.

It ſhall be lawful for any party conceiving himſelf aggrieved by any interlocutor, decree, or ſentence, of the ſheriff's or ſtewart's court of any county or ſtewartry, or of the courts of any royal borough, or burgh of regality or barony, or of any court of any baron, or other heretor having ſuch juriſdiction as is not hereby taken away, in matters criminal, not inferring the loſs of life or demembration, or in matters civil, not exceeding 12 l. ſterling, to appeal to the next circuit court wherein ſuch court lies, ſo as no ſuch appeal be competent before a final decree pronounced; and ſuch appeal the party aggrieved may take and enter in open court at the time of pronouncing ſuch decree, or within ten days after, by lodging the ſame in the hands of the clerk of court, and ſerving the adverſe party with a duplicate perſonally, or at his dwelling-houſe, or his procurator or agent in the cauſe, and ſerving in like manner the inferior judge in caſe the appeal contain any concluſion againſt him; and ſuch ſervice ſhall be ſufficient ſummons to oblige the reſpondents to attend and anſwer, at the next circuit which ſhall happen 15 days at leaſt after ſuch ſervice; and the judges at ſuch circuit courts ſhall cognoſce and determine any ſuch appeal by the like rules as the court of ſeſſion, or court of juſticiary, reſpectively, may now cognoſce and determine in ſuſpenſions of the interlocutors, decrees, or ſentences, of ſuch inferior courts; but the ſaid circuit court ſhall proceed therein in a ſummary way; and if they find the reaſons of any ſuch appeal not to be relevant, or not inſtructed, or determine againſt the party appealing, they ſhall condemn the appellant in ſuch coſts as they think proper to be paid to the other party, not exceeding the real coſts bona fide expended; and their decree ſhall be final. ſ. 34.

So much of this act as relates to appeals in civil cauſes to the circuit courts as aforeſaid, ſhall be in force for ten years from the ſaid 25th of March 1748, and to the end of the then next ſeſſion of parliament. ſ. 35. Made perpetual by 31 Geo. 2. c. 42. ſ. 7.

Wherever ſuch appeal ſhall be brought, ſuch complainer, at the time he enters his appeal, ſhall lodge in the hands of the clerk of court from which the appeal is taken, a bond, with a ſufficient cautioner for abiding by the judgment of the circuit court, and for paying the coſts, if any be awarded; and the clerk of court ſhall be anſwerable for the ſufficiency of ſuch cautioner. ſ. 36.

In caſe ſuch circuit court in proceeding upon ſuch appeal find any ſuch difficulty to ariſe that they cannot proceed to the determination of the ſame, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch circuit court to certify ſuch appeal, together with the reaſons of ſuch difficulty, and the proceedings thereupon, to the court of ſeſſion, or court of juſticiary, reſpectively; which courts are to proceed in and determine the ſame. ſ. 37.

The act of parliament made in Scotland in 1663, intituled, Act anent the diſcharging of advocations for ſums within 200 merks, ſhall be extended to all advocations in cauſes not exceeding the value of 12 l. ſterling. ſ. 38.

It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty, by an order in his privy council, to make a new diviſion of the circuits in Scotland, and to appoint what counties, ſtewartries, places, and bounds, ſhall be comprehended within any ſuch circuit, and at what times and places the circuit courts ſhall be held for ever after; and ſuch order ſhall be obeyed; and the judges in ſuch new circuits ſhall have the ſame juriſdiction and powers, as in the circuits already eſtabliſhed in Scotland. ſ. 39.

Circuit courts ſhall continue to be held at the towns appointed by an act of parliament in the year 1672, intituled, Act concerning the regulation of the judicatories, or by this act, but without prejudice to the power hereby veſted in his majeſty, to diminiſh, augment, or alter the diſtricts, for which ſuch circuit court ſhall be held purſuant to the proviſion herein before made; and the court of ſeſſion in Scotland is to take into their conſideration what fees ſhall be paid to the clerks or other officers in the circuit courts, or in the courts of ſheriffs or ſtewarts in civil cauſes, and regulate the ſame by act of ſederunt on or before the ſaid 25th of March 1748; and the court of juſticiary ſhall in like manner take into their conſideration what fees ſhall be paid to the clerks or other officers in the circuit courts, or in the ſheriffs or ſtewarts courts, in criminal cauſes, and regulate the ſame by act of journal, on or before the ſaid 25th of March. ſ. 40.

So much of the fourth act of the parliament of Scotland held in the year 1695, intituled, Act anent the juſtice court, as directs, that after the debate of the relevancy is ended, the king's advocate or procurators for the purſuer, and for the pannel, reſpectively, ſhall give in to the clerk informations in writing, to be recorded in the books of adjournal, to be read in open court at adviſing, is hereby repealed; and in place thereof, and of the ancient uſe in that court, of advocates or procurators dictating, and the clerks writing the debate on the relevancy, (which uſe is by the ſaid act diſcharged), the pannel ſhall give in to the clerk the day before trial, in writing ſubſcribed by the pannel or one of his procurators, ſuch account of the facts relating to the matters charged upon him, and thereto briefly ſubjoin the heads of ſuch objections or defences as he thinks fit to make at his trial; and after the debate on the relevancy viva voce, the minutes whereof ſhall be made up in the ſame manner in the juſticiary court at Edinburgh, as is now practiſed at the circuit courts, or in the court of ſeſſion, it ſhall be lawful for the court to pronounce their interlocutor upon the relevancy, and to proceed to the trial, or to adjourn their interlocutor upon the relevancy, or the trial, to a further day, as they ſee cauſe. ſ. 41.

Provided,

Provided, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid court of juſticiary, in the trial of any crimes other than high treaſon, to direct by a ſpecial order in ſuch caſes as for their difficulty or importance appear to require ſuch direction, that informations in writing be given in by the procurators for the purſuer, and the pannel, reſpectively, in any part of the trial, or upon any matters alleged for the pannel before judgment. ſ. 42.

No fines, forfeitures, or penalties, impoſed in the ſheriff's or ſtewart's court in Scotland, ſhall belong to the ſheriff or ſtewart, or any ſheriff depute or ſtewart depute; but all ſhares of ſuch fines, &c. as heretofore went to the judge, ſhall belong to his majeſty, and ſhall be accounted for and paid into the exchequer of Edinburgh; and the like proceſs and rules ſhall be iſſued and obſerved for levying any penalties due to his majeſty; and no fees, poundage, or profits, called ſentence money, ſhall be taken by any ſheriff or ſtewart, ſheriff depute or ſtewart depute, or any of their officers, or clerks. ſ. 43.

By 21 Geo. 2. c. 19. Until a new diſtribution of the circuits in Scotland be made in purſuance of 20 Geo. 2. c. 43. ſ. 39. the judges appointed to hold the circuit courts in Dumfreis and Jedburgh, ſhall likewiſe be appointed to hold the circuit court at Air, which ſhall be deemed within the limits of the ſouthern circuit, until ſuch new diſtribution of the circuits. ſ. 13.

By 28 Geo. 2. c. 7. So much of 20 Geo. 2. c. 43. as enacts, that after the end of ſeven years from the 25th of March 1748, the offices of ſheriff depute and ſtewart depute, ſhall be held ad vitam aut culpam, ſhall be repealed; and the ſheriff deputes, and ſtewart deputes, already named or to be named, ſhall, during the ſpace of 15 years from the expiration of the ſaid ſeven years, hold their reſpective offices, for ſuch continuances as his majeſty hath or ſhall think fit to appoint by warrant under his ſign manual, and from the end of the ſaid 15 years, the offices of ſheriff depute, and ſtewart depute, ſhall be granted and held ad vitam aut culpam only, with competent ſalaries.

Juſticiary.

By 8 Ann. c. 16. No perſon ſhall be obliged to attend the lords of juſticiary, either in going to or coming from the places where the circuit courts are held, except the ſheriff, or his deputies, and their officers; and no ſheriff, or his officers, ſhall be obliged to attend out of the bounds of the county, except at the place, and during the time, where the ſeveral circuit courts of the reſpective diſtricts ſhall be held. ſ. 1.

No perſon ſhall be obliged to attend where the circuit court is held, except perſons ſummoned upon any grand or petty jury, or who ſhall be ſummoned or bound to give evidence, or who ſhall be bound over to appear at ſuch juſtice court, or ſuch perſons as ſhall make preſentments in order to trials before the juſtices at their circuits: provided, that when preſentments are made by the juſtices of peace at their quarter ſeſſions, or at the yearly meetings in July and February, it ſhall be lawful to the juſtices to depute of their number to attend in place of the whole; and except ſuch other perſons, who by the duty of their offices or truſts are bound to attend the ſaid court. ſ. 2.

The method of taking up dittay, and exhibiting information, by the ſtreſs and porteous roll, ſhall be aboliſhed. ſ. 3.

Informations in order to making up of dittays, concerning crimes to be tried in the circuits in Scotland, ſhall be by preſentments to be made by the juſtices of peace at their quarter ſeſſions, or upon informations to be taken by the ſheriffs, ſtewarts, baillies of regalities, and their deputies, magiſtrates of boroughs, or other inferior judges and magiſtrates, concerning ſuch crimes as are to be tried before the lords of juſticiary in their circuits in July and February yearly; and the ſaid juſtices of peace, at leaſt two of them, are required to meet at the head burgh of the reſpective ſhires, at the ordinary place of meeting, upon the 21ſt days of July and February yearly, or on the next lawful day, to receive informations concerning matters criminal to be tried in the circuits, and to reviſe ſuch informations as have been taken before the ſaid meetings, by juſtices of peace, otherwiſe than at their quarter meetings; and the ſaid ſheriffs, ſtewarts, baillies of regalities, and their deputies, magiſtrates of boroughs, and other inferior judges and magiſtrates reſpectively, ſhall meet upon the 22d days of July and February yearly, &c. to receive informations concerning matters criminal, to be tried in the circuits; and the ſaid juſtices, ſheriffs, ſtewarts, bailies of regalities, and their deputies, magiſtrates of burghs, and other inferior judges and magiſtrates, are required to make up accounts of ſuch criminal facts happening within their bounds, as are to be tried before the circuits, containing the names and deſignation of the offenders, the facts committed, with the circumſtances of time, place, and others that may ſerve to diſcover the truth; containing alſo the names and deſignations of the witneſſes, and titles of ſuch writs as are to be made uſe of at the trials; which informations are to be ſigned by the juſtices and their clerk, or by the ſheriffs, ſtewarts, baillies of regalities, or their deputies and clerks, or by magiſtrates of boroughs, or other inferior judges or magiſtrates and their clerks reſpectively; and the clerks are alſo required to tranſmit the ſame, together with ſuch writs or other evidence as are to be made uſe of in the trials, to the lord juſtice clerk, or his deputies at Edinburgh, 40 days before the holding of the circuit courts; that being given to her majeſty's advocate, libels and indictments may be raiſed and executed againſt parties, aſſiſers, and witneſſes. ſ. 4.

The magiſtrates of ſuch cities and boroughs, where the circuit courts are held, ſhall be obliged to attend the lords of juſticiary, during their abode in their reſpective cities and boroughs; and prepare convenient places for the juſtices of peace to ſit at the ſaid courts; who are to have the ſame privileges in court, as the juſtices of peace enjoy in England. ſ. 5.

Nothing in this act ſhall reſtrain her majeſty's advocate, in her majeſty's name, or any perſon, to inform and proſecute any criminal action or cauſe before the circuit court, in the ſame way as is in uſe before the juſticiary court at Edinburgh; or alter the method of returning jurymen or aſſiſers by the ſheriffs, upon precepts. ſ. 6.

By 10 Ann. c. 33. The circuit courts in Scotland ſhall be kept only once in the year, in April or May; and the circuit courts formerly appointed to be kept in October ſhall ceaſe; except when it ſhall pleaſe her majeſty by proclamation to be iſſued in the month of July preceding, to order the ſaid circuit courts for the October following, to be kept at all or any of the places mentioned in an act of parliament in Scotland, paſſed in the third ſeſſion of the ſecond parliament of king Charles II.

By 23 Geo. 3. c. 45. made perpetual by 27 Geo. 3. c. 18. Court of juſticiary ſhall determine how long the judges ſhall remain in each circuit town. ſ. 1.

All trials begun before the limited time is elapſed, ſhall be finiſhed. ſ. 2.

Altera-

Alteration introduced by act 21 Geo. 2. c. 29. having been found to be beneficial, the court of juſticiary, and circuit courts, may try cauſes for capital in the ſame manner as thoſe for leſs crimes. ſ. 3.

If in the trial of any of the crimes which may infer the puniſhment of death, or demembration, it ſhall appear to the judges more expedient to take down into writing the teſtimony of the witneſſes, according to the preſent practice, it ſhall be lawful for them to proceed in that manner. ſ. 4.

Council, or priſoner, may interrogate witneſſes. ſ. 5.

Not to alter form of trials for high treaſon, &c. ſ. 6.

Three judges of the court of juſticiary to be a quorum, during the ſittings of the court of ſeſſion. ſ. 7.

Linen.

By 10 Ann. c. 21. All ſorts of linen cloth made in Scotland, ſhall be made of well ſorted yarn for each piece, and equally wrought and fine from one end to the other; and all linen cloth ſhall be made by the ſtandard yard-wand, of the lengths and breadths following, each piece called Saint Johnſtons cloth, when brown or green, and all other plain brown or green linen cloth made for whitening, ſhall be full yard and nail, or three quarters of a yard and nail, that when whitened, it ſhall be full yard or full three quarters in breadth; and all other ſorts of plain linen cloth, whether white, brown, or green, ſhall be full yard, or full three quarters of a yard in breadth; and every ſuch piece of plain brown or green linen cloth ſhall be in length 84 yards, the half piece 42 yards, the quarter piece 21 yards; and every piece of plain white linen cloth ſhall be in length 40 yards, the half piece 20 yards: and all linen checks ſhall be made yard and half quarter, or full yard, or full three quarters in breadth; and all ſtriped linen cloth ſhall be made full yard and quarter, or full yard, or full three quarters in breadth; and all linen for neckcloths ſhall be made the piece to contain twelve neckcloths, the half piece to contain ſix neckcloths; and all ſorts of ticking ſhall be made full yard, or full three quarters in breadth; and all white, brown, or green, linen cloth, ſhall be ſold in the water fold, or in folds of one yard or half yard in each fold of length, and not rolled or battered. ſ. 1.

If any perſon ſhall make any of the aforeſaid linen cloth, otherways than according to the lengths and breadths aforeſaid, and with well ſorted yarn, and equally wrought and fine from one end to the other, ſuch perſon being thereof convicted by the oath of any overſeer or ſearcher of linen cloth, appointed within the boroughs royal, counties, ſtewartries, boroughs of regalities and barony, in Scotland, or by the oath of two witneſſes before any juſtice of peace, magiſtrate, or other judge competent, ſhall, for every inch in the breadths, and for every half a quarter, the three quarters yard and nail plain cloth ſhall exceed the ſaid breadths, forfeit 5*s.* and for every yard, the ſaid white, brown, or green, plain linen cloth, ſhall be leſs in length than the ſaid lengths, ſhall forfeit 5*s.*; and for every piece of linen cloth that is not made of well ſorted yarn, and equally wrought and fine, from one end to the other, ſhall forfeit 5*s.*; and if any perſon ſhall buy or expoſe to ſale, or bring to any place in order for ſale, any of the aforeſaid cloth, not being made of well ſorted yarn, equally wrought and fine, and of the lengths, breadths, and foldings aforeſaid, ſuch perſons being convicted in any time not exceeding ſix months after the time of ſale, &c. ſhall forfeit for each piece 5*s.* ſ. 2.

Every owner of linen cloth made in Scotland, before expoſing the ſame to ſale, ſhall bring the ſame to any borough royal, or place where ſtamps are kept, and there receive the ſtamp of the place; for which ſtamp the ſtamp maſter ſhall be paid for each piece one penny, the half piece halfpenny, the quarter piece one farthing; and if any perſon ſhall expoſe to ſale, or carry to the water ſide, in order for exporting, any linen cloth before the ſtamp is affixed, or not made as aforeſaid, ſuch perſon being convicted as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit for each piece 5*s.* ſ. 3.

The magiſtrates of each borough royal in Scotland ſhall be empowered to cauſe make a ſtamp bearing the arms of the boroughs, and to appoint a perſon for inſpecting and ſtamping linen cloth of the lengths, breadths, and qualities aforeſaid; which perſons ſhall, before their admiſſion to that office, take an oath de fideli, and likewiſe find ſurety for the faithful adminiſtration, for ſuch ſum as the magiſtrates ſhall appoint; and the juſtices of peace in their counties and ſtewartries, are empowered at their quarterly ſeſſions in Scotland, to appoint ſtamps to be kept at ſome places where linen cloth is ſold; and the juſtices are empowered to appoint perſons for ſtamping of linen cloth, who ſhall take an oath de fideli, and likewiſe find ſuch ſurety as the juſtices ſhall appoint: and no ſtamp maſter ſhall buy or diſpoſe of any linen cloth, or ſhall ſtamp any linen, that is not made of well ſorted yarn, equally wrought, and of equal fineneſs from one end to the other, and of the breadths and foldings aforeſaid, and not rolled or battered; he ſo neglecting or offending, ſhall forfeit for each piece of linen cloth 5*s.* and be made incapable of ſerving in any ſuch office for the future: and if any perſon in Scotland ſhall buy, export or tranſport, or carry to the water ſide, in order to be exported, any linen cloth of Scotland, before the ſtamp be fixed, he, being convicted in Scotland, ſhall for each piece forfeit 5*s.*; and if any perſon ſhall affix or counterfeit any ſtamp without authority, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 50*l.* or one year's impriſonment, if inſolvent. ſ. 4.

If any perſon ſhall make uſe of any lime or pigeons dung, for whitening or bleaching any linen cloth, and be thereof convicted by oath of two witneſſes, or by the oath of the offender, and before any judge competent in Scotland, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit for each piece of linen ſo bleached, 20*s.*; and if any offender ſhall, being convict, neglect to pay any forfeiture incurred by this act, it ſhall be lawful for the magiſtrate or juſtice before whom ſuch conviction ſhall be, to iſſue warrants to the conſtables or officers of the place where ſuch offender doth inhabit, or can be found, within the limits of their juriſdictions, to levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and where no diſtreſs can be found, to commit the offender to the houſe of correction, or gaol of the borough or county, to be kept at hard labour for ſuch time as the judge ſhall direct, not exceeding 12 months; and all forfeitures by this act ſhall be one half to the informer, and the other half for the poor of the pariſh where the offence is committed. ſ. 5.

Provided, that all retailers and pedlars may retail any ſort of linen cloth, being made of the breadths, well ſorted yarn, and equally wrought and fine in each piece, and having always the ſtamp affixed. ſ. 7.

By 12 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 20. All ſorts of Dornick, towelling, or plain linen cloth, made in Scotland, ſhall be of well ſorted yarn for each piece, and equally wrought and equally fine, from one end of the piece to the other, and ſhall be, by the ſtandard yard-wand, of the lengths and breadths following, that each piece of broad double or ſingle Dornick table cloths ſhall be in length twelve yards and a quarter, the half piece ſix yards and one eighth, and ſhall be full two yards in breadth; and each piece of double or ſingle Dornick for naprie or towelling ſhall be 24 yards, and the half piece twelve yards in length, and ſhall be full three quarters or full half yard in breadth, and each quarter piece of plain white linen cloth ſhall be ten yards in length, and full yard, or full three quarters, or full half yard, in breadth. ſ. 1.

Every perſon offending contrary to this act ſhall forfeit 5*s.* for every yard of cloth; and the offences ſhall be examinable and determinable as the penalty of 5*s.* in the ſaid former act 10 Ann. c. 21. ſ. 2.

By 13 Geo. 1. c. 26. No perſon ſhall import into Scotland any bad, mixed, or damnified, lintſeed or hempſeed; but all lintſeed or hempſeed imported, of the growth of the Netherlands, Ruſſia, Livonia, Poland, Germany, and other places, ſhall be freſh, good, and clean, without mixture. ſ. 1.

No perſon ſhall expoſe to ſale in Scotland, any mixed or damnified lintſeed or hempſeed, or ſhort lintſeed; and no perſon ſhall mix lintſeed or hempſeed of different countries or growths; and every perſon who ſhall ſell any lintſeed or hempſeed in Scotland, ſhall, together with the parcel, deliver to the buyer, in writing, an account of the parcel, expreſſing the quantity thereof, the place from whence the ſame was imported, and where it grew, and the year of its growth. ſ. 2.

Every perſon who ſhall ſell, or expoſe to ſale, bad, ſhort, or damnified, lintſeed or hempſeed, or who ſhall mix what is left of the former year, with what is imported in a ſubſequent year, or ſhall mix diſtinct parcels, or who ſhall ſell any of a different growth or age from what he hath expreſſed in the account, ſhall, being convicted, forfeit the lintſeed or hempſeed, or the price thereof; and likewiſe a ſum, not exceeding 5*l.* nor leſs than 50*s.* for every hogſhead: and every perſon who ſhall ſell any lintſeed or hempſeed by any other meaſure than the Linlithgow meaſure ſtreaked, ſhall forfeit the meaſure, and a ſum, not exceeding 40*s.* ſ. 3.

No hemp or lint in Scotland ſhall be ſteeped or watered in any bog-hole, peat, moſs, or turf-pit; and no lint or hemp ſhall be ſteeped for two years ſucceſſively in any ſtanding pool, or in any hole or pit with ſtanding water, unleſs ſuch hole or pit is dug near to the ſide of a running river or rivulet; and all perſons ſteeping lint or hemp contrary to the meaning hereof, ſhall for every offence, being convicted, forfeit ſuch lint or hemp. ſ. 4.

No perſon ſhall ſell or expoſe to ſale, or import into Scotland, or tranſport from one part of Scotland to another, any linen yarn, other than ſuch as hath been made up into cuts, and heſps, or hanks, each heſp or hank conſiſting of 12 cuts, and each cut containing 120 threads, and no more; and all yarn contained in the heſp or hank ſhall be lint-yarn only, or tow-yarn, and of the ſame colour and fineneſs; and no tow-yarn and lint-yarn ſhall be mixed together in one hank, and the ſame ſhall be tied up with packthread, and not yarn; and the yarn ſhall be well reeled, and each cut or hank ſhall be ſeparated as it ſhall be reeled; and the uniform ſtandard reel of Scotland ſhall be two yards and a half in circumference; and all perſons who ſhall ſell, or expoſe to ſale, or carry from one part in Scotland to another, any lint or hemp-yarn made up in any other manner, and ſhall be convicted, ſhall forfeit the hank made up of fewer cuts, or in which any cut ſhall be falſely made up, to the informer. ſ. 5.

It ſhall be lawful for any juſtice of peace or magiſtrate, within any borough, or for any perſon authoriſed by warrant of ſuch juſtice or magiſtrate, to enter into any houſe, the doors being open, at all times of the day; and if any reel be there found, other than two yards and an half in circumference, it ſhall be carried before ſuch juſtice or magiſtrate, who are required to deſtroy the ſame. ſ. 6.

It ſhall be lawful for the officers herein-after named, at all times by day, to enter into any warehouſes, rooms, cellars, and other places, made uſe of for keeping or making any linen yarn, and ſeize all ſuch linen yarn as they ſhall find made up contrary to the direction before mentioned, and detain the ſame till it be tried whether ſuch yarn be made contrary to this act; and the ſame is to be tried in the ſame way, and under the ſame penalties, as herein-after directed concerning linen cloths ſeized as made up contrary to this act: and if any perſon ſhall obſtruct the officers from entering ſuch places, or in ſeizing or carrying away ſuch linen yarn, he ſhall forfeit 5*l.* ſ. 7.

No weaver ſhall ſet up as maſter-weaver, till he give ſecurity before a juſtice of peace, or magiſtrate within any borough, under ſuch penalties as the juſtice or magiſtrate ſhall think fit, that neither he, nor any perſon to be employed by him, ſhall weave any linen cloth for ſale, otherwiſe than according to this act; and if any perſon ſhall ſet up as maſter-weaver, without giving ſuch ſecurity, and be thereof convicted, he ſhall forfeit every web of linen cloth wrought by him, or the value thereof, for the benefit of the informer, and alſo 5*l.* ſ. 8.

Every weaver of linen cloth ſhall make all the warp of every piece of equal fineneſs, and the woft all of one fineneſs, and proportionable to the warp; and every piece of linen cloth ſhall be of equal fineneſs and thickneſs throughout the whole; and no weaver ſhall put lint and tow yarn in the ſame piece; and if any weaver ſhall weave any piece of linen cloth contrary to the directions aforeſaid, and be thereof convicted, he ſhall forfeit his ſecurity, or ſo much thereof as the juſtice or magiſtrate within any borough, before whom he ſhall be convicted, ſhall direct; and ſhall be diſabled to carry on his trade as a weaver, till he renew his ſecurity. ſ. 9.

If any weaver ſhall neglect to weave any linen yarn delivered to him, into ſuch cloth, and within ſuch time, and in ſuch manner, as was contracted for; or ſhall waſte, embezzle, or damnify, any linen yarn delivered to him, ſuch weaver being convicted, ſhall make good the party's damages, and forfeit to the perſon aggrieved a ſum not exceeding 40*s.* nor leſs than 5*s.* ſ. 10.

All linen cloth made in Scotland ſhall be made and meaſured by the ſtandard yard-wand, and of the ſeveral lengths and breadths following, viz. each piece of plain linen intended to be whitened, ſhall be in breadth, when whitened, full half yard, or five eighths, or three quarters, or ſeven eighths, or full yard, or yard and eighth, or yard and quarter, or yard and half; and all brown or green linen not intended to be whitened, ſhall be in breadth full half yard or five eighths, or three quarters, or ſeven eighths, or full yard, or yard and quarter, or yard and half; and every piece of plain linen cloth whitened, ſhall contain in length, at leaſt twelve yards and an half; and all ſtriped linen cloth ſhall be in breadth full three quarters of a yard, or ſeven eighths, or full yard, or yard and eighth, or yard and quarter; and all ſorts of ticking ſhall be in breadth full five eighths, or three quarters, or ſeven eighths, or full yard; and all checks ſhall be in breadth full three quarters, or ſeven eighths, or full yard, or yard and eighth; and all chequered handkerchiefs made of linen only, or of linen and cotton, or of cotton only, ſhall be in breadth full half yard, or five eighths, or three quarters, or ſeven eighths, and ſhall be of the ſame length with the breadth, that they may be ſquare; and all ſtriped, plain, dropped, or ſpotted, muſlins, when whitened, ſhall be in breadth full three quarters, or ſeven eighths, or full yard, or yard and eighth, or yard and quarter, or yard and half; and all cambricks, when whitened, ſhall be in breadth full five eighths, or three quarters, or ſeven eighths, or full yard, and ſhall not contain leſs in length than ſeven yards and an half; and all muſlins made for aprons, when whitened, ſhall be full yard and eighth in breadth, and the ſame in length; and all muſlin handkerchiefs, when whitened, ſhall be full three quarters, or ſeven eighths, in breadth, and the ſame in length; and all muſlins for neckcloths ſhall, when whitened, be in breadth full half yard, or five eighths, and in length full three quarters, or yard and half, of made cloth; and all ſorts of Bengals made of cotton and linen, ſhall be in breadth full five eighths, or three quarters, or ſeven eighths, or full yard, or yard and ſixteenth, or yard and eighth, or yard and quarter; and each piece of broad double or ſingle Dornick or diaper, made for table cloths, ſhall be full two yards, or two yards and quarter, in breadth; and each piece of whole or double Dornick or diaper, made for table napkins or towelling, ſhall be in breadth full half yard, or five eighths, or three quarters, or ſeven eighths, or full yard; and all dyed yarn, that ſhall be wrought into any chequered linen or handkerchiefs, tickings, or Bengals, ſhall be of a ſufficient dye that will hold in waſhing. ſ. 11.

When any cloth ſhall be offered to be inſpected and ſtamped, the ſtamp-maſter or lapper ſhall, after inſpecting the cloth, meaſure the ſame, and mark upon each end the juſt length, and likewiſe the breadth; and if any piece, which ſhall be offered to be ſtamped as of five eighths of a yard broad, come ſhort of that breadth in any part, it ſhall be marked as of the next lower denomination, viz. half a yard, and ſo of all the other breadths. ſ. 12.

Every weaver ſhall, at the end of every piece of plain brown or white linen cloth, run a courſe coloured thread through every 200 threads of the warp of the cloth, ſo as to diſtinguiſh the number of hundreds of threads in the warp, and another coarſe coloured thread within a quarter of an inch of the former, through every 40 threads of the warp; and if any weaver ſhall omit to weave ſuch threads, or ſhall ſo mark his cloth with a coloured thread, as to make it appear to contain more threads in the breadth than it does, he ſhall, being convicted, forfeit not more than 5*l.* nor leſs than 20*s.* to the informer. ſ. 13.

No perſons ſhall make uſe of lime, pigeons dung, or ſoap dregs, for bleaching or whitening linen cloth, or linen yarn, on pain, on conviction, to forfeit to the informer the linen cloth or yarn ſo whitened or bleached, and alſo 5*l.*; and if the linen or yarn ſhall not be found, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtice of peace, or magiſtrate within any borough, before whom ſuch complaint ſhall be made, to ſet a fine upon the offender, not exceeding 5*l.* ſterling, to be levied together with the former penalty of 5*l.* in the manner herein-after directed; and the offender ſhall alſo be incapable to bleach or whiten any linen cloth or linen yarn, for two years after ſuch conviction. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for one juſtice of peace, or any magiſtrate within any borough, by warrant under his hand, to ſummon the ſervant of any bleacher, or dealer in hempſeed or lintſeed, or any other perſons, to appear before him, and to examine him on oath what he knows of his maſter, or any other perſons, uſing of lime, pigeons dung, or ſoap dregs, in the bleaching of linen cloth or linen yarn, during three months immediately preceding, and of their mixing different parcels of hempſeed or lintſeed together, or of their vending or offering to ſale hempſeed or lintſeed of a different growth, or as imported from a different country from that it really was; and if ſuch perſon ſhall refuſe to appear, the juſtice or magiſtrate may iſſue his warrant to apprehend and bring before him ſuch perſon; and if he ſhall appear, and refuſe to be examined upon oath to the ſaid purpoſes, the juſtice or magiſtrate may commit ſuch offender to the adjacent gaol or tolbooth, till he ſubmit to be examined; the perſon deſiring ſuch oath to be adminiſtered to ſuch ſervant or other perſon, firſt making oath (if required) that he believes the perſon, whom he deſires may be examined, can diſcover ſome breach of this act committed in the ſaid matters; provided, that ſuch perſon ſhall not be liable to any puniſhment for any thing relating to the crime, which he ſhall upon his examination diſcover. ſ. 15.

It ſhall be lawful for all perſons appointed by the truſtees for improving the hempen and linen manufactures, or by any juſtices of peace or magiſtrates, within any borough, by warrant to enter into any bleach-yard, buck-houſe, and places thereto belonging, at any hour of the day, and ſearch all places and boilers therein, and view the lees and refuſe thereof; and if any lime, pigeons dung, or ſoap dregs, have been mixed with the lees, the poſſeſſors of ſuch bleach yards, &c. and the perſons working therein, ſhall incur the penalties. ſ. 16.

The conſtable, who by warrant from any ſuch juſtice and magiſtrate within any borough, ſhall ſeize ſuch cloth or yarn, bleached with lime, pigeons dung, or ſoap dregs, or levy the value thereof, or the penalties in this act, ſhall be allowed by the proſecutor 2*s.* in the pound: and if any conſtable neglect to execute any ſuch warrant, and be convicted thereof, he ſhall forfeit 5*l.* to the proſecutor; and it ſhall be lawful for the perſon aggrieved to complain thereof to any juſtice or magiſtrate; who is to ſummon the perſon concerned before him, and ſummarily to hear and determine the complaint, and iſſue a warrant to any conſtable to levy the ſaid penalty of 5*l.* ſ. 17.

It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty, by letters patent under the great ſeal kept in Scotland, to appoint any number of perſons reſiant in Scotland, not exceeding 21, to be truſtees for overſeeing, directing, and improving, the ſaid linen and hempen manufactures in Scotland, with power to make rules for the improvement of the ſaid manufactures. ſ. 18.

It ſhall be lawful for the truſtees to appoint perſons in ſuch places of Scotland as they ſhall judge convenient, to examine, lap up, and ſtamp, all ſuch linen cloth as ſhall be expoſed to ſale. ſ. 19.

All dealers in linen cloth, before they ſell or expoſe any ſuch cloth to ſale, (if the ſame be white), ſhall, as ſoon as it is whitened and dried, carry it in a waterfold of a yard or half yard to the place where the lapper or ſtamp-maſter ſhall reſide, to be inſpected, marked, lapped up, and ſtamped; and if the lapper or ſtamp-maſter ſhall find ſuch piece of cloth to be of an equal breadth, and to be of equal fineneſs and thickneſs throughout, and to have two coarſe coloured threads worked in the end of the piece, as before directed, and that the number of threads in the warp agrees with the number marked by the two coarſe coloured threads, and to be wrought and whitened purſuant to the rules for regulating the linen manufacture, the lapper and ſtamp-maſter ſhall, upon both ends of the piece, affix a ſeal, with the name of the lapper, and county in which he reſides, or ſuch other impreſſion as the truſtees ſhall appoint, and ſhall likewiſe on each end of the piece mark the breadth of it and the exact number of yards, and thereafter lap it up. For all which the lapper or ſtamp-maſter may demand, for each forty yards of linen cloth, not exceeding 10 d. per yard, 1 d. and for each forty yards of linen cloth of a higher value, 2 d. but if he be employed to beetle the ſame, he may demand 1 d. more for each forty yards; and if any diſpute ariſe between the ſtamp-maſter and the proprietor of any cloth, about the value, it ſhall be lawful for the ſtamp-maſter to take the cloth himſelf at the rate of 10 d. per yard; otherwiſe, if the ſtamp-maſter refuſe to take the cloth at 10 d. per yard, he ſhall be obliged to ſtamp it as of that value; provided the cloth be made according to the directions preſcribed by this act. ſ. 20.

No perſon ſhall ſell, or expoſe to ſale, any manufacture made of linen yarn, till the ſame be brought to the lapper, and by him inſpected; and if the lapper find that the ſame is made according to this act, he ſhall meaſure, ſtamp, and lap up the ſame within 24 hours after it ſhall be offered to be inſpected, &c.; and if any lapper ſhall mark any piece of cloth that is not made according to the rules before mentioned, or ſhall mark on the ſame a greater number of yards than each piece contains, or ſhall mark the ſame as of a greater breadth than it is, or commit any other offence in relation to the premiſes, ſuch lapper being thereof convicted, ſhall make good the damages to the party who bought the cloth on the credit of the ſtamp, and ſhall likewiſe forfeit 5 l. for every inſufficient piece of cloth ſtamped or wrong marked, for the uſe of the informer, and ſhall be diſmiſſed from his office as lapper or ſtamp-maſter, and rendered incapable of ſerving in any ſuch office. ſ. 21.

If any perſon ſhall ſell, expoſe to ſale, or pack up for ſale, or in order to be ſent by land or water, or entered for exportation, any linen cloth, not being ſtamped as aforeſaid, the perſon ſo offending, being convicted, ſhall forfeit 5 l. for each piece. ſ. 22.

Every perſon, who ſhall buy any linen cloth of the manufacture of Scotland not being marked, ſhall forfeit for every piece 5 l. to the informer. ſ. 23.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſons authoriſed by the truſtees, or five of them, or by a warrant of one juſtice of peace, or of any magiſtrate within any borough, to ſearch in the day time all warehouſes, ſhops, cellars, or other places, where they have reaſon to ſuſpect there is any cloth not duly ſtamped, and to open any packs; and if any ſuch ſhall be found, they may ſeize and bring the ſame before the next juſtice or magiſtrate, who are to declare the ſame to be forfeited for the uſe of the ſeizer, and may impoſe fines on the poſſeſſors or owners of ſuch warehouſes, &c. where ſuch linen ſhall be found, and on the perſons who packed it up, not exceeding 5 l. for the informer. ſ. 24.

If any perſon ſhall counterfeit any ſtamp made in purſuance of this act, and be thereof convicted before the court of juſticiary at Edinburgh, or in the circuits, he ſhall incur the ſame penalties, as perſons by the law of Scotland convicted of forgery. ſ. 25.

No linen cloth ſhall be lapped up for ſale when it is wet or damp, nor with any chalk, duſt, or flour; and all perſons who ſhall make up linen cloth for ſale when it is wet, &c. being convicted, ſhall forfeit ſuch cloth for the benefit of the informer. ſ. 26.

When any piece of linen cloth, or any manufacture made of linen yarn, ſhall be brought to a lapper to be inſpected and ſtamped, and ſuch lapper ſhall be of opinion that the ſame is not merchantable cloth, and made according to the rules before preſcribed, he may detain the ſame, till ſuch time as it may be tried how far the ſame is proper to be ſtamped; and every ſuch lapper ſhall, on requeſt made by the owner of the cloth, within 24 hours after ſuch cloth ſhall be ſo ſeized and detained, apply to one juſtice, or to any magiſtrate within any borough, who are to direct two or more perſons ſkilled in ſuch manufacture, to inſpect the cloth, and on oath to report their opinion; and if they report that it is not merchantable cloth, nor made according to the laws for regulating the ſame, the cloth ſhall be forfeited, and cut into ſeveral pieces, and delivered to the ſtamp-maſter or lapper for his own uſe; and the owner ſhall incur the penalties impoſed on ſuch perſons as ſhall make cloth contrary to the rules herein before preſcribed; but if the perſons ſo to be named ſhall report that the cloth is duly made, the lapper is to ſtamp and lap up the ſame without fee. ſ. 27.

When any juſtice or magiſtrate ſhall condemn a linen cloth for not being made according to law, he ſhall, before he deliver it to the informer, cauſe it to be cut into ſeveral pieces, none of which ſhall exceed ſix yards in length. ſ. 28.

It ſhall be lawful for the truſtees to give particular names to the ſeveral pieces of cloth of different ſorts, breadths, and lengths; and all perſons ſelling any linen cloth, may affix a label of parchment to each piece, containing the name of the ſpecies of the cloth, with the length and breadth. ſ. 29.

It ſhall be lawful for every trader or weaver of linen manufacture, to weave his name, or fix ſome known mark, in any piece of linen by him made; and if any other perſon ſhall counterfeit ſuch mark or name, being thereof lawfully convicted on the oath of one witneſs, before two juſtices of peace, or magiſtrates within any borough, he ſhall forfeit 100 l. for the uſe of the perſon whoſe mark ſhall be ſo counterfeited. ſ. 30.

All offences againſt this act (except the counterfeiting the ſtamps or the marks of private dealers) ſhall be heard and determined by one juſtice of peace, or any magiſtrate within any borough, who upon complaint ſhall, upon examination of witneſſes on oath, adjudge and determine the ſame, and iſſue his warrant to the conſtables or officers of the county, city, &c. requiring them to poind and diſtrenzie according to the practice of the law of Scotland in caſes of poinding, ſo much of the offenders goods as will ſatisfy the penalties; which warrant for poinding ſhall not be ſtopped or ſiſted by any ſuſpenſion, ſiſts or other proceſs, except an appeal: which penalties ſhall belong to the informer, firſt deducting 2 s. in the pound, to be paid to the conſtable or officer for executing the warrant; and in caſe no diſtreſs can be found, the juſtices or magiſtrates, by warrant, ſhall commit ſuch offenders to the houſe of correction, or next gaol or tolbooth, for ſo long time as they ſhall think proper, not exceeding one year. ſ. 31.

Any perſon aggrieved by the determination of the juſtices or magiſtrates, may immediately after ſentence pronounced enter his appeal, in preſence of the juſtices or magiſtrates, to the determination of the juſtices of the county or borough, at the next quarter ſeſſions; of which appeal the ſaid juſtices are to make a minute, and by warrant to ſtop execution of the ſentence till the end of the next quarter ſeſſions: and the juſtices at their quarter ſeſſions are required to proceed upon, and to hear and finally determine in the appeal; and if they give judgment againſt the appellant, to decree him to pay the coſts of the appeal, and further to pay a fine not exceeding double the penalty for which the original ſentence was given. ſ. 32.

If any juſtice or magiſtrate ſhall neglect to execute the powers of this, (to the diſcouragement of the linen manufacture), ſuch neglect ſhall be a point of dittay; and it ſhall be lawful for any perſon aggrieved thereby, with the approbation of any five of the truſtees, to be ſignified under their hands, to proſecute the ſaid juſtice or magiſtrate before the lords of the juſticiary at Edinburgh, or in their circuits for the diſtrict; and if the juſtice or magiſtrate ſhall be convicted, the lords of the juſticiary may ſet a fine on him, not exceeding 100*l.* ſ. 33.

By 24 Geo. 2. c. 31. All perſons who ſhall import into Scotland, any bad, mixed, or damnified lintſeed or hempſeed, or any lintſeed or hempſeed not thoroughly cleanſed, or any lintſeed commonly called ſhort lintſeed, ſhall, for every ſuch offence, forfeit ſuch lintſeed or hempſeed, and be liable to a penalty, not exceeding 3*l.* ſterling for every hogſhead of ſuch ſeed, and ſo in proportion for any leſs quantity. ſ. 1.

If any ſuch damnified lintſeed or hempſeed be only damaged at ſea, the importer or proprietor ſhall not be liable to the penalty, in caſe he immediately upon the landing produce proof before ſome juſtice of peace, or other magiſtrate, that ſuch damage was occaſioned in the conveyance by ſea; and give ſufficient ſecurity unto the truſtees appointed in purſuance of 13 Geo. 1. c. 26. that ſuch ſeed ſhall not be ſown, but ſhall be made into oil, or exported, under the penalty of 5*l.* for every hogſhead of ſuch damnified ſeed, and ſo in proportion for any leſs quantity. ſ. 2.

If any lintſeed or hempſeed of the growth of Scotland be bad, ſhort, damnified, or otherwiſe unfit for ſowing, the proprietor ſhall not be liable to any penalty inflicted by the ſaid former act, for the ſelling, or expoſing the ſame to ſale, in caſe he firſt give ſufficient ſecurity to the ſaid truſtees, that ſuch ſeed ſhall not be ſown, but made into oil, or exported, under the penalty of 5*l.* for every hogſhead, and ſo in proportion for any leſs quantity. ſ. 3.

All lintſeed and hempſeed ſhall be ſold by the Linlithgow barley meaſure ſtreaked, and all ſuch meaſures ſhall be firſt ſtamped by the dean of guild or ſome royal borough, with the uſual mark of ſuch borough, and alſo with theſe words Linlithgow barley meaſure; and if any perſon ſell any lintſeed or hempſeed by any meaſure not ſtamped as aforeſaid, he ſhall forfeit for every ſuch offence ſuch meaſure, and 40*s.* ſterling. ſ. 4.

Every perſon who ſhall ſell and deliver to any buyer at one time ten pecks, or any larger quantity of lintſeed or hempſeed without delivering therewith a certificate ſubſcribed by him, expreſſing the quantity and price of the ſeed; and if the ſame be of foreign production, the port from whence it was imported, and the name of the country where it grew, and the year of its growth; and if ſuch ſeed be of the produce of Britain, the year of its growth, and the name of the county where it grew; ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit a ſum not exceeding 5*l.* nor leſs than 50*s.* ſterling, for every hogſhead of ſuch ſeed, and ſo proportionably. ſ. 5.

All ſtamp-maſters, riding officers, ſurveyors, or other officers acting under the directions of the ſaid truſtees, may at all time by day enter into any place where they ſuſpect that lintſeed or hempſeed is kept, and may ſeize all bad, ſhort, damnified, or mixed, lintſeed or hempſeed, and ſuch as ſhall not be clean and good, and detain the ſame until it be legally tried, whether ſuch lintſeed or hempſeed is by the ſaid former or this act prohibited to be imported or ſold, or exported to ſale, or to be ſown; and in caſe it be adjudged that ſuch ſeed is prohibited, the ſame ſhall be forfeited, and the proprietor ſhall be ſubject to a penalty not exceeding 3*l.* ſterling for every hogſhead of ſuch ſeed, and ſo in proportion; and in caſe it ſhall be adjudged that the ſeed ſo ſeized is prohibited to be ſown, and the proprietor ſhall not make it appear that ſufficient ſecurity hath been given to the ſaid truſtees, for the exporting or making of ſuch ſeed into oil, or that application hath been made, and ſufficient ſecurity tendered to the ſaid truſtees, ſuch ſeed ſhall be forfeited, and the proprietor ſubject to the penalty aforeſaid. ſ. 6.

In all caſes where application hath been only made for giving ſufficient ſecurity, ſuch ſeed ſo ſeized ſhall not be delivered to the proprietor until ſuch ſecurity be actually entered into. ſ. 7.

All perſons who ſhall ſell or diſpoſe of any hemp or flax, by any other weight than by the ſtone, conſiſting of 16 pound weight averdupois; all flax raiſers and hecklers who ſhall not affix their names and places of abode upon every mat or quantity of flax by them ſold, ſhall, for every ſuch offence, forfeit a ſum not exceeding 5*l.* ſterling. ſ. 8.

Every perſon who ſhall ſell or expoſe to ſale, in one and the ſame mat or other package, flax or hemp of different quality or fineneſs, ſhall forfeit a ſum, not exceeding 5*l.* ſterling, for every ſuch mat or other package. ſ. 9.

Provided, the ſaid penalty ſhall not extend to any perſon ſelling a ton or any larger quantity of hemp or flax to any one perſon at one time. ſ. 10.

It ſhall be lawful to manufacture plain linen cloth with flaxen and tow yarn mixed, by making the woof of one of the ſaid yarns, and the warp of the other; but the yarn uſed for the warp ſhall be of the ſame quality and fineneſs throughout, and the yarn uſed for the woof ſhall be of the ſame quality and fineneſs throughout, under the penalties of a ſum, not exceeding 40*s.* nor leſs than 10*s.* ſterling, to be paid by the weaver. ſ. 11.

It ſhall be lawful to make uſe of yarns of different ſorts, qualities, and fineneſs, in the manufacturing ſtriped, chequered, and flowered linens, but ſo that each ſort of ſuch yarn ſhall be of equal quality and fineneſs, throughout each piece, under the penalty of a ſum, not exeeding 40*s.* nor leſs than 10*s.* ſterling, to be paid by the weaver. ſ. 12.

All perſons, who ſhall make, ſell, or expoſe to ſale, or ſhall buy any reel not of the dimenſions preſcribed by the ſaid act, 13 Geo. 1. c. 26. ſhall, over and above the forfeiting of ſuch reel, forfeit a ſum, not exceeding 40*s.* nor leſs than 10*s.* ſterling, for every ſuch reel; and all perſons convicted of falſe reeling and making up yarn, or expoſing to ſale, ſelling or buying yarn of the produce of Scotland, knowing the ſame to be reeled or made up contrary to the directions of the ſaid act, ſhall, over and above the forfeiting of ſuch yarn, forfeit a ſum, not exceeding 10, nor leſs than 2*s.* ſterling, for every ſpindle thereof, and ſo proportionally. ſ. 13.

It ſhall be lawful to import, ſell, and expoſe to ſale, any foreign yarn, although ſuch yarn be not reeled and made up according to the directions of the ſaid act or this act. ſ. 14.

Every maker of heckles, wheels, reels, weaving-looms, and weaving reed, ſhall mark thereon, in legible and durable characters, his chriſtian name, ſurname, and place of reſidence, as alſo upon each reed, the hundreds of ſuch reed, under the penalty of forfeiting all ſuch heckles, &c.

and

and alſo of a ſum, not exceeding 20, nor leſs than 10*s.* ſterling, for each. ſ. 15.

All perſons, who ſhall practiſe the trade of whitening or bleaching of linen in the piece, ſo as to bleach a quantity of cloth of the value of 500*l.* ſterling in one year, and all perſons who ſhall keep any public lapping-preſs, or lapping-houſe, ſhall reſpectively, firſt give ſecurity to the ſaid truſtees, to the extent of 100*l.* ſterling for every ſuch bleacher, and of 50*l.* ſterling for every keeper or maſter of ſuch public lapping-preſs and lapping-houſe, for their faithful performance of the ſaid trades; and alſo for making good any damage to their employers by any neglect or want of ſkill; and the ſaid truſtees are, upon their acceptance of ſuch ſecurities, to grant licences under their hands and ſeals to exerciſe the ſaid trades; and no fee ſhall be taken upon account of ſuch ſecurity or licence; and if any perſon without ſuch licence bleach a quantity of cloth of the value of 500*l.* ſterling in one year, or ſhall keep and uſe any public lapping-preſs or lapping-houſe, ſuch bleacher ſhall forfeit 100*l.* ſterling; and ſuch maſter and keeper of a public lapping-preſs or lapping-houſe 50*l.* ſterling, for every year they ſhall carry on ſuch reſpective trades without ſuch licence. ſ. 16.

All ſuch licenſed bleachers ſhall ſtamp in legible letters on each end of every piece of cloth by them bleached, their names and places of abode, with the addition of Bleacher, under the penalty of a ſum, not exceeding 20*s.* for every piece of cloth not ſo marked. ſ. 17.

If any perſon lap up any cloth for ſale, when wet, or with any chalk, duſt, flower, or other material which may be prejudicial to the quality of ſuch cloth, or lap up any piece of cloth for ſale not duly ſtamped as preſcribed by the ſaid former act or this act, he ſhall, for every ſuch offence, forfeit a ſum, not exceeding 40*s.* nor leſs than 10*s.* ſterling, for every piece. ſ. 18.

In all caſes where cloth ſhall through unavoidable accidents be damnified in the weaving or bleaching, or not be of equality throughout the piece, as is directed by the ſaid former act or this act, the ſtamp-maſter appointed by the ſaid truſtees may cut ſuch damaged or inſufficient cloth into ſuch pieces as he ſhall find ſufficient and free of holes and rents, and affix his ſtamps to ſuch cuttings, as by the ſaid act is directed with regard to whole pieces, returning the damaged or inſufficient cuttings to the owners; but if the ſtamp-maſter be not ſatisfied that the cloth received ſuch damage, or was rendered inſufficient, through unavoidable accidents, and believe that the ſame was occaſioned by the negligence or ignorance of the weaver or bleacher, and that the cloth was preſented to be ſtamped with a fraudulent intention to deceive the buyer, he ſhall ſeize the ſame; and if upon trial it appear that ſuch damage or inſufficiency was occaſioned by the negligence or ignorance of the weaver or bleacher, and not by unavoidable accident, it ſhall be condemned and forfeited, as is preſcribed by the aforeſaid act with reſpect to all inſufficient and unmerchantable cloth offered to be ſtamped. ſ. 19.

When any unſtamped cloth, or unſtatutable yarn, is ſeized, and it is alleged that ſuch cloth or yarn is foreign, the onus probandi ſhall lie upon the owner, that the ſame was fairly imported from the place where it is alleged to have been manufactured, or from the next adjacent port, and that the duties have been paid; and if the owner fail in ſuch proof, the cloth or yarn ſo ſeized ſhall be deemed of the manufacture of Scotland, and be forfeited; and all linen cloth of the manufacture of Ireland, imported into, or expoſed to ſale in Scotland, not having the ſeals or ſtamps of ſome ſtamp-maſter appointed by the truſtees for the linen manufacture in Ireland affixed thereon, ſhall be forfeited, and ſhall be ſeized and tried in the ſame manner as is directed by the ſaid act, with regard to ſuch linen of the manufacture of Scotland as is expoſed to ſale without being ſtamped. ſ. 20.

Every maker of ſtamps or ſeals for ſtamping cloth, ſhall upon ſome part of every ſtamp mark his name and place of abode, and ſhall take an impreſſion of every ſuch ſtamp in a book, and enter in ſuch book the name and deſignation of the perſon by whom he was employed, and to what perſon, and at what time ſuch ſtamp was delivered, under the penalty of 50*l.* ſterling for each of the ſaid offences. ſ. 21.

If any perſon counterfeit any ſtamp made in purſuance of this act, or any ſtamp of any ſtamp maſter appointed by the truſtees for the linen manufacture in Ireland, being convicted before the court of juſticiary at Edinburgh, or in the circuits, he ſhall ſuffer the ſame penalties as perſons by the law of Scotland convicted of forgery. ſ. 22.

Every maker of heckles, ſpinning wheels, reels, weaving looms, and weaving reeds, and every weaver or manufacturer of linen, flaxen, or hempen cloth, or heckler, or dreſſer of flax or hemp, may exerciſe the ſaid trades within any city in Scotland without any hindrance, and without being charged with any entry-money, or other duty in reſpect of their following ſuch trade. ſ. 23.

No perſon ſhall by force obſtruct any officer appointed by the ſaid truſtees in the execution of his duty, under the penalty of forfeiting the ſum not exceeding 50*l.* nor leſs than 5*l.* ſterling for every ſuch offence. ſ. 24.

All offences againſt this act (except only as to the counterfeiting of ſtamps) may be heard and determined by the juſtices of peace, or magiſtrates of burghs, or any one of them, within their reſpective juriſdictions, after the ſame manner and with the ſame powers as are preſcribed in the aforeſaid act with regard to offences againſt this act; and all offences againſt this and the aforeſaid act (except as aforeſaid) may be alſo heard and finally determined by any ſheriff or ſtewart deputes, or their ſubſtitutes, ſubject only to an appeal to the lords of juſticiary or their circuit courts. ſ. 25.

All penalties for offences againſt this act ſhall be paid to the informer or proſecutor. ſ. 26.

All actions ſhall be commenced for offences againſt this act and the ſaid former act within 12 months after the commiſſion of ſuch offence; and ſhall ceaſe after the expiration of eight months from the commencement of the ſaid ſuit; and if any appeal, either from the magiſtrates or juſtices of peace to the quarter ſeſſions, or from the ſheriff or ſtewart deputes, or their ſubſtitutes, to the circuit court, be not determined at the expiration of eight months from the commencement of the action, the ſentence appealed from ſhall take place and be put in execution. ſ. 27.

All ſheriff and ſtewart deputes, ſheriff and ſtewart ſubſtitutes, juſtices of peace, and magiſtrates of burghs, ſhall interpret this act and the ſaid former act in the moſt beneficial manner for promoting the linen and hempen manufactures; and if any of them wilfully neglect or refuſe to execute the powers committed to them, ſo as ſuch neglect or refuſal tend to the detriment of the ſaid manufactures, ſuch neglect or refuſal ſhall be taken to be a point of dittay, and the perſon ſo offending may be proſecuted before, and puniſhed by, the lords of juſticiary, in manner preſcribed by the ſaid former act. ſ. 28.

The comptroller of the cuſtoms in Scotland, or his deputy, ſhall without fee, in Dec. yearly, on demand deliver in to the ſaid truſtees an account for the year ending at Midſummer preceding, of all flax-ſeed and hemp-ſeed, and of all flax and hemp, and alſo of all pot-aſhes, and all linen, flaxen, or hempen yarn, and linen cloth, imported into Scotland, diſtinguiſhing the ſeveral ports from whence and at which the ſame were imported; as alſo an account of all flax and hemp, and of all linen, flaxen, or hempen yarn, and of all pot-aſhes, and of all linen cloth ſhipped in and exported from Scotland, diſtinguiſhing the ports from and to which the ſame ſhall be ſhipped and exported; and the bounties paid upon exportation of ſuch cloth. ſ. 29.

All contracts, ſecurities, and agreements, entered into by authority of the ſaid truſtees, for promoting of the ſaid linen and hempen manufactures, or any branch thereof, may be entered into and taken in the name of their ſecretary and his ſucceſſors in office, for the uſe of the fund eſtabliſhed by the ſaid act for encouraging the linen manufacture in Scotland; and all bonds and other ſecurities for the faithful execution of any office, or for the performance of any other thing relating to the ſaid manufacture, ſhall be taken in the name of the ſaid ſecretary and his ſucceſſors in office, for the uſe of the ſaid fund; and all diligences, ſuits, actions, and proceſſes, may be iſſued and carried on in conſequence of ſuch contracts, ſecurities, agreements, and bonds, and proſecuted to a final iſſue in the name and at the inſtance of the ſaid ſecretary. ſ. 30.

By 26 Geo. 2. c. 20. For nine years from the expiration of the bounties on the exportation of Britiſh and Iriſh coarſe linens by the 15 Geo. 2. c. 29. and 18 Geo. 2. c. 25. granted, and continued by 22 Geo. 2. c. 42. ſ. 28. to 25 March 1753, and the end of the then next ſeſſion of parliament, the ſum of 3000 l. ſhall be paid yearly to the caſhier of the commiſſioners and truſtees for improving fiſheries and manufactures in Scotland, out of the cuſtoms, exciſes, or other revenues in Scotland, to be applied for encouraging and improving the manufacture of linens in the highlands of Scotland only; and only in thoſe parts thereof, wherein the manufacture of linens hath either not been introduced, or hath not yet arrived to any degree of perfection. ſ. 1.

No part of the ſaid annual ſum of 3000 l. ſhall be applied for any other uſe than for inſtructing and exciting the inhabitants of that part of Scotland, to raiſe, prepare, and ſpin, flax and hemp, to be uſed in the manufacture of coarſe linen, and to weave yarn there ſpun into ſuch linen; and for providing the ſaid inhabitants with fit materials and utenſils for thoſe purpoſes, and for diſtributing rewards and prizes to the growers, preparers, and ſpinners, of ſuch flax and hemp, and to the weavers and other manufacturers of ſuch linen, in reſpect to the quantity or excellence of the flax or hemp ſo prepared, and of the yarn ſo manufactured; and for ſuch other like uſes, as by the ſaid commiſſioners and truſtees ſhall be thought proper for promoting the true intent of this act. ſ. 2.

No part of the annual ſum of 3000 l. ſhall be applied for encouraging or improving within the limits of the ſaid Highlands the manufacture of ſail cloth, or of any ſuch linens as under the denomination of ſail cloth are entitled by law to any bounty on exportation. ſ. 3.

The ſaid annual ſum of 3000 l. ſhall be paid for the purpoſes of this act, at ſuch times, and by ſuch orders, and in ſuch manner, as the annual ſum of 2000 l. and the ſurpluſage of the duty on malt made in Scotland, are by 13 Geo. 1. c. 30. Fiſhery, or by letters patent under the great ſeal kept in Scotland, directed to be paid. ſ. 4.

The ſaid commiſſioners and truſtees ſhall yearly, at Chriſtmas, make up an account of the monies received and iſſued by their orders, together with a report of their proceedings, and ſhall within 30 days lay the ſaid account and report before his majeſty, and ſhall alſo within 30 days lay copies of the ſaid account and report before the annual committee of the convention of the royal boroughs of Scotland, that they may examine the ſame, and lay before his majeſty their obſervations. ſ. 5.

The ſaid commiſſioners and truſtees ſhall, at Chriſtmas, 1753, lay before his majeſty a plan for the application and diſtribution of the ſaid ſum of 3000 l. which being approved or varied by his majeſty by writing, under his ſign manual, ſhall be put into execution, until altered in like manner and by like authority. ſ. 6.

It ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners and truſtees, in any other year during the continuance of this act, at Chriſtmas, to lay before his majeſty any other plan, which being appoved or varied by his majeſty ſhall be put in execution, until altered by like authority. ſ. 7.

Miniſters.

By 17 Geo. 2. c. 11. Every miniſter who ſhall be admitted to a benefice in the church of Scotland, and every head, principal, or maſter, in any of the univerſities of St. Andrew's, Glaſgow, and Edinburgh, and who was not on or before the 25th of March 1744, a miniſter having right to a benefice or a head, principal, or maſter, in any of the ſaid univerſities ſhall be ſubject to one or other of the annual rates following, viz. either to the ſum of 2 l. 12 s. 6 d. or of 3 l. 18 s. 9 d. or of 5 l. 5 s. or of 6 l. 11 s. 3 d. of lawful money of Great Britain, and proportionably for an half year, payable at the terms after mentioned, and in the option of the ſaid miniſters, heads, principals, and maſters, to be made in the time and manner after directed. ſ. 1.

Every miniſter admitted to a benefice in Scotland, and every head, principal, or maſter, in any of the ſaid three univerſities, admitted after the ſaid 25th of March 1744, ſhall, at the term of Candlemas next after his admiſſion, and after he hath enjoyed and had right to his benefice or ſalary for one whole year, make payment of one year's rate, and ſo from thenceforth yearly at Candlemas, during his life; and if at Candlemas next after his admiſſion he hath enjoyed, and had right to his benefice or ſalary, only for one half year, he ſhall only be liable at the ſaid firſt term of Candlemas, to the payment of one half of the ſaid yearly rate, and to the full year's rate at Candlemas next thereafter, and to the like rate yearly at each term of Candlemas during his life; all which rates ſhall be paid to the general collector or receiver herein after appointed at his office in Edinburgh. ſ. 2.

If the ſaid miniſters, &c. ſhall, at their deaths, have only right to one half of the benefice or ſalary of that year in which they die, one half of the rate ſhall be payable for that year, out of their benefice to the collector at the Candlemas, firſt after ſuch death, and the other half ſhall be payable by thoſe having right to the ann, or where no ann is due, by the heirs and executors of the miniſter, &c. ſ. 3.

Every miniſter, &c. admitted after the ſaid 25th of March 1744, ſhall make his election of one of the four above-mentioned yearly rates, to which he chooſes to be ſubject during his life, by a writing ſigned by him, addreſſed to the truſtees herein after appointed, and which he ſhall cauſe to be delivered at the collectors office at Edinburgh, on or before the firſt term of Candlemas, after the ſaid miniſter, &c. ſhall have right to one half year's benefice or ſalary; and in default of giving ſuch notice, ſuch miniſter, &c. ſhall be deemed to have made his election of the rate of 3 l. 18 s. 9 d. and ſhall be liable to the ſame during his life. ſ. 4.

The miniſters whoſe benefices are ſituated in the weſtern or in the northern iſles of Scotland, ſhall be allowed to make their election at any time before the Candlemas next after they have had right to the benefice for one year and a half; and in default of making their election within that time, they ſhall be ſubjected to the rate of 3 l. 18 s. 9 d. ſ. 5.

The ſaid miniſters ſhall, at the next Candlemas after they have made their election, or in default of making ſuch election, make payment of the annual rates to which they are ſubjected. ſ. 6.

Every miniſter, &c. admitted to a benefice in Scotland, or to the office of head, principal, or maſter, in any of the ſaid three univerſities, on or before the 25th of March 1744, ſhall within ſix months after the ſaid day give notice by a writing ſigned by him addreſſed to the truſtees herein after appointed, which he ſhall cauſe to be delivered at their general collector's office in Edinburgh, that he will not be ſubject to any of the yearly rates above mentioned, or will ſubject himſelf to one or other of them, declaring which he chooſes; and in default of ſuch notice, he ſhall be ſubject to the annual rate of 3 l. 18 s. 9 d. during his life. ſ. 7.

The miniſters in the weſtern and northern iſles of Scotland may give notice as aforeſaid at any time within 18 calendar months after the ſaid 25th of March 1744. ſ. 8.

The preſent miniſters of the church of Scotland, and the preſent heads, principals, and maſters, of the ſaid three univerſities, or who ſhall be admitted miniſters, &c. on or before the ſaid 25th of March 1744, and who ſhall be ſubject to any of the ſaid rates, ſhall pay their firſt year's rate to the collector at his office in Edinburgh, at the term of Candlemas 1744, and ſo from thenceforth yearly, during their life; and if ſuch miniſter, &c. have right only to one half of the benefice or ſalary of the year in which he dies, the half year's rate payable by ſuch miniſter, &c. ſhall be paid to the collector at the firſt Candlemas after his death, and the other half ſhall be payable out of the ann, or by his or their heirs or executors. And every ſuch miniſter, &c. ſhall be liable for the firſt year to an additional ſum equal to the yearly rate to which he ſhall be ſubjected to be paid to the collector at his office in Edinburgh at Candlemas 1744. ſ. 9.

The miniſters in the weſtern and northern iſles of Scotland, who now are, or who ſhall be admitted to a benefice before the ſaid 25th of March 1744, ſhall pay their double rate for the firſt year, and their annual rate for the ſecond year, at Candlemas 1745. ſ. 10.

Miniſters, &c. admitted aſſiſtants and ſucceſſors to the miniſter, or to the head, principal, or maſter, having right to the benefice or ſalary, ſhall, as to the purpoſes of this act, be held as admitted to a benefice or office only from the time that ſuch aſſiſtant ſhall be married, or ſhall come to have right to the full benefice or ſalary. ſ. 11.

Every miniſter, &c. admitted after the 25th of March 1744, if married, ſhall, in reſpect of his marriage, be liable to a ſum equal to his annual rate, and to the like ſum for each ſucceeding marriage; which ſums ſhall be paid over and above the annual rate, at the firſt term of Candlemas, one full year after ſuch marriage and his admiſſion into the benefice or office. ſ. 12.

Every miniſter, &c. who now is, or ſhall be admitted on or before the 25th of March 1744, and ſhall become ſubject to one or other of the aforeſaid rates, and who ſhall marry after the ſaid 25th of March 1744, ſhall be liable to a ſum equal to his yearly rate in reſpect of his marriage, and to the like ſum for every marriage after; which ſums ſhall be paid over and above the annual rates at the firſt Candlemas one full year after ſuch marriages. ſ. 13.

If any miniſter, &c. marry a widow hereby entitled to an annuity, he ſhall not be ſubject to any payment in reſpect of ſuch marriage. ſ. 14.

If any miniſter, &c. neglect to pay the rates at the terms herein appointed, he ſhall be liable to the intereſt of ſuch ſums remaining unpaid from the reſpective terms of payment. ſ. 15.

Upon the death of any miniſter, &c. ſubject to a rate, a ſum equal to one half of his yearly rate ſhall be due for the half year immediately after his death, by thoſe who have a right to the ann, and where no ann is competent, the ſame ſhall be paid by his heirs and executors. ſ. 16.

Every benefice of the church of Scotland, and every office of head, principal, or maſter, in any of the ſaid three univerſities, that are now, or ſhall become vacant, on or before the 25th of March 1744, ſhall be ſubject to the ſum of 5 l. of lawful money of Great Britain for every half year that the vacancy ſhall continue; and every ſuch benefice and office that ſhall become vacant, after the ſaid 25th of March 1744, ſhall be ſubject to the ſum of 2 l. 10 s. of like money for every half year during ſuch vacancy. ſ. 17.

Rates payable out of the ann and vacant benefices in the church of Scotland, ſhall be paid to the preſbytery, within whoſe bounds the benefices lie, or to their collector, by the heretors, and others liable to the payment of the ann, and of the vacant ſtipends; and the reſpective preſbyteries are hereby empowered and required to levy and pay the ſame to the general collector at his office in Edinburgh, within ſix calendar months after the ann and vacant ſtipends ſhall be payable. ſ. 18.

The preſbyterians in the weſtern and northern iſles of Scotland ſhall be allowed 12 calendar months for paying in to the general collector at Edinburgh the reſpective ſums due out of the ann and vacant ſtipends within their bounds, from the times at which the ann and vacant ſtipends are payable. ſ. 19.

The aforeſaid ſums payable by the repreſentatives of the heads, principals, or maſters, in the ſaid three univerſities, in reſpect to the half year immediately after the death of any of the members ſubject to the rates, and the ſums payable in reſpect of the vacant ſalaries in the ſaid univerſities, ſhall be paid by the repreſentatives of the deceaſed member, and by thoſe liable to the payment of the vacant ſalaries reſpectively, to the univerſity of which he was a member, and where the vacancy is; and the ſaid univerſities ſhall levy and pay the ſame to the general collector at Edinburgh within ſix months after the deceaſe of their member and after the ſaid vacant ſalaries fall due. ſ. 20.

The aforeſaid annual rates and other ſums ſhall be applied by direction of the truſtees herein after named, and their ſucceſſors, to the uſes after mentioned, viz. in the firſt place, there ſhall be paid a ſum not exceeding 210 l. of lawful money of Great Britain yearly, for the ſalaries of the general collector and the clerk; and, in the ſecond place, the remainder of the ſeveral ſums aforeſaid ſhall be applied to the payment of an annuity to the widow of every miniſter of the church of Scotland, and of every head, principal, or maſter, in any of the ſaid three univerſities, who hath been ſubject to one or other of the annual rates above mentioned, in proportion to the rate to which the reſpective widow's deceaſed huſband was liable, viz. if the huſband band was liable to the annual rate of 2 l. 12 s. 6 d. his widow ſhall be entitled to an annuity of 10 l.; and if the huſband was liable to the annual rate of 3 l. 18 s. 9 d. his widow ſhall be entitled to an annuity of 15 l.; and if the huſband was liable to the annual rate of 5 l. 5 s. his widow ſhall be entitled to an annuity of 20 l. and if the huſband's annual rate was 6 l. 11 s 3 d. his widow's annuity ſhall be 25 l. of lawful money of Great Britain; which annuities ſhall commence from the firſt Whitſunday or Martinmas, one full half year after the huſband's death, and ſhall from thenceforth be due at each Whitſunday and Martinmas by equal portions, and the firſt year's or half year's annuity ſhall be payable at the firſt Whitſunday a full year or a full half year after the commencement of the ſaid annuity; and the ſaid annuity ſhall ſo continue payable yearly at Whitſunday during the widow's life and her continuing unmarried; but ſhall not be due for any terms that ſhall happen after her death or marriage. ſ. 21.

Every miniſter, &c. ſubject to one of the aforeſaid rates who ſhall die not leaving a widow but children, ſuch child or children ſhall be entitled to a ſum equal to ten years annuity to the widow; which if there be more children than one ſhall be equally divided amongſt them. ſ. 22.

If the widow entitled to an annuity die or be married before the lapſe of 10 years after the commencement of her annuity, the children under the age of 16 ſhall be entitled to ſuch a ſum of money as ſhall be equal to 10 years of the ſaid widow's annuity, deducting what has been received by the widow; which ſum ſhall be equally divided among the children if there happen to be more than one. ſ. 23.

Proviſions due to the children of miniſters, &c. ſhall be payable at Whitſunday following the Martinmas on or before which they became due. ſ. 24.

The ſurplus of the rates, &c. after payment of the annual expence of management, and of the annuities to the widows, and of the proviſions to the children, ſhall at Whitſunday yearly, be lent out to the miniſters of the church of Scotland, and to the heads, principals, and maſters, in the ſaid three univerſities, who have become ſubject to the ſaid rates, to the amount of 30 l. of lawful money of Great Britain to each (who ſhall be obliged to receive ſame) in ſuch order as ſhall be appointed by an act or acts of the general aſſembly of the church of Scotland; and in default of ſuch appointment, in ſuch order as the truſtees herein after named ſhall direct, until every miniſter of the church of Scotland, and every head, principal, and other maſter, in the ſaid three univerſities, ſubject to the ſaid rates, has received the ſaid 30 l. ſ. 25.

Upon receipt of the ſaid ſum of 30 l. the miniſter, &c. ſo receiving the ſame, ſhall execute a deed, obliging himſelf, his heirs, executors, and ſucceſſors, that upon his ceaſing to have right to the benefice or office, in reſpect whereof he received the ſaid ſum, he ſhall repay the ſaid 30 l. to the collector, at his office at Edinburgh, with intereſt for the ſame from the Whitſunday or Martinmas immediately preceding his ceaſing to have right to his benefice or office, and further obliging himſelf, his heirs, &c. to pay the intereſt of the 30 l. at four per cent. per ann. to the ſaid collector at Candlemas yearly, after his receipt of the ſaid ſum, during his continuing in poſſeſſion of the benefice or office in reſpect whereof he received the ſame. ſ. 26.

The ſaid collector receiving the ſaid 30 l. from a miniſter, or from a head, principal, or maſter, in any of the ſaid three univerſities, or from their heirs, ſhall pay the ſame over to their reſpective ſucceſſors in office, who are hereby obliged to receive the ſame, and who ſhall execute a deed for repayment of the principal ſum and intereſt in manner above directed. ſ. 27.

From and after the time that any miniſter, &c. ſhall have received the ſaid 30 l. the vacant ſtipend or ſalary of ſuch miniſter, &c. ſhall be ſubject to the intereſt of the ſaid 30 l. at four per cent. per ann. ſ. 28.

The yearly rates, and other ſums, payable by the miniſters, &c. and the ſaid ſums of 30 l. with the intereſt thereof, ſhall be privileged debts, and preferable to all other debts of the ſaid miniſters, &c. upon their whole perſonal eſtate; the rates payable out of the ann and vacant benefices and ſalaries, ſhall be a preferable debt and burden upon the ann and vacant benefices and ſalaries to all other debts. ſ. 29.

It ſhall be lawful for the collector at the ſight and direction of the truſtees, to retain from the annuity due to the widow, or from the proviſions due to the children of any miniſter, &c. ſuch ſums as ſhall be due by their reſpective huſband or father, or his heirs and executors, and which have not been or cannot be recoverd from the deceaſed, upon the ſaid defendant, upon the ſaid collector's making over his demand upon the deceaſed, and his heirs and executors, with all the privileges thereunto belonging, in favour of the widow and children reſpectively. ſ. 30.

After every miniſter, &c. ſhall have received the ſaid 30 l. in manner before directed, all future ſurpluſes ſhall be lent out upon proper ſecurity, at intereſt not under four per cent. per ann. until a capital be made up of 35,000 l. of lawful money of Great Britain, over and above the ſums lent to miniſters, &c. to the amount of 30 l. each as aforeſaid, which capital being ſo made up, there ſhall be no further increaſe, but the ſurpluſes ariſing in any one year from Martinmas to Martinmas, ſhall, at the Whitſunday, when ſuch ſurpluſes ariſe, be divided proportionably amongſt all the children of the miniſters, &c. who in reſpect of the death of their father, or the death or marriage of his widow, within that year, ſhall be then entitled to receive their proviſions. ſ. 31.

If the ſaid capital of 35,000 l. and ſum of 30 l. lent to each miniſter, &c. be diminiſhed, either by the inſolvency of debtors, or by any other accident, ſuch diminution ſhall be made up by after ſurpluſes, in the ſame manner as the original capital was raiſed. ſ. 32.

The capital ſhall at no time exceed 35,000 l., and the ſum of 30 l. lent to each miniſter, &c. as aforeſaid. ſ. 33.

After the ſaid capital of 35,000 l. is raiſed, in whole or in part, if in any year the charge of management, and the annuities to the widows, and the proviſions to the children, exceed the annual income, no encroachment ſhall be made upon the capital; but ſuch deficiency ſhall firſt affect the children's proviſions in the order of time in which they become due, and the children entitled to proviſions in the ſame year ſhall be preferred, and receive their proviſions, according to the priority of their father's death, or of his widow's death or marriage; and in the next place, ſuch deficiency ſhall affect the annuities of the widows proportionably. ſ. 34.

Such deduction from the children's proviſions, and widows annuities, ſhall be made good out of the firſt and readieſt of the annual produce of the ſucceeding year in the order above mentioned; that is after payment of the annual expence of management, the widows annuities unpaid in the preceding year ſhall be made good, and afterwards the widows annuities of the current year; and after thoſe, the children's proviſions of the former year according to the priority of the death of their fathers, or of the death or marriage of their father's widow. ſ. 35.

When any miniſter entitled to a benefice, is alſo a head, principal, or maſter, in any of the ſaid three univerſities, and thereby entitled to a ſalary, he ſhall be only liable to one rate in reſpect to both offices. ſ. 36.

Every miniſter, &c. ſhall continue ſubject to his reſpective rate during life, notwithſtanding that he ceaſe to be a miniſter, &c. by reſignation, deprivation, or any other way; and his widow and children ſhall continue entitled to their reſpective proviſions before ſettled. ſ. 37.

The reverend maſter Neil M'Vicar, and others named in the act, being all members of the preſbytery of Edinburgh, ſhall be truſtees for putting in execution the powers by this act given, during their continuing in their benefices and offices. ſ. 38.

Every other miniſter of the preſbytery of Edinburgh, and every maſter in the univerſity of Edinburgh, in office, on or before the 25th of March 1744, and ſubject to one of the rates, ſhall be truſtees for the execution of this act, while in office, unleſs ſuch miniſter in the ſaid preſbytery, or maſter in the ſaid univerſity, ſhall, within ſix calendar months after the ſaid 25th March 1744, give notice, by a writing ſigned by him, addreſſed to the ſaid truſtees, and which he ſhall cauſe to be delivered at the collector's office in Edinburgh, declaring that he declines to accept of the ſaid truſt. ſ. 39.

All miniſters of the preſbytery of Edinburgh, and all heads, principals, and maſters, in the ſaid univerſity of Edinburgh, admitted into their reſpective benefices or offices after the ſaid 25th of March 1744, ſhall be truſtees for the execution of this act. ſ. 40.

Every miniſter, having an office in any of the univerſities of Saint Andrews and Glaſgow, and every miniſter in any of the preſbyteries ſeats in Scotland, ſubject to any of the ſaid rates, ſhall be a truſtee for the execution of this act, during their continuing in their ſaid benefices and offices. ſ. 41.

It ſhall be lawful for the aforeſaid miniſters, poſſeſſed of offices in the ſaid univerſities, and to the ſaid miniſters in the preſbytery ſeats, to refuſe the ſaid truſt, ſo as ſuch refuſal be notified by a deed in writing, ſigned by the ſaid miniſters reſpectively, and given in to the ſaid truſtees, or their clerk, within ſix calendar months after they have reſpectively become liable to one of the rates, and their admiſſion to an office in any of the ſaid univerſities, or becoming miniſters in preſbytery ſeats. ſ. 42.

It ſhall be lawful for every preſbytery in Scotland (the preſbytery of Edinburgh excepted) annually to elect one of their number, ſubject to one of the rates, to be a truſtee for one year, commencing from the firſt of May yearly; and it ſhall be lawful for each of the univerſities of St. Andrews and Glaſgow, annually, to elect two of their number, not being miniſters who are ſubject to one of the rates, to be truſtees for one year, commencing from the firſt of May yearly. ſ. 43.

It ſhall be in the power of the ſaid annual truſtees to refuſe to act in the ſaid offices, ſo as ſuch refuſal be notified to the reſpective preſbyteries or univerſities at the time of election, if the truſtee elect be preſent, or elſe at the next meeting of the preſbytery or univerſity after the election come to his knowledge. ſ. 44.

Nine of the truſtees, whereof ſix to be miniſters of the church of Scotland, may execute all the powers committed to them by this act; and ſhall have four ſtated meetings yearly, upon the ſecond Tueſday in May, the ſecond Tueſday in November, the ſecond Tueſday in February, and the ſecond Tueſday in March, in the old church iſle of Edinburgh, between the hours of 10 and 12 in the forenoon, with power to chooſe a preſes, and to adjourn themſelves; and it ſhall be lawful for the preſes of the laſt meeting of the truſtees, or in his abſence, the moderator of the preſbytery of Edinburgh (ſuch moderator being a truſtee) or in his abſence, the eldeſt miniſter of the city of Edinburgh, who is then a truſtee, to call other meetings of the truſtees as occaſion ſhall require; and they are hereby required, upon the requeſt of any five or more of the truſtees, to call ſuch meetings. ſ. 45.

It ſhall be lawful for the truſtees at their firſt meeting to elect a clerk, and to appoint him a ſalary not exceeding 50 l. of money of Great Britain yearly; which clerk ſhall give bond to the truſtees, with one or more ſureties, for the faithful diſcharge of his office, under the penalty of 100 l. of like money; and the ſaid clerk ſhall, at his own charge, provide proper books, and inſert therein the proceedings of the truſtees, and write and cauſe to be written their orders; and have an officer for advertiſing the truſtees of their meetings, and for attending the ſame; for which officer the clerk ſhall be allowed not exceeding 5 l. per annum of money of Great Britain. ſ. 46.

The clerk ſo to be elected, ſhall be approved by the next meeting of the general aſſembly of the church of Scotland, and in caſe he be diſallowed of, ſuch meeting ſhall elect a clerk for the truſtees. ſ. 47.

It ſhall be lawful to the truſtees to ſuſpend or remove the clerk; and thereupon, or upon the death, reſignation, or removal, of the clerk, to appoint his ſucceſſor, who ſhall be approved or diſapproved by the next meeting of the general aſſembly of the church of Scotland; who have hereby power to hear the cauſes of the deprivation or ſuſpenſion of the clerk, and to allow or diſallow of the ſame, and to affirm or reverſe the judgment of the truſtees. ſ. 48.

It ſhall be lawful for the general aſſembly of the church of Scotland that ſhall firſt meet after the 25th of March 1744, to elect a general collector or receiver of the aforeſaid annual and other rates; and the ſaid collector ſhall have power to carry on all ſuits for recovery of the rates, and to iſſue the annuities to the widows, and proviſions to the children, and to lend out the ſurpluſes to the miniſters of the church, and to the members of the ſaid three univerſities, in manner before directed, and alſo the after ſurpluſes, upon intereſt as he ſhall be directed by the truſtees; and the collector ſhall uſe all proper diligence for ſecuring the aforeſaid ſums. ſ. 49.

It ſhall not be in the power of the collector to lend out any part of the aforeſaid capital of 35,000 l. or to uplift or re-employ the ſame, without a particular appointment of the truſtees. ſ. 50.

The collector may appoint one or more deputies, for whom he ſhall be anſwerable, for levying the annual rates and other ſums to be paid to him at his office in Edinburgh. ſ. 51.

The full expence incurred by the collector and his deputies in recovering payment of the reſpective ſums ſhall be recovered out of the reſpective debtors eſtates without any abatement. ſ. 52.

The collector ſhall, at or before his admiſſion, give bond, with one or more ſureties, to the truſtees, for the ſum of 7000 l. of money of Great Britain, that he ſhall faithfully diſcharge his truſt, and that he ſhall effectually levy and make good the annual and other rates, payable by the miniſters, &c. ſ. 53.

The collector ſhall keep a public office in Edinburgh, in which attendance ſhall be given from 10 to 12 in the forenoon of every lawful day, for 30 days immediately following the iſſuing of the warrants herein after mentioned, and from 10 to 12 in the forenoon every Wedneſday throughout the reſt of the year. ſ. 54.

The collector ſhall annually on the ſecond Tueſday in May exhibit to the truſtees, at their meeting, an account of the ſums come into his hands in the year preceding, diſtinguiſhing by whom paid, and upon what account. ſ. 55.

The collector ſhall, for his whole trouble and expence, be allowed an annual ſalary, not exceeding 155 l. of money of Great Britain. ſ. 56.

It ſhall be lawful for the truſtees to ſuſpend or remove the collector; and thereupon, or upon his death or reſignation, to name a collector in the interim, who ſhall have full powers to act until the next meeting of the general aſſembly, which meeting ſhall finally determine upon the cauſes of ſuſpenſion or deprivation of the former collector, and either reſtore the former collector, or continue the collector named by the truſtees, or appoint a new collector. ſ. 57.

The collector ſo named ſhall be allowed a proportionable part of the ſalary during the time he ſhall diſcharge the truſt. ſ. 58.

Every preſbytery in Scotland, and each of the univerſities of St. Andrews, Glaſgow, and Edinburgh, ſhall make up liſts of all miniſters admitted to benefices, and of all heads, principals, or other maſters, admitted into offices within their reſpective preſbyteries and univerſities, with the dates of their reſpective admiſſions; and with an account if they be married, and the date of their marriage; and a liſt of the miniſters and members of the univerſities that have died within the year, with the names of the widows, and the names and ages of the children left; and a liſt of the widows that have died or been married within the year, with the dates of their death or marriage, and what children were alive at the ſaid widow's death or marriage; as alſo liſts of all vacancies happening within their ſaid preſbyteries or univerſities, with the dates and cauſe of the vacancy: which liſts, as alſo all other liſts appointed by the truſtees to be made up for the year 1744, ſhall be atteſted by the moderator and clerk of the preſbytery, and by the head or principal, and the clerk of the ſaid univerſities reſpectively; and ſhall betwixt Martinmas and Candlemas in the year 1744, be tranſmitted by the moderator of the preſbytery, and by the heads or principals of the ſaid univerſities, to the truſtees clerk at Edinburgh; and ſo from thenceforth annually, the liſts of each year, computed from Martinmas to Martinmas, ſhall be made up and tranſmitted betwixt Martinmas and Candlemas following; and the moderator of the preſbytery, and the head or principal of the univerſities, neglecting ſo to do, ſhall, for every ſuch offence, forfeit 10 l. of money of Great Britain, to be paid to the collector, and to be levied and applied as the annual rates. ſ. 59.

The moderators of the preſbyteries in the weſtern and northern iſles of Scotland, ſhall not be ſubject to the ſaid penalty of 10 l. in caſe they tranſmit ſuch liſts as aforeſaid within ſix months after the ſaid term of Martinmas. ſ. 60.

The moderators of the ſaid preſbyteries, and their clerk, and the heads or principals of the ſaid three univerſities, and their clerk reſpectively, ſhall at the requeſt of each widow or child, claiming right to an annuity or proviſion, deliver to them a certificate ſigned as aforeſaid, certifying the death of the miniſter, or the death or marriage of his widow, with the reſpective dates thereof, and the names and ages of his children. ſ. 61.

The truſtees ſhall, at their meeting on the ſecond Tueſday in March, make up liſts of all the widows and children entitled to receive annuities or proviſions, mentioning the ſums to which they are entitled; which liſts ſhall remain in the hands of the truſtees clerk, and ſhall be open to the inſpection of all parties intereſted; and it ſhall be lawful for the parties intereſted, to give in their objections in writing to the ſaid clerk, to be laid before the truſtees for their determination at their meeting upon the ſecond Tueſday in May following. ſ. 62.

The truſtees ſhall, at their meeting on the ſecond Tueſday in May, yearly, adjuſt the diſpoſal of their funds of the preceding year, and what ſum ſhall be paid to each widow and child; and the preſes ſhall ſign two copies thereof, and alſo a warrant upon the collector for payment accordingly to each widow and child intereſted; and ſhall lodge all the ſaid warrants in the hands of their clerk, to be delivered to the parties; and the clerk ſhall deliver to the collector one of the ſubſcribed copies of the total liſt and ſtate. ſ. 63.

The collector ſhall, upon the ſaid warrants being preſented to him at his office, upon any of the days and at the hour above ſpecified, make payment of the ſums therein contained, without fee, upon a receipt indorſed upon the ſaid warrants; and if either the collector or the clerk to the truſtees exact any reward for delivering the ſaid warrants, or making payment, the collector and clerk reſpectively ſo offending ſhall, ipſo facto, forfeit his office, and be incapable of being ever re-elected; and upon proof of ſuch offence before the truſtees, the truſtees ſhall deprive the ſaid collector or clerk, and declare him incapable of being re-choſen; and if any perſon acting under the ſaid collector or clerk exact any fee upon the aforeſaid accounts, the ſaid collector or clerk, by whom ſuch offender was appointed, ſhall, for every ſuch offence forfeit 10 l. of lawful money of Great Britain, upon proof before the truſtees; which ſums ſhall be levied and applied as is directed with reſpect to the annual rates. ſ. 64.

If any widow or child entitled to an annuity, or to proviſions, be unduly omitted, in the ſaid annual liſt, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch widow or child to make their claim to the truſtees, at or before their meeting upon the ſecond Tueſday in March, in the year following; and the truſtees ſhall inſert the ſaid widow or child in their liſt to be made up at their meetings on the ſaid ſecond Tueſday in March, and of May, in the ſaid enſuing year; and ſhall grant warrants for payment of their annuities and proviſions out of the produce of the year immediately preceding. ſ. 65.

If the widow or child ſo unduly omitted neglect to make their claim within one year after ſuch omiſſion, their claim ſhall be held as deſerted and ſhall not be allowed thereafter. ſ. 66.

The payments before directed ſhall be made to the widows or children reſpectively named in the warrants, if the perſons ſo named are majors, and to the tutors or curators of ſuch as are minors, and if they have no tutors nor curators to ſuch perſon as ſhall be authoriſed for that purpoſe, by an act of the preſbytery or univerſity, of which the perſon under whom the proviſion is claimed was laſt a member. ſ. 67.

The annuities to widows, and proviſions to children, ſhall not be liable to any arreſtment, but ſhall be paid to the widows widows and children themſelves, or to their tutors and curators, or truſtees as aforeſaid, or to their executors, adminiſtrators, or aſſigns. ſ. 68.

The truſtees, at their meeting on the ſecond Tueſday in May yearly, ſhall give directions to the collector for lending out the ſurpluſes of the preceding year to the miniſters of the ſaid church, and to the heads, principals, and maſters, in the aforeſaid three univerſities, to the amount of 30*l.* each; and the after-ſurpluſes towards raiſing the aforeſaid capital of 35,000*l.* ſ. 69.

No part of the ſaid capital of 35,000*l.* ſhall be lent out or uplifted, or re-employed, but with the advice and conſent of the lord preſident, and the two ſenior judges of the court of ſeſſion, the lord chief baron, and ſenior baron of the court of exchequer, and of the lord juſtice general, and lord juſtice clerk, or three of them. ſ. 70.

The truſtees ſhall attend the ſtated meetings, and the adjournments thereof, and all occaſional meetings, to which they ſhall be then ſummoned, under the penalty of 20*s.* of money of Great Britain, toties quoties, to be levied and applied as is directed with reſpect to the annual rates; and a certificate under the hand of the clerk ſhall be a ſufficient evidence of ſuch abſence, and of the penalties being incurred, unleſs the truſtee have a ſufficient cauſe for ſuch abſence to be allowed of by a majority of the truſtees preſent. ſ. 71.

The truſtees ſhall annually prepare a ſtate of the funds under their management, and an account of their proceedings, which ſhall be laid annually before the aſſembly of the church of Scotland; and a printed copy thereof ſhall be tranſmitted to each preſbytery, and to each of the ſaid univerſities, betwixt the firſt of June and the firſt of Auguſt yearly. ſ. 72.

The expence of printing and tranſmitting the ſaid annual ſtate, and all other neceſſary expences of the truſtees, ſhall be paid by the collector, and ſhall be allowed to him out of his annual receipts; provided the ſaid expences do not in any one year exceed 40*l.* of money of Great Britain. ſ. 73.

The collector ſhall annually, on the ſecond Tueſday in November, exhibit to the truſtees at their meeting an account of the ſums paid by him out of his receipts of the preceding year; and the truſtees ſhall audit and paſs his accounts, and diſcharge him and his ſureties of the ſums ſo accounted for. ſ. 74.

In all proceſſes of modification and augmentation of ſtipends, the aforeſaid annual rates, payable by the miniſters of the church of Scotland by virtue of the preſent act, ſhall be deemed part of their ſtipends. ſ. 75.

If the univerſity of Aberdeen, or any of the colleges therein, ſhall apply to the next general aſſembly of the church of Scotland, declaring that they deſire to be comprehended in this act, the heads, principals, and maſters, in the ſaid univerſity of Aberdeen, or in either of the colleges of the ſaid univerſity, ſhall be comprehended in this act, and ſhall be ſubject to the annual rates and other burdens hereby impoſed, and they and their widows and children reſpectively ſhall be entitled to the privileges and proviſions herein contained, in like manner as the heads, &c. in the univerſities of St. Andrew's and Glaſgow. ſ. 76.

By 22 Geo. 2. c. 21. After the 15th of May 1749, every miniſter who ſhall be ordained and admitted to a benefice in the church of Scotland, and every perſon who ſhall be admitted as head, principal, or maſter, in any of the univerſities of St. Andrew's, Glaſgow, and Edinburgh, ſhall make his election to which of the four yearly rates mentioned in 17 Geo. 2. c. 11. he chooſes to be ſubject during his life, within the times after-mentioned; viz. every miniſter having a benefice in the weſtern or northern iſles of Scotland, on or before the 15th of Jan. that ſhall firſt happen after he ſhall have had right to his benefice for a year and half; and every other miniſter of the church of Scotland, on or before the 15th of Jan. that ſhall firſt happen after he ſhall have had right to his benefice for one half year; and every head, principal, or maſter, of any of the ſaid three univerſities, on or before the 15th of Jan. that ſhall firſt happen after he hath held his office for four calendar months; and every miniſter, head, &c. neglecting to notify his election as is preſcribed by the ſaid act, within the times herein limited, ſhall be deemed to have made his election of the annual rate of 3*l.* 18*s.* 9*d.* ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for the lords of council and ſeſſion in Scotland, or any one of them, to iſſue letters of horning, at the inſtance of the general collector or receiver of the annual rates impoſed by the ſaid act, againſt the miniſters, &c. liable to the ſame, for compelling payment of their rates, or ſums principal, or intereſt; and the ſaid letters of horning ſhall be executed, and other proceedings had thereon, as is now in uſe, with reſpect to hornings at the inſtance of miniſters compelling payment of their ſtipends; and no ſuſpenſion of any charge to be given in virtue of ſuch letters of horning ſhall be paſt without conſignation of the ſum charged for. ſ. 2.

The truſtees may ſtop and deduct the one half of every annuity which ſhall become payable for the firſt time at Whitſunday 1749, or at any Whitſunday thereafter, to the widow of every miniſter, &c. who ſhall not have paid a ſum equal to three years amount of the annuity correſpondent to his annual rate, and the like at every ſucceeding Whitſunday, during the life of ſuch widow, until either ſhe ſhall pay into the fund, or until ſuch deductions ſhall amount to as much as together with the ſums paid by her huſband (without computing any intereſt thereon) ſhall be equal to three years of her annuity; and the truſtees are to ſtop out of the proviſion which ſhall become payable, at the ſaid terms of Whitſunday to the children of every miniſter, &c. who ſhall not have paid a ſum equal to the amount of three years annuity, correſponding to his annual rate, ſo much as together with the ſums paid by him or deducted from his widow (without computing intereſt,) ſhall be equal to three years of the ſaid correſponding annuity. ſ. 3.

The truſtees acting in the execution of the ſaid act, ſhall direct the ſums after mentioned to be applied from year to year out of the firſt and readieſt of the whole produce, after defraying the expence of management, towards raiſing a fund to the extent of 30*l.* of Great Britain, in the hands of each miniſter, &c. ſubject to the annual rates; and a further ſum of 50,000*l.* like money of capital, by their lending out of the after-mentioned ſums annually, in the manner preſcribed by the ſaid act, viz. 3000*l.* ſhall be ſo applied at Whitſunday in each of the years from 1749, to 1752, both incluſive; 2000*l.* at Whitſunday in each of the years from 1753, to 1756, both incluſive; 1000*l.* at Whitſunday in each of the years from 1757, to 1763, both incluſive; 400*l.* at Whitſunday in each of the years from 1774, to 1770, both incluſive; and 200*l.* at Whitſunday in the year 1771, and at Whitſunday in each year thereafter, until each miniſter, &c. ſubject to the annual rates, have received 30*l.* in loan, and likewiſe until the ſaid further capital of 50,000*l.* be made up. ſ. 4.

If the annual produce of any one year computed from Martinmas to Martinmas, exceed the charges of management, and the ſums hereby ordered to be applied for raiſing the ſtock, and the annuities due to the widows, and proviſions due to the children for that year, and the arrears of the annuities and proviſions for former years, ſuch ſurplus ſhall be applied to the raiſing the capital by lending out the ſame along with the ſums before appointed to be lent out for ſuch reſpective year. ſ. 5.

Although the annual ſurplus aforeſaid, for any one year, computed from Martinmas to Martinmas, after payment of the charges of management, and the ſum hereby appointed to be applied for raiſing of the ſtock or capital fund for that year, ſhall not be ſufficient to pay the whole annuities to widows, and proviſions to children, payable for that year, yet no incroachment ſhall be made upon the capital then raiſed, nor ſhall the farther raiſing thereof be thereby retarded; but ſuch deficiency ſhall firſt affect the children's proviſions proportionably, and then the annuities of the widows proportionably, without regard to the order of time in which thoſe proviſions or annuities become due; and the ſame ſhall again be made good to them out of the ſurplus of the produce for ſucceeding years, in this order, viz. after payment of the expence of management, and of the ſum for raiſing the ſtock, the widows annuities unpaid in the preceding year, ſhall be paid in the firſt place, and then the widows annuities of the current year, and after the ſaid annuities, the children's proviſions of the former year or years, according to the order of time in which they become due; and laſtly, the children's proviſions for the current year. ſ. 6.

The capital ſhall at no time exceed the ſum of 50,000 l. over and above the ſum of 30 l. lent to each miniſter, &c. and after ſuch capital ſhall be raiſed, the ſurplus of the annual income in any one year, from Martinmas to Martinmas, after payment of the burdens for that year, including the arrears of former years, ſhall, at the Whitſunday when ſuch ſurplus ariſes be divided amongſt all the widows then entitled to annuities, and all the children then entitled to proviſions; ſo as that each widow and each child receive a proportionable ſhare of ſuch ſurplus correſpondent to the extent of the annual rates of their deceaſed huſbands or fathers. ſ. 7.

All other regulations enacted by 17 Geo. 2. c. 11. touching the ſecuring and management of the capital ſtock therein mentioned, and for making up any accidental diminution of, or preventing any encroachment on the ſame, ſhall take place with regard to the capital ſtock hereby permitted to be raiſed. ſ. 8.

The truſtees and their ſucceſſors ſhall hold the four ſtated regular meetings in the hall of the houſe built by the ſaid truſtees within the city of Edinburgh inſtead of the old church iſle of Edinburgh. And the remaining debt incurred for building the ſaid houſe, and the expence in keeping the ſame in repair, ſhall be deemed part of the neceſſary incidental expences provided for by the ſaid act, and ſhall be paid by the collector and be allowed him out of the annual receipts; provided the ſame and all other incidental expences do not in any one year exceed 40 l. of Great Britain. ſ. 9.

Miniſters, &c. contributors, who were in the ſaid church or univerſities, at the commencement of the ſaid act, ſhall, at Candlemas in each of the years 1750, 1751, 1752, 1753, 1754, 1755, according to the computation in Scotland, pay to the collector at Edinburgh legal intereſt of the 30 l. lent to them; and the produce ariſing from the difference betwixt the legal intereſt and the four per cent. payable on account of the loans of 30 l. lent to the contributors, ſhall be applied at the ſight, and by direction of the truſtees for defraying the expence of obtaining this act, and for paying what ſhall on the 15th of May 1749, be reſting of the charge of building the houſe in Edinburgh for the meetings of the truſtees; and the ſurplus ſhall go towards increaſing the ſaid capital: and the ſaid additional intereſts ſhall not be computed as any part of the three years annuity which every contributor is to make good to the fund in the manner already directed. ſ. 10.

The heads, principals, and maſters, in the univerſity of Aberdeen, or in the King's College and Mareſhall College of Aberdeen, ſhall be comprehended in this and the ſaid former act, and ſhall be ſubject to the annual rates and other burdens thereby or by this act impoſed, and their widows and children entitled to the privileges and proviſions therein contained, ſubject to the variations by this act provided, in like manner as the heads, &c. in the univerſities of St. Andrew and Glaſgow. ſ. 11.

Nonconformiſts.

By 10 Ann. c. 7. It ſhall be lawful for all of the epiſcopal communion in Scotland to meet for the exerciſe of divine worſhip, to be performed after their own manner, by paſtors ordained by a proteſtant biſhop, and who are not eſtabliſhed miniſters of any church or pariſh, and to uſe in their congregations the liturgy of the church of England, if they think fit, without diſturbance; and all ſheriffs of ſhires, ſtewards of ſtewartries, and magiſtrates of boroughs and juſtices of peace, are required to give protection and aſſiſtance to ſuch epiſcopal miniſters, and thoſe of their communion, in their meetings for the worſhip of God, held in any place, except pariſh churches. ſ. 1.

Provided that none ſhall exerciſe the function of a paſtor in the epiſcopal meetings, except ſuch as ſhall have received holy orders from a proteſtant biſhop; and that every perſon who ſhall be appointed paſtor or miniſter of any epiſcopal congregation, before he take upon him to officiate, preſent his letters of orders to the juſtices of peace at their quarter ſeſſions; and that the ſaid letters of orders be there entered on record by the regiſter or clerk of the meeting of the juſtices, for which there ſhall be no greater fee taken than 1 s. ſ. 2.

Provided that the aſſembly for religious worſhip in the epiſcopal meetings be held with doors not locked, barred or bolted; and that nothing herein contained ſhall exempt any perſons frequenting the epiſcopal congregations from paying tithes, or other parochial duties to the church or miniſter of the pariſh in which they reſide. ſ. 4.

The act paſſed in the parliament held in the year 1695, intituled, "Act againſt irregular baptiſms and marriages," ſhall be repealed; and no perſon ſhall incur any diſability or penalty upon account of his reſorting to the epiſcopal meetings; and it ſhall be free for all the ſubjects in Scotland to meet for divine ſervice, without any diſturbance, and to ſettle their congregations in what places they ſhall think fit, except pariſh churches; and for the epiſcopal miniſters not only to pray and preach in the epiſcopal congregations, but to adminiſter the ſacraments, and marry, without incurring any penalty. ſ. 5.

Provided that the parents who have their children chriſtened by epiſcopal miniſters, be obliged to enter the birth and chriſtening in the regiſter books belonging to the pariſhes in which they live; and provided that no epiſcopal miniſter reſiding within Scotland preſume to marry any perſons but thoſe whoſe bans have been duly publiſhed three Lord's days in the epiſcopal congregations which the parties frequent, and in the churches to which they belong as pariſhioners, and that upon the ſame puniſhments as are already inflicted by the laws of Scotland in caſes of clandeſtine marriages; and the miniſters of the pariſh churches are to publiſh the ſaid bans; and in caſe of neglect, it ſhall be ſufficient to publiſh the bans in any epiſcopal congregation alone. ſ. 6.

Provided that all the laws made againſt profaneneſs and immorality, and for the frequenting of divine ſervices on the Lord's day, ſhall be ſtill in force, and executed againſt all perſons that ſhall not reſort either to ſome church, or to ſome congregation of religious worſhip, allowed by this act. ſ. 7.

This act ſhall not extend to give eaſe to any papiſt or popiſh recuſant, or to any perſon that ſhall deny in his preaching or writing the doctrine of the bleſſed Trinity. ſ. 8.

If any perſon ſhall willingly, and of purpoſe, maliciouſly or contemptuouſly, come into any congregation of religious worſhip, permitted by this act, and diſturb the ſame, or give any diſturbance to the congregation at the doors or windows, or miſuſe any miniſter of ſuch congregation, ſuch perſon upon proof thereof before two juſtices of peace by two witneſſes, ſhall find ſureties to be bound by recognizance in 50 l. for his appearance at the next quarter ſeſſions, or before the court of juſticiary, or other judge competent, and in default of ſureties ſhall be committed to priſon; and upon conviction of the offence ſhall forfeit 100 l. one moiety to the informer, the other to be diſpoſed of for the uſe of the poor of the pariſh where ſuch offence ſhall be committed; and if the magiſtrates, or others pretending to have authority in Scotland, ſhall in contempt of this law forbid or hinder thoſe of the epiſcopal perſuaſion from meeting together for divine worſhip, or ſhall ſhut up the door of the places where ſuch epiſcopal aſſemblies are held, or intended to be held, ſuch magiſtrates and others ſo offending, upon proof thereof before the court of juſticiary by two witneſſes, ſhall forfeit 100 l. to be diſtributed as aforeſaid. ſ. 9. See the reſt of this act in Excommunication Service, &c.

By 5 Geo. 1. c. 29. No perſon ſhall take upon him to preach, read prayers, or perform divine ſervice, in any epiſcopal meeting-houſe in Scotland, where nine or more ſhall be preſent, beſides thoſe of the houſhold, but ſuch who ſhall pray in expreſs words for his moſt excellent majeſty king George, their royal highneſſes the prince and princeſs of Wales, and their iſſue, and ſhall have taken and ſubſcribed the oath of abjuration [ſee the general title OATHS] in one of the courts of ſeſſion, juſticiary or exchequer, in Scotland, or before the juſtices at the quarter ſeſſions, or ſheriffs or ſtewarts of any ſhire or ſtewartry, within which ſuch perſon is reſident, or the meeting-houſe ſituated. ſ. 9. See Oaths, Patronages.

By 19 Geo. 2. c. 38. All ſheriffs, ſtewards, and their deputies, in Scotland, and the magiſtrates of royal boroughs, ſhall before the 1ſt of November 1746, enquire into the number and ſituation of epiſcopal meeting-houſes within their reſpective juriſdictions, and cauſe liſts to be made of the ſame, and to be entered in a book to be kept by the clerks belonging to their juriſdictions, and tranſmit copies thereof to the clerk of each houſe of parliament to be laid before the ſaid houſes at their next meeting. ſ. 1.

Every paſtor or miniſter of any epiſcopal congregation in Scotland, ſhall, before the 1ſt of September 1746, produce to the clerk of the ſhire, ſtewartry, or borough, a certificate of his having qualified himſelf by taking the oaths to his majeſty; of which certificate the clerk ſhall make an entry in the book appointed for keeping a liſt of the meeting-houſes within that juriſdiction, which entry ſhall expreſs the name of the miniſter, and the ſituation and deſcription of the meeting-houſe where he officiates; copies of which entries ſhall be tranſmitted by the ſaid clerk to the clerk of each houſe of parliament; and the clerk of ſuch ſhire, &c. ſhall deliver two atteſted copies of ſuch certificate to ſuch miniſter, one to be by him fixed on the outſide of the meeting-houſe, on or near the door, and the other in ſome conſpicuous place within ſuch meeting-houſe; for each of which copies 6 d. ſterling ſhall be paid and no more. ſ. 2.

Every miniſter who ſhall officiate in any epiſcopal meeting-houſe ſhall as often as he officiates during the ſervice, pray for the king by name, and for all the royal family, in the ſame form as in the liturgy of the church of England. ſ. 3.

The ſheriffs, ſtewarts, and their deputies, and magiſtrates of boroughs, ſhall after the 1ſt of November 1746, ſhut up the meeting-houſes whereof the miniſter ſhall not have produced to the clerks the certificate of his having been qualified, or wherein his majeſty and the royal family ſhall not be prayed for in expreſs words; and ſhall not again give acceſs to the ſaid houſes, until the proprietor, tenant, or poſſeſſor enact himſelf with one or more ſureties in the court books of the ſaid ſheriff, ſteward, or royal borough, under the penalty of 100 l. ſterling, to be paid to the ſaid judges or magiſtrates, for the uſe of his majeſty, that he ſhall not ſuffer ſuch houſe to be employed as an epiſcopal meeting by any miniſter not qualifying himſelf and conforming to the regulations before-mentioned, during ſuch time as he ſhall continue proprietor, tenant, or poſſeſſor. ſ. 4.

If any perſon preſume to exerciſe the function of a miniſter of any epiſcopal meeting in Scotland, without having firſt cauſed his letters of orders to be entered on record, or without having firſt qualified himſelf by taking and ſubſcribing the oaths, in ſuch manner as all officers civil and military in Scotland are to take and ſubſcribe the ſame, or without having firſt produced, and cauſed to be entered, in the books to be kept by the clerk of the ſheriff, ſteward, or borough courts reſpectively where he is to officiate, his name and place of abode, and the place where his meeting is to be held, and the certificate of his having taken the oaths; or in caſe any miniſter in ſuch epiſcopal meeting-houſe ſhall not as often as he officiates during divine ſervice pray for his majeſty by name, and all the royal family, being convicted before any two juſtices of peace, or any other judge competent of the place ſummarily, he ſhall for the firſt offence ſuffer impriſonment for ſix months; and for the ſecond, or any ſubſequent offence, being convicted before the court of juſticiary, or in any of the circuit courts, be adjudged to be tranſported to ſome of the plantations in America for life; and if he return into Great Britain, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment for life. ſ. 5.

Any meeting, aſſembly, or congregation in Scotland, where there ſhall be five perſons or more aſſembled to hear divine ſervice, beſides thoſe of the houſhold, if it be in any houſe where there is a family inhabiting, or if it be in a place where there is no family inhabiting, then where any ſuch five or more ſhall be ſo aſſembled, and where divine ſervice ſhall be performed by paſtor or miniſter, profeſſing to be of the epiſcopal communion, ſhall be deemed an epiſcopal meeting-houſe within this act. ſ. 6.

The ſheriffs and ſtewards, and their deputies, and the magiſtrates of royal boroughs, ſhall make enquiry within their reſpective juriſdictions, concerning any offences againſt this act or other laws concerning miniſters officiating in any epiſcopal meeting-houſe in Scotland; and whenever they they find that any meeting-houſe within their juriſdiction hath been ſet up without ſuch entry as aforeſaid, or that the miniſter hath neglected to pray for his majeſty by name and all the royal family, they ſhall cauſe ſuch offences to be proſecuted before them, and ſhut up ſuch meeting-houſes, and inflict the penalties impoſed by this or other acts: and in caſe any information be given to the ſaid ſheriffs, &c. that any offence has been committed for which the penalty of tranſportation or impriſonment for life is hereby inflicted, they ſhall cauſe intimation to be made thereof in writing to his majeſty's advocate for Scotland, who ſhall proſecute the ſame with effect. ſ. 7.

If any perſon reſort to any epiſcopal meeting-houſe in Scotland hereby diſallowed, and ſhall not within five days give information of ſuch illegal meeting to ſome proper magiſtrate, ſuch perſon ſo offending, being convicted before any two juſtices of peace, or any other judge competent of the place ſummarily, ſhall for the firſt offence forfeit 5 l. ſterling, one moiety to the uſe of his majeſty, and the other moiety to the uſe of the informer, and ſuffer impriſonment for ſix months, or until the ſame be paid; and for the ſecond, or any ſubſequent offence, being convicted before the court of juſticiary, or in any of the circuit courts, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment for two years from the date of ſuch conviction. ſ. 8.

After the ſaid firſt of September, no letters of orders of any miniſter of any epiſcopal meeting in Scotland ſhall be deemed ſufficient, or admitted to be regiſtered, but ſuch as have been given by ſome biſhop of the church of England, or Ireland; and the regiſtration of any other letters of orders ſhall be void. ſ. 9.

Every proſecution for any offence againſt this act ſhall be commenced within 12 months after ſuch offence committed. ſ. 10.

No peer of Scotland ſhall be capable of being elected one of the ſixteen peers to ſit and vote in the houſe of peers in the parliament of Great Britain, or of voting in the election of any of the ſaid ſixteen peers, who ſhall have within one year preceding ſuch election been twice preſent at divine ſervice in any epiſcopal meeting in Scotland, not held in purſuance of 10 Ann. cap. 7. or diſallowed by this act; and it ſhall be competent for any peer of Scotland, preſent at the election of the ſaid 16 peers, or of any of them, to make this objection, and to prove the ſame by a witneſs upon oath, or by referring it to the oath of the peer ſo objected to; which oath the lord clerk regiſter, or either of the two clerks of ſeſſion appointed by him to officiate at ſuch election, is to adminiſter; and in caſe the ſame be proved, or the peer ſo objected to, ſhall admit the fact, or refuſe to depoſe concerning it, he ſhall be diſqualified from voting, or being choſen; but ſuch admiſſion or confeſſion at ſuch meeting for ſuch election, ſhall not be made uſe of, or given in evidence againſt ſuch peer, upon any proſecution for any penalty inflicted by this or any former act. ſ. 11.

No perſon ſhall be capable of being elected, or of voting in any election of a member of parliament for any ſhire or borough in Scotland, or of being elected, or voting in the election of a magiſtrate or counſellor for boroughs, or of a deacon of crafts within burgh, or of a collector or clerk of the land tax or ſupply, who ſhall have within one year preceding ſuch election been twice preſent at divine ſervice in any epiſcopal meeting in Scotland not held in purſuance of 10 Ann. cap. 7. or diſallowed by this act: and it ſhall be competent for any candidate or member of the meeting for ſuch election to make this objection, and to prove the ſame by a witneſs upon oath, or by referring it to the oath of the perſon objected to, which oath the preſes or clerk of ſuch meeting is to adminiſter; and in caſe the ſame be proved, or the perſon ſo objected to admit the fact, or refuſe to depoſe concerning it, he ſhall be incapable of voting, or being choſen at ſuch election; but ſuch admiſſion or confeſſion at ſuch meeting for ſuch election, ſhall not be made uſe of, or given in evidence againſt ſuch perſon, upon any proſecution for any penalty inflicted by this or any former act. ſ. 12.

If any perſon holding any office civil or military in Scotland, reſort to any epiſcopal meeting-houſe in Scotland diſallowed by this act, and be thereof convicted before any two juſtices of peace, or any other judge competent of the place, he ſhall be diſabled from thenceforth to hold ſuch office, and ſhall forfeit the ſame, and ſhall be adjudged incapable to bear any office civil or military in Scotland for one year after the date of ſuch conviction. ſ. 13.

In caſe any of the ſaid judges or magiſtrates be guilty of any wilful neglect of their duty in the premiſes, they ſhall forfeit 50 l. ſterling, toties quoties; one moiety to the informer, the other to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh where the offender reſides, to be recovered by ſummary complaint before the court of ſeſſion, or by proſecution before the court of juſticiary at Edinburgh, or at the circuit courts of juſticiary. ſ. 14.

By 21 Geo. 2. c. 34. For clearing any doubt upon 19 Geo. 2. cap. 38. ſect. 9. it is enacted that no letters of orders, not granted by ſome biſhop of the church of England, or of Ireland, ſhall be ſufficient to qualify any miniſter of an epiſcopal meeting in Scotland, whether the ſame were regiſtered before or after the firſt of September 1746, and every ſuch regiſtration either before or after the ſaid firſt of September ſhall be void. ſ. 13.

In all proſecutions for offences againſt the act 19 Geo. 2. cap. 38. it ſhall be lawful to produce as witneſſes, whether againſt the miniſter or hearers, other perſons preſent, who may have been guilty of offending againſt the ſaid act; but the evidence given by ſuch witneſſes ſhall not be made uſe of againſt themſelves upon any proſecution for any penalty inflicted by the ſaid act. ſ. 21.

Notes.

By 12 Geo. 3. c. 72. made perpetual by 23 Geo. 3. c. 18. ſ. 55. The ſame diligence and execution ſhall proceed upon promiſſory notes, whether holograph or not, as is provided to paſs upon bills of exchange, and inland bills, by the law of Scotland, and promiſſory notes ſhall bear intereſt as bills, and ſhall paſs by indorſation; and indorſees of promiſſory notes ſhall have the ſame privileges as indorſees of bills in all points. ſ. 36.

No bill of exchange, or inland bill, or promiſſory note, ſhall be of force to produce any diligence or action in Scotland, unleſs ſuch diligence ſhall be raiſed and executed, or action commenced therein, within ſix years from the terms at which the ſums became exigible. ſ. 37.

No bank notes or poſt bills iſſued by any bank or banking company, and which contain an obligation of payment to the bearer, and are circulated as money, ſhall be comprehended under the aforeſaid limitation of preſcription; and it ſhall be lawful at any time after the expiration of the ſix years, in either of the caſes beforementioned, to prove the debts contained in the bills, &c. and that the ſame are owing by the oaths or writs of the debtor. ſ. 39.

The years of the minority of the creditors, in ſuch notes or bills, ſhall not be computed in the ſix years. ſ. 40.

All inland bills and promiſſory notes ſhall be proteſted

ar foreign bills before the expiration of the three days of gsace, otherwiſe there ſhall be no recourſe againſt the drawers or indorſers of ſuch inland bills, or againſt the indorſers of ſuch promiſſory notes; and it ſhall be ſufficient to preſerve the ſaid recourſe, if notice is given of the diſhonour within fourteen days after the proteſt is taken, without prejudice to the notification of the diſhonour of foreign bills, to be made within ſuch time as is required by the uſage of merchants. ſ. 41.

Summary execution, by horning, or other diligence, ſhall paſs upon bills, whether foreign or inland, and whether accepted or proteſted for non-acceptance, and upon all promiſſory notes duly negociated, not only againſt the acceptors of ſuch bills, or granters of ſuch notes, but alſo againſt the drawers of ſuch bills, and the whole indorſers of the ſaid bills and notes jointly and ſeverally, excepting where the indorſation is qualified to be without recourſe, ſaving to the drawers or indorſers their claims of recourſe againſt each other, and all defences againſt the ſame. ſ. 42.

Summary execution by horning, or other diligence, ſhall be competent to the indorſee of a bill, although the proteſt is not in the name of the indorſee craving the diligence; and although the bill is not re-conveyed to him by indorſation, if he produces a receipt for the value by act of honour, or a miſſive letter from the proteſting indorſee, mentioning the diſhonour agreeable to the practice of merchants in returned bills. ſ. 43.

Oaths.

By 6 Ann. c. 14. Every perſon, who ſhall be admitted into any office civil or military in Scotland, ſhall within three months after his admittance take the oath of abjuration [ſee general title OATHS] and ſuch perſons having offices, who are obliged to take the oath of allegiance and aſſurance before the privy council there, ſhall take the oath of abjuration in the court of ſeſſion, juſticiary, or exchequer there; and ſuch as are obliged to take the oath of allegiance in any other place, ſhall take the oath of abjuration at the quarter ſeſſions. ſ. 1, 2, 3.

The ſaid courts ſhall keep rolls, in which the ſubſcriptions of all perſons taking the oaths ſhall be made, to which all ſhall have free acceſs. ſ. 4.

Every perſon hereby required to take the oath and neglecting ſo to do, ſhall be adjudged incapable to enjoy any office, in reſpect whereof he is obliged to take the oath. ſ. 5.

Every ſuch perſon who ſhall, after ſuch neglect, either perſonally or by deputy, execute any of the ſaid offices, and ſhall be thereof convicted, ſhall incur the penalties of 13 & 14 Will. 3. cap. 6. See OATHS. ſ. 6.

By 10 Ann. c. 2. No perſon ſhall be admitted to the employment of advocate, writer to the ſignet, notary public, or any office belonging to the college of juſtice, until he hath taken the oath of abjuration before the lords of ſeſſion. ſ. 11.

By 10 Ann. c. 7. All miniſters of the church of Scotland, and every paſtor or miniſter of any epiſcopal congregation in Scotland, ſhall before their admiſſion into their churches, or exerciſe of their function, take the oaths of allegiance and abjuration, under the penalties of 6 Ann. c. 14.—ſ. 3.

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 20. No peer ſhall be capable of acting as lieutenant or deputy lieutenant in Scoland, unleſs he ſhall firſt before ſix lords of the privy council, or ſuch other perſons as ſhall be authoriſed by his majeſty, take the oaths of allegiance and abjuration, and ſubſcribe the aſſurance appointed for perſons having places of truſt; and no perſon under the degree of a peer ſhall be capable to act as a lieutenant, deputy lieutenant, or other officer in Scotland, unleſs he ſhall firſt take and ſubſcribe the oaths and aſſurance; which any juſtice of peace is enabled to adminiſter to the deputy lieutenants, not being peers; and the ſaid lieutenants, or in their abſence, or by their directions, any two of their deputies are enabled to adminiſter to the officers. ſ. 13. See the aſſurance in general title OATHS.

Such perſons taking and ſubſcribing of the ſaid oaths and aſſurance ſhall be certified into the next quarter ſeſſions held for ſuch ſhire or ſtewartry, together with the original ſubſcriptions. ſ. 14.

Perſons acting as lieutenants, &c. neglecting to take and ſubſcribe the oaths and aſſurance for three months after, ſhall be liable to the penalties, as perſons executing offices of truſt, after three months neglect of taking the oaths. ſ. 15. See Arms, Papiſts, Parliament, Tenures, Treaſon.

By 5 Geo. 1. c. 29. Every perſon who ſhall preſent himſelf to be tried as to his qualifications to be licenſed or admitted to preach, or to be ordained a miniſter of the church of Scotland, ſhall, before his obtaining ſuch licence, &c. take and ſubſcribe in the court of the lords of ſeſſion, or court of juſticiary, or exchequer, or before the juſtices at their quarter ſeſſions, or before ſheriffs or ſtewarts, or their deputies, in open court for their ſhire or ſtewartry, within which ſuch perſon has reſidence, or within which the preſbytery he preſents himſelf to ſhall be held, the following oath:

I A. B. do truly and ſincerely acknowledge, profeſs, teſtify, and declare in my conſcience, before God and the world, that our ſovereign lord king George is lawful and rightful king of Great Britain, and all other his majeſty's dominions thereunto belonging, and I do ſolemnly and ſincerely declare, that I do believe in my conſcience, that the perſon pretended to be prince of Wales during the life of the late king James, and ſince his deceaſe pretending to be, and taking upon himſelf the ſtile and title of king of England, by the name of James the third, or of Scotland, by the name of James the eighth, or the ſtile and title of king of Great Britain, hath not any right or title whatſoever to the crown of this realm, or any other the dominions thereto belonging; and I do renounce, refuſe, and abjure, any allegiance or obedience to him; and I do ſwear, that I will bear faithful and true allegiance to his majeſty king George, and him will defend to the utmoſt of my power againſt all traiterous conſpiracies and attempts whatſoever, which ſhall be made againſt his perſon and government; and I will do my utmoſt endeavour to diſcloſe and make known to his majeſty and his ſucceſſors, all treaſon and traiterous conſpiracies, which I ſhall know to be againſt him or any of them; and I do faithfully promiſe to the utmoſt of my power, to ſupport, maintain, and defend, the ſucceſſion of the crown in the heirs of the body of the late princeſs Sophia, electreſs and dutcheſs of Hanover, being proteſtants, againſt him the ſaid James, and all other perſons whatſoever: and all theſe things I do plainly and ſincerely acknowledge and ſwear, according to theſe expreſs words by me ſpoken, and according to the plain and common ſenſe and underſtanding of the ſame words, without any equivocation, mental evaſion, or ſecret reſervation whatſoever. And I do make this recognition, acknowledgment, abjuration, renunciation, and promiſe heartily, willingly, and truly.

So help me God.

And the clerks of ſuch courts ſhall grant certificates of taking ſuch oaths, and the names of the commiſſioners of the peace preſent, and the name and deſcription of every perſon who ſhall take ſuch oaths; for which there ſhall be no more paid than 2 s. ſ. 1.

Every perſon who ſhall preſent himſelf to trial for obtaining licence to preach, or to be ordained a miniſter of the church of Scotland, ſhall cauſe to be recorded in the book of the ſheriff, or ſtewart court, within the juriſdiction of which is the ſeat of the preſbytery where he ſhall preſent himſelf, a certificate of his having taken the ſaid oath. ſ. 2. See ſ. 3. in Nonconformiſts.

If any expectant of divinity ſhall apply to any preſbytery, or church judicature, in order to be ordained or licenced to preach, without having cauſed to be recorded as aforeſaid, a certificate of his having taken the oaths, he ſhall be liable to ſix months impriſonment, and be incapable of enjoying any benefice, &c. for one year, to be reckoned from the time he ſhall take the oaths after having obtained licence to preach; and all civil magiſtrates are empowered to hinder any ſuch perſon to preach within their juriſdictions. And if any perſon ſhall preſume to preach, &c. in any epiſcopal meeting-houſe in Scotland, without praying in expreſs words for the king, &c. he ſhall be liable to ſix months impriſonment; and every meeting-houſe, where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, ſhall be ſhut up for ſix months. ſ. 4.

One moiety, not exceeding a half year's ſtipend of the reſpective pariſhes concerned, of ſuch penalties as ſhall be incurred by virtue of this act, ſhall go to the informer, and the other to the poor of the pariſh where the offence ſhall be committed; and the ſaid penalties ſhall be recoverable by way of action or ſummar complaint, without abiding the ordinary delays of proceſs; and no advocation, ſuſpenſion, or other ſtop of proſecution, before any inferior court, ſhall be of force, unleſs upon production of a certificate, that the perſon proſecuted has taken the oaths. ſ. 5.

All perſons who ſhall be ordained or admitted miniſters of the church of Scotland, ſhall, before their being ordained or admitted, take and ſubſcribe the oath of allegiance, and the aſſurance, and alſo the oath of abjuration, before ſuch judges, and to be certified, and under ſuch penalties, &c. as in 1 Geo. 1. c. 13.; and every miniſter who ſhall take the ſaid oaths, ſhall cauſe a certificate thereof to be entered in the books of the ſheriff or ſtewart-courts; and the clerks of ſuch courts are to grant extracts without fee, other than 2 s. ſ. 7.

By 19 Geo. 2. c. 39. No perſon ſhall exerciſe the employment of a chaplain in any family in Scotland, or of a governor, tutor, or teacher of children reſiding in Scotland, or beyond the ſeas, without firſt taking the oaths appointed to be taken by perſons in offices of public truſt, and cauſing a certificate of his having done ſo to be regiſtered in a book to be kept by the clerks of the ſhires, ſtewartries, or burghs, in Scotland, where ſuch perſon reſides; or in caſe of any ſuch governor, &c. of children in parts beyond the ſeas, in a book to be kept by the clerk of the ſhire, &c. where the parent or guardian of ſuch child reſides. And if any perſon exerciſe the employment of chaplain in any family in Scotland, or of a governor or teacher of children as aforeſaid, without having taken the ſaid oaths, and cauſed the certificate of his having taken the ſame to be regiſtered, being convicted before two juſtices of the peace, or any other judge competent of the place ſummarily, he ſhall, for the firſt offence, ſuffer impriſonment for ſix months; and for the ſecond, or any ſubſequent offence, being convicted before the court of juſticiary, or in any of the circuit courts, be baniſhed from Great Britain for ſeven years. ſ. 23.

It ſhall be lawful for every chaplain, ſchoolmaſter, governor, tutor, or teacher of youth, who is of the communion of the church of Scotland, inſtead of the oath of abjuration appointed to be taken by perſons in offices civil or military, to take the oath directed to be taken by preachers and expectants in divinity of the eſtabliſhed church of Scotland, by 5 Geo. 1. c. 29. ſ. 24.

No perſon in Scotland ſhall entertain any perſon or chaplain in any family, or as governor, tutor, or teacher of any child, unleſs the certificate of ſuch perſon's having taken the oaths to his majeſty be regiſtered; and every perſon offending, being convicted before two juſtices of peace, or any other judge competent, ſhall, for the firſt offence, ſuffer impriſonment for ſix months, and for the ſecond, or any ſubſequent offence, being convicted before the court of juſticiary, or in any of the circuit courts in Scotland, ſuffer impriſonment for two years. ſ. 25.

The ſheriffs of ſhires, and ſtewarts and ſtewartries, and magiſtrates of burghs in Scotland, ſhall make enquiry within their reſpective juriſdictions, concerning offences againſt this act, and cauſe the ſame, being the firſt offence, to be proſecuted before themſelves; and in caſe of a ſecond or ſubſequent offence, to give notice thereof, and of the evidence, to his majeſty's advocate, who is to proſecute before the court of juſticiary, or at the circuit courts. ſ. 26.

By 20 Geo. 2. c. 43. After the 29th of September 1747, it ſhall not be lawful for any perſon in Scotland, to act as a writer, agent, or ſolicitor, or to manage any cauſe, or buſineſs, in the court of ſeſſion, court of juſticiary, (whether at Edinburgh, or in the circuits), or in the court of exchequer, until he has firſt taken and ſubſcribed the oaths in the court of ſeſſion or juſticiary, or in one of the ſheriff's or ſtewart's courts, appointed to be taken by perſons in offices in Scotland; and cauſed a certificate of his having ſo done to be regiſtered in the court where he ſo officiates: and it ſhall not be lawful for any perſon to act as a procurator, writer, agent, or ſolicitor, or to plead, or manage any cauſe, or buſineſs, in the court of any ſheriff, or ſtewart, in Scotland, or any other inferior court, until he has firſt taken and ſubſcribed the ſaid oaths, and cauſed a certificate thereof to be regiſtered in ſuch court where he officiates: and every ſuch court ſhall, upon the demand of ſuch perſons, adminiſter and regiſter ſuch oaths. And every perſon acting in manner above mentioned, without having firſt taken and ſubſcribed the ſaid oaths, and cauſed a certificate thereof to be regiſtered as herein directed, ſhall, for every ſuch offence, being convicted in any court where the offence has been committed, or before the court of ſeſſion, or juſticiary, upon a ſummary trial, forfeit 20 l. ſterling, one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety to the informer, and ſhall ſuffer impriſonment for ſix months, unleſs or until the ſame be paid. ſ. 44.

By 21 Geo. 2. c. 34. Any perſon being, or pretending to be, in holy orders, other than the miniſters, elders, or preachers, of the eſtabliſhed church of Scotland, who ſhall preach or perform any divine ſervice in any houſe or family, of which he is not the maſter, in the hearing of any other perſon, whether of the family or not, ſhall be deemed a chaplain, within the 19 Geo. 2. c. 39. ſ. 11.

The governor, deputy governor, director, ſecretary, caſhier, treaſurer, accountant, or teller of either of the banks in Scotland, viz. the bank of Scotland, or the royal bank, ſhall, within three months after he ſhall take upon him ſuch employment, take and ſubſcribe the oaths of allegiance and abjuration, and ſubſcribe the aſſurance appointed to be taken by perſons in offices of public truſt in Scotland, either in the court of ſeſſion, court of juſticiary, or in the ſheriff or ſtewart's court of the county or ſtewartry where he reſides, or in one of the courts at Weſtminſter:

the taking and ſubſcribing of which oaths and aſſurance ſhall be entered on a roll, and be kept amongſt the records of the ſaid courts. ſ. 14.

Every ſuch perſon who ſhall neglect to take and ſubſcribe the ſaid oaths, or ſubſcribe the ſaid aſſurance in ſome of the ſaid courts, within the times aforeſaid, ſhall be ipſo facto diſabled to exerciſe ſuch employment; and if any ſuch perſon, after ſuch neglect, exerciſe ſuch employment, he ſhall be liable to the ſame penalties as perſons executing offices of public truſt in Scotland, who have neglected to take the oaths. ſ. 15.

No perſon ſhall act as extractor to the court of ſeſſion, or as clerk to, or keeper of the hand rolls of any of the lords of ſeſſion or juſticiary, or as clerk to any advocate, or as clerk or firſt ſervant to any of the principal or under clerks of ſeſſion or juſticiary, or as keeper or under keeper of the regiſter of bonds in any of the ſaid clerks offices, or other offices of regiſters, or as collectors or ſub-collectors of the fees of the lord regiſter, or clerks of the ſeſſion, unleſs he firſt take the oaths, and ſubſcribe the aſſurance, appointed to be taken by perſons in offices of public truſt in Scotland, and cauſe a certificate thereof to be regiſtered in a book kept for that purpoſe; and the lords of the ſeſſion are to cauſe ſuch book to be kept by one of the principal clerks of the ſeſſion, who is to enter the names of the perſons taking the ſaid oaths, and ſubſcribing the ſaid aſſurance, in ſuch books, upon their taking ſuch oaths, and ſubſcribing ſuch aſſurance before the lords of the ſeſſion, upon certificate from the proper officer of ſuch other courts where the ſame ſhall be taken and ſubſcribed: and the lords of the ſeſſion ſhall cauſe liſts of the ſaid perſons to be affixed every firſt and laſt day of every ſeſſion, in the outer and inner houſe of the ſaid court, and to be kept up there conſtantly, till new liſts are fixt up; and in caſe any perſon act as aforeſaid, before he has ſo taken the oaths and ſubſcribed the aſſurance, he ſhall be ſubject to the ſame diſabilities and penalties, as if he was writer, agent, or ſolicitor, within the intent of the 20 Geo. 2. c. 43.; and the lords of ſeſſion are to give ſuch orders to their clerks, or other inferior officers, as they judge neceſſary, for diſcovering and puniſhing ſuch of the ſaid perſons, and ſuch writers, agents, or ſolicitors, who ſhall not qualify themſelves according to this and the ſaid act, and to puniſh ſuch officers of their court as neglect to obey ſuch orders, or wilfully conceal ſuch offenders. ſ. 16.

Outlawry.

By 22 Geo. 2. c. 48. In caſe any perſon be indicted for high treaſon, or miſpriſion of high treaſon, in Scotland, and be not in cuſtody, the court wherein ſuch indictment is found, or to which the ſame is certified, ſhall iſſue one writ of capias againſt ſuch perſon directed to the ſheriff or ſtewart of the county or ſtewartry wherein ſuch indictment is found, and returnable in the ſame court 42 days at leaſt after the teſte thereof, or a longer time, by the diſcretion of the ſaid court; which writ ſhall be delivered to ſuch ſheriff, &c. who ſhall endeavour to apprehend the defendant within his county, &c.; and if the defendant be named in the ſaid writ of any place in any county, &c. other than that in which ſuch indictment is found, then the ſaid court ſhall iſſue one other writ of capias to the ſheriff or ſtewart of ſuch other county or ſtewartry of the ſame teſte, return, and import, with the firſt-mentioned writ of capias; and if ſuch reſpective ſheriff, &c. return to both the ſaid writs, or to the firſt writ, (where only one iſſued), that the defendant is not to be found within the reſpective counties, &c. then the ſame court ſhall iſſue two other writs, the one a writ of prōclamation, the other a writ of exigent, and teſted the day of the return of the ſaid writ or writs of capias, and directed to the ſheriff, &c. of the county, &c. in which the place of which the defendant is named in the indictment lieth; and ſuch writs ſhall be both returnable on the ſame future day, and ſhall be delivered to ſuch ſheriff, &c. who ſhall execute and return the ſame in the manner following, viz. by virtue of the writ of proclamation, the ſheriff, &c. ſhall cauſe the defendant to be proclaimed three times, viz. once at the court of the ſheriff, or ſtewart depute, of ſuch ſhire or ſtewartry, and a ſecond time at the quarter ſeſſions of the peace for the ſame county or ſtewartry, and a third time near to the church door, or if there be no church, in ſome public part of the pariſh or place of which the defendant is named in the indictment, between ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, and ſuch third proclamation ſhall be made 28 days at leaſt before the fifth and laſt ſheriff's or ſtewart's depute court, at which the defendant is to be called by virtue of the writ of exigent; and by virtue of the writ of exigent, the ſheriff, &c. ſhall cauſe the defendant to be called to appear at each of the five ſucceſſive courts to be held by the ſheriff or ſtewart depute for the ſaid county, &c. and if the defendant appear not and ſurrender himſelf ſo as to be forth coming to juſtice at ſome one or other of the ſaid courts, at which he is ſo proclaimed, the ſheriff or ſtewart depute ſhall, at the laſt of the ſaid five courts, pronounce judgment of outlawry againſt him, and ſign ſuch judgment; and the ſheriff ſhall return the ſame, and the writs of proclamation and exigent, into the court from whence the ſame iſſued, together with indorſements on each, certifying that the ſaid ſheriff, &c. has done every thing required of him by the ſaid writs, and that the defendant did not appear, (if that be the caſe), and thereupon ſuch defendant ſhall be outlawed for ſuch high treaſon, or miſpriſion of high treaſon: and the defendant ſo outlawed for high treaſon, ſhall be attainted of ſuch high treaſon as is contained in ſuch indictment, and be ſubject to the like execution and corruption of blood, and to the like pains and penalties and proceſſes with reſpect to his eſtates, real and perſonal, moveable and immoveable, to which perſons attainted of high treaſon are by law ſubject; and the defendant ſo outlawed for miſpriſion of high treaſon, ſhall be ſubject to the like forfeitures and proceſſes out of the court where the ſaid writs and judgments of outlawry are returned, and alſo out of the court of exchequer in Scotland, to ſeize the perſon and eſtate, and goods, of ſuch defendant, as perſons outlawed according to the law of England for miſpriſion of high treaſon are liable to; and all defendants outlawed for high treaſon or miſpriſion of high treaſon in Scotland, ſhall, as near as can be, have all the like writs, methods, remedies, and advantages, in the like manner and time, and on the like conditions, for avoiding falſifying or reverſing ſuch outlawry, as may be had by the law of England; excepting ſo far as the forms of proceeding are varied and ſettled by this act. And all the writs before mentioned, with the returns thereof, and judgments of outlawry, ſhall be recorded and preſerved in the court to which the ſaid writs are returned, unleſs removed by courſe of law. ſ. 1.

The ſheriffs or ſtewarts, to whom the ſaid writs of proclamation and exigent are directed, ſhall forthwith cauſe five ſucceſſive courts of the ſheriff or ſtewart depute, to be held for the purpoſes before mentioned, three days notice being firſt given, before the firſt court at the head borough of the county or ſtewartry, of the times and places where ſuch courts ſhall be held; and the firſt of the ſaid five courts, at which the defendant is called by virtue of the writ of exigent, ſhall be held within 20 days after the delivery thereof to the ſheriff, &c.; and each of the four ſucceſſive courts ſhall be held at the end of four weeks from the court preceding. ſ. 2.

All the ſaid writs of capias, proclamation, and exigent, ſhall be in the name of his majeſty, under the ſeal of ſuch courts from whence the ſame iſſue; and ſuch writ of capias ſhall contain a command to the ſheriff, &c. to take the defendant and bring him before the court whence the ſaid writ iſſues, at a certain time and place therein mentioned; and the writ of proclamation ſhall command ſuch ſheriff, &c. to take the defendant and have him before ſuch court, at a certain time and place therein mentioned; and if he cannot be found within his ſhire, &c. then to cauſe public proclamation to be made in the court of the ſheriff depute, &c. at the general quarter ſeſſions of the peace for the ſame ſhire, &c. and at the door of the church, or if no church, at ſome open part of the place, of which ſuch defendant is named in ſuch indictment, that he be before the court from whence ſuch writ iſſues, at a certain time and place therein mentioned; and the ſaid writ of exigent ſhall contain a command to the ſheriff, &c. to cauſe the defendant to be called from court to court of the ſheriff, &c. until he be outlawed; and if he appear, then to take him and have his body before the court whence ſuch writ of exigent iſſues, at a certain time and place therein mentioned, to anſwer to his majeſty for the crime of which he is indicted. ſ. 3.

If any perſon ſo outlawed for high treaſon at the time of ſuch outlawry pronounced, be inhabitant out of the limits of Great Britain, and within one year after ſuch outlawry pronounced, yield himſelf to the lord juſtice general, juſtice clerk, or any of the commiſſioners of juſticiary in Scotland, he ſhall be at liberty to traverſe the indictment on which ſuch outlawry is pronounced, and take his trial thereupon; and in caſe he be found not guilty by verdict of the jury, he ſhall be diſcharged of the ſaid outlawry, and all penalties and forfeitures for the ſame. ſ. 4.

Papiſts.

By 12 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 14. The lords of juſticiary in Scotland are empowered to inflict the ſame puniſhments againſt Jeſuits, prieſts, and other trafficking papiſts, which the privy council of Scotland was empowered to do by the act of the eighth ſeſſion of the firſt parliament of king William for preventing the growth of popery. ſ. 12. See the reſt of this act in general title PAPISTS.

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 20. The act 1 Will. & Mar. c. 15. for ſecuring the government by diſarming papiſts and reputed papiſts, ſhall be in force in Scotland; except, that in lieu of the declaration mentioned in that act, the oaths of allegiance and abjuration ſhall be taken and ſubſcribed; and the declaration called the formula, recited in an act of parliament in Scotland paſſed in the year 1700, for preventing the growth of popery, ſhall be likewiſe ſubſcribed; and the counties or diviſions mentioned in the act ſhall be underſtood in Scotland to be ſhires or ſtewartries; and nothing in the act ſhall be conſtrued to eſtabliſh any office which is not in being in Scotland. ſ. 16.

Parliament.

By 6 Ann. c. 23. When her majeſty ſhall declare her pleaſure for ſummoning any parliament; in order to the electing the 16 peers of Scotland, a proclamation ſhall be iſſued under the great ſeal of Great Britain, commanding all the peers of Scotland to aſſemble at Edinburgh, or ſuch other place in Scotland, and at ſuch time as ſhall be appointed in the proclamation, to elect the 16 peers to ſit and vote in the houſe of peers in the parliament of Great Britain. ſ. 1.

Every proclamation for the purpoſe aforeſaid ſhall be publiſhed at the market croſs at Edinburgh, and in all the country towns of Scotland, 25 days before the time appointed for the meeting of the peers. ſ. 2.

All the peers who meet on ſuch proclamation ſhall, before they proceed to the election, and in preſence of the peers aſſembled, take the oaths of allegiance and ſupremacy, and ſhall alſo make and ſubſcribe the declaration in 30 Car. 2. ſt. 2. [which ſee in PAPISTS,] and alſo take and ſubſcribe the oath of abjuration. ſ. 3.

Peers that live in Scotland, but ſhall not be preſent at ſuch meeting, may take the oaths, &c. in any ſheriffs court in Scotland; and every ſheriff or his deputy, before whom ſuch oaths, &c. ſhall be ſo made, ſhall return the original ſubſcription ſigned by the peer, and make a return in writing, under his hand and ſeal, to the peers ſo aſſembled, of ſuch peer's taking the oaths, &c.; and ſuch peer ſhall be thereby enabled to make a proxy, or to ſend a ſigned liſt, containing the names of the 16 peers for whom he giveth his vote: and ſuch of the peers as reſide in England may take the oaths, &c. in her majeſty's court of chancery, queen's bench, common pleas, or exchequer, in England, which being certified by writ to the peers in Scotland at their meeting, under the ſeal of the court, ſhall entitle ſuch peer to make his proxy, and to ſend a ſigned liſt; and in caſe any of the peers, who, before the iſſuing of ſuch proclamation, have taken the oaths, &c. to be certified as aforeſaid, (and if taken in parliament, to be certified under the great ſeal) ſhall, at the time of iſſuing ſuch proclamation, be abſent in the ſervice of her majeſty, ſuch peer may make his proxy, or ſend a liſt. ſ. 4.

Provided, that ſuch peers of Scotland as are alſo peers of England, ſhall ſign their proxies and liſts by the title of their peerage in Scotland. ſ. 5.

No peer ſhall be capable of having more than two proxies. ſ. 6.

At ſuch meeting of the peers they ſhall all give in the names of the perſons by them nominated to ſit and vote in the houſe of peers, and the lord clerk regiſter, or two of the principal clerks of the ſeſſion, appointed by him to officiate in his name, ſhall, after the election is made, certify the names of the 16 peers elected, and ſign the ſame in the preſence of the peers; which certificate ſhall, by the lord clerk regiſter, or two of the principal clerks of the ſeſſions, be returned into chancery before the time appointed for the meeting of the parliament. ſ. 7.

The peers ſhall come to ſuch meetings with their ordinary attendants only, under the penalties inflicted by the laws in force in Scotland. ſ. 8.

It ſhall not be lawful for the peers aſſembled for the electing 16 peers to ſit and vote in parliament, to act, propoſe, debate, or treat of, any other matter, except only the election of the peers; and every peer who ſhall at ſuch meeting propoſe, debate, or treat of, any other matter, ſhall incur the penalty of premunire in 16 Ric. 2. c. 5. ſ. 9.

In caſe any of the 16 peers ſhall die, or become legally diſabled to ſit in the houſe of peers, her majeſty ſhall forthwith iſſue a proclamation for electing another peer of Scotland to ſit in the houſe of peers in the room of ſuch peer deceaſed or diſabled. ſ. 11.

For

For the trial of any peer of Great Britain that ſhall commit any high treaſon, petit treaſon, miſpriſion of treaſon, murder, or other felonies, in Scotland, commiſſions may iſſue under the great ſeal of Great Britain, directed to perſons therein named, conſtituting them juſtices, to enquire by the oaths of good and lawful men of ſuch counties of Scotland as ſhall be named therein, of all treaſons, &c. committed in ſuch county by peers of Great Britain, which inquiſition ſhall be taken and proceeded upon in the ſame method as any inquiſition found before juſtices of oyer and terminer in England, whereby any peer is indicted for ſuch offence; and ſuch juſtices ſhall iſſue mandates or precepts to the ſheriffs of the counties of Scotland, to return to them good and lawful men of the county, to enquire of the offences aforeſaid, and 12 or more of them being ſworn ſhall be ſufficient to find any indictment; and if the ſheriff ſhall not ſummon a ſufficient number, the juſtices may impoſe a fine upon ſuch ſheriff, which ſhall be levied by proceſs of the exchequer; and if any of the perſons ſummoned ſhall not appear, the juſtices may in like manner impoſe a fine upon ſuch perſon. ſ. 12. See general titles OATHS, PARLIAMENT.

By 12 Ann. ſt. 1. c. 6. No conveyance or right, whereupon infeoffment is not taken, and ſeiſin regiſtrated, one year before the teſte of the writs for calling a new parliament, ſhall, upon objection made, entitle the perſon infeoft to vote or to be elected in any ſhire or ſtewartry in Scotland; and in caſe any election happen during the continuance of a parliament, no conveyance or right, whereupon infeoffment is not taken one year before the date of the warrant for making out a new writ for ſuch election, ſhall, upon objection made, entitle the perſon infeoft to vote or be elected at that election; and it ſhall be lawful for any of the electors, ſuſpecting any perſon to have his eſtate in truſt, and for the behoof of another, to require the preſes of the meeting to tender an oath to any elector; and in caſe ſuch elector refuſe to ſwear, and ſubſcribe the oath, he ſhall not be capable of voting or being elected at ſuch election. ſ. 1.

Notwithſtanding ſuch oath taken, it ſhall be lawful to make ſuch other objections as are allowed by the laws of Scotland againſt ſuch electors. ſ. 2.

No infeoffment taken upon any redeemable right (except proper wadſetts, adjudications, or appriſings, allowed by the act of parliament relating to elections in 1681), ſhall entitle the perſon to vote or be elected in any ſhire or ſtewartry. ſ. 3.

All ſheriffs of ſhires and ſtewarts of ſtewartries ſhall be obliged (under the pain of 50 l.; one moiety to the queen, and the other to the perſon who ſhall ſue, to be recovered before the court of ſeſſion, by any action ſummarily, without abiding the courſe of the roll) to make the public intimations required by the laws of Scotland at the pariſh churches, at leaſt three days before the dyet of elections. ſ. 4.

The right of apparent heirs in voting by virtue of their predeceſſors infeoffments, and the right of huſbands by virtue of their wives infeoffments, is reſerved. ſ. 5.

Provided, that no huſbands ſhall vote by virtue of their wives infeoffments, who are not heireſſes, or have not right to the property of the lands. ſ. 7.

By 7 Geo. 2. c. 16. If the clerk of any meeting of freeholders for the election of a commiſſioner to ſerve in parliament for any ſhire or ſtewartry in Scotland, ſhall wilfully return to the ſheriff or ſtewart any perſon, other than him who ſhall be duly elected, or if any other perſon pretending to be clerk ſhall return any perſon as elected, who ſhall not be duly elected, the party offending ſhall forfeit 500 l. to be recovered by the candidate elected. ſ. 1. Qu. If in force ſince 16 Geo. 2. c. 11. ſ. 14, & 16.

Every freeholder who ſhall claim to vote at an election, or in adjuſting the rolls of freeholders, inſtead of the oath appointed by 12 Ann. ſt. 1. c. 6. ſhall, upon requeſt of any freeholder formerly inrolled, take and ſubſcribe the oath following. ſ. 2.

I A. B. do, in the preſence of God, declare and ſwear, that the lands and eſtate of ——— for which I claim a right to vote in the election of a member to ſerve in parliament for this county or ſtewartry, is actually in my poſſeſſion, and do really and truly belong to me, and is my own proper eſtate, and is not conveyed to me in truſt, or for, or in behalf, of any other perſon whatſoever; and that neither I, nor any perſon to my knowledge, in my name, or on my account, or by my allowance, hath given, or intends to give, any promiſe, obligation, bond, back-bond, or other ſecurity whatſoever, other than appears from the tenor and contents of the title, upon which I now claim a right to vote, directly or indirectly, for rediſponing or reconveying the ſaid lands and eſtate in any manner of way whatſoever, or for making the rents or profits thereof forthcoming to the uſe or benefit of the perſon from whom I have acquired the ſaid eſtate, or any other perſon whatſoever; and that my title to the ſaid lands and eſtate is not nominal or fictitious, created or reſerved in me, in order to enable me to vote for a member to ſerve in parliament; but that the ſame is a true and real eſtate in me, for my own uſe and benefit, and for the uſe of no other perſon whatſoever, and that is the truth, as I ſhall anſwer to God.

In caſe he refuſe, his name ſhall be eraſed out of the roll of freeholders; and in caſe any perſon ſhall wilfully and falſely ſwear, and ſubſcribe the ſaid oath, he ſhall incur the puniſhment of perjury, according to the laws in Scotland. ſ. 3.

No judge of the court of ſeſſion, or juſticiary, or baron of the exchequer, in Scotland, ſhall be capable of being elected a member of the houſe of commons. ſ. 4.

The next ſecton is re-enacted by 16 Geo. 2. c. 11. ſ. 40, 41, 42.

At the annual election of magiſtrates and counſellors for boroughs, no magiſtrates or counſellors ſhall take upon them to ſeparate from the majority, who have been ſuch for the year preceding, and to elect ſeparate magiſtrates or counſellors; and if any magiſtrates or counſellors ſhall, in oppoſition to the majority, make a ſeparate election, their election ſhall be void; and every magiſtrate or counſellor who concurred therein, ſhall forfeit 100 l. to be recovered by the magiſtrates and counſellors from whom they ſeparated. ſ. 6.

The two next ſections are altered by 16 Geo. 2. c. 11. ſ. 17. 24. 30 & 31.

Every penalty by this act impoſed, with reſpect to the recovery of which no particular proviſion is made, ſhall be ſued for by way of ſummary complaint before the court of ſeſſion, upon 15 days notice, without abiding the courſe of any roll. ſ. 9.

Every freeholder in Scotland ſhall, before he be inrolled or admitted to vote for the choice of clerk or praeſes, or other queſtion, (if required,) take and ſubſcribe the oaths appointed by law to be taken by electors of members to ſerve in parliament. ſ. 10.

The borough of Wigtoun ſhall preſide at the election of a member to repreſent that diſtrict in the next parliament. ſ. 11.

By 16 Geo. 2. c. 11. So much of 12 Ann. ſt. 1. c. 6. ſ. 3. as enacts, that no perſon who have not been inrolled and voted at former elections, ſhall be inrolled or admitted to vote at any election, except they firſt produce a ſufficient title to qualify them to the ſatisfaction of the freeholders formerly inrolled, and that the returning officers make their returns of the perſons elected by the majority of the freeholders inrolled, and thoſe admitted by them, reſerving always the liberty of objecting againſt the perſons admitted to or excluded from the roll, ſhall be repealed. ſ. 1.

Such perſons as ſtand upon the roll laſt made up by the freeholders, whether at the Michaelmas meeting, or at the laſt election of a member to ſerve in parliament, ſhall be the original conſtituent members at their next Michaelmas meeting, or meeting for election, to reviſe the ſaid roll. ſ. 2.

It ſhall be lawful for any freeholder upon the roll, to object to the title of any perſon who ſtands at preſent upon the roll laſt made up, and for that purpoſe to apply at any time before the firſt of December 1743, by ſummary complaint to the court of ſeſſion, who ſhall grant a warrant for ſummoning ſuch perſons upon 30 days notice, and ſhall in a ſummary way hear and determine ſuch complaint; and if no ſuch complaint be exhibited within the time aforeſaid, then no freeholder, who at preſent ſtands upon the rolls laſt made up, ſhall be ſtruck off or left out of the roll, except upon objections ariſing from the alteration of that title in reſpect of which he was inrolled ſuſtained by the other freeholders upon the roll. ſ. 3.

If at any Michaelmas meeting, or meeting for election, any perſon ſhall by judgment of the freeholders be refuſed to be admitted, or be ſtruck out of the roll, it ſhall be lawful for him to apply within four calendar months by ſummary complaint to the court of ſeſſion, who ſhall grant a warrant for ſummoning the perſon upon whoſe objection he was refuſed or ſtruck off, upon 30 days notice to anſwer, and ſhall hear and determine in a ſummary way on ſuch complaint; and if any perſon be inrolled whoſe title ſhall be thought liable to objection, it ſhall be lawful for any freeholder upon the ſaid roll (whether preſent at the meeting or not) to apply in like manner by complaint to the court of ſeſſion within four calendar months, and the ſaid court, after ſervice of ſuch complaint on 30 days notice upon the perſon ſaid to be wrongfully admitted to the roll, ſhall hear and determine; and if no ſuch complaint be exhibited within the time aforeſaid, the freeholder inrolled ſhall continue upon the roll, until an alteration of his circumſtances be allowed by the freeholders at a ſubſequent Michaelmas meeting, or meeting for election, as a ſufficient cauſe for ſtriking him out of the roll. ſ. 4. [And by 30 Geo. 3. c. 17. ſ. 4. a complaint to the lord ordinary on the bills in vacation within the four months ſhall be equivalent to a complaint to the court of ſeſſion; if printed copies of ſuch complaint be lodged before the third ſederunt day of the enſuing ſeſſion.]

If in any of the aforeſaid caſes the judgment of the court of ſeſſion ſhall alter or reverſe the determination of the meeting of the freeholders, the ſheriff or ſteward's clerk ſhall, upon preſenting to him the extract of ſuch judgment, forthwith make the alteration directed in the books kept by him; and in caſe of refuſal or delay, he ſhall forfeit 100 l. ſterling to the perſon in whoſe favour the judgment of the court is given, to be recovered by him or his executors. ſ. 5.

If the judgment of the freeholders refuſing to admit, or ſtriking off any perſon from the ſaid roll be affixed by the court of ſeſſion, the perſon complaining ſhall forfeit to the objector the ſum of 30 l. ſterling, with coſts. ſ. 6.

Every freeholder who intends to claim to be inrolled at any Michaelmas meeting of the freeholders, ſhall, two calendar months at leaſt before the ſaid meeting, leave with the ſheriff or ſteward's clerk a copy of his claim, ſetting forth the names of his lands and his titles thereto, and dates thereof, with the old extent upon which he deſires to be inrolled, and in caſe of his neglect he ſhall not be inrolled at ſuch meeting; and in like manner, whoever intends to object to any freeholder who ſtands upon the roll, on account of the alteration of his circumſtances, ſhall, at leaſt two calendar months before the Michaelmas meeting, leave his objections in writing with the ſheriff or ſteward's clerk, who ſhall upon receipt of the aforeſaid claim or objections indorſe thereon the day he received the ſame, and alſo give a copy to any perſon upon paying the legal fee of an ordinary extract of the ſame length. ſ. 7.

No perſon ſhall be intitled to vote for a commiſſioner to ſerve in parliament for any ſhire or ſtewartry in Scotland, or to be inrolled in reſpect of the old extent of his lands holden of the king or prince, unleſs ſuch old extent is proved by a retour of the lands of a date prior to the 16th of September 1681; and no diviſion of the old extent made ſince the ſaid 16th of September 1681, by retour or any other way, ſhall be ſuſtained as evidence of the old extent. ſ. 8.

Lands holden of the king or prince liable in public burdens for 400 l. Scots of valued rent, ſhall be a ſufficient qualification, whatever be the old extent of the ſaid lands. ſ. 9.

No purchaſer, or ſingular ſucceſſor, ſhall be inrolled till he be publicly infeoft, and his ſeiſin regiſtered, or charter of confirmation be expede, (where confirmation is neceſſary) one year before the inrolment; and no heir apparent ſhall be inrolled, until his predeceſſors titles are produced and allowed by the freeholders; and any perſon may be inrolled, though abſent, provided the titles and vouchers of his qualification are produced before the freeholders: and if any perſon be choſen a member to ſerve in parliament for any ſhire or ſtewartry in Scotland, who ſhall not be preſent at the meeting of election; the member ſo elected, before he takes his ſeat in parliament, ſhall take the oath appointed to be taken by freeholders claiming to vote at elections by 7 Geo. 2. cap. 16. before the lord ſteward of his majeſty's houſehold, or any perſon authorized by him; and if a member ſo elected neglect or refuſe to take the aforeſaid oath, ſuch election ſhall be void. ſ. 10.

At the annual meetings of the freeholders at Michaelmas, the original conſtituent members ſhall be ſuch only as ſtand upon the roll laſt made up, at a Michaelmas meeting or at a meeting for an election of a member to ſerve in parliament, and a copy ſigned and extracted of the roll made up at the Michaelmas meetings, or meetings for elections, together with the minutes of the proceedings, ſhall by the clerks of ſuch meetings be delivered to the ſheriff or ſteward's clerk gratis, and ſhall be inſerted in books to be kept by the ſaid ſheriff or ſteward's clerk for that purpoſe, who ſhall deliver copies of the ſame extracted and ſigned to any freeholder paying the legal fee for an ordinary extract of the ſame length, and ſhall at every ſubſequent meeting produce the ſaid books, for the uſe of the freeholders; and in caſe ſuch ſheriff or ſteward's clerk neglect or refuſe to enter the aforeſaid rolls of election or minutes of proceedings into books ſo to be kept, or to give copies thereof extracted and ſigned, or to produce the books at any ſubſequent meeting, he ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 100 l. ſterling, to be recovered by any freeholder within ſuch ſhire or ſtewartry; and if the aforeſaid principal books be not produced, a copy of the ſaid roll and minutes extracted and ſigned by the ſheriff or ſteward's clerk ſhall be ſufficient; and if the ſheriff or ſteward's clerk give falſe copies of the ſaid roll or minutes, he ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 100 l. ſterling to the perſon to whom the falſe copy is given, to be recovered by him or his executors, and ſhall be incapable of holding his ſaid office. ſ. 11.

At every election for any ſhire or ſtewartry in Scotland, the roll of electors laſt made up, whether at the Michaelmas meeting, or at the laſt election, ſhall be the roll to be called over by the commiſſioner laſt elected, or in his abſence by the ſheriff or ſteward's clerk, in order to the election of preſes and clerk, as alſo by the preſes after he is choſen, for the choice of the member, and for the determination of all queſtions in adjuſting the roll, and in the courſe of the election, excepting ſo far as the ſaid roll ſhall after the choice of preſes and clerk be altered by judgment of the freeholders ſtanding on that roll. ſ. 12.

At every meeting for an election of a commiſſioner to ſerve in parliament, if the commiſſioner laſt elected, or in his abſence the ſheriff or ſteward's clerk, ſhall in the choice of preſes or clerk receive the vote of any perſon not upon the roll, he ſhall, for every ſuch offence forfeit 300 l. ſterling to every candidate for the office of preſes or clerk, for whom ſuch perſon ſhall not have given his vote, to be recovered by him or his executors; or if the commiſſioner laſt elected, or the ſheriff or ſteward's clerk, ſhall in the choice of preſes or clerk not call for or refuſe the vote of any perſon whoſe name is upon the roll, he ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 300 l. ſterling to the perſon whoſe name ſhall not be called for, or whoſe vote ſhall be refuſed, to be recovered by him or his executors. And if the preſes in the election of the member to ſerve in parliament, receive the vote of any perſon not upon the roll, he ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 200 l. ſterling to every candidate for whom ſuch perſon ſhall not have given his vote, to be recovered by him or his executors; or if the preſes ſhall in the election of the member not call for or refuſe the vote of any perſon whoſe name is upon the roll, he ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 200 l. ſterling to the perſon whoſe name ſhall not be called for, or whoſe vote ſhall be refuſed, to be recovered by him or his executors. And in caſe of equality of votes in the choice of preſes or clerk, the commiſſioner laſt elected, and in his abſence any freeholder preſent who laſt repreſented the ſhire or ſtewartry in any former parliament, and if no ſuch perſon is preſent, the freeholder preſent who preſided laſt at any meeting for any election, and in his abſence the freeholder who laſt preſided at any Michaelmas meeting, and if none of the ſaid perſons be preſent, the freeholder preſent who ſtands firſt on the roll, ſhall beſides their own votes have the caſting vote; and the preſes choſen ſhall in the choice of the commiſſioner to ſerve in parliament, and all other queſtions where the votes are equal, in like manner beſides his own vote have the caſting vote. ſ. 13.

The perſons choſen to be preſes and clerk by the majority of the freeholders preſent on the ſaid roll, ſhall be preſes and clerk of the meeting for ſuch election; and it ſhall not be lawful for any number of freeholders to ſeparate from the majority of the perſons preſent upon the roll, and ſet up any perſon as preſes or clerk other than thoſe choſen by the majority, and it ſhall not be lawful for any perſon to act as preſes or clerk at any ſuch election, unleſs they are choſen by the majority of perſons on the roll; and every freeholder who ſhall ſo ſeparate from the majority, and ſet up any perſon as preſes or clerk other than thoſe choſen by the majority, ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 50 l. ſterling to the candidate who ſhall be choſen by the majority, to be recovered by him or his executors; and if any perſon preſume to act as preſes or clerk, who is not choſen by the majority of the freeholders preſent on the roll, he ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 200 l. ſterling to the candidate who ſhall be choſen by the majority, to be recovered by him or his executors. ſ. 14.

The commiſſioner laſt elected, or in his abſence the ſheriff or ſteward's clerk, ſhall ſign the minutes of the election of preſes and clerk, and deliver the ſame to the clerk choſen as aforeſaid; and if the commiſſioner laſt elected, or the ſheriff or ſteward's clerk, neglect or refuſe to ſign the ſaid minutes, and deliver the ſame to the clerk choſen as aforeſaid, or ſign falſe minutes, he ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 100 l. ſterling to the preſes, to be recovered by him or his executors. ſ. 15.

The clerk choſen ſhall return to the ſheriff or ſteward ſuch perſon as ſhall be elected by the majority of the freeholders on the roll made up at the meeting for election; and if he refuſe or neglect ſo to return, or return any other perſon, he ſhall for every ſuch offence inſtead of the penalty inflicted by 7 Geo. 2. cap. 16. forfeit 500 l. ſterling to the candidate choſen by the majority of the freeholders on the roll; to be recovered by him or his executors. ſ. 16.

Every ſheriff or ſteward in Scotland, upon producing to him a copy of the roll laſt made up by the freeholders at the laſt Michaelmas meeting, or at the laſt election, extracted and ſigned by the ſheriff or ſteward's clerk, and the original minutes of the election of preſes and clerk, ſigned by the commiſſioner laſt elected, or in his abſence by the ſheriff or ſteward's clerk, ſhall annex to the writ the return made by the clerk choſen by the majority of the freeholders on the roll; and if any ſheriff or ſteward neglect or refuſe to annex to the writ ſuch return, or ſhall annex the return made by any other perſon pretending to be clerk he ſhall for every ſuch offence, inſtead of the penalty inflicted by 7 Geo. 2. cap. 16. forfeit 500 l. ſterling, to the perſon returned by the clerk, and choſen by the majority of the freeholders, to be recovered by him or his executors. ſ. 17.

Every ſheriff or ſteward in Scotland, ſhall hold the Michaelmas head court on the day on which it has been moſt uſually held, and every ſheriff or ſteward ſhall 14 days before Michaelmas next, appoint a day for holding his Michaelmas head court in the year 1743. And the days ſo appointed before Michaelmas next, ſhall be the anniverſary for holding the Michaelmas head court of the ſaid ſhire or ſtewartry in all time coming. ſ. 18.

In the ſhire of Sutherland no perſon ſhall be elected commiſſioner for the ſaid ſhire, or vote at ſuch election, unleſs he be infeoft, and in poſſeſſion of lands liable to his majeſty's ſupplies, and other public burthens, at the rate of 200 l. Scots valued rent. ſ. 19.

One perſon only ſhall be intitled to vote at ſuch elections, or be elected, in reſpect of the ſame lands; and where lands are now holden by any baron or freeholder immediately of the king or prince, ſuch baron or freeholder ſhall be capable to be elected, and ſhall be intitled to vote for thoſe lands; and no vaſſal, or ſub-vaſſal, of the ſaid baron or freeholder ſhall have right to vote, or to be elected in reſpect thereof; and where lands are now holden, or ſhall hereafter be holden of the king or prince, by a peer, or other perſon or body politic, who by law are diſabled to be a member of the houſe of commons, or to vote in ſuch elections, the proprietor of ſuch lands, and not any of his ſuperiors, ſhall be intitled to vote or be elected, in reſpect of the ſame lands; and no alienation of the ſuperiority by ſuch peer, &c. ſhall deprive the proprietor of his right to vote in the ſaid ſhire or to be elected; nor intitle the purchaſer of the ſuperiority to vote or to be elected; and the property of lands of the valuation aforeſaid, holden in part of the king or prince, and in part of a peer, or other perſon or body politic incapable to elect or to be elected, ſhall be a qualification to the proprietor to vote, and to be elected for the ſaid ſhire. ſ. 20.

The freeholders and proprietors, having right to elect or to be elected for the ſhire of Sutherland, ſhall meet at the head borough of the ſaid ſhire, at the Michaelmas head court in the year 1745, and ſhall make up a roll of the electors having right to vote in the terms of this act, and of the other acts touching the election of commiſſioners for ſhires in Scotland; which roll ſo made up ſhall be reviſed yearly at the Michaelmas meetings, and at after elections: and the ſaid acts ſhall extend to the ſhire of Sutherland as well as to the other ſhires in Scotland, except ſo far as is otherwiſe provided by this act. ſ. 21.

At the annual election of magiſtrates and counſellors in boroughs, and in all the proceedings previous to ſuch election, it ſhall not be lawful for the minority either of magiſtrates, or counſellors, or deacons, or other perſons who have votes in the election of magiſtrates, or counſellors, to ſeparate from the majority; nor to make any ſeparate election of magiſtrates, counſellors, or electors; and if any perſon elected by the minority preſume to vote in the election of magiſtrates, or counſellors, or in leeting the magiſtrates or counſellors, or in any other ſtep of the election, he ſhall forfeit 100 l. ſterling to any one of the majority of ſuch meeting. ſ. 22.

No perſon elected magiſtrate or counſellor by a minority, ſhall act as magiſtrate or counſellor; and if any perſon notwithſtanding preſume to act, he ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 100 l. ſterling to the magiſtrates or counſellors elected by the majority, or to any of them who ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 23.

It ſhall be lawful for any conſtituent member at any meeting for election of magiſtrates or counſellors, or of any meeting previous thereto, who apprehends any wrong to have been done by the majority of ſuch meeting, to apply to the court of ſeſſion by a ſummary complaint for rectifying ſuch abuſe, or for making void the election by the majority, or for aſcertaining the election by the minority, ſo as ſuch complaint be preſented within two calendar months after the annual election of the magiſtrates and counſellors; and the ſaid court ſhall thereupon grant a warrant for ſummoning the magiſtrates and counſellors elected by the majority, (upon 15 days notice, by 14 Geo. 3. c. 81.) and ſhall hear and determine the ſaid complaint ſummarily, without abiding the courſe of any roll, and ſhall allow to the party who ſhall prevail their coſts. ſ. 24.

It ſhall be lawful to the magiſtrates and counſellors of royal boroughs in Scotland, to take and ſubſcribe the oath of allegiance, ſubſcribe the aſſurance, and take and ſign the oath of abjuration, before the council of their reſpective boroughs. ſ. 25.

At every election of commiſſioners for chooſing burgeſſes for any diſtrict of boroughs in Scotland, the common clerk of each borough ſhall make out a commiſſion to the perſon choſen by the major part of the magiſtrates and town council; which magiſtrates and town council ſhall take the oath of allegiance, and ſign the ſame with the aſſurance, and ſhall take all the other oaths appointed to be taken at ſuch election by this or any former act, if required; and the ſaid clerk ſhall affix the common ſeal of the borough thereto, and ſign ſuch commiſſion, and ſhall not make out a commiſſion for any perſon as commiſſioner, other than him who is choſen by the majority; and if any common clerk of any borough neglect or refuſe to make out ſuch commiſſion, or make out a commiſſion to any other perſon, he ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 500 l. ſterling to the perſon elected commiſſioner; to be recovered by him or his executors, and ſhall ſuffer impriſonment for ſix calendar months, and be diſabled to hold the ſaid office of common clerk of the ſaid borough. ſ. 26.

If any perſon, who is not the common clerk of the borough, take upon himſelf to act as ſuch in any election of a commiſſioner for chooſing a burgeſs for any diſtrict of boroughs in Scotland, and make out a commiſſion for any other perſon as commiſſioner, other than the perſon choſen by the majority, and ſign or affix the common ſeal of the borough thereto, he ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 500 l. ſterling to the commiſſioner for the ſaid borough, to be recovered by him or his executors. ſ. 27.

Whereas by an act of parliament in Scotland of the 5th of Feb. 1707, it is enacted, that where the votes of the commiſſioners for the boroughs met to chooſe repreſentatives ſhall be equal, the preſident of the meeting ſhall have a caſting vote, but no proviſion is made in caſe of the abſence of the commiſſioner from the preſiding borough, or of his refuſing to vote, be it enacted, that if the commiſſioner from the preſiding borough be abſent from the meeting of commiſſioners for chooſing burgeſſes to ſerve in parliament, or refuſe to vote, the commiſſioner from the borough which was the preſiding borough at the laſt election, and if he alſo be abſent, or refuſe to vote, the commiſſioner from the borough which was the preſiding borough at the election immediately preceding the laſt, and in caſe he be abſent, or refuſe to vote, the commiſſioner from the borough which was the laſt preſiding borough but two, ſhall have beſides his own vote the caſting vote. ſ. 28.

It is no objection to any commiſſioner for chooſing a burgeſs that he is not a reſidenter within the borough bearing all portable charges with his neighbours, or that he is no trafficking merchant therein, or that he is not in poſſeſſion of any burgage, lands, or houſes holding of the borough, and ſuch qualifications need not be engroſſed in his commiſſion. ſ. 29.

At all meetings of commiſſioners for chooſing burgeſſes to ſerve in parliament, the common clerk of the preſiding borough ſhall allow the votes of ſuch perſons only who produce commiſſions authenticated by the ſubſcription of the common clerk, and the common ſeal of the reſpective boroughs, and ſhall return to the ſheriff or ſteward the perſon elected by the major part of ſuch commiſſioners; and if he neglect or refuſe to return ſuch perſons, or return any other perſon, he ſhall for every ſuch offence, inſtead of the penalty inflicted by 7 Geo 2. cap. 16. forfeit 500 l. ſterling to the candidate elected by the majority; to be recovered by him or his executors; and he ſhall alſo ſuffer impriſonment for ſix calendar months, and be diſabled to hold his ſaid office of common clerk of the ſaid preſiding borough. ſ. 30.

Every ſheriff or ſteward in Scotland ſhall annex to the writ the return made by the ſaid clerk of the preſiding borough; and if any ſuch ſheriff or ſteward neglect or refuſe ſo to do, or if he annex to the writ any return made by any other perſon, he ſhall for every ſuch offence, inſtead of the penalty inflicted by 7 Geo. 2. cap. 16. forfeit 500 l. ſterling, to the candidate returned by the aforeſaid clerk of the preſiding borough, to be recovered by him or his executors. ſ. 31.

If any perſon to whom any commiſſion is made as aforeſaid, inſiſt that he was duly elected commiſſioner for any any royal borough, he ſhall be admitted to the meeting of the commiſſioners for chooſing burgeſſes to ſerve in parliament, and may there make offer of taking the oaths, and declare for whom he would have voted: which oaths the clerk of the preſiding borough ſhall adminiſter, and ſhall ſet down in the minutes of proceedings the declaration of ſuch perſon, but ſhall not receive him as a legal voter, or ſuch declaration as a legal vote. ſ. 32.

The electors of commiſſioners for any royal borough in Scotland for chooſing burgeſſes to parliament, are within the meaning of the 2 Geo. 2. cap. 24. to be conſidered as the electors of the member to ſerve in parliament. ſ. 33.

At every election of commiſſioners for chooſing burgeſſes for the ſeveral diſtricts of boroughs in Scotland, and at the election of a burgeſs to ſerve in parliament for the city of Edinburgh, every magiſtrate, town counſellor, or perſon having or claiming a right to vote, inſtead of the oath preſcribed by the ſaid act, ſhall take the following oath, in caſe the ſame be demanded by any of the electors; and which any of the magiſtrates, or, in their abſence, any of the town council ſhall adminiſter. ſ. 34.

I A. B. do ſolemnly ſwear, that I have not directly or indirectly, by way of loan or other device whatſoever, received any ſum or ſums of money, office, place, employment, gratuity, or reward, or any bond, bill, or note, or any promiſe of any ſum or ſums of money, office, place, employment, or gratuity whatſoever, either by myſelf, or any other, to my uſe, or benefit, or advantage, or to the uſe, benefit, or advantage of the city or borough of which I am magiſtrate, counſellor, or burgeſs, in order to give my vote at this election.

So help me GOD.

In all elections of commiſſioners for chooſing burgeſſes, and before they proceed to election, the common clerk of each borough ſhall take and ſubſcribe the oath following, which any of the magiſtrates, or in their abſence any two of the town council ſhall adminiſter. ſ. 35.

I A. B. do ſolemnly ſwear, that I have not directly or indirectly, by way of loan, or other device whatſoever, received any ſum or ſums of money, office, place, employment, gratuity, or reward, or any bond, bill, or note, or any promiſe of any ſum or ſums of money, office, place, employment, or gratuity whatſoever, either by myſelf, or any other, to my uſe, or benefit, or advantage, to make out any commiſſion for a commiſſioner for chooſing a burgeſs; and that I will duly make out a commiſſion to the commiſſioner who ſhall be choſen by the majority of the town council aſſembled, and to no other perſon.

So help me GOD.

And at all meetings of the commiſſioners for chooſing burgeſſes to ſerve in parliament, before they proceed to the election, the clerk of the preſiding borough ſhall take and ſubſcribe the following oath, which the commiſſioner for the preſiding borough, or in his abſence any other of the commiſſioners ſhall adminiſter.

I A. B. do ſolemnly ſwear that I have not directly or indirectly, by way of loan, or other device whatſoever, received any ſum or ſums of money, office, place, employment, gratuity or reward, or any bond, bill, or note, or any promiſe of any ſum or ſums of money, office, place, employment, or gratuity whatſoever, either by myſelf, or any other, to my uſe, or benefit, or advantage, to make any return at this election of a member to ſerve in parliament; and that I will return to the ſheriff or ſteward the perſon elected by the major part of the commiſſioners aſſembled, whoſe commiſſions are authenticated by the ſubſcription of the common clerk, and common ſeal of the reſpective boroughs of this diſtrict.

So help me GOD.

If the clerk of the preſiding borough neglect or refuſe to take the oath aforeſaid, he ſhall be incapable to act as clerk to the ſaid meeting; and the ſaid commiſſioners ſhall chooſe another clerk. ſ. 36.

At all elections of a member to ſerve in parliament for any county or ſtewartry in Scotland, the clerk ſhall after his election take and ſubſcribe the following oath which the preſes of the meeting ſhall adminiſter. ſ. 37.

I A. B. do ſolemnly ſwear, that I have not directly or indirectly, by way of loan, or other device whatſoever, received any ſum or ſums of money, office, place, or employment, gratuity, or reward, or any bond, bill, or note, or any promiſe of any ſum or ſums of money, office, place, employment, or gratuity whatſoever, by myſelf or any other to my uſe, or advantage, to make any return at the preſent election of a member to ſerve in parliament; and that I will return to the ſheriff or ſteward the perſon elected by the majority of the freeholders upon the roll made up at this election, and who ſhall be preſent, and vote at this meeting.

So help me GOD.

And whereas by 2 Geo. 2. cap. 24. ſect. 3. it is enacted, that every ſheriff, or other returning officer, ſhall immediately after reading the writ or precept for the election, take and ſubſcribe the oath contained in the ſaid act, ſo much of the ſaid act as requires the ſaid oath to be taken by any returning officer in Scotland ſhall be repealed. ſ. 38.

If any perſon preſume wilfully and falſely to ſwear and ſubſcribe any of the oaths required to be taken by this act, and be convicted, he ſhall incur the pains and puniſhments of perjury, and be proſecuted according to the laws of Scotland. ſ. 39.

When any new parliament ſhall be called, the lord chancellor ſhall iſſue writs for election of members to ſerve in parliament for Scotland, with as much expedition as may be; and in that caſe, or in caſe of any vacancy during any parliament, the writs ſhall be delivered to the ſheriff or ſteward to whom the execution thereof belongs; and every ſuch ſheriff or ſteward ſhall indorſe thereon the day he received the ſame, and ſhall within four days after the receipt thereof make out a precept to each borough within his juriſdiction, to elect a commiſſioner for chooſing a burgeſs to ſerve in parliament, and ſhall cauſe the ſame to be delivered to the chief magiſtrate of ſuch borough reſient in the borough; and in caſe ſuch ſheriff or ſteward neglect to indorſe on the writ the day he received the ſame, or to make out his precept, and to deliver the ſame to the chief magiſtrate, he ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 100 l. ſterling to any magiſtrate of the borough to which the precept is not timouſly delivered, who ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 40.

Such chief magiſtrate to whom the precept ſhall be delivered, ſhall indorſe thereon the day he received the ſame, and within two days ſhall ſummon the council of the borough together, by giving notice perſonally, or leaving notice at the dwelling place of every counſellor then reſient in that borough, which council ſhall then appoint a peremptory day for the election of a commiſſioner for chooſing a burgeſs to ſerve in parliament. ſ. 41.

Two free days ſhall intervene betwixt the meeting of the council which appoints the day of election of the ſaid commiſſioner, and the day on which the election of the commiſſioner is to be made; and in caſe ſuch chief magiſtrate neglect to indorſe the day he received the precept on the back thereof, or to ſummon the council within the time above directed, he ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 100 l.

100 l. ſterling, to any magiſtrate or counſellor of the ſaid borough who ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 42.

Every penalty or forfeiture by this act impoſed in Scotland, ſhall be ſued for, and recovered by way of ſummary complaint before the court of ſeſſion, upon 30 days notice to the perſon complained of, without abiding the courſe of any roll; which complaint the court of ſeſſion ſhall determine, and declare the diſabilities and incapacities, and direct the impriſonments, as herein provided. ſ. 43.

No perſon ſhall be liable to any incapacity, diſability, forfeiture, or penalty, by this act impoſed in Scotland, unleſs proſecution be commenced within one year after ſuch incapacity, &c. incurred. ſ. 44.

By 14 Geo. 3. c. 81. The court of ſeſſion ſhall grant warrants for the ſervice of all complaints, for redreſs of wrongs committed by inrolling freeholders, or in the annual elections of royal boroughs, upon 15 days notice.

In every election of a burgeſs to ſerve in parliament for a diſtrict of boroughs in Scotland, when it ſhall happen that the election of the magiſtrates and council of the borough, which ought to have been the preſiding borough at ſuch election, is reduced and not revived, the next borough intitled to preſide in turn ſhall be the preſiding borough, and the election ſhall be made at that borough; and the commiſſioner for that borough ſhall be the preſident of the meeting of commiſſioners for the election, and have a caſting vote, beſides his own as commiſſioner, where the votes of the commiſſioners are equal; and the common clerk of that borough ſhall be clerk to the election; and every matter concerning the election ſhall be proceeded in as if that borough had been the preſiding borough, in the ordinary courſe of rotation. ſ. 2.

The borough which would have been the preſiding borough at the election, if the election of magiſtrates and counſellors had not been reduced, ſhall, when revived by the juſtice and favour of the crown, have no right to be a preſiding borough in the election of a burgeſs to ſerve in parliament for the diſtrict of boroughs of which it is one, until the other boroughs of the diſtrict, each in their turn, have ſucceſſively provided, and that right devolves upon ſuch borough in the ordinary courſe of rotation. ſ. 3.

Patronages.

By 10 Ann. c. 12. The act made in the year 1690, concerning patronages, ſo far as the ſame relates to the preſentation of miniſters by heretors and others therein mentioned, is repealed and made void; and the fifteenth act of the fifth ſeſſion, and thirteenth act of the ſixth ſeſſion, of the firſt parliament of king William, are likewiſe repealed; and the right of patrons to the preſentation of miniſters to churches and benefices, and the diſpoſing of the vacant ſtipends for pious uſes within the pariſh, ſhall be reſtored to them; and it ſhall be lawful for her majeſty, and every other perſon who have right to any patronage of any church in Scotland (and who have not made a formal renunciation thereof) to preſent a qualified miniſter to any church whereof they are patrons which ſhall be vacant, and the preſbytery ſhall receive and admit ſuch qualified miniſter. ſ. 1.

In caſe any patrons have accepted of money from the heretors or life-renters of any pariſh, or from the magiſtrates or town council of any borough, in ſatisfaction of their right of preſentation, and have renounced the ſame under their hand, nothing herein ſhall reſtore ſuch patrons to their right of preſentation. ſ. 2.

In caſe the patron of any church neglect to preſent any qualified miniſter for ſix months after a vacancy, the right of preſentation ſhall accrue for that time to the preſbytery of the bounds, who are to preſent a qualified perſon for that vacancy tanquam jure devoluto. ſ. 3.

The patronage of all churches which belonged to archbiſhops, biſhops, or other dignified perſons, in the year 1689, before epiſcopacy was aboliſhed, as well as thoſe which formerly belonged to the crown, ſhall belong to her majeſty, who may preſent qualified miniſters to ſuch churches, and diſpoſe of the vacant ſtipends thereof for pious uſes. ſ. 4.

Every patron, who ſhall not take before his preſenting a miniſter to any church the oath of abjuration, ſhall, at their ſigning ſuch preſentation, take and ſubſcribe the ſaid oath before the ſheriff of the ſhire, ſtewart of the ſtewartry, or before any two juſtices of peace of the place where ſuch patron reſides; and in caſe ſuch patron neglect to take the ſame, ſuch preſentation ſhall be void, and the right of preſentation, and of the diſpoſing the vacant ſtipends for that time, ſhall belong to her majeſty, who may preſent a qualified perſon within ſix months after ſuch neglect. ſ. 6.

Any perſon known or ſuſpected to be a papiſt, and who have a right of preſenting miniſters, ſhall be obliged, at or before his ſigning any preſentation, to purge himſelf of popery, by taking and ſigning the formula contained in the third act of the parliament of Scotland held in the year 1700, and in caſe ſuch popiſh patron ſhall refuſe to take the formula, the ſame being tendered to him by the ſheriff of the ſhire, ſtewart of the ſtewarty, or any two juſtices of peace, the preſentation, and the right of diſpoſing the vacant ſtipends, ſhall for that time belong to her majeſty, who may preſent any qualified perſon within ſix months after ſuch neglect. ſ. 7.

By 5 Geo. 1. c. 29. If any patron ſhall preſent to a vacant church any perſon not qualified by taking the oath of abjuration, or who is a paſtor of any other church, or one who ſhall not accept of the preſentation, ſuch preſentation ſhall not be any interruption of the courſe of time allowed to the patron of preſenting; but the jus devolutum ſhall take place as if no ſuch preſentation had been offered. ſ. 8.

Nothing herein ſhall prejudice the right of the church, as to the trying the qualities of any perſon preſented to any church or benefice. ſ. 9.

Priſons.

By 21 Geo. 2. c. 19. The forts erected or to be erected by his majeſty within the ſhires of Dunbartain, Sterling, Perth, Kincardine, Aberdeen, Inverneſs, Nairn, Cromartie, Arygll, Forfar, Bamff, Sutherland, Caithneſs, Elgine, and Roſs, and the ſtewartry of Orkney, ſhall be lawful priſons: and the officers commanding in any ſuch fort are to obey and execute all legal warrants to them directed, for the receiving and detaining, or releaſing, any perſon committed to their cuſtody by the civil magiſtrate. ſ. 9.

Salt.

By 7 Ann. c. 11. No debentures for allowances to be made for any fiſh or fleſh exported from Scotland ſhall be prepared or allowed, until ſuch oath be made, and all ſuch other other things be done for preventing of frauds, as by any law in force in England or Scotland are to be done for preventing frauds in the like allowances; and all laws now in force in England or Scotland, for preventing any frauds upon the importation and exportation of fiſh and fleſh, for which the ſaid allowances are to be made, ſhall be extended to Scotland. ſ. 5.

All ſuch allowances ſhall be paid by the officer of the duties upon ſalt payable in Scotland, out of the duties to ariſe in the ſame port from whence ſuch fiſh ſhall be exported, within thirty days after demand, on a debenture to be prepared by the collector of the cuſtoms in the port where ſuch fiſh or fleſh ſhall be entered out for exportation, and verified by the ſearcher as to the quantity ſhipped, the oath of the exporter or agent firſt taken before the principal officers of the port, that the fiſh were caught by ſubjects inhabitants of Great Britain, and that the fiſh and fleſh were really exported for ſale, and not intended to be relanded in Great Britain, and were duly cured only with foreign ſalt imported into Scotland, without any mixture of Britiſh or Iriſh ſalt, and that her majeſty's duties for ſuch ſalt have been duly paid or ſecured; all which particulars ſhall be ſpecified in ſuch debenture, for which no fee ſhall be taken; and in caſe the officer ſhall not have ſufficient money in his hands to pay the ſame, he ſhall give a certificate thereof (without fee) to the exporter, to be directed either to the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms, or the commiſſioners of exciſe in Scotland, at the option of the exporter; and upon producing ſuch certificates, together with the debenture, the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms or exciſe, ſhall cauſe ſuch debentures to be paid without fee in courſe, out of any her majeſty's duties ariſing upon ſalt in Scotland, or out of the ſaid revenues of cuſtoms and exciſe in Scotland, and with preference to all other payments; the charges of raiſing thoſe revenues, and the ſalaries and charges allowed by her majeſty for keeping up the court of ſeſſion and juſticiary, and the exchequer court of Scotland excepted: and any officer neglecting his duty therein, ſhall forfeit double the ſum to the party grieved, to be recovered in the exchequer of Scotland. ſ. 10.

Nothing in this act ſhall charge the overplus of the cuſtoms of Scotland, exceeding 30,000 l. per ann. mentioned in the 15th article of union, or the overplus of the exciſe, exceeding 33,500 l. per annum. ſ. 11.

By 8 Geo. 2. c. 12. It ſhall not be lawful for any proprietor, or perſon taking charge of any ſalt work in Scotland, to pay the wages of any ſervants employed in ſuch works, in ſalt. Perſons offending ſhall forfeit 20 l. to be recovered in a ſummary way, upon complaint before two juſtices of peace of the county within which ſuch ſalt works lie, by any perſon who ſhall ſue, provided ſuch penalties be ſued for within three months. ſ. 4. See general title SALT.

Schools.

By 4 Geo. 1. c. 1. Out of the monies that ſhall ariſe by ſale of the forfeited eſtates, or by the rents and profits thereof, a ſum not exceeding 20,000 l. ſhall be appropriated towards the making a capital ſtock for a yearly intereſt, out of the monies which ſhall ariſe by ſale of the ſaid eſtates in Scotland, towards erecting and maintaining ſchools in the Highlands, in ſuch manner as by any future act of parliament ſhall be directed. And the other monies which ſhall ariſe, &c. ſhall be applied towards diſcharging the public debts. ſ. 32.

By 19 Geo. 2. c. 39. After the 1ſt of November 1746, it ſhall not be lawful for any perſon in Scotland to keep a private ſchool for teaching Engliſh, Latin, Greek, or any part of literature, or to officiate as a maſter or teacher in ſuch ſchool, or any ſchool for literature, other than thoſe in the univerſities, or eſtabliſhed in the royal burghs by public authority, or the parochial ſchools ſettled according to law, or the ſchools maintained by the ſociety in Scotland for propagating Chriſtian knowledge, or by the general aſſemblies of the church of Scotland, or committees thereof, upon the bounty granted by his majeſty, until the ſituation and deſcription of ſuch private ſchool be regiſtered in a book, to be kept by the clerks of the ſeveral ſhires, ſtewartries, and burghs, in Scotland, together with a certificate of every ſuch maſter and teacher having qualified himſelf by taking the oaths appointed to be taken by perſons in offices of public truſt in Scotland; and every ſuch maſter and teacher ſhall, as often as prayers are ſaid in ſuch ſchool, pray, or cauſe to be prayed, for his majeſty by name, and all the royal family; and if any perſon exerciſe the office of a maſter or teacher of any ſuch private ſchool not regiſtered, or without having firſt qualified himſelf and cauſed the certificate to be regiſtered as above mentioned, or neglect to pray for his majeſty by name, and all the royal family, or reſort to any epiſcopal meeting-houſe not allowed by law, being convicted before two juſtices of peace, or any other judge competent of the place ſummarily, he ſhall for the firſt offence ſuffer impriſonment for ſix months; and for the ſecond, or any ſubſequent offence, being convicted before the court of juſticiary, or in any of the circuit courts, be tranſported to ſome of the plantations in America for life; and in caſe any perſon adjudged to be ſo tranſported return into Great Britain, he ſhall ſuffer impriſonment for life. ſ. 21.

If any parent or guardian put a child to any private ſchool not regiſtered according to this act, or whereof the principal maſter or teacher ſhall not have regiſtered the certificate of his having qualified himſelf, every ſuch parent or guardian being convicted before two juſtices of peace, or any other judge competent of the place ſummarily, ſhall, for the firſt offence, ſuffer impriſonment three months; and for the ſecond, or any ſubſequent offence, being convicted before the court of juſticiary, or in any of the circuit courts, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment for the ſpace of two years from the date of ſuch conviction. ſ. 22. See ſ. 26. Oaths.

By 21 Geo. 2. c. 34. Every perſon who ſhall keep in his own name, or in the name of any other perſon, any private ſchool, other than as in the 19 Geo. 2. c. 39. is excepted, or who ſhall receive or be intereſted in the profits of ſuch ſchool, ſhall take the oaths appointed to be taken by perſons in offices of public truſt in Scotland; and pray for in expreſs words his majeſty by name, and all the royal family, as often as there be prayers in ſuch ſchool, or in the hearing of any of the ſcholars; and if any perſon keep any ſuch ſchool in his own name, or in the names of any other perſons, or receive or be intereſted in the profits of ſuch private ſchool, not regiſtered as directed by the ſaid act, or without having qualified himſelf and cauſed the certificate thereof to be regiſtered, or neglect to pray for his majeſty by name, and all the royal family, or reſort to or attend divine worſhip in any epiſcopal meeting-houſe not allowed by law, being convicted before two juſtices, or any other judge competent ſummarily, he ſhall, for the firſt offence, ſuffer impriſonment for ſix months; and for the ſecond or any ſubſequent offence, being convicted before the court of juſticiary, or in any of the circuit courts, be tranſported to ſome of the plantations in America for life, life, and in caſe he return into Great Britain he ſhall ſuffer impriſonment for life. ſ. 12.

Servants in Collieries and Salt Works.

By 15 Geo. 3. c. 28. No perſon who ſhall begin to work as a collier or ſalter in Scotland, ſhall be bound in any other way than other ſervants. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for owners and leſſees of collieries and ſalt-works, and for colliers, coal-bearers, and ſalters, to take perſons bound by contract or indenture, as apprentices, to learn the art of coal-hewing, coal bearing, or making ſalt, for any term permitted by the law of Scotland with regard to apprentices in other arts. ſ. 2.

Perſons employed under 21 years, ſhall be free after ſeven years ſervice. ſ. 3.

All bound colliers and ſalters, after ſervice of ten years, and thoſe above 35, and under 45, after ſeven years, to be free, &c. ſ. 4.

Above 45 years to be free after three years. ſ. 5.

Not properly inſtructing apprentices, to ſerve three years longer, &c. ſ. 6.

Colliers, &c. claiming liberty, to obtain a decree, &c. of the ſheriff court, declaring that he is entitled unto his freedom, under this act. ſ. 7.

For obtaining ſuch decree, it ſhall be lawful for the collier or ſalter claiming his freedom to preſent a petition to the ſheriff depute or ſubſtitute of the county, ſtating his claim, and offering to prove the facts which intitle him to it, and the ſheriff to order the petition to be ſerved upon the owner or overſeer of the works, and to order an anſwer to the petition in ten days after ſervice; and the ſheriff ſhall after proceed in a ſummary way in taking the proofs, until a decree ſhall be pronounced; and if the decree ſhall be againſt the petitioner, it ſhall nevertheleſs be competent to ſuch petitioner, at any period after the expiration of one year, to preſent a ſecond petition, ſtating his claim of new, and which ſhall be proceeded upon in the ſame manner; and if the petitioner fails in obtaining a decree on the ſecond petition, he may, after the expiration of one year from the date of the ſecond decree, preſent a third petition; and if he fails on his third petition, he may preſent a fourth, and ſo on, till he obtains a decree declaring his freedom. ſ. 8.

Perſons guilty of unlawful combinations, &c. to ſerve two years after intitled to his freedom. ſ. 9.

Reſpondent may not remove proceedings. ſ. 10.

When colliers or ſalters obtain their freedom, their wives and all their family ſhall likewiſe be free. ſ. 11.

All colliers, &c. having obtained their freedom, intitled to benefit of the act of Scotland, in the year 1701, intituled, 'Act for preventing wrongous impriſonment, and againſt 'undue delays in trials.' ſ. 13.

Seſſion.

By 10 Geo. 1. c. 19. When any ordinary place ſhall be vacant in the court of ſeſſion, the king ſhall nominate thereto a perſon qualified according to an act made in Scotland in the ſixth parliament of king James VI. Anent the admiſſion of ordinary lords of the ſeſſion, &c. and another act in the 12th parliament of king James VI. Anent the juriſdiction, preſentation, qualities, and age, of the lords of ſeſſion, and according to the articles of union; and the qualifications of ſuch perſon ſhall be tried by the ordinary lords of the court of ſeſſion only; and if the perſon on ſuch examination be found qualified, they ſhall forthwith admit him; but if the lords of ſeſſion ſhall be of opinion, that there is juſt ground to object to the qualifications of the perſon nominated, they are required, with all convenient ſpeed, to certify the whole matter to his majeſty; and if his majeſty ſhall afterwards ſignify, under the ſign manual, the royal will and pleaſure, that the perſon nominated ſhall be admitted, the lords of ſeſſion are forthwith to admit him; but if his majeſty ſhall ſee cauſe not to admit him, it ſhall be lawful for his majeſty to nominate ſome other perſon, ſubject to ſuch examination and determination as before. And when the places of the four preſent extraordinary lords of ſeſſion ſhall become vacant, no nomination ſhall be made to ſupply ſuch vacancy.

By 3 Geo. 2. c. 32. ſ. 1. The court of ſeſſion may make an adjournment between the 15th of Dec. and the 15th of Jan. yearly, not exceeding ten days: But by 2 Geo. 3. c. 27. the court may make an adjournment betwixt 20 Dec. and 15 Jan. yearly, not exceeding twenty days.

By 30 Geo. 3. c. 17. The ſummer ſeſſion in the court of ſeſſion ſhall begin upon 12th May, except it be a Sunday or Monday, in which caſe the ſeſſion ſhall ſet down upon the firſt Tueſday after 12th May, and the ſaid ſummer ſeſſion ſhall end upon 11th July, except it be a Sunday or Monday, in which caſe it ſhall riſe upon the Saturday preceding. ſ. 1.

Settlements.

By 10 Geo. 3. c. 51. Every proprietor of an entailed eſtate within Scotland may grant tacks or leaſes thereof, for 14 years from the term of Whitſunday next after the date, and for the life of one perſon to be named in ſuch leaſes; or for the lives of two perſons, and the life of the ſurvivor; or for 31 years from the term aforeſaid. ſ. 1.

Every ſuch leaſe for two lives ſhall contain a clauſe, obliging the tenant to incloſe all the lands within 30 years, two third parts within 20 years, and one third within 10 years; and every leaſe for any term exceeding 19 years, ſhall contain a clauſe, obliging the tenant to incloſe all the lands during the term, and two third parts before the expiration of two third parts of ſuch term, and one third before the expiration of one third of ſuch term. ſ. 2.

Every ſuch leaſe for two lives, or exceeding 19 years, ſhall contain a clauſe, obliging the tenant to keep the fences, when made, in repair, and to leave them ſo; that no incloſures ſhall comprehend more than 40 acres in one field; excepting hills or other grounds incapable or improper for culture by the plough. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be in the power of every proprietor of an entailed eſtate, to grant leaſes of land for building, for ninety-nine years. ſ. 4.

Provided that not more than five acres ſhall be granted to one perſon, either in his own name, or to any other in truſt for him; and the leaſe ſhall contain a condition that the leaſe ſhall be void, and the ſame is declared void, if one dwelling-houſe, not under the value of 10*l.* ſterling, ſhall not be built within ten years from the date, for each one half acre of ground comprehended in the leaſe; and that the ſaid houſes ſhall be kept in repair; and that the leaſe ſhall be void whenever there ſhall be a leſs number of dwelling-ing-houſes than one, of the value aforeſaid, to each one half acre of ground, kept in ſuch repair as aforeſaid, ſtanding upon the ground ſo leaſed. ſ. 5.

The power of leaſing hereby given ſhall not extend to leaſing, or ſetting in tack, the manor-place, office-houſes, gardens, orchards, or incloſures adjacent to the manor-place, which have uſually been in the natural poſſeſſion of the proprietor, or have not been uſually let for longer than ſeven years, when the heir in poſſeſſion was of lawful age; and no leaſe of lands ſhall be granted, under this act, for the purpoſe of building villages or houſes within three hundred yards of the manor-place in the natural poſſeſſion of the proprietor. ſ. 6.

All leaſes under this act, ſhall be made for a rent not under the rent payable by the laſt leaſe, and without graſſum fine or foregift, or any benefit whatſoever, except the rent payable by the leaſe; and no ſuch leaſe ſhall be granted till after the end of any former leaſe; or that ſuch leaſe be within one year of being determined; and all leaſes otherwiſe granted ſhall be void. ſ. 7.

If any taillie ſhall, either expreſsly or by implication, contain powers of leaſing more ample than are hereby given; the heirs of entail in poſſeſſion may exerciſe all ſuch powers as if this act had never been made. ſ. 8.

Every proprietor of an entailed eſtate who lays out money in incloſing, planting, or draining, or in erecting farm-houſes, offices or out-buildings for the ſame, for the improvements of his lands and heritages, ſhall be a creditor to the ſucceeding heirs of entail for three fourth parts of the money laid out in making the improvements ſ. 9.

The money laid out upon ſuch improvements, ſhall not conſtitute a claim againſt the ſucceeding heir, for more than four years free rent of the entailed eſtate, after deduction of all public burdens, life-rents, and intereſts of debts, which may affect the ſaid eſtate as the ſame ſhall happen to be at the firſt term of Whitſunday after the death of the heir who expended the money claimed. ſ. 10.

Every proprietor, who intends to lay out money on ſuch improvements, ſhall, three months before he begins to execute the ſame, give notice in writing to the heir of entail next intitled to ſucceed to the eſtate after the heirs of the body of the proprietor, if within Great Britain or Ireland, and if the heir next intitled to ſucceed is not within Great Britain or Ireland, ſhall give notice in writing to the neareſt male relation by his father of lawful age, or to his known factor or attorney, of ſuch his intention, ſpecifying in ſuch notice the kind of improvement intended, and the farms or parts of the eſtate upon which the improvements are intended to be made; and ſhall lodge a copy thereof with the ſheriff or ſteward's clerk of the county wherein the lands lie. ſ. 11.

The proprietor of an entailed eſtate, who lays out money in making improvements upon his entailed eſtate, with an intent of being a creditor to the ſucceeding heirs of entail as above expreſſed, ſhall annually, during the making ſuch improvements, within four months after the term of Martinmas, lodge with the ſheriff or ſtewart clerk of the county, an account of the money expended during twelve months preceding that term of Martinmas, ſubſcribed by him, with the vouchers by which the account is to be ſupported when payment ſhall be demanded. ſ. 12.

When a ſum equal to four years free rent ſhall have been laid out, abovementioned, by one or more heirs of entail, and ſhall remain a ſubſiſting charge againſt the ſucceeding heirs; it ſhall not be lawful for any ſubſequent heir to lay out any more money under this act, for improvements. ſ. 13.

All ſheriff or ſteward clerks, with whom the accounts, vouchers, and copies of notice ſhall be lodged, ſhall, within one month thereafter, record them in a book to be kept for that purpoſe, and return them when called for; and ſhall make the book patent to all perſons deſirous to ſee the ſame; and ſhall give certified copies of all accounts, &c. recorded, they receiving for their trouble the uſual fees for recording writings and giving out extracts, and ſixpence ſterling from each perſon who ſhall have inſpection of the book wherein the accounts, &c. ſhall be recorded. ſ. 14.

The executors or aſſigns, or perſons having right to the claim ariſing from money expended by the proprietor of an entailed eſtate in the improvement thereof, may, after the expiration of one year from the death of the heir who expended the money, require the heir next ſucceeding to the eſtate to pay ſuch part thereof as is due by this act, with the legal intereſt, from the term at which the ſucceeding heir's right to the rents did commence, upon receiving a proper diſcharge and aſſignment of the claim; and if the money is not paid within three months of ſuch requiſition, it ſhall be lawful for the perſon having right, to inſtitute an action in the court of ſeſſion againſt the heir then in poſſion, for compelling him to pay the money, and intereſt thereof; and upon obtaining a decree, he ſhall be at liberty to uſe every kind of diligence or execution, authoriſed by the law of Scotland in recovering payment of debts, excepting adjudication againſt the entailed eſtate improved; and in all queſtions of competition for the rents of the entailed eſtate, the perſon who have ſued for and obtained a decree under this act, or the perſon having right to ſuch decree, ſhall be preferred to the other creditors of the heir of entail who has ſucceeded to the eſtate. ſ. 15.

When any heir in poſſeſſion is ſued for the money due on account of improvements made upon an entailed eſtate, under this act, he ſhall be diſcharged from ſuch ſuit, upon his aſſigning to the creditor one third part of the clear rents of the entailed eſtate, during his life, or until the money due ſhall thereby be paid off. ſ. 16.

The perſon in right of the money due, may either ſue the heirs and ſucceſſors of the next heir of entail in any other than the entailed eſtate, or the heir of entail next ſucceeding to him, or both, and uſe every diligence or execution, authoriſed by the law of Scotland in recovering payment of debts, againſt them and their eſtates, excepting adjudication againſt the entailed eſtate, until the money due is paid; and the perſon in right of the money due ſhall, in any competition for the rents of the entailed eſtates, be preferred to the perſonal creditors of the heir of entail in poſſeſſion; and the perſon in the right of the money due, in like manner ſhall be intitled to ſue every ſucceeding heir of entail, until the money is paid; and ſhall have the ſame preference to the rents of the entailed eſtate in competition, with the creditors of ſuch heirs of entail. ſ. 17.

The heir who next ſucceeds in the entailed eſtate to the proprietor who expended the money, under this act, in making improvements upon the eſtate, and the heirs of ſuch heir ſhall be bound to relieve all ſubſequent heirs of the debt incurred by the improvement paid by them, to the extent of one-third part of the rents which have come to the uſe of ſuch firſt ſucceeding heir, or to the uſe of his heirs; and when the third part of the rents which have come to the uſe of the firſt ſucceeding heir, or to his heirs, are exhauſted, hauſted, then the next ſucceeding heir, and his heirs ſhall, in like manner relieve all ſubſequent heirs, to the extent of one-third part of the rents come to their uſe; and relief ſhall in like manner be competent to every ſucceeding heir, who ſhall pay, againſt the heirs of the preceding heir. ſ. 18.

When the heirs of an heir of entail, in any other than the entailed eſtate, are ſued for the money due on account of improvements made upon an entailed eſtate under this act, they ſhall be diſcharged from ſuch ſuits, upon making payment of one-third part of the rents come to the uſe of ſuch heir, or to the uſe of his heirs. ſ. 19.

The executor, aſſignee, or perſon having right to the claim ariſing from money expended by the proprietor of an entailed eſtate in the improvement thereof, ſhall be obliged, within two years after the death of the proprietor who expended the money, to require payment from the ſucceeding heir, and within ſix months after the elapſe of the two years to inſtitute an action, if the money is not paid, in the court of ſeſſion; and to proceed without delay in recovering a decree for the ſum due, and doing exact diligence for recovering payment thereof, or at leaſt to the amount of one-third part of the free rents which ſhall become due to ſuch ſucceeding heir. ſ. 20.

The executor, aſſignee, or perſon having right to the claim ariſing from money expended by the proprietor of an entailed eſtate, who ſhall neglect to require the next or other ſucceeding heir to pay, and ſhall allow ſuch ſucceeding heir to die without recovering payment from him to the amount of one-third part of the rents become due to ſuch heir ſhall ceaſe to be creditor to the ſubſequent ſucceeding heir, and ſhall be entitled to recover payment of his claim from the executors or heirs only of the firſt or other ſucceeding heir, in any other eſtate than the entailed eſtate; and ſhall be entitled to recover payment of the ſurplus of his claim, if any be, and no more, from the ſubſequent ſucceeding heir. ſ. 21.

If the heir who firſt ſucceeds in the entailed eſtate, to the proprietor who expended the money, does pay the money due on account of the improvements, and ſhall not live long enough to be indemnified of what he pays by one-third part of the rents that ſhall come to his uſe, or to the uſe of his heirs; it ſhall be competent to his executors or aſſigns, to ſue the ſucceeding heir of entail, for relief of ſuch part of the money as ſhall not be repaid by the third part of the rents which have come to his uſe, or to the uſe of his heirs; and relief ſhall in like manner be competent to the executors or aſſigns of every heir of entail, who pays more than is repaid by the third of the rents which have come to his uſe, or to the uſe of his heirs. ſ. 22.

No money expended in making improvements for which a decree ſhall be obtained in the court of ſeſſion, ſhall be made uſe of as a ground of debt for adjudging the eſtate upon which the improvements have been made; and if any decree of adjudication ſhall be obtained againſt the entailed eſtate for ſuch debts, ſuch decree ſhall be void. ſ. 23.

If the heir of entail who ſhall ſucceed to an entailed eſtate on which improvements have been made, ſhall have right to a claim of debt ariſing from the making of ſuch improvements as next of kin, or by the will or ſettlements of the heir of entail who expended the money; in ſuch caſe, the claim of debt ſhall be extinguiſhed forever, and ſhall never be ſet up as a debt againſt any ſucceeding heir. ſ. 24.

If any heir of entail, againſt whom a debt is created for improvements made on the entailed eſtate to which he ſucceeds, ſhall refuſe to pay the money required of him under this act, and decrees ſhall be obtained againſt him for the money of which he ſhall be required to make payment, in ſuch caſe the defender ſhall be liable in full coſts; and if decree is not obtained for the money of which payment has been required, it ſhall be in the diſcretion of the court to award coſts to either party, as the caſe ſhall direct. ſ. 25.

It ſhall be lawful for every heir of entail, after he has laid out money upon the improvement of his entailed eſtate, and ſhall have completed the improvement, to bring, if he think proper, an action of declarator before the court of ſeſſion, or a proceſs before the ſheriff, in which he ſhall call the heir next entitled to ſucceed after the heirs of his own body, and ſhall in ſuch ſuit produce evidence of the money laid out in ſuch improvements; and the next heir, or any other heir of entail, ſhall be entitled to produce evidence to ſet aſide the ſaid claim: and it ſhall be lawful for the court, or for the ſheriff, to pronounce a decree for ſuch part of the ſum, as, by this act, is intended to become a charge againſt the ſucceeding heirs; which decree, if pronounced by the ſheriff, ſhall become final, unleſs carried to the court of ſeſſion by ſuſpenſion within ſix months after pronounced; and if pronounced by the court of ſeſſion, either in proceſs of declarator or ſuſpenſion, ſhall be final, if an appeal is not brought within 12 months. ſ. 26.

Every heir of entail, who lays out money in building a manſion-houſe or offices, or in repairing or adding to the manſion-houſe or offices upon his eſtate, ſhall be a creditor to the next ſucceeding heir of entail for three-fourth parts of the money expended by him. ſ. 27.

Money laid out by any heir of entail, in the building a manſion-houſe or offices, &c. ſhall not, in any caſe, conſtitute a claim againſt the ſucceeding heir for more than two years rent of the entailed eſtate, after deduction of all public burdens, life-rents, and intereſts of debts, which may affect the ſaid eſtate, as the ſame ſhall happen to be at the firſt term of Whitſunday after the death of the heir who expended the money claimed. ſ. 28.

The proprietor of the entailed eſtate, who lays out the money, ſhall, previous thereto, give notice in writing to the heir of entail next entitled to ſucceed to the eſtate after the heirs of his own body, and record copies of the ſame, together with the accounts of the money expended, and the vouchers thereof, in the ſheriff or ſteward court books of the county within which the manſion-houſes and offices are ſituated, in the form above directed with regard to monies expended in making improvements, upon entailed eſtates. ſ. 29.

The executor, aſſignee, or perſon having right to the claim, ariſing from money expended by the proprietor of an entailed eſtate, in the building a manſion-houſe or offices, &c. may, after one year from the death of the heir who expended the money, require the heir next ſucceeding to the eſtate to pay the whole, or ſuch part as is due by this act, with intereſt from the term at which the ſucceeding heir's right to the rents of the eſtate did commence, upon receiving a proper diſcharge of the ſaid claim; and if the money is not paid within three months of ſuch requiſition, it ſhall be lawful for the perſon having right, to ſue the next ſucceeding heir. ſ. 30.

The ſame rules of relief among ſucceeding heirs of entail, and their heirs, of the claim of debt, and of preference, in competition for rents, and in ſubjecting defenders to the payment of coſts, and for aſcertaining the amount of the ſum laid out, ſhall take place with regard to monies expended in the building, repairing, or adding to the manſion-houſes or offices, as are before enacted, with reſpect to monies expended by proprietors of entailed eſtates, in making improvements upon their eſtates for increaſing the rents and value of them. ſ. 31.

It ſhall be lawful for proprietors of entailed eſtates to make exchanges of land with perſons for the conveniency and advantage of the eſtates, and for the improvement of the country where ſuch eſtates are ſituated, by incloſing or otherways. ſ. 32.

Not more than 30 acres of arable land, nor more than 100 acres of lands conſiſting of hills or other grounds, incapable by their nature for culture by the plough, of ſuch entailed eſtates, lying together in one place, ſhall be given in exchange; and an equivalent in land, contiguous to the entailed eſtate with which the exchange is to be made, ſhall be received in place of the land given in exchange: and for aſcertaining the value of the lands to be exchanged, an application ſhall be made, by the proprietor of the entailed eſtate, to the ſheriff or ſteward of the county within which the entailed eſtate is ſituated, who thereupon ſhall appoint two perſons to inſpect and adjuſt the value of the lands propoſed to be exchanged; and upon ſuch perſons ſettling the marches of the lands propoſed to be exchanged, and reporting on oath that the exchange will be juſt, the ſheriff or ſteward may authorize the exchange to be made by a contract of excambion; and which being executed and recorded in the ſheriff or ſteward books, within three months after the execution thereof, the ſame ſhall be effectual; and the land given in exchange to the entailed eſtate ſhall be held to be a part thereof, and ſhall be ſubject to all the prohibitory, irritant, and reſolutive clauſes of the entail in the ſame manner as if it had been originally a part of the eſtate; and the lands given from the entailed eſtate ſhall from thenceforth be held as out of the entail, and be liberated from all the prohibitory, irritant, and reſolutive clauſes thereof. ſ. 33.

This act ſhall extend to all tallies of lands or heritages in Scotland, made or to be made, and whether prior or poſterior to the ſaid act made in the year 1685. ſ. 34.

Sheriffs.

By 21 Geo. 2. c. 19. No ſheriff depute or ſtewart depute or ſubſtitute to any ſheriff depute or ſtewart depute in Scotland, ſhall be ſteward, chamberlain, or commiſſioner to any ſubject, or collector of the ceſs, or act in the ſervice of ſuch ſteward, chamberlain, commiſſioner, or collector; and if any ſuch ſheriff depute, or ſtewart depute, or ſubſtitute to any ſheriff depute, or ſtewart depute, take upon him any ſuch office or act therein he ſhall forfeit his office of ſheriff depute, ſtewart depute, or ſubſtitute, and be ipſo facto diſabled to hold the ſame. ſ. 10.

No ſuch ſheriff depute or ſtewart depute, ſhall be capable of being elected, or of ſitting or voting as a member of the houſe of commons. ſ. 11.

Whereas his majeſty has appointed one ſheriff depute only for the ſhires of Fife and Kinroſs; one only for Sterling and Clackmannan; one only for Argyll and Bute; one only for Elgin and Nairn; one only for Southerland and Caithneſs; and one only for Roſs and Cromartie: the ſheriff deputes appointed for the ſaid ſhires, ſhall not be obliged to reſide four months in each of the ſaid ſhires, but their reſidence within the two ſhires, conſidered as one diſtrict in that reſpect, ſhall be ſufficient. ſ. 12. See Juriſdictions.

Tailzie.

By 20 Geo. 2. c. 50. Whereas it may be neceſſary for the public ſervice to erect buildings in the highlands of Scotland, it ſhall be lawful for any perſon ſeiſed in or poſſeſſed of a tailzied eſtate in Scotland, to ſell or reſign ad perpetuam remanentiam any part thereof which his majeſty ſhall think fit to purchaſe, for erecting of buildings, or making ſettlements within the ſame. ſ. 14.

The price of ſuch land ſhall be ſettled to the ſame uſes, and with the ſame limitations and reſtrictions, as ſuch land was ſettled, or applied for payment of the debts of the maker of the entail, or other debts that are effectual burdens on the tailzied eſtate, not contracted by the vender himſelf: and for that purpoſe the ſaid money ſhall be paid to truſtees appointed by his majeſty by ſign manual and the venders; and ſuch truſtees and the ſurvivor of them, and the executors and adminiſtrators, of ſuch ſurvivor, ſhall lay out the ſame in the purchaſe of other lands to be ſettled, or apply the ſame for payment of debts on the eſtate in manner before directed. ſ. 15.

By 20 Geo. 2. c. 51. Whereas it may be neceſſary, for the preſervation of the public peace, and the further civilizing of the highlands of Scotland, that lands be purchaſed there by his majeſty, it ſhall be lawful for any perſon ſeiſed in or poſſeſſed of a tailzied eſtate in Scotland, or for any guardian, tutor, curator, or truſtee, of an infant, pupil, minor, idiot, lunatic, fatuous or furious perſon, to ſell or reſign ad perpetuam remanentiam, the whole or any part of ſuch tailzied eſtate, or the eſtate of ſuch infant, &c. which his majeſty may think fit to purchaſe; which lands ſo purchaſed ſhall remain in his majeſty, his heirs, and ſucceſſors, unalienable for ever, except as to the power of granting leaſes for ſeven years, with a diminution of a fifth part of the uſual rent only. ſ. 2.

Provided that in ſuch caſe the price of ſuch lands ſhall be ſettled to the ſame uſes, and with the ſame limitations and reſtrictions, as ſuch lands were ſettled, or ſhall be applied for the payment of debts that are effectual to charge ſuch tailzied eſtate, not contracted by the vender himſelf, or the eſtate of ſuch infant, &c. and the ſaid monies ſhall be paid to the truſtees appointed by his majeſty by ſign manual, and the vender; and ſuch truſtees and the ſurvivor of them, and the executors and adminiſtrators of ſuch ſurvivor ſhall lay out the monies ariſing from ſuch ſale in the purchaſe of other lands or heretages to be ſettled as aforeſaid, or the monies applied for the payment of debts in manner before directed; and till ſuch purchaſe can be found, or debts paid, they ſhall place out the monies on good ſecurity at intereſt, and ſuch intereſt ſhall go in the ſame manner as the profits of the ſaid lands, if purchaſed, ſhould have gone. ſ. 3.

Tanners.

By 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 19. So much of 1 Jac. 1. c. 22. as is recited in 9 Ann. c. 11., &c. (See the general title MANUFACTURES, diviſion, Leather,) was declared to extend to every part of the united kingdom of Great Britain, and no perſon exerciſing the trade of tanning of leather, ſhall, during the time that he ſhall ſo uſe the ſaid trade, exerciſe exerciſe the craft of a ſhoemaker, currier, butcher, or of any other artificer, exerciſing the cutting or working of leather, on pain to forfeit every hide and ſkin ſo wrought or tanned during the time he ſhall uſe the myſtery of tanning, or the juſt value thereof, and the further ſum of 50*l.*; and ſo much of the ſaid act of 1 Jac. 1. as is recited in 9 Ann. ſhall extend to every part of ſaid united kingdom, (except ſuch part thereof as has been altered by any law ſince that time made and now in force), as if the ſaid act and every clauſe therein was herein again re-enacted; and all provoſts, baillies, and other chief officers of burghs, and baillies of royalties, and other head officers in Scotland, and all tanners, curriers, ſhoemakers, and other artificers, and all other perſons whatſoever, who ought to be concerned in the execution of the ſaid ſtatute, or give obedience thereunto, ſhall, under ſuch pains as are therein expreſſed, duly execute, and comply with the ſaid ſtatute, and all clauſes therein, in relation to tanning, dreſſing, making, buying, ſelling, trying, ſealing, regiſtering, or other matters concerning leather, (other than ſuch as have been altered by law ſince.) ſ. 2.

Tenures.

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 20. If any ſubject of Great Britain, having lands or eſtate in Scotland, held waird of the crown, or of any ſubiect ſuperior, as well vaſſal as ſub-vaſſal, ſhall be killed in his majeſty's ſervice againſt the pretender and his adherents, or receive wounds whereof he ſhall die, the heir of ſuch perſon ſhall be free of waird, relief, and marriage; except that it ſhall be lawful for his majeſty, &c. where the lands are held of the crown, and to the ſuperior, where the lands are held of a ſubject, to appoint the ſaid caſualties of waird, &c. to be applied for proviſion of the wife and younger children, due conſideration being had to the condition of the heir. ſ. 7.

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 54. The annual value of the ſervices called perſonal attendance, hoſting, hunting, watching, and warning, due by any charter, contract, cuſtom, or agreement, ſhall be paid in money annually inſtead of them. ſ. 10.

The perſons to whom ſuch ſervices are due, and thoſe by whom they are payable, ſhall agree for the annual value, or by arbitrators choſen by their conſent; and if they cannot agree, either party may apply to the lords of ſeſſion, by bill or petition, to have the ſaid annual value aſcertained; and the lords of ſeſſion are ſummarily to determine the ſame, after having heard both parties, or ſummoned them. ſ. 11.

All clauſes in charters, &c. whereby the ſaid ſervices are contracted for, and all obligations to pay the ſaid ſervices ſhall be void. ſ. 12.

Nothing in this act ſhall take away any other clauſe in the ſaid charters, &c. beſides thoſe by which the ſaid ſervices of perſonal attendance, &c. are payable. ſ. 13.

The ſaid agreements by conſent or by arbitrators, or the ſentences of the lord's of ſeſſion interpoſing, whereby a ſum of money ſhall be determined to be paid annually inſtead of the ſaid ſervices, ſhall have the ſame force as if the ſaid ſum of money, aſcertained as above, were inſert as payable in the charters, &c. ſ. 14.

By 20 Geo. 2. c. 50. The tenure of lands or heretages in Scotland, by ward holding, whether ſimple or taxed ward, and the caſualties conſequent upon the ſame by ward marriage and recognition, ſhall be taken away after the 25th of March 1748. ſ. 1.

All ſuch tenures held of his majeſty ſhall be turned into blanch holding, for payment of 1*d. Scots* at Whitſunday yearly, ſi petatur tantum, and as often as ſuch lands or heretages ſhall fall in non-entry, the ſame ſhall be no longer liable to the annual payment of the new extent or retour duty, but inſtead thereof ſhall be liable to the annual payment of 1*l. Scots* for every 100*l. Scots* of the valued rent, according to which they are now liable to the land tax; and ſo proportionably for any leſſer quantity. ſ. 2.

In all ſervices upon the brief of mortanceſtry of any heir in ſuch lands or heretages as aforeſaid, the retour over and above the ſetting forth the old and new extent of the lands ſhall further ſet forth their valuation, and the proportion above mentioned of ſuch valuation ſhall be the non-entry duty, preceding the citation in the general declarator of non-entry. ſ. 3.

All tenures of lands or heretages in Scotland held ward of any ſubject ſuperior, whether ſimple or taxed ward, ſhall be turned into feu holding, for payment of a certain rent or feu duty in money, victual, cattle, or otherwiſe, yearly, in place of the ſaid caſualties of ward holding and of all ſervices. ſ. 4.

The court of ſeſſion in Scotland ſhall take into conſideration the difference in value to the vaſſals of the change of their holdings from ward to feu, and what annual rent or feu duty payable to the ſuperior will be a reaſonable ſatisfaction for that difference, and thereupon ſhall publiſh an act of ſederunt; and according to ſuch act of ſederunt, all ſuperiors and vaſſals, or parties intereſted, are to ſettle betwixt themſelves the feu duties payable in place of the tenures hereby aboliſhed or altered; and in caſe of difference, the ſaid court of ſeſſion, upon application by bill or petition by any ſuperior or vaſſal, ſhall ſummarily determine the quantum of the feu duty, after having heard both parties, or ſummoned the defender, upon 21 days notice; and what the ſaid court ſhall ſo modify, ſhall be the feu duty payable yearly at Whitſunday. ſ. 5.

Until ſuch modification be made by the court of ſeſſion, the vaſſal ſhall not incur any forfeiture or irritancy for non-payment of the feu duties; and ſuch modification being made, ſhall be inſerted as the feu duty in the future renovations of the infeoftments. ſ. 6.

Where the whole lands ſo held ward, ſtand provided in life-rent to any perſon in ſuch manner as by the laws of Scotland would be excluſive of the caſualty of ward, ſuch life-renter, during the continuance of his right, ſhall not be ſubject to pay the ſaid feu duties, and the ſame during the life-rent right ſhall be ſuſpended, and ſhall commence and be payable to the ſuperior at the firſt Whitſunday after the determination of ſuch life-rent right; and where ſuch life-rent right is not total of the whole eſtate, the entire feu duty ſhall, during the ſubſiſtence of ſuch life-rent right, be payable to the ſuperior by the fiar or proprietor out of ſuch parts of the lands as are not life-rented. ſ. 7.

The infeoftments of lands or other heretages now held ward, ſhall be valid ſo long as the perſons now infeoft retain the ſame; and they ſhall, notwithſtanding, be no longer ſubjected to the caſualties hereby diſcharged, but ſhall be ſubject to the annual blanch or feu duties hereby payable in place of thoſe caſualties. ſ. 8.

No tenure by ward holding, ſhall hereafter be created by his majeſty, or any other ſuperior in Scotland. ſ. 9.

The

The caſualty of marriage conſequent upon the tenure of feu cum maritagio, and all clauſes de non alienando ſine conſenſu ſuperiorum ſhall be taken away; and it ſhall be lawful for the ſubject ſuperiors or vaſſals in lands held feu cum maritagio, or with prohibitory clauſes, to apply to the court of ſeſſion to modify an additional feu duty in lieu thereof. ſ. 10.

The caſualties of ſingle eſcheat, and life-rent eſcheat, incurred by horning and denunciation for any civil debt in Scotland, ſhall be taken away and diſcharged for ever. ſ. 11.

Any perſon duly ſerved and retoured heir in any lands held of ſubject in Scotland, and any perſon who ſhall acquire ſuch lands from the ſuperiors former proprietor duly veſted and ſeiſed therein, and who ſhall obtain a conveyance containing a procuratory of reſignation in his favour, may apply to the ordinary on the bills in the court of ſeſſion, praying a warrand for letters of horning, to charge the ſuperior to receive or grant new infeoftment to ſuch heir or purchaſer; and upon production to the lords of ſeſſion of a ſpecial retour, or of a conveyance bearing a procuratory of reſignation, the ſaid lords of ſeſſion ſhall grant warrand for letters of horning upon fifteen days to charge the ſuperior or ſuperiors to receive or grant new infeoftment to ſuch heir purchaſer or diſponee. ſ. 12.

No ſuperior ſhall be obliged to give obedience to ſuch charge, unleſs the charger pay to him ſuch fees or caſualties as he is entitled to receive upon the entry of ſuch heir or purchaſer; and every ſuch ſuperior may ſhew cauſe why he ought not to be compelled to give obedience to ſuch charge by offering a bill of ſuſpenſion. ſ. 13.

And whereas the enfranchiſing of vaſſals of ſubject ſuperiors by cauſing them to become immediate vaſſals of the crown, is of public benefit; it ſhall be lawful for any perſon ſeiſed in or poſſeſſed of a tailzied eſtate in Scotland, comprehending lands or ſuperiorities of vaſſals holding of him, to ſell to any of ſuch vaſſals the ſuperiorities over their reſpective lands at ſuch prices as the parties ſhall agree for, and thereupon to reſign ſuch lands for new infeoftment to be granted to ſuch buyer of his own ſuperiority. ſ. 17.

Provided the price of ſuch ſuperiority being part of a tailzied eſtate be ſettled to the ſame uſes, and with the ſame limitations and reſtrictions, as ſuch ſuperiority was ſettled, or applied for payment of the debts of the maker of the entail, or other debts that are effectual burdens on the tailzied eſtate not contracted by ſuch vender himſelf, and for that purpoſe the monies ſhall be paid to truſtees appointed by the vender of ſuch ſuperiority and the purchaſer; and ſuch truſtees and the ſurvivor of them, and the executors and adminiſtrators of ſuch ſurvivor, ſhall lay out the monies ariſing from ſuch ſale in the purchaſe of other lands to be ſettled as aforeſaid, or ſuch monies to be applied for payment of debts on the tailzied eſtate in manner before directed. ſ. 18.

After the ſaid 25th of March no proprietor of lands in Scotland, holding of the king or of any ſubject ſuperior, ſhall be obliged to give ſuit and preſence by himſelf or his procurator at any head court, or be liable to any fine for default of attendance. ſ. 19.

Nothing herein ſhall exempt any proprietors of lands being vaſſals of the king, or any ſubject ſuperior, from attendance at any court to which he is ſubject, being ſummoned to ſerve as a juryman, or for other lawful purpoſe. ſ. 20.

Nothing herein ſhall derogate from the powers competent by law to freeholders at their Michaelmas head court. ſ. 21.

After the firſt of July 1747, no tenant or tackſman in Scotland, by virtue of any leaſe or tack in writing, or by verbal agreement, tacit relocation, or otherwiſe, after the the ſaid firſt of July, or by virtue of the prorogation of any tack made before that day, or any aſſignee of any ſuch leaſe or tack, ſhall be obliged to perform any ſervices to his heretor or landlord, other than ſuch as are expreſsly reſerved, enumerated, and aſcertained in ſome written agreement ſigned by the parties or ſome perſons authoriſed by them. ſ. 22.

Nothing herein ſhall extend to any ſervices by law or cuſtom due to mills, or any thing relative thereto. ſ. 23.

Title-deeds.

By 20 Geo. 2. c. 20. Perſons in Scotland who continued in their duty to his majeſty, and whoſe houſes were invaded by the rebels, may on or before 1ſt July 1750, petition the court of ſeſſion, who are to intimate the ſame, and ſummon perſons intereſted. Execution of ſummons to be recorded. The day of compearance elapſed, the court to take probation of the facts. Petitioners oath to be taken: original petitioner dying, the oath of his heir to be admitted. Lords of the ſeſſion upon proof of the premiſes to decern the extracts of the charters, &c. to be valid as the originals. Court of ſeſſion to make up the tenor of the diſpoſitions upon which the petitioners infeoftments proceeded, &c. Extracts of the charters, &c. authoriſed by the lords of ſeſſion to be good in law. Perſons intereſted may object to the authoriſing the extracts, &c. Claims to his majeſty or any other perſon preceding 1ſt Aug. 1745, againſt the perſon or eſtate of any loyal ſubjects whoſe dwelling-houſes were invaded by the rebels, and whoſe writs were carried off or deſtroyed, upon which no proceſs has been already commenced, or ſhall not be brought on or before the 15th of Nov. 1748, are diſcharged, unleſs the claim of proved by the oath of the defendant. Determinations to be recorded.

By 21 Geo. 2. c. 17. Extracts from the records of any writing produced in favour of the king's loyal ſubjects in Scotland, who petitioned the court of ſeſſion, and whoſe writings were deſtroyed by the rebels, to be deemed equal to the principal. Oath to be made of the principal writing being deſtroyed by the rebels. Defendant may object to the extract. Perſons within the deſcription of the act, allowed time to petition, and make proof of their poſſeſſions. If the proof be ſatisfactory, the court to regiſter their determination, which ſhall be admitted as evidence. Extract of the judgment of the court may be produced in any ſubſequent petition or ſuit, as evidence. Where the writings have been torn or defaced by the rebels, the ſufferers, upon producing the ſaid writings, to be relieved.

Tranſportation.

By 25 Geo. 3. c. 46. Perſons convicted of tranſportable crimes in Scotland, may be tranſported, to ſuch places as his majeſty, in council, ſhall appoint; and if his majeſty ſhould extend his mercy to any offender capitally convicted, the court may order him to be tranſported. ſ. 1.

Perſons contracting to tranſport offenders, may carry them through any county to the ſea port; and if any perſon ſon reſcue ſuch offenders, or aſſiſt them, in their eſcape, he ſhall be guilty of felony, without benefit of clergy. ſ. 2.

If any perſon ordered for tranſportation, &c. ſhall be found at large in Great Britain or Ireland, before the expiration of his term, he ſhall ſuffer death. Perſons diſcovering and proſecuting ſuch offenders, intitled to a reward of 20*l.* ſ. 3.

His majeſty impowered to order, or to authoriſe two lords of juſticiary to order, the removal of male priſoners under ſentence of death, &c. from any gaol in Scotland to any other in Great Britain, &c.; and the gaoler is to deliver offenders according to ſuch orders, with a proper certificate. ſ. 4.

Expences attending ſuch removal, ſhall be paid as has been practiſed in Scotland in tranſportation. ſ. 5.

Overſeers to whom ſuch priſoners are delivered, to have the ſame powers over them as gaolers, &c. ſ. 6.

Time of impriſonment to be deemed part of the term of tranſportation. Overſeers may inflict moderate puniſhment for miſbehaviour, &c. ſ. 7.

If offenders cannot conveniently be tranſported, two judges may order them to be tranſported to any other place appointed, &c.; and offenders returning before the expiration of their term, to ſuffer death; twenty pounds reward for proſecuting ſuch offenders. ſ. 8.

All actions, for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſhall be laid and tried in the county where the fact was committed, and ſhall be commenced within ſix months. ſ. 9.

Treaſon.

By 7 Ann. c. 21. Such crimes which are high treaſon, or miſpriſion of high treaſon within England, ſhall be high treaſon and miſpriſion of high treaſon within Scotland; and no crimes ſhall be high treaſon or miſpriſion of high treaſon within Scotland, but thoſe that are high treaſon or miſpriſion of high treaſon in England: and the queen may iſſue commiſſions of oyer and terminer in Scotland under the ſeal of Great Britain, three of the lords of the juſticiary to be in the commiſſion, whereof one to be of the quorum, to inquire of, hear and determine, ſuch high treaſons and miſpriſion of high treaſon, in manner as is uſed in England. ſ. 1.

Where any commiſſion of oyer and terminer ſhall iſſue purſuant to this act, and is to be executed within any diſtrict where there is a juſtice-general, or perſon having right of juſticiary, who had juriſdiction in caſes of high treaſon and miſpriſion of high treaſon at the time of the making of this act, after that ſuch right be made appear before the lords of ſeſſion, and by them certified to the lord chancellor, ſuch juſtice-general, or perſon having right of juſticiary, or their deputy, ſhall be in the commiſſion, and one of the quorum. ſ. 2.

The juſtice court and other courts having power to judge in caſes of high treaſon and miſpriſion of high treaſon in Scotland, are required to inquire by the oaths of twelve men of the ſhire or ſtewartry where the courts ſhall ſit, of all high treaſons and miſpriſions of high treaſon committed within the ſhires or ſtewartries, and thereupon to proceed, hear and determine, the ſaid offences whereof any perſon ſhall be indicted before them, in ſuch manner as the court of queen's bench, or juſtices of oyer and terminer in England may do. And if any perſon be indicted of high treaſon or miſpriſion of high treaſon before any juſtices of oyer and terminer, or in the circuit courts, &c. upon the requeſt of the queen's advocate general, the lord chancellor ſhall award her majeſty's writ of certiorari, directed to the juſtices of oyer and terminer, &c. commanding them to certify ſuch indictment into the juſtice court, which court is required to proceed upon, hear and determine, the ſame, as the court of queen's bench in England may do. And all perſons convicted or attainted of high treaſon or miſpriſion of high treaſon in Scotland, ſhall be ſubject to the ſame corruption of blood, pains and forfeitures, as perſons convicted or attainted of high treaſon or miſpriſion of high treaſon in England. ſ. 3.

Where any perſon ſhall be before the firſt of July 1709, ſeized of any meſſuages or hereditaments in Scotland, of an eſtate tailzie affected with irritant and reſolutive or prohibitive clauſes, and before the ſaid firſt day of July ſhall be married, if any iſſue of that marriage be living, or there be poſſibility of ſuch iſſue at the time of the high treaſon committed, the ſaid meſſuages and hereditaments ſhall not be forfeited upon the attainder of ſuch perſon for high treaſon, but during the life of the perſon ſo attainted. ſ. 4.

All treaſons and miſpriſions of treaſons, which ſhall be committed by any native of Scotland upon the high ſea, or in any place out of Great Britain, ſhall be enquired of, heard and determined, before the juſtice-court, or before ſuch commiſſioners of oyer and terminer, and in ſuch ſhire of Great Britain, as ſhall be aſſigned by the queen's commiſſion. No perſon accuſed of any capital offence, or other crime in Scoland, ſhall be liable to any torture: provided that this act ſhall not extend to take away that judgment which is given in England againſt perſons indicted of felony, who ſhall refuſe to plead. ſ. 5.

Every perſon may be returned to be a juryman in any ſuch trials, who ſhall at the time of ſuch trial be ſeized in his own right, or in the right of his wife, of lands of an eſtate of inheritance, or for life, within the county or place from whence the jury is to come, of the yearly value of 40*s.* and for want thereof, or for any other lawful cauſe, ſhall be ſubject to be challenged. ſ. 6.

Theft in landed men, murder under truſt, wilful fire-raiſing, firing coalheughs, and aſſaſſination, which were declared to be treaſon by particular ſtatutes in Scotland, ſhall be only adjudged capital offences. ſ. 7.

If any perſon ſhall ſlay any of the lords of ſeſſion, lords of juſticiary, ſitting in judgment, within Scotland, the doing thereof ſhall be high treaſon. ſ. 8.

If any perſon counterfeit her majeſty's ſeals appointed by the twenty-fourth article of the union to be kept in Scotland, the doing thereof ſhall be high treaſon. ſ. 9. See the reſt of this act in general title TREASON.

By 19 Geo. 2. c. 9. Every perſon may be ſummoned and returned to be a juryman in trials for high treaſon, or miſpriſion of treaſon in Scotland, who ſhall at the time of ſuch trial be poſſeſſed in his own right, or in right of his wife, of lands or tenements as proprietor or life-renter, within the ſhire, ſtewartry, or place where ſuch trials ſhall be, or from whence the jury is to come, of the yearly value of 40*s* at leaſt, or valued at 30*s*. ſterling per annum in the tax roll of the ſame ſhire or ſtewartry; and for want thereof, or for any other lawful cauſe, ſhall be ſubject to be challenged and ſet aſide. ſ. 4.

Trial.

By 21 Geo. 2. c. 19. It ſhall be lawful for the court of juſticiary, and the circuit courts, to try and determine all cauſes cauſes and proſecutions, for any crimes not inferring death or demembration, whereupon the verdict of an aſſize or jury is to paſs, upon hearing the evidence of the witneſſes viva voce, without reducing into writing the teſtimony of witneſſes; and the practice of taking down and reducing into writing the teſtimony of witneſſes in ſuch caſes is hereby aboliſhed. ſ. 7.

In ſuch caſes where the teſtimony of witneſſes ſhall not be reduced into writing, the counſel on both ſides, and the pannel, may interrogate the witneſſes; and immediately before the aſſize or jury ſhall be incloſed, the evidence ſhall be ſummed up by one of the judges. ſ. 8.

Woollen Manufactures.

By 6 Geo. 1. c. 13. Every piece of plading, and narrow and broad fingrums, made in Scotland, ſhall be of the dimenſions following, viz. every piece of plading and narrow fingrums ſhall be made of the ſame ſort of wool and yarn, and of equal work and fineneſs from one end to the other, and at leaſt 28 inches in breadth; and every piece of broad fingrum ſhall be wrought of one intire ſort of wool and yarn, and at leaſt 38 inches in breadth. ſ. 1.

All ſtockings made in Scotland ſhall be wrought of three threads, and of one ſort of wool and worſted, and of equal work and fineneſs, free of left loops, hanging hairs, and burnt, cut, or mended holes, and of ſuch ſhapes and ſizes as the patterns which ſhall be marked by the ſeveral deans of guild of the chief boroughs of the reſpective counties, according to the dimenſions following, viz. the ſtockings for men, called long ſtockings, ſhall not be above 36, nor under 34, inches in length from the top to the heel; and not above 8, nor under 7, inches in breadth at the top; nor above 7, nor under 6, inches in breadth at the broadeſt place of the calf; nor above five, nor under four and an half inches breadth at the narroweſt place of the ankle: the ſtockings of 36 inches in length, to be 17 inches betwixt the top and narroweſt part of the ham, and 21 inches in length from the top to the broadeſt part of the calf: thoſe of 34 inches in length, to be 15 inches in length from the top to the narroweſt part of the ham, and 19 inches in length from the top to the broadeſt place of the calf: the feet of both the two ſizes to be full 12 inches from the heel to the toe; and from four and an half to five inches in breadth. Stockings for men called ſhort ſtockings, ſhall not be above 28, nor under 27, inches in length from the top to the heel, and not above 7, nor under 6 and an half inches in breadth at the top; not above 7, nor under 6, inches in breadth at the broadeſt place of the ham; not above 5, nor under 4 and an half, inches at the narroweſt place of the ankle: the ſtockings of 28 inches in length, to be 9 inches from the top to the narroweſt part of the ham, and 13 inches from the top to the broadeſt part of the ham: thoſe of twenty-ſeven inches in length, to be eight inches from the top to the narroweſt part of the ham, and twelve inches from the top to the broadeſt part of the ham: the feet of the two laſt mentioned ſizes to be twelve inches from the heel to the toe, and not above five, nor under four, inches in breadth. Stockings for women or boys, ſhall not be above 24, nor under 22, inches in length from the top to the heel, and not above ſix and an half, nor under 6, inches in breadth at the top; not above 5 and an half, nor under 5, inches in breadth at the narroweſt place of the ankle: the ſtockings of 24 inches in length, to be 9 inches from the top to the narroweſt part of the ham, and 12 inches from the top to the broadeſt part of the ham: and thoſe of 22 inches in length, to be 7 inches from the top to the narroweſt part of the ham, and 10 inches from the top to the broadeſt part of the ham: the feet of ſuch women's and boys ſtocking to be 9 inches from the heel to the toe, and not above 4, nor under 3 and an half, inches in breadth: which patterns ſhall lie open in the cuſtody of the ſeveral ſtamp-maſters. ſ. 2.

The magiſtrates of the chief boroughs royal of every ſhire or ſtewartry, are impowered to cauſe ſtamps to be made, bearing the arms of the reſpective boroughs, and to appoint perſons for inſpecting and ſtamping all ſerges, pladings, fingrums and ſtockings, brought to be ſtamped, of the aforeſaid lengths, breadths, and qualities; which perſons before their admiſſion ſhall take an oath de fideli, and find ſurety for the faithful adminiſtration of their office, for ſuch ſum as the magiſtrates ſhall appoint. And the juſtices of peace in their counties, and in default of them the commiſſioners of ſupply, are impowered at the quarterly ſeſſions of the juſtices, or annual meetings of the commiſſioners, to appoint ſtamps to be kept at places, where ſuch ſerges, &c. are ſold, as they ſhall think proper. And no ſtamp-maſter ſhall trade in ſuch ſerges, &c. or ſtamp any ſuch ſerges, &c. which are not made of well ſorted yarn, equally wrought, &c. on forfeiture of 20 s. for every piece, and for every dozen of ſtockings; and ſhall be incapable of ſerving in ſuch office for the future. And if any perſon ſhall buy, export, or carry to the water ſide in order to be exported, any ſuch ſerges, &c. before the ſtamp be fixed, the offender, being convicted, ſhall forfeit 20 s. for every piece of ſerge, &c. and for every dozen pair of ſtockings. And if any perſon ſhall affix or counterfeit any ſtamp, without authority, he ſhall forfeit 5 l. or ſix month impriſoment if inſolvent. ſ. 3.

The deans of guild ſhall be the ſole judges within their boroughs, and the ſaid deans, together with the heretors or proprietors of public fairs or markets, or any having their authority, ſhall be jointly judges of offences againſt this act; and in default of the dean, or of the maſter of the fair or market, either of the ſaid judges ſhall be the ſole judge of offences committed in ſuch places, where the goods ſhall be expoſed to ſale. ſ. 4.

If any perſon ſhall work any of the ſaid ſerges, &c. otherwiſe than according to the regulations before-mentioned, and be convicted by the oath of two witneſſes, he ſhall forfeit 20 s. and the goods ſhall be confiſcated to the uſe of the informer, and ſhall moreover pay the value of ſuch goods to the owner. ſ. 6.

The owners ſhall pay to the ſtamp-maſter, before the goods are marked, for every piece of ſerge, &c. 1*d.* and for every dozen of ſtockings 2*d.* ſ. 7.

If any offender ſhall, ten days after conviction, refuſe to pay the forfeiture, the judges before whom ſuch conviction ſhall be, ſhall iſſue warrants to levy the ſame by diſtreſs; and if no diſtreſs can be found, commit him to the houſe of correction, or gaol of the county or corporation, for ſuch time as the judges ſhall direct, not exceeding three months for one offence. ſ. 8.

The penalties ſhall be inflicted within ſixty days after the offences diſcovered. ſ. 9.

Any perſon aggrieved by any order or warrant made by any of the judges upon any conviction before them, may appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions, giving notice; and if the juſtices ſhall confirm or diſannul the ſaid order or warrant, they ſhall allow coſts to the party grieved. ſ. 10.

By 10 Geo. 1. c. 18. Every piece of rock ſerge made in Scotland, and white out of the loom, ſhall be 36 inches in breadth at leaſt within the liſt, and 63 yards in length, and every half piece ſhall be proportionable; and all ſuch pieces and half pieces ſhall be taken up in folds, or a ſoft roll, and ſhall not be ſtretched by hard rolling; and no white broomed or tarred wool ſhall be wrought or mixed together, but each piece ſhall be wrought up of the ſame ſort without mixture; and ſhall be equally worked, and of the ſame fineneſs from one end to the other: and every piece of rock and wheel ſerge ſhall be made of equal goodneſs and ſtrength, and ſhall be a Scotch ell in breadth at leaſt, and 42 Scotch ells in length; and every piece of ſerge called the ſtrappings or narrow ſort, ſhall be three quarters of a Scotch ell in breadth, and 42 Scotch ells in length; and every half piece proportionable, and none of the ſaid ſerges ſhall be wrought of unſcoured yarn. ſ. 1.

The magiſtrates of the chief boroughs royal in every ſhire or ſtewartry in Scotland (who are declared the ſole judges within their juriſdictions, of all the penalties after mentioned) ſhall make a ſtamp bearing the arms of each borough, and ſhall appoint perſons to inſpect and ſtamp all ſuch ſerges, which perſons before they be admitted into the office, ſhall take an oath de fideli, and give ſecurity for the faithful execution of their office, as the magiſtrates ſhall appoint. ſ. 2.

If any perſon appointed ſtamp-maſter ſhall, without lawful excuſe to be allowed by two juſtices of peace, or the major part of the town council, refuſe to execute that office, he ſhall pay ſuch fine as the juſtices or town council ſhall ſet, not exceeding 5 l. ſ. 3.

The juſtices of peace in their counties and ſtewartries, or in their default the commiſſioners of ſupply, ſhall at their quarter ſeſſions or annual meetings appoint ſtamps to be made and kept at ſome proper places where ſerges are ſold. ſ. 4.

No ſtamp maſter ſhall trade in or ſtamp ſerges, which are not made of well ſorted yarn, equally wrought, and of equal fineneſs from one end to the other, and of the ſaid lengths, breadths, and qualities, on forfeiture for every piece 20 s. and ſhall be incapable of ſerving in ſuch office for the future. And if any perſon ſhall affix any ſtamps without authority, or ſhall counterfeit the ſame; he ſhall forfeit 5 l. or ſuffer ſix months' impriſonment if inſolvent. ſ. 5.

All weavers and makers of ſerges for ſale ſhall carry the ſame to the ſtamp-office, to be inſpected and ſealed, and pay 1 s. of Scotch money, for ſtamping each piece, and half thereof for any half piece. And if any perſon ſhall ſell and deliver, buy and receive, tranſport or export or expoſe to ſale, any ſerges without a ſtamp ſo affixed, he ſhall forfeit 20 s ſterling; and the goods ſhall be confiſcated, one moiety to the informer, and the other to be diſpoſed of as the magiſtrates ſhall direct. ſ. 6.

If any perſon ſhall work any ſerges contrary to the ſaid regulations, and offer the ſame to be ſealed, the owners ſhall forfeit 20 s. and the ſerges ſhall be confiſcated, and diſpoſed of as the juſtices, or any two of them, or magiſtrates, ſhall direct; and the weavers of ſuch ſerges ſhall pay the value thereof to the owners, beſides the 20 s. fine. ſ. 7.

The deans of guild ſhall be the ſole judges within the reſpective boroughs, and the ſaid deans, with the heretors or proprietors of fairs or markets, ſhall be jointly judges of the offences againſt this act; and in default of the ſaid dean, or of the maſter of the fair or market, either of the ſaid judges ſhall be ſole judges of ſuch offence, in ſuch places, fairs and markets, where the ſerges ſhall be vended. ſ. 8.

All makers of ſerges for ſale, neglecting to make the ſerges according to the regulations aforeſaid, or refuſing to bring the ſame to be ſtamped, and being convicted by oaths of two witneſſes, or of the perſon proſecuted, or refuſing to pay the penalties incurred, the judge, before whom ſuch convictions ſhall be made, ſhall iſſue his warrant to the conſtable or officer of the place where the offender can be found within the limits of their juriſdictions, to levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and if no diſtreſs can be found, the judge may commit the offender to the houſe of correction or county gaol, for ſuch time as the judge ſhall direct, not exceeding three months for one offence. ſ. 9.

If any perſon in any county or royal borough ſhall, before or at the time of tranſporting any ſerges, pladings, or fingrums, whether to foreign parts or coaſtwiſe, cancel or alter the number of ells marked on each piece, he ſhall forfeit 5 l. ſterling for each piece; one moiety to the informer, the other to the crown; to be recovered in the ſame manner as the other penalties inflicted by this act, or the act 6 Geo. 1. cap. 13. or ſhall ſuffer three months impriſonment if inſolvent. ſ. 10.

Nothing in this act ſhall make any alteration in the lengths or breadths of the ſerges called fingrum and fingrum wheeling ſerges, manufactured in the ſhires of Aberdeen, Bamff, or Murray. ſ. 11.

The penalties incurred for any offence againſt this act ſhall be ſued for within ſixty days after the offences diſcovered. ſ. 12.

Seamen.

By 2 Ric. 2. c. 4. If mariners, after they are arreſted and retained for the ſervice of the king and have received their wages, fly from the ſervice without the leave of the admirals or their lieutenants, the ſame being proved and found before the admiral or his lieutenant, the mariners ſhall be obliged to reſtore their wages double to the king, and be impriſoned for one year. And all ſheriffs, mayors, and bailiffs, upon certificate of the admirals or their lieutenants of ſuch proofs being made, ſhall take ſuch mariners, and put them in priſon, until they have the king's command for their deliverance. And the like puniſhment ſhall be done of ſerjeants at arms, maſters of ſhips, and all others, who ſhall be attainted by inquiry before the admiral or his lieutenant, that they have taken any thing from the mariners to let them go, after they have been arreſted for the ſervice.

By 5 Eliz. c. 5. No fiſhermen uſing the ſea ſhall be compelled againſt their will to ſerve as ſoldiers, otherwiſe than as mariners; except it be to ſerve under a captain of ſome ſhip, for landing to do ſome ſpecial exploit, which mariners have uſed to do; or under any perſon having authority to withſtand an invaſion or ſubdue a rebellion, and except ſuch as by cuſtom or covenant ſhall be bound to ſerve. ſ. 41.

No fiſhermen uſing the ſea ſhall be taken by the queen's commiſſion to ſerve as a mariner, but that the commiſſion be firſt brought to two juſtices of peace next inhabiting to the ſea coaſts, or other places where the mariners are to be taken, to the intent the juſtices may chooſe out and return ſuch number of able men as in the commiſſion ſhall be contained, to ſerve her majeſty. ſ. 43.

By 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 21. Every ſeaman, waterman, or ſeafaring-man, regiſtered, and diſabled by age, wounds, or accidents, ſhall upon certificate thereof from the captain, maſter, ſurgeon, and purſer, or ſo many of them as were in the ſhip, unto the governors of the hoſpital at Greenwich, be admitted in the hoſpital, and ſhall have provided unto him during life, convenient lodging, meat, drink, clothing, clothing, and other neceſſaries; and the widows of ſuch ſeamen, watermen, &c. who ſhall be ſlain or drowned in the ſea ſervice, and the children of ſuch not of ability to provide comfortably for themſelves, ſhall be received into the ſaid hoſpital, and provided for; and the ſaid children ſhall be educated till they are fit to be put out, or of ability to maintain themſelves; ſo far forth as the hoſpital ſhall be capable to receive ſuch diſabled ſeamen, and ſuch widows and children, and as the revenues thereof will extend. ſ. 7. Repealed as to the regiſtering of ſeamen by 9 Ann. cap. 21. ſect. 64.

Every ſeaman that ſhall ſerve in any of his majeſty's ſhips, or in any ſhip belonging to any ſubjects of his majeſty's dominions, ſhall allow out of the wages for ſuch ſervice, 6*d. per menſem* for ſupport of the ſaid hoſpital, for the purpoſes aforeſaid; which monthly allowance ſhall be collected, as ſhall be appointed by the commiſſioners for executing the office of lord high admiral. ſ. 10.

Licences ſhall be given by order of his majeſty, or the commiſſioners of the admiralty, to any landmen deſirous to apply themſelves to the ſea ſervice, to ſerve in merchants ſhips, or other trading veſſels, which ſhall be a protection againſt being impreſſed, for two years following the date of ſuch licence: provided that ſuch landmen bring to the regiſter two perſons inhabitants, or known in the place where they ſo enter themſelves, who ſhall aſſert their knowledge of ſuch landmen for two years years paſt, and in what buſineſs they have known them employed: and if any perſon ſhall vouch any one for a landman, who ſhall be proved to be a ſeaman, he ſhall forfeit 20*l.* and any ſeaman taking another's name, or any perſon counterfeiting any licence, ſhall forfeit 20*l.* and be liable to ſuch further puniſhment as by law may be inflicted for ſuch miſdemeanor. ſ. 15.

By 8 & 9 Will. 3. c. 23. For the better collecting the duties of 6*d. per menſem*, granted by 7 Will. 3. cap. 21. it ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners for regiſtering of ſeamen, or their deputies, by warrant to cauſe all maſters of ſhips, not in his majeſty's ſervice, to appear before them, and ſuch maſters upon their oaths to examine as to the number, wages, and times of ſervice, of every perſon belonging to ſuch ſhips; and if ſuch maſters ſhall refuſe to appear, or ſhall obſtinately refuſe to give a diſcovery of the matters aforeſaid, upon their oaths, ſuch offenders ſhall forfeit 10*l.* to the uſes mentioned in the ſaid act, to be recovered by action, &c. ſ. 6. Repealed as to the regiſtering of ſeamen by 9 Ann. cap. 21. ſect. 64.

The commiſſioners, &c. ſhall take the ſolemn affirmation of quakers inſtead of their oath. ſ. 7.

By 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 41. Foraſmuch as divers perſons have perſonated ſeamen, who have ſerved, or are ſuppoſed to have ſerved, on board his majeſty's ſhips, and thereby have received money at the pay-office or elſewhere; and have alſo forged letters of attorney or bills of ſale, aſſignments, or laſt wills, in the names of perſons who have ſerved, or were ſuppoſed to have ſerved, on board his majeſty's ſhips, and do alſo procure men and women to perſonate, and divers wicked perſons do of their own accord perſonate, the wives, relations, or creditors, of ſuch ſeamen, and thereby have falſely taken out letters of adminiſtration to ſuch ſeamen, or have forged letters of attorney, bills of ſale, or other authorities, in the names of the executors or adminiſtrators of ſuch ſeamen, for the receipt of ſuch wages; every ſuch perſon, their aiders or abettors, that ſhall be convicted of the ſaid crimes, ſhall over and above the penalties inflicted by any laws in force, forfeit 200*l.* with coſts; one moiety to his majeſty, the other moiety to the informer. ſ. 3.

No will of any ſeaman contained in the ſame inſtrument, paper or parchment, with a letter of attorney, ſhall be good in law. ſ. 6.

By 2 Ann. c. 6. When any vacancies ſhall happen in Greenwich-hoſpital, the commiſſioners executing the office of lord high admiral ſhall have power to nominate any diſabled ſeamen, their wives and children, and the widows and children of ſeamen ſlain or drowned in ſea ſervice, to be provided for in the hoſpital. ſ. 19.

By 10 Ann. c. 17. To the intent that the 6*d. per menſem* may be effectually collected, every perſon that ſhall ſerve her majeſty, or any other, in any of her majeſty's ſhips, or in any ſhip belonging to ſubjects of Great Britain or Ireland, or dominions thereunto belonging, and every maſter working in his own ſhip, whether employed upon the high ſea or coaſts, or in any port, bay or creek (other than ſuch apprentices under the age of eighteen years, as are exempted from payment of 6*d. per menſem* by 2 Ann. cap. 6. and perſons employed in any boat upon the coaſts in taking of fiſh which are brought freſh on ſhore into Great Britain and Ireland, and perſons employed in boats that trade only from place to place within any river, or in open boats upon the coaſts) ſhall pay the ſaid 6*d. per menſem* for ſupport of Greenwich-hoſpital. ſ. 1.

The maſter of every ſhip, not in her majeſty's ſervice, is required to deduct out of the wages accruing to ſuch ſeaman 6*d. per menſem*, and pay the ſame to ſuch officers as ſhall be appointed by the commiſſioners for executing the office of lord high admiral. ſ. 2.

It ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners executing the office of lord high admiral to appoint receivers of the ſaid duty, and to authoriſe ſuch receivers to depute the collectors or other officers of cuſtoms of the out-ports, and of the ports of Ireland, or ſuch other as they ſhall think fit, to collect the ſame; and it ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners executing the office of lord high admiral, to make ſuch allowance to them out of the ſaid duties as they ſhall judge reaſonable. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful for the ſaid receivers, or their deputies, by warrant to ſummon all maſters, or in their abſence the owners of ſhips, not in her majeſty's ſervice, to appear at the office of the ſaid receivers, &c. ſo as the perſon ſummoned be not obliged to travel above ten miles: which receivers, or their deputies are impowered to examine every ſuch maſter or owner, as to the number and times of ſervice of all perſons belonging to ſuch ſhips, who are chargeable with the ſaid 6*d per menſem*; and if ſuch maſters or owners ſhall refuſe when ſummoned (not having a reaſonable excuſe) to appear, or if they ſhall obſtinately refuſe to make diſcovery of the matters aforeſaid upon their oaths, or ſhall neglect to pay the monies due to the hoſpital within fourteen days after they ſhall be cleared inwards, ſuch offenders ſhall forfeit 20*l.* one moiety to the uſe of the ſaid hoſpital, and the other moiety to ſuch perſon as ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of her majeſty's courts of record; and if a verdict paſs for the plaintiff, he ſhall have double coſts. And if any ſuch maſter ſhall attempt to go to ſea with his ſhip before he hath paid the ſaid duty for the voyage preceding, ſuch receivers, or their deputies, are impowered to ſtop ſuch ſhip. And upon the death or removal of any maſter, the owners ſhall deliver to the ſucceeding maſter a true account of the ſaid duty due to the hoſpital, and money ſufficient for the payment of the ſame; and in default thereof, ſuch receivers, or their deputies, may ſtop ſuch ſhip from proceeding to ſea. ſ. 4.

In all caſes where by this act an oath is required to be taken, the ſolemn affirmation of quakers ſhall be accepted inſtead of ſuch oath; and in caſe any quaker ſhall upon ſuch affirmation declare any matter which ſhall be falſe, or if any other perſon ſhall purſuant to this act willingly make a falſe oath, he (being lawfully convicted) ſhall ſuffer like puniſhment as perſons convicted of wilful perjury. ſ. 5.

No private contracts made by any ſeaman ſhall obſtruct or delay the payment of the duties appropriated to the ſaid hoſpital. ſ. 6.

This act ſhall be a public act; and any perſon ſued for any thing done in the execution of this act may plead the general iſſue, and ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 7.

Nothing in this act ſhall oblige the payment of the 6*d. per menſem* by any maſters or ſervants of the hoys or veſſels belonging to the port of London, and employed within the North Foreland, in bringing corn, fiſh, or other proviſions, for London. ſ. 8.

The commiſſioners of the admiralty ſhall conſider, as qualified for an admiſſion into the ſaid hoſpital, any ſeaman who ſhall offer himſelf to be admitted, and ſhall produce a certificate of his having been wounded or hurt in defending any ſhip belonging to the ſubjects of her majeſty againſt enemies, or in taking any ſhip from the enemy, and thereby diſabled for ſea ſervice. ſ. 20.

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 25. made perpetual by 9 Geo. 1. c.8. ſ. 3. Whereas diſturbances often happen in his majeſty's yards, &c. and frequent diſorders are occaſioned about the office of the treaſurer of the navy, on pay days, in London, Portſmouth, and other places, by the turbulency of ſeamen, &c. the treaſurer, controller, ſurveyor, clerk of the acts, and the commiſſioners of the navy, or one of them, ſhall have power by warrants to cauſe all ſuch offenders to be brought before them, and to examine and puniſh all, whom, upon their enquiry and examination of witneſſes, or confeſſion of the parties, or on view in their preſence, they ſhall find to have made any diſturbances, &c. in any the yards, &c. at pay days, or on other occaſions relating to the naval ſervices, and may puniſh the offenders either by fine or impriſonment, the fine not exceeding 20*s.* nor the impriſonment one week; and commit ſuch perſons to the next gaol, or the cuſtody of the meſſengers attendant on them; and the ſaid principal officers or commiſſioners may diſcharge ſuch fine or impriſonment, if they think fit; and for non-payment of ſuch fine, may ſend ſuch offender to the next houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour for two months; which fines ſhall be paid to the cheſt at Chatham for the uſe of the maimed ſeamen. ſ. 1.

The ſaid officers, &c. (where greater puniſhments are needful) may alſo bind the perſons offending to their good behaviour, and to anſwer the offences at the next aſſiſes or quarter ſeſſions; and in default of ſuch ſecurity when required may commit them to the county gaol, in order to their being proſecuted. ſ. 2.

All perſons convicted of any of the crimes mentioned in the act 9 & 10 Will. 3. cap. 41. ſhall, over and above the penalties inflicted by any other laws, be liable to the penalties inflicted by the ſaid act. ſ. 7.

The judge, &c. before whom any ſuch offender ſhall be convicted, may mitigate the penalties, or in lieu thereof puniſh ſuch offender by whipping, or committing him to ſome public workhouſe, to be kept to hard labour for three months or leſs. ſ. 8.

The treaſurer, &c. of the navy may execute all the powers hereby, or by any other law given them, on the offenders aforeſaid, as well within liberties as without. ſ. 10.

All the powers hereby given to any officer of the navy may be executed by the commiſſioners of the admiralty. ſ. 12.

No perſon puniſhed by virtue of this act ſhall be puniſhed by any other law for the ſame offence. ſ. 13.

This act, and alſo the act 9 Will. 3. cap. 41. ſhall be public acts. ſ. 14.

All convictions and judgments in purſuance of this act ſhall be final, and not ſubject to any appeal or certiorari. ſ. 15.

Any perſon ſued for doing any thing in purſance of this act, or 9 Will. 3. cap. 41. may plead the general iſſue, and ſhall have double coſts. ſ. 16.

By 2 Geo. 2. c. 7. The ſeveral acts concerning the duty of 6*d. per* month payable by all ſeamen for ſupport of Greenwich hoſpital, ſhall extend to all ſhips belonging to his majeſty's ſubjects, within the iſlands of Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, and within all his majeſty's dominions in America, as well as thoſe within Great Britain and Ireland. ſ. 1.

For the better collecting the ſaid duty, it ſhall be lawful for the receivers thereof to depute any officers of the cuſtoms in the ſeveral ports of the ſaid iſlands and colonies, or ſuch other perſons as they ſhall think fit, to collect the ſame; and the commiſſioners of the admiralty may make ſuch allowance to them out of the ſaid duty, as they ſhall judge reaſonable. ſ. 2.

The collectors of the duty in the ports of the ſaid iſlands and colonies, ſhall ſummon and examine upon oath all maſters and owners of ſhips belonging to his majeſty's ſubjects, as by 10 Ann. c. 17.; and if any ſuch maſter ſhall neglect to appear and make ſuch diſcovery, ſuch maſter, &c. ſhall forfeit 20*l.* money of Great Britain. ſ. 3.

All maſters, &c. of ſhips belonging to the king's ſubjects within the ſaid iſlands or colonies, who ſhall ſail from thence to Great Britain or Ireland, and back to the ſaid iſlands or colonies, ſhall pay ſuch part of the ſaid duty as ſhall be due at their arrival, and during their continuance in Great Britain or Ireland, within the ſaid kingdoms; and ſuch part as ſhall be due at the time of their return to, and during their continuance in the ſaid iſlands or colonies, within the ſaid iſlands and colonies; and all maſters, &c. of ſhips, belonging to any ſubjects of his majeſty within Great Britain or Ireland, who ſhall trade from thence to any of the ſaid iſlands or colonies, ſhall pay the ſaid duty of 6*d. per* month, only in Great Britain or Ireland. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for the receivers of the duty, and their deputies, by warrant, to ſummon and examine upon oath all maſters, &c. of ſhips employed by the navy, victualling, ordnance, cuſtoms, poſt-office, or any other public offices of the crown, in the ſervice of his majeſty; and if ſuch maſter, &c. refuſe to appear, or to make diſcovery, or ſhall neglect to pay the ſaid duty, they ſhall forfeit 20*l.* ſ. 5.

The ſecretaries or chief clerks of the navy, victualling-office, ordnance, cuſtom-houſe, poſt-office, and all other public offices of the crown, uſually employing ſhips for the ſervice of his majeſty, ſhall, on the firſt of Jan. in each year, or within 20 days following, deliver into the office of the receiver of the duty in the port of London, a liſt of the ſhips that in the year preceding ſhall have been employed by ſuch office, and of all ſhips which remain in the ſervice of ſuch office, and of ſuch as ſhall be diſcharged, and of the names of the maſters, &c. and the numbers of ſeamen employed in every ſuch ſhip: and no treaſurer or other officer belonging to ſuch office, ſhall make out or pay any bill for the freight of any ſhip ſo employed, or pay any wages to any maſter, &c. till ſuch maſter, &c. ſhall produce to ſuch treaſurer, &c. an acquittance ſigned by the receiver or his deputy, whereby it ſhall appear, that ſuch maſter, &c. hath paid the ſaid duty of 6*d. per* month, and that he is not more than 30 days in arrear to the hoſpital; and if any default ſhall be made by any ſecretary or other officer belonging to any of the public offices in any thing hereby directed, ſuch ſecretary, &c. ſhall forfeit 50*l.* ſ. 6.

All maſters of merchant ſhips or other private veſſels, liable liable to the duty of 6*d. per* month, ſhall pay the ſaid duty, before any ſuch ſhips ſhall be cleared inward, in any ports of Great Britain or Ireland, or of the iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, &c. or of the colonies in America; and no officer of the cuſtoms ſhall clear inwards any merchant ſhip liable to the ſaid duty, or grant any warrant, or give or make out any coquet, tranſire's, returns or diſcharges to ſuch ſhips, nor ſuffer them to go out of any port, till the maſter, &c. produce to the officer an acquittance ſigned by the receiver, whereby it ſhall appear, that ſuch maſter, &c. hath paid the ſaid duty, and that he is not more than 30 days in arrear; and every maſter of ſuch ſhip, who ſhall neglect to pay the 6*d. per* month, and alſo every officer of the cuſtoms, who ſhall make default in the premiſes, ſhall forfeit, 20*l.* ſ. 7.

Where by this act an oath is required, the ſolemn affirmation of quakers ſhall be accepted inſtead of ſuch oath; and if any quaker ſhall affirm any matter which ſhall be falſe, or if any other before any perſons hereby authoriſed, ſhall wilfully make a falſe oath, every ſuch perſon being convicted thereof ſhall ſuffer the like puniſhments as perſons convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury are ſubject to by the laws of the places where ſuch offence ſhall be committed. ſ. 8.

All penalties incurred by this act, within Great Britain, or Ireland, ſhall be recovered as by 10 Ann. c. 17. for the forfeiture of 20*l.* inflicted on the maſters neglecting to appear, &c. and all penalties incurred within the iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, &c. or the ſaid colonies in America, ſhall be recovered as is uſual for other penalties incurred by virtue of penal law within the ſaid iſlands and colonies, together with double coſts; and one moiety of the penalties ſhall be to the uſe of the hoſpital, and the other to the uſe of ſuch perſons as ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 9.

Any perſon ſued for any thing done in execution hereof, may plead the general iſſue, and ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 10.

By 2 Geo. 2. c. 36. made perpetual by 2 Geo. 3. c. 31. It ſhall not be lawful for any maſter of a ſhip bound beyond the ſeas, to carry any mariner, except his apprentices, from the port where he was ſhipped, to proceed on any voyage beyond the ſeas, without firſt coming to an agreement with ſuch mariners for their wages, which agreement ſhall be made in writing, declaring what wages each ſeaman is to have for ſo long time as they ſhall ſhip themſelves for, and alſo to expreſs in the agreement the voyage for which ſuch ſeaman was ſhipped; and if any ſuch maſter ſhall carry out any mariner, except his apprentice, upon any voyage beyond the ſeas, without firſt entering into ſuch agreement, and he and they ſigning the ſame, he ſhall forfeit 5*l.* for every ſuch mariner, to the uſe of Greenwich hoſpital, to be recovered on information on the oath of one witneſs, before one juſtice of peace, who is required to iſſue his warrant to bring before him ſuch maſter, and in caſe he refuſes to pay the forfeiture, to grant his warrant to levy it by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and if no diſtreſs can be found, to commit him to the common gaol till he pay the ſame. ſ. 1.

If any ſeaman ſhip himſelf on board any merchant veſſel on an intended voyage for parts beyond the ſeas, he ſhall be obliged to ſign ſuch agreement within three days after he has entered himſelf, which agreement ſhall be concluſive to all parties for the time contracted for. ſ. 2.

If any ſeaman ſhall deſert, or refuſe to proceed on the voyage, or ſhall deſert in parts beyond the ſeas, after he ſhall have ſigned ſuch contract, he ſhall forfeit to the owners of ſuch ſhip, the wages due to him at the time of his deſerting, or refuſing to proceed on the voyage. ſ. 3.

If any ſuch ſeaman ſhall deſert, or abſent himſelf from ſuch ſhip, after he hath ſigned ſuch contract, upon application made to any juſtice of peace, by the maſter or other perſon having charge of the ſhip, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice to iſſue his warrant to apprehend ſuch ſeaman; and if he ſhall refuſe to proceed on the voyage, and ſhall not give a ſufficient reaſon for ſuch refuſal, to the ſatisfaction of the juſtice, to commit him to the houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour, not exceeding 30 days, nor leſs than 14. ſ. 4.

If any ſeaman ſhall abſent himſelf from the veſſel to which he belongs, without leave of the maſter or other chief officer, having charge of ſuch ſhip, he ſhall, for every day's abſence, forfeit two days pay to the uſe of Greenwich hoſpital. ſ. 5.

If any ſeaman, not entering into the ſervice of his majeſty, ſhall leave the veſſel to which he belongs, before he ſhall have a diſcharge in writing from the maſter or other perſon having the charge of ſuch veſſel, he ſhall forfeit one month's pay. ſ. 6.

On the arrival of any veſſel in Great Britain from parts beyond the ſeas, the maſters ſhall pay the ſeamen their wages, if demanded, in 30 days after the veſſels being entered at the cuſtom-houſe (except where a covenant ſhall be entered into to the contrary) or at the time the ſaid ſeamen ſhall be diſcharged, which ſhall firſt happen, deducting out of the wages the penalties by this act impoſed, under penalty of paying to ſuch ſeaman that ſhall be unpaid, 20*s.* over and above the wages, to be recovered as the wages may be recovered; and ſuch payment of wages ſhall be good in law, notwithſtanding any action, bill of ſale, attachment or incumbrance whatſoever. ſ. 7.

No ſeaman, by ſigning ſuch contract, ſhall be deprived of uſing any means for the recovery of wages, which he may now lawfully uſe, and where it ſhall be neceſſary that the contract in writing ſhould be produced in court, no obligation ſhall lie on any ſeaman to produce the ſame, but the maſter or owner of the ſhip; and no ſeaman ſhall fail in any action or proceſs for recovery of wages, for want of ſuch contract being produced. ſ. 8.

The maſters or owners of ſhips ſhall have power to deduct out of the wages of any ſeaman all penalties incurred by this act, and to enter them in a book, and to make oath, if required, to the truth thereof; which book ſhall be ſigned by the maſter and two principal officers belonging to ſuch ſhip, ſetting forth, that the penalties contained in ſuch book, are the whole penalties ſtopt from any ſeaman during the voyage; which penalties (except the forfeitures of wages to the owners, on the deſertion of any ſeaman, or on refuſing to proceed on the voyage) ſhall go to the uſe of Greenwich hoſpital, to be paid and accounted for by the maſters of ſhips coming from beyond the ſeas, to the ſame officer at any port, who collects the 6*d. per* month, which officer ſhall have power to adminiſter an oath to every maſter touching the truth of ſuch penalties. ſ. 9.

If any maſters or owners of ſhips ſhall deduct out of the wages of any ſeaman, any of the penalties by the act directed to the uſe of Greenwich hoſpital, and ſhall not pay the money to ſome officer who collects the 6*d. per* month, in the port where the deduction ſhall be made, within three months after ſuch deduction, they ſhall forfeit treble the value to the uſe of the hoſpital; which, together with the money deducted, ſhall be recovered by the ſame means as the penalties for not duly paying the 6*d. per* month. ſ. 10.

Nothing in this act ſhall debar any ſeaman from entering into the ſervice of his majeſty, nor ſhall ſuch ſeaman for ſuch entry forfeit the wages due to him during his ſervice in ſuch merchant-ſhip; nor ſhall ſuch entry be deemed a deſertion. ſ. 13.

in

By 6 Geo. 2. c. 25. There ſhall be allowed upon the books of every ſhip of war in ſea pay, a man in every hundred that the complement ſhall conſiſt of, and the wages of ſuch, and the value of victuals, ſhall be applied to the relief of poor widows of commiſſion and warrant officers of the royal navy, according to ſuch rules as his majeſty ſhall eſtabliſh. ſ. 18.

By 8 Geo. 2. c. 29. After reciting that there is payable out of the eſtate of the late earl of Derwentwater, in Northumberland, the ſums therein mentioned, it is enacted, that the rents and profits of the premiſes (ſubject to the ſaid incumbrances) ſhall be applied towards the finiſhing the building of the hoſpital at Greenwich, and for the better maintenance of the ſeamen. ſ. 1 & 2.

The premiſes ſhall remain veſted in his majeſty, his heirs and ſucceſſors. ſ. 3.

His majeſty, by ſign manual, may impower the governors of the hoſpital to appoint ſtewards, &c. and to allow ſalaries. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty, to impower the governors to grant leaſes, not exceeding 21 years in poſſeſſion, ſo as there be reſerved the beſt improved rent without fine, and ſo as no clauſe be in the leaſes, giving power to any leſſee to commit waſte. ſ. 5.

The governors ſhall give notice in the London Gazette when and where ſuch eſtates are to be let, ſix months before the expiration of the term for which the eſtates ſhall be let. ſ. 6.

It ſhall be lawful for the attorney general, or for the mortgagees and incumbrancers, to apply to the court of exchequer, by motion in a ſummary way, for the ſale of the fee ſimple of ſuch parts of the hereditaments as ſhall be ſufficient for the diſcharge thereof. ſ. 7.

Upon payment of the principal, intereſt, and coſts, upon the ſaid mortgages, the ſaid mortgagees and incumbrancers ſhall aſſign their ſecurities to perſons to be named by ſuch purchaſers, at the coſts of ſuch purchaſers, as the court of exchequer ſhall direct. ſ. 8.

The governors of the ſaid royal hoſpital ſhall contract with tradeſmen, artificers, or other perſons, for finiſhing the ſaid hoſpital, according to the plan laid before the houſe of commons, and lay their proceedings, with their annual accounts, before his majeſty and both houſes of parliament. ſ. 9.

In caſe any ſeaman on board any merchant ſhip belonging to the ſubjects of his majeſty, ſhall be maimed in fight againſt any enemy, ſuch ſeaman ſhall be admitted into the hoſpital at Greenwich as any other ſeaman wounded in the ſervice of his majeſty. ſ. 10.

Saving to his majeſty and others all right, &c. ſ. 12.

By 11 Geo. 2. c. 30. Upon the death of his majeſty, and alſo upon the death of every ſucceſſive king and queen of this realm, all ſuch ſervices ſhall be done, and fines paid, by the tenants of the eſtates of the late earl of Derwentwater, to every ſucceſſor of his majeſty to, or in caſe any of the eſtates be ſold, to ſuch other perſon who ſhall be owner thereof, as by ancient tenure, or by any contract, uſage, or cuſtom, ought to be done, in caſe ſuch king or queen ſo dying was conſidered as a private perſon only; which fines, &c. to his majeſty, his heirs, and ſucceſſors, ſhall be applied to the uſe of the royal hoſpital for ſeamen at Greenwich. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for the attorney general, by direction, to apply to his majeſty's court of exchequer, at Weſtminſter, by motion, for the ſale of all or part of the timber on the ſaid eſtates, while the ſame ſhall remain unſold, upon which it ſhall be lawful for the court to make ſuch orders therein as the court ſhall think proper; and the money ariſing by ſuch ſales ſhall be applied, by direction of the ſaid court, to the diſcharge of the incumbrances, and in the mean time be paid by the purchaſers into the exchequer, or to the treaſurer of the ſaid hoſpital, or be placed out in ſuch government or other ſecurities, and in the names of ſuch perſons as the ſaid court ſhall direct; and in caſe there ſhall be any ſurplus, the ſame ſhall be applied towards the finiſhing and completing the building of the ſaid hoſpital; and for the better maintenance of the ſeamen of the hoſpital, worn out and become decrepit in the ſervice of their country; and after the ſaid incumbrances ſhall be diſcharged, the money ariſing by the ſales of timber ſhall be applied to the uſe of the hoſpital. ſ. 2.

It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty, by ſign manual, to authoriſe the commiſſioners and governors of the ſaid hoſpital, or any ſeven of them, to direct the cutting down ſuch timber from off the ſaid eſtates, to be uſed in repairing any buildings on the ſaid eſtates, and alſo in the building any new houſes, as they ſhall judge neceſſary for tenants. ſ. 3.

For diſcharge of the incumbrances, it ſhall be lawful for the attorney general of his majeſty, by his direction, to apply to the court of exchequer by motion, for the ſales to any perſons being proteſtants, of the fee ſimple of any of the premiſes ſo veſted in his majeſty, which are not charged with the incumbrances, as ſhall be thought moſt convenient to be ſold; upon which it ſhall be lawful for the court to make orders for inquiring into the conveniency of the ſale, and upon report thereof to make orders for ſuch ſales as the court ſhall judge proper; and the money ariſing by ſuch ſales ſhall be applied, by the direction of the court, towards the diſcharge of the incumbrances, and in the mean time be paid into court, or to the treaſurer of the hoſpital, or be placed out in ſuch government or other ſecurities, as the court ſhall direct; and in caſe there ſhall be any ſurplus of the purchaſe money, the ſame ſhall be applied for the benefit of the hoſpital; and upon payment of ſuch purchaſe money, grants or aſſurances of ſuch parcels of the ſaid eſtates as ſhall be ſold, ſhall be made under the great ſeal, to ſuch purchaſers, their heirs, and aſſigns. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty, by ſign manual, to authoriſe the commiſſioners and governors of the ſaid hoſpital, or any ſeven of them, to demiſe the mines, as well unopened as opened, for any number of years not exceeding 21 years, to take effect in poſſeſſion and not in reverſion, reſerving the beſt rents or dues that can be reaſonably gotten without taking any fine, with liberty to the leſſees to win and work the mines, without reckoning the ſame to be waſte, ſo as there be contained in all ſuch leaſes a condition of re-entry for non-payment of rent, and ſo as the leſſees execute counterparts. ſ. 5.

It ſhall be lawful for the attorney general of his majeſty, by his direction, to apply to his majeſty's court of exchequer, by motion, againſt any tenants holding lands within the manors, of whoſe having in their cuſtody any writing, aſcertaining the cuſtoms and ſervices, probable evidence ſhall be ſhewed to the court, for ſuch tenants to produce the ſame; upon which it ſhall be lawful for the court to enquire into the matter, and to make ſuch orders, with reſpect to the producing any ſuch writing by ſuch tenant, and with reſpect to copies to be made thereof, and ſuch other orders concerning the ſame, as the court ſhall think juſt. ſ. 6.

It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty, by ſign manual, to authorize the governors of the ſaid hoſpital, to agree with the mortgagees of the premiſes for leſs intereſt for the money due on their ſecurities than the ſame is now at; and to agree with any other perſons for the advancing money at leſs

leſs intereſt, for paying off the principal due on the mortgages, upon the ſame being aſſigned. ſ. 7.

Provided that ſuch aſſignments be made for the principal money only of the ſaid mortgages, and for the intereſt to grow due after the making of ſuch aſſignments; and that the money be made payable at the end of ſix months. ſ. 8.

It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty, by his ſign manual, to authorize the governors, or any ſeven of them, to grant leaſes, as in 8 Geo. 2. c. 29. and in this act, reſerving the rents to his majeſty, which rents ſhall be applied in the manner directed by the laſt-mentioned act. ſ. 9.

This act ſhall be conſtrued beneficially for the purpoſes herein expreſſed, and is declared to be a public act. ſ. 10.

Saving to the king, and to all other perſons, all right, &c. ſ. 11.

By 13 Geo. 2. c. 3. During the continuance of the preſent war and no longer (except as to ſuch trading ſhips and privateers which ſhall be on their voyage before the determination of the war, who may return home navigated as herein is provided) it ſhall be lawful for any trading ſhip or privateer, to be navigated by foreign ſeamen, not being his majeſty's ſubjects, ſo as the number of ſuch foreign ſeamen do not exceed three-fourths of the mariners employed to navigate ſuch ſhip, and that one-fourth at leaſt, of the mariners ſo employed be natives or naturalized ſubjects of Great Britain (ſudden death, hazard of war, and the ſeas, excepted) notwithſtanding 12 Car. 2. c. 18. ſ. 1.

Every foreign ſeaman who ſhall have faithfully ſerved, during the time of war, on board any of his majeſty's ſhips, or any trading ſhip or privateer (belonging at the time of ſuch ſervice to ſubjects of Great Britain) for two years, ſhall be deemed a natural-born ſubject of Great Britain. ſ. 2.

Provided no perſon naturalized by this act thereby be enabled to be of the privy council, or a member of parliament, or to take any office civil or military, or to have any grant of lands or hereditaments from the crown. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty at all times when it is neceſſary to declare war againſt any foreign power, to publiſh a proclamation, to permit all trading veſſels and privateers to be manned with foreign ſeamen during ſuch war, in the manner by this act provided; and upon the publiſhing of ſuch proclamation, this act ſhall be deemed to be in full force, and continue during ſuch war and no longer; except in reſpect to ſuch trading ſhips and privateers which ſhall be on their voyage before the determination of ſuch war, who ſhall be allowed to return home navigated in the manner before provided. ſ. 4.

By 13 Geo. 2. c. 17. Every perſon of the age of 55 years or upwards, or under the age of 18 years, and every foreigner who ſhall ſerve in any merchant ſhip or privateer belonging to the ſubjects of Great Britain, ſhall be exempted from being impreſſed into his majeſty's ſervice. ſ. 1.

Every perſon of what age ſoever, who ſhall uſe the ſea, ſhall be exempted from being impreſſed for two years from his firſt going to ſea; and every perſon, who, not having before uſed the ſea, ſhall bind himſelf apprentice to ſea, ſhall be exempted from being impreſſed for three years from his binding himſelf apprentice. ſ. 2.

The commiſſioners of the admiralty or three of them, ſhall, upon due proof of the reſpective ages and circumſtances of the perſons before mentioned, grant a protection to every ſuch perſon to ſecure him from being impreſſed, without fee. ſ. 3.

By 14 Geo. 2. c. 38. If any ſeaman under the dgree of a warrant or commiſſion officer, entering voluntarily into the ſervice, be killed or drowned in the ſervice, and leave a widow to whom he was lawfully married, every ſuch widow, producing to the commiſſioners of the navy a certificate, under the hands of the miniſter, churchwardens, and overſeers of the poor of the pariſh wherein ſhe reſides, that ſhe is the real widow of the ſeaman ſo killed or drowned, ſhall receive ſuch ſum of money, by way of bounty, as ſhall amount to one year's pay of ſuch ſeaman, according to the monthly wages he ſerved for at the time of his death; and the commiſſioners of the navy ſhall, upon producing ſuch certificate at the navy office, order the payment of ſuch bounty money. ſ. 2.

So much of the act of 1 Geo. 2. c. 14. as relates to the prohibiting any ſeamen from being taken out of the ſervice of his majeſty, and to the manner of proceeding againſt ſeamen for debts, ſhall be of force within the kingdom of Ireland. ſ. 3. The 1 Geo. 2. c. 14. is repealed, but the clauſes here referred to are re-enacted in 31 Geo. 2. c. 10. ſ. 28, 29.

By 18 Geo. 2. c. 31. Every officer or other perſon employed in any privateer, or ſhip having a letter of marque, belonging to any ſubjects, ſhall pay the duty of 6*d. per* month, or proportionably, during the time he ſhall ſerve in ſuch ſhip, for the better ſupport of Greenwich hoſpital. ſ. 1.

The commander or owner of every privateer, or ſhip having a letter of marque, ſhall detain out of the wages and ſhares of prizes payable to ſuch officer or other perſon employed in his ſhip, the ſaid duty of 6*d. per* month, (other than for ſuch perſons as by former acts are exempted) and ſhall pay the ſame to the officers on that behalf appointed by the commiſſioners of the admiralty. ſ. 2.

The commander of every privateer, or ſhip having a letter of marque, before he ſails from any port of Great Britain or Ireland, Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or from any port within his majeſty's colonies in America, ſhall deliver to the collector of the cuſtoms of the port he ſails from, a liſt ſigned of the names, ages, and deſcriptions, of every perſon employed in ſuch privateer, &c. and upon his arrival or return at any of the ports aforeſaid, ſhall deliver to the collector of the cuſtoms of the port he arrives at, a copy upon oath of the liſt he delivered to the collector of the port from whence he ſailed, and an account whether all or any of the men are returned; and if any are wanting what is become of them: and in caſe any ſuch commander neglect to deliver ſuch liſts and accounts, he ſhall forfeit 50*l.* one moiety to the uſe of the ſaid hoſpital, and the other to ſuch perſon as ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful for the receiver of the ſaid duty of 6*d. per* month, or his deputy, by warrant under his hand, to ſummon all ſuch commanders, or in their abſence the owners of ſuch privateers, or ſhips having letters of marque, to appear at the office of the ſaid receiver or his deputy (ſo as the perſon ſummoned be not obliged to travel above 10 miles) which ſaid receiver or his deputy ſhall examine ſuch commander or owners, as to the number and times of ſervice of all perſons employed in ſuch ſhips who are liable to the ſaid ſum of 6*d. per* month; and if ſuch commanders, or (in their abſence) the owners, refuſe (not having a reaſonable excuſe) to appear, or to make diſcovery upon oath, or neglect to pay the monies due to the the ſaid hoſpital, within ſix calendar months after due notice from the ſaid receiver or his deputy, every ſuch offender, for every ſuch refuſal or neglect ſhall forfeit 50 l. one moiety to the uſe of the ſaid hoſpital, and the other moiety to ſuch perſon as ſhall ſue for the ſame, by action of debt, &c. in any court of record, where no eſſoin, &c. ſhall be allowed; and if a verdict paſs for the plaintiff, ſuch plaintiff ſhall have double coſts: and if any ſuch commander attempt to go to ſea with the ſaid ſhips before he hath accounted with, and paid the ſaid receiver the ſaid duty for the voyage preceding, then ſuch receiver or his deputies may ſtop ſuch ſhip till the ſaid duty be paid. And upon the death or removal of any commander of any ſuch ſhip, the owners ſhall deliver to the ſucceeding maſter an account of the ſaid duty due to the ſaid hoſpital, and money ſufficient for payment of the ſame; and in default thereof, ſuch receiver or his deputies may ſtop ſuch ſhip until the ſaid duties be paid. ſ. 4.

By 20 Geo. 2. c. 38. Alexander Hume, and others, ſhall be incorporated by the name of The preſident and governors for the relief and ſupport of ſick, maimed, and diſabled ſeamen, and of the widows and children of ſuch as ſhall be killed, ſlain, or drowned, in the merchants ſervice; and ſhall have perpetual ſucceſſion and a common ſeal; and they and their ſucceſſors ſhall be capable to hold in truſt, for the purpoſes of this act, all ſums of money granted and received by virtue of this act, or contributed or bequeathed by any perſons, and may purchaſe lands for the ſite of an hoſpital. ſ. 1.

And the ſaid preſident and governors ſhall provide in ſuch hoſpital, for the reception of ſeaman diſabled by ſickneſs, wounds, or other misfortunes, or by age; or ſhall allow them penſions; and ſhall relieve the widows and children of ſeamen killed or drowned in the ſaid ſervice; provided ſuch children are not of the age of 14 years, or not capable of getting a livelihood by reaſon of infirmities; and ſhall make allowances to thoſe who are hurt or maimed in doing their duty, ſo far as the revenues will extend, according to rules eſtabliſhed by this act. ſ. 2.

No ſeamen in the ſaid ſervice ſhall be intitled to the benefit of this act, unleſs he produce a certificate of the hurt he hath received from the maſter, mate, boatſwain, and ſurgeon, or ſo many of them as were in the ſhip at the time of his receiving ſuch hurt; or of the maſter and two ſeamen, if there is no other officer; or if the maſter die, of the perſon who takes upon him the care of the ſhip, and two ſeamen; ſignifying how he received ſuch hurt, where and when he entered, and how long he had ſerved: and the parties ſigning and ſealing ſuch certificate ſhall make oath of the truth thereof before ſome juſtice of peace, or the chief officer of the cuſtoms of the port where there is no juſtice of peace, or before the Britiſh conſul or reſident in any foreign country; who are to adminiſter the ſame without fee: and in caſe of ſickneſs, a certificate ſignifying that he was healthy when he entered, and that ſuch ſickneſs was contracted in doing his duty; and expreſſing the time and place he entered, and how long he had ſerved. And no widow or child of any ſeaman killed or drowned in the ſaid ſervice, ſhall be relieved, unleſs they, or ſome perſon on their behalf, produce a certificate ſignifying how ſuch ſeaman loſt his life, the time and place he entered, and how long he had ſerved; and another certificate under the hands and ſeals of the miniſter and churchwardens and overſeers of of the poor of the pariſh or place, or two of them, or of the miniſter and overſeers, or two of them, where there are no churchwardens; and if ſuch widow or child are Quakers, then by two reputable perſons of that perſuaſion, of the pariſh or place where ſuch widow or child have a legal ſettlement or inhabit; to be atteſted by two witneſſes, that ſuch widow was the wife and real widow, and that ſuch child was the lawful child of ſuch ſeaman killed or drowned, and is under the age of fourteen years, or if of that age not capable of getting a livelihood by reaſon of infirmities. And no ſeaman ſhall have a penſion as worn out, unleſs he has ſerved in the merchants ſervice for five years, and paid 6*d. per* month out of his wages for that time for the purpoſes of this act. ſ. 3.

If any perſon forge or alter, or procure to be forged or altered, or unfairly obtain any certificate to intitle him to any benefit of this act, and produce, or cauſe it to be produced, ſuch certificate ſhall be void; and ſuch perſon ſo applying ſhall be incapable of receiving any benefit of this act, and ſhall be puniſhed as an incorrigible rogue. ſ. 4.

By 24 Geo. 2. c. 47. ſ. 10. There ſhall be allowed upon the books of every ſhip of war in ſea pay, one other ſeaman in every 100 men that the complement of ſuch ſhip conſiſts of, for ſuch time only as the number of men employed in the royal navy exceeds not 20000: and the produce of the wages of each ſuch ſeaman, and the value of his victuals ſhall be applied to the relief of the poor widows of commiſſion and warrant officers of the royal navy; over and above the one ſeaman allowed them by 6 Geo. 2. c. 25. ſ. 18.

By 31 Geo. 2. c. 10. Any ſeaman, or able bodied landman, who ſhall voluntarily enter his name with any commiſſion officer of the fleet appointed for entering ſuch volunteers, in order to ſerve in any of the ſhips of his majeſty fitting out for ſea, or in want of men, and ſhall receive a certificate of his ſo doing from ſuch commiſſion officer (who is to give ſuch certificates, without fee, and date the ſame), and ſhall forthwith proceed towards ſuch ſhip, and make his appearance on board the ſame within fourteen days from the date of ſuch certificate incluſive of the day of the date if the place where he ſo enters be not above 100 miles from the port where ſuch ſhip lies, or within twenty days if it be at a greater diſtance, or within thirty days if the place where he ſo enters be above 200 miles diſtant, every ſuch perſon ſhall be intitled to wages from the date of ſuch certificate incluſive of the day of the date, and ſhall be allowed the uſual conduct money, and be paid an advance of two months wages at the firſt fitting out of ſuch ſhip, and before ſuch ſhip proceed to ſea. ſ. 1.

Every ſeaman or able bodied landman entered on the books of any ſhip belonging to his majeſty, as ſupernumerary to the complement of ſuch ſhip, ſhall be intitled to his wages, upon the books of the firſt, and of every other ſhip in which he ſhall ſerve for ten days, and ſhall receive all other benefits as if he were part of the complement thereof. ſ. 2.

Where ſuch ſeaman or landman ſhall have been lent from one ſhip to another, he ſhall continue to be borne for and intitled to the wages upon the books of ſuch ſhip from which he ſhall have been ſo lent, until he be diſcharged. ſ. 3.

In caſe any inferior officer or ſeaman be turned over from one ſhip to another, either by order from the admiralty, or from any commander in chief of any ſquadron, in any port of Great Britain, or on the coaſt, every ſuch officer and ſeaman, in caſe ſuch ſhip into which he is ſo turned over be in or come into any port of Great Britain where any commiſſioner of the navy reſides, ſhall be paid, by proper pay liſts to be made out, all the wages due to him in the ſhip from which he is ſo turned over, before the ſhip into which he is turned over proceed to ſea; unleſs it be otherwiſe directed by ſpecial order from the admiralty in caſes of the greateſt exigency only: and if ſuch ſhip in purſuſance of the ſaid order proceed to ſea before ſuch payment can be made, then the ſaid wages ſhall be paid as ſoon as ſuch ſhip comes again into any ſuch port of Great Britain where any commiſſioner of the navy reſides. ſ. 4.

In caſe any officer or ſeaman be turned over from one ſhip to another, ſuch officer or ſeaman ſo turned over ſhall not ſerve or be rated in a worſe quality or lower degree, than he ſerved in, or was rated for in the ſhip from which he was turned over; and ſhall receive, over and above the wages then due to him, an advance of two months wages, before the ſhip into which he is ſo turned over proceed to ſea, in caſe he have not received ſuch advance in any of the ſhips from which he is ſo turned over. ſ. 5.

Out of the monies granted in this ſeſſion of parliament for the ſervice of the navy, and out of all ſuch ſupplies as ſhall be granted in parliament for any naval ſervices, ſuch ſums ſhall in the firſt place be appropriated, and ſhall from time to time be applied, as are ſufficient for the regular payment of all tickets made out in manner herein after directed for the wages due to any officer or ſeaman; and for the regular diſcharge of all wages due, upon any ſhip's books to any officer or ſeaman in the royal navy, in manner following; viz. when any of the ſhips of his majeſty have been in ſea pay twelve months, or more, if ſuch ſhip then be or arrive in any port of Great Britain, or on the coaſt thereof, the captain or commander ſhall immediately cauſe to be made out five complete pay books for all the officers and ſeamen belonging to the ſaid ſhip for all the time that ſuch ſhip has been in ſea pay, except the laſt ſix months, to which time, viz. the laſt ſix months, the wages due upon all ſuch ſhips are hereby intended to be cleared; and ſhall ſend by the firſt opportunity ſuch pay books with three alphabets, and a ſlop book, to the commiſſioners of the navy at their board; and whenſoever any ſuch ſhip having been twelve months or more in ſea pay, is or arrives in any port of Great Britain where any commiſſioner of the navy reſides, the commiſſioners of the navy at their board are to ſolicit ſuch ſums of money as be ſufficient, and as ſoon as the ſame be iſſued, to cauſe immediate payment to be made of all the wages due upon the ſaid pay books to all ſuch officers and ſeamen, their executors or adminiſtrators, or to their reſpective attornies deducting whatever monies have been paid before by way of advance, or that ſtand againſt them in the books of ſuch ſhips on account of any defalcation; leaving always ſix months wages, and no more, due to ſuch officers and ſeamen for their ſervice in ſuch ſhip unpaid: and whenever any of the ſhips of his majeſty return home in order to be laid up, all the wages due to the officers and ſeamen ſerving on board ſuch ſhip ſhall be entirely paid off within two months after the arrival of ſuch ſhip in the port where the ſame is to be laid up: and the computation of the ſaid months wages ſhall be by reckoning 28 days to the month. ſ. 6.

Whenſoever an application is made to the commiſſioners of the navy at their board by any inferior officer or ſeaman then in the ſervice of his majeſty, and who has been abſent either with the leave of the commanding officer, or upon duty, at the payment of the ſhip whereunto he did belong, or from the captain or commander of any ſhip of his majeſty on board of which ſuch officer or ſeaman than ſerves, in caſe ſuch ſhip be in any port where any commiſſioner of the navy reſides, then the commiſſioners of the navy at their board ſhall immediately upon ſuch application, cauſe the pay books of ſuch ſhip ſo paid, or pay liſts for ſuch officers and ſeamen ſo unpaid made out from them, to be ſent to the commiſſioner of the navy at the port where ſuch ſhip is, to which ſuch officers or ſeamen then belong; and ſuch commiſſioner of the navy ſhall forthwith cauſe payment to be made to the ſaid officers and ſeamen of the wages which they were entitled to receive on the payment of ſuch ſhip. ſ. 7.

If any inferior officer or ſeaman die in the ſervice of his majeſty, the captain or commander of the ſhip in which he ſerved at the time of his death, ſhall as ſoon as may be after his death make out a ticket for the wages due at the time of his death; which ticket the ſaid captain or commander ſhall ſign and ſhall cauſe to be ſigned by the proper ſigning officers, and ſhall ſend the ticket by the firſt opportunity to the commiſſioners of the navy at their board, for the uſe of the executors or adminiſtrators of ſuch officer or ſeaman: and the ſaid commiſſioners of the navy ſhall immediately cauſe the day of the receipt of ſuch ticket to be indorſed thereon; and ſuch ticket ſhall be forthwith examined, and ſhall by three of the ſaid commiſſioners of the navy be aſſigned for payment within one month from the day of the making ſuch indorſement; and ſhall without fee be delivered on demand to the executors or adminiſtrators of ſuch officer or ſeaman, or to their reſpective attorney; and the money due thereon ſhall without fee be paid to ſuch executors, or adminiſtrators, or their attorney, as ſoon as ſuch ticket be brought to the pay-office of the navy. ſ. 8.

When any inferior officer or ſeaman in the ſervice of his majeſty by wounds, ſickneſs, or infirmity is diſabled, in caſe he be on board any ſhip then in any port of Great Britain, or on the coaſt, or belonging to any ſquadron not in any port of Great Britain, or on the coaſt, the captain or commander of ſuch ſhip ſhall repreſent the ſame to the commander in chief of any ſquadron of his majeſty's ſhips; who is to inquire into the ſame, and if he be ſatisfied thereof, ſhall order ſuch captain to diſcharge ſuch officer or ſeaman, and to make out and ſign in the uſual form a ticket for the wages then due; or if ſuch ſhip be not in any port of Great Britain, or on the coaſt, nor belong to any ſquadron, or be ſeparated from the commander in chief of any ſquadron to which ſuch ſhip belongs, then the captain or commander of ſuch ſhip being ſatisfied of ſuch diſability ſhall diſcharge ſuch officer or ſeaman, and ſhall make out ſuch ticket without the direction of any ſuch commander in chief, and ſhall ſign the ſame himſelf, and cauſe it to be ſigned by the proper ſigning officers: and whenever any ſuch officer or ſeaman ſo diſabled is diſcharged, and ſuch ticket ſo made out and ſigned, ſuch captain or commander ſhall at the ſame time deliver to ſuch officer or ſeaman, without fee, a certificate of his diſcharge, containing a copy of the ſaid ticket, and a deſcription of the perſon for whom ſuch ticket was ſo made out; which ticket ſhall not be delivered to ſuch officer or ſeaman, but ſuch captain ſhall ſend the ſame by the firſt opportunity to the commiſſioners of the navy at their board, for the uſe of ſuch officer or ſeaman; and the ſaid commiſſioners ſhall immediately cauſe the day when they receive ſuch ticket to be indorſed thereon, and ſuch ticket ſhall be forthwith examined, and ſhall by three or more of the ſaid commiſſioners be aſſigned for payment within one month from the day of the making ſuch indorſement: and in caſe ſuch officer or ſeaman preſent the ſaid certificate of his diſcharge at the navy office, the ſaid commiſſioners of the navy, or any of them, ſhall forthwith examine the ſaid certificate, and the perſon preſenting the ſame, and being ſatisfied that the ſaid certificate was made out for the ſaid perſon, and that he is rendered unſerviceable, ſhall ſign and teſtify the ſame on ſuch certificate; and the ſaid ticket being ſo aſſigned for payment ſhall, without fee, be immediately delivered to ſuch officer or ſeaman to whom ſuch certificate of diſcharge was granted, and to no other perſon, and the money due thereon ſhall, without fee, be paid to ſuch officer or ſeaman, and to no other perſon, as ſoon as ſuch ticket is brought to the pay-office of the navy; or if the ſaid ticket ſhall not be received by the commiſſioners of the navy at their board, then the ſaid certificate ſhall be forthwith examined, and the money appearing to be due on the ſaid ticket by the copy thereof contained in the ſaid certificate ſhall be paid to the perſon producing the ſame, and to no other perſon, in like manner as if the ſaid original ticket had been received: and in caſe any officer or ſeaman ſo diſcharged be deſirous to receive his wages at any port in Great Britain where a commiſſioner of the navy reſides, and preſent to ſuch commiſſioner the certificate of his diſcharge, the ſaid commiſſioner being ſatisfied that the ſaid certificate was made out for the ſaid perſon, and that he is rendered unſerviceable, ſhall ſign and teſtify the ſame on ſuch certificate, and tranſmit ſuch certificate to the commiſſioners of the navy at their board; who are within four days after the receipt of ſuch certificate to cauſe the ticket tranſmitted to them, and aſſigned for payment, or if ticket be not received by them, then the ſaid certificate, inſtead thereof, to be ſent to the commiſſioner of the navy at ſuch port; who ſhall cauſe the money due thereon to be immediately paid at ſuch port, to ſuch officer or ſeaman without fee or deduction: and the commiſſioner of the navy at ſuch port where ſuch certificate is ſo preſented ſhall ſend ſuch officer or ſeaman, with an order to the neareſt hoſpital, who ſhall receive ſuch officer or ſeaman, and victual him from the time he preſents ſuch certificate until he be ſo paid the wages due to him. ſ. 9.

In caſe any ſuch certificate delivered to ſuch inferior officer or ſeaman ſo diſcharged on account of being rendered unſerviceable, happen to be loſt or deſtroyed, or if any ſuch officer or ſeaman appear not and preſent the ſame to the commiſſioners of the navy at their board, or to the commiſſioner of the navy at any ſuch port in Great Britain, as aforeſaid; in which caſes the wages due to ſuch officer or ſeaman would not be payable by virtue of the ticket made out for him; or if the wages due upon ſuch ticket be not paid before the general payment of the ſhip's company; in every ſuch caſe the commiſſioners of the navy at their board ſhall cauſe ſuch ticket to be cancelled, and all ſuch wages ſhall become payable to ſuch officer or ſeaman, his executors or adminiſtrators, or to their reſpective attornies, when the wages due upon ſuch ſhip ſhall be paid, in the manner preſcribed by this act, and as if ſuch ticket and certificate had never been made out. ſ. 10.

When any inferior officer or ſeaman belonging to any ſhip of his majeſty, by order of the captain or commander of ſuch ſhip is ſet ſick aſhore, and ſent into any hoſpital or ſick quarters, ſuch captain or commander ſhall make out a ſick ticket for the wages then due to ſuch officer or ſeaman, and ſhall ſign the ſame himſelf, and cauſe it to be ſigned by the proper ſigning officers; which ſick ticket ſhall be tranſmitted along with ſuch officer or ſeaman to ſuch hoſpital or ſick quarters; and if ſuch officer or ſeaman not being cured in ſuch hoſpital be regularly diſcharged from thence as unſerviceable, then a certificate of ſuch diſcharge with the ſaid ſick ticket annexed ſhall be delivered to him; and in caſe he preſent the ſame to the commiſſioner of the navy reſiding in any port in Great Britain, ſuch commiſſioner of the navy, upon examining the perſon preſenting the ſame, and being ſatisfied that he is rendered unſerviceable, ſhall ſign and teſtify the ſame on ſuch certificate, and ſhall forthwith tranſmit ſuch certificate with the ſaid ſick ticket annexed to the commiſſioners of the navy at their board; who are immediately to cauſe the day when they receive the ſame to be indorſed thereon, and ſuch certificate and ſick ticket annexed to be examined by the muſter books if received, and a proper ticket or pay liſt in the uſual form, to be made out within four days after the receipt of ſuch certificate and ſick ticket, for the payment of all wages due to ſuch officer or ſeaman; and ſhall ſend ſuch ticket or pay liſt without delay to the ſaid commiſſioner of the navy at ſuch port, who ſhall, without fee, cauſe the money due thereon to be immediately paid to ſuch officer or ſeaman; who notwithſtanding ſuch diſcharge ſhall be maintained in ſuch hoſpital, or ſick quarters, from the time he preſents ſuch certificate and ſick ticket annexed, until he be ſo paid the wages due to him. ſ. 11.

In caſe the muſter books or pay books for any ſuch ſhip be not regularly tranſmitted to and received by the commiſſioners of the navy, in the manner before preſcribed, yet the payment of the tickets, or certificates containing copies thereof, or pay liſts, ſhall not be delayed; but if any error to the detriment of the public treaſure be made in any ſuch ticket, or certificate, or pay liſts, by the captain or commander making out the ſame, the loſs ariſing by ſuch error ſhall be made good out of any wages due to ſuch captain or commander by whom ſuch ticket, or certificate, or pay liſt, was ſo made out. ſ. 12.

When any ſhip not in any port of Great Britain, or on the coaſt has twelve months wages due, the captain or commander ſhall cauſe to be read over the names of all the inferior officers and ſeamen belonging to ſuch ſhip, and ſhall cauſe every officer and ſeaman to anſwer to his name; and ſhall do the ſame at the end of every ſix months, as long as ſuch ſhip has twelve months or more wages due; and if any officer or ſeaman thereupon declare or deliver in writing, the name and place of abode of his wife, father, or mother, and deſire that the whole, or any part of his wages then due (except the wages for the laſt ſix months) ſhould be paid to his ſaid wife, father, or mother, by the receiver-general of the land-tax for any county, &c. in Great Britain, or by the collector of the cuſtoms for any port, or collector of the exciſe for any collection in Great Britain, or by the clerk of the cheque at any of his majeſty's dock yards; then the captain or commander is to cauſe four liſts to be made out, containing the names of ſuch inferior officers and ſeamen as be deſirous to remit to their wives, &c. the whole or any part of their wages; in which liſts, the amount of the wages ſo deſired to be paid the name and place of abode of ſuch officer or ſeaman's wife, father, or mother, to whom ſuch wages are to be paid, and the receiver-general of the land-tax, collector of the cuſtoms, collector of the exciſe, or clerk of the cheque, by whom ſuch wages are to be made payable, ſhall be ſpecified in three ſeparate columns, oppoſite to the name of ſuch officer or ſeaman, in the ſaid liſts; and every officer or ſeaman ſo deſiring that any part of his wages may be paid to his wife, &c. ſhall write his name, or make his mark, in a ſeparate column in the ſaid liſts; which liſts ſhall be forthwith completed, and ſigned by the captain or commander, and proper ſigning officers of ſuch ſhip; and ſuch captain or commander ſhall tranſmit the ſaid liſts by the firſt opportunity to the commiſſioners of the navy at their board: and the ſaid commiſſioners upon receiving ſuch liſts wherein any ſuch allotment is made by any inferior officer or ſeaman, of any part of his wages to his wife, &c. ſhall immediately cauſe to be made out two bills for every ſuch allotment; which bills ſhall be duplicates, and joined together with oblique lines or devices; and ſhall be made payable to the wife, father, or mother, reſpectively, of ſuch inferior officer or ſeaman, by the receiver-general of the land-tax, collector of the cuſtoms, collector of the exciſe, or clerk of the cheque reſpectively, according to the appointment in ſuch liſts; and the ſaid bills, being numbered and dated, ſhall be ſigned by any three commiſſioners of the navy, and be written or printed according to the following form:

Atteſted, { H. J. Clerk to the treaſurer of the navy. }

By virtue of the act of the thirty-firſt of George the ſecond.

And ſo ſoon as the ſaid bill is made out, aſſigned, and atteſted, the ſaid commiſſioner of the navy ſhall cauſe them to be cut aſunder indentwiſe through the oblique lines or devices, and ſhall cauſe one of the bills to be delivered to ſuch officer or ſeaman, and the other to be tranſmitted to the ſaid receiver-general, &c. on whom ſuch bill is drawn; and the ſaid receiver-general, &c. if the duplicate of ſuch bill within ſix calendar months from the date be produced by the perſon to whom ſuch bill is payable, ſhall pay to ſuch perſon immediately, without fee, the ſum contained therein, taking a receipt on the back of the ſaid bill; which bill ſo paid, being delivered, together with a duplicate thereof, at the navy office, ſhall be immediately aſſigned for payment by three or more commiſſioners of the navy, and ſhall be immediately repaid by the treaſurer of the navy to ſuch receiver-general, &c. or his order; but in caſe the duplicate of ſuch bill be not produced, and payment demanded within ſix calendar months from the date, then the ſaid receiver-general, &c. ſhall return ſuch bill to the treaſurer of the navy at the pay-office of the navy, who ſhall cauſe ſuch bill, or the duplicate thereof, ſo delivered to ſuch officer or ſeaman, if the ſame be returned, to be cancelled; and ſuch part of the wages for which ſuch bill was made out, ſhall be immediately paid to ſuch inferior officer or ſeaman, or his executors or adminiſtrators, or their reſpective attorney, without fee or deduction. ſ. 14.

If any receiver-general, collector of the cuſtoms, collector of the exciſe, or clerk of the cheque, to whom the duplicate of any of the bills before directed to be made out is tendered for payment by the wife, father, or mother, of any ſuch officer or ſeaman, have not then in his hands public money ſufficient to anſwer the ſame, and refuſe or delay payment, ſuch receiver-general, &c. ſhall immediately indorſe on the back of the ſaid duplicate, the day of its being ſo tendered to him, and the cauſe of his refuſal or delay to pay the ſame; and ſhall appoint thereon for payment ſome day within two months from the day of its having been firſt tendered to him; which duplicate with the indorſement ſhall immediately be delivered back to the perſon preſenting the ſame. And if upon complaint to the reſpective commiſſioners for managing the land-tax, cuſtoms, or exciſe, or to the commiſſioners of the navy, if the perſon complained of be a clerk of the cheque, it appear that ſuch receiver-general, collector of the cuſtoms, collector of the exciſe, or clerk of the cheque, hath unneceſſarily and wilfully refuſed or delayed the payment of ſuch bill; or that ſuch receiver-general, &c. or any perſon employed under any of them, hath directly or indirectly taken any fee or deduction on account of the payment of the ſaid bill; it ſhall be lawful for any three of the ſaid commiſſioners to convict and fine ſuch offender under their reſpective direction, in any ſum not exceeding 50 l. which conviction ſhall be made by ſuch reſpective commiſſioners, and ſuch fine levied and recovered, in the ſame manner as any conviction may be made, and any penalty levied or recovered, in the ſame manner as any conviction may be made, and any penalty levied or recovered, for any offence againſt any law by which any cuſtom or exciſe is impoſed; and the ſaid fine ſhall be paid to the informer. ſ. 15.

This act ſhall not invalidate any indenture whereby any maſter is entitled to receive the wages or other allowances of money earned by his apprentice, but ſuch wages or other allowances ſhall be paid by the treaſurer of the navy or by his direction according to ſuch indenture, unleſs ſuch apprentice be above the age of 18 years at the time when ſuch indentures were executed, or unleſs ſuch apprentice be hired and rated as a ſervant to any commiſſion or warrant officer belonging to any of the ſhips of his majeſty, ſuch apprenticeſhip not being than known to ſuch officer; in which caſe, the wages of ſuch ſervant ſhall be payable to ſuch commiſſion or warrant officer, according to the practice of the navy, until ſuch officer be informed of ſuch apprenticeſhip: in either of the caſes before mentioned, the maſter of ſuch apprentice ſhall not be entitled to receive any wages or allowances by virtue of any ſuch indenture. ſ. 16.

Every captain and commander of every ſhip of his majeſty ſhall, from time to time ſend to the commiſſioners of the navy at their board, by the firſt ſafe opportunity, all ſuch complete pay books, and all ſuch liſts and tickets, to be made out as aforeſaid; and alſo ſhall ſend once in every two months to the commiſſioners of the navy at their board, one complete muſter book for ſuch ſhip, ſigned by himſelf and the proper officers, not only for the ſaid two months, but for the whole time ſuch ſhip has been in commiſſion, or from the time to which ſuch ſhip was laſt paid; and in caſe ſuch captain or commander be guilty of any neglect in any part hereof, the ſaid commiſſioners of the navy are not to grant to any ſuch captain or commander the general certificate to entitle him to his wages for ſuch ſhip, unleſs thereto required by particular order from the admiralty in caſes of neceſſity, and on its being made appear to them that the directions herein given, have been complied with as far as the nature of the ſervice would admit, and that the ſaid complete pay books, liſts, tickets, and muſter books, had been ſent to the ſaid commiſſioners of the navy, as often as opportunities offered; and in caſe ſuch captain or commander ſhall not exculpate himſelf from ſuch neglect before the commiſſioners of the admiralty, within 12 calendar months after his arrival in Great Britain, he ſhall forfeit all the wages due to him for his ſervice on board ſuch ſhip, which are to be paid to the uſe of the cheſt at Chatham; and ſuch captain or commander, being tried for and convicted of ſuch offence by a court martial, ſhall be liable to ſuch farther puniſhment, not extending to loſs of life or limb, as ſuch court martial ſhall adjudge. ſ. 17.

Every ſuch ticket, certificate, pay liſt, and bill, herein directed to be made out and paid as aforeſaid, ſhall be ſufficient vouchers for the treaſurer of the navy, for the money ſo directed to be paid upon ſuch tickets, &c. and paid by him thereon. ſ. 18.

If any captain or commander of any of the ſhips of his majeſty, ſhall cauſe to be made out, and iſſued, any ticket for wages to any inferior officer or ſeaman, except in the manner and under the regulations before directed, he ſhall, for every ſuch offence, forfeit 50*l.* one moiety to the perſon who ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame, and the other moiety to the uſe of the cheſt at Chatham; which forfeiture ſhall be ſued for and recovered in any court of record at Weſtminſter, by action of debt, &c. in which no eſſoin, &c. ſhall be allowed, and the court ſhall award coſts to the parties; and where judgment is given againſt any ſuch offender, the court where ſuch judgment is given ſhall, with all convenient ſpeed, certify the ſame to the commiſſioners of the admiralty; and ſuch offender ſhall, upon ſuch certificate, forfeit all the wages due to him for his ſervice in ſuch ſhip; which wages the commiſſioners of the admiralty ſhall direct to be paid to the uſe of the cheſt at Chatham. ſ. 19.

No captain or commander of any ſhip ſhall be liable to any penalty, upon account of any offence committed againſt this act before the 1ſt of June 1759, unleſs before the time of his committing ſuch offence he have received the abſtract of this act. ſ. 20.

No letter of attorney made by any inferior officer or ſeaman in ſervice of his majeſty, or by the executors or adminiſtrators of any ſuch officer or ſeaman, to empower any perſon to receive any wages or allowances of money due for ſuch ſervice ſhall be good, unleſs ſuch letter of attorney, be declared to be revocable by the expreſs words thereof; and unleſs ſuch letter of attorney, if made by any ſuch officer or ſeaman then in the ſervice of his majeſty, be ſigned before and atteſted by the captain or commander and one other of the ſigning officers of the ſhip to which ſuch inferior officer or ſeaman belongs, or by the clerk of the cheque at ſome of the dock yards; and unleſs ſuch letter of attorney, if made by any officer or ſeaman diſcharged from the ſervice of his majeſty, be ſigned before and atteſted by the mayor or chief magiſtrate of the town or place where ſuch officer or ſeaman then reſides; or if made by the executors or adminiſtrators of any ſuch officer or ſeaman, unleſs ſuch letter of attorney be ſigned before and atteſted by the miniſter and churchwardens (or in Scotland, by the miniſter and two elders) of the pariſh where ſuch executors or adminiſtrators reſpectively reſide. ſ. 21.

All letters of attorney, other than ſuch as are made and atteſted in manner aforeſaid, and all bargains, ſales, bills of ſale, contracts, agreements, and aſſignments, concerning any wages or allowances of money, due to any ſuch inferior officer or ſeaman in the ſervice of his majeſty, for ſuch ſervice, made after the 1ſt of Nov. 1758, ſhall be void; and the treaſurer of the navy is to pay to every ſuch inferior officer or ſeaman, as appears at the pay table, or in his abſence, to his lawful attorney, empowered in the manner before directed, or to the executors or adminiſtrators of ſuch officer or ſeaman, or to their reſpective attorney, authoriſed as before directed, the reſpective wages or allowances of money due to him, without regard to any ſuch letter of attorney, bargain, ſale, bill of ſale, contract, agreement, or aſſignment. ſ. 22.

No eccleſiaſtical court or any perſon ſhall take any more than 1*s.* for the ſeal, parchment, writing, and ſuing forth of the probate of any will, or any letters of adminiſtration, granted to the widow or children, father or mother, brother or ſiſter, of any inferior officer, ſeaman, or marine, dying in the pay of his majeſty's navy, and for the trouble and expence attending the ſuing forth of ſuch probate or letters of adminiſtration, unleſs the goods of ſuch officer, ſeaman, or marine, amount to 20*l.*; nor more than 2*s.* unleſs the goods amount to 40*l.*; nor more than 3*s.* unleſs the goods amount to 60*l.*: and where it is neceſſary to iſſue commiſſions to ſwear the widows or children, father or mother, brother or ſiſter, being executors or adminiſtrators of ſuch inferior officers, ſeamen, or marines, no eccleſiaſtical court nor any perſon ſhall take more than 1*s.* for the ſeal, parchment, writing, and ſuing forth of any ſuch commiſſion, and for the trouble and expence attending the ſame, unleſs the goods of ſuch officer, ſeaman, or marine, amount to 20*l.*; nor more than 2*s.* unleſs the goods amount to 40*l.*; nor more than 3*s.* unleſs the goods amount to 60*l.*; and if any perſon take any more than the ſaid ſums reſpectively, for the ſeal, parchment, writing, and ſuing forth of the probate of any ſuch will, or any ſuch letters of adminiſtration, and for the trouble and expence attending the ſame; or for the ſeal, parchment, writing, and ſuing forth of any ſuch commiſſion as aforeſaid, and for the trouble and expence attending the ſame, the perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit to the party aggrieved, 50*l.* to be recovered with coſts by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter or elſewhere. ſ. 23.

Whoſoever willingly and knowingly ſhall perſonate, or falſely aſſume the name and character of, or procure any other to perſonate, or falſely to aſſume the name or character of any officer, ſeaman, or other perſon, entitled or ſuppoſed to be entitled to any wages or other allowances of money or prize money, for ſervice done on board of any ſhip of his majeſty, or the executor or adminiſtrator, wife, relation, or creditor, of any ſuch officer or ſeaman, or other perſon, in order to receive any wages, &c. due, or ſuppoſed to be due, on account of the ſervices of any ſuch officer or ſeaman, or other perſon; or forge or counterfeit, or procure to be forged or counterfeited, any letter of attorney, bill, ticket, certificate, aſſignment, laſt will, or any other power, in order to receive any ſuch wages, &c. or willingly and knowingly take a falſe oath, or procure any other perſon to take a falſe oath, to obtain the probate of any will, or to obtain letters of adminiſtration, in order to receive the payment of any ſuch wages, &c. every perſon ſo offending, being convicted, ſhall be deemed guilty of felony, and ſhall ſuffer death as a felon without benefit of clergy. ſ. 24.

When any of the pay books of the ſhips of his majeſty are cloſed, ſuch ſeaman as ſhall not then receive or have received the wages or other allowances of money due to them, ſhall, upon application to the commiſſioners, at their board, receive tickets made out to them to the value of the wages or other allowances due to them reſpectively, and the ſaid commiſſioners are to make out the ſaid tickets, and to cauſe the ſame to be dated, numbered, regiſtered, and paid in courſe, once a month. ſ. 25.

The governors, miniſters, and conſuls, appointed by his majeſty, in foreign parts, and reſiding there, or where none ſuch are reſident, any two Britiſh merchants there reſiding, ſhall ſend and provide for all ſeafaring men and boys, ſubjects of Great Britain, that by ſhipwreck, capture, or other unavoidable accident, be driven or caſt away to, or that be diſcharged as unſerviceable from any of the ſhips of

of the royal navy, at ſuch foreign parts where ſuch governors, &c. reſide; and ſhall ſubſiſt ſuch ſeafaring men and boys, after the rate of 6*d.* per diem each, and ſend bills of their diſburſements upon ſuch occaſions, with vouchers, to the commiſſioners of the navy at their board, who are to cauſe immediate payment to be made; and the ſaid governors, miniſters, conſuls, and merchants, ſhall ſend the ſaid men or boys on board the firſt ſhip belonging to his majeſty, that arrives at the parts where they reſide, or any other places within a convenient diſtance; or in caſe no ſhip of war be then in ſuch parts or within a convenient diſtance, they ſhall ſend ſuch men or boys on board ſuch merchant ſhips as are bound for any port of Great Britain, and are in want of men; but if neither caſe happens within a convenient time, they ſhall provide a paſſage homeward for ſuch men and boys, in the firſt merchant ſhip bound for Great Britain; and every maſter of a merchant ſhip that arrives in ſuch foreign parts, and is homeward bound from thence to any port in Great Britain, ſhall take on board ſuch and ſo many of ſuch ſeafaring men or boys, as the ſaid governors, &c. direct, not exceeding four for each 100 tons of which his ſhip conſiſts. ſ. 26.

Every ſuch maſter of a ſhip who ſhall produce a certificate under the hands of the ſaid governors, miniſters, conſuls, or merchants, or any of them, certifying the number and names of the men or boys taken on board by their direction, and the time of taking them on board, and make an affidavit at his return, ſetting forth the time during which he ſubſiſted ſuch men or boys, and that he did not, during that time want of his own complement of men, or how many he did want of ſuch complement, and for what time, ſhall receive, and the commiſſioners of the navy, at their board, are to cauſe to be paid to ſuch maſter 6*d.* per diem for the paſſage and proviſions of each man and boy, from the day of their embarkation homewards to the day of their arrival in Great Britain, or being put into ſome ſhip of his majeſty; 6*d.* per diem only being deducted for ſuch time, and for ſo many perſons, as ſuch maſter wanted of his complement during the voyage. ſ. 27.

No perſon who ſhall liſt as a ſeaman on board any of the ſhips of his majeſty, ſhall be liable to be taken out of the ſervice by any proceſs or execution in Great Britain, Ireland, or any of his majeſty's dominions, other than for ſome criminal matters; unleſs ſuch proceſs or execution be for a real debt, or other juſt cauſe of action, and unleſs before the taking out of ſuch proceſs or execution, the plaintiff, or ſome perſon on his behalf, make affidavit before a judge of the court out of which ſuch proceſs or execution iſſues, or before ſome perſon authoriſed to take affidavits in ſuch courts, that to his knowledge the ſum owing to the plaintiff from the defendant in the action or cauſe of action on which ſuch proceſs iſſues, or the debt or damage and coſt for which ſuch execution iſſues, amounts to 20*l.* a memorandum of which oath ſhall be marked on the writ; for which memorandum or oath no fee ſhall be taken; and if any perſon be arreſted contrary to this act, it ſhall be lawful for a judge of ſuch court, upon complaint by the party, or by any of his ſuperior officers, to examine into the ſame by the oath of the parties or otherwiſe, and by warrant under his hand and ſeal to diſcharge ſuch ſeamen without paying any fee, upon proof that ſuch ſeamen ſo arreſted were belonging to one of the ſhips of his majeſty, and arreſted contrary to this act, and alſo to award to the party ſo complaining reaſonable coſts; for recovery whereof, he ſhall have the like remedy that the plaintiff might have had for his coſts. ſ. 28.

It ſhall be lawful for any plaintiff, upon notice firſt given in writing of the cauſe of action, to ſuch ſeaman belonging to the royal navy, or left at his laſt place of reſidence, before his entering into the ſervice, to file a common appearance in any action for any debt, ſo as to entitle ſuch plaintiff to proceed to judgment and outlawry, and to have an execution thereupon other than againſt the body of him ſo belonging to any ſhip of his majeſty. ſ. 29.

No perſon employed in the receiving of any wages, prize money, or other monies, due upon account of the ſervice of any officer, ſeaman, or other perſon in the royal navy, ſhall be entitled to take more than 6*d.* in the pound for receiving thereof, and for paying the ſame to the perſon by whom he is employed, or according to the direction of ſuch perſon, and for all his trouble and attendance; and if any perſon ſo employed, directly or indirectly, demand, take, or retain, or procure, or willingly ſuffer to be demanded, taken, or retained, any allowance or valuable conſideration, exceeding in the whole the ſum of 6*d.* in the pound for the monies ſo received, every ſuch perſon ſhall, for every ſuch offence forfeit 50*l.* to be recovered, with coſts, to any perſon who will ſue in any court of record at Weſtminſter, by action of debt, &c. in which no eſſoin, &c. ſhall be allowed: and if any ſuch offender be a clerk, officer, or ſervant, in any office relating to the navy, he ſhall, upon conviction, over and above the ſaid penalty of 50*l.* forfeit his place, and be for ever thereafter incapable of holding any place of profit in any ſuch office. ſ. 30.

If any clerk, officer, or ſervant, in any office relating to the navy, directly or indirectly demand, take, or retain, or procure, or willingly ſuffer to be demanded, taken, or retained, any fee or valuable conſideration (not being authoriſed ſo to do by this act) from any perſon under pretence of the doing any thing hereby directed, or in execution hereof, every ſuch clerk, &c. ſhall be ſubject to the ſame forfeitures, coſts, and incapacities, as is before-mentioned with reſpect to the taking more than 6*d.* in the pound for receiving of ſeamen's wages. ſ. 31.

So much of 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 41. as relates to the taking no more than 1*s.* for ſuing forth any letters of adminiſtration to the wife or children of any ſeaman dying in the pay of his majeſty's navy, unleſs the goods of ſuch ſeaman amount to 20*l.*; and ſo much of 4 Ann. c. 19. as relates to the payment of wages due to ſeamen turned over from one ſhip to another; and ſo much of 1 Geo. 2. c. 9. as contains any proviſions relative to his majeſty's royal navy, or the commiſſioners thereof, or to the captains, commanders, ſeamen, or other perſons ſerving therein, or to the payment of the wages due for ſuch ſervice; and alſo an act 1 Geo. 2. c. 14. ſhall be repealed. ſ. 32.

The commiſſioners of the admiralty ſhall direct an abſtract of the proviſions and regulations herein contained, for the benefit of ſeamen belonging to the ſhips of his majeſty, together with the articles of war, to be printed; and a competent number of the copies thereof ſhall be delivered to the captain or commander of every ſuch ſhip; and ſuch captain or commander, as ſoon as the ſhip by him commanded is put into ſea pay, ſhall cauſe one of the ſaid printed abſtracts, together with the articles of war, to be affixed to the moſt public place of ſuch ſhip, and ſhall cauſe the ſame to be conſtantly kept up, ſo that they may be at all times acceſſible to the inferior officers and ſeamen on board. And every ſuch captain or commander ſhall cauſe ſuch abſtract to be read over once in every month, in the preſence of the officers and ſeamen of ſuch ſhip immediately mediately after the articles of war are read; and the reading both of the articles of war, and of this abſtract, and the days when read, ſhall be atteſted by the captain or commander, and the uſual ſigning officers of ſuch ſhip, at the foot of the muſter books for ſuch ſhip, before they are tranſmitted to the commiſſioners of the navy. And the ſaid commiſſioners are to inquire whether the directions hereby given for affixing the ſaid abſtract and articles of war, and for the reading of the ſame, have been obſerved by the captain or commander of ſuch ſhip, and not to grant to ſuch captain or commander his general certificate until they are ſatisfied thereof; to the end that every ſeaman employed in the royal navy may at the ſame time hear and know the puniſhments he is liable to for neglect or diſobedience, and the encouragements and benefits to which he is entitled by a faithful performance of his duty; and that upon ſuffering any injury in ſuch ſervice, he may be the better enabled to lay his complaint before the commiſſioners of the admiralty, who are upon any ſuch complaint to inquire into the circumſtances of the ſame, and to grant redreſs therein, if ſuch complaint be juſtly founded; and to take care that this act be carried into execution. ſ. 33.—The abſtract of the act is annexed.

By 2 Geo. 3. c. 31. All the proviſions, penalties, clauſes, matters, and things contained 2 Geo. 2. c. 36. are extended to all his majeſty's colonies in America; and all penalties to be incurred by the ſaid act, and directed to be applied to the uſe of Greenwich hoſpital, ſhall be paid to ſuch officer in the ſaid colonies, as ſhall be appointed by the lord high admiral of Great Britain, or the commiſſioners executing the office: and in caſe any maſters or owners of any veſſels, ſhall deduct out of the wages of any ſeaman any of the penalties, and ſhall not pay the money deducted to ſuch officer ſo appointed in the port where ſuch deduction ſhall be made, within three months after; every perſon ſo neglecting, ſhall forfeit the treble value thereof to the uſe of the ſaid hoſpital; which, with the money deducted, may be recovered by the ſame means as penalties may by the ſaid act. ſ. 2.

By 3 Geo. 3. c. 16. It ſhall be lawful for the governors of the hoſpital at Greenwich, after defraying the expences of the hoſpital, out of the eſtates belonging to the hoſpital, to provide for ſuch ſeamen worn out in the ſervice of their country, who ſhall not be provided for within the hoſpital. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for the treaſurer of the hoſpital, to make out two bills for every out-penſion granted by the governors; which bills ſhall be duplicates, and joined together with oblique lines, flouriſhes, or devices, in ſuch manner as the treaſurer ſhall think proper, and ſhall be made payable to ſuch out-penſioner by the receiver-general of the land tax, collector of cuſtoms, collector of exciſe, or clerk of the cheque, according to the appointment in ſuch bills; and the ſaid bills being numbered and dated, ſhall be ſigned by the treaſurer, or his firſt clerk, and atteſted by the ſteward or clerk of the cheque of the hoſpital, and be written or printed according to the following form:

THE FORM.

A. N° I. Greenwich Hoſpital.

SIR,

'PAY to B. D. of ——— in the county of ——— 'out-penſioner of Greenwich hoſpital, upon producing the 'duplicate hereof, together with a certificate under the 'hands of the miniſter and churchwardens, or in that part 'of Great Britain called Scotland, under the hands 'of the miniſter and two elders, of the pariſh where 'the ſaid B. D. reſides, that the ſaid B. D. to the beſt of 'their knowledge and belief, is the perſon named in ſuch 'bill, the ſum of ——— being on account of the out-pen- 'ſion of the ſaid B. D. if the ſame ſhall be demanded 'within ſix calendar months from the date hereof; other- 'wiſe you are to return this bill to the treaſurer of the royal 'hoſpital at Greenwich, at the ſaid hoſpital.'

To The receiver general of the land tax of the county of / The collector of the cuſtoms at the port of / The collector of the exciſe at / The clerk of the cheque at	Signed (A. B.) treaſurer of the royal hoſpital at Greenwich, or his firſt clerk. Atteſted (C. D.) ſteward or clerk of the cheque of the royal hoſpital at Greenwich.

By virtue of the act of the third of king GEORGE the third.

" N. B. The perſonating or falſely aſſuming the name " and character of any out-penſioner of Greenwich " hoſpital, in order to receive the out-penſion due to " ſuch out-penſioner, or procuring any other to do " the ſame, is made felony without benefit of clergy, " by the third of king GEORGE the third."

And as ſoon as the bills ſhall be ſo made out and ſigned, the treaſurer ſhall cauſe them to be cut aſunder indentwiſe, through the oblique lines, and ſhall cauſe one of the ſaid bills to be tranſmitted to the perſon ſpecified in ſuch bills, and the other to the receiver general of the land tax, collector of cuſtoms, exciſe, or clerk of the cheque, on whom ſuch bill ſhall be drawn; and the receiver general, &c. if the ſaid duplicates be produced and delivered, within ſix months from the date, are to examine ſuch duplicate, together with the certificate to be produced as aforeſaid; and to inquire into the truth thereof by the oath of the perſon producing the ſame, which oath they are to adminiſter, and upon being ſatisfied of the truth of ſuch certificate, to teſtify the ſame on the back of ſuch bill; and ſhall immediately pay to ſuch out-penſioner, without fee, the ſum contained in ſuch bill, taking his receipt on the back thereof; which bill ſo paid, being produced at the office of the treaſurer of the navy, ſhall be immediately repaid by the treaſurer to ſuch receiver general of land tax, collector of cuſtoms, exciſe, or clerk of the cheque, or to the order of ſuch receiver general, &c.: but in caſe the duplicate ſhall not be delivered, and payment demanded within ſix months from the date, then the receiver general, &c. ſhall return ſuch bill to the treaſurer of the hoſpital, who ſhall cauſe ſuch bill to be cancelled; and after cancelling the ſame, ſuch part of the penſion ſhall become payable in like manner as if the bill had not been made out. ſ. 3.

If ſuch receiver general, &c. to whom the duplicate of any of the bills ſhall be tendered, ſhall not have in hand money ſufficient to anſwer the ſame, and ſhall refuſe or delay the payment thereof, ſuch receiver general, &c. ſhall immediately indorſe on the back of the duplicate, the day of its being tendered to him, and the cauſe of his delay to pay the ſame; and ſhall appoint for the payment of ſuch bill, ſome future day within two months from the day of its having been tendered; which duplicate, with the indorſement thereon, ſhall immediately be delivered back to the perſon preſenting the ſame; and if, upon complaint to be made to the commiſſioners of land tax, cuſtoms, exciſe, or to the commiſſioners of the navy, if the perſon complained of be a clerk of the cheque, it ſhall appear that ſuch receiver general, &c. hath unneceſſarily refuſed the payment of ſuch bill; or that ſuch receiver general, &c. or any perſon employed by them, hath received any fee or deduction on account of the payment of the ſaid bill; it ſhall be lawful for three of the commiſſioners to convict and fine ſuch offender, not exceeding 50*l.* according to the nature of the offence; which conviction ſhall be made by ſuch commiſſioners, and ſuch fine ſhall be levied in ſuch manner as any conviction may be made, and any penalty may be levied, for any offence againſt any law of cuſtom or exciſe; and the ſaid fine, when recovered, ſhall be paid to the informer. ſ. 4.

All the bills ſo paid by the treaſurer of the navy ſhall be allowed as caſh, paid in ready money, in the accounts of the treaſurer of the navy with the ſaid treaſurer of the hoſpital at Greenwich, and the treaſurer of the hoſpital is to allow the ſame accordingly. ſ. 5.

Whoſoever knowingly ſhall perſonate, or procure any other to perſonate the name and character of any perſon intitled, or ſuppoſed to be intitled, as an out-penſioner to any out-penſion, in order to receive the money due, or ſuppoſed to be due, ſhall be guilty of felony without benefit of clergy. ſ. 6.

By 9 Geo. 3. c. 30. It ſhall be lawful for the treaſurer, comptroller, ſurveyor, clerk of the acts, or any commiſſioner of the navy, in all places whatſoever, to execute the office and duty of a juſtice of the peace, in cauſing any perſon charged with forging or counterfeiting, or procuring to be forged, any letter of attorney, bill, ticket, certificate, aſſignment, laſt will, or other power, or with publiſhing the ſame as true, in order to receive any wages, pay, or other allowance, due to any officer, ſeaman, or other perſon, in the ſervice of his majeſty; or with taking, or procuring falſe oaths to be taken, for any of the purpoſes aforeſaid, or to obtain a probate of any will, or letters of adminiſtration, in order to receive ſuch wages, pay, or other allowance, or with ſtealing or embezzling any naval ſtores, the property of his majeſty, to be apprehended, committed, and proſecuted, for the ſame; and all conſtables, headboroughs, keepers of gaols, and other officers, are to execute and obey all ſuch warrants as ſhall be iſſued by the perſons aforeſaid touching any of the matters herein-before contained. ſ. 5.

By 26 Geo. 3. c. 63. No letter of attorney, made by any petty officer or ſeaman in the ſervice of his majeſty, or letter of attorney made by the executors or adminiſtrators of ſuch officer or ſeaman, to empower any perſon to receive any wages, pay, or allowances due or to grow due for ſuch ſervice, ſhall be good, unleſs ſuch letter of attorney ſhall be made revocable by expreſs words, and no letter of attorney, or will, made by any petty officer or ſeaman, whereby any wages, pay, prize money, or allowance, due or to grow due, is authoriſed to be received or bequeathed, ſhall be good, unleſs ſuch letter of attorney, or will, if made by ſuch officer or ſeaman, then in the ſervice of his majeſty, ſhall be ſigned before, and atteſted by the captain, or officer commanding, and one of the ſigning officers of the ſhip to which ſuch petty officer or ſeaman ſhall belong, and ſhall ſpecify in the body thereof the name of the ſhip, and alſo the number at which the maker of ſuch will, or letter of attorney, ſtands upon the ſhip's book; or by the agent of any of his majeſty's hoſpitals or quarters appointed to receive ſick and wounded ſeamen, called Sick Quarters, in which ſuch petty officer or ſeaman may be; and unleſs ſuch letter of attorney or will, if made by ſuch officer or ſeaman, who ſhall have been diſcharged from the ſervice, or if ſuch letter of attorney is made by the executors or adminiſtrators of ſuch officer or ſeaman, and made within the bills of mortality, is atteſted by an officer to be appointed by the treaſurer of the navy, for the purpoſe of inſpecting the wills, &c. of ſuch officers and ſeamen, or, if made at any of the ports where ſeamen's wages are paid, is atteſted by the treaſurer of the navy's chief or ſecond clerk there, or if made at any other place, is atteſted by the miniſter and churchwardens of any pariſh in England or Ireland; or in Scotland, by the miniſter and elders of the pariſh where ſuch petty officer, &c. ſhall reſide. ſ. 1.

Such letter of attorney, and will, ſhall contain the name of the ſhip to which the perſon granting the ſame laſt belonged, and alſo the full deſcription of the reſidence, profeſſion, or buſineſs, of the perſon to whom the ſaid letter of attorney, &c. is made, and alſo the day of the month, and place where the ſaid letter of attorney, &c. was executed. ſ. 2.

After ſuch letter of attorney, or will, ſhall be executed, and atteſted, as above mentioned, the ſame ſhall not be delivered to ſuch party himſelf, or to any perſon for his behalf, but the ſame, if executed abroad, ſhall be ſent by the commander of any of his majeſty's ſhips, or agent of hoſpitals or ſick quarters, when they tranſmit their returns to the navy and ſick and hurt boards; or, if executed in Great Britain or Ireland, ſhall be ſent by the commander of any of his majeſty's ſhips, agents of hoſpitals, or ſick quarters, treaſurer of the navy's clerks, miniſter of the pariſh, or whoever ſhall atteſt ſuch letter of attorney or will, by the general poſt, addreſſed to the treaſurer or paymaſter of the navy, at the navy pay office, London. ſ. 3.

The ſaid treaſurer or paymaſter of the navy, ſhall immediately deliver over the ſame to the officer appointed for inſpecting the wills, &c. which inſpectors ſhall regiſter the ſame in numerical and alphabetical manner, in a ſeparate book, kept for the purpoſe, ſpecifying the date and the place where executed, the name and addition of the perſon in whoſe favour ſuch letter of attorney is granted, and the name and addition of the executor named in ſuch wills, and the names and qualities of the witneſſes atteſting the ſame; and the ſaid inſpector is, if the ſame ſhall appear to be witneſſed by the commander of any ſhip, or agent of hoſpital or ſick quarters, or treaſurer of the navy's clerks, to examine and compare his ſignature to the atteſtation of ſuch letter of attorney, or will, with that ſet to the pay or muſter books of ſuch ſhip, or with the returns made by the agent, or any public accounts ſigned by ſuch clerk, to all which documents he ſhall have acceſs, or with any other inſtruments which he may have in his poſſeſſion; and in caſe it ſhall appear to him that ſuch letter of attorney, or will is not genuine, he ſhall not paſs the ſame, but give notice by letter, ſent by the general poſt, to the perſon in whoſe favour ſuch letter of attorney is granted, or perſon named executor, informing him that the ſaid letter of attorney, or will, is ſtopt, and the reaſon thereof; but if, upon ſuch examination and inquiry, it ſhall appear to the inſpector, that the ſaid letter of attorney, or will, is genuine, he ſhall ſign his name to ſuch letter of attorney, or will, and alſo put a ſtamp thereon, to be made and kept for the purpoſe, in token of his approbation; and ſuch letter of attorney ſhall be kept as one of the vouchers of the treaſurer of the navy's accounts: and the ſaid inſpector ſhall, after ſuch inquiry, give notice by letter, to be ſent by the general poſt to the perſon in whoſe favour ſuch letter of attorney is granted, that he has received and approved of the ſame, and he ſhall at the ſame time ſend to ſuch attorney a check, ſpecifying the number of ſuch letter of attorney, the name and addition of the perſon granting the ſame, the name and addition of the perſon in whoſe favour the ſame is granted, the date and place when and where executed, and the names of the witneſſes atteſting the ſame, which check ſhall be ſigned and ſtamped by the inſpector, or perſon authoriſed to officiate for him, and ſhall to ſuch attorney ſtand in the place of his original letter of attorney, and ſhall be authority to demand payment of, and diſcharge all ſuch wages, &c. to which the perſon granting the ſame was entitled for ſervice on board any ſhips; and the ſaid inſpector ſhall in like manner give notice, to be ſent by the general poſt, to the perſon named executor in ſuch will, that ſuch will is received and approved of; and the inſpector ſhall number and regiſter the will ſigned and ſtamped by him, and ſhall make out a check, in manner above directed with reſpect to letters of attorney, which check he ſhall forward in like manner to the executor, and which ſhall be a ſufficient authority for them, or for their attornies, to apply, upon the teſtator's death, to the inſpector, requeſting that the will may be directed and ſent by him to a proctor in Doctors Commons, where they may obtain probate thereof, which probate, when obtained, ſhall be lodged with the inſpector of ſeamen's wills, who is to certify, upon the check formerly delivered, that a probate has been granted, and the check ſhall then, to ſuch executor, ſtand in the place of ſuch probate, and ſhall be to him authority to demand payment of and diſcharge all ſums that ſhall be due to him as executor to the party who made the will. ſ. 4.

The inſpector ſhall, in return to all letters of attorney and wills received by him from miniſters of pariſhes, give notice to the ſaid miniſter, and not to the grantor thereof, of his having paſſed and approved of ſuch letter of attorney, or will, and ſend the check by the general poſt to the miniſter; and which notice from the inſpector ſhall be addreſſed to the miniſter of the pariſh (naming the ſame), without inſerting the name of ſuch miniſter, to be delivered to him at his houſe; and ſuch miniſter ſhall deliver the ſaid check to the party who executed ſuch letter of attorney, or will: and all letters and packets ſent by the ſaid treaſurer or paymaſter of the navy, or inſpector, ſhall be ſent free from poſtage, under the ſame reſtrictions, as the clerk, aſſiſtant, and chief clerk without doors, of the houſe of commons now ſend the ſame. ſ. 5.

All captains and commanders of ſhips ſhall, upon their monthly muſter books or returns, ſpecify which of the men mentioned in the returns have granted any letter of attorney during that month, by inſerting the date thereof oppoſite to the party's name. ſ. 6.

When any petty officer or ſeaman ſhall die inteſtate, leaving any wages, &c. due to them in reſpect of ſervice, the ſame ſhall not be paid unto any repreſentative of ſuch inteſtate, but upon letters of adminiſtration to be obtained in the following manner; viz. the perſon claiming adminiſtration ſhall give in a note or petition to the inſpector, ſtating the name of the deceaſed, and to what part of his majeſty's dominions he belonged, and the name of the ſhip on board of which he ſerved, together with his own name at full length, and his relation to the deceaſed, and alſo what other relations the deceaſed has alive, and where reſident; and which petition ſhall be certified by two houſekeepers of the pariſh where ſuch petitioner is reſident, certifying that they believe the contents of the petition true; and which petition and certificate ſhall be further certified by the miniſter of the pariſh, and two churchwardens, or two elders, certifying that the two perſons who certified the petition, are reſident within the pariſh, and perſons of good repute: whereupon the inſpector ſhall make inquiry for aſcertaining the truth of the petition; and if, upon inquiry, he ſhall be ſatisfied of the truth thereof, and it alſo appearing that no will of ſuch deceaſed has been lodged with him, he ſhall deliver to the perſon claiming ſuch adminiſtration, an abſtract of the petition, with a note ſubjoined thereto, ſigned by the inſpector, and marked with his ſtamp, certifying that the contents of the petition appear true, and that the perſon claiming to be adminiſtrator may obtain letters of adminiſtration, which certificate ſhall be directed by the inſpector to a proctor in Doctors Commons, that letters of adminiſtration may paſs in favour of the petitioner, if intitled thereto by law; and ſuch original petition and certificate ſhall be lodged in the records of the treaſurer of the navy, and be preſerved by him; and the letters of adminiſtration, when obtained, ſhall be lodged and regiſtered, in the ſame manner with the probates of wills, in the hands of the inſpector, who is to grant a check, ſigned and ſtamped by him, or by the perſon authoriſed to officiate for him, to the adminiſtrators, or their attornies, which ſhall ſtand in the place of the adminiſtration, and be to them a ſufficient authority to demand payment of and diſcharge all ſums due to them as adminiſtrators. ſ. 7.

If any proctor, regiſter, or officer of any eccleſiaſtical court, ſhall be aiding in procuring probate of the will, or letters of adminiſtration, for enabling any perſon to receive the wages, &c. due for ſervice on board any ſhip then in, or formerly belonging to his majeſty, without firſt obtaining the certificate from the inſpector as above directed, ſuch proctor, &c. ſhall forfeit 500 l. and be incapable of acting in any eccleſiaſtical court in Great Britain or Ireland. ſ. 8.

The commiſſioners of the admiralty ſhall direct abſtracts of this act to be printed, and a number of copies are to be delivered to the captain of every ſhip of his majeſty, and ſuch captain, as ſoon as the ſhip ſhall be put into ſea pay, ſhall cauſe one of the printed abſtracts to be hung up to the moſt public place of ſuch ſhip, and ſhall cauſe the ſame to be conſtantly kept and renewed, ſo that they may at all times be acceſſible to the petty officers and ſeamen on board; and the commiſſioners of the navy are to inquire whether the directions hereby given for hanging up the abſtracts have been obſerved by the captain, and not to grant ſuch captain his general certificate until they are fully ſatisfied thereof. ſ. 9.

Serjeants at Arms.

By 13 Ric. 2. c. 6. The ſerjeants at arms ſhall be to the number of 30 and no more; and they ſhall not meddle of any thing that toucheth not their office; and ſhall do no extortion nor oppreſſion to the people, upon pain to loſe the office, and to make a fine and ranſom at the king's pleaſure, and full ſatisfaction to the party.

Service and Sacraments.

By 1 Edw. 6. c. 1. revived by 1 Eliz. c. 2. Whatſoever perſon deprave or contemn the moſt bleſſed ſacrament of the altar by contemptuous words or words of reviling, or ſhall adviſedly deſpiſe or revile the ſaid ſacrament, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment, and make fine and ranſom at the king's will; and the juſtices of peace, or three of them, whereof one to be of the quorum, ſhall have power as well to take information as accuſation by the oaths of two perſons, and after ſuch accuſation, &c. to inquire by the oaths of twelve men in their quarter ſeſſions, of all ſuch informations of any the offences aboveſaid; and upon every ſuch accuſation, the offenders ſhall be inquired of, and indicted before the juſtices by the verdict of twelve men, if the matter of the accuſation ſhall ſeem to the jury true. ſ. 1.

The juſtices, before whom any ſuch preſentment ſhall be made, ſhall examine the accuſers what other witneſſes were preſent at the offence, and ſhall bind by recognizance as well the accuſers, as all ſuch other perſons whom the accuſers ſhall declare to have knowledge of the offences, in 5*l.* to the king, to appear before the juſtices before whom the offenders ſhall be tried. ſ. 2.

The juſtices ſhall make proceſs againſt every perſon ſo indicted by two capias, and one exigent, and by capias utlagatum, as well within the limits of their commiſſion, as into all other the king's dominions; and upon the appearance of the offenders, to determine the contempts and offences aforeſaid; and the ſaid juſtices, or three of them, ſhall have power to let any perſons ſo indicted to bail. ſ. 3.

The juſtices, where any offender ſhall be indicted of any offences aboveſaid, ſhall award one writ to the biſhop of the dioceſe wherein the offences are ſuppoſed to be committed, of this form: The king to the biſhop of L. greeting: We command you, that you, your chancellor, or other your ſufficient deputy learned, be with our juſtices aſſigned to keep the peace in our county of B. at D. ſuch a day, at our ſeſſion then and there to be held, to give counſel and advice to the ſame our juſtices of the peace upon the arraignment and delivery of offenders againſt the form of the ſtatute concerning the holy ſacrament of the altar. ſ. 4.

No perſon ſhall be indicted of any the offences aboveſaid, but within three months next after the offences committed. ſ. 5.

In all trials ſuch offenders ſhall be admitted to try their innocency by as many witneſſes, and of as good credence, as the witneſſes which depoſed againſt them. ſ. 6.

The ſaid moſt bleſſed ſacrament ſhall be commonly miniſtered unto the people within this church of England and Ireland, and other the king's dominions, under both the kinds of bread and wine, except neceſſity otherwiſe require; and the prieſt ſhall at leaſt one day before exhort all perſons which ſhall be preſent to prepare themſelves to receive the ſame; and when the day cometh, after a godly exhortation by the miniſter made (wherein ſhall be further expreſſed the benefit promiſed to them which worthily receive the ſaid holy ſacrament, and indignation of God threatened to them which ſhall preſume to receive the ſame unworthily) the miniſter ſhall not without a lawful cauſe deny the ſame to any perſon that will devoutly and humbly deſire it; not condemning hereby the uſage of any church out of the king's dominions. ſ. 7.

By 1 Edw. 6. c. 12. All acts of parliament concerning doctrine or matters of religion ſhall be repealed. ſ. 3.

By 2 & 3 Edw. 6. c. 1. All miniſters in any church or place within the king's dominions ſhall be bound to uſe the mattens, evenſong, celebration of the Lord's ſupper, and adminiſtration of each of the ſacraments, and all their common and open prayer, in ſuch form as is mentioned in the book of common prayer, &c. and none other. And if any parſon or miniſter that ſhould ſing or ſay common prayer, &c. ſhall refuſe to uſe the ſaid common prayers, or to miniſter the ſacraments as ſet forth in the ſaid book, or ſhall uſe wilfully and obſtinately any other rite or manner of maſs, mattens, evenſong, adminiſtration of the ſacraments, or other open prayer, or ſhall preach or ſpeak in derogation or depraving of the ſaid book, or any thing therein, and ſhall be thereof convicted by verdict of twelve men, or by his own confeſſion, or by the notorious evidence of the fact, he ſhall forfeit to the king for his firſt offence, the profit of ſuch one of his ſpiritual benefices as it ſhall pleaſe the king to aſſign, ariſing in one whole year next after his conviction, and alſo ſhall ſuffer impriſonment ſix months; and if ſuch perſon once convict ſhall eftſoons offend, and be thereof convict, he ſhall for his ſecond offence ſuffer impriſonment one year, and be deprived of all his ſpirtual promotions; and if any ſuch perſon twice convicted ſhall offend the third time, and be convict, he ſhall ſuffer impriſonment during life: and if the perſon be not beneficed, he ſhall for the firſt offence ſuffer impriſoment ſix months; and if he eftſoons offend, he ſhall for his ſecond offence ſuffer impriſoment during life. ſ. 1.

If any perſon ſhall in any interludes, plays, ſongs, or by other open words, declare any thing in derogation, depraving or deſpiſing, of the ſame book, or of any thing therein, or ſhall by open fact or threatenings cauſe or maintain any parſon or miniſter to ſing or ſay any common prayer, or to miniſter any ſacrament, otherwiſe than is mentioned in the ſaid book; or by the ſaid means ſhall unlawfully interrupt any parſon or miniſters to ſing or ſay common prayer, or to miniſter the ſacraments in ſuch manner as is mentioned in the ſaid book; every perſon being thereof convicted in form aforeſaid ſhall forfeit to the king for the firſt offence 10*l.* and if any perſon, being once convicted, eftſoons offend againſt the premiſes, and ſhall be thereof convict, he ſhall for the ſecond offence forfeit to the king 20*l.* and if any perſon, after he ſhall be twice convict, ſhall offend the third time, he ſhall for his third offence forfeit to the king all his goods, and ſhall ſuffer impriſonment during life; and if any perſon, that for his firſt offence ſhall be convict, do not pay the ſum within ſix weeks after his conviction, he ſhall, inſtead of the 10*l.* ſuffer impriſonment three months; and if any perſon, that for his ſecond offence ſhall be convict, do not pay the ſum within ſix weeks next after his conviction, he ſhall for the ſame ſecond offence, inſtead of the 20*l.* ſuffer impriſonment ſix months. ſ. 2.

All juſtices of oyer and terminer, or juſtices of aſſiſe, ſhall have power to inquire, hear and determine, all offences contrary to this act, and to make proceſs for the execution of the ſame, as they may do againſt any perſon indicted of treſpaſs. ſ. 3.

Every archbiſhop and biſhop may at his pleaſure aſſociate himſelf to the ſaid juſtices of oyer and terminer, or juſtices of aſſize, within his dioceſe, for hearing and determining of the offences aforeſaid. ſ. 4.

Provided that it ſhall be lawful to any man that underſtandeth the Greek, Latin, and Hebrew tongue, or other ſtrange tongue, to ſay the prayers of mattens and evenſong in Latin, or ſuch other tongue, ſaying the ſame privately. ſ. 5.

And in the univerſities of Cambridge and Oxford to uſe in their chapels (being no pariſh churches) the mattens, evenſong, litany, and all other prayers (the holy communion excepted) in Greek, Latin, or Hebrew. ſ. 6.

It ſhall be lawful for all men to uſe any pſalms or prayer taken out of the bible, at any due time, not omitting the ſervice in the ſaid book. ſ. 7.

No perſon ſhall be moleſted for any of the offences abovementioned, unleſs he be indicted at the next general ſeſſions of oyer and terminer, or aſſize, after any offence committed. ſ. 9.

Lords of parliament for the ſaid offences ſhall be tried by their peers. ſ. 10.

The

The mayor of London, and all the mayors and head officers of cities and towns corporate, to which juſtices of aſſize do not commonly repair, ſhall have power to inquire, hear and determine, the offences aboveſaid, yearly within fifteen days after Eaſter and St. Michael. ſ. 11.

All archbiſhops and biſhops, and their chancellors, commiſſaries, archdeacons, and other ordinaries, ſhall have power as well to inquire in their viſitations, ſynods, and elſewhere to take informations of the things abovementioned committed within their juriſdiction, and to puniſh the ſame by admonition, excommunication, ſequeſtration, or deprivation, and other cenſures, as heretofore in like caſes. ſ. 12.

Provided that whatſoever perſon offending in the premiſes ſhall for the firſt offence receive puniſhment of the ordinary, having a teſtimonial thereof under the ordinary's ſeal, ſhall not for the ſame offence be convicted before the juſtices; and likewiſe receiving for the firſt offence puniſhment by the juſtices, he ſhall not for the ſame offence receive puniſhment of the ordinary. ſ. 13. 1 Mar. ſt. 2. c. 2. repealed this act, and 1 Jac. 1. c. 25. ſ. 48. afterwards repealed 1 Mar.

By 5 & 6 Edw. 6. c. 1. All perſons inhabiting within the king's dominions ſhall diligently, having no reaſonable excuſe, endeavour to reſort to their pariſh church or chapel accuſtomed, or upon reaſonable let thereof to ſome uſual place where common prayer ſhall be uſed, upon every Sunday and holy-day, and there abide orderly during the time of the common prayer, preachings or other ſervice of God, upon pain of puniſhment by the cenſures of the church. ſ. 2.

All archbiſhops, biſhops, and other ordinaries, ſhall endeavour that the due execution hereof be had, as they will anſwer before God. ſ. 3.

All archbiſhops, biſhops, and their officers exerciſing eccleſiaſtical juriſdiction, as well in place exempt as not exempt, ſhall have power to reform and puniſh, by cenſures of the church, all perſons which ſhall offend within their dioceſes againſt this act. ſ. 4.

If any perſon ſhall willingly be preſent at any other form of common prayer, adminiſtration of the ſacraments, making of miniſters in the church, or any other rites contained in the book annexed to this act, than is mentioned and ſet forth in the ſaid book, or that is contrary to the proviſions in the former ſtatute, and ſhall be convicted before the juſtices of aſſize, juſtices of oyer and terminer, or juſtices of peace in their ſeſſion, by verdict, or confeſſion, or otherwiſe, he ſhall for the firſt offence ſuffer impriſonment ſix months, and for the ſecond offence impriſonment for one year, and for the third offence impriſonment during life. And every curate ſhall once every year read this act in the church, at the ſame time declaring, by the authority of the ſcripture, how the mercy and goodneſs of God hath in all ages been ſhewed to his people in their neceſſities, by means of prayers to almighty God, eſpecially where people be gathered together with one faith and mind, to offer up their hearts by prayers, as the beſt ſacrifices that chriſtian men can yield. ſ. 6. This act was repealed by 1 Mar. ſt. 2. c. 2. which was repealed by 1 Jac. 1. c. 25. ſ. 48.

By 1 Mar. ſt. 2. c. 3. If any perſons of their own authority ſhall of purpoſe, by open word or deed, maliciouſly or contemptuouſly diſturb, or by any other unlawful ways diſquiet or miſuſe, any preacher licenced or authoriſed to preach by the queen, or by any archbiſhop or biſhop of this realm, or by any other lawful ordinary, or by any of the univerſities, or lawfully authoriſed by reaſon of his cure or ſpiritual promotion, in his open ſermon, preaching or collation, in any church, chapel, churchyard, or other place, uſed or appointed to be preached; or if any perſons ſhall maliciouſly diſturb any parſon or curate, or any lawful prieſt, celebrating divine ſervice, ſacraments, or ſacramentals, authoriſed by the queen; or if any perſons ſhall unlawfully abuſe the holy ſacrament, or unlawfully deface any altar, crucifix or croſs, in any church, chapel, or churchyard; every ſuch offender, his aiders, procurers, or abettors, ſhall be apprehended by any conſtable, churchwarden, or other officer, or by any other perſon preſent at the time of the offence, and carried to any juſtice of peace; and the juſtice, upon due accuſations thereupon, ſhall commit the perſons apprended to cuſtody, and within ſix days after the ſaid juſtice with one other juſtice ſhall examine the offences; and if the two juſtices ſhall find the ſaid perſons guilty of the ſaid offences, and that by two witneſſes or their own confeſſion, the ſaid two juſtices ſhall commit the perſons to gaol for three months and to the next quarter ſeſſions; at which quarter ſeſſions the ſaid perſons, upon their reconciliation and repentance before the juſtices, ſhall be diſcharged, upon ſurety of good behaviour for one year; and if they will not be reconciled and repent, they ſhall be further committed to gaol until they be reconciled and be penitent for the offences. ſ. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.

If any perſons of their own authority reſcue any offender ſo apprehended, or will hinder the ſaid offenders to be apprehended, the ſaid reſcuers or diſturbers ſhall ſuffer like impriſonment, and further ſhall forfeit 5*l.* ſ. 7.

If any of the offenders aforeſaid be not taken immediately, but eſcape, the ſaid eſcape ſhall be preſented at the next quarter ſeſſions, and the inhabitants of the pariſh where the eſcape was ſuffered ſhall forfeit to the queen 5*l.* to be levied as other like amercements have been levied upon any hundred or town for the eſcape of any murderer or other felon, for not making purſuit upon hue and cry. ſ. 8.

Juſtices of peace, juſtices of aſſize, juſtices of oyer and terminer, and all mayors and juſtices of peace within any city or town corporate, ſhall have power to inquire of the offences aforeſaid, and to hear and determine the ſame. ſ. 9.

This act ſhall not take away the juriſdiction of the eccleſiaſtical laws. ſ. 10.

Provided that whatſoever perſon ſhall for any of the offences afore recited receive puniſhment of the ordinary, having teſtimonial thereof under the ordinary's ſeal, ſhall not for the ſame offence be convicted before the juſtices; and in likewiſe receiving puniſhment by the juſtices, he ſhall not for the ſame offence receive puniſhment of the ordinary. ſ. 11.

By 1 Eliz. c. 2. The book of common prayer authoriſed by 5 Edw. 6. cap. 1. with the alterations by this ſtatute, ſhall be in force. ſ. 2.

All miniſters within the queen's dominions ſhall uſe the mattens, evenſong, celebration of the Lord's ſupper, and adminiſtration of each of the ſacraments, and all their common prayer, in ſuch order as is mentioned in the ſaid book, with one alteration of certain leſſons to be uſed every Sunday, and the form of the litany corrected, and two ſentences added in the delivery of the ſacraments to the communicants. ſ. 3.

If any parſon or miniſter refuſe to uſe the ſaid common prayers, or to miniſter the ſacraments, in ſuch order as they be ſet forth in the ſaid book, or ſhall wilfully or obſtinately uſe any other rite or manner of celebrating the Lord's ſupper, or mattens, evenſong, adminiſtration of the ſacraments, or other open prayers, than is ſet forth in the ſaid book, or ſhall preach or ſpeak in derogation or depraving of the ſaid book, or any

any thing therein, and ſhall be thereof convicted by verdict or confeſſion, or by the notorious evidence of the fact; he ſhall forfeit for his firſt offence the profit of all his ſpiritual benefices ariſing in one whole year next after his conviction, and ſuffer impriſonment ſix months. ſ. 4.

If any perſon once convict concerning the premiſes ſhall eftſoons offend, and be thereof convict, he ſhall for his ſecond offence ſuffer impriſonment one year, and be deprived of all his ſpiritual promotions. ſ. 5.

If any ſuch perſon twice convict ſhall offend the third time, and ſhall be thereof convicted, he ſhall be deprived of all his ſpiritual promotions, and ſuffer impriſonment during life. ſ. 6.

If the perſon that ſhall be convict in form aforeſaid ſhall not be beneficed, he ſhall for the firſt offence ſuffer impriſonment. ſ. 7.

If any ſuch perſon, not having ſpiritual promotion, after his firſt conviction ſhall eftſoons offend, and be thereof convicted, he ſhall for his ſecond offence ſuffer impriſonment during life. ſ. 8.

If any perſon ſhall in any interlude, plays, ſongs, rhimes, or by other open words, ſpeak in derogation, depravation, or deſpiſing, of the ſaid book, or of any thing therein; or ſhall by open deed, or by threatenings, procure or maintain any parſon or miniſter to ſing or ſay any common prayer, or to miniſter any ſacrament, otherwiſe than is mentioned in the ſaid book, or that by the ſaid means ſhall unlawfully interrupt any parſon or miniſter to ſing or ſay common prayer, or to miniſter the ſacraments, in ſuch manner as is mentioned in the ſaid book; every ſuch perſon, being convicted in form aboveſaid, ſhall forfeit to the queen for the firſt offence 100 marks. ſ. 9.

If any perſon being once convict of ſuch offence eftſoons offend, and be thereof convicted, he ſhall for the ſecond offence forfeit 400 marks. ſ. 10.

If any perſon, after he ſhall have been twice convict, ſhall offend the third time, and be thereof convict, he ſhall for his third offence forfeit all his goods, and ſuffer impriſonment during life. ſ. 11.

If any perſon, that for his offence ſhall be convict in form aforeſaid, do not pay the ſum within ſix weeks after his conviction, he ſhall, inſtead of the ſaid ſum, ſuffer impriſonment ſix months. ſ. 12.

If any perſon, that for his ſecond offence ſhall be convict, do not pay the ſum within ſix weeks after conviction, he ſhall, inſtead of the ſaid ſum, ſuffer impriſonment twelve months. ſ. 13.

All perſons inhabiting within the queen's dominions ſhall, having no lawful excuſe, endeavour to reſort to their pariſh church or chapel accuſtomed, or upon reaſonable let thereof to ſome uſual place where common prayer and ſuch ſervice of God ſhall be uſed, every Sunday and other holidays, and there abide orderly during the time of common prayer, preachings, or other ſervice of God; upon pain of puniſhment by the cenſures of the church, and alſo upon pain that every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit 12*d.* to be levied by the churchwardens of the pariſh, to the uſe of the poor, by way of diſtreſs. ſ. 14.

All archbiſhops, biſhops, and other ordinaries, ſhall endeavour that the due execution hereof may be had throughout their charges, as they will anſwer before God. ſ. 15.

All archbiſhops, biſhops, and other officers exerciſing eccleſiaſtical juriſdiction, as well in place exempt as not exempt, ſhall have power to puniſh by cenſures of the church, all perſons which ſhall offend within their juriſdiction againſt this act. ſ. 16.

Every juſtice of oyer and terminer, or juſtice of aſſize, ſhall have power to inquire, hear and determine, all offences contrary to this act, and to make proceſs for the execution of the ſame, as againſt any perſon indicted of treſpaſs. ſ. 17.

Every archbiſhop and biſhop may at his pleaſure aſſociate himſelf to the juſtices of oyer and terminer, or juſtices of aſſize, within his dioceſe, for the inquiry, hearing and determining, of the offences aforeſaid. ſ. 18.

No perſon ſhall be moleſted for any offences abovementioned, unleſs he be indicted at the next general ſeſſions of oyer and terminer, or of aſſize. ſ. 20.

Lords of parliament for the third offence ſhall be tried by their peers. ſ. 21.

The mayor of London, and all other mayors and head officers of cities, boroughs, and towns coroporate, to which juſtices of aſſize do not commonly repair, ſhall have power to inquire, hear and determine, the offences aboveſaid, yearly within fifteen days after Eaſter and St. Michael. ſ. 22.

All archbiſhops and biſhops, and their chancellors, commiſſaries, archdeacons, and other ordinaries, having eccleſiaſtical juriſdiction, ſhall have power to inquire in their viſitation, ſynods, and elſewhere within their juriſdiction to take informations of all the things abovementioned committed within their juriſdictions, and puniſh the ſame by admonition, excommunication, ſequeſtration, or deprivation, and other cenſures. ſ. 23.

Whatſoever perſon offending in the premiſes ſhall firſt receive puniſhment of the ordinary, having a teſtimonial thereof under the ordinary's ſeal, ſhall not for the ſame offence be convicted before the juſtices; and likewiſe receiving puniſhment by the juſtices, he ſhall not for the ſame offence receive puniſhment of the ordinary. ſ. 24.

Such ornaments of the church, and the miniſters thereof, ſhall be retained, as was in this church of England, by authority of parliament, in the ſecond year of king Edward VI. until other order be therein taken by authority of the queen, with the advice of her commiſſioners for cauſes eccleſiaſtical, or of the metropolitan. ſ. 25.

If any contempt or irreverence be uſed in the ceremonies of the church, by the miſuſing of the orders appointed in this book; the queen may, by the like advice of the commiſſioners or metropolitan, publiſh ſuch further ceremonies as may be moſt for the advancement of God's glory, the edifying of his church, and the due reverence of Chriſt's holy myſteries and ſacraments. ſ. 26.

All laws, whereby any other ſervice or common prayer is eſtabliſhed within the queen's dominions, ſhall be void. ſ. 27.

By 13 Eliz. c. 12. If any perſon eccleſiaſtical, or which ſhall have eccleſiaſtical living, ſhall adviſedly maintain or affirm any doctrine repugnant to the articles, and being convented before the biſhop or ordinary, ſhall perſiſt therein, or not revoke his error, or after revocation affirm ſuch untrue doctrine; ſuch maintaining and perſiſting ſhall be juſt cauſe to deprive ſuch perſon of his eccleſiaſtical promotions, and it ſhall be lawful to the biſhop or ordinary to deprive ſuch perſon. ſ. 2.

No perſon ſhall be admitted to any benefice with cure, except he be of the age of 23 years at leaſt, and a deacon, and ſhall firſt have ſubſcribed the articles in preſence of the ordinary, and publicly read the ſame in the pariſh church of that benefice, with declaration of his unfeigned aſſent to the ſame. And every perſon to be admitted to a benefice with cure, except that within two months after his induction he publicly read the articles in the church in time of common prayer, with declaration of his unfeigned aſſent thereto, thereto, and be admitted to miniſter the ſacraments within one year after his induction, if he be not ſo admitted before, ſhall be ipſo facto deprived. ſ. 3.

None ſhall be made miniſter, or admitted to preach, or miniſter the ſacraments, being under the age of 24 years; nor unleſs he firſt bring to the biſhop of that dioceſe from men known to the biſhop to be of ſound religion, a teſtimonial both of his honeſt life, and of his profeſſing the doctrine expreſſed in the articles; nor unleſs he be able to render to the ordinary an account of his faith in Latin, according to the articles, or have ſpecial gift or ability to be a preacher; nor ſhall be admitted to the order of deacon or miniſtry, unleſs he ſhall firſt ſubſcribe to the articles. ſ. 5.

None ſhall be admitted to any benefice with cure of the value of 30*l.* yearly in the queen's books, unleſs he be a bachelor of divinity, or a preacher allowed by ſome biſhop within this realm, or by one of the univerſities. ſ. 6.

All admiſſions to benefices, inſtitutions, and inductions, of any perſon contrary to this act, and all diſpenſations to the contrary, ſhall be void. ſ. 7.

Provided that no title to confer by lapſe ſhall accrue upon any deprivation ipſo facto, but after ſix months after notice of ſuch deprivation given by the ordinary to the patron. ſ. 8.

By 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 4. All miniſters in any church or chapel, or other place of public worſhip within England, Wales, and Berwick, ſhall uſe the morning prayer, evening prayer, celebration, and adminiſtration of both the ſacraments, and all other the public and common prayer, in ſuch order as is mentioned in the book annexed to this act, intitled "The Book of Common Prayer, &c." and the morning and evening prayers therein ſhall upon every Lord's day, and upon all other occaſions, and at the times therein appointed, be openly and ſolemnly read by every miniſter or curate in every church, chapel, or other place of public worſhip, within this realm. ſ. 2.

Every perſon who ſhall be put into any eccleſiaſtical benefice ſhall in the church, chapel, or place of public worſhip belonging to his benefice, within two months after he ſhall be in poſſeſſion thereof, upon ſome Lord's day publicly read the morning and evening prayer according to the ſaid book, and after ſuch reading thereof ſhall before the congregation declare his unfeigned aſſent and conſent to the uſe of all things in the ſaid book, in theſe words:

I A. B. do here declare my unfeigned aſſent and conſent to all and every thing contained and preſcribed in and by the book, intitled The book of common prayer, and adminiſtration of the ſacraments, and other rites and ceremonies of the church, according to the uſe of the church of England, together with the pſalter or pſalms of David, pointed as they are to be ſung or ſaid in churches, and the form or manner of making, ordaining, and conſecrating, of biſhops, prieſts, and deacons.

And every ſuch perſon who ſhall (without ſome lawful impediment to be allowed by the ordinary) neglect to do the ſame (or in caſe of ſuch impediment, within on month after ſuch impediment removed) ſhall ipſo facto be deprived of all his eccleſiaſtical benefices. ſ. 6.

In all places where the proper incumbent of any benefice with cure doth reſide and keep a curate, the incumbent himſelf (not having ſome lawful impediment to be allowed by the ordinary) ſhall once at leaſt in every month publicly read the common prayers and ſervice, and (if there be occaſion) adminiſter each of the ſacraments, and other rites of the church, in the pariſh church or chapel, as in in the ſaid book is appointed; upon pain to forfeit 5*l.* to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh, upon conviction by confeſſion or proof of two witneſſes upon oath before two juſtices of peace; and in default of payment within ten days, to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, by warrant of the juſtices, by the churchwardens or overſeers of the poor. ſ. 7.

Every dean, canon, and prebendary, of every cathedral or collegiate church, and all maſters, and heads, fellows, chaplains, and tutors, in any college, hall, houſe of learning, or hoſpital, and every public profeſſor and reader in either of the univerſities, and in every college elſewhere, and every parſon, curate, lecturer, and otner perſon in holy orders, and every ſchool-maſter, and every perſon teaching youth in any houſe or private family as a tutor or ſchool-maſter, ſhall at or before his admiſſion to have poſſeſſion, ſubſcribe the declaration or acknowledgment following: ſ. 8.

I A. B. do declare, that I will conform to the liturgy of the church of England, as it is now by law eſtabliſhed. ſ. 9.

Which declaration ſhall be ſubſcribed by every of the ſaid maſters and heads, fellows, chaplains, and tutors, in any college, hall, or houſe of learning, and by every public profeſſor and reader in either of the univerſities, before the vice-chancellor, or his deputy; and ſhall be ſubſcribed before the archbiſhop, biſhop, or ordinary, of the dioceſe, by every other perſon hereby enjoined the ſame, upon pain that all the perſons aforeſaid failing in ſuch ſubſcription ſhall forfeit ſuch deanry, &c. and ſhall be deprived of the ſame; and ſuch deanry, &c. eccleſiaſtical promotion, curate's place, lecture, and ſchool, ſhall be void. ſ. 10.

If any ſchool-maſter, or other perſon inſtructing youth in any private family as a tutor or ſchool-maſter, ſhall inſtruct any youth as a tutor or ſchool-maſter, before licence obtained from his archbiſhop, biſhop, or ordinary of the dioceſe, according to the laws of this realm (for which he ſhall pay 12*d.* only) and before ſuch ſubſcription made; ſuch ſchool-maſter, &c. ſhall for the firſt offence ſuffer three months impriſonment, and for every other ſuch offence ſhall ſuffer three months impriſonment, and alſo forfeit to his majeſty 5*l.* And after ſuch ſubſcription made, every ſuch parſon, &c. ſhall procure a certificate under the hand and ſeal of the archbiſhop, &c. and ſhall publicly read the ſame, together with the declaration aforeſaid, upon ſome Lord's day within three months next following in his pariſh church, in the preſence of the congregation, in the time of divine ſervice; upon pain that every perſon failing therein ſhall loſe ſuch benefice or place, and ſhall be diſabled, and ipſo facto deprived of the ſame. ſ. 11.

No perſon ſhall be capable to be admitted to any parſonage, vicarage, benefice, or other eccleſiaſtical promotion or dignity, nor ſhall preſume to conſecrate and adminiſter the ſacrament of the Lord's ſupper, before he be ordained prieſt, according to the form in the ſaid book preſcribed, unleſs he have been made prieſt by epiſcopal ordination; upon pain to forfeit 100*l.* one moiety to the king, the other moiety to be divided between the poor of the pariſh and ſuch perſon as ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of his majeſty's courts of record, and to be diſabled from taking the order of prieſt by the ſpace of one year. ſ. 14.

The penalties in this act ſhall not extend to the foreigners of the foreign reformed churches allowed by the king in England, ſ. 15.

Pro-

Provided that no title to confer or preſent by lapſe ſhall accrue by any avoidance or deprivation ipſo facto by this ſtatute, but after ſix months after notice of ſuch voidance given by the ordinary to the patron, or ſuch ſentence of deprivation publicly read in the pariſh church of the benefice becoming void. ſ. 16.

No form of common prayers, adminiſtration of ſacraments, rites or ceremonies, ſhall be openly uſed in any church or public place in any college or hall in the univerſities, the colleges of Weſtminſter, Wincheſter, or Eton, other than what is appointed by the ſaid book; and every governor or head of any the ſaid colleges or halls, within one month next after his election, or collation, and admiſſion, ſhall publicly in the church, chapel, or other public place of the ſame college or hall, and in the preſence of the fellows and ſcholars, or the greater part of them then reſident, ſubſcribe unto the nine and thirty articles of religion, mentioned in the ſtatute 13 Eliz. cap. 12. and unto the ſaid book, and declare his unfeigned aſſent and conſent unto, and approbation of the ſaid articles, and of the ſame book, and to the uſe of all the prayers, rites and ceremonies, forms and orders, in the ſaid book contained, according to the form aforeſaid. And all ſuch governors or heads of colleges and halls, or any of them as ſhall be in holy orders, ſhall once at leaſt in every quarter (not having a lawful impediment) publicly read the morning prayer and ſervice by the ſaid book appointed in the church, chapel, or other public place, of the ſame college or hall; upon pain to be ſuſpended from all the benefits belonging to the ſame government or headſhip ſix months by the viſitor. And if any governor or head of any college or hall ſuſpended for not ſubſcribing, or for not reading of the morning prayer and ſervice as aforeſaid, ſhall not at or before the end of ſix months after ſuch ſuſpenſion ſubſcribe unto the ſaid articles and book, and declare his conſent thereunto as aforeſaid, or read the morning prayer and ſervice, ſuch headſhips ſhall be ipſo facto void. ſ. 17.

Provided that it ſhall be lawful to uſe the morning and evening prayer, and all other ſervice preſcribed in the ſaid book, in the colleges and halls in the univerſities, in the colleges of Weſtminſter, Wincheſter, and Eaton, and in the convocations of the clergy, in Latin. ſ. 18.

No perſon ſhall be a lecturer, or allowed to preach or read any ſermon or lecture in any church, or other place of public worſhip, unleſs he be firſt licenced by the archbiſhop of the province, or biſhop of the dioceſe, or by the guardian of the ſpiritualties, under ſeal, and ſhall in the preſence of the ſame archbiſhop, or biſhop, or guardian, read the thirty-nine articles, with declaration of his unfeigned aſſent to the ſame. And every perſon who ſhall be licenced or received as a lecturer in any church or place of public worſhip, the firſt time he preacheth (before his ſermon) ſhall publicly read the common prayers by the ſaid book appointed to be read for that time, and then publicly declare his aſſent unto, and approbation of, the ſaid book, and to the uſe of all the prayers, rites, and ceremonies, forms, and orders, therein contained and preſcribed, according to the form before appointed; and alſo ſhall upon the firſt lecture day of every month, ſo long as he continues lecturer, before his ſermon, publicly read the common prayers and ſervice in the ſaid book appointed, and after ſuch reading ſhall before the congregation declare his unfeigned aſſent and conſent unto, and approbation of, the ſaid book, &c. and every ſuch perſon who ſhall neglect to do the ſame, ſhall be diſabled to preach any lecture or ſermon in any church, chapel, or place of public worſhip, until he ſhall publicly read the common prayers and ſervice appointed by the ſaid book, and conform in all points to the things therein appointed. ſ. 19.

Provided that if the ſermon or lecture be to be preached or read in any cathedral or collegiate church or chapel, it ſhall be ſufficient for the lecturer, openly at the time aforeſaid, to declare his aſſent and conſent to all things contained in the ſaid book according to the form aforeſaid. ſ. 20.

If any perſon, who is by this act diſabled to preach any ſermon or lecture, ſhall, during the time that he ſhall continue ſo diſabled, preach any ſermon or lecture, he ſhall ſuffer three months impriſonment in the common gaol; and any two juſtices of peace of any county, and the mayor or other chief magiſtrate of any city or town corporate, upon certificate from the ordinary, of the offence committed, ſhall commit the perſon offending to gaol accordingly. ſ. 21.

At all times when any ſermon or lecture is to be preached, the common prayers and ſervice ſhall be publicly read by ſome prieſt or deacon in the church, or place of public worſhip, before ſuch ſermon or lecture be preached, and the lecturer ſhall be preſent at the reading thereof. ſ. 22.

This act ſhall not extend to the univerſity churches, when any ſermon or lecture is preached or read as the public univerſity ſermon or lecture. ſ. 23.

The ſeveral laws now in force for the uniformity of prayer and adminiſtration of the ſacraments, ſhall ſtand in force for the eſtabliſhing and confirming of the ſaid book, and no other. ſ. 24.

Provided that in thoſe prayers, litanies and collects, which relate to the king, queen, or royal progeny, the names be altered and fitted to the preſent occaſion, according to the direction of lawful authority. ſ. 25.

A true printed copy of the ſaid book ſhall at the coſts of the pariſhioners of every pariſh church, &c. be gotten, upon pain of forfeiture of three pounds by the month, for ſo long time as they ſhall be unprovided thereof. ſ. 26.

Provided that the biſhops of Hereford, St. David's, Aſaph, Bangor, and Landaff, ſhall take order among themſelves, that the book be tranſlated into the Britiſh or Welſh tongue; and that the ſame ſo tranſlated, and being by them, or three of them at the leaſt, peruſed, be printed; ſo that one of the ſaid books ſo tranſlated may be had for every cathedral, collegiate and pariſh church and chapel of eaſe in Wales, where the Welſh is commonly ſpoken: and the whole divine ſervice ſhall be uſed by the miniſters throughout Wales, where the Welſh tongue is commonly uſed, in the Britiſh or Welſh tongue: for which book ſo tranſlated, the churchwardens ſhall pay out of the pariſh money; and the ſaid biſhops, or three of them, ſhall ſet the price, for which the ſaid book ſhall be ſold: and one other book of common prayer in the Engliſh tongue, ſhall be in every church throughout Wales, and remain in ſuch convenient places within the churches, that ſuch as underſtand them may reſort to read the ſame. ſ. 27.

The deans and chapters of every cathedral or collegiate church, ſhall obtain, under the great ſeal, a printed copy of this act, and of the ſaid book annexed hereunto, to be by the ſaid deans and chapters preſerved for ever, and to be produced in any court of record, as often as they ſhall be lawfully required. And there ſhall be delivered copies of this act, and of the ſame book, into the courts at Weſtminſter, and into the tower of London, to be kept among the records, to be alſo produced as need ſhall require. Which books ſhall be as good records as this book hereunto annexed. ſ. 28.

This act ſhall not be prejudicial to the king's profeſſor of the law in Oxford, concerning the prebend of Shipton, within within the cathedral church of Sarum, annexed to the place of the king's profeſſor. ſ. 29.

All ſubſcriptions to the articles ſhall be applied (touching the ſixth and thirtieth article) unto the book of ordaining and conſecrating of biſhops, prieſts, and deacons, in this act mentioned. ſ. 30.

By 15 Car. 2. c. 6. Every ſubſcription to be made before any vicar general or chancellor to any archbiſhop or biſhop, or commiſſary to the archbiſhop of Canterbury, or any other biſhop, ſhall be as effectual as if the ſame had been made before the archbiſhop or biſhop. ſ. 5.

The penalties by the act 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 4. inflicted upon any perſon diſabled by the ſaid act, to preach, for any offence againſt the ſaid act, ſhall in like manner be inflicted on every perſon ſo offending, that is prohibited by the ſaid act to preach. ſ. 7.

By 5 Ann. c. 5. The act 13 Eliz. c. 12., and 13 Car. 2. c. 4. for the uniformity of public prayers, &c. (other than ſuch clauſes as have been repealed or altered by ſubſequent acts of parliament) and all other acts of parliament now in force for the eſtabliſhment and preſervation of the church of England, and the doctrine, worſhip, diſcipline and government thereof, ſhall be in force for ever. ſ. 1.

Every king or queen ſucceeding to the royal government of the kingdom of Great Britain, at his or her coronation, ſhall, in the preſence of all perſons attending, aſſiſting, or then and there preſent, take and ſubſcribe an oath, to maintain and preſerve inviolably the ſaid ſettlement of the church of England, and the doctrine, worſhip, diſcipline and government thereof, as by law eſtabliſhed within the kingdoms of England and Ireland, the dominion of Wales, and town of Berwick, and the territories thereunto belonging. ſ. 2.

This act ſhall for ever be a fundamental and eſſential part of any treaty of union to be concluded between the two kingdoms of England and Scotland, and ſhall be inſerted in expreſs terms in any act of parliament for ſettling and ratifying any ſuch treaty of union, and ſhall be therein declared to be an eſſential and fundamental part thereof. ſ. 3.—Inſerted in the Act of Union, 5 Ann. c. 8. in SCOTLAND.

By 23 Geo. 2. c. 28. Every allowance of any lawful impediment already given or hereafter to be given in purſuance of the 13 and 14 Car. 2. c. 4. ſ. 6. by any archbiſhop, biſhop, or ordinary, to any perſon for not reading in the church or place of public worſhip belonging to his benefice, within two months after he is in poſſeſſion of the ſaid benefice, on ſome Lord's day publicly the morning and evening prayers according to the book of common prayer, and for not publicly declaring his aſſent to the uſe of all things therein contained and preſcribed, ſhall extend to the not reading the certificate and declaration in the 8th, 9th, and 11th ſections of the ſaid act mentioned, although the ſame be not mentioned in the ſaid allowance, for the like time as the ſaid allowance extends to. ſ. 1.

Every perſon who hath read or ſhall read the articles mentioned in 13 Eliz. c. 12. and hath made or ſhall make the ſaid declaration, at the ſame time that he did read or ſhall read the morning and evening prayer, and declare his aſſent to the uſe of all things therein contained and preſcribed, according to the directions of 13 and 14 Car. 2. c. 4. ſhall be adjudged to have complied with the meaning of the 13 Eliz. c. 12. although the ſame were not or may not be read within two months after ſuch perſon's induction into any benefice with cure; and every ſuch perſon ſhall be diſcharged from any deprivation, or other forfeiture by virtue of the ſaid act. ſ. 2.

This act ſhall not reſtore any perſon to any parſonage, vicarage, or benefice, curate's place, or lecturer's place, which for want of reading ſuch certificate and declaration within the time directed by 13 and 14 Car. 2. c. 4. or of reading the ſaid articles and declaration concerning the ſame, according to 13 El. c. 12. hath been forfeited and is already filled up. ſ. 3. — See NONCONFORMISTS, OATHS.

Sewers.

By 6 Hen. 6. c. 5. During 10 years, commiſſions of ſewers ſhall be made by the chancellor, to be ſent into all parts of the realm, where ſhall be needful, according to the form in this act.

The form ſet down in this ſtatute is not uſed, ſince another form is appointed by 23 Hen. 8. c. 5. which includes all the powers mentioned in the form of the commiſſion appointed by this act; except that by this commiſſion power is given to the commiſſioners, if need be, to ſtop up the trenches of freſh water deſcending to the ſea; which power is not granted in expreſs words by the latter ſtatute 23 Hen. c. 5. Made perpetual 6 Hen. 8. c. 10.

By 8 Hen. 6. c. 3. Commiſſioners of ſewers ſhall have power to ordain and execute the ordinances and other affairs, to be made according to the purport of the commiſſions.

By 6 Hen. 8. c. 10. The act 6 Hen. 6. c. 5. and all other authorities concerning commiſſioners of ſewers, ſhall endure for ever; and the chancellor ſhall have power to grant commiſſions of ſewers to perſons named by the chancellor. ſ. 1.

The chancellor ſhall make no commiſſion to any perſon for the execution of this act, except he have lands of freehold to the yearly value of 20*l.* or be juſtice of quorum learned, within the ſhires. ſ. 2.

If ſuch commiſſion be directed to any perſon not having lands, &c. or not being juſtice of the quorum; ſuch commiſſion, and all preſentments before ſuch commiſſioners, ſhall be void. ſ. 3. This act to endure 10 years, &c. Qu. Whether this act is not revived and made perpetual by 23 Hen. 8. c. 5. ſ. 6.

By 23 Hen. 8. c. 5. Commiſſions of ſewers ſhall be directed in all parts within this realm, where need ſhall require, according to the form enſuing, to ſuch ſubſtantial perſons as ſhall be named by the lord chancellor and lord treaſurer, and the two chief juſtices, or by three of them, whereof the lord chancellor to be one. ſ. 1.

Henry the eighth, &c. know ye, that foraſmuch as the walls, ditches, banks, gutters, ſewers, gotes, calcies, bridges, ſtreams, and other defences, by the coaſts of the ſea, and marſh ground, being and lying within the limits of A. B. or C. in the county or counties of ——— or in the borders or confines of the ſame, by rage of the ſea flowing and reflowing, and by mean of the trenches of freſh waters deſcending and having courſe by divers ways to the ſea, be ſo dirupt, lacerate, and broken; and alſo the common paſſages of ſhips, balengers, and boats, in the rivers, ſtreams, and other floods, within the limits of A. &c. in the county or counties of ——— or in the borders or confines of the ſame, by mean of ſetting up, erecting, and making, of ſtreams, mills, bridges, ponds, fiſh-garths, mill-dams, locks, hebbing wears, hecks, flood-gates, or other like lets, impediments or annoyances, be letted or interrupted, ſo that great and ineſtimable damage for default of reparation of the ſaid walls, ditches, banks, fences, ſewers, gotes, gutters, calcies, bridges, and ſtreams; and alſo by mean of ſetting up, erecting, making, and enlarging of the ſaid fiſh-garths, &c. and other like annoyances in times paſt hath happened, and yet is to be feared, that far greater hurt, loſs, and damage, is like to enſue, unleſs that ſpeedy remedy be provided in that behalf. ſ. 2.

We therefore, for that by reaſon of our dignity and prerogative royal we be bound to provide for the ſafety and preſervation of our realm of England, willing that ſpeedy remedy be had in the premiſes, have aſſigned you, and ſix of you, of the which we will that A. B. and C. ſhall be three, to be our juſtices to ſurvey the ſaid walls, ſtreams, ditches, banks, gutters, ſewers, gotes, calcies, bridges, trenches, mills, mill-dams, flood-gates, ponds, locks, hebbing-wears, and other impediments, lets, and annoyances, and the ſame cauſe to be made, corrected, repaired, amended, put down, or reformed after your wiſdoms and diſcretions: and therein as well to ordain and do, after the form, tenor, and effect, of all and ſingular the ſtatutes and ordinances made before the 1ſt day of March in the 23d year of our reign, touching the premiſes, or any of them, as alſo to inquire by the oaths of the honeſt and lawful men of the ſhire or ſhires, place or places, where ſuch defaults or annoyances be, as well within the liberties as without (by whom the truth may the rather be known) through whoſe default the hurts and damages have happened, and who hath or holdeth any lands or tenements, or common paſture, or profit of fiſhing, or hath or may have any hurt or diſadvantage by any manner of means in the ſaid places, as well near to the dangers, lets, and impediments, as inhabiting or dwelling thereabouts, by the walls, ditches, banks, gutters, gotes, ſewers, trenches, and other impedimeots, and all thoſe perſons, and every of them, to tax, aſſeſs, charge, diſtrain, and puniſh, as well within the metes, limits, and bounds, of old time accuſtomed, or elſewhere within our realm of England, after the quantity of their lands, tenements, and rents, by the number of acres and perches, after the rate of every perſon's portion, tenure, or profit, or after the quantity of their common of paſture, or profit of fiſhing, or other commodities there, by ſuch ways and means, and in ſuch manner and form, as to you, or ſix of you, whereof A. B. and C. to be three, ſhall ſeem moſt convenient to be ordained and done, for redreſs and reformation to be had in the premiſes: and to reform, repair, and amend, the walls, ditches, banks, gutters, ſewers, gotes, calcies, bridges, ſtreams, and other the premiſes, in all places needful; as often, and where need ſhall be, to make new; and to cleanſe and purge the trenches, ſewers and ditches, in all places neceſſary; and further, to reform, amend, proſtrate, and overthrow, all mills, ſtreams, pond, locks, fiſh-garths, hebbing-wears, and other impediments and annoyances, as ſhall be found by inquiſition, or by your ſurveying to be exceſſive or hurtful; and to depute and aſſign diligent, faithful, and true keepers, bailiffs, ſurveyors, collectors, expenditors, and other miniſters and officers, for the ſafety, conſervation, reparation, reformation, and making of the premiſes, and every of them; and to hear the account of the collectors and other miniſters of and for the receipt and laying out of the money that ſhall be levied and paid, in and about the making, repairing, reforming, and amending of the walls, ditches, banks, gutters, gotes, ſewers, calcies, bridges, ſtreams, trenches, mills, ponds, locks, fiſh-garths, flood-gates, and other impediments and annoyances, and to diſtrain for the arrearges of every ſuch collection, tax, and aſſeſs, as often as ſhall be expedient, or puniſh the debtors and detainers of the ſame by fines, amerciaments, pains or other like means, after your good diſcretions; and to arreſt and take as many carts, horſes, oxen, beaſts, and other inſtruments neceſſary, and as many workmen and labourers, as for the works and reparation ſhall ſuffice, paying for the ſame competent wages, in that behalf; and alſo take as many trees, woods, underwoods, and timber, and other neceſſaries, as for the works and reparations ſhall be ſufficient, at a reaſonable price by you, or ſix of you, of the which we will that A. B. and C. ſhall be three, to be aſſeſſed or limited, as well within the limits and bounds aforeſaid, as in any other place within the ſaid county or counties, near unto the ſaid places; and to make and ordain ſtatutes, ordinances, and proviſions, from time to time, as the caſe ſhall require, for the ſafeguard, conſervation, redreſs, correction, and reformation, of the premiſes, and of every of them, and the parts lying to the ſame neceſſary and behooful, after the laws and cuſtoms of Romney-marſh in the county of Kent, or by any ways or means, after your own wiſdoms and diſcretions; and to hear and determine all and ſingular the premiſes, as well at our ſuit, as of any other whatſoever complaining before you, or ſix of you, whereof A. B. and C. ſhall be three, after the laws and cuſtoms aforeſaid, or by any other ways and means after your diſcretions; and to make and direct all writs, precepts, warrants, or other commandments, by virtue of theſe preſents, to all ſheriffs, bailiffs, and all other miniſters, officers, and other perſons, as well within liberties as without, before you, or ſix of you, whereof A. B. and C. to be three, at certain days, terms, and places to be prefixed, to be returned and received; and further to continue the proceſs of the ſame, and finally to do all and every thing and things, as ſhall be requiſite for the due execution of the premiſes, by all ways and means after your diſcretions; and therefore we command you, that at certain days and places, when and where ye, or ſix of you, whereof A. B. and C. to be three, ſhall think expedient, ye do ſurvey the walls, fenſes, ditches, banks, gutters, gotes, ſewers, calcies, ponds, bridges, rivers, ſtreams, water-courſes, mills, locks, trenches, fiſh-garths, flood-gates, and other lets, impediments, and annoyances, and accompliſh, fulfil, hear, and determine, all and ſingular the premiſes, in due form, and to the effect aforeſaid, after your good diſcretions; and all ſuch as ye ſhall find negligent, gainſaying, or rebelling, in the works, reparations, or reformations of the premiſes, or negligent in the due execution of this our commiſſion, that ye do compel them by diſtreſs, fines, and amerciaments, or by other puniſhments, ways, or means, which to you, or ſix of you, whereof A. B. and C. ſhall be three, ſhall ſeem moſt expedient for the ſpeedy remedy, redreſs, and reformation, of the premiſes, and due execution of the ſame; and all ſuch things as by you ſhall be made and ordained in this behalf, as well within liberties as without, that ye do cauſe the ſame firmly to be obſerved, doing therein as to our juſtice appertaineth, after the laws and ſtatutes of this our realm, and according to your wiſdoms and diſcretions. ſ. 3.

Saved always to us ſuch fines and amerciaments, as to us thereof ſhall belong. And we alſo command our ſheriff or ſheriffs of our ſaid county or counties of ——— that they ſhall cauſe to come before you, or ſix of you, of the which A. B. and C. ſhall be three, at ſuch days and places, as ye ſhall appoint to them, ſuch and as many honeſt men, of his or their bailiwick, as well within the liberties as without, by whom the truth may beſt be known, to inquire of the premiſes; commanding all other miniſters and officers, as well within liberties as without, that they and every of them ſhall be attendant to you in and about the due execution of this our commiſſion. In witneſs whereof we have cauſed theſe our letters patent to be made. Witneſs our ſelf at Weſtminſter, the ——— day of ——— in the ——— year of our reign. ſ. 4.

by

Every ſuch commiſſioner, after he hath knowledge thereof, ſhall put his diligence about the execution of the ſaid commiſſion. And before he ſhall take upon him the execution of the ſaid commiſſion, he ſhall take an oath before the lord chancellor, or ſuch to whom the chancellor ſhall direct the writ of dedimus poteſtatem, or before the juſtices of peace in the quarter ſeſſions, the tenor of which oath enſueth:

Ye ſhall ſwear, that you to your cunning, wit, and power, ſhall truly and indifferently execute the authority to you given by this commiſſion of ſewers, without any favour, affection, corruption, dread, or malice, to be born to any manner of perſon or perſons: and as the caſe ſhall require, ye ſhall conſent, and endeavour yourſelf, for your part, to the beſt of your knowledge and power, to the making of ſuch wholeſome, juſt, equal, and indifferent laws and ordinances, as ſhall be made and deviſed by the moſt diſcreet and indifferent number of your fellows being in commiſſion with you for the due redreſs, reformation, and amendment of all and every ſuch things as are contained and ſpecified in the ſaid commiſſion; and the ſame laws and ordinances to your cunning, wit, and power, cauſe to be put in due execution, without favour, meed, dread, malice, or affection; as God you help. ſ. 5.

Every ſtatute heretofore made concerning the premiſes, not being contrary to this act, nor heretofore repealed, ſhall ſtand for ever. ſ. 6.

The commiſſioners named in the ſaid commiſſions, have power to make laws and decrees, and to do every thing mentioned in the commiſſion; and the ſame laws to reform and make new. ſ. 7.

If any perſons aſſeſſed for any lands within the limits of any commiſſion, do not pay according to the ordinance of the commiſſioners, by reaſon whereof the commiſſioners for lack of payment, ſhall decree the lands from the owners thereof and their heirs, to any perſon for term of years, term of life, in fee-ſimple, or in tail, for payment of the ſame lot; every ſuch decree, engroſſed in parchment, ſhall bind all perſons that at the making of the ſame decree had any intereſt in ſuch lands; and not to be reformed, unleſs by authority of parliament. ſ. 8.

The ſame laws and decrees ſhall bind, as well the lands of the king as all other perſons. ſ. 9.

If any perſon take upon him to ſit by virtue of the ſaid commiſſions, not being ſworn in form aforeſaid; or if any perſon ſit as aforeſaid, not having lands for term of life to the yearly value of 40 marks, except he be reſiant and free of any city, borough, or town corporate, and have moveable ſubſtance of the value of 100 l. or elſe be learned in the laws, viz. admitted in one of the four inns of court for an utter barriſter, he ſhall forfeit 40 l. for every time, the one half to the king, and the other half to the uſe of him that will ſue. ſ. 10.

If any action ſhall be attempted for taking any diſtreſs, or any other act doing, by authority of the commiſſion, the defendant may make avowry, conuſance, or juſtification, alleging, that the ſaid diſtreſs or other act, whereof the plaintiff complaineth, was done by the authority of the commiſſion of ſewers for lot or tax aſſeſſed by the ſaid commiſſion, or for ſuch other act or cauſe as the ſaid defendant did, by authority of the ſame commiſſion, and according to the tenor, purport, and effect, of the act, without expreſſing any other circumſtance; whereupon the plaintiff ſhall be admitted to reply, that the defendant did take the ſaid diſtreſs, or did any other act ſuppoſed in his declaration, of his own wrong, without any ſuch cauſe alleged by the defendant; whereupon the iſſue ſhall be joined to be tried by verdict. ſ. 11.

After ſuch iſſue tried for the defendant, or nonſuit of the plaintiff after appearance, the defendant ſhall recover treble damages, by reaſon of his wrongful vexation, with his coſts; and that to be aſſeſſed by the ſame jury, or writ to inquire, as the cauſe ſhall require. ſ. 12.

Every of the commiſſioners ſhall have 4 s. for every day that they ſhall take pain in the execution of this commiſſion, and one clerk by them to be aſſigned, 2 s. for every day, of the rates aſſeſſed by authority of the ſaid comiſſion; and the ſaid commiſſioners, or ſix of them, ſhall have power to limit of the ſame rates, reaſonable ſums to the clerk, for writing of books and proceſs, and to the collectors, expenditors, and other. ſ. 13.

When ſuch commiſſion ſhall be made for the amendment of the premiſes within the duchy of Lancaſter; ſuch commiſſioner ſhall be appointed by the lord chancellor and lord treaſurer, and the two chief juſtices, and the chancellor of the duchy, or three of them, whereof the lord chancellor and the chancellor of the duchy to be two; and two commiſſions ſhall be awarded, one under the great ſeal, and the other under the ſeal of the duchy. ſ. 14.

The ſaid commiſſions ſhall be had without charge; unleſs to the king, 2 s. 6 d. for the ſeal; and for the writing and enrolling of any commiſſion, 5 s. ſ. 15.

After any commiſſion made, the king ſhall at his pleaſure, by ſuperſedeas out of chancery, diſcharge as well every ſuch commiſſion, as every commiſſioner named by authority of this act. ſ. 16.

When ſuch commiſſion ſhall be made for amendment of the premiſes within the principality of Wales, the county palatine of Cheſter, or within any other place where there is juriſdiction of county palatine; two commiſſions ſhall be made, one under the great ſeal, and the other under the county palatine. ſ. 18.

Provided that the chancellors, and ſuch other as ſhall have the cuſtody of the ſeals of the principality of Wales, or the county palatine of Cheſter, or of any other place where there is liberty of county palatine, upon reaſonable requeſt and upon ſight of the commiſſion under the great ſeal, ſhall make out another commiſſion under the ſeal of the county palatine, according to the tenor of the king's commiſſion under his great ſeal. ſ. 20.—Made perpetual 3 & 4 Edw. 6. c. 8.

By 25 Hen. 8. c. 10. No perſon ſhall be compelled to be ſworn, or to ſit in execution of any commiſſion of ſewers, unleſs he be dwelling within the county whereof he ſhall be aſſigned commiſſioner. ſ. 1.

If any perſon aſſigned commiſſioner of ſewers, be required by ſuch as have authority, to receive the oath, every perſon that refuſeth to take the ſame oath, and that refuſal returned into chancery, ſhall forfeit for the contempt five marks, and ſo from time to time; unleſs he in the chancery ſhew, in the term wherein ſuch return ſhall be made againſt him, ſufficient cauſe to be allowed by the lord chancellor for his excuſe. ſ. 2.

By 3 & 4 Edw. 6. c. 8. All ſcots, lots, and ſums of money, to be rated by virtue of ſuch commiſſion of ſewers, upon any the lands of the king, ſhall be levied by diſtreſs or otherwiſe, in like manner as in the lands of any other perſon. And all bills of acquittance of ſuch receiver as ſhall have the collection thereof, ſhall be a ſufficient diſcharge to the tenants; as alſo a ſufficient warrant to all receivers, auditors, and other officers of the king, for the allowance to ſuch tenant for the ſame. Moreover, ſuch fees, and none other, ſhall be paid for any commiſſion or dedimus poteſtatem under the ſeal of the duchy, as mentioned in the former act to be paid in the chancery. ſ. 2.

By 1 Mar. ſt. 3. c. 11. As well the act of ſewers, 23 Hen. 8. c. 5. may extend and give authority, that the commiſſioners for the county of Glamorgan ſhall have power to make ſuch laws and decrees, for ſaving the grounds from hurt by ſands ariſing out of the ſea and driven to land by winds, as they may for the withſtanding of the rage of the ſea or other waters. ſ. 3.

By 13 Eliz. c. 9. Every commiſſion of ſewers ſhall continue in force for 10 years next enſuing the date of ſuch commiſſion, unleſs the ſame be repealed or determined by any new commiſſion, or by ſuperſedeas. And all ſuch laws as ſhall be made by force of any ſuch commiſſion, written in parchment, indented, and under the ſeals of the commiſſioners, or ſix of them (whereof the one part ſhall remain with the clerk, and the other part in ſuch place as the commiſſioners ſhall appoint), ſhall, without any certificate made into chancery, and without the royal aſſent, continue in force, notwithſtanding any determination of ſuch commiſſion by ſuperſedeas, until ſuch time as the ſame laws ſhall be altered or repealed by the commiſſioners. ſ. 1.

After the expiration of 10 years next enſuing the date of the teſte of any commiſſion of ſewers, all ſuch laws as were made by virtue of ſuch commiſſion, and written in parchment, &c. ſhall continue in force for one year then next enſuing; and the juſtices of peace, or ſix of them, whereof two to be of the quorum, ſhall have power to execute the ſame. ſ. 2.

Provided, that if any new commiſſion of ſewers ſhall be made within the ſaid year, the power of the juſtices of peace, concerning the execution of ſuch laws, ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 3.

No farmer for years, of any lands within the limits of any ſuch commiſſion of ſewers, which may be chargeable by any laws to be made by virtue of ſuch commiſſion, wherein he ſhall be named commiſſioner, not having eſtate of freehold within England, of lands or tenements of the yearly value of 40 l., ſhall have power to ſit or intermeddle with the execution of ſuch commiſſion, during the time he ſhall continue farmer of any ſuch lands. ſ. 4.

The ſaid commiſſioners ſhall not be compelled to make any certificate or return of the ſaid commiſſions, or of any their laws or doings, by authority of the ſaid commiſſions; nor ſhall have any fine or amerciament ſet upon them, or be moleſted for that cauſe. ſ. 5.

The clerks appointed for ſuch commiſſions of ſewers ſhall yearly eſtreat all the iſſues, fines, penalties, and amerciaments, that ſhall be due to her highneſs, into the exchequer, at ſuch time as juſtices of peace ought to do; upon pain to forfeit to the queen for every default 5 l. ſ. 6.

It ſhall be lawful for any commiſſioner, being alſo a farmer, and not having lands to the yearly value of 40 l. of freehold, to ſit by virtue of the ſaid commiſſion, and have his voice concerning all lands within the precinct of ſuch commiſſion, other than ſuch lands as he ſhall hold as farmer, as he might have done before this ſtatute. ſ. 7.

By 7 Ann. c. 10. It ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners of ſewers, for non-payment of any lot or charge aſſeſſed upon any copyhold or cuſtomary lands within the limits of their commiſſion, to decree the ſaid copyhold lands from the owners, to any perſon for ſuch eſtate, as the owners thereof, or any claiming in remainder under them, at the time of ſuch decree made, had in the ſame. ſ. 1.

Provided that all perſons, to whom any ſuch ſale of copyhold lands ſhall be made, ſhall before they enter or take any profit, agree with the lords of the manors for ſuch fines as hath been moſt uſual to be paid, and upon ſuch agreement the lords at the next court ſhall not only grant to ſuch vendees, upon requeſt, the ſame copyhold lands by copy of court-roll for ſuch eſtate as to them ſhall be decreed, reſerving the ancient rents, cuſtoms, and ſervices, but alſo ſhall in the ſame court admit them tenants. ſ. 2.

It ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners of ſewers, by warrant, to give authority to levy the money by them aſſeſſed upon the lands chargeable, by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of perſons that ſhall not pay. ſ. 3.

Sheep.

By 25 Hen. 8. c. 13. No perſon ſhall keep or have above the number of 2000 ſheep at one time within this realm, upon pain to forfeit for every ſheep above the number, 3*s.* 4*d.* the one half to the king, and the other to ſuch as will ſue, &c. ſ. 1.

Provided that lambs ſhall not be accounted of the number, ſo long as they be under the age of a year. ſ. 2.

Provided alſo, that if any perſon having ſheep of his own, happen to be made executor or adminiſtrator to any perſon which had ſheep at his death, or happen to be married to any perſon which ſhall have ſheep, the perſon ſo advanced to loſe no penalty for having above the number by ſuch means, ſo that within one year next, the perſon ſo advanced, diſpoſe of ſo many of the ſheep, that he ſhall not have more than is before limited. ſ. 3.

Provided alſo, that if any perſon by his will give to any child within age, any number of ſheep, and appoint them to be kept unto ſuch time as the child ſhall come to a certain age, the ſheep ſo being in the poſſeſſion of any perſon to the uſe of ſuch child, ſhall not be accounted of the number prohibited by this act. ſ. 4.

The juſtices of peace ſhall have power to inquire of the offenders, as well by the oaths of 12 men, as by information, and to make ſuch proceſs upon every preſentment or information concerning this act, as upon preſentments of treſpaſs; and no perſon convict by this act ſhall be put to any leſs fine than after the rates afore limited. ſ. 5.

Provided that no perſon be put to anſwer by any original writ of debt or information, except the ſuit be commenced within one year after the offence contrary to this act; nor ſhall any perſon be put to anſwer by this act at the king's ſuit, except the preſentment, &c. be made within three years after the offence. ſ. 6.

Provided that all perſons which ſhall be ſeiſed of inheritance, or ſhall have jointure, or be tenant in dower, or by the courteſy, of any lands, paſtures, feedings, or liberty of foldage, may have upon their own demeſne lands, and other their paſtures, feedings, and foldcourſes, as many their

their own ſheep and lambs as they might have had before this act.

In caſe any ſuch perſons keep upon their poſſeſſions the number of 2000 ſheep, the ſame perſons ſhall not keep any ſheep beſide the ſaid number upon any lands or feedings which they ſhall have otherwiſe; and in caſe the ſaid demeſne lands, feedings, and liberties, ſuffice not for keeping 2000 ſheep, every ſuch perſon ſhall feed upon his ſaid demeſne lands, and upon his farm holds, to the number of 2000 ſheep and not above, upon pain of forfeiture for every ſheep above that number, 3 s. 4 d. ſ. 8.

It ſhall be lawful to every perſon keeping a houſehold, to have ſuch convenient number of ſheep, over and above the number in this act, as ſhall be neceſſary for the expences of his houſehold, to be kept upon his own lands, or other lands, ſuch as he lawfully can provide; ſo that he have not for the expences of his houſehold any number more than ſhall ſuffice for the expences of his houſehold for one year. ſ. 9.

No perſon being owner or farmer of any liberty or foldcourſes, within Norfolk and Suffolk, ſhall take in farm any quillets of lands or paſtures, viz. any number of acres appertaining to any other perſon lying within the limit of the liberty of foldcourſes, but that they ſhall permit the owners or leſſees of the ſaid quillets to manure and paſture the ſaid quillets, and alſo ſuffer the ſheep of the owners or farmers of the ſaid quillets, after the rate of the ſame quillets, to go with the flock of the owner or occupier of the liberty of foldcourſe, paying the cuſtomary charges for the keeping and feeding of the ſame, upon pain of forfeiture for every time that any perſon having ſuch quillet, ſhall be diſturbed of feeding his ſheep, after the rate of his quillet, for every ſheep 3 s. 4 d. ſ. 10.

Provided that this act ſhall not be available to any owner or occupier of ſuch quillets, to claim paſture of feeding of ſheep in ſuch foldcourſes, but only where the owners and occupiers of ſuch quillets have uſed to have ſuch paſture and feeding in the ſaid foldcourſes by reaſon of their occupations of the ſame quillets; and where they have not uſed to have any ſheep kept within ſuch foldcourſes, the owners or occupiers of ſuch foldcourſes may take ſuch quillets lying within their foldcourſes in farm, agreeing with the owners or occupiers of the quillets for the ſame. ſ. 11.

The number of 2000 ſheep, limited by this act, ſhall be accounted ten hundred for every 1000 after the great hundred, ſo that every 1000 ſhall contain 1200 after the leſs hundred. ſ. 12.

Lambs under the age of one year, and as much as ſhall be from the time of the falling of them, unto the feaſt of St. John Baptiſt, ſhall not be taken for ſheep prohibited by the ſtatute. ſ. 13..

No perſon ſhall take to farm for term of life, years, or at will, by indenture, copy of court roll, or otherwiſe, any more houſes and tenements of huſbandry, whereunto lands are belonging, in town, village, hamlet, or tithing, above the number of two ſuch holds; and no perſon ſhall have any ſuch holds to the number of two, except he be dwelling within the pariſhes where ſuch holds be; upon the pain of forfeiture for every week 3 s. 4 d., the one moiety to the king, and the other moiety to the party that will ſue for the ſame in any of the king's courts within one year after ſuch offence committed. ſ. 14.

It may be lawful to all ſpiritual perſons to keep as many ſheep upon their own lands as they might have done afore this act. ſ. 16.

By 14 Geo. 2. c. 6. If any perſon felonioufly drive away, or felonioufly ſteal, one or more ſheep or other cattle of any other perſon, or wilfully kill one or more ſheep or other cattle of any other perſon, with a felonious intent to ſteal the carcaſe or any part of it, or aſſiſt any perſon to commit any ſuch offence, the perſon guilty of any ſuch offence, ſhall be adjudged guilty of felony, and ſuffer death as in caſes of felony, without benefit of clergy. ſ. 1.

Every perſon who ſhall apprehend and proſecute to conviction any offender guilty of the offences before mentioned, ſhall receive as a reward upon every conviction 10 l., to be paid within one month after ſuch conviction by the ſheriff of the county where ſuch offence is committed, without any deduction; the perſon apprehending ſuch offender tendering a certificate to the ſheriff, ſigned by the judge before whom ſuch offender is convicted, certifying ſuch conviction, and where the offence was committed, and that ſuch offender was apprehended and proſecuted by the perſon claiming the reward; which certificate the ſaid judge is to ſign before the end of the ſeſſions or aſſizes at which ſuch conviction is; and in ſuch certificate ſhall direct, in caſe more than one perſon claim the ſaid reward, what ſhare thereof ſhall be paid to each claimant; and if any ſuch ſheriff die or be removed, before the expiration of one month after ſuch conviction, and demand made of the ſaid reward (the ſame not being paid) then the next ſucceeding ſheriff ſhall pay the ſame within one month after demand and certificate made as aforeſaid; and if default of payment be made by any ſheriff, ſuch ſheriff ſhall forfeit to the perſon to whom ſuch money is due, double the ſum he ought to have paid; to be recovered by him or his executors, or adminiſtrators, in any court of record at Weſtminſter, with treble coſts of ſuit. ſ. 2.

All ſheriffs, their executors, and adminiſtrators, upon producing ſuch certificates and the receipts for the monies paid, ſhall be allowed upon their account all monies, other than double the ſums of money, and treble coſts of ſuit, which they diſburſe as aforeſaid; and if, upon account of any ſheriff, there be not money ſufficient in his hands to reimburſe him, then he ſhall be repaid by the commiſſioners of the treaſury, out of the revenue of the crown, upon certificate from the clerk of the pipe. ſ. 3.

By 15 Geo. 2. c. 34. The act 14 Geo. 2. c. 6. ſhall extend to any bull, cow, ox, ſteer, bullock, heifer, calf, and lamb, as well as ſheep, and to no other cattle.

Sheriffs.

Stat. Weſtm. 2. 13 Edw. 1. c. 39. Such as fear the malice of ſheriffs ſhall deliver their writs in the open country, or in the county where the collection of the king's money is; and may take of the ſheriff or under-ſheriff a bill, wherein the names of the demandants and tenants ſhall be contained, and at the requeſt of him that delivered the writ, the ſeal of the ſheriff ſhall be put to the bill, and mention ſhall be made of the day of the delivery of the writ; and if the ſheriff will not put his ſeal to the bill, the witneſs of knights, and other credible perſons in preſence, ſhall be taken, that put their ſeals to ſuch bill. And if the ſheriff will not return writs delivered, and complaint be made to the juſtices, a writ judicial ſhall go unto the juſtices aſſigned to take aſſizes, that they ſhall inquire by ſuch as were preſent at the delivery of the writ, if they knew of the deliverance, and an inqueſt ſhall be returned; and if it be be found that the writ was delivered to him, damages ſhall be awarded to the plaintiff or demandant; and by this means there ſhall be remedy when the ſheriff returneth, that the writ came ſo late that he could not execute the king's command. Alſo the treaſurer and barons of the exchequer, ſhall deliver to the juſtices in a roll, all the liberties in all ſhires that have return of writs: and if the ſheriff anſwer, that he hath made return to a bailiff of another liberty than is contained in the roll, the ſheriff ſhall be puniſhed as a diſheritor of the crown; and if he return, that he hath delivered the writ to a bailiff of ſome liberty that hath return, the ſheriff ſhall be commanded, that he do not ſpare for the aforeſaid liberty, but ſhall execute the king's precept; and that he do the bailiffs to wit, to whom he returned the writ, that they be ready at a day to anſwer why they did not execute the king's precept: and if they come at the day, and acquit themſelves, that no return was made to them, the ſheriff ſhall be condemned to the lord of the liberty, and likewiſe to the party grieved, to render damages; and if the bailiffs come not at the day, or do come, and do not acquit themſelves in manner aforeſaid, in every judicial writ, ſo long as the plea hangeth, the ſheriff ſhall be commanded that he omit not for the liberty, &c. Touching the article quod de exitibus, &c. if the plaintiff demand hearing of the ſheriff's return, it ſhall be granted him; and if he offer to aver, that the ſheriff might have returned greater iſſues, he ſhall have a writ judicial unto the juſtices aſſigned to take aſſizes, that they inquire in preſence of the ſheriff, (if he will be there) of how great iſſues the ſheriff might have made return, from the day of the writ purchaſed unto the day contained in the writ; and when the inqueſt is returned, if he have not afore anſwered for the whole, he ſhall be charged with the overplus by eſtreats of the juſtices, and ſhall be grievouſly amerced. And rents, corn in the grange, and all moveables (except horſe, harneſs, and houſehold ſtuff) are contained within the name of iſſues; and the ſheriffs ſhall be puniſhed by the juſtices for ſuch falſe returns, and if they offend the third time, none ſhall have to do therewith but the king. Alſo falſe anſwers, that they could not execute the king's precept for the reſiſtance of ſome great men, redound much to the diſhonour of the king; and as ſoon as the bailiffs teſtify that they found ſuch reſiſtance, forthwith all things ſet apart (taking the power of the ſhire) the ſheriff ſhall go in perſon to do execution; and if he find his under-bailiffs falſe, he ſhall puniſh them by impriſonment; and if he find them true, he ſhall puniſh the reſiſters by impriſonment, from whence they ſhall not be delivered without the king's ſpecial command. And if the ſheriff find reſiſtance, he ſhall certify to the court the names of the reſiſters, aiders, conſenters, commanders, and favourers; and by a writ judicial, they ſhall be attached by their bodies to appear at the king's court, and if they be convict of ſuch reſiſtance, they ſhall be puniſhed at the king's pleaſure; neither ſhall any officer of the king's meddle in aſſigning the puniſhment, for the king hath reſerved it ſpecially to himſelf.

Stat. de finib. 27 Edw. 1. ſtat. 1. c. 2. Sheriffs ſhall not be charged of any iſſues, nor ſhall levy any, before they paſs out of the exchequer by the eſtreats of the juſtices. And every head ſhall be charged for iſſues forfeited like as of amercements; and if any ſheriff will anſwer for the iſſues of any recogniſor, pledge, or mainpernor, by him returned, which is not able to pay ſuch iſſues or amercements, the ſheriff ſhall be charged in the exchequer. And let the ſheriffs, under pain of great forfeiture, make tallies of all ſuch money as they or their officers have received; and not return the names of any mainpernors, or ſureties, jurors, or other, but according to the tenor of the writs; and they ſhall not return the names of any freemen as pledges, without they conſent. And every year one baron and one clerk of the exchequer ſhall be ſent throughout every ſhire of England, to enrol the names of all ſuch as have paid that year debts exacted of them by green wax; and the ſame baron and clerk ſhall view all ſuch tallies, and enrol them; and ſhall hear and determine complaints made againſt ſheriffs and their clerks and bailiffs, that have done contrary to the premiſes; and the offenders ſhall be grievouſly puniſhed.

Artic. ſuper chart. 28 Edw. 1. c. 8. The people ſhall have election of their ſheriff in every ſhire where the ſhrievality is not of fee, if they liſt.

Artic. ſuper chart. 28 Edw. 1. c. 13. The commons ſhall chuſe ſheriffs that ſhall not charge them, and that ſhall not put any officer in authority for rewards or bribes, and that ſhall not lodge too oft in one place, nor with poor perſons, or men of religion.

By 9 Edw. 2. ſtat. 2. confirmed by 4 Edw. 3. c. 9. Sheriffs ſhall be aſſigned by the chancellor, treaſurer, barons of the exchequer, and by the juſtices, and in the abſence of the chancellor, by the treaſurer, barons, and juſtices; and none ſhall be ſheriff, except he have ſufficient land within the ſhire to anſwer the king and his people; and none that is ſteward or bailiff to a great lord ſhall be made ſheriff. And hundreds, whether they belong to the king, or to other, ſhall be kept by able perſons that have ſufficient lands within the ſhire where the hundred is; and ſuch hundreds ſhall be leaſed to perſons ſufficient, that need not to uſe extortion upon the people. And no ſheriff or hundredor ſhall leaſe his office in farm: and the execution of writs ſhall be done by hundredors ſworn and known, if it be not the open default of the hundredors, and then execution ſhall be done by perſons more convenient being ſworn, ſaving the returns of writs.

By 14 Edw. 2. c. 1. Of ſheriffs and other miniſters which gather the debts of the king, and make tallies and other acquittances to the debtors, yet do not acquit them in the exchequer, and of the ſame are impleaded in the exchequer, and by favour are put to little iſſues, which they will rather loſe than come to anſwer; the ſheriff, &c. when he is impleaded in the exchequer, and the great diſtreſs returned againſt him, and he cometh not to anſwer, there ſhall go forth another writ of diſtreſs, in which ſhall be commanded that proclamation be made in the full county, that the defendant come at ſuch a day and acquit the debtor of the ſum for the which he made the talley or acquittance; at which day, if the defendant come not, and the writ be returned, and proclamation certified, he ſhall be holden for convict, and the debt levied of him, and damages awarded to the plaintiff, according to the diſcretion of the barons. And this ſtatute ſhall extend as well to thoſe which have been ſheriffs and other miniſters, that let to leaſe their bailiwicks, as to the ſheriffs and other miniſters which hold their bailiwicks themſelves. And by this ſtatute no man ſhall be forbidden, but that he may complain of ſheriffs and other miniſters when they be found in the exchequer, and that they ſhall anſwer there as hath been uſed.

By Stat. 1 Edw. 3. ſt. 2. c. 4. The treaſurer and barons might attermine the king's debts, to 300 l. and the ſheriffs ſhould not be charged with any ſum, if they charged themſelves with ſo much as they could levy without abaſe- ment of the countenance of the debtor; but this ſeems to have reſpected only the debts then due, and if it did reſpect future debts, it muſt be ſuperſeded by 33 Hen. 8. c. 39. which ſee in general title DEBT TO AND FROM THE KING, and other acts made ſince.

By 2 Edw. 3. c. 4. Sheriffs and bailiffs of fee ſhall cauſe their counties and bailiwicks to be kept by ſuch as have lands therein.

By 5 Edw. 3. c. 4. No ſheriff, under-eſcheator, bailiff of franchiſe, wapentake, hundred, nor tithing, ſhall be, except he have lands ſufficient in the county, whereof to anſwer the king and his people.

By 14 Edw. 3. c. 7. confirmed by 23 Hen. 6. c. 7. No ſheriff ſhall tarry in his bailiwick over a year, and then another to be ordained in his place, that hath land ſufficient in his bailiwick, by the chancellor, treaſurer, and chief baron, taking to them the chief juſtices, if they be preſent; and that ſhall be done yearly (on the morrow of St. Martin, by 24 Geo. 2. c. 48. ſ. 12.) at the exchequer.

By 14 Edw. 3 c. 9. All the wapentakes and hundreds, which be ſevered from the counties, ſhall be rejoined to the counties; and the ſheriffs ſhall hold the ſame in their own hands, and put in ſuch bailiffs and hundredors, having lands within the bailiwicks and hundreds, for whom they will anſwer: and if they will let any hundreds, bailiwicks, or wapentakes, to farm, they ſhall let the ſame at the ancient farm, ouſting for ever the outriders and other which have notoriouſly deſtroyed the people. And no bailiff errant ſhall be put in the counties, unleſs where bailiffs errants have been in times paſt; and no more than one bailiff errant in one county. And all others which have been bailiffs of hundreds in fee, if they will hold the ſame in their own hands, they ſhall put in ſuch bailiffs for whom they will anſwer; and if they will let the ſame to farm, they ſhall let the ſame at the ancient farm. And the juſtices of the one bench and the other, the barons of the exchequer, and the juſtices aſſigned, ſhall have power to inquire of all that offend againſt this ordinance, when they come into the country; and if the ſheriffs or their farmers be found in default, and thereof be attainted, the hundreds and wapentakes where ſuch defaults ſhall be found, ſhall be taken into the king's hands, and let to other by the juſtices, and the offenders commanded to priſon till they have made fine and ranſom to the king; and nevertheleſs they ſhall anſwer to the king of the whole farm: and lords which hold hundreds or wapentakes in fee, ſhall ſet ſuch bailiffs which be ſufficient to anſwer the king and his people; and if their bailiffs do againſt this ordinance, they ſhall anſwer; and if they be attainted, ſhall have ſuch puniſhment as the law requireth, and they ſhall be out of their bailiwicks for ever, and other ſufficient put in their places by the ſame lords.

By 28 Edw. 3. c. 7. The ſheriffs ſhall be removed every year, ſo that no ſheriff that hath been in his office a year ſhall abide in the ſame office the next year.

By 28 Edw. 3. c. 9. No commiſſions or general writs ſhall be granted to ſheriffs, at their own ſuit, for their ſingular profit to gain of the people, to indict the people, and take fine and ranſom of them to their own uſe, and deliver them without ſuch perſons indicted being brought before the king's juſtices to have their deliverance.

By 42 Edw. 3. c. 9. confirmed by 23 Hen. 6. c. 7. No ſheriff, under ſheriff, nor ſheriff's clerk, ſhall abide in his office above one year.

By 1 Ric. 2. c. 11. confirmed by 23 Hen. 6. c. 7. None that hath been ſheriff of any county a year, ſhall be within two years next choſen again, or put in the ſame office, if there be other ſufficient.

By 1 Hen. 4. c. 11. Whereas the commons have ſhewed, that the ſheriffs be charged with the ancient farm of the counties, whereas parcel of the profits be given to other, the ſheriffs ſhall have allowance by their oath, of the iſſues of the counties: and if any ſheriff do extortion, and be thereof attainted, he ſhall be puniſhed at the king's will.

By 4 Hen. 4. c. 5. Every ſheriff ſhall abide in perſon within his bailiwick, and ſhall not let the bailiwick to farm, and ſhall be ſworn to do the ſame in ſpecial, amongſt other articles compriſed in the oath of the ſheriff.

By 1 Hen. 5. c. 4. They that be bailiffs of ſheriffs one year, ſhall be in no ſuch office by three years next following, except bailiffs of ſheriffs which inherit in their office. And no under ſheriff, ſheriff's clerk, receiver, nor ſheriff's bailiff, ſhall be attorney in any of the king's courts, during the time that he is in office.

By 4 Hen. 5. c. 2. Sheriffs ſhall have allowance upon their accounts, by their oaths, of things caſual that run not in farm, nor in demand; but of all ſuch things that run in yearly farms or yearly demands they ſhall be charged as in times paſt.

By 23 Hen. 6. c. 7. The ſtatute 14 Edw. 3. c. 7. 42 Edw. 3. c. 9. and 1 Ric. 2. c. 11. ſhall be obſerved in every county, the under ſheriffs and other officers within the city of London excepted; and ſuch counties, except in which divers be inheritable to the office of ſheriff, and alſo ſuch perſons which have eſtate of freehold in the office of ſheriff. And if any ſheriff, or under ſheriff, or ſheriff's clerk, occupy the office contrary to the ſtatutes before recited, he ſhall forfeit 200 l. yearly as long as he occupieth contrary to the ſaid ſtatutes; and every pardon for ſuch offence ſhall be void; and all patents of the ſaid offices for term of years, for life, or fee, ſhall be void; and whoſoever ſhall occupy the office of ſheriff by virtue of ſuch patents to be made for term of years, for life or fee, ſhall ſtand diſabled to bear the office of ſheriff by the ſame authority; and every liege man, which will ſue for the ſaid ſum forfeit, ſhall be received; the king to have the one half of all that ſhall be recovered, and he that purſueth to have the other half.

By 23 Hen. 6. cap. 9. No ſheriff ſhall let to farm his county, nor any of his bailiwicks, hundreds or wapentakes; nor ſhall the ſheriffs, under-ſheriffs, bailiffs of franchiſes, or other bailiff, return upon any writ or precept in any panel thereupon any bailiffs, officers, or ſervants to any of the officers aforeſaid; nor ſhall any of the officers aforeſaid by occaſion of their office take any thing of any perſon by them arreſted or attached, nor of any other, for the ſparing of any arreſt or attachment to be made by their body, nor of any perſon arreſted or attached, for fine, fee, ſuit of priſon, letting bail, or ſhewing any eaſe or favour, except as followeth, viz. for the ſheriff 20*d.* the bailiff which maketh the arreſt or attachment 4*d.* and the gaoler, if the priſoner be committed, 4*d.* and the ſheriff, under-ſheriff, ſheriff's clerk, ſteward or bailiff of franchiſe, nor coroner, ſhall take any thing by colour of his office, for the making of any return or panel, and for the copy of a panel, 4*d.* And the ſheriffs and other officers and miniſters aforeſaid, ſhall let out of priſon all perſons in their cuſtody by force of any writ, bill, or warrant, in any action perſonal, or by cauſe of indictment of treſpaſs, upon reaſonable ſurety of perſons having ſufficient within the counties, to keep their days; perſons in ward by redemption, execution, capias utlagatum or excommunicatum, ſurety of the peace, and all perſons commit by ſpecial commandment of any juſtices except. And no ſheriff, nor his officers, ſhall take any obligation for for any cauſe aforeſaid, or by colour of their office, but only to themſelves, of any perſon, nor by any perſon, which ſhall be in their ward by courſe of law, but upon the name of their office, and upon condition that the ſaid priſoners ſhall appear at the day contained in the writs, bill, or warrant; and if any ſheriffs or officers aforeſaid, take any obligation in other form by colour of their offices, it ſhall be void; and he ſhall take no more for the making of ſuch obligation, warrant, or precept, but 4*d*. And every of the ſaid ſheriffs ſhall make yearly a deputy in the courts of chancery, king's bench, common pleas, and exchequer, of record, before they return any writs, to receive all writs and warrants; and all ſheriffs, bailiffs, gaolers, coroners, or other officers, which do contrary to this ordinance, ſhall loſe to the party grieved his treble damages, and ſhall forfeit 40*l*. whereof the king ſhall have the one half to be employed to the uſe of his houſe, and the party that will ſue the other half. And the juſtices of aſſize, juſtices of the one bench and of the other, and juſtices of peace, ſhall have power to inquire, hear and determine of office without ſpecial commiſſion, of all that do contrary to theſe ordinances. And if the ſheriffs return upon any perſon cepi corpus, or reddidit ſe, they ſhall be chargeable to have the bodies at the days of the returns as before this act. ſ. 1.

Provided that the warden of the gaol of the Fleet, and of the palace at Weſtminſter, ſhall not be damaged by this ordinance. ſ. 2. See ſtat. 1 Edw. 4. cap. 2. in Juſtices of Peace.

By 12 Edw. 4. c. 1. If any ſheriff execute or return any writ or warrant within Michaelmas term, after the ſixth of November, and before any writ of diſcharge delivered to him, he ſhall not be damnified by the ſtatute 23 Hen. 6. cap. 7. although he hath occupied the office before the days of return craſtino Martini, octabis Martini, or quinden. Martini.

By 17 Edw. 4. c. 7. Every old ſheriff ſhall have power, as well to execute and return every writ or warrant, as to execute every other thing which to his office pertaineth, during the terms of St. Michael and St. Hilary, unleſs he be lawfully diſcharged.

By 11 Hen. 7. c. 15. No ſheriffs, under-ſheriffs, nor ſhire clerks, ſhall enter any plaints in any man's name, unleſs the plaintiff be in perſon preſent, or by attorney known to be of good name, and find pledges to purſue his plaint perſons known in that county: and the plaintiff ſhall have but one plaint for one treſpaſs or contract: and if the ſheriffs, &c. take more plaints, than the plaintiff ſuppoſed that he hath cauſe of action, the ſheriffs, &c. ſhall forfeit 40*s*. one half to the king, and the other part to him that will ſue by action of debt or information in the exchequer; and the juſtices of peace ſhall have authority, upon complaint made by the party grieved, to examine the ſheriffs, &c. and if the juſtices of peace, or one of them, find default in the ſheriffs, &c. in entering of plaints deceitfully for their advantage, contrary to this act, the ſheriffs, &c. ſhall be convict and attaint of the offence, and ſhall forfeit 40*s*. to the king; and the juſtices that ſhall take the examination ſhall certify the ſame within a quarter of a year into the exchequer, upon pain of 40*s*. And the ſaid ſheriffs, under-ſheriffs, and ſhire-clerks, ſhall make a precept to the bailiff of the hundred to attach or ſummon the defendants ſo in ſuit, to appear and anſwer to the plaints; and if there be any default in the bailiffs of the hundreds in warning of the defendants, or in executing their office, they ſhall forfeit unto the king 40*s*. and be attaint and convict thereof, by like examination of the juſtices of peace. And the ſheriffs, under-ſheriffs, ſhire-clerks, and their deputies, ſhall make none eſtreats to levy the ſhires americaments, until two juſtices of peace (one of the quorum) have had the view of their books; and eſtreats ſhall be indented betwixt the juſtices of peace and the ſheriffs, and ſealed with their ſeals, one part to remain with the juſtices, and the other with the ſheriffs; and thoſe that ſhall be gatherers of the amerciaments ſhall be ſworn by the juſtices, that they take no more money than is contained in the eſtreats ſealed with the ſeals of the juſtices of peace, upon the ſame forfeitures as before, the gatherers to be convict by examination of the juſtices of peace, or one of them. Provided that the ſaid juſtices of peace be named at the general ſeſſions after the feaſt of St. Michael, by the cuſtos rotulorum, or by the eldeſt of the quorum in his abſence, to have the overſight of the ſheriffs, under-ſheriffs, ſhire-clerks, and other officers, and of the ſheriffs amerciaments; and the juſtices upon information of the party grieved ſhall make like proceſs as in action of treſpaſs againſt the ſheriffs, &c.

By 6 Hen. 8. c. 18. The under-ſheriffs, and other officers of ſheriffs of Briſtol, may occupy their offices from year to year, as the under-ſheriffs, and other officers of ſheriffs of London may do, notwithſtanding the acts 42 Edw. 3. cap. 9. and 23 Hen. 6. cap. 7. ſ. 3.

By 34 & 35 Hen. 8. c. 16. Every ſheriff accountable in the exchequer ſhall at his day of prefixion, after he is ſworn to account of the profit of his office, be ſworn by himſelf, or his attorney, to deliver into the ſaid court rolls of parchment, containing all ſums of money, which he hath levied, or might have levied to his knowledge, as a part of the ancient farms, and the other farms; and after the rolls ſo delivered, and the ſums of money in them contained caſt and rated before the lord treaſurer, chamberlains, chancellor, and barons, or before the barons in the abſence of the lord treaſurer, &c. the lord treaſurer, &c. or the barons, ſhall have power to make allowance in court of ſo much as the ſaid farms ſhall be more than the particulars contained in the rolls; and for ſaving of the king's ancient rights anſwerable in the exchequer, the lord treaſurer, chamberlains, chancellor, and barons, or the barons in the abſence of the treaſurer, &c. ſhall award proceſs, and uſe means by commiſſion, or otherwiſe, that the king may be be truly anſwered. ſ. 3.

The ſheriffs ſhewing a bill ſubſcribed with the hands of the juſtices preſent at the aſſizes and ſeſſions, making mention of the days that the ſaid juſtices did abide in the county, at the coſts of the ſheriffs, ſhall have allowance as well thereof as for other reaſonable coſts, upon their accounts in the exchequer, by the diſcretion of the lord treaſurer, chamberlains, chancellor, and barons, and in the abſence of the lord treaſurer, &c. by the barons; ſo that all the allowances for the coſts aboveſaid to all the ſheriffs do not amount in one year above 342*l*. 6*s*. 8*d*. This act to continue to the end of the next parliament. ſ. 5. Altered and continued 2 Edw. 6. cap. 4.

By 2 & 3 Edw. 6. c. 4. The act 34 Hen. 8. c. 16. ſhall be void, other than hereafter in this act ſhall be ſpecified. ſ. 2.

The ſheriffs ſhall have like tallies of reward, and other allowances, as they had before the making of the ſaid act, or elſe to be at their election to account according to the ſaid act; and they that ſo ſhall account and take no tally of reward, ſhall be intreated in the exchequer as though the ſaid act ſhould continue. ſ. 3

The ſame tallies of reward ſhall be ſtriken at the receipt of the exchequer, as have been accuſtomed. ſ. 4.

The ſame tallies ſhall be delivered unto the ſhiriffs without preſt or other charge. ſ. 5.

This act ſhall be a ſufficient warrant to the treaſurer and other officers, for ſtriking and delivery of the ſaid tallies. ſ. 6.

All ſheriffs within thoſe ſhires, where no tallies of reward have been, and ſuch ſheriffs as ſhall take no tally of reward, ſhall in conſideration of their coſts, as well by the diets of the juſtices of aſſize as by any other means, have upon the end of their account ſuch allowances, upon petition in a bill to be brought in by the ſheriff, of their coſts, upon which bills the ſame ſheriffs to be ſworn in perſon, or by their under-ſheriffs, or attorney, without warrant or tally. ſ. 7.

All ſheriffs which ſhall take no tally of reward, ſhall be diſcharged upon their accounts of all ſuch farms, goods, profits, caſualties, and ſums of money, as they cannot levy. ſ. 8.

All ſheriffs which ſhall take no tally of reward, ſhall in like manner be diſcharged of all ſuch farms and ſums of money aforeſaid; except only of the vicontels of their ſhires, wherewith they ſhall be charged as they were before the former act. And alſo the ſheriffs of every ſhire ſhall have allowance in their accounts, of all ſuch ſums of money as they ſhall make true petition of, for ſuch poſſeſſions and hereditaments as become unto the king's hands, out of which any part of the vicontels were heretofore levied; and that without any other warrant. ſ. 9.

Provided that every ſheriff at his day of prefixion, immediately after that he or his attorney is ſworn to account, ſhall by himſelf, or by his attorney, be ſworn, when he ſhall anſwer before the lord treaſurer, &c. to bring into the ſaid court rolls of parchment, containing all ſums of money which he hath levied, or might have levied to his knowledge, as well of the farms called vicontels as of all other farms charged to the ſaid ſheriffs: and after the ſame rolls ſo delivered, and the particular ſums caſt and rated, the ſaid lord treaſurer, &c. ſhall have power for the levying of ſuch parcels belonging to the ſaid farms, omitted out of the ſaid rolls, and for ſaving of other the king's ancient rights, to award proceſs, and uſe means, by commiſſion or otherwiſe. ſ. 10.

The ſaid treaſurer, &c. ſhall have power to give and allow unto all ſuch commiſſioners as they ſhall aſſign, their reaſonable coſts. ſ. 11.

By 1 Mar. ſt. 2. c. 8. No perſon having the office of ſheriff of any county ſhall exerciſe the office of juſtice of peace in any county where he ſhall be ſheriff, during the time that he ſhall uſe the office of ſheriff. ſ. 2.

By 8 Eliz. c. 16. made perpetual by 13 Eliz. c. 22. except for Surrey and Suſſex. Whereas the counties of Surrey and Suſſex, Eſſex and Hertford, Somerſet and Dorſet, Warwick and Leiceſter, Nottingham and Derby, Oxon and Berkſhire, have had but one ſheriff to ſerve for two counties. ſ. 1.

The queen ſhall yearly make for every of the ſaid counties, one ſheriff, in like manner as for any other county. ſ. 2.

The barons of the exchequer ſhall have power to ſever the profers of the ſaid counties; which ſeverance of the profers ſhall be entered of record, and ſhall be final and perpetual. ſ. 3.

In ſuch manner as the profers ſhall be divided, the tally of reward of the aforeſaid counties, where any tally of reward ſhall be taken, ſhall be ſevered. ſ. 4.

The barons of the exchequer ſhall have power from time to time to take order for the payment of ſuch creation money, fees, annuities, and other ſums of money, as ought to be paid by the hands of the ſaid ſheriffs; and ſuch order ſhall be obſerved yearly. ſ. 5.

No ſheriff of any of the ſaid counties ſhall pay in any court of record, for any duty belonging properly to the office of ſheriff, any other than one half of the fees, which he ſhould be compelled to have paid, if he had been ſheriff of two of the ſaid ſhires. ſ. 6.

By 27 Eliz. c. 12. Every under-ſheriff in any ſhire, before he intermeddle with the office, ſhall take an oath before the juſtices of aſſize or the cuſtos rotulorum, or two juſtices of peace (one of the quorum), for the ſupremacy, and an oath, as followeth, viz. I. A. B. ſhall not uſe or exerciſe the office of under-ſheriff corruptly, during the time that I ſhall remain therein, neither ſhall or will accept, receive, or take, by any colour, means or device whatſoever, or conſent to the taking of any manner of fee or reward of any perſon or perſons, for the impanelling or returning of any inqueſt, jury, or tales, in any court of record, for the queen, or betwixt party and party, above 2s. or the value thereof, or ſuch fees as are allowed and appointed for the ſame by the laws and ſtatutes of this realm; but will according to my power truly and indifferently with convenient ſpeed impanel all jurors, and return all ſuch writ or writs touching the ſame, as ſhall appertain to be done by my duty of office, during the time that I ſhall remain in the ſaid office. ſ. 2.

So help me GOD.

Every bailiff of franchiſe, deputy and clerk of every ſheriff and under-ſheriff, and every other perſon which ſhall impanel or return any inqueſt, jury, or tales, or intermeddle with execution of proceſs, in any court of record, ſhall take the oaths aforeſaid before the perſons appointed by this act, or before the head officer of the place, if it be a town corporate, changing the words the office of under-ſheriff to words convenient for the office; and if any the ſaid perſons do impanel or return any inqueſt, jury, or tales, or intermeddle with the execution of proceſs, not having taken the oaths aforeſaid, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 40*l.* the one moiety to the uſe of the queen, the other moiety to him that will ſue for the ſame. ſ. 4.

If any under ſheriff, or other perſon mentioned in this act, ſhall do any act contrary to the oaths aforeſaid, or this act, ſuch perſon offending ſhall forfeit to the party grieved his treble damages; which forfeiture may be recovered in any of the queen's courts of record. ſ. 5.

The juſtices of aſſize, and juſtices of peace in their ſeſſions, ſhall have power to hear and determine the defaults contrary to this act, as well by preſentment and information as indictment. ſ. 6.

By 28 or 29 Eliz. c. 4. It ſhall not be lawful for any ſheriff, under ſheriff, bailiff of liberties, their officers, ſervants, or deputies, by colour of their offices, to take for the ſerving of any extent or execution upon the body, lands, or goods, of any perſon, more than in this act is appointed, viz. 12*d.* for every 20*s.* where the ſum exceedeth not 100*l.* and 6*d.* for every 20*s.* above 100*l.* that he ſhall levy and deliver in execution, or take the body in execution for; upon pain that every ſheriff, &c. which ſhall do the contrary, ſhall forfeit to the party grieved his treble damage, and ſhall forfeit 40*l.* the one moiety thereof to the queen, and the other moiety to the party that will ſue for the ſame. ſ. 1.

This act ſhall not extend to any fees to be taken for any execution within any city or town corporate. ſ. 2.

By 21 Jac. 1. c. 5. When ſheriffs, upon the paſſing of their accounts, ſhall have their quietus eſt, they ſhall be diſcharged of all money received and pretended not to be accounted for, unleſs they be called in queſtion within four years after the time of their account and quietus eſt. And every officer that ſhall ſend out proceſs, or by whoſe default proceſs ſhall be ſent out, contrary to this act, ſhall forfeit to the party grieved, 40*l.* with coſts, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. in the king's bench or common pleas. ſ. 1.

Every ſuch offender, being three times convicted upon the trial of ſuch action, &c. ſhall be diſabled to continue in any office in the court of exchequer, or in any other court of juſtice. ſ. 2.

By 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 21. No ſheriff for any county ſhall in the time of the aſſizes keep tables for entertainment of any perſons, other than thoſe of his own family or retinue, nor ſhall ſend in any preſent to any judges of aſſize for their proviſion, nor give any gratuity to their officers or ſervants; and no ſheriff ſhall have more than forty men ſervants with liveries attending upon him in the time of the aſſizes, nor under twenty men ſervants in England, nor under twelve men ſervants in Wales, upon pain to forfeit 200*l.* ſ. 1.

Nothing before in this act ſhall extend unto the ſheriffs of London and Middleſex, and the ſheriff of Weſtmorland, or the ſheriffs of any city or town. ſ. 2.

Every ſeizure concerning any lands charged in the foreign account of any ſheriff within England, ſhall be from the ſaid foreign account charged particularly in the great roll of the exchequer: and the remembrancers ſhall make copies of every ſuch ſeizure and inquiſition as ſhall be certified into their reſpective offices, without certifying the copy of the writ or commiſſion at large, mentioning only the date of the writ or commiſſion, and ſhall deliver the ſaid copies atteſted to the engroſſer of the great roll; and all ſuch ſeizures ſhall be delivered ſo atteſted to the ſaid engroſſer before the firſt day of the next term, after the remembrancers ſhall have received the ſame; unto which remembrancers ſhall be paid for every ſheet which they ſhall ſo write and deliver 8*d.* by the ſheriffs, who ſhall be allowed the ſame by the barons upon their accounts, out of the iſſues and profits of the premiſes ſo ſeized: and no ſheriff within England ſhall be charged in account to anſwer any illeviable ſeizure, farm, rent, or debt, or other thing which was not writ in proceſs to him to be levied; wherein the perſons of whom, or the lands out of which, together with the cauſe for which the ſame ſhall be levied, ſhall be particularly expreſſed, but ſhall be therefore diſcharged without petition, plea, or other trouble. ſ. 4.

All ſeizures made before the firſt year of king James, and all ſeizures and debts which are pardoned, ſhall be diſcharged, and the ſame ſhall be left out of ſheriffs accounts; and no proceſs ſhall be written forth to any ſheriff for the levying of the ſame, nor for any other rent or farm, which cannot be explained by ſetting forth the particulars thereof, or which have been unanſwered by the ſpace of forty years laſt; and all other dead farms and ſeizures, and all deſperate, illeviable and unintelligible debts ſhall be removed out of the annual roll and ſheriffs charge into the exannual roll, until by commiſſion they ſhall be revived and made anſwerable. ſ. 5.

The remembrancers ſhall inrol and certify to the ingroſſer of the great roll, all ſuch debts as any ſheriffs ſhall be charged with, either by virtue of their returns made to the barons of the exchequer upon writs of fieri facias, levari facias, capias, or other proceſs, and alſo all fines and amerciaments which ſhall be ſet by the exchequer upon any ſheriff, for contempts or neglects; and all ſuch debts, fines, and amerciaments ſhall be delivered by the firſt day of the next term after ſuch returns made, or fines, or amerciaments ſet, that they may be all charged in the ſheriffs accounts, and comprehended within their quietus eſt, upon pain that every officer in the exchequer, who ſhall offend contrary to this act, ſhall forfeit 40*l.* one moiety to the king, and the other moiety to the party grieved, to be recovered in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 6.

No perſon ſhall be aſſigned ſheriff of any county, except ſuch as have lands within the county ſufficient to anſwer the king and his people. ſ. 7.

When any ſheriffs, upon paſſing their accounts, ſhall have their quietus eſt, ſuch ſheriffs ſhall be thereby diſcharged of all ſums of money, notwithſtanding any pretence that the ſame were not accounted for, unleſs ſuch ſheriff ſhall be called in queſtion, and judgment be given againſt him, within four years after ſuch account or quietus eſt. ſ. 8.

This act ſhall not extend to the counties of Cheſter, Lancaſter, Durham, or the counties of Wales, being county palatines, as to their manner of accounting, but the ſheriffs ſhall account as formerly before the reſpective auditors. ſ. 9.

This act ſhall not enjoin his majeſty's remembrancer, or the lord treaſurer's remembrancer, to tranſcribe and deliver to the engroſſer of the great roll any inquiſitions or ſeizures, but ſuch as have been formerly charged in the foreign accounts of the ſheriffs; but inquiſitions upon attainders, or other forfeitures to the crown, ſhall be put in charge according to the uſage and decree of the court; nor ſhall this act exclude his majeſty's remembrancer from writing forth proceſs upon any his majeſty's debts, duties, outlawries, or other charge or proceſs of levari facias, at the proſecution of any perſon, to levy the iſſues and profits of lands ſeized into the king's hands, or proceſs of venditioni exponas for goods ſeized upon any debt to his majeſty, or upon any outlawry, or to alter the proceedings in the ſaid office upon any pleadings touching the ſaid debts and ſeizures: and no debt, fine, amercement, or ſeizure, which ſhall be charged in the great roll of the pipe from any record or proceeding in the office of his majeſty's remembrancer, nor any proceeding thereupon, ſhall be reſpited or diſcharged, but by order, warrant, or judgment, entered in the office of his majeſty's remembrancer: and in caſe any proceſs of ſummons of the pipe ſhall be awarded upon any ſuch debt, &c. and the ſame ſhall not be levied or anſwered to his majeſty, the clerk of the pipe, or engroſſer of the great roll, ſhall the next term after the return of ſuch ſummons certify the ſame in a ſchedule into the office of his majeſty's remembrancer, that further proceſs may be written forth for the levying thereof: and this act ſhall not be prejudicial to his majeſty's remembrancer in any juſt fees. ſ. 10.

By 3 Geo. 1. c. 15. The officers of the chancery and exchequer, the auditors and receivers of the crown revenue in Wales, and all other officers claiming any fee from ſheriffs or under ſheriffs, for making out their patents, or the dedimus for ſwearing them, and for entering their recognizance, or for writing out and return of their proceſs, or for their appoſals, or caſting out of court, or for paſſing their accounts, or for making their quietus, or for any other matter, may take the fees in the ſchedule hereafter ſpecified, but ſhall not take any greater fees, on penalty of 5*l.* and treble the ſum taken, with treble coſts to the party grieved, all which ſhall be awarded by the court of exchequer, on complaint and proof thereof before the barons in ſuch ſummary way as ſhall ſeem meet. ſ. 1.

The commiſſioners of the treaſury, the chancellor and chief chief baron of the exchequer, and the other barons, or any two of them, ſhall at the requeſt of any ſheriff, or as often as they ſhall think fit, call before them the treaſurer's remembrancer, the clerk of the pipe, or their deputies, ſecondaries, and ſuch other officers as they ſhall think fit, and cauſe them to bring an account of all the rents and certainties written out yearly in proceſſes to the ſheriffs to levy for the crown; and may alter or eſtabliſh the ſums wherewith the ſheriff ſtands charged on the rolls of profers, to ſuch ſums as ſhall ſeem juſt; and orders ſhall be drawn up purſuant thereto, and entered on record in the offices of the king's remembrancer, the treaſurer's remembrancer, and the clerk of the pipe, before the laſt day of Michaelmas term then following; and the ſums ſo ſettled ſhall be the profers of each county, and the rolls of profers ſhall be made conformable thereto. ſ. 2.

All ſheriffs who ſhall levy any debts, &c. except poſt fines, due to his majeſty by proceſs upon the ſummons of the pipe or green wax, by levari facias out of the exchequer, ſhall have an allowance on their accounts of 12*d.* out of every 20*s.* for any ſum not exceeding 100*l.* and 6*d.* for every 20*s.* above the firſt 100*l.* and for all debts, &c. except poſt fines, due to his majeſty by proceſs and fieri facias, and extent, iſſuing out of the exchequer, 1*s.* 6*d.* out of every 20*s.* for any ſum not exceeding 100*l.* and 12*d.* for every 20*s.* over and above the firſt 100*l.* provided ſuch ſheriff ſhall anſwer the ſame on his account, by the general ſealing day of ſuch term in which he ought to be diſmiſſed the court, or in ſuch time to which he ſhall have a day granted to finiſh his accounts, by the chief baron, or one of the barons of the coif, and not otherwiſe. ſ. 3.

No ſheriff ſhall be obliged to charge in his accounts any money to be paid as rewards on the conviction of highwaymen, clippers, coiners, or houſebreakers, but may immediately apply for the ſame to the treaſury: who, on a certificate of the conviction of any offender, for which ſuch reward ſhall be ordered to be paid by the ſheriffs (by virtue of the acts 4 & 5 Will. & Mar. cap. 8. 6 & 7 Will. 3. cap. 17. and 5 Ann. cap. 31.) together with the acquittances of the parties intitled to receive the rewards, ſhall forthwith repay to ſuch ſheriffs the money ſo diſburſed without fee. ſ. 4.

No ſheriff or under ſheriff ſhall be attached for not being appoſed on any writ or proceſs, or for any neglect or contempt relating to his accounts, but by writ under ſeal of the court of exchequer, or by warrant ſigned by one of the barons, and to be executed by the marſhal, or his deputy; in which warrant the name of ſuch ſheriff or under ſheriff ſhall be inſerted, and his offence ſpecified. ſ. 5.

If any perſon, concerned in paſſing of ſheriffs accounts, ſhall retard any ſheriff, or by wilful neglect or abſence prevent any ſheriff from being appoſed or caſt out of court in due time, or after tender of his fees ſhall refuſe to inrol, ſign and deliver, his quietus in due time, he ſhall make ſuch recompence to the party grieved as ſhall be decreed by the barons, on complaint to them made, in ſuch ſummary way as they ſhall think fit. ſ. 6.

If any ſheriff of any county in England (except the counties palatine of Cheſter, Durham, and Lancaſter, and the ſeveral counties of Wales, which do not paſs their accounts before the clerk of the pipe) ſhall be in ſurpluſage on his account by reaſon of any diſburſements for the ſervice of the crown (other than the rewards of 40*l.* for the apprehending highwaymen, &c.) he ſhall not be obliged to take out a record of ſurpluſage, but may apply to the treaſury; who are required to pay the ſame, on the ſheriff's producing a certificate of ſuch ſurpluſage from the clerk of the pipe. ſ. 7.

If any ſheriff ſhall die before the expiration of his year, or before he be ſuperſeded, the under ſheriff ſhall nevertheleſs continue in his office, and execute the ſame in the name of the deceaſed, till another ſheriff be appointed and ſworn; and the under ſheriff ſhall be anſwerable for the execution of the office during ſuch interval as the high ſheriff would have been; and the ſecurity given by the under ſheriff and his pledges ſhall ſtand a ſecurity to the king and all perſons whatſoever, for the due performing of his office during ſuch interval. ſ. 8.

When any ſheriff ſhall by proceſs out of the exchequer extend any goods, &c. into the hands of his majeſty, &c. for any debts due to the crown, and ſhall die or be ſuperſeded before a venditioni exponas be awarded for ſale, or before he has made actual ſale thereof, and a writ ſhall afterwards be awarded to a ſubſequent ſheriff, who ſhall make ſale of ſuch goods, &c. the barons of the exchequer, if ſitting, or if not ſitting, they or any one of them of the degree of the coif, ſhall ſettle the fees or poundage for ſuch ſeizure and ſale between ſuch preceding and ſubſequent ſheriff, with regard to the trouble each ſheriff had in the execution of ſuch proceſs. ſ. 9.

It ſhall not be lawful for any perſon to buy, ſell, let, or take to farm, the office of under ſheriff or deputy ſheriff, ſeal keeper, county clerk, ſhire clerk, gaoler, bailiff, or any other office pertaining to the office of high ſheriff, or to contract for any of the ſaid offices, on forfeiture of 500*l.* one moiety to his majeſty, the other to ſuch as ſhall ſue in any court at Weſtminſter within two years after the offence. ſ. 10.

Nothing before in this act ſhall hinder any high ſheriff from conſtituting an under ſheriff, or a deputy ſheriff, as by law he may; nor to hinder the under ſheriff, in caſe of the high ſheriff's death, when he acts as high ſheriff, from conſtituting a deputy; nor to hinder ſuch ſheriff or under ſheriff from receiving the lawful fees of his office, or from taking ſecurity for the due anſwering the ſame; nor to hinder ſuch under ſheriff, deputy ſheriff, ſeal keeper, &c. from accounting to the high ſheriff for all ſuch lawful fees as ſhall be by them taken, nor for giving ſecurity ſo to do; nor to hinder the high ſheriff from allowing a ſalary to his under ſheriff, &c. or other officers. ſ. 11.

Beſides the penalties in 22 & 23 Car. 2. cap. 22. made perpetual by 4 & 5 Will. & Mar. cap. 24. [ſee ESTREATS] the barons of the exchequer may amerce ſuch clerk of aſſize, clerk of the peace, clerk of the commiſſioners of ſewers, clerk of the market, town clerk, and other perſons to whom it belongs to make return of eſtreats, for neglecting to return the eſtreats according to the ſaid two acts. ſ. 12.

No ſheriff, under ſheriff, bailiff, or other perſon employed in levying any debts, &c. due to the crown by proceſs of the exchequer, ſhall take any fee on pretence of ſuch levying, &c. except 4*d.* for an acquittance, which ſuch officer is to give to the perſon on whom ſuch debt, &c. is levied; and the bailiff, &c. receiving ſuch debt, &c. ſhall account for the ſame to the ſheriff, and may require an acquittance from ſuch ſheriff without fee; from which debts the ſheriffs ſhall diſcharge the debtors by totting and anſwering the ſame on their accounts in the exchequer: and if any ſheriff &c. ſhall nichil or not duly anſwer to the crown any debt ſo levied, he ſhall forfeit treble damages to the party grieved, and double the ſum; which ſhall be decreed to the party grieved by the court of exchequer, on complaint and proof of ſuch abuſe before the barons, in ſuch ſummary way as to them ſhall ſeem meet. And if any ſheriff, &c. ſhall demand any money from any perſon from whom any debt is payable to the crown by proceſs out of the exchequer, on pretence of executing the proceſs, or in reſpect of fees due for collecting the ſame; or if any of the officers aforeſaid ſhall demand any ſum for forbearing to levy any ſuch debts written out to them by the ſaid proceſs, every ſuch offender ſhall be adjudged guilty of extortion, injuſtice, and oppreſſion; and being thereof convicted, ſhall forfeit treble damages and coſts to the party grieved, and double the ſum extorted; to be decreed by the barons, on complaint and proof, in a ſummary way; provided ſuch conviction be within two years after the offence. ſ. 13.

Nothing in this act ſhall deprive any ſheriff of ſuch poundage or allowance as is hereby given, or of ſuch poundage or reward as may be given them by warrant from the treaſury, chancellor of the exchequer, or the barons, for any extraordinary ſervice to the crown. ſ. 14.

All orders of the barons for coſts, damages, and penalties, in any caſe in this act mentioned, in ſuch ſummary way, ſhall have the ſame effect as any other orders or decrees of the court. ſ. 15.

It ſhall not be lawful for any ſheriff, or other bailiffs, or for the bailiff of any liberty, by colour of their office, or by reaſon of their executing any writ of habere facias poſſeſſionem, or ſeiſinam, to receive any greater fee than 12*d.* for every 20*s.* of the yearly value of any lands, &c. whereof poſſeſſion or ſeiſin ſhall be given, where the whole exceeds not the yearly value of 100*l.* and 6*d.* for every 20*s.* per ann. above the yearly value of 100*l.* ſ. 16.

Poundage in no caſe ſhall be taken on executing any writ of capias ad ſatisfaciendum, or on charging any perſon in execution by virtue of ſuch writ, for any greater ſum than the real debt amounts to; which ſum the plaintiff is to mark on the back of the writ before it be delivered to the ſheriff; and if any ſheriff, &c. ſhall take greater fees, ſuch offender ſhall be adjudged guilty of extortion, injuſtice, and oppreſſion; and being convicted ſhall forfeit to the party grieved treble damages, and double the ſum extorted; to be decreed by the court out of which ſuch writ iſſued, on complaint and proof of ſuch extortion before the court, in ſuch ſummary way as to them ſhall meet; and every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit 200*l.* one moiety to the king, and the other to ſuch as ſhall ſue in any court at Weſtminſter; provided ſuch ſuit be commenced within two years after the offence. ſ. 17.

Inſtead of the oath uſually adminiſtered to ſheriffs, the following oath ſhall be taken by them, except the ſheriffs of Wales, and of the county palatine of Cheſter, viz. ſ. 18.

I A. B. do ſwear, that I will well and truly ſerve the king's majeſty in the office of ſheriff of the county of ——— and promote his majeſty's profit in all things that belong to my office, as far as I legally can or may; I will truly preſerve the king's rights, and all that belongeth to the crown; I will not aſſent to decreaſe, leſſen, or conceal, the king's rights, or the rights of his franchiſes, and whenſoever I ſhall have knowledge that the rights of the crown are concealed or withdrawn, be it in lands, rents, franchiſes, ſuits, or ſervices, or in any other matter or thing, I will do my utmoſt to make them be reſtored to the crown again; and if I may not do it myſelf, I will certify and inform the king thereof, or ſome of his judges; I will not reſpite or delay to levy the king's debts, for any gift, promiſe, reward, or favour, where I may raiſe the ſame without great grievance to the debtors; I will do right, as well to poor as to rich, in all things belonging to my office; I will do no wrong to any man for any gift, reward, or promiſe, nor for favour or hatred; I will diſturb no man's right, and will truly and faithfully acquit at the exchequer all thoſe of whom I ſhall receive any debts or duties belonging to the crown; I will take nothing whereby the king may loſe, or whereby his right may be diſturbed, injured, or delayed; I will truly return, and truly ſerve, all the king's writs, according to the beſt of my ſkill and knowledge; I will take no bailiffs into my ſervice but ſuch as I will anſwer for, and will cauſe each of them to take ſuch oaths as I do, in what belongeth to their buſineſs and occupation; I will truly ſet and return reaſonable and due iſſues of them that be within my bailiwick, according to their eſtate and circumſtances, and make due panels of perſons able and ſufficient, and not ſuſpected or procured, as is appointed by the ſtatutes of this realm; I have not ſold or let to farm, nor contracted for, nor have I granted or promiſed for reward or benefit, nor will I ſell, or let to farm, nor contract for, or grant for reward or benefit, by myſelf, or any other perſon for me, or for my uſe, directly or indirectly, my ſheriffwick, or any bailiwick thereof, or any office belonging thereunto, or the profits of the ſame, to any perſon or perſons whatſoever; I will truly and diligently execute the good laws and ſtatutes of this realm, and in all things well and truly behave myſelf in my office, for the honour of the king, and the good of his ſubjects, and diſcharge the ſame according to the beſt of my ſkill and power.

So help me GOD.

All under ſheriffs of any counties in South Britain, except the counties in Wales and county palatine of Cheſter, before they enter on their offices ſhall take the following oath, viz.

I A. B. do ſwear, that I will well and truly ſerve the king's majeſty in the office of under ſheriff of the county of ——— and promote his majeſty's profit in all things that belong to the ſaid office, as far as I legally can or may; I will preſerve the king's rights, and all that belongeth to the crown; I will not aſſent to decreaſe, leſſen, or conceal, the king's rights, or the rights of his franchiſes; and whenſoever I ſhall have knowledge that the rights of the crown are concealed or withdrawn, be it in lands, rents, franchiſes, ſuits, or ſervices, or in any other matter or thing, I will do my utmoſt to make them be reſtored to the crown again; and if I may not do it of myſelf, I will certify and inform ſome of his majeſty's judges thereof; I will not reſpite or delay to levy the king's debts for any gift, promiſe, reward, or favour, where I may raiſe the ſame without great grievance to the debtors; I will do right as well to poor as to rich in all things belonging to my office; I will do no wrong to any man for any gift, reward, or promiſe, nor for favour, or hatred; I will diſturb no man's right, and will truly and faithfully acquit at the exchequer all thoſe of whom I ſhall receive any debt, duties, or ſums of money, belonging to the crown; I will take nothing whereby the king may loſe, or whereby his right may be diſturbed, injured, or delayed; I will truly return, and truly ſerve all the king's writs, to the beſt of my ſkill and knowledge; I will truly ſet and return reaſonable and due iſſues of them that be within my bailiwick, according to their eſtates and circumſtances; and make due panels of perſons able and ſufficient, and not ſuſpected or procured, as is appointed by the ſtatutes of this realm; I have not bought, purchaſed, or taken to farm, or contracted for, nor have I promiſed or given any conſideration, nor will I buy, purchaſe, or take to farm, nor contract for, promiſe, or give any conſideration whatſoever, by myſelf, or any other perſon for me, or for my uſe, directly or indirectly, to any perſon or perſons whatſoever, for the office of under ſheriff of the county of ——— which I am now to enter upon and enjoy, nor for the profits of the ſame, nor for any bailiwick thereof, or any other place or office belonging thereunto; I have not ſold nor contracted for, or let to farm, nor have I granted or promiſed, for reward or benefit, by myſelf, or any other perſon for me, or for my uſe, directly or indirectly, any bailiwick thereof, or any other place or office belonging thereunto; I will truly and diligently execute the good laws and ſtatutes of this realm, and in all things well and truly behave myſelf in my ſaid office for his majeſty's advantage, and for the good of his ſubjects, and diſcharge my whole duty according to the beſt of my ſkill and power.

So help me GOD.

Which oath is to be adminiſtered by ſuch commiſſioners as ſhall be named to adminiſter the foregoing oath to the high ſheriff, as often as a commiſſion of dedimus ſhall be ſued forth for that purpoſe, or by the barons, or one of them, when the ſheriff deſires to be ſworn in town. ſ. 19.

The ſheriffs of Wales and Cheſter ſhall not be obliged to take the ſaid oaths, but ſhall take the accuſtomed oath as formerly, except the words following, viz. Ye ſhall be dwelling in your own proper perſon within your bailiwick, for the time ye ſhall continue in the ſame office, except ye be otherwiſe licenced by the king, which words ſhall be left out. ſ. 20.

This act ſhall not extend to the ſheriffs of London and Middleſex, the county palatine of Durham, the county of Weſtmorland, or to the ſheriffs of any city or town being a county of itſelf, as to their placing in or diſpoſing of any of the offices of their under ſheriffs, county clerks, bailiffs, or other officers, or their continuance therein. ſ. 21.

The ſheriffs of Wales ſhall not be compelled to appear to be appoſed in the exchequer, but ſhall be appoſed before his majeſty's auditor in Wales; and the quietus of the ſaid ſheriffs, under the auditor's hand, ſhall be a ſufficient diſcharge. ſ. 22.

The auditors of Cheſter, Lancaſter, and Durham, ſhall ſtate the accounts of the ſheriffs of the ſaid counties, and appoſe them touching the execution of the king's proceſs; and the ſaid ſheriffs, on ſuch accounts, may ſue forth their quietus eſt from the ſaid auditors, according to ancient uſage. ſ. 23.

The ſheriffs of the city of Cheſter ſhall account as formerly before the mayor, touching all matters granted from the crown to the city by charters. ſ. 24.

The ſheriffs of the city of Cheſter, as for all other matters not granted to the city, and for which the ſheriffs are accountable to his majeſty, ſhall account for the ſame before, and be appoſed by, and obtain their quietus eſt from the auditor of the county of Cheſter, in the ſame manner as the ſheriffs of the county of Cheſter. ſ. 25.
